

CHAPTER 136.

(H. B. No. 297)

REVENUE AND TAXATION.

AN ACT relating to revenue and taxation.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. That the county treasurer of each county shall carry forward to the current tax roll a memorandum of all delinquent taxes on each and every description of property, and enter the same opposite the property upon which the said taxes are delinquent, in a column provided for that purpose, showing the amounts for each year.

SEC. 2. The owner or owners of property against which there are delinquent taxes, shall have the right to pay the Current tax. current tax without paying any delinquent taxes there may be against said property: Provided however, That in issuing a receipt for such current tax the county treasurer shall endorse upon the face of such receipt a memorandum of all delinquent taxes against the property therein described, showing the year for which said tax is delinquent and the amount of delinquent tax for each and every year.

Passed the House February 28, 1905.

Passed the Senate March 9, 1905.

Approved by the Governor March 9, 1905.

CHAPTER 137.

(H. B. No. 135)

CREATING A PUBLIC HIGHWAY FUND.

AN ACT creating a fund to be known as the Public Highway Fund and making provisions for an annual levy to produce revenue therein for the construction and repairs of highways and bridges.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. There is hereby created a fund to be known as the Public Highway Fund.

SEC. 2. For the purpose of raising revenue to repair and construct highways and bridges, the proper State officers shall levy and collect a tax of one-fourth of one mill upon ^{¼ of 1 mill.} all the property in the State subject to taxation for the fiscal year commencing March 1, 1906, and for each fiscal year thereafter. That the funds provided by such levy shall be placed in said Public Highway Fund.

Passed the House February 15, 1905.

CHAPTER 138.

(H. B. No. 256)

TRANSPORTATION TO THEIR HOMES OF NON-RESIDENT INSANE PERSONS.

AN ACT to provide for the sending of non-resident insane persons to their places of residence at the expense of the State.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. Whenever any person shall be found by the superior court of any county to be insane, and a fit subject for custody and treatment in the hospital for the insane, and such person has no legal residence within this State, such person shall be sent at the expense of the State, to the place where such person belongs in every case where such place of residence can be ascertained. And it shall be the duty of the superior court at the time of the inquest to ascertain the place where such person belongs when the same can be conveniently done. The sheriff of the county shall convey such person to the place where he belongs, and shall charge the same fees for such services as he is now allowed by law for the transportation of patients to the hospital for the insane, which shall be paid out of the State treasury.

SEC. 2. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this ^{Repeal.} act are hereby repealed.

Passed the House February 28, 1905.

Passed the Senate March 9, 1905.

Approved by the Governor March 9, 1905.
