ESB 5215 Prime Sponsor, Senator Saling: Authorizing financial aid to needy students enrolled on at least a half-time basis. Reported by Committee on Higher Education

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 8, chapter 222, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 56, chapter 370, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28B.10.802 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in RCW 28B.10.800 through 28B.10.824:

(1) 'Institutions of higher education' shall mean (1) any public university, college, community college, or vocational-technical institute operated by the state of Washington or any political subdivision thereof or (2) any other university, college, school, or institute in the state of Washington offering instruction beyond the high school level which is a member institution of an accrediting association recognized by rule of the board for the purposes of this section: PROVIDED, That any institution, branch, extension or facility operating within the state of Washington which is affiliated with an institution operating in another state must be a separately accredited member institution of any such accrediting association: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no institution of higher education shall be eligible to participate in a student financial aid program unless it agrees to and complies with program rules and regulations adopted pursuant to RCW 28B.10.822.

(2) The term 'financial aid' shall mean loans and/or grants to needy students enrolled or accepted for enrollment as a ((full-time)) student at institutions of higher education.

(3) The term 'needy student' shall mean a post high school student of an institution of higher learning as defined in subsection (1) of this section who demonstrates to the board the financial inability, either through the student's parents, family and/or personally, to meet the total cost of board, room, books, and tuition and incidental fees for any semester or quarter.

(4) The term 'disadvantaged student' shall mean a post high school student who by reason of adverse cultural, educational, environmental, experiential, familial or other circumstances is unable to qualify for enrollment as a full time student in an institution of higher learning, who would otherwise qualify as a needy student, and who is attending an institution of higher learning under an established program designed to qualify the student for enrollment as a full time student.

(5) 'Commission' or 'board' shall mean the higher education coordinating board.

Sec. 2. Section 11, chapter 222, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.10.806 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) Conduct a full analysis of student financial aid as a means of:

- (a) Fulfilling educational aspirations of students of the state of Washington, and
- (b) Improving the general, social, cultural, and economic character of the state.

Such an analysis will be a continuous one and will yield current information relevant to needed improvements in the state program of student financial aid. The commission will disseminate the information yielded by their analyses to all appropriate individuals and agents.

(c) This study should include information on the following:

- (i) all programs and sources of available student financial aid,
- (ii) distribution of Washington citizens by socio-economic class,
- (iii) data from federal and state studies useful in identifying:

(A) demands of students for specific educational goals in colleges, and

(B) the discrepancy between high school students' preferences and the colleges they actually selected.

(2) Design a state program of student financial aid based on the data of the study referred to in this section. The state program will supplement available federal and local aid programs. The state program of student financial aid will not exceed the difference between the budgetary costs of attending an institution of higher learning and the student's total resources, including family support, personal savings, employment, and federal and local aid programs.

(3) Determine and establish criteria for financial need of the individual applicant based upon the consideration of that particular applicant. In making this determination the commission shall consider the following:

(a) Assets and income of the student.

(b) Assets and income of the parents, or the individuals legally responsible for the care and maintenance of the student.

(c) The cost of attending the institution the student is attending or planning to attend.

(d) Any other criteria deemed relevant to the commission.

(4) Set the amount of financial aid to be awarded to any individual needy or disadvantaged student in any school year.

(5) Award financial aid to ~~((full-time))~~ needy or disadvantaged students for a school year based upon only that amount necessary to fill the financial gap between the budgetary cost of attending an institution of higher education and the family and student contribution.

(6) Review the need and eligibility of all applications on an annual basis and adjust financial aid to reflect changes in the financial need of the recipients and the cost of attending the institution of higher education.

Sec. 3. Section 12, chapter 222, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.10.808 are each amended to read as follows:

In awarding grants, the commission shall proceed substantially as follows: PROVIDED, That nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent the commission, in the exercise of its sound discretion, from following another procedure when the best interest of the program so dictates:

(1) The commission shall annually select the financial aid award winners from among Washington residents applying for student financial aid who have been ranked according to financial need as determined by the amount of the family contribution and other considerations brought to the commission's attention.

(2) The financial need of the highest ranked students shall be met by grants depending upon the evaluation of financial need until the total allocation has been disbursed. Funds from grants which are declined, forfeited or otherwise unused shall be reawarded until dispersed.

(3) A grant may be renewed until the course of study is completed, but not for more than an additional ~~((three))~~ four academic years beyond the first year of the award. These shall not be required to be consecutive years. Qualifications for renewal will include maintaining satisfactory academic standing toward completion of the course of study, and continued eligibility as determined by the commission. Should the recipient terminate his enrollment for any reason during the academic year, the unused portion of the grant shall be returned to the state educational grant fund by the institution according to the institution's own policy for issuing refunds.

(4) In computing financial need the commission shall determine a maximum student expense budget allowance, not to exceed an amount equal to the total maximum student expense budget at the public institutions plus the current average state appropriation per student for operating expense in the public institutions.

Sec. 4. Section 13, chapter 222, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.10.810 are each amended to read as follows:

For a student to be eligible for financial aid ~~((he))~~ the student must:

(1) Be a 'needy student' or 'disadvantaged student' as determined by the commission in accordance with RCW 28B.10.802 (3) and (4).

(2) Have been domiciled within the state of Washington for at least one year.

(3) Be enrolled or accepted for enrollment ~~((as a full-time student or as a student under an established program designed to qualify him for enrollment as a full-time student))~~ on at least a half-time basis at an institution of higher education in Washington.

(4) Have complied with all the rules and regulations adopted by the commission for the administration of RCW 28B.10.800 through 28B.10.824.

Sec. 5. Section 6, chapter 322, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.15.065 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the intent of the legislature that needy students not be deprived of access to higher education due to increases in educational costs or consequent increases in tuition and fees. It is the sense of the legislature that, beginning with the 1989-91 budget, state appropriations for student financial aid be adjusted in an amount which together with funds estimated to be available in the form of basic educational opportunity grants as authorized under Section 411 of the federal Higher Education Act of 1965 as now or hereafter amended will equal ~~((twenty-four))~~ thirty-five percent of any change in revenue estimated to occur as a result of revisions in tuition and fee levels under the provisions of this 1977 amendatory act and that appropriations resulting from the percentage increase from twenty-four to thirty-five percent after the effective date of this section shall be used for the state need grant program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Section 5 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "program;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 28B.10.802, 28B.10.806, 28B.10.808, 28B.10.810, and 28B.15.065; and declaring an emergency."

Signed by Representatives Jacobsen, Chair; Spanel, Vice Chair; Van Luven, Ranking Republican Member; Doty, Fraser, Heavey, Insee, Jesernig, Miller, H. Myers, Prince, Rector and Wood.

Absent: Representatives Van Luven, Ranking Republican Member; and Basich.

ESSB 5227 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Higher Education: Establishing a state writing project to train educators. Reported by Committee on Higher Education

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the development of the ability to communicate through the written word is crucial to successful performance in the labor market and in secondary and postsecondary education. The legislature recognizes the need to significantly improve the writing skills of common school and college students to help them succeed in higher education and in their chosen professions. The legislature intends to assist common school and college faculty in their efforts to improve the writing skills of Washington students by the creation of a cooperatively planned and funded program. The program will be designed to train educators in techniques for teaching writing that incorporate the results of current research on writing processes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The Washington state writing project is established. The project will be administered by the higher education coordinating board. In administering the program, the board shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) Select proposals for funding through a competitive process, giving preference to proposals that are sites for the national writing project;

(2) Appoint an advisory committee of common school and college educators to assist in selecting the proposals to be funded and is establishing criteria and procedures for evaluating the results of selected projects;

(3) Report to the governor, the legislature, and the superintendent of public instruction on the program by November 15 of each even-numbered year. The report shall include an evaluation of the project, and a recommendation on whether funding for the project should continue through the next biennium;

(4) May delegate the administration of the program to an institution of higher education as defined in RCW 28B.10.016.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Criteria established for approval of any proposal shall include the extent to which:

(1) The proposed project is modeled after the national writing project;

(2) The proposed project is designed to systematically improve the writing skills of project participants, the teachers to be trained by participants, and the students attending common schools and postsecondary educational institutions;

(3) The proposed project is designed to reach school and college personnel located in rural, urban, and suburban areas;

(4) Participating schools, colleges, and universities intend to integrate the proposed writing project in institutional staff development programs;

(5) Participating schools, colleges, and universities commit to the provision of support for the proposed project;

(6) The proposed project uses participants as writing skills trainers for students and faculty of schools, colleges, and universities;

(7) The proposed project provides opportunities for cooperation among various levels and segments of the common schools and postsecondary education;

(8) The proposed project provides continuing training and support opportunities to project participants; and

(9) The proposed project includes a method for evaluating participant and student progress using measures approved by the advisory committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The sum of three hundred fifty thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, from the general fund to the higher education coordinating board for the purposes of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Sections 1 through 3 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 28B RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "education;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new chapter to Title 28B RCW; making an appropriation; and declaring an emergency."

Signed by Representatives Jacobsen, Chair; Spanel, Vice Chair; Van Luven, Ranking Republican Member; Doty, Fraser, Heavey, Inslee, Jesernig, Miller, H. Myers, Prince, Rector and Wood.

March 28, 1989

ESSB 5288 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Environment & Natural Resources: Providing for the production of salmon smolts by private aquaculturists. Reported by Committee on Fisheries & Wildlife

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:

(1) The fishery resources of Washington are critical to the social and economic needs of the citizens of the state;

(2) Salmon production is dependent on both wild and artificial production;

(3) The department of fisheries is directed to enhance Washington's salmon runs; and

(4) Full utilization of the state's salmon rearing facilities is necessary to enhance commercial and recreational fisheries.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 75.08 RCW to read as follows:

The director shall determine the cost of operating all state-funded salmon production facilities at full capacity and shall provide this information with the department's biennial budget request.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 75.08 RCW to read as follows:

The director may contract with cooperatives or private aquaculturists for the purchase of quality salmon smolts for release into public waters if all department fish rearing facilities are operating at full capacity. The intent of cooperative and private sector contracting is to explore the opportunities of cooperatively producing more salmon for the public fisheries without incurring additional capital expense for the department.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 75.08 RCW to read as follows:

If the director elects to contract with cooperatives or private aquaculturists for the purpose of purchasing quality salmon smolts, contracting shall be done by a competitive bid process. In awarding contracts to private contractors, the director shall give preference to nonprofit corporations. The director shall establish the criteria for the contract, which shall include but not be limited to species, size of smolt, stock composition, quantity, quality, rearing location, release location, and other pertinent factors.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 75.08 RCW to read as follows:

Nothing in this act shall authorize the practice of private ocean ranching. Privately contracted smolts become the property of the state at the time of release.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 75.08 RCW to read as follows:

The department may make available to private contractors salmon eggs in excess of department hatchery needs for the purpose of contract rearing to release the smolts into public waters. The priority of providing eggs to contract rearing shall be higher than providing eggs to aquaculture purposes which are not destined for release into Washington public waters.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "salmon;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding new sections to chapter 75.08 RCW; and creating a new section."

Signed by Representatives R. King, Chair; Morris, Vice Chair; S. Wilson, Ranking Republican Member; Basich, Brooks, Haugen, Smith and Spanel.

MINORITY recommendation: Do not pass. Signed by Representatives Bowman, Cole and Vekich.

Referred to Committee on Appropriations.

SSB 5369 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Economic Development & Labor: Increasing mobile home space availability. Reported by Committee on Housing

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 280, Laws of 1988 and RCW 59.22.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In order to provide general assistance to mobile home resident organizations, park owners, and landlords and tenants, the department shall establish an office of mobile home affairs which will serve as the coordinating office within state government for matters relating to mobile homes or manufactured housing.

This office will provide an ombudsman service to mobile home park owners and mobile home tenants with respect to problems and disputes between park owners and park residents and to provide technical assistance to resident organizations or persons in the process of forming a resident organization pursuant to chapter 59.22 RCW. The office will keep records of its activities in this area.

(2) In addition, the office shall work with the mobile home space availability and affordability task force to develop recommendations to (a) increase the availability of mobile home park spaces, (b) stabilize rent levels through traditional market forces of supply and demand and through incentives such as current use valuation of mobile home parks, but not through artificial controls on rent, and (c) allow senior citizens on fixed incomes to continue living in their mobile homes, including the possibility of direct subsidies.

The mobile home space availability and affordability task force shall be comprised of four legislators, one from each caucus in the house of representatives appointed by the speaker of the house and one from each caucus in the senate appointed by the president of the senate, two representatives of park-owners, two representatives of tenants, and two representatives of local governments. All nonlegislative members shall be appointed by the director of the department of community development. Staffing for the task force shall be supplied by the department of community development, the house of representatives housing committee, and the senate economic development and labor committee.

(3) In developing these recommendations the office and the task force shall:

(a) Review the ordinances of local government to assess their impact on the availability of mobile home rental spaces;

(b) Consult with federal, state, and local agencies, senior citizen organizations, the real estate industry, and other groups as it considers necessary;

(c) Use, to the fullest extent possible, the services, facilities, information, and advice of public and private agencies, organizations, and individuals in order to avoid duplication of effort and expense; and

(d) Hold public hearings to allow public input and involvement."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "homes;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and amending RCW 59.22.050."

Signed by Representatives Nutley, Chair; Leonard, Vice Chair; Winsley, Ranking Republican Member; Anderson, Padden, Rector and Todd.

Absent: Representatives Ballard and Inslee.

SB 5464 Prime Sponsor, Senator von Reichbauer: Changing provisions relating to boxing and wrestling. Reported by Committee on State Government

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Boxing' includes, but is not limited to, sumo, judo, and karate in addition to fisticuffs, but does not include professional wrestling.

(2) 'Commission' means the professional athletic commission.

(3) 'Promoter' means any person and, in the case of a corporation, an officer, director, employee, or shareholder thereof, who produces, arranges, or stages any professional wrestling exhibition or boxing contest.

(4) 'Wrestling exhibition' or 'wrestling show' means a form of sports entertainment in which the participants display their skills in a struggle against each other in the ring and either the outcome may be predetermined or the participants do not necessarily strive to win, or both.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A promoter shall have an ambulance or paramedical unit present at the arena in case a serious injury occurs unless an ambulance or paramedical unit is located within five miles of the arena and that unit is on call for such an occurrence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A promoter shall ensure that adequate security personnel are in attendance at a wrestling exhibition or boxing contest to control fans in attendance. The size of the security force shall be determined by mutual agreement of the promoter, the person in charge of operating the arena or other facility, and the commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) It is unlawful for any promoter or person associated with or employed by any promoter to destroy any ticket or ticket stub, whether sold or unsold, within three months after the date of any exhibition or show.

(2) It is unlawful for any wrestler to deliberately cut himself or herself or otherwise mutilate himself or herself while participating in a wrestling exhibition.

(3) Any licensee convicted under chapter 69.50 RCW shall have his or her license revoked.

(4) The striking of any person that is not a licensed participant at a wrestling exhibition or show shall constitute grounds for suspension, revocation, or both.

Sec. 5. Section 1, chapter 184, Laws of 1933 as last amended by section 1, chapter 19, Laws of 1988 and RCW 67.08.001 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((1)) For the purposes of this chapter, 'boxing' includes, but is not limited to, wrestling, sumo, judo, and karate in addition to fistcuffs.~~

~~((2)) There is hereby created and established a state commission to be known and designated as the 'state ((boxing)) professional athletic commission' and in this chapter referred to as the commission. The commission shall be composed of three members who shall be appointed by the governor and shall be subject to removal at the pleasure of the governor. The members of the first commission to be appointed after June 7, 1933, shall be appointed for the terms beginning July 1, 1933, and expiring as follows: One commissioner for the term expiring January 31, 1934, one commissioner for the term expiring January 31, 1935, and one commissioner for the term expiring January 31, 1936. Each of the first commissioners appointed shall hold office until his successor is appointed and qualified. Upon the expiration of the terms of the three commissioners first appointed, each succeeding commissioner shall be appointed to hold office for a term of four years and until his successor shall have been appointed and qualified. In case of a vacancy, it shall be filled by the appointment by the governor for the unexpired portion of the term in which such vacancy occurs.~~

Sec. 6. Section 9, chapter 184, Laws of 1933 and RCW 67.08.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every ((licensee)) boxing promoter, as a condition for receiving a license ((as herein provided for)), shall file a good and sufficient bond in the sum of ((one)) ten thousand dollars with the commission ((in cities of less than one hundred fifty thousand inhabitants and of two thousand five hundred dollars in cities of more than one hundred fifty thousand inhabitants condition (conditioned) for)), conditioned upon the faithful performance by such licensee of the provisions of this chapter, the payment of the taxes, officials, and contracts as provided for herein and the ((obeyance (observance))) observance of all rules and regulations of the commission, which bond shall be subject to the approval of the attorney general.

(2) Every promoter of a wrestling exhibition or closed circuit telecast as a condition of receiving a license as provided for under this chapter shall file a good and sufficient bond in the sum of one thousand dollars with the commission in cities of less than one hundred fifty thousand inhabitants and of two thousand five hundred dollars in cities of more than one hundred fifty thousand inhabitants conditioned upon the faithful performance by such licensee of the provisions of this chapter, the payment of the taxes and officials provided for herein and the observance of all rules and regulations of the commission, which bond shall be subject to the approval of the attorney general.

(3) Boxing promoters must obtain medical insurance to cover any injuries incurred by participants at the time of the event.

Sec. 7. Section 11, chapter 184, Laws of 1933 and RCW 67.08.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any ((licensee)) promoter as herein provided shall within ((three)) seven days prior to the holding of any boxing contest or sparring ((and/or wrestling)) match or exhibition file with the commission a statement setting forth the name of each ((contestant)) licensee, his or her manager or managers and such other information as the commission may require ((and shall, within seventy-two hours after)). Any promoter shall, within seven days before holding any wrestling exhibition or show, file with the commission a statement setting forth the name of each contestant, his or her manager or managers, and such other information as the commission may require. Participant changes within a twenty-four hour period regarding a wrestling exhibition or show may be allowed after notice to the commission, if the new participant holds a valid license under this chapter. The commission may stop any event that is a part of a wrestling exhibition wherein any participant is not licensed under this chapter. Upon the termination of any contest or exhibition the promoter shall file with the designated commission representative a written report, duly verified as the commission may require showing the number of tickets sold for such contest, the price charged for such tickets and the gross proceeds thereof, and such other and further information as the commission may require. ((Such licensee)) The promoter shall pay to the commission at the time of filing the above report a tax equal to five percent of such gross receipts and said five percent of such gross receipts shall be immediately paid by the commission into the state ((athletic)) general fund ((of the state of Washington which is hereby created)).

(2) The number of complimentary tickets shall be limited to two percent of the total tickets sold per event location. All complimentary tickets exceeding this set amount shall be subject to taxation.

Sec. 8. Section 14, chapter 184, Laws of 1933 as last amended by section 1, chapter 45, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 67.08.080 are each amended to read as follows:

No boxing contest or sparring exhibition held in this state whether under the provisions of this chapter or otherwise shall be for more than ten rounds and no one round of any such contest or exhibition shall be scheduled for ((a longer period)) less than or longer than three minutes and there shall be not less than one minute intermission between each round. In the event of bouts involving state or regional championships the commission may grant an extension of no more than two additional rounds to allow total bouts of twelve rounds, and in bouts involving national championships the commission may grant an extension of no more than five additional rounds to allow total bouts of fifteen rounds. No contestant in any boxing contest or sparring match or exhibition whether under this chapter or otherwise shall be permitted to wear gloves weighing less than ~~((six)) eight~~ ounces. ~~((The length and duration for wrestling matches whether held under the provisions of this chapter or otherwise shall be regulated by order of the commission.))~~ The commission shall promulgate rules and regulations to assure clean and sportsmanlike conduct on the part of all contestants and officials, and the orderly and proper conduct of the contest in all respects, and to otherwise make rules and regulations consistent with this chapter, but such rules and regulations shall apply only to contests held under the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 9. Section 15, chapter 184, Laws of 1933 and RCW 67.08.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Each contestant for boxing ~~((;))~~ or sparring ~~((or wrestling))~~ shall be examined within eight hours prior to the contest by a competent physician appointed by the commission. The physician shall forthwith and before such contest report in writing and over his or her signature the physical condition of each and every contestant to the commissioner or inspector present at such contest. No contestant whose physical condition is not approved by the examining physician shall be permitted to participate in any contest. Blank forms of physicians' report shall be provided by the commission and all questions upon such blanks shall be answered in full. The examining physician shall be paid a fee designated by the commission by the ~~((licensee)) promoter~~ conducting such match or exhibition. The commission may have a participant in a wrestling exhibition or show examined by a physician appointed by the commission prior to the exhibition or show. A participant in a wrestling exhibition or show whose condition is not approved by the examining physician shall not be permitted to participate in the exhibition or show. No boxing contest ~~((or)),~~ sparring ~~((or wrestling))~~ match, or exhibition shall be held unless a licensed physician of the commission or his or her duly appointed representative ~~((; shall be))~~ is present throughout the contest. The commission may require that a physician be present at a wrestling exhibition or show. Any physician present at a wrestling show or exhibition shall be paid for by the promoter.

Any practicing physician and surgeon may be selected by the board as the examining physician. Such physician present at such contest shall have authority to stop any contest when in ~~((his)) the physician's~~ opinion it would be dangerous to a contestant to continue, and in such event it shall be ~~((his)) the physician's~~ duty to stop such contest. ~~((If he has acted as examining physician he shall receive no fee for being present at such contest.))~~

Sec. 10. Section 16, chapter 184, Laws of 1933 as amended by section 6, chapter 305, Laws of 1959 and RCW 67.08.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The commission may grant annual licenses upon application in compliance with the rules and regulations prescribed by the commission, and the payment of the fees, the amount of which is to be determined by the commission, prescribed to promoters, managers, referees, boxers, wrestlers, and seconds ~~((and trainers))~~; PROVIDED, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to contestants or participants in strictly amateur contests and/or fraternal organizations and/or veterans' organizations chartered by congress or the ~~((war))~~ defense department or any bona fide athletic club which is a member of the Pacific northwest association of the amateur athletic union of the United States, holding and promoting athletic contests ~~((or smokers))~~ and where all funds are used primarily for the benefit of their members.

(2) Any such license may be revoked by the commission for any cause which it shall deem sufficient.

(3) No person shall participate or serve in any of the above capacities unless licensed as ~~((herein))~~ provided in this chapter.

(4) The referee for any boxing contest shall be designated by the commission from among such licensed referees.

(5) The referee for any wrestling exhibition or show shall be provided by the promoter and licensed by the commission.

Sec. 11. Section 17, chapter 184, Laws of 1933 and RCW 67.08.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person or any member of any group of persons or corporation promoting ~~((wrestling or))~~ boxing exhibitions or contests who shall participate directly or indirectly in the purse or fee of any manager of any boxers ~~((or wrestlers))~~ or any boxer ~~((or any wrestler))~~ and any licensee who shall conduct or participate in any sham or fake boxing contest or sparring ~~((or wrestling))~~ match or exhibition shall thereby forfeit its license and the commission shall declare such ~~((licensee (license))~~ license canceled and void and such licensee shall not thereafter be entitled to receive another such, or any license issued pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 12. Section 18, chapter 184, Laws of 1933 and RCW 67.08.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Any contestant or licensee who shall participate in any sham or fake boxing contest ~~((or sparring or wrestling)),~~ match, or exhibition ~~((or))~~ and any licensee or participant who violates any rule or regulation of the commission shall be penalized in the following manner: For the first offense he shall be restrained by order of the commission for a period of not less than three months from participating in any contest held under the provisions of this chapter, such suspension to take effect immediately after the occurrence of the offense; for any second offense such contestant shall be forever suspended from participation in any contest held under the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 13. Section 7, chapter 184, Laws of 1933 as amended by section 2, chapter 48, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 67.08.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission shall have power to issue and for cause to revoke a license to conduct boxing contests ~~((or))~~, sparring matches, or wrestling ~~((matches))~~ shows or exhibitions including a simultaneous telecast of any live, current or spontaneous boxing, sparring or wrestling match or performance on a closed circuit telecast within this state, whether originating in this state or elsewhere, and for which a charge is made, as herein provided under such terms and conditions and at such times and places as the commission may determine. Such licenses shall entitle the holder thereof to conduct boxing contests and sparring and/or wrestling matches and exhibitions under such terms and conditions and at such times and places as the commission may determine. In case the commission shall refuse to grant a license to any applicant, or shall cancel any license, such applicant, or the holder of such canceled license shall be entitled, upon application, to a hearing to be held not less than sixty days after the filing of such order at such place as the commission may designate: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That if it has been found by a valid finding and such finding is fully set forth in such order, that the applicant or licensee has been guilty of disobeying any provision of this chapter, such hearing shall be denied.

Sec. 14. Section 2, chapter 9, Laws of 1977 and RCW 67.08.015 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission shall have power and it shall be its duty to direct, supervise, and control all boxing contests ~~((or))~~, sparring matches, and wrestling ~~((matches))~~ shows or exhibitions conducted within the state and no such boxing contest, sparring match, or wrestling ~~((match))~~ show or exhibition shall be held or given within this state except in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. The commission may, in its discretion, issue and for cause revoke a license to conduct, hold or give boxing ~~((:))~~ and sparring ~~((and/or wrestling))~~ contests, ~~((matches))~~ and wrestling shows and exhibitions where an admission fee is charged by any club, corporation, organization, association, or fraternal society: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That all boxing contests, sparring or wrestling matches or exhibitions which:

(1) Are conducted by any common school, college, or university, whether public or private, or by the official student association thereof, whether on or off the school, college, or university grounds, where all the participating contestants are bona fide students enrolled in any common school, college, or university, within or without this state: or

(2) Are entirely amateur events promoted on a nonprofit basis or for charitable purposes; shall not be subject to the provisions of this chapter: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That every contestant in any boxing contest ~~((:))~~ or sparring ~~((or wrestling))~~ match not conducted under the provisions of this chapter, prior to engaging in any such contest or match, shall be examined by a practicing physician at least once in each calendar year or, where such contest is conducted by a common school, college or university as further described in this section, once in each academic year in which instance such physician shall also designate the maximum and minimum weights at which such contestant shall be medically certified to participate: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no contestant shall be permitted to participate in any such boxing contest, sparring or wrestling match or exhibition in any weight classification other than that or those for which he is certificated: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the organizations exempted by this section from the provisions of this chapter shall be governed by RCW 67.08.080 as said section applies to boxing contests ~~((:))~~ or sparring ~~((or wrestling))~~ matches or exhibitions conducted by organizations exempted by this section from the general provisions of this chapter. No boxing contest ~~((or))~~, sparring match, or wrestling ~~((match))~~ show or exhibition shall be conducted within the state except pursuant to a license issued in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations of the commission except as hereinabove provided.

Sec. 15. Section 5, chapter 48, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 67.08.055 are each amended to read as follows:

Every licensee who charges and receives an admission fee for exhibiting a simultaneous telecast of any live, current, or spontaneous boxing or sparring match, or wrestling exhibition or ~~((performance))~~ show on a closed circuit telecast viewed within this state shall, within seventy-two hours after such event, furnish to the commission a verified written report on a form which is supplied by the commission showing the number of tickets issued or sold, and the gross receipts therefor without any deductions whatsoever. Such licensee shall also, at the same time, pay to the commission a tax equal to five percent of such gross receipts paid for admission to the showing of the contest, match or exhibition. In no event, however, shall the tax be less than twenty-five dollars. The tax shall apply uniformly at the same rate to all persons subject to the tax. Such receipts shall be immediately paid by the commission into the general fund of the state.

The commission may appoint official inspectors at least one of which, in the absence of a member of the commission, shall be present at any boxing contest or sparring (~~and/or wrestling~~) match or exhibition held under the provisions of this chapter and may be present at any wrestling exhibition or show. Such inspectors shall carry a card signed by the chairman of the commission evidencing their authority. It shall be their duty to see that all rules and regulations of the commission and the provisions of this chapter are strictly complied with and to be present at the accounting of the gross receipts of any contest, and such inspector is authorized to receive from the licensee conducting the contest the statement of receipts herein provided for and to immediately transmit such reports to the commission. Each inspector shall receive a fee from the licensee to be set by the commission for each contest officially attended. Each inspector shall also receive from the state travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended.

Any person, club, corporation, organization, association, (~~or~~) fraternal society, participant, or promoter conducting (~~within this state~~) or participating in boxing contests, sparring matches, or wrestling (contests) shows or exhibitions within this state without having first obtained a license therefor in the manner provided by this chapter is in violation of this chapter and shall be guilty of a misdemeanor excepting such contests excluded from the operation of this chapter by RCW 67.08.015. The attorney general, each prosecuting attorney, the commission, or any citizen of any county where any person, club, corporation, organization, association, (~~or~~) fraternal society, promoter, or participant shall threaten to hold, or appears likely to hold or participate in athletic contests or exhibitions in violation of this chapter, may in accordance with the laws of this state governing injunctions, enjoin such person, club, corporation, organization, association, (~~or~~) fraternal society, promoter, or participant from holding or participating in such contest or exhibition.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 18. Sections 1 through 4 of this act are each added to chapter 67.08 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 19. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

SB 5466 Prime Sponsor, Senator McCaslin: Removing an employee of the insurance commissioner from the building code council. Reported by Committee on Housing

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 6, chapter 96, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 12, chapter 462, Laws of 1987 and RCW 19.27.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The governing bodies of counties and cities may amend the codes enumerated in RCW 19.27.031 as they apply within their respective jurisdictions, but the amendments shall not result in a code that is less than the minimum performance standards and objectives contained in the state building code. No amendment to a code enumerated in RCW 19.27.031 that affects single family or multifamily residential buildings shall be effective unless the amendment is approved by the building code council under RCW 19.27.074(1)(b). Any county or city amendment to a code enumerated in RCW 19.27.031 which is approved under RCW 19.27.074(1)(b) shall continue to be effective after any action is taken under RCW 19.27.074(1)(a) without necessity of reapproval under RCW 19.27.074(1)(b) unless the amendment is declared null and void by the council at the time any action is taken under RCW 19.27.074(1)(a) because such action in any way altered the impact of the amendment.

(2) Except as permitted or provided otherwise under this section, the state building code shall be applicable to all buildings and structures including those owned by the state or by any governmental subdivision or unit of local government.

(3) The governing body of each county or city may limit the application of any portion of the state building code to exclude specified classes or types of buildings or structures according to use other than single family or multifamily residential buildings: PROVIDED, That in no event shall fruits or vegetables of the tree or vine stored in buildings or warehouses constitute combustible stock for the purposes of application of the uniform fire code.

(4) The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any building four or more stories high with a B occupancy as defined by the uniform building code, 1982 edition, and with a city fire insurance rating of 1, 2, or 3 as defined by a recognized fire rating bureau or organization.

(5) No provision of the uniform fire code concerning roadways shall be part of the state building code: PROVIDED, That this subsection shall not limit the authority of a county or city to adopt street, road, or access standards.

(6) The provisions of the state building code may be preempted by any city or county to the extent that the code provisions relating to the installation or use of sprinklers in jail cells conflict with the secure and humane operation of jails.

(7) (a) Effective one year after the effective date of this section, the governing bodies of counties and cities may adopt an ordinance or resolution to exempt from permit requirements certain construction or alteration of either group R, division 3, or group M, division 1 occupancies, or both, as defined in the uniform building code, 1988 edition, for which the total cost of fair market value of the construction or alteration does not exceed fifteen hundred dollars. The permit exemption shall not otherwise exempt the construction or alteration from the substantive standards of the codes enumerated in RCW 19.27.031, as amended and maintained by the state building code council under RCW 19.27.070.

(b) Prior to the effective date of this section, the state building code council shall adopt by rule, guidelines exempting from permit requirements certain construction and alteration activities under (a) of this subsection.

Sec. 2. Section 7, chapter 96, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 7, chapter 505, Laws of 1987 and RCW 19.27.070 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby established a state building code council to be appointed by the governor.

(1) The state building code council shall consist of fifteen members, two of whom shall be county elected legislative body members or elected executives and two of whom shall be city elected legislative body members or mayors. One of the members shall be a local government building code enforcement official and one of the members shall be a local government fire service official. Of the remaining nine members, one member shall represent general construction, specializing in commercial and industrial building construction; one member shall represent general construction, specializing in residential and multifamily building construction; one member shall represent the architectural design profession; one member shall represent the structural engineering profession; one member shall represent the mechanical engineering profession; one member shall represent the construction building trades; one member shall represent manufacturers, installers, or suppliers of building materials and components; one member shall be a person with a physical disability and shall represent the disability community; and one member shall represent the general public. At least six of these fifteen members shall reside east of the crest of the Cascade mountains. The council shall include ((an employee of the office of the insurance commissioner)); Two members of the house of representatives appointed by the speaker of the house, one from each caucus; two members of the senate appointed by the president of the senate, one from each caucus; and an employee of the electrical division of the department of labor and industries, as ex officio, nonvoting members with all other privileges and rights of membership. Terms of office shall be for three years. The council shall elect a member to serve as chair of the council for one-year terms of office. Any member who is appointed by virtue of being an elected official or holding public employment shall be removed from the council if he or she ceases being such an elected official or holding such public employment. Before making any appointments to the building code council, the governor shall seek nominations from recognized organizations which represent the entities or interests listed in this subsection. Members serving on the council on July 28, 1985, may complete their terms of office. Any vacancy shall be filled by alternating appointments from governmental and nongovernmental entities or interests until the council is constituted as required by this subsection.

(2) Members shall not be compensated but shall receive reimbursement for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(3) The department of community development shall provide administrative and clerical assistance to the building code council.

Sec. 3. Section 36.21.070, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 1, chapter 134, Laws of 1987 and RCW 36.21.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon receipt of ((such)) a copy of a building permit, the county assessor shall, within twelve months of the date of issue of such permit, proceed to make a physical appraisal of the building or buildings covered by the permit.

The county assessor is authorized to place any property ((under the provisions of RCW 36.21.040 through 36.21.066)) that is increased in value due to construction or alteration for which a building permit was issued, or should have been issued, under chapter 19.27, 19.27A, or 19.28 RCW or other laws providing for building permits on the assessment rolls for the purposes of tax levy up to August 31st of each year. The assessed valuation of the property (~~under the provisions of RCW 36.21.040 through 36.21.060~~) shall be considered as of July 31st of that year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 19.27 RCW to read as follows:

A copy of any permit obtained under the state building code for construction or alteration work of a total cost or fair market value in excess of five hundred dollars, shall be transmitted by the issuing authority to the county assessor of the county where the property on which the construction or alteration work is located. The building permit shall contain the county assessor's parcel number.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 19.27 RCW to read as follows:

Every month a copy of the United States department of commerce, bureau of the census' report of building or zoning permits issued and local public construction' or equivalent report shall be transmitted by the governing bodies of counties and cities to the department of community development.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 36.21.040, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.21.040;
- (2) Section 36.21.050, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.21.050; and
- (3) Section 36.21.060, chapter 4, Laws of 1963, section 1, chapter 318, Laws of 1985 and RCW 36.21.060."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "council;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 19.27.060, 19.27.070, 36.21.070, and 36.21.080; adding new sections to chapter 19.27 RCW; and repealing RCW 36.21.040, 36.21.050, and 36.21.060."

SSB 5503 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Higher Education: Establishing the Cherberg scholarship program. Reported by Committee on Higher Education

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. In honor of former Lieutenant Governor John A. Cherberg's years of service to the state of Washington, a Cherberg scholarship program for students pursuing a career in public service should be created. Cherberg's thirty-two distinguished years in the state legislature since 1956 are a model of public service for future generations. Students should be given the chance to work toward a career in public service where they can serve as leaders in our community.

Currently, most financial aid is given in the form of loans. Many students who desire a career in public service are turned toward jobs in business where they can make enough money to pay off school loans. Upper division and graduate students who emulate Cherberg's successes should receive an affordable education to enable them to serve our society.

There is also an increasing need for young people in public service to correct the problems our state and nation has created and fill these societal needs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 1 through 4 of this act.

(1) 'Board' means the higher education coordinating board.

(2) 'Institution of higher education' means any public university or college operated by the state which offers a baccalaureate degree, or any independent university or college in the state, the main campus of which is permanently situated in the state, which offers a baccalaureate degree and is a member institution of an accrediting association recognized by rule of the board for the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The Cherberg scholarship program is hereby created. The board shall administer the program and shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) Appoint a screening committee composed of faculty members of institutions of higher education, leaders in government, and other persons as determined by the board;

(2) Within available funds, award Cherberg scholarships to students who meet the eligibility criteria established in this act and who are recommended by the screening committee;

(3) Publicize the scholarship program; and

(4) Solicit and accept grants and donations from public and private sources for the program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The screening committee shall develop criteria for selecting recipients of the Cherberg scholarships and shall make recommendations to the board on the selection of recipients. Criteria shall include a demonstrated interest in public service as indicated in a written competition that shall be submitted with the scholarship application. Interest in working as a public servant shall be defined as desiring employment in the government system, or planning to perform public service. Applicants shall be encouraged from a broad mix of academic disciplines.

(2) Students eligible for the scholarship must be registered full time, hold at least a cumulative grade point average of three out of a possible four points or the equivalent for each academic year in an institution of higher education, be a resident student as defined by RCW 28B.15.012, have declared a major, and have completed at least sixty semester credit hours or the equivalent towards an undergraduate degree or be enrolled in a program leading to a graduate degree at an institution of higher education.

(3) At least one-half of the scholarships shall be awarded to needy students as defined by RCW 28B.10.802.

(4) The maximum amount of the Cherberg scholarship for a student attending a public institution of higher education is the annual, full-time, resident, tuition and services and activities fees at the institution at the undergraduate or graduate level, as appropriate. The maximum amount of the Cherberg scholarship for a student attending an independent college or university is the annual, full-time, resident, undergraduate tuition and services and activities fees at the state-funded research universities. The scholarships are for a period of one academic year and are nonrenewable.

(5) No more than two scholarships shall be awarded to students attending any one institution of higher education in any one academic year.

(6) No scholarship shall be awarded to any student who is pursuing a degree in theology.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Within available funds, for the 1989-91 biennium, the higher education coordinating board shall award Cherberg scholarships to twenty-two students.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 1 through 4 of this act are each added to chapter 28B.10 RCW."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "program;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding new sections to chapter 28B.10 RCW; and creating a new section."

SSB 5827 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Agriculture: Providing pet identification and certification procedures to minimize theft. Reported by Committee on Agriculture & Rural Development

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 9.08 RCW to read as follows:

As used in RCW 9.08.070:

(1) 'Pet animal' means a tamed or domesticated animal legally retained by a person and kept as a companion. 'Pet animal' does not include livestock raised for commercial purposes.

(2) 'Research institution' means any facility licensed by the United States department of agriculture to use animals in biomedical or product research.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 114, Laws of 1982 and RCW 9.08.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who, with intent to deprive or defraud the owner thereof, does any of the following shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor:

((1)) (a) Takes, leads away, confines, secretes or converts any ((dog)) pet animal, except in cases in which the value of the ((dog)) pet animal exceeds two hundred fifty dollars;

((2)) (b) Conceals the identity of any ((dog)) pet animal or its owner by obscuring, altering, or removing from the ((dog)) pet animal any collar, tag, license, tattoo, or other identifying device or mark; or

((3)) (c) Willfully or recklessly kills or injures any ((dog)) pet animal, unless excused by law.

((Such violations shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.))

(2) Except as otherwise permitted by law, any person who does any of the following shall be guilty of a class C felony punishable as prescribed under chapter 9A.20 RCW:

(a) Sells or otherwise directly transfers to a research institution in the state of Washington a pet animal that the person knows or has reason to know has been stolen or fraudulently obtained; or

(b) Sells or otherwise transfers to another person who regularly sells animals to research institutions in the state of Washington a pet animal that the person knows or has reason to know has been stolen or fraudulently obtained.

(3) The provisions of this section shall not apply to the lawful acts of any employee, agent, or director of any humane society, animal control agency, or animal shelter operated by or on behalf of any government agency, operating under law.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 16.52 RCW to read as follows:

(1) All transfers of mammals, other than rats and mice bred for use in research and livestock, to research institutions in this state, whether by sale or otherwise, shall conform with federal laws and except as to those animals obtained from a source outside the United States, shall be accompanied by one of the following written certifications, dated and signed under penalty of perjury:

(a) Breeder certification: A written statement certifying that the person signing the certification is a United States department of agriculture-licensed class A dealer whose business license in the state of Washington includes only those animals that the dealer breeds and raises as a closed or stable colony and those animals that the dealer acquires for the sole purpose of maintaining or enhancing the dealer's breeding colony, that the animal being sold is one of those animals, and that the person signing the certification is authorized to do so. The certification shall also include an identifying number for the dealer, such as a business license number.

(b) True owner certification: A written statement certifying that the animal being transferred is owned by the person signing the certification, and that the person signing the certification either (i) has no personal knowledge or reason to believe that the animal is a pet animal, or (ii) consents to having the animal used for research at a research institution. The certification shall also state the date that the owner obtained the animal, and the person or other source from whom it was obtained. The certification shall also include an identifying number for the person signing the certification, such as a drivers' license number or business license number. The certifications signed by or on behalf of a humane society, animal control agency, or animal shelter need not contain a statement that the society, agency, or shelter owns the animal, but shall state that the animal has been in the possession of the society, agency, or shelter for the minimum period required by law that entitles it to legally dispose of the animal.

(2) In addition to the foregoing certification, all research institutions in this state shall open at the time a dog or cat is transferred to it a file that contains the following information for each dog or cat transferred to the institution:

(a) All information required by federal law;

(b) The certification required by this section; and

(c) A brief description of the dog or cat (e.g. breed, color, sex, any identifying characteristics), and a photograph of the dog or cat.

The brief description may be contained in the written certification.

These files shall be maintained and open for public inspection for a period of at least two years from the date of acquisition of the animal.

(3) All research institutions in this state shall, within one hundred eighty days of the effective date of this act, adopt and operate under written policies governing the acquisition of animals to be used in biomedical or product research at that institution, which shall be binding on all employees, agents, or contractors of that institution. These policies must contain, at a minimum, the following provisions:

(a) Animals shall be acquired in accordance with the federal animal welfare act, public health service policy, and other applicable statutes and regulations;

(b) No research may be conducted on a pet animal without the written permission of the pet animal's owner;

(c) Any animal acquired by the institution that is determined to be a pet animal shall be returned to its legal owner, unless the institution has the owner's written permission to retain the animal; and

(d) A person at the institution shall be designated to have the responsibility for investigating any facts supporting the possibility that an animal in the institution's possession may be a pet animal, including any inquiries from citizens regarding their pets. This person shall devise and insure implementation of procedures to inform inquiring citizens of their right to prompt review of the relevant files required to be kept by the institution for animals obtained under subsection (2) of this section, and shall be responsible for facilitating the rapid return of any animal determined to be a pet animal to the legal owner who has not given the institution permission to have the animal or transferred ownership of it to the institution.

(4) For the purposes of this section, 'research institution' means any facility licensed by the United States department of agriculture to use animals in biomedical or product research.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 19.86 RCW to read as follows:

Any violation of RCW 9.08.070 or section 3 of this act constitutes an unfair or deceptive practice in violation of this chapter. The relief available under this chapter for violations of RCW 9.08.070 or section 3 of this act by a research institution shall be limited to only monetary penalties in an amount not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 16.52 RCW to read as follows:

No provision of RCW 9.08.070 or section 3 of this act shall in any way interfere with or impair the operation of any other provision of this chapter or Title 28B RCW, relating to higher education or biomedical research. The provisions of RCW 9.08.070 and section 3 of this act are cumulative and nonexclusive and shall not affect any other remedy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "research;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 9.08.070; adding a new section to chapter 9.08 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 19.86 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 16.52 RCW; prescribing penalties; and declaring an emergency."

ESSB 5984 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Agriculture: Modifying water conservation procedures in the Yakima river basin. Reported by Committee on Agriculture & Rural Development

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds that:

(a) Under present physical conditions in the Yakima river basin there is an insufficient supply of water to satisfy the needs of the basin;

(b) Pursuant to P.L. 96-162, which was urged for enactment by this state, the United States is now conducting a study of ways to provide needed waters through improvements of the federal water project presently existing in the Yakima river basin;

(c) The interests of the state will be served by developing programs, in cooperation with the United States and the various water users in the basin, that increase the overall ability to manage basin waters in order to better satisfy both present and future needs for water in the Yakima river basin.

(2) It is the purpose of this chapter, consistent with these findings, to improve the ability of the state to work with the United States and various water users of the Yakima river basin in a program designed to satisfy both existing rights, and other presently unmet as well as future needs of the basin.

(3) The provisions of this chapter apply only to waters of the Yakima river basin.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Department' means the department of ecology.

(2) 'Net water savings' means the amount of water that through hydrological analysis is determined to be conserved and usable for other purposes without impairing existing water rights, reducing the ability to deliver water, or reducing the supply of water that otherwise would have been available to other water users.

(3) 'Trust water right' means that portion of an existing water right, constituting net water savings, that is no longer required to be diverted for beneficial use due to the installation of a water conservation project that improves an existing system. The term 'trust water right' also applies to any other water right acquired by the department under this chapter for management in the Yakima river basin trust water rights program.

(4) 'Water conservation project' means any project funded to further the purposes of this chapter and that achieves physical or operational improvements of efficiency in existing systems for diversion, conveyance, or application of water under existing water rights.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The department may acquire water rights, including but not limited to storage rights, by purchase, gift, or other appropriate means other than by condemnation, from any person or entity or combination of persons or entities. Once acquired, such rights are trust water rights.

(2) The department may make such other arrangements, including entry into contracts with other persons or entities as appropriate to ensure that trust water rights acquired in accordance with this chapter can be exercised to the fullest possible extent.

(3) The trust water rights may be acquired on a temporary or permanent basis.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) For the purposes of this chapter, the department is authorized to enter into contracts with water users for the purpose of providing moneys to users to assist in the financing of water conservation projects. In exchange for the financial assistance provided for the purposes of this chapter, the water users shall convey the trust water rights, created as a result of the assistance, to the department of ecology.

(2) No contract shall be entered into by the department with a water user under this chapter unless it appears to the department that, upon the completion of a water conservation project financed with moneys as provided in this section, a valid water right exists for conveyance to the department.

(3) The department shall cooperate fully with the United States in the implementation of this chapter. Trust water rights may be acquired through expenditure of funds provided by the United States and shall be treated in the same manner as trust water rights resulting from the expenditure of state funds.

(4) When water is proposed to be acquired by or conveyed to the department as a trust water right by an irrigation district, evidence of the district's authority to represent the water right holders must be submitted to, and for the satisfaction of, the department.

(5) The department shall not acquire an individual's water right under this chapter that is appurtenant to land lying within an irrigation district without the approval of the board of directors of the irrigation district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) All trust water rights acquired by the department shall be placed in the Yakima river basin trust water rights program to be managed by the department. The department shall issue a water right certificate in the name of the state of Washington for each trust water right it acquires.

(2) Trust water rights shall retain the same priority date as the water right from which they originated. Trust water rights may be modified as to purpose or place of use or point of diversion, including modification from a diversionary use to a nondiversionary instream use.

(3) Trust water rights may be held by the department for instream flows and/or irrigation use.

(4) A schedule of the amount of net water saved as a result of water conservation projects carried out in accordance with this chapter, shall be developed annually to reflect the predicted hydrologic and water supply conditions, as well as anticipated water demands, for the upcoming irrigation season. This schedule shall serve as the basis for the distribution and management of trust water rights each year.

(5) No exercise of a trust water right may be authorized unless the department first determines that no existing water rights, junior or senior in priority, will be impaired as to their exercise or injured in any manner whatever by such authorization. Before any trust water right is exercised, the department shall publish notice thereof in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county or counties in which the storage, diversion, and use are to be made, and in such other newspapers as the department determines are necessary, once a week for two consecutive weeks. At the same time the department may also send notice thereof containing pertinent information to the director of fisheries and the director of wildlife.

(6) RCW 90.03.380 and 90.14.140 through 90.14.910 shall have no applicability to trust water rights held by the department under this chapter or exercised under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The department may adopt rules as appropriate to ensure full implementation of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The policies and purposes of this chapter shall not be construed as replacing or amending the policies or the purposes for which funds available under chapter 43.83B or 43.99E RCW may be used within or without the Yakima river basin.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. It is not the intent of this chapter to facilitate the transfer of water rights from one irrigation district to another.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Nothing in this chapter shall authorize the impairment or operate to impair any existing water rights.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Sections 1 through 9 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 90 RCW."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "basin," strike the remainder of the title and insert "and adding a new chapter to Title 90 RCW."

SJM 8013 Prime Sponsor, Senator Metcalf: Praying that the army corps of engineers install bypass facilities at hydroelectric projects. Reported by Committee on Fisheries & Wildlife

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 1, beginning on line 1, strike everything through and including "Washington." on page 2, line 31, and insert the following:

"TO THE HONORABLE GEORGE BUSH, PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, AND TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE AND THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, AND TO THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES, IN CONGRESS ASSEMBLED, AND TO TOM TRULOVE, CHAIR OF THE NORTHWEST POWER PLANNING COUNCIL:

We, your Memorialists, the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Washington, in legislative session assembled, respectfully represent and petition as follows:

WHEREAS, The anadromous salmon and steelhead originating in the Columbia River Basin must pass the Federal Columbia River Hydroelectric Projects on the Columbia and Snake Rivers on their migration to and from the Pacific Ocean; and

WHEREAS, Three of the dams do not have bypass facilities to steer juvenile anadromous fish away from turbine intakes, and a fourth dam has inadequate bypass facilities; and

WHEREAS, The Army Corps of Engineers, which operates the dams, has failed to provide sufficient spill to enable juvenile anadromous fish to bypass turbines on their downward migration; and

WHEREAS, The lack of bypass facilities and insufficient spill has resulted in significant mortality to salmon and steelhead in the Columbia River Basin; and

WHEREAS, The following parties recently negotiated an agreement providing for spills to reduce turbine mortality of anadromous fish at the Federal Columbia River Hydroelectric Projects: The United States Department of Energy, acting by and through the Bonneville Power Administration, the Pacific Northwest Utilities Conference Committee, on behalf of its member utilities and industries, the United States Department of Interior, the National Marine Fisheries Service, in its own capacity and as delegate for the United States Department of Commerce, the Washington Department of Fisheries and the Washington Department of Wildlife, the Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife, the Idaho Department of Fish and Game, the Columbia River Inter-Tribal Fish Commission, the Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs Reservation of Oregon, the Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation, the Confederated Tribes and Bands of the Yakima Indian Nation, the Confederated Tribes of the Colville Indian Reservation, and the Nez Perce Tribe of Idaho; and

WHEREAS, The agreement will substantially benefit efforts to increase the populations of the salmon and steelhead originating in the Columbia River Basin; and

WHEREAS, The Northwest Power Planning Council has amended the Columbia River Basin Fish and Wildlife Program for 1989-incorporating the provisions of the spill agreement on an interim basis at four Columbia and Snake River projects, and has further endorsed the installation of mechanical bypass facilities as superior to the present method of fish migrating through the turbines at the dams; and

WHEREAS, The Pacific Fisheries Legislative Task Force endorses the action taken by the Northwest Power Planning Council to amend the Columbia River Basin Fish and Wildlife Program to include the spill agreement, and requests the Council to expedite the amendment process to incorporate the provisions of the Spill Memorandum of Agreement; and

WHEREAS, The Washington State Legislature encourages the Northwest Power Planning Council to amend the Columbia Basin Fish and Wildlife Program to include the provisions of the Spill Memorandum of Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, Your Memorialists respectfully pray that the United States Congress direct the Army Corps of Engineers, as the operator of the Federal Columbia River Hydroelectric Projects, to implement the spill agreement and to install appropriate bypass facilities as soon as reasonably possible, and appropriate the funds necessary to finance expeditious construction of the bypass facilities.

BE IT RESOLVED, That copies of this Memorial be immediately transmitted to the Honorable George Bush, President of the United States, Tom Trulove, chair of the Northwest Power Planning Council, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and each member of Congress from the State of Washington."

Sommers, Spanel, Sprenkle, Tate, Todd, Valle, Van Luven, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Wang, K. Wilson, S. Wilson, Wineberry, Winsley, Wolfe, Wood, Youngsman and Zellinsky

WHEREAS, Drugs put at risk our state's most precious resource, young people, who will remain at risk until they extinguish the allure that drugs hold for so many of them; and

WHEREAS, Youth Celebration Day is a two-day annual festival held at the Mason County Fairgrounds, by the young people of Mason County and for the young people of Mason County, that brings to life the message that they do not need drugs to enjoy themselves; and

WHEREAS, This year's festival dates are March 31 through April 1, 1989; and

WHEREAS, Youth Celebration Day is an event totally planned and directed by Mason County students in grades six through twelve, with minimal supervision by the county's adults; and

WHEREAS, The young people of Mason County have been so enthusiastic about Youth Celebration Day that actual student attendance has exceeded attendance expectations by up to four hundred percent since the first celebration in 1987, with every sixth through twelfth grade student in Mason County expected to attend in 1989; and

WHEREAS, Mason County business community organizations and groups are recognized for their vigorous support of Mason County Youth Celebration Day; and

WHEREAS, Youth Celebration Day happens because the young people of Mason County have overwhelmingly devoted their time and themselves to make it happen, and their enthusiastic support of Youth Celebration Day is a manifestation of their conviction to live life to its fullest without drugs;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State House of Representatives honor the young people of Mason County and their Youth Celebration Day, for on that day they demonstrate their support for a drug-free America and affirm their future with faith in themselves, their county, their state and their country.

Mr. Sayan moved adoption of the resolution. Representatives Sayan, Ballard and Basich spoke in favor of the resolution.

On motion of Mr. Ballard, the rules were suspended and the names of all members of the House of Representatives were added as sponsors of the resolution.

House Floor Resolution No. 89-4653 was adopted.

MOTION

Mr. Appelwick moved that the remarks of Representatives Appelwick and R. Meyers regarding Substitute House Bill No. 1005 be spread upon the Journal.

Representatives Appelwick and Padden spoke in favor of the motion, and it was carried.

REMARKS BY REPRESENTATIVES APPELWICK AND R. MEYERS

Mr. Appelwick yielded to question by Mr. R. Meyers.

Mr. R. Meyers: Representative Appelwick, are the provisions of Substitute House Bill No. 1005 retroactive to the date the double amendments were adopted?

Mr. Appelwick: Bills correcting double amendments are procedural in nature. Procedural issues are by statute retroactive in their application.

Mr. R. Meyers: Is the double amendment regarding privileged communications retroactive back to 1987 when both bills passed?

Mr. Appelwick: In the case of the double amendments in Substitute House Bill No. 1005 dealing with privileged communications, both statutory sections are considered adopted and are law as long as they do not contradict each other. Neither of these bills contradict each other, and the amendments on privileged communications therefore stand as separate acts from the date of their original effectiveness. They would not be retroactively superseded.

CENTENNIAL MESSAGE FROM THE WASHINGTON STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

March 31, 1989

On this day in 1889, electric trolley cars began service in Seattle, replacing horse-drawn trolleys. And the brightest meteor seen in Washington since 1876 appeared around 9:15 p.m. in the southern sky, sweeping westward, leaving no trail. Its color was that of a zinc flame.

On March 31, 1966 a gray whale was in the Chehalis River near Grays Harbor. Because of its covering of barnacles, it became known as "Barney."

On March 31, 1971 the Atomic Energy Commission, under political pressure, agreed to operate the N-Reactor at Hanford for another three years, with the Washington Public Power Supply System paying the bill.

2SSB 5011 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Ways & Means: Providing for allocation of assets of an institutionalized spouse. Reported by Committee on Health Care

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 29, chapter 30, Laws of 1985 and RCW 11.94.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Although a designated attorney in fact or agent has all powers of absolute ownership of the principal, or the document has language to indicate that the attorney in fact or agent shall have all the powers the principal would have if alive and competent, the attorney in fact or agent shall not have the power, unless specifically provided otherwise in the document: To make, amend, alter, or revoke any of the principal's wills, codicils, life insurance beneficiary designations, employee benefit plan beneficiary designations, trust agreements, community property agreements; to make any gifts of property owned by the principal; to make transfers of property to any trust (whether or not created by the principal) unless the trust benefits the principal alone and does not have dispositive provisions which are different from those which would have governed the property had it not been transferred into the trust, or to disclaim property.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) of this section prohibits an attorney in fact or agent from making any transfer of resources not prohibited under ~~((RCW 74.09.532))~~ chapter 74.09 RCW when the transfer is for the purpose of qualifying the principal for medical assistance or the limited casualty program for the medically needy.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 30, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 5, Laws of 1985 and RCW 74.09.510 are each amended to read as follows:

Medical assistance may be provided in accordance with eligibility requirements established by the department of social and health services, ~~((including the prohibition under RCW 74.09.532 through 74.09.536 against the knowing and willful assignment of property or cash for the purpose of qualifying for such assistance.))~~ as defined in the social security Title XIX state plan for mandatory categorically needy persons and: (1) individuals who would be eligible for cash assistance except for their institutional status; (2) individuals who are under twenty-one years of age, who would be eligible for aid to families with dependent children, but do not qualify as dependent children and who are in (a) foster care, (b) subsidized adoption, (c) an intermediate care facility or an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded, or (d) inpatient psychiatric facilities; (3) the aged, blind, and disabled who: (a) Receive only a state supplement, or (b) would not be eligible for cash assistance if they were not institutionalized; (4) individuals who would be eligible for but choose not to receive cash assistance; (5) pregnant women who would be eligible for aid to families with dependent children if the child had been born and was living with the mother during the month of the payment, and the pregnancy has been medically verified; (6) individuals who are enrolled in managed health care systems, who have otherwise lost eligibility for medical assistance, but who have not completed a current six-month enrollment in a managed health care system, and who are eligible for federal financial participation under Title XIX of the social security act; and (7) other individuals eligible for medical services under RCW 74.09.035 and 74.09.700 for whom federal financial participation is available under Title XIX of the social security act.

Sec. 3. Section 22, chapter 6, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 4, chapter 5, Laws of 1985 and RCW 74.09.700 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) To the extent of available funds, medical care may be provided under the limited casualty program to persons not otherwise eligible for medical assistance or medical care services who are medically needy as defined in the social security Title XIX state plan and medical indigents in accordance with medical eligibility requirements established by the department. This includes residents of skilled nursing homes, intermediate care facilities, and intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded who are aged, blind, or disabled as defined in Title XVI of the federal social security act and whose income exceeds three hundred percent of the federal supplement security income benefit level.

(2) Determination of the amount, scope, and duration of medical coverage under the limited casualty program shall be the responsibility of the department, subject to the following:

(a) Only inpatient hospital services; outpatient hospital and rural health clinic services; physicians' and clinic services; prescribed drugs, dentures, prosthetic devices, and eyeglasses; skilled nursing home services, intermediate care facility services, and intermediate care facility services for the mentally retarded; home health services; other laboratory and x-ray services; rehabilitative services; medically necessary transportation; and other services for which funds are specifically provided in the omnibus appropriations act shall be covered;

(b) Persons who are medically indigent and are not eligible for a federal aid program shall satisfy a deductible of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars in any twelve-month period;

(c) Medical care services provided to the medically indigent and received no more than seven days prior to the date of application shall be retroactively certified and approved for payment on behalf of a person who was otherwise eligible at the time the medical services were furnished: PROVIDED, That eligible persons who fail to apply within the seven-day time period for medical reasons or other good cause may be retroactively certified and approved for payment.

(3) The department shall establish standards of assistance and resource and income exemptions. All nonexempt income and resources of limited casualty program recipients shall be applied against the cost of their medical care services. ~~(In addition, the department shall include a prohibition against the knowing and willful assignment of property or cash for the purpose of qualifying for assistance under RCW 74.09.532 through 74.09.536.)~~

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 74.09 RCW to read as follows:

MEDICAL ASSISTANCE FOR INSTITUTIONALIZED PERSONS—TREATMENT OF INCOME BETWEEN SPOUSES. (1) An agreement between spouses transferring or assigning rights to future income from one spouse to the other shall be invalid for purposes of determining eligibility for medical assistance or the limited casualty program for the medically needy, but this subsection does not affect agreements between spouses transferring or assigning resources, and income produced by transferred or assigned resources shall continue to be recognized as the separate income of the transferee.

(2) In determining eligibility for medical assistance or the limited casualty program for the medically needy for a married person in need of institutional care, or care under home and community-based waivers as defined in Title XIX of the social security act, if the community income received in the name of the nonapplicant spouse exceeds the community income received in the name of the applicant spouse, the applicant's interest in that excess shall be considered unavailable to the applicant.

(3) The department shall adopt rules consistent with the provisions of section 1924 of the social security act entitled 'Treatment of Income and Resources for Certain Institutionalized Spouses,' in determining the allocation of income between an institutionalized and community spouse.

(4) The department shall establish the monthly maintenance needs allowance for the community spouse up to the maximum amount allowed by state appropriation or within available funds and permitted in section 1924 of the social security act. The total monthly needs allowance shall not exceed one thousand five hundred dollars, subject to adjustment provided in section 1924 of the social security act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 74.09 RCW to read as follows:

MEDICAL ASSISTANCE FOR INSTITUTIONALIZED PERSONS—TREATMENT OF RESOURCES. (1) The department shall promulgate rules consistent with the treatment of resources provisions of section 1924 of the social security act entitled 'Treatment of Income and Resources for Certain Institutionalized Spouses,' in determining the allocation of resources between the institutionalized and community spouse.

(2) In the interest of supporting the community spouse the department shall allow the maximum resource allowance amount permissible under the social security act for the community spouse.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 74.09 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall, on December 15 of each even-numbered year, submit to the fiscal committees of the senate and the house of representatives a report covering the utilization and state and federal expenditures resulting from implementation of sections 4, 5, and 7 of this act. This report shall include the number of families affected by the provisions of these sections, the average amount of the income and resources transferred and the state and federal funds provided for the care of the institutionalized spouse.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 74.09 RCW to read as follows:

MEDICAL ASSISTANCE FOR INSTITUTIONALIZED PERSONS—PERIOD OF INELIGIBILITY FOR TRANSFER OF RESOURCES. (1) The department shall establish standards consistent with section 1917 of the social security act in determining the period of ineligibility for medical assistance due to the transfer of resources.

(2) The department may waive a period of ineligibility if the department determines that denial of eligibility would work an undue hardship.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 74.09 RCW to read as follows:

MEDICAL ASSISTANCE—DUE PROCESS PROCEDURES. The department shall in compliance with section 1924 of the social security act adopt procedures which provide due process for institutionalized or community spouses who request a fair hearing as to the valuation of resources, the amount of the community spouse resource allowance, or the monthly maintenance needs allowance.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. (1) Sections 7 and 8 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1989.

(2) Sections 1 through 5 of this act shall take effect October 1, 1989.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. Section captions, as found in sections 4 through 8 of this act, constitute no part of the law.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 1, chapter 3, Laws of 1981 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 74.09.532;
- (2) Section 2, chapter 3, Laws of 1981 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 74.09.534;
- (3) Section 3, chapter 3, Laws of 1981 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 74.09.536; and
- (4) Section 4, chapter 3, Laws of 1981 2nd ex. sess., section 41, chapter 75, Laws of 1987 and RCW 74.09.538."

2SSB 5065 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Ways & Means: Creating a citizen review board system for cases involving substitute care of children. Reported by Committee on Human Services

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes the importance of permanency and continuity to children and of fairness to parents in the provision of child welfare services.

The legislature intends to create a citizen review board system that will function in an advisory capacity to the judiciary, the department, and the legislature. The purpose of the citizen review board system is to:

(1) Provide periodic review of cases involving substitute care of children in a manner that complies with case review requirements and time lines imposed by federal laws pertaining to child welfare services;

(2) Improve the quality of case review provided to children in substitute care and their families; and

(3) Provide a means for community involvement in monitoring cases of children in substitute care.

In order to accomplish the foregoing purposes, the citizen review board system shall not be subject to the procedures and standards usually applicable to judicial and administrative hearings, except as otherwise specifically provided in this chapter and RCW 13.34.130, 13.34.145, and 26.44.115. Nothing in this chapter and RCW 13.34.130, 13.34.145, and 26.44.115 shall limit the ability of the department to utilize court review hearings and administrative reviews to meet the periodic review requirements imposed by federal law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Periodic case review of all children in substitute care shall be provided in King, Pierce, Snohomish, Yakima, Spokane, Clark, and Kitsap counties, in accordance with this chapter.

Superior courts in other counties may elect to utilize a citizen review process in accordance with this chapter by sending written notice to the Washington state supreme court. Within forty-five days of receiving such notice, the supreme court shall notify the superior court of the policies and procedures necessary to establish the citizen review process in accordance with this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Board' means the local citizen review board established pursuant to this chapter.

(2) 'Child' means a person less than eighteen years of age.

(3) 'Conflict of interest' means that a person appointed to a board has a personal or pecuniary interest in a case being reviewed by that board.

(4) 'Court' means the juvenile court.

(5) 'Custodian' means that person who has legal custody of the child.

(6) 'Department' means the department of social and health services.

(7) 'Mature child' means a child who is able to understand and participate in the decision-making process without excessive anxiety or fear. A child twelve years old or over shall be rebuttably presumed to be a mature child.

(8) 'Parent' or 'parents' means the biological or adoptive parents of a child unless the legal rights of that person have been terminated by judicial proceedings.

(9) 'Placement episode' means the period of time that begins with the date the child was removed from the home of the parent or legal custodian for the purposes of placement in substitute care and continues until the child returns home or an adoption decree or guardianship order is entered.

(10) 'Records' means any information in written form, pictures, photographs, charts, graphs, recordings, or documents pertaining to a case.

(11) 'Resides' or 'residence,' when used in reference to the residence of a child, means the place where the child is actually living and not the legal residence or domicile of the parent or guardian.

(12) 'Substitute care' means an out-of-home placement of a child for purposes related to the provision of child welfare services in accordance with chapter 74.13 RCW where the child is in the care, custody, and control of the department pursuant to a proceeding under chapter 13.34 RCW or pursuant to the written consent of the child's parent or parents or custodian.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The supreme court is requested to:

(1) Establish and approve policies and procedures for the creation, recruitment, and operation of local citizen substitute care review boards;

(2) Approve and cause to have conducted training programs for board members;

(3) Provide consultation services on request to the boards;

(4) Establish reporting procedures to be followed by the boards to provide data for the evaluation of this chapter;

(5) Monitor the boards to ensure the impartiality of reviews and consistency of review standards throughout the state;

(6) Employ staff and provide for support services for the boards which shall be provided with staff through the local juvenile court in accordance with guidelines and procedures established by the supreme court;

(7) Direct the administrator for the courts to carry out duties prescribed by the supreme court relating to the administration of this chapter;

(8) Submit a report to the governor, the appropriate committees of the legislature, and the public on January 1, 1991, and biennially thereafter. The report shall address the following issues:

(a) State laws, policies, and practices affecting permanence and appropriate care for children in the custody of the department and other agencies;

(b) Whether the boards are effective in bringing about permanence and appropriate care for children in the custody of the department and other agencies; and

(c) Whether adequate resources are available to permit the department to make reasonable efforts to keep families together.

(9) Adopt rules regarding:

(a) Procedures for providing written notice of the review to the department, any other child placement agency directly responsible for supervising the placement of the child, the child's parents and their attorneys, the child's legal custodians and their attorneys, mature children and their attorneys, the court-appointed attorney and guardian ad litem of any child, any prosecuting attorney or attorney general actively involved in the case, and the child's Indian tribe if the child is an Indian as defined in the Indian child welfare act, 25 U.S.C. 1901, et seq. The notice shall include advice that persons receiving a notice may participate in the review and be accompanied by a representative;

(b) Procedures for removing members from the board for nonparticipation or other good cause.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Each board shall be composed of five members appointed by the juvenile court. Three members shall constitute a quorum.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Each board shall be appointed according to the following guidelines:

(1) Members of each board shall represent the various socioeconomic and ethnic groups of the area served.

(2) No person employed by a juvenile court or by the department for purposes related to the provision of child welfare services under chapter 74.13 RCW may serve on any board. No more than one person from any private agency or individual licensed by the department to provide child welfare services under chapter 74.13 RCW may serve on any board. A majority of the members on each board shall be persons who have no current professional or volunteer relationship with the department.

(3) No person who has had a child of his or her own, or one under his or her control, placed in substitute care within the last two years may serve on any board.

(4) All board members must be of good character and must demonstrate the understanding, ability, and judgment necessary to carry out the duties under this chapter.

(5) All board members shall serve a term of two years, except that if a vacancy occurs, a successor shall be appointed to serve the unexpired term. The terms of the initial members shall be staggered. Members may be reappointed for a maximum of one additional term. Additional terms are subject to the availability of sufficient volunteers.

(6) Each board shall elect annually from its membership a chair and vice-chair to serve in the absence of the chair.

(7) Board members shall be domiciled within the counties of the appointing courts.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. Prior to reviewing cases, all persons appointed to serve as board members shall participate in a training program established and approved by the supreme court. Board members shall participate in at least sixteen hours of training prior to reviewing cases and, thereafter, at least eight hours of training annually.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. (1) Before beginning to serve on a board, each member shall swear or affirm to the court that the member shall keep confidential the information reviewed by the board and its actions and recommendations in individual cases.

(2) A member of a board who violates the duty imposed by subsection (1) of this section is subject to dismissal from the board and other penalties as provided by law.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. Each board shall have access to the following information unless disclosure is otherwise specifically prohibited by law:

(1) Any records of the court which are pertinent to the case;

(2) Any records of the department pertaining to the child, the child's parents, or legal custodian; and

(3) Any records in the possession of an agency or other entity pertaining to the child, the child's parents, or legal custodian if such records are relevant to review of the case.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. The department and any other agency directly responsible for the care and placement of the child in substitute care shall require the employee who has primary case-planning responsibility for the case to attend the review. If the employee is unable to attend the review, an employee with knowledge of the case plan shall attend the review.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. (1) Whenever a member of a board has a potential conflict of interest in a case being reviewed, the member shall declare to the board the nature of the potential conflict prior to participating in the case review. The declaration of the member shall be recorded in the official records of the board and disclosed to all parties participating in the review. If, in the judgment of the majority of the local board, the potential conflict of interest may prevent the member from fairly and objectively reviewing the case, the board may remove the member from participation in the review.

(2) The board shall keep accurate records, including a verbatim record of board reviews, and retain these records.

(3) The board may hold joint or separate reviews for groups of siblings.

(4) The board may disclose information to participants in the board review of a case. Before participating in a board review, each participant shall swear or affirm to the board that the participant shall keep confidential the information disclosed by the board in the case review and to disclose it only as authorized by law.

(5) Members of the board shall be held immune from suit and not be held liable in any civil action for recommendations made under this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. (1) This section shall apply to cases where a child has been placed in substitute care pursuant to written parental consent and a dependency petition has not been filed under chapter 13.34 RCW. If a dependency petition is subsequently filed and the child's placement in substitute care continues pursuant to a court order entered in a proceeding under chapter 13.34 RCW, the provisions set forth in section 13 of this act shall apply.

(2) Within thirty days following commencement of the placement episode, the department shall send a copy of the written parental consent to the juvenile court with jurisdiction over the geographical area in which the child resides.

(3) Within forty-five days following commencement of the placement episode, the court shall assign the child's case to a board and forward to the board a copy of the written parental consent to placement.

(4) The board shall review the case plan for each child in substitute care whose case is assigned to the board by the court. The review shall take place at times set by the board. The first review shall occur within ninety days following commencement of the placement episode. The second review shall occur within six months following commencement of the placement episode. The next review shall occur within one year following commencement of the placement episode unless the child is no longer in substitute care or unless a guardianship order or adoption decree is entered.

(5) The board shall prepare written findings and recommendations with respect to:

(a) Whether reasonable efforts were made before the placement to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the home;

(b) Whether reasonable efforts have been made subsequent to the placement to make it possible for the child to be returned home;

(c) Whether the child has been placed in the least-restrictive setting appropriate to the child's needs, including whether consideration has been given to placement with the child's relatives;

(d) Whenever there is a continuing need for and whether the placement is appropriate;

(e) Whether there has been compliance with the case plan;

(f) Whether progress has been made toward alleviating the need for placement;

(g) A likely date by which the child may be returned home or other permanent plan of care may be implemented; and

(h) Other problems, solutions, or alternatives the board determines should be explored.

(6) Within ten working days following the review, the board shall send a copy of its findings and recommendations to the child's parents and their attorneys, the child's custodians and their attorneys, mature children and their attorneys, and the department and other child placement agencies directly responsible for supervising the child's placement. If the child is an Indian as defined in the Indian child welfare act, 25 U.S.C. 1901 et seq., a copy of the board's findings and recommendations shall also be sent to the child's Indian tribe.

(7) If the department is unable or unwilling to implement the board recommendations, the department shall submit to the board, within ten working days after receipt of the findings and recommendations, an implementation report setting forth the reasons why the department is unable or unwilling to implement the board's recommendations. The report will also set forth the case plan which the department intends to implement.

(8) The court shall not review the findings and recommendations of the board in cases where the child has been placed in substitute care with signed parental consent unless a dependency petition has been filed and the child has been taken into custody under RCW 13.34.050.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) This section shall apply to cases where a child has been placed in substitute care pursuant to a proceeding under chapter 13.34 RCW.

(2) Within forty-five days following commencement of the placement episode, the court shall assign the child's case to a board and forward to the board a copy of the dependency petition and any shelter care or dependency disposition orders which have been entered in the case by the court.

(3) The board shall review the case plan for each child whose case is assigned to the board by the court. The review shall take place at times set by the board. The first review shall occur within ninety days following commencement of the placement episode. The second review shall occur within six months following commencement of the placement episode. The next review shall occur one year after commencement of the placement episode. Within eighteen months following commencement of the placement episode, a permanency planning hearing shall be held before the court in accordance with RCW 13.34.145. Thereafter, a board review or a court review hearing pursuant to RCW 13.34.130(4) shall take place at least once every six months until the child is no longer within the jurisdiction of the court or no longer in substitute care or until a guardianship order or adoption decree is entered. A court review hearing must occur at least once a year as provided in RCW 13.34.130. The board shall review any case where a petition to terminate parental rights has been denied, and such review shall occur as soon as practical but no later than forty-five days after the denial.

(4) The board shall prepare written findings and recommendations with respect to:

(a) Whether reasonable efforts were made before the placement to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the home, including whether consideration was given to removing the alleged offender, rather than the child, from the home;

(b) Whether reasonable efforts have been made subsequent to the placement to make it possible for the child to be returned home;

(c) Whether the child has been placed in the least-restrictive setting appropriate to the child's needs, including whether consideration has been given to placement with the child's relatives;

(d) Whether there is a continuing need for placement and whether the placement is appropriate;

(e) Whether there has been compliance with the case plan;

(f) Whether progress has been made toward alleviating the need for placement;

(g) A likely date by which the child may be returned home or other permanent plan of care may be implemented; and

(h) Other problems, solutions, or alternatives the board determines should be explored.

(5) Within ten working days following the review, the board shall send a copy of its findings and recommendations to the parents and their attorneys, the child's custodians and their attorneys, mature children and their attorneys, other attorneys or guardians ad litem appointed by the court to represent children, the department and other child placement agencies directly responsible for supervising the child's placement, and any prosecuting attorney or attorney general actively involved in the case. If the child is an Indian as defined in the Indian child welfare act, 25 U.S.C. Sec. 1901 et seq., a copy of the board's findings and recommendations shall also be sent to the child's Indian tribe.

(6) If the department is unable or unwilling to implement the board recommendations, the department shall submit to the board, within ten working days after receipt of the findings and recommendations, an implementation report setting forth the reasons why the department is unable or unwilling to implement the board's recommendations. The report will also set forth the case plan which the department intends to implement.

(7) Within forty-five days following the review, the board shall either:

(a) Schedule the case for further review by the board;

(b) File with the court a motion for a review hearing;

(c) Submit to the court the board's findings and recommendations, the department's implementation reports, if any, and a proposed amended court order agreed to by the parties to the action, if any.

(8) Upon receipt of the board's written findings and recommendations, the department's implementation report, if any, and the proposed amended court order, if any, the court shall either:

(a) Approve the recommendations; or

(b) Upon its own motion, schedule a review hearing.

(9) The findings and recommendations of the board and the department's implementation report, if any, shall become part of the department's case file and the court file pertaining to the child.

(10) Nothing in this section shall limit or otherwise modify the rights of any party to a dependency proceeding to request and receive a court review hearing pursuant to the provisions of chapter 13.34 RCW or applicable court rules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. In addition to reviewing individual cases of children in substitute care, boards may make recommendations to the court and the department concerning substitute care services, policies, procedures, and laws.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The administrator for the courts may apply for and receive funds from federal, local, and private sources for carrying out the purposes of this chapter.

Sec. 16. Section 3, chapter 259, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 23, chapter 109, Laws of 1988 and by section 2, chapter 234, Laws of 1988 and RCW 2.56.030 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

The administrator for the courts shall, under the supervision and direction of chief justice:

(1) Examine the administrative methods and systems employed in the offices of the judges, clerks, stenographers, and employees of the courts and make recommendations, through the chief justice, for the improvement of the same;

(2) Examine the state of the dockets of the courts and determine the need for assistance by any court;

(3) Make recommendations to the chief justice relating to the assignment of judges where courts are in need of assistance and carry out the direction of the chief justice as to the assignments of judges to counties and districts where the courts are in need of assistance;

(4) Collect and compile statistical and other data and make reports of the business transacted by the courts and transmit the same to the chief justice to the end that proper action may be taken in respect thereto;

(5) Prepare and submit budget estimates of state appropriations necessary for the maintenance and operation of the judicial system and make recommendations in respect thereto;

(6) Collect statistical and other data and make reports relating to the expenditure of public moneys, state and local, for the maintenance and operation of the judicial system and the offices connected therewith;

(7) Obtain reports from clerks of courts in accordance with law or rules adopted by the supreme court of this state on cases and other judicial business in which action has been delayed beyond periods of time specified by law or rules of court and make report thereof to supreme court of this state;

(8) Act as secretary of the judicial conference referred to in RCW 2.56.060;

(9) Formulate and submit to the judicial council of this state recommendations of policies for the improvement of the judicial system;

(10) Submit annually, as of February 1st, to the chief justice and the judicial council, a report of the activities of the administrator's office for the preceding calendar year;

(11) Administer programs and standards for the training and education of judicial personnel;

(12) Examine the need for new superior court and district judge positions under a weighted caseload analysis that takes into account the time required to hear all the cases in a particular court and the amount of time existing judges have available to hear cases in that court. The results of the weighted caseload analysis shall be reviewed by the board for judicial administration and the judicial council, both of which shall make recommendations to the legislature by January 1, 1989. It is the intent of the legislature that weighted caseload analysis become the basis for creating additional district court positions, and recommendations should address that objective;

(13) Provide staff to the judicial retirement account plan under chapter 2.14 RCW;

(14) Attend to such other matters as may be assigned by the supreme court of this state; ((and))

(15) Develop a curriculum for a general understanding of child development and treatment resources, as well as specific legal skills and knowledge of relevant statutes including chapters 13.32A and 13.34 RCW, cases, court rules, interviewing skills, and special needs of the abused or neglected child. This curriculum shall be completed and made available to all juvenile court judges, court personnel, and service providers by July 1, 1988; and

(16) Coordinate and assist in the administration of the local citizen care review board program under chapter 13.-- RCW (sections 1 through 15 of this act).

Sec. 17. Section 4, chapter 188, Laws of 1984 as amended by section 2, chapter 189, Laws of 1988, section 2, chapter 190, Laws of 1988, and by section 1, chapter 194, Laws of 1988 and RCW 13.34.130 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

If, after a fact-finding hearing pursuant to RCW 13.34.110, as now or hereafter amended, it has been proven by a preponderance of the evidence that the child is dependent within the meaning of RCW 13.34.030(2); after consideration of the predisposition report prepared pursuant to RCW 13.34.110 and after a disposition hearing has been held pursuant to RCW 13.34.110, the court shall enter an order of disposition pursuant to this section.

(1) The court shall order one of the following dispositions of the case:

(a) Order a disposition other than removal of the child from his or her home, which shall provide a program designed to alleviate the immediate danger to the child, to mitigate or cure any damage the child has already suffered, and to aid the parents so that the child will not be endangered in the future. In selecting a program, the court should choose those services that least interfere with family autonomy, provided that the services are adequate to protect the child.

(b) Order that the child be removed from his or her home and ordered into the custody, control, and care of a relative or the department of social and health services or a licensed child placing agency for placement in a foster family home or group care facility licensed pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW or in a home not required to be licensed pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW. Unless there is reasonable cause to believe that the safety or welfare of the child would be jeopardized or that efforts to reunite the parent and child will be hindered, such child shall be placed with a grandparent, brother, sister, stepbrother, stepsister, uncle, aunt, or first cousin with whom the child has a relationship and is comfortable, and who is willing and available to care for the child. An order for out-of-home placement may be made only if the court finds that reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the child's home and to make it possible for the child to return home and that:

(i) There is no parent or guardian available to care for such child;

(ii) The child is unwilling to reside in the custody of the child's parent, guardian, or legal custodian;

(iii) The parent, guardian, or legal custodian is not willing to take custody of the child;

(iv) A manifest danger exists that the child will suffer serious abuse or neglect if the child is not removed from the home and an order under RCW 26.44.063 would not protect the child from danger; or

(v) The extent of the child's disability is such that the parent, guardian, or legal custodian is unable to provide the necessary care for the child and the parent, guardian, or legal custodian has determined that the child would benefit from placement outside of the home.

(2) Whenever a child is ordered removed from the child's home, the agency charged with his or her care shall provide the court with a specific plan as to where the child will be placed, what steps will be taken to return the child home, and what actions the agency will take to maintain parent-child ties. All aspects of the plan shall include the goal of achieving permanence for the child.

(a) The agency plan shall specify what services the parents will be offered in order to enable them to resume custody, what requirements the parents must meet in order to resume custody, and a time limit for each service plan and parental requirement.

(b) The agency shall be required to encourage the maximum parent-child contact possible, including regular visitation and participation by the parents in the care of the child while the child is in placement.

(c) A child shall be placed as close to the child's home as possible, preferably in the child's own neighborhood, unless the court finds that placement at a greater distance is necessary to promote the child's or parents' well-being.

(d) The agency charged with supervising a child in placement shall provide all reasonable services that are available within the agency, or within the community, or those services which the department of social and health services has existing contracts to purchase. It shall report to the court if it is unable to provide such services.

(3) If there is insufficient information at the time of the disposition hearing upon which to base a determination regarding the suitability of a proposed placement with a relative, the child shall remain in foster care and the court shall direct the supervising agency to conduct necessary background investigations as provided in chapter 74.15 RCW and report the results of such investigation to the court within thirty days. However, if such relative appears otherwise suitable and competent to provide care and treatment, the criminal history background check need not be completed before placement, but as soon as possible after placement. Any placements with relatives, pursuant to this section, shall be contingent upon cooperation by the relative with the agency case plan and compliance with court orders related to the care and supervision of the child including, but not limited to, court orders regarding parent-child contacts and any other conditions imposed by the court. Noncompliance with the case plan or court order shall be grounds for removal of the child from the relative's home, subject to review by the court.

(4) Except for cases which are subject to the provisions of section 13 of this act regarding citizen review, the status of all children found to be dependent shall be reviewed by the court at least every six months from the beginning date of the placement episode or the date dependency is established, whichever is first, at a hearing in which it shall be determined whether court supervision should continue. The review shall include findings regarding the agency and parental completion of disposition plan requirements, and if necessary, revised permanency time limits.

For cases which are subject to the provisions of section 13 of this act, a court review hearing shall occur no later than eighteen months following commencement of the child's placement episode. Thereafter, court review hearings shall occur at least once every year until the child is no longer within the jurisdiction of the court or the child returns home or a guardianship order or adoption decree is entered. The court may review the case more frequently upon the court's own motion or upon the request of any party to the proceeding or the citizen review board assigned to the child's case.

(a) A child shall not be returned home at the review hearing unless the court finds that a reason for removal as set forth in this section no longer exists. The parents, guardian, or legal custodian shall report to the court the efforts they have made to correct the conditions which led to removal. If a child is returned, casework supervision shall continue for a period of six months, at which time there shall be a hearing on the need for continued intervention.

(b) If the child is not returned home, the court shall establish in writing:

(i) Whether reasonable services have been provided to or offered to the parties to facilitate reunion;

(ii) ~~((The extent to which))~~ Whether the child has been placed in the least-restrictive setting appropriate to the child's needs, including whether consideration has been given to placement with the child's relatives;

(iii) Whether there is a continuing need for placement and whether the placement is appropriate;

(iv) Whether there has been compliance with the case plan by the child, the child's parents, and the agency supervising the placement;

(v) Whether progress has been made toward correcting the problems that necessitated the child's placement in out-of-home care;

(vi) Whether the parents have visited the child and any reasons why visitation has not occurred or has been infrequent;

~~((iii))~~ Whether the agency is satisfied with the cooperation given to it by the parents;

~~((iv))~~ (vii) Whether additional services are needed to facilitate the return of the child to the child's parents; if so, the court shall order that reasonable services be offered; and

~~((v))~~ ~~When return of the child can be expected~~ (viii) The projected date by which the child will be returned home or other permanent plan of care will be implemented.

(c) The court at the review hearing may order that a petition seeking termination of the parent and child relationship be filed.

Sec. 18. Section 3, chapter 194, Laws of 1988 and RCW 13.34.145 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((A dependency may only be maintained for a maximum period of two years, at which time the court shall:))~~

(1) In all cases where a child has been placed in substitute care for at least fifteen months, a permanency planning hearing shall be held before the court no later than eighteen months following commencement of the placement episode.

(2) At the permanency planning hearing, the court shall enter findings as required by RCW 13.34.130(4). In addition the court shall: (a) Approve a permanent plan of care which can include one of the following: Adoption, guardianship, or placement of the child in the home of the child's parent; ((f2)) (b) require filing of a petition for termination of parental rights; or ((f3)) (c) dismiss the dependency, unless the court finds, based on clear, cogent, and convincing evidence, that it is in the best interest of the child to continue the dependency beyond two years, based on a permanent plan of care. Extensions may only be granted in increments of ((six)) twelve months or less ((unless a juvenile court guardianship is in effect)).

Sec. 19. Section 4, chapter 183, Laws of 1985 and RCW 26.44.115 are each amended to read as follows:

If a child is taken into custody by child protective services pursuant to a court order issued under RCW 13.34.050, the child protective services worker shall take reasonable steps to advise the parents immediately, regardless of the time of day, that the child has been taken into custody, the reasons why the child was taken into custody, and general information about the child's placement. Notice of the citizen review board process under chapter 13.— RCW (sections 1 through 15 of this act) and the parents' rights under that process shall be provided to the parents within seventy-two hours after the child is removed from the home. Notice may be given by any means reasonably certain of notifying the parents, including but not limited to, written, telephonic, or in-person oral notification. If the initial notification is provided by a means other than writing, the information shall also be provided to the parent in writing as soon thereafter as possible.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. If specific funding for the purposes of this act, referencing this act by bill number, is not provided by June 30, 1989, in the omnibus appropriations act, this act shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. Sections 1 through 15 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 13 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1989. However, until July 1, 1990, procedures established for review of cases not subject to citizen review may be used in those counties subject to citizen review under this act.

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 10, chapter 234, Laws of 1986 and RCW 35.02.078 are each amended to read as follows:

An election shall be held in the area proposed to be incorporated to determine whether the proposed city or town shall be incorporated (~~if the boundary review board approves or modifies and approves the proposal, or~~) if the county legislative authority does not disapprove the proposal as provided in RCW 35.02.070. Voters at this election shall determine if the area is to be incorporated.

The initial election on the question of incorporation shall be held at the next special election date specified in RCW 29.13.020 that occurs sixty or more days after the final public hearing by the county legislative authority or authorities, or (~~the approval or modification and approval~~) by the boundary review board or boards. The county legislative authority or authorities shall call for this election and, if the incorporation is approved, shall call for other elections to elect the elected officials as provided in this section. If the vote in favor of the incorporation receives forty percent or less of the total vote on the question of incorporation, no new election on the question of incorporation for the area or any portion of the area proposed to be incorporated may be held for a period of three years from the date of the election in which the incorporation failed.

If the incorporation is authorized as provided by RCW 35.02.120, separate elections shall be held to nominate and elect persons to fill the various elective offices prescribed by law for the population and type of city or town, and to which it will belong. The primary election to nominate candidates for these elective positions shall be held at the next special election date, as specified in RCW 29.13.020, that occurs sixty or more days after the election on the question of incorporation. The election to fill these elective positions shall be held at the next special election date, as specified in RCW 29.13.020, that occurs thirty or more days after certification of the results of the primary election.

Sec. 2. Section 15, chapter 189, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 7, chapter 477, Laws of 1987 and RCW 36.93.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The board, upon review of any proposed action, shall take such of the following actions as it deems necessary to best carry out the intent of this chapter:

(1) Approval of the proposal as submitted;

(2) Subject to RCW 35.02.170, modification of the proposal by adjusting boundaries to add or delete territory: PROVIDED, That any proposal for annexation by the board shall be subject to RCW 35.21.010 and shall not add additional territory, the amount of which is greater than that included in the original proposal: PROVIDED FURTHER, That such modifications shall not interfere with the authority of a city, town, or special purpose district to require or not require preannexation agreements, covenants, or petitions: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That a board shall not modify a proposed incorporation of a city by removing territory from the proposal, or adding territory to the proposal, that constitutes ten percent or more of the total area included within the proposal before the board;

(3) Determination of a division of assets and liabilities between two or more governmental units where relevant;

(4) Determination whether, or the extent to which, functions of a special purpose district are to be assumed by an incorporated city or town, metropolitan municipal corporation, or another existing special purpose district; or

(5) Disapproval of the proposal except that the board shall not have jurisdiction: (a) To disapprove the dissolution or disincorporation of a special purpose district which is not providing services but shall have jurisdiction over the determination of a division of the assets and liabilities of a dissolved or disincorporated special purpose district (PROVIDED That a board shall not have jurisdiction); (b) over the division of assets and liabilities of a special purpose district that is dissolved or disincorporated pursuant to chapter 36.96 RCW; nor (c) disapprove the incorporation of a city or disincorporation of a city or town.

Unless the board shall disapprove a proposal, it shall be presented under the appropriate statute for approval of a public body and, if required, a vote of the people. A proposal that has been modified shall be presented under the appropriate statute for approval of a public body and if required, a vote of the people. If a proposal, other than that for a city, town, or special purpose district annexation, after modification does not contain enough signatures of persons within the modified area, as are required by law, then the initiating party, parties or governmental unit has thirty days after the modification decision to secure enough signatures to satisfy the legal requirement. If the signatures cannot be secured then the proposal may be submitted to a vote of the people, as required by law.

The addition or deletion of property by the board shall not invalidate a petition which had previously satisfied the sufficiency of signature provisions of RCW 35.13.130 or 35A.14.120. When the board, after due proceedings held, disapproves a proposed action other than an incorporation or disincorporation of a city or town, such proposed action shall be unavailable, the proposing agency shall be without power to initiate the same or substantially the same as determined by the board, and any succeeding acts intended to or tending to effectuate that action shall be void, but such action may be reintiated after a period of twelve months from date of disapproval and shall again be subject to the same consideration.

The board shall not modify or deny a proposed action unless there is evidence on the record to support a conclusion that the action is inconsistent with one or more of the objectives under RCW 36.93.180. Every such determination to modify or deny a proposed action shall be made in writing pursuant to a motion, and shall be supported by appropriate written findings and conclusions, based on the record. A document describing an action, finding, or conclusion made by a boundary review board may be signed by the chairman or vice-chairman at or out of a public meeting.

The board shall review and approve, disapprove, or modify any of the actions set forth in RCW 36.93.090 when any of the following shall occur within forty-five days of the filing of a notice of intention:

(1) Three members of a five-member boundary review board or five members of a boundary review board in a class AA county files a request for review: PROVIDED, That the members of the boundary review board shall not be authorized to file a request for review of the following actions:

(a) The incorporation or change in the boundary of any city, town, or special purpose district;

(b) The extension of permanent water service outside of its existing corporate boundaries by a city, town, or special purpose district where such extension is through the installation of water mains of six inches or less in diameter; or

(c) The extension of permanent sewer service outside of its existing corporate boundaries by a city, town, or special purpose district where such extension is through the installation of sewer mains of eight inches or less in diameter;

(2) Any governmental unit affected, including the governmental unit for which the boundary change or extension of permanent water or sewer service is proposed, or the county within which the area of the proposed action is located, files a request for review of the specific action;

(3) A petition requesting review is filed and is signed by:

(a) Five percent of the registered voters residing within the area which is being considered for the proposed action (as determined by the boundary review board in its discretion subject to immediate review by writ of certiorari to the superior court); or

(b) An owner or owners of property consisting of five percent of the assessed valuation within such area;

(4) The majority of the members of boundary review boards concur with a request for review when a petition requesting the review is filed by five percent of the registered voters who deem themselves affected by the action and reside within one-quarter mile of the proposed action but not within the jurisdiction proposing the action.

If a period of forty-five days shall elapse without the board's jurisdiction having been invoked as set forth in this section, the proposed action shall be deemed approved.

If a review of a proposal is requested, the board shall make a finding as prescribed in RCW 36.93.150 within one hundred twenty days after the filing of such a request for review. If this period of one hundred twenty days shall elapse without the board making a finding as prescribed in RCW 36.93.150, the proposal shall be deemed approved unless the board and the person who submitted the proposal agree to an extension of the one hundred twenty day period.

Sec. 4. Section 5, chapter 147, Laws of 1984 and RCW 36.93.105 are each amended to read as follows:

The following actions shall not be subject to potential review by a boundary review board:

(1) Annexations of territory to a water or sewer district pursuant to RCW 36.94.410 through 36.94.440 (~~shall not be reviewed by a boundary review board~~);

(2) Revisions of city or town boundaries pursuant to RCW 35.21.790 or 35A.21.210;

(3) Adjustments to city or town boundaries pursuant to section 24 of this act; and

(4) Adjustments to city and town boundaries pursuant to sections 12 through 15 of this act.

In reaching a decision on a proposal or an alternative, the board shall consider the factors affecting such proposal, which shall include, but not be limited to the following:

(1) Population and territory; population density; land area and land uses; comprehensive ~~(use)~~ plans and zoning, as adopted under chapter 35.63, 35A.63, or 36.70 RCW; per capita assessed valuation; topography, natural boundaries and drainage basins, proximity to other populated areas; the existence and preservation of prime agricultural soils and productive agricultural uses; the likelihood of significant growth in the area and in adjacent incorporated and unincorporated areas during the next ten years; location and most desirable future location of community facilities;

(2) Municipal services; need for municipal services; effect of ordinances, governmental codes, regulations and resolutions on existing uses; present cost and adequacy of governmental services and controls in area; prospects of governmental services from other sources; probable future needs for such services and controls; probable effect of proposal or alternative on cost and adequacy of services and controls in area and adjacent area; the effect on the finances, debt structure, and contractual obligations and rights of all affected governmental units; and

(3) The effect of the proposal or alternative on adjacent areas, on mutual economic and social interests, and on the local governmental structure of the county.

The provisions of chapter 43.21C RCW, State Environmental Policy, shall not apply to incorporation proceedings covered by chapter 35.02 RCW.

The decisions of the boundary review board shall attempt to achieve the following objectives:

- (1) Preservation of natural neighborhoods and communities;
- (2) Use of physical boundaries, including but not limited to bodies of water, highways, and land contours;
- (3) Creation and preservation of logical service areas;
- (4) Prevention of abnormally irregular boundaries;
- (5) Discouragement of multiple incorporations of small cities and encouragement of incorporation of cities in excess of ten thousand population in heavily populated urban areas;
- (6) Dissolution of inactive special purpose districts;
- (7) Adjustment of impractical boundaries;
- (8) Incorporation as cities or towns or annexation to cities or towns of unincorporated areas which are urban in character; and
- (9) Protection of agricultural and rural lands which are designated for long term productive agricultural and resource use by a comprehensive plan adopted by the county legislative authority.

~~((10) Provide reasonable assurance that the extension of municipal services and the additional payments to be made by the property owners of the area to be annexed in the form of taxes will remain reasonably equal to the value of the additional municipal services to be received during a period of ten years following the effective date of the proposed annexation. This objective shall apply only to cities with a population of 400,000 or more which initiates a resolution for annexation proceedings)).~~

Sec. 7. Section 2, chapter 220, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 25, chapter 234, Laws of 1986 and RCW 35.02.170 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Centerlines of public streets, roads or highways shall not be used to define any part of a boundary of a city or town in an incorporation or annexation proceeding.))~~ The right of way line of any public street, road or highway, or any segment thereof, may be used to define a part of a corporate boundary in an incorporation ~~((or annexation))~~ proceeding. The boundaries of a newly incorporated city or town shall not include a portion of the right of way of any public street, road or highway except where the boundary runs from one edge of the right of way to the other edge of the right of way.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 35.13 RCW to read as follows:

The boundaries of a city or town arising from an annexation of territory shall not include a portion of the right of way of any public street, road, or highway except where the boundary runs from one edge of the right of way to the other edge of the right of way. However, the right of way line of any public street, road, or highway, or any segment thereof, may be used to define a part of a corporate boundary in an annexation proceeding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 35A.14 RCW to read as follows:

The boundaries of a code city arising from an annexation of territory shall not include a portion of the right of way of any public street, road, or highway except where the boundary runs from one edge of the right of way to the other edge of the right of way. However, the right of way line of any public street, road, or highway, or any segment thereof, may be used to define a part of a corporate boundary in an annexation proceeding.

Sec. 10. Section 17, chapter 220, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 35.21.790 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The governing bodies of a county and any city or town located therein may by agreement revise any part of the corporate boundary of the city or town which coincides with the centerline, edge, or any portion of a public street, road or highway right of way by substituting therefor a right of way line of the same public street, road or highway so as fully to include or fully to exclude that segment of the public street, road or highway from the corporate limits of the city or town.

(2) The revision of a corporate boundary as authorized by this section shall become effective when approved by ordinance of the city or town council or commission and by ordinance or resolution of the ~~((board of))~~ county ~~((commissioners or county council))~~ legislative authority. Such a boundary revision is not subject to potential review by a boundary review board.

Sec. 11. Section 18, chapter 220, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 35A.21.210 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The governing bodies of a county and any code city ~~((or town))~~ located therein may by agreement revise any part of the corporate boundary of the city ~~((or town))~~ which coincides with the centerline, edge, or any portion of a public street, road or highway right of way by substituting therefor a right of way line of the same public street, road or highway so as fully to include or fully to exclude that segment of the public street, road or highway from the corporate limits of the city ~~((or town))~~.

(2) The revision of a corporate boundary as authorized by this section shall become effective when approved by ordinance of the city ~~((or town))~~ council ~~((or commission))~~ and by ordinance or resolution of the ~~((board of county commissioners or))~~ county ~~((council))~~ legislative authority. Such a boundary revision is not subject to potential review by a boundary review board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 35.13 RCW to read as follows:

The purpose of sections 12 through 15 of this act is to establish a process for the adjustment of existing or proposed city boundary lines to avoid a situation where a common boundary line is or would be located within a right of way of a public street, road, or highway, or a situation where two cities are separated or would be separated by only the right of way of a public street, road, or highway, other than situations where a boundary line runs from one edge of the right of way to the other edge of the right of way.

