[S. B. 104.]

WRITS OF GARNISHMENT DIRECTED TO BANKS.

AN ACT relating to writs of garnishment issued out of justice courts; providing the manner of service when directed to banks or banking associations maintaining branch offices; and amending section 6 of chapter 160 of the Session Laws of 1909, being section 1828 of Remington's Revised Statutes.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. That section 6 of chapter 160 of the Session Laws of 1909, being section 1828 of Remington's Revised Statutes, be amended to read as follows:

Section 6. The writ of garnishment may be served by the sheriff or any constable of the county in which the garnishee lives, or it may be served by any citizen of the State of Washington over the age of twenty-one years and not a party to the action in which it is issued, in the same manner as a summons in an action is served: Provided, however, That where the writ is directed to a bank or banking association maintaining branch offices, as garnishee, the writ must be directed to and service thereof must be made by leaving a copy of the writ with the manager or any other officer of such bank or banking association at the office or branch thereof at which the account evidencing such indebtedness of the defendant is carried, or at the office or branch which has in its possession or under its control credits or other personal property belonging to the defendant. And in case such writ is served by an officer, such officer shall make his return thereon, showing the time, place and manner of service and noting thereon his fees for making such service, and shall sign his name to such return. In case such service is made by any person other than an officer, such person shall attach to the original writ his affidavit showing his qualifications to make such