As used in sections 12 through 15 of this act, 'city' includes every city or town in the state, including a code city operating under Title 35A RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 35.13 RCW to read as follows:

(1) This section provides a method to adjust the boundary lines between two cities where the two cities share a common boundary within a right of way of a public street, road, or highway, or the two cities have a portion of their boundaries separated only by all or part of the right of way of a public street, road, or highway. However, this section does not apply to situations where a boundary line runs from one edge of the right of way to the other edge of the right of way.

(2) The councils of any two cities in a situation described in subsection (1) of this section may enter into an agreement to alter those portions of their boundaries that are necessary to eliminate this situation and create a partial common boundary on either edge of the right of way of the public street, road, or highway. An agreement made under this section shall include only boundary line adjustments between the two cities that are necessary to eliminate the situation described in subsection (1) of this section.

A boundary line adjustment under this section is not subject to potential review by a boundary review board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. A new section is added to chapter 35.13 RCW to read as follows:

The councils of any two cities that will be in a situation described in section 13(1) of this act as the result of a proposed annexation by one of the cities may enter into an agreement to adjust those portions of the annexation proposal and the boundaries of the city that is not proposing the annexation. Such an agreement shall not be effective unless the annexation is made.

The annexation proposal shall proceed if such an agreement were not made, but any resulting boundaries between the two cities that meet the descriptions of section 13(1) of this act shall be adjusted by agreement between the two cities within one hundred eighty days of the effective date of the annexation, or the county legislative authority of the county within which the right of way is located shall adjust the boundaries within a sixty-day period immediately following the one hundred eightieth day.

An agreement or adjustment made by a county under this section shall include only boundary line adjustments between the two cities that are necessary to eliminate the situation described in section 13(1) of this act.

A boundary line adjustment under this section is not subject to potential review by a boundary review board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 35.13 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The purpose of this section is to avoid situations arising where the boundaries of an existing city and a newly incorporated city would create a situation described in section 13(1) of this act.

(2) A boundary review board that reviews the boundaries of a proposed incorporation may enter into an agreement with the council of a city, that would be in a situation described in subsection (1) of this section as the result of a proposed incorporation of a city, to adjust the boundary line of the city and those of the city proposed to be incorporated to avoid this situation described in subsection (1) of this section if the incorporation were to be approved by the voters. Such an agreement shall not be effective unless the incorporation occurs.

The incorporation proposal shall proceed if such an agreement were not made, but any resulting boundaries between the two cities that meet create a situation described in section 13(1) of this act shall be adjusted by agreement between the two cities within one hundred eighty days of the official date of the incorporation, or the county legislative authority of the county within which the right of way is located shall adjust the boundaries within a sixty-day period immediately following the one hundred eightieth day.

An agreement or adjustment made by a county under this section shall include only boundary line adjustments between the two cities that are necessary to eliminate the situation described in section 13(1) of this act.

A boundary line adjustment under this section is not subject to potential review by a boundary review board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 36.93 RCW to read as follows:

Boundary review board approval, or modification and approval, of a proposed annexation by a city, town, or special purpose district shall authorize annexation as approved and shall not authorize any other annexation action.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. A new section is added to chapter 36.93 RCW to read as follows:

The boundary review board in class AA counties shall consist of eleven members chosen as follows:

- (1) Three persons shall be appointed by the governor;
- (2) Three persons shall be appointed by the county appointing authority;
- (3) Three persons shall be appointed by the mayors of the cities and towns located within the county; and
- (4) Two persons shall be appointed by the board from nominees of special districts in the county.

The governor shall designate one initial appointee to serve a term of two years, and two initial appointees to serve terms of four years, if the appointments are made in an odd-numbered year, or one initial appointee to serve a term of one year, and two initial appointees to serve terms of three years, if the appointments are made in an even-numbered year, with the length of the term being calculated from the first day of February in the year the appointment was made.

The county appointing authority shall designate one of its initial appointees to serve a term of two years, and two of its initial appointees to serve terms of four years, if the appointments are made in an odd-numbered year, or one of its initial appointees to serve a term of one year, and two of its initial appointees to serve terms of three years, if the appointments are made in an even-numbered year, with the length of the term being calculated from the first day of February in the year the appointment was made.

The mayors making the initial city and town appointments shall designate two of their initial appointees to serve terms of two years, and one of their initial appointees to serve a term of four years, if the appointments are made in an odd-numbered year, or two of their initial appointees to serve terms of one year, and one of their initial appointees to serve a term of three years, if the appointments are made in an even-numbered year, with the length of the term being calculated from the first day of February in the year the appointment was made.

The board shall make two initial appointments from the nominees of special districts, with one appointee serving a term of four years and one initial appointee serving a term of two years, if the appointments are made in an odd-numbered year, or one initial appointee serving a term of three years and one initial appointee serving a term of one year if the appointments are made in an even-numbered year, with the length of the term being calculated from the first day of March in the year in which the appointment is made.

After the initial appointments, all appointees shall serve four-year terms.

No appointee may be an official or employee of the county or a governmental unit in the county, or a consultant or advisor on a contractual or regular retained basis of the county, any governmental unit in the county, or any agency or association thereof.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 18. A new section is added to chapter 36.93 RCW to read as follows:

The boundary review board in all counties other than class AA counties shall consist of five members chosen as follows:

- (1) Two persons shall be appointed by the governor;
- (2) One person shall be appointed by the county appointing authority;
- (3) One person shall be appointed by the mayors of the cities and towns located within the county; and
- (4) One person shall be appointed by the board from nominees of special districts in the county.

The governor shall designate one initial appointee to serve a term of two years, and one initial appointee to serve a term of four years, if the appointments are made in an odd-numbered year, or one initial appointee to serve a term of one year, and one initial appointee to serve a term of three years, if the appointments are made in an even-numbered year, with the length of a term being calculated from the first day of February in the year that the appointment was made.

The initial appointee of the county appointing authority shall serve a term of two years, if the appointment is made in an odd-numbered year, or a term of one year, if the appointment is made in an even-numbered year. The initial appointee by the mayors shall serve a term of four years, if the appointment is made in an odd-numbered year, or a term of three years, if the appointment is made in an even-numbered year. The length of the term shall be calculated from the first day in February in the year the appointment was made.

The board shall make one initial appointment from the nominees of special districts to serve a term of two years if the appointment is made in an odd-numbered year, or a term of one year if the appointment is made in an even-numbered year, with the length of the term being calculated from the first day of March in the year in which the appointment is made.

After the initial appointments, all appointees shall serve four-year terms.

No appointee may be an official or employee of the county or a governmental unit in the county, or a consultant or advisor on a contractual or regular retained basis of the county, any governmental unit in the county, or any agency or association thereof.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 19. A new section is added to chapter 36.93 RCW to read as follows:

The executive of the county shall make the appointments under sections 17 and 18 of this act for the county, if one exists, or otherwise the county legislative authority shall make the appointments for the county.

The mayors of all cities and towns in the county shall meet on or before the last day of January in each odd-numbered year to make such appointments for terms to commence on the first day of February in that year. The date of the meeting shall be called by the mayor of the largest city or town in the county, and the mayor of the largest city or town in the county who attends the meeting shall preside over the meeting. Selection of each appointee shall be by simple majority vote of those mayors who attend the meeting.

Any special district in the county may nominate a person to be appointed to the board on or before the last day of January in each odd-numbered year that the term for this position expires. The board shall make its appointment of a nominee or nominees from the special districts during the month of February following the date by which such nominations are required to be made.

The county appointing authority and the mayors of cities and towns within the county shall make their initial appointments for newly created boards within sixty days of the creation of the board or shall make sufficient additional appointments to increase a five-member board to an eleven-member board within sixty days of the date the county becomes a class AA county. The board shall make its initial appointment or appointments of board members from the nominees of special districts located within the county within ninety days of the creation of the board or shall make an additional appointment of a board member from the nominees of special districts located within the county within ninety days of the date the county becomes a class AA county.

The term of office for all appointees other than the appointee from the special districts shall commence on the first day of February in the year in which the term is to commence. The term of office for the appointee from nominees of special districts shall commence on the first day of March in the year in which the term is to commence.

Vacancies on the board shall be filled by appointment of a person to serve the remainder of the term in the same manner that the person whose position is vacant was filled.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. A new section is added to chapter 36.93 RCW to read as follows:

Each boundary review board that is in existence as of the effective date of this section shall designate the terms of office of its members to conform with the staggering of terms as established under sections 17 and 18 of this act by September 1, 1989. The members who were appointed independently by the governor shall remain as gubernatorial appointees. The member or members who were appointed by the governor from nominees of the county legislative authority shall be considered to be appointees of the county. The member or members who were appointed by the governor from nominees of the mayors shall be considered to be appointees of the mayors. The member or members who were appointed by the governor from nominees of the special districts shall be considered to be appointees by the board from nominees of the special districts.

No board member may serve on a board more than eight consecutive years. However, any board member serving on the effective date of this section who has served or will serve in excess of this limitation as his or her term of office is adjusted under this section may remain in office for the remainder of his or her term.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. A new section is added to chapter 36.93 RCW to read as follows:

Whenever appointments under sections 17 through 20 of this act have not been made by the appointing authority, the size of the board shall be considered to be reduced by one member for each position that remains vacant or unappointed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. A new section is added to chapter 35.13 RCW to read as follows:

A city or town may cause a proposition authorizing an area to be annexed to the city or town to be submitted to the qualified voters of the area proposed to be annexed in the same ballot proposition as the question to authorize an assumption of indebtedness. If the measures are combined, the annexation and the assumption of indebtedness shall be authorized only if the proposition is approved by at least three-fifths of the voters of the area proposed to be annexed voting on the proposition, and the number of persons voting on the proposition constitutes not less than forty percent of the total number of votes cast in the area at the last preceding general election.

However, the city or town council may adopt a resolution accepting the annexation, without the assumption of indebtedness, where the combined ballot proposition is approved by a simple majority vote of the voters voting on the proposition.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. A new section is added to chapter 35A.14 RCW to read as follows:

A code city may cause a proposition authorizing an area to be annexed to the city to be submitted to the qualified voters of the area proposed to be annexed in the same ballot proposition as the question to authorize an assumption of indebtedness. If the measures are combined, the annexation and the assumption of indebtedness shall be authorized only if the proposition is approved by at least three-fifths of the voters of the area proposed to be annexed voting on the proposition, and the number of persons voting on the proposition constitutes not less than forty percent of the total number of votes cast in the area at the last preceding general election.

However, the code city council may adopt a resolution accepting the annexation, without the assumption of indebtedness, where the combined ballot proposition is approved by a simple majority vote of the voters voting on the proposition.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. A new section is added to chapter 35.13 RCW to read as follows:

The boundaries of a city shall be adjusted to include or exclude the remaining portion of a parcel of land located partially within and partially without of the boundaries of that city upon the governing body of the city adopting a resolution approving such an adjustment that was requested in a petition signed by the owner of the parcel. A boundary adjustment made pursuant to this section shall not be subject to potential review by the boundary review board of the county within which the parcel is located if the remaining portion of the parcel to be included or excluded from the city is located in the unincorporated area of the county and the adjustment is approved by resolution of the county legislative authority or in writing by a county official or employee of the county who is designated by ordinance of the county to make such approvals.

Where part of a single parcel of land is located within the boundaries of one city, and the remainder of the parcel is located within the boundaries of a second city that is located immediately adjacent to the first city, the boundaries of the two cities may be adjusted so that all of the parcel is located within either of the cities, if the adjustment was requested in a petition signed by the property owner and is approved by both cities. Approval by a city may be through either resolution of its city council, or in writing by an official or employee of the city who has been designated by ordinance of the city to make such approvals. Such an adjustment is not subject to potential review by the boundary review board of the county in which the parcel is located.

Whenever a portion of a public right of way is located on such a parcel, the boundary adjustment shall be made in such a manner as to include all or none of that portion of the public right of way within the boundaries of the city.

As used in this section, 'city' shall include any city or town, including a code city.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. A new section is added to chapter 35.02 RCW to read as follows:

Actions taken under chapter 35.02 RCW may be subject to potential review by a boundary review board under chapter 36.93 RCW.

SSB 5221 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Higher Education: Establishing the advance college payment program. Reported by Committee on Higher Education

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The treasurer shall study the feasibility of instituting an advance college payment program and submit a report, including recommendations, to the legislature by January 1, 1990. This study shall include, but not be limited to:

- (1) An examination of potential income tax and unrelated business income tax consequences of establishing a program;
- (2) Consideration of the impact of federal and state securities, insurance, and annuity laws on the sale of prepaid tuition contracts;
- (3) An examination of state constitutional issues raised by the establishment of a prepaid tuition program, including limitations on state debt and prohibitions on gifts and loans of the state's credit;
- (4) A review of state and federal financial aid policies and a determination of how such a program would impact present financial aid programs and how the plan matches the state's present and projected needs;
- (5) An examination of the effect such a program would have on tuition, enrollment, residency, and admission policies;
- (6) An actuarial analysis examining program risks and potential yields, computed over at least an eighteen-year horizon. This should include consideration of investment policy and participation rates necessary for maintaining an actuarially sound program;
- (7) An examination of alternative approaches to saving for college, including bonds, investment, and insurance programs, along with the ability of private sector financial institutions and others to provide such a program. This shall include an examination of whether or not private investment opportunities will do as well or better for purchasers as state programs and consideration of state restrictions on commercial activities;
- (8) Consideration of who should bear the risk and pay the difference if tuition costs increase faster than interest earnings or interest earnings are lower than expected and cannot cover tuition. This shall include an examination of how purchasers can be protected from investment shortfalls and the means by which the state can reduce its liability and risk in case the program proves to be actuarially unsound;
- (9) A determination of how much it would cost to start up and maintain an adequate program, including but not limited to staff, equipment, travel, and advertising needs;
- (10) Consideration of whether the plans should cover more than undergraduate tuition costs, such as room and board, mandatory fees, graduate tuition, books, materials, and fees. This shall include consideration of potential state tax incentives and whether the program should be limited to full-time or include part-time attendance;
- (11) An examination of ways to involve independent institutions in the program;
- (12) An examination of the portability of benefits across state lines, including the effect on reciprocity and other agreements; and
- (13) An examination of policy issues such as those raised by the education commission of the states and the college board."

SB 5222 Prime Sponsor, Senator Saling: Repealing the termination of the loan program for mathematics and science teachers. Reported by Committee on Higher Education

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The higher education coordinating board, with the cooperation of the superintendent of public instruction, shall study and report to the legislature on the advisability of either expanding the loan program for mathematics and science teachers to other fields of study in which there are shortages of qualified teachers in the state of Washington or including the program in the future teachers conditional scholarship program, as outlined in chapter 28B.102 RCW. The board shall submit the report by December of 1989. The report shall also include recommendations on:

- (1) Procedures and responsibilities for forecasting the need within the public schools of the state for teachers with specific skill specialties;
- (2) Student loan eligibility criteria and related procedures designed to attract prospective teachers into the specific skill specialties in which the greatest shortages are forecasted;
- (3) The advisability of reducing the loan payback period for loan recipients not meeting the terms of loan forgiveness;
- (4) The means of monitoring the student loan program to assure its continued effectiveness and efficiency; and

(5) Any other measures designed to enhance the purpose of the program.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 74, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28B.15.766 are each amended to read as follows:

No loans shall be made after August 23, ~~((1989, until the program is reviewed by the legislative budget committee and is reenacted by the legislature))~~ 1991."

"Sec. 1. Section 7, chapter 370, Laws of 1985 as amended by section 20, chapter 136, Laws of 1986 and RCW 28B.80.360 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall perform the following administrative responsibilities:

(1) Administer the programs set forth in the following statutes: Chapter 28A.58 RCW (Washington scholars); chapter 28B.04 RCW (displaced homemakers); chapter 28B.85 RCW (degree-granting institutions); RCW 28B.10.210 through 28B.10.220 (blind students subsidy); RCW 28B.10.800 through 28B.10.824 (student financial aid program); chapter 28B.12 RCW (work study); RCW 28B.15.067 through 28B.15.076 (educational costs for establishing tuition and fees); RCW 28B.15.543 (tuition waivers for Washington scholars); RCW 28B.15.760 through 28B.15.766 (math and science loans); RCW 28B.80.150 through 28B.80.170 (student exchange compact); RCW 28B.80.240 (student aid programs); ~~((and))~~ RCW 28B.80.210 (federal programs); and chapter 28B.-- RCW (sections 2 through 11 of this act) (governor's graduate teacher fellowship program).

(2) Study the delegation of the administration of the following: RCW 28B.65.040 through 28B.65.060 (high-technology board); chapter 28B.85 RCW (degree-granting institutions); RCW 28B.80.150 through 28B.80.170 (student exchange compact programs); RCW 28B.80.200 (state commission for federal law purposes); RCW 28B.80.210 (enumerated federal programs); RCW 28B.80.230 (receipt of federal funds); RCW 28B.80.240 (student financial aid programs); RCW 28A.58.824 through 28A.58.830 (Washington scholars); RCW 28B.15.543 (Washington scholars); RCW 28B.04.020 through 28B.04.110 (displaced homemakers); RCW 28B.10.215 and 28B.10.220 (blind students); RCW 28B.10.790, 28B.10.792, and 28B.10.802 through 28B.10.844 (student financial aid); RCW 28B.12.040 through 28B.12.070 (student work study); RCW 28B.15.100 (reciprocity agreement); RCW 28B.15.730 through 28B.15.736 (Oregon reciprocity); RCW 28B.15.750 through 28B.15.754 (Idaho reciprocity); RCW 28B.15.756 and 28B.15.758 (British Columbia reciprocity); and RCW 28B.15.760 through 28B.15.764 (math/science loans). The board shall report the results of its study and recommendations to the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Board' means the higher education coordinating board.

(2) 'Institutions of higher education' shall mean (a) any public university or college operated by the state of Washington or any political subdivision thereof or (b) any other university, college, school, or institute in the state of Washington offering instruction beyond the high school level which is a member institution of an accrediting association recognized by rule of the board for the purposes of this section. Any institution, branch, extension or facility operating within the state of Washington which is affiliated with an institution operating in another state must be a separately accredited member institution of the accrediting association. No institution of higher education shall be eligible to participate in a student financial aid program unless it agrees to and complies with program rules adopted under RCW 28B.10.822.

(3) 'Program' means the governor's graduate teacher fellowship program.

(4) 'Fellowship' means a conditional scholarship or loan that is forgiven in whole or in part if the recipient renders service as a teacher in the public or private schools of this state for five or more years after receiving the fellowship.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The governor's graduate teacher fellowship program is created. The program shall provide fellowship awards in recognition of the accomplishments of eligible graduate students pursuing a master's degree leading to initial or professional teacher certification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The board shall develop and administer the program and shall be responsible for monitoring and evaluating the effectiveness of the program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The board shall appoint an advisory committee comprised of teachers, school principals, and leaders in business, the social service field, government, and higher education. The advisory committee shall assist the board in:

- (1) Establishing guidelines for the administration of the program;
- (2) Developing eligibility criteria;
- (3) Developing a selection process; and
- (4) Selecting fellowship recipients.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The program shall be designed to:

- (1) Provide superior teaching candidates with financial assistance while they pursue a master's degree leading to an initial or professional certificate;
- (2) Increase the number of underrepresented minorities becoming teachers;
- (3) Reward scholastic and professional achievement;
- (4) Provide an incentive to students who are committed to becoming teachers; and
- (5) Encourage colleges and universities to identify students with the potential to be outstanding teachers who qualify for the program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) Fellowships available through the program shall include:

(a) Fellowships for graduate students enrolled full-time in a master's in teaching degree program leading to an initial teacher's certificate; and

(b) Fellowships for students enrolled in an approved master's degree program leading to a professional teacher's certificate.

(2) Up to one hundred fellowships shall be made available beginning in the 1990-91 school year as specified in the appropriations act for eligible graduate students enrolled in a master's in teaching degree program.

(3) Up to one hundred fifty fellowships shall be made available beginning in the 1990-91 school year as specified in the appropriations act for eligible graduate students enrolled in an approved master's degree program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) The board, in cooperation with an advisory committee, shall establish eligibility criteria and select fellowship recipients.

(2) Eligibility criteria shall require that recipients:

- (a) Be Washington residents;
- (b) Have potential ability in classroom teaching if seeking initial certificates;
- (c) Have demonstrated ability in classroom teaching if seeking professional certificates;
- (d) Have demonstrated academic excellence in undergraduate studies;
- (e) Be admitted to a master's in teaching degree program or an approved master's degree program; and
- (f) For individuals pursuing approved master's degree programs, provide evidence of recent employment in a Washington public or private P-12 school system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Each fellowship award shall specify:

(1) The amount of the award and shall apply to a total of one year of attendance, as defined by the institution of higher education the student is attending;

(2) That the use of the fellowship shall be subject to the various academic requirements, disciplinary standards, and other requirements and standards related to attendance and graduation established by the institution of higher education;

(3) That a fellowship recipient shall not be eligible to receive more than one award;

(4) That an award shall not exceed fifteen thousand dollars; and

(5) That, except in very special circumstances, recipients agree to register as full-time graduate students. In those very special circumstances when the board permits a recipient to register on a part-time basis, the board may grant a partial award.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) Participants in the program incur an obligation to repay the fellowship, with interest, unless they teach for five years in the schools of the state of Washington, under rules adopted by the board.

(2) The terms of the repayment, including deferral of the interest, shall be consistent with the terms of the federal guaranteed loan program. However, the board may adopt deferrals for special circumstances, including maternity leaves.

(3) The period for repayment shall be ten years, with payments accruing monthly or quarterly commencing nine months from the date the participant completes or discontinues the course of study.

(4) Twice the entire principal and interest of each payment shall be forgiven for each payment period in which the participant teaches in a school until the entire repayment obligation is satisfied or the borrower ceases to teach at a school in this state. Should the participant cease to teach at a school in this state before the participant's repayment obligation is completed, payments on the unsatisfied portion of the principal and interest shall begin the next payment period and continue until the remainder of the participant's repayment obligation is satisfied.

(5) The board is responsible for collection of repayments made under this section and shall exercise due diligence in such collection, maintaining all necessary records to insure that maximum repayments are made. Collection and servicing of repayments under this section shall be pursued using the full extent of the law, including wage garnishment if necessary, and shall be performed by entities approved for such servicing by the Washington student loan guaranty association or its successor agency. The board is responsible to forgive all or parts of such repayments under the criteria established in this section and shall maintain all necessary records of forgiven payments.

(6) Receipts from the payment of principal or interest or any other subsidies to which the board as administrator is entitled, which are paid by or on behalf of participants under this section, shall be deposited with the board and shall be used to cover the costs of granting the fellowships, maintaining necessary records, and making collections under subsection (5) of this section. The board shall maintain accurate records of these costs, and all receipts beyond those necessary to pay such costs shall be used to grant fellowships to eligible students.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 2 through 10 of this act shall expire on June 30, 1995.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Sections 2 through 11 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 28B RCW."

2SSB 5268 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Ways & Means: Regarding low-level radioactive waste surcharge. Reported by Committee on Energy & Utilities

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 3, chapter 2, Laws of 1986 and RCW 43.200.170 are each amended to read as follows:

The governor may assess surcharges and penalty surcharges on the disposal of waste at the Hanford low-level radioactive waste disposal facility. The surcharges may be imposed up to the maximum extent permitted by federal law. Moneys received under this section shall be deposited in the general fund. Thirty-five percent of all moneys retained by the state under this section shall be transferred to the perpetual maintenance fund until December 31, 1992, or until the site closure account balance reaches ten million dollars, whichever occurs first.

Sec. 2. Section 8, chapter 19, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 2, Laws of 1986 and RCW 43.200.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The director of ecology shall, in addition to the powers and duties otherwise imposed by law, have the following special powers and duties:

(1) To fulfill the responsibilities of the state under the lease between the state of Washington and the federal government executed September 10, 1964, covering one thousand acres of land lying within the Hanford reservation near Richland, Washington. The department of ecology may sublease to private or public entities all or a portion of the land for specific purposes or activities which are determined, after public hearing, to be in agreement with the terms of the lease and in the best interests of the citizens of the state consistent with any criteria that may be developed as a requirement by the legislature;

(2) To assume the responsibilities of the state under the perpetual care agreement between the state of Washington and the federal government executed July 29, 1965 and the sublease between the state of Washington and the site operator of the Hanford low-level radioactive waste disposal facility. In order to finance perpetual surveillance and maintenance under the agreement and ensure site closure under the sublease, the department of ecology shall impose and collect fees from parties holding radioactive materials for waste management purposes. The fees shall be established by rule adopted under chapter ~~((34-04))~~ 34.05 RCW and shall be an amount determined by the department of ecology to be necessary to defray the estimated liability of the state under the perpetual care agreement and the sublease. Before December 31, 1992, the total fee for both site closure and perpetual surveillance and maintenance shall not exceed two dollars and seventy-five cents per cubic foot of waste disposed. Such fees shall reflect equity between the disposal facilities of this and other states. All such fees, when received by the department of ecology, shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall act as custodian. The perpetual maintenance fund is created in the the state treasury. The treasurer shall place the money in a special ~~((account))~~ fund which may be designated the ~~'perpetual maintenance ((account)) fund.' ((Appropriations are required to permit expenditures and payment of obligations from this account, and the condition of the account and its administration shall be reported biennially to the legislature by the director.)) The perpetual maintenance fund shall be comprised of a site closure account and a perpetual surveillance and maintenance account. The site closure account shall be exclusively available to reimburse, to the extent that moneys are available in the account, the site operator for its costs plus a reasonable profit as agreed by the operator and the state, or to reimburse the state licensing agency and any agencies under contract to the state licensing agency for their costs in final closure and decommissioning of the Hanford low-level radioactive waste disposal facility. If a balance remains in the account after satisfactory performance of closure and decommissioning, this balance shall be transferred to the perpetual surveillance and maintenance account. The perpetual surveillance and maintenance account shall be used exclusively by the state to meet post-closure surveillance and maintenance costs, or for otherwise satisfying surveillance and maintenance obligations. Appropriations are required to permit expenditures and payment of obligations from the site closure account and the perpetual surveillance and maintenance account. All moneys currently administered by the department of ecology for closure of the Hanford low-level radioactive waste disposal facility shall be transferred to the site closure account within the perpetual maintenance fund. All future moneys contributed to the perpetual maintenance fund shall be directed to the site closure account until December 31, 1992. Thereafter receipts shall be directed to the perpetual maintenance fund as specified by the department except that fees for waste management shall no longer be collected if the closure account balance reaches ten million dollars before December 31, 1992. If the account balance does not reach ten million dollars before December 31, 1992, the state, on or about that date, shall adjust the waste management fee to a level predicted to bring the site closure account balance to ten million dollars by December 31, 1995. The condition of the fund and its administration shall be reported biennially to the legislature by the director. Moneys in the perpetual maintenance ((account)) fund shall be invested by the state investment board in the same manner as other state moneys. Any interest accruing as a result of investment shall accrue to the perpetual maintenance ((account)) fund. Additional moneys specifically appropriated by the legislature or received from any public or private source may be placed in the perpetual maintenance ((account). The perpetual maintenance account shall be used exclusively for surveillance and maintenance costs, or for otherwise satisfying surveillance and maintenance obligations)) fund:~~

(3) To assure maintenance of such insurance coverage by state licensees, lessees, or sub-lessees as will adequately, in the opinion of the director, protect the citizens of the state against nuclear accidents or incidents that may occur on privately or state-controlled nuclear facilities;

(4) To institute a user permit system and issue site use permits, consistent with regulatory practices, for generators, packagers, or brokers using the Hanford low-level radioactive waste disposal facility. The costs of administering the user permit system shall be borne by the applicants for site use permits. The site use permit fee shall be set at a level that is sufficient to fund completely the executive and legislative participation in activities related to the Northwest Interstate Compact on Low-Level Radioactive Waste Management; and

(5) To make application for or otherwise pursue any federal funds to which the state may be eligible, through the federal resource conservation and recovery act or any other federal programs, for the management, treatment or disposal, and any remedial actions, of wastes that are both radioactive and hazardous at all Hanford low-level radioactive waste disposal facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This act shall not take effect unless the legislature passes and the governor signs legislation which reduces the business and occupation rate imposed by RCW 82.04.260(13) to less than thirty percent."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "surcharges;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 43.200.170 and 43.200.080; and creating a new section."

ESSB 5314 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Education: Prohibiting persons convicted of sex crimes or other crimes affecting children from working in the public schools. Reported by Committee on Education

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 28A.70 RCW to read as follows:

Any certificate to teach authorized under the provisions of this chapter or rules and regulations promulgated thereunder may be revoked or suspended by the authority authorized to grant the same upon complaint of any school district superintendent or educational service district superintendent for immorality, violation of written contract, unprofessional conduct, intemperance, or crime against the law of the state. Any such certificate to teach shall be revoked by the authority authorized to grant the certificate upon a guilty plea or the conviction of any felony crime involving the physical neglect of a child under chapter 9A.42 RCW, the physical injury or death of a child under chapter 9A.32 or 9A.36 RCW (excepting motor vehicle violations under chapter 46.61 RCW), sexual exploitation of a child under chapter 9.68A RCW, sexual offenses under chapter 9A.44 RCW where a minor is the victim, promoting prostitution of a minor under chapter 9A.88 RCW, the sale or purchase of a minor child under RCW 9A.64.030, or violation of similar laws of another jurisdiction. The person whose certificate is in question shall be given an opportunity to be heard. Mandatory permanent revocation upon a guilty plea or the conviction of felony crimes specified under this section shall apply to such convictions and guilty pleas which occur after the effective date of this act. Revocation of a teaching certificate for a guilty plea or criminal conviction occurring prior to the effective date of this act shall be subject to the provisions of RCW 28A.70.160.

Sec. 2. Section 28A.70.180, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.70.180 are each amended to read as follows:

In case any certificate is revoked, the holder shall not be eligible to receive another teacher's certificate for a period of twelve months after the date of revocation. However, if the certificate was revoked because of a guilty plea or the conviction of a felony crime involving the physical neglect of a child under chapter 9A.42 RCW, the physical injury or death of a child under chapter 9A.32 or 9A.36 RCW (except motor vehicle violations under chapter 46.61 RCW), sexual exploitation of a child under chapter 9.68A RCW, sexual offenses under chapter 9A.44 RCW where a minor is the victim, promoting prostitution of a minor under chapter 9A.88 RCW, the sale or purchase of a minor child under RCW 9A.64.030, or violation of similar laws of another jurisdiction, the certificate shall not be reinstated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to Title 28A RCW to read as follows:

(1) The school district board of directors shall immediately terminate the employment of any classified employee who has contact with children during the course of his or her employment upon a guilty plea or conviction of any felony crime involving the physical neglect of a child under chapter 9A.42 RCW, the physical injury or death of a child under chapter 9A.32 or 9A.36 RCW (except motor vehicle violations under chapter 46.61 RCW), sexual exploitation of a child under chapter 9.68A RCW, sexual offenses under chapter 9A.44 RCW where a minor is the victim, promoting prostitution of a minor under chapter 9A.88 RCW, the sale or purchase of a minor child under RCW 9A.64.030, or violation of similar laws of another jurisdiction.

(2) The employee shall have a right of appeal under chapter 28A.88 RCW including any right of appeal under a collective bargaining agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to Title 28A RCW to read as follows:

The school district board of directors shall include in any contract for services with an entity other than an employee of the school district a provision requiring the contractor to prohibit any employee of the contractor from working at a public school who has contact with children at a public school during the course of his or her employment and who has pled guilty to or been convicted of any felony crime involving the physical neglect of a child under chapter 9A.42 RCW, the physical injury or death of a child under chapter 9A.32 or 9A.36 RCW (except motor vehicle violations under chapter 46.61 RCW), sexual exploitation of a child under chapter 9.68A RCW, sexual offenses under chapter 9A.44 RCW where a minor is the victim, promoting prostitution of a minor under chapter 9A.88 RCW, the sale or purchase of a minor child under RCW 9A.64.030, or violation of similar laws of another jurisdiction. The contract shall also contain a provision that any failure to comply with this section shall be grounds for the school district immediately terminating the contract.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to Title 28A RCW to read as follows:

The school district shall immediately terminate the employment of any person whose certificate is subject to revocation under RCW 28A.70.160 upon a guilty plea or conviction of any felony crime involving the physical neglect of a child under chapter 9A.42 RCW, the physical injury or death of a child under chapter 9A.32 or 9A.36 RCW (except motor vehicle violations under chapter 46.61 RCW), sexual exploitation of a child under chapter 9.68A RCW, sexual offenses under chapter 9A.44 RCW where a minor is the victim, promoting prostitution of a minor under chapter 9A.88 RCW, the sale or purchase of a minor child under RCW 9A.64.030, or violation of similar laws of another jurisdiction. Employment shall remain terminated unless the employee successfully prevails on appeal. This section shall only apply to certificated employees who have contact with children during the course of their employment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 43.43 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Upon a guilty plea or conviction of a person of any felony crime involving the physical neglect of a child under chapter 9A.42 RCW, the physical injury or death of a child under chapter 9A.32 or 9A.36 RCW (except motor vehicle violations under chapter 46.61 RCW), sexual exploitation of a child under chapter 9.68A RCW, sexual offenses under chapter 9A.44 RCW where a minor is the victim, promoting prostitution of a minor under chapter 9A.88 RCW, or the sale or purchase of a minor child under RCW 9A.64.030, the prosecuting attorney shall determine whether the person has a certificate to teach under chapter 28A.70 RCW or is employed by a school district. If the person is employed by a school district or certified under chapter 28A.70 RCW, the prosecuting attorney shall notify the state patrol of such guilty pleas or convictions.

(2) When the state patrol receives information that a person who has a certificate to teach or is employed by a school district has pled guilty to or been convicted of one of the felony crimes under subsection (1) of this section, the state patrol shall immediately transmit that information to the state board of education and the superintendent of public instruction.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "schools," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 28A.70.180; adding new sections to Title 28A RCW; adding a new section to chapter 28A.70 RCW; and adding a new section to chapter 43.43 RCW."

SSB 5357 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Financial Institutions & Insurance: Defining insurance education provider and establishing requirements for such providers. Reported by Committee on Financial Institutions & Insurance

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 48.17 RCW to read as follows:

It is unlawful for any unauthorized person to remove, reproduce, duplicate, or distribute in any form, any question(s) used by the state of Washington to determine the qualifications and competence of insurance agents, brokers, solicitors, or adjusters required by Title 48 RCW to be licensed. This section shall not prohibit an insurance education provider from creating and using sample test questions in courses approved pursuant to RCW 48.17.150.

Any person violating this section shall be subject to penalties as provided by RCW 48.01-.080 and 48.17.560.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 48.17 RCW to read as follows:

"Insurance education provider" means any insurer, health care service contractor, health maintenance organization, professional association, educational institution created by Washington statutes, or vocational school licensed under Title 28C RCW or independent contractor to which the commissioner has granted authority to conduct and certify completion of a course satisfying the insurance education requirements of RCW 48.17.150.

Sec. 3. Section .17.56, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 8, chapter 266, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 48.17.560 are each amended to read as follows:

After hearing or upon stipulation by the licensee or insurance education provider, and in addition to or in lieu of the suspension, revocation, or refusal to renew any such license or insurance education provider approval, the commissioner may levy a fine upon the licensee or insurance education provider. (1) For each offense ~~((tn))~~ the fine shall be an amount ~~((not less than fifty dollars and))~~ not more than ~~((five hundred dollars, but in no case more than a total of))~~ one thousand dollars. (2) The order levying such fine shall specify ~~((the period within which))~~ that the fine shall be fully paid ~~((and which period shall be))~~ not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days from the date of the order. (3) Upon failure to pay any such fine when due, the commissioner shall revoke the licenses of the licensee or the approval(s) of the insurance education provider, if not already revoked((, and)). The fine shall be recovered in a civil action brought ((tm)) on behalf of the commissioner by the attorney general. Any fine so collected shall be paid by the commissioner to the state treasurer for the account of the general fund.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 48.17 RCW to read as follows:

If an investigation of any provider culminates in a finding by the commissioner or by any court of competent jurisdiction, that the provider has failed to comply with or has violated any statute or regulation pertaining to insurance education, the provider shall pay the expenses reasonably attributable and allocable to such investigation.

(1) The commissioner shall calculate such expenses and render a bill therefor by registered mail to the provider. Within thirty days after receipt of such bill, the provider shall pay the full amount to the commissioner. The commissioner shall transmit such payment to the state treasurer. The state treasurer shall credit the payment to the office of the insurance commissioner regulatory account, treating such payment as recovery of a prior expenditure.

(2) In any action brought under this section, if the insurance commissioner prevails, the court may award to the office of the insurance commissioner all costs of the action, including a reasonable attorneys' fee to be fixed by the court.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 48.17 RCW to read as follows:

In addition to the regulatory requirements imposed pursuant to RCW 48.17.150, the commissioner may require each insurance education provider to post a bond, cash deposit, or irrevocable letter of credit. Every insurance education provider, other than an insurer, health care service contractor, health maintenance organization, or educational institution established by Washington statutes, is subject to the requirement.

(1) The provider shall file with each request for course approval and shall maintain in force while so approved, the bond, cash deposit, or irrevocable letter of credit in favor of the state of Washington, according to criteria which the commissioner shall establish by regulation. The amount of such bond, cash deposit, or irrevocable letter of credit, shall not exceed five thousand dollars for the provider's first approved course and one thousand dollars for each additional approved course.

(2) Proceeds from the bond, cash deposit, or irrevocable letter of credit shall inure to the commissioner for payment of investigation expenses or for payment of any fine ordered per Washington statutes or regulations governing insurance education: PROVIDED, That recoverable investigation expenses or fines shall not be limited to the amount of such required bond, cash deposit, or irrevocable letter of credit.

(1) Each such examination shall be of sufficient scope ((reasonably)) and difficulty to test the applicant's knowledge relative to the kinds of insurance which may be dealt with under the license applied for, and of the duties and responsibilities of, and laws of this state applicable to, such a licensee, and so as reasonably to assure that a passing score indicates that the applicant is qualified from the standpoint of knowledge and education.

(2) Examination as to ocean marine and related coverages may be waived by the commissioner as to any applicant deemed by the commissioner to be qualified by past experience to deal in such insurances.

(3) The commissioner shall prepare, or approve, and make available to insurers, general agents, brokers, agents, and applicants a printed manual specifying in general terms the subjects which may be covered in any examination for a particular license.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 48.17 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The commissioner may require insurance education providers to furnish information regarding their curricula, faculty, methods of monitoring attendance, and other matters reasonably related to providing insurance education under this chapter. The commissioner may grant approvals to such providers to conduct and certify completion of one or more courses satisfying the insurance education requirements of RCW 48.17.150.

(2) In granting approvals for courses required by RCW 48.17.150(1)(d):

(a) The commissioner may require the availability of a licensed agent on the premises whenever instruction is being offered; and

(b) The commissioner shall not deny approval to any provider on the grounds that the proposed method of education employs nontraditional teaching techniques, such as substituting taped lectures for live instruction, offering instruction without fixed schedules, or providing education at individual learning rates.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1989."

SSB 5419 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Environment & Natural Resources:
Allowing Oregon charter boats to fish in Washington waters.
Reported by Committee on Fisheries & Wildlife

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 90, Laws of 1969 as last amended by section 1, chapter 9, Laws of 1988 and RCW 75.28.095 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A charter boat license is required for a vessel to be operated as a charter boat from which food fish are taken for personal use. The annual license fees are:

	Resident Fee	Nonresident Fee
(a) Food fish other than salmon	$100	$200
(b) Salmon and other food fish	$200	$200

(2) 'Charter boat' means a vessel from which persons may, for a fee, fish for food fish, and which delivers food fish into state ports or delivers food fish taken from state waters into United States ports. 'Charter boat' does not mean:

(a) Vessels not generally engaged in charter boat fishing which are under private lease or charter and operated by the lessee for the lessee's personal recreational enjoyment; or

(b) Vessels used by guides for clients fishing for food fish for personal use in freshwater rivers, streams, and lakes, other than Lake Washington or that part of the Columbia River below the bridge at Longview.

(3) A charter boat licensed in Oregon shall be permitted to fish without a charter boat license in ocean waters within the jurisdiction of Washington state from the southern border of the state of Washington to Leadbetter Point under the same regulations as Washington charter boat operators, as long as the Oregon vessel does not land at any Washington port with the purpose of taking on or discharging passengers. The provisions of this subsection shall be in effect as long as the state of Oregon has reciprocal laws and regulations.

(4) A vessel shall not engage in both charter or sports fishing and commercial fishing on the same day. A vessel may be licensed for both charter boat fishing and for commercial fishing at the same time. The license or delivery permit allowing the activity not being engaged in shall be deposited with the fisheries patrol officer for that area or an agent designated by the director.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 101, Laws of 1979 as amended by section 142, chapter 46, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 75.30.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In addition to a salmon charter boat license, an angler permit is required to operate a salmon charter boat in salt water. The angler permit shall specify the maximum number of persons that may fish from the charter boat per trip and shall be issued annually without charge. The angler permit expires if the salmon charter boat license is not renewed.

(2) An angler permit shall not be required for charter boats licensed in Oregon and fishing in ocean waters within the jurisdiction of Washington state from the southern border of the state of Washington to Leadbetter Point under the same regulations as Washington charter boat operators, as long as the Oregon vessel does not land at any Washington port with the purpose of taking on or discharging passengers. The provisions of this subsection shall be in effect as long as the state of Oregon has reciprocal laws and regulations.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "boats;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 75.28.095 and 75.30.070."

ESB 5440 Prime Sponsor, Senator von Reichbauer: Regulating tow trucks.
Reported by Committee on Transportation

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 as amended by section 1, chapter 311, Laws of 1987 and by section 739, chapter 330, Laws of 1987 and RCW 46.55.010 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

The definitions set forth in this section apply throughout this chapter:

(1) 'Abandoned vehicle' means a vehicle that a registered tow truck operator has impounded and held in ~~(his)~~ the operator's possession for ninety-six consecutive hours.

(2) ~~'(Abandoned) Auctioned vehicle report'~~ means the document prescribed by the state that the towing operator forwards to the department after a vehicle has ~~(become abandoned) been sold or disposed of at an auction.~~

(3) 'Impound' means to take and hold a vehicle in legal custody. There are two types of impounds—public and private.

(a) 'Public impound' means that the vehicle has been impounded at the direction of a law enforcement officer or by a public official having jurisdiction over the public property upon which the vehicle was located.

(b) 'Private impound' means that the vehicle has been impounded at the direction of a person having control or possession of the private property upon which the vehicle was located.

(4) 'Junk vehicle' means a ~~(motor)~~ vehicle certified under RCW 46.55.230 as meeting all the following requirements:

(a) Is three years old or older;

(b) Is extensively damaged, such damage including but not limited to any of the following: A broken window or windshield or missing wheels, tires, motor, or transmission;

(c) Is apparently inoperable;

(d) Is without a valid, current registration plate;

(e) Has a fair market value equal only to the value of the scrap in it.

(5) 'Master log' means the document or an electronic facsimile prescribed by the department and the Washington state patrol in which an operator records transactions involving impounded vehicles.

(6) 'Registered tow truck operator' or 'operator' means any person who engages in the impounding, transporting, or storage of unauthorized vehicles or the disposal of abandoned vehicles.

~~((6))~~ (7) 'Residential property' means property that has no more than four living units located on it.

~~((7))~~ (8) 'Tow truck' means a motor vehicle that is equipped for and used in the business of towing vehicles with equipment as approved by the state patrol.

~~((8))~~ (9) 'Tow truck number' means the number issued by the department to tow trucks used by a registered tow truck operator in the state of Washington.

~~((9))~~ (10) 'Tow truck permit' means the permit issued annually by the department that has the classification of service the tow truck may provide stamped upon it.

~~((10))~~ (11) 'Tow truck service' means the transporting upon the public streets and highways of this state of vehicles, together with personal effects and cargo, by a tow truck of a registered operator.

~~((11))~~ (12) 'Unauthorized vehicle' means a vehicle that is subject to impoundment after being left unattended in one of the following public or private locations for the indicated period of time:

Subject to removal after:

(a) Public locations:

(i) Constituting an accident or a traffic hazard as defined in RCW ~~((46.61.565))~~ 46.55.113 Immediately

(ii) On a highway and tagged as described in RCW ~~((46.52.170))~~ 46.55.085 24 hours

(iii) In a publicly owned or controlled parking facility, properly posted under RCW 46.55.070 Immediately

(b) Private locations:

(i) On residential property Immediately

(ii) On private, nonresidential property, properly posted under RCW 46.55.070 Immediately

(iii) On private, nonresidential property, not posted 24 hours

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.55.020 are each amended to read as follows:

A person ~~((who engages))~~ shall not engage in or offer(s) to engage in the activities of a registered tow truck operator ~~((shall not do so))~~ without ~~((first obtaining))~~ a current registration certificate from the department of licensing authorizing him to engage in such activities. Any person engaging in or offering to engage in the activities of a registered tow truck operator without the registration certificate required by this chapter is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

A registered operator who engages in a business practice that is prohibited under this chapter may be issued a notice of traffic infraction under chapter 46.63 RCW and is also subject to the civil penalties that may be imposed by the department under this chapter. A person found to have committed an offense that is a traffic infraction under this chapter is subject to a monetary penalty of at least two hundred fifty dollars. All traffic infractions issued under this chapter shall be under the jurisdiction of the district court in whose jurisdiction they were issued.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 as amended by section 2, chapter 311, Laws of 1987 and RCW 46.55.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Application for licensing as a registered tow truck operator shall be made on forms furnished by the department, shall be accompanied by an inspection certification from the Washington state patrol, shall be signed by the applicant or ~~(his)~~ an agent, and shall include the following information:

(a) The name and address of the person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation under whose name the business is to be conducted;

(b) The names and addresses of all persons having an interest in the business, or if the owner is a corporation, the names and addresses of the officers of the corporation;

(c) The names and addresses of all employees who serve as tow truck drivers;

(d) Proof of minimum insurance required by subsection (3) of this section;

(e) The vehicle license and vehicle identification numbers of all low trucks of which the applicant is the registered owner;

(f) Any other information the department may require; and

~~((f)) (g) A certificate of approval from ((the chief of police if the applicant's principal place of business is located in a city or town having a population over five thousand persons or, in all other instances, from a member of)) the Washington state patrol((:)) certifying that:~~

(i) The applicant has an established place of business and that mail is received at the address shown on the application;

(ii) The address of any storage locations where vehicles may be stored is correctly stated on the application;

(iii) The place of business has an office area that is accessible to the public without entering the storage area; and

~~((iii)) (iv) The place of business has adequate and secure storage facilities, as defined in this chapter and the rules of the department, where vehicles and their contents can be properly stored and protected.~~

(2) Before issuing a registration certificate to an applicant the department shall require the applicant to file with the department a surety bond in the amount of five thousand dollars running to the state and executed by a surety company authorized to do business in this state. The bond shall be approved as to form by the attorney general and conditioned that the operator shall conduct his business in conformity with the provisions of this chapter pertaining to abandoned or unauthorized vehicles, and to compensate any person, company, or the state for failure to comply with this chapter or the rules adopted hereunder, or for fraud, negligence, or misrepresentation in the handling of these vehicles. Any person injured by the tow truck operator's failure to fully perform duties imposed by this chapter and the rules adopted hereunder, or an ordinance or resolution adopted by a city, town, or county is entitled to recover actual damages, including reasonable attorney's fees against the surety and the tow truck operator. Successive recoveries against the bond shall be permitted, but the aggregate liability of the surety to all persons shall not exceed the amount of the bond. As a condition of authority to do business, the operator shall keep the bond in full force and effect. Failure to maintain the penalty value of the bond or cancellation of the bond by the surety automatically cancels the operator's registration.

(3) Before the department may issue a registration certificate to an applicant, the applicant shall provide proof of minimum insurance requirements of:

(a) One hundred thousand dollars for liability for bodily injury or property damage per occurrence; and

(b) Fifty thousand dollars of legal liability per occurrence, to protect against vehicle damage, including but not limited to fire and theft, from the time a vehicle comes into the custody of an operator until it is redeemed or sold.

Cancellation of or failure to maintain the insurance required by (a) and (b) of this subsection automatically cancels the operator's registration.

(4) The fee for each original registration and annual renewal is one hundred dollars per company, plus fifty dollars per truck. The department shall forward the registration fee to the state treasurer for deposit in the motor vehicle fund.

(5) The applicant must submit an inspection certificate from the state patrol before the department may issue or renew an operator's registration certificate or tow truck permits.

(6) Upon approval of the application, the department shall issue a registration certificate to the registered operator to be displayed prominently at the operator's place of business.

Sec. 4. Section 4, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.55.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A registered operator shall apply for and keep current a tow truck permit for each tow truck of which the operator is the registered owner. Application for a tow truck permit shall be accompanied by a report from the Washington state patrol covering a physical inspection of each tow truck ~~((to be))~~ capable of being used by the applicant.

(2) Upon receipt of the fee provided in RCW 46.55.030(4) and a satisfactory inspection report from the state patrol, the department shall issue each tow truck an annual tow truck permit or decal. The class of the tow truck, determined according to RCW 46.55.050, shall be stamped on the permit or decal. The permit or decal shall be displayed on the passenger side of the truck's front windshield.

(3) A tow truck number from the department shall be affixed in a permanent manner to each tow truck.

(4) The Washington state patrol shall conduct annual inspections of tow truck operators' equipment and facilities during the operators' normal business hours. Unscheduled inspections may be conducted without notice at the operator's place of business by an inspector to determine the fitness of a tow truck or facilities. At the time of the inspection, the operator shall provide a paper copy of the master log referred to in RCW 46.55.080.

(5) If at the time of the annual or subsequent inspections the equipment does not meet the requirements of this chapter, and the deficiency is a safety related deficiency, or the equipment is necessary to the truck's performance, the inspector shall cause the registered tow truck operator to remove that equipment from service as a tow truck until such time as the equipment has been satisfactorily repaired. A red tag shall be placed on the windshield of a tow truck taken out of service, and the tow truck shall not provide tow truck service until the Washington state patrol recertifies the truck and removes the tag.

Sec. 5. Section 6, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 as amended by section 3, chapter 311, Laws of 1987 and RCW 46.55.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The address that the tow truck operator lists on his or her application shall be the business location of the firm where its files are kept. Each separate business location requires a separate registration under this chapter. The application shall also list all locations of secure areas for vehicle storage and redemption.

(2) Before an additional lot may be used for vehicle storage, it must be inspected and approved by the state patrol. The lot must also be inspected and approved on an annual basis for continued use.

(3) Each business location must have a sign displaying the firm's name that is readable from the street.

(4) At the business locations listed where vehicles may be redeemed, the registered operator shall post in a conspicuous and accessible location:

(a) All pertinent licenses and permits to operate as a registered tow truck operator;

(b) The current towing and storage charges itemized on a form approved by the department;

(c) The vehicle redemption procedure and rights;

(d) Information supplied by the department as to where complaints regarding either equipment or service are to be directed;

(e) Information concerning the acceptance of commercially reasonable tender as defined in RCW 46.55.120(1)(b).

~~((3))~~ Ten days before the effective date of any change in an operator's fee schedule, the registered tow truck operator shall file the revised fee schedule with the department.

~~((4))~~ (5) The department shall adopt rules concerning fencing and security requirements of storage areas, which may provide for modifications or exemptions where needed to achieve compliance with local zoning laws.

~~((5))~~ (6) On any day when the registered tow truck operator holds the towing services open for business, the business office shall remain open with personnel present who are able to release impounded vehicles in accordance with this chapter and the rules adopted under it. The normal business hours of a towing service shall be from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on weekdays, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays.

~~((6))~~ (7) A registered tow truck operator shall maintain personnel who can be contacted twenty-four hours a day to release impounded vehicles within a reasonable time.

~~((7))~~ Towing contracts with private property owners shall be in written form and state the hours of authorization to impound, the persons empowered to authorize such impounds, and the present charge of a private impound for the classes of tow trucks to be used in such impound, and shall be retained in the files of the registered tow truck operator for three years.

(8) Any fee that is charged for the storage of a vehicle shall be calculated on a twenty-four hour basis, and shall be charged to the nearest half day from the time the vehicle arrived at the secure storage area.

(9) All billing invoices that are provided to the redeemer of the vehicle shall be itemized so that the individual fees are clearly discernable.)

(8) A registered operator shall provide access to a telephone for any person redeeming a vehicle, at the time of redemption.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 46.55 RCW to read as follows:

(1) An operator shall file a fee schedule with the department. All filed fees must be adequate to cover the costs of service provided. No fees may exceed those filed with the department. At least ten days before the effective date of any change in an operator's fee schedule, the registered tow truck operator shall file the revised fee schedule with the department.

(2) Towing contracts with private property owners shall be in written form and state the hours of authorization to impound, the persons empowered to authorize the impounds, and the present charge of a private impound for the classes of tow trucks to be used in the impound, and must be retained in the files of the registered tow truck operator for three years.

(3) A fee that is charged for tow truck service must be calculated on an hourly basis, and after the first hour must be charged to the nearest quarter hour.

(4) A fee that is charged for the storage of a vehicle must be calculated on a twenty-four hour basis and must be charged to the nearest half day from the time the vehicle arrived at the secure storage area.

(5) All billing invoices that are provided to the redeemer of the vehicle must be itemized so that the individual fees are clearly discernable.

Sec. 7. Section 8, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 as amended by section 5, chapter 311, Laws of 1987 and RCW 46.55.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If a vehicle is in violation of the time restrictions of RCW 46.55.010(12), it may be impounded by a registered tow truck operator at the direction of a law enforcement officer or other public official with jurisdiction if the vehicle is on public property, or at the direction of the property owner or ~~(his)~~ an agent if it is on private property. A law enforcement officer may also direct the impoundment of a vehicle pursuant to a writ or court order.

(2) The person requesting a private impound or a law enforcement officer or public official requesting a public impound shall provide a signed authorization for the impound at the time and place of the impound to the registered tow truck operator before the operator may proceed with the impound. A registered tow truck operator, employee, or his or her agent may not serve as an agent of a property owner for the purposes of signing an impound authorization or, independent of the property owner, identify a vehicle for impound.

(3) In the case of a private impound, the impound authorization shall include the following statement: 'A person authorizing this impound, if the impound is found in violation of chapter 46.55 RCW, may be held liable for the costs incurred by the vehicle owner.'

(4) A registered tow truck operator shall record and keep in the operator's files the date and time that a vehicle is put in the operator's custody and released. The operator shall make an entry into a master log regarding transactions relating to impounded vehicles. The operator shall make this master log available, upon request, to representatives of the department or the state patrol.

(5) A person who engages in or offers to engage in the activities of a registered tow truck operator may not be associated in any way with a person or business whose main activity is authorizing the impounding of vehicles.

Sec. 8. Section 10, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 as amended by section 8, chapter 311, Laws of 1987 and RCW 46.55.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) At the time of impoundment the registered tow truck operator providing the towing service shall give immediate notification, by telephone or radio, to a law enforcement agency having jurisdiction who shall maintain a log of such reports (~~unless the impoundment was requested by that~~). A law enforcement agency shall immediately provide to a requesting operator the name and address of the legal and registered owners of the vehicle, the vehicle identification number, and any other necessary, pertinent information. The initial notice of impoundment shall be followed by a written notice within twenty-four hours. In the case of a vehicle from another state, time requirements of this subsection do not apply until the requesting law enforcement agency in this state receives the information.

(2) ~~(The operator shall immediately send an abandoned vehicle report to the department for any vehicle in the operator's possession after the ninety-six hour abandonment period. Such report need not be sent when the impoundment is pursuant to a writ, court order, or police hold. The owner notification and abandonment process shall be initiated by the registered tow truck operator immediately following notification by a court or law enforcement officer that the writ, court order, or police hold is no longer in effect.~~

(3) Following the submittal of an abandoned vehicle report, the department shall provide the registered tow truck operator with owner information within seventy-two hours.

(4) ~~Within fifteen days of the sale of an abandoned vehicle at public auction, the towing operator shall send a copy of the (abandoned) auctioned vehicle report showing the disposition of the abandoned vehicle to the crime information center of the Washington state patrol.~~

~~((5))~~ (3) If the operator (sends an abandoned vehicle report to the department and the department) requests owner information from a law enforcement agency and the agency finds no owner information, an operator may proceed with an inspection of the vehicle to determine whether owner identification is within the vehicle.

(4) If the operator finds no owner identification, the operator shall immediately notify the appropriate law enforcement agency, which shall search the vehicle for the vehicle identification number and check the necessary records to determine the vehicle's owners.

Sec. 9, Section 11, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 as amended by section 9, chapter 311, Laws of 1987 and RCW 46.55.110 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ((in the case of)) When an unauthorized vehicle is impounded ((from public property, the law enforcement agency or other public official directing the impoundment, or in the case of a vehicle impounded from private property)), the impounding towing operator((;)) shall notify the legal and registered owners of the impoundment of the unauthorized vehicle. The notification shall be sent by first-class mail within twenty-four hours after the impoundment to the last known registered and legal owners of the vehicle, as provided by the law enforcement agency, and shall inform the owners of the identity of the person or agency authorizing the impound. Within twenty-four hours after the operator's request for owner information, the law enforcement agency shall mail or personally serve a printed copy of the owner information for inclusion in the operator's transaction file. The notification shall include the name of the impounding tow firm, its address, and telephone number. The notice shall also include the location, time of the impound, and by whose authority the vehicle was impounded. The notice shall also include the written notice of the right of redemption and opportunity for a hearing to contest the validity of the impoundment pursuant to RCW 46.55.120.

(2) In the case of an abandoned vehicle, within ((twenty-four)) ninety-six hours after receiving written information on the vehicle owners from the ((department through the abandoned vehicle report)) law enforcement agency, the tow truck operator shall send by certified mail, with return receipt requested, a notice of custody and sale to the legal and registered owners.

(3) No notices need be sent to the legal or registered owners of an impounded vehicle if the vehicle has been redeemed.

Sec. 10, Section 12, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 as amended by section 12, chapter 311, Laws of 1987 and RCW 46.55.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Vehicles impounded by registered tow truck operators pursuant to RCW 46.55.080, 46.55.085, or 46.55.113 may be redeemed only under the following circumstances:

(a) Only the legal owner, the registered owner, a person authorized in writing by the registered owner or the vehicle's insurer, a person who is determined and verified by the operator to have the permission of the registered owner of the vehicle, or one who has purchased a vehicle from the registered owner who produces proof of ownership or written authorization and signs a receipt therefor, may redeem an impounded vehicle.

(b) The vehicle shall be released upon the presentation to any person having custody of the vehicle of commercially reasonable tender sufficient to cover the costs of towing, storage, or other services rendered during the course of towing, removing, impounding, or storing any such vehicle. Commercially reasonable tender shall include, without limitation, cash, major bank credit cards, or personal checks drawn on in-state banks if accompanied by two pieces of valid identification, one of which may be required by the operator to have a photograph. Any person who stops payment on a personal check or credit card, or does not make restitution within ten days from the date a check becomes insufficient due to lack of funds, to a towing firm that has provided a service pursuant to this section or in any other manner defrauds the towing firm in connection with services rendered pursuant to this section shall be liable for damages in the amount of twice the towing and storage fees, plus costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

(2) (a) The registered tow truck operator shall give to each person who seeks to redeem an impounded vehicle written notice of the right of redemption and opportunity for a hearing, which notice shall be accompanied by a form to be used for requesting a hearing, the name of the person or agency authorizing the impound, and a copy of the towing and storage invoice. The registered tow truck operator shall maintain a record evidenced by the redeeming person's signature that such notification was provided.

(b) Any person seeking to redeem an impounded vehicle under this section has a right to a hearing in the district court for the jurisdiction in which the vehicle was impounded to contest the validity of the impoundment or the amount of towing and storage charges. The district court has jurisdiction to determine the issues involving all impoundments including those authorized by the state or its agents. Any request for a hearing shall be made in writing on the form provided for that purpose and must be received by the district court within ten days of the date the opportunity was provided for in subsection (2)(a) of this section. If the hearing request is not received by the district court within the ten-day period, the right to a hearing is waived and the registered owner is liable for any towing, storage, or other impoundment charges permitted under this chapter. Upon receipt of a timely hearing request, the district court shall proceed to hear and determine the validity of the impoundment.

(3)(a) The district court, within five days after the request for a hearing, shall notify the registered tow truck operator, the person requesting the hearing if not the owner, ((and)) the registered and legal owners of the vehicle, and the person or agency authorizing the impound in writing of the hearing date and time.

(b) At the hearing, the person or persons requesting the hearing may produce any relevant evidence to show that the impoundment, towing, or storage fees charged were not proper.

(c) At the conclusion of the hearing, the district court shall determine whether the impoundment was proper, whether the towing or storage fees charged were in compliance with the posted rates, and who is responsible for payment of the fees.

(d) If the impoundment is found proper, the impoundment, towing, and storage fees as permitted under this chapter together with court costs shall be assessed against the person or persons requesting the hearing, unless the operator did not have a signed and valid impoundment authorization from a private property owner or an authorized agent.

(e) If the impoundment is determined to be ((invalid)) in violation of this chapter, then the registered and legal owners of the vehicle shall bear no impoundment, towing, or storage fees, and any bond or other security shall be returned or discharged as appropriate, and the person or agency who authorized the impoundment shall be liable for any towing, storage, or other impoundment fees permitted under this chapter. The court shall enter judgment against the person or agency authorizing the impound for the impoundment, towing, and storage fees paid. In addition, the court shall enter judgment for reasonable damages for loss of the use of the vehicle during the time the same was impounded, for not less than fifty dollars per day, against the person or agency authorizing the impound. If any judgment entered is not paid within fifteen days of notice in writing of its entry, the court shall award reasonable attorneys' fees and costs against the defendant in any action to enforce the judgment. Notice of entry of judgment may be made by registered or certified mail, and proof of mailing may be made by affidavit of the party mailing the notice. Notice of the entry of the judgment shall read essentially as follows:

TO:

YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED JUDGMENT was entered against you in the Court located at in the sum of $..... in an action entitled

(4) Any impounded abandoned vehicle not redeemed within fifteen days of mailing of the notice of custody and sale as required by RCW 46.55.110(2) shall be sold at public auction in accordance with all the provisions and subject to all the conditions of RCW 46.55.130. A vehicle may be redeemed at any time before the start of the auction upon payment of towing and storage fees.

Sec. 11. Section 13, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 as amended by section 13, chapter 311, Laws of 1987 and RCW 46.55.130 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If, after the expiration of fifteen days from the date of mailing of notice of custody and sale required in RCW 46.55.110(2) to the registered and legal owners, the vehicle remains unclaimed and has not been listed as a stolen vehicle, then the registered tow truck operator having custody of the vehicle shall conduct a sale of the vehicle at public auction after having first published a notice of the date, place, and time of the auction in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the vehicle is located not less than three days and no more than ten days before the date of the auction. The notice shall contain a description of the vehicle including the make, model, year, and license number and a notification that a three-hour public viewing period will be available before the auction. The auction shall be held during daylight hours of a normal business day.

(2) The following procedures are required in any public auction of such abandoned vehicles:

(a) The auction shall be held in such a manner that all persons present are given an equal time and opportunity to bid;

(b) All bidders must be present at the time of auction unless they have submitted to the registered tow truck operator, who may or may not choose to use the preauction bid method, a written bid on a specific vehicle. Written bids may be submitted up to five days before the auction and shall clearly state which vehicle is being bid upon, the amount of the bid, and who is submitting the bid;

(c) The open bid process, including all written bids, shall be used so that everyone knows the dollar value that must be exceeded;

(d) The highest two bids received shall be recorded in written form and shall include the name, address, and telephone number of each such bidder;

(e) In case the high bidder defaults, the next bidder has the right to purchase the vehicle for the amount of his or her bid;

(f) The successful bidder shall apply for title within fifteen days;

(g) The registered tow truck operator shall post a copy of the auction procedure at the bidding site. If the bidding site is different from the licensed office location, the operator shall post a clearly visible sign at the office location that describes in detail where the auction will be held. At the bidding site a copy of the newspaper advertisement that lists the vehicles for sale shall be posted;

~~((g))~~ (h) All surplus moneys derived from the auction after satisfaction of the registered tow truck operator's lien shall be remitted within thirty days to the department for deposit in the state motor vehicle fund. A report identifying the vehicles resulting in any surplus shall accompany the remitted funds. If the director subsequently receives a valid claim from the registered vehicle owner of record as determined by the department within one year from the date of the auction, the surplus moneys shall be remitted to such owner;

~~((h))~~ (i) If an operator receives no bid, or if the operator is the successful bidder at auction, the operator shall, within thirty days sell the vehicle to a licensed vehicle wrecker, hulk hauler, or scrap processor by use of the abandoned vehicle report-affidavit of sale, or the operator shall apply for title to the vehicle.

(3) In no case may an operator hold a vehicle for longer than ninety days without holding an auction on the vehicle, except for vehicles that are under a police or judicial hold.

(4) (a) In no case may the accumulation of storage charges exceed fifteen days from the date of ((receipt of the information by the operator from the department)) the mailing of the notice of custody and sale as provided by RCW 46.55.110(2).

(b) The failure of the registered tow truck operator to comply with the time limits provided in this chapter limits the accumulation of storage charges to five days except where delay is unavoidable. Providing incorrect or incomplete identifying information to the department in the abandoned vehicle report shall be considered a failure to comply with these time limits if correct information is available.

Sec. 12. Section 14, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 as amended by section 14, chapter 311, Laws of 1987 and RCW 46.55.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A registered tow truck operator who has a valid and signed impoundment authorization has a lien upon the impounded vehicle for services provided in the towing and storage of the vehicle, unless the impoundment is determined to have been invalid. The lien does not apply to personal property in or upon the vehicle that is not permanently attached to or is not an integral part of the vehicle. The registered tow truck operator also has a deficiency claim against the registered owner of the vehicle for services provided in the towing and storage of the vehicle not to exceed the sum of three hundred dollars less the amount bid at auction, and for vehicles of over ten thousand pounds gross vehicle weight, the operator has a deficiency claim of one thousand dollars less the amount bid at auction, unless the impound is determined to be invalid. In no case may the cost of the auction or a buyer's fee be added to the amount charged for the vehicle at the auction, the vehicle's lien, or the overage due. A registered owner who has completed and filed with the department the seller's report as provided for by RCW 46.12.101 is relieved of liability under this section.

(2) Any person who tows, removes, or otherwise disturbs any vehicle parked, stalled, or otherwise left on privately owned or controlled property, and any person owning or controlling the private property, or either of them, are liable to the owner or operator of a vehicle, or each of them, for consequential and incidental damages arising from any interference with the ownership or use of the vehicle which does not comply with the requirements of this chapter.

Sec. 13. Section 15, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 as amended by section 15, chapter 311, Laws of 1987 and RCW 46.55.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The registered tow truck operator shall keep a transaction file on each vehicle. The transaction file shall contain as a minimum those of the following items that are required at the time the vehicle is redeemed or becomes abandoned and is sold at a public auction:

- (1) A signed impoundment authorization as required by RCW 46.55.080;
- (2) A record of the twenty-four hour written impound notice to a law enforcement agency;
- (3) A copy of the impoundment notification to registered and legal owners, sent within twenty-four hours of impoundment, that advises the owners of the address of the impounding firm, a twenty-four hour telephone number, and the name of the person or agency under whose authority the vehicle was impounded;
- (4) A copy of the ~~((abandoned vehicle))~~ report on the legal and registered owners that was sent ((to and returned)) by the ((department)) law enforcement agency to the operator;
- (5) A copy and proof of mailing of the notice of custody and sale sent by the registered tow truck operator to the owners advising them they have fifteen days to redeem the vehicle before it is sold at public auction;
- (6) A copy of the published notice of public auction;
- (7) A copy of the affidavit of sale showing the sales date, purchaser, amount of the lien, and sale price;
- (8) A record of the two highest bid offers on the vehicle, with the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of the two bidders;
- (9) A copy of the notice of opportunity for hearing given to those who redeem vehicles;
- (10) An itemized invoice of charges against the vehicle.

The transaction file shall be kept for a minimum of three years.

Sec. 14. Section 18, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 as amended by section 742, chapter 330, Laws of 1987 and RCW 46.55.180 are each amended to read as follows:

The director or the chief of the state patrol may use a hearing officer or administrative law judge for presiding over a hearing regarding ((infractions by registered tow truck operators of)) licensing provisions under this chapter((~~chapter 46.37 RCW~~)) or rules adopted ((thereunder)) under it.

Sec. 15. Section 20, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.55.200 are each amended to read as follows:

A registered tow truck operator's license may be denied, suspended, or revoked, or the licensee may be ordered to pay a monetary penalty of a civil nature, not to exceed one thousand dollars per violation, or the licensee may be subjected to any combination of license and monetary penalty, whenever the director has reason to believe the licensee has committed, or is at the time committing, a violation of this chapter or rules adopted under it or any other statute or rule relating to the title or disposition of vehicles or vehicle hulks, including but not limited to:

(1) Towing any abandoned vehicle without first obtaining and having in ((his)) the operator's possession at all times while transporting it, appropriate evidence of ownership or an impound authorization properly executed by the private person or public official having control over the property on which the unauthorized vehicle was found;

(2) Forging the signature of the registered or legal owner on a certificate of title, or forging the signature of any authorized person on documents pertaining to unauthorized or abandoned vehicles or automobile hulks;

(3) Failing to comply with the statutes and rules relating to the processing and sale of abandoned vehicles;

(4) Failing to accept bids on any abandoned vehicle offered at public sale;

(5) Failing to transmit to the state surplus funds derived from the sale of an abandoned vehicle;

(6) Selling, disposing of, or having in his possession, without notifying law enforcement officials, a vehicle that he knows or has reason to know has been stolen or illegally appropriated without the consent of the owner;

(7) Failing to comply with the statutes and rules relating to the transfer of ownership of vehicles or other procedures after public sale; or

(8) Failing to pay any civil monetary penalty assessed by the director pursuant to this section within ten days after the assessment becomes final.

All orders by the director made under this chapter are subject to the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter ((34.04)) 34.05 RCW.

Sec. 16. Section 24, chapter 377, Laws of 1985 as amended by section 20, chapter 311, Laws of 1987 and RCW 46.55.240 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A city, town, or county that adopts an ordinance or resolution concerning unauthorized, abandoned, or impounded vehicles shall include the applicable provisions of this chapter.

(a) A city, town, or county may, by ordinance, authorize other impound situations that may arise locally upon the public right-of-way or other publicly owned or controlled property.

(b) A city, town, or county ordinance shall contain language that establishes a written form of authorization to impound, which may include a law enforcement notice of infraction or citation, clearly denoting the agency's authorization to impound.

(c) A city, town, or county may, by ordinance, provide for release of an impounded vehicle by means of a promissory note in lieu of immediate payment, if at the time of redemption the legal or registered owner requests a hearing on the validity of the impoundment. If the municipal ordinance directs the release of an impounded vehicle before the payment of the impoundment charges, the municipality is responsible for the payment of those charges to the registered tow truck operator within thirty days of the hearing date.

((c)) (d) The hearing specified in RCW 46.55.120(2) and in this section may be conducted by an administrative hearing officer instead of in the district court. A decision made by an administrative hearing officer may be appealed to the district court for final judgment.

(2) A city, town, or county may adopt an ordinance establishing procedures for the abatement and removal as public nuisances of unauthorized junk vehicles or parts thereof from private property. Costs of removal may be assessed against the registered owner of the vehicle if the identity of the owner can be determined, unless the owner in the transfer of ownership of the vehicle has complied with RCW 46.12.101, or the costs may be assessed against the owner of the property on which the vehicle is stored.

(3) Ordinances pertaining to public nuisances shall contain:

(a) A provision requiring notice to the last registered owner of record and the property owner of record that a hearing may be requested and that if no hearing is requested, the vehicle will be removed;

(b) A provision requiring that if a request for a hearing is received, a notice giving the time, location, and date of the hearing on the question of abatement and removal of the vehicle or part thereof as a public nuisance shall be mailed, by certified mail, with a five-day return receipt requested, to the owner of the land as shown on the last equalized assessment roll and to the last registered and legal owner of record unless the vehicle is in such condition that identification numbers are not available to determine ownership;

(c) A provision that the ordinance shall not apply to (i) a vehicle or part thereof that is completely enclosed within a building in a lawful manner where it is not visible from the street or other public or private property or (ii) a vehicle or part thereof that is stored or parked in a lawful manner on private property in connection with the business of a licensed dismantler or licensed vehicle dealer and is fenced according to RCW 46.80.130;

(d) A provision that the owner of the land on which the vehicle is located may appear in person at the hearing or present a written statement in time for consideration at the hearing, and deny responsibility for the presence of the vehicle on the land, with his reasons for the denial. If it is determined at the hearing that the vehicle was placed on the land without the consent of the landowner and that he has not subsequently acquiesced in its presence, then the local agency shall not assess costs of administration or removal of the vehicle against the property upon which the vehicle is located or otherwise attempt to collect the cost from the owner;

(e) A provision that after notice has been given of the intent of the city, town, or county to dispose of the vehicle and after a hearing, if requested, has been held, the vehicle or part thereof shall be removed at the request of a law enforcement officer with notice to the Washington state patrol and the department of licensing that the vehicle has been wrecked. The city, town, or county may operate such a disposal site when its governing body determines that commercial channels of disposition are not available or are inadequate, and it may make final disposition of such vehicles or parts, or may transfer such vehicle or parts to another governmental body provided such disposal shall be only as scrap.

(4) A registered disposer under contract to a city or county for the impounding of vehicles shall comply with any administrative regulations adopted by the city or county on the handling and disposing of vehicles.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. A new section is added to chapter 46.55 RCW to read as follows:

This chapter does not apply to the state department of transportation to the extent that it may remove vehicles that are traffic hazards from bridges and the mountain passes without prior authorization. If such a vehicle is removed, the department shall immediately notify the appropriate local law enforcement agency, and the vehicle shall be processed in accordance with RCW 46.55.110.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Section 2, chapter 167, Laws of 1977 ex. sess., section 743, chapter 330, Laws of 1987 and RCW 46.61.563 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. RCW 46.61.567 is recodified as a new section in chapter 46.55 RCW."

SSB 5450 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Education: Providing for education in Pacific Rim languages. Reported by Committee on Higher Education

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds that it is important to the economic future of Washington state to increase the number of students studying Pacific Rim languages. The legislature intends to increase the number of students studying Pacific Rim languages by four hundred percent in the next twelve years.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Conditional scholarship' means a loan that is forgiven in whole or in part if the recipient renders service as a teacher in the public schools of this state.

(2) 'Institution of higher education' or 'institution' means a college or university in the state of Washington which is accredited by an accrediting association recognized as such by rule of the higher education coordinating board.

(3) 'Board' means the higher education coordinating board.

(4) 'Eligible student' means a student who is registered for at least ten credit hours or the equivalent, is proficient in a Pacific Rim language, is a resident student as defined by RCW 28B.15.012 through 28B.15.015, and has a declared intention to complete an approved preparation program leading to initial teacher certification or required for earning an additional endorsement, or a college or university graduate who meets the same credit hour requirements and is seeking an additional teaching endorsement or initial teacher certification.

(5) 'Pacific Rim language' includes but is not limited to Mandarin Chinese, Japanese, Korean, Russian, Thai, and Spanish.

(6) 'Public school' means an elementary school, a middle school, junior high school, or high school within the public school system referred to in Article IX of the state Constitution.

(7) 'Forgiven' or 'to forgive' or 'forgiveness' means to render service as a teacher at a public school in the state of Washington in lieu of monetary repayment.

(8) 'Satisfied' means paid-in-full.

(9) 'Participant' means an eligible student who has received a conditional scholarship under this chapter.

(10) 'Proficient' means expert in speaking and writing a language.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. The Pacific Rim language teachers conditional scholarship program is established. The program shall be administered by the higher education coordinating board. In administering the program, the board shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) Select students to receive conditional scholarships, with the assistance of a screening committee composed of teachers and leaders in government, business, and education;

(2) Adopt necessary rules and guidelines;

(3) Publicize the program;

(4) Collect and manage repayments from students who do not meet their teaching obligations under this chapter; and

(5) Solicit and accept grants and donations from public and private sources for the program.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. The higher education coordinating board shall establish a planning committee to develop criteria for the screening and selection of recipients of the conditional scholarships. These criteria shall emphasize the student's proficiency in a Pacific Rim language and expressed intention to teach that language. These criteria shall also include a provision giving a priority to students intending to teach a language that is not widely taught in the public schools of the state.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. The board may award conditional scholarships to eligible students from the funds appropriated to the board for this purpose, or from any private donations, or any other funds given to the board for this program. The amount of the conditional scholarship awarded an individual shall not exceed three thousand dollars per academic year. Students are eligible to receive conditional scholarships for a maximum of five years. No more than one-third of the conditional scholarships awarded or renewed in any academic year shall be awarded or renewed to students intending to teach any one language.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. (1) Participants in the conditional scholarship program incur an obligation with the higher education coordinating board to repay the conditional scholarship by teaching for ten years in the public schools of the state of Washington or by repaying the conditional scholarship, with interest, within a ten-year period, under rules adopted by the board.

(2) The terms of the ten-year repayment period, including deferral of the interest, shall be consistent with the terms of the federal guaranteed loan program.

(3) The ten-year repayment period, with payments accruing monthly or quarterly as determined by the board, shall commence nine months from the date the participant completes or discontinues the course of study.

(4) Should the participant cease to teach at a public school in this state before the participant's repayment obligation is completed, payments on the unsatisfied portion of the principal and interest shall begin the next payment period and continue until the remainder of the participant's repayment obligation is satisfied.

(5) The board is responsible for collection of repayments made under this section and shall exercise due diligence in such collection, maintaining all necessary records to insure that maximum repayments are made. Collection and servicing of repayments under this section shall be pursued using the full extent of the law, including wage garnishment if necessary, and shall be performed by entities approved for such servicing by the Washington student loan guaranty association or its successor agency. The board is responsible to forgive all or parts of such repayments under the criteria established in this section and shall maintain all necessary records of forgiven payments.

(6) Receipts from the payment of principal or interest or any other subsidies to which the board as administrator is entitled, which are paid by or on behalf of participants under this section, shall be deposited with the higher education coordinating board and shall be used to cover the costs of granting the conditional scholarships, maintaining necessary records, and making collections under subsection (5) of this section. The board shall maintain accurate records of these costs, and all receipts beyond those necessary to pay such costs shall be used to grant conditional scholarships to eligible students.

Sec. 7. Section 28A.70.005, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 97, Laws of 1988 and by section 3, chapter 172, Laws of 1988 and RCW 28A.70.005 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) The state board of education shall establish, publish, and enforce rules and regulations determining eligibility for and certification of personnel employed in the common schools of this state, including certification for emergency or temporary, substitute or provisional duty and under such certificates or permits as the board shall deem proper or as otherwise prescribed by law.

(2) Not later than July 31, 1989, the state board shall adopt or amend rules relating to persons who apply for a consultant special certificate, as defined under state board rules, to teach a foreign language, pursuant to section 2(5) of this act. Except for applicants who are applying for certificates which restrict the holder of the certificate to the teaching of students who are sixteen years of age or older, the rules shall require that the initial application for certification shall require a background check of the applicant through the Washington state patrol criminal identification system at the applicant's expense.

(3) In establishing rules pertaining to the qualifications of instructors of sign language the state board shall consult with the national association of the deaf, 'sign instructors guidance network' (s.i.g.n.), and the Washington state association of the deaf for evaluation and certification of sign language instructors.

(4) The superintendent of public instruction shall act as the administrator of any such rules and regulations and have the power to issue any certificates or permits and revoke the same in accordance with board rules and regulations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 28A.03 RCW to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction shall encourage school districts to establish exchange programs for teachers with schools in Pacific Rim nations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Sections 1 through 6 of this act are each added to chapter 28B.80 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "languages;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "reenacting and amending RCW 28A.70.005; adding a new section to chapter 28A.03 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 28B.80 RCW; and declaring an emergency."

SSB 5560 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Financial Institutions & Insurance: Providing for insurance coverage for temporomandibular joint disorders. Reported by Committee on Financial Institutions & Insurance

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:

(1) Temporomandibular joint disorders are conditions for which treatment often is not covered in medical and dental group insurance contracts;

(2) Individuals with temporomandibular joint disorders experience substantial pain and financial hardship;

(3) Public awareness is needed concerning temporomandibular joint disorders and would be promoted by a mandated offering of temporomandibular joint disorders coverage to group purchasers; and

(4) A mandated offering of temporomandibular joint disorders coverage shall not prescribe minimum initial benefits so that the insurers and the purchasers are allowed broad flexibility in benefit design and application.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 48.21 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in this section, a group disability policy entered into or renewed after December 31, 1989, shall offer optional coverage for the treatment of temporomandibular joint disorders.

(a) Insurers offering medical coverage only may limit benefits in such coverages to medical services related to treatment of temporomandibular joint disorders. Insurers offering dental coverage only may limit benefits in such coverage to dental services related to treatment of temporomandibular joint disorders. No insurer offering medical coverage only may define all temporomandibular joint disorders as purely dental in nature, and no insurer offering dental coverage only may define all temporomandibular joint disorders as purely medical in nature.

(b) Insurers offering optional temporomandibular joint disorder coverage as provided in this section may, but are not required to, offer lesser or no temporomandibular joint disorder coverage as part of their basic group disability contract.

(c) Benefits and coverage offered under this section may be subject to negotiation to promote broad flexibility in potential benefit coverage. This flexibility shall apply to services to be reimbursed, determination of treatments to be considered medically necessary, systems through which services are to be provided, including referral systems and use of other providers, and related issues.

(2) Unless otherwise directed by law, the insurance commissioner shall adopt rules, to be implemented on January 1, 1993, establishing minimum benefits, terms, definitions, conditions, limitations, and provisions for the use of reasonable deductibles and copayments.

(3) An insurer need not make the offer of coverage required by this section to an employer or other group that offers to its eligible enrollees a self-insured health plan not subject to mandated benefit statutes under Title 48 RCW that does not provide coverage for temporomandibular joint disorders.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 48.44 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in this section, a group health care service contract entered into or renewed after December 31, 1989, shall offer optional coverage for the treatment of temporomandibular joint disorders.

(a) Health care service contractors offering medical coverage only may limit benefits in such coverages to medical services related to treatment of temporomandibular joint disorders. Health care service contractors offering dental coverage only may limit benefits in such coverage to dental services related to treatment of temporomandibular joint disorders. No health care service contractor offering medical coverage only may define all temporomandibular joint disorders as purely dental in nature, and no health care service contractor offering dental coverage only may define all temporomandibular joint disorders as purely medical in nature.

(b) Health care contractors offering optional temporomandibular joint disorder coverage as provided in this section may, but are not required to, offer lesser or no temporomandibular joint disorder coverage as part of their basic group disability contract.

(c) Benefits and coverage offered under this section may be subject to negotiation to promote broad flexibility in potential benefit coverage. This flexibility shall apply to services to be reimbursed, determination of treatments to be considered medically necessary, systems through which services are to be provided, including referral systems and use of other providers, and related issues.

(2) Unless otherwise directed by law, the insurance commissioner shall adopt rules, to be implemented on January 1, 1993, establishing minimum benefits, terms, definitions, conditions, limitations, and provisions for the use of reasonable deductibles and copayments.

(3) A contractor need not make the offer of coverage required by this section to an employer or other group that offers to its eligible enrollees a self-insured health plan not subject to mandated benefit statutes under Title 48 RCW that does not provide coverage for temporomandibular joint disorders.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 48.46 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in this section, a health maintenance agreement entered into or renewed after December 31, 1989, shall offer optional coverage for the treatment of temporomandibular joint disorders.

(a) Health maintenance organizations offering medical coverage only may limit benefits in such coverages to medical services related to treatment of temporomandibular joint disorders. No health maintenance organizations offering medical and dental coverage may limit benefits in such coverage to dental services related to treatment of temporomandibular joint disorders. No health maintenance organization offering medical coverage only may define all temporomandibular joint disorders as purely dental in nature.

(b) Health maintenance organizations offering optional temporomandibular joint disorder coverage as provided in this section may, but are not required to, offer lesser or no temporomandibular joint disorder coverage as part of their basic group disability contract.

(c) Benefits and coverage offered under this section may be subject to negotiation to promote broad flexibility in potential benefit coverage. This flexibility shall apply to services to be reimbursed, determination of treatments to be considered medically necessary, systems through which services are to be provided, including referral systems and use of other providers, and related issues.

(2) Unless otherwise directed by law, the insurance commissioner shall adopt rules, to be implemented on January 1, 1993, establishing minimum benefits, terms, definitions, conditions, limitations, and provisions for the use of reasonable deductibles and copayments.

(3) A health maintenance organization need not make the offer of coverage required by this section to an employer or other group that offers to its eligible enrollees a self-insured health plan not subject to mandated benefit statutes under Title 48 RCW that does not provide coverage for temporomandibular joint disorders.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. (1) Not later than eighteen months after the effective date of this act, the insurance commissioner shall report to the legislature findings regarding the availability, cost, use, and nature of benefits for temporomandibular joint disorders coverage offered under sections 2, 3, and 4 of this act. Upon request, insurers, health care service contractors, and health maintenance organizations shall furnish such data and any other nonproprietary information the commissioner requires to facilitate the development of the report.

(2) If the commissioner finds in preparation of the report that group disability insurers, health care contractors, and health maintenance organizations have not offered meaningful and reasonably priced temporomandibular joint coverage pursuant to this act, the commissioner shall include legislative recommendations to resolve these problems in the report. Such recommendations should include an analysis of mandating temporomandibular joint coverage.

(3) The commissioner shall consult with a panel of experts acting as an advisory committee for the preparation of any rules adopted pursuant to this act. This panel of experts shall provide continued assistance to the commissioner in any ongoing revisions of such rules. Members of this panel shall include health care professionals, both medical and dental, specializing in the treatment of temporomandibular dysfunctions; an employer purchasing a group policy; and a representative of the insurers, health care contractors, or health maintenance organizations.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. This act shall take effect January 1, 1990, but the insurance commissioner may immediately take such steps as are necessary to ensure that this act is fully implemented on its effective date."

In line 1 of the title, after "insurance;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new section to chapter 48.21 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 48.44 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 48.46 RCW; creating new sections; and providing an effective date."

ESB 5715 Prime Sponsor, Senator Newhouse: Regulating the business of immigration consulting. Reported by Committee on Commerce & Labor

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds and declares that assisting persons regarding immigration matters substantially affects the public interest. The practices of immigration assistants have a significant impact on the residents of the state of Washington. It is the intent of the legislature to establish rules of practice and conduct for immigration assistants to promote honesty and fair dealing with residents and to preserve public confidence.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Immigration assistant' means every person who, for compensation or the expectation of compensation, gives nonlegal assistance on an immigration matter. That assistance is limited to:

(a) Transcribing responses to a government agency form selected by the customer which is related to an immigration matter, but does not include advising a person as to his or her answers on those forms;

(b) Translating a person's answer to questions posed on those forms;

(c) Securing for a person supporting documents currently in existence, such as birth and marriage certificates, which may be needed to submit with those forms;

(d) Making referrals to attorneys who could undertake legal representation for a person in an immigration matter.

(2) 'Immigration matter' means any proceeding, filing, or action affecting the nonimmigrant, immigrant, or citizenship status of any person which arises under immigration and naturalization law, executive order, or presidential proclamation, or which arises under action of the United States immigration and naturalization service, the United States department of labor, or the United States department of state.

(3) 'Compensation' means money, property, or anything else of value.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. The following persons are exempt from all provisions of this chapter:

(1) An attorney licensed to practice law in this state where such attorney renders services in the course of his or her practice as an attorney and a legal intern, as described by court rule, or paralegal employed by and under the direct supervision of such an attorney;

(2) A nonprofit corporation or clinic affiliated with a law school in this state that provides immigration consulting services to clients without charge beyond a request for reimbursement of the corporation's or clinic's reasonable costs relating to providing immigration services to that client. 'Reasonable costs' include, but are not limited to, the costs of photocopying, telephone calls, document requests, and the filing fees for immigration forms.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. Any person who wishes to engage in the business of an immigration assistant must register with the secretary of state's office and provide his or her name, business address, home address, and business and home telephone numbers.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. Immigration assistants who have registered must inform the secretary of state of any changes in their name, addresses, or telephone numbers within thirty days of the change.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. Immigration assistants shall offer or provide only nonlegal assistance in an immigration matter as defined in section 2 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. (1) Before providing any assistance, an immigration assistant who has agreed to provide immigration assistance to a customer shall provide the customer with a written contract that includes the following provisions:

(a) An explanation of the services to be performed;

(b) Identification of all compensation and costs to be charged to the customer for the services to be performed;

(c) A statement that documents submitted in support of an application for nonimmigrant, immigrant, or naturalization status may not be retained by the assistant for any purpose, including payment of compensation or costs;

(d) A statement that the immigration assistant is not an attorney and may not perform legal services. This statement shall be on the face of the contract in ten-point bold type print; and

(e) A statement that the customer has seventy-two hours to rescind the contract. This statement shall be conspicuously set forth in the contract.

(2) The written contract shall be stated in both English and in the language of the customer.

(3) A copy of the written contract shall be provided to the customer by the immigration assistant upon execution of the contract.

(4) A customer has the right to rescind a contract within seventy-two hours of the signing of the contract.

(5) Any documents identified in subsection (1)(c) of this section shall be returned upon demand of the customer.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. In the course of dealing with customers or prospective customers, an immigration assistant shall not:

(1) Make any statement that the immigration assistant can or will obtain special favors from or has special influence with the United States immigration and naturalization service;

(2) Retain any compensation for services not performed;

(3) Refuse to return documents supplied by, prepared by, or paid for by the customer upon the request of the customer. These documents must be returned upon request even if there is a fee dispute between the immigration assistant and the customer;

(4) Represent or advertise, in connection with the provision of immigration assistance, other titles or credentials, including but not limited to 'notary public' or 'immigration consultant' that could cause a customer to believe that the immigration assistant possesses special professional skills;

(5) Communicate in any manner, oral or written, that registration under this chapter is an indicator of special skill or expertise or that it allows the person to provide advice on an immigration matter;

(6) Give any legal advice concerning an immigration matter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. The legislature finds and declares that any violation of this chapter substantially affects the public interest and is an unfair and deceptive act or practice and unfair method of competition in the conduct of trade or commerce as set forth in RCW 19.86.020.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. A violation of this chapter shall be punished as a gross misdemeanor according to chapter 9A.20 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. This chapter shall be known and cited as the 'immigration assistant practices act.'

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. Sections 1 through 11 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 19 RCW.

Sec. 13. Section 14, chapter 94, Laws of 1933 and RCW 2.48.180 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who, not being an active member of the state bar, or who after he has been disbarred or while suspended from membership in the state bar, as by this chapter provided, shall practice law, or hold himself out as entitled to practice law, shall, except as provided in section 10 of this 1989 act, be guilty of a misdemeanor: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, Nothing herein contained shall be held to in any way affect the power of the courts to grant injunctive relief or to punish as for contempt.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1989."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "assistants;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 2.48.180; adding a new chapter to Title 19 RCW; prescribing penalties; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency."

SSB 5772 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Health Care & Corrections: Regarding out-of-state pharmacies. Reported by Committee on Health Care

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds and declares that the practice of pharmacy is a dynamic, patient-oriented health service that applies a scientific body of knowledge to improve and promote patient health by means of appropriate drug use and drug related therapy.

(2) The legislature recognizes that with the proliferation of alternate methods of health delivery, there has arisen among third-party payers and insurance companies the desire to control the cost and utilization of pharmacy services through a variety of mechanisms, including the use of mail order pharmacies located outside the state of Washington.

(3) As a result, the legislature finds and declares that to continue to protect the Washington consumer-patient, all out-of-state pharmacies that provide service to Washington residents shall be registered with the board, disclose specific information about their services, and provide pharmacy services at a high level of protection and competence.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. (1) Any pharmacy located outside this state that ships, mail, or delivers, in any manner, controlled substances, legend drugs, or devices into this state is a nonresident pharmacy, shall be registered with the board, and shall disclose to the board the following:

(a) The location, names, and titles of all principal corporate officers and all pharmacists employed by the pharmacy who are dispensing controlled substances, legend drugs, or devices to residents of this state. A report containing this information shall be made on an annual basis and within thirty days after any change of location, corporate officer, or pharmacist:

(b) That it complies with all lawful directions and requests for information from the regulatory or licensing agency of the state in which it is licensed as well as with all requests for information made by the board under this section. The nonresident pharmacy shall maintain, at all times, a valid unexpired license, permit, or registration to operate the pharmacy in compliance with the laws of the state in which it is a resident. As a prerequisite to registering with the board, the nonresident pharmacy shall submit a copy of the most recent inspection report issued by the regulatory licensing agency of the state in which it is located;

(c) That it maintains its records of controlled substances, legend drugs, or devices dispensed to patients in this state so that the records are readily retrievable from the records of other drugs dispensed.

(2) Any pharmacy subject to this section shall, during its regular hours of operation, but not less than six days per week, and for a minimum of forty hours per week, provide a toll-free telephone service to facilitate communication between patients in this state and a pharmacist at the pharmacy who has access to the patient's records. This toll-free number shall be disclosed on the label affixed to each container of drugs dispensed to patients in this state.

(3) A pharmacy subject to this section shall comply with board rules regarding the maintenance and use of patient medication record systems and the provision of drug utilization information to the patient.

(4) The registration fee specified by the board shall not exceed the fee charged to a pharmacy located in this state.

(5) The registration requirements of this section apply to nonresident pharmacies that ship, mail, or deliver controlled substances, legend drugs, and devices into this state only pursuant to a prescription.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. (1) A pharmacy doing business in this state that has not obtained a registration from the board and sells or distributes drugs in this state through (a) any person or media other than a wholesaler who has a certificate, license, permit, or registration under the provisions of this chapter, or (b) through a selling or distribution outlet licensed as a wholesaler under the provisions of this chapter, shall not conduct the business of selling or distributing drugs in this state without registering as a nonresident pharmacy.

(2) Applications for an out-of-state drug distributor's license or a nonresident pharmacy registration under this section shall be made on a form furnished by the board. The board may require such information as the board deems is reasonably necessary to carry out the purpose of this section.

(3) The nonresident pharmacy registration shall be renewed annually on a date to be established by the board by rule.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A nonresident pharmacy shall:

(1) Submit to the board, upon request, information acceptable to the board concerning controlled substances shipped, mailed, or delivered to a Washington resident.

(2) Submit to on-site inspection by the board of the nonresident pharmacy's prescription records if the information in subsection (1) cannot be provided to the board.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. (1) The board may deny, revoke, or suspend a nonresident pharmacy registration for failure to comply with any requirement of this act.

(2) The board may deny, revoke, or suspend a nonresident pharmacy registration for conduct which causes serious bodily or psychological injury to a resident of this state if the board has referred the matter to the regulatory or licensing agency in the state in which the pharmacy is located and that regulatory or licensing agency fails to initiate an investigation within forty-five days of the referrals under this subsection or any action taken thereon.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. It is unlawful for:

(1) Any nonresident pharmacy that is not registered under section 2 of this act to advertise its services in this state; or

(2) Any resident of this state to advertise the pharmaceutical services of a nonresident pharmacy that has not registered with the board, with the knowledge that the nonresident pharmacy is not registered with the board and that the advertisement will or is likely to induce persons in this state to use the pharmacy to fill prescriptions.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 48.20 RCW to read as follows:

After January 1, 1990, any insurance contractor providing coverage of prescription drugs from out-of-state pharmacies, shall submit the name and location of that pharmacy in writing to the board so the board may determine whether the pharmacy is registered in this state.

Those contractors providing coverage of prescription drugs from out-of-state pharmacies before January 1, 1990, shall submit the required information to the board within six months of the effective date of this act and cease providing such coverage if the board determines that the pharmacy does not meet the requirements of this section and sections 1 through 6 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 48.21 RCW to read as follows:

After January 1, 1990, any insurance contractor providing coverage of prescription drugs from out-of-state pharmacies, shall submit the name and location of that pharmacy in writing to the board so the board may determine whether the pharmacy is registered in this state.

Those contractors providing coverage of prescription drugs from out-of-state pharmacies before January 1, 1990, shall submit the required information to the board within six months of the effective date of this act and cease providing such coverage if the board determines that the pharmacy does not meet the requirements of this section and sections 1 through 6 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 48.44 RCW to read as follows:

After January 1, 1990, any health care service contractor providing coverage of prescription drugs from out-of-state pharmacies, shall submit the name and location of that pharmacy in writing to the board.

Those contractors providing coverage of prescription drugs from out-of-state pharmacies before January 1, 1990, shall submit the required information to the board within six months of the effective date of this act and cease providing such coverage if the board determines that the pharmacy does not meet the requirements of this section and sections 1 through 6 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Sections 1 through 6 of this act are each added to chapter 18.64 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 48.46 RCW to read as follows:

After January 1, 1990, any health maintenance organization providing coverage of prescription drugs from out-of-state pharmacies, shall submit the name and location of that pharmacy in writing to the board.

Those organizations providing coverage of prescription drugs from out-of-state pharmacies before January 1, 1990, shall submit the required information to the board within six months of the effective date of this act and cease providing such coverage if the board determines that the pharmacy does not meet the requirements of this section and sections 1 through 6 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The board is authorized to promulgate rules to implement the provisions of this act, consistent with state law."

Prime Sponsor, Committee on Financial Institutions & Insurance: Regulating the sale of loan servicing. Reported by Committee on Financial Institutions & Insurance

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The ability of individuals to obtain information relating to their residential mortgage loans is vital to the financial needs of mortgagors in Washington. The public interest is adversely affected when a residential mortgage loan's servicing is sold or transferred with insufficient notification given to the mortgagor. In addition, mortgagors may experience difficulty in obtaining various mortgage loan information including information concerning mortgage loan prepayments, reserve accounts, and adjustments to monthly payments. The legislature finds that the legitimate interests of mortgagors and mortgage loan servicers are served if the disclosure of the potential sale of loan servicing is made to the mortgagor, reasonable notification of a residential mortgage loan servicing's sale is made, and continued mortgagor access to information regarding the mortgage loan is promoted.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. Unless the context requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Lender' shall mean any person in the business of making a loan.

(2) 'Loan' shall mean any loan used to finance the acquisition of a one-to-four family owner occupied residence located in this state.

(3) 'Purchasing servicing agent' is any person who purchases, receives through transfer or assignment, or otherwise acquires the responsibility of the servicing for a loan.

(4) 'Person' shall include an individual, firm, association, partnership, business, trust, corporation, or any other legal entity whether resident or nonresident.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. (1) If the servicing for the loan is subject to sale, transfer, or assignment, a lender shall so disclose in writing at the time of or prior to loan closing and shall also disclose in the same writing that when such servicing is sold, transferred, or assigned, the purchasing servicing agent is required to provide notification to the mortgagor. If a lender, which has not provided the notice required by this subsection, consolidates with, merges with or is acquired by another institution, and thereafter loan servicing becomes subject to sale, transfer, or assignment, that institution shall within thirty days of such transaction make the disclosure in writing to the obligor primarily responsible for repaying each loan according to the records of the lender.

(2) If the servicing of a loan is sold, assigned, transferred, or otherwise acquired by another person, the purchasing servicing agent shall:

(a)(i) Issue corrected coupon or payment books, if used and necessary;

(ii) Provide notification to the mortgagor at least thirty days prior to the due date of the first payment to the purchasing servicing agent, of the name, address, and telephone number of the division from whom the mortgagor can receive information regarding the servicing of the loan; and

(iii) Inform the mortgagor of changes made regarding the servicing requirements including, but not limited to, interest rate, monthly payment amount, and escrow balance; and

(b) Respond within fifteen business days upon receipt of a written request for information from a mortgagor. A written response must include the telephone number of the company division who can assist the mortgagor.

(3) Any person injured by a violation of this chapter may bring an action for actual damages and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred in bringing the action.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. Sections 1 through 3 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 19 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. This act shall take effect on January 1, 1990."

As used in this chapter:

(1) 'Aged person' means a person of the age sixty-five years or more, or a person of less than sixty-five years who by reason of infirmity requires domiciliary care.

(2) 'Boarding home' means any home or other institution, however named, which is advertised, announced or maintained for the express or implied purpose of providing board and domiciliary care to three or more aged persons not related by blood or marriage to the operator. It shall not include facilities certified as group training homes pursuant to RCW 71A.22.040, nor any home, institution or section thereof which is otherwise licensed and regulated under the provisions of state law providing specifically for the licensing and regulation of such home, institution or section thereof, or any independent senior housing, independent living units in continuing care retirement communities, or other similar living situations including those subsidized by the department of housing and urban development.

(3) 'Person' means any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, company, association, or joint stock association, and the legal successor thereof.

(4) 'Secretary' means the secretary of social and health services.

(5) 'Department' means the state department of social and health services.

(6) 'Authorized department' means any city, county, city-county health department or health district authorized by the secretary of social and health services to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 2. Section 804, chapter 176, Laws of 1988 and RCW 71A.22.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person, corporation, or association may apply to the secretary for approval and certification of the applicant's facility as a day training center or a group training home for persons with developmental disabilities, or a combination of both. The secretary may either grant or deny certification or revoke certification previously granted after investigation of the applicant's facilities, to ascertain whether or not such facilities are adequate for the ~~((health, safety;))~~ care, treatment, maintenance, training, and support of persons with developmental disabilities, under standards in rules adopted by the secretary. SSB 5864 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Law & Justice: Changing provisions relating to satisfaction of judgments. Reported by Committee on Judiciary

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 5, chapter 60, Laws of 1929 as amended by section 1, chapter 22, Laws of 1935 and RCW 4.56.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When any judgment has been assigned, the assignment ~~((may))~~ shall be filed in the office of the county clerk in the county where the judgment ~~((is recorded and))~~ was rendered, and a copy of the assignment shall be recorded with the recording officer of the county in which the judgment was rendered. The assignment shall include the recording number of the judgment. A certified copy ~~((thereof))~~ of the assignment may be ~~((filed))~~ recorded in any county ~~((where an abstract))~~ in which a memorandum of such judgment has been ~~((filed))~~ recorded, and from the time of such ~~((filing))~~ recording shall be notice of ~~((such))~~ the assignment ~~((/- PROVIDED, That such)).~~ The assignment of a judgment or such certified copy thereof, may not be filed or recorded unless it is properly acknowledged by the person executing the assignment before an officer qualified by law to take acknowledgment of deeds.

(2) Assignments made to the Washington state support registry within the office of support enforcement under Title 26 or 74 RCW need not be acknowledged by the person executing the assignment if a declaration under penalty of perjury is included in the assignment.

Sec. 2. Section 6, chapter 60, Laws of 1929 as amended by section 1, chapter 28, Laws of 1983 and RCW 4.56.100 are each amended to read as follows:

When any judgment for the payment of money only shall have been paid or satisfied, the clerk of the court in which such judgment was rendered shall note upon the record in the execution docket satisfaction thereof giving the date of such satisfaction upon either the payment to such clerk of the amount of such judgment, costs, and interest and any accrued costs by reason of the issuance of any execution, or the filing with such clerk of a satisfaction entitled in such action and identifying the same executed by the judgment creditor or his or her attorney of record in such action or his or her assignee acknowledged as deeds are acknowledged. Every full satisfaction of judgment and every partial satisfaction of judgment which provides for the payment of money shall clearly designate the judgment creditor and his or her attorney if any, the judgment debtor, the amount or type of satisfaction, whether the satisfaction is full or partial, the cause number, and the date of entry of the judgment. A certificate by such clerk of the entry of such full satisfaction by him ~~((may be filed in the office of the clerk of any county in~~ which an abstract of such judgment has been filed. When so satisfied by the clerk or the filing of such certificate the lien of such judgment shall be discharged) or her or a certified copy of such full satisfaction, which includes the recording number of the judgment, shall be recorded with the recording officer of the county in which the judgment was rendered. Upon the recording of the certificate or certified copy of full satisfaction, the lien of the judgment shall be discharged. A certified copy of either the recorded certificate or recorded certified copy of full satisfaction may be recorded with the recording officer of the county in which any memorandum of the judgment referred to in RCW 4.56.200 (1) and (2) or assignment thereof has been recorded, and from the time of such recording in the county in which the judgment was rendered shall be notice of such full satisfaction.

The lien of judgments upon the real estate of the judgment debtor shall commence as follows:

(1) ~~((Judgments of the district court of the United States rendered in the county in which the real estate of the judgment debtor is situated, and judgments of the superior court for the county in which the real estate of the judgment debtor is situated, from the time of the entry thereof:~~

~~((2)) Judgments of the district court of the United States rendered in any county ((in this state other than that in which the real estate of the judgment debtor to be affected is situated)) of this state, judgments of the supreme court of this state, judgments of the court of appeals of this state, and judgments of the superior court for any county ((other than that in which the real estate of the judgment debtor to be affected is situated, from the time of the filing of a duly certified abstract of such)) of this state, upon the recording of a memorandum of the judgment with the ((county clerk)) recording officer of the county in which the real estate of the judgment debtor to be affected is situated, as provided in this ((act)) chapter;~~

~~((3)) (2) Judgments of a district court of this state ((rendered in the county in which the real estate of the judgment debtor is situated.)) from the time of the filing of a duly certified transcript of the docket of the district court with the county clerk of the county in which such judgment was rendered((;)) and the recording of a memorandum of the transcription of judgment with the recording officer of any county in the state in which the real estate of the judgment debtor is situated. Upon ((such)) the filing ((said)) of the transcript of judgment with the county clerk, the judgment shall become to all intents and purposes a judgment of the superior court for said county((-and~~

~~((4) Judgments of a district court of this state rendered in any other county in this state than that in which the real estate of the judgment debtor to be affected is situated, a transcript of the docket of which has been filed with the county clerk of the county where such judgment was rendered, from the time of filing, with the county clerk of the county in which the real estate of the judgment debtor to be affected is situated, of a duly certified abstract of the record of said judgment in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the certified transcript of the docket of said judgment of said district court was originally filed)).~~

~~(3) The memorandum referred to in subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall clearly designate: The judgment debtor, judgment creditor, and the name of the judgment creditor's attorney; the amount of the judgment, the court of jurisdiction, and the county in which the judgment was rendered; and, as to a judgment referred to under subsection (2) of this section, the superior court of the county in which the transcription was filed and the name of the court in which the judgment was rendered, cause number, and warrant number if a state tax warrant is involved. For any judgment that also includes taxable costs and attorney fees, the total of such costs and fees shall be designated in the memorandum or, if the taxable costs and attorneys' fees are not known at the time the memorandum or a certified copy thereof is recorded, then the following statement shall appear in upper case type on the memorandum or certified copy: 'TAXABLE COSTS AND ATTORNEYS' FEES ARE IN ADDITION TO THE AMOUNT OF THIS JUDGMENT.' The memorandum shall be executed by the judgment creditor or his or her attorney and shall be valid for all purposes if in substantial compliance with the foregoing requirement.~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 4.56 RCW to read as follows:

The clerk of the superior court shall prepare for recording and record with the recording officer a copy of the memorandum of judgment or the assignment required to be recorded by RCW 4.56.090, 4.56.100, and 4.56.200.

Sec. 5. Section 30, chapter 260, Laws of 1984 as last amended by section 4, chapter 231, Laws of 1988 and RCW 6.13.090 are each amended to read as follows:

A judgment against the owner of a homestead shall become a lien on the value of the homestead property in excess of the homestead exemption from the time the judgment creditor records the judgment, or memorandum thereof, with the recording officer of the county where the property is located. However, if a judgment of a district court of this state has been transferred to a superior court, the judgment becomes a lien from the time of recording with such recording officer a duly certified abstract of the record of such judgment as it appears in the office of the clerk in which the transfer was originally filed or a memorandum of the transcription of judgment which was filed in that office.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act applies to all judgments rendered after the effective date of this act."

SSB 5886 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Health Care & Corrections: Modifying confidentiality standards for information regarding sexually transmitted diseases. Reported by Committee on Health Care

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

(1) No person may disclose or be compelled to disclose the identity of any person who has investigated, considered, or requested a test or treatment for a sexually transmitted disease, except as authorized by this chapter.

(2) No person may disclose or be compelled to disclose the identity of any person upon whom ~~((a test for a sexually transmitted disease is performed, or the results of such a test or any information relating to diagnosis of or treatment for a sexually transmitted disease in a manner which permits identification of the subject of the test, diagnosis, or treatment except to the following persons))~~ an HIV antibody test is performed, or the results of such a test, nor may the result of a test for any other sexually transmitted disease when it is positive be disclosed. This protection against disclosure of test subject, diagnosis, or treatment also applies to any information relating to diagnosis of or treatment for HIV infection and for any other confirmed sexually transmitted disease. The following persons, however, may receive such information:

(a) The subject of the test or the subject's legal representative for health care decisions in accordance with RCW 7.70.065, with the exception of such a representative of a minor child over fourteen years of age and otherwise competent;

(b) Any person who secures a specific release of test results or information relating to HIV or confirmed diagnosis of or treatment for any other sexually transmitted disease executed by the subject ~~((of the test))~~ or the subject's legal representative for health care decisions in accordance with RCW 7.70.065, with the exception of such a representative of a minor child over fourteen years of age and otherwise competent;

(c) The state public health officer, a local public health officer, or the centers for disease control of the United States public health service in accordance with reporting requirements for a diagnosed case of a sexually transmitted disease;

(d) A health facility or health care provider that procures, processes, distributes, or uses: (i) A human body part, tissue, or blood from a deceased person with respect to medical information regarding that person; (ii) semen, including that provided prior to March 23, 1988, for the purpose of artificial insemination; or (iii) blood specimens;

(e) Any state or local public health officer conducting an investigation pursuant to RCW 70.24.024, provided that such record was obtained by means of court ordered HIV testing pursuant to RCW 70.24.340 or 70.24.024;

(f) A person allowed access to the record by a court order granted after application showing good cause therefor. In assessing good cause, the court shall weigh the public interest and the need for disclosure against the injury to the patient, to the physician-patient relationship, and to the treatment services. Upon the granting of the order, the court, in determining the extent to which any disclosure of all or any part of the record of any such test is necessary, shall impose appropriate safeguards against unauthorized disclosure. An order authorizing disclosure shall: (i) Limit disclosure to those parts of the patient's record deemed essential to fulfill the objective for which the order was granted; (ii) limit disclosure to those persons whose need for information is the basis for the order; and (iii) include any other appropriate measures to keep disclosure to a minimum for the protection of the patient, the physician-patient relationship, and the treatment services, including but not limited to the written statement set forth in subsection (5) of this section;

(g) Persons who, because of their behavioral interaction with the infected individual, have been placed at risk for acquisition of a sexually transmitted disease, as provided in RCW 70.24.022, if the health officer or authorized representative believes that the exposed person was unaware that a risk of disease exposure existed and that the disclosure of the identity of the infected person is necessary;

(h) A law enforcement officer, fire fighter, health care provider, health care facility staff person, or other persons as defined by the board in rule pursuant to RCW 70.24.340(4), who has requested a test of a person whose bodily fluids he or she has been substantially exposed to, pursuant to RCW 70.24.340(4), if a state or local public health officer performs the test; ~~(and)~~

(i) Claims management personnel employed by or associated with an insurer, health care service contractor, health maintenance organization, self-funded health plan, state-administered health care claims payer, or any other payer of health care claims where such disclosure is to be used solely for the prompt and accurate evaluation and payment of medical or related claims. Information released under this subsection shall be confidential and shall not be released or available to persons who are not involved in handling or determining medical claims payment; and

(j) A department of social and health services worker, a child placing agency worker, or a guardian ad litem who is responsible for making or reviewing placement or case-planning decisions or recommendations to the court regarding a child, who is less than fourteen years of age, has a sexually transmitted disease, and is in the custody of the department of social and health services or a licensed child placing agency; this information may also be received by a person responsible for providing residential care for such a child when the department of social and health services or a licensed child placing agency determines that it is necessary for the provision of child care services.

(3) No person to whom the results of a test for a sexually transmitted disease have been disclosed pursuant to subsection (2) of this section may disclose the test results to another person except as authorized by that subsection.

(4) The release of sexually transmitted disease information regarding an offender, except as provided in subsection (2)(e) of this section, shall be governed as follows:

(a) The sexually transmitted disease status of a department of corrections offender shall be made available by department of corrections health care providers to a department of corrections superintendent or administrator as necessary for disease prevention or control and for protection of the safety and security of the staff, offenders, and the public. The information may be submitted to transporting officers and receiving facilities, including facilities that are not under the department of correction's jurisdiction.

(b) The sexually transmitted disease status of a person detained in a jail shall be made available by the local public health officer to a jail administrator as necessary for disease prevention or control and for protection of the safety and security of the staff, offenders, and the public. The information may be submitted to transporting officers and receiving facilities.

(c) Information regarding a department of corrections offender's sexually transmitted disease status is confidential and may be disclosed by a correctional superintendent or administrator or local jail administrator only as necessary for disease prevention or control and for protection of the safety and security of the staff, offenders, and the public. Unauthorized disclosure of this information to any person may result in disciplinary action, in addition to any other penalties as may be prescribed by law.

(5) Whenever disclosure is made pursuant to this section, except for subsections (2)(a) and (6) of this section, it shall be accompanied by a statement in writing which includes the following or substantially similar language: 'This information has been disclosed to you from records whose confidentiality is protected by state law. State law prohibits you from making any further disclosure of it without the specific written consent of the person to whom it pertains, or as otherwise permitted by state law. A general authorization for the release of medical or other information is NOT sufficient for this purpose.' An oral disclosure shall be accompanied or followed by such a notice within ten days.

(6) The requirements of this section shall not apply to the customary methods utilized for the exchange of medical information among health care providers in order to provide health care services to the patient, nor shall they apply within health care facilities where there is a need for access to confidential medical information to fulfill professional duties.'

SSB 5948 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Energy & Utilities: Extending the period for conservation investments. Reported by Committee on Housing

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that energy conservation measures through weatherization are less costly than the production of conventional energy resources; that weatherization measures have an impact on the affordability of housing through lowered operating costs; that federal resources for low-income weatherization assistance are declining; that state incentives to encourage energy conservation are not being fully used by all public or private utility companies; and that strategies and methods to increase low-income weatherization activities by all utility companies are needed.

The legislature further finds that low-income weatherization is an important part of the state's overall energy strategy that includes cogeneration, renewable resources, and energy conservation; that an examination of the state's energy incentives requires participation from the utility companies, consumer interests, and the building industry; that the best approach to encourage full participation in low-income weatherization measures by utility companies is to have all parties review existing financial incentives and methods; and that by forming a task force the problems will be identified and solutions will be developed.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 149, Laws of 1980 and RCW 80.28.025 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In establishing rates for each gas and electric company regulated by this chapter, the commission shall adopt policies to encourage meeting or reducing energy demand through cogeneration as defined in RCW 82.35.020, measures which improve the efficiency of energy end use(;;) and new projects which produce or generate energy from renewable resources, such as solar energy, wind energy, hydroelectric energy, geothermal energy, wood, wood waste, ((municipal wastes;)) agricultural products and wastes, and end-use waste heat. ((These policies shall include but are not limited to)) Payments made under section 4, chapter ---(ESHB 2198). Laws of 1989, shall be considered a measure which improves the efficiency of energy end use.

(2) The commission shall adopt a policy allowing a return on investment in measures to improve the efficiency of energy end use, cogeneration, or projects which produce or generate energy from renewable resources ((which)). The return on investment is established by adding an increment of two percent to the rate of return on common equity permitted on the company's other investment and allowing the capitalization of carrying costs associated with the investment in such measures until they are included in the rate base for rate-making purposes. The rate of return increment shall be allowed for a period not to exceed thirty years after the measure or project is first placed in the rate base.

(3) The commission shall consider and may adopt other policies to protect a company from a reduction of short-term earnings that may be a direct result of utility programs to increase the efficiency of energy use. These policies may include allowing a periodic rate adjustment for investments in end-use efficiency or allowing changes in price structures designed to provide additional net revenue.

(4) Measures or projects encouraged under this section are those for which construction or installation is begun after June 12, 1980, and before January 1, ((1990, and which;)) 1996. At the time they are placed in the rate base, ((are)) the measures or projects must be reasonably expected to save, produce, or generate energy at a total incremental system cost per unit of energy delivered to end use which is less than or equal to the incremental system cost per unit of energy delivered to end use from similarly available conventional energy resources which ((utilize)) use nuclear energy or fossil fuels and which the gas or electric company could acquire to meet energy demand in the same time period. ((The rate of return increment shall be allowed for a period not to exceed thirty years after the measure or project is first placed in the rate base;))

(5) As part of the utility company's request for an increased return on investment under this section, a detailed breakdown of the activities claimed as measures to improve the efficiency of energy end use or projects which produce or generate energy from renewable resources shall be submitted to the commission. The commission shall forward information on the amounts targeted to low-income weatherization activities and number of persons served under this subsection to the department of community development.

Sec. 3, Section 3, chapter 149, Laws of 1980 and RCW 82.16.055 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In computing tax under this chapter there shall be deducted from the gross income:

(a) An amount equal to the cost of production at the plant for consumption within the state of Washington of:

(i) Electrical energy produced or generated from cogeneration as defined in RCW 82.35-.020; and

(ii) Electrical energy or gas produced or generated from renewable energy resources such as solar energy, wind energy, hydroelectric energy, geothermal energy, wood, wood wastes, ((municipal wastes;)) agricultural products and wastes, and end-use waste heat; and

(b) Those amounts expended to improve consumers' efficiency of energy end use or to otherwise reduce the use of electrical energy or gas by the consumer including payments made pursuant to section 4, chapter --- (ESHB 2198), Laws of 1989.

(2) This section applies only to new facilities for the production or generation of energy from cogeneration or renewable energy resources or measures to improve the efficiency of energy end use on which construction or installation is begun after June 12, 1980, and before January 1, ((1990)) 1996.

(3) Deductions under subsection (1)(a) of this section shall be allowed for a period not to exceed thirty years after the project is placed in operation.

(4) Measures or projects encouraged under this section shall at the time they are placed in service be reasonably expected to save, produce, or generate energy at a total incremental system cost per unit of energy delivered to end use which is less than or equal to the incremental system cost per unit of energy delivered to end use from similarly available conventional energy resources which utilize nuclear energy or fossil fuels and which the gas or electric utility could acquire to meet energy demand in the same time period.

(5) The department of revenue, after consultation with the utilities and transportation commission in the case of investor-owned utilities and the governing bodies of locally regulated utilities, shall determine the eligibility of individual projects and measures for deductions under this section.

(6) As part of the utility company's filing for a deduction from gross income under this section, a detailed breakdown of the activities claimed as eligible deductions to improve the efficiency of energy end use or projects which produce or generate energy from renewable resources shall be submitted to the department of revenue. The department of revenue shall forward the information on the amounts targeted to low-income weatherization activities and number of persons served under this subsection to the department of community development.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) There is established the low-income weatherization incentives task force to consist of:

- (a) Representatives of the major energy suppliers including natural gas utility companies, public and private electrical utility companies, and oil heating companies;
- (b) One representative of the building industry association of Washington;
- (c) One representative of the utilities and transportation commission;
- (d) One representative of the department of community development;
- (e) Representatives of consumer interests;
- (f) Two representatives from the house of representatives, one from each caucus, appointed by the speaker of the house; and
- (g) Two representatives from the senate, one from each caucus, appointed by the president of the senate.

(2) The chair of the committee on housing or the chair's designee shall act as chair of the task force established under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) The chair of the task force shall, within thirty days of the effective date of this section, appoint all nonlegislative members of the task force.

(4) The task force shall meet at such times as it is called by the chair of the task force.

(5) Members of the task force shall receive no compensation from the state.

(6) Legislative members of the task force shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. The task force established under section 4 of this act shall:

(1) Review existing financial incentives to energy utility companies for weatherization;

(2) Review existing materials on weatherization and housing affordability;

(3) Determine methods and incentives to encourage increased participation from energy utility companies in weatherization measures in present law;

(4) Identify impediments to low-income weatherization;

(5) Review existing governmental and private weatherization programs;

(6) Take any other action related to carrying out this section; and

(7) Provide a written report to the housing committee and energy and utilities committee of the house of representatives and the economic development and labor committee and energy and utilities committee of the senate by September 1, 1990, presenting the findings and recommendations of the task force.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

2SSB 6051 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Ways & Means: Promoting employer involvement in the development of child care services and facilities. Reported by Committee on Trade & Economic Development

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that increasing the availability and affordability of quality child care will enhance the stability of the family and facilitate expanded economic prosperity in the state. The legislature finds that balancing work and family life is a critical concern for employers and employees. The dramatic increase in participation of women in the work force has resulted in a demand for affordable child care exceeding the supply. The future of the state's work force depends in part upon the availability of quality affordable child care. There are not enough child care services and facilities to meet the needs of working parents, the costs of care are often beyond the resources of working parents, and facilities are not located conveniently to work places and neighborhoods. The prospect for labor shortages resulting from the aging of the population and the importance of the quality of the work force to the competitiveness of Washington businesses make the availability of quality child care an important concern for the state's businesses.

The legislature further finds that a partnership between business and child care providers can help the market for child care adjust to the needs of businesses and working families and improve productivity, reduce absenteeism, improve recruitment, and improve morale among Washington's labor force. The legislature further finds that private and public partnerships and investments are necessary to increase the supply, affordability, and quality of child care in the state.

Sec. 2. Section 11, chapter 466, Laws of 1985 as amended by section 3, chapter 348, Laws of 1987 and RCW 43.31.085 are each amended to read as follows:

The business assistance center shall:

(1) Serve as the state's lead agency and advocate for the development and conservation of businesses.

(2) Coordinate the delivery of state programs to assist businesses.

(3) Provide comprehensive referral services to businesses requiring government assistance.

(4) Serve as the business ombudsman within state government and advise the governor and the legislature of the need for new legislation to improve the effectiveness of state programs to assist businesses.

(5) Aggressively promote business awareness of the state's business programs and distribute information on the services available to businesses.

(6) Develop, in concert with local economic development and business assistance organizations, coordinated processes that complement both state and local activities and services.

(7) The business assistance center shall work with other federal, state, and local agencies and organizations to ensure that business assistance services including small business, trade services, and distressed area programs are provided in a coordinated and cost-effective manner.

(8) In collaboration with the child care coordinating committee in the department of social and health services, prepare and disseminate information on child care options for employers and the existence of the program. As much as possible, and through interagency agreements where necessary, such information should be included in the routine communications to employers from (a) the department of revenue, (b) the department of labor and industries, (c) the department of community development, (d) the employment security department, (e) the department of trade and economic development, (f) the small business development center, and (g) the department of social and health services.

(9) In collaboration with the child care coordinating committee in the department of social and health services, compile information on and facilitate employer access to individuals, firms, organizations, and agencies that provide technical assistance to employers to enable them to develop and support child care services or facilities.

(10) Actively seek public and private money to support the child care facility fund described in section 3 of this act, staff and assist the child care facility fund committee as described in section 4 of this act, and work to promote applications to the committee for loan guarantees, loans, and grants.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A child care facility fund is created. Money in the fund shall be used solely for the purpose of starting or improving a child care facility pursuant to sections 2 through 8 of this act. Money may be deposited from private and public sources into this fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The child care facility fund committee is established within the business assistance center of the department of trade and economic development. The committee shall administer the child care facility fund, with review by the director of the department of trade and economic development.

(1) The committee shall have five members. The director of the department of trade and economic development shall appoint the members, who shall include:

(a) Two persons experienced in investment finance and having skills in providing capital to new businesses, in starting and operating businesses, and providing professional services to small or expanding businesses;

(b) One person representing a philanthropic organization with experience in evaluating funding requests;

(c) One child care services expert; and

(d) One early childhood development expert.

In making these appointments, the director shall give careful consideration to ensure that the various geographic regions of the state are represented and that members will be available for meetings and are committed to working cooperatively to address child care needs in Washington state.

(2) The committee shall elect officers from among its membership and shall adopt policies and procedures specifying the lengths of terms, methods for filling vacancies, and other matters necessary to the ongoing functioning of the committee.

(3) Committee members shall serve without compensation, but may request reimbursement for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(4) Committee members shall not be liable to the state, to the child care facility fund, or to any other person as a result of their activities, whether ministerial or discretionary, as members except for willful dishonesty or intentional violation of the law. The department of trade and economic development may purchase liability insurance for members and may indemnify these persons against the claims of others.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The child care facility fund committee is authorized to solicit applications for and award grants and loans from the child care facility fund to assist persons, businesses, or organizations to start a licensed child care facility, or to make capital improvements in an existing licensed child care facility. Grants and loans shall be awarded on a one-time only basis, shall not be awarded to cover operating expenses beyond the first three months of business, and no grant or loan shall exceed twenty-five thousand dollars.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The child care facility fund committee is authorized, upon application, to use the child care facility fund to guarantee loans made to persons, businesses, or organizations to start a licensed child care facility, or to make capital improvements in an existing licensed child care facility.

(1) Loan guarantees shall be awarded on a one-time only basis, and shall not be awarded for loans to cover operating expenses beyond the first three months of business.

(2) The total aggregate amount of the loan guarantee awarded to any applicant may not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars and may not exceed eighty percent of the loan.

(3) The total aggregate amount of guarantee from the child care facility fund, with respect to the guaranteed portions of loans, may not exceed at any time an amount equal to five times the balance in the child care facility fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The child care facility fund committee shall award loan guarantees, loans or grants to those persons, businesses, or organizations meeting the minimum standards set forth in this chapter who will best serve the intent of the chapter to increase the availability of high quality, affordable child care in Washington state. The committee shall promulgate rules regarding the application for and disbursement of loan guarantees, loans, or grants from the fund, including loan terms and repayment procedures. At a minimum, such rules shall require an applicant to submit a plan which includes a detailed description of:

(1) The need for a new or improved child care facility in the area served by the applicant, including the needs of any special populations such as handicapped children, sick children, children requiring night or weekend care, or children whose costs of care are subsidized by government;

(2) Why financial assistance from the state is needed to start or improve the child care facility;

(3) How the guaranteed loan, loan, or grant will be used, and how such uses will meet the described need;

(4) The child care services to be available at the facility and the capacity of the applicant to provide those services; and

(5) The financial status of the applicant, including other resources available to the applicant which will ensure the continued viability of the facility and the availability of its described services.

Recipients shall annually for two years following the receipt of the loan guarantee, loan, or grant, submit to the child care facility fund committee a report on the facility and how it is meeting the child care needs for which it was intended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Where the child care facility fund committee makes a grant to a person, organization, or business, the grant shall be repaid to the child care facility fund if the child care facility using the grant to start or expand ceases to provide child care earlier than the following time periods from the date the grant is made: (1) Twelve months for a grant up to five thousand dollars; (2) twenty-four months for a grant over five thousand dollars up to ten thousand dollars; (3) thirty-six months for a grant over ten thousand dollars up to fifteen thousand dollars; (4) forty-eight months for a grant over fifteen thousand dollars up to twenty thousand dollars; and (5) sixty months for a grant over twenty thousand dollars up to twenty-five thousand dollars.

Sec. 9. Section 5, chapter 164, Laws of 1985 as last amended by section 4, chapter 461, Laws of 1987 and RCW 43.168.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The committee may only approve an application providing a loan for a project which the committee finds:

(a) Will result in the creation of employment opportunities or the maintenance of threatened employment;

(b) Has been approved by the director as conforming to federal rules and regulations governing the spending of federal community development block grant funds;

(c) Will be of public benefit and for a public purpose, and that the benefits, including increased or maintained employment, improved standard of living, and the employment of disadvantaged workers, will primarily accrue to residents of the area;

(d) Will probably be successful;

(e) Would probably not be completed without the loan because other capital or financing at feasible terms is unavailable or the return on investment is inadequate.

(2) The committee shall, subject to federal block grant criteria, give higher priority to economic development projects that contain provisions for child care.

(3) The committee may not approve an application if it fails to provide for adequate reporting or disclosure of financial data to the committee. The committee may require an annual or other periodic audit of the project books.

~~((3))~~ (4) The committee may require that the project be managed in whole or in part by a local development organization and may prescribe a management fee to be paid to such organization by the recipient of the loan or grant.

~~((4))~~ (5) (a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, the committee shall not approve any application which would result in a loan or grant in excess of three hundred fifty thousand dollars.

(b) The committee may approve an application which results in a loan or grant of up to seven hundred thousand dollars if the application has been approved by the director.

~~((5))~~ (6) The committee shall fix the terms and rates pertaining to its loans.

~~((6))~~ (7) Should there be more demand for loans than funds available for lending, the committee shall provide loans for those projects which will lead to the greatest amount of employment or benefit to a community. In determining the 'greatest amount of employment or benefit' the committee shall also consider the employment which would be saved by its loan.

~~((7))~~ (8) To the extent permitted under federal law the committee shall require applicants to provide for the transfer of all payments of principal and interest on loans to the Washington state development loan fund created under this chapter. Under circumstances where the federal law does not permit the committee to require such transfer, the committee shall give priority to applications where the applicants on their own volition make commitments to provide for the transfer.

~~((8))~~ (9) The committee shall not approve any application to finance or help finance a shopping mall.

~~((9))~~ (10) The committee shall make at least eighty percent of the appropriated funds available to projects located in distressed areas, and may make up to twenty percent available to projects located in areas not designated as distressed. The committee shall not make funds available to projects located in areas not designated as distressed if the fund's net worth is less than seven million one hundred thousand dollars.

~~((10))~~ (11) If an objection is raised to a project on the basis of unfair business competition, the committee shall evaluate the potential impact of a project on similar businesses located in the local market area. A grant may be denied by the committee if a project is not likely to result in a net increase in employment within a local market area.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Sections 3 through 8 of this act are each added to chapter 43.31 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. If specific funding for the purposes of this act, referencing this act by bill number, is not provided by June 30, 1989, in the omnibus appropriations act, this act shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.*

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "services;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 43.31.085 and 43.168.050; adding new sections to chapter 43.31 RCW; creating new sections; and declaring an emergency."

SB 6095 Prime Sponsor, Senator Benitz: Providing for branch campuses.
Reported by Committee on Higher Education

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the benefits of higher education should be more widely available to the citizens of the state of Washington. The legislature also finds that a citizen's place of residence can restrict that citizen's access to educational opportunity at the upper division and graduate level.

Because most of the state-supported baccalaureate universities are located in areas removed from major metropolitan areas, the legislature finds that many of the state's citizens, especially those citizens residing in the central Puget Sound area, the Tri-Cities, Spokane, Vancouver, and Yakima, have insufficient and inequitable access to upper-division baccalaureate and graduate education.

This lack of sufficient educational opportunities in urban areas makes it difficult or impossible for place-bound individuals, who are unable to relocate, to complete a baccalaureate or graduate degree. It also exacerbates the difficulty financially needy students have in attending school, since many of those students need to work, and work is not always readily available in some communities where the baccalaureate institutions of higher education are located.

The lack of sufficient educational opportunities in metropolitan areas also affects the economy of the underserved communities. Businesses benefit from access to the research and teaching capabilities of institutions of higher education. The absence of these institutions from some of the state's major urban centers prevents beneficial interaction between businesses in these communities and the state's universities.

The Washington state master plan for higher education, adopted by the higher education coordinating board, recognizes the need to expand upper-division and graduate educational opportunities in the state's large urban centers. The board has also attempted to provide a means for helping to meet future educational demand through a system of branch campuses in the state's major urban areas.

The legislature endorses the assignment of responsibility to serve these urban centers that the board has made to various institutions of higher education. The legislature also endorses the creation of branch campuses for the University of Washington and Washington State University.

The legislature recognizes that, among their other responsibilities, the state's comprehensive community colleges share with the four-year universities and colleges the responsibility of providing the first two years of a baccalaureate education. It is the intent of the legislature that the four-year institutions and the community colleges work as cooperative partners to ensure the successful and efficient operation of the state's system of higher education. The legislature further intends that the four-year institutions work cooperatively with the community colleges to ensure that branch campuses are operated as models of a two plus two educational system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 28B.80 RCW to read as follows:

It is the intent of the legislature that, at the same time additional capital or operating funds are approved for the purposes of sections 3 through 7 of this act, enrollment lids at existing baccalaureate institutions of higher education should be raised at the upper-division level insofar as doing so would increase participation rates in underserved areas.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. The University of Washington is responsible for ensuring the expansion of upper-division and graduate educational programs in the central Puget Sound area under rules or guidelines adopted by the higher education coordinating board. The University of Washington shall meet that responsibility through the operation of at least two branch campuses. One branch campus shall be located in the Tacoma area. Another branch campus shall be located in the Bothell-Woodinville area.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. Washington State University is responsible for providing upper-division and graduate level higher education programs to the citizens of the Tri-Cities area, under rules or guidelines adopted by the higher education coordinating board. Washington State University shall meet that responsibility through the operation of a branch campus in the Tri-Cities area.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. Washington State University is responsible for providing upper-division and graduate level higher education programs to the citizens of the southwest Washington area, under rules or guidelines adopted by the higher education coordinating board. Washington State University shall meet that responsibility through the operation of a branch campus in the southwest Washington area.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. SSB 5066 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Law & Justice: Modifying self-defense requirements. Reported by Committee on Judiciary

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 8, chapter 206, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 9.01.200 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No person in the state shall be placed in legal jeopardy of any kind whatsoever for protecting by any reasonable means necessary, himself or herself, his or her family, or his or her real or personal property, or for coming to the aid of another who is in imminent danger of or the victim of (~~aggravated~~) assault, (~~armed~~) robbery, (~~holdup~~) kidnapping, arson, burglary, rape, murder, or any other heinous crime.

(2) When a substantial question of self defense in such a case shall exist which needs legal investigation or court action for the full determination of the facts, and the defendant's actions are subsequently found justified under the intent of this section, the state of Washington shall indemnify or reimburse such defendant for all loss of time, legal fees, or other expenses involved in his or her defense. This indemnification or reimbursement is an award of reasonable costs which include loss of time, legal fees, or other expenses and is not an independent cause of action. The determination of an award shall be by the judge or jury at the discretion of the judge in the criminal proceeding. To award these reasonable costs the trier of fact must find that the defendant's claim of self-defense was sustained by a preponderance of the evidence: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That nothing shall preclude the legislature from granting a higher award through the sundry claims process.

(3) Whenever the issue of self defense under this section is decided by a judge or whenever a judge exercises the discretion authorized under subsection (2) of this section in determining an award, the judge shall consider the same questions as must be answered in the special verdict under subsection (4) of this section.

(4) Whenever the issue of self defense under this section has been submitted to a jury, and the jury has found the defendant not guilty, and the judge has submitted an award determination to the jury, the court shall instruct the jury to return a special verdict in substantially the following form:

answer
yes or no

1. Was the finding of not guilty based upon self defense?

2. If your answer to question 1 is no, do not answer the remaining question.

3. If your answer to question 1 is yes, was the defendant:

a. Protecting himself or herself?

b. Protecting his or her family?

c. Protecting his or her property?

d. Coming to the aid of another who was in imminent danger of a heinous crime?

e. Coming to the aid of another who was the victim of a heinous crime?

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. RCW 9.01.200 is hereby decodified and recodified as a new section in chapter 9A.16 RCW."

SSB 5071 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Children & Family Services: Regarding surrogate parenting. Reported by Committee on Health Care

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the legal status of children born under surrogate parenting arrangements is currently uncertain, and that there remain many ethical and legal problems and issues concerning rights and responsibilities of the parents, child, and the surrogate mother and her husband, if any. There are further concerns about the risk of exploitation and coercion which may arise from the commercialization of surrogate parenting.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. As used in sections 2 through 7 of this act:

(1) 'Compensation' means a payment of money, objects, services, or anything else having monetary value except payment of expenses incurred as a result of the pregnancy and the actual medical expenses of a surrogate mother, and the payment of reasonable attorney fees for the drafting of a surrogate parentage contract.

(2) 'Surrogate gestation' means the implantation in a female of an embryo not genetically related to that female and subsequent gestation of a child by that female.

(3) 'Surrogate mother' means a female, who is not married to the contributor of the sperm, and who is naturally or artificially inseminated and who subsequently gestates a child conceived through the insemination pursuant to a surrogate parentage contract.

(4) 'Surrogate parentage contract' means a contract, agreement, or arrangement in which a female, not married to the contributor of the sperm, agrees to conceive a child through natural or artificial insemination or in which a female agrees to surrogate gestation, and to voluntarily relinquish her parental rights to the child.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A person shall not enter into, induce, arrange, procure, or otherwise assist in the formation of a surrogate parentage contract under which an unemancipated minor female or a female diagnosed as having a mental illness or developmental disability is the surrogate mother.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. No person, organization, or agency shall enter into, induce, arrange, procure, or otherwise assist in the formation of a surrogate parentage contract, written or unwritten, for compensation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A surrogate parentage contract entered into for compensation, whether executed in the state of Washington or in another jurisdiction, shall be void and unenforceable in the state of Washington as contrary to public policy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Every person who violates the provisions of sections 2 through 7 of this act shall be subject to a civil penalty of not more than fifty thousand dollars. The prosecuting attorney may seek recovery of such penalty in a civil action.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If a child is born to a surrogate mother pursuant to a surrogate parentage contract, and there is a dispute between the parties concerning custody of the child, the party having physical custody of the child may retain physical custody of the child until the superior court orders otherwise. The superior court shall award legal custody of the child based upon the factors listed in RCW 26.09.187(3) and 26.09.191.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 2 through 7 of this act are each added to chapter 26.26 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "parenting;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding new sections to chapter 26.26 RCW; creating a new section; prescribing penalties; and declaring an emergency."

2SSB 5073 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Ways & Means: Establishing a central repository for collection and analysis of information on crimes involving bigotry and bias. Reported by Committee on Judiciary

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 36.28A RCW to read as follows:

(1) The Washington association of sheriffs and police chiefs shall establish and maintain a central repository for the collection and classification of information regarding crimes which violate RCW 9A.36.080 and are motivated all or in part by bigotry and bias. Upon establishing such a repository, the association shall develop a procedure to monitor, record, and classify information relating to crimes apparently directed against racial, religious, ethnic, or handicapped groups. The procedure may be established within the association's incident-based reporting program, and the procedure shall be submitted to the senate law and justice committee and the house of representatives judiciary committee for approval by November 1, 1989, and before the association implements the procedure.

(2) All local law enforcement agencies shall report monthly to the association concerning all violations of RCW 9A.36.080 in such form and in such manner as prescribed by rules adopted by the association. Agency participation in the incident-based reporting program, with regard to the specific data requirements associated with violations of RCW 9A.36.080, shall be deemed to meet agency reporting requirements. The association must summarize the information received and file an annual report with the governor and the senate law and justice committee and the house of representatives judiciary committee.

(3) The association shall disseminate the information according to the provisions of chapter 10.97 RCW, chapter 10.98 RCW, and all other confidentiality requirements imposed by federal or Washington law.

(4) The criminal justice training commission shall provide training for law enforcement officers in identifying, responding to, and reporting all violations of RCW 9A.36.080.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. If specific funding for the purposes of this act, referencing this act by bill number, is not provided by June 30, 1989, in the omnibus appropriations act, this act shall be null and void."

SSB 5108 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Children & Family Services: Regarding visitation between an abused child and the abuser. Reported by Committee on Judiciary

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 10, chapter 460, Laws of 1987 and RCW 26.09.191 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The permanent parenting plan shall not require mutual decision-making or designation of a dispute resolution process other than court action if it is found that a parent has engaged in any of the following conduct: (a) Willful abandonment that continues for an extended period of time or substantial refusal to perform parenting functions; (b) physical, sexual, or a pattern of emotional abuse of a child; or (c) a history of acts of domestic violence as defined in RCW 26.50.010(1) ~~((or an act of domestic violence which rises to the level of a felony))~~ or an assault or sexual assault which causes grievous bodily harm or the fear of such harm.

(2)(a) The parent's residential time with the child shall be limited if it is found that the parent has engaged in any of the following conduct: ~~((c))~~ (i) Willful abandonment that continues for an extended period of time or substantial refusal to perform parenting functions; ~~((b))~~ (ii) physical, sexual, or a pattern of emotional abuse of a child; or ~~((c))~~ (iii) a history of acts of domestic violence as defined in RCW 26.50.010(1) ~~((or an act of domestic violence which rises to the level of a felony, unless))~~ or an assault or sexual assault which causes grievous bodily harm or the fear of such harm.

(b) The limitations imposed by the court shall be reasonably calculated to protect the child from physical, sexual, or emotional abuse or harm that could result if the child has contact with the parent requesting residential time. If the court expressly finds limitation on the residential time with the child will not adequately protect the child from the harm or abuse that could result if the child has contact with the parent requesting residential time, the court shall restrain the parent requesting residential time from all contact with the child.

(c) If the court expressly finds that contact between the parent and the child will not cause physical, sexual, or emotional abuse or harm to the child and that the probability that the parent's harmful or abusive conduct will recur is so remote that it would not be in the child's best interests to apply the limitations ~~((or unless it is shown not to have had an impact on the child))~~ of (a) and (b) of this subsection, or if the court expressly finds the parent's conduct did not have an impact on the child, then the court need not apply the limitations of (a) and (b) of this subsection. The weight given to the existence of a protection order issued under chapter 26.50 RCW as to domestic violence is within the discretion of the court.

(3) A parent's involvement or conduct may have an adverse effect on the child's best interests, and the court may preclude or limit any provisions of the parenting plan, if any of the following factors exist:

(a) A parent's neglect or substantial nonperformance of parenting functions;

(b) A long-term emotional or physical impairment which interferes with the parent's performance of parenting functions as defined in RCW 26.09.004;

(c) A long-term impairment resulting from drug, alcohol, or other substance abuse that interferes with the performance of parenting functions;

(d) The absence or substantial impairment of emotional ties between the parent and the child;

(e) The abusive use of conflict by the parent which creates the danger of serious damage to the child's psychological development;

(f) A parent has withheld from the other parent access to the child for a protracted period without good cause; or

(g) Such other factors or conduct as the court expressly finds adverse to the best interests of the child.

(4) In entering a permanent parenting plan, the court shall not draw any presumptions from the provisions of the temporary parenting plan.

(5) In determining whether any of the conduct described in this section has occurred, the court shall apply the civil rules of evidence, proof, and procedure.

Sec. 2. Section 44, chapter 460, Laws of 1987 and RCW 26.10.160 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A parent not granted custody of the child is entitled to reasonable visitation rights ~~((unless the court finds, after a hearing, that visitation would endanger the child's physical, mental, or emotional health. The court may order visitation rights for any person when visitation may serve the best interest of the child whether or not there has been any change of circumstances))~~ except as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(2)(a) Visitation with the child shall be limited if it is found that the parent seeking visitation has engaged in any of the following conduct: (i) Willful abandonment that continues for an extended period of time or substantial refusal to perform parenting functions; (ii) physical, sexual, or a pattern of emotional abuse of a child; or (iii) a history of acts of domestic violence as defined in RCW 26.50.010(1) or an assault or sexual assault which causes grievous bodily harm or the fear of such harm.

(b) The limitations imposed by the court shall be reasonably calculated to protect the child from the physical, sexual, or emotional abuse or harm that could result if the child has contact with the parent requesting visitation. If the court expressly finds limitations on visitation with the child will not adequately protect the child from the harm or abuse that could result if the child has contact with the parent requesting visitation, the court shall restrain the person seeking visitation from all contact with the child.

(c) If the court expressly finds that contact between the parent and the child will not cause physical, sexual, or emotional abuse or harm to the child and that the probability that the parent's harmful or abusive conduct will recur is so remote that it would not be in the child's best interests to apply the limitations of (a) and (b) of this subsection, or if the court expressly finds the parent's conduct did not have an impact on the child, then the court need not apply the limitations of (a) and (b) of this subsection. The weight given to the existence of a protection order issued under chapter 26.50 RCW as to domestic violence is within the discretion of the court.

(3) Any person may petition the court for visitation rights at any time including, but not limited to, custody proceedings. The court may order visitation rights for any person when visitation may serve the best interest of the child whether or not there has been any change of circumstances.

(4) The court may modify an order granting or denying visitation rights whenever modification would serve the best interests of the child ((but the court shall not restrict a parent's visitation rights unless it finds that the visitation would endanger the child's physical, mental, or emotional health)). Modification of a parent's visitation rights shall be subject to the requirements of subsection (2) of this section."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "abuser;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and amending RCW 26.09.191 and 26.10.160."

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 72.65 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department shall establish, by rule, inmate eligibility standards for participation in the work release program;

(2) The department shall:

(a) Conduct an annual examination of each work release facility and its security procedures;

(b) Investigate and set standards for the inmate supervision policies of each work release facility;

(c) Establish physical standards for future work release structures to ensure the safety of inmates, employees, and the surrounding communities;

(d) Evaluate its recordkeeping of serious infractions to determine if infractions are properly and consistently assessed against inmates eligible for work release;

(e) Report to the legislature on a case management procedure to evaluate and determine those inmates on work release who are in need of treatment. The department shall establish in the report a written treatment plan best suited to the inmate's needs, cost, and the relationship of community placement and community corrections officers to a system of case management;

(f) Adopt a policy to encourage businesses employing work release inmates to contact the appropriate work release facility whenever an inmate is absent from his or her work schedule. The department of corrections shall provide each employer with written information and instructions on who should be called if a work release employee is absent from work or leaves the job site without authorization; and

(g) Develop a sitting policy, in conjunction with cities, counties, community groups, and the department of community development for the establishment of additional work release facilities. Such policy shall include at least the following elements: (i) Guidelines for appropriate site selection of work-release facilities; (ii) notification requirements to local government and community groups of intent to site a work release facility; and (iii) guidelines for effective community relations by the work release program operator.

The department shall comply with the requirements of this section by July 1, 1990."

SSB 5140 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Ways & Means: Changing provisions relating to state personnel administration. Reported by Committee on State Government

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

PART I: COLLECTIVE BARGAINING

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. POLICY STATEMENT. It is the purpose of this chapter to promote orderly and constructive relationships between the state of Washington and its employees, and to assure the effective and orderly operations of state government.

Such a public policy is best effectuated by recognizing the principles of collective bargaining, and by granting state employees the right to organize for the purpose of negotiating wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. DEFINITIONS. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Agency' means any agency as defined in RCW 41.06.020 and covered by chapter 41.06 RCW.

(2) 'Arbitration' means the procedure whereby parties involved in an impasse mutually agree to submit their differences to a third party for a final and binding determination.

(3) 'Collective bargaining' means the performance of the mutual obligation of the representatives of the employer and the exclusive bargaining representative to meet at reasonable times and to bargain in good faith in an effort to reach agreement with respect to the subjects of bargaining specified under section 9 of this act.

(4) 'Commission' means the state employees' relations commission.

(5) 'Confidential employee' means an employee who, in the regular course of his or her duties, assists in a confidential capacity to persons who formulate, determine, and effectuate management policies with regard to labor relations or who, in the regular course of his or her duties, has authorized access to information relating to the effectuation or review of the employer's collective bargaining policies.

(6) 'Director' means the director of the state employees' relations commission.

(7) 'Employee' means any employee, including employees whose work has ceased in connection with the pursuit of lawful activities protected by this chapter, covered by chapter 41.06 RCW, except confidential employees.

(8) 'Employee organization' means any organization, union, or association which exists for the purpose, in whole or in part, of collective bargaining with employers.

(9) 'Employer' means the state of Washington.

(10) 'Essential employee' means any employee performing functions so essential that the interruption or termination of the function will constitute a clear and present danger to the health and safety of the state.

(11) 'Exclusive bargaining representative' means any employee organization that has been certified or recognized under the provisions of this chapter as the representative of the employees in an appropriate bargaining unit.

(12) 'Institutions of higher education' means the University of Washington, Washington State University, Central Washington University, Eastern Washington University, Western Washington University, The Evergreen State College, and the various state community colleges.

(13) 'Labor dispute' means any controversy concerning terms or conditions of employment, or concerning the association or representation of persons in negotiating, fixing, maintaining, changing, or seeking to arrange terms or conditions of employment, regardless of whether the disputants stand in the proximate relation of employer and employee.

(14) 'Supervisor' means any employee having authority in the interest of the employer to hire, transfer, suspend, lay off, recall, promote, discharge, assign, reward, or discipline other employees, or to adjust their grievances, or effectively to recommend such action, if, in connection with the foregoing, the exercise of such authority is not of a merely routine or clerical nature, but requires the use of independent judgment.

(15) 'Unfair labor practice' means any unfair labor practice listed in section 17 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. STATE EMPLOYEES' RELATIONS COMMISSION. (1) There is created the state employees' relations commission to administer the provisions of this chapter. The commission shall consist of three members who shall be appointed by the governor. One of the original members shall be appointed for a term of two years, one for a term of three years, and one for a term of four years. Their successors shall be appointed for terms of four years each, except that any person chosen to fill a vacancy shall be appointed only for the unexpired term of the member whom he or she succeeds. Commission members shall be eligible for reappointment. Persons so appointed shall not hold any other employment with the state, shall not have been an officer of a political party for a period of one year immediately prior to the appointment, and shall not be or become a candidate for partisan elective public office during the term to which they are appointed. Any member of the commission may be removed by the governor, upon notice and hearing, for neglect of duty or malfeasance in office, but for no other cause. Commission members shall not be eligible for state retirement under chapter 41.40 RCW by virtue of their service on the commission.

(2) In making member appointments initially, and subsequently thereafter, the governor shall appoint persons knowledgeable in the area of labor relations and personnel practices. Persons with experience in negotiating labor contracts are eligible for appointment only if the experience includes negotiations on behalf of both employers and employees.

(3) A vacancy in the commission shall not impair the right of the remaining members to exercise all of the powers of the commission, and two members of the commission shall, at all times, constitute a quorum of the commission.

(4) At its first meeting following the appointment of all of its members, and annually thereafter, the commission shall elect a chair and vice-chair from among its members to serve one year.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. COMMISSION COMPENSATION. (1) Each member of the commission shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.250. Members of the commission shall also be reimbursed for travel expenses incurred in the discharge of their official duties on the same basis as is provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(2) The commission shall appoint a director whose annual salary shall be determined under the provisions of RCW 43.03.028. The director shall perform such duties and have such powers as the commission shall prescribe in order to implement and enforce the provisions of this chapter. In addition to the performance of administrative duties, the commission may delegate to the director authority with respect to, but not limited to, representation proceedings, unfair labor practice proceedings, mediation of labor disputes, arbitration of disputes concerning the interpretation or application of a collective bargaining agreement, and, in certain cases, fact-finding or arbitration of disputes concerning the terms of a collective bargaining agreement. Such delegation shall not eliminate a party's right of appeal to the commission. The director, with such assistance as may be provided by the attorney general and such additional legal assistance consistent with chapter 43.10 RCW, shall have authority on behalf of the commission, when necessary to carry out or enforce any action or decision of the commission, to petition any court of competent jurisdiction for an order requiring compliance with the action or decision.

(3) The commission shall employ such employees as it may from time to time find necessary for the proper performance of its duties, consistent with the provisions of this chapter.

(4) The payment of all of the expenses of the commission, including travel expenses incurred by the members or employees of the commission under its orders, shall be subject to the provisions of RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. COMMISSION DUTIES. (1) It shall be the duty of the commission, in order to prevent or minimize interruptions growing out of labor disputes, to assist employers and employees to settle such disputes through mediation.

(2) The commission, through the director, may provide its services in any state employee labor dispute either upon its own motion or upon the request of one or more of the parties to the dispute, whenever in its judgment the dispute threatens to cause a substantial disruption to the public welfare.

(3) If the director is not able to bring the parties to agreement by mediation within a reasonable time, he or she shall seek to induce the parties to voluntarily seek other means of settling the dispute without resort to strike or other coercion, including submission to the employees in the bargaining unit of the employer's last offer of settlement for approval or rejection in a secret ballot. The failure or refusal of either party to agree to any procedure suggested by the director shall not be deemed a violation of any duty or obligation imposed by this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. COMMISSION AUTHORITY. (1) The commission shall have authority to adopt rules in accordance with chapter 34.05 RCW as necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter, consistent with the best standards of labor management relations.

(2) The commission shall adopt rules providing for employee participation in the development and administration of this chapter. To assure this right, the commission shall act on rules or rule changes only after the commission has given thirty days notice to, and considered proposals from, employee representatives and affected agencies. Complete and current compilations of all rules of the commission in printed form shall be available to the public free of charge.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. RIGHTS OF EMPLOYEES. Employees shall have the right to self-organization, to form, join, or assist employee organizations, to bargain collectively through representatives of their own choosing, and to engage in other lawful concerted activities for the purpose of collective bargaining or other mutual aid or protection, and shall also have the right to refrain from any or all such activities except to the extent that employees may be required to pay a fee to an exclusive bargaining representative under a union security provision authorized by this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. MANAGEMENT RIGHTS. Nothing in this chapter shall interfere with the right of the employer to carry out the statutory mandate and goals assigned to the agency using personnel, methods, and means in the most appropriate and efficient manner possible.

The employer shall not be required to bargain over matters of inherent managerial policy, which shall include such areas of discretion or policy as the functions of the employer, standards of services, its overall budget, the organizational structure, and selection of new employees and direction of employees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. SCOPE OF BARGAINING. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the subjects of bargaining shall include wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment, and the negotiation of any question arising under a collective bargaining agreement.

(2) The scope of bargaining shall not include matters pertaining to:

(a) Recruitment of employment candidates, conduct and grading of examinations, rating of candidates, maintenance of eligible lists, and original appointments from eligible lists; and

(b) Retirement benefits.

(3) The employer and the exclusive bargaining representative shall not agree to any proposal that would be inconsistent with the principle of comparable worth embodied in RCW 41.06.155.

(4) In case of any conflict between the provisions of this chapter and any other law, executive order, administrative rule, or agency policy relating to wages, hours, and conditions of employment or personnel relations, the provisions of this chapter or any collective bargaining agreement negotiated under this chapter shall prevail.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. CONTENTS OF COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENTS. (1) A collective bargaining agreement shall contain provisions that:

(a) Provide for mandatory arbitration of grievances arising under the collective bargaining agreement, in accordance with section 11 of this act;

(b) Require layoffs and subsequent reemployment to be implemented according to seniority;

(c) Provide for reopening of the agreement during its term in accordance with section 16(5) of this act, if a reduction of allotments is ordered by the governor pursuant to RCW 43.88.110(2); and

(d) Make the agreement effective for periods coinciding with the fiscal biennium of the state.

(2) Where an employee covered by this chapter has a right to contest a disciplinary action or termination of employment under the provisions of any statute or administrative rule, any collective bargaining agreement provision permitting the employee to contest the disciplinary action or termination of employment through the grievance procedure and arbitration shall specify an election of remedies by the employee such that the matter be resolved entirely under the procedures of the collective bargaining agreement or entirely under the procedures of the applicable statute or rule. Any employee, when fully reinstated after appeal under either remedy, shall be guaranteed all employee rights and benefits, including back pay, sick leave, vacation accrual, retirement, and OASDI credits.

(3) Whenever a collective bargaining agreement between an employer and an exclusive bargaining representative is concluded after the termination date of the previous collective bargaining agreement between the employer and an employee organization representing the same or a substantially similar bargaining unit, the effective date of the collective bargaining agreement shall be the day after the termination of the previous collective bargaining agreement, and all benefits included in the new collective bargaining agreement, including wage or salary increases, shall accrue beginning with such effective date.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. ENFORCEMENT OF COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENTS. (1) Every collective bargaining agreement negotiated pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall contain provisions for the final and binding arbitration of grievances.

(2) The parties to a collective bargaining agreement may agree on one or more permanent umpires to serve as arbitrator, or may agree on any impartial person to serve as arbitrator, or may agree to select arbitrators from any source available to them, including federal and private agencies, in addition to the staff and dispute resolution panel maintained by the commission.

(3) An arbitrator may require any person to attend as a witness and to bring with him or her any book, record, document, or other evidence. The fees for such attendance shall be paid by the party requesting issuance of the subpoena and shall be the same as the fees of witnesses in the superior court. Arbitrators shall have the power to administer oaths. Subpoenas shall issue and be signed by the arbitrator or the director and shall be served in the same manner as subpoenas to testify before a court of record in this state. If any person so summoned to testify shall refuse or neglect to obey such subpoena, upon petition authorized by the arbitrator or director, the superior court may compel the attendance of such person before the arbitrator or punish said person for contempt in the same manner provided for the attendance of witnesses or the punishment of them in the courts of this state.

(4) The arbitrator shall appoint a time and place for the hearing and notify the parties thereof, and may adjourn the hearing from time to time as may be necessary, and, on application of either party and for good cause, may postpone the hearing to a time not extending beyond the date fixed by the collective bargaining agreement for making the award. The arbitration award shall be in writing and signed by the arbitrator or a majority of the members of the arbitration panel. The arbitrator shall, promptly upon its rendition, serve a true copy of the award on each of the parties or their attorneys.

(5) If a party to a collective bargaining agreement negotiated pursuant to the provisions of this chapter refuses to submit a grievance for arbitration, the other party to the collective bargaining agreement may invoke the jurisdiction of the superior court for any county in which the labor dispute exists and such court shall have jurisdiction to issue an order compelling arbitration. Disputes concerning compliance with grievance procedures shall be reserved for determination by the arbitrator. Arbitration shall be ordered if the grievance states a claim which on its face is covered by the collective bargaining agreement, and doubts as to the coverage of the arbitration clause shall be resolved in favor of arbitration.

(6) If a party to a collective bargaining agreement negotiated pursuant to the provisions of this chapter refuses to comply with the award of an arbitrator determining a grievance arising under such collective bargaining agreement, the other party to the collective bargaining agreement, or any affected employee may invoke the jurisdiction of the superior court for Thurston county or any county in which the labor dispute exists and such court shall have jurisdiction to issue an order enforcing the arbitration award. The court shall not substitute its judgment for that of the arbitrator and shall enforce any arbitration award which is based on the collective bargaining agreement, except that an arbitration award shall not be enforced and a new arbitration proceeding may be ordered if:

(a) The award was procured by corruption, fraud, or undue means;

(b) The arbitrator or arbitrators were guilty of misconduct, in refusing to postpone a hearing upon sufficient cause shown, or in refusing to hear evidence pertinent and material to the controversy, or of any other misbehavior by which the rights of any party have been prejudiced; or

(c) The arbitrator or arbitrators have exceeded their powers, or so imperfectly executed them that a final and definite award on the subject matter was not made, in which event the court shall also have discretion to remand the matter to the arbitrator or arbitrators who issued the defective award.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. REPRESENTATION. (1) The commission shall certify an employee organization as the exclusive bargaining representative of the employees of a bargaining unit when the organization shows proof that it represents a majority of the employees at the close of the last preceding payroll period and such proof is not contested by the agency that is the appointing authority, the director, or any other interested party. Prior to certification, the commission shall give ten calendar days' notice that an employee representative has petitioned to be named the exclusive bargaining representative of a bargaining unit. The notice shall inform all other interested parties that an election may be requested as provided in this section and that the proof of representation may be contested. If proof of representation is not satisfactory to the commission, the commission may require an election to be held.

(2) The commission shall conduct a secret vote for selection of an exclusive bargaining representative of the employees of a bargaining unit upon request from an employee organization showing satisfactory proof of at least thirty percent representation within the unit at the close of the last preceding payroll period. Upon granting a request for an election, the commission shall give notice of the election and allow ten calendar days for other employee organizations desiring their names placed on the ballot to show satisfactory proof of at least ten percent representation within the unit at the close of the last preceding payroll period.

(3) The commission, after consultation with interested employee organizations and the appointing authority, shall set forth procedures for the conduct of the election and shall distribute sample ballots. The ballot shall contain the name of the requesting employee organization and the name of any other employee organization showing satisfactory proof of at least ten percent representation within the unit and shall provide a choice for any employee within the unit to designate that he or she does not desire any representation. Where more than one organization is on the ballot and none of the choices receives a majority of all votes cast in such election, a run-off election shall be held. The run-off ballot shall contain the two choices which received the largest and the second largest number of votes.

(4) An employee organization receiving a majority of all votes cast in such an election, or run-off election, shall be certified by the commission as the exclusive bargaining representative of the employees of the bargaining unit. If no employee organization receives a majority of votes cast, the commission shall issue notification to that effect.

(5) When an employee organization has been certified as the exclusive bargaining representative of the employees of a bargaining unit, the employee organization shall be entitled to act for and to negotiate collective bargaining agreements covering all employees in the bargaining unit. The certified exclusive bargaining representative shall be responsible for representing the interests of all the employees in the bargaining unit.

(6)(a) Upon petition to the commission by no less than thirty percent of the employees of a bargaining unit, decertification or a new certification shall be determined by an election as prescribed in subsection (8) of this section. However, no question concerning representation may be raised if:

- (i) Less than twelve months have elapsed since the last certification or election; or
- (ii) A valid collective bargaining agreement exists for the unit, except for that period of no more than ninety calendar days nor less than sixty calendar days prior to the expiration of the contract.
- (b) The election shall be conducted at the close of the contract term, or at an appropriate time, if no contract exists for the unit.
- (c) To provide that certification and decertification elections are truly representative of the desires of the employees and that all employees eligible to vote have every opportunity to do so, employee participation in these elections shall be encouraged to the greatest extent possible.
- (7) The commission shall administer all elections and be responsible for the processing and adjudication of all disputes that arise as a consequence of elections.
- (8) The commission shall conduct decertification or new certification elections in accordance with the requirements of this subsection.
- (a) Upon being notified by the commission that a valid petition for an election has been received, the affected appointing authority shall submit to the commission, the petitioning party, and exclusive bargaining representative, if any, a list of all employees included in the bargaining unit as of the preceding payroll period. This list shall contain the employees' names, job classifications, work locations, and home mailing addresses. For purposes of an election, the commission shall also provide such listing to an affected employee organization that has submitted proof that it represents at least ten percent of the employees in the bargaining unit.
- (b) Upon receipt of a valid petition for an election, the commission shall conduct a pre-election conference that shall include representatives of the appointing authority, the employee organization, and the petitioning party. At the pre-election conference, determinations shall be made on such matters as method of balloting, date of election, absentee voting, eligibility of voters, locations, personnel at each election site, campaign activities, and any other matter that should be resolved concerning that election. Following the pre-election conference, the commission shall establish rules and procedures for holding the election.
- (c) At least ten days prior to the scheduled date, the commission shall distribute a notice of election for posting in the work areas of affected employees. The notice shall contain information regarding the date, time, and location of balloting, the rules and procedures established for the election, and a sample ballot.
- (d) To the extent feasible, as determined by the commission, on-site voting shall take place during the employees' regular work schedules. Eligible voters shall be given ample opportunity to vote during work time while the polls are open.
- (e) An employee who cannot appear at the voting site on the date of the vote may vote by absentee ballot. A request for an absentee ballot shall be submitted to the commission prior to the close of voting at the employee's voting site. To be counted, absentee ballots shall be post-marked within five calendar days of the close of the polls and shall be received by the commission within ten calendar days of the close of the polls.
- (f) Employees on leave of absence without pay for the entire calendar month preceding the start of the balloting shall not be eligible to vote.
- (g) Rules governing campaign activities shall be determined at the pre-election conference. Employees included in the affected bargaining unit and representatives of the petitioning party and the affected employee organization shall have the right to conduct such activities on the employer's grounds during work hours so long as the work of the employee and the operation of the employer are not disturbed.
- (h) Each party to an election may have one observer present during on-site voting to assist the election agent in identifying eligible voters. An employee who serves as such an observer shall be released with pay from duties normally performed during his or her work hours.
- (i) The commission shall maintain the official voter eligibility list and shall provide a copy of that list to each party. The official observer for either party may bring a copy of that list to the on-site polling place for his or her own use, provided such use does not interfere with the conduct of the election.
- (j) Within five working days of the date of the tally of the ballots, the petitioning party, the affected employee organization, or an employee in the bargaining unit may file objections to the election. The objections shall be in writing and shall be received by the commission within the five working day period. The commission shall investigate and determine an appropriate remedy if the objection is found to be meritorious.
- (9) Any violation of these rules should be immediately reported to the commission. Upon receiving a complaint, the commission shall immediately investigate and, if necessary, take steps to stop the violation. If the commission finds that violations of these rules or the pre-election agreements have affected the outcome of the election, the commission may invalidate the election, order a new election, or take other appropriate remedial action.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. BARGAINING UNITS. In any dispute concerning the unit appropriate for collective bargaining or the allocation of employees or positions to bargaining units, the commission, after hearing, shall determine the dispute, taking into consideration the duties, skills, and working conditions of the employees; the history of collective bargaining; the extent of organization among the employees; and the desires of the employees, except that a unit shall not be considered appropriate if it includes:

(1) Both supervisors and nonsupervisory employees. A unit that includes only supervisors may be considered appropriate if a majority of the supervisory employees indicate by vote that they desire to be included in such unit; or

(2) More than one institution of higher education. For the purposes of this section, any branch or regional campus of an institution of higher education is part of that institution of higher education.

In any case in which the commission includes as part of a bargaining unit employees that were in a unit existing prior to the effective date of this act, the commission shall notify the affected employees. The commission shall not include the affected employees in the bargaining unit created by the commission unless a majority of the affected employees vote to be included.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. UNION SECURITY. (1) The employer shall require as a condition of employment the payment no later than the thirtieth day following the beginning of employment of a union shop fee to the employee organization that, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, is duly recognized by the employer or designated by the commission as the exclusive bargaining representative for the bargaining unit in which the employee is employed. The amount of the fee shall be equal to the amount required to become a member in good standing of the employee organization. Each employee organization shall establish a procedure by which any employee so requesting may obtain a rebate of that part of the union shop fee, if any, that represents a pro rata share of expenditures for purposes not germane to the collective bargaining process, to contract administration, or to pursuing matters affecting wages, hours, and other conditions of employment.

(2) Upon filing with the employer the written authorization of a bargaining unit employee under this chapter, the employee organization that is the exclusive bargaining representative of the bargaining unit shall have the right to have deducted from the salary of the employee an amount equal to the fees and dues uniformly required as a condition of acquiring or retaining membership in the employee organization. The fees and dues shall be deducted each pay period from the pay of all employees who have given authorization for the deduction and shall be transmitted by the employer as provided for by agreement between the employer and the employee organization.

(3) To safeguard the right of nonassociation of employees, based on bona fide religious tenets or teachings of a church or religious body of which the employee is a member, such employee shall pay to the employee organization, for purposes within the program of the employee organization as designated by the employee that would be in harmony with his or her individual conscience, an amount of money equivalent to the union shop fee minus any included monthly premiums for insurance programs sponsored by the employee organization. The employee shall not be a member of the employee organization but is entitled to all the representation rights of a member of the employee organization.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. TRANSITION OF EXISTING EXCLUSIVE BARGAINING REPRESENTATIVES AND BARGAINING UNITS. The transition of exclusive bargaining representatives and bargaining units existing prior to the effective date of this act to the units prescribed in section 13 of this act and to exclusive bargaining representatives under this chapter shall be implemented as follows:

(1)(a) When the employees in a bargaining unit or units existing prior to the effective date of this act and represented by a single certified exclusive bargaining representative comprise a majority of the employees to be included in a bargaining unit prescribed in section 13 of this act, then the certified exclusive bargaining representative for the existing unit or units shall be entitled to a certification by the commission for the new bargaining unit without the necessity of a representation election.

(b) When the employees in two or more bargaining units existing prior to the effective date of this act are represented by two or more certified exclusive bargaining representatives that together comprise at least eighty percent of the employees to be included in a bargaining unit prescribed in section 13 of this act, an election shall be held between the certified exclusive bargaining representatives for the existing units to determine which should be certified by the commission as the exclusive bargaining representative for the new bargaining unit. The competing bargaining representatives shall be the only choices on the ballot. If either of the competing bargaining representatives disclaims an interest in certification for the new bargaining unit, the remaining bargaining representative, if it represents a majority of the employees to be included in the new bargaining unit, shall be entitled to a certification by the commission for the new bargaining unit without the necessity of a representation election. The disclaimer shall be in writing and submitted to the competing bargaining representative and the commission.

(c) When, on the effective date of this act, less than a majority of the employees to be included in a bargaining unit prescribed in section 13 of this act are represented by existing certified bargaining representatives, representation of employees in the new bargaining unit shall be determined pursuant to section 12 of this act.

(2) Any employee organization that prior to the effective date of this act has been the exclusive bargaining representative of any employees may disclaim any interest in representation of the employees. The disclaimer shall be in writing and submitted to the competing exclusive bargaining representative and the commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. NEGOTIATION AND RATIFICATION OF COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENTS. (1) Collective bargaining agreement negotiations under this chapter shall commence on July 1, 1990, and, thereafter, on July 1 of each even-numbered year. For the purpose of negotiating collective bargaining agreements other than supplemental agreements, the employer shall be represented by the governor's office. Supplementary bargaining with agencies is authorized on behalf of employees in part of a bargaining unit concerning matters uniquely affecting the employees. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit cooperation and coordination of bargaining between two or more bargaining units.

(2) Any collective bargaining agreement reached between the employer and the exclusive representative shall be subject to ratification by the employees concerned. The agreement shall be reduced to writing and executed by both parties. Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, agreements shall be effective for two years from July 1 of the odd-numbered year through and including June 30 of the next odd-numbered year, to correspond with the state's fiscal biennium.

(3) Agreements may provide that compensation and fringe benefit provisions are effective for the first year of the contract only. In such a case, negotiations on compensation and fringe benefit provisions for the second year of the contract shall commence on July 1 of the first odd-numbered year preceding the year of the contract expiration.

(4) The governor's office shall submit a request for funds necessary to implement the compensation and fringe benefit provisions in an agreement and for approval by the legislature of these funds within ten days of the date on which the parties ratify the agreement or, if the legislature is not in session, within ten days after the legislature convenes. The legislature shall approve or reject the submission of the request for funds as a whole and the submission shall be deemed approved if the legislature fails to act by March 31 of the odd-numbered year in which the contract will become effective. If the legislature rejects the submission, either party may reopen all or part of the agreement.

(5) If, after the compensation and fringe benefit provisions are approved by a legislature, a significant revenue shortfall occurs resulting in reduction of allotments by the governor pursuant to RCW 43.88.110(2), the parties may reopen the contract and renegotiate all or part of the agreement to ensure continuation of an adequate level of service to meet the state's needs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES ENUMERATED. (1) It shall be an unfair labor practice for an employer to:

(a) Interfere with, restrain, or coerce employees in the exercise of their rights guaranteed by this chapter:

(b) Control, dominate, or interfere with an exclusive bargaining representative;

(c) Discriminate against an employee who has filed an unfair labor practice charge; or

(d) Refuse to engage in collective bargaining.

(2) It shall be an unfair labor practice for an exclusive bargaining representative to:

(a) Interfere with, restrain, or coerce employees in the exercise of their rights guaranteed by this chapter:

(b) Induce the employer to commit an unfair labor practice;

(c) Discriminate against an employee who has filed an unfair labor practice charge; or

(d) Refuse to engage in collective bargaining.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICE PROCEDURES. (1) The commission is empowered and directed to prevent any unfair labor practice and to issue appropriate remedial orders. A complaint shall not be processed for any unfair labor practice occurring more than six months before the filing of the complaint with the commission. This power shall not be affected or impaired by any means of adjustment, mediation, or conciliation in labor disputes that have been or may hereafter be established by law.

(2) Whenever a complaint is filed concerning any unfair labor practice, the commission shall have power to issue and cause to be served a notice of hearing before the commission at a place therein fixed to be held not less than seven days after the serving of the complaint. Any such complaint may be amended by the commission any time prior to the issuance of an order based thereon. The person so complained of shall have the right to file an answer to the original or amended complaint and to appear in person or otherwise to give testimony at the place and time set in the complaint. In the discretion of the commission, any other person may be allowed to intervene in the proceedings and to present testimony. In any such proceeding the commission shall not be bound by technical rules of evidence prevailing in the courts of law or equity.

(3) For the purpose of all hearings and investigations, which, in the opinion of the commission, are necessary and proper for the exercise of the powers vested in it by this section, the commission shall at all reasonable times have access to, for the purposes of examination, and the right to examine, copy, or photograph any evidence, including payrolls or lists of employees, of any person being investigated or proceeded against that relates to any matter under investigation or in question. The commission shall have power to issue subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of any evidence that relates to any matter under investigation or in question before the commission. The commission, or any agent or agency designated by the commission for such purposes, may administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, and receive evidence.

(4) The commission, or any party to the commission proceedings, thirty days after the commission has entered its findings of fact, shall have power to petition the superior court of Thurston county or the superior court within the county where the unfair labor practice in question occurred or where any person charged with the unfair labor practice resides or transacts business, or if such court be on vacation or in recess, then to the superior court of any county adjoining the county where the unfair labor practice in question occurred or where any person charged with the unfair labor practice resides or transacts business, for the enforcement of such order and for appropriate temporary relief or restraining order, and shall certify and file in the court a transcript of the entire record in the proceeding, including the pleadings and testimony upon which such order was made and the findings and order of the commission. Upon filing the record, the court shall cause notice thereof to be served upon such person, and thereupon shall have jurisdiction of the proceeding and of the question determined therein, and shall have power to grant such temporary relief or restraining order as it deems just and proper, and to make and enter upon the pleadings, testimony, and proceedings set forth in such transcript a decree enforcing, modifying, and enforcing as so modified, or setting aside in whole or in part the order of the commission.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 19. RIGHT TO STRIKE. It is lawful for an employee, except an essential employee covered by section 20 of this act, to participate in a strike if:

(1) The employee is included in a bargaining unit for which an exclusive bargaining representative has been certified by the commission;

(2) The employer and the exclusive bargaining representative have not mutually agreed to submit the dispute to final and binding arbitration;

(3) The exclusive bargaining representative has requested a mediator for the purpose of mediation or conciliation of the dispute and the parties have participated in good faith mediation; and

(4) The exclusive bargaining representative has given ten days' notice of its intent to strike to the commission and the public employer.

A strike or other concerted activity permitted under this section shall not restrict access to the workplace through a separate entrance marked and set apart for essential employees who are not authorized to strike under section 20 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 20. INTEREST ARBITRATION IN CERTAIN DISPUTES. (1) The uninterrupted and dedicated service of certain classes of state employees is so vital to the welfare and public safety of the citizens of the state of Washington that the usual procedures of collective bargaining shall be suspended under certain circumstances and an alternative means of settling such disputes be substituted, as provided in this section. Employee strikes arising from disputes regulated by this section are hereby expressly prohibited.

(2) The procedures of this section are applicable only to essential employees.

(3) If no agreement has been reached sixty days after the commencement of negotiations between an employer and the exclusive bargaining representative of a bargaining unit of employees covered by this section, then, at any time thereafter, either party may declare that an impasse exists and may submit the dispute to the commission for mediation, with or without the concurrence of the other party.

(4) If an agreement has not been reached following a reasonable period of negotiations and mediation, and the parties remain at impasse, then either party may request an interest arbitrator to resolve the dispute. The issues for determination by the interest arbitrator shall be limited to the issues at impasse in the mediation proceedings.

(5) Within seven days of either party's request for arbitration, the commission shall submit three arbitrators' names to the parties. Each party shall strike one name from the list. The remaining arbitrator shall be appointed as the arbitrator. Each party shall share equally in paying the fees and expenses of the arbitrator.

(6) Within seven days following the designation of the arbitrator, each party shall file with the arbitrator and the commission and serve on the opposite party, the complete written proposals it intends to submit to interest arbitration.

(7) The arbitrator shall promptly establish a date, time, and place for hearing and shall provide reasonable notice thereof to the parties to the dispute. A hearing, which shall be informal, shall be held, and each party shall have the opportunity to present evidence and make argument. The arbitrator may not act as a witness or present the case for a party to the proceedings. The rules of evidence prevailing in judicial proceedings may be considered, but are not binding. Any oral testimony or documentary evidence or other data deemed relevant by the arbitrator may be received in evidence. A recording of the proceedings shall be taken. The arbitrator shall have the power to administer oaths, require the attendance of witnesses, and require the production of books, papers, contracts, agreements, and documents deemed to be material to a just determination of the issues in dispute. If any person refuses to obey a subpoena issued by the arbitrator or refuses to be sworn or to make an affirmation to testify, or any witness, party, or attorney for a party is guilty of any contempt while in attendance at any hearing held hereunder, the arbitrator or any party may invoke the jurisdiction of the superior court of Thurston county, and the court shall have jurisdiction to issue an appropriate order. Any failure to obey such order may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof. The hearing conducted by the arbitrator shall be concluded within twenty-five days following the designation of the arbitrator unless the parties agree to a longer period.

(8) The arbitrator shall, within thirty days following the conclusion of the hearing, make written findings of fact and a written determination of the issues in dispute, based on the evidence presented. The parties may agree, prior to the close of the hearing before the arbitrator, to limit the arbitrator to selecting: (a) Between the entire final offer of the employer presented by the employer to the mediator and to the exclusive bargaining representative at the close of the mediation proceedings or the entire final offer of the exclusive bargaining representative as presented by the exclusive bargaining representative to the mediator and to the employer at the close of the mediation proceedings; or (b) on each impasse item, between the final offers of the parties as presented to the mediator and the other party at the close of the mediation proceedings. A copy of the interest arbitration award shall be served on the commission and on each of the parties to the dispute. The determination shall be final and binding upon both parties.

(9) In making the determination, the arbitrator shall be mindful of the legislative purpose enumerated in this section and, as additional standards or guidelines to aid it in reaching a decision, shall take into consideration the following factors:

(a) The constitutional and statutory authority of the employer;

(b) Stipulations of the parties;

(c) Comparison of the wages, hours, and conditions of employment of the employees involved in the proceedings with the wages, hours, and conditions of employment of like personnel of like employers;

(d) The average consumer prices for goods and services, commonly known as the cost of living;

(e) Changes in any of the foregoing circumstances during the pendency of such proceedings; and

(f) Such other factors, not confined to the foregoing, which are normally or traditionally taken into consideration in the determination of wages, hours, and conditions of employment.

(10) In the performance of his or her duties under this chapter, the arbitrator exercises a state function and is, for the purposes of this chapter, a state agency. The provisions of chapter 34.05 RCW do not apply to proceedings before an interest arbitrator.

(11) Except as ordered through proceedings before an interest arbitrator, existing wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment shall not be changed by action of either party without the consent of the other, but a party may so consent without prejudice to its rights or position under this section.

(12) If a party to negotiations subject to this section refuses to submit to the procedures set forth in this section, the other party or the commission, on its own motion, may invoke the jurisdiction of the superior court for Thurston county and the court shall have jurisdiction to issue an appropriate order. A failure to obey such order may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 21. COURT JURISDICTION. Unless specifically provided otherwise, nothing in this chapter shall prohibit any party to a collective bargaining agreement from seeking enforcement of the rights granted under this chapter in a court of competent jurisdiction.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 22. A new section is added to chapter 41.06 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In addition to the exemptions set forth in RCW 41.06.070, the following classifications, positions, and employees of institutions of higher education and related boards are hereby exempted from coverage of this chapter:

(a) Members of the governing board of each institution and related boards, all presidents, vice-presidents, and their confidential secretaries, administrative, and personal assistants; deans, directors, and chairpersons; academic personnel; executive heads of major administrative or academic divisions employed by institutions of higher education; and any employee of a community college district whose place of work is one which is physically located outside the state of Washington and who is employed pursuant to RCW 28B.50.092 and assigned to an educational program operating outside of the state of Washington.

(b) The director, the director's confidential secretary, assistant directors, and professional education employees of the state board for community college education.

(c) The governing board of each institution, and related boards, may also exempt from this chapter, subject to the employees' right of appeal to the state personnel board, classifications involving research activities, counseling of students, extension or continuing education activities, graphic arts or publications activities requiring prescribed academic preparation or special training, and principal assistants to executive heads of major administrative or academic divisions, as determined by the higher education personnel board: PROVIDED, That no nonacademic employee engaged in office clerical, maintenance, or food and trade services may be exempted by the state personnel board under this provision.

(2) For the purposes of this section, 'related boards' means the state board for community college education and such other boards, councils, and commissions related to higher education as may be established.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. A new section is added to chapter 41.06 RCW to read as follows:

In addition to the exemptions set forth in RCW 41.06.070, the provisions of this chapter do not apply to printing craft employees in the department of printing of the University of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. A new section is added to chapter 41.06 RCW to read as follows:

In case of any conflict between the provisions of this chapter or administrative rules adopted under this chapter and the provisions of chapter 41.-- RCW (sections 1 through 21 of this act) or a collective bargaining agreement negotiated under chapter 41.-- RCW (sections 1 through 21 of this act), the provisions of chapter 41.-- RCW (sections 1 through 21 of this act) or the collective bargaining agreement shall prevail.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. A new section is added to chapter 41.06 RCW to read as follows:

The board may appoint one or more hearings examiners to preside over, conduct, and make recommended decisions, including findings of fact and conclusions of law in all cases of employee appeals to the board. The hearings examiner shall conduct hearings in the same manner and shall have the same authority as provided in hearings by the board. The recommended decisions shall be forthwith served upon the parties and transmitted to the board together with the record of the evidence. Within thirty days of service of the recommended decision, any party adversely affected may file exceptions, and thereafter all parties may present written and oral argument to the board, which shall consider the whole record or such portions of the record as may be cited by the parties.

(1) In all appeals over which the board has jurisdiction involving reduction, dismissal, suspension, or demotion, the board shall set the case for hearing, and the final decision, including an appeal to the board from the hearing examiner, if any, shall be rendered within ninety days from the date the appeal was first received. An extension may be permitted if agreed to by the employee and the employing agency. The board shall furnish the agency with a copy of the appeal in advance of the hearing.

(2) In all appeals made pursuant to RCW 41.06.170(3), the decision of the board is final and not appealable to court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. A new section is added to chapter 41.06 RCW to read as follows:

Hearings on appeals shall be open to the public, except for cases in which the board determines there is substantial reason for not having an open hearing or in cases where the employee so requests, and shall be informal with technical rules of evidence not applying to the proceedings except the rules of privilege recognized by law. Both the employee and his or her appointing agency shall be notified reasonably in advance of the hearing and may select representatives of their choosing, present and cross-examine witnesses, and give evidence before the board.

(2) Members of the board or the director may, and shall at the request of either party, issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum. All testimony shall be on oath administered by a member of the board. The board shall certify to the superior court the facts of any refusals to obey a subpoena, take the oath, or testify. The court shall summarily hear the evidence on such refusal and, if the evidence warrants, punish such refusal in the same manner and to the same extent as for contempt committed before, or in connection with the proceedings of, the court.

(3) The board shall prepare an official record of the hearing, including all testimony, recorded manually or by mechanical device, and exhibits; but it may not be required to transcribe such record unless requested by the employee, who shall be furnished with a complete transcript upon payment of a reasonable charge. However, payment of the cost of a transcript used on appeal shall await determination of the appeal and shall be made by the employing agency if the employee prevails.

(4) Within thirty days after the conclusion of the hearing, the board shall make and fully record in its permanent records the following: (a) Findings of fact; (b) conclusions of law when the construction of a rule or statute is in question; (c) reasons for the action taken; and (d) the board's order based thereon. The order is final, subject to action by the court on appeal as provided in this chapter.

(5) The board shall simultaneously send a copy of the findings, conclusions, and order by certified mail to the employing agency and to the employee or the employee's designated representative.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. A new section is added to chapter 41.06 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Within thirty days after the recording of the order and the mailing thereof, the employee may appeal the decision and order of the board on appeals made pursuant to RCW

41.06.170(2) to the superior court of Thurston county on one or more of the grounds that the order was:

(a) Founded on or contained an error of law, which shall specifically include error in construction or application of any pertinent rules;

(b) Contrary to a preponderance of the evidence as disclosed by the entire record with respect to any specified finding or findings of fact;

(c) Materially affected by unlawful procedure;

(d) Based on violation of any constitutional provision; or

(e) Arbitrary or capricious.

(2) Such grounds shall be stated in a written notice of appeal filed with the court, with copies thereof served on a member of the board or the director and on the employing agency, all within the time stated.

(3) Within thirty days after service of such notice, or within such further time as the court may allow, the board shall transmit to the court a certified transcript, with exhibits, of the hearing; but by stipulation between the employing agency and the employee the transcript may be shortened, and either party unreasonably refusing to stipulate to such limitation may be ordered by the court to pay the additional cost involved. The court may require or permit subsequent corrections or additions to the transcript.

(4) The court shall review the hearing without a jury on the basis of the transcript and exhibits, except that, in case of alleged irregularities in procedure before the board not shown by the transcript, the court may order testimony to be given thereon. The court shall upon request by either party hear oral argument and receive written briefs.

(5) The court may affirm the order of the board, remand the matter for further proceedings before the board, or reverse or modify the order if it finds that the objection to the order is well taken on any of the grounds stated. Appellate review of the order of the superior court may be sought as in other civil cases.

Sec. 29. Section 15, chapter 234, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 103, chapter 288, Laws of 1988 and RCW 34.05.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This chapter shall not apply to:

(a) The state militia, or

(b) The board of clemency and pardons, or

(c) The department of corrections or the indeterminate sentencing review board with respect to persons who are in their custody or are subject to the jurisdiction of those agencies.

(2) The provisions of RCW 34.05.410 through 34.05.594 shall not apply:

(a) To adjudicative proceedings of the board of industrial insurance appeals;

(b) Except for actions pursuant to chapter 46.29 RCW, to the denial, suspension, or revocation of a driver's license by the department of licensing;

(c) To the department of labor and industries where another statute expressly provides for review of adjudicative proceedings of a department action, order, decision, or award before the board of industrial insurance appeals;

(d) To actions of the state personnel board (~~the higher education personnel board, or the personnel appeals board~~) or the state employees' relations commission; or

(e) To the extent they are inconsistent with any provisions of chapter 43.43 RCW.

(3) Unless a party makes an election for a formal hearing pursuant to RCW 82.03.140 or 82.03.190, RCW 34.05.410 through 34.05.494 do not apply to a review hearing conducted by the board of tax appeals.

(4) All other agencies, whether or not formerly specifically excluded from the provisions of all or any part of the administrative procedure act, shall be subject to the entire act.

Sec. 30. Section 5, chapter 59, Laws of 1969 as last amended by section 19, chapter 107, Laws of 1988 and RCW 41.04.230 are each amended to read as follows:

Any official of the state authorized to disburse funds in payment of salaries and wages of public officers or employees is authorized, upon written request of the officer or employee, to deduct from the salaries or wages of the officers or employees, the amount or amounts of subscription payments, premiums, contributions, or continuation thereof, for payment of the following:

(1) Credit union deductions: PROVIDED, That the credit union is organized solely for public employees: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That twenty-five or more employees of a single state agency or a total of one hundred or more state employees of several agencies have authorized such a deduction for payment to the same credit union.

(2) Parking fee deductions: PROVIDED, That payment is made for parking facilities furnished by the agency or by the department of general administration.

(3) U.S. savings bond deductions: PROVIDED, That a person within the particular agency shall be appointed to act as trustee. The trustee will receive all contributions; purchase and deliver all bond certificates; and keep such records and furnish such bond or security as will render full accountability for all bond contributions.

(4) Board, lodging or uniform deductions when such board, lodging and uniforms are furnished by the state, or deductions for academic tuitions or fees or scholarship contributions payable to the employing institution.

(5) Dues and other fees deductions: PROVIDED, That the deduction is for payment of membership dues to any professional organization formed primarily for public employees or college and university professors: AND PROVIDED, FURTHER, That twenty-five or more employees of a single state agency, or a total of one hundred or more state employees of several agencies have authorized such a deduction for payment to the same professional organization.

(6) Labor or employee organization dues may be deducted in the event that a payroll deduction is not provided under a collective bargaining agreement under the provisions of ((RCW 41.06.150)) chapter 41.-- RCW (sections 1 through 21 of this act): PROVIDED, That twenty-five or more officers or employees of a single agency, or a total of one hundred or more officers or employees of several agencies have authorized such a deduction for payment to the same labor or employee organization: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That labor or employee organizations with five hundred or more members in state government may have payroll deduction for employee benefit programs.

(7) Voluntary deductions for political committees duly registered with the public disclosure commission and/or the federal election commission: PROVIDED, That twenty-five or more officers or employees of a single agency or a total of one hundred or more officers or employees of several agencies have authorized such a deduction for payment to the same political committee.

(8) Insurance contributions to the authority for payment of premiums under contracts authorized by the state health care authority.

Deductions from salaries and wages of public officers and employees other than those enumerated in this section or by other law, may be authorized by the director of financial management for purposes clearly related to state employment or goals and objectives of the agency and for plans authorized by the state health care authority.

The authority to make deductions from the salaries and wages of public officers and employees as provided for in this section shall be in addition to such other authority as may be provided by law: PROVIDED, That the state or any department, division, or separate agency of the state shall not be liable to any insurance carrier or contractor for the failure to make or transmit any such deduction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. A new section is added to chapter 41.05 RCW to read as follows:

In case of any conflict between the provisions of this chapter or administrative rules adopted under this chapter and the provisions of chapter 41.-- RCW (sections 1 through 21 of this act) or a collective bargaining agreement negotiated under chapter 41.-- RCW (sections 1 through 21 of this act), the provisions of chapter 41.-- RCW (sections 1 through 21 of this act) or the collective bargaining agreement shall prevail.

Sec. 32. Section 1, chapter 12, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 365, Laws of 1985 and by section 1, chapter 461, Laws of 1985 and RCW 41.06.020 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the words used in this chapter have the meaning given in this section.

(1) 'Agency' means an office, department, board, commission, institution of higher education, or other separate unit or division, however designated, of the state government and all personnel thereof; it includes any unit of state government established by law, the executive officer or members of which are either elected or appointed, upon which the statutes confer powers and impose duties in connection with operations of either a governmental or proprietary nature.

(2) 'Board' means the state personnel board established under the provisions of RCW 41.06.110, except that this definition does not apply to the words 'board' or 'boards' when used in RCW 41.06.070.

(3) 'Classified service' means all positions in the state service subject to the provisions of this chapter.

(4) 'Competitive service' means all positions in the classified service for which a competitive examination is required as a condition precedent to appointment.

(5) 'Comparable worth' means the provision of similar salaries for positions that require or impose similar responsibilities, judgments, knowledge, skills, and working conditions.

(6) 'Institutions of higher education' means the University of Washington, Washington State University, Central Washington University, Eastern Washington University, Western Washington University, The Evergreen State College, and the various state community colleges.

(7) 'Noncompetitive service' means all positions in the classified service for which a competitive examination is not required.

((F)) (8) 'Department' means an agency of government that has as its governing officer a person, or combination of persons such as a commission, board, or council, by law empowered to operate the agency responsible either to (a) no other public officer or (b) the governor.

((H)) (9) 'Career development' means the progressive development of employee capabilities to facilitate productivity, job satisfaction, and upward mobility through work assignments as well as education and training that are both state-sponsored and are achieved by individual employee efforts, all of which shall be consistent with the needs and obligations of the state and its agencies.

~~((9))~~ (10) 'Training' means activities designed to develop job-related knowledge and skills of employees.

~~((10))~~ (11) 'Director' means the director of personnel appointed under the provisions of RCW 41.06.130.

~~((11))~~ (12) 'Affirmative action' means a procedure by which racial minorities, women, persons in the protected age category, persons with disabilities, Vietnam-era veterans, and disabled veterans are provided with increased employment opportunities. It shall not mean any sort of quota system.

Sec. 33, Section 1, chapter 11, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 389, Laws of 1987 and RCW 41.06.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter do not apply to:

(1) The members of the legislature or to any employee of, or position in, the legislative branch of the state government including members, officers, and employees of the legislative council, legislative budget committee, statute law committee, and any interim committee of the legislature;

(2) The justices of the supreme court, judges of the court of appeals, judges of the superior courts or of the inferior courts, or to any employee of, or position in the judicial branch of state government;

~~(3) ((Officers, academic personnel, and employees of state institutions of higher education, the state board for community college education, and the higher education personnel board;~~

~~(4))~~ The officers of the Washington state patrol;

~~((5))~~ (4) Elective officers of the state;

~~((6))~~ (5) The chief executive officer of each agency;

~~((7))~~ (6) In the departments of employment security, fisheries, social and health services, the director and his confidential secretary; in all other departments, the executive head of which is an individual appointed by the governor, the director, his confidential secretary, and his statutory assistant directors;

~~((8))~~ (7) In the case of a multimember board, commission, or committee, whether the members thereof are elected, appointed by the governor or other authority, serve ex officio, or are otherwise chosen:

(a) All members of such boards, commissions, or committees;

(b) If the members of the board, commission, or committee serve on a part-time basis and there is a statutory executive officer: (i) The secretary of the board, commission, or committee; (ii) the chief executive officer of the board, commission, or committee; and (iii) the confidential secretary of the chief executive officer of the board, commission, or committee;

(c) If the members of the board, commission, or committee serve on a full-time basis: (i) The chief executive officer or administrative officer as designated by the board, commission, or committee; and (ii) a confidential secretary to the chairman of the board, commission, or committee;

(d) If all members of the board, commission, or committee serve ex officio: (i) The chief executive officer; and (ii) the confidential secretary of such chief executive officer;

~~((9))~~ (8) The confidential secretaries and administrative assistants in the immediate offices of the elective officers of the state;

~~((10))~~ (9) Assistant attorneys general;

~~((11))~~ (10) Commissioned and enlisted personnel in the military service of the state;

~~((12))~~ (11) Inmate, student, part-time, or temporary employees, and part-time professional consultants, as defined by the state personnel board or the board having jurisdiction;

~~((13))~~ (12) The public printer or to any employees of or positions in the state printing plant;

~~((14))~~ (13) Officers and employees of the Washington state fruit commission;

~~((15))~~ (14) Officers and employees of the Washington state apple advertising commission;

~~((16))~~ (15) Officers and employees of the Washington state dairy products commission;

~~((17))~~ (16) Officers and employees of the Washington tree fruit research commission;

~~((18))~~ (17) Officers and employees of the Washington state beef commission;

~~((19))~~ (18) Officers and employees of any commission formed under the provisions of chapter 191, Laws of 1955, and chapter 15.66 RCW;

~~((20))~~ (19) Officers and employees of the state wheat commission formed under the provisions of chapter 87, Laws of 1961 (chapter 15.63 RCW);

~~((22))~~ (21) Officers and employees of the nonprofit corporation formed under chapter 67.40 RCW;

~~((23))~~ (22) Liquor vendors appointed by the Washington state liquor control board pursuant to RCW 66.08.050: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That rules and regulations adopted by the state personnel board pursuant to RCW 41.06.150 regarding the basis for, and procedures to be followed for, the dismissal, suspension, or demotion of an employee, and appeals therefrom shall be fully applicable to liquor vendors except those part time agency vendors employed by the liquor control board when, in addition to the sale of liquor for the state, they sell goods, wares, merchandise, or services as a self-sustaining private retail business;

~~((24))~~ (23) Executive assistants for personnel administration and labor relations in all state agencies employing such executive assistants including but not limited to all departments, offices, commissions, committees, boards, or other bodies subject to the provisions of this chapter and this subsection shall prevail over any provision of law inconsistent herewith unless specific exception is made in such law:

~~((25))~~ (24) All employees of the marine employees' commission;

~~((26))~~ (25) Up to a total of five senior staff positions of the western library network under chapter 27.26 RCW responsible for formulating policy or for directing program management of a major administrative unit;

~~((27))~~ (26) In addition to the exemptions specifically provided by this chapter, the state personnel board may provide for further exemptions pursuant to the following procedures. The governor or other appropriate elected official may submit requests for exemption to the personnel board stating the reasons for requesting such exemptions. The personnel board shall hold a public hearing, after proper notice, on requests submitted pursuant to this subsection. If the board determines that the position for which exemption is requested is one involving substantial responsibility for the formulation of basic agency or executive policy or one involving directing and controlling program operations of an agency or a major administrative division thereof, the personnel board shall grant the request and such determination shall be final. The total number of additional exemptions permitted under this subsection shall not exceed one hundred eighty-seven for those agencies not directly under the authority of any elected public official other than the governor, and shall not exceed a total of twenty-five for all agencies under the authority of elected public officials other than the governor. The state personnel board shall report to each regular session of the legislature during an odd-numbered year all exemptions granted pursuant to the provisions of this subsection, together with the reasons for such exemptions.

The salary and fringe benefits of all positions presently or hereafter exempted except for the chief executive officer of each agency, full-time members of boards and commissions, administrative assistants and confidential secretaries in the immediate office of an elected state official, and the personnel listed in subsections ~~((19))~~ (9) through ~~((22))~~ (21) of this section, shall be determined by the state personnel board.

Any person holding a classified position subject to the provisions of this chapter shall, when and if such position is subsequently exempted from the application of this chapter, be afforded the following rights: If such person previously held permanent status in another classified position, such person shall have a right of reversion to the highest class of position previously held, or to a position of similar nature and salary.

Any classified employee having civil service status in a classified position who accepts an appointment in an exempt position shall have the right of reversion to the highest class of position previously held, or to a position of similar nature and salary, within four years from the date of appointment to the exempt position. However, (a) upon the prior request of the appointing authority of the exempt position, the personnel board may approve one extension of no more than four years; and (b) if an appointment was accepted prior to July 10, 1982, then the four-year period shall begin on July 10, 1982.

Sec. 34, Section 8, chapter 10, Laws of 1982 as amended by section 69, chapter 287, Laws of 1984 and RCW 41.06.110 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created a state personnel board composed of three members appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the senate. The first such board shall be appointed within thirty days after December 8, 1960, for terms of two, four, and six years. Each odd-numbered year thereafter the governor shall appoint a member for a six-year term. Each member shall continue to hold office after the expiration of the member's term until a successor has been appointed. Persons so appointed shall have clearly demonstrated an interest and belief in the merit principle, shall not hold any other employment with the state, shall not have been an officer of a political party for a period of one year immediately prior to such appointment, and shall not be or become a candidate for partisan elective public office during the term to which they are appointed;

(2) Each member of the board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.250. The members of the board may receive any number of daily payments for official meetings of the board actually attended. Members of the board shall also be reimbursed for travel expenses incurred in the discharge of their official duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(3) At its first meeting following the appointment of all of its members, and annually thereafter, the board shall elect a chairman and vice chairman from among its members to serve one year. The presence of at least two members of the board shall constitute a quorum to transact business. A written public record shall be kept by the board of all actions of the board. The director of personnel shall serve as secretary.

(4) The board may appoint and compensate hearing officers to hear and conduct appeals ~~((until December 31, 1982))~~. Such compensation shall be paid on a contractual basis for each hearing, in accordance with the provisions of chapter 43.88 RCW and rules adopted pursuant thereto, as they relate to personal service contracts.

Sec. 35. Section 4, chapter 53, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 5, chapter 365, Laws of 1985 and by section 2, chapter 461, Laws of 1985 and RCW 41.06.150 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

The board shall adopt rules, consistent with the purposes and provisions of this chapter, as now or hereafter amended, and with the best standards of personnel administration, regarding the basis and procedures to be followed for:

(1) The reduction, dismissal, suspension, or demotion of an employee;
 (2) Certification of names for vacancies, including departmental promotions, with the number of names equal to four more names than there are vacancies to be filled, such names representing applicants rated highest on eligibility lists;

(3) Examinations for all positions in the competitive and noncompetitive service;

(4) Appointments;

(5) Training and career development;

(6) Probationary periods of six to twelve months and rejections therein, depending on the job requirements of the class, except that entry level state park rangers shall serve a probationary period of twelve months;

(7) Transfers;

(8) Sick leaves and vacations;

(9) Hours of work;

(10) Layoffs when necessary and subsequent reemployment, both according to seniority;

~~(11) ((Determination of appropriate bargaining units within any agency: PROVIDED, That in making such determination the board shall consider the duties, skills, and working conditions of the employees, the history of collective bargaining by the employees and their bargaining representatives, the extent of organization among the employees, and the desires of the employees;~~

~~(12) Certification and decertification of exclusive bargaining representatives: PROVIDED, That after certification of an exclusive bargaining representative and upon the representative's request, the director shall hold an election among employees in a bargaining unit to determine by a majority whether to require as a condition of employment membership in the certified exclusive bargaining representative on or after the thirtieth day following the beginning of employment or the date of such election, whichever is the later, and the failure of an employee to comply with such a condition of employment constitutes cause for dismissal: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no more often than once in each twelve-month period after expiration of twelve months following the date of the original election in a bargaining unit and upon petition of thirty percent of the members of a bargaining unit the director shall hold an election to determine whether a majority wish to rescind such condition of employment: PROVIDED FURTHER, That for purposes of this clause, membership in the certified exclusive bargaining representative is satisfied by the payment of monthly or other periodic dues and does not require payment of initiation, reinstatement, or any other fees or fines and includes full and complete membership rights: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That in order to safeguard the right of nonassociation of public employees, based on bona fide religious tenets or teachings of a church or religious body of which such public employee is a member, such public employee shall pay to the union, for purposes within the program of the union as designated by such employee that would be in harmony with his individual conscience, an amount of money equivalent to regular union dues minus any included monthly premiums for union-sponsored insurance programs, and such employee shall not be a member of the union but is entitled to all the representation rights of a union member;~~

~~(13) Agreements between agencies and certified exclusive bargaining representatives providing for grievance procedures and collective negotiations on all personnel matters over which the appointing authority of the appropriate bargaining unit of such agency may lawfully exercise discretion;~~

~~(14) Written agreements may contain provisions for payroll deductions of employee organization dues upon authorization by the employee member and for the cancellation of such payroll deduction by the filing of a proper prior notice by the employee with the appointing authority and the employee organization: PROVIDED, That nothing contained herein permits or grants to any employee the right to strike or refuse to perform his official duties;~~

~~(15)) Adoption and revision of a comprehensive classification plan for all positions in the classified service, based on investigation and analysis of the duties and responsibilities of each such position;~~

~~((16)) (12) Allocation and reallocation of positions within the classification plan;~~

~~((17)) (13) Adoption and revision of a state salary schedule to reflect the prevailing rates in Washington state private industries and other governmental units but the rates in the salary schedules or plans shall be increased if necessary to attain comparable worth under an implementation plan under RCW 41.06.155, such adoption and revision subject to approval by the director of financial management in accordance with the provisions of chapter 43.88 RCW;~~

~~((14))~~ (14) Increment increases within the series of steps for each pay grade based on length of service for all employees whose standards of performance are such as to permit them to retain job status in the classified service;

~~((15))~~ (15) Providing for veteran's preference as required by existing statutes, with recognition of preference in regard to layoffs and subsequent reemployment for veterans and their widows by giving such eligible veterans and their widows additional credit in computing their seniority by adding to their unbroken state service, as defined by the board, the veteran's service in the military not to exceed five years. For the purposes of this section, 'veteran' means any person who has one or more years of active military service in any branch of the armed forces of the United States or who has less than one year's service and is discharged with a disability incurred in the line of duty or is discharged at the convenience of the government and who, upon termination of such service has received an honorable discharge, a discharge for physical reasons with an honorable record, or a release from active military service with evidence of service other than that for which an undesirable, bad conduct, or dishonorable discharge shall be given: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the widow of a veteran is entitled to the benefits of this section regardless of the veteran's length of active military service: PROVIDED FURTHER, That for the purposes of this section 'veteran' does not include any person who has voluntarily retired with twenty or more years of active military service and whose military retirement pay is in excess of five hundred dollars per month:

~~((16))~~ (16) Permitting agency heads to delegate the authority to appoint, reduce, dismiss, suspend, or demote employees within their agencies if such agency heads do not have specific statutory authority to so delegate: PROVIDED, That the board may not authorize such delegation to any position lower than the head of a major subdivision of the agency;

~~((21))~~ Assuring persons who are or have been employed in classified positions under chapter 28B.16 RCW will be eligible for employment, reemployment, transfer, and promotion in respect to classified positions covered by this chapter:

~~((22))~~ (17) Affirmative action in appointment, promotion, transfer, recruitment, training, and career development; development and implementation of affirmative action goals and timetables; and monitoring of progress against those goals and timetables.

The board shall consult with the human rights commission in the development of rules pertaining to affirmative action. The department of personnel shall transmit a report annually to the human rights commission which states the progress each state agency has made in meeting affirmative action goals and timetables.

(1) The board, in the promulgation of rules and regulations governing suspensions for cause, shall not authorize an appointing authority to suspend an employee for more than fifteen calendar days as a single penalty or more than thirty calendar days in any one calendar year as an accumulation of several penalties. The board shall require that the appointing authority give written notice to the employee not later than one day after the suspension takes effect, stating the reasons for and the duration thereof. The authority shall file a copy of the notice with the director of personnel.

(2) Any employee who is reduced, dismissed, suspended, or demoted, after completing his probationary period of service as provided by the rules and regulations of the board, or any employee who is adversely affected by a violation of the state civil service law, chapter 41.06 RCW, as now or hereafter amended, or rules promulgated pursuant thereto, shall have the right to appeal to the ~~((personnel appeals))~~ board ~~((created by RCW 41.04.010))~~ not later than thirty days after the effective date of such action. The employee shall be furnished with specified charges in writing when a reduction, dismissal, suspension, or demotion action is taken. Such appeal shall be in writing.

(3) An employee incumbent in a position at the time of its allocation or reallocation, or the agency utilizing the position, may appeal the allocation or reallocation to the ~~((personnel appeals))~~ board ~~((created by RCW 41.04.010))~~. Notice of such appeal must be filed in writing within thirty days of the action from which appeal is taken.

Sec. 37. Section 20, chapter 222, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 5, chapter 62, Laws of 1973 and RCW 28B.10.824 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to the provisions of chapter ~~((28B.16))~~ 41.06 RCW, the state ~~((higher education personnel))~~ civil service law, the commission shall appoint an executive director as chief administrator of the commission, and such employees as it deems advisable, and shall fix their compensation and prescribe their duties.

Sec. 38. Section 3, chapter 14, Laws of 1979 as last amended by section 53, chapter 370, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28B.10.650 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the intent of the legislature that when the state and regional universities, The Evergreen State College, and community colleges grant professional leaves to faculty and exempt staff, such leaves be for the purpose of providing opportunities for study, research, and creative activities for the enhancement of the institution's instructional and research programs.

The boards of regents of the state universities, the boards of trustees of the regional universities and of The Evergreen State College and the board of trustees of each community college district may grant remunerated professional leaves to faculty members and exempt staff, as defined in RCW 28B.16.040, in accordance with regulations adopted by the respective governing boards for periods not to exceed twelve consecutive months in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) The remuneration from state general funds and general local funds for any such leave granted for any academic year shall not exceed the average of the highest quartile of a rank order of salaries of all full time teaching faculty holding academic year contracts or appointments at the institution or in the district.

(2) Remunerated professional leaves for a period of more or less than an academic year shall be compensated at rates not to exceed a proportional amount of the average salary as otherwise calculated for the purposes of subsection (1) of this section.

(3) The grant of any such professional leave shall be contingent upon a signed contractual agreement between the respective governing board and the recipient providing that the recipient shall return to the granting institution or district following his or her completion of such leave and serve in a professional status for a period commensurate with the amount of leave so granted. Failure to comply with the provisions of such signed agreement shall constitute an obligation of the recipient to repay to the institution any remuneration received from the institution during the leave.

(4) The aggregate cost of remunerated professional leaves awarded at the institution or district during any year, including the cost of replacement personnel, shall not exceed the cost of salaries which otherwise would have been paid to personnel on leaves: PROVIDED, That for community college districts the aggregate cost shall not exceed one hundred fifty percent of the cost of salaries which would have otherwise been paid to personnel on leaves: PROVIDED FURTHER, That this subsection shall not apply to any community college district with fewer than seventy-five full time faculty members and granting fewer than three individuals such leaves in any given year.

(5) The average number of annual remunerated professional leaves awarded at any such institution or district shall not exceed four percent of the total number of full time equivalent faculty, as defined by the office of financial management, who are engaged in instruction, and exempt staff as defined in (~~RCW 28B.16.040~~) chapter 41.06 RCW.

(6) Negotiated agreements made in accordance with chapter 28B.52 RCW and entered into after July 1, 1977, shall be in conformance with the provisions of this section.

(7) The respective institutions and districts shall maintain such information which will ensure compliance with the provisions of this section. The higher education coordinating board shall periodically request such information as to ensure institutions are in compliance.

Sec. 39. Section 6, chapter 177, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 202, chapter 330, Laws of 1987 and RCW 28B.12.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The higher education coordinating board shall adopt rules and regulations as may be necessary or appropriate for effecting the provisions of this chapter, and not in conflict with this chapter, in accordance with the provisions of chapter (~~28B.19~~) 34.05 RCW, the (~~state higher education~~) administrative procedure act. Such rules and regulations shall include provisions designed to make employment under such work-study program reasonably available, to the extent of available funds, to all eligible students in eligible post-secondary institutions in need thereof. Such rules and regulations shall include:

(1) Providing work under the college work-study program which will not result in the displacement of employed workers or impair existing contracts for services.

(2) Furnishing work only to a student who:

(a) Is capable, in the opinion of the eligible institution, of maintaining good standing in such course of study while employed under the program covered by the agreement; and

(b) Has been accepted for enrollment as at least a half-time student at the eligible institution or, in the case of a student already enrolled in and attending the eligible institution, is in good standing and in at least half-time attendance there either as an undergraduate, graduate or professional student; and

(c) Is not pursuing a degree in theology.

(3) Placing priority on the securing of work opportunities for students who are residents of the state of Washington as defined in RCW 28B.15.011 through 28B.15.014.

(4) Provisions to assure that in the state institutions of higher education utilization of this student work-study program:

(a) Shall only supplement and not supplant classified positions under jurisdiction of chapter (~~28B.16~~) 41.06 RCW;

(b) That all positions established which are comparable shall be identified to a job classification under the (~~higher education~~) state personnel board's classification plan and shall receive equal compensation;

(c) Shall not take place in any manner that would replace classified positions reduced due to lack of funds or work; and

(d) That work study positions shall only be established at entry level positions of the classified service.

Sec. 40. Section 28B.50.060, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 75, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 28B.50.060 are each amended to read as follows:

A director of the state system of community colleges shall be appointed by the college board and shall serve at the pleasure of the college board. He shall be appointed with due regard to his fitness and background in education, by his knowledge of and recent practical experience in the field of educational administration particularly in institutions beyond the high school level. The college board may also take into consideration an applicant's proven management background even though not particularly in the field of education.

The director shall devote his time to the duties of his office and shall not have any direct pecuniary interest in or any stock or bonds of any business connected with or selling supplies to the field of education within this state, in keeping with chapter 42.18 RCW, the executive conflict of interest act.

He shall receive a salary to be fixed by the college board and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses incurred by him in the discharge of his official duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060, as now existing or hereafter amended.

He shall be the executive officer of the college board and serve as its secretary and under its supervision shall administer the provisions of this chapter and the rules, regulations and orders established thereunder and all other laws of the state. He shall attend, but not vote at, all meetings of the college board. He shall be in charge of offices of the college board and responsible to the college board for the preparation of reports and the collection and dissemination of data and other public information relating to the state system of community colleges. At the direction of the college board, he shall, together with the chairman of the college board, execute all contracts entered into by the college board.

The director shall, with the approval of the college board: (1) Employ necessary assistant directors of major staff divisions who shall serve at his pleasure on such terms and conditions as he determines, and (2) subject to the provisions of chapter ~~((28B-16))~~ 41.06 RCW, the ~~((higher education personnel))~~ state civil service law, the director shall, with the approval of the college board, appoint and employ such field and office assistants, clerks and other employees as may be required and authorized for the proper discharge of the functions of the college board and for whose services funds have been appropriated.

The board may, by written order filed in its office, delegate to the director any of the powers and duties vested in or imposed upon it by this chapter. Such delegated powers and duties may be exercised by the director in the name of the college board.

Sec. 41. Section 6, chapter 370, Laws of 1985 as amended by section 4, chapter 172, Laws of 1988 and RCW 28B.80.350 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall coordinate educational activities among all segments of higher education taking into account the educational programs, facilities, and other resources of both public and independent two and four-year colleges and universities. The four-year institutions and the state board for community college education shall coordinate information and activities with the board. The board shall have the following additional responsibilities:

- (1) Promote interinstitutional cooperation;
- (2) Establish minimum admission standards for four-year institutions, including a requirement that coursework in sign language shall satisfy any foreign language requirement the board or the institutions may establish as a general undergraduate admissions requirement;
- (3) Establish transfer policies;
- (4) Adopt rules implementing statutory residency requirements;
- (5) Develop and administer reciprocity agreements with bordering states and the province of British Columbia;
- (6) Review and recommend compensation practices and levels for administrative employees, exempt under chapter ~~((28B-16))~~ 41.06 RCW, and faculty using comparative data from peer institutions;
- (7) Monitor higher education activities for compliance with all relevant state policies for higher education;
- (8) Arbitrate disputes between and among four-year institutions or between and among four-year institutions and community colleges at the request of one or more of the institutions involved, or at the request of the governor, or from a resolution adopted by the legislature. The decision of the board shall be binding on the participants in the dispute;
- (9) Establish and implement a state system for collecting, analyzing, and distributing information;
- (10) Recommend to the governor and the legislature ways to remove any economic incentives to use off-campus program funds for on-campus activities; and
- (11) Make recommendations to increase minority participation, and monitor and report on the progress of minority participation in higher education.

Sec. 42. Section 14, chapter 370, Laws of 1985 as amended by section 301, chapter 330, Laws of 1987 and RCW 28B.80.430 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall employ a director and may delegate agency management to the director. The director shall serve at the pleasure of the board, shall be the executive officer of the board, and shall, under the board's supervision, administer the provisions of this chapter. The executive director shall, with the approval of the board: (1) Employ necessary deputy and assistant directors and other exempt staff under chapter ~~((28B-16))~~ 41.06 RCW who shall serve at his or her pleasure on such terms and conditions as he or she determines and (2) subject to the provisions of chapter ~~((28B-16))~~ 41.06 RCW, appoint and employ such other employees as may be required for the proper discharge of the functions of the board. The executive director shall exercise such additional powers, other than rulemaking, as may be delegated by the board by resolution. In fulfilling the duties under this chapter, the board shall make extensive use of those state agencies with responsibility for implementing and supporting postsecondary education plans and policies including but not limited to appropriate legislative groups, the post-secondary education institutions, the office of financial management, ~~((the commission for vocational education;))~~ and the state board for community college education. Outside consulting and service agencies may also be employed. The board may compensate these groups and consultants in appropriate ways.

Sec. 43. Section 2, chapter 492, Laws of 1987 and RCW 28C.15.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The governor is authorized to form a public nonprofit corporation in the same manner as a private nonprofit corporation is formed under chapter 24.03 RCW. The public corporation shall be an instrumentality of the state and have all the powers and be subject to the same restrictions as are permitted or prescribed to private nonprofit corporations, but shall exercise those powers only for carrying out the purposes of this chapter and those purposes necessarily implied therefrom. The governor shall appoint a board of fifteen directors for the corporation who shall serve terms of six years. The governor shall appoint the members as follows: Nine members shall represent the business community, three members shall represent the sixth community college district board of trustees, and three shall represent the Seattle school board. The terms of the initial members shall be staggered. The directors may provide for the payment of their expenses. The corporation may cause a vocational technical center to be designed and constructed on a site in the city of Seattle. The center shall be named the Washington institute of applied technology.

(2) The powers and duties of the directors shall include:

(a) Having full authority and responsibility for management, policy decisions, curriculum development, and resource allocations involving the center;

(b) Employing a director of the center, who shall serve at the pleasure of the directors of the corporation;

(c) Working with the Seattle school district and the sixth community college district to use existing resources of the Seattle school district and the sixth community college district to provide services for all normal operating functions of the center, including but not limited to, payroll, personnel, accounting, and disbursement of funds, as authorized by the director;

(d) Working closely with the office of the superintendent of public instruction on all fiscal matters;

(e) Negotiating an agreement with the sixth community college district and the Seattle school district which will commit all parties to a plan of governance and operation of the center and the plan shall be completed and agreed upon within forty-five days after May 19, 1987;

(f) Hiring staff as necessary to negotiate, with the approval of the directors, with the applicable public or private service providers to conduct the instructional activities of the center. However, the directors shall not hire instructional staff or faculty;

(g) Designing and implementing the programs offered through the center, but the directors shall not cause a training program in the construction trades to be offered unless the program is approved by recognized trade groups in this state and the directors;

(h) Awarding appropriate diplomas or certificates of completion, or other evidence of satisfactory performance may be awarded as appropriate;

(i) Initiating and causing to be conducted research regarding the needs of businesses and industries in the region and the state for a work force with appropriate training and evaluating the center's programs and courses based upon the research;

(j) Preparing a budget for the center consistent with the requirements applicable to common school districts;

(k) Receiving such gifts, grants, and endowments from public or private sources as may be made from time to time, in trust or otherwise, for the use and benefit of the purposes of the center and expend the same or any income therefrom according to the terms of the gifts, grants, or endowments; and

(l) Charging tuition and fees that shall not be higher than that provided for community colleges under RCW 28B.15.502 and that comply with the applicable provisions under chapter 28B.15 RCW, including but not limited to the provisions defining 'resident student,' and the board may provide for waivers of tuition and fees and provide scholarships.

(3) The directors shall enter into contracts with participating school districts that provide for a school district to reimburse the center for the costs of a student enrolled in a school in that district attending a course or courses at the center. The reimbursement shall not exceed the proportionate amount of full time equivalent funding received by the district for that student, and for state-funding purposes such student shall be deemed to be attending courses in the applicable school district.

(4) The corporation may acquire and transfer real and personal property by lease, purchase, or sale, and further acquire property by gift, accept grants, cause the vocational technical center facilities to be constructed if funds are so appropriated, and do whatever is necessary or appropriate to carry out those purposes. The corporation shall maintain, operate, promote, and manage the vocational technology center.

(5) In order to allow the corporation flexibility in its personnel policies, the corporation is exempt from chapter 41.06 RCW, chapter 41.05 RCW, RCW 43.01.040 through 43.01.044, chapter 41.04 RCW; (~~chapter 28B-16 RCW~~) and chapter 41.40 RCW.

Sec. 44. Section 2, chapter 67, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 1, chapter 189, Laws of 1982 and RCW 34.12.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Office' means the office of administrative hearings.

(2) 'Administrative law judge' means any person appointed by the chief administrative law judge to conduct or preside over hearings as provided in this chapter.

(3) 'Hearing' means (~~a contested case~~) an adjudicative proceeding within the meaning of RCW (~~34.04.010(3)~~) 34.05.010(1) conducted by a state agency under RCW 34.05.413 through 34.05.476.

(4) 'State agency' means any state board, commission, department, or officer authorized by law to make rules or to (~~adjudicate contested cases~~) conduct adjudicative proceedings, except those in the legislative or judicial branches, the pollution control hearings board, the shorelines hearings board, the forest practices appeals board, the environmental hearings office, the board of industrial insurance appeals, the state personnel board, (~~the higher education personnel board~~); the state employees' relations commission, the public employment relations commission, (~~personnel appeals board~~); and the board of tax appeals.

Sec. 45. Section 1, chapter 150, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 182, Laws of 1980 and RCW 41.04.340 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this section the term 'eligible employee' means any employee of the state, other than teaching and research faculty at the state and regional universities and The Evergreen State College, entitled to accumulate sick leave and for whom accurate sick leave records have been maintained: PROVIDED, That no employee may receive compensation under this section for any portion of sick leave accumulated at a rate in excess of one day per month.

An attendance incentive program is established for all eligible employees. In January of the year following any year in which a minimum of sixty days of sick leave is accrued, and each January thereafter, any eligible employee may receive remuneration for unused sick leave accumulated in the previous year at a rate equal to one day's monetary compensation of the employee for each four full days of accrued sick leave in excess of sixty days. Sick leave for which compensation has been received shall be deducted from accrued sick leave at the rate of four days for every one day's monetary compensation.

At the time of separation from state service due to retirement or death, an eligible employee or the employee's estate shall receive remuneration at a rate equal to one day's current monetary compensation of the employee for each four full days of accrued sick leave: PROVIDED, That community college districts may delay until July 1, 1981, payment due any eligible employee or employee's estate: PROVIDED FURTHER, That there shall be added to any such delayed payment interest at the rate of eight percent per year.

Moneys received under this section shall not be included for the purpose of computing a retirement allowance under any public retirement system in this state.

This section shall be administered, and rules shall be promulgated to carry out its purposes, by the state personnel board (~~and the higher education personnel board~~) for persons subject to chapter(s) 41.06 (~~and 28B-16~~) RCW, (~~respectively~~;) and by their respective personnel authorities for other eligible employees: PROVIDED, That determination of classes of eligible employees shall be subject to approval by the office of financial management.

Should the legislature revoke any benefits granted under this section, no affected employee shall be entitled thereafter to receive such benefits as a matter of contractual right.

Sec. 46. Section 6, chapter 75, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 41.06.155 are each amended to read as follows:

Salary changes necessary to achieve comparable worth shall be implemented during the 1983-85 biennium under a schedule developed by the department (~~in cooperation with the higher education personnel board~~). Increases in salaries and compensation solely for the purpose of achieving comparable worth shall be made at least annually. Comparable worth for the jobs of all employees under this chapter shall be fully achieved not later than June 30, 1993.

Sec. 47. Section 3, chapter 152, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 9, chapter 185, Laws of 1987 and RCW 41.06.163 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In the conduct of salary and fringe benefit surveys under RCW 41.06.160 (~~as now or hereafter amended~~), it is the intention of the legislature that the surveys be undertaken in a manner consistent with statistically accurate sampling techniques. For this purpose, a comprehensive salary and fringe benefit survey plan shall be submitted to the director of financial management, employee organizations, and the standing committees for appropriations of the senate and house of representatives six months before the beginning of each periodic survey required before regular legislative sessions. This comprehensive plan shall include but not be limited to the following:

(a) A complete explanation of the technical, statistical process to be used in the salary and fringe benefit survey including the percentage of accuracy expected from the planned statistical sample chosen for the survey and a definition of the term 'prevailing rates' which is to be used in the planned survey;

(b) A comprehensive salary and fringe benefit survey model based on scientific statistical principles which:

(i) Encompasses the interrelationships among the various elements of the survey sample including sources of salary and fringe benefit data by organization type, size, and regional location;

(ii) Is representative of private and public employment in this state;

(iii) Ensures that, wherever practical, data from smaller, private firms are included and proportionally weighted in the survey sample; and

(iv) Indicates the methodology to be used in application of survey data to job classes used by state government;

(c) A prediction of the increase or decrease in total funding requirements expected to result from the pending salary and fringe benefit survey based on consumer price index information and other available trend data pertaining to Washington state salaries and fringe benefits.

(2) Every comprehensive survey plan shall fully consider fringe benefits as an element of compensation in addition to basic salary data. The plans prepared under this section shall be developed (~~jointly~~) by the department of personnel (~~in conjunction with the higher education personnel board established under chapter 28B.16 RCW. All comprehensive salary and fringe benefit survey plans shall be submitted on a joint signature basis by the department of personnel and the higher education personnel board~~).

(3) Interim or special surveys conducted under RCW 41.06.160 as now or hereafter amended shall conform when possible to the statistical techniques and principles developed for regular periodic surveys under this section.

(4) The term 'fringe benefits' as used in this section and in conjunction with salary surveys shall include but not be limited to compensation for:

(a) Leave time, including vacation, holiday, civil, and personal leave;

(b) Employer retirement contributions;

(c) Health and insurance payments, including life, accident, and health insurance, workers' compensation, and sick leave; and

(d) Stock options, bonuses, and purchase discounts where appropriate.

Sec. 48. Section 3, chapter 152, Laws of 1979 and RCW 41.48.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Nothing in RCW 41.48.120 or 41.48.130 shall affect the power of the state personnel board(~~the higher education personnel board~~;) or any other state personnel authority to establish sick leave regulations except as may be required under RCW 41.48.120 or 41.48.130: PROVIDED, That each personnel board and personnel authority shall establish the maximum number of working days an employee under its jurisdiction may be absent on account of sickness or accident disability without a medical certificate.

'Personnel authority' as used in this section, means a state agency, board, committee, or similar body having general authority to establish personnel regulations.

Sec. 49. Section 1, chapter 167, Laws of 1982 as last amended by section 2, chapter 387, Laws of 1987 and RCW 41.60.015 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created the productivity board. The board shall administer the employee suggestion program under this chapter and shall review applications for teamwork incentive pay for state employees under RCW 41.60.100, 41.60.110, and 41.60.120.

(2) The board shall be composed of:

(a) The secretary of state who shall act as chairperson;

(b) The director of personnel appointed under the provisions of RCW 41.06.130 or the director's designee;

(c) The director of financial management or the director's designee;

(d) (~~The personnel director appointed under the provisions of RCW 28B.16.060 or the director's designee;~~

(e)) The director of general administration or the director's designee;

~~((f))~~ (e) Three persons with experience in administering incentives such as those used by industry, with the governor, lieutenant governor, and speaker of the house of representatives each appointing one person. The governor's appointee shall be a representative of an employee organization certified as an exclusive representative of at least one bargaining unit of classified employees, but no one organization may be represented for two consecutive terms;

~~((g))~~ (f) One person representing state agencies and institutions with employees subject to chapter 41.06 RCW (~~and one person representing those subject to chapter 28B-16 RCW, both~~) to be appointed by the governor; and

~~((h))~~ (g) In addition, the governor and board chairperson may jointly appoint persons to the board on an ad hoc basis. Ad hoc members shall serve in an advisory capacity and shall not have the right to vote.

Members under subsection (2) (e) and (f) ~~((and (g)))~~ of this section shall be appointed to serve three-year terms.

Members of the board appointed pursuant to subsection 2)~~((f))~~ (e) of this section may be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240. Any board member who is not a state employee may be reimbursed for travel expenses under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

Sec. 50. Section 9, chapter 167, Laws of 1982 as last amended by section 3, chapter 387, Laws of 1987 and RCW 41.60.041 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Cash awards for suggestions generating net savings to the state shall be ten percent of the net savings.

(2) No award may be granted in excess of ten thousand dollars.

(3) If the suggestion is significantly modified when implemented, the percentage specified in subsection (1) of this section may be decreased at the option of the board.

(4) The board shall establish guidelines for making cash awards for suggestions for which benefits to the state are intangible or for which benefits cannot be calculated. In cases where cost avoidances are identified, the state personnel board ~~((and the higher education personnel board))~~ in consultation with the productivity board shall adopt rules which allow agencies and institutions of higher education to grant leave in lieu of cash awards.

(5) Funds for the awards shall be drawn from the appropriation of the agency benefitting from the employee's suggestion. If the suggestion reduces costs to a nonappropriated fund or reduces costs paid without appropriation from a nonappropriated portion of an appropriated fund, an award may be paid from the benefitting fund or account without appropriation.

(6) Awards and fees for suggestions which generate new or additional money for the general fund may be drawn from the general fund by joint approval of the productivity board and the director of financial management.

(7) In addition to the amount awarded, the agency shall transfer ten percent of the savings to the department of personnel service fund. Moneys so transferred shall be used exclusively for the operations of the productivity board or as an offset to any amount appropriated to the productivity board for administrative expenses from another revenue source, other than that provided under RCW 41.60.120.

The productivity board at least annually shall review amounts transferred to the department of personnel service fund under this section and may reduce the percentage of savings to be transferred or temporarily suspend transfer if cash receipts exceed needs for program administration.

For the purposes of RCW 42.17.240, the term 'executive state officer' includes:

(1) The chief administrative law judge, the director of financial management, the director of personnel, the director of community development, the director of the state system of community colleges, the director of the department of information services, the executive secretary of the forest practices appeals board, the director of the gambling commission, ~~((the director of the higher education personnel board;))~~ the secretary of transportation, the executive secretary of the horse racing commission, the executive secretary of the human rights commission, the administrator of the interagency committee for outdoor recreation, the director of parks and recreation, the executive secretary of the ~~((board of prison terms and paroles))~~ indefinite sentence review board, the administrator of the public disclosure commission, the director of retirement systems, the secretary of the utilities and transportation commission, the executive secretary of the board of tax appeals, the secretary of the state finance committee, the president of each of the regional and state universities and the president of The Evergreen State College, each district and each campus president of each state community college;

(2) Each professional staff member of the office of the governor;

(3) Each professional staff member of the legislature; and

(4) Each member of the state board for community college education, information services board, forest practices board, forest practices appeals board, gambling commission, wildlife commission, ~~((higher education personnel board;))~~ transportation commission, horse racing commission, human rights commission, board of industrial insurance appeals, liquor control board, interagency committee for outdoor recreation, parks and recreation commission, personnel board, ~~((personnel appeals board, board of prison terms and paroles))~~ indeterminate sentence review board, public disclosure commission, public employees' retirement system board, public pension commission, University of Washington board of regents, Washington State University board of regents, board of tax appeals, teachers' retirement system board of trustees, Central Washington University board of trustees, Eastern Washington University board of trustees, The Evergreen State College board of trustees, Western Washington University board of trustees, board of trustees of each community college, state housing finance commission, and the utilities and transportation commission.

Sec. 52, Section 1, chapter 442, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.06.410 are each amended to read as follows:

There is established within the office of the governor the Washington state internship program to assist students and state employees in gaining valuable experience and knowledge in various areas of state government. In administering the program, the governor shall:

(1) Consult with the secretary of state, the director of personnel, ~~((the director of the higher education personnel board;))~~ the commissioner of the employment security department, and representatives of labor;

(2) Encourage and assist agencies in developing intern positions;

(3) Develop and coordinate a selection process for placing individuals in intern positions. This selection process shall give due regard to the responsibilities of the state to provide equal employment opportunities;

(4) Develop and coordinate a training component of the internship program which balances the need for training and exposure to new ideas with the intern's and agency's need for on-the-job work experience;

(5) Work with institutions of higher education in developing the program, soliciting qualified applicants, and selecting participants; and

(6) Develop guidelines for compensation of the participants.

Sec. 53, Section 4, chapter 442, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.06.425 are each amended to read as follows:

The state personnel board ~~((and the higher education personnel board))~~ shall ~~((each))~~ adopt rules to provide that:

(1) Successful completion of an internship under RCW 43.06.420 shall be considered as employment experience at the level at which the intern was placed;

(2) Persons leaving classified or exempt positions in state government in order to take an internship under RCW 43.06.420: (a) Have the right of reversion to the previous position at any time during the internship or upon completion of the internship; and (b) shall continue to receive all fringe benefits as if they had never left their classified or exempt positions;

(3) Participants in the undergraduate internship program who were not public employees prior to accepting a position in the program receive sick leave allowances commensurate with other state employees;

(4) Participants in the executive fellows program who were not public employees prior to accepting a position in the program receive sick and vacation leave allowances commensurate with other state employees.

Sec. 54, Section 1, chapter 320, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 43.88.280 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in RCW 43.88.290 and 43.88.300 the term 'state officer or employee' includes the members of the governing body of any state agency, as state agency is defined in RCW 43.88.020(4) and those generally known as executive management but excludes nonsupervisory state employees covered by civil service under chapter ~~((s))~~ 41.06 ~~((and 28B-16))~~ RCW.

Sec. 55, Section 8, chapter 504, Laws of 1987 and RCW 43.105.052 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall:

(1) Perform all duties and responsibilities the board delegates to the department, including but not limited to (a) the review of agency acquisition plans and requests and (b) implementation of state-wide and interagency policies, standards, and guidelines;

(2) Make available information services to state agencies and local governments on a full cost-recovery basis. These services may include, but are not limited to: Telecommunications services for voice, data, and video; mainframe computing services; support for departmental and microcomputer evaluation, installation, and use; equipment acquisition assistance, including leasing, brokering, and establishing master contracts; facilities management services for information technology equipment, equipment repair, and maintenance service; office automation services; system development services; and training. These services are for discretionary use by customers and customers may elect other alternatives for service if those alternatives are more cost-effective or provide better service. Agencies may be required to use the backbone network portions of the telecommunications services during an initial start-up period not to exceed three years;

(3) Establish rates and fees for services provided by the department to assure that the services component of the department is self-supporting. A billing rate plan shall be developed for a two-year period to coincide with the budgeting process. The rate plan shall be subject to review at least annually by the customer oversight committees. The rate plan shall show the proposed rates by each cost center and will show the components of the rate structure as mutually determined by the department and the customer oversight committees. The same rate structure will apply to all user agencies of each cost center. The rate plan and any adjustments to rates shall be approved by the office of financial management. The services component shall not subsidize the operations of the planning component:

(4) With the advice of the information services board and agencies, develop and publish state-wide goals and objectives at least biennially;

(5) Develop plans for the department's achievement of state-wide goals and objectives. These plans shall address such services as telecommunications, central and distributed computing, local area networks, office automation, and end user computing. The department shall seek the advice of customer oversight committees and the board in the development of these plans;

(6) Develop training plans and coordinate training programs that are responsive to the needs of agencies, in collaboration with the department of personnel (~~and the higher education personnel board~~);

(7) Identify opportunities for the effective use of information services and coordinate appropriate responses to those opportunities;

(8) Assess agencies' projects, acquisitions, plans, or overall information processing performance as requested by the board, agencies, the director of financial management, or the legislature. Agencies may be required to reimburse the department for agency-requested reviews;

(9) Develop planning, budgeting, and expenditure reporting requirements, in conjunction with the office of financial management, for agencies to follow;

(10) Assist the office of financial management with budgetary and policy review of agency plans for information services;

(11) Provide staff support from the planning component to the board for:

(a) Meeting preparation, notices, and minutes;

(b) Promulgation of policies, standards, and guidelines adopted by the board;

(c) Supervision of studies and reports requested by the board;

(d) Conducting reviews and assessments as directed by the board; and

(12) Perform all other matters and things necessary to carry out the purposes and provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 56, Section 1, chapter 294, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 1, chapter 1, Laws of 1989 (Initiative Measure No. 518) and RCW 49.46.010 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

(1) 'Director' means the director of labor and industries;

(2) 'Wage' means compensation due to an employee by reason of employment, payable in legal tender of the United States or checks on banks convertible into cash on demand at full face value, subject to such deductions, charges, or allowances as may be permitted by regulations of the director;

(3) 'Employ' includes to permit to work;

(4) 'Employer' includes any individual, partnership, association, corporation, business trust, or any person or group of persons acting directly or indirectly in the interest of an employer in relation to an employee;

(5) 'Employee' includes any individual employed by an employer but shall not include:

(a) Any individual (i) employed as a hand harvest laborer and paid on a piece rate basis in an operation which has been, and is generally and customarily recognized as having been, paid on a piece rate basis in the region of employment; (ii) who commutes daily from his or her permanent residence to the farm on which he or she is employed; and (iii) who has been employed in agriculture less than thirteen weeks during the preceding calendar year;

(b) Any individual employed in casual labor in or about a private home, unless performed in the course of the employer's trade, business, or profession;

(c) Any individual employed in a bona fide executive, administrative, or professional capacity or in the capacity of outside salesman as those terms are defined and delimited by regulations of the director. However, those terms shall be defined and delimited by the state personnel board pursuant to chapter 41.06 RCW (~~and the higher education personnel board pursuant to chapter 28B.16 RCW~~) for employees employed under ((their respective)) its jurisdiction((s));

(d) Any individual engaged in the activities of an educational, charitable, religious, state or local governmental body or agency, or nonprofit organization where the employer-employee relationship does not in fact exist or where the services are rendered to such organizations gratuitously. If the individual receives reimbursement in lieu of compensation for normally incurred out-of-pocket expenses or receives a nominal amount of compensation per unit of voluntary service rendered, an employer-employee relationship is deemed not to exist for the purpose of this section or for purposes of membership or qualification in any state, local government or publicly supported retirement system other than that provided under chapter 41.24 RCW:

(e) Any individual employed full time by any state or local governmental body or agency who provides voluntary services but only with regard to the provision of the voluntary services. The voluntary services and any compensation therefor shall not affect or add to qualification, entitlement or benefit rights under any state, local government, or publicly supported retirement system other than that provided under chapter 41.24 RCW:

(f) Any newspaper vendor or carrier;

(g) Any carrier subject to regulation by Part 1 of the Interstate Commerce Act;

(h) Any individual engaged in forest protection and fire prevention activities;

(i) Any individual employed by any charitable institution charged with child care responsibilities engaged primarily in the development of character or citizenship or promoting health or physical fitness or providing or sponsoring recreational opportunities or facilities for young people or members of the armed forces of the United States;

(j) Any individual whose duties require that he or she reside or sleep at the place of his or her employment or who otherwise spends a substantial portion of his or her work time subject to call, and not engaged in the performance of active duties;

(k) Any resident, inmate, or patient of a state, county, or municipal correctional, detention, treatment or rehabilitative institution;

(l) Any individual who holds a public elective or appointive office of the state, any county, city, town, municipal corporation or quasi municipal corporation, political subdivision, or any instrumentality thereof, or any employee of the state legislature;

(m) All vessel operating crews of the Washington state ferries operated by the department of transportation;

(n) Any individual employed as a seaman on a vessel other than an American vessel.

(6) 'Occupation' means any occupation, service, trade, business, industry, or branch or group of industries or employment or class of employment in which employees are gainfully employed.

Sec. 57. Section 9, chapter 365, Laws of 1985 and RCW 49.74.020 are each amended to read as follows:

If the commission reasonably believes that a state agency, an institution of higher education, or the state patrol has failed to comply with an affirmative action rule adopted under RCW (~~(20B-16-100)~~) 41.06.150(3) or 43.43.340, the commission shall notify the director of the state agency, president of the institution of higher education, or chief of the Washington state patrol of the noncompliance, as well as the director of personnel (~~or the director of the higher education personnel board, whichever is appropriate~~). The commission shall give the director of the state agency, president of the institution of higher education, or chief of the Washington state patrol an opportunity to be heard on the failure to comply.

Sec. 58. Section 10, chapter 365, Laws of 1985 and RCW 49.74.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission in conjunction with the department of personnel (~~the higher education personnel board~~) or the state patrol, whichever is appropriate, shall attempt to resolve the noncompliance through conciliation. If an agreement is reached for the elimination of non-compliance, the agreement shall be reduced to writing and an order shall be issued by the commission setting forth the terms of the agreement. The noncomplying state agency, institution of higher education, or state patrol shall make a good faith effort to conciliate and make a full commitment to correct the noncompliance with any action that may be necessary to achieve compliance, provided such action is not inconsistent with the rules adopted under RCW (~~(20B-16-100(20), 41-06-150(21), and~~) 41.06.150 or 43.43.340(5), whichever is appropriate.

Sec. 59. Section 11, chapter 365, Laws of 1985 and RCW 49.74.040 are each amended to read as follows:

If no agreement can be reached under RCW 49.74.030, the commission may refer the matter to the administrative law judge for hearing pursuant to RCW 49.60.250. If the administrative law judge finds that the state agency, institution of higher education, or state patrol has not made a good faith effort to correct the noncompliance, the administrative law judge shall order the state agency, institution of higher education, or state patrol to comply with this chapter. The administrative law judge may order any action that may be necessary to achieve compliance, provided such action is not inconsistent with the rules adopted under RCW (~~(20B-16-100(20), 41-06-150(21))~~) 41.06.150 and 43.43.340(5), whichever is appropriate.

An order by the administrative law judge may be appealed to superior court.

Sec. 60. Section 6, chapter 153, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 177, Laws of 1981 and RCW 50.13.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Governmental agencies, including law enforcement agencies, prosecuting agencies, and the executive branch, whether state, local, or federal shall have access to information or records deemed private and confidential under this chapter if the information or records are needed by the agency for official purposes and:

(a) The agency submits an application in writing to the employment security department for the records or information containing a statement of the official purposes for which the information or records are needed and specific identification of the records or information sought from the department; and

(b) The director, commissioner, chief executive, or other official of the agency has verified the need for the specific information in writing either on the application or on a separate document; and

(c) The agency requesting access has served a copy of the application for records or information on the individual or employing unit whose records or information are sought and has provided the department with proof of service. Service shall be made in a manner which conforms to the civil rules for superior court. The requesting agency shall include with the copy of the application a statement to the effect that the individual or employing unit may contact the public records officer of the employment security department to state any objections to the release of the records or information. The employment security department shall not act upon the application of the requesting agency until at least five days after service on the concerned individual or employing unit. The employment security department shall consider any objections raised by the concerned individual or employing unit in deciding whether the requesting agency needs the information or records for official purposes.

(2) The requirements of subsections (1) and (7) of this section shall not apply to the state legislative branch. The state legislature shall have access to information or records deemed private and confidential under this chapter, if the legislature or a legislative committee finds that the information or records are necessary and for official purposes. If the employment security department does not make information or records available as provided in this subsection, the legislature may exercise its authority granted by chapter 44.16 RCW.

(3) In cases of emergency the governmental agency requesting access shall not be required to formally comply with the provisions of subsection (1) of this section at the time of the request if the procedures required by subsection (1) of this section are complied with by the requesting agency following the receipt of any records or information deemed private and confidential under this chapter. An emergency is defined as a situation in which irreparable harm or damage could occur if records or information are not released immediately.

(4) The requirements of subsection (1)(c) of this section shall not apply to governmental agencies where the procedures would frustrate the investigation of possible violations of criminal laws.

(5) Governmental agencies shall have access to certain records or information, limited to such items as names, addresses, social security numbers, and general information about benefit entitlement or employer information possessed by the department, for comparison purposes with records or information possessed by the requesting agency to detect improper or fraudulent claims, or to determine potential tax liability or employer compliance with registration and licensing requirements. In those cases the governmental agency shall not be required to comply with subsection (1)(c) of this section, but the requirements of the remainder of subsection (1) must be satisfied.

(6) Disclosure to governmental agencies of information or records obtained by the employment security department from the federal government shall be governed by any applicable federal law or any agreement between the federal government and the employment security department where so required by federal law. When federal law does not apply to the records or information state law shall control.

(7) The disclosure of any records or information by a governmental agency which has obtained the records or information under this section is prohibited unless the disclosure is directly connected to the official purpose for which the records or information were obtained.

(8) In conducting periodic salary or fringe benefit studies pursuant to law, the department of personnel (~~and the higher education personnel board~~) shall have access to records of the employment security department as may be required for such studies. For such purposes, the requirements of subsection (1)(c) of this section need not apply.

The state personnel board(~~(- the higher education personnel board;))~~) and each unit of local government shall determine whether any employees under their jurisdiction have a substantial likelihood of exposure in the course of their employment to the human immunodeficiency virus. If so, the agency or unit of government shall adopt rules requiring appropriate training and education for the employees on the prevention, transmission, and treatment of AIDS. The rules shall specifically provide for such training and education for law enforcement, correctional, and health care workers. The state personnel board(~~(- the higher education personnel board;))~~) and each unit of local government shall work with the office on AIDS under RCW 70.24.250 to develop the educational and training material necessary for employees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 62. (1) The state personnel appeals board and the higher education personnel board are hereby abolished. All powers, duties, and functions of these agencies are transferred to the state personnel board.

(2) All references to the abolished agencies in the Revised Code of Washington shall be construed to mean the state personnel board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 63. All reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, papers, or written material in the possession of the agencies abolished in section 62 of this act and pertaining to the powers, functions, and duties transferred by section 62 of this act shall be delivered to the custody of the state personnel board. All cabinets, furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property employed by the abolished agencies in carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred by section 62 of this act shall be made available to the state personnel board. All funds, credits, or other assets held in connection with the powers, functions, and duties transferred by section 62 of this act shall be assigned to the state personnel board. Any appropriations made to the abolished agencies for carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred by section 62 of this act shall, on the effective date of this section, be transferred and credited to the state personnel board. Whenever any question arises as to the transfer of any personnel, funds, books, documents, records, papers, files, equipment, or other tangible property used or held in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties and functions transferred, the director of financial management shall make a determination as to the proper allocation and certify the same to the state agencies concerned.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 64. (1) All classified employees of the state personnel appeals board engaged in performing the powers, functions, and duties transferred by section 62 of this act are transferred to the jurisdiction of the state personnel board.

(2) All employees of the higher education personnel board classified under chapter 28B.16 RCW are assigned to the department of personnel to perform their usual duties upon the same terms as formerly, without any loss of rights, subject to any action that may be appropriate thereafter in accordance with the laws and rules governing state civil service.

(3) All employees of the department of personnel assigned to labor relations functions are assigned to the state employees' relations commission to perform their usual duties upon the same terms as formerly, without any loss of rights, subject to any action that may be appropriate thereafter in accordance with the laws and rules governing state civil service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 65. All rules and all pending business before the abolished agencies pertaining to the powers, functions, and duties transferred by section 62 of this act shall be continued and acted upon by the state personnel board. All existing contracts and obligations shall remain in full force and shall be performed by the state personnel board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 66. The transfer of the powers, duties, functions, and personnel of the abolished agencies under section 62 of this act shall not affect the validity of any act performed by such employee prior to the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 67. If apportionments of budgeted funds are required because of the transfers directed by sections 62 through 66 of this act, the director of financial management shall certify the apportionments to the agencies affected, the state auditor, and the state treasurer. Each of these shall make the appropriate transfer and adjustments in funds and appropriation accounts and equipment records in accordance with the certification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 68. Rules, classification plans, compensation plans, and bargaining units adopted or established pursuant to chapter 28B.16 RCW shall remain in effect until superseded by action of the state personnel board or state employees' relations commission, respectively.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 69. SECTION CAPTIONS. Section captions used in this act constitute no part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 70. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 1, chapter 36, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.16.010;
- (2) Section 2, chapter 36, Laws of 1969 ex. sess., section 41, chapter 169, Laws of 1977 ex. sess., section 14, chapter 53, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess., section 1, chapter 75, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess., section 2, chapter 365, Laws of 1985, section 8, chapter 461, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28B.16.020;

NEW SECTION. Sec. 71. CODIFICATION DIRECTIONS. Sections 1 through 21 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 41, RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 72. SEVERABILITY. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 73. EFFECTIVE DATE AND TRANSITION PROVISIONS. (1) Part I (sections 1 through 73) of this act shall take effect on July 1, 1991, except for sections 1 through 21 of this act which shall take effect January 1, 1990. The governor shall take such action as is necessary, including appointment of the members of the state employees' relations board, to ensure that sections 1 through 21 of this act are implemented on their effective date. Until July 1, 1991, the state employees' relations board shall contract with the department of personnel for labor relations staffing necessary to carry out its functions.

(2) The provisions of all collective bargaining agreements in effect covering employees affected by sections 1 through 21 of this act as of the effective date of Part I (sections 1 through 73) of this act and that expire prior to July 1, 1991, shall be extended without change through and including June 30, 1991, at which time all such agreements shall expire.

(3) Any collective bargaining agreement entered into prior to the effective date of Part I (sections 1 through 73) of this act covering employees affected by sections 1 through 21 of this act that expires after the effective date of Part I (sections 1 through 73) of this act shall, unless a superseding agreement complying with this chapter is negotiated by the parties, remain in full force during its duration, but shall not be renewed or extended. Negotiations for an agreement to succeed agreements under this subsection shall commence one year prior to expiration of the agreement or by July 1 preceding expiration, whichever occurs first. The succeeding contract shall expire on July 1 of the next odd-numbered year.

(4) Collective bargaining under Part I (sections 1 through 73) of this act concerning employees affected by sections 1 through 21 of this act shall not commence prior to July 1, 1990, and the provisions of any collective bargaining agreement negotiated under this chapter shall not be effective prior to July 1, 1991.

PART II: STATE PERSONNEL ADMINISTRATION

NEW SECTION. Sec. 74. The legislature finds that the citizens of the state would benefit from cooperative labor-management agreements regarding employee wages, hours, and terms of employment wherever bargaining units have been established by statute. It is therefore the intent of the legislature, to ensure a collaborative environment for bargaining, that the director of the department of personnel be appointed by the governor and confirmed by the senate. It is further the intent of the legislature that the governor's appointment authority over the director of personnel be contingent on the enactment of legislation authorizing collective bargaining with state employees over wages, hours, and terms of employment.

Sec. 75. Section 1, chapter 11, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 389, Laws of 1987 and RCW 41.06.070 are each amended to read as follows:

~~(The provisions of this chapter do)~~ Except as specifically provided, this chapter does not apply to:

(1) The members of the legislature or to any employee of, or position in, the legislative branch of the state government including members, officers, and employees of the legislative council, legislative budget committee, statute law committee, and any interim committee of the legislature;

(2) The justices of the supreme court, judges of the court of appeals, judges of the superior courts or of the inferior courts, or to any employee of, or position in the judicial branch of state government;

(3) Officers, academic personnel, and employees of state institutions of higher education, the state board for community college education, and the higher education personnel board;

(4) The officers of the Washington state patrol;

(5) Elective officers of the state;

(6) The chief executive officer of each agency;

(7) In the departments of employment security, fisheries, social and health services, the director and his confidential secretary; in all other departments, the executive head of which is an individual appointed by the governor, the director, his confidential secretary, and his statutory assistant directors;

(8) In the case of a multimember board, commission, or committee, whether the members thereof are elected, appointed by the governor or other authority, serve ex officio, or are otherwise chosen:

(a) All members of such boards, commissions, or committees;

(b) If the members of the board, commission, or committee serve on a part-time basis and there is a statutory executive officer: (i) The secretary of the board, commission, or committee; (ii) the chief executive officer of the board, commission, or committee; and (iii) the confidential secretary of the chief executive officer of the board, commission, or committee;

(c) If the members of the board, commission, or committee serve on a full-time basis: (i) The chief executive officer or administrative officer as designated by the board, commission, or committee; and (ii) a confidential secretary to the chairman of the board, commission, or committee;

(d) If all members of the board, commission, or committee serve ex officio: (i) The chief executive officer; and (ii) the confidential secretary of such chief executive officer;

(9) The confidential secretaries and administrative assistants in the immediate offices of the elective officers of the state;

(10) Assistant attorneys general;

(11) Commissioned and enlisted personnel in the military service of the state;

(12) Inmate, student, part-time, or temporary employees, and part-time professional consultants, as defined by the state personnel board or the board having jurisdiction;

(13) The public printer or to any employees of or positions in the state printing plant;

(14) Officers and employees of the Washington state fruit commission;

(15) Officers and employees of the Washington state apple advertising commission;

(16) Officers and employees of the Washington state dairy products commission;

(17) Officers and employees of the Washington tree fruit research commission;

(18) Officers and employees of the Washington state beef commission;

(19) Officers and employees of any commission formed under the provisions of chapter 191, Laws of 1955, and chapter 15.66 RCW;

(20) Officers and employees of the state wheat commission formed under the provisions of chapter 87, Laws of 1961 (chapter 15.63 RCW);

(21) Officers and employees of agricultural commissions formed under the provisions of chapter 256, Laws of 1961 (chapter 15.65 RCW);

(22) Officers and employees of the nonprofit corporation formed under chapter 67.40 RCW;

(23) Liquor vendors appointed by the Washington state liquor control board pursuant to RCW 66.08.050: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That rules and regulations adopted by the state personnel board pursuant to RCW 41.06.150 regarding the basis for, and procedures to be followed for, the dismissal, suspension, or demotion of an employee, and appeals therefrom shall be fully applicable to liquor vendors except those part time agency vendors employed by the liquor control board when, in addition to the sale of liquor for the state, they sell goods, wares, merchandise, or services as a self-sustaining private retail business;

(24) Executive assistants for personnel administration and labor relations in all state agencies employing such executive assistants including but not limited to all departments, offices, commissions, committees, boards, or other bodies subject to the provisions of this chapter and this subsection shall prevail over any provision of law inconsistent herewith unless specific exception is made in such law;

(25) All employees of the marine employees' commission;

(26) Up to a total of five senior staff positions of the western library network under chapter 27.26 RCW responsible for formulating policy or for directing program management of a major administrative unit;

(27) In each agency with fifty or more employees: Deputy agency heads, assistant directors or division directors, and not more than three principal policy assistants who report directly to agency heads or deputy agency heads;

(28) In addition to the exemptions specifically provided by this chapter, the state personnel board may provide for further exemptions pursuant to the following procedures. The governor or other appropriate elected official may submit requests for exemption to the personnel board stating the reasons for requesting such exemptions. The personnel board shall hold a public hearing, after proper notice, on requests submitted pursuant to this subsection. If the board determines that the position for which exemption is requested is one involving substantial responsibility for the formulation of basic agency or executive policy or one involving directing and controlling program operations of an agency or a major administrative division thereof, the personnel board shall grant the request and such determination shall be final. The total number of additional exemptions permitted under this subsection shall not exceed one hundred eighty-seven for those agencies not directly under the authority of any elected public official other than the governor, and shall not exceed a total of twenty-five for all agencies under the authority of elected public officials other than the governor. The ~~((state personnel board))~~ director shall report to each regular session of the legislature during an odd-numbered year all exemptions granted pursuant to the provisions of this subsection, together with the reasons for such exemptions.

The salary and fringe benefits of all positions presently or hereafter exempted except for the chief executive officer of each agency, full-time members of boards and commissions, administrative assistants and confidential secretaries in the immediate office of an elected state official, and the personnel listed in subsections (10) through (22) of this section, shall be determined by the state personnel board. For these exempt positions, incremental salary increases within the series of steps for each pay grade shall be granted only if specifically approved in writing by the head of the employing agency.

Any person holding a classified position subject to the provisions of this chapter shall, when and if such position is subsequently exempted from the application of this chapter, be afforded the following rights: If such person previously held permanent status in another classified position, such person shall have a right of reversion to the highest class of position previously held, or to a position of similar nature and salary.

Any classified employee having civil service status in a classified position who accepts an appointment in an exempt position shall have the right of reversion to the highest class of position previously held, or to a position of similar nature and salary ~~((within four years from the date of appointment to the exempt position. However, (a) upon the prior request of the appointing authority of the exempt position, the personnel board may approve one extension~~ of no more than four years; and (b) if an appointment was accepted prior to July 10, 1982, then the four-year period shall begin on July 10, 1982).

A person occupying an exempt position who is terminated from the position for gross misconduct or malfeasance does not have the right of reversion to a classified position as provided in this section.

(29) The 1989 amendments to subsections (1) through (28) of this section shall not take effect if any section or sections of Part I (sections 1 through 73) of this act are vetoed.

Sec. 76. Section 13, chapter 1, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 3, chapter 53, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 41.06.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The office of director of personnel is hereby established.

~~(1) ((Within ninety days after December 8, 1960, a director of personnel shall be appointed. The merit system director then serving under RCW 50.12.030, whose position is terminated by this chapter, may serve as director of personnel hereunder until a permanent director of personnel is appointed as herein provided, and may be appointed as director of personnel by the governor alone; or the governor may fill the position in the manner hereinafter provided for subsequent vacancies therein on the basis of competitive examination, in conformance with board rules for competitive examinations, for which examinations the merit system director is eligible.~~

~~(2)) The director of personnel shall be appointed by the governor ((from a list of three names submitted to him by the board with its recommendations. The names on such list shall be those of the three standing highest upon competitive examination conducted by a committee of three persons appointed by the board solely for that purpose whenever the position is vacant)) and shall be subject to senate confirmation. Only persons with substantial experience in the field of personnel management are eligible ((to take such examination)) for appointment to the position of director of personnel. The director's salary shall be established by the governor in accordance with RCW 43.03.040.~~

~~((3)) (2) The director of personnel ((is removable for cause by)) shall serve at the pleasure of the governor ((with the approval of a majority of the board or by a majority of the board)).~~

~~((4)) (3) The director of personnel shall direct and supervise all the department of personnel's administrative and technical activities in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations approved and promulgated thereunder. ((He)) The director shall prepare for consideration by the board proposed rules and regulations required by this chapter. ((His salary shall be fixed by the board.~~

~~(5)) (4) The department of personnel shall be organized into administrative divisions that the director deems necessary to promote efficient public management, to improve programs, and to take full advantage of both fiscal and administrative economies.~~

(5) The director of personnel may delegate to any agency the authority to perform administrative and technical personnel activities if the agency requests such authority and the director of personnel is satisfied that the agency has the personnel management capabilities to effectively perform the delegated activities. The director of personnel shall prescribe standards and guidelines for the performance of delegated activities. If the director of personnel determines that an agency is not performing delegated activities within the prescribed standards and guidelines, the director shall withdraw the authority from the agency to perform such activities.

(6) The 1989 amendments to subsections (1) through (5) of this section shall not take effect if any section or sections of Part I (sections 1 through 73) of this act are vetoed.

Sec. 77. Section 13, chapter 215, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 41.06.340 are each amended to read as follows:

Each and every provision of RCW 41.56.140 through 41.56.190 shall be applicable to this chapter as it relates to state civil service employees and the state personnel board, or its designee, whose final decision shall be appealable to the state personnel board, which is granted all powers and authority granted to the ((department of labor and industries)) public employment relations commission by RCW 41.56.140 through 41.56.190.

Sec. 78. Section 7, chapter 118, Laws of 1980 and RCW 41.06.430 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board, by rule, shall develop a career executive program which recognizes the profession of management and recognizes excellence in managerial skills in order to (a) identify, attract, and retain highly qualified executive candidates, (b) provide outstanding employees a broad opportunity for career development, and (c) provide for the mobility of such employees among agencies, it being to the advantage of the state to make the most beneficial use of individual managerial skills.

(2) To accomplish the purposes of subsection (1) of this section, the board, notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, may provide policies and standards for recruitment, appointment, examination, training, probation, employment register control, certification, classification, salary administration, transfer, promotion, reemployment, conditions of employment, and separation separate from procedures established for other employment.

(3) The director, in consultation with affected agencies, shall recommend to the board the classified positions which may be filled by participants in the career executive program. Upon the request of an agency, management positions that are exempt from the state civil service law pursuant to RCW 41.06.070 may be included in all or any part of the career executive program: PROVIDED, That an agency may at any time, after providing written notice to the board, withdraw an exempt position from the career executive program. No employee may be placed in the career executive program without the employee's consent.

(4) The number of employees participating in the career executive program shall not exceed ~~((one))~~ two percent of the employees subject to the provisions of this chapter.

(5) The director shall monitor and review the impact of the career executive program to ensure that the responsibilities of the state to provide equal employment opportunities are diligently carried out. The director shall report to the board the impact of the career executive program on the fulfillment of such responsibilities.

(6) Any classified state employee, upon entering a position in the career executive program, shall be entitled subsequently to revert to any class or position previously held with permanent status, or, if such position is not available, revert to a position similar in nature and salary to the position previously held.

(7) The 1989 amendment to subsection (4) of this section shall not take effect if any section or sections of Part I (sections 1 through 73) of this act are vetoed.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 79. A new section is added to chapter 41.04 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In the executive branch, personnel exempted from chapter 41.06 RCW who are not covered by the federal Fair Labor Standards Act maximum hour provisions are not eligible to receive overtime cash payment or compensatory time. 'Compensatory time' means time off in lieu of cash payment for overtime.

(2) Vacation and sick leave for executive branch personnel exempted from chapter 41.06 RCW who are not covered by the federal Fair Labor Standards Act maximum hour provisions shall be governed by the rules adopted under RCW 41.06.150(8).

NEW SECTION, Sec. 80. The department of personnel shall review the practices regarding overtime, including payment for overtime, vacation, and sick leave for personnel exempted from chapter 41.06 RCW and all executive branch agencies. The department shall report its findings to the legislature no later than January 1, 1990.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 82. RCW 72.09.220 is decodified.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 83. Section 80 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately. The remainder of Part II (sections 74 through 79, 81, and 82) of this act shall take effect July 1, 1990.*

SSB 5147 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Financial Institutions & Insurance: Revising definition of credit services organization. Reported by Committee on Financial Institutions & Insurance

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 218, Laws of 1986 and RCW 19.134.010 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

(1) 'Buyer' means any individual who is solicited to purchase or who purchases the services of a credit services organization.

(2)(a) 'Credit services organization' means any person who, with respect to the extension of credit by others, sells, provides, performs, or represents that he or she can or will sell, provide, or perform, in return for the payment of money or other valuable consideration any of the following services:

(i) Improving, saving, or preserving a buyer's credit record, history, or rating;

(ii) Obtaining an extension of credit for a buyer: ((or))

(iii) Stopping, preventing, or delaying the foreclosure of a deed of trust, mortgage, or other security agreement; or

(iv) Providing advice or assistance to a buyer with regard to either (a)(i) ((or)); (a)(ii); or (a)(iii) of this subsection.

(b) 'Credit services organization' does not include:

(i) Any person authorized to make loans or extensions of credit under the laws of this state or the United States who is subject to regulation and supervision by this state or the United States or a lender approved by the United States secretary of housing and urban development for participation in any mortgage insurance program under the national housing act;

(ii) Any bank, savings bank, or savings and loan institution whose deposits or accounts are eligible for insurance by the federal deposit insurance corporation or the federal savings and loan insurance corporation, or a subsidiary of such bank, savings bank, or savings and loan institution;

(iii) Any credit union, federal credit union, or out-of-state credit union doing business in this state under chapter 31.12 RCW;

(iv) Any nonprofit organization exempt from taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the internal revenue code;

(v) Any person licensed as a real estate broker by this state if the person is acting within the course and scope of that license;

(vi) Any person licensed as a collection agency pursuant to chapter 19.16 RCW if acting within the course and scope of that license;

(vii) Any person licensed to practice law in this state if the person renders services within the course and scope of his or her practice as an attorney;

(viii) Any broker-dealer registered with the securities and exchange commission or the commodity futures trading commission if the broker-dealer is acting within the course and scope of that regulation; ((or))

(ix) Any consumer reporting agency as defined in the federal fair credit reporting act, 15 U.S.C. Secs. 1681 through 1681i; or

(x) Any mortgage broker as defined in RCW 19.146.010 if acting within the course and scope of that definition.

(3) 'Extension of credit' means the right to defer payment of debt or to incur debt and defer its payment offered or granted primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 218, Laws of 1986 and RCW 19.134.020 are each amended to read as follows:

A credit services organization, its salespersons, agents, and representatives, and independent contractors who sell or attempt to sell the services of a credit services organization may not do any of the following:

(1) Charge or receive any money or other valuable consideration prior to full and complete performance of the services the credit services organization has agreed to perform for the buyer, unless the credit services organization has obtained a surety bond of ten thousand dollars issued by a surety company admitted to do business in this state and established a trust account at a federally insured bank or savings and loan association located in this state. The surety bond shall run to the state of Washington and the buyers. The surety bond shall be issued on the condition that the principal comply with all provisions of this chapter and fully perform on all contracts entered into with buyers. The surety bond shall be continuous until canceled and shall remain in full force and unimpaired at all times to comply with this section. The surety's liability for all claims in the aggregate against the continuous bond shall not exceed the penal sum of the bond. An action on the bond may be brought by the state or by any buyer by filing a complaint in a court of competent jurisdiction, including small claims court, within one year of cancellation of the surety bond. A complaint may be mailed by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, to the surety and shall constitute good and sufficient service on the surety;

(2) Charge or receive any money or other valuable consideration solely for referral of the buyer to a retail seller who will or may extend credit to the buyer if the credit that is or will be extended to the buyer is upon substantially the same terms as those available to the general public;

(3) Make or counsel or advise any buyer to make any statement that is untrue or misleading or that should be known by the exercise of reasonable care to be untrue or misleading, to a credit reporting agency or to any person who has extended credit to a buyer or to whom a buyer is applying for an extension of credit with respect to a buyer's credit worthiness, credit standing, or credit capacity;

(4) Make or use any untrue or misleading representations in the offer or sale of the services of a credit services organization or engage, directly or indirectly, in any act, practice, or course of business that operates or would operate as fraud or deception upon any person in connection with the offer or sale of the services of a credit services organization."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "organizations;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and amending RCW 19.134.010 and 19.134.020."

SB 5167 Prime Sponsor, Senator Pullen: Revising campaign finance reporting. Reported by Committee on State Government

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

(1) 'Agency' includes all state agencies and all local agencies. 'State agency' includes every state office, department, division, bureau, board, commission, or other state agency. 'Local agency' includes every county, city, town, municipal corporation, quasi-municipal corporation, or special purpose district, or any office, department, division, bureau, board, commission, or agency thereof, or other local public agency.

(2) 'Ballot proposition' means any 'measure' as defined by RCW 29.01.110, or any initiative, recall, or referendum proposition proposed to be submitted to the voters of the state or any municipal corporation, political subdivision, or other voting constituency from and after the time when the proposition has been initially filed with the appropriate election officer of that constituency prior to its circulation for signatures.

(3) ~~'((Campaign)) Depository'~~ means a bank designated by a candidate or political committee pursuant to RCW 42.17.050.

(4) ~~'((Campaign)) Treasurer'~~ and 'deputy ~~((campaign))~~ treasurer' mean the individuals appointed by a candidate or political committee, pursuant to RCW 42.17.050, to perform the duties specified in that section.

(5) 'Candidate' means any individual who seeks election to public office. An individual shall be deemed to seek election when he first:

(a) Receives contributions or makes expenditures or reserves space or facilities with intent to promote his candidacy for office; or

(b) Announces publicly or files for office.

(6) 'Commercial advertiser' means any person who sells the service of communicating messages or producing printed material for broadcast or distribution to the general public or segments of the general public whether through the use of newspapers, magazines, television and radio stations, billboard companies, direct mail advertising companies, printing companies, or otherwise.

(7) 'Commission' means the agency established under RCW 42.17.350.

(8) 'Compensation' unless the context requires a narrower meaning, includes payment in any form for real or personal property or services of any kind: PROVIDED, That for the purpose of compliance with RCW 42.17.241, the term 'compensation' shall not include per diem allowances or other payments made by a governmental entity to reimburse a public official for expenses incurred while the official is engaged in the official business of the governmental entity.

(9) 'Continuing political committee' means a political committee that is an organization of continuing existence not established in anticipation of any particular election campaign.

(10) 'Contribution' includes a loan, gift, deposit, subscription, forgiveness of indebtedness, donation, advance, pledge, payment, transfer of funds between political committees, or transfer of anything of value, including personal and professional services for less than full consideration, but does not include interest on moneys deposited in a political committee's account, ordinary home hospitality and the rendering of ~~((part-time))~~ personal services of the sort commonly performed by volunteer campaign workers, or incidental expenses personally incurred by volunteer campaign workers not in excess of ~~((twenty-five))~~ fifty dollars personally paid for by the worker. ~~((Part-time))~~ Volunteer services, for the purposes of this chapter, means services ~~((in addition to regular full-time employment, or, in the case of an unemployed person, services not in excess of twenty hours per week, excluding weekends))~~ or labor for which the individual is not compensated by any person. For the purposes of this chapter, contributions other than money or its equivalents shall be deemed to have a money value equivalent to the fair market value of the contribution. Sums paid for tickets to fund-raising events such as dinners and parties are contributions; however, the amount of any such contribution may be reduced for the purpose of complying with the reporting requirements of this chapter, by the actual cost of consumables furnished in connection with the purchase of the tickets, and only the excess over the actual cost of the consumables shall be deemed a contribution.

(11) 'Elected official' means any person elected at a general or special election to any public office, and any person appointed to fill a vacancy in any such office.

(12) 'Election' includes any primary, general, or special election for public office and any election in which a ballot proposition is submitted to the voters: PROVIDED, That an election in which the qualifications for voting include other than those requirements set forth in Article VI, section 1 (Amendment 63) of the Constitution of the state of Washington shall not be considered an election for purposes of this chapter.

(13) 'Election campaign' means any campaign in support of or in opposition to a candidate for election to public office and any campaign in support of, or in opposition to, a ballot proposition.

(14) 'Expenditure' includes a payment, contribution, subscription, distribution, loan, advance, deposit, or gift of money or anything of value, and includes a contract, promise, or agreement, whether or not legally enforceable, to make an expenditure. The term 'expenditure' also includes a promise to pay, a payment, or a transfer of anything of value in exchange for goods, services, property, facilities, or anything of value for the purpose of assisting, benefiting, or honoring any public official or candidate, or assisting in furthering or opposing any election campaign. For the purposes of this chapter, agreements to make expenditures, contracts, and promises to pay may be reported as estimated obligations until actual payment is made. The term 'expenditure' shall not include the partial or complete repayment by a candidate or political committee of the principal of a loan, the receipt of which loan has been properly reported ~~((or payment of service charges against a political committee's campaign account))~~.

(15) 'Final report' means the report described as a final report in RCW 42.17.080(2).

(16) 'Immediate family' includes the spouse, dependent children, and other dependent relatives, if living in the household.

(17) 'Legislation' means bills, resolutions, motions, amendments, nominations, and other matters pending or proposed in either house of the state legislature, and includes any other matter that may be the subject of action by either house or any committee of the legislature and all bills and resolutions that, having passed both houses, are pending approval by the governor.

(18) 'Lobby' and 'lobbying' each mean attempting to influence the passage or defeat of any legislation by the legislature of the state of Washington, or the adoption or rejection of any rule, standard, rate, or other legislative enactment of any state agency under the state Administrative Procedure Act ~~(§)~~, chapter ~~(34.04)~~ 34.05 RCW ~~(and chapter 28B.19 RCW)~~.

(19) 'Lobbyist' includes any person who lobbies either in his own or another's behalf.

(20) 'Lobbyist's employer' means the person or persons by whom a lobbyist is employed and all persons by whom he is compensated for acting as a lobbyist.

(21) 'Person' includes an individual, partnership, joint venture, public or private corporation, association, federal, state, or local governmental entity or agency however constituted, candidate, committee, political committee, political party, executive committee thereof, or any other organization or group of persons, however organized.

(22) 'Person in interest' means the person who is the subject of a record or any representative designated by that person, except that if that person is under a legal disability, the term 'person in interest' means and includes the parent or duly appointed legal representative.

(23) 'Political advertising' includes any advertising displays, newspaper ads, billboards, signs, brochures, articles, tabloids, flyers, letters, radio or television presentations, or other means of mass communication, used for the purpose of appealing, directly or indirectly, for votes or for financial or other support in any election campaign.

(24) 'Political committee' means any person (except a candidate or an individual dealing with his own funds or property) having the expectation of receiving contributions or making expenditures in support of, or opposition to, any candidate or any ballot proposition.

(25) 'Public office' means any federal, state, county, city, town, school district, port district, special district, or other state political subdivision elective office.

(26) 'Public record' includes any writing containing information relating to the conduct of government or the performance of any governmental or proprietary function prepared, owned, used, or retained by any state or local agency regardless of physical form or characteristics.

(27) 'Surplus funds' mean, in the case of a political committee or candidate, the balance of contributions that remain in the possession or control of that committee or candidate subsequent to the election for which the contributions were received, and that are in excess of the amount necessary to pay remaining debts incurred by the committee or candidate prior to that election. In the case of a continuing political committee, 'surplus funds' mean those contributions remaining in the possession or control of the committee that are in excess of the amount necessary to pay all remaining debts when it makes its final report under RCW 42.17.065.

(28) 'Writing' means handwriting, typewriting, printing, photostating, photographing, and every other means of recording any form of communication or representation, including letters, words, pictures, sounds, or symbols, or combination thereof, and all papers, maps, magnetic or paper tapes, photographic films and prints, magnetic or punched cards, discs, drums, and other documents.

As used in this chapter, the singular shall take the plural and any gender, the other, as the context requires.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 1, chapter 147, Laws of 1982 and RCW 42.17.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every political committee, within two weeks after its organization or, within two weeks after the date when it first has the expectation of receiving contributions or making expenditures in any election campaign, whichever is earlier, shall file a statement of organization with the commission and with the county auditor or elections officer of the county in which the candidate resides ~~((f))~~, or in the case of ~~((a))~~ any other political committee ~~((supporting or opposing a ballot proposition))~~, the county in which the ~~((campaign))~~ treasurer resides ~~((f))~~. A political committee organized within the last three weeks before an election and having the expectation of receiving contributions or making expenditures during and for that election campaign shall file a statement of organization within three business days after its organization or when it first has the expectation of receiving contributions or making expenditures in the election campaign.

(2) The statement of organization shall include but not be limited to:

(a) The name and address of the committee;

(b) The names and addresses of all related or affiliated committees or other persons, and the nature of the relationship or affiliation;

(c) The names, addresses, and titles of its officers; or if it has no officers, the names, addresses, and titles of its responsible leaders;

(d) The name and address of its ~~((campaign))~~ treasurer and ~~((campaign))~~ depository;

(e) A statement whether the committee is a continuing one;

(f) The name, office sought, and party affiliation of each candidate whom the committee is supporting or opposing, and, if the committee is supporting the entire ticket of any party, the name of the party;

(g) The ballot proposition concerned, if any, and whether the committee is in favor of or opposed to such proposition;

(h) What distribution of surplus funds will be made, in accordance with RCW 42.17.095, in the event of dissolution;

(i) The street address of the place and the hours during which the committee will make available for public inspection its books of account and all reports filed in accordance with RCW ~~((42.17.065 and))~~ 42.17.080~~((as now or hereafter amended));~~ and

(j) Such other information as the commission may by regulation prescribe, in keeping with the policies and purposes of this chapter.

(3) Any material change in information previously submitted in a statement of organization shall be reported to the commission and to the appropriate county elections officer within the ten days following the change.

Sec. 3. Section 5, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 3, chapter 367, Laws of 1985 and RCW 42.17.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each candidate, within two weeks after becoming a candidate, and each political committee, at the time it is required to file a statement of organization, shall designate and file with the commission and the appropriate county elections officer the names and addresses of:

(a) One legally competent individual, who may be the candidate, to serve as a ~~((campaign))~~ treasurer; and

(b) A bank, mutual savings bank, savings and loan association, or credit union doing business in this state to serve as ~~((campaign))~~ depository and the name of the account or accounts ~~((therein))~~ maintained in it.

(2) A candidate, a political committee, or a ~~((campaign))~~ treasurer may appoint as many deputy ~~((campaign))~~ treasurers as is considered necessary and may designate not more than one additional ~~((campaign))~~ depository in each other county in which the campaign is conducted. The candidate or political committee shall file the names and addresses of the deputy ~~((campaign))~~ treasurers and additional ~~((campaign))~~ depositories with the commission and the appropriate county elections officer.

(3) A candidate may not knowingly establish, use, direct, or control more than one political committee for the purpose of supporting that candidate during a particular election campaign. This does not prohibit: (a) In addition to a candidate's having his or her own political committee, the candidate's participation in a political committee established to support a slate of candidates which includes the candidate; or (b) joint fund-raising efforts by candidates when a separate political committee is established for that purpose and all contributions are disbursed to and accounted for on a pro rata basis by the benefitting candidates.

(4) (a) A candidate or political committee may at any time remove a ~~((campaign))~~ treasurer or deputy ~~((campaign))~~ treasurer or change a designated ~~((campaign))~~ depository.

(b) In the event of the death, resignation, removal, or change of a ~~((campaign))~~ treasurer, deputy ~~((campaign))~~ treasurer, or depository, the candidate or political committee shall designate and file with the commission and the appropriate county elections officer the name and address of any successor.

(5) No ~~((campaign))~~ treasurer, deputy ~~((campaign))~~ treasurer, or ~~((campaign))~~ depository may be deemed to be in compliance with the provisions of this chapter until his name and address is filed with the commission and the appropriate county elections officer.

Sec. 4. Section 6, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 1, chapter 268, Laws of 1987 and RCW 42.17.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All monetary contributions received by a candidate or political committee shall be deposited by the ~~((campaign))~~ treasurer or deputy treasurer in a ~~((campaign))~~ depository in an account established and designated for that purpose. Such deposits shall be made within five business days of receipt of the contribution.

(2) Political committees which support or oppose more than one candidate or ballot proposition, or exist for more than one purpose, may maintain multiple separate bank accounts within the same designated depository for such purpose: PROVIDED, That each such account shall bear the same name followed by an appropriate designation which accurately identifies its separate purpose: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That transfers of funds which must be reported under RCW 42.17.090(1)(d)~~((as now or hereafter amended));~~ may not be made from more than one such account.

(3) Nothing in this section prohibits a candidate or political committee from investing funds on hand in a ~~((campaign))~~ depository in bonds, certificates, tax-exempt securities, or savings accounts or other similar instruments in financial institutions or mutual funds other than the ~~((campaign))~~ depository: PROVIDED, That the commission and the appropriate county elections officer is notified in writing of the initiation and the termination of the investment: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the principal of such investment when terminated together with all interest, dividends, and income derived from the investment are deposited in the ~~((campaign))~~ depository in the account from which the investment was made and properly reported to the commission and the appropriate county elections officer prior to any further disposition or expenditure thereof.

(4) Accumulated unidentified contributions, other than those made by persons whose names must be maintained on a separate and private list by a political committee's (~~campaign~~) treasurer pursuant to RCW 42.17.090(1)(b), which total in excess of one percent of the total accumulated contributions received in the current calendar year or three hundred dollars (whichever is more), may not be deposited, used, or expended, but shall be returned to the donor, if his identity can be ascertained. If the donor cannot be ascertained, the contribution shall escheat to the state, and shall be paid to the state treasurer for deposit in the state general fund.

(5) A contribution of more than fifty dollars in currency may not be accepted unless a receipt, signed by the contributor and by the candidate, (~~campaign~~) treasurer, or deputy (~~campaign~~) treasurer, is prepared and made a part of the campaign's or political committee's financial records.

Sec. 5. Section 5, chapter 294, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 147, Laws of 1982 and RCW 42.17.065 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In addition to the provisions of this section, a continuing political committee shall file and report on the same conditions and at the same times as any other committee in accordance with the provisions of RCW 42.17.040, 42.17.050, and 42.17.060 (~~as now or hereafter amended~~).

(2) A continuing political committee shall file with the commission and the auditor or elections officer of the county in which the committee maintains its office or headquarters and if there is no such office or headquarters then in the county in which the committee treasurer resides a report on the tenth day of the month detailing its activities for the preceding calendar month in which the committee has received a contribution or made an expenditure: PROVIDED, That such report shall only be filed if either the total contributions received or total expenditures made since the last such report exceed two hundred dollars. The report shall be on a form supplied by the commission and shall include the following information:

(a) The information required by RCW 42.17.090 (~~as now or hereafter amended~~);

(b) Each expenditure made to retire previously accumulated debts of the committee; identified by recipient, amount, and date of payments;

(c) Such other information as the commission shall by rule prescribe.

(3) If a continuing political committee shall make a contribution in support of or in opposition to a candidate or ballot proposition within sixty days prior to the date on which such candidate or ballot proposition will be voted upon, such continuing political committee shall report pursuant to RCW 42.17.080 (~~as now or hereafter amended, until twenty-one days after said election~~).

(4) A continuing political committee shall file reports as required by this chapter until it is dissolved, at which time a final report shall be filed. Upon submitting a final report, the duties of the campaign treasurer shall cease and there shall be no obligation to make any further reports.

(5) The campaign treasurer shall maintain books of account accurately reflecting all contributions and expenditures on a current basis within five business days of receipt or expenditure. During the eight days immediately preceding the date of any election, for which the committee has received any contributions or made any expenditures, the books of account shall be kept current within one business day and shall be open for public inspection for at least two consecutive hours Monday through Friday, excluding legal holidays, between 8:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m., as specified in the committee's statement of organization filed pursuant to RCW 42.17.040 (~~as now or hereafter amended~~), at the principal campaign headquarters or, if there is no campaign headquarters, at the address of the campaign treasurer or such other place as may be authorized by the commission.

(6) All reports filed pursuant to this section shall be certified as correct by the campaign treasurer.

(7) The campaign treasurer shall preserve books of account, bills, receipts, and all other financial records of the campaign or political committee for not less than five calendar years following the year during which the transaction occurred.

Sec. 6. Section 9, chapter 112, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. as amended by section 5, chapter 147, Laws of 1982 and RCW 42.17.067 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Fund-raising activities which meet the standards of subsection (2) of this section may be reported in accordance with the provisions of this section in lieu of reporting in accordance with RCW 42.17.080 (~~as now or hereafter amended~~).

(2) (~~A fund-raising activity which is to be reported in accordance with the provisions of this section shall conform with the following~~) Standards:

(a) The (~~income resulting from the conduct of the~~) activity (~~is derived solely from either~~) consists of one or more of the following:

(i) The retail sale of goods or services at (~~prices which in no case exceed~~) a reasonable approximation of the fair market value of each item or service sold at the activity(~~;~~); or

(ii) A gambling operation which is licensed, conducted, or operated in accordance with the provisions of chapter 9.46 RCW (~~and at which in no case is the monetary value of any~~ ~~prize exceeded by the monetary value of any single wager which may be made by a person participating in such activity); or~~

~~(iii) A gathering where food and beverages are purchased, where the price of admission or the food and beverages is no more than twenty-five dollars; or~~

~~(iv) A concert, dance, theater performance, or similar entertainment event where the price of admission is no more than twenty-five dollars; or~~

~~(v) An auction or similar sale where the total fair market value of items donated by any person for sale is no more than fifty dollars; and~~

~~(b) No person responsible for receiving money at such activity ((may)) knowingly accepts payments from a single person ((which would result in a profit)) at or from such an activity to the candidate or committee ((of twenty-five)) aggregating more than fifty dollars ((or more)) unless the name and address of the person making such payment together with the ((approximate)) amount ((of profit)) paid to the candidate or committee ((resulting from such payment)) are disclosed in the report filed pursuant to subsection ((4)) (6) of this section; and~~

~~(c) Such other standards as shall be established by rule ((and regulation)) of the commission to prevent frustration of the purposes of this chapter.~~

~~(3) All funds ((obtained through the use of)) received from a fund-raising activity which conforms with ((the provisions of)) subsection (2) of this section shall be deposited within five business days of receipt by the ((campaign)) treasurer or deputy ((campaign)) treasurer in the ((same account into which contributions received by the committee are being deposited pursuant to RCW 42.17.060)) depository.~~

~~(4) At the time ((such funds are deposited in accordance with subsection (3) of this section)) reports are required under RCW 42.17.080, the ((campaign)) treasurer or deputy ((campaign)) treasurer making the deposit shall file with the commission and the appropriate county elections officer a report of the fund-raising activity which shall contain the following information:~~

~~(a) The date ((on which)) of the activity ((occurred));~~

~~(b) ((The location at which the activity occurred;~~

~~(c)) A precise description of the fund-raising methods used in the activity; and~~

~~((d) A financial statement noting gross receipts and expenses for the activity, including an inventory list where appropriate;~~

~~(e) The monetary value of wagers made and prizes distributed for winning wagers, where appropriate;~~

~~(f) The name and address of each person who contributed goods or services to the committee for sale at the activity if the fair market value of the goods or services contributed equals twenty-five dollars or more in the aggregate from such person, together with a precise description of each item or service contributed and its estimated market value;~~

~~(g) The name and address of each person whose identity can be ascertained and who makes payments to the committee at such activity which result in a profit of twenty-five dollars or more to the committee, together with the approximate amount of profit to the committee which results from such payments; and~~

~~(h) A complete listing of the names and addresses of the persons responsible for conducting the activity.~~

~~(5) The statement required by subsection (4) of this section shall be in duplicate upon a form prescribed by the commission, one copy to be filed by the campaign treasurer with the commission, and one copy to be retained by him for his records. Each statement shall be certified as correct by the campaign))~~

~~(c) The total amount of cash receipts from persons, each of whom paid no more than fifty dollars.~~

~~(5) The treasurer or deputy treasurer ((making the deposit)) shall certify the report is correct.~~

~~(6) The treasurer shall report pursuant to RCW 42.17.080 and 42.17.090: (a) The name and address and the amount contributed of each person who contributes goods or services with a fair market value of more than fifty dollars to a fund-raising activity reported under subsection (4) of this section, and (b) the name and address of each person whose identity can be ascertained, and the amount paid, from whom were knowingly received payments to the candidate or committee aggregating more than fifty dollars at or from such a fund-raising activity.~~

~~Sec. 7. Section 7, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as amended by section 5, chapter 367, Laws of 1985 and RCW 42.17.070 are each amended to read as follows:~~

~~No expenditures may be made or incurred by any candidate or political committee except on the authority of the ((campaign)) treasurer or the candidate, and a record of all such expenditures shall be maintained by the ((campaign)) treasurer.~~

~~No expenditure of more than fifty dollars may be made in currency unless a receipt, signed by the recipient and by the candidate or ((campaign)) treasurer, is prepared and made a part of the campaign's or political committee's financial records.~~

which the candidate resides ((~~it~~)), or in the case of a political committee ((~~supporting or opposing a ballot proposition~~)), the county in which the ((~~campaign~~)) treasurer resides(~~it~~)), in addition to any statement of organization required under RCW 42.17.040 or 42.17.050 ((~~as now or hereafter amended~~)), a report of all contributions received and expenditures made prior to that date, if any.

(2) At the following intervals each ((~~campaign~~)) treasurer shall file with the commission and the county auditor or elections officer of the county in which the candidate resides ((~~it~~)), or in the case of a political committee ((~~supporting or opposing a ballot proposition~~)), the county in which the ((~~campaign~~)) committee maintains its office or headquarters, and if there is no office or headquarters then in the county in which the ((~~campaign~~)) treasurer resides(~~it~~)), a report containing the information required by RCW 42.17.090 ((~~as now or hereafter amended~~)):

(a) On the twenty-first day and the seventh day immediately preceding the date on which the election is held; and

(b) ((~~Within twenty-one days after the date of~~)) On the tenth day of the first month after the election: PROVIDED, That this report shall not be required following a primary election from:

(i) A candidate whose name will appear on the subsequent general election ballot; or

(ii) Any continuing political committee; and

(c) On the tenth day of each month in which no other reports are required to be filed under this section: PROVIDED, That such report shall only be filed if the committee has received a contribution or made an expenditure in the preceding calendar month and either the total contributions received or total expenditures made since the last such report exceed two hundred dollars.

When there is no outstanding debt or obligation, and the campaign fund is closed, and the campaign is concluded in all respects, and in the case of a political committee, the committee has ceased to function and has dissolved, the ((~~campaign~~)) treasurer shall file a final report. Upon submitting a final report, the duties of the ((~~campaign~~)) treasurer shall cease and there shall be no obligation to make any further reports.

The report filed twenty-one days before the election shall report all contributions received and expenditures made as of the end of the fifth business day before the date of the report. The report filed seven days before the election shall report all contributions received and expenditures made as of the end of the one business day before the date of the report. Reports filed on the tenth day of the month shall report all contributions received and expenditures made from the closing date of the last report filed through the last day of the month preceding the date of the current report.

(3) For the period beginning the first day of the fourth month preceding the date on which the special or general election is held and ending on the date of that election, the ((~~campaign~~)) treasurer shall file with the commission and the appropriate county elections officer a report of each contribution received during that period at the time that contribution is deposited pursuant to RCW 42.17.060(1)((~~as now or hereafter amended~~)). The report shall contain the name of each person contributing the funds so deposited and the amount contributed by each person((~~as PROVIDED, That~~)). However, contributions of ((~~less than that~~)) no more than twenty-five dollars from any one person may be deposited without identifying the contributor. A copy of the report shall be retained by the ((~~campaign~~)) treasurer for his records. In the event of deposits made by a deputy ((~~campaign~~)) treasurer, the copy shall be forwarded to the ((~~campaign~~)) treasurer to be retained by him for his records. Each report shall be certified as correct by the ((~~campaign~~)) treasurer or deputy ((~~campaign~~)) treasurer making the deposit.

(4) The ((~~campaign~~)) treasurer or candidate shall maintain books of account accurately reflecting all contributions and expenditures on a current basis within five business days of receipt or expenditure. During the eight days immediately preceding the date of the election the books of account shall be kept current within one business day and shall be open for public inspection for at least two consecutive hours Monday through Friday, excluding legal holidays, between 8:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m., as specified in the committee's statement of organization filed pursuant to RCW 42.17.040 ((~~as now or hereafter amended~~)), at the principal ((~~campaign~~)) headquarters or, if there is no ((~~campaign~~)) headquarters, at the address of the ((~~campaign~~)) treasurer or such other place as may be authorized by the commission. The ((~~campaign~~)) treasurer or candidate shall preserve books of account, bills, receipts, and all other financial records of the campaign or political committee for not less than five calendar years following the year during which the transaction occurred.

(5) All reports filed pursuant to subsections (1) or (2) of this section shall be certified as correct by the candidate and the ((~~campaign~~)) treasurer.

(6) Copies of all reports filed pursuant to this section shall be readily available for public inspection for at least two consecutive hours Monday through Friday, excluding legal holidays, between 8:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m., as specified in the committee's statement of organization filed pursuant to RCW 42.17.040 ((~~as now or hereafter amended~~)), at the principal ((~~campaign~~)) headquarters or, if there is no ((~~campaign~~)) headquarters, at the address of the ((~~campaign~~)) treasurer or such other place as may be authorized by the commission.

Sec. 9. Section 9, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 2, chapter 12, Laws of 1986 and by section 1, chapter 228, Laws of 1986 and RCW 42.17.090 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) Each report required under RCW 42.17.080 (1) and (2) ~~((as now or hereafter amended;))~~ shall disclose ~~((for the period beginning at the end of the period for the last report or, in the case of an initial report, at the time of the first contribution or expenditure, and ending not more than five days prior to the date the report is due))~~ the following:

(a) The funds on hand at the beginning of the period;

(b) The name and address of each person who has made one or more contributions during the period, together with the money value and date of such contributions and the aggregate value of all contributions received from each such person during the campaign or in the case of a continuing political committee, the current calendar year: PROVIDED, That pledges in the aggregate of less than one hundred dollars from any one person need not be reported: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the income which results from ~~((the conducting of))~~ a fund-raising activity ~~((which has previously been reported))~~ conducted in accordance with RCW 42.17.067 may be reported as one lump sum, with the exception of that portion of such income which was received from persons whose names and addresses are required to be included in the report required by RCW 42.17.067: PROVIDED FURTHER, That contributions of ~~((less))~~ no more than twenty-five dollars in the aggregate from any one person during the election campaign may be reported as one lump sum so long as the campaign treasurer maintains a separate and private list of the name~~(s)~~, address~~(es)~~, and amount~~(s)~~ of each such contributor: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the money value of contributions of postage shall be the face value of such postage;

(c) Each loan, promissory note, or security instrument to be used by or for the benefit of the candidate or political committee made by any person, together with the names and addresses of the lender and each person liable directly, indirectly or contingently and the date and amount of each such loan, promissory note, or security instrument;

(d) All other contributions not otherwise listed or exempted:

(e) The name and address of each candidate or political committee ~~((from which the reporting committee or candidate received, or))~~ to which ~~((that committee or candidate made;))~~ any transfer of funds was made, together with the amounts~~(;)~~ and dates~~(- and purpose)~~ of ~~((all))~~ such transfers~~((- information regarding the following shall be contained in a separate category of the report bearing the title "Transfer of funds": Contributions made from the campaign depository of one candidate to the campaign of another candidate; and contributions received by a candidate, or for the campaign of the candidate, from the campaign depository of another candidate;~~

~~((e) All other contributions not otherwise listed or exempted;))~~

(f) The name and address of each person to whom an expenditure was made in the aggregate amount of more than fifty dollars ~~((or more))~~ during the period covered by this report, and the amount, date, and purpose of each such expenditure. A candidate for state executive or state legislative office or the political committee of such a candidate shall report this information for an expenditure under one of the following categories, whichever is appropriate: (i) Expenditures for the election of the candidate; (ii) expenditures for nonreimbursed public office-related expenses; (iii) expenditures required to be reported under (e) of this subsection; or (iv) expenditures of surplus funds and other expenditures. The report of such a candidate or committee shall contain a separate total of expenditures for each category and a total sum of all expenditures. Other candidates and political committees need not report information regarding expenditures under the categories listed in (i) through (iv) of this subsection or under similar such categories unless required to do so by the commission by rule. The report of such an other candidate or committee shall also contain the total sum of all expenditures:

(g) ~~((The total sum of expenditures;))~~ The name and address of any person and the amount owed for any debt, obligation, note, unpaid loan, or other liability in the amount of more than two hundred fifty dollars or in the amount of more than fifty dollars that has been outstanding for over thirty days;

(h) The surplus or deficit of contributions over expenditures;

(i) The disposition made in accordance with RCW 42.17.095 of any surplus funds;

(j) Such other information as shall be required by the commission by ~~((regulation))~~ rule in conformance with the policies and purposes of this chapter; and ballot proposition supported or opposed in the state of Washington, if any, and whether such committee is in favor of or opposed to such proposition; ~~((viii))~~ (vi) the name and address of each person residing in the state of Washington or corporation which has a place of business in the state of Washington who has made one or more contributions in the aggregate of more than twenty-five dollars ~~((or more))~~ to the nonreporting committee during the current calendar year, together with the money value and date of such contributions; ~~((viii))~~ (vi) the name and address of each person in the state of Washington to whom an expenditure was made by the nonreporting committee on behalf of a candidate or political committee in the aggregate amount of ~~((twenty-five))~~ more than fifty dollars ~~((or more))~~, the amount, date, and purpose of such expenditure, and the total sum of such expenditures; ~~((ix))~~ (viii) such other information as the commission may ~~((by regulation))~~ prescribe by rule, in keeping with the policies and purposes of this chapter. A nonreporting committee incurring an obligation to file additional reports in a calendar year may satisfy the obligation by filing with the commission a letter providing updating or amending information.

(2) The ~~((campaign))~~ treasurer and the candidate shall certify the correctness of each report.

Sec. 10. Section 10, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 6, chapter 367, Laws of 1985 and RCW 42.17.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For the purposes of this section the term 'independent campaign expenditure' means any expenditure that is made in support of or in opposition to any candidate or ballot proposition and is not otherwise required to be reported pursuant to RCW 42.17.060, ~~((42.17.065))~~ 42.17.080, or 42.17.090.

(2) Within five days after the date of making an independent campaign expenditure that by itself or when added to all other such independent campaign expenditures made during the same election campaign by the same person equals one hundred dollars or more, or within five days after the date of making an independent campaign expenditure for which no reasonable estimate of monetary value is practicable, whichever occurs first, the person who made the independent campaign expenditure shall file with the commission and the county ~~((auditor))~~ elections officer of the county of residence for the candidate supported or opposed by the independent campaign expenditure (or in the case of an expenditure made in support of or in opposition to a local ballot proposition, the county of residence for the person making the expenditure) an initial report of all independent campaign expenditures made during the campaign prior to and including such date.

(3) At the following intervals each person who is required to file an initial report pursuant to subsection (2) of this section shall file with the commission and the county ~~((auditor))~~ elections officer of the county of residence for the candidate supported or opposed by the independent campaign expenditure (or in the case of an expenditure made in support of or in opposition to a ballot proposition, the county of residence for the person making the expenditure) a further report of the independent campaign expenditures made since the date of the last report:

(a) On the twenty-first day ~~((preceding the primary))~~ and the seventh day preceding the date on which the election is held; and

(b) ~~((Within twenty-one days after the date of))~~ On the tenth day of the first month after the election; and

(c) On the tenth day of each month in which no other reports are required to be filed pursuant to this section. However, the further reports required by this subsection (3) shall only be filed if the reporting person has made an independent campaign expenditure since the date of the last previous report filed.

The report filed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) shall be the final report, and upon submitting such final report the duties of the reporting person shall cease, and there shall be no obligation to make any further reports.

(4) All reports filed pursuant to this section shall be certified as correct by the reporting person.

(5) Each report required by subsections (2) and (3) of this section shall disclose for the period beginning at the end of the period for the last previous report filed or, in the case of an initial report, beginning at the time of the first independent campaign expenditure, and ending not more than ~~((five days prior to))~~ one business day before the date the report is due:

(a) The name and address of the person filing the report;

(b) The name and address of each person to whom an independent campaign expenditure was made in the aggregate amount of ~~((twenty-five))~~ more than fifty dollars ~~((or more))~~, and the amount, date, and purpose of each such expenditure. If no reasonable estimate of the monetary value of a particular independent campaign expenditure is practicable, it is sufficient to report instead a precise description of services, property, or rights furnished through the expenditure and where appropriate to attach a copy of the item produced or distributed by the expenditure;

(c) The total sum of all independent campaign expenditures made during the campaign to date; and

(d) Such other information as shall be required by the commission by rule in conformance with the policies and purposes of this chapter.

Sec. 11. Section 1, chapter 176, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 2, chapter 228, Laws of 1986 and RCW 42.17.105 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Campaign treasurers shall prepare and deliver to the commission a special report regarding any contribution which:

- (a) Exceeds five hundred dollars;
- (b) Is from a single person or entity;
- (c) Is received before a primary or general election; and
- (d) Is received: (i) After the period covered by the last report required by RCW 42.17.080 and 42.17.090 to be filed before that primary; or (ii) within twenty-one days preceding that general election.

(2) Any political committee making a contribution which exceeds five hundred dollars shall also prepare and deliver to the commission the special report if the contribution is made before a primary or general election and: (a) After the period covered by the last report required by RCW 42.17.080 and 42.17.090 to be filed before that primary; or (b) within twenty-one days preceding that general election.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, the special report required by this section shall be delivered in written form, including but not limited to mailgram, telegram, or nightletter. The special report required by subsection (1) of this section shall be delivered to the commission within forty-eight hours of the time, or on the first working day after, the contribution is received by the candidate or campaign treasurer. The special report required by subsection (2) of this section and RCW 42.17.175 shall be delivered to the commission, and the candidate or political committee to whom the contribution is made, within twenty-four hours of the time, or on the first working day after, the contribution is made.

(4) The special report may be transmitted orally by telephone to the commission to satisfy the delivery period required by subsection (3) of this section if the written form of the report is also mailed to the commission and postmarked within the delivery period established in subsection (3) of this section.

(5) The special report shall include at least:

- (a) The amount of the contribution;
 - (b) The date of receipt;
 - (c) The name and address of the donor;
 - (d) The name and address of the recipient; and
 - (e) Any other information the commission may by rule require.
- (6) Contributions reported under this section shall also be reported as required by other provisions of this chapter.

(7) The commission shall publish daily a summary of the special reports made under this section and RCW 42.17.175.

(8) It is a violation of this chapter for any person to make, or for any candidate or political committee to accept from any one person, contributions reportable under RCW 42.17.090 in the aggregate exceeding fifty thousand dollars for any campaign for state-wide office or exceeding five thousand dollars for any other campaign subject to the provisions of this chapter within twenty-one days of a general election. This subsection does not apply to contributions made by, or accepted from, a major Washington state political party as defined in RCW 29.01.090.

Sec. 12. Section 6, chapter 336, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 7, chapter 367, Laws of 1985 and RCW 42.17.125 are each amended to read as follows:

Contributions received and reported in accordance with RCW 42.17.060 through 42.17.090 may only be transferred to the personal account of a candidate, or of a ((campaign)) treasurer or other individual or expended for such individual's personal use under the following circumstances:

(1) Reimbursement for or loans to cover lost earnings incurred as a result of campaigning or services performed for the committee. Such lost earnings shall be verifiable as unpaid salary, or when the individual is not salaried, as an amount not to exceed income received by the individual for services rendered during an appropriate, corresponding time period. All lost earnings incurred shall be documented and a record thereof shall be maintained by the individual or the individual's political committee. The committee shall include a copy of such record when its expenditure for such reimbursement is reported pursuant to RCW 42.17.090.

(2) Reimbursement for direct out-of-pocket election campaign and postelection campaign related expenses made by the individual. To receive reimbursement from the political committee, the individual shall provide the committee with written documentation as to the amount, date, and description of each expense, and the committee shall include a copy of such information when its expenditure for such reimbursement is reported pursuant to RCW 42.17.090.

(3) Repayment of loans made by the individual to political committees, which repayment shall be reported pursuant to RCW 42.17.090.

Sec. 13. Section 3, chapter 228, Laws of 1986 and RCW 42.17.135 are each amended to read as follows:

A candidate or political committee receiving a contribution earmarked for the benefit of another candidate or political committee shall(~~-in addition to reporting~~):

(1) Report the contribution as required in RCW 42.17.080 and 42.17.090((:));

(2) Complete a report, entitled 'Earmarked contributions,' on a form prescribed by the commission by rule, which identifies the name and address of the person who made the contribution, the candidate or political committee for whose benefit the contribution is earmarked, the amount of the contribution, and the date on which the contribution was received; and

(3) Notify the commission and the candidate or political committee for whose benefit the contribution is earmarked regarding ((the)) the receipt of the contribution by mailing or delivering to the commission and to the candidate or committee a copy of the 'Earmarked contributions' report. Such notice shall be given within two working days of receipt of the contribution.

A candidate or political committee ((for whose benefit a contribution is earmarked)) receiving notification of an earmarked contribution under subsection (3) of this section shall report ((such earmarked)) the contribution, once the contribution is received by the candidate or committee, in ((a separate category in)) the same manner as the receipt of any other contribution is disclosed in reports required by RCW 42.17.080 and 42.17.090 ((entitled "Earmarked Contributions:")):

SSB 5173 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Governmental Operations: Relating to disclosure of improper governmental action. Reported by Committee on State Government

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 208, Laws of 1982 and RCW 42.40.020 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, the terms defined in this section shall have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) 'Auditor' means the office of the state auditor.

(2) 'Employee' means any individual employed or holding office in any department or agency of state government.

(3) (a) 'Improper governmental action' means any action by an employee:

((a)) (i) Which is undertaken in the performance of the employee's official duties, whether or not the action is within the scope of the employee's employment; and

((b)) (ii) Which is in violation of any state law or rule, is an abuse of authority, is of substantial and specific danger to the public health or safety, or is a gross waste of public funds.

(b) 'Improper governmental action' does not include personnel actions including but not limited to employee grievances, complaints, appointments, promotions, transfers, assignments, reassignments, reinstatements, restorations, reemployments, performance evaluations, reductions in pay, dismissals, suspensions, demotions, violations of the state civil service law, alleged labor agreement violations, reprimands, or any action which may be taken under chapter 41.06 or 28B.16 RCW, or other disciplinary action except as provided in RCW 42.40.030.

(4) 'Use of official authority or influence' includes taking, directing others to take, recommending, processing, or approving any personnel action such as an appointment, promotion, transfer, assignment, reassignment, reinstatement, restoration, reemployment, performance evaluation, or any adverse action under chapter 41.06 or 28B.16 RCW, or other disciplinary action.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 208, Laws of 1982 and RCW 42.40.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An employee shall not directly or indirectly use or attempt to use the employee's official authority or influence for the purpose of intimidating, threatening, coercing, commanding, influencing, or attempting to intimidate, threaten, coerce, command, or influence any individual for the purpose of interfering with the right of the individual to disclose to the auditor (or representative thereof) information concerning improper governmental action.

~~(2) ((For the purpose of subsection (1) of this section, 'use of official authority or influence' includes taking, directing others to take, recommending, processing, or approving any personnel action such as an appointment, promotion, transfer, assignment, reassignment, reinstatement, restoration, reemployment, performance evaluation, or any adverse action under chapter 41.06 RCW, or other disciplinary action.~~

~~(3))~~ Nothing in this section authorizes an individual to disclose information otherwise prohibited by law.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 208, Laws of 1982 and RCW 42.40.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon receiving specific information that an employee has engaged in improper governmental action, the auditor shall, for a period not to exceed thirty days, conduct such preliminary investigation of the matter as the auditor deems appropriate. In conducting the investigation, the identity of the person providing the information which initiated the investigation shall be kept confidential.

(2) In addition to the authority under subsection (1) of this section, the auditor may, on its own initiative, investigate incidents of improper state governmental action.

(3) (a) If it appears to the auditor, upon completion of the preliminary investigation, that the matter is so unsubstantiated that no further investigation, prosecution, or administrative action is warranted, the auditor shall so notify the person, if known, who provided the information initiating the investigation.

(b) The notification shall be by memorandum containing a summary of the information received, a summary of the results of the preliminary investigation with regard to each allegation of improper governmental action, and any determination made by the auditor under (c) of this subsection.

(c) In any case to which this section applies, the identity of the person who provided the information initiating the investigation shall be kept confidential unless the auditor determines that the information has been provided other than in good faith.

(d) If it appears to the auditor that the matter does not meet the definition of an 'improper governmental action' under RCW 42.40.020(3), or is other than a gross waste of public funds, the auditor may forward a summary of the allegations to the appropriate agency for investigation and require a response by memorandum containing a summary of the investigation with regard to each allegation and any determination of corrective action taken. The auditor will keep the identity of the person who provided the information initiating the investigation confidential. Upon receipt of the results of the investigation from the appropriate agency, the auditor will notify the provider as prescribed under (a), (b), and (c) of this subsection.

(4) If it appears to the auditor after completion of the preliminary investigation that further investigation, prosecution, or administrative action is warranted, the auditor shall so notify the party, if known, who provided the information initiating the investigation and either conduct further investigations or issue a report under subsection (6) of this section.

(5) (a) At any stage of an investigation under this section the auditor may require by subpoena the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of documentary or other evidence relating to the investigation at any designated place in the state. The auditor may issue subpoenas, administer oaths, examine witnesses, and receive evidence. In the case of contumacy or failure to obey a subpoena, the superior court for the county in which the person to whom the subpoena is addressed resides or is served may issue an order requiring the person to appear at any designated place to testify or to produce documentary or other evidence. Any failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof.

(b) The auditor may order the taking of depositions at any stage of a proceeding or investigation under this chapter. Depositions shall be taken before an individual designated by the auditor and having the power to administer oaths. Testimony shall be reduced to writing by or under the direction of the individual taking the deposition and shall be subscribed by the deponent.

(6) (a) If the auditor determines that there is reasonable cause to believe that an employee has engaged in any improper activity, the auditor shall report the nature and details of the activity to:

(i) The employee and the head of the employing agency; and

(ii) If appropriate, the attorney general or such other authority as the auditor determines appropriate.

(b) The auditor has no enforcement power except that in any case in which the auditor submits a report of alleged improper activity to the head of an agency, the attorney general, or any other individual to which a report has been made under this section, the individual shall report to the auditor with respect to any action taken by the individual regarding the activity, the first report being transmitted no later than thirty days after the date of the auditor's report and monthly thereafter until final action is taken. If the auditor determines that appropriate action is not being taken within a reasonable time, the auditor shall report the determination to the governor and to the legislature.

(7) This section does not limit any authority conferred upon the attorney general or any other agency of government to investigate any matter.

Sec. 4. Section 5, chapter 208, Laws of 1982 and RCW 42.40.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any employee (a) who provides his or her name and specific information to the auditor on any matter which is found to warrant further investigation or other action, or which is provided by the employee in good faith, as determined by the auditor, whether or not further action is warranted and (b) who is subjected to any reprisal or retaliatory action undertaken during the period beginning on the day after the date on which the specific information is ((provided to the auditor and ending on the date which is two years after the auditor's report on the matter:)) received by the auditor alleging improper governmental action, may seek judicial review of the reprisal or retaliatory action in superior court, whether or not there has been an administrative review of the action. In such an action, the reviewing court may award reasonable attorney's fees.

(2) ~~((The auditor shall, by rule, establish a program which provides that, during the two-year period after a report to the auditor under this chapter, the auditor will contact the employee who provided specific information involved on at least a quarterly basis for purposes of determining))~~ The employee who provided specific information shall notify the state auditor in writing if any changes in the employee's work situation exist which are related to the employee's having provided information. If the auditor has reason to believe that such a change in work situation has occurred, the auditor shall investigate and report on the matter in accordance with this chapter.

(3) For the purpose of this section 'reprisal or retaliatory action' means but is not limited to:

(a) Denial of adequate staff to perform duties;

(b) Frequent staff changes;

(c) Frequent and undesirable office changes;

(d) Refusal to assign meaningful work;

(e) Unwarranted and unsubstantiated letters of reprimand or unsatisfactory performance evaluations;

(f) Demotion;

(g) Reduction in pay;

(h) Denial of promotion;

(i) Suspension; and

(j) Dismissal.

Sec. 5. Section 7, chapter 208, Laws of 1982 and RCW 42.40.070 are each amended to read as follows:

A written summary of this chapter and procedures for reporting improper governmental actions established by the auditor's office shall be made available by each department or agency of state government to each employee upon entering public employment. Employees shall be notified by each department or agency of state government each year of the procedures and protections under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Section 6, chapter 208, Laws of 1982 and RCW 42.40.060 are each repealed.*

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "action;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 42.40.020, 42.40.030, 42.40.040, 42.40.050, and 42.40.070; and repealing RCW 42.40.060."

ESB 5185 Prime Sponsor, Senator Wojahn: Establishing a family day care center as a residential use for zoning purposes. Reported by Committee on Local Government

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, after the enacting clause strike the remainder of the bill, and insert:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:

(1) A majority of women with preschool and school age children in Washington state are working outside of the home and are in need of child care services for their children;

(2) The supply of licensed child care facilities in Washington state is insufficient to meet the growing demand for child care services;

(3) The most convenient location of child care facilities for many working families is near the family's home or workplace.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The purpose of this act is to encourage the dispersion of child care facilities throughout cities and counties in Washington state so that child care services are available at convenient locations to working parents.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8 of this act:

(1) 'Family day care home' means a person regularly providing care during part of the twenty-four-hour day to six or fewer children in the family abode of the person or persons under whose direct care the children are placed.

(2) 'Mini-day care center' means a person or agency providing care during part of the twenty-four-hour day to twelve or fewer children in a facility other than the family abode of the person or persons under whose direct care the children are placed, or for the care of seven through twelve children in the family abode of such person or persons.

(3) 'Day care center' means a person or agency that provides care for thirteen or more children during part of the twenty-four-hour day.

(4) 'Child care facility' means a family day care home, mini-day care center, and day care center.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 35.63 RCW to read as follows:

Each municipality that does not provide for the siting of family day care homes in zones or areas that are designated for single family or other residential uses, and for the siting of mini-day care centers and day care centers in zones or areas that are designated for any residential or commercial uses, shall conduct a review of the need and demand for child care facilities, including the cost of any conditional or special use permit that may be required. The review shall be completed by August 31, 1990. A copy of the findings, conclusions, and recommendations resulting from the review shall be sent to the department of community development by September 30, 1990.

On or before June 30, 1991, each municipality that plans and zones under this chapter shall have adopted an ordinance or ordinances that are necessary to implement the findings of this review, if the findings indicate that such changes are necessary, or shall notify the department of community development as to why such implementing ordinances were not adopted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 35A.63 RCW to read as follows:

Each municipality that does not provide for the siting of family day care homes in zones or areas that are designated for single family or other residential uses, and for the siting of mini-day care centers and day care centers in zones or areas that are designated for any residential or commercial uses, shall conduct a review of the need and demand for child care facilities, including the cost of any conditional or special use permit that may be required. The review shall be completed by August 31, 1990. A copy of the findings, conclusions, and recommendations resulting from the review shall be sent to the department of community development by September 30, 1990.

On or before June 30, 1991, each municipality that plans and zones under this chapter shall have adopted an ordinance or ordinances that are necessary to implement the findings of this review, if the findings indicate that such changes are necessary, or shall notify the department of community development as to why such implementing ordinances were not adopted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 36.70 RCW to read as follows:

Each county that does not provide for the siting of family day care homes in zones that are designated for single family or other residential uses, and for the siting of mini-day care centers and day care centers in zones that are designated for any residential or commercial uses, shall conduct a review of the need and demand for child care facilities, including the cost of any conditional or special use permit that may be required. The review shall be completed by August 30, 1990. A copy of the findings, conclusions, and recommendations resulting from the review shall be sent to the department of community development by September 30, 1990.

On or before June 30, 1991, each municipality that plans and zones under this chapter shall have adopted an ordinance or ordinances that are necessary to implement the findings of this review, if the findings indicate that such changes are necessary, or shall notify the department of community development as to why such implementing ordinances were not adopted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 35.22 RCW to read as follows:

If a first class city zones pursuant to its inherent charter authority and not pursuant to chapter 35.63 RCW, and does not provide for the siting of family day care homes in zones or areas that are designated for single family or other residential uses, and for the siting of mini-day care centers and day care centers in zones or areas that are designated for any residential or commercial uses, the city shall conduct a review of the need and demand for child care facilities, including the cost of any conditional or special use permit that may be required. The review shall be completed by August 30, 1990. A copy of the findings, conclusions, and recommendations resulting from the review shall be sent to the department of community development by September 30, 1990.

On or before June 30, 1991, each municipality that plans and zones under this chapter shall have adopted an ordinance or ordinances that are necessary to implement the findings of this review, if the findings indicate that such changes are necessary, or shall notify the department of community development as to why such implementing ordinances were not adopted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 36.32 RCW to read as follows:

If a county operating under home rule charter zones pursuant to its inherent charter authority and not pursuant to chapter 35.63 RCW, nor chapter 36.70 RCW, and that county does not provide for the siting of family day care homes in zones or areas that are designated for single family or other residential uses, and for the siting of mini-day care centers and day care centers in zones or areas that are designated for any residential or commercial uses, the county shall conduct a review of the need and demand for child care facilities, including the cost of any conditional or special use permit that may be required. The review shall be completed by August 30, 1990. A copy of the findings, conclusions, and recommendations resulting from the review shall be sent to the department of community development by September 30, 1990.

On or before June 30, 1991, each municipality that plans and zones under this chapter shall have adopted an ordinance or ordinances that are necessary to implement the findings of this review, if the findings indicate that such changes are necessary, or shall notify the department of community development as to why such implementing ordinances were not adopted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The department of community development shall:

(1) Report to the appropriate committees of the legislature the results of the local reviews provided for in sections 4 through 8 of this act by December 31, 1990.

(2) In consultation with the department of social and health services, Washington state association of counties, the association of Washington cities, the Washington state family child care association, and the Washington association for the education of young children, develop a model ordinance for the siting of child care facilities. The model ordinance shall be developed by December 31, 1990.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, line 1 of the title after "zoning;" strike the remainder of the title, and insert "adding a new section to chapter 35.63 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 35A.63 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 36.70 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 35.22 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 36.32 RCW; and creating new sections."

Signed by Representatives Haugen, Chair; Ferguson, Ranking Republican Member; Horn, Nealey, Nelson, Nutley, Phillips, Raiter, Rayburn, Todd, Wolfe, Wood and Zellinsky.

Absent: Representative Cooper, Vice Chair.

Passed to Committee on Rules for second reading.

ESSB 5186

Prime Sponsor, Committee on Law & Justice: Changing provisions relating to the commission on judicial conduct. Reported by Committee on Judiciary

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 268, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 1, chapter 186, Laws of 1987 and RCW 2.64.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(For purposes of this chapter:) Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Admonishment' means a written disposition of an advisory nature that cautions a judge or justice not to engage in certain proscribed behavior. An admonishment may include a requirement that the judge or justice follow a specified corrective course of action.

(2) 'Censure' means a written action of the commission that requires a judge or justice to appear personally before the commission, and that finds that conduct of the judge or justice violates a rule of judicial conduct, detrimentally affects the integrity of the judiciary, undermines public confidence in the administration of justice, and may or may not require a recommendation to the supreme court that the judge or justice be suspended or removed. A censure shall include a requirement that the judge or justice follow a specified corrective course of action.

(3) 'Commission' means the commission on judicial conduct provided for in Article IV, section 31 of the state Constitution, which is authorized to recommend to the supreme court, after notice and hearing, the ((censure;)) suspension or removal of a judge or justice for violating a rule of judicial conduct, or the retirement of a judge or justice for disability ((which is permanent, or likely to become permanent, and which seriously interferes with the performance of judicial duties. For purposes of this chapter, the term)),

(4) 'Judge or justice' includes justices of the supreme court, judges of the court of appeals, judges of the superior courts, judges of any court organized under Titles 3 or 35 RCW, judges pro tempore, court commissioners, and magistrates.

(5) 'Removal' means a written recommendation by the commission and a finding by the supreme court that the conduct of a judge or justice is a violation of a rule of judicial conduct and seriously impairs the integrity of the judiciary and substantially undermines the public confidence in the administration of justice to such a degree that the judge or justice should be relieved of all duties of his or her office.

(6) 'Reprimand' means a written action of the commission that requires a judge or justice to appear personally before the commission, and that finds that the conduct of the judge or justice is a minor violation of the code of judicial conduct and does not require censure or a formal recommendation to the supreme court that the judge or justice be suspended or removed. A reprimand shall include a requirement that the judge or justice follow a specified corrective course of action.

(7) 'Retirement' means a written recommendation by the commission and a finding by the supreme court that a judge or justice has a disability which is permanent, or likely to become permanent, and that seriously interferes with the performance of judicial duties.

(8) 'Suspension' means a written recommendation by the commission and a finding by the supreme court that the conduct of a judge or justice is a violation of a rule of judicial conduct and seriously impairs the integrity of the judiciary and substantially undermines the public confidence in the administration of justice to such a degree that the judge or justice should be relieved of the duties of his or her office by the court for a specified period of time, as determined by the court.

This chapter shall apply to any judge or justice, regardless of whether the judge or justice serves full time or part time, and regardless of whether the judge or justice is admitted to practice law in this state.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 268, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 2, chapter 186, Laws of 1987 and RCW 2.64.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission shall consist of ((nine)) eleven members. One member shall be a judge selected by and from the court of appeals judges; one member shall be a judge selected by and from the superior court judges; one member shall be a judge selected by and from the district court judges; two members shall be selected by the state bar association and be admitted to the practice of law in this state; and ((four)) six members shall be nonlawyers appointed by the governor and confirmed by the senate. The term of each member of the commission shall be four years.

Sec. 3. Section 6, chapter 268, Laws of 1981 and RCW 2.64.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission may employ ((any)) personnel, including ((lawyers)) attorneys, and make any other expenditures necessary for the effective performance of its duties and the exercise of its powers. The commission may hire attorneys or others by personal service contract to conduct initial proceedings regarding a complaint against a judge or justice. Commission employees shall be exempt from the civil service law, chapter 41.06 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 2.64 RCW to read as follows:

The commission is authorized to impose the following disciplinary actions, in increasing order of severity: (a) Admonishment; (b) reprimand; or (c) censure. If the conduct of the judge or justice warrants more severe disciplinary action, the commission may recommend to the supreme court the suspension or removal of the judge or justice.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 2.64 RCW to read as follows:

The commission is authorized to investigate and consider for probative value any conduct that may have occurred prior to, on, or after December 4, 1980, by a person who was, or is now, a judge or justice when such conduct relates to a complaint filed with the commission against the same judge or justice.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 2.64 RCW to read as follows:

All pleadings, papers, evidence records, and files of the commission, including complaints and the identity of complainants, compiled or obtained during the course of an investigation or initial proceeding involving the discipline or retirement of a judge or justice, are exempt from the public disclosure requirements of chapter 42.17 RCW during such investigation or initial proceeding. Upon notice by the commission that a hearing or hearings will be held to consider discipline or retirement of a judge or justice, the public disclosure requirements of chapter 42.17 RCW shall apply.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 2.64 RCW to read as follows:

The adjudicative proceedings, judicial review, and civil enforcement provisions of chapter 34.05 RCW, the administrative procedure act, do not apply to any investigations, initial proceedings, public hearings, or executive sessions involving the discipline or retirement of a judge or justice.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 2.64 RCW to read as follows:

The commission is subject to the open public meetings act, chapter 42.30 RCW. However, investigations, initial proceedings, public hearings, and executive sessions involving the discipline or retirement of a judge or justice are governed by this chapter and Article IV, section 31 of the state Constitution and are exempt from the provisions of chapter 42.30 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 2.64 RCW to read as follows:

The commission shall provide by rule for confidentiality of its investigations and initial proceedings in accordance with Article IV, section 31 of the state Constitution.

Any person violating a rule on confidentiality is subject to a proceeding for contempt in superior court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The following acts or parts of act are each repealed:

(1) Section 4, chapter 186, Laws of 1987 and RCW 2.64.091; and

(2) Section 12, chapter 268, Laws of 1981, section 5, chapter 186, Laws of 1987 and RCW 2.64.110.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. This act shall take effect upon the effective date of an amendment to Article IV, section 31 of the state Constitution making changes to the commission on judicial conduct. If such amendment is not validly submitted to and approved and ratified by the voters at a general election held in November 1989, this act shall be null and void in its entirety."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "conduct," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 2.64.010, 2.64.020, and 2.64.050; adding new sections to chapter 2.64 RCW; repealing RCW 2.64.091 and 2.64.110; and providing a contingent effective date."

SSB 5196 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Agriculture: Regarding emergency drought relief. Reported by Committee on Capital Facilities & Financing

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments by Committee on Capital Facilities & Financing and without amendments by Committee on Agriculture & Rural Development:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. It is the intent of the legislature to provide emergency powers to the department of ecology to enable it to take actions, in a timely and expeditious manner, that are designed to alleviate hardships and reduce burdens on various water users and uses arising from drought conditions. As used in this chapter, 'drought condition' means that the water supply for a geographical area or for a significant portion of a geographical area is below seventy-five percent of normal and the water shortage is likely to create undue hardships for various water uses and users.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) Whenever it appears to the department of ecology that a drought condition either exists or is forecast to occur within the state or portions thereof, the department of ecology is authorized to issue orders, pursuant to rules previously adopted, to implement the powers as set forth in sections 3 through 5 of this act. The department shall, immediately upon the issuance of an order under this section, cause said order to be published in newspapers of general circulation in the areas of the state to which the order relates. Prior to the issuance of an order, the department shall (a) consult with and obtain the views of the federal and state government entities identified in the drought contingency plan periodically revised by the department pursuant to section 3(4) of this act, and (b) obtain the written approval of the governor. Orders issued under this section shall be deemed orders for the purposes of chapter 34.05 RCW.

(2) Any order issued under subsection (1) of this section shall contain a termination date for the order. The termination date shall be not later than one calendar year from the date the order is issued. Although the department may, with the written approval of the governor, change the termination date by amending the order, no such amendment or series of amendments may have the effect of extending its termination to a date which is later than two calendar years after the issuance of the order.

(3) The provisions of subsection (2) of this section do not preclude the issuance of more than one order under subsection (1) of this section for different areas of the state or sequentially for the same area as the need arises for such an order or orders.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Upon the issuance of an order under section 2 of this act, the department of ecology is empowered to:

(1)(a) Authorize emergency withdrawal of public surface and ground waters, including dead storage within reservoirs, on a temporary basis and authorize associated physical works which may be either temporary or permanent. The termination date for the authority to make such an emergency withdrawal may not be later than the termination date of the order issued under section 2 of this act under which the power to authorize the withdrawal is established. The department of ecology may issue such withdrawal authorization when, after investigation and after providing appropriate federal, state, and local governmental bodies an opportunity to comment, the following are found:

(i) The waters proposed for withdrawal are to be used for a beneficial use involving a previously established activity or purpose;

(ii) The previously established activity or purpose was furnished water through rights applicable to the use of a public body of water that cannot be exercised due to the lack of water arising from natural drought conditions; and

(iii) The proposed withdrawal will not reduce flows or levels below essential minimums necessary (A) to assure the maintenance of fisheries requirements, and (B) to protect federal and state interests including, among others, power generation, navigation, and existing water rights;

(b) All withdrawal authorizations issued under this section shall contain provisions that allow for termination of withdrawals, in whole or in part, whenever withdrawals will conflict with flows and levels as provided in (a)(iii) of this subsection. Domestic and irrigation uses of public surface and ground waters shall be given priority in determining 'beneficial uses.' As to water withdrawal and associated works authorized under this subsection, the requirements of chapter 43.21C RCW and public bidding requirements as otherwise provided by law are waived and inapplicable. All state and local agencies with authority to issue permits or other authorizations for such works shall, to the extent possible, expedite the processing of the permits or authorizations in keeping with the emergency nature of the requests and shall provide a decision to the applicant within fifteen calendar days of the date of application. All state departments or other agencies having jurisdiction over state or other public lands, if such lands are necessary to effectuate the withdrawal authorizations issued under this subsection, shall provide short-term easements or other appropriate property interest upon the payment of the fair market value. This mandate shall not apply to any lands of the state that are reserved for a special purpose or use that cannot properly be carried out if the property interest were conveyed;

(2) Approve a temporary change in purpose, place of use, or point of diversion, consistent with existing state policy allowing transfer or lease of waters between willing parties, as provided for in RCW 90.03.380, 90.03.390, and 90.44.100. However, compliance with any requirements of (a) notice of newspaper publication of these sections or (b) the state environmental policy act, chapter 43.21C RCW, is not required when such changes are necessary to respond to drought conditions as determined by the department of ecology. An approval of a temporary change of a water right as authorized under this subsection is not admissible as evidence in either supporting or contesting the validity of water claims in STATE OF WASHINGTON, DEPARTMENT OF ECOLOGY V. ACQUAVELLA, Yakima county superior court number 77-2-01484-5 or any similar proceeding where the existence of a water right is at issue.

(3) Employ additional persons for specified terms of time, consistent with the term of a drought condition, as are necessary to ensure the successful performance of the activities associated with implementing the emergency drought program of this chapter.

(4) Revise the drought contingency plan previously developed by the department; and

(5) Acquire needed emergency drought-related equipment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The department of ecology is authorized to make loans, grants, or combinations of loans and grants from emergency agricultural water supply funds when necessary to provide water to alleviate emergency drought conditions in order to ensure the survival of irrigated crops and the state's fisheries. For the purposes of this section, 'emergency agricultural water supply funds' means funds appropriated from the state emergency water projects revolving account created under RCW 43.83B.360. The department of ecology may make the loans, grants, or combinations of loans and grants as matching funds in any case where federal, local, or other funds have been made available on a matching basis. The department may make a loan of up to ninety percent of the total eligible project cost or combination loan and grant up to one hundred percent of the total single project cost. The grant portion for any single project shall not exceed twenty percent of the total project cost except that, for activities forecast to have fifty percent or less of normal seasonal water supply, the grant portion for any single project or entity shall not exceed forty percent of the total project cost. No single entity shall receive more than ten percent of the total emergency agricultural water supply funds available for drought relief. These funds shall not be used for nonagricultural drought relief purposes unless there are no other capital budget funds available for these purposes. In any biennium the total expenditures of emergency agricultural water supply funds for nonagricultural drought relief purposes may not exceed ten percent of the total of such funds available during that biennium.

(2)(a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, after June 30, 1989, emergency agricultural water supply funds, including the repayment of loans and any accrued interest, shall not be used for any purpose except during drought conditions as determined under sections 1 and 2 of this act.

(b) Emergency agricultural water supply funds may be used on a one-time basis for the development of procedures to be used by state governmental entities to implement the state's drought contingency plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The department shall adopt such rules as are necessary to ensure the successful implementation of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Nothing in this chapter shall:

(1) Authorize any interference whatsoever with existing water rights;

(2) Authorize the establishment of rights to withdrawal of waters of a permanent nature or of rights with any priority;

(3) Authorize the establishment of a water right under RCW 90.03.250 or 90.44.060;

(4) Preclude any person from filing an application pursuant to RCW 90.03.250 or 90.44.060.

Sec. 7. Section 3, chapter 295, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 46, Laws of 1988 and RCW 43.83B.210 are each amended to read as follows:

The department of ecology is authorized to make loans or grants or combinations thereof((+)) from funds under RCW 43.83B.010 through 43.83B.110 to eligible public bodies as defined in RCW 43.83B.050 for rehabilitation or betterment of agricultural water supply facilities, and/or construction of agricultural water supply facilities required to develop new irrigated lands((-or (2) from emergency agricultural water supply funds under RCW 43.83B.300 when required to provide water to alleviate emergency drought conditions to assure the survival of irrigated crops and the state's fisheries)). The department of ecology may make such loans or grants or combinations thereof as matching funds in any case where federal, local, or other funds have been made available on a matching basis. A loan or combination loan and grant shall not exceed fifty percent of the approved eligible project cost((s)) for any single proposed project((: PROVIDED, That for purposes authorized by RCW 43.83B.300, 43.83B.310, and 43.83B.385 the department of ecology may make a loan up to ninety percent of the total eligible project cost or combination loan and grant up to one hundred percent of the total single project cost and the grant portion for any single project shall not exceed twenty percent of the total project cost except that, for activities forecast to have fifty percent or less of normal seasonal water supplies, the grant portion for any single project or entity shall not exceed forty percent of the total project cost. No single entity shall receive more than ten percent of the total funds available for drought relief. These funds shall not be used for nonagricultural drought relief purposes unless there are no other capital budget funds available for these purposes. The total expenditures for nonagricultural drought relief purposes shall not exceed ten percent of the total funds available for drought relief purposes on March 15, 1988)). Any grant or grant portion of a combination loan and grant from funds under RCW 43.83B.010 through 43.83B.110 for any single proposed project shall not exceed fifteen percent of the eligible project costs: PROVIDED, That the fifteen percent limitation established herein shall not be applicable to project commitments which the director or deputy director of the state department of ecology made to the bureau of reclamation of the United States department of interior for providing state funding at thirty-five percent of project costs during the period between August 1, 1974, and June 30, 1975.

~~((The department of social and health services is authorized to make grants of up to forty percent of the cost of construction of any eligible project necessitated by the 1977 drought conditions. Such grants may be made only to public bodies as defined in RCW 43.83B.050 for municipal and industrial water supply and distribution facilities:))~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 2, chapter 1, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 43.83B.305;

(2) Section 3, chapter 1, Laws of 1977 ex. sess., section 2, chapter 343, Laws of 1987, section 3, chapter 46, Laws of 1988 and RCW 43.83B.310;

2SSB 5203 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Ways & Means: Establishing the Washington state self-employment loan program. Reported by Committee on Trade & Economic Development

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:

(1) The existence of poverty within the state is of substantial public concern, posing a serious threat to the safety, health, and welfare of the state's residents, causing significant public expenditures, and jeopardizing sources of public revenue;

(2) Self-employment is a realistic means by which some low-income persons can escape poverty and the cycle of dependence that traditional welfare programs may perpetuate; and

(3) Insufficient opportunity currently exists for those in poverty to become self-employed, due primarily to their unique training and financial needs.

Therefore, the legislature declares that there is substantial public purpose in providing training and capital to promote the self-employment of low-income persons in Washington. To accomplish this purpose, the legislature creates the Washington state self-employment loan program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Committee' means the Washington state self-employment loan program committee.

(2) 'Department' means the department of community development.

(3) 'Director' means the director of the department of community development.

(4) 'Local development organization' means a nonprofit organization that operates within an area, demonstrates a commitment to long-term economic development efforts, and makes a demonstrable effort to assist in the employment of unemployed and underemployed residents in the area.

(5) 'Low-income individual' means any person:

(a) Whose personal income is no greater than fifty percent of the median personal income for the county where the person resides or who is a member of a family whose income is no greater than fifty percent of the median family income for the county where the person resides. In establishing income eligibility under this subsection, the department shall refer to the income limits for very low-income families adjusted by family size established by the federal department of housing and urban development pursuant to the housing and community development act, P.L. 100-242; or

(b) Eligible to receive public assistance as defined in RCW 74.04.005 or is eligible to receive food stamps.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The Washington state self-employment loan program committee is established within the department of community development.

(1) The committee shall have seven members. The director shall appoint the members, subject to the following requirements:

(a) One member shall be experienced in community-based economic development and have skills in providing community services through a local development organization;

(b) Two members shall be from philanthropic entities with a history of service or funding to community-based economic development organizations;

(c) One member shall be from a financial institution and be experienced in small business finance and in providing technical assistance to new businesses;

(d) One member shall be from an educational institution with a history of providing education and training for new small business owners; and

(e) Two members shall be small business owners. One of the small businesses shall be a minority or woman-owned business.

In making these appointments, the director shall give careful consideration to ensure that the various geographic regions of the state are represented and that members will be regularly available for meetings and will have a commitment to working with local government entities and local development organizations.

(2) Each member appointed by the director shall serve a term of two years. A person appointed to fill a vacancy of a member shall be appointed in a like manner and shall serve for only the unexpired term. A member is eligible for reappointment. A member may be removed by the director only for cause.

(3) The director shall designate a member of the board as its chairperson. The committee may elect other officers it deems appropriate. Four members of the committee constitute a quorum and four affirmative votes are necessary for the transaction of business or the exercise of any power or function of the committee.

(4) The members of the committee shall serve without compensation, but are entitled to reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of official duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(5) Members shall not be liable to the state, to the fund, or to any other person as a result of their activities, whether ministerial or discretionary, as members except for willful dishonesty or intentional violations of the law. The department may purchase liability insurance for members and may indemnify these persons against the claims of others.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Subject to the restrictions contained in this chapter, the committee is authorized to solicit and approve applications of local development organizations for funds which the local organization will use within a self-employment program as a revolving loan fund to finance the small businesses of low-income individuals within their jurisdiction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The committee shall approve those applications for funds that meet the minimum standards set forth in this chapter and that will best serve the intent of this chapter to provide self-employment for low-income persons in Washington state.

(1) The committee shall not approve any application for more than sixty thousand dollars.

(2) In the first year of each biennium, the committee may approve distribution of up to one-half of the fund appropriated to carry out the purposes of this chapter, with the remaining funds distributed in the second year.

(3) The committee may approve only one application from a single organization for each biennium.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. An application to the committee shall include, but is not limited to:

(1) A detailed description of the need for a self-employment program in the area served by the applicant organization, including economic conditions and other characteristics of the community which the program would address;

(2) A detailed description of the applicant organization and its capacity to administer a self-employment program that includes a revolving loan fund. Relevant information may include the organization's standing in the community, its experience with low-income persons and in business training and development, its fiscal record, its relationship with other community organizations and governmental entities, and its staff resources;

(3) A detailed description of the self-employment program into which the revolving loan fund will be incorporated, including, but not limited to, a description of:

(a) The criteria and procedure by which program participants will be selected, explaining any particular groups that will be targeted and why;

(b) The personal and business training that will be provided program participants, including curriculum, schedule, training providers, and how this training will meet the unique needs of the community's low-income individuals wishing to become self-employed;

(c) The loan process, including the criteria and procedure by which applicants will be screened, general terms of the loans, and the means by which the organization will facilitate timely repayment; and

(d) Any oversight, social support, and follow-up assistance to be provided program participants who have been trained or provided loans.

(4) Any other information the committee deems necessary to fully evaluate an organization's ability to carry out the purpose of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Any local development organization receiving funds under this chapter shall:

(1) Use the funds only in a revolving loan fund to finance the businesses of low-income individuals participating in the organization's self-employment program;

(2) Provide no loan out of these funds of more than five thousand dollars;

(3) Charge a reasonable rate of interest on loans provided out of these funds, using interest payments received for program administrative costs;

(4) Annually submit to the committee a detailed report on the progress and status of the self-employment program and loan fund including, but not limited to:

(a) A description and explanation of any changes in the program from the original application;

(b) The number and characteristics of participants in the program, including their training status;

(c) The current employment status of those who have completed training;

(d) The number and size of loans provided, the terms of the loans, and their repayment status;

(e) A self-evaluation detailing the strengths and weaknesses of the program and what the local development organization will do to improve the program in the following year;

(f) Any other information the committee deems necessary to:

(i) Evaluate the effectiveness of the program in carrying out the intent of this chapter; and

(ii) Determine the program characteristics that have contributed to or detracted from such effectiveness.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. If the committee finds that an organization to whom funds were distributed under this chapter is unable to meet the intent of the chapter, the committee may require that such funds be returned to the department for redistribution by the committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The department shall:

(1) Provide adequate and appropriate staff, technical assistance, and other support to the committee;

(2) Maintain a record of committee proceedings;

(3) Work with local development organizations to promote applications to the committee for funds; and

(4) Adopt rules appropriate for the committee to carry out its authority under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Community colleges, the office of the superintendent of public instruction, the employment security department, the department of trade and economic development, and the department of social and health services, when requested by local development organizations, shall provide appropriate support, cooperation, and training resources in the design and implementation of self-employment programs under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The committee shall biennially report to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature on the progress and status of the self-employment loan program. The report shall include sufficient data to evaluate program effectiveness, including, but not limited to, a compilation and summary of the annual reports submitted by local organizations pursuant to section 7(4) of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 1 through 11 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "program;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and adding a new chapter to Title 43 RCW."

Signed by Representatives Cantwell, Chair; Wineberry, Vice Chair; Doty, Ranking Republican Member; Kremen, Moyer, Rasmussen, Raiter, Rector, Schoon, Tate, Walk and Youngsman.

Absent: Representatives G. Fisher and Kremen.

Referred to Committee on Appropriations.

ESB 5204

Prime Sponsor, Senator Anderson: Permitting the establishment of business and industrial development corporations. Reported by Committee on Trade & Economic Development

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. INTENT. The legislature finds that the vitality of the state economy is dependent on the ability of existing, growing, and new firms in the state to generate enough quality employment opportunities for the state's citizens. This task requires the availability of needed capital at the appropriate stage of development for the new firms and growing firms that are the major source of innovations and new jobs in the state. The state has a critical interest in increasing employment opportunities, retaining existing employment, assisting new and growing enterprises, and promoting an environment in which entrepreneurship can flourish. The limited availability of capital to viable firms that do not meet current commercial bank or venture capital criteria for loans or equity investments restricts the state's efforts to pursue these goals. Without access to appropriate and adequate financing at each stage of an enterprise's development, talented entrepreneurs and promising firms are unable to remain competitive or to gain access to the new markets essential for their long-term growth.

The legislature further finds that the availability of capital to finance the expansion of enterprises is particularly crucial for the creation of new employment opportunities. The state has an interest in the accessibility in the state's credit markets of long-term financing and investment involving greater risk than bank financing but promising lower return than venture capital investment. To ensure the availability of capital to permit the expansion of new and growing enterprises in Washington state, the legislature authorizes the creation of business and investment development corporations, a new form of regulated financing entity, provides for technical assistance to ensure their soundness, and authorizes incentives for investments in business and investment development corporations which provide financing in economically distressed areas of the state.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. As used in this chapter, the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) 'Corporation' means a Washington business and industrial development corporation created under this chapter.

(2) 'Entity' means an individual, proprietorship, joint venture, partnership, trust, business trust, syndicate, association, joint stock company, corporation, cooperative, government, agency of a government, or any other organization. If used with respect to acquiring control of or controlling a specified entity, entity includes a combination of two or more persons acting in concert.

(3) 'Financial institution' means any banking corporation or trust company, national banking association, savings and loan association, insurance company or related corporation, partnership, foundation, or other institution engaged primarily in lending or investing funds.

(4) 'Board of directors' means the board of directors of the corporation created under this chapter.

(5) 'Council' means the business and industrial development corporation certification council.

(6) 'Loan limit' means the maximum amount permitted to be outstanding at one time on loans made by such member to the corporation, as determined under the provisions of this chapter.

(7) 'Business' means an individual, proprietorship, joint venture, partnership, trust, business trust, syndicate, association, joint stock company, cooperative, corporation, or any other organization operating in this state, and paying more than fifty percent of its contributions or payments for the purposes of unemployment insurance to this state.

(8) 'Associate' means, if used with respect to a corporation:

(a) A controlling entity, director, officer, agent, or advisor of that corporation;

(b) A director of, officer of, or partner in an entity referred to in (a) of this subsection;

(c) An entity who controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with an entity referred to in (a) of this subsection directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries;

(d) Any close relative of any person referred to in (a) of this subsection;

(e) A director or officer of an entity referred to in (a) through (d) of this subsection;

(f) An entity in which an entity referred to in (a) through (d) of this subsection, or any combination of those entities acting in concert, owns or controls, directly or indirectly, a twenty percent or greater equity interest.

For the purposes of (f) of this subsection, an entity who is in a relationship referred to in this subsection within six months before or after a corporation provides financing assistance shall be considered to be in that relationship as of the date that corporation provides that financing assistance.

If a corporation, in order to protect its interests, designates an entity to serve as a director of, officer of, or in any capacity in the management of a business to which that corporation provides financing assistance, that entity shall not, on that account, be considered to have a relationship with that business. This exception does not apply if the entity has any other direct or indirect financial interest in the business or if the entity, at any time before the corporation provides the financing assistance, served as a director of, officer of, or in any other capacity in the management of the business for a period of thirty days or more.

(9) 'Close relative' means a parent, child, sibling, spouse, father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-law, brother-in-law, daughter-in-law, or sister-in-law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) Seven or more persons, a majority of whom shall be residents of this state, who may desire to create a business and industrial development corporation under the provisions of this chapter, for the purpose of promoting, developing, and advancing the prosperity and economic welfare of the state and, to that end, to exercise the powers and privileges provided under this chapter, may be incorporated by filing in the office of the secretary of state, as hereinafter provided, articles of incorporation. The articles of incorporation shall contain:

(a) The name of the corporation, which shall include the words 'Business and Industrial Development Corporation of Washington';

(b) The location of the principal office of the corporation, but such corporation may have offices in such other places within the state as may be fixed by the board of directors;

(c) The purposes for which the corporation is founded, which shall be to provide financing and management assistance to businesses operating primarily in Washington state to increase job opportunities for Washington citizens and the prosperity of the state;

(d) The names and post office addresses of the members of the first board of directors, who, unless otherwise provided by the articles of incorporation or the bylaws, shall hold office for the first year of existence of the corporation or until their successors are elected and have qualified;

(e) Any provision which the incorporators may choose to insert for the regulation of the business and for the conduct of the affairs of the corporation and any provision creating, dividing, limiting, and regulating the powers of the corporation, the directors, stockholders or any class of the stockholders, including, but not limited to a list of the officers, and provisions governing the issuance of stock certificates to replace lost or destroyed certificates; and

(f) The amount of authorized capital stock and the number of shares into which it is divided, the par value of each share and the amount of capital with which it will commence business and, if there is more than one class of stock, a description of the different classes; the names and post office addresses of the subscribers of stock and the number of shares subscribed by each. The aggregate of the subscription shall be the minimum amount of capital with which the corporation shall commence business which shall not be less than fifty thousand dollars. The articles of incorporation may also contain any provision consistent with the laws of this state for the regulation of the affairs of the corporation.

(g) The articles of incorporation shall be in writing, subscribed by not less than five natural persons competent to contract and acknowledged by each of the subscribers before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments and filed in the office of the secretary of state for approval. A duplicate copy so subscribed and acknowledged may also be filed.

(3) The articles of incorporation shall recite that the corporation is organized under the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) There is created the business and industrial development corporation certification council. The council shall consist of five members, which shall include the supervisor of banking, who shall act as chair, the director of the department of trade and economic development or a designee, the director of the department of community development or a designee, and two members appointed by the governor for four-year terms and serving at the pleasure of the governor, one of which shall have a background in commercial and industrial banking and one of which shall have a background in commercial and industrial management. Decisions by the council shall require the assent of four of five members of the council, and shall require the assent of the supervisor of banking.

(2) The secretary of state shall not approve articles of incorporation for a corporation organized under this chapter until the council has certified the corporation as eligible to operate as a business and industrial development corporation under this chapter.

(3) A corporation shall be certified by the council as eligible to operate under this chapter upon meeting the following conditions:

(a) Payment of a five thousand dollar certification fee to the supervisor of banking;

(b) Submittal of a business plan which includes at least three years of detailed financial projections and other relevant information;

(c) Provision of information about the character and competence of each director and officer of the corporation; and

(d) A finding by the council that the corporation will be run competently, has a net worth and lendable funds sufficient to provide financing assistance, and that the directors and officers of the corporation have agreed to comply with the terms of this chapter. The council shall require a minimum net worth of two million dollars unless the council finds that special circumstances render lesser amounts adequate for the corporation to meet the intent of this chapter and operate according to its business plan.

(4) When the articles of incorporation have been filed in the office of the secretary of state and approved by the secretary and all taxes, fees, and charges have been paid, as required by law, the subscribers, their successors and assigns shall constitute a corporation, and said corporation shall then be authorized to commence business, and stock thereof to the extent herein or hereafter duly authorized may from time to time be issued.

(5) An entity transacting business in this state shall not use a name or title which indicates that the entity is a business and industrial development corporation including, but not limited to, the use of the term 'BIDCO,' or otherwise represent that the entity is a business and industrial development corporation until such time as the entity has been certified as a business and industrial development corporation by the council.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. The director of the department of trade and economic development and the director of the department of community development are authorized to provide technical assistance and advice to entities forming corporations under this chapter. The director of the department of trade and economic development is authorized to enter into contracts to carry out the purposes of this section. The director of the department of trade and economic development may contract with the department of community development to undertake a portion of the activities necessary to carry out the purposes of this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. (1) A corporation shall transact its business in a safe and sound manner and shall maintain itself in a safe and sound condition. The supervisor of banking shall revoke the certification of a corporation if the supervisor finds that the corporation has failed to operate or maintain itself in a safe and sound manner, and the corporation may not transact business as a business and industrial development corporation until such time as the supervisor of banking recertifies the corporation consistent with section 4 of this act. The secretary of state shall remove the incorporation records of a corporation with its certification revoked from the active corporation files until such time as the supervisor of banking has recertified the corporation.

(2) In determining whether a corporation is transacting business in a safe and sound manner or has committed an unsafe or unsound act, the supervisor of banking shall not consider the risk of a provision of financing assistance to a business firm, unless the supervisor determines that the risk is so great compared with the realistically expected rate of return as to demonstrate gross mismanagement.

(3) Subsection (2) of this section does not limit the authority of the supervisor of banking to:

(a) Determine that a corporation's financing assistance to a single business or group of affiliated firms is in violation of subsection (1) of this section if the amount of that financing assistance is unduly large in relation to the total assets on the total shareholders' equity of the corporation;

(b) Require that a corporation maintain a reserve in the amount of anticipated losses; or

(c) Require that a corporation have a written financing assistance policy, approved by its board of directors, including credit evaluation and other matters. The supervisor of banking shall not require that a corporation adopt a financing assistance policy that contains standards which prevent the corporation from exercising flexibility in meeting the capital needs of the individual firms.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. (1) The corporation shall be examined at least once every eighteen months by the supervisor of banking and shall make quarterly reports of its condition to the supervisor of banking and more frequently upon call of the supervisor of banking, who in turn shall make copies of such reports available to the insurance commissioner and the governor. The corporation shall also furnish such other information as may from time to time be required by the supervisor of banking and secretary of state. The corporation shall pay the actual cost of the examinations. The supervisor of banking shall exercise the same power and authority over corporations organized under this chapter as the supervisor of banking exercises over banks and trust companies under the provisions of Title 30 RCW, where the provisions of Title 30 RCW are not in conflict with this chapter. In adopting rules to govern examinations and reports of corporations operating under this chapter, the supervisor of banking shall consult with the director of trade and economic development and the director of community development or their designee. In regulating corporations under this chapter, the supervisor of banking shall not consider the risk of a provision of financing assistance to a business unless the supervisor of banking determines that the risk is so great compared with the realistically expected return as to constitute gross mismanagement.

(2) The supervisor of banking shall publish annually and provide to the house of representatives trade and economic development committee, house of representatives appropriations committee, senate economic development and labor committee, and senate ways and means committee, information on the impact of this chapter in promoting economic development in Washington. At the minimum, the information shall include aggregate statistics on each of the following:

- (a) The number and locations of corporations operating under this chapter;
- (b) The number of instances and dollar amount of financing and management assistance given by corporations operating under this chapter to:
 - (i) All individual businesses assisted;
 - (ii) Types of businesses classified using the standard industrial classification manual;
 - (iii) Minority and women-owned businesses; and
 - (iv) Businesses located in areas of high unemployment;
- (c) The number of jobs created or retained by:
 - (i) All individual businesses assisted;
 - (ii) Types of businesses classified using the standard industrial classification manual;
 - (iii) Minority and women-owned businesses; and
 - (iv) Businesses located in areas of high unemployment; and
- (d) The percentage of each business's total contributions or payments for unemployment insurance made to the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The business of a corporation organized under this chapter is to provide financing and management assistance to businesses operating primarily in Washington state. In furtherance of its business and in addition to the powers now or hereafter conferred on business corporations by the provisions of Title 23A RCW, each corporation shall, subject to the restrictions and limitations herein contained, have the following powers:

- (1) To elect, appoint, and employ officers, agents, and employees;
- (2) To make contracts and incur liabilities for any of the purposes of the corporation;
- (3) To borrow for any of the purposes of the corporation; to issue therefor its bonds, debentures, notes, or other evidence of indebtedness, whether secured or unsecured, and to secure the same by mortgage, pledge, deed of trust, or other lien on its property, franchises, rights and privileges of every kind and nature or any part thereof or interest therein, without securing stockholder or member approval;
- (4) To make loans to any person, firm, corporation, joint-stock company, association or trust, and to establish and regulate the terms and conditions with respect to any such loans and connected interest and service charges;
- (5) To purchase, receive, hold, lease, or otherwise acquire, and to sell, convey, transfer, lease, or otherwise dispose of real and personal property, together with such rights and privileges as may be incidental and appurtenant thereto and the use thereof, if the real or personal property is for the corporation's use in operating its business, or if real or personal property acquired by the corporation from time to time in the satisfaction of debts or enforcement of obligations;
- (6) To determine the form and the terms and conditions for financing assistance provided by the corporation to a business including, but not limited to, forms such as loans, purchase of debt instruments, straight equity investments, such as purchase of common stock or preferred stock, debt with equity features such as warrants to purchase stock, convertible debentures or receipt of a percent of net income or sales, royalty based financing, guaranteeing of debt, or leasing of property. A corporation may purchase securities of a business either directly or indirectly through an underwriter. A corporation may participate in the program of the small business administration pursuant to section 7(a) of the small business act, 15 U.S.C. Sec. 636(a), or any other government program for which the corporation is eligible and which has as its function the provision or facilitation of financing or management assistance to businesses. If a corporation participates in a program referred to in this section, the corporation shall comply with the requirements of that program. Financing assistance provided by a corporation to a business shall be for the business purposes of that business;
- (7) To provide management assistance to a business which may encompass both management or technical advice and management or technical services. Management assistance provided by a corporation to a business shall be for the business purposes of that business;
- (8) To mortgage, pledge, or otherwise encumber any property, right or things of value, acquired pursuant to the powers contained in subsections (6) or (7) of this section, as security for the payment of any part of the purchase price thereof;
- (9) To cooperate with and avail itself of the facilities of the United States department of commerce, the department of trade and economic development, the department of community development, and any other similar state or federal governmental agencies; and to cooperate with and assist, and otherwise encourage organizations in the various communities of the state in the promotion, assistance and development of the business prosperity and economic welfare of such communities or of this state or of any part thereof;
- (10) To make donations for charitable, educational, research, or similar purposes;
- (11) To do all acts and things necessary or convenient to carry out the powers expressly granted in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Notwithstanding any rule at common law or any provision of any general or special law or any provision in their respective charters, agreements of association, articles of organization or trust indentures:

(1) Any person including all domestic corporations organized for the purpose of carrying on business within this state and further including without implied limitation public utility companies and insurance companies, and foreign corporations licensed to do business within this state, and all financial institutions as defined herein, and all trustees, are hereby authorized to acquire, purchase, hold, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise dispose of any bonds, securities, or other evidences of indebtedness created by, or the shares of the capital stock of, the corporation, and, while owners of said stock, to exercise all the rights, powers, and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote thereon, all without the approval of any regulatory authority of the state except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

(2) The amount of capital stock of the corporation which any member is authorized to acquire pursuant to the authority granted herein is in addition to the amount of capital stock in corporations which such member may otherwise be authorized to acquire.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. (1) The stockholders shall have the following powers:

(a) To determine the number of and elect directors as provided in RCW 31.24.090;

(b) To make, amend, and repeal bylaws;

(c) To amend this charter as provided in RCW 31.24.080;

(d) To dissolve the corporation as provided in RCW 31.24.150;

(e) To do all things necessary or desirable to secure aid, assistance, loans, and other financing from any financial institutions, and from any agency established under the small business investment act of 1958, 15 U.S.C. Sec. 661, or other similar federal laws now or hereafter enacted;

(f) To exercise such other of the powers of the corporation consistent with this chapter as may be conferred on the stockholders by the bylaws.

(2) As to all matters requiring action by the stockholders and the members of the corporation, said stockholders shall vote separately thereon by classes, and, except as otherwise herein provided, such matters shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes to which the stockholders present or represented at the meeting shall be entitled and the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes to which the members present or represented at the meeting shall be entitled.

(3) Stockholders shall have one vote, in person or by proxy, for each share of capital stock held.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. (1) The articles of incorporation may be amended by the votes of the stockholders and the members of the corporation, voting separately by classes. Such amendments shall require approval by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the votes to which the stockholders shall be entitled. No amendment of the articles of incorporation that is inconsistent with the general purposes expressed herein, authorizes any additional class of capital stock to be issued, eliminates or curtails the right of the supervisor of banking to examine the corporation, or eliminates or curtails the obligation of the corporation to make reports as provided in RCW 31.24.120, shall be made.

(2) Within thirty days after any meeting at which an amendment of the articles of incorporation has been adopted, articles of amendment signed and sworn to by the president, treasurer, and a majority of the directors, setting forth such amendment and due adoption thereof, shall be submitted to the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall examine the amendments and if they conform to the requirements of this chapter, shall so certify and endorse his or her approval thereon. Thereupon, the articles of amendment shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state. No amendment shall take effect until articles of amendment shall have been filed as required by this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed and conducted by a board of directors, a president, a vice-president, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers and such agents as the corporation authorizes in its bylaws. The board of directors shall consist of such number, not less than seven nor more than twenty-one, as shall be determined in the first instance by the incorporators and thereafter annually by the stockholders of the corporation. The board of directors may exercise all the powers of the corporation except such as are conferred by law or by the bylaws of the corporation upon the stockholders or members and shall choose and appoint all the agents and officers of the corporation and fill all vacancies except vacancies in the office of director which shall be filled as provided in this section.

The board of directors shall be elected in the first instance by the incorporators and thereafter at the annual meeting, the day and month of which shall be established by the bylaws of the corporations, or, if no annual meeting shall be held in the year of incorporation, then within ninety days after the approval of the articles of incorporation at a special meeting as provided in this chapter. The directors shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the corporation or special meeting held in lieu of the annual meeting after the election and until their successors are elected and qualified unless sooner removed in accordance with the provisions of the bylaws. Any vacancy in the office of a director shall be filled by the directors.

Directors and officers shall not be responsible for losses unless the same shall have been occasioned by the willful misconduct of such directors and officers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The first meeting of the corporation shall be called by a notice signed by three or more of the incorporators, stating the time, place, and purpose of the meeting. A copy of the notice shall be mailed, or delivered, to each incorporator at least five days before the day appointed for the meeting. Said first meeting may be held without such notice upon agreement in writing to that effect signed by all the incorporators. There shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting a copy of said notice or of such unanimous agreement of the incorporators.

At such first meeting, the incorporators shall organize, choose a temporary clerk by ballot, adopt bylaws, elect directors by ballot, and take such other action within the powers of the corporation as the incorporators may see fit. The temporary clerk shall be sworn and shall make and attest a record of the proceedings. Five of the incorporators shall be a quorum for the transaction of business.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, the duration of the corporation is perpetual, subject, however, to the right of the stockholders and the members to dissolve the corporation prior to the expiration of said period as provided in RCW 31.24.150.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The corporation may dissolve itself as provided by Title 23A RCW, insofar as Title 23A RCW is not in conflict with the provisions of this chapter upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the votes to which the stockholders are entitled. Notice of the dissolution must be provided to the supervisor of banking before the dissolution takes effect. Upon any dissolution of the corporation, none of the corporation's assets shall be distributed to the stockholders until all sums due the members of the corporation as creditors thereof have been paid in full.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 82.04 RCW to read as follows: In computing tax for each of the fiscal years beginning July 1, 1990, and ending June 30, 1993, there may be deducted from the measure of tax in each such year the following percentages of the amount invested that year in business and industrial development corporations organized under this act with at least one-half of the corporation's loans and investments made to businesses located in distressed areas as defined in RCW 82.60.020(3):

FISCAL YEAR	AMOUNT INVESTED
1990	25%
1991	20%
1993	0%

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. A new section is added to chapter 82.16 RCW to read as follows: In computing tax for each of the fiscal years beginning July 1, 1990, and ending June 30, 1993, there may be deducted from gross income in each such year the following percentages of the amount invested that year in business and industrial development corporations organized under this act which have at least one-half of the corporation's loans and investments made to businesses located in distressed areas as defined in RCW 82.60.020(3):

1990	25%
1991	20%
1993	0%

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. A new section is added to chapter 48.14 RCW to read as follows: In computing tax for each of the fiscal years beginning July 1, 1990, and ending June 30, 1993, there may be deducted from the measure of tax in each such year the following percentages of the amount invested that year in business and industrial development corporations organized under this act with at least one-half of the corporation's loans and investments made to businesses located in distressed areas as defined in RCW 82.60.020(3):

1990	25%
1991	20%
1993	0%

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Investors that take advantage of the tax credits allowed under sections 16, 17, and 18 of this act and withdraw any funds invested in a corporation governed by this act within the first three years of their investment, shall be obligated to return to the state treasury a portion of the tax credit granted equal in proportion to the amount the withdrawn funds represent relative to the total funds invested by the investor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. A new section is added to chapter 35.39 RCW to read as follows: A city or town may invest moneys eligible for investment in stocks, bonds, or debt instruments issued by business and industrial development corporations certified and incorporated under state law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. A new section is added to chapter 36.29 RCW to read as follows:

The county treasurer may invest moneys eligible for investment in stocks, bonds, or debt instruments issued by business and industrial development corporations certified and incorporated under state law.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 22. A new section is added to chapter 39.59 RCW to read as follows:

In addition to any other investment authority granted by law, the state of Washington and local governments in the state of Washington are authorized to invest their funds and money in their custody or possession eligible for investment in stocks, bonds, or debt instruments issued by business and industrial development corporations certified and incorporated pursuant to state law.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 23. A new section is added to chapter 43.84 RCW to read as follows:

The state investment board is authorized to invest moneys, including moneys eligible for investment under chapter 41.40 RCW, in stocks, bonds, or debt instruments issued by business and industrial development corporations certified and incorporated pursuant to state law.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 24. (1) A corporation shall not provide direct or indirect financing assistance to:

(a) An associate of the corporation;

(b) Discharge, or to free other money for use in discharging, in whole or in part, an obligation to an associate of that corporation. This section does not apply to a transaction effected by an associate of a corporation in the normal course of that associate's business involving a line of credit or short-term financing assistance.

(c) A business to which an associate of that corporation provides financing assistance, either contemporaneously with, or within one year before or after, the providing of financing assistance by the corporation, if the terms on which the corporation provides financing assistance are less favorable to the corporation than the terms on which the associate provides financing assistance to the business. If the financing assistance provided by the associate of the corporation is of a different kind from the financing assistance provided by the corporation, the burden shall be on the corporation to prove that the terms on which the corporation provided financing assistance were at least as favorable to the corporation as the terms on which the associate provided financing assistance to the business.

This subsection (c) does not apply:

(i) If the associate is a controlling entity of the corporation and is also the only shareholder of the corporation;

(ii) If the associate is a subsidiary of the corporation; or

(iii) To a transaction effected by an associate of a corporation in the normal course of that associate's business involving a line of credit or short-term financing assistance.

(2) For the purposes of this section and section 25 of this act:

(a) 'Control' means, if used with respect to a specified entity, the power to direct or cause the direction of, directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, the management and policies of that specified entity, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract other than a commercial contract for goods or nonmanagement services, or otherwise. A person shall not be considered to control an entity solely on account of being a director, officer, or employee of that entity. An entity who, directly or indirectly, owns or record or beneficially holds with power to vote, or holds proxies with discretionary authority to vote, twenty percent or more of the then outstanding voting securities issued by a corporation shall be rebuttably presumed to control that corporation; and

(b) 'Controlling entity' means, if used with respect to a specified entity, an entity who controls that specified entity directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 25. An associate of a corporation shall not receive, directly or indirectly, from an entity to whom that corporation provides financing assistance, compensation in connection with the providing of that financing assistance or anything of value for procuring, influencing, or attempting to procure or influence the corporation's action with respect to the providing of the financing assistance. This section does not apply to the receipt of fees by an associate of a corporation for bona fide closing services performed by that associate if:

(1) The associate, with the consent and knowledge of the entity to whom the financing assistance is provided, is designated by the corporation to perform the services;

(2) The services are appropriate and necessary in the circumstances;

(3) The fees for the services are approved as reasonable by the corporation; and

(4) The fees for the services are collected by the corporation on behalf of the associate.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 26. (1) The sum of ninety thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, from the general fund to the office of the supervisor of banking in the department of general administration for the purposes of this act.

(2) The sum of one hundred ten thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, from the general fund to the department of trade and economic development for the purposes of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 27. Sections 1 through 15, 19, 24, and 25 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 31 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1989.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

SSB 5265 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Transportation: Regulating certain charter boats on state water. Reported by Committee on Natural Resources & Parks

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The purposes of this chapter are as follows:

(1) Regulate charter boats for the carrying of more than six passengers, which are operated on inland navigable waters of the state and which are not regulated by the United States coast guard;

(2) Protect the safety and health of employees, passengers, and persons utilizing charter boats;

(3) Authorize the department of labor and industries to adopt rules regulating the use of charter boats operating on inland navigable waters of the state and to issue licenses; and

(4) Provide penalties for violations of this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Department' means the department of labor and industries.

(2) 'Carrying passengers or cargo' means the transporting of any person or persons or cargo on a vessel for a fee or other consideration.

(3) 'Charter boat' means a vessel or barge operating on inland navigable waters of the state of Washington which is not inspected or licensed by the United States coast guard and over which the United States coast guard does not exercise jurisdiction and which is rented, leased, or chartered to carry more than six persons or cargo.

(4) 'Equipment' means a system, part, or component of a vessel as originally manufactured, or a system, part, or component manufactured or sold for replacement, repair, or improvement of a system, part, or component of a vessel; an accessory or equipment for, or appurtenance to a vessel; or a marine safety article, accessory, or equipment, including radio equipment, intended for use by a person on board a vessel.

(5) 'Inland navigable waters' means all waters within the territorial limits of the state of Washington, shoreward of the navigational demarcation lines dividing the high seas from harbors, rivers, lakes, and other inland waters of the state.

(6) 'Operate' means to start or operate any engine which propels a vessel, or to physically control the motion, direction, or speed of a vessel.

(7) 'Owner' means a person who claims lawful possession of a vessel by virtue of legal title or an equitable interest in a vessel which entitles that person to possession of the vessel; but does not include charterers and lessees.

(8) 'Passenger' means a person carried on board a charter boat except:

(a) The owner of the vessel or the owner's agent; or

(b) The captain and members of the vessel's crew.

(9) 'Operator's license' means a vessel operator's license issued by the United States coast guard or department for the specified tonnage and route of the vessel.

(10) 'Vessel' means every description of motorized watercraft, other than a seaplane or sailboat, used or capable of being used to transport more than six passengers or cargo on water for rent, lease, or hire.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A person shall not rent, lease, or hire out a charter boat, nor carry, advertise for the carrying of, nor arrange for the carrying of, more than six passengers on a vessel for a fee or other consideration on the inland navigable waters of the state unless each of the following conditions is satisfied:

(1)(a) The department has inspected the vessel within the previous twelve months and has issued for the vessel a certificate of inspection that is still valid and current and which allows the carrying of more than six passengers; or

(b) The United States coast guard has inspected the vessel and has issued a certificate of inspection that is still valid and current and which allows the carrying of more than six passengers.

(2) The operator of the vessel is licensed as an operator by either the United States coast guard or the department. The operator must carry such license at all times while operating the vessel and must display such license upon demand by the department.

(3) The vessel has a valid and current registration certificate which is available for inspection by the department.

(4) The vessel is covered by current and valid liability insurance. Proof of such coverage must be provided to the department upon demand.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. The department shall inspect or provide for the inspection of every charter boat once every twelve months with the vessel in the water, and once every twenty-four months with the vessel in drydock, to determine if the vessel and its equipment comply with the rules promulgated by the department and with the applicable state and federal laws and regulations. In addition, the department may at any time inspect or provide for the inspection of any charter boat if the department has reasonable cause to believe either that a provision of this chapter has been violated or that an inspection is necessary to ensure the safety of persons or property on the vessel.

(1) Ninety days before any certificate of inspection expires, the department shall mail written notification to the owner of the vessel that a twelve-month or twenty-four-month inspection must be completed before the expiration date. The department shall include with the notification an application for inspection, which must be completed and returned by the owner no later than sixty days before the expiration date of the current certificate of inspection.

The owner shall include the registration fee with the completed application form. A person filing an application shall certify by the person's signature that the information furnished on the application is true and correct.

(2) If, after the inspection, the department determines that the charter boat and its equipment comply with the rules promulgated by the department and with the applicable state and federal laws and regulations, the department shall issue to the owner of the charter boat a certificate of inspection. Such certificate shall specify the maximum passenger, crew, and total person capacity of the charter boat. The certificate shall be valid for one year from the date of issuance. The certificate shall be prominently displayed on the charter boat while the charter boat is operating upon the inland navigable waters of the state.

(3) The department shall determine the minimum number of crew necessary for the safe operation of the charter boat.

(4) If the department determines that the charter boat or its equipment does not comply with the rules promulgated by the department and with the applicable state and federal laws and regulations, the department shall not issue a certificate of inspection and any current certificate of inspection shall be revoked by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The owner of a vessel which does not have a current certificate of inspection or which has not previously been inspected by the department and which must be inspected by the department shall file an application for inspection, accompanied by the required fee, no later than sixty days before the scheduled or requested inspection date. A person filing an application shall certify by the person's signature that the information furnished on the application is true and correct.

(2) If a charter boat has not been inspected during the twenty-four-month period prior to the effective date of this act, the owner shall pay to the department the inspection fee for inspection in the water and the inspection fee for inspection in drydock.

(3) When the department inspects or provides for the inspection of any charter boat because the department has reasonable cause to believe either that a provision of this chapter has been violated or that an inspection is necessary to ensure the safety of persons or property, the owner shall not be required to pay an inspection fee for that inspection.

(4) When a twelve-month in-water inspection and a twenty-four-month drydock inspection are required in the same year, the owner shall only be required to pay the fee for the drydock inspection.

(5) All sums received from licenses, inspection fees, or other sources described in this chapter shall be deposited in the industrial insurance trust funds and shall be used for administrative, education, and enforcement costs associated with this chapter.

Sec. 6. Section 2, chapter 74, Laws of 1979 and RCW 88.04.310 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((All vessels shall be inspected by the department in accordance with rules adopted under RCW 88.04.330.))~~ The owner or operator of every vessel inspected by the department shall pay the department a fee for each inspection ~~((as may be determined by the director under RCW 88.04.330.))~~. The fee shall be established by rule and shall cover the full cost of the inspection program including travel, per diem, and administrative and legal support costs for the program.

Sec. 7. Section 3, chapter 74, Laws of 1979 and RCW 88.04.320 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It is unlawful for any person to operate a vessel unless that person holds a valid license issued by the United States coast guard or the department to operate a vessel of that class.

(2) It is unlawful for any person to operate a vessel unless the vessel is operated in compliance with the rules of the department of labor and industries and has a current certificate of inspection posted.

(3) Any violation of the licensing and inspection provisions of this chapter is punishable pursuant to the penalties provided under the Washington industrial safety and health act, chapter 49.17 RCW.

Sec. 8. Section 4, chapter 74, Laws of 1979 and RCW 88.04.330 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department shall adopt by rule, under chapter ~~((34.04))~~ 34.05 RCW:

(a) Procedures, standards, and fees for the licensing of operators of any vessel used as a charter boat, as defined under section 2 of this act, operating on inland navigable waters for rent, lease, or hire;

(b) Standards and fees for the inspection of vessels;

~~((b) The federal laws and rules relating to navigation as they are now or hereafter amended; and))~~

(c) Minimum safety and health standards for passengers and crew on board charter boats. These rules shall approximate, where appropriate, the rules adopted by the United States coast guard in 46 C.F.R., subchapter T, small passenger vessels under one hundred gross tons; and

(d) Any other rules needed for the efficient administration of the purposes of this chapter.

(2) Rules adopted by the department shall use United States coast guard standards and precedents and be consistent with United States coast guard practices whenever possible.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) A person who has been denied a certificate of inspection or a license may petition the department for an evidentiary hearing.

(2) A person who owns a charter boat may petition the department for an evidentiary hearing regarding the determination of the maximum passengers, crew, or total capacity of the charter boat.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) The department may enter into reciprocal agreements with other states concerning the operation and inspection of charter boats from those states that operate on the inland navigable waters of the state of Washington. Reciprocity shall be granted only if a state can establish to the satisfaction of the department that their laws and standards concerning charter boats meet or exceed the laws and rules of the state of Washington. A charter boat that operates on the inland navigable waters of this state under a reciprocal agreement pursuant to this section shall obtain an annual operating permit from the department for a fee for each year the charter boat does business on the waters of the state of Washington. The department shall deposit the fees from annual operating permits issued pursuant to this section in the industrial insurance trust funds.

(2) The department shall develop an education and enforcement program designed to eliminate the operation of charter boats that have not been inspected and certified as required by this chapter, and shall prepare printed materials to provide the public with information regarding the safety features and requirements necessary for the lawful operation of charter boats.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to:

(1) A vessel that is a charter boat but is being used by the documented or registered owner of the charter boat exclusively for the owner's own noncommercial or personal pleasure purposes;

(2) A vessel owned by a person or corporate entity which is donated and used by a person or nonprofit organization to transport passengers for charitable or noncommercial purposes, regardless of whether consideration is directly or indirectly paid to the owner;

(3) A vessel that is rented, leased, or hired by an operator to transport passengers for non-commercial or personal pleasure purposes; or

(4) A vessel used exclusively for, or incidental to, an educational purpose.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Unless specifically provided by statute this chapter and the rules adopted thereunder shall be implemented and enforced, including penalties, violations, citations, appeals, and other administrative procedures, pursuant to the Washington industrial safety and health act, chapter 49.17 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. This chapter may be known and cited as the charter boat safety act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Sections 1 through 5 and 9 through 13 of this act are each added to chapter 88.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The sum of forty-eight thousand three hundred dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the general fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, to provide funds for start-up costs on a one-time basis.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Section 1, chapter 74, Laws of 1979 and RCW 88.04.300 are each repealed."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "boats;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 88.04.310, 88.04.320, and 88.04.330; adding new sections to chapter 88.04 RCW; repealing RCW 88.04.300; prescribing penalties; and making an appropriation."

SSB 5289 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Environment & Natural Resources:
Authorizing the formation of regional fisheries enhancement groups.
Reported by Committee on Fisheries & Wildlife

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Three regional fisheries enhancement groups are authorized:

- (1) Washington coast and the Straits of Juan de Fuca;
- (2) Puget Sound; and
- (3) Columbia river.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Regional fisheries enhancement groups, consistent with the long term regional policy statements developed under RCW 75.50.020, shall seek to:

- (1) Enhance the salmon resource of the state;
- (2) Maximize volunteer efforts and private donations to improve the salmon resource for all citizens;
- (3) Assist the department in achieving the goal to double the state-wide salmon catch by the year 2000 under chapter 214, laws of 1988; and
- (4) Develop projects designed to supplement the fishery enhancement capability of the department of fisheries.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Any interested person may become a member of a regional fisheries enhancement group. To obtain funding that is available or that may become available for enhancement projects, a regional fisheries enhancement group shall:

- (1) Include members broadly representative of the region such as sport fishers, commercial fishers, Indian tribes, business and industry representatives, environmental groups, local governmental entities, and the general public having an interest in salmon enhancement;
- (2) Establish a broadly representative board of directors;
- (3) Develop and adopt organizational by-laws;
- (4) Obtain a federal non-profit tax-exempt status.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The director may adopt rules to guide the formation and operation of regional fisheries enhancement groups.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 1 through 4 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 75 RCW."

SSB 5305 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Law & Justice: Providing immunity for equine activities. Reported by Committee on Judiciary

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the definitions in this section apply to sections 1 through 3 of this act.

(1) 'Equine' means a horse, pony, mule, donkey, or hinny.

(2) 'Equine activity' means: (a) Equine shows, fairs, competitions, performances, or parades that involve any or all breeds of equines and any of the equine disciplines, including, but not limited to, dressage, hunter and jumper horse shows, grand prix jumping, three-day events, combined training, rodeos, driving, pulling, cutting, polo, steeplechasing, endurance trail riding and western games, and hunting; (b) equine training and/or teaching activities; (c) boarding equines; (d) riding, inspecting, or evaluating an equine belonging to another whether or not the owner has received some monetary consideration or other thing of value for the use of the equine or is permitting a prospective purchaser of the equine to ride, inspect, or evaluate the equine; and (e) rides, trips, hunts, or other equine activities of any type however informal or impromptu that are sponsored by an equine activity sponsor.

(3) 'Equine activity sponsor' means an individual, group or club, partnership, or corporation, whether or not the sponsor is operating for profit or nonprofit, which sponsors, organizes, or provides the facilities for, an equine activity including but not limited to: Pony clubs, 4-H clubs, hunt clubs, riding clubs, school and college sponsored classes and programs, therapeutic riding programs, and, operators, instructors, and promoters of equine facilities, including but not limited to stables, clubhouses, ponyride strings, fairs, and arenas at which the activity is held.

(4) 'Participant' means any person, whether amateur or professional, who directly engages in an equine activity, whether or not a fee is paid to participate in the equine activity.

(5) 'Engages in an equine activity' means a person who rides, trains, drives, or is a passenger upon an equine, whether mounted or unmounted, and does not mean a spectator at an equine activity or a person who participates in the equine activity but does not ride, train, drive, or ride as a passenger upon an equine.

(6) 'Equine professional' means a person engaged for compensation (a) in instructing a participant or renting to a participant an equine for the purpose of riding, driving, or being a passenger upon the equine, or, (b) in renting equipment or tack to a participant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, an equine activity sponsor or an equine professional shall not be liable for an injury to or the death of a participant engaged in an equine activity, and, except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, no participant nor participant's representative may maintain an action against or recover from an equine activity sponsor or an equine professional for an injury to or the death of a participant engaged in an equine activity.

(2)(a) Sections 1 and 2 of this act do not apply to the horse racing industry as regulated in chapter 67.16 RCW.

(b) Nothing in subsection (1) of this section shall prevent or limit the liability of an equine activity sponsor or an equine professional:

(i) If the equine activity sponsor or the equine professional:

(A) Provided the equipment or tack and the equipment or tack caused the injury; or

(B) Provided the equine and failed to make reasonable and prudent efforts to determine the ability of the participant to engage safely in the equine activity, determine the ability of the equine to behave safely with the participant, and determine the ability of the participant to safely manage the particular equine;

(ii) If the equine activity sponsor or the equine professional owns, leases, rents, or otherwise is in lawful possession and control of the land or facilities upon which the participant sustained injuries because of a dangerous latent condition which was known to or should have been known to the equine activity sponsor or the equine professional and for which warning signs have not been conspicuously posted;

(iii) If the equine activity sponsor or the equine professional commits an act or omission that constitutes willful or wanton disregard for the safety of the participant and that act or omission caused the injury;

(iv) If the equine activity sponsor or the equine professional intentionally injures the participant;

(v) Under liability provisions as set forth in the products liability laws; or

(vi) Under liability provisions in chapter 16.04, 16.13, or 16.16 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Sections 1 and 2 of this act apply only to causes of action filed on or after the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Sections 1 and 2 of this act are each added to chapter 4.24 RCW."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "activities;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and adding new sections to chapter 4.24 RCW."

SSB 5315 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Environment & Natural Resources: Prescribing financial responsibility for vessels that spill oil. Reported by Committee on Environmental Affairs

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes that oil spills and other forms of incremental pollution present serious danger to the fragile marine environment of Washington state. It is the intent and purpose of this chapter to define and prescribe financial responsibility requirements for vessels that transport petroleum products across the waters of the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The following definitions apply throughout this chapter:

(1) 'Department' means the state department of ecology;

(2) 'Petroleum products' means oil as it is defined in RCW 90.48.315;

(3) 'Vessel' means every description of watercraft or other artificial contrivance used, or capable of being used, as a means of transportation on water.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Any vessel over three hundred gross tons, that transports petroleum products as cargo, using any port or place in the state of Washington or the navigable waters of the state shall establish, under rules prescribed by the director of the department of ecology, evidence of financial responsibility in the amount of the greater of one million dollars, or one hundred fifty dollars per gross ton of such vessel, to meet the liability to the state of Washington for the following: (1) The actual costs for removal of spills of petroleum products; (2) civil penalties and fines; and (3) natural resource damages.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. Financial responsibility may be established by any one of, or a combination of, the following methods acceptable to the director of the department of ecology: (1) Evidence of insurance; (2) surety bonds; (3) qualification as a self-insurer; or (4) other evidence of financial responsibility. Any bond filed shall be issued by a bonding company authorized to do business in the United States. Documentation of such financial responsibility shall be kept on any barge or tank vessel transporting petroleum products as cargo and filed with the department. The owner or operator of any other vessel shall maintain on the vessel a certificate issued by the United States coast guard evidencing compliance with the requirements of section 311 of the federal clean water act, 33 U.S.C. Sec. 1251 et seq.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. Any vessel owner or operator that does not meet the financial responsibility requirements of this act and any rules prescribed thereunder shall be reported to the secretary of transportation who shall suspend the privilege of operating said vessel until financial responsibility is demonstrated.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. Any owner or operator of a vessel subject to this chapter, who fails to comply with section 3 of this act or any regulation issued thereunder, shall be subject to a penalty not to exceed ten thousand dollars. The penalty shall be imposed pursuant to RCW 43.21B.300.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. Sections 1 through 6 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 88 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "Washington;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new chapter to Title 88 RCW; and prescribing penalties."

2SSB 5372 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Ways & Means: Revising laws concerning recreational boating. Reported by Committee on Natural Resources & Parks

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the waters of Washington state provide a unique and valuable recreational resource to large and growing numbers of boaters. Proper stewardship of, and respect for, these waters requires that, while enjoying them for their scenic and recreational benefits, boaters must exercise care to assure that such activities do not contribute to the despoliation of these waters, and that watercraft be operated in a safe and responsible manner. The legislature has specifically addressed the topic of access to clean and safe waterways by requiring the 1987 boating safety study and by establishing the Puget Sound water quality authority.

The legislature finds that there is a need to educate Washington's boating community about safe and responsible actions on our waters and to increase the level and visibility of the enforcement of boating laws. To address the incidence of fatalities and injuries due to recreational boating on our state's waters, local and state efforts directed towards safe boating must be stimulated. To provide for safe waterways and public enjoyment, funds should be made available for boating safety and other boating recreation purposes.

In recognition of the need for clean waterways, and in keeping with the Puget Sound water quality authority's 1987 management plan, the legislature finds that adequate opportunities for responsible disposal of boat sewage must be made available. There is hereby established a five-year initiative to install sewage pumpout or sewage dump stations at appropriate marinas.

To assure the use of these sewage facilities, a boater environmental education program must accompany the five-year initiative and continue to educate boaters about boat wastes and aquatic resources.

The legislature also finds that, in light of the increasing numbers of boaters utilizing state waterways, a program to acquire and develop sufficient waterway access facilities for boaters must be undertaken.

To support boating safety, environmental protection and education, and public access to our waterways, the legislature declares that funds should be made available to support these efforts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. As used in this chapter, the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) 'Boat wastes' shall include, but are not limited to, sewage, garbage, marine debris, plastics, contaminated bilge water, cleaning solvents, paint scrapings or discarded petroleum products associated with the use of vessels.

(2) 'Boater' means any person on a vessel on waters of the state of Washington.

(3) 'Commission' means the Washington state parks and recreation commission.

(4) 'Environmentally sensitive area' means a restricted body of water where discharge of untreated sewage from boats is especially detrimental because of limited flushing, shallow water, commercial or recreational shellfish, swimming areas, diversity of species, the absence of other pollution sources, or other characteristics.

(5) 'Marina' means a facility providing boat moorage space, fuel, or commercial services. Commercial services include but are not limited to overnight or live-aboard boating accommodations.

(6) 'Polluted area' means a body of water used by boaters that is contaminated by boat wastes at unacceptable levels, based on applicable water quality and shellfish standards.

(7) 'Public entities' means all elected or appointed bodies, including tribal governments, responsible for collecting and spending public funds.

(8) 'Sewage dump station' means any receiving chamber or tank designed to receive vessel sewage from a 'porta-potty' or a portable container.

(9) 'Sewage pumpout station' means a mechanical device, generally stationed on a dock, pier, float, barge, or other location convenient to boaters, designed to remove sewage waste from holding tanks on vessels.

(10) 'Vessel' means every watercraft used or capable of being used as a means of transportation on the water, other than a seaplane.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The commission, in consultation with the departments of ecology, fisheries, wildlife, natural resources, social and health services, and the Puget Sound water quality authority shall conduct a literature search and analyze pertinent studies to identify areas which are polluted or environmentally sensitive within the state's waters. Based on this review the commission shall designate appropriate areas as polluted or environmentally sensitive, for the purposes of this act only.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) A marina which meets one or more of the following criteria shall be designated by the commission as appropriate for installation of a sewage pumpout or sewage dump station:

(a) The marina is located in an environmentally sensitive or polluted area; or

(b) The marina has one hundred twenty-five slips or more and there is a lack of sewage pumpouts within a reasonable distance.

(2) In addition to subsection (1) of this section, the commission may at its discretion designate a marina as appropriate for installation of a sewage pumpout or sewage dump station if there is a demonstrated need for a sewage pumpout or sewage dump station at the marina based on professionally conducted studies undertaken by federal, state, or local government, or the private sector; and it meets the following criteria:

- (a) The marina provides commercial services, such as sales of food, fuel or supplies, or overnight or live-aboard moorage opportunities;
- (b) The marina is located at a heavily used boating destination or on a heavily traveled route, as determined by the commission; or
- (c) There is a lack of adequate sewage pumpout station capacity within a reasonable distance.

(3) Exceptions to the designation made under this section may be made by the commission if no sewer, septic, water, or electrical services are available at the marina.

(4) In addition to marinas, the commission may designate boat launches or boater destinations as appropriate for installation of a sewage pumpout or sewage dump station based on the criteria found in subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) Marinas and boat launches designated as appropriate for installation of a sewage pumpout or sewage dump station under section 4 of this act shall be eligible for funding support for installation of such facilities from funds specified in section 11 of this act. The commission shall notify owners or operators of all designated marinas and boat launches of the designation, and of the availability of funding to support installation of appropriate sewage disposal facilities. The commission shall encourage the owners and operators to apply for available funding.

(2) The commission shall contract with, or enter into an interagency agreement with another state agency to contract with, applicants based on the criteria specified below:

(a)(i) Contracts may be awarded to publicly owned, tribal, or privately owned marinas or boat launches.

(ii) Contracts may provide for state reimbursement to cover eligible costs as deemed reasonable by commission rule. Eligible costs include purchase, installation, or major renovation of the sewage pumpout or sewage dump stations, including sewer, water, electrical connections, and those costs attendant to the purchase, installation, and other necessary appurtenances, such as required pier space, as determined by the commission.

(iii) Ownership of the sewage pumpout or sewage dump station will be retained by the state through the commission in privately owned marinas. Ownership of the sewage pumpout or sewage dump station in publicly owned marinas will be held by the public entity.

(iv) Operation, normal and expected maintenance, and ongoing utility costs will be the responsibility of the marina or boat launch operator. The sewage pumpout or sewage dump station must be kept in operating condition and available for public use at all times during operating hours of the facility, excluding necessary maintenance periods.

(v) The marina owner agrees to allow the installation, existence and use of the sewage pumpout or sewage dump station by granting an easement at no cost for such purposes.

(b) Contracts awarded pursuant to (a) of this subsection shall be subject, for a period of at least ten years, to the following conditions:

(i) Any facility entering into a contract under this section must allow the boating public access to the sewage pumpout or sewage dump station during operating hours.

(ii) The applicant must agree to monitor and encourage the use of the sewage pumpout or sewage dump station, and to cooperate in any related boater environmental education program administered or approved by the commission.

(iii) The applicant must agree not to charge a fee for the use of the sewage pumpout or sewage dump station.

(iv) The applicant must agree to arrange and pay a reasonable fee for a periodic inspection of the sewage pumpout facility by the local health department or appropriate authority.

(v) Use of a free sewage pumpout or sewage dump station by the boating public shall be deemed to be included in the term 'outdoor recreation' for the purposes of chapter 4.24 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The department of ecology, in consultation with the commission, shall develop criteria for the design, installation, and operation of sewage pumpout and sewage dump stations, taking into consideration the ease of access to the station by the boating public. The department of ecology may adopt rules to administer the provisions of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The commission shall undertake a state-wide boater environmental education program concerning the effects of boat wastes. The boater environmental education program shall provide informational materials on proper boat waste disposal methods, environmentally safe boat maintenance practices, locations of sewage pumpout and sewage dump stations, and boat oil recycling facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The commission shall award grants to local government entities for boater environmental education or boat waste management planning. Grants shall be allocated according to criteria developed by the commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The commission shall, in consultation with interested parties, review progress on installation of sewage pumpout and sewage dump stations, the boater environmental education program, and the boating safety program. The commission shall report its findings to the legislature by December 1994.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is established the boater recreation financing program. Any amounts that the legislature chooses to appropriate to this program shall be expended in accordance with section 11 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Any amounts appropriated to the boater recreation financing program shall be expended in accordance with the following limitations:

(1) Thirty percent to the interagency committee for outdoor recreation to be expended for use by state and local government for public recreational waterway boater access and boater destination sites. Priority shall be given to critical site acquisition. The interagency committee for outdoor recreation shall administer such funds as a competitive grants program. The amounts provided for in this subsection shall be evenly divided between state and local governments.

(2) Thirty percent of the funds shall be expended by the commission exclusively for sewage pumpout or sewage dump stations at publicly and privately owned marinas as provided for in sections 4 and 5 of this act.

(3) Twenty-five percent of the funds shall be expended for grants to state agencies and other public entities to enforce boating safety and registration laws and to carry out boating safety programs. The commission shall administer such grant program.

(4) Fifteen percent shall be expended for instructional materials, programs or grants to the public school system, public entities, or other nonprofit community organizations to support boating safety and boater environmental education or boat waste management planning. The commission shall administer this program.

Sec. 12. Section 17, chapter 7, Laws of 1983 and RCW 88.02.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall provide for the issuance of vessel registrations and may appoint agents for collecting fees and issuing registration numbers and decals. Fees for vessel registrations collected by the director shall be deposited in the general fund; PROVIDED, That any amount above one million one hundred thousand dollars per fiscal year shall be allocated to counties by the state treasurer for boating safety/education and law enforcement programs. Eligibility for such allocation shall be contingent upon approval of the local boating safety program by the state parks and recreation commission. Fund allocation shall be based on the numbers of registered vessels by county of moorage. Each benefiting county shall be responsible for equitable distribution of such allocation to other jurisdictions with approved boating safety programs within said county. Any fees not allocated to counties due to the absence of an approved boating safety program, shall be allocated to the state parks and recreation commission for awards to local governments to offset law enforcement and boating safety impacts of boaters recreating in jurisdictions other than where registered.

Sec. 13. Section 18, chapter 7, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 45, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 88.02.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Application for a vessel registration shall be made to the department or its authorized agent in the manner and upon forms prescribed by the department. The application shall state the name and address of each owner of the vessel and such other information as may be required by the department, shall be signed by at least one owner, and shall be accompanied by a vessel registration fee of six dollars per year and the excise tax imposed under chapter 82.49 RCW. Any fees required for licensing agents under RCW 46.01.140 shall be in addition to the six-dollar annual registration fee.

Upon receipt of the application and the registration fee, the department shall assign a registration number and issue a decal for each vessel. The registration number and decal shall be issued and affixed to the vessel in a manner prescribed by the department consistent with the standard numbering system for vessels set forth in volume 33, part 174, of the code of federal regulations. A valid decal affixed as prescribed shall indicate compliance with the annual registration requirements of this chapter.

The vessel registrations and decals are valid for a period of one year, except that the director of licensing may extend or diminish vessel registration periods, and the decals therefor, for the purpose of staggered renewal periods. For registration periods of more or less than one year, the department may collect prorated annual registration fees and excise taxes based upon the number of months in the registration period. Vessel registrations are renewable every year in a manner prescribed by the department upon payment of the vessel registration fee and excise tax. Upon renewing a vessel registration, the department shall issue a new decal to be affixed as prescribed by the department.

A person acquiring a vessel from a dealer or a vessel already validly registered under this chapter shall, within fifteen days of the acquisition or purchase of the vessel, apply to the department or its authorized agent for transfer of the vessel registration, and the application shall be accompanied by a transfer fee of one dollar which shall be deposited with the state treasurer and credited to the general fund to defray the cost of administration.

Sec. 14. Section 19, chapter 7, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 1, chapter 149, Laws of 1987 and RCW 88.02.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each vessel dealer in this state shall register with the department in the manner and upon forms prescribed by the department, in accordance with rules adopted under chapter ~~(34.04)~~ 34.05 RCW. After the completed vessel dealer application has been satisfactorily filed and the applicant is eligible as determined by the department's rules, the department shall, if no denial proceeding is in effect, issue the vessel dealer's registration on the basis of staggered annual expiration dates.

(2) Before issuing a vessel dealer's registration, the department shall require the applicant to file with the department a surety bond in the amount of five thousand dollars, running to the state of Washington, and executed by a surety company authorized to do business in the state of Washington. The bond shall be approved by the attorney general as to form and conditioned that the dealer shall conduct his business in conformity with the provisions of this chapter. Any vessel consignor or purchaser who has suffered any loss or damage by reason of any act or omission by a dealer that constitutes a violation of this chapter may institute an action for recovery against the dealer and the surety upon the bond. Successive recoveries against the bond shall be permitted, but the aggregate liability of the surety to all persons shall not exceed the amount of the bond. Upon exhaustion of the penalty of the bond or cancellation of the bond by the surety, the vessel dealer registration shall automatically be deemed canceled.

(3) Vessel dealers selling fifteen vessels or fewer per year having a retail value of no more than two thousand dollars each shall not be subject to the provisions of subsection (2).

(4) For the fiscal biennium from July 1, 1987, through June 30, 1989, the registration fee for dealers shall be fifty dollars per year for an original registration, and twenty-five dollars for any subsequent renewal. In addition, a fee of twenty-five dollars shall be collected for the first decal, fifteen dollars for each additional decal, and fifteen dollars for each vessel dealer display decal replacement. In ensuing biennia, the director shall establish the amount of such fees at a sufficient level to defray the costs of administering the vessel dealer registration program. All such fees shall be fixed by rule adopted by the director in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter ~~((34.04))~~ 34.05 RCW. All fees collected under this section shall be deposited with the state treasurer and credited to the general fund to defray the cost of administration of the vessel dealer registration program.

Sec. 15. Section 46, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 2nd ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 258, Laws of 1985 and RCW 88.02.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department shall provide for the issuance of vessel certificates of title. Applications for certificates may be made through the agents appointed under RCW 88.02.040. The fee for a vessel certificate of title is five dollars. Fees for vessel certificates of title shall be deposited ~~((tm))~~ with the state treasurer and credited to the general fund to defray the cost of administration of this section. Security interests in vessels subject to the requirements of this chapter and attaching after July 1, 1983, shall be perfected only by indication upon the vessel's title certificate. The provisions of chapters 46.12 and 46.16 RCW relating to motor vehicle certificates of registration, titles, certificate issuance, ownership transfer, and perfection of security interests, and other provisions which may be applied to vessels subject to this chapter, may be so applied by rule of the department if they are not inconsistent with this chapter.

(2) Whenever a vessel is to be registered for the first time as required by this chapter, except for a vessel having a valid marine document as a vessel of the United States, application shall be made at the same time for a certificate of title. Any person who purchases or otherwise obtains majority ownership of any vessel subject to the provisions of this chapter, except for a vessel having a valid marine document as a vessel of the United States, shall within fifteen days thereof apply for a new certificate of title which shows the vessel's change of ownership.

(3) Security interests may be released or acted upon as provided by the law under which they arose or were perfected. No new security interest or renewal or extension of an existing security interest is affected except as provided under the terms of this chapter and RCW 46.12.095.

(4) Notice shall be given to the issuing authority by the owner indicated on the certificate of registration within fifteen days of the occurrence of any of the following: Transfer of any part or all of the ownership of a vessel registered under this chapter; any change of address of owner; destruction, loss, abandonment, theft, or recovery of the vessel; or loss or destruction of a valid certificate of registration on the vessel.

Vessel registration is required under this chapter except for the following:

(1) Military or public vessels of the United States, except recreational-type public vessels;
 (2) Vessels owned by a state or subdivision thereof, used principally for governmental purposes and clearly identifiable as such;

(3) Vessels owned by a resident of a country other than the United States if the vessel is not physically located upon the waters of this state for a period of more than sixty days;

(4) Vessels owned by a resident of another state if the vessel is registered in accordance with the laws of the state in which the owner resides, but only to the extent that a similar exemption or privilege is granted under the laws of that state for vessels registered in this state: PROVIDED, That any vessel which is validly registered in another state and which is physically located in this state for a period of more than sixty days is subject to registration under this chapter;

(5) Vessels used as a ship's lifeboat;

- (6) Vessels equipped with propulsion machinery of less than ten horse power that:
- (a) Are owned by the owner of a vessel for which a valid vessel number has been issued;
 - (b) Display the number of that numbered vessel followed by the suffix '1' in the manner prescribed by the department; and
 - (c) Are used as a tender for direct transportation between that vessel and the shore and for no other purpose;
- (7) Vessels under sixteen feet in overall length which have no propulsion machinery of any type ((or which are not used on waters subject to the jurisdiction of the United States or on the high seas beyond the territorial seas for vessels owned in the United States and are powered by propulsion machinery of ten or less horsepower));
- (8) Vessels with no propulsion machinery of any type for which the primary mode of propulsion is human power;
- (9) Vessels which are temporarily in this state undergoing repair or alteration;
- (10) Vessels primarily engaged in commerce which have or are required to have a valid marine document as a vessel of the United States. Commercial vessels which the department of revenue determines have the external appearance of vessels which would otherwise be required to register under this chapter, must display decals issued annually by the department of revenue that indicate the vessel's exempt status; and
- (11) Vessels primarily engaged in commerce which are owned by a resident of a country other than the United States.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The commission shall adopt rules as are necessary to carry out all sections of this act except for sections 6, 10, 11(1), and 13 through 16 of this act. The commission shall comply with all applicable provisions of chapter 34.05 RCW in adopting the rules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. The interagency committee for outdoor recreation shall adopt rules as are necessary to carry out section 11(1) of this act. The interagency committee for outdoor recreation shall comply with all applicable provisions of chapter 34.05 RCW in adopting the rules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. By January 1, 1991, the commission shall issue a report to the appropriate committees of the house and senate showing how funds have been allocated under this section and the extent to which the allocations have resulted in additional vessel registrations and increased watercraft excise tax revenues.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "boating;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 88.02.040, 88.02.050, 88.02.060, 88.02.070, and 88.02.030; creating a new chapter in Title 88 RCW; and creating new sections."

2SSB 5375 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Ways & Means: Establishing a DNA identification system. Reported by Committee on Judiciary

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that recent developments in molecular biology and genetics have important applications for forensic science. It has been scientifically established that there is a unique pattern to the chemical structure of the deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) contained in each cell of the human body. The process for identifying this pattern is called 'DNA identification.'

The legislature further finds that the accuracy of identification provided by this method is superior to that of any presently existing technique and recognizes the importance of this scientific breakthrough in providing a reliable and accurate tool for the investigation and prosecution of sex offenses as defined in RCW 9.94A.030(23) and violent offenses as defined in RCW 9.94A.030(26).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) To support criminal justice services in the local communities throughout this state, the state patrol in consultation with the University of Washington school of medicine shall develop a plan for and establish a DNA identification system. In implementing the plan, the state patrol shall purchase the appropriate equipment and supplies. The state patrol shall procure the most efficient equipment available.

(2) The DNA identification system as established shall be compatible with that utilized by the federal bureau of investigation.

(3) The state patrol and the University of Washington school of medicine shall report on the DNA identification system to the legislature no later than November 1, 1989. The report shall include a time line for implementing each stage, a local agency financial participation analysis, a system analysis, a full cost/purchase analysis, a vendor bid evaluation, and a space location analysis that includes a site determination. The state patrol shall coordinate the preparation of this report with the office of financial management.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. In order to provide adequate safeguards to protect the privacy interests of those affected, the Washington state patrol after consultation with forensic evidence, biomedical ethics, civil liberties experts, and eight legislators, four from the judiciary committee and four from the law and justice committee, as appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives and the senate majority leader, shall establish specific rules and procedures for the collection, analysis, storage, expungement, and use of DNA identification data. The Washington state patrol in cooperation with the University of Washington school of medicine shall also develop a program for the proper administration and collection of blood samples. This program shall include requirements that the blood samples be taken under sanitary conditions in a medically approved manner by a physician, registered nurse, or licensed phlebotomist.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. After December 1, 1989, and the adoption of appropriate safeguards, every individual convicted in a Washington superior court of a felony defined as a sex offense under RCW 9.94A.030(23)(a) or a violent offense as defined in RCW 9.94A.030(26) shall have a blood sample drawn for purposes of DNA identification analysis before release from or transfer to a state correctional institution. Any blood sample taken pursuant to sections 2 through 6 of this act shall be used solely for the purpose of providing DNA or other blood grouping tests for identification analysis and prosecution of a sex offense or a violent offense.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Beginning June 1, 1990, the state patrol in consultation with the University of Washington school of medicine shall:

- (1) Provide DNA analysis services to law enforcement agencies throughout the state;
- (2) Provide assistance to law enforcement officials and prosecutors in the preparation and utilization of DNA evidence for presentation in court; and
- (3) Provide expert testimony in court on DNA evidentiary issues.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) No local law enforcement agency may establish or operate a DNA identification system unless:

- (a) The equipment of the local system is compatible with that of the state system under section 2 of this act; and
- (b) The local system is equipped to receive and answer inquiries from the Washington state patrol DNA identification system and transmit data to the Washington state patrol DNA identification system.

(2) The Washington state patrol shall adopt rules to implement this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 1 through 6 of this act are each added to chapter 43.43 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Any moneys received by the state from the bureau of justice assistance shall be used to conserve state funds if not inconsistent with the terms of the grant. To the extent that federal funds are available for the purposes of this act, state funds appropriated in this section shall lapse and revert to the general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If specific funding for the purposes of this act, referencing this act by bill number, is not provided by June 30, 1989, in the omnibus appropriations act, sections 2 and 5 of this act shall be null and void."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "identification," strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding new sections to chapter 43.43 RCW; and creating new sections."

SSB 5383 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Economic Development & Labor: Establishing a program for employment and training planning. Reported by Committee on Trade & Economic Development

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the economy of Washington, like that of the nation, has shifted to an international economic arena. To meet this growing competition from other countries, businesses in the state need a skilled and flexible work force. Because of the increased technical nature of the new jobs and the tightening of labor markets, employers will be hard pressed to find skilled workers to meet world market competition. Approximately eighty-five percent of the workforce for the year 2000 is already employed. Many of the workers currently employed will encounter problems adapting to the needs of the future labor market. A large share of the workers will need improved technical skills. Action is needed to retrain workers to keep up with emerging technology and to provide the necessary skills to workers reentering the work force. To assist workers in need of skills and employers in need of skilled workers, an increase in training opportunities in the state is necessary.

The legislature further finds that by directing additional job training and retraining to those individuals who are recipients of unemployment insurance benefits, recent exhaustees of benefits, or employees who are soon likely to claim benefits due to economic dislocation, the state can reduce pressure on the unemployment insurance system and at the same time promote the economic development of the state.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

- (1) 'Council' means the Washington council on employment futures.
- (2) 'Commissioner' means the commissioner of the employment security department.
- (3) 'Department' means the employment security department.
- (4) 'Program' means the Washington employment futures program.
- (5) 'Fund' means the employment futures fund established in section 11 of this act for the deposit and expenditure of funds acquired for the implementation of the Washington employment futures program.
- (6) 'Training' means any education or skill training or retraining activity that is needed by an individual to begin or continue full participation in the Washington work force.
- (7) 'Training providers' includes agencies and institutions of secondary education, vocational technical institutes, community colleges, higher education, adult education, vocational education, apprenticeship programs, and private and public nonprofit organizations that are representative of communities or significant segments of communities and provide job training services.
- (8) 'Eligible participant' means a person who, prior to beginning training pursuant to this chapter, was:
 - (a) Unemployed and claiming unemployment insurance benefits;
 - (b) An individual who had exhausted eligibility for unemployment insurance benefits within the previous twenty-four months;
 - (c) Employed, but had been determined by the department to be likely to be displaced and therefore claim unemployment insurance benefits subsequent to notice given under the federal worker adjustment and retraining notification act, P.L. 100-379, 102 Stat. 890, or any state law requiring advance notification of workplace closures or mass layoffs or after voluntary notice by an employer of likely displacement not to exceed one hundred twenty days in advance of such displacement; or
 - (d) A displaced homemaker as defined in RCW 28B.04.030. Displaced homemakers shall constitute no less than two percent of program participants.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. There is hereby created the Washington state job training coordination council. The state council is designed to promote a program of comprehensive and coordinated job training planning in Washington in accordance with the federal job training partnership act, P.L. 97-300. Members of the council shall be appointed in accordance with the provisions of the federal job training partnership act. The council shall develop a plan on a biennial basis describing in detail the programs and activities that will be assisted with funds provided under the federal job training partnership act. The state council shall not operate programs or provide services directly to eligible participants, but shall exist solely to plan, coordinate, and monitor the provision of such programs and services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) There is created the Washington employment futures program.

(2) The program shall include:

- (a) The provision of training and related services; and
- (b) Evaluation of the effectiveness of the program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) There is created the Washington council on employment futures. The council shall consist of six voting members, seven nonvoting members, and a nonvoting chairperson. The governor shall appoint the members of the council. Three of the voting members shall be representatives of business, at least one of whom shall be from east of the Cascades, and three of the voting members shall be representatives of labor, at least one of whom shall be from east of the Cascades. Three of the nonvoting members shall be the state superintendent of public instruction, the executive director of the state board for vocational education, and the executive director of the state board for community college education. Four legislators shall serve as nonvoting members. The president of the senate shall appoint a senator from each of the major caucuses to serve on the council, and the speaker of the house of representatives shall appoint a representative from each of the major caucuses to serve on the council. The commissioner of employment security shall serve as the nonvoting chairperson of the council. At least two of the labor representatives shall be selected from a list of not less than five names, submitted to the governor by a state-wide organization, which through its affiliates embraces a cross section and a majority of organized labor in the state. At least two of the business representatives shall be selected from a list of not less than five names, submitted to the governor by a recognized state-wide organization of employers, which represents a majority of employers in the state.

(2) The council shall be responsible for the overall administration of the program. The council shall meet as necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter, and council members shall be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. Each voting member of the council shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240.

(3) The department shall provide staff to the council as necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(4) No more than fifteen percent of the total program appropriation shall be used for administration by the council, the department, or any regional review panels established by the council. Administrative costs may include costs for linkage between eligible participants and the program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Contract proposals for training shall be submitted to the council for approval. Proposals shall not be approved except by a majority of the voting members of the council. The council may establish regional review panels to review and recommend proposals to the council for final approval. Contracts shall not be subject to bid requirements. Proposal specifications shall be developed by the council and established by rule.

(1) The council may agree to contracts for training with any one or more of the following:

- (a) A provider of training services;
- (b) An employer submitting a proposal jointly with one or more eligible training providers or private industry councils;
- (c) An organization representing employees submitting a proposal jointly with one or more eligible training providers or private industry councils; or
- (d) A private industry council authorized under the federal job training partnership act, P.L. 97-300.

(2) Proposals for training under the program shall demonstrate the provider's past success in training and job placement, and must demonstrate the employment demand for the proposed trainees.

(3) Training providers under the program shall be reimbursed for the full cost of training, except indirect costs shall be limited to no more than ten percent of the total, and twenty-five percent of the cost of training shall not be paid to the provider until the trainee is placed and employed in a job for a period of at least ninety days.

(4) Contracts may include the cost of facilitating the applications of small businesses and groups of small businesses as part of the cost of providing training.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The delivery of program services shall be accomplished through the existing education and training system. Services delivered through the program shall include:

- (1) Vocational training to provide workers with skills required in the labor market;
- (2) Upgrading skills in areas that are necessary to keep pace with technology and the global economy;
- (3) Workplace literacy training, including English as a second language, and training to improve math, reading, and computational skills for workers who need advanced skills because of technological changes in the marketplace;

(4) Other training that assists workers and employers in supporting economic development in the state; and

(5) Support services approved by the council.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) The council shall only approve proposals for training that facilitate the employment of participants in jobs with definite career potential and long-term job security for which an adequate force of workers does not already exist. At least seventy-five percent of the funds for training under the program shall be expended for training that is linked to specific job openings.

(2) The council may develop minimum standards for length of training, wage levels of jobs for which training shall be provided, and costs per trainee. No proposal shall be considered that proposes training for employment covered by a collective bargaining agreement unless the signatory labor organization agrees in writing.

(3) The council shall give priority to proposals for training:

(a) In areas of critical skill shortages;

(b) For jobs in businesses that would likely fail were it not for the provision of the training;

(c) For jobs in businesses that are either newly locating in the state or expanding employment in the state; and

(d) For jobs in distressed areas of the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Proposals developed pursuant to this chapter shall not replace, supplant, compete with, or duplicate in any way already existing education or training programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Evaluation is an integral part of the Washington employment futures program and shall give useful, policy-relevant information about the effectiveness of program strategies and training provided in the program.

(1) Evaluation of the program shall be performed by the department in conjunction with a research organization with expertise in program analysis selected by the office of financial management. The role of the research organization shall be limited to assisting the department in setting evaluation parameters and verifying the department's analysis of the data. The evaluation shall have three major components:

(a) An analysis of program implementation and operation with a focus on the linkages among the organizations providing services;

(b) An analysis to show the impact of the different services on program participants and short-term and long-term benefits to employers, including comparisons with control groups of similar make-up not engaged in the program; and

(c) An analysis of the effect of program participation and operation on the unemployment compensation fund.

(2) The department shall develop and test an integrated state-wide education, training, and employment tracking system by following the postprogram employment history of program participants. The system shall:

(a) Identify all employers since training for each former program participant and his or her rates of compensation; and

(b) Determine whether the former program participant's employment is related to prior education or training.

(3) All providers participating in the program shall provide enrollment and completion data on program participants by social security number to facilitate the matching necessary for identification, tracking, and accountability.

(4) All employers participating in the program or hiring program trainees shall supply the department with the occupational title of the participants.

(5) An interim report shall be prepared by January 1, 1990. Yearly evaluations shall be prepared by January 1, 1991, and January 1, 1992. A detailed evaluation report shall be prepared by January 1, 1993. That evaluation shall contain recommendations about continuation of the program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 50.16 RCW to read as follows:

The employment futures fund is established to be administered by the commissioner as a separate and identifiable fund. The employment futures fund shall consist of contributions paid under section 12 of this act, public and private grants for the purposes of chapter 50.— RCW (sections 1 through 10 of this act), and other funds provided for the employment futures program. Money in the employment futures fund may be expended only for the purposes of chapter 50.— RCW (sections 1 through 10 of this act) and money from contributions paid under section 12 of this act must be appropriated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 50.24 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Beginning January 1, 1989, contributions to the employment futures fund established in section 11 of this act shall accrue and become payable by each employer, except employers as described in RCW 50.04.010 and 50.44.030 who have properly elected to make payments in lieu of contributions, taxable local government employers as described in RCW 50.44.035, and those employers who are required to make payments in lieu of contributions, at the rate of six one-hundredths of one percent.

(2) The amount of wages subject to tax shall be determined under RCW 50.24.010.

(3) Contributions under this section shall become due and be paid by each employer pursuant to rules prescribed by the commissioner and shall not be deducted, in whole or in part, from the remuneration of individuals in the employ of the employer. Any deduction in violation of this section is unlawful.

(4) In the payment of any contributions under this section, a fractional part of a cent shall be disregarded unless it amounts to one-half cent or more, in which case it shall be increased to one cent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 50.29 RCW to read as follows:

Tax rates for rate classes 1 through 19, described in RCW 50.29.025, shall be reduced by six one-hundredths of one percent for rate years 1989 through 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. If any part of this act is found to be in conflict with federal requirements which are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state or the eligibility of employers in this state for federal unemployment tax credits, the conflicting part of this act is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of the conflict, and such finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this act. The rules under this act shall meet federal requirements which are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state or the granting of federal unemployment tax credits to employers in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Sections 1 through 10 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 50 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The sum of twenty-one million one hundred thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the employment futures fund to the employment security department for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, to carry out the purposes of this act. In no fiscal year shall funds expended for the program exceed eleven million dollars.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. A new section is added to chapter 43.131 RCW to read as follows:

The Washington employment futures program shall be terminated on June 30, 1993, as provided in section 20 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. A new section is added to chapter 43.131 RCW to read as follows:

The following acts or parts of acts, as now existing or hereafter amended, are each repealed, effective June 30, 1994:

- (1) Section 1, chapter ---, Laws of 1989 and RCW 50.--- (section 1 of this act);
- (2) Section 2, chapter ---, Laws of 1989 and RCW 50.--- (section 2 of this act);

Prime Sponsor, Committee on Transportation: Making various policy changes in vehicle laws. Reported by Committee on Transportation

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 4, chapter 231, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 22, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 46.04.302 are each amended to read as follows:

'Mobile home' or 'manufactured home' means a structure, originally constructed to be transportable in one or more sections, ((which)) that is ((thirty-two body feet or more in length and is eight body feet or more in width, and which is)) built on a permanent chassis, and designed to be used as a dwelling with or without a permanent foundation when connected to the required utilities((and includes the)) that include plumbing, heating, ((air-conditioning;)) and electrical systems contained therein((except as hereinafter specifically excluded, and excluding modular homes)). The structure must comply with the national Mobile Home Construction and Safety Standards Act of 1974 as adopted in chapter 43.22 RCW, if applicable. For purposes of titling and registration, a structure that met this definition when constructed continues to be a manufactured home notwithstanding that it is no longer transportable when affixed to land.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 46.04 RCW to read as follows:

'Park trailer' or 'park model trailer' means a travel trailer designed to be used with temporary connections to utilities necessary for operation of installed fixtures and appliances. The trailer's gross area shall not exceed four hundred square feet when in the setup mode. 'Park trailer' excludes a mobile home.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 46.04 RCW to read as follows:

'Travel trailer' means a trailer built on a single chassis transportable upon the public streets and highways that is designed to be used as a temporary dwelling without a permanent foundation and may be used without being connected to utilities.

Sec. 4. Section 14, chapter 231, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 304, Laws of 1981 and RCW 46.12.290 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of chapter 46.12 RCW insofar as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of ((this 1971 amendatory act shall)) chapter 231, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. apply to mobile homes regulated by ((this 1971 amendatory act)) chapter 231, Laws of 1971 ex. sess.: PROVIDED, That RCW 46.12.080 and 46.12.250 through 46.12.270 shall not apply to mobile homes((PROVIDED FURTHER, That)). In order to lawfully transfer ownership ((of)) or add a secured party to a ((community)) mobile home, ((both spouses)) all registered owners of record must sign the title certificate. ((in addition,)) the director of licensing shall have the power to adopt such rules ((and regulations)) as ((he deems)) necessary to implement the provisions of this chapter ((46.12 RCW as they relate)) relating to mobile homes.

Sec. 5. Section 1, chapter 215, Laws of 1982 and RCW 46.12.370 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to any other authority which it may have, the department of licensing may furnish lists of registered and legal owners of motor vehicles only for the purposes specified in this section to:

(1) The manufacturers of motor vehicles, or their authorized agents, to be used to enable those manufacturers to carry out the provisions of the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1966 (15 U.S.C. sec. 1382-1418), including amendments or additions thereto, respecting safety-related defects in motor vehicles;

(2) Any governmental agency of the United States or Canada, or political subdivisions thereof, to be used by it or by its authorized commercial agents or contractors only in connection with the enforcement of motor vehicle or traffic laws by, or programs related to traffic safety of, that government agency. Only such parts of the list as are required for completion of the work required of the agent or contractor shall be provided to such agent or contractor; ((or))

(3) Any business regularly making loans to other persons to finance the purchase of motor vehicles, to be used to assist the person requesting the list to determine ownership of specific vehicles for the purpose of determining whether or not to provide such financing; or

(4) Business enterprises for commercial purposes at such cost and for such purposes as the department deems appropriate.

In the event a list of registered and legal owners of motor vehicles is used for any purpose other than that authorized in subsections (1), (2) ((and)), (3), and (4) of this section, the manufacturer, governmental agency, financial institution, business enterprise, or their authorized agents or contractors responsible for the unauthorized disclosure or use will be denied further access to such information by the department of licensing.

Sec. 6. Section 18, chapter 121, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 13, chapter 170, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 46.20.205 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any person after applying for or receiving a driver's license ((shall)) or identificard moves from the address named in ((such)) the application or in the license or identificard issued to him or her or when the name of a licensee or holder of an identificard is changed by marriage or otherwise ((such)), the person shall within ten days thereafter notify the department in writing on a form provided by the department of his or her old and new addresses or of such former and new names and of the number of any license then held by him or her. The written notification is the exclusive means by which the address of record maintained by the department concerning the licensee or identicard holder may be changed. Any notice regarding the cancellation, suspension, revocation, probation, or nonrenewal of the driver's license, driving privilege, or identicard mailed to the address of record of the licensee or identicard holder is effective notwithstanding the licensee's or identicard holder's failure to receive the notice.

Sec. 7. Section 46.20.300, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 150, chapter 158, Laws of 1979 and RCW 46.20.300 are each amended to read as follows:

The director of licensing (~~may~~) shall suspend, revoke, or cancel the vehicle driver's license of any resident of this state upon receiving notice of the conviction of such person in another state of an offense therein which, if committed in this state, would be ground for the suspension or revocation of the vehicle driver's license. The director may further, upon receiving a record of the conviction in this state of a nonresident driver of a motor vehicle of any offense under the motor vehicle laws of this state, forward a certified copy of such record to the motor vehicle administrator in the state of which the person so convicted is a resident; such record to consist of a copy of the judgment and sentence in the case.

Sec. 8. Section 1, chapter 22, Laws of 1987 and RCW 46.20.308 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who operates a motor vehicle within this state is deemed to have given consent, subject to the provisions of RCW 46.61.506, to a test or tests of his or her breath or blood for the purpose of determining the alcoholic content of his or her breath or blood if arrested for any offense where, at the time of the arrest, the arresting officer has reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

(2) The test or tests of breath shall be administered at the direction of a law enforcement officer having reasonable grounds to believe the person to have been driving or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle within this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. However, in those instances where: (a) The person is incapable due to physical injury, physical incapacity, or other physical limitation, of providing a breath sample; or (b) as a result of a traffic accident the person is being treated for a medical condition in a hospital, clinic, doctor's office, or other similar facility in which a breath testing instrument is not present, a blood test shall be administered by a qualified person as provided in RCW 46.61.506(4). The officer shall inform the person of his or her right to refuse the breath or blood test, and of his or her right to have additional tests administered by any qualified person of his or her choosing as provided in RCW 46.61.506. The officer shall warn the driver that (a) his or her privilege to drive will be revoked or denied if he or she refuses to submit to the test, and (b) that his or her refusal to take the test may be used in a criminal trial.

(3) Except as provided in this section, the test administered shall be of the breath only. If an individual is unconscious or is under arrest for the crime of vehicular homicide as provided in RCW 46.61.520 or vehicular assault as provided in RCW 46.61.522, or if an individual is under arrest for the crime of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs as provided in RCW 46.61.502, which arrest results from an accident in which another person has been injured and there is a reasonable likelihood that such other person may die as a result of injuries sustained in the accident, a breath or blood test may be administered without the consent of the individual so arrested.

(4) Any person who is dead, unconscious, or who is otherwise in a condition rendering him or her incapable of refusal, shall be deemed not to have withdrawn the consent provided by subsection (1) of this section and the test or tests may be administered, subject to the provisions of RCW 46.61.506, and the person shall be deemed to have received the warnings required under subsection (2) of this section.

(5) If, following his or her arrest and receipt of warnings under subsection (2) of this section, the person arrested refuses upon the request of a law enforcement officer to submit to a test or tests of his or her breath or blood, no test shall be given except as authorized under subsection (3) or (4) of this section.

(6) The department of licensing, upon the receipt of a sworn report of the law enforcement officer that ~~(he)~~ the officer had reasonable grounds to believe the arrested person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle within this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor and that the person had refused to submit to the test or tests upon the request of the law enforcement officer after being informed that refusal would result in the revocation of ~~(his)~~ the person's privilege to drive, shall revoke ~~(his)~~ the person's license or permit to drive or any nonresident operating privilege.

(7) Upon revoking the license or permit to drive or the nonresident operating privilege of any person, the department shall immediately notify the person involved in writing by personal service or by certified mail of its decision and the grounds therefor, and of ~~(his)~~ the person's right to a hearing, specifying the steps he or she must take to obtain a hearing. Within ~~(ten)~~ fifteen days after ~~(receiving such)~~ the notice has been given, the person may, in writing, request a formal hearing. Upon receipt of such request, the department shall afford the person an opportunity for a hearing as provided in RCW 46.20.329 and 46.20.332. The hearing shall be conducted in the county of the arrest. For the purposes of this section, the scope of such hearing shall cover the issues of whether a law enforcement officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle within this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, whether the person was placed under arrest, and whether ~~((he))~~ the person refused to submit to the test or tests upon request of the officer after having been informed that such refusal would result in the revocation of ~~((his))~~ the person's privilege to drive. The department shall order that the revocation either be rescinded or sustained. Any decision by the department revoking a person's driving privilege shall be stayed and shall not take effect while a formal hearing is pending as provided in this section or during the pendency of a subsequent appeal to superior court so long as there is no conviction for a moving violation or no finding that the person has committed a traffic infraction that is a moving violation during pendency of the hearing and appeal.

(8) If the revocation is sustained after such a hearing, the person whose license, privilege, or permit is revoked has the right to file a petition in the superior court of the county of arrest to review the final order of revocation by the department in the manner provided in RCW 46.20.334.

(9) When it has been finally determined under the procedures of this section that a nonresident's privilege to operate a motor vehicle in this state has been revoked, the department shall give information in writing of the action taken to the motor vehicle administrator of the state of the person's residence and of any state in which he or she has a license.

Sec. 9. Section 3, chapter 77, Laws of 1982 as last amended by section 9, chapter 1, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. and RCW 46.20.510 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There shall be three categories for the special motorcycle endorsement of a driver's license. Category one shall be for motorcycles or motor-driven cycles having an engine displacement of one hundred fifty cubic centimeters or less. Category two shall be for motorcycles having an engine displacement of five hundred cubic centimeters or less. Category three shall include categories one and two, and shall be for motorcycles having an engine displacement of five hundred one cubic centimeters or more.

(2) ~~((A motorcycle endorsement issued prior to June 10, 1982, is deemed to be for category three. Thereafter, a person first seeking a motorcycle endorsement or a person seeking an endorsement to operate a motorcycle with an engine displacement of a higher category than the one covered by his or her existing endorsement, shall obtain an endorsement for the appropriate category pursuant to RCW 46.20.505 through 46.20.515.~~

~~((3))~~ The department may issue a motorcyclist's instruction permit to an individual who wishes to learn to ride a motorcycle or obtain an endorsement of a larger endorsement category for a period not to exceed ninety days. This motorcyclist's instruction permit may be renewed for an additional ninety days. The director shall collect a two dollar and fifty cent fee for the motorcyclist's instruction permit or renewal, and the fee shall be deposited in the motorcycle safety education account of the highway safety fund. This permit and a valid driver's license with current endorsement, if any, shall be carried when operating a motorcycle. An individual with a motorcyclist's instruction permit may not carry passengers, may not operate a motorcycle during the hours of darkness or on a fully-controlled, limited-access facility, and shall be under the direct visual supervision of a person with a motorcycle endorsement of the appropriate category and at least five years' riding experience.

Sec. 10. Section 5, chapter 62, Laws of 1979 and RCW 46.65.065 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever a person's driving record, as maintained by the department, brings him or her within the definition of an habitual traffic offender, as defined in RCW 46.65.020, the department shall forthwith notify ~~((such))~~ the person of the revocation in writing by certified mail at his or her address of record as maintained by the department. If ~~((such))~~ the person is a nonresident of this state, notice shall be sent to ~~((such))~~ the person's last known address. Notices of revocation shall inform the recipient thereof of his or her right to a formal hearing and specify the steps which must be taken in order to obtain a hearing. ~~((The person upon receiving such))~~ Within fifteen days after the notice has been given, the person may, in writing ((and within ten days therefrom)), request a formal hearing((-PROVIDED, That)). If such a request is not made within the prescribed time the right to a hearing ~~((shall be deemed to have been))~~ is waived((-PROVIDED FURTHER, That)). A request for a hearing ~~((shall))~~ stays the effectiveness of the revocation.

(2) Upon receipt of a request for a hearing, the department shall schedule a hearing in the county in which the person making the request resides, and if ~~((such))~~ the person is a nonresident of this state, the hearing shall be held in Thurston county. The department shall give at least ten days notice of the hearing to ~~((such))~~ the person.

(3) The scope of the hearings provided by this section ~~((shall be))~~ is limited to the issues of whether the certified transcripts or abstracts of the convictions, as maintained by the department, show that the requisite number of violations have been accumulated within the prescribed period of time as set forth in RCW 46.65.020 ~~((as now or hereafter amended))~~ and ~~((:))~~ whether the terms and conditions for granting stays, as provided in RCW 46.65.060 ~~((as now or hereafter amended)),~~ have been met.

(4) Upon receipt of the hearing officer's decision, an aggrieved party (~~(shall have the right to)~~) may appeal to the superior court of the county (~~((wherein))~~) in which he or she resides, or, in the case of a nonresident of this state, in the superior court of Thurston county, for review of the revocation. Notice of appeal must be filed within thirty days after receipt of the hearing officer's decision or the right to appeal (~~((shall be deemed to have been))~~) is waived. Review by the court shall be de novo and without a jury.

(5) The filing of a notice of appeal (~~((shall))~~) does not stay the effective date of the revocation.

As used in this chapter:

(1) 'Vehicle' means and includes every device capable of being moved upon a public highway and in, upon, or by which any persons or property is or may be transported or drawn upon a public highway, excepting devices moved by human or animal power or used exclusively upon stationary rails or tracks.

(2) 'Motor vehicle' means every vehicle which is self-propelled and every vehicle which is propelled by electric power obtained from overhead trolley wires, but not operated upon rails, and which is required to be registered and titled under Title 46 RCW, Motor Vehicles.

(3) 'Vehicle dealer' means any person, firm, association, corporation, or trust, not excluded by subsection (4) of this section, engaged in the business of buying, selling, listing, exchanging, offering, brokering, leasing with an option to purchase, auctioning, soliciting, or advertising the sale of new or used vehicles, or arranging or offering or attempting to solicit or negotiate on behalf of others, a sale, purchase, or exchange of an interest in new or used motor vehicles, irrespective of whether the motor vehicles are owned by that person. Vehicle dealers shall be classified as follows:

(a) A 'motor vehicle dealer' is a vehicle dealer that deals in new or used motor vehicles, or both;

(b) A 'mobile home and travel trailer dealer' is a vehicle dealer that deals in mobile homes, park trailers, or travel trailers, or ~~((both))~~ more than one type of these vehicles;

(c) A 'miscellaneous vehicle dealer' is a vehicle dealer that deals in motorcycles or vehicles other than motor vehicles or mobile homes and travel trailers or any combination of such vehicles.

(4) The term 'vehicle dealer' does not include, nor do the licensing requirements of RCW 46.70.021 apply to, the following persons, firms, associations, or corporations:

(a) Receivers, trustees, administrators, executors, guardians, or other persons appointed by, or acting under a judgment or order of, any court; or

(b) Public officers while performing their official duties; or

(c) Employees of vehicle dealers who are engaged in the specific performance of their duties as such employees; or

(d) Any person engaged in an isolated sale of a vehicle in which he is the registered or legal owner, or both, thereof; or

(e) Any person, firm, association, corporation, or trust, engaged in the selling of equipment other than vehicles, subject to registration, used for agricultural or industrial purposes; or

(f) A real estate broker licensed under chapter 18.85 RCW, or his authorized representative, who, on behalf of the legal or registered owner of a used mobile home negotiates the purchase, sale, or exchange of the used mobile home in conjunction with the purchase, sale, exchange, rental, or lease of the land upon which the used mobile home is located and the real estate broker is not acting as an agent, subagent, or representative of a vehicle dealer licensed under this chapter; or

(g) Owners who are also operators of the special highway construction equipment or of the highway construction equipment for which a vehicle license and display vehicle license number plate is required as defined in RCW 46.16.010; or

(h) Any bank, trust company, savings bank, mutual savings bank, savings and loan association, credit union, and any parent, subsidiary, or affiliate thereof, authorized to do business in this state under state or federal law with respect to the sale or other disposition of a motor vehicle owned and used in their business; or with respect to the acquisition and sale or other disposition of a motor vehicle in which the entity has acquired an interest as a lessor, lessee, or secured party.

(5) 'Vehicle salesperson' means any person who for any form of compensation sells, auctions, leases with an option to purchase, or offers to sell or to so lease vehicles on behalf of a vehicle dealer.

(6) 'Department' means the department of licensing, which shall administer and enforce the provisions of this chapter.

(7) 'Director' means the director of licensing.

(8) 'Manufacturer' means any person, firm, association, corporation, or trust, resident or nonresident, who manufactures or assembles new and unused vehicles or remanufactures vehicles in whole or in part and further includes the terms:

(a) 'Distributor,' which means any person, firm, association, corporation, or trust, resident or nonresident, who in whole or in part offers for sale, sells, or distributes any new and unused vehicle to vehicle dealers or who maintains factory representatives.

(b) 'Factory branch,' which means a branch office maintained by a manufacturer for the purpose of selling or offering for sale, vehicles to a distributor, wholesaler, or vehicle dealer, or for directing or supervising in whole or in part factory or distributor representatives, and further includes any sales promotion organization, whether a person, firm, or corporation, which is engaged in promoting the sale of new and unused vehicles in this state of a particular brand or make to vehicle dealers.

(c) 'Factory representative,' which means a representative employed by a manufacturer, distributor, or factory branch for the purpose of making or promoting for the sale of their vehicles or for supervising or contracting with their dealers or prospective dealers.

(9) 'Established place of business' means a location meeting the requirements of RCW 46.70.023(1) at which a vehicle dealer conducts business in this state.

(10) 'Principal place of business' means that dealer firm's business location in the state, which place the dealer designates as their principal place of business.

(11) 'Subagency' means any place of business of a vehicle dealer within the state, which place is physically and geographically separated from the principal place of business of the firm or any place of business of a vehicle dealer within the state, at which place the firm does business using a name other than the principal name of the firm, or both.

(12) 'Temporary subagency' means a location other than the principal place of business or subagency within the state where a licensed vehicle dealer may secure a license to conduct the business and is licensed for a period of time not to exceed ten days for a specific purpose such as auto shows, ~~((auctions;))~~ shopping center promotions, tent sales, exhibitions, or similar merchandising ventures. No more than six temporary subagency licenses may be issued to a licensee in any twelve-month period.

(13) 'Wholesale vehicle dealer' means a vehicle dealer who ~~((sells to Washington dealers))~~ buys and sells other than at retail.

(14) 'Retail vehicle dealer' means a vehicle dealer who ~~((sells vehicles to the public))~~ may buy and sell at both wholesale and retail.

(15) 'Listing dealer' means a used mobile home dealer who makes contracts with sellers who will compensate the dealer for obtaining a willing purchaser for the seller's mobile home.

Sec. 12. Section 5, chapter 241, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.70.027 are each amended to read as follows:

A vehicle dealer is accountable for the dealer's employees, sales personnel, and managerial personnel while in the performance of their official duties. Any violations of this chapter or applicable provisions of chapter 46.12 or 46.16 RCW committed by any of these employees subjects the dealer to license penalties prescribed under RCW 46.70.101. A retail purchaser, consignee, or motor vehicle dealer, or a motor vehicle dealer who has purchased from a wholesale dealer, who has suffered a loss or damage by reason of ~~((a breach of warranty or by))~~ any act by a dealer, salesperson, managerial person, or other employee of a dealership, that constitutes a violation of this chapter or applicable provisions of chapter 46.12 or 46.16 RCW may institute an action for recovery against the dealer and the surety bond as set forth in RCW 46.70.070. However, under this section, motor vehicle dealers who have purchased from wholesale dealers may only institute actions against wholesale dealers and their surety bonds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 46.70 RCW to read as follows:

Dealers who transact dealer business by consignment shall obtain a consignment contract for sale and shall comply with applicable provisions of chapter 46.70 RCW. The dealer shall place all funds received from the sale of the consigned vehicle in a trust account until the sale is completed, except that the dealer shall pay any outstanding liens against the vehicle from these funds. Where title has been delivered to the purchaser, the dealer shall pay the amount due a consignee within ten days after the sale.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. A new section is added to chapter 46.70 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In addition to other powers granted, the director or the director's designee may enforce RCW 46.70.021 through the issuance of criminal citations. The sole duty of law enforcement agencies under this section is to make arrests. All enforcement actions under this section shall be prosecuted by the county prosecutor in the county in which the violation occurred.

(2) Any liability or claim that arises from the exercise or alleged exercise of authority under subsection (1) of this section rests with the department unless the director or the director's designee acts under the direction and control of another agency or unless the liability is otherwise assumed under a written agreement between the department of licensing and another agency.

Sec. 15. Section 46.70.070, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 11, chapter 241, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.70.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Before issuing a vehicle dealer's license, the department shall require the applicant to file with the department a surety bond in the amount of:

(a) Fifteen thousand dollars for motor vehicle dealers;

(b) Thirty thousand dollars for mobile home, park trailer, and travel trailer dealers: PROVIDED, That if such dealer does not deal in mobile homes or park trailers such bond shall be fifteen thousand dollars;

(c) Five thousand dollars for miscellaneous dealers, running to the state, and executed by a surety company authorized to do business in the state. Such bond shall be approved by the attorney general as to form and conditioned that the dealer shall conduct his business in conformity with the provisions of this chapter(;

~~(d) Wholesale dealers shall not be required to file a surety bond with the department).~~

Any retail purchaser, consignor who is not a motor vehicle dealer, or a motor vehicle dealer who has purchased from a wholesale dealer, who ((shall have)) has suffered any loss or damage by reason of ((breach of warranty or by)) any act by a dealer which constitutes a violation of this chapter shall have the right to institute an action for recovery against such dealer and the surety upon such bond. However, under this section, motor vehicle dealers who have purchased from wholesale dealers may only institute actions against wholesale dealers and their surety bonds. Successive recoveries against said bond shall be permitted, but the aggregate liability of the surety to all persons shall in no event exceed the amount of the bond. Upon exhaustion of the penalty of said bond or cancellation of the bond by the surety the vehicle dealer license shall automatically be deemed canceled.

(2) The bond for any vehicle dealer licensed or to be licensed under more than one classification shall be the highest bond required for any such classification.

(3) Vehicle dealers shall maintain a bond for each business location in this state and bond coverage for all temporary subagencies.

Sec. 16. Section 11, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 13, chapter 241, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.70.101 are each amended to read as follows:

The director may by order deny, suspend, or revoke the license of any vehicle dealer or vehicle manufacturer or, in lieu thereof or in addition thereto, may by order assess monetary penalties of a civil nature not to exceed one thousand dollars per violation, if the director finds that the order is in the public interest and that the applicant or licensee:

(1) In the case of a vehicle dealer:

(a) The applicant or licensee, or any partner, officer, director, owner of ten percent or more of the assets of the firm, or managing employee:

(i) Was the holder of a license issued pursuant to this chapter, which was revoked for cause and never reissued by the department, or which license was suspended for cause and the terms of the suspension have not been fulfilled or which license was assessed a civil penalty and the assessed amount has not been paid;

(ii) Has been adjudged guilty of a crime which directly relates to the business of a vehicle dealer and the time elapsed since the adjudication is less than ten years, or suffering any judgment within the preceding five years in any civil action involving fraud, misrepresentation, or conversion. For the purposes of this section, adjudged guilty shall mean in addition to a final conviction in either a state or municipal court, an unvacated forfeiture of bail or collateral deposited to secure a defendant's appearance in court, the payment of a fine, a plea of guilty, or a finding of guilt regardless of whether the sentence is deferred or the penalty is suspended;

(iii) Has knowingly or with reason to know made a false statement of a material fact in his application for license or any data attached thereto, or in any matter under investigation by the department;

(iv) Does not have an established place of business as required in this chapter;

(v) Refuses to allow representatives or agents of the department to inspect during normal business hours all books, records, and files maintained within this state;

(vi) Sells, exchanges, offers, brokers, auctions, solicits, or advertises a new or current model vehicle to which a factory new vehicle warranty attaches and fails to have a valid, written service agreement as required by this chapter, or having such agreement refuses to honor the terms of such agreement within a reasonable time or repudiates the same;

(vii) Is insolvent, either in the sense that their liabilities exceed their assets, or in the sense that they cannot meet their obligations as they mature;

(viii) Fails to pay any civil monetary penalty assessed by the director pursuant to this section within ten days after such assessment becomes final;

(ix) Fails to notify the department of bankruptcy proceedings in the manner required by RCW 46.70.183;

(x) Knowingly, or with reason to know, allows a salesperson employed by the dealer, or acting as their agent, to commit any of the prohibited practices set forth in subsection (1)(a) of this section and RCW 46.70.180.

(b) The applicant or licensee, or any partner, officer, director, owner of ten percent of the assets of the firm, or any employee or agent:

(i) Has failed to comply with the applicable provisions of chapter 46.12 or 46.16 RCW or this chapter or any rules and regulations adopted thereunder;

(ii) Has defrauded or attempted to defraud the state, or a political subdivision thereof of any taxes or fees in connection with the sale or transfer of a vehicle;

(iii) Has forged the signature of the registered or legal owner on a certificate of title;

(iv) Has purchased, sold, disposed of, or has in his or her possession any vehicle which he or she knows or has reason to know has been stolen or appropriated without the consent of the owner;

(v) Has willfully failed to deliver to a purchaser a certificate of ownership to a vehicle which he has sold;

(vi) Has committed any act in violation of RCW 46.70.090 relating to vehicle dealer license plates or manufacturer license plates;

(vii) Has committed any act in violation of RCW 46.70.180 relating to unlawful acts and practices;

(viii) Has engaged in practices inimical to the health or safety of the citizens of the state of Washington including but not limited to failure to comply with standards set by the state of Washington or the federal government pertaining to the construction or safety of vehicles;

(ix) Has aided or assisted an unlicensed dealer or salesperson in unlawful activity through active or passive participation in sales, allowing use of facilities, dealer license number, or by any other means; ~~((or))~~

(x) Converts or appropriates, whether temporarily or permanently, property or funds belonging to a customer, dealer, or manufacturer, without the consent of the owner of the property or funds; or

(xi) Has sold any vehicle with knowledge that it has 'REBUILT' on the title or has been declared totaled out by an insurance carrier and then rebuilt without clearly disclosing that fact in writing;

(c) The licensee or any partner, officer, director, or owner of ten percent or more of the assets of the firm holds or has held any such position in any other vehicle dealership licensed pursuant to this chapter which is subject to final proceedings under this section.

(2) In the case of a manufacturer, or any partner, officer, director, or majority shareholder:

(a) Was or is the holder of a license issued pursuant to this chapter which was revoked for cause and never reissued by the department, or which license was suspended for cause and the terms of the suspension have not been fulfilled, or which license was assessed a civil penalty and the assessed amount has not been paid;

(b) Has knowingly or with reason to know, made a false statement of a material fact in his application for license, or any data attached thereto, or in any matter under investigation by the department;

(c) Has failed to comply with the applicable provisions of chapter 46.12 or 46.16 RCW or this chapter or any rules and regulations adopted thereunder;

(d) Has defrauded or attempted to defraud the state or a political subdivision thereof, of any taxes or fees in connection with the sale or transfer of a vehicle;

(e) Has purchased, sold, disposed of, or has in his possession, any vehicle which he knows or has reason to know has been stolen or appropriated without the consent of the owner;

(f) Has committed any act in violation of RCW 46.70.090 relating to vehicle dealer license plates and manufacturer license plates;

(g) Has committed any act in violation of RCW 46.70.180 relating to unlawful acts and practices;

(h) Sells or distributes in this state or transfers into this state for resale, any new or unused vehicle to which a warranty attaches or has attached and refuses to honor the terms of such warranty within a reasonable time or repudiates the same;

(i) Fails to maintain one or more resident employees or agents to provide service or repairs to vehicles located within the state of Washington only under the terms of any warranty attached to new or unused vehicles manufactured and which are or have been sold or distributed in this state or transferred into this state for resale unless such manufacturer requires warranty service to be performed by all of its dealers pursuant to a current service agreement on file with the department;

(j) Fails to reimburse within a reasonable time any vehicle dealer within the state of Washington who in good faith incurs reasonable obligations in giving effect to warranties that attach or have attached to any new or unused vehicle sold or distributed in this state or transferred into this state for resale by any such manufacturer;

(k) Engaged in practices inimical to the health and safety of the citizens of the state of Washington including but not limited to failure to comply with standards set by the state of Washington or the federal government pertaining to the construction and safety of vehicles;

(l) Is insolvent either in the sense that his or her liabilities exceed his or her assets or in the sense that he or she cannot meet his or her obligations as they mature;

(m) Fails to notify the department of bankruptcy proceedings in the manner required by RCW 46.70.183.

Sec. 17. Section 46.80.110, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 9, chapter 253, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 46.80.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The director or a designee may, pursuant to the provisions of chapter ~~((34.04))~~ 34.05 RCW, by order deny, suspend, or revoke the license of any motor vehicle wrecker, or assess a civil fine of up to five hundred dollars for each violation, if ~~((he))~~ the director finds that the applicant or licensee has:

(1) Acquired a vehicle or major component part other than by first obtaining title or other documentation as provided by this chapter;

(2) Willfully misrepresented the physical condition of any motor or integral part of a motor vehicle;

(3) Sold, had in his possession, or disposed of a motor vehicle or trailer or any part thereof when he knows that such vehicle or part has been stolen, or appropriated without the consent of the owner;

(4) Sold, bought, received, concealed, had in his possession, or disposed of a motor vehicle or trailer or part thereof having a missing, defaced, altered, or covered manufacturer's identification number, unless approved by a law enforcement officer;

(5) Committed forgery or misstated a material fact on any title, registration, or other document covering a vehicle that has been reassembled from parts obtained from the disassembling of other vehicles;

(6) Committed any dishonest act or omission which the director has reason to believe has caused loss or serious inconvenience as a result of a sale of a motor vehicle, trailer, or part thereof;

(7) Failed to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter (~~as now or hereafter amended~~;) or with any of the rules (~~and regulations~~) adopted (~~thereunder~~) under it, or with any of the provisions of Title 46 RCW relating to registration and certificates of title of vehicles;

(8) Procured a license fraudulently or dishonestly or that such license was erroneously issued;

(9) Been convicted of a crime that directly relates to the business of a vehicle wrecker and the time elapsed since conviction is less than ten years, or suffered any judgment within the preceding five years in any civil action involving fraud, misrepresentation, or conversion. For the purposes of this section, conviction means in addition to a final conviction in either a federal, state, or municipal court, an unvacated forfeiture of bail or collateral deposited to secure a defendant's appearance in court, the payment of a fine, a plea of guilty, or a finding of guilt regardless of whether the sentence is deferred or the penalty is suspended.

Sec. 18. Section 5, chapter 51, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 80, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.82.320 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No person, including the owner, operator, partner, officer, or stockholder of a driver training school shall give instruction in the operation of an automobile for a fee without a license issued by the director for that purpose. An application for an instructor's license shall be filed with the director, containing such information as prescribed by the director, accompanied by an application fee of twenty-five dollars which shall in no event be refunded. If the application is approved by the director and the applicant satisfactorily meets the examination requirements as prescribed in RCW 46.82.330, the applicant shall be granted a license valid for a period of one year from the date of issuance. An instructor shall take a requalification examination every five years.

(2) The annual fee for renewal of an instructor's license shall be five dollars. The director shall issue a license certificate to each licensee which shall be conspicuously displayed in the place of business of the employing driver training school. Unless revoked, canceled, or denied by the director, the license shall remain the property of the licensee in the event of termination of employment or employment by another driver training school. If a renewal application has not been received by the director within sixty days from the date a notice of license expiration was mailed to the licensee, the license will be voided requiring a new application as provided for in this chapter, including examination and payment of all fees.

(3) Persons who qualify under the rules jointly adopted by the superintendent of public instruction and the director of licensing to teach only the laboratory phase, shall be subject to a ten dollar examination fee.

(4) Each licensee shall be provided with a wallet-size identification card by the director at the time the license is issued which shall be carried on the instructor's person at all times while engaged in instructing.

(5) The person to whom an instructor's license has been issued shall notify the director in writing within thirty days of any change of employment or termination of employment, providing the name and address of the new driver training school by whom the instructor will be employed.

Sec. 19. Section 9, chapter 51, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.82.360 are each amended to read as follows:

The license of any driver training school or instructor may be suspended, revoked, denied, or refused renewal for failure to comply with the business practices specified in this section.

(1) No place of business shall be established nor any business of a driver training school conducted or solicited within one thousand feet of an office or building owned or leased by the department of licensing in which examinations for drivers' licenses are conducted. The distance of one thousand feet shall be measured along the public streets by the nearest route from the place of business to such building.

(2) Any (~~motor vehicle~~) automobile used by a driver training school or an instructor for instruction purposes must be equipped with:

(a) Dual controls for foot brake and clutch, or foot brake only in a vehicle equipped with an automatic transmission;

(b) An instructor's rear view mirror; and

(c) A sign displayed on the back (~~(and/or)~~) or top, or both, of the vehicle not less than twenty inches in horizontal width or less than ten inches in vertical height and having the words 'student driver' or 'instruction car(?)', or both, in legible, printed, English letters at least two and one-half inches in height near the top and the name of the school in similarly legible letters not less than one inch in height placed somewhere below the aforementioned words, and the street number and name and the telephone number in similarly legible letters at least one inch in height placed next below the name of the school. The lettering and background colors shall be of contrasting shades so as to be clearly readable at one hundred feet in clear daylight. The sign shall be displayed at all times when instruction is being given.

(3) Instruction may not be given by an instructor to a student in an automobile unless the student possesses a current and valid instruction permit issued pursuant to RCW 46.20.055 or a current and valid driver's license.

(4) No driver training school or instructor shall advertise or otherwise indicate that the issuance of a driver's license is guaranteed or assured as a result of the course of instruction offered.

(5) No driver training school or instructor shall utilize any types of advertising without using the full, legal name of the school and identifying itself as a driver training school. Items and services advertised must be available in a manner as might be expected by the average person reading the advertisement.

(6) A driver training school shall have an established place of business owned, rented, or leased by the school and regularly occupied and used exclusively for the business of giving driver instruction. The established place of business of a driver training school that applies for an initial license after the effective date of this act, shall be located in a district that is zoned for business or commercial purposes. The established place of business, branch office, or classroom or advertised address of any such driver training school shall not consist of or include a house trailer, residence, tent, temporary stand, temporary address, bus, telephone answering service if such service is the sole means of contacting the driver training school, a room or rooms in a hotel or rooming house or apartment house, or premises occupied by a single or multiple-unit dwelling house. To classify as a branch office or classroom the facility must be within a thirty-five mile radius of the established place of business. Nothing in this subsection may be construed as limiting the authority of local governments to grant conditional use permits or variances from zoning ordinances.

(7) No driver training school or instructor shall conduct any type of instruction or training on a course used by the department of licensing for testing applicants for a Washington driver's license.

(8) Each driver training school shall maintain records on all of its students, including the student's name and address, the starting and ending dates of instruction, the student's instruction permit or driver's license number, the type of training given, and the total number of hours of instruction. Records of past students shall be maintained for five years following the completion of the instruction.

(9) Each driver training school shall, at its established place of business, display, in a place where it can be seen by all clients, a copy of the required minimum curriculum compiled by the driver advisory committee. Copies of the required minimum curriculum are to be provided to driver training schools and instructors by the director.

(10) Driver training schools and instructors shall submit to periodic inspections of their business practices, facilities, records, and insurance by authorized representatives of the director of the department of licensing.

(1) 'Mobile home' means a (~~(structure, transportable in one or more sections, which is thirty-two body feet or more in length and is eight body feet or more in width, and which is built on a permanent chassis, and designed to be used as a dwelling with or without a permanent foundation when connected to the required utilities, and includes the plumbing, heating, air-conditioning, and electrical systems contained therein, except as hereinafter specifically excluded, and excluding modular homes as defined below)~~) mobile home as defined by RCW 46.04.302.

(2) 'Park trailer' means a park trailer as defined by section 2 of this act.

(3) 'Travel trailer' means (~~(all trailers of the type designed to be used upon the public streets and highways which are capable of being used as facilities for human habitation and which are less than thirty-two body feet in length and eight body feet or less in width, except as may be hereinafter specifically excluded)~~) a travel trailer as defined by section 3 of this act.

(4) 'Modular home' means (~~(any factory-built housing designed primarily for residential occupancy by human beings which does not contain a permanent frame and must be mounted on a permanent foundation)~~) a modular home as defined by RCW 46.04.303.

~~(5) 'Camper' means a (structure designed to be mounted upon a motor vehicle which provides facilities for human habitation or for temporary outdoor or recreational lodging and which is five feet or more in overall length and five feet or more in height from its floor to its ceiling when fully extended, but shall not include motor homes as defined in this section) camper as defined by RCW 46.04.085.~~

~~(6) 'Motor home(s)' means a motor (vehicles originally designed, reconstructed, or permanently altered to provide facilities for human habitation) home as defined by RCW 46.04.305.~~

~~(7) 'Director' means the director of licensing of the state.~~

NEW SECTION, Sec. 21. A study committee is established to develop recommendations regarding a system of driver's license issuance that provides increased security against fraud. The study is to include but not be limited to procedures, potential use of new technologies, equipment, and security provisions. If the committee finds that increased costs must be incurred, then a funding proposal should also be developed.

The committee shall consist of:

(1) Two members from organizations representing business interests in the state and one member representing financial institutions, all to be appointed by the chair of the legislative transportation committee;

(2) The chief of the Washington state patrol or a designee;

(3) The chair of the liquor control board or a designee;

(4) The director of the department of licensing, or a designee, and one additional employee of the department appointed by the director;

(5) Two members of the Washington house of representatives, one from each political party, appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives; and

(6) Two members of the Washington state senate, one from each political party, appointed by the president of the senate.

The committee shall report its findings and recommendations to the house of representatives and senate transportation committees by December 1, 1989. Current departmental policy against issuing driver's licenses over the counter to individuals without adequate photographic identification shall remain in effect, and no contracts on driver's licensing systems may be awarded by the department of licensing until the committee recommendations are reviewed by the legislative transportation committee.

Sec. 22. Section 46.12.020, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 244, Laws of 1987 and by section 9, chapter 388, Laws of 1987 and RCW 46.12.020 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

~~((+)) No vehicle license number plates or certificate of license registration, whether original issues or duplicates, may be issued or furnished by the department unless the applicant, at the same time, makes satisfactory application for a certificate of ownership or presents satisfactory evidence that such a certificate of ownership covering the vehicle has been previously issued.~~

~~((2) Except as otherwise provided in this section, no vehicle license number plates or certificate of license registration, whether original issues or duplicates, and no renewed vehicle license may be issued by the department unless the applicant possesses a valid driver's license. In the case of joint application by more than one person, each applicant shall possess a valid driver's license.~~

~~(3) Subsection (2) of this section applies only to applicants who are individual persons and does not apply to corporations, other businesses, or vehicles proportionally registered under chapter 46.07 RCW.~~

~~(4) Subsection (2) of this section does not apply to any applicant with respect to whom the department determines that:~~

~~(a) The applicant's driver's license is not currently suspended or revoked and the applicant is not in suspended or revoked status;~~

~~(b) The applicant has not been convicted of a violation of RCW 46.20.021, 46.20.342, 46.20.420, or 46.65.090; and~~

~~(c) Circumstances not related to any violation of Title 46 RCW account for the applicant's current lack of a driver's license and the applicant's need to register a vehicle. The applicant shall by affidavit indicate:~~

~~(i) The reason for the applicant's lack of a driver's license;~~

~~(ii) The need the applicant has for registering a vehicle; and~~

~~(iii) That the applicant will not knowingly permit a person without a driver's license to drive any vehicle registered in the applicant's name.~~

~~(5) A knowingly made material misstatement on an affidavit under subsection (4)(c) of this section is a misdemeanor.~~

~~(6) No denial under this section of issuance or of renewal of plates or certificates affects the right of any person to maintain, transfer, or acquire title in any vehicle. Unless the parties to the contract agree otherwise, no such denial affects the rights or obligations of any party to a contract for the purchase, or for the financing of the purchase, of a motor vehicle.)~~

NEW SECTION, Sec. 23. Section 22 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1990."

In line 2 of the title, after "licensing;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 46.04.302, 46.12.290, 46.12.370, 46.20.205, 46.20.300, 46.20.308, 46.20.510, 46.65.065, 46.70.011, 46.70.027, 46.70.070, 46.70.101, 46.80.110, 46.82.320, 46.82.360, and 82.50.010; reenacting and amending RCW 46.12.020; adding new sections to chapter 46.04 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 46.70 RCW; creating a new section; prescribing penalties; and providing an effective date."

SSB 5474 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Law & Justice: Requiring testing and certification of English language interpreters in court. Reported by Committee on Appropriations

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. It is hereby declared to be the policy of this state to secure the rights, constitutional or otherwise, of persons who, because of a non-English-speaking cultural background, are unable to readily understand or communicate in the English language, and who consequently cannot be fully protected in legal proceedings unless qualified interpreters are available to assist them.

It is the intent of the legislature in the passage of this chapter to provide for the use and procedure for the appointment of such interpreters. Nothing in this act abridges the parties' rights or obligations under other statutes or court rules or other law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. As used in this chapter:

(1) 'Non-English-speaking person' means any person involved in a legal proceeding who cannot readily speak or understand the English language, but does not include hearing-impaired persons who are covered under chapter 2.42 RCW.

(2) 'Qualified interpreter' means a person who is able readily to interpret or translate spoken and written English for non-English-speaking persons and to interpret or translate oral or written statements of non-English-speaking persons into spoken English.

(3) 'Legal proceeding' means a proceeding in any court in this state, grand jury hearing, or hearing before an inquiry judge, or before administrative board, commission, agency, or licensing body of the state or any political subdivision thereof.

(4) 'Certified interpreter' means an interpreter who is certified by the office of the administrator for the courts.

(5) 'Appointing authority' means the presiding officer or similar official of any court, department, board, commission, agency, licensing authority, or legislative body of the state or of any political subdivision thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) Whenever an interpreter is appointed to assist a non-English-speaking person in a legal proceeding, the appointing authority shall, in the absence of a written waiver by the person, appoint a certified or a qualified interpreter to assist the person throughout the proceedings.

(a) Except as otherwise provided for in (b) of this subsection, the interpreter appointed shall be a qualified interpreter.

(b) Beginning on July 1, 1990, when a non-English-speaking person is a party to a legal proceeding, or is subpoenaed or summoned by an appointing authority or is otherwise compelled by an appointing authority to appear at a legal proceeding, the appointing authority shall use the services of only those language interpreters who have been certified by the office of the administrator for the courts, unless good cause is found and noted on the record by the appointing authority. For purposes of this act, 'good cause' includes but is not limited to a determination that:

(1) Given the totality of the circumstances, including the nature of the proceeding and the potential penalty or consequences involved, the services of a certified interpreter are not reasonably available to the appointing authority; or

(2) The current list of certified interpreters maintained by the office of the administrator for the courts does not include an interpreter certified in the language spoken by the non-English-speaking person.

(3) If good cause is found for using an interpreter who is not certified or if a qualified interpreter is appointed, the appointing authority shall make a preliminary determination, on the basis of testimony or stated needs of the non-English-speaking person, that the proposed interpreter is able to interpret accurately all communications to and from such person in that particular proceeding. The appointing authority shall satisfy itself on the record that the proposed interpreter:

(a) Is capable of communicating effectively with the court or agency and the person for whom the interpreter would interpret; and

(b) Has read, understands, and will abide by the code of ethics for language interpreters established by court rules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) Interpreters appointed according to this chapter are entitled to a reasonable fee for their services and shall be reimbursed for actual expenses which are reasonable as provided in this section.

(2) In all legal proceedings in which the non-English-speaking person is a party, or is subpoenaed or summoned by the appointing authority or is otherwise compelled by the appointing authority to appear, including criminal proceedings, grand jury proceedings, coroner's inquests, mental health commitment proceedings, and other legal proceedings initiated by agencies of government, the cost of providing the interpreter shall be borne by the governmental body initiating the legal proceedings.

(3) In other legal proceedings, the cost of providing the interpreter shall be borne by the non-English-speaking person unless such person is indigent according to adopted standards of the body. In such a case the cost shall be an administrative cost of the governmental body under the authority of which the legal proceeding is conducted.

(4) The cost of providing the interpreter is a taxable cost of any proceeding in which costs ordinarily are taxed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Before beginning to interpret, every interpreter appointed under this chapter shall take an oath affirming that the interpreter will make a true interpretation to the person being examined of all the proceedings in a language which the person understands, and that the interpreter will repeat the statements of the person being examined to the court or agency conducting the proceedings, in the English language, to the best of the interpreter's skill and judgment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The right to a qualified interpreter may not be waived except when:

(a) A non-English-speaking person requests a waiver; and

(b) The appointing authority determines on the record that the waiver has been made knowingly, voluntarily, and intelligently.

(2) Waiver of a qualified interpreter may be set aside and an interpreter appointed, in the discretion of the appointing authority, at any time during the proceedings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) Subject to the availability of funds, the office of the administrator for the courts shall establish and administer a comprehensive testing and certification program for language interpreters.

(2) The office of the administrator for the courts shall work cooperatively with community colleges and other private or public educational institutions, and with other public or private organizations to establish a certification preparation curriculum and suitable training programs to ensure the availability of certified interpreters. Training programs shall be made readily available in both eastern and western Washington locations.

(3) The office of the administrator for the courts shall establish and adopt standards of proficiency, written and oral, in English and the language to be interpreted.

(4) The office of the administrator for the courts shall conduct periodic examinations to ensure the availability of certified interpreters. Periodic examinations shall be made readily available in both eastern and western Washington locations.

(5) The office of the administrator for the courts shall compile, maintain, and disseminate a current list of interpreters certified by the office of the administrator for the courts.

(6) The office of the administrator for the courts may charge reasonable fees for testing, training, and certification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. All language interpreters serving in a legal proceeding, whether or not certified or qualified, shall abide by a code of ethics established by supreme court rule.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The office of the administrator for the courts shall create and consult with an advisory committee on certification of interpreters. The committee shall consist of representatives of county prosecutors, public defenders, the bar association, judges, and groups representing non-English-speaking persons. The committee shall advise the office of the administrator for the courts on procedures and standards for the certification of interpreters, and shall determine in what order of priority various groups of non-English-speaking persons are in need of certified interpreters. The committee shall also consider and recommend to the legislature its findings regarding whether the function of certifying interpreters ought to be carried out by an agency other than the administrator for the courts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 1 through 9 of this act are each added to chapter 2.42 RCW.

Sec. 12. Section 1, chapter 22, Laws of 1973 as amended by section 1, chapter 222, Laws of 1983 and RCW 2.42.010 are each amended to read as follows:

It is hereby declared to be the policy of this state to secure the constitutional rights of deaf persons and of other persons who, because of impairment of hearing or speech, (~~or non-English-speaking cultural background~~) are unable to readily understand or communicate the spoken English language, and who consequently cannot be fully protected in legal proceedings unless qualified interpreters are available to assist them.

It is the intent of the legislature in the passage of this chapter to provide for the appointment of such interpreters.

Sec. 13. Section 2, chapter 22, Laws of 1973 as amended by section 2, chapter 222, Laws of 1983 and RCW 2.42.020 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter (1) an 'impaired person' is any person involved in a legal proceeding who is deaf or who, because of other hearing or speech defects, (~~or because of non-English-speaking cultural background~~) cannot readily understand or communicate in spoken language (~~or readily speak or understand the English language~~) and who, when involved as a party to a legal proceeding, is unable by reason of such defects to obtain due process of law; (2) a 'qualified interpreter' is one who is able readily to translate spoken (~~and written English~~) language to (~~and for~~) impaired persons and to translate statements of impaired persons into spoken (~~English~~) language; (3) 'legal proceeding' is a proceeding in any court in this state, at grand jury hearings or hearings before an inquiry judge, or before administrative boards, commissions, agencies, or licensing bodies of the state or any political subdivision thereof.

Sec. 14. Section 5, chapter 22, Laws of 1973 as amended by section 20, chapter 389, Laws of 1985 and RCW 2.42.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Every qualified interpreter appointed under this chapter in a judicial or administrative proceeding shall, before beginning to interpret, take an oath that a true interpretation will be made to the person being examined of all the proceedings (~~in a language or~~) in a manner which the person understands, and that the interpreter will repeat the statements of the person being examined to the court or other agency conducting the proceedings, (~~in the English language~~;) to the best of the interpreter's skill and judgment."

SSB 5479 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Environment & Natural Resources: Establishing two recreational geoduck harvesting areas. Reported by Committee on Natural Resources & Parks

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 79.96 RCW to read as follows:

The department of natural resources is hereby directed to establish a recreational geoduck harvesting area. The area shall be withdrawn from the department's commercial harvesting tracts by authority of the commissioner of public lands in the aquatic lands adjacent to the east side of Cooper Point, on Budd Inlet.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 75.25 RCW to read as follows:

A geoduck license is required to take, dig for, or possess geoducks taken for personal use from the geoduck harvesting areas of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 75.25 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The annual fees for geoduck licenses are:

(a) A resident license, two dollars and fifty cents; and

(b) A nonresident license, ten dollars.

(2) Upon application, a resident sixty-five years of age or older or under sixteen years of age shall be issued a geoduck license at no cost. Dealers may collect the dealer's fee established in RCW 75.25.130.

Sec. 4. Section 12, chapter 327, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 6, chapter 87, Laws of 1987 and RCW 75.25.130 are each amended to read as follows:

All licenses, punchcards, and stamps required by this chapter shall be issued only under authority of the director. The director may authorize license dealers to issue the licenses, punchcards, and stamps and collect the license fees. In addition to the license, punchcard, or stamp fee, dealers may charge a dealer's fee of fifty cents for each Hood Canal shrimp license, two-consecutive-day combined license and punchcard, personal use license, punchcard, geoduck license, and razor clam license. The dealer's fee may be retained by the license dealer.

The director shall adopt rules for the issuance of personal use licenses, Hood Canal shrimp licenses, geoduck licenses, razor clam licenses, stamps, and punchcards and for the collection, payment, and handling of license fees and dealers' fees.

Sec. 5. Section 15, chapter 327, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 7, chapter 87, Laws of 1987 and RCW 75.25.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Personal use licenses, Hood Canal shrimp licenses, geoduck licenses, razor clam licenses, stamps, and punchcards are not transferable. Upon request of a fisheries patrol officer or ex officio fisheries patrol officer, a person digging for or possessing geoducks or razor clams or fishing for or possessing food fish for personal use shall exhibit the required license and punchcard and write his or her signature for comparison with the signature on the license. Failure to comply with the request is prima facie evidence that the person does not have a license or punchcard or is not the person named on the license or punchcard.

(2) The razor clam license shall be visible on the licensee while digging for razor clams.

Sec. 6. Section 99, chapter 46, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 9, chapter 80, Laws of 1984 and RCW 75.25.150 are each amended to read as follows:

It is unlawful to dig for or possess geoducks or razor clams, fish for or possess anadromous salmon, or take or possess shrimp without the licenses required by this chapter.

Sec. 7. Section 16, chapter 327, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 8, chapter 87, Laws of 1987 and RCW 75.25.160 are each amended to read as follows:

A person who violates a provision of this chapter or who knowingly falsifies information required for the issuance of a Hood Canal shrimp license, personal use license, geoduck license, razor clam license, or punchcard is guilty of a misdemeanor and is subject to the penalties provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW.

Sec. 8. Section 9, chapter 87, Laws of 1987 and RCW 75.25.170 are each amended to read as follows:

Fees received for personal use licenses, geoduck licenses, punchcards, and stamps under this chapter shall be deposited in the general fund and shall be appropriated for management, enhancement, research, and enforcement purposes of the shellfish, salmon, and marine fish programs of the department of fisheries."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "areas;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 75.25.130, 75.25.140, 75.25.150, 75.25.160, and 75.25.170; adding new sections to chapter 75.25 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 79.96 RCW; and prescribing penalties."

ESSB 5499 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Financial Institutions & Insurance: Requiring motor vehicle liability insurance. Reported by Committee on Financial Institutions & Insurance

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. It is a privilege granted by the state to operate a motor vehicle upon the highways of this state. The legislature recognizes the threat that uninsured drivers are to the people of the state. In order to alleviate the threat posed by uninsured drivers it is the intent of the legislature to require that all persons driving vehicles registered in this state satisfy the financial responsibility requirements of this chapter. By enactment of this chapter it is not the intent of the legislature to modify, amend, or invalidate existing insurance contract terms, conditions, limitations, or exclusions or to preclude insurance companies from using similar terms, conditions, limitations, or exclusions in future contracts.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. (1) No person may operate a motor vehicle subject to registration under chapter 46.16 RCW in this state unless the person is insured under a motor vehicle liability policy with liability limits of at least the amounts provided in RCW 46.29.090, is self-insured as provided in RCW 46.29.630, is covered by a certificate of deposit in conformance with RCW 46.29.550, or is covered by a liability bond of at least the amounts provided in RCW 46.29.090.

(2) A violation of this section constitutes a traffic infraction punishable by a fine of two hundred and fifty dollars unless a court determines that in the interest of justice the fine should be reduced. In lieu of the fine, a court may permit the defendant to perform community service designated by the court.

(3) If a person cited for a violation of this section appears in person before the court and provides written evidence of compliance with this section that is acceptable to the court, the citation shall be dismissed. In lieu of personal appearance, a person cited for a violation of this section may submit written evidence of compliance with this section by mail to the court before the date scheduled for the person's appearance before the court, in which case the citation shall be dismissed.

(4) The provisions of this chapter shall not govern:

(a) The operation of a motor vehicle registered under RCW 46.16.310 or 46.16.315, governed by RCW 46.16.020, registered with the Washington utilities and transportation commission as common or contract carriers; or

(b) The operation of a motorcycle as defined in RCW 46.04.330, a motor-driven cycle as defined in RCW 46.04.332, or a moped as defined in RCW 46.04.304.

(5) RCW 46.29.490 shall not be deemed to govern all motor vehicle liability policies required by this chapter but only those certified for the purposes stated in chapter 46.29 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. (1) Whenever an insurance company issues or renews a motor vehicle liability insurance policy, the company shall provide the policyholder with an identification card as specified by the department of licensing. At the policyholder's request, the insurer shall provide the policyholder a card for each vehicle covered under the policy.

(2) The department of licensing shall adopt rules specifying the type, style, and content of insurance identification cards to be used for proof of compliance with section 2 of this act, including the method for issuance of such identification cards by persons or organizations providing proof of compliance through self-insurance, certificate of deposit, or bond. In adopting such rules the department shall consider the guidelines for insurance identification cards developed by the insurance industry committee on motor vehicle administration.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. (1) Whenever a person operates a motor vehicle subject to registration under chapter 46.16 RCW, the person shall have in his or her possession an identification card of the type specified in section 3 of this act and shall display the card upon demand to a law enforcement officer.

(2) Every person who drives a motor vehicle required to be registered in another state that requires drivers and owners of vehicles in that state to maintain insurance or financial responsibility shall, when requested by a law enforcement officer, provide evidence of financial responsibility or insurance as is required by the laws of the state in which the vehicle is registered.

(3) Any person who knowingly provides false evidence of financial responsibility to a law enforcement officer or to a court, including an expired or canceled insurance policy, bond, or certificate of deposit is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 5, Section 2, chapter 11, Laws of 1979 as last amended by section 1, chapter 30, Laws of 1981 and RCW 46.52.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The driver of any vehicle involved in an accident resulting in injury to or death of any person or damage to the property of any one person to an apparent extent of three hundred dollars or more, shall, within twenty-four hours after such accident, make a written report of such accident to the chief of police of the city or town if such accident occurred within an incorporated city or town or the county sheriff or state patrol if such accident occurred outside incorporated cities and towns.

(2) If such accident was not investigated by a law enforcement officer, the original of such report shall be immediately forwarded by the authority receiving such report to the chief of the Washington state patrol at Olympia, Washington, and the second copy of such report to be forwarded to the department of licensing at Olympia, Washington.

(3) If such accident was investigated by a law enforcement officer, the original of each driver's report required by subsection (1) of this section shall be retained by the local law enforcement agency where the accident occurred, and the second copy shall be forwarded to the department of licensing at Olympia, Washington.

(4) Any law enforcement officer who investigates an accident for which a driver's report is required under subsection (1) of this section shall submit an investigator's report as required by RCW 46.52.070.

(5) The chief of the Washington state patrol may require any driver of any vehicle involved in an accident, of which report must be made as provided in this section, to file supplemental reports whenever the original report in his opinion is insufficient, and may likewise require witnesses of any such accident to render reports. For this purpose, the chief of the Washington state patrol shall prepare and, upon request, supply to any police department, coroner, sheriff, and any other suitable agency or individual, sample forms of accident reports required hereunder, which reports shall be upon a form devised by the chief of the Washington state patrol and shall call for sufficiently detailed information to disclose all material facts with reference to the accident to be reported thereon, including the location, the cause, the conditions then existing, ~~((and))~~ the persons and vehicles involved, the insurance information required under section 3 of this act, personal injury or death, if any, the amounts of property damage claimed, the total number of vehicles involved, whether the vehicles were legally parked, legally standing, or moving, and whether such vehicles were occupied at the time of the accident. Every required accident report shall be made on a form prescribed by the chief of the Washington state patrol and each authority charged with the duty of receiving such reports shall provide sufficient report forms in compliance with the form devised. The report forms shall be designated so as to provide that a copy may be retained by the reporting person.

Sec. 6. Section 46.56.190, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 65, chapter 32, Laws of 1967 and RCW 46.61.020 are each amended to read as follows:

It ~~((shall be))~~ is unlawful for any person while operating or in charge of any vehicle to refuse when requested by a police officer to give his name and address and the name and address of the owner of such vehicle, or for such person to give a false name and address, and it ~~((shall))~~ is likewise ~~((be))~~ unlawful for any such person to refuse or neglect to stop when signaled to stop by any police officer or to refuse upon demand of such police officer to produce his certificate of license registration of such vehicle, his insurance identification card, or his vehicle driver's license or to refuse to permit such officer to take any such license, card, or certificate for the purpose of examination thereof or to refuse to permit the examination of any equipment of such vehicle or the weighing of such vehicle or to refuse or neglect to produce the certificate of license registration of such vehicle, insurance card, or his vehicle driver's license when requested by any court. Any police officer shall on request produce evidence of his authorization as such.

Sec. 7. Section 4, chapter 136, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.021 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person requested or signaled to stop by a law enforcement officer for a traffic infraction has a duty to stop.

(2) Whenever any person is stopped for a traffic infraction, the officer may detain that person for a reasonable period of time necessary to identify the person, check the status of the person's license, insurance identification card, and the vehicle's registration, and complete and issue a notice of traffic infraction.

(3) Any person requested to identify himself to a law enforcement officer pursuant to an investigation of a traffic infraction has a duty to identify himself, give his current address, and sign an acknowledgement of receipt of the notice of infraction.

Sec. 8. Section 3, chapter 186, Laws of 1986 as amended by section 2, chapter 181, Laws of 1987, by section 55, chapter 244, Laws of 1987, by section 6, chapter 247, Laws of 1987 and by section 11, chapter 388, Laws of 1987 and RCW 46.63.020 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

Failure to perform any act required or the performance of any act prohibited by this title or an equivalent administrative regulation or local law, ordinance, regulation, or resolution relating to traffic including parking, standing, stopping, and pedestrian offenses, is designated as a traffic infraction and may not be classified as a criminal offense, except for an offense contained in the following provisions of this title or a violation of an equivalent administrative regulation or local law, ordinance, regulation, or resolution:

ESSB 5516 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Health Care & Corrections: Regarding the disabilities land trust. Reported by Committee on Human Services

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that Article XIII of the Constitution of the state of Washington requires the state to provide institutional services for persons who are mentally ill, developmentally disabled, or juvenile offenders. The state is now funding community-based services for these citizens.

The legislature also finds that there are hundreds of acres of land dedicated to providing care for these citizens, including three hundred seventy-four acres of the Fort Steilacoom Military Reservation granted to the state by the United States 'for the use and purpose of an asylum for the insane and for no other purpose,' which may have been lost to the mentally ill in negotiations with Pierce county. Over the years hundreds of acres of additional land have been donated and purchased at public expense for the sole purpose of providing the necessary resources for these citizens.

Therefore, the purposes of this act are:

(1) To implement the intent of the congress and the legislature that the land granted and other lands acquired by the state for mentally ill, developmentally disabled, and juvenile offenders populations be administered in a manner that makes funds available for the support of the programs and facilities designed for them;

(2) To the extent practicable, to eliminate the need for costly, time-consuming and divisive litigation over the state's management of such lands;

(3) To ensure that the attention of the public and the government is focused on mental health and other programs, as contemplated by the congress and not on issues relating to the management of the land;

(4) To validate each deed, contract for sale, lease, easement, right of way, permit, mineral lease disposal, and reservation of land for public use; and

(5) To establish a land trust through identification of these lands, the capital assets, and the fair market rental, lease, or sale value of these lands as the principal of the trust and to require management of the trust in a manner that shall not deplete the trust principal.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 43.185 RCW to read as follows:

(1) By December 15, 1989, the office of financial management shall coordinate the efforts of the department of natural resources, the department of social and health services, and the department of general administration to inventory and record all lands and other capital assets ever acquired or dedicated for the care of blind or deaf or otherwise disabled youth for juvenile offenders, and for persons who are mentally ill or developmentally disabled.

(2) The office of financial management shall contract with an independent consultant to identify strategies for the more aggressive management of these lands and facilities to maximize the funds acquired through the use of these lands.

(3) On July 1, 1990, there is created in the state treasury an account to be known as the disabilities trust principal account. The corpus of the disabilities trust principal account shall be the lands or property acquired by grant, purchase, or donation for the care of persons who are juvenile offenders, mentally ill, or developmentally disabled. Proceeds received from the sale of such lands shall be retained in the account. The corpus of this account shall not be depleted. Surplus cash available in this account is to be invested in the same manner as the common school permanent fund.

(4) The disabilities trust principal account shall be managed as aggressively as possible to preserve the asset base, to provide housing for the developmentally disabled and mentally ill populations, and to maximize income to purchase facilities or residential support.

(5) There is also created in the state treasury an account to be known as the disabilities trust income account. Revenues received from the investment, rental, or lease of trust assets of the disabilities trust principal account are to be transferred to the disabilities trust income account for the purpose of providing housing and residential support for juvenile offenders, the developmentally disabled, and mentally ill.

(6) The disabilities trust income account shall be administered according to chapter 43.185 RCW.

(7) No land or other capital assets described in this section may be sold, given, traded, or encumbered for any period of time beyond June 30, 1991, unless such sale, gift, trade, or encumbrance is specifically authorized by the legislature: PROVIDED, That trust lands acquired by grant at statehood for charitable, educational, penal, and reformatory institutions may be managed for the production of income and preservation or enhancement of asset value, including exchanges where at least equal value is secured to the trust.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 43.185 RCW to read as follows:

Sections 2 through 5 of this act shall not be construed as affecting any valid or lawful lease, rental, or donation of land or capital assets to nonprofit charitable corporations as defined in chapter 24.03 RCW which is in existence on the effective date of this act.

Sec. 4. Section 3, chapter 513, Laws of 1987 and RCW 43.185.110 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The director shall prepare an annual report and shall send copies to the chair of the house of representatives committee on housing, the chair of the senate committee on commerce and labor, and one copy to the staff of each committee that summarizes the housing trust fund's income, grants and operating expenses, implementation of its program, and any problems arising in the administration thereof. The director shall promptly appoint a low-income housing assistance advisory committee composed of a representative from each of the following groups: Apartment owners, realtors, mortgage lending or servicing institutions, private nonprofit housing assistance programs, tenant associations, and public housing assistance programs. The advisory group shall advise the director on housing needs in this state, operational aspects of the grant and loan program or revenue collection programs established by this chapter, and implementation of the policy and goals of this chapter.

(2) The director shall add to the low-income housing assistance advisory committee the following persons who shall serve only when the committee is considering matters regarding or related to the disabilities trust income account:

(a) The secretary of the department of social and health services or the secretary's designee;

(b) A representative from an advocacy or consumer group for the developmentally disabled;

(c) A representative from an advocacy or consumer group for the mentally ill;

(d) One representative from a class AA county; and

(e) One representative from a class A or smaller county.

Sec. 5. Section 8, chapter 298, Laws of 1986 as amended by section 1, chapter 286, Laws of 1988 and RCW 43.185.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) During each calendar year in which funds are available for use by the department from the housing trust fund, as prescribed in RCW 43.185.030, the department shall announce to all known interested parties, and through major media throughout the state, a grant and loan application period of at least ninety days' duration. This announcement shall be made as often as the director deems appropriate for proper utilization of resources, but at least twice annually. The department shall then promptly grant as many applications as will utilize available funds less appropriate administrative costs of the department, not to exceed thirty-seven thousand five hundred dollars in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1988, and seventy-five thousand dollars in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1989, and not to exceed five percent of annual revenues to the fund thereafter.

(2) The department shall give first priority to applications for projects and activities which utilize existing privately owned housing stock including privately owned housing stock purchased by nonprofit public development authorities. Such projects and activities shall be evaluated under subsection (3) of this section. Second priority shall be given to activities and projects which utilize existing publicly owned housing stock. Such projects and activities shall be evaluated under subsection (3) of this section.

(3) The department shall give preference for applications based on the following criteria:

(a) The degree of leveraging of other funds that will occur;

(b) Recipient contributions to total project costs, including allied contributions from other sources such as professional, craft and trade services, and lender interest rate subsidies;

(c) Local government project contributions in the form of infrastructure improvements, and others;

(d) Projects that encourage ownership, management, and other project-related responsibility opportunities;

(e) Projects that demonstrate a strong probability of serving the original target group or income level for a period of at least fifteen years;

(f) The applicant has the demonstrated ability, stability and resources to implement the project;

(g) Projects which demonstrate serving the greatest need; ~~((and))~~

(h) Projects that provide housing for persons and families with the lowest incomes;

(i) Projects or services for the disabled shall be consistent with the recommendations of the developmental disabilities planning council; and

(j) Projects for the mentally ill shall be consistent with plans developed by counties or regional residential support networks pursuant to chapter 71.24 RCW as now or hereafter amended."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "trust;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 43.185.110 and 43.185.070; adding new sections to chapter 43.185 RCW; and creating a new section."

SSB 5543 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Economic Development & Labor: Regulating annual reports of nonprofit corporations. Reported by Committee on Commerce & Labor

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that it is in the public interest to increase the level of accountability to the public of nonprofit corporations through improved reporting, increased consistency between state and federal statutes, and a clear definition of those nonprofit corporations that may hold themselves out as operating to benefit the public.

Sec. 2. Section 80, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 4, chapter 117, Laws of 1987 and RCW 24.03.395 are each amended to read as follows:

Each domestic corporation, and each foreign corporation authorized to conduct affairs in this state, shall file, within the time prescribed by this chapter, an annual report in the form prescribed by the secretary of state setting forth:

(1) The name of the corporation and the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated((:));

(2) The address of the registered office of the corporation in this state including street and number and the name of its registered agent in this state at such address, and, in the case of a foreign corporation, the address of its principal office((:));

(3) A brief statement of the character of the affairs which the corporation is actually conducting, or, in the case of a foreign corporation, which the corporation is actually conducting in this state((:));

(4) The names and respective addresses of the directors and officers of the corporation;

(5) An affirmative indication whether or not any change has been made in the corporation's purpose and if so, the nature and reason for the change along with accompanying documentation;

(6) Whether the corporation has filed an internal revenue service form 990 with the internal revenue service, which if filed, shall be made available upon request to the secretary of state's office;

(7) The gross revenue and any unrelated business income as required to be reported under federal law; and

(8) The corporation's unified business identifier number.

The information shall be given as of the date of the execution of the report. It shall be executed by the corporation by an officer of the corporation, or, if the corporation is in the hands of a receiver or trustee, it shall be executed on behalf of the corporation by such receiver or trustee.

The secretary of state may provide that correction or updating of information appearing on previous annual filings is sufficient to constitute the current annual filing.

Sec. 3 Section 2, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 1, chapter 240, Laws of 1986 and RCW 24.03.005 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the term:

(1) 'Corporation' or 'domestic corporation' means a corporation not for profit subject to the provisions of this chapter, except a foreign corporation.

(2) 'Foreign corporation' means a corporation not for profit organized under laws other than the laws of this state.

(3) 'Not for profit corporation' or 'nonprofit corporation' means a corporation no part of the income of which is distributable to its members, directors or officers.

(4) 'Articles of incorporation' and 'articles' mean the original articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto, and includes articles of merger and restated articles.

(5) 'Bylaws' means the code or codes of rules adopted for the regulation or management of the affairs of the corporation irrespective of the name or names by which such rules are designated.

(6) 'Member' means an individual or entity having membership rights in a corporation in accordance with the provisions of its articles or incorporation or bylaws.

(7) 'Board of directors' means the group of persons vested with the management of the affairs of the corporation irrespective of the name by which such group is designated in the articles or bylaws.

(8) 'Insolvent' means inability of a corporation to pay debts as they become due in the usual course of its affairs.

(9) 'Duplicate originals' means two copies, original or otherwise, each with original signatures, or one original with original signatures and one copy thereof.

(10) 'Conforms to law' as used in connection with duties of the secretary of state in reviewing documents for filing under this chapter, means the secretary of state has determined that the document complies as to form with the applicable requirements of this chapter.

(11) 'Effective date' means, in connection with a document filing made by the secretary of state, the date which is shown by affixing a 'filed' stamp on the documents. When a document is received for filing by the secretary of state in a form which complies with the requirements of this chapter and which would entitle the document to be filed immediately upon receipt, but the secretary of state's approval action occurs subsequent to the date of receipt, the secretary of state's filing date shall relate back to the date on which the secretary of state first received the document in acceptable form. An applicant may request a specific effective date no more than thirty days later than the receipt date which might otherwise be applied as the effective date.

(12) 'Executed by an officer of the corporation,' or words of similar import, means that any document signed by such person shall be and is signed by that person under penalties of perjury and in an official and authorized capacity on behalf of the corporation or person making the document submission with the secretary of state.

(13) 'An officer of the corporation' means, in connection with the execution of documents submitted for filing with the secretary of state, the president, a vice president, the secretary, or the treasurer of the corporation.

(14) 'Public benefit not for profit corporation' or 'public benefit nonprofit corporation' means a corporation no part of the income of which is distributable to its members, directors, or officers and that holds a current tax exempt status as provided under 26 U.S.C. Sec. 501(c)(3) or is specifically exempted from the requirement to apply for its tax exempt status under 26 U.S.C. Sec. 501(c)(3).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is hereby established the special designation 'public benefit not for profit corporation' or 'public benefit nonprofit corporation.' A corporation may be designated as a public benefit nonprofit corporation if it meets the following requirements:

- (1) The corporation complies with the provisions of this chapter; and
- (2) The corporation holds a current tax exempt status as provided under 26 U.S.C. Sec. 501(c)(3) or is not required to apply for its tax exempt status under 26 U.S.C. Sec. 501(c)(3).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A temporary designation as a public benefit nonprofit corporation may be provided to a corporation that has applied for tax exempt status under 26 U.S.C. Sec. 501(c)(3). The temporary designation is valid for up to one year and may be renewed at the discretion of the secretary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The secretary shall develop an application process for new and existing corporations to apply for public benefit nonprofit corporation status.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The designation 'public benefit nonprofit corporation' shall be renewed annually. The secretary may schedule renewals in conjunction with existing corporate renewals.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The secretary may establish fees to cover the cost of renewals.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The secretary may remove a corporation's public benefit nonprofit corporation designation if it does not comply with the provisions of this chapter or does not maintain its exempt status under 26 U.S.C. Sec. 501(c)(3). The secretary in removing a corporation's public benefit nonprofit corporation status shall comply with administrative procedures provided by this chapter.

The corporate name:

(1) Shall not contain any word or phrase which indicates or implies that it is organized for any purpose other than one or more of the purposes contained in its articles of incorporation.

(2) Shall not be the same as, or deceptively similar to, the name of any corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, existing under any act of this state, or any foreign corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, authorized to transact business or conduct affairs in this state, any domestic or foreign limited partnership on file with the secretary, or a limited partnership existing under chapter 25.10 RCW, or a corporate name reserved or registered as permitted by the laws of this state. This subsection shall not apply if the applicant files with the secretary of state either of the following: (a) The written consent of the other corporation, limited partnership, or holder of a reserved name to use the same or deceptively similar name and one or more words are added or deleted to make the name distinguishable from the other name as determined by the secretary of state, or (b) a certified copy of a final decree of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the prior right of the applicant to the use of the name in this state.

(3) Shall be transliterated into letters of the English alphabet, if it is not in English.

(4) Shall not include or end with 'incorporated,' 'company,' 'corporation,' 'partnership,' 'limited partnership,' or 'Ltd.' or any abbreviation thereof, but may use 'club,' 'league,' 'association,' 'services,' 'committee,' 'fund,' 'society,' 'foundation,' '.....', a nonprofit corporation, or any name of like import.

(5) May only include the term 'public benefit' or names of like import if the corporation has been designated as a public benefit nonprofit corporation by the secretary in accordance with this chapter.

Sec. 11. Sections 4 through 9 of this act are each added to chapter 24.03 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

ESB 5597 Prime Sponsor, Senator Nelson: Limiting pharmacists' liability.
Reported by Committee on Judiciary

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 18.64 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A pharmacist who dispenses a prescription product manufactured by a commercial manufacturer pursuant to a prescription issued by a licensed practitioner is not liable to a person who was injured through the use of the product, based on a claim of the following:

(a) Strict liability in tort; or

(b) Implied warranty provisions under the uniform commercial code, Title 62A RCW.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) of this section affects a pharmacist's liability under RCW 7.72.040(1).

(3) In any action for personal injury based upon a prescription product where a pharmacist is not liable under subsection (1) of this section, then the trier of fact shall not attribute fault under RCW 4.22.070 to that pharmacist.

(4) The limitation of liability provided in subsection (1) of this section, shall apply only if the pharmacist identifies the product manufacturer or manufacturers of the prescription product that resulted in injury to a person.

Sec. 2. Section 5, chapter 27, Laws of 1981 and RCW 7.72.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a product seller other than a manufacturer is liable to the claimant only if the claimant's harm was proximately caused by:

(a) The negligence of such product seller; or

(b) Breach of an express warranty made by such product seller; or

(c) The intentional misrepresentation of facts about the product by such product seller or the intentional concealment of information about the product by such product seller.

(2) A product seller, other than a manufacturer, shall have the liability of a manufacturer to the claimant if:

(a) No solvent manufacturer who would be liable to the claimant is subject to service of process under the laws of the claimant's domicile or the state of Washington; or

(b) The court determines that it is highly probable that the claimant would be unable to enforce a judgment against any manufacturer; or

(c) The product seller is a controlled subsidiary of a manufacturer, or the manufacturer is a controlled subsidiary of the product seller; or

(d) The product seller provided the plans or specifications for the manufacture or preparation of the product and such plans or specifications were a proximate cause of the defect in the product; or

(e) The product was marketed under a trade name or brand name of the product seller.

(3) Subsection (2) of this section does not apply to a pharmacist who dispenses a prescription product manufactured by a commercial manufacturer pursuant to a prescription issued by a licensed practitioner and who identifies the product manufacturer or manufacturers of the prescription product that resulted in injury to a person.

Sec. 3. Section 401, chapter 305, Laws of 1986 and RCW 4.22.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In all actions involving fault of more than one entity, the trier of fact shall determine the percentage of the total fault which is attributable to every entity which caused the claimant's damages, including the claimant or person suffering personal injury or incurring property damage, defendants, third-party defendants, entities released by the claimant, entities immune from liability to the claimant except as provided in RCW 7.72.040(3) and entities with any other individual defense against the claimant. Judgment shall be entered against each defendant except those who have been released by the claimant or are immune from liability to the claimant or have prevailed on any other individual defense against the claimant in an amount which represents that party's proportionate share of the claimant's total damages. The liability of each defendant shall be several only and shall not be joint except:

(a) A party shall be responsible for the fault of another person or for payment of the proportionate share of another party where both were acting in concert or when a person was acting as an agent or servant of the party.

(b) If the trier of fact determines that the claimant or party suffering bodily injury or incurring property damages was not at fault, the defendants against whom judgment is entered shall be jointly and severally liable for the sum of their proportionate shares of the claimant's total damages.

(2) If a defendant is jointly and severally liable under one of the exceptions listed in subsections (1)(a) or (1)(b) of this section, such defendant's rights to contribution against another jointly and severally liable defendant, and the effect of settlement by either such defendant, shall be determined under RCW 4.22.040, 4.22.050, and 4.22.060.

(3)(a) Nothing in this section affects any cause of action relating to hazardous wastes or substances or solid waste disposal sites.

(b) Nothing in this section shall affect a cause of action arising from the tortious interference with contracts or business relations.

(c) Nothing in this section shall affect any cause of action arising from the manufacture or marketing of a fungible product in a generic form which contains no clearly identifiable shape, color, or marking.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds: (1) That the continuous development of Washington's ports should be a long-term goal for the state of Washington; (2) that Washington's ports are a valuable economic development resource, whose strength as a combined, coordinated entity for the purpose of trade and tourism development would far exceed their individual strength's in those areas; and (3) that, therefore, the ports should work together as a federation, coordinating their efforts further still with other public entities as well as the private sector.

The legislature concurs with the 1989 report of the economic development board on a long-term economic development strategy for Washington state as follows: (a) Competition for tourism dollars, as well as dollars to purchase Washington's goods and services, is global in nature and to compete, the state must identify its unique market niches, and market its trade, travel, and tourism assets aggressively; (b) the ports of the state of Washington are an integral part of the technological and physical infrastructure needed to help the state compete in the international marketplace; and (c) links among public agencies, associate development organizations, including ports, universities, and industry-oriented organizations must be strengthened in an effort to improve coordination, prevent duplication, and build local capacity.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 53.06 RCW to read as follows:

The Washington public ports association is authorized to create a federation of Washington ports to enable member ports to strengthen their international trading capabilities and market the region's products worldwide. Such a federation shall maintain the authority of individual ports and have the following purposes:

(1) To operate as an export trading company under the provisions enumerated in chapter 53.31 RCW;

(2) To provide a network to market the services of the members of the Washington public ports association;

(3) To provide expertise and assistance to businesses interested in export markets;

(4) To promote cooperative efforts between ports and local associate development organizations to assist local economic development efforts and build local capacity; and

(5) To assist in the efficient marketing of the state's trade, tourism, and travel resources.

This section shall expire July 1, 1994, and shall be subject to review under chapter 43.131 RCW.

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 31, Laws of 1961 and RCW 53.06.020 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be the duty of the port district commissions in the state to take such action to effect the coordination of the administrative programs and operations of each port district in the state and to submit to the governor and the legislature biennially a joint report or joint reports containing the recommendations for procedural changes which would increase the efficiency of the respective port districts. Beginning with the 1990 legislative session, the association shall report on steps being taken to establish a federation of Washington ports pursuant to section 2 of this 1989 act.

Sec. 4. Section 3, chapter 31, Laws of 1961 and RCW 53.06.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The port district commissions in this state are empowered to designate the Washington public ports association as a coordinating agency through which the duties imposed by RCW 53.06.020 may be performed, harmonized or correlated. The purposes of the Washington public ports association shall be:

(1) To initiate and carry on the necessary studies, investigations and surveys required for the proper development and improvement of the commerce and business generally common to all port districts, and to assemble and analyze the data thus obtained and to cooperate with the state of Washington, port districts both within and without the state of Washington, and other operators of terminal and transportation facilities for this purpose, and to make such expenditures as are necessary for these purposes, including the proper promotion and advertising of all such properties, utilities and facilities;

(2) To establish coordinating and joint marketing bodies comprised of association members, including but not limited to establishment of a federation of Washington ports as described in section 2 of this 1989 act, as may be necessary to provide effective and efficient marketing of the state's trade, tourism, and travel resources;

(3) To exchange information relative to port construction, maintenance, operation, administration and management;

~~((3))~~ (4) To promote and encourage port development along sound economic lines;

~~((4))~~ (5) To promote and encourage the development of transportation, commerce and industry;

~~((5))~~ (6) To operate as a clearing house for information, public relations and liaison for the port districts of the state and to serve as a channel for cooperation among the various port districts and for the assembly and presentation of information relating to the needs and requirements of port districts to the public.

Sec. 5. Section 1, chapter 56, Laws of 1967 and RCW 53.29.010 are each amended to read as follows:

It is declared to be the finding of the legislature of the state of Washington that:

(1) The servicing functions and activities connected with the oceanborne and overseas airborne trade and commerce of port districts, including customs clearance, shipping negotiations, cargo routing, freight forwarding, financing, insurance arrangements and other similar transactions which are presently performed in various, scattered locations in the districts should be centralized to provide for more efficient and economical transportation of persons and more efficient and economical facilities for the exchange and buying, selling and transportation of commodities and other property in world trade and commerce;

(2) Unification, at a single, centrally located site of a facility of commerce, i.e., a trade center, accommodating the functions and activities described in subsection (1) of this section and the appropriate governmental, administrative and other services connected with or incidental to transportation of persons and property and the promotion and protection of port commerce, and providing a central locale for exhibiting, and otherwise promoting the exchange and buying and selling of commodities and property in world trade and commerce, will materially assist in preserving the material and other benefits of a prosperous port community;

(3) The undertaking of the aforesaid unified trade center project by a port district or the Washington public ports association has the single object of preserving, and will aid in the promotion and preservation of, the economic well-being of ~~((the))~~ port districts and the state of Washington and is found and determined to be a public purpose.

Sec. 6. Section 2, chapter 56, Laws of 1967 and RCW 53.29.020 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to all other powers granted to port districts, any such district, the Washington public ports association, or the federation of Washington ports as described in section 2 of this 1989 act may acquire, as provided for other port properties in RCW 53.08.010, construct, develop, operate and maintain all land or other property interests, buildings, structures or other improvements necessary to provide a trade center including but not limited to:

(1) A facility consisting of one or more structures, improvements and areas for the centralized accommodation of public and private agencies, persons and facilities in order to afford improved service to waterborne and airborne import and export trade and commerce;

(2) Facilities for the promotion of such import and export trade and commerce, inspection, testing, display and appraisal facilities, foreign trade zones, terminal and transportation facilities, office meeting rooms, auditoriums, libraries, language translation services, storage, warehouse, marketing and exhibition facilities, facilities for federal, state, county and other municipal and governmental agencies providing services relating to the foregoing and including, but not being limited to, customs houses and customs stores, and other incidental facilities and accommodations.

Sec. 7. Section 3, chapter 56, Laws of 1967 and RCW 53.29.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In carrying out the powers authorized by this chapter and chapter 53.06 RCW, port districts and the Washington public ports association are authorized to cooperate and act jointly with other public and private agencies, including, but not limited to the federal government, the state, other ports and municipal corporations, other states and their political subdivisions, and private nonprofit trade promotion groups and associate development organizations.

(2) Port districts operating trade center buildings or operating association or federation trade centers, shall pay an annual service fee to the county treasurer wherein the center is located for municipal services rendered to the trade center building. The measure of such service fee shall be equal to three percent of the gross rentals received from the nongovernmental tenants of such trade center building. Such proceeds shall be distributed by the county treasurer as follows: Forty percent to the school district, forty percent to the city, and twenty percent to the county wherein the center is located: PROVIDED, That if the center is located in an unincorporated area, twenty percent shall be allocated to the fire district, forty percent to the school district, and forty percent to the county.

Sec. 8. Section 4, chapter 56, Laws of 1967 and RCW 53.29.900 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter, which may be known and cited as the "Trade Center Act", shall be liberally construed, its purpose being to provide port districts, and their related association and federation, with additional powers to provide trade centers and to promote and encourage trade, tourism, travel, and economic development in a coordinated and efficient manner through the ports of the state of Washington. The powers herein granted shall be in addition to all others granted to port districts.

Sec. 9. Section 1, chapter 276, Laws of 1986 and RCW 53.31.010 are each amended to read as follows:

It is declared to be the public policy of the state to promote and preserve the economic well-being of the citizens of this state by creating opportunities for expanded participation in international trade by state businesses and expanding international trade through state ports. Increased international trade of state products creates and retains jobs, increases the state's tax base, and diversifies the state's economy. Port districts, through economies of scale, are uniquely situated to promote and expand international trade and provide greater opportunities for state businesses to participate in international trade.

The legislature finds that significant public benefit, in the form of increased employment and tax revenues, can be realized through export trading companies without lending the credit of port districts, and without capital investment of public funds by port districts. The legislature finds that the use of port district funds to promote and establish export trading companies under this chapter constitutes trade promotion and industrial development within the meaning of Article VIII, section 8 of the state Constitution.

It is the purpose of this chapter: (1) To stimulate greater participation by private businesses in international trade; (2) to authorize port districts and the federation of Washington ports to promote and facilitate international trade more actively; (3) to make export services more widely available; (4) to generate revenue for port districts and the federation of Washington ports; and (5) to develop markets for Washington state goods and services. Port and federation of Washington ports sponsored export trading companies can also assist small to medium-sized companies in achieving economies of scale in order to expand into the export market.

It is the intent of this chapter to enhance export trade and not to create outside competition for existing Washington state businesses. The primary intent of a port and federation of Washington ports sponsored export trading company is to increase exports of Washington state products.

This chapter shall not be construed as modifying or restricting any other powers granted to port districts by law. The legislature does not intend by the enactment of this chapter for port districts to use export trading companies to create unfair competition with private business.

Sec. 10. Section 2, chapter 276, Laws of 1986 and RCW 53.31.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Port district' means any port district other than a county-wide port district in a class A or AA county, established under Title 53 RCW; except that a class A or AA county port district may participate in an export trading company established by the federation of Washington ports as described in chapter 53.06 RCW.

(2) 'Export services' means the following services when provided in order to facilitate the export of goods or services through Washington ports: International market research, promotion, consulting, marketing, legal assistance, trade documentation, communication and processing of foreign orders to and for exporters and foreign purchasers, financing, and contracting or arranging for transportation, insurance, warehousing, foreign exchange, and freight forwarding.

(3) 'Export trading company' means an entity created by a port district under RCW 53.31.040.

(4) 'Obligations' means bonds, notes, securities, or other obligations or evidences of indebtedness.

(5) 'Person' means any natural person, firm, partnership, association, private or public corporation, or governmental entity.

(6) 'Federation of Washington ports' means the cooperative marketing organization created by the Washington public ports association pursuant to section 2 of this 1989 act, and comprised of its members.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) There is created a temporary task force for purposes of examining cooperative measures available to ports and local associate development organizations to improve coordination and increase efficiency, and examining methods to build local capacity by implementing recommendations contained in the 1989 report of the economic development board.

(2) The task force shall study and make recommendations in the following areas:

(a) The feasibility of joint marketing efforts to advance the goals and mission of ports and local associate development organizations;

(b) Measures available to enhance the economic development and trade development mission of ports and local associate development organizations, including the establishment of joint trade offices and joint efforts to assist businesses to export;

(c) Opportunities to enhance the financial base of ports and local associate development organizations independent of additional taxation measures;

(d) Opportunities for ports and local associate development organizations to enter into contracts to assist local economic development efforts and build local capacity; and

(e) Such other areas as the task force determines are relevant to the mission of the task force.

(3) The task force shall consist of the following twenty members:

(a) A member of the governing board of each county-wide port district in a class A or AA county selected by the respective port commissions;

(b) The executive director of each county-wide port district in a class A or AA county;

(c) A member of a governing board of a port district which is located east of the Cascade mountains, appointed by the governor;

(d) A member of a governing board of a port district which has an industrial area and a marine terminal, appointed by the governor;

(e) An executive director of a port district which is located east of the Cascade mountains, appointed by the governor;

(f) An executive director of a port district which has an industrial area and a marine terminal, appointed by the governor;

(g) Four members from the general public representing business, labor, and community organizations, appointed by the governor;

(h) Two executive directors of local associate development organizations, one of which is located east of the Cascade mountains, appointed by the governor;

(i) The directors, or the directors' designees, of the department of community development and the department of trade and economic development to serve as nonvoting members; and

(j) A representative from each of the four legislative caucuses. The president of the senate shall appoint the two senate members and the speaker of the house of representatives shall appoint the two house members. The legislators shall serve as nonvoting members.

(4) The governor shall designate the chair of the task force.

(5) The department of trade and economic development and the department of community development shall provide staff assistance as required.

(6) Task force members may be reimbursed for necessary travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(7) The task force shall report its findings and recommendations to the legislature by January 1, 1990.

(8) The task force shall expire on March 1, 1990.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. The temporary task force shall also identify opportunities to expand the state's air cargo capacity by identifying air cargo trends worldwide, identifying existing, planned, and potential air cargo capabilities and facilities in the state, analyzing the economic feasibility of planned and potential air cargo facilities with respect to transport shipping costs, and developing alternative policies for state and local government action to help ensure Washington remains competitive with respect to air cargo facilities.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. Nothing in section 11 or 12 of this act shall be construed to limit or impinge upon the autonomy of port districts.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Sec. 15. Section 10, chapter 276, Laws of 1986 and RCW 53.31.900 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall expire July 1, (~~1991~~) 1994, and shall be subject to review under chapter 43.131 RCW."

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 19.72 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Any public or private works contract or improvement bond shall not provide any other type of insurance coverage defined in chapter 48.11 RCW, including but not limited to general casualty insurance coverage as defined in RCW 48.11.070, and property insurance coverage as defined in RCW 48.11.040, other than surety insurance coverage. Language in any contract or bond to the contrary shall be void.

(2) Unless otherwise specifically provided by statute, even if liability is imposed on the surety's principal or the surety by the contract, bond, or common law, no bond, provided written notice of this exemption has been given the obligee by the surety, shall be liable for damages based upon or arising out of any:

(a) Tortious injury to:

(i) Person (including death); or

(ii) Real or personal property except as provided in subsection (3) of this section; or

(b) Failure to have any or adequate insurance coverage.

(3) Nothing in subsection (2)(a)(i) of this section prohibits a claim upon a bond for correction of improper work by a principal, where such a claim would otherwise be allowable under the terms of the bond; but the claim, as it relates to damages to property, must be limited strictly to correction of the principal's improper work product. Work product means the labor of and materials supplied and/or installed by the principal."

SSB 5686 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Agriculture: Making major changes to agriculture statutes. Reported by Committee on Agriculture & Rural Development

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

'Sec. 1. Section 15.32.010, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.32.010 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of chapter 15.32 RCW:

'Supervisor' means the supervisor of the dairy and (livestock) food division;

'Dairy' means a place where milk from one or more cows or goats is produced for sale;

'Creamery' means a structure wherein milk or cream is manufactured into butter for sale;

'Milk plant' means a structure wherein milk is bottled, pasteurized, clarified, or otherwise processed;

'Cheese factory' means a structure where milk is manufactured into cheese;

'Factory of milk products' means a structure, other than a creamery, milk plant, cheese factory, milk condensing plant or ice cream factory, where milk or any of its products is manufactured, changed, or compounded into another article, or where butter is cut or wrapped; except freezing of ice cream from a mix compounded in a licensed creamery, milk plant, cheese factory, milk condensing plant or ice cream factory;

'Milk condensing plant' means a structure where milk is condensed or evaporated;

'Ice cream factory' means a structure which complies with the sanitary requirements of RCW 15.32.080, where ice cream mix is produced for sale or distribution, and may include freezing such mix into ice cream;

'Counter ice cream freezer' means counter type freezing machines usually operated in retail establishments;

'Sterilized milk' means milk that has been heated under six pounds of steam pressure and maintained thereat for not less than twenty minutes;

'Modified milk' means milk that has been altered in composition to conform to special nutritional requirements;

'Milk product' means an article manufactured or compounded from milk, whether or not the milk conforms to the standards and definitions herein;

'Milk byproduct' means a product of milk derived or made therefrom after the removal of the milk fat or milk solids in the process of making butter or cheese, and includes skimmed milk, buttermilk, whey, casein, and milk powder;

'Butter' means the product made by gathering the fat of pasteurized milk or cream into a mass containing not less than eighty percent of milk fat, and which also contains a small portion of other milk constituents, with or without harmless coloring matter;

'Renovated butter' means butter that has been reduced to a liquid state by melting and drawing off the liquid or butter oil, and has thereafter been churned or manipulated in connection with milk, cream, or other product of milk;

'Reworked butter' means the product obtained by mixing or rechurning butter made on different dates or at different places: PROVIDED, That the mixing of remnants from one day's churning or cutting with butter from the churning of the same creamery on the next day shall not make the product reworked butter;

'Butter substitute' means a compound of vegetable oils with milk fats or milk solids and all compounds of milk fats or milk solids with butter when the compound contains less than eighty percent of milk fat;

'Oleomargarine' means all manufactured substances, extracts, mixtures, or compounds, including mixtures or compounds with butter, known as oleomargarine, oleo, oleomargarine oil, butterine, lardine, suine, and neutral, and includes all lard and tallow extracts and mixtures and compounds of tallow, beef fat, suet, lard, lard oil, intestinal fat and offal fat made in imitation or semblance of butter or calculated or intended to be sold as butter;

'Cheese' means any of the cheeses as described in Title 21 of the code of federal regulations part 133;

'Imitation cheese' means any article, substance, or compound, other than that produced from pure milk or from the cream from pure milk, which is made in the semblance of cheese and designed to be sold or used as a substitute for cheese. The use of salt, lactic acid, or pepsin, and harmless coloring matter in cheese shall not render the true product an imitation. Nothing herein shall prevent the use of pure skimmed milk in the manufacture of cheese;

'Milk vendor' or 'milk dealer' means any person who sells, furnishes or delivers milk, skimmed milk, buttermilk, or cream in any manner.

All dairy products mentioned in this chapter mean those fit or used for human consumption.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 58, Laws of 1963 and RCW 15.32.051 are each amended to read as follows:

The director may, by rule, establish and/or amend definitions and standards for dairy products. Such definitions and standards established by the director shall conform, insofar as practicable, with the definitions and standards for dairy products promulgated by the secretary of the United States department of health, education and welfare: PROVIDED, That the director shall at all times provide reasonable standards for ice milk.

The director may adopt any other rules necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter. The adoption of all rules provided for in this section shall be subject to the provisions of chapter ~~((34-04))~~ 34.05 RCW as enacted or hereafter amended concerning the adoption of rules, except as otherwise provided in this section.

~~((The definitions constituting sections 15.32.020, 15.32.030, 15.32.040 and 15.32.050, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.32.020, 15.32.030, 15.32.040 and 15.32.050 hereinabove repealed as statutes are hereby constituted and declared to be operative and to remain in force as the rules of the department of agriculture until such time as amended, modified, or revoked by the director of agriculture.))~~

Sec. 3. Section 15.32.080, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.32.080 are each amended to read as follows:

A structure or place where milk or cream is processed or manufactured into other products, or where handled, stored, or kept for sale shall be deemed insanitary in the following circumstances:

(1) If milk or cream is received or kept which has ~~((reached a stage of putrefactive fermentation))~~ deteriorated in quality;

(2) ~~((if milk or cream is received or kept in containers that have not been sterilized with boiling water or live steam after each delivery;~~

~~(3))~~ If utensils and apparatus that come in contact with milk or its products in the process of manufacture are not thoroughly washed and ~~((sterilized by means of boiling water or live steam))~~ sanitized after each using;

~~((4))~~ (3) If the floor is such as to permit liquids to soak into the floor's interstices ~~((thereof in such manner as to permit fermentation and decay))~~, or such as may not be readily kept free from dirt and filth;

~~((5))~~ (4) If drains are not provided that will convey refuse milk ~~((;))~~ and water ~~((-and sewage))~~ to a point at least fifty yards distant;

~~((6))~~ (5) If a cesspool, privy vault, hog yard, slaughterhouse, henhouse, manure, or decaying vegetable or animal matter that will produce foul odors is permitted to exist within such distance as will permit the odors therefrom to reach such place;

~~((7))~~ (6) If it lacks sufficient light and air to secure good ventilation;

~~((8))~~ (7) If in a building used in connection therewith any insects, vermin, or other species of animal life are permitted;

~~((9))~~ (8) If upon the floor or walls thereof, any milk or its products or any other filth is allowed to accumulate ~~((-ferment or decay))~~;

~~((10))~~ (9) If the person or clothing of a person coming in contact with milk or milk products therein is unclean;

~~((11))~~ (10) If there is permitted to exist any other cause or thing tending to render the milk or its products produced, kept, handled, or manufactured therein unclean, impure, and unhealthy.

Every person who sells, offers or exposes for sale, barter, or exchanges any milk or milk product as defined by rule under chapter 15.36 RCW must have a milk vendor's license to do so: PROVIDED, That such license shall not include retail stores or restaurants which purchase milk prepackaged or bottled elsewhere for sale at retail or establishments which sell milk only for consumption in such establishment. Such license, issued by the director on application and payment of a fee of ~~((two))~~ ten dollars, shall contain the license number, and name, residence and place of business, if any, of the licensee. It shall be nontransferable, shall expire June 30th subsequent to issue, and may be revoked by the director, upon reasonable notice to the licensee, for any violation of or failure to comply with any provision of this chapter or any rule or regulation, or order of the department, or any officer or inspector thereof.

Sec. 5. Section 15.32.140, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.32.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Milk or sweet cream which is not free from foreign substances, coloring matter, or preservatives, ~~((pus cells or blood cells, or which contains more than one hundred thousand bacteria or germs of all kinds to the cubic centimeter or))~~ which has been infected by or exposed to any contagious or infectious disease ~~((or which has not cooled to a temperature of fifty-five degrees Fahrenheit within thirty minutes after being drawn or separated, or any pasteurized milk that contains in excess of twenty-five thousand bacteria per cubic centimeter))~~ in the finished product, shall be deemed impure, unwholesome, and adulterated.

Sec. 6. Section 15.32.220, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.32.220 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Any person who sells or offers for sale milk or cream in bottles with caps which fail to have the name of the owner inscribed thereon, or which indicate a quality that cannot be determined by laboratory, chemical or bacteriological examination, or in any other way wrongfully or fraudulently brands the same as to name or otherwise, for the purpose of inducing a sale, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.))~~ All milk container labeling shall conform with the federal fair packaging and labeling act.

Sec. 7. Section 15.32.420, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.32.420 are each amended to read as follows:

No person shall use the word 'pasteurized' in connection with the sale, designation, advertising, labeling, or billing of milk, cream, or any milk product unless the same and all milk products used in the manufacture thereof consist exclusively of milk, skimmed milk, or cream that has been pasteurized in its final form.

Sec. 8. Section 15.32.500, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.32.500 are each amended to read as follows:

Failure to brand products as required in RCW ~~((15.32.480 and))~~ 15.32.490, and the offering for sale, selling, or otherwise disposing of such products when unbranded, shall constitute violations of this chapter. Selling such unbranded products constitutes knowledge on the part of the seller that the same is not full cream cheese.

Sec. 9. Section 15.32.510, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.32.510 are each amended to read as follows:

The director ~~((or a county or city or town))~~ may appoint one or more inspectors of milk, dairies, and dairy products, who are graduates of a recognized dairy school, or have completed a college course in dairying. In the absence of completion of a dairy course, the director may review a candidate's qualifications and determine eligibility.

The inspectors may enter any place where milk and its products are stored and kept for sale and any conveyance used to transport milk or cream, and take samples for analysis ~~((PROVIDED, That this shall not apply to samples of milk or cream taken for bacteriological examination.))~~

Sec. 10. Section 15.32.520, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.32.520 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((The chemist of any state institution shall correctly analyze samples of milk or cream sent him by a city milk inspector and report to the inspector promptly the result of the analysis, without extra compensation, or charge to the city.))~~

A bacteriologist or chemist employed by a ~~((city))~~ certified laboratory may analyze milk for standard of quality, adulteration, contamination, and unwholesomeness, and his analysis shall have the same effect as one made by a chemist of a state institution.

Sec. 11. Section 15.32.530, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.32.530 are each amended to read as follows:

An inspector ~~((or any state or city officer))~~ who obtains a sample of milk for analysis, shall within ten days after obtaining the result of the analysis, send the result to the person from whom the sample was taken or to the person responsible for the condition of the milk.

Sec. 12. Section 15.32.570, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.32.570 are each amended to read as follows:

No person shall remove from a place under quarantine a container which has been or is to be used to contain milk, skimmed milk, buttermilk, cream, ice cream, or ice milk, without permission of the ~~((health officer in charge))~~ director.

Sec. 13. Section 1, chapter 102, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 15.36.011 are each amended to read as follows:

The director of agriculture, by rule, may establish and/or amend definitions and standards for milk and milk products. Such definitions and standards established by the director shall conform, insofar as practicable, with the definitions and standards for milk and milk products promulgated by the ~~((secretary of the United States department of health, education and welfare))~~ federal food and drug administration. The director of agriculture, by rule, may likewise establish and/or amend definitions and standards for products whether fluid, powdered or frozen, compounded or manufactured to resemble or in semblance or imitation of genuine dairy products as defined under the provisions of RCW 15.32.120, 15.36.011, 15.36.075, 15.36.540 and 15.36.600 or chapter 15.32 RCW as enacted or hereafter amended. Such products made to resemble or in semblance or imitation of genuine dairy products shall conform with all the provisions of chapter 15.38 RCW and be made wholly of nondairy products.

All such products compounded or manufactured to resemble or in semblance or imitation of a genuine dairy product shall set forth on the container or labels the specific generic name of each ingredient used.

In the event any product compounded or manufactured to resemble or in semblance or imitation of a genuine dairy product contains vegetable fat or oil, the generic name of such fat or oil shall be set forth on the label. If a blend or variety of oils is used, the ingredient statement shall contain the term 'vegetable oil' in the appropriate place in the ingredient statement, with the qualifying phrase following the ingredient statement, such as 'vegetable oils are soybean, cottonseed and coconut oils' or 'vegetable oil, may be cottonseed, coconut or soybean oil.'

The labels or containers of such products compounded or manufactured to resemble or in semblance or imitation of genuine dairy products shall not use dairy terms or words or designs commonly associated with dairying or genuine dairy products, except as to the extent that such words or terms are necessary to meet legal requirements for labeling: PROVIDED, That the term 'nondairy' may be used as an informative statement.

The director may adopt any other rules necessary to carry out the purposes of chapters 15.36 and 15.38 RCW: PROVIDED, That these rules shall not restrict the display or promotion of products covered under this section. The adoption of all rules provided for in this section shall be subject to the provisions of chapter ~~((34.04))~~ 34.05 RCW as enacted or hereafter amended concerning the adoption of rules.

Sec. 14. Section 15.36.020, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.36.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The terms 'pasteurization,' 'pasteurize' and similar terms, ((refer to the process of heating every particle of milk or milk products to at least one hundred forty-three degrees Fahrenheit; and holding at such temperature for at least thirty minutes, or to at least one hundred sixty-one degrees Fahrenheit, and holding at such temperature for at least fifteen seconds in approved and properly operated equipment under the provisions of this chapter: PROVIDED, That nothing contained in this definition shall be construed as disbaring any other process which has been demonstrated to be equally efficient and which is approved by the director)) shall mean the process of heating every particle of milk or milk product in properly designed and operated equipment, to one of the temperatures given in the following table, and held continuously at or above that temperature for at least the corresponding specified time:

Temperature	Time
145°F (63°C)	30 minutes
161°F (72°C)	15 seconds
191°F (89°C)	1.0 second
194°F (90°C)	0.5 second
201°F (94°C)	0.1 second
204°F (96°C)	0.05 second
212°F (100°C)	0.01 second

If the fat content of the milk product is ten percent or more, or if it contains added sweeteners, the specified temperature shall be increased by 5°F (3°C). Eggnog shall be heated to at least the following temperature and time specifications:

Temperature	Time
155°F (69°C)	30 minutes
175°F (80°C)	25 seconds
180°F (83°C)	15 seconds

Nothing in this definition shall be construed as barring any other pasteurization process which has been recognized by the federal food and drug administration to be equally efficient and which is approved by the director.

Sec. 15. Section 15.36.060, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 2, chapter 226, Laws of 1984 and RCW 15.36.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The word 'person' means any individual, partnership, firm, corporation, company, trustee, or association.

'Director' means the director of agriculture of the state of Washington or his duly authorized representative.

'Department' means the state department of agriculture.

~~('Health officer' means the county or city health officer as defined in Title 70 RCW, or his authorized representatives.~~

~~Where the term 'and/or' is used 'and' shall apply where possible, otherwise 'or' shall apply.')~~

Sec. 16. Section 15.36.080, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.36.080 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any person to transport, or to sell, or offer for sale, or to have in storage where milk or milk products are sold or served, any milk or milk product defined in this chapter, who does not possess an appropriate permit from the director ~~((or an authorized inspection service as defined in this chapter)).~~

Every milk producer, milk distributor, milk hauler, and operator of a milk plant shall secure a permit to conduct such operation as defined in this chapter. Only a person who complies with the requirements of this chapter shall be entitled to receive and retain such a permit. Permits shall not be transferable with respect to persons and/or locations.

Such a permit may be temporarily suspended by the director ~~((or health officer of a milk inspection unit))~~ upon violation by the holder of any of the terms of this chapter, or for interference with the director ~~((or health officer of a milk inspection unit))~~ in the performance of his duties, or revoked after an opportunity for a hearing by the director upon serious or repeated violations.

Sec. 17. Section 15.36.110, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 297, Laws of 1981 and RCW 15.36.110 are each amended to read as follows:

During each six months period at least four samples of milk and cream from each dairy farm and each milk plant shall be taken on separate days and examined by the director: PROVIDED, That in the case of raw milk for pasteurization the director may accept the results of nonofficial laboratories which have been officially checked periodically and found satisfactory. Samples of other milk products may be taken and examined by the director as often as he deems necessary. Samples of milk and milk products from stores, cafes, soda fountains, restaurants, and other places where milk or milk products are sold shall be examined as often as the director may require. Bacterial plate counts, direct microscopic counts, coliform determinations, phosphatase tests and other laboratory tests shall conform to the procedures in the current edition of 'Standard Methods For The Examination Of Dairy Products,' recommended by the American public health association. Examinations may include such other chemical and physical determinations as the director may deem necessary for the detection of adulteration. Samples may be taken by the director at any time prior to the final delivery of the milk or milk products. All proprietors of cafes, stores, restaurants, soda fountains, and other similar places shall furnish the director, upon his request, with the name of all distributors from whom their milk and milk products are obtained. Bio-assays of the vitamin D content of vitamin D milk shall be made when required by the director in a laboratory approved by him for such examinations.

If two of the last four consecutive bacterial counts, somatic cell counts, coliform determinations, or cooling temperatures, taken on separate days, exceed the standard for milk or milk products, the director shall send written notice thereof to the person concerned. This notice shall remain in effect so long as two of the last four consecutive samples exceed the limit of the standard. An additional sample shall be taken within twenty-one days of the sending of the notice, but not before the lapse of three days, except sixty days must lapse before an official somatic cell count can be taken. The director shall degrade or suspend the grade A permit whenever the standard is again violated ~~((by more than one of the last four consecutive samples))~~ so that three of the last five consecutive samples exceed the limit of the standard. A grade A permit shall subsequently be reinstated in notice status upon receipt of sample results that are within the standard for which the suspension occurred.

In case of violation of the phosphatase test requirements, the cause of underpasteurization shall be determined and removed before milk or milk products from this plant can again be sold as pasteurized milk or milk products.

Sec. 18. Section 1, chapter 226, Laws of 1984 and RCW 15.36.115 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If the results of an antibiotic ~~((or)),~~ pesticide, or other drug residue test are above the actionable level ~~((as determined by))~~ established in the pasteurized milk ordinance published by the United States public health service and determined using procedures set forth in the current edition of 'Standard Methods for the Examination of Dairy Products,' a producer holding a grade A permit is subject to a civil penalty. The penalty shall be in an amount equal to one-half the value of the sum of the volumes of milk equivalent produced under the permit on the day prior to and the day of the adulteration. The value of the milk shall be computed by the weighted average price for the federal market order under which the milk is delivered.

(2) The penalty is imposed by the department giving a written notice which is either personally served upon or transmitted by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the person incurring the penalty. The notice of the civil penalty shall be a final order of the department unless, within fifteen days after the notice is received, the person incurring the penalty appeals the penalty by filing a notice of appeal with the department. If a notice of appeal is filed in a timely manner, a contested case hearing shall be conducted on behalf of the department by the office of administrative hearings in accordance with chapters ~~((34-04))~~ 34.05 and 34.12 RCW and, to the extent they are not inconsistent with this subsection, the provisions of RCW 15.36.580. At the conclusion of the hearing, the department shall determine whether the penalty should be affirmed, ~~((reduced, or not imposed))~~ and, if so, shall issue a final order setting forth the civil penalty assessed, if any. The order may be appealed to superior court in accordance with chapter ~~((34-04))~~ 34.05 RCW. Tests performed for antibiotic ~~((or)), pesticide, or other drug~~ residues by a state or certified industry laboratory of a milk sample drawn by a department official or a licensed dairy technician shall be admitted as prima facie evidence of the presence or absence of an antibiotic ~~((or)), pesticide, or other drug~~ residue.

(3) Any penalty imposed under this section is due and payable upon the issuance of the final order by the department. The penalty shall be deducted by the violator's marketing organization from the violator's final payment for the month following the issuance of the final order. The department shall promptly notify the violator's marketing organization of any penalties contained in the final order.

(4) All penalties received or recovered from violations of this section shall be remitted monthly by the violator's marketing organization to the Washington state dairy products commission and deposited in a revolving fund to be used solely for the purposes of education and research. No appropriation is required for disbursements from this fund.

(5) In case of a violation of the antibiotic ~~((or)), pesticide, or other drug~~ residue test requirements, an investigation shall be made to determine the cause of the residue which shall be corrected. Additional samples shall be taken as soon as possible and tested as soon as feasible for antibiotic ~~((or)), pesticide, or other drug~~ residue by the department or a certified laboratory. After the notice has been received by the producer and the results of a test of such an additional sample indicate that residues are above the actionable level or levels referred to in subsection (1) of this section, the producer's milk may not be sold until a sample is shown to be below the actionable levels established for the residues.

Sec. 19. Section 15.36.300, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.36.300 are each amended to read as follows:

Grade C raw milk is raw milk ~~((of a producer-distributor which violates any of the requirements for grade B))~~ which violates any of the requirements of grade A raw milk.

Sec. 20. Section 15.36.425, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 22, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 15.36.425 are each amended to read as follows:

The health ~~((officer))~~ authority or a physician authorized by him shall examine and take careful morbidity history of every person connected with a pasteurization plant, or about to be employed, whose work brings him in contact with the production, handling, storage, or transportation of milk, milk products, containers, or equipment. If such examination or history suggests that such person may be a carrier of or infected with the organisms of typhoid or paratyphoid fever or any other communicable diseases likely to be transmitted through milk, he shall secure appropriate specimens of body discharges and cause them to be examined in a laboratory approved by him or by the state department of social and health services for such examinations, and if the results justify such persons shall be barred from such employment.

Such persons shall furnish such information, submit to such physical examinations, and submit such laboratory specimens as the health ~~((officer))~~ official may require for the purpose of determining freedom from infection.

Sec. 21. Section 15.36.460, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.36.460 are each amended to read as follows:

Grade C pasteurized milk is pasteurized milk which violates any of the requirements for grade ~~((B))~~ A pasteurized milk.

Sec. 22. Section 15.36.470, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.36.470 are each amended to read as follows:

No milk or milk products shall be sold to the final consumer or to restaurants, soda fountains, grocery stores, or similar establishments except ~~((certified milk pasteurized, certified raw milk;))~~ grade A milk pasteurized, or grade A milk-raw, and the director may revoke the permit of any milk distributor failing to qualify for one of the above grades, or in lieu thereof may degrade his product and permit its sale during a period not exceeding thirty days or in emergencies during such longer period as he may deem necessary.

No person who is affected with any disease in a communicable form or is a carrier of such disease shall work at any dairy farm or milk plant in any capacity which brings him in contact with the production, handling, storage, or transportation of milk, milk products, containers, or equipment; and no dairy farm or milk plant shall employ in any such capacity any such person or any person suspected of being affected with any disease in a communicable form or of being a carrier of such disease. Any producer or distributor of milk or milk products upon whose dairy farm or in whose milk plant any communicable disease occurs, or who suspects that any employee has contracted any disease shall notify the health ~~((officer))~~ authority immediately.

Sec. 24. Section 15.36.540, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 6, chapter 102, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 15.36.540 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Save as in this chapter provided))~~ Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, this law shall be enforced by the director in accordance with the interpretation contained in the ~~((1965 edition of the United States public health service))~~ food and drug administration pasteurized milk ((code)) ordinance: PROVIDED, That the director may ~~((by rule adopt any subsequent amendments to such code as interpretations))~~ promulgate rules covering any standard set forth in the pasteurized milk ordinance if the rules are consistent with the pasteurized milk ordinance except the standards may be more stringent based upon current industry or public health information for the enforcement of this chapter whenever he determines that any such ~~((amendments))~~ rules are necessary to carry out the purposes of RCW 15.32.120, 15.36.011, 15.36.075, 15.36.540 and 15.36.600.

Sec. 25. Section 15.36.550, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 23, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 15.36.550 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall have the power and duty ~~((+))~~ to adopt, issue and promulgate from time to time necessary rules, regulations and orders for the enforcement of this chapter ~~((+))~~ with the approval of the secretary of social and health services to adopt standards of requirements necessary for approval of local milk inspection service units hereinafter provided for, the basic standards in this connection being a sufficient force of qualified personnel under the general direction of a health officer, and sufficient laboratory facilities to insure compliance with the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder; and ~~((3))~~ to cancel; and with the consent of the secretary of social and health services, to approve the issuance of certificates of approval for such local milk inspection service units).

Sec. 26. Section 15.36.580, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 175, chapter 202, Laws of 1987 and RCW 15.36.580 are each amended to read as follows:

In case of a written protest from any fluid milk producer ~~((:))~~ or fluid milk distributor ~~((+ or health officer;))~~ concerning the enforcement of any provisions of this chapter or of any rules and regulations thereunder, the director, or an administrative law judge within ten days after receipt of such protest and after five days written notice thereof to the party against whom the protest is made, shall hold a summary hearing in the county where either the party protesting or protested against resides, upon the completion of which the director or an administrative law judge shall make such written findings of fact and order as the circumstances may warrant: PROVIDED, That if the protest originates with a producer, the hearings shall be held in the county where the protesting producer resides. Such findings and order shall be final and conclusive upon all parties from and after their effective date, which date shall be five days after being signed and deposited postage prepaid in the United States mails addressed to the last known address of all said parties. An appeal from such findings or order may be taken in the manner provided under chapter ~~((34-04))~~ 34.05 RCW.

As used in this chapter:

- (1) 'Commission' means the Washington state fruit commission.
- (2) 'Shipment' or 'shipped' includes loading in a conveyance to be transported to market for resale, and includes delivery to a processor or processing plant, but does not include movement from the orchard where grown to a packing or storage plant within this state for fresh shipment;
- (3) 'Handler' means any person who ships or initiates the shipping operation, whether as owner, agent or otherwise;
- (4) 'Dealer' means any person who handles, ships, buys, or sells soft tree fruits other than those grown by him, or who acts as sales or purchasing agent, broker, or factor of soft tree fruits;
- (5) 'Processor' or 'processing plant' includes every person or plant receiving soft tree fruits for the purpose of drying, dehydrating, canning, pressing, powdering, extracting, cooking, quick-freezing, brining, or for use in manufacturing a product;
- (6) 'Soft tree fruits' mean Bartlett pears and all varieties of cherries, apricots, prunes, plums, and peaches, which includes all varieties of nectarines. 'Bartlett pears' means and includes all standard Bartlett pears and all varieties, strains, subvarieties, and sport varieties of Bartlett pears including Red Bartlett pears, that are harvested and utilized at approximately the same time and approximately in the same manner.
- (7) 'Commercial fruit' or 'commercial grade' means soft tree fruits meeting the requirements of any established or recognized fresh fruit or processing grade. Fruit bought or sold on orchard run basis and not subject to cull weighback shall be deemed to be 'commercial fruit.'

(8) 'Cull grade' means fruit of lower than commercial grade except when such fruit included with commercial fruit does not exceed the permissible tolerance permitted in a commercial grade;

(9) 'Producer' means any person who is a grower of any soft tree fruit;

(10) 'District No. 1' or 'first district' includes the counties of Chelan, Okanogan, Grant, Douglas, Ferry, Stevens, Pend Oreille, Spokane and Lincoln;

(11) 'District No. 2' or 'second district' includes the counties of Kittitas, Yakima, and Benton county north of the Yakima river;

(12) 'District No. 3' or 'third district' comprises all of the state not included in the first and second districts.

Sec. 28. Section 15.28.160, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 3, chapter 51, Laws of 1963 and RCW 15.28.160 are each amended to read as follows:

An annual assessment is hereby levied upon all commercial soft tree fruits grown in ~~((this))~~ the state or packed as Washington soft tree fruit of fifty cents per two thousand pounds (net weight) of said fruits, when shipped fresh or delivered to processors, whether in bulk, loose in containers, or packaged in any style of package, except, that all sales of five hundred pounds or less of such fruits sold by the producer direct to the consumer shall be exempt from said assessments. Sweet cherries which are brined are deemed to be commercial soft tree fruit and therefore assessable hereunder.

Sec. 29. Section 51, chapter 256, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.65.510 are each amended to read as follows:

All parties to ~~((any))~~ a marketing agreement, all persons subject to a marketing order, and all producers, dealers, and handlers ~~((and other persons subject to any marketing order))~~ of a commodity governed by the provisions of a marketing agreement or order shall severally from time to time, upon the request of the director ~~((or his)),~~ the director's designee, or the commodity board established under the marketing agreement or order, furnish ~~((him with))~~ such information ~~((as he))~~ and permit such inspections as the director, the director's designee, or the commodity board finds to be necessary to ~~((enable him to))~~ effectuate the declared policies of this chapter and the purposes of such agreement or order ~~((or)),~~ information and inspections may also be required by the director, the director's designee, or the commodity board to ascertain and determine the extent to which such agreement or order has been carried out or has effectuated such policies and purposes, or to determine whether or not there has been any abuse of the privilege of exemption from laws relating to trusts, monopolies and restraints of trade. Such information shall be furnished in accordance with forms and reports to be prescribed by the director ~~((or his)),~~ the director's designee, or the commodity board. ~~((For the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any report made to the director or his designee pursuant to this section or for the purpose of obtaining the information required in any such report where it has been requested and has not been furnished.))~~ The director ~~((or his)),~~ the director's designee, or a designee of the commodity board is hereby authorized to inspect crops and examine such books, papers, records, copies of tax reports, accounts, correspondence, contracts, documents, or memoranda as he or she deems relevant and which are within the control:

(1) ~~Of any such party to such marketing agreement or~~ ~~((any such producer or handler under such marketing order)),~~ any person subject to any marketing order from whom such report was requested, or

(2) Of any person having, either directly or indirectly, actual or legal control of or over such party, producer or handler of such records, or

(3) Of any subsidiary of any such party, producer, handler or person.

To carry out the purposes of this section the director or ~~((his))~~ the director's designee upon giving due notice, may hold hearings, take testimony, administer oaths, subpoena witnesses and issue subpoenas for the production of books, records, documents or other writings of any kind. RCW 15.65.080, 15.65.090, 15.65.100 and 15.65.110, together with such other regulations consistent therewith as the director may from time to time prescribe, shall apply with respect to any such hearing. All information furnished to or acquired by the director or ~~((his))~~ the director's designee pursuant to this section shall be kept confidential by all officers and employees of the director ~~((and/or his))~~ or the director's designee and only such information so furnished or acquired as the director deems relevant shall be disclosed by ~~((him))~~ the director or them, and then only in a suit or administrative hearing brought at the direction or upon the request of the director or to which ~~((he or his))~~ the director or the director's designee or any officer of the state of Washington is a party, and involving the marketing agreement or order with reference to which the information so to be disclosed was furnished or acquired.

Nothing in this section shall prohibit:

(1) The issuance of general statements based upon the reports of a number of persons subject to any marketing agreement or order, which statements do not identify the information furnished by any person~~(:);~~ or

(2) The publication by the director or ~~((his))~~ the director's designee of the name of any person violating any marketing agreement or order, together with a statement of the particular provisions and the manner of the violation of the marketing agreement or order so violated by such person.

Sec. 30. Section 3, chapter 247, Laws of 1985 and RCW 15.86.030 are each amended to read as follows:

A producer or a vendor shall not sell or offer for sale any food product with the representation that the product is an organic food if the producer or vendor knows, or has reason to know, that the food has been grown, raised, or produced with the use of any of the following substances: (1) Fertilizers but excluding manures and other natural fertilizers; (2) any of the following when manufactured by man: Pesticides, hormones, antibiotics, or growth stimulants but excluding Bacillus thuringensis and other natural pesticides; (3) arsenicals; or (4) similar substances listed by the director under RCW 15.86.060. A food product shall be considered as 'grown, raised, or produced' with a substance specified in this section or listed by the director under RCW 15.86.060 if the substance is applied at any time before sale to retail purchasers. ~~((Also, crops shall be considered 'grown, raised, or produced' with such a substance if, within one year before seed planting or transplanting or, in the case of perennial crops, within one year before the appearance of the flower bud, the substance is applied to the soil or other growing medium.))~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. A new section is added to chapter 15.86 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Beginning January 1, 1991, it shall be unlawful to sell or offer for sale as organic food, products that have been grown, raised, or produced if harvest of the food product occurs within two years of the most recent use of any prohibited pesticide, herbicide, or fungicide and two years after the most recent use of a prohibited fertilizer.

(2) Beginning January 1, 1992, it shall be unlawful to sell or offer for sale as organic food, products that have been grown, raised, or produced if harvest of the food product occurs within three years of the most recent use of any prohibited pesticide, herbicide, or fungicide and two years after the most recent use of a prohibited fertilizer.

(3) Beginning January 1, 1990, food products may be sold as 'transition to organic food' if they have had no applications of prohibited substances within one year before harvest of the food crop. The products must specify first or second-year transition on their labels.

Sec. 32. Section 2, chapter 247, Laws of 1985 and RCW 15.86.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Director' means the director of the department of agriculture or the director's designee.

(2) 'Organic food' means any food product, including meat, dairy, and beverage, that is marketed using the term organic or any derivative of organic, other than the phrase 'transition to organic food,' in its labeling or advertising.

(3) 'Producer' means any person or organization who or which (a) grows, raises, or produces a food product; and (b) sells the food product as, or offers it for sale as, an organic food.

(4) 'Vendor' means anyone who sells organic food to the consumer or another vendor.

(5) 'Transition to organic food' means any food product that satisfies all of the requirements of organic food except the time requirements and satisfied all of the requirements of section 31 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. A new section is added to chapter 15.86 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A producer or a vendor shall not sell or offer for sale any food product with the representation that the food product is a transition to organic food if the producer or vendor knows, or has reason to know, that the food product does not satisfy the requirements of RCW 15.86.020(5).

(2) A producer shall not sell to a vendor any food product that the producer represents as a transition to organic food unless, before the sale, the producer provides the vendor with a sworn statement that the producer has grown, raised, or produced the product in conformance with RCW 15.86.020(5) and section 31 of this act.

Sec. 34. Section 12, chapter 393, Laws of 1987 and RCW 15.86.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The director may adopt rules establishing a certification program for producers and processors of organic or transition to organic food. The rules may govern, but are not limited to governing: The number and scheduling of ~~((on-farm))~~ on-site visits, both announced and unannounced, by certification personnel; recordkeeping requirements; and the submission of product samples for chemical analysis. The rules shall include a fee schedule that will provide for the recovery of the full cost of the ~~((certification))~~ inspection program. Fees collected under this section shall be deposited in an account within the agricultural local fund and the revenue from such fees shall be used solely for carrying out the provisions of this section, and no appropriation is required for disbursement from the fund. The director may employ such personnel as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

Sec. 35. Section 5, chapter 22, Laws of 1957 as amended by section 14, chapter 296, Laws of 1981 and RCW 16.36.110 are each amended to read as follows:

A violation of or a failure to comply with any provision of this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter shall be a ~~((misdemeanor. PROVIDED, That any violation of RCW 16.36.636;~~ 16.36.040, 16.36.050, or that part of RCW 16.36.060 which makes it unlawful for any person to wilfully hinder, obstruct, or resist the director of agriculture or any duly authorized representative, or any peace officer acting under him or them when engaged in the performance of the duties or in the exercise of the powers conferred by this chapter shall be a) gross misdemeanor. Each day upon which a violation occurs shall constitute a separate violation. Any person violating the provisions of RCW 16.36.005, 16.36.020, 16.36.103, 16.36.105, 16.36.107, 16.36.108 or 16.36.109 may be enjoined from continuing such violation.

Sec. 36. Section 19, chapter 67, Laws of 1969 as amended by section 5, chapter 26, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 19.94.190 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall enforce the provisions of this chapter and shall issue from time to time reasonable rules (~~and regulations~~) for enforcing and carrying out the purposes of this chapter. Such rules (~~and regulations~~) shall have the effect of law and may include (1) standards of net weight, measure, or count, and reasonable standards of fill for any commodity in package form, (2) rules governing the technical and reporting procedures to be followed, and the report and record forms and marks of rejection to be used by the director and city sealers in the discharge of their official duties, (3) rules governing technical test procedures, reporting procedures, record and reporting forms to be used by commercial firms when installing, repairing or testing commercial weights or measures, (4) rules providing that all weights and measures used by commercial firms in repairing or servicing commercial weighing and measuring devices shall be calibrated by the department and be directly traceable to state standards and shall be submitted to the department for calibration and certification as necessary and/or at such reasonable intervals as may be established or required by the director, (5) exemptions from the sealing or marking requirements of RCW 19.94.250 with respect to weights and measures of such character or size that such sealing or marking would be inappropriate, impracticable, or damaging to the apparatus in question, (6) rules that allow the director to establish fees for weighing, measuring, and providing calibration services performed by the weights and measures laboratory, with all money collected under this subsection paid to the director and deposited in an account within the agricultural local fund to be used for the repair and maintenance of weights and measures devices and other related functions, (7) exemptions from the requirements of RCW 19.94.200 and 19.94.210 for testing, with respect to classes of weights and measures found to be of such character that periodic retesting is unnecessary to continued accuracy. These regulations shall include specifications, tolerances, and regulations for weights and measures of the character of those specified in RCW 19.94.210, designed to eliminate from use, without prejudice to apparatus that conforms as closely as practicable to the official standards, those (a) that are not accurate, (b) that are of such construction that they are faulty, that is, that are not reasonably permanent in their adjustment or will not repeat their indications correctly, or (c) that facilitate the perpetration of fraud. The specifications, tolerances, and regulations for commercial weighing and measuring devices, together with amendments thereto, as recommended by the national bureau of standards Handbook 44, third edition as published at the time of the enactment of this chapter shall be the specifications, tolerances, and regulations for commercial weighing and/or measuring devices of the state. To promote uniformity, any supplements or amendments to Handbook 44 or any similar subsequent publication of the national bureau of standards shall be deemed to have been adopted under this section. The director may, however, within thirty days of the publication or effective date of Handbook 44 or any supplements, amendments, or similar publications give public notice that a hearing will be held to determine if such publications should not be applicable under this section. The hearing shall be conducted under chapter ~~(34.04)~~ 34.05 RCW. For the purpose of this chapter, apparatus shall be deemed to be 'correct' when it conforms to all applicable requirements promulgated as specified in this section; all other apparatus shall be deemed to be 'incorrect'.

As used in this title the terms defined in this section have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) 'Director' means the director of agriculture or his duly authorized representative.

(2) 'Person' means any natural person, firm, partnership, exchange, association, trustee, receiver, corporation, and any member, officer, or employee thereof or assignee for the benefit of creditors.

(3) 'Agricultural product' means any unprocessed horticultural, vermicultural and its byproducts, viticultural, berry, poultry, poultry product, grain, bee, or other agricultural products, and includes mint or mint oil processed by or for the producer thereof and hay and straw baled or prepared for market in any manner or form and livestock. When used in RCW 60.13.020, 'agricultural product' means horticultural, viticultural, and berry products, hay and straw, and turf and forage seed and applies only when such products are delivered to a processor or conditioner in an unprocessed form.

(4) 'Producer' means any person engaged in the business of growing or producing any agricultural product, whether as the owner of the products, or producing the products for others holding the title thereof.

(5) 'Consignor' means any producer, person, or his agent who sells, ships, or delivers to any commission merchant, dealer, cash buyer, or agent, any agricultural product for processing, handling, sale, or resale.

(6) 'Commission merchant' means any person who receives on consignment for sale or processing and sale from the consignor thereof any agricultural product for sale on commission on behalf of the consignor, or who accepts any farm product in trust from the consignor thereof for the purpose of resale, or who sells or offers for sale on commission any agricultural product, or who in any way handles for the account of or as an agent of the consignor thereof, any agricultural product.

(7) 'Dealer' means any person other than a cash buyer, as defined in subsection (10) of this section, who solicits, contracts for, or obtains from the consignor thereof for reselling or processing, title, possession, or control of any agricultural product, or who buys or agrees to buy any agricultural product from the consignor thereof for sale or processing and includes any person, other than one who acts solely as a producer, who retains title in an agricultural product and delivers it to a producer for further production or increase. For the purposes of this chapter, the term dealer includes any person who purchases livestock on behalf of and for the account of another, or who purchases cattle in another state or country and imports these cattle into this state for resale.

(8) 'Limited dealer' means any person operating under the alternative bonding provision in RCW 20.01.211.

(9) 'Broker' means any person other than a commission merchant, dealer, or cash buyer who negotiates the purchase or sale of any agricultural product, but no broker may handle the agricultural products involved or proceeds of the sale.

(10) 'Cash buyer' means any person other than a commission merchant, dealer, or broker, who obtains from the consignor thereof for the purpose of resale or processing, title, possession, or control of any agricultural product or who contracts for the title, possession, or control of any agricultural product, or who buys or agrees to buy for resale any agricultural product by paying to the consignor at the time of obtaining possession or control of any agricultural product the full agreed price of the agricultural product, in coin or currency, lawful money of the United States. However, a cashier's check, certified check, or bankdraft may be used for the payment. For the purposes of this subsection, 'agricultural product,' does not include hay, grain, straw, or livestock.

(11) 'Agent' means any person who, on behalf of any commission merchant, dealer, broker, or cash buyer, acts as liaison between a consignor and a principal, or receives, contracts for, or solicits any agricultural product from the consignor thereof or who negotiates the consignment or purchase of any agricultural product on behalf of any commission merchant, dealer, broker, or cash buyer and who transacts all or a portion of that business at any location other than at the principal place of business of his employer. With the exception of an agent for a commission merchant or dealer handling horticultural products, an agent may operate only in the name of one principal and only to the account of that principal.

(12) 'Retail merchant' means any person operating from a bona fide or established place of business selling agricultural products twelve months of each year.

(13) 'Fixed or established place of business' for the purpose of this chapter means any permanent warehouse, building, or structure, at which necessary and appropriate equipment and fixtures are maintained for properly handling those agricultural products generally dealt in, and at which supplies of the agricultural products being usually transported are stored, offered for sale, sold, delivered, and generally dealt in in quantities reasonably adequate for and usually carried for the requirements of such a business, and that is recognized as a permanent business at such place, and carried on as such in good faith and not for the purpose of evading this chapter, and where specifically designated personnel are available to handle transactions concerning those agricultural products generally dealt in, which personnel are available during designated and appropriate hours to that business, and shall not mean a residence, barn, garage, tent, temporary stand or other temporary quarters, any railway car, or permanent quarters occupied pursuant to any temporary arrangement.

(14) 'Processor' means any person, firm, company, or other organization that purchases agricultural crops from a consignor and that cans, freezes, dries, dehydrates, cooks, presses, powders, or otherwise processes those crops in any manner whatsoever for eventual resale.

(15) 'Pooling contract' means any written agreement whereby a consignor delivers a horticultural product to a commission merchant under terms whereby the commission merchant may commingle the consignor's horticultural products for sale with others similarly agreeing, which must include all of the following:

(a) A delivery receipt for the consignor that indicates the variety of horticultural product delivered, the number of containers, or the weight and tare thereof;

(b) Horticultural products received for handling and sale in the fresh market shall be accounted for to the consignor with individual pack-out records that shall include variety, grade, size, and date of delivery. Individual daily packing summaries shall be available within forty-eight hours after packing occurs. However, platform inspection shall be acceptable by mutual contract agreement on small deliveries to determine variety, grade, size, and date of delivery:

(c) Terms under which the commission merchant may use his judgment in regard to the sale of the pooled horticultural product;

(d) The charges to be paid by the consignor as filed with the state of Washington;

(e) A provision that the consignor shall be paid for his pool contribution when the pool is in the process of being marketed in direct proportion, not less than eighty percent of his interest less expenses directly incurred, prior liens, and other advances on the grower's crop unless otherwise mutually agreed upon between grower and commission merchant.

(16) 'Date of sale' means the date agricultural products are delivered to the person buying the products.

(17) ~~((17))~~ 'Boom loader' means a person who owns or operates, or both, a mechanical device mounted on a vehicle and used to load hay or straw for compensation;

~~((18))~~ 'Conditioner' means any person, firm, company, or other organization that receives turf, forage, or vegetable seeds from a consignor for drying or cleaning.

~~((19))~~ (18) 'Seed bailment contract' means any contract meeting the requirements of chapter 15.48 RCW.

~~((20))~~ (19) 'Proprietary seed' means any seed that is protected under the Federal Plant Variety Protection Act.

~~((21))~~ (20) 'Licensed public weighmaster' means any person, licensed under the provisions of chapter 15.80 RCW, who weighs, measures, or counts any commodity or thing and issues therefor a signed certified statement, ticket, or memorandum of weight, measure, or count upon which the purchase or sale of any commodity or upon which the basic charge of payment for services rendered is based.

~~((22))~~ (21) 'Certified weight' means any signed certified statement or memorandum of weight, measure or count issued by a licensed public weighmaster in accordance with the provisions of chapter 15.80 RCW.

This chapter does not apply to:

(1) Any cooperative marketing associations or federations incorporated under, or whose articles of incorporation and bylaws are equivalent to, the requirements of chapter 23.86 RCW or chapter 24.32 RCW, except as to that portion of the activities of the association or federation that involve the handling or dealing in the agricultural products of nonmembers of the organization: PROVIDED, That the associations or federations may purchase up to fifteen percent of their gross from nonmembers for the purpose of filling orders: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the cooperative or association acts as a processor as defined in RCW 20.01.500(2) and markets the processed agricultural crops on behalf of the grower or its own behalf, the association or federation is subject to the provisions of RCW 20.01.500 through 20.01.560 and the license provision of this chapter excluding bonding provisions: PROVIDED FURTHER, That none of the foregoing exemptions in this subsection apply to any such cooperative or federation dealing in or handling grain in any manner, and not licensed under the provisions of chapter 22.09 RCW;

(2) Any person who sells exclusively his or her own agricultural products as the producer thereof;

(3) Any public livestock market operating under a bond required by law or a bond required by the United States to secure the performance of the public livestock market's obligation. However, any such market operating as a livestock dealer or order buyer, or both, is subject to all provisions of this chapter except for the payment of the license fee required in RCW 20.01.040;

(4) Any retail merchant having a bona fide fixed or permanent place of business in this state, but only for the retail merchant's retail business conducted at such fixed or established place of business;

(5) Any person buying farm products for his or her own use or consumption;

(6) Any warehouseman or grain dealer licensed under the state grain warehouse act, chapter 22.09 RCW, with respect to his or her handling of any agricultural product as defined under that chapter;

(7) Any nurseryman who is required to be licensed under the horticultural laws of the state with respect to his or her operations as such licensee;

(8) Any person licensed under the now existing dairy laws of the state with respect to his or her operations as such licensee;

(9) Any producer who purchases less than fifteen percent of his or her volume to complete orders;

(10) Any person, association, or corporation regulated under chapter 67.16 RCW and the rules adopted thereunder while performing acts regulated by that chapter and the rules adopted thereunder((:

~~((11))~~ Any boom loader who loads exclusively his or her own hay or straw as the producer thereof).

Sec. 39, Section 4, chapter 139, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 13, chapter 393, Laws of 1987 and RCW 20.01.040 are each amended to read as follows:

No person may act as a commission merchant, dealer, broker, cash buyer, or agent (— or boom-loader) without a license. Any person applying for such a license shall file an application with the director on or before January 1st of each year. The application shall be accompanied by a license fee as prescribed by the director by rule.

Sec. 40, Section 33, chapter 139, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 1, chapter 20, Laws of 1982 and RCW 20.01.330 are each amended to read as follows:

The director may refuse to grant a license or renew a license and may revoke or suspend a license or issue a conditional or probationary order if he is satisfied after a hearing, as herein provided, of the existence of any of the following facts, which are hereby declared to be a violation of this chapter:

(1) That fraudulent charges or returns have been made by the applicant, or licensee, for the handling, sale or storage of, or for rendering of any service in connection with the handling, sale or storage of any agricultural product.

(2) That the applicant, or licensee, has failed or refused to render a true account of sales, or to make a settlement thereon, or to pay for agricultural products received, within the time and in the manner required by this chapter.

(3) That the applicant, or licensee, has made any false statement as to the condition, quality or quantity of agricultural products received, handled, sold or stored by him.

(4) That the applicant, or licensee, directly or indirectly has purchased for his own account agricultural products received by him upon consignment without prior authority from the consignor together with the price fixed by consignor or without promptly notifying the consignor of such purchase. This shall not prevent any commission merchant from taking to account of sales, in order to close the day's business, miscellaneous lots or parcels of agricultural products remaining unsold, if such commission merchant shall forthwith enter such transaction on his account of sales.

(5) That the applicant, or licensee, has intentionally made any false or misleading statement as to the conditions of the market for any agricultural products.

(6) That the applicant, or licensee, has made fictitious sales or has been guilty of collusion to defraud the consignor.

(7) That a commission merchant to whom any consignment is made has reconsigned such consignment to another commission merchant and has received, collected, or charged by such means more than one commission for making the sale thereof, for the consignor, unless by written consent of such consignor.

(8) That the licensee was guilty of fraud or deception in the procurement of such license.

(9) That the licensee or applicant has failed or refused to file with the director a schedule of his charges for services in connection with agricultural products handled on account of or as an agent of another, or that the applicant, or licensee, has indulged in any unfair practice.

(10) That the licensee has rejected, without reasonable cause, or has failed or refused to accept, without reasonable cause, any agricultural product bought or contracted to be bought from a consignor by such licensee; or failed or refused, without reasonable cause, to furnish or provide boxes or other containers, or hauling, harvesting, or any other service contracted to be done by licensee in connection with the acceptance, harvesting, or other handling of said agricultural products bought or handled or contracted to be bought or handled; or has used any other device to avoid acceptance or unreasonably to defer acceptance of agricultural products bought or handled or contracted to be bought or handled.

(11) That the licensee has otherwise violated any provision of this chapter and/or rules and regulations adopted hereunder.

(12) That the licensee has knowingly employed an agent, as defined in this chapter, without causing said agent to comply with the licensing requirements of this chapter applicable to agents.

(13) That the applicant or licensee has, in the handling of any agricultural products, been guilty of fraud, deceit, or negligence.

(14) That the licensee has failed or refused, upon demand, to permit the director or his agents to make the investigations, examination or audits, as provided in this chapter, or that the licensee has removed or sequestered any books, records, or papers necessary to any such investigations, examination, or audits, or has otherwise obstructed the same.

(15) That the licensee, without reasonable cause, has failed or refused to execute or carry out a lawful contract with a consignor.

(16) That the licensee has failed or refused to keep and maintain the records as required by this chapter and/or rules and regulations adopted hereunder.

(17) That the licensee has attempted payment by a check the licensee knows not to be backed by sufficient funds to cover such check.

(18) That the licensee has been guilty of fraud or deception in his dealings with purchasers including misrepresentation of goods as to grade, quality, weights, quantity, or any other essential fact in connection therewith.

(19) That the licensee has permitted (~~(an agent)~~) a person to in fact operate his own separate business under cover of the licensee's license and bond.

(20) That a commission merchant or dealer has failed to furnish additional bond coverage within fifteen days of when it was requested in writing by the director.

(21) That the licensee has discriminated in the licensee's dealings with consignors on the basis of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap.

Sec. 41. Section 37, chapter 139, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 18, chapter 254, Laws of 1988 and RCW 20.01.370 are each amended to read as follows:

Every commission merchant taking control of any agricultural products for sale as such commission merchant, shall promptly make and keep for a period of (~~(one year)~~) three years, beginning on the day the sale of the product is complete, a correct record showing in detail the following with reference to the handling, sale, or storage of such agricultural products:

- (1) The name and address of the consignor.
- (2) The date received.
- (3) The quality and quantity delivered by the consignor, and where applicable the dockage, tare, grade, size, net weight, or quantity.
- (4) An accounting of all sales, including dates, terms of sales, quality and quantity of agricultural products sold, and proof of payments received on behalf of the consignor.
- (5) The terms of payment to the producer.
- (6) An itemized statement of the charges to be paid by consignor in connection with the sale.
- (7) The names and addresses of all purchasers if said commission merchant has any financial interest in the business of said purchasers, or if said purchasers have any financial interest in the business of said commission merchant, directly or indirectly, as holder of the other's corporate stock, as copartner, as lender or borrower of money to or from the other, or otherwise. Such interest shall be noted in said records following the name of any such purchaser.

(8) A lot number or other identifying mark for each consignment, which number or mark shall appear on all sales tags and other essential records needed to show what the agricultural products actually sold for.

(9) Any claim or claims which have been or may be filed by the commission merchant against any person for overcharges or for damages resulting from the injury or deterioration of such agricultural products by the act, neglect or failure of such person and such records shall be open to the inspection of the director and the consignor of agricultural products for whom such claim or claims are made.

Where a pooling arrangement is agreed to in writing between the consignor and commission merchant, the reporting requirements of subsections (4), (5), (6), and (8) of this section shall apply to the pool rather than to the individual consignor or consignment and the records of the pool shall be available for inspection by any consignor to that pool.

The commission merchant shall transmit a copy of the record required by this section to the consignor on the same day the final remittance is made to the consignor as required by RCW 20.01.430 as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 42. Section 38, chapter 139, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 17, chapter 254, Laws of 1988 and RCW 20.01.380 are each amended to read as follows:

Every dealer or cash buyer purchasing any agricultural products from the consignor thereof shall promptly make and keep for (~~(one year)~~) three years a correct record showing in detail the following:

- (1) The name and address of the consignor.
- (2) The date received.
- (3) The terms of the sale.
- (4) The quality and quantity delivered by the consignor, and where applicable the dockage, tare, grade, size, net weight, or quantity.
- (5) An itemized statement of any charges paid by the dealer or cash buyer for the account of the consignor.
- (6) The name and address of the purchaser: PROVIDED, That the name and address of the purchaser may be deleted from the record furnished to the consignor.
- (7) A copy of the itemized list of charges required under RCW 20.01.080 in effect on the date the terms of sale were agreed upon.

A copy of such record containing the above matters shall be forwarded to the consignor forthwith.

Livestock dealers must also maintain individual animal identification and disposition records as may be required by law, or regulation adopted by the director.

Sec. 43. Section 46, chapter 139, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 19, chapter 254, Laws of 1988 and RCW 20.01.460 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who violates the provisions of this chapter or fails to comply with the rules adopted under this chapter is guilty of a gross misdemeanor, except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section.

(2) Any commission merchant, dealer, or cash buyer, or any person assuming or attempting to act as a commission merchant, dealer, or cash buyer without a license is guilty of a class C felony who:

- (a) Imposes false charges for handling or services in connection with agricultural products.
- (b) Makes fictitious sales or is guilty of collusion to defraud the consignor.
- (c) Intentionally makes false statement or statements as to the grade, conditions, markings, quality, or quantity of goods shipped or packed in any manner.
- (d) With the intent to defraud the consignor, fails to comply with the ((payment)) requirements set forth under RCW 20.01.010(10), 20.01.390 or 20.01.430.

(3) Any person who violates the provisions of RCW 20.01.040, 20.01.080, 20.01.120, 20.01.125, 20.01.410 or 20.01.610 has committed a civil infraction.

Sec. 44. Section 16, chapter 305, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 11, chapter 254, Laws of 1988 and RCW 22.09.011 are each amended to read as follows:

The definitions set forth in this section apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

- (1) 'Department' means the department of agriculture of the state of Washington.
- (2) 'Director' means the director of the department or his duly authorized representative.
- (3) 'Person' means a natural person, individual, firm, partnership, corporation, company, society, association, cooperative, two or more persons having a joint or common interest, or any unit or agency of local, state, or federal government.
- (4) 'Agricultural commodities,' or 'commodities,' means: (a) ~~((All the grains, peas, beans, lentils, corn, sorghums, malt, peanuts, and flax, and (b)))~~ Grains for which inspection standards have been established under the United States grain standards act; (b) pulses and similar commodities for which inspection standards have been established under the agricultural marketing act of 1946; and (c) other similar agricultural products ((similar to those listed in (a) of this subsection)) for which inspection standards have been established or which have been otherwise designated by the department by rule for inspection services or the warehousing requirements of this chapter.

(5) 'Warehouse,' also referred to as a public warehouse, means any elevator, mill, subterminal grain warehouse, terminal warehouse, country warehouse, or other structure or enclosure located in this state that is used or useable for the storage of agricultural products, and in which commodities are received from the public for storage, handling, conditioning, or shipment for compensation. The term does not include any warehouse storing or handling fresh fruits and/or vegetables, any warehouse used exclusively for cold storage, or any warehouse that conditions yearly less than three hundred tons of an agricultural commodity for compensation.

(6) 'Terminal warehouse' means any warehouse designated as a terminal by the department, and located at an inspection point where inspection facilities are maintained by the department and where commodities are ordinarily received and shipped by common carrier.

(7) 'Subterminal warehouse' means any warehouse that performs an intermediate function in which agricultural commodities are customarily received from dealers rather than producers and where the commodities are accumulated before shipment to a terminal warehouse.

(8) 'Station' means two or more warehouses between which commodities are commonly transferred in the ordinary course of business and that are (a) immediately adjacent to each other, or (b) located within the corporate limits of any city or town and subject to the same transportation tariff zone, or (c) at any railroad siding or switching area and subject to the same transportation tariff zone, or (d) at one location in the open country off rail, or (e) in any area that can be reasonably audited by the department as a station under this chapter and that has been established as such by the director by rule adopted under chapter ~~((34-04))~~ 34.05 RCW, or (f) within twenty miles of each other but separated by the border between Washington and Idaho or Oregon when the books and records for the station are maintained at the warehouse located in Washington.

(9) 'Inspection point' means a city, town, or other place wherein the department maintains inspection and weighing facilities.

(10) 'Warehouseman' means any person owning, operating, or controlling a warehouse in the state of Washington.

(11) 'Depositor' means (a) any person who deposits a commodity with a Washington state licensed warehouseman for storage, handling, conditioning, or shipment, or (b) any person who is the owner or legal holder of a warehouse receipt, outstanding scale weight ticket, or other evidence of the deposit of a commodity with a Washington state licensed warehouseman or (c) any producer whose agricultural commodity has been sold to a grain dealer through the dealer's place of business located in the state of Washington, or any Washington producer whose agricultural commodity has been sold to or is under the control of a grain dealer, whose place of business is located outside the state of Washington.

(12) 'Historical depositor' means any person who in the normal course of business operations has consistently made deposits in the same warehouse of commodities produced on the same land. In addition the purchaser, lessee, and/or inheritor of such land from the original historical depositor with reference to the land shall be considered a historical depositor with regard to the commodities produced on the land.

(13) 'Grain dealer' means any person who, through his place of business located in the state of Washington, solicits, contracts for, or obtains from a producer, title, possession, or control of any agricultural commodity for purposes of resale, or any person who solicits, contracts for, or obtains from a Washington producer, title, possession, or control of any agricultural commodity for purposes of resale.

(14) 'Producer' means any person who is the owner, tenant, or operator of land who has an interest in and is entitled to receive all or any part of the proceeds from the sale of a commodity produced on that land.

(15) 'Warehouse receipt' means a negotiable or nonnegotiable warehouse receipt as provided for in Article 7 of Title 62A RCW.

(16) 'Scale weight ticket' means a load slip or other evidence of deposit, serially numbered, not including warehouse receipts as defined in subsection (15) of this section, given a depositor on request upon initial delivery of the commodity to the warehouse and showing the warehouse's name and state number, type of commodity, weight thereof, name of depositor, and the date delivered.

(17) 'Put through' means agricultural commodities that are deposited in a warehouse for receiving, handling, conditioning, or shipping, and on which the depositor has concluded satisfactory arrangements with the warehouseman for the immediate or impending shipment of the commodity.

(18) 'Conditioning' means, but is not limited to, the drying or cleaning of agricultural commodities.

(19) 'Deferred price contract' means a contract for the sale of commodities that conveys the title and all rights of ownership to the commodities represented by the contract to the buyer, but allows the seller to set the price of the commodities at a later date based on an agreed upon relationship to a future month's price or some other mutually agreeable method of price determination. Deferred price contracts include but are not limited to those contracts commonly referred to as delayed price, price later contracts, or open price contracts.

(20) 'Shortage' means that a warehouseman does not have in his possession sufficient commodities at each of his stations to cover the outstanding warehouse receipts, scale weight tickets, or other evidence of storage liability issued or assumed by him for the station.

(21) 'Failure' means:

(a) An inability to financially satisfy claimants in accordance with this chapter and the time limits provided for in it;

(b) A public declaration of insolvency;

(c) A revocation of license and the leaving of an outstanding indebtedness to a depositor;

(d) A failure to redeliver any commodity to a depositor or to pay depositors for commodities purchased by a licensee in the ordinary course of business and where a bona fide dispute does not exist between the licensee and the depositor;

(e) A failure to make application for license renewal within sixty days after the annual license renewal date; or

(f) A denial of the application for a license renewal.

(22) 'Original inspection' means an initial, official inspection of a grain or commodity.

(23) 'Reinspection' means an official review of the results of an original inspection service by an inspection office that performed that original inspection service. A reinspection may be performed either on the basis of the official file sample or a new sample obtained by the same means as the original if the lot remains intact.

(24) 'Appeal inspection' means, for commodities covered by federal standards, a review of original inspection or reinspection results by an authorized United States department of agriculture inspector. For commodities covered under state standards, an appeal inspection means a review of original or reinspection results by a supervising inspector. An appeal inspection may be performed either on the basis of the official file sample or a new sample obtained by the same means as the original if the lot remains intact.

Sec. 45. Section 2, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 17, chapter 305, Laws of 1983 and RCW 22.09.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall administer and carry out the provisions of this chapter and rules adopted hereunder, and it has the power and authority to:

(1) Supervise the receiving, handling, conditioning, weighing, storage, and shipping of all commodities;

(2) Supervise the inspection and grading of ((all)) commodities;

(3) Approve or disapprove the facilities, including scales, of all warehouses;

(4) Approve or disapprove all rates and charges for the handling, storage, and shipment of all commodities;

(5) Investigate all complaints of fraud in the operation of any warehouse;

(6) Examine, inspect, and audit, during ordinary business hours, any warehouse licensed under this chapter, including all commodities therein and examine, inspect, audit, or record all books, documents, and records;

(7) Examine, inspect, and audit during ordinary business hours, all books, documents, and records, and examine, inspect, audit, or record records of any grain dealer licensed hereunder at the grain dealer's principal office or headquarters;

(8) Inspect at reasonable times any warehouse or storage facility where commodities are received, handled, conditioned, stored, or shipped, including all commodities stored therein and all books, documents, and records in order to determine whether or not such facility should be licensed pursuant to this chapter;

(9) Inspect at reasonable times any grain dealer's books, documents, and records in order to determine whether or not the grain dealer should be licensed under this chapter;

(10) Administer oaths and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses, and/or the production of books, documents, and records anywhere in the state pursuant to a hearing relative to the purpose and provisions of this chapter. Witnesses shall be entitled to fees for attendance and travel, as provided in chapter 2.40 RCW;

(11) Adopt rules establishing inspection standards and procedures for grains and commodities;

(12) Adopt rules regarding the identification of commodities by the use of confetti or other similar means so that such commodities may be readily identified if stolen or removed in violation of the provisions of this chapter from a warehouse or if otherwise unlawfully transported;

~~((12))~~ (13) Adopt all the necessary rules for carrying out the purpose and provisions of this chapter. The adoption of rules under the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to the provisions of chapter ~~((34.04))~~ 34.05 RCW, the Administrative Procedure Act. When adopting rules in respect to the provisions of this chapter, the director shall hold a public hearing and shall to the best of his ability consult with persons and organizations or interests who will be affected thereby, and any final rule adopted as a result of the hearing shall be designed to promote the provisions of this chapter and shall be reasonable and necessary and based upon needs and conditions of the industry, and shall be for the purpose of promoting the well-being of the industry to be regulated and the general welfare of the people of the state.

(1) Every warehouse receipt issued for commodities covered by this chapter shall embody within its written or printed terms:

(a) The grade of the commodities ~~((received))~~ as ~~((established))~~ described by the official standards of this state, unless the identity of the commodity is in fact preserved in a special pile or special bin, and an identifying mark of such pile or bin shall appear on the face of the receipt and on the pile or bin. A commodity in a special pile or bin shall not be removed or relocated without canceling the outstanding receipt and issuing a new receipt showing the change;

(b) Such other terms and conditions as required by Article 7 of Title 62A RCW: PROVIDED, That nothing contained therein requires a receipt issued for wheat to specifically state the variety of wheat by name;

(c) A clause reserving for the warehouseman the optional right to terminate storage upon thirty days' written notice to the depositor and collect outstanding charges against any lot of commodities after June 30th following the date of the receipt.

(2) Warehouse receipts issued under the United States Warehouse Act (7 USCA § 241 et seq.) are deemed to fulfill the requirements of this chapter so far as it pertains to the issuance of warehouse receipts.

Sec. 47. Section 39, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 and RCW 22.09.720 are each amended to read as follows:

The grades and standards established by the United States department of agriculture as of ~~((July 1, 1963))~~ September 30, 1988, for all commodities included within the provisions of this chapter are hereby adopted as the grades and standards for such commodities in this state: PROVIDED, That the department is hereby authorized to adopt by regulation any new or future amendments to such federal grades and standards. The department is also authorized to issue regulations whether or not in accordance with the federal government and to prescribe therein grades and standards which it may deem suitable for ~~((such))~~ inspection of commodities ~~((-except hops-))~~ in the state of Washington. In adopting any new or amendatory regulations the department shall give appropriate consideration, among other relevant factors, to the following:

(1) The usefulness of uniform federal and state grades;

(2) The common classifications given such commodities within the industry;

(3) The utility of various grades;

(4) The kind and type of grades requested by those dealing with the particular type of commodity; and

(5) The condition of the commodity with regard to its wholesomeness and purity.

Sec. 48. Section 40, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 and RCW 22.09.730 are each amended to read as follows:

Inspection ~~((and))~~ or grading of a lot ~~((or parcel))~~, partial lot, or sample of a commodity tendered for inspection ~~((and))~~ or grading under this chapter shall consist of taking and examining a representative sample thereof and making such tests as are necessary to determine its grade, condition, or other qualitative measurement. Commodities tendered for inspection must be offered and made accessible for sampling at inspection points during customary business hours.

(1) No inspector shall issue a certificate of grade, grading factors, condition, or other qualitative measurement for any commodity unless the inspection ~~((and))~~ or grading thereof be based upon a correct and representative sample of the commodity and the inspection is made under conditions which permit the determination of its true grade or quality, except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section. No sample shall be deemed to be representative unless it is of the size and procured in accordance with the uniform methods prescribed by the department.

(2) An inspection may be made of a submitted sample ~~((or package))~~ of a commodity, provided that the certificate issued in such case clearly shows that the inspection ~~((and))~~ or grading covers only the submitted sample ~~((or package))~~ of such commodity and not the lot from which it ~~((was))~~ purportedly drawn.

(3) When commodities are tendered for inspection in such a manner as to make the drawing of a representative sample impossible, a qualified inspection may be made. In such case, the certificate shall clearly show the condition preventing proper sampling such as heavily loaded ~~((box))~~ car, truck, barge, or other container, or other condition.

Sec. 49. Section 41, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 and RCW 22.09.740 are each amended to read as follows:

From all commodities inspected, samples may be drawn, which samples, unless returned by agreement to the applicant, shall become the property of the state and subject to disposition by the department. Upon ~~((prior))~~ request the department may transmit a portion of such samples to interested ~~((persons))~~ parties upon payment of a reasonable fee ~~((therefor))~~ set by regulation. Official state file samples shall be retained for ~~((a))~~ periods ~~((of fifteen days))~~ prescribed by state or federal regulation.

Sec. 50. Section 42, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 54, chapter 305, Laws of 1983 and RCW 22.09.750 are each amended to read as follows:

The department's inspectors shall, at terminal warehouses, have exclusive control of the weighing, inspecting, and grading of the commodities that are included within the provisions of this chapter ~~((and))~~; PROVIDED, That official supervision of weighing under the United States grain standards act shall be deemed in compliance with this section. The action and the certificates of the inspectors in the discharge of their duties, as to all commodities ~~((weighed or))~~ inspected or weighed by them, shall be accepted as prima facie evidence of the correctness of the above activity. ~~((However, an appeal may be taken as provided in RCW 22.09.780 to the director of the department. Suitable books and records shall be kept in which shall be entered a record of every carload, or cargo, or part of cargo of commodities inspected or weighed by them, showing the number and initial or other designation of the vehicle or boat containing the carload, or cargo, or part of cargo, its weight, the kind of commodity, and its grade, the reason for the grade if of inferior grade, the amount of the dockage, the amount of fees and forfeitures and disposition of them; and for each vehicle or cargo, or part of cargo, of commodity inspected, they shall give a certificate of inspection showing the kind and grade of the same and the reason for all grades established. They shall also keep a record of all appeals, decisions, and a complete record of every official act, which books and records shall be open to inspection by any party in interest. They shall also furnish the agent of the railroad company, or other carrier over which the commodity was shipped or carried, a report showing the weight thereof, if requested to do so.))~~ Suitable books and records shall be maintained in which shall be entered a record of each inspection activity and the fees assessed and collected. These books and records shall be available for inspection by any party of interest during customary business hours. The records shall be maintained for periods set by regulation.

Sec. 51. Section 45, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 and RCW 22.09.780 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In case any owner, consignee, or shipper of any commodity included under the provisions of this chapter, or his agent or broker, or any warehouseman shall be aggrieved at the grading of such commodity, ~~((such aggrieved))~~ the person may ~~((appeal to the department from such decision within fifteen))~~ request a reinspection or appeal inspection within three business days from the date of certificate ~~((by giving notice of appeal, and paying a fee to be fixed by the department, not exceeding twenty dollars, which shall be retained if the decision appealed is sustained, otherwise to be refunded. Such notice of appeal may be given by a letter or other written notice to the department stating the inspector's name, number of the certificate, date of inspection, and that such party appeals from such decision concerning such grade.~~

(2) It shall be the duty of the department upon receiving such notice of appeal to hold a hearing within twenty days and inquire into the reasonableness and correctness of such original grading and such evidence shall be received as the parties thereto may desire to offer.

After such hearing the director of the department shall make such order affirming or modifying the grade so established by the inspector as the facts may justify)). The reinspection or appeal may be based in the official file sample or upon a new sample drawn from the lot of the grain or commodity if the lot remains intact and available for sampling. The reinspection or appeal inspection shall be of the same factors and scope as the original inspection.

(2) For commodities inspected under federal standards, the reinspection and appeal inspection procedure provided in the applicable federal regulations shall apply. For commodities inspected under state standards, the department shall provide a minimum of a reinspection and appeal inspection service. The reinspection shall consist of a full review of all relevant information and a reexamination of the commodity to determine the correctness of the grade assigned or other determination. The reinspection shall be performed by an authorized inspector of the department other than the inspector who performed the original inspection unless no other inspector is available. An appeal inspection shall be performed by a supervisory inspector.

(3) If the grading of any commodity for which federal standards have been fixed and the same adopted as official state standards has not been the subject of a hearing, in accordance with subsection (2) of this section, any interested party who is aggrieved with the grading of such commodity, may, with the approval of the secretary of the United States department of agriculture, appeal to the federal grain supervisor of the supervision district in which the state of Washington may be located. Such federal grain supervisor shall confer with the department inspectors and any other interested party and shall make such tests as he may deem necessary to determine the correct grade of the commodity in question. Such federal grade certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the correct grade of the commodity in any court in the state of Washington.

Sec. 52. Section 50, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 25, chapter 297, Laws of 1981 and RCW 22.09.830 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All moneys collected as warehouse license fees, fees for weighing, grading, and inspecting commodities and all other fees collected under the provisions of this chapter, except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, shall be deposited ~~((into))~~ in the grain ~~((and hop))~~ inspection revolving fund, which is hereby established. The state treasurer is the custodian of the revolving fund. Disbursements from the revolving fund shall be on authorization of the director of the department of agriculture. The revolving fund is subject to the allotment procedure provided in chapter 43.88 RCW, but no appropriation is required for disbursements from the fund. ~~((Such))~~ The fund shall be used for all expenses directly incurred by the commodity inspection division ~~((of grain and agricultural chemicals))~~ in carrying out the provisions of this chapter. The department may use so much of such fund not exceeding five percent thereof as the director of agriculture may determine necessary for research and promotional work, including rate studies, relating to wheat and wheat products.

(2) All fees collected for the inspection, grading, and testing of hops shall be deposited into the hop inspection fund, which is hereby established, and shall be retained by the department for the purpose of inspecting, grading, and testing hops. Any moneys in any fund retained by the department on July 1, 1963, and derived from hop inspection and grading shall be deposited to this hop inspection fund. For the purposes of research which would contribute to the development of superior hop varieties and to improve hop production and harvest practices, the department may expend up to twenty percent of the moneys deposited in the hop inspection fund during the fiscal year ending June 30th immediately preceding the year in which such expenditures are to be made. No expenditures shall be made under the provisions of this subsection when the hop inspection fund is, or the director may reasonably anticipate that it will be, reduced below twenty thousand dollars as the result of such expenditure or other necessary expenditures made to carry out the inspection, grading, and testing of hops.

Sec. 53. Section 15.24.010, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 22, chapter 240, Laws of 1967 and RCW 15.24.010 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

- (1) 'Commission' means the Washington state apple advertising commission;
- (2) 'Ship' means to load apples into a conveyance for transport, except apples being moved from the orchard where grown to a packing house or warehouse within the immediate area of production;
- (3) 'Handler' means any person who ships or initiates a shipping operation, whether for himself or for another;
- (4) 'Dealer' means any person who handles, ships, buys, or sells apples, or who acts as sales or purchasing agent, broker, or factor of apples;
- (5) 'Processor' and 'processing plant' means every person to whom and every place to which apples are delivered for drying, dehydrating, canning, pressing, powdering, extracting, cooking, or for use in producing a product or manufacturing a manufactured article;
- (6) 'Processing apples' means all apples delivered to a processing plant for drying, dehydrating, canning, pressing, powdering, extracting, cooking, or for use in producing a product or manufacturing a manufactured article;
- (7) 'Fresh apples' means all apples other than processing apples;

- (8) 'Director' means the director of the department of agriculture or his duly authorized representative;
- (9) 'Grower district No. 1' includes the counties of Chelan, Okanogan, and Douglas;
- (10) 'Grower district No. 2' includes the counties of Kittitas, Yakima, Benton, and Franklin;
- (11) 'Grower district No. 3' includes all counties in the state not included in the first and second districts; ~~((and))~~
- (12) 'Dealer district No. 1' includes the area of the state north of interstate 90;
- (13) 'Dealer district No. 2' includes the area of the state south of interstate 90; and
- (14) 'Executive officer' includes, but is not limited to, the principal management executive, sales manager, general manager, or other executive employee of similar responsibility and authority.

Sec. 54. Section 15.24.020, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 23, chapter 240, Laws of 1967 and RCW 15.24.020 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created a Washington state apple advertising commission to be thus known and designated. The commission shall be composed of nine practical apple producers and four practical apple dealers. The director shall be an ex officio member of the commission without vote.

The nine producer members shall be citizens and residents of this state, over the age of twenty-five years, each of whom, either individually or as an executive officer of a corporation, firm or partnership, is and has been actually engaged in growing and producing apples within the state of Washington for a period of five years, currently operates a commercial producing orchard in the district represented, and has during that period derived a substantial portion of his income therefrom: PROVIDED, That he may own and operate an apple warehouse and pack and store apples grown by others, without being disqualified, so long as a substantial quantity of the apples handled in such warehouse are grown by him; and he may sell apples grown by himself and others so long as he does not sell a larger quantity of apples grown by others than those grown by himself. The four dealer members shall be persons who, either individually or as executive officers of a corporation, firm, partnership, association, or cooperative organization, are and have been actively engaged as dealers in apples within the state of Washington for a period of five years, and are citizens and residents of this state, and are engaged as apple dealers in the district represented. The qualifications of members of the commission as herein set forth must continue during their term of office.

Thirteen persons with the qualifications stated in RCW 15.24.020 ~~((as amended in section 23, chapter 240, Laws of 1967))~~ shall be elected members of said commission. Four of the grower members, being positions one, two, three and four, shall be from grower district No. 1, at least one of whom shall be a resident of and engaged in growing and producing apples in Okanogan county; four of the grower members, being positions five, six, seven and eight, from grower district No. 2; and one grower member, being position nine from grower district No. 3. Two of the dealer members, being positions ten and eleven, shall be from dealer district No. 1; and two of the dealer members, being positions twelve and thirteen, shall be from dealer district No. 2.

The commission shall have authority in its discretion to establish by regulation one or more subdivisions of grower district No. 1 and one or more subdivisions of grower district No. 2; provided that each of the same includes a substantial apple producing district or districts, and provided the same does not result in an unfair or unequitable voting situation or an unfair or unequitable representation of apple growers on said commission. In such event each of said subdivisions shall be entitled to be represented by one of the said grower members of the commission, who shall be elected by vote of the qualified apple growers in said subdivision of said district, and who shall be a resident of and engaged in growing and producing apples in said subdivision.

The regular term of office of the members of the commission shall be three years from March 1 following their election and until their successors are elected and qualified. The commission shall hold its annual meeting during the month of March each year for the purpose of electing officers and the transaction of other business and shall hold such other meetings during the year as it shall determine.

Sec. 56. Section 15.24.040, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 25, chapter 240, Laws of 1967 and RCW 15.24.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall call a meeting of apple growers ~~((in each of the three districts))~~, and meetings of apple dealers in dealer district No. 1 and dealer district No. 2 for the purpose of nominating their respective members of the commission, when a term is about to expire, or when a vacancy exists, except as provided in RCW 15.24.050, as amended, at times and places to be fixed by the commission. Said meetings shall be held not later than February 15th of each year and insofar as practicable, the said meetings of the growers shall be held at the same time and place as the annual ~~((state and district))~~ meeting~~((s))~~ of the Washington state horticultural association ~~((and its affiliated clubs))~~, or the annual meeting of any other producer organization which represents a majority of the state's apple producers, as determined by the commission, but not while the same ((are)) is in actual session. Public notice of such meetings shall be given by the commission in such manner as it may determine: PROVIDED, That nonreceipt of the notice by any interested person shall not invalidate the proceedings. Any qualified person may be nominated orally for such positions at the said respective meetings. Nominations may also be made within five days after any such meeting by written petition filed in the Wenatchee office of the commission, signed by not less than five apple growers or dealers, as the case may be, residing within the district or within the subdivision if the nomination is made from a subdivision.

The members of the commission shall be elected by secret mail ballot under the supervision of the director: PROVIDED, That in any case where there is but one nomination for a position, a secret mail ballot shall not be conducted or required and the director shall certify the candidate to be elected. Grower members of the commission shall be elected by a majority of the votes cast by the apple growers in the respective districts or subdivisions thereof, as the case may be, each grower who operates a commercial producing apple orchard within the district or subdivision being represented, whether an individual proprietor, partnership, joint venture, or corporation, being entitled to one vote. As to bona fide leased or rented orchards, only the lessee-operator, if otherwise qualified, shall be entitled to vote. An individual commercial orchard operator, if otherwise qualified, shall be entitled to vote as such, even though he is also a member of a partnership or corporation which votes for other apple acreage. Dealer members of the commission shall be elected by a majority of the votes cast by the apple dealers in the respective districts, each dealer being entitled to one vote. If a nominee does not receive a majority of the votes on the first ballot, a run-off election shall be held by mail in a similar manner between the two candidates for such position receiving the largest number of votes.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 57. A new section is added to chapter 15.58 RCW to read as follows:

The director of agriculture may adopt rules to allow the department of agriculture to take possession and dispose of canceled, suspended, or otherwise unusable pesticides held by persons licensed under chapter 15.58 RCW or regulated under chapter 17.21 RCW. For purposes of this section, the department may become licensed as a hazardous waste generator. The department may set fees to cover expenses in connection with pesticide waste received from persons licensed under chapter 15.58 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 58. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 15.32.170, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.32.170;
- (2) Section 15.32.180, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.32.180;

- (24) Section 15.36.570, chapter 11, Laws of 1961 and RCW 15.36.570.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 59. Section 4, chapter 247, Laws of 1985 and RCW 15.86.040 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 60. Section 7, chapter 305, Laws of 1983 and RCW 20.01.600 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 61. Section 21, chapter 124, Laws of 1963, section 18, chapter 238, Laws of 1979 ex. sess., section 38, chapter 305, Laws of 1983 and RCW 22.09.700 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 62. A new section is added to chapter 1.20 RCW to read as follows:

Agropyron spicatum, the species of natural grass commonly called 'bluebunch wheat-grass,' is hereby designated as the official grass of the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 63. A new section is added to chapter 1.20 RCW to read as follows:
The official fruit of the state of Washington is the apple.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 64. The county legislative authority of any county of the third class located east of the cascade crest and bordering on the southern side of the Snake river shall have the power to designate by an order made and published, as provided in section 66 of this act, certain territories as apiary coordinated areas in which they may designate the number of colonies per apiary, the distance between apiaries, the minimum required setback distance from property lines, and/or the time of year the regulations shall be in effect. No territory so designated shall be less than two square miles in area. All territory not so designated shall be unrestricted apiary areas.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 65. When the county legislative authority determines that it would be desirable to establish an apiary coordinated area or areas in their county, they shall make an order fixing a time and place when a hearing will be held, notice of which shall be published at least once each week for two successive weeks in a newspaper having general circulation within the county. It shall be the duty of the county legislative authority at the time fixed for such hearing, to hear all persons interested in the establishment of apiary restricted areas as defined in sections 64 through 68 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 66. Within thirty days after the conclusion of any such hearing the county legislative authority shall make an order describing the apiary coordinated areas within the county as to the maximum allowable number of hives per site, the minimum allowable distance between sites, and the minimum required setback from property lines. The order shall be entered upon the records of the county and published in a newspaper having general circulation in the county at least once each week for four successive weeks.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 67. Any person, or any agent, employee, or representative of a corporation, violating any of the provisions of such order after the order has been published or posted as provided in section 66 of this act, or violating any provision of this chapter, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 68. When the county legislative authority of any county deems it advisable to change the boundary or boundaries of any apiary coordinated area, a hearing shall be held in the same manner as provided in section 65 of this act. If the county legislative authority decides to change the boundary or boundaries of any apiary coordinated area or areas, they shall within thirty days after the conclusion of such hearing make an order describing the change or changes. Such order shall be entered upon the records of the county and published in a newspaper having general circulation in the county once each week for four successive weeks.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 69. Sections 64 through 68 of this act are each added to chapter 15.60 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 70. The purpose of this chapter is to provide uniformity and consistency in the packaging of agricultural, vegetable, and flower seeds so as to facilitate the interstate movement of seed, to protect consumers, and to provide a dispute-resolution process. The department of agriculture is hereby authorized to adopt rules in accordance with chapter 34.05 RCW to implement this chapter. To the extent possible, the department shall seek to incorporate into the rules provisions from the recommended uniform state seed law in order to attain consistency with other states.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 71. (1) The department shall establish by rule standards and label requirements for the following seed types: Agricultural seed (including grass, lawn, and turf seed), flower seed, and vegetable seed.

(2) The standards and label requirements shall be divided into the following categories:

(a) Percentage of kind and variety of each seed component present; and

(b) Percentage of weed seed (restricted and common).

(3) The standards and label requirements developed by the department shall at a minimum include:

(a) Amount of inert material;

(b) Specifics and warning for treated seed;

(c) Specifics for coated seed;

(d) Specifics and duration for inoculated seed;

(e) Specifics for seed which is below standard;

(f) Specifics for seed contained in containers, mats, tapes, or other planting devices;

(g) Specifics for seed sold in bulk;

(h) Specifics for hybrid seed; and

(i) Specifics for seed mixtures.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 72. In addition to the requirements contained in section 71 of this act, each seed label shall contain the following:

(1) The name and address of the person who labeled the seed and who sells, offers, or exposes the seed for sale within the state;

(2) Lot number identification;

(3) Seed origin;

(4) Germination rate and date of germination test or the year for which the seed was packaged for sale.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 73. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Advertisement' means all representations, other than those on the label, disseminated in any manner or by any means, relating to seed within the scope of this chapter.

(2) 'Agricultural seed' includes grass, forage, cereal, oil, fiber, and other kinds of crop seeds commonly recognized within this state as agricultural seeds, lawn seeds, and combinations of such seeds, and may include common and restricted noxious weed seeds but not prohibited noxious weed seeds.

(3) 'Blend' means seed consisting of more than one variety of a kind, each in excess of five percent by weight of the whole.

(4) 'Bulk seed' means seed distributed in a nonpackage form.

(5) 'Certifying agency' means (a) an agency authorized under the laws of any state, territory, or possession to certify seed officially and which has standards and procedures approved by the United States secretary of agriculture to assure the genetic purity and identity of the seed certified; or (b) an agency of a foreign country determined by the United States secretary of agriculture to adhere to procedures and standards for seed certification comparable to those adhered to generally by seed-certifying agencies under (a) of this subsection.

(6) 'Conditioning' means drying, cleaning, scarifying, and other operations that could change the purity or germination of the seed and require the seed lot to be retested to determine the label information.

(7) 'Dealer' means any person who distributes.

(8) 'Department' means the department of agriculture of the state of Washington or its duly authorized representative.

(9) 'Director' means the director of the department of agriculture.

(10) 'Distribute' means to import, consign, offer for sale, hold for sale, sell, barter, or otherwise supply seed in this state.

(11) 'Flower seeds' includes seeds of herbaceous plants grown from their blooms, ornamental foliage, or other ornamental parts, and commonly known and sold under the name of flower seeds in this state.

(12) The terms 'foundation seed,' 'registered seed,' and 'certified seed' mean seed that has been produced and labeled in compliance with the regulations of the department.

(13) 'Germination' means the emergence and development from the seed embryo of those essential structures which, for the kind of seed in question, are indicative of the ability to produce a normal plant under favorable conditions.

(14) 'Hard seeds' means seeds that remain hard at the end of the prescribed test period because they have not absorbed water due to an impermeable seed coat.

(15) 'Hybrid' means the first generation seed of a cross produced by controlling the pollination and by combining (a) two or more inbred lines; (b) one inbred or a single cross with an open pollinated variety; or (c) two varieties or species, except open-pollinated varieties of corn (Zea mays). The second generation or subsequent generations from such crosses shall not be regarded as hybrids. Hybrid designations shall be treated as variety names.

(16) 'Inert matter' means all matter not seed, that includes broken seeds, sterile florets, chaff, fungus bodies, and stones as determined by methods defined by rule.

(17) 'Kind' means one or more related species or subspecies that singly or collectively is known by one common name, for example, corn, oats, alfalfa, and timothy.

(18) 'Label' includes a tag or other device attached to or written, stamped, or printed on any container or accompanying any lot of bulk seeds purporting to set forth the information required on the seed label by this chapter, and it may include any other information relating to the labeled seed.

(19) 'Lot' means a definite quantity of seed identified by a lot number or other mark, every portion or bag of which is uniform within recognized tolerances for the factors that appear in the labeling.

(20) 'Lot number' shall identify the producer or dealer and year of production or the year distributed for each lot of seed. This requirement may be satisfied by use of a conditioner's or dealer's code.

(21) 'Master license system' means the mechanism established by chapter 19.02 RCW by which master licenses, endorsed for individual state-issued licenses, are issued and renewed using a master application and a master license expiration date common to each renewable license endorsement.

(22) 'Mixture,' 'mix,' or 'mixed' means seed consisting of more than one kind, each in excess of five percent by weight of the whole.

(23) 'Official sample' means any sample of seed taken and designated as official by the department.

(24) 'Other crop seed' means seed of plants grown as crops, other than the kind or variety included in the pure seed, as determined by methods defined by rule.

(25) 'Prohibited (primary) noxious weed seeds' are the seeds of weeds which when established are highly destructive, competitive, and/or difficult to control by cultural or chemical practices.

(26) 'Person' means an individual, partnership, corporation, company, association, receiver, trustee, or agent.

(27) 'Pure live seed' means the product of the percent of germination plus hard or dormant seed multiplied by the percent of pure seed divided by one hundred. The result is expressed as a whole number.

(28) 'Pure seed' means seed exclusive of inert matter and all other seeds not of the seed being considered as determined by methods defined by rule.

(29) 'Restricted (secondary) noxious weed seeds' are the seeds of weeds which are objectionable in fields, lawns, and gardens of this state, but which can be controlled by cultural or chemical practices.

(30) 'Retail' means to distribute to the ultimate consumer.

(31) 'Screenings' mean chaff, seed, weed seed, inert matter, and other materials removed from seed in cleaning or conditioning.

(32) 'Seed labeling registrant' means a person who has obtained a permit to label seed for distribution in this state.

(33) 'Seeds' mean agricultural or vegetable seeds or other seeds as determined by rules adopted by the department.

(34) 'Stop sale, use, or removal order' means an administrative order restraining the sale, use, disposition, and movement of a specific amount of seed.

(35) 'Treated' means that the seed has received an application of a substance, or that it has been subjected to a process for which a claim is made.

(36) 'Type' means a group of varieties so nearly similar that the individual varieties cannot be clearly differentiated except under special conditions.

(37) 'Variety' means a subdivision of a kind that is distinct, uniform, and stable; 'distinct' in the sense that the variety can be differentiated by one or more identifiable morphological, physiological, or other characteristics from all other varieties of public knowledge; 'uniform' in the sense that variations in essential and distinctive characteristics are describable; and 'stable' in the sense that the variety will remain unchanged in its essential and distinctive characteristics and its uniformity when reproduced or reconstituted as required by the different categories of varieties.

(38) 'Vegetable seeds' includes the seeds of those crops that are grown in gardens and on truck farms and are generally known and sold under the name of vegetable or herb seeds in this state.

(39) 'Weed seeds' include the seeds of all plants generally recognized as weeds within this state, and includes the seeds of prohibited and restricted noxious weeds as determined by regulations adopted by the department.

(40) 'Inoculant' means a commercial preparation containing nitrogen fixing bacteria applied to the seed.

(41) 'Coated seed' means seed that has been treated and has received an application of inert material during the treatment process.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 74. (1) It is a class 1 civil infraction under chapter 7.80 RCW for any person to violate any provision of this chapter or any rule adopted by the department or the director to carry out this chapter.

(2) It is a class 1 civil infraction under chapter 7.80 RCW for any person to engage in the conditioning of seed, entered by growers for certification, without first having obtained a seed conditioning permit from the department.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 75. (1) It is unlawful for any person to sell, offer for sale, expose for sale, or transport for sale any agricultural, vegetable, or flower seeds within this state unless the test to determine the percentage of germination is completed within a fifteen-month period prior to sale, provided that germination tests for seed packaged in hermetically sealed containers shall be completed within thirty-six months prior to sale. The department shall establish rules for allowing retesting.

(2) It is unlawful for any person to sell, offer for sale, expose for sale, or transport for sale any agricultural, vegetable, or flower seed within this state not labeled in accordance with this chapter or having false or misleading labeling or for which there has been false or misleading advertisement.

(3) It is unlawful to represent seed to be certified unless it has been determined by a seed-certifying agency that such seed conformed to standards of purity and identity or variety in compliance with the rules adopted under this chapter.

(4) It is unlawful to attach any tags of similar size and format to the official certification tag that could be mistaken for the official certification tag.

(5) It is unlawful for any person to sell, offer for sale, expose for sale, or transport for sale any agricultural, vegetable, or flower seed within this state labeled with a variety name but not certified by an official seed-certifying agency when it is a variety for which a United States certification of plant variety protection under the plant variety protection act (7 U.S.C. Sec. 2321 et seq.) specifies sale only as a class of certified seed: PROVIDED, That seed from a certified lot may be labeled as to variety name when used in a mixture by, or with the approval of, the owner of the variety.

(6) It is unlawful for any person within this state:

(a) To detach, alter, deface, or destroy any label required by this chapter or its implementing rules or to alter or substitute seed in a manner that may defeat the purpose of this chapter;

(b) To disseminate any false or misleading advertisements concerning seeds subject to this chapter in any manner or by any means;

(c) To hinder or obstruct in any way, any authorized person in the performance of his or her duties under this chapter;

(d) To fail to comply with a 'stop sale' order or to move or otherwise handle or dispose of any lot of seed held under a 'stop sale' order or tags attached thereto, except with express permission of the enforcing officer, and for the purpose specified thereby;

(e) To use the word 'trace' as a substitute for any statement that is required; and

(f) To use the word 'type' in any labeling in connection with the name of any agricultural seed variety.

(7) It is unlawful for any person to sell, offer for sale, expose for sale, or transport for sale any agricultural, vegetable, or flower seed within this state that consists of or contains: (a) Prohibited noxious weed seeds; or (b) restricted noxious weed seeds in excess of the number declared on the label.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 76. (1) The provisions of sections 71 through 75 of this act do not apply:

(a) To seed or grain not intended for sowing purposes;

(b) To seed in storage by, or being transported or consigned to a conditioning establishment for conditioning if the invoice or labeling accompanying the shipment of such seed bears the statement 'seeds for conditioning' and if any labeling or other representation that may be made with respect to the unconditioned seed is subject to this chapter;

(c) To any carrier with respect to any seed transported or delivered for transportation in the ordinary course of its business as a carrier if the carrier is not engaged in producing, conditioning, or marketing seeds subject to this chapter; or

(d) Seed stored or transported by the grower of the seed.

(2) No person may be subject to the penalties of this chapter for having sold or offered for sale seeds subject to this chapter that were incorrectly labeled or represented as to kind, species, variety, or type, which seeds cannot be identified by examination thereof, unless he or she has failed to obtain an invoice, genuine grower's declaration, or other labeling information and to take such other precautions as may be reasonable to ensure the identity to be that stated. A genuine grower's declaration of variety shall affirm that the grower holds records of proof concerning parent seed, such as invoice and labels.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 77. (1) When a buyer is damaged by the failure of any seed covered by this chapter to produce or perform as represented by the required label, by warranty, or as a result of negligence, the buyer, as a prerequisite to maintaining a legal action against the dealer of such seed, shall have first provided for the arbitration of the claim. Any statutory period of limitations with respect to such claim shall be tolled from the date arbitration proceedings are instituted until ten days after the date on which the arbitration award becomes final.

(2) Similarly, no such claim may be asserted as a counterclaim or defense in any action brought by a dealer against a buyer until the buyer has first provided for arbitration of the claim. Upon the buyer's filing of a written notice of intention to assert such a claim as a counterclaim or defense in the action accompanied by a copy of the buyer's complaint in arbitration filed as provided in this chapter, the action shall be stayed, and any applicable statute of limitations shall be tolled with respect to such claim from the date arbitration proceedings are instituted until ten days after the arbitration award becomes final.

(3) Conspicuous language calling attention to the requirement for arbitration under this section shall be referenced or included on the analysis label required under sections 71 through 80 of this act.

(4) If the parties agree to submit the claim to arbitration and to be bound by the arbitration award, then the arbitration shall be subject to chapter 7.04 RCW, and sections 78 through 81 of this act will not apply to the arbitration. If the parties do not so agree, then the buyer may provide for mandatory arbitration by the arbitration committee under sections 78 through 81 of this act. An award rendered in such mandatory arbitration shall not be binding upon the parties and any trial on any claim so arbitrated shall be de novo.

(5) This section applies only to claims, or counterclaims, where the relief sought is, or includes, a monetary amount in excess of two thousand dollars. All claims for two thousand dollars or less shall be commenced in either district court or small claims court.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 78. The director shall adopt rules, in conformance with chapter 34.05 RCW, providing for mandatory arbitration under this chapter and governing the proceedings of the arbitration committee. The decisions and proceedings of the arbitration committee shall not be subject to chapter 34.05 RCW. The department shall establish by rule a filing fee to cover the administrative costs of processing a complaint and submitting it to the arbitration committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 79. (1) To submit a claim to mandatory arbitration, the buyer shall make and file with the department a sworn complaint against the dealer alleging the damages sustained. The buyer shall send a copy of the complaint to the dealer by United States registered mail. The filing fee shall be submitted to the department with each complaint filed and may be recovered from the dealer or other seller upon recommendations of the arbitration committee.

(2) Within twenty days after receipt of a copy of the complaint, the dealer shall file with the department, by United States registered mail, the answer to the complaint. Failure of a dealer to file a timely answer to the complaint shall be so documented for the record.

(3) The director shall, upon receipt of the answer, refer the complaint and answer to the arbitration committee for investigation, findings, and recommendations.

(4) Any dealer may request an investigation by the arbitration committee for any dispute involving seed which may not otherwise be before the arbitration committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 80. (1) Upon referral of a complaint for investigation, the arbitration committee shall make a prompt and full investigation of the matters complained of and report its award to the director within sixty days of such referral or such later date as parties may determine or as may be required in subsection (3) of this section.

(2) The report of the arbitration committee shall include, in addition to its award, recommendations as to costs, if any.

(3) In the course of its investigation, the arbitration committee may examine the buyer and the dealer on all matters that the arbitration committee may consider relevant; may grow a representative sample of the seed referred to in the complaint if considered necessary; and may hold informal hearings at such time and place as the committee chairman may direct upon reasonable notice to all parties. If the committee decides to grow a representative sample of the seed, the sixty-day period identified in this section shall be extended an additional thirty days.

(4) After the committee has made its award, the director shall promptly transmit the report by certified mail to all parties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 81. (1) The director shall create an arbitration committee composed of five members, including the director, or a department employee designated by the director, and four members appointed by the director. The director shall make appointments so that the committee is balanced and does not favor the interests of either buyers or dealers. The director also shall appoint four alternates to the committee. In making appointments the director, to the extent practical, shall seek the recommendations of each of the following:

(a) The dean of the college of agriculture and home economics at Washington State University;

(b) The chief officer of an organization in this state representing the interests of seed dealers;

(c) The chief officer of an agriculture organization in this state as the director may determine to be appropriate; and

(d) The president of an agricultural organization in this state representing persons who purchase seed.

(2) Each alternate member shall serve only in the absence of the member for whom the person is an alternate.

(3) The committee shall elect a chairman and a secretary from its membership. The chairman shall conduct meetings and deliberations of the committee and direct all of its other activities. The secretary shall keep accurate records of all such meetings and deliberations and perform such other duties for the commission as the chairman may direct.

(4) The purpose of the committee is to conduct arbitration as provided in this chapter. The committee may be called into session by or at the direction of the director or upon direction of its chairman to consider matters referred to it by the director in accordance with this chapter.

(5) The members of the committee shall receive no compensation for performing their duties but shall be reimbursed for travel expenses; expense reimbursement shall be borne equally by the parties to the arbitration.

(6) For purposes of this chapter, a quorum of four members or their alternates is necessary to conduct an arbitration investigation or to make an award. If a quorum is present, a simple majority of members present shall be sufficient to make a decision. Any member disagreeing with the award may prepare a dissenting opinion and such opinion also will be included in the committee's report.

(7) The director shall make provisions for staff support, including legal advice, as the committee finds necessary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82. The director shall have the authority under this chapter to issue and enforce civil infractions according to chapter 7.80 RCW.

Sec. 83. Section 1, chapter 83, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 19, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 and RCW 15.14.010 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of this chapter:

- (1) 'Department' means the department of agriculture of the state of Washington.
- (2) 'Director' means the director of the department or his duly appointed representative.
- (3) 'Person' means a natural person, individual, or firm, partnership, corporation, company, society and association and every officer, agent or employee thereof. This term shall import either the singular or plural, as the case may be.
- (4) 'Plant pests' means, but is not limited to, any living stage of any insects, mites, nematodes, slugs, snails, protozoa, or other invertebrate animals, bacteria, fungi, other parasitic plants or reproductive parts thereof, viruses or any organisms similar to or allied with any of the foregoing, or any infectious substance, which can directly or indirectly injure or cause disease or damage to any plant or parts thereof, or any processed, manufactured, or other products of plants.
- (5) 'Plant propagating stock' hereinafter referred to as 'planting stock' includes any propagating materials used for the production or processing of horticultural, floricultural, viticultural or olivicultural plants for the purpose of being sold, offered for sale or exposed for sale for planting or reproduction purposes: PROVIDED, That it shall not include agricultural and vegetable seeds as defined in (~~RCW 15.49.050 and 15.49.060~~) section 73 of this act.
- (6) 'Certified plant stock' means the progeny of foundation, registered or certified plant stock if designated foundation and plant propagating materials that are so handled as to maintain satisfactory genetic identity and purity and have met certification standards required by this chapter and have been approved and certified by the director.
- (7) 'Foundation planting stock' means plant stock propagating materials that are increased from breeder or designated plant stock and are so handled as to most nearly maintain specific genetic identity and purity. Foundation plant stock, established by designation shall be that plant stock so designated by the director.
- (8) 'Breeder planting stock' means plant propagating materials directly controlled by the originating or in certain cases the sponsoring plant breeder or institution, which may include the department and which provides the source of the foundation plant stock.
- (9) 'Registered planting stock' means the progeny of foundation or registered planting stock or plant propagating material that is so handled as to maintain satisfactory genetic identity and purity and that has been approved and certified by the director. This class of planting stock shall be of a quality suitable for the production of certified planting stock.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 84. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 1, chapter 63, Laws of 1969 and RCW 15.49.010;
- (2) Section 2, chapter 63, Laws of 1969 and RCW 15.49.020;

ESSB 5713 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Health Care & Corrections: Providing for licensure of medical test sites. Reported by Committee on Commerce & Labor

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature intends that medical test sites meet criteria known to promote accurate and reliable analysis, thus improving health care through uniform test site licensure and regulation including quality control, quality assurance, and proficiency testing. The legislature also intends to meet the requirements of federal laws licensing and regulating medical testing.

The legislature intends that nothing in this chapter shall be interpreted to place any liability whatsoever on the state for the action or inaction of test sites or test site personnel. The legislature further intends that nothing in this chapter shall be interpreted to expand the state's role regarding medical testing beyond the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Department' means the department of health if enacted, otherwise the department of social and health services.

(2) 'Designated test site supervisor' means the available individual who is responsible for the technical functions of the test site and who meets the department's qualifications set out in rule by the department.

(3) 'Person' means any individual, or any public or private organization, agent, agency, corporation, firm, association, partnership, or business.

(4) 'Proficiency testing program' means an external service approved by the department which provides samples to evaluate the accuracy, reliability and performance of the tests at each test site.

(5) 'Quality assurance' means a comprehensive set of policies, procedures, and practices to assure that a test site's results are accurate and reliable. Quality assurance means a total program of internal and external quality control, equipment preventative maintenance, calibration, recordkeeping, and proficiency testing evaluation, including a written quality assurance plan.

(6) 'Quality control' means internal written procedures and day-to-day analysis of laboratory reference materials at each test site to insure precision and accuracy of test methodology, equipment, and results.

(7) 'Test' means any examination or procedure conducted on a sample taken from the human body, including screening.

(8) 'Test site' means any facility or site, public or private, which analyzes materials derived from the human body for the purposes of health care, treatment, or screening. A test site does not mean a facility or site, including a residence, where a test approved for home use by the federal food and drug administration is used by an individual to test himself or herself without direct supervision or guidance by another and where this test is not part of a commercial transaction.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. After July 1, 1990, no person may advertise, operate, manage, own, conduct, open, or maintain a test site without first obtaining a license for the tests to be performed, except as provided in section 4 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. (1) As a part of the application for licensure, a test site may request a waiver from licensure under this chapter if the test site performs only examinations which are determined to have insignificant risk of an erroneous result, including those which (a) are approved by the federal food and drug administration for home use; (b) are so simple and accurate as to render the likelihood of erroneous results negligible; or (c) pose no reasonable risk of harm to the patient if performed incorrectly.

(2) The department shall determine by rule which tests meet the criteria in subsection (1) of this section and shall be exempt from coverage of this chapter. The standards applied in developing the list shall be consistent with federal law and regulations.

(3) The department shall grant a waiver from licensure for two years for a valid request based on subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

(4) Any test site which has received a waiver under subsection (3) of this section shall report to the department any changes in the type of tests it intends to perform thirty days in advance of the changes. In no case shall a test site with a waiver perform tests which require a license under this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. Test sites accredited, certified, or licensed by an organization or agency approved by the department consistent with federal law and regulations shall receive a license under section 12 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. A licensee that desires to perform tests for which it is not currently licensed shall notify the department. To the extent allowed by federal law and regulations, upon notification and pending the department's determination, the department shall grant the licensee temporary permission to perform the additional tests. The department shall amend the license if it determines that the licensee meets all applicable requirements.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. The department shall adopt standards established in rule governing test sites for quality control, quality assurance, recordkeeping, and personnel consistent with federal laws and regulations. 'Recordkeeping' for purposes of this chapter means books, files, or records necessary to show compliance with the quality control and quality assurance requirements adopted by the department.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. (1) Except where there is no reasonable proficiency test, each licensed test site must participate in a department-approved proficiency testing program appropriate to the test or tests which it performs. The department may approve proficiency testing programs offered by private or public organizations when the program meets the standards set by the department. Testing shall be conducted quarterly except as otherwise provided for in rule.

(2) The department shall establish proficiency testing standards by rule which include a measure of acceptable performance for tests, and a system for grading proficiency testing performance for tests. The standards may include an evaluation of the personnel performing tests.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. A test site shall have a designated test site supervisor who shall meet the qualifications determined by the department in rule. The designated test site supervisor shall be responsible for the testing functions of the test site.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. (1) The department shall establish a schedule of fees for license applications, renewals, amendments, and waivers. In fixing said fees, the department shall set the fees at a sufficient level to defray the cost of administering the licensure program. All such fees shall be fixed by rule adopted in accordance with the provisions of the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.05 RCW. In determining the fee schedule, the department shall consider the following: (a) Complexity of the license required; (b) number and type of tests performed at the test site; (c) degree of supervision required from the department staff; (d) whether the license is granted under section 5 of this act; and (e) general administrative costs of the test site licensing program established under this chapter. For each category of license, fees charged shall be related to program costs.

(2) The medical test site licensure account is created in the state treasury. The state treasurer shall transfer into the medical test site licensure account all revenue received from medical test site license fees. Funds for this account may only be appropriated for the support of the activities defined under this chapter.

(3) The department may establish separate fees for repeat inspections and repeat audits it performs under section 18 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. An applicant for issuance or renewal of a medical test site license shall:

(1) File a written application on a form provided by the department;

(2) Demonstrate ability to comply with this chapter and the rules adopted under this chapter;

(3) Cooperate with any on-site review which may be conducted by the department prior to licensure or renewal.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. Upon receipt of an application for a license and the license fee, the department shall issue a license if the applicant meets the requirements established under this chapter. All persons operating test sites before July 1, 1990, shall submit applications by July 1, 1990. A license issued under this chapter shall not be transferred or assigned without thirty days' prior notice to the department and the department's timely approval. A license, unless suspended or revoked, shall be effective for a period of two years. The department may establish penalty fees or take other appropriate action pursuant to this chapter for failure to apply for licensure or renewal as required by this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. Under this chapter, and chapter 34.05 RCW, the department may deny a license to any applicant who:

(1) Refuses to comply with the requirements of this chapter or the standards or rules adopted under this chapter;

(2) Was the holder of a license under this chapter which was revoked for cause and never reissued by the department;

(3) Has knowingly or with reason to know made a false statement of a material fact in the application for a license or in any data attached thereto or in any record required by the department;

(4) Refuses to allow representatives of the department to examine any book, record, or file required by this chapter to be maintained;

(5) Willfully prevented, interfered with, or attempted to impede in any way the work of a representative of the department; or

(6) Misrepresented, or was fraudulent in, any aspect of the applicant's business.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. Under this chapter, and chapter 34.05 RCW, the department may place conditions on a license which limit or cancel a test site's authority to conduct any of the tests or groups of tests of any licensee who:

(1) Fails or refuses to comply with the requirements of this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter;

(2) Has knowingly or with reason to know made a false statement of a material fact in the application for a license or in any data attached thereto or in any record required by the department;

(3) Refuses to allow representatives of the department to examine any book, record, or file required by this chapter to be maintained;

(4) Willfully prevented, interfered with, or attempted to impede in any way the work of a representative of the department;

(5) Willfully prevented or interfered with preservation of evidence of a known violation of this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter; or

(6) Misrepresented, or was fraudulent in, any aspect of the licensee's business.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. Under this chapter, and chapter 34.05 RCW, the department may suspend the license of any licensee who:

(1) Fails or refuses to comply with the requirements of this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter;

(2) Has knowingly or with reason to know made a false statement of a material fact in the application for a license or in any data attached thereto or in any record required by the department;

(3) Refuses to allow representatives of the department to examine any book, record, or file required by this chapter to be maintained;

(4) Willfully prevented, interfered with, or attempted to impede in any way the work of a representative of the department;

(5) Willfully prevented or interfered with preservation of evidence of a known violation of this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter;

(6) Misrepresented, or was fraudulent in, any aspect of the licensee's business;

(7) Used false or fraudulent advertising; or

(8) Failed to pay any civil monetary penalty assessed by the department under this chapter within twenty-eight days after the assessment becomes final.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Under this chapter, and chapter 34.05 RCW, the department may revoke the license of any licensee who:

(1) Fails or refuses to comply with the requirements of this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter;

(2) Has knowingly or with reason to know made a false statement of a material fact in the application for a license or in any data attached thereto or in any record required by the department;

(3) Refuses to allow representatives of the department to examine any book, record, or file required by this chapter to be maintained;

(4) Willfully prevented, interfered with, or attempted to impede in any way the work of a representative of the department;

(5) Willfully prevented or interfered with preservation of evidence of a known violation of this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter;

(6) Misrepresented, or was fraudulent in, any aspect of the licensee's business;

(7) Used false or fraudulent advertising; or

(8) Failed to pay any civil monetary penalty assessed by the department pursuant to this chapter within twenty-eight days after the assessment becomes final.

The department may summarily revoke a license when it finds continued licensure of a test site immediately jeopardizes the public health, safety, or welfare.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Under this chapter, and chapter 34.05 RCW, the department may assess monetary penalties of up to ten thousand dollars per violation in addition to or in lieu of conditioning, suspending, or revoking a license. A violation occurs when a licensee:

(1) Fails or refuses to comply with the requirements of this chapter or the standards or rules adopted under this chapter;

(2) Has knowingly or with reason to know made a false statement of a material fact in the application for a license or in any data attached thereto or in any record required by the department;

(3) Refuses to allow representatives of the department to examine any book, record, or file required by this chapter to be maintained;

(4) Willfully prevents, interferes with, or attempts to impede in any way the work of any representative of the department;

(5) Willfully prevents or interferes with preservation of evidence of any known violation of this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter;

(6) Misrepresents or was fraudulent in any aspect of the applicant's business; or

(7) Uses advertising which is false or fraudulent.

Each day of a continuing violation is a separate violation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. The department may at any time conduct an on-site review of a licensee or applicant in order to determine compliance with this chapter. When the department has reason to believe a waived site is conducting tests requiring a license, the department may conduct an on-site review of the waived site in order to determine compliance. The department may also examine and audit records necessary to determine compliance with this chapter. The right to conduct an on-site review and audit and examination of records shall extend to any premises and records of persons whom the department has reason to believe are opening, owning, conducting, maintaining, managing, or otherwise operating a test site without a license.

Following an on-site review, the department shall give written notice of any violation of this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter. The notice shall describe the reasons for noncompliance and inform the licensee or applicant or test site operator that it shall comply within a specified reasonable time. If the licensee or applicant or test site operator fails to comply, the department may take disciplinary action under sections 13 through 16 of this act, or further action as authorized by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Notwithstanding the existence or use of any other remedy, the department may, in the manner provided by law and upon the advice of the attorney general, who shall represent the department in the proceedings, maintain an action in the name of the state for an injunction or other process against any person to restrain or prevent the advertising, operating, maintaining, managing, or opening of a test site without a license under this chapter. It is a misdemeanor to own, operate, or maintain a test site without a license.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. Any test site which has had a denial, condition, suspension, or revocation of its license, or a civil monetary penalty upheld after administrative review under chapter 34.05 RCW, may, within sixty days of the administrative determination, petition the superior court for review of the decision.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. No person who has owned or operated a test site that has had its license revoked may own or operate a test site within two years of the final adjudication of a license revocation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. All information received by the department through filed reports, audits, or on-site reviews, as authorized under this chapter shall not be disclosed publicly in any manner that would identify persons who have specimens of material from their bodies at a test site, absent a written release from the person, or a court order.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. The department shall adopt rules under chapter 34.05 RCW necessary to implement the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. Sections 1 through 23 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. A new section is added to chapter 43.131 RCW to read as follows:

The medical test site licensure program shall be terminated on June 30, 1992, as provided in section 26 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. A new section is added to chapter 43.131 RCW to read as follows:

The following acts or parts of acts, as now existing or hereafter amended, are each repealed, effective June 30, 1993.

(1) Section 1, chapter ____, Laws of 1979 and RCW 70.____ (section 1 of this act);

(2) Section 2, chapter ____, Laws of 1979 and RCW 70.____ (section 2 of this act);

SB 5736 Prime Sponsor, Senator Bailey: Modifying local funding requirements for school construction. Reported by Committee on Capital Facilities & Financing

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments by Committee on Capital Facilities & Financing and without amendments by Committee on Education:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 244, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 18, chapter 154, Laws of 1980 and RCW 28A.47.801 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Funds appropriated to the state board of education from the common school construction fund shall be allotted by the state board of education in accordance with student enrollment (~~(as computed for the purposes of RCW 28A.41.140)~~) and the provisions of RCW (~~28A.47.800 through 28A.47.811; PROVIDED, That~~) 28A.47.830.

(2) No allotment shall be made to a school district (~~(for the purpose aforesaid)~~) until such district has provided matching funds equal to or greater than the difference between the total approved project cost and the amount of state assistance to the district for financing the project computed pursuant to RCW 28A.47.803, with the following exceptions:

(a) The state board may waive the matching requirement for districts which have provided funds for school building construction purposes through the authorization of bonds or through the authorization of excess tax levies or both in an amount equivalent to two and one-half percent of the value of its taxable property, as defined in RCW 39.36.015 (or such lesser amount as may be required by the state board of education. PROVIDED FURTHER, That).

(b) No such matching funds shall be required as a condition to the allotment of funds for the purpose of making major or minor structural changes to existing school facilities in order to bring such facilities into compliance with the handicapped access requirements of section 504 of the federal rehabilitation act of 1973 (29 U.S.C. Sec. 706) and rules implementing the act.

(3) For the purpose of computing the state matching percentage under RCW 28A.47.803 when a school district is granted authority to enter into contracts, adjusted valuation per pupil shall be calculated using headcount student enrollments from the most recent October enrollment reports submitted by districts to the superintendent of public instruction, adjusted as follows:

(a) In the case of projects for which local bonds were approved after the effective date of this act:

(i) For districts which have been designated as serving high school districts under RCW 28A.56.200, students residing in the nonhigh district so designating shall be excluded from the enrollment count if the student is enrolled in any grade level not offered by the nonhigh district;

(ii) The enrollment of nonhigh school districts shall be increased by the number of students residing within the district who are enrolled in a serving high school district so designated by the nonhigh school district under RCW 28A.56.200, including only students who are enrolled in grade levels not offered by the nonhigh school district; and

(iii) The number of preschool handicapped students included in the enrollment county shall be multiplied by one-half;

(b) In the case of construction or modernization of high school facilities in districts serving students from nonhigh school districts, the adjusted valuation per pupil shall be computed using the combined adjusted valuations and enrollments of each district, each weighted by the percentage of the district's resident high school students served by the high school district; and

(c) The number of kindergarten students included in the enrollment count shall be multiplied by one-half.

(4) The state board of education shall prescribe and make effective such rules and regulations as are necessary to equate insofar as possible the efforts made by school districts to provide capital funds by the means aforesaid.

(5) For the purposes of this section, 'preschool handicapped students' means developmentally disabled children of preschool age who are entitled to services under chapter 28A.13 RCW and are not included in the kindergarten enrollment count of the district.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 244, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 56, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.47.802 are each amended to read as follows:

In allotting the state funds provided by RCW 28A.47.800 through 28A.47.811, ~~((and in accordance with student enrollment as computed for the purposes of RCW 28A.41.140.))~~ the state board of education shall:

(1) Prescribe rules and regulations not inconsistent with RCW 28A.47.800 through 28A.47.811 governing the administration, control, terms, conditions, and disbursement of allotments to school districts to assist them in providing school plant facilities;

(2) Approve, whenever the board deems such action advisable, allotments to districts that apply for state assistance;

(3) Authorize the payment of approved allotments by warrant of the state treasurer; and

(4) In the event that the amount of state assistance applied for pursuant to the provisions hereof exceeds the funds available for such assistance during any biennium, make allotments on the basis of the urgency of need for school facilities in the districts that apply for assistance or prorate allotments among such districts in conformity with procedures and regulations applicable thereto which shall be established by the board.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 244, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 98, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 28A.47.803 are each amended to read as follows:

Allocations to school districts of state funds provided by RCW 28A.47.800 through 28A.47.811 shall be made by the state board of education and the amount of state assistance to a school district in financing a school plant project shall be determined in the following manner:

(1) The boards of directors of the districts shall determine the total cost of the proposed project, which cost may include the cost of acquiring and preparing the site, the cost of constructing the building or of acquiring a building and preparing the same for school use, the cost of necessary equipment, taxes chargeable to the project, necessary architects' fees, and a reasonable amount for contingencies and for other necessary incidental expenses: PROVIDED, That the total cost of the project shall be subject to review and approval by the state board of education.

(2) The state matching percentage for a school district shall be computed by the following formula:

The ratio of the school district's adjusted valuation per (~~full time equivalent~~) pupil divided by the ratio of the total state adjusted valuation per (~~full time~~) pupil shall be subtracted from three, and then the result of the foregoing shall be divided by three plus (the ratio of the school district's adjusted valuation per (~~full time equivalent~~) pupil divided by the ratio of the total state adjusted valuation per (~~full time~~) pupil).

	District adjusted 3- valuation per (full time equivalent) pupil	+	Total state ad- justed valuation per (full time equivalent) pupil
Computed State Ratio	=	-----	=	%	State Assist- ance
	District adjusted 3+ valuation per (full time equivalent) pupil		Total state ad- justed valuation per (full time equivalent) pupil

PROVIDED, That in the event the percentage of state assistance to any school district based on the above formula is less than twenty percent and such school district is otherwise eligible for state assistance under RCW 28A.47.800 through 28A.47.811, the state board of education may establish for such district a percentage of state assistance not in excess of twenty percent of the approved cost of the project, if the state board finds that such additional assistance is necessary to provide minimum facilities for housing the pupils of the district.

(3) In addition to the computed percent of state assistance developed in (2) above, a school district shall be entitled to additional percentage points determined by the average percentage of growth for the past three years. One percent shall be added to the computed percent of state assistance for each percent of growth, with a maximum of twenty percent.

(4) The approved cost of the project determined in the manner herein prescribed times the percentage of state assistance derived as provided for herein shall be the amount of state assistance to the district for the financing of the project: PROVIDED, That need therefor has been established to the satisfaction of the state board of education: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That additional state assistance may be allowed if it is found by the state board of education that such assistance is necessary in order to meet (a) a school housing emergency resulting from the destruction of a school building by fire, the condemnation of a school building by properly constituted authorities, a sudden excessive and clearly foreseeable future increase in school population, or other conditions similarly emergent in nature; or (b) a special school housing burden imposed by virtue of the admission of nonresident students into educational programs established, maintained and operated in conformity with the requirements of law; or (c) a deficiency in the capital funds of the district resulting from financing, subsequent to April 1, 1969, and without benefit of the state assistance provided by prior state assistance programs, the construction of a needed school building project or projects approved in conformity with the requirements of such programs, after having first applied for and been denied state assistance because of the inadequacy of state funds available for the purpose, or (d) a condition created by the fact that an excessive number of students live in state owned housing, or (e) a need for the construction of a school building to provide for improved school district organization or racial balance, or (f) conditions similar to those defined under (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e) hereinabove, creating a like emergency.

Sec. 4. Section 1, chapter 239, Laws of 1981 and RCW 28A.56.200 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In cases where high school students resident in a nonhigh school district are to be educated in a high school district, the board of directors of the nonhigh school district shall, by mutual agreement with the serving district(s), designate the serving high school ((serving)) district or districts which its high school students shall attend. A nonhigh school district shall designate a district as a serving high school district when more than thirty-three and one-third percent of the high school students residing within the boundaries of the nonhigh school district are enrolled in the serving district.

(2) Students residing in a nonhigh school district shall be allowed to attend a high school other than in the designated serving district referred to in subsection (1) of this section (~~(-PROVIDED-That)~~), however the nonhigh school board of directors shall not be required to contribute to building programs in any such high school district. Contribution shall be made only to those ((high school)) districts which are designated ((by the local nonhigh school board of directors for attendance by their high school students)) as serving high school districts at the time the county auditor is requested by the high school district to place a measure on the ballot regarding a proposal or proposals for the issuance of bonds or the authorization of an excess tax levy to provide capital funds for building programs. The nonhigh school district shall be subject to the capital fund aid provisions contained in this chapter with respect to the designated high school serving district(s).

SSB 5776 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Law & Justice: Regarding training for law enforcement officers and establishing a fund for drug training. Reported by Committee on Local Government

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The department of community development shall establish an advisory committee to study the issue of untrained and uncertified city and town law enforcement personnel. This study shall include a determination of the number of such uncertified personnel, location of the cities and towns with such uncertified personnel, other responsibilities that such uncertified personnel may have within the city or town, training needs for such uncertified personnel, and alternative measures to address the training needs.

The advisory committee shall be chaired by the director of the department of community development, or the director's designee. The remaining members on the advisory committee shall be law enforcement personnel and representatives of cities and towns. Technical assistance and staff support shall be provided by the criminal justice training commission.

The advisory committee shall report its findings, and any proposed legislation relating to such findings, to the legislature on or before January 15, 1990.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 212, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 43.101.200 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All law enforcement personnel, except volunteers, and reserve officers whether paid or unpaid, initially employed on or after January 1, 1978, shall engage in basic law enforcement training which complies with standards adopted by the commission pursuant to RCW 43.101.080 and 43.101.160. For personnel initially employed before January 1, 1990, such training shall be successfully completed during the first fifteen months of employment of such personnel unless otherwise extended or waived by the commission and shall be requisite to the continuation of such employment. Personnel initially employed on or after January 1, 1990, shall commence basic training during the first six months of employment unless the basic training requirement is otherwise waived or extended by the commission. Successful completion of basic training is requisite to the continuation of employment of such personnel initially employed on or after January 1, 1990.

(2) The commission shall provide the aforementioned training together with necessary facilities, supplies, materials, and the board and room of noncommuting attendees for seven days per week. Additionally, the commission shall reimburse to participating law enforcement agencies with ten or less full-time commissioned patrol officers the cost of temporary replacement of each officer who is enrolled in basic law enforcement training: PROVIDED, That such reimbursement shall include only the actual cost of temporary replacement not to exceed the total amount of salary and benefits received by the replaced officer during his training period."

ESB 5808 Prime Sponsor, Senator Lee: Authorizing the use of an irrevocable letter of credit by an employer choosing to self-insure under the industrial insurance act. Reported by Committee on Commerce & Labor

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

(1) An employer may qualify as a self-insurer by establishing to the director's satisfaction that he or she has sufficient financial ability to make certain the prompt payment of all compensation under this title and all assessments which may become due from such employer. Each application for certification as a self-insurer submitted by an employer shall be accompanied by payment of a fee of one hundred fifty dollars or such larger sum as the director shall find necessary for the administrative costs of evaluation of the applicant's qualifications. Any employer who has formerly been certified as a self-insurer and thereafter ceases to be so certified may not apply for certification within three years of ceasing to have been so certified.

(2) A self-insurer may be required by the director to supplement existing financial ability by depositing in an escrow account in a depository designated by the director, money and/or corporate or governmental securities approved by the director, or a surety bond written by any company admitted to transact surety business in this state, or provide an irrevocable letter of credit issued by a federally or state chartered commercial banking institution authorized to conduct business in the state of Washington filed with the department. The money, securities, ~~((or))~~ bond, or letter of credit shall be in an amount reasonably sufficient in the director's discretion to insure payment of reasonably foreseeable compensation and assessments but not less than the employer's normal expected annual claim liabilities and in no event less than one hundred thousand dollars. In arriving at the amount of money, securities, ~~((or))~~ bond, or letter of credit required under this subsection, the director shall take into consideration the financial ability of the employer to pay compensation and assessments and his or her probable continuity of operation. However, a letter of credit shall be acceptable only if the self-insurer has a net worth of not less than five hundred million dollars as evidenced in an annual financial statement prepared by a qualified, independent auditor using generally accepted accounting principles. The money, securities, ~~((or))~~ bond, or letter of credit so deposited shall be held by the director to secure the payment of compensation by the self-insurer and to secure payment of his or her assessments. The amount of security may be increased or decreased from time to time by the director. The income from any securities deposited may be distributed currently to the self-insurer.

(3) Securities or money deposited by an employer pursuant to subsection (2) of this section shall be returned to him or her upon his or her written request provided the employer files the bond required by such subsection.

(4) If the employer seeking to qualify as a self-insurer has previously insured with the state fund, the director shall require the employer to make up his or her proper share of any deficit or insufficiency in the state fund as a condition to certification as a self-insurer.

(5) A self-insurer may reinsure a portion of his or her liability under this title with any reinsurer authorized to transact such reinsurance in this state: PROVIDED, That the reinsurer may not participate in the administration of the responsibilities of the self-insurer under this title. Such reinsurance may not exceed eighty percent of the liabilities under this title.

(6) For purposes of the application of this section, the department may adopt separate rules establishing the security requirements applicable to units of local government. In setting such requirements, the department shall take into consideration the ability of the governmental unit to meet its self-insured obligations, such as but not limited to source of funds, permanency, and right of default.

(7) The director shall adopt rules to carry out the purposes of this section including, but not limited to, rules respecting the terms and conditions of letters of credit and the establishment of the appropriate level of net worth of the self-insurer to qualify for use of the letter of credit. Only letters of credit issued in strict compliance with the rules shall be deemed acceptable.

Sec. 2. Section 51.28.070, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 36, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.28.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Information contained in the claim files and records of injured workers, under the provisions of this title, shall be deemed confidential and shall not be open to public inspection (other than to public employees in the performance of their official duties), but representatives of a claimant, be it an individual or an organization, may review a claim file or receive specific information therefrom upon the presentation of the signed authorization of the claimant. A claimant may review his or her claim file if the director determines, pursuant to criteria adopted by rule, that the review is in the claimant's interest. Employers or their duly authorized representatives may review any files of their own injured workers in connection with any pending claims. Physicians treating or examining workers claiming benefits under this title, or physicians giving medical advice to the department regarding any claim may, at the discretion of the department, inspect the claim files and records of injured workers, and other persons may make such inspection, at the ((departments)) department's discretion, when such persons are rendering assistance to the department at any stage of the proceedings on any matter pertaining to the administration of this title.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 161, Laws of 1988 and RCW 51.32.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the total disability is only temporary, the schedule of payments contained in RCW 51.32.060 (1) and (2) shall apply, so long as the total disability continues.

(2) Any compensation payable under this section for children not in the custody of the injured worker as of the date of injury shall be payable only to such person as actually is providing the support for such child or children pursuant to the order of a court of record providing for support of such child or children.

(3) As soon as recovery is so complete that the present earning power of the worker, at any kind of work, is restored to that existing at the time of the occurrence of the injury, the payments shall cease. If and so long as the present earning power is only partially restored, the payments shall continue in the proportion which the new earning power shall bear to the old. No compensation shall be payable unless the loss of earning power shall exceed five percent.

(4)(a) Whenever an employer requests that a worker who is entitled to temporary total disability under this chapter be certified by a physician as able to perform available work other than his or her usual work, the employer shall furnish to the physician, with a copy to the worker, a statement describing the available work in terms that will enable the physician to relate the physical activities of the job to the worker's disability. The physician shall then determine whether the worker is physically able to perform the work described. If the worker is released by his or her physician for said work, and the work thereafter comes to an end before the worker's recovery is sufficient in the judgment of his or her physician to permit him or her to return to his or her usual job, or to perform other available work, the worker's temporary total disability payments shall be resumed. Should the available work described, once undertaken by the worker, impede his or her recovery to the extent that in the judgment of his or her physician he or she should not continue to work, the worker's temporary total disability payments shall be resumed when the worker ceases such work.

(b) Once the worker returns to work under the terms of this subsection (4), he or she shall not be assigned by the employer to work other than the available work described without the worker's written consent, or without prior review and approval by the worker's physician.

(c) Any employee health and welfare benefits or child care benefits that the worker was receiving at the time of injury shall continue or be resumed at the level provided at the time of injury if the worker returns to work under this subsection (4).

(d) In the event of any dispute as to the worker's ability to perform the available work offered by the employer, the department shall make the final determination.

(5) No worker shall receive compensation for or during the day on which injury was received or the three days following the same, unless his or her disability shall continue for a period of fourteen consecutive calendar days from date of injury: PROVIDED, That attempts to return to work in the first fourteen days following the injury shall not serve to break the continuity of the period of disability if the disability continues fourteen days after the injury occurs.

(6) Should a worker suffer a temporary total disability and should his or her employer at the time of the injury continue to pay him or her the wages which he or she was earning at the time of such injury, such injured worker shall not receive any payment provided in subsection (1) of this section during the period his or her employer shall so pay such wages.

(7) In no event shall the monthly payments provided in this section exceed one hundred percent of the average monthly wage in the state as computed under the provisions of RCW 51.08.018.

(8) If the supervisor of industrial insurance determines that the worker is voluntarily retired and is no longer attached to the work force, benefits shall not be paid under this section.

Sec. 4. Section 53, chapter 289, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 15, chapter 224, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 51.36.060 are each amended to read as follows:

((Physicians)) (1) Health service providers examining or attending injured ((workmen)) workers under this title shall: (a) Comply with rules and regulations adopted by the director, and ((shall)) (b) make such reports as may be requested by the department or self-insurer upon the condition or treatment of any such ((workman)) worker, or upon any other matters concerning such ((workmen)) workers in their care.

(2) All ((medical)) health service provider information in the possession or control of any person and relevant to the particular injury in the opinion of the department pertaining to any ((workman)) worker whose injury or occupational disease is the basis of a claim under this title shall be made available at any stage of the proceedings to the employer, the claimant's representative, ((and)) or the department upon request, and no health service provider or other person shall incur any legal liability by reason of releasing such information. This section authorizes health service providers to discuss health care information within their possession or control which is relevant to the particular injury with the employer, the claimant's representative, or the department at any stage of the claim before the department.

Nothing in this section authorizes the disclosure of any information which may not be disclosed under RCW 70.24.105.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 51.32 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Whenever an application for benefits is filed that requires a determination of whether benefits shall be paid pursuant to the reopening of an accepted claim under RCW 51.32.160 or by allowance of a claim for new injury or occupational disease, the department shall make the determination in a single order. Pending entry of the order, benefits shall be paid promptly pursuant to this title by either the department or the self-insurer, as the case may be, as determined by the department. Benefits shall be paid at the lesser of the two benefit entitlements that may apply to the claim.

(2) If, upon final determination, the entity that paid benefits under subsection (1) of this section is determined not to be responsible for payment of the benefits, such entity shall be reimbursed by the responsible entity for all amounts paid, unless subsection (3) of this section applies.

(3) If, upon final determination, neither the department nor a self-insurer is determined to be responsible for the benefits, the recipient of benefits shall repay the entity having paid the benefits and recoupment may be made from future payments due the recipient on any claim with the state fund or self-insurer, as the case may be. The director may exercise his or her discretion to waive, in whole or in part, the amount of any such repayments where the recovery would be against equity and good conscience.

(4) If the department's determination under this section is appealed, benefits shall continue to be paid until the responsible entity is finally determined.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 51.32 RCW to read as follows:

When a worker insured by the state fund or a self-insured employer has received compensation for temporary total disability pursuant to RCW 51.32.090 for thirteen consecutive weeks of disability, the department shall notify the employment security department in accordance with the requirements of chapter 50.06 RCW. The notice shall be given within ten working days of the commencement of the fourteenth week in which the worker receives temporary total disability compensation. The department may adopt rules under chapter 34.05 RCW establishing reporting requirements for self-insured employers to carry out the purposes of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The legislature finds that delays and inefficiencies in the administration of the industrial insurance system are detrimental to the system and to the welfare of injured workers. It is the intent of the legislature that the department and self-insurers act promptly on industrial insurance claims and on requests from injured workers. The purpose of sections 8 through 10 of this act is to minimize the delay and uncertainty that injured workers frequently experience from the industrial insurance system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 51.32 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The self-insurer shall provide a copy of the worker's claim file at no cost within fifteen days of receipt of a request by the worker or the worker's representative. The self-insurer shall provide the contents of the claim file unless the request is for only a particular portion of the file.

(2) The self-insurer shall transmit notice to the department of any written protest by an injured worker to an appealable order relating to the administration of an industrial injury claim under this chapter within ten working days. Receipt of a written notice by the self-insurer shall be deemed to be receipt by the department. Failure of a self-insurer to comply with this notification requirement shall subject the self-insurer to the penalty provisions of RCW 51.48.017.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 51.32 RCW to read as follows:

The self-insurer shall request allowance or denial of a claim within sixty days from the date that the claim is filed, or the claim shall be deemed allowed. A self-insurer may request, for good cause, an extension of the deadline for an additional thirty days, if written notice of the extension is provided to the injured worker within forty-five days from the date the claim is filed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 51.32 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall allow or deny a claim within sixty days from the date that the claim is filed, or the claim shall be deemed allowed. The department may, for good cause, extend the deadline for an additional thirty days, if written notice of the extension is provided to the injured worker within forty-five days from the date the claim is filed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) Section 1 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1990.

(2) Section 3 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1989."

ESSB 5819 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Environment and Natural Resources: Increasing the penalties for poaching, including seizure and forfeiture of certain personal property. Reported by Committee on Judiciary

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. In order to improve the enforcement of wildlife laws it is important to increase the penalties upon poachers by seizing the conveyances and gear that are used in poaching activities and to cause forfeiture of those items to the department.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. (1) Wildlife agents and ex officio wildlife agents may seize without a warrant wildlife, as defined in RCW 77.08.010(16), they have probable cause to believe have been taken, killed, transported, or possessed in violation of this title or rule of the commission or director. Agents may also seize without warrant boat(s), vehicle(s), all conveyances, airplane(s), motorized implement(s), gear, appliance(s), or other articles they have probable cause to believe: (a) Are held with intent to violate; or (b) were used in the violation of Title 77 RCW, or any regulation pursuant thereto when the species involved is one which is listed in RCW 77.21.070, or any wildlife involved in trafficking under RCW 77.16.040 or illegal netting of game fish under RCW 77.16.060. However, agents may not seize any item or article, other than evidence, from a violator if under the circumstances it is reasonable to conclude that the violation was inadvertent. The articles seized shall be forfeited to the state, upon conviction, plea of guilty, or bail forfeiture. Articles seized may be recovered by their owner by depositing into court a cash bond equal to the value of the seized articles. The cash bond is subject to forfeiture in lieu of the seized articles.

(2)(a) In the event of a seizure of an article under subsection (1) of this section, proceedings for forfeiture shall be deemed commenced by bail forfeiture, plea of guilty, or upon conviction. The seizing authority shall serve notice within fifteen days following the seizure on the owner of the property seized and on any person having any known right or interest in the property seized. Notice may be served by any method authorized by law or court rule, including service by certified mail with return receipt requested, and service by such mail shall be deemed complete upon mailing within the fifteen-day period following the seizure.

(b) If no person notifies the department in writing of the person's claim of ownership or right to possession of articles seized pursuant to subsection (1) of this section within forty-five days of the seizure, the articles shall be deemed forfeited.

(c) If any person notifies the department in writing within forty-five days of the seizure, the person shall be afforded an opportunity to be heard as to the claim or right. The hearing shall be before the director or his designee, or before an administrative law judge appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW, except that any person asserting a claim or right may remove the matter to a court of competent jurisdiction. The department hearing and any appeal therefrom shall be under Title 34 RCW. The burden of producing evidence shall be upon the person claiming to be the lawful owner or person claiming lawful right of possession of the articles seized. The department shall promptly return the seized articles to the claimant upon a determination by the director or designee, an administrative law judge, or a court that the claimant is the present lawful owner or is lawfully entitled to possession of the articles seized, and that the seized articles were improperly seized.

(d)(i) No conveyance, including vessels, vehicles, or aircraft, is subject to forfeiture under this section by reason of any act or omission established by the owner of the conveyance to have been committed or omitted without his knowledge or consent.

(ii) A forfeiture of a conveyance encumbered by a bona fide security interest is subject to the interest of the secured party if the secured party neither had knowledge nor consented to the act or omission.

(e) When seized property is forfeited under this section the department may retain it for official use unless the property is required to be destroyed, or upon application by any law enforcement agency of the state, release such property to such agency for the use of enforcing Title 77 RCW, or sell such property, and deposit the proceeds to the wildlife fund in the state treasury, as provided for in RCW 77.12.170.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The burden of proof of any exemption or exception to seizure or forfeiture of personal property involved with wildlife offenses is upon the person claiming it.

(2) An authorized state, county, or municipal officer may be subject to civil liability under section 2 of this act for willful misconduct or gross negligence in the performance of his or her duties.

(3) The director of wildlife, the wildlife commission, or the department of wildlife may be subject to civil liability for their willful or reckless misconduct in matters involving the seizure and forfeiture of personal property involved with wildlife offenses.

Sec. 4. Section 334, chapter 258, Laws of 1984 as amended by section 25, chapter 506, Laws of 1987 and RCW 77.12.170 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is established in the state treasury the state wildlife fund which consists of moneys received from:

- (a) Rentals or concessions of the department;
- (b) The sale of real or personal property held for department purposes;
- (c) The sale of licenses, permits, tags, stamps, and punchcards required by this title;
- (d) Fees for informational materials published by the department;
- (e) Fees for personalized vehicle license plates as provided in chapter 46.16 RCW;
- (f) Articles or wildlife sold by the director under this title;
- (g) Compensation for wildlife losses or gifts or grants received under RCW 77.12.320;

((and))

(h) Excise tax on anadromous game fish collected under chapter 82.27 RCW; and

(i) The sale of personal property seized by the department for wildlife violations.

(2) State and county officers receiving any moneys listed in subsection (1) of this section shall deposit them in the state treasury to be credited to the state wildlife fund.

Sec. 5. Section 77.12.110, chapter 36, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 72, chapter 506, Laws of 1987 and RCW 77.21.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~(In addition to other penalties provided by law, a court may forfeit, for the use of the department, wildlife seized under this title and proven, in either a criminal or civil action, to have been unlawfully taken, killed, transported, or possessed and articles or devices seized under this title and proven, in either a criminal or civil action, to have been unlawfully used or held with intent to unlawfully use. Unless forfeited by the court, the department shall return an~~

~~item seized under this title to its owner after the completion of the case and all fines have been paid. If the owner of a seized item cannot be found, the court may forfeit that item after summons has been served by publication as in civil actions and a hearing has been held.~~

~~(2)) Wildlife unlawfully taken or possessed remains the property of the state.~~

~~((3)) (2) The director may sell articles or devices seized and forfeited under this title by the court at public auction. The time, place, and manner of holding the sale shall be determined by the director. The director shall publish notice of the sale once a week for at least two consecutive weeks prior to the sale in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the sale is to be held. Proceeds from the sales shall be deposited in the state treasury to be credited to the state wildlife fund.~~

Sec. 6. Section 77.32.260, chapter 36, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 73, chapter 506, Laws of 1987 and RCW 77.21.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon conviction of a violation of this title or rules adopted pursuant to this title, the court may forfeit a license, in addition to other penalties provided by law. Upon subsequent conviction, the forfeiture of the license is mandatory. The director may prohibit issuance of a license to a person convicted two or more times or prescribe the conditions for subsequent issuance of a license.

(2) It shall be unlawful for a person to conduct an activity requiring a wildlife license, tag, or stamp for which they have had a license forfeiture or for which the director has prohibited the issuance of a license.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 2 and 3 of this act are each added to chapter 77.12 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Section 77.12.100, chapter 36, Laws of 1955, section 23, chapter 78, Laws of 1980, section 21, chapter 506, Laws of 1987 and RCW 77.12.100 are each repealed."

SSB 5843 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Governmental Operations: Modifying the regulations for metropolitan park districts. Reported by Committee on Local Government

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 3, after line 14, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 35.61 RCW to read as follows:

Metropolitan park district territory that is located outside of the boundaries of a city may be removed or withdrawn from the metropolitan park district as provided in this section.

The withdrawal of such territory shall be initiated by either resolution of the park district commissioners, or the filing of a petition requesting such a withdrawal that has been signed by registered voters residing in the area proposed to be withdrawn at least equal in number to twenty percent of the total number of voters residing in this area who voted at the last preceding general election. However, if no registered voters reside in the area proposed to be withdrawn, the petition must be signed by the owners, as described under RCW 35A.01.040, of at least a majority of the acreage in the area proposed to be withdrawn.

A petition or resolution shall describe the territory proposed to be withdrawn, propose that this area be withdrawn, describe how and by which public entity or entities park and recreation services and facilities will be provided to the residents of this area if the withdrawal were to occur, and describe how the existence of the metropolitan park district in this area affects the authority of other junior taxing districts to impose their property tax levies.

A resolution shall be filed with the county legislative authority of the county within which the territory proposed to be withdrawn is located, and a petition shall be filed with the county auditor of the county within which the territory proposed to be withdrawn is located. The auditor shall examine the signatures on a petition and certify the sufficiency or insufficiency of the signatures within ten working days of submission of the petition. If the petition has been certified as containing sufficient valid signatures, the certification shall be transmitted to the county legislative authority of the county within which the territory is located.

A public hearing on the proposed withdrawal of territory from a metropolitan park district shall be held by the county legislative authority within sixty days of the date of either the filing of a resolution proposing the withdrawal or the transmittal of the certification that a petition contains sufficient valid signatures. After receiving public testimony on the proposed withdrawal, the county legislative authority shall consider: (1) The adequacy of the provision of park and recreation services and facilities for the residents of the area proposed to be withdrawn if the withdrawal were to occur; (2) the impact on the authority of other junior taxing districts in the area to impose regular property taxes if the withdrawal were to occur; and (3) the impact to the metropolitan park district tax collections from the proposed withdrawal of territory.

If the county legislative authority finds that the withdrawal of the area proposed to be withdrawn is in the public interest, it shall adopt a resolution providing for the withdrawal and establishing an effective date for the withdrawal which shall be thirty-one or more days after the date of the adoption of the resolution. Registered voters of the area proposed to be withdrawn may file a referendum petition on the proposed withdrawal with the county auditor during the thirty-day period immediately following the adoption of the resolution, which petition must be signed by registered voters residing in the area proposed to be withdrawn equal in number to at least twenty percent of the number of voters residing in this area who voted at the last preceding general election.

If a referendum petition has been filed containing sufficient valid signatures within this thirty-day period, the effect of the withdrawal shall be held in abeyance and a ballot proposition authorizing the withdrawal shall be submitted to the voters residing in the area at the next special election date specified in RCW 29.13.020 that occurs forty-five or more days after the petition has been certified by the county auditor as containing sufficient valid signatures. Approval of the ballot proposition authorizing the withdrawal shall be by simple majority vote of the voters of the area who vote on the proposition, and the date of the withdrawal shall occur when the results of the election have been certified at which a simple majority vote was in favor of the withdrawal.

The metropolitan park district shall continue providing park and recreation services within this area, and maintaining its facilities within this area, during the year in which the regular property taxes of the district are collected on the property in the area so withdrawn, unless an agreement between the county and metropolitan park district provides otherwise. Property within the area so withdrawn shall remain liable for any special levies imposed to retire voter approved indebtedness of the metropolitan park district that were authorized prior to the withdrawal, and any assessments imposed on the property by the metropolitan park district prior to the withdrawal, as if the area had not been withdrawn.

The procedure authorized in this section to withdraw territory from metropolitan park districts is not exclusive, and shall be construed to be an alternative procedure to the procedures authorized under RCW 35.61.360."

ESSB 5905 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Energy & Utilities: Modifying building code council authority. Reported by Committee on Housing

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 360, Laws of 1985 and RCW 19.27.015 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

(1) 'City' means a city or town: ((and))

(2) 'Multifamily residential building' means common wall residential buildings that consist of four or fewer units, that do not exceed two stories in height, that are less than five thousand square feet in area, and that have a one-hour fire-resistive occupancy separation between units; and

(3) 'Fire suppression ordinance' means any ordinance or resolution adopted by a county or city that adds or alters construction requirements to buildings and structures built to the codes enumerated in RCW 19.27.031 as adopted and amended by the state building code council for residential buildings that are less than three stories in height or contain fifteen or fewer dwelling units under the Group R, Division 1 occupancies, as defined in the uniform building code, 1988 edition or single-family residential buildings under Group R, Division 3 occupancies, as defined in the uniform building code, 1988 edition.

Sec. 2. Section 5, chapter 360, Laws of 1985 and RCW 19.27.031 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, there shall be in effect in all counties and cities the state building code which shall consist of the following codes which are hereby adopted by reference:

(1) Uniform Building Code and Uniform Building Code Standards, ~~((1982 edition;))~~ published by the International Conference of Building Officials;

(2) Uniform Mechanical Code, ~~((1982 edition;))~~ including Chapter 22, Fuel Gas Piping, Appendix B, published by the International Conference of Building Officials;

(3) The Uniform Fire Code and Uniform Fire Code Standards, ~~((1982 edition;))~~ published by the International Conference of Building Officials and the Western Fire Chiefs Association: PROVIDED, That, notwithstanding any wording in this code, participants in religious ceremonies shall not be precluded from carrying hand-held candles;

(4) The Uniform Plumbing Code and Uniform Plumbing Code Standards, ~~((1982 edition;))~~ published by the International Association of Plumbing and Mechanical Officials: PROVIDED, That chapters 11 and 12 of such code are not adopted; and

(5) The rules and regulations adopted by the council establishing standards for making buildings and facilities accessible to and usable by the physically handicapped or elderly persons as provided in RCW 70.92.100 through 70.92.160.

In case of conflict among the codes enumerated in subsections (1), (2), (3), and (4) of this section, the first named code shall govern over those following.

The codes enumerated in this section shall be adopted by the council as provided in RCW 19.27.074.

The council may issue opinions relating to the codes at the request of a local building official.

Sec. 3. Section 6, chapter 96, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 12, chapter 462, Laws of 1987 and RCW 19.27.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The governing bodies of counties and cities may amend the codes enumerated in RCW 19.27.031 as amended and adopted by the state building code council as they apply within their respective jurisdictions, but the amendments shall not result in a code that is less than the minimum performance standards and objectives contained in the state building code.

(a) No amendment to a code enumerated in RCW 19.27.031 as amended and adopted by the state building code council that affects single family or multifamily residential buildings shall be effective unless the amendment is approved by the building code council under RCW 19.27.074(1)(b).

(b) Any county or city amendment to a code enumerated in RCW 19.27.031 which is approved under RCW 19.27.074(1)(b) shall continue to be effective after any action is taken under RCW 19.27.074(1)(a) without necessity of reapproval under RCW 19.27.074(1)(b) unless the amendment is declared null and void by the council at the time any action is taken under RCW 19.27.074(1)(a) because such action in any way altered the impact of the amendment.

(2) Except as permitted or provided otherwise under this section, the state building code shall be applicable to all buildings and structures including those owned by the state or by any governmental subdivision or unit of local government.

(3) The governing body of each county or city may limit the application of any portion of the state building code to exclude specified classes or types of buildings or structures according to use other than single family or multifamily residential buildings: PROVIDED, That in no event shall fruits or vegetables of the tree or vine stored in buildings or warehouses constitute combustible stock for the purposes of application of the uniform fire code.

(4) The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any building four or more stories high with a B occupancy as defined by the uniform building code, 1982 edition, and with a city fire insurance rating of 1, 2, or 3 as defined by a recognized fire rating bureau or organization.

(5) No provision of the uniform fire code concerning roadways shall be part of the state building code: PROVIDED, That this subsection shall not limit the authority of a county or city to adopt street, road, or access standards.

(6) The provisions of the state building code may be preempted by any city or county to the extent that the code provisions relating to the installation or use of sprinklers in jail cells conflict with the secure and humane operation of jails.

Sec. 4. Section 2, chapter 360, Laws of 1985 and RCW 19.27.074 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The state building code council shall:

(a) Adopt and maintain the codes to which reference is made in RCW 19.27.031 in a status which is consistent with the state's interest as set forth in RCW 19.27.020. In maintaining these codes, the council shall regularly review updated versions of the codes referred to in RCW 19.27.031 and other pertinent information and shall amend the codes as deemed appropriate by the council;

(b) Approve or deny ~~((and))~~ proposed or enacted county or city amendments to any code referred to in RCW 19.27.031 to the degree the amendments apply to single family or multifamily residential buildings;

(c) Review and make comments on fire suppression ordinances pursuant to the following conditions:

(i) Cities and counties must transmit a copy of any proposed fire suppression ordinance that will take effect after March 31, 1989, to the state building code council for review and comment.

(ii) The state building code council shall review and make comments within sixty days of the receipt of the ordinance.

(iii) Counties and cities may not finally adopt the fire suppression ordinance until the state building code council has forwarded its comments to the county or city, or until the sixty-day review period has expired, whichever occurs first.

(d) As required by the legislature, develop and adopt any codes relating to buildings; and
((d)) (e) Propose a budget for the operation of the state building code council to be submitted to the office of financial management pursuant to RCW 43.88.090.

(2) The state building code council may:

(a) Appoint technical advisory committees which may include members of the council;

(b) Employ permanent and temporary staff and contract for services; and

(c) Conduct research into matters relating to any code or codes referred to in RCW 19.27.031 or any related matter.

All meetings of the state building code council shall be open to the public under the open public meetings act, chapter 42.30 RCW. All actions of the state building code council which adopt or amend any code of state-wide applicability shall be pursuant to the administrative procedure act, chapter ~~(34.04)~~ 34.05 RCW.

All council decisions relating to the codes enumerated in RCW 19.27.031 shall require approval by at least a majority of the members of the council.

All decisions to adopt or amend codes of state-wide application shall be made prior to December 1 of any year and shall not take effect before the end of the regular legislative session in the next year.

Sec. 5, Section 3, chapter 360, Laws of 1985 and RCW 19.27.078 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The state building code council shall contract with a private entity to conduct a study and analysis of the codes referred to in RCW 19.27.031 and related regulations of state and local agencies to ascertain the amount and nature of any conflict and inconsistencies. The findings and proposed solutions resulting from this study and analysis shall be submitted to the state building code council no later than September 1, 1987. The state building code council shall consider these findings and proposed solutions when carrying out its responsibilities under RCW 19.27.074.

(2) The state building code council shall conduct a study of county and city enforcement of the requirements of the codes to which reference is made in RCW 19.27.031. In conducting the study, the council shall conduct public hearings at designated council meetings to seek input from interested individuals and organizations. The findings of the study shall be submitted in a report to the governor and the legislature no later than September 1, 1987.

(3) The study required under subsection (2) of this section shall include, but not be limited to, a review of the impact of discretionary building permit requirements imposed by local code enforcement personnel. This review shall be designed to determine the extent, if any, to which such discretionary requirements are based upon (a) the requirements of the state building code or (b) city or county amendments to the state building code.

(4) The state building code council shall conduct a study to identify and define stand-alone ordinances adopted by counties and cities that add or alter construction requirements to buildings and structures built under the codes enumerated in RCW 19.27.031, as adopted and amended by the state building code council. In conducting the study, the council shall consult with representatives from counties, cities, home builders, architects, building officials, and fire officials. To aid in data collection, local governments shall submit fire suppression ordinances in effect on March 31, 1989, to the state building code council. The findings of the study shall be submitted in a written report to the house of representatives committee on housing and the senate governmental operations committee no later than November 1, 1989.

(5) The study required under subsection (4) of this section shall include, but not be limited to, a review of ordinances or regulations adopted by counties and cities that add or alter construction requirements to buildings and structures built under the codes enumerated in RCW 19.27.031.

Sec. 6, Section 9, chapter 96, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 19.27.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Local land use and zoning requirements, building setbacks, side and rear-yard requirements, site development, property line requirements, ~~((subdivision))~~ requirements adopted by counties or cities pursuant to chapter 58.17 RCW, snow load requirements, wind load requirements, and local fire zones are specifically reserved to local jurisdictions notwithstanding any other provision of this ~~(1974 act)~~ chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The building code council shall, within one year of the effective date of this act, adopt a process for the review of proposed state-wide amendments to the codes enumerated in RCW 19.27.031, and proposed or enacted local amendments to the codes enumerated in RCW 19.27.031 as amended and adopted by the state building code council.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. Any county of the seventh class that had in effect on July 1, 1985, an ordinance or resolution authorizing and regulating the construction of owner-built residences may reenact such an ordinance or resolution if the ordinance or resolution is reenacted before September 30, 1989. After reenactment, the county, shall transmit a copy of the ordinance to the state building code council."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "council;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 19.27.015, 19.27.031, 19.27.060, 19.27.074, 19.27.078, and 19.27.090; and creating new sections."

SB 5907 Prime Sponsor, Senator Hansen: Changing provisions relating to annexations and incorporations involving a portion of a fire protection district. Reported by Committee on Local Government

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 35.13.248, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 19, chapter 234, Laws of 1986 and RCW 35.02.200 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If a portion of a fire protection district including less than sixty percent of the assessed value of the real property of the district is annexed to or incorporated into a city or town, the ownership of all assets of the district shall remain in the district and the district shall pay to the city or town within one year or within such period of time as the district continues to collect taxes in such incorporated or annexed areas, in cash, properties or contracts for fire protection services, a percentage of the value of said assets equal to the percentage of the value of the real property in the entire district lying within the area so incorporated or annexed: PROVIDED, That if the area annexed or incorporated includes less than five percent of the (~~assessed value of the real property~~) area of the district, no payment shall be made to the city or town except as provided in section 3 of this act.

(2) As provided in RCW 35.02.210, the fire protection district from which territory is removed as a result of an incorporation or annexation shall provide fire protection to the incorporated or annexed area for such period as the district continues to collect taxes levied in such annexed or incorporated area.

(3) For the purposes of this section, the word 'assets' shall mean the total assets of the fire district, reduced by its liabilities, including bonded indebtedness, the same to be determined by usual and accepted accounting methods. The amount of said liability shall be determined by reference to the fire district's balance sheet, produced in the regular course of business, which is nearest in time to the certification of the annexation of fire district territory by the city or town.

Sec. 2. Section 35A.14.400, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.14.400 are each amended to read as follows:

If a portion of a fire protection district including less than sixty percent of the assessed value of the real property of the district is annexed to or incorporated into a code city, the ownership of all assets of the district shall remain in the district and the district shall pay to the code city within one year or within such period of time as the district continues to collect taxes in such incorporated or annexed areas, in cash, properties or contracts for fire protection services, a percentage of the value of said assets equal to the percentage of the value of the real property in the entire district lying within the area so incorporated or annexed: PROVIDED, That if less than five percent of the area of the district is affected, no payment shall be made to the code city except as provided in section 3 of this act. The fire protection district shall provide fire protection to the incorporated or annexed area for such period as the district continues to collect taxes levied in such annexed or incorporated area.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 35.02 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A distribution of assets from the fire protection district to the city or town shall occur as provided in this section upon the annexation or incorporation of an area by the city or town that constitutes less than five percent of the area of the fire protection district upon the adoption of a resolution by the city or town finding that the annexation or incorporation will impose a significant increase in the fire suppression responsibilities of the city or town with a corresponding reduction in fire suppression responsibilities by the fire protection district. Such a resolution must be adopted within sixty days of the effective date of the annexation, or within sixty days of the official date of incorporation of the city. If the fire protection district does not concur in the finding within sixty days of when a copy of the resolution is submitted to the board of commissioners, arbitration shall proceed under subsection (3) of this section over this issue.

(2) An agreement on the distribution of assets from the fire protection district to the city or town shall be entered into by the city or town and the fire protection district within ninety days of the concurrence by the fire protection district under subsection (1) of this section, or within ninety days of a decision by the arbitrators under subsection (3) of this section that a significant increase in the fire protection responsibilities will be imposed upon the city or town as a result of the incorporation or annexation. A distribution shall be based upon the extent of the increased fire suppression responsibilities with a corresponding reduction in fire suppression responsibilities by the fire protection district, and shall consider the impact of any debt obligation that may exist on the property that is so annexed or incorporated. If an agreement is not entered into after this ninety-day period, arbitration shall proceed under subsection (3) of this section concerning this issue unless both parties have agreed to an extension of this period.

(3) Arbitration shall proceed under this subsection over the issue of whether a significant increase in the fire protection responsibilities will be imposed upon the city or town as a result of the annexation or incorporation with a corresponding reduction in fire suppression responsibilities by the fire protection district, or over the distribution of assets from the fire protection district to the city or town if such a significant increase in fire protection responsibilities will be imposed. A board of arbitrators shall be established for an arbitration that is required under this section. The board of arbitrators shall consist of three persons, one of whom is appointed by the city or town within sixty days of the date when arbitration is required, one of whom is appointed by the fire protection district within sixty days of the date when arbitration is required, and one of whom is appointed by agreement of the other two arbitrators within thirty days of the appointment of the last of these other two arbitrators who is so appointed. If the two are unable to agree on the appointment of the third arbitrator within this thirty-day period, then the third arbitrator shall be appointed by a judge in the superior court of the county within which all or the greatest portion of the area that was so annexed or incorporated lies. The determination by the board of arbitrators shall be binding on both the city or town and the fire protection district."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "district," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 35.02.200 and 35A.14.400; and adding a new section to chapter 35.02 RCW."

Signed by Representatives Haugen, Chair; Ferguson, Ranking Republican Member; Horn, Nealey, Nelson, Nutley, Phillips, Raiter, Rayburn, Todd, Wolfe, Wood and Zellinsky.

Absent: Representatives Cooper, Vice Chair; Nutley and Todd.

ESSB 5911 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Ways & Means: Providing for the sale of state timber. Reported by Committee on Natural Resources & Parks

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The forest resources of Washington are among the most valuable of the state's resources. They provide significant opportunities for employment, education, and enjoyment, and they support a variety of uses. These forest resources are increasingly impacted by pressure from a variety of sources, which will result in changes in current management practices for the resources and in changes in the economies which are dependent on these resources.

The legislature desires to develop forest management policies that anticipate emerging issues and assure a response which will protect and enhance those economic and ecological systems that are dependent on the resources. The legislature also desires to obtain information which enables better decision-making, to investigate land acquisitions which will aid in good forest management practices, and to identify courses of action which will assist counties in receiving a reliable flow of income from county forest lands. The legislature finds that it is in the best interests of the state and the counties to establish a process which encourages the counties, through their boards of county commissioners or county councils, to share in the decision making relating to the sale of timber from forest board lands as they seek to assure the economic stability of their communities.

Further, the legislature finds that recent management decisions concerning federally owned forested lands have significantly reduced the amount of timber available to small businesses with facilities in Washington. This reduction has caused and will increasingly cause economic hardship in counties where a significant portion of the population is employed in the timber industry. In these counties, the rate of unemployment among residents previously employed in the timber industry has risen drastically and will continue to rise. This will put an increasing burden on the counties to provide necessary financial and social support to these residents.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 76.12 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Whenever the board of county commissioners or the county council of any county determines that it is in the best interests of the county as a trust beneficiary and that it would help to ensure the economic viability of that county, the county may petition the board of natural resources to reserve, for the purposes described in this section, a portion of the timber to be sold in any given year from forest lands which have been acquired from that county by the state pursuant to RCW 76.12.030. The county shall specify what portion of such timber is to be reserved, and the portion reserved may be up to one hundred percent of such timber.

(2) Timber reserved under this section shall be made available for sale to enterprises meeting the criteria established in connection with the small business administration and contained in 15 U.S.C.S. sections 631 and 632 and the regulations adopted under those sections, as contained in the small business act of 1953, as amended and in effect as of January 1, 1989, and to enterprises which are cooperatives as defined in RCW 43.63A.230. These enterprises shall operate facilities in Washington which manufacture lumber, plywood, veneer, posts, poles, pilings, shakes, shingles, pulp, or pulp products. Once the board of natural resources has accepted the petition of a county to reserve a portion of timber pursuant to this section, the department shall compile a list of enterprises which are eligible to purchase reserved timber. Timber reserved under this section shall be sold only to enterprises contained in that list.

(3) If a county petitions the board of natural resources to reserve timber as provided in this section, the use of the forest board land trust assets for the purposes of this act shall be deemed to be consistent with the trust mandate imposed on the management of lands acquired pursuant to RCW 76.12.030.

(4) A petition to reserve a portion of timber may be revoked by the board of county commissioners or county council. Notice of such revocation shall be delivered to the board of natural resources. The board of natural resources shall not unreasonably deny such a request. Such revocation shall not impair any sale of timber which occurs before the board of natural resources receives the notice.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. By December 1, 1990, and annually thereafter until December 1, 1994, the board of natural resources shall report to the appropriate legislative committees and the Washington forest resources council on the amount of reserved timber sold pursuant to section 2 of this act. The report shall identify the quantity of the reserved timber which was not exported out of state in the form of raw logs, and shall identify the quantity which was processed into final products within the state. The report shall also identify which counties have elected to reserve timber pursuant to this section, and shall identify any rules which have been adopted in the last year for the implementation of this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. (1) The forest industry plays a major role in Washington's economy. It provides economic vitality to many communities, and through timber harvesting activities it supports the state trusts. The legislature desires to add to these beneficial aspects of forest management by evaluating actions which will protect environmentally sensitive areas while stabilizing economies and meeting trust needs. These actions include purchasing forest lands for addition to the existing land base managed by the state, land exchanges between trusts and possibly reorganizing the forest board trusts.

(2) The department of natural resources shall prepare a report which identifies opportunities for acquisition of private lands for addition to the land base of the state trusts, criterion which might guide land acquisitions, factors to consider in determining whether to acquire additional lands, the benefits and liabilities of possible land acquisitions, and other items as it shall deem appropriate.

The department shall identify possible sources of funds with which to acquire forest lands. Further, it shall assess the advantages and disadvantages of using each potential fund source.

(3) The department of natural resources shall report to the appropriate committees of the senate and house of representatives on the fiscal impacts to counties of creating a unitary trust for property known as forest board transfer land. This report shall assess the impact to counties over the course of sixty years. It shall evaluate alternative criteria for revenue distribution and methods to ensure equity among counties. The department shall seek advice from counties with forest board transfer lands in preparing its recommendations.

(4) The department of natural resources shall evaluate the financial and management impacts and advantages and disadvantages associated with exchanging forest board transfer trust land for land containing forests with old growth characteristics held in trust for the common schools. This report shall consider the impact on the forest board transfer lands individually and if the lands were managed as a unitary trust.

(5) These reports shall be presented to the appropriate committees of the house of representatives and senate by December 1, 1989.

Trust land management shall continue unaffected during the report preparation.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. (1) The governor shall form an inter-agency timber stabilization task force to include, but not limited to, the department of trade and economic development, the department of community development, the center for international trade in forest products, and the department of natural resources. The task force shall oversee the economic development programs under sections 6 through 8 of this act, including the designation of areas of the state adversely impacted by reductions in timber harvested from federal lands. Further, the task force shall oversee any long term timber supply study receiving funding from the 1989 legislature.

(2) For purposes of sections 6 through 8 of this act 'timber industry' means firms within the standard industrial classification code numbers twenty-four, twenty-five, and twenty-six.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The department of trade and economic development with the cooperation of the department of community development shall administer a timber industrial extension service. The timber industrial extension service shall provide technical and financial assistance to enterprises in the timber industry which are eligible under section 2(2) of this act. Where appropriate, the extension service shall give priority to the development of value-added production and markets. The department may contract for services provided for under this section. Assistance under this section shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

(a) Technical and financial assistance for the modernization of firms through methods such as adopting new manufacturing technologies and retooling for the processing of second growth timber.

(b) Technical and financial assistance for the development of new products, with priority given to the development of products requiring secondary processing.

(c) Technical and financial assistance in the identification and filling of new markets;

(d) Technical and financial assistance in forming networks or consortiums of firms to provide economies of scale and to provide joint marketing, training, manufacturing, or product development.

For the financial assistance provided under this section the department of trade and economic development shall utilize existing state finance programs and shall assist firms in seeking private and federal financial assistance.

(2) The department of trade and economic development shall administer a timber supply broker program to provide special expertise in the identification of supplies of timber which may become available to enterprises identified by the program as needing additional supplies of timber for processing. The department may contract for services provided for under this subsection.

(3) The department of trade and economic development shall contract with the northwest policy center at the university of Washington to study the economy of areas of the state impacted by substantial reductions in timber harvested from federal lands. The study shall:

(a) Include an analysis of the present economy of the areas;

(b) Identify the social, economic, and employment effects associated with withdrawals of land from commercial timber production;

(c) Contain an assessment of possible changes to local economies and the state economy if forest lands continue to produce resources under existing management methods without additional land withdrawals from timber production by legislative decisions;

(d) Contain an assessment of the impact of anticipated technological changes in the forest products industry, possible structural changes in the forest products industry, possible investments in new or existing industries, and known impacts from previous withdrawals of land from timber production;

(e) Contain an assessment of the future economic impact of the forest product industry if the land base for commercial timber production remains unchanged and the sale of public timber for overseas export is prohibited immediately; and

(f) Evaluate potential methods for increasing the economic development of the areas, including the creation or enhancement of high value-added production.

The study shall give emphasis to recommendations for future economic development. The department of trade and economic development and the northwest policy center shall report findings to the governor and to the appropriate legislative committees on December 1, 1990.

(4)(a) The sum of four hundred seven thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the general fund to the department of trade and economic development for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, for the purposes of subsection (1) of this section;

(b) The sum of one hundred forty-five thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the general fund to the department of trade and economic development for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, for the purposes of subsection (2) of this section; and

(c) The sum of two hundred thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the general fund to the department of trade and economic development for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, for the purposes of subsection (3) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) The department of community development shall provide technical and financial assistance to communities adversely impacted by reductions in timber harvested from federal lands. This assistance shall include the formation and implementation of community economic development plans. The department of community development shall utilize existing state technical and financial assistance programs, and shall aid communities in seeking private and federal financial assistance for the purposes of this section. The department may contract for services provided for under this section.

(2) The department of community development shall provide grants to two nonprofit organizations for local reemployment centers to be located in areas of the state adversely impacted by reductions in timber harvested from federal lands. Each center shall provide direct and referral services to the unemployed. These services may include reemployment assistance, medical services, social services including marital counseling, mortgage foreclosure, and utility problem counseling, drug and alcohol abuse counseling, credit counseling, and other services deemed appropriate. These services are designed to supplement and not supplant the on-going efforts of local job centers administered by the employment security department and any reemployment centers already existing. No more than five percent of the appropriation in subsection (4)(b) of this section may be used for administrative costs.

(3) The department of community development shall provide technical and financial assistance on employee ownership to employees and firms in the timber industry which are threatened with closure or substantial layoffs. Assistance under this section shall include training for labor and management in the operation of an employee-owned firm. The department may contract for services provided for under this section.

(4)(a) The sum of five hundred sixty-five thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the general fund to the department of community development for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, for the purposes of subsection (1) of this section;

(b) The sum of two hundred forty thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the general fund to the department of community development for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, for the purposes of subsection (2) of this section; and

(c) The sum of one hundred thousand dollars or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the general fund to the department of community development for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, for the purposes of subsection (3) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) The department of natural resources shall provide additional technical assistance in timber management to small private forest land owners for the purpose of increasing the supply of timber.

(2) The department of natural resources shall conduct a study of state owned hardwood forests. The study shall include, but is not limited to: A comprehensive inventory of state owned hardwood forests and a qualitative assessment of those stands, research into reforestation of hardwoods on state lands, and an analysis of management policies for increasing the supply of commercially harvestable hardwoods on state lands.

(3) The department of natural resources shall contract for labor intensive forest land management activities in areas of the state adversely impacted by reductions in timber sales from federal lands. Contracts provided for under this section shall be in addition to and shall not supplant or displace activities normally administered by the department. The department shall, to the extent feasible, offer the additional contracts in sizes which does not discourage participation by small enterprises. The department shall cooperate with the employment security department in disseminating information on forest land management contracts to unemployed individuals who have been employed in the timber industry, and others adversely affected by reductions in timber sales from federal lands.

(4) The employment security department shall provide services for job placement through the department of natural resources' contracts for forest land management activities. Job placement services shall include widely disseminating information on the availability of department of natural resources contracts for forest land management activities and information on procedures for bidding on such contracts. Priority for these job placement services shall be given to unemployed individuals who have been employed in the timber industry and others adversely affected by reductions in timber sales from federal lands. The department shall keep track of the number of unemployed timber workers who obtain employment under this section and shall report its findings to the governor and to the appropriate legislative committees on January 1, 1990, and January 1, 1991.

(5)(a) The sum of four hundred twenty-nine thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the general fund to the department of natural resources for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, for the purposes of subsection (1) of this section;

(b) The sum of one hundred thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the general fund to the department of natural resources for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, for the purposes of subsection (2) of this section; and

(c) The sum of two million eight hundred thousand dollars is appropriated from the resource management cost account to the department of natural resources for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, for the purposes of subsection (3) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The complexity of managing forest resources in the state, given the variety of ownerships and the diversity of people interested in the resources will increasingly require coordination, cooperation, and good communication. Decisions made affecting the people of the state often occur with little coordination among the landowners or without the knowledge of those affected by the decisions.

In order to encourage a coordinated approach to forest resource decisions there is hereby created the Washington forest resource council. The council shall consist of twenty-five members appointed by the governor. Members shall include, but not be limited to, representatives of: The governor's office; the departments of natural resources, wildlife, fisheries, trade and economic development; the United States forest service; the national park service; the United States fish and wildlife service; the Indian tribes of western Washington; the business community; large and small businesses in the forest products industry; local government; labor; the trust beneficiaries; and environmental groups. The governor shall appoint a member to serve as chair of the council.

Council members shall be appointed by the governor for staggered four year terms. They shall receive compensation in accordance with RCW 43.03.220. The governor shall appoint an executive director for the council.

The council shall advise the governor, the commission of public lands and the legislature regarding forest policies. It shall have as its primary objective making recommendations which will increase the coordination of state, federal, and private forest policies.

The sum of one hundred fifty thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, from the general fund to the Washington forest resource council for the purposes of this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. (1) The Olympic institute for old growth forest and ocean research and education is hereby created. The institute shall be located in the western portion of the Olympic Peninsula. Its purpose shall be to demonstrate innovative management methods which successfully integrate environmental and economic interests into pragmatic management of forest and ocean resources. The institute shall combine research and educational opportunities with experimental forestry, oceans management, and traditional management knowledge into an overall program which demonstrates that management based on sound economic principles is made superior when combined with new methods of management based on ecological principles. The institute shall be jointly supported by the college of forest resources and the college of ocean and fishery science.

(2) There is hereby appropriated from the general fund to the University of Washington the sum of one hundred fifty thousand dollars or as much thereof as may be necessary, for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, for the purpose of preparing a development plan for the institute. The development plan shall involve policy makers from state, federal, tribal, business, and environmental interests in the preparation of management plans and as it develops programs and shall be guided by the recommendation of the old growth commission appointed by the commissioner of public lands.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. Sections 1 and 2 of this act shall expire June 30, 1994."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "lands;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new section to chapter 76.12 RCW; creating new sections; making appropriations; and providing an expiration date."

ESSB 5933 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Economic Development & Labor: Establishing an annual leave sharing program for state employees. Reported by Committee on State Government

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments: Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 41.04 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature finds that: (1) State employees historically have joined together to help their fellow employees who suffer from, or have relatives or household members suffering from, an extraordinary or severe illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition which prevents the individual from working and causes great economic and emotional distress to the employee and his or her family; and (2) these circumstances may be exacerbated because the affected employees use all their accrued sick leave and annual leave and are forced to take leave without pay or terminate their employment. Therefore, the legislature intends to provide for the establishment of a leave sharing program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 41.04 RCW to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 1 through 7 of this act.

(1) 'Employee' means any employee of the state, including employees of school districts and educational service districts, who are entitled to accrue sick leave or annual leave and for whom accurate leave records are maintained.

(2) 'State agency' or 'agency' means departments, offices, agencies, or institutions of state government, the legislature, institutions of higher education, school districts, and educational service districts.

(3) 'Program' means the leave sharing program established in section 3 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 41.04 RCW to read as follows:

The Washington state leave sharing program is hereby created. The purpose of the program is to permit state employees, at no significantly increased cost to the state of providing annual leave, to come to the aid of a fellow state employee who is suffering from or has a relative or household member suffering from an extraordinary or severe illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition which has caused or is likely to cause the employee to take leave without pay or terminate his or her employment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 41.04 RCW to read as follows:

(1) An agency head may permit an employee to receive leave under this section if:

(a) The employee suffers from, or has a relative or household member suffering from, an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition which is of an extraordinary or severe nature and which has caused, or is likely to cause, the employee to:

(i) Go on leave without pay status; or

(ii) Terminate state employment;

(b) The employee's absence and the use of shared leave are justified;

(c) The employee has depleted or will shortly deplete his or her annual leave and sick leave reserves;

(d) The employee has abided by agency rules regarding sick leave use; and

(e) The employee has diligently pursued and been found to be ineligible for benefits under chapter 51.32 RCW.

(2) The agency head shall determine the amount of leave, if any, which an employee may receive under this section. However, an employee shall not receive a total of more than two hundred sixty-one days of leave.

(3) An employee who has an accrued annual leave balance of more than ten days may request that the head of the agency for which the employee works transfer a specified amount of annual leave to another employee authorized to receive leave under subsection (1) of this section. In no event may the employee request a transfer of an amount of leave that would result in his or her annual leave account going below ten days.

(4) Transfers of leave made by an agency head under subsection (3) of this section shall not exceed the requested amount.

(5) Leave transferred under this section may be transferred from employees of one agency to an employee of the same agency or, with the approval of the heads of both agencies, to an employee of another state agency.

(6) While an employee is on leave transferred under this section, he or she shall continue to be classified as a state employee and shall receive the same treatment in respect to salary, wages, and employee benefits as the employee would normally receive if using accrued annual leave or sick leave.

(a) All salary and wage payments made to employees while on leave transferred under this section shall be made by the agency employing the person receiving the leave. The value of leave transferred shall be based upon the annual leave value of the person receiving the leave.

(b) In the case of leave transferred by an employee of one agency to an employee of another agency, the agencies involved shall arrange for the transfer of funds and credit for the appropriate value of leave.

(i) Pursuant to rules adopted by the office of financial management, funds shall not be transferred under this section if the transfer would violate any constitutional or statutory restrictions on the funds being transferred.

(ii) The office of financial management may adjust the appropriation authority of an agency receiving funds under this section only if and to the extent that the agency's existing appropriation authority would prevent it from expending the funds received.

(iii) Where any questions arise in the transfer of funds or the adjustment of appropriation authority, the director of financial management shall determine the appropriate transfer or adjustment.

(7) Leave transferred under this section shall not be used in any calculation to determine an agency's allocation of full time equivalent staff positions.

(8) The value of any leave transferred under this section which remains unused shall be returned at its original value to the employee or employees who transferred the leave when the agency head finds that the leave is no longer needed or will not be needed at a future time in connection with the illness or injury for which the leave was transferred. To the extent administratively feasible, the value of unused leave which was transferred by more than one employee shall be returned on a pro rata basis.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 41.04 RCW to read as follows:

The state personnel board, the higher education personnel board, and other personnel authorities shall each adopt rules applicable to employees under their respective jurisdictions: (1) Establishing appropriate parameters for the program which are consistent with the provisions of sections 1 through 4 of this act; (2) providing for equivalent treatment of employees between their respective jurisdictions and allowing transfers of leave between any of the state agencies defined in section 2 of this act; (3) establishing procedures to ensure that the program does not significantly increase the cost of providing annual leave; and (4) providing for the administration of the program.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 28A.58 RCW to read as follows:

Every school district board of directors and educational service district superintendent shall, in accordance with sections 1 through 4 of this act, establish an annual leave sharing program for their certificated and noncertificated employees. For employees of school districts and educational service districts, the superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules: (1) Establishing appropriate parameters for the program which are consistent with the provisions of sections 1 through 4 of this act; (2) allowing transfers of leave between any of the state agencies defined in section 2 of this act; (3) establishing procedures to ensure that the program does not significantly increase the cost of providing annual leave; and (4) providing for the administration of the program.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. School districts, the department of personnel, the higher education personnel board, and other personnel authorities may adopt temporary emergency policies and procedures to implement the program on the effective date of this act so that donated leave may be used in lieu of leave without pay taken after the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

SB 5950

Prime Sponsor, Senator Talmadge: Extending the statute of limitations in child sexual abuse cases. Reported by Committee on Judiciary

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds that possible confusion may exist in interpreting the statute of limitations provisions for child sexual abuse civil actions in RCW 4.16.190 and 4.16.340 regarding the accrual of a cause of action for a person under age eighteen. The legislature finds that amending RCW 4.16.340 will clarify that the time limit for commencement of an action under RCW 4.16.340 is tolled until the child reaches age eighteen. The 1989 amendment to RCW 4.16.340 is intended as a clarification of existing law and is not intended to be a change in the law.

(2) The legislature also finds that confusion in legislative intent also has arisen by deleting from the statute of limitations, provisions governing criminal law with specific reference to RCW 9A.44.070, 9A.44.080, and 9A.44.100(1)(b) when the legislature repealed those sections in the 1987 legislative session. The legislature did not intend to change the statute of limitations governing those offenses from seven years to three years.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 144, Laws of 1988 and RCW 4.16.340 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All claims or causes of action based on intentional conduct brought by any person for recovery of damages for injury suffered as a result of childhood sexual abuse shall be commenced within three years of the act alleged to have caused the injury or condition, or three years of the time the victim discovered or reasonably should have discovered that the injury or condition was caused by said act, whichever period expires later: PROVIDED, That the time limit for commencement of an action under this section is tolled for a child until the child reaches the age of eighteen years.

(2) The victim need not establish which act in a series of continuing sexual abuse or exploitation incidents caused the injury complained of, but may compute the date of discovery from the date of discovery of the last act by the same perpetrator which is part of a common scheme or plan of sexual abuse or exploitation.

(3) The knowledge of a custodial parent or guardian shall not be imputed to a person under the age of eighteen years.

(4) For purposes of this section, 'child' means a person under the age of eighteen years.

(5) As used in this section, 'childhood sexual abuse' means any act committed by the defendant against a complainant who was less than eighteen years of age at the time of the act and which act would have been a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9.68A.040 or prior laws of similar effect at the time the act was committed.

Sec. 3. Section 14, chapter 145, Laws of 1988 and RCW 9A.04.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Prosecutions for criminal offenses shall not be commenced after the periods prescribed in this section.

(a) The following offenses may be prosecuted at any time after their commission:

(i) Murder:

(ii) Arson if a death results.

(b) The following offenses shall not be prosecuted more than ten years after their commission:

(i) Any felony committed by a public officer if the commission is in connection with the duties of his or her office or constitutes a breach of his or her public duty or a violation of the oath of office;

(ii) Arson if no death results.

(c) Violations of the following ((offenses)) statutes shall not be prosecuted more than three years after the victim's eighteenth birthday or more than seven years after their commission, whichever is later: ((Rape of a child in the first or second degree or child molestation in the first or second degree:))

(i) RCW 9A.44.073, 9A.44.076, 9A.44.083, 9A.44.086, 9A.44.070, 9A.44.080, or 9A.44.100(1)(b); or

(ii) If the victim was under the age of fourteen years of age at the time of the commission of the offense, RCW 9A.44.040, 9A.44.050, or 9A.64.020.

(d) The following offenses shall not be prosecuted more than six years after their commission: Violations of RCW 9A.82.060 or 9A.82.080.

(e) The following offenses shall not be prosecuted more than five years after their commission: Any class C felony under chapter 74.09 RCW.

(f) Bigamy shall not be prosecuted more than three years after the time specified in RCW 9A.64.010.

(g) No other felony may be prosecuted more than three years after its commission.

(h) No gross misdemeanor may be prosecuted more than two years after its commission.

(i) No misdemeanor may be prosecuted more than one year after its commission.

(2) The periods of limitation prescribed in subsection (1) of this section do not run during any time when the person charged is not usually and publicly resident within this state.

(3) If, before the end of a period of limitation prescribed in subsection (1) of this section, an indictment has been found or a complaint or an information has been filed, and the indictment, complaint, or information is set aside, then the period of limitation is extended by a period equal to the length of time from the finding or filing to the setting aside.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 95, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9A.40.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A relative of a person is guilty of custodial interference in the second degree if, with the intent to deny access to such person by a parent, guardian, institution, agency, or other person having a lawful right to physical custody of such person, the relative takes, entices, retains, detains, or conceals the person from a parent, guardian, institution, agency, or other person having a lawful right to physical custody of such person.

(2) A parent or relative of a minor child is guilty of custodial interference in the second degree if:

(a) The parent or relative (i) with intent to deprive access to the child by a parent, guardian, or other person who is not the legal custodian but who has the right of access to the child pursuant to a court-ordered residential schedule in a parenting plan or a court-ordered visitation schedule, (ii) takes, entices, retains, detains, or conceals the child during a period in which that parent, guardian, or other person was scheduled to have access to the child under the court-ordered parenting plan or visitation schedule; and

(b) The parent or relative violated a court order that specifies the following:

(i) The defendant has, without good cause, intentionally denied or prevented access to the child in violation of a previous court order; and

(ii) The specific conditions of access in the order are necessary to ensure that the defendant will allow the parent, guardian, or other person access to the child; and

(iii) The order contains the following language:

WARNING: VIOLATION OF THE PROVISIONS OF THIS ORDER WITH ACTUAL KNOWLEDGE OF ITS TERMS IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE UNDER RCW 9A.40.070, MAY SUBJECT VIOLATOR TO ARREST, AND IS ALSO PUNISHABLE BY CONTEMPT OF COURT.

(3) The first conviction of custodial interference in the second degree is a gross misdemeanor. The second or subsequent conviction of custodial interference in the second degree is a class C felony.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 95, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9A.40.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any reasonable expenses incurred in locating or returning a child or incompetent person shall be assessed against a defendant convicted under RCW 9A.40.060 or 9A.40.070. In addition to any fine that may be imposed by the court, the court shall also recover court costs of one hundred dollars from every person convicted of custodial interference in the second degree.

(2) In any prosecution of custodial interference in the first or second degree, it is a complete defense, if established by the defendant by a preponderance of the evidence, that:

(a) The defendant's purpose was to protect the child, incompetent person, or himself or herself from imminent physical harm, ((and)) that the belief in the existence of the imminent physical harm was reasonable, and that the defendant sought the assistance of the police, sheriff's office, protective agencies, or the court of any state before committing the acts giving rise to the charges or within a reasonable time thereafter; or

(b) The complainant had, prior to the defendant committing the acts giving rise to the crime, repeatedly or for a protracted period of time, failed to exercise his or her rights to physical custody or access to the child under a court-ordered parenting plan or order granting visitation rights, provided that such failure was not the direct result of the defendant's denial of access to such person; or

(c) The acts giving rise to the charges were consented to by the complainant; or

(d) The offender, after providing or making a good faith effort to provide notice to the person entitled to access to the child, failed to return the child due to reasons directly related to the welfare of the child, and allowed access to the child in accordance with the court order within a reasonable period of time.

(3) Consent of a child less than sixteen years of age or of an incompetent person does not constitute a defense to an action under RCW 9A.40.060 or 9A.40.070.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Nothing contained in RCW 9A.40.070 and 9A.40.080 shall be construed to limit the court's contempt power.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Every law enforcement officer investigating an alleged incident of child abduction shall make a written police report of any bona fide allegation and the disposition of such investigation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Sections 3 and 4 of this act are each added to chapter 9A.40 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "child," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 9A.40.070 and 9A.40.080; adding new sections to chapter 9A.40 RCW; and prescribing penalties."

SSB 6013 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Governmental Operations: Regulating capacity charges imposed by a metropolitan municipal corporation. Reported by Committee on Local Government

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 35.58 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A metropolitan municipal corporation that is engaged in the transmission, treatment, and disposal of sewage may impose a capacity charge on users of the metropolitan municipal corporation's sewage facilities when the user connects, reconnects, or establishes a new service. The capacity charge shall be approved by the council of the metropolitan municipal corporation and reviewed and reaproved annually.

(2) The capacity charge shall be based upon the cost of the sewage facilities' excess capacity that is necessary to provide sewerage treatment for new users to the system. The capacity charge, which may be collected over a period of fifteen years, shall not exceed:

(a) Seven dollars per month per residential customer equivalent for connections and reconNECTIONS occurring prior to January 1, 1996; and

(b) Ten dollars and fifty cents per month per residential customer equivalent for connections and reconNECTIONS occurring after January 1, 1996, and prior to January 1, 2001.

For connections and reconNECTIONS occurring after January 1, 2001, the capacity charge shall not exceed fifty percent of the basic sewer rate per residential customer equivalent established by the metropolitan municipal corporation at the time of the connection or reconNECTION.

(3) The capacity charge for a building other than a single-family residence shall be based on the projected number of residential customer equivalents to be represented by the building, considering its intended use.

(4) The council of the metropolitan municipal corporation shall enforce the collection of the capacity charge in the same manner provided for the collection, enforcement, and payment of rates and charges for sewer districts provided in RCW 56.16.100 and 56.16.110. At least thirty days before commencement of an action to foreclose a lien for a capacity charge, the metropolitan municipal corporation shall send written notice of delinquency in payment of the capacity charge to any first mortgage or deed of trust holder of record at the address of record.

(5) As used in this section, 'sewage facilities' means capital projects identified since January 1, 1982, to the effective date of this section in the metropolitan municipal corporation's comprehensive water pollution abatement plan. 'Residential customer equivalent' shall have the same meaning used by the metropolitan municipal corporation in determining rates and charges at the time the capacity charge is imposed.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 449, Laws of 1987 and RCW 56.08.010 are each amended to read as follows:

A sewer district may acquire by purchase or by condemnation and purchase all lands, property rights, water, and water rights, both within and without the district, necessary for its purposes. A sewer district may lease real or personal property necessary for its purposes for a term of years for which such leased property may reasonably be needed where in the opinion of the board of sewer commissioners such property may not be needed permanently or substantial savings to the district can be effected thereby. The right of eminent domain shall be exercised in the same manner and by the same procedure as provided for cities and towns, insofar as consistent with the provisions of this title, except that all assessments or reassessment rolls required to be filed by eminent domain commissioners or commissioners appointed by the court shall be prepared and filed by the district, and the duties devolving upon the city treasurer shall be imposed upon the county treasurer for the purposes hereof; it may construct, condemn and purchase, add to, maintain, and operate systems of sewers for the purpose of furnishing the district and inhabitants thereof with an adequate system of sewers for all uses and purposes, public and private, including but not limited to on-site sewage disposal facilities, approved septic tanks or approved septic tank systems, other facilities and systems for the collection, interception, treatment, and disposal of wastewater, and for the control of pollution from wastewater and for the protection, preservation, and rehabilitation of surface and underground waters, facilities for the drainage of storm or surface waters, public highways, streets, and roads with full authority to regulate the use and operation thereof and the service rates to be charged. Such sewage facilities may include facilities which result in combined sewage disposal, treatment, or drainage and electric generation, provided that the electricity generated thereby is a byproduct of the system of sewers. Such electricity may be used by the sewer district or sold to any entity authorized by law to distribute electricity. Such electricity is a byproduct when the electrical generation is subordinate to the primary purpose of sewage disposal, treatment, or drainage. For such purposes a district may conduct sewage throughout the district and throughout other political subdivisions within the district, and construct and lay sewer pipe along and upon public highways, roads, and streets, within and without the district, and condemn and purchase or acquire land and rights of way necessary for such sewer pipe. A district may erect sewage treatment plants, within or without the district, and may acquire by purchase or condemnation, properties or privileges necessary to be had to protect any lakes, rivers, or watercourses and also other areas of land from pollution, from its sewers or its sewage treatment plant. For the purposes of sewage facilities which include facilities which result in combined sewage disposal, treatment, or drainage and electric generation where the electric generation is a byproduct, nothing in this section may be construed to authorize a district to condemn electric generating, transmission, or distribution rights or facilities of entities authorized by law to distribute electricity, or to acquire such rights or facilities without the consent of the owner. A district may charge property owners seeking to connect to the district system of sewers, as a condition to granting the right to so connect, in addition to the cost of such connection, such reasonable connection charge as the board of commissioners shall determine to be proper in order that such property owners shall bear their equitable share of the cost of such system. For purposes of calculating a connection charge, the board of commissioners shall determine the pro rata share of the cost of existing facilities and facilities planned for construction within the next ten years and contained in an adopted comprehensive plan and other costs borne by the district which are directly attributable to the improvements required by property owners seeking to connect to the system. The cost of existing facilities shall not include those portions of the system which have been donated or which have been paid for by grants.

The connection charge may include interest charges applied from the date of construction of the sewer system until the connection, or for a period not to exceed ten years, whichever is shorter, at a rate commensurate with the rate of interest applicable to the district at the time of construction or major rehabilitation of the sewer system, or at the time of installation of the sewer lines to which the property owner is seeking to connect.

A district may permit payment of the cost of connection and the reasonable connection charge to be paid with interest in installments over a period not exceeding fifteen years. The county treasurer may charge and collect a fee of three dollars per parcel for each year for the treasurer's services. Such fees shall be a charge to be included as part of each annual installment, and shall be credited to the county current expense fund by the county treasurer. A district may compel all property owners within the sewer district located within an area served by the district system of sewers to connect their private drain and sewer systems with the district system under such penalty as the sewer commissioners shall prescribe by resolution. The district may for such purpose enter upon private property and connect the private drains or sewers with the district system and the cost thereof shall be charged against the property owner and shall be a lien upon property served.

Revenues from connection charges excluding permit fees are to be considered payments in aid of construction as defined by department of revenue rule.

Sec. 3. Section 17, chapter 210, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 47, chapter 186, Laws of 1984 and RCW 56.16.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In the same manner as herein provided for the adoption of the general comprehensive plan, and after the adoption of the general comprehensive plan, a plan providing for additions and betterments to the general comprehensive plan, or reorganized district may be adopted. Without limiting its generality 'additions and betterments' shall include any necessary change in, amendment of, or addition to the general comprehensive plan. The sewer district may incur a general indebtedness payable from annual tax levies to be made in excess of the constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations for the construction of the additions and betterments in the same way the general indebtedness may be incurred for the construction of the general comprehensive plan as provided in RCW 56.16.010. Upon ratification by the voters of the entire district, of the proposition to incur such indebtedness, the additions and betterments may be carried out by the sewer commissioners to the extent specified or referred to in the proposition to incur such general indebtedness. The sewer district may issue revenue bonds to pay for the construction of the additions and betterments by resolution of the board of sewer commissioners.

(2) After the effective date of this act, when the district adopts a general comprehensive plan or plans for an area annexed as provided for in RCW 56.08.020, the district shall include a long-term plan for financing the planned projects.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If the sewer district approves an extension to the sewer system, the district shall contract with owners of real estate located within the district boundaries, at an owner's request, for the purpose of permitting extensions to the district's sewer system to be constructed by such owner at such owner's sole cost where such extensions are required as a prerequisite to further property development. The contract shall contain such conditions as the district may require pursuant to the district's adopted policies and standards. The district shall request comprehensive plan approval for such extension, if required, and connection of the extension to the district system is conditioned upon:

(1) Construction of such extension according to plans and specifications approved by the district;

(2) Inspection and approval of such extension by the district;

(3) Transfer to the district of such extension without cost to the district upon acceptance by the district of such extension;

(4) Payment of all required connection charges to the district;

(5) Full compliance with the owner's obligations under such contract and with the district's rules and regulations;

(6) Provision of sufficient security to the district to ensure completion of the extension and other performance under the contract;

(7) Payment by the owner to the district of all of the district's costs associated with such extension including, but not limited to, the district's engineering, legal, and administrative costs; and

(8) Verification and approval of all contracts and costs related to such extension.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The contract shall also provide, subject to the terms and conditions in this section, for the reimbursement to the owner or the owner's assigns for a period not to exceed fifteen years of a portion of the costs of the sewer facilities constructed pursuant to such contract from connection charges received by the district from other property owners who subsequently connect to or use the sewer facilities within the fifteen-year period and who did not contribute to the original cost of such sewer facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The reimbursement shall be a pro rata share of construction and contract administration costs of the sewer project. Reimbursement for sewer projects shall include, but not be limited to, design, engineering, installation, and restoration.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The procedures for reimbursement contracts shall be governed by the following:

(1) A reimbursement area shall be formulated by the board of commissioners within a reasonable time after the acceptance of the extension. The reimbursement shall be based upon a determination by the board of commissioners of which parcels would require similar sewer improvements upon development.

(2) The contract must be recorded in the appropriate county auditor's office after the final execution of the agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. As an alternative to financing projects under this chapter solely by owners of real estate, sewer districts may join in the financing of improvement projects and may be reimbursed in the same manner as the owners of real estate who participate in the projects, if the board of commissioners has specified the conditions of its participation in a resolution.

Sec. 9. Section 8, chapter 114, Laws of 1929 as last amended by section 1, chapter 11, Laws of 1988 and RCW 57.08.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) A water district may acquire by purchase or condemnation, or both, all property and property rights and all water and water rights, both within and without the district, necessary for its purposes.

(b) A water district may lease real or personal property necessary for its purposes for a term of years for which such leased property may reasonably be needed where in the opinion of the board of water commissioners such property may not be needed permanently or substantial savings to the district can be effected thereby.

(c) The right of eminent domain shall be exercised in the same manner and by the same procedure as provided for cities of the third class, insofar as consistent with the provisions of this title, except that all assessment rolls to be prepared and filed by eminent domain commissioners or commissioners appointed by the court shall be prepared and filed by the water district, and the duties devolving upon the city treasurer are hereby imposed upon the county treasurer.

(d) A water district may construct, condemn and purchase, purchase, add to, maintain and supply waterworks to furnish the district and inhabitants thereof, and any city or town therein and any other persons, both within and without the district, with an ample supply of water for all uses and purposes public and private with full authority to regulate and control the use, content, distribution, and price thereof in such a manner as is not in conflict with general law.

(e) A water district contiguous to Canada may contract with a Canadian corporation for the purchase of water and for the construction, purchase, maintenance and supply of waterworks to furnish the district and inhabitants thereof and residents of Canada with an ample supply of water under terms approved by the board of commissioners. Such waterworks may include facilities which result in combined water supply and electric generation, provided that the electricity generated thereby is a byproduct of the water supply system.

(f) Such electricity may be used by the water district or sold to any entity authorized by law to distribute electricity. Such electricity is a byproduct when the electrical generation is subordinate to the primary purpose of water supply.

(g) For such purposes, a water district may take, condemn and purchase, purchase, acquire and retain water from any public or navigable lake, river or watercourse, or any underflowing water and, by means of aqueducts or pipe line conduct the same throughout such water district and any city or town therein and carry it along and upon public highways, roads and streets, within and without such district.

(h) For the purpose of constructing or laying aqueducts or pipe lines, dams, or waterworks or other necessary structures in storing and retaining water or for any other lawful purpose such water district may occupy the beds and shores up to the high water mark of any such lake, river, or other watercourse, and may acquire by purchase or condemnation such property or property rights or privileges as may be necessary to protect its water supply from pollution.

(i) For the purposes of waterworks which include facilities for the generation of electricity as a byproduct, nothing in this section may be construed to authorize a water district to condemn electric generating, transmission, or distribution rights or facilities of entities authorized by law to distribute electricity, or to acquire such rights or facilities without the consent of the owner.

(2) A water district may purchase and take water from any municipal corporation.

(3) A water district may fix rates and charges for water supplied and may charge property owners seeking to connect to the district's water supply system, as a condition to granting the right to so connect, in addition to the cost of such connection, such reasonable connection charge as the board of commissioners shall determine to be proper in order that such property owners shall bear their equitable share of the cost of such system.

(a) For purposes of calculating a connection charge, the board of commissioners shall determine the pro rata share of the cost of existing facilities and facilities planned for construction within the next ten years and contained in an adopted comprehensive plan and other costs borne by the district which are directly attributable to the improvements required by property owners seeking to connect to the system. The cost of existing facilities shall not include those portions of the system which have been donated or which have been paid for by grants.

(b) The connection charge may include interest charges applied from the date of construction of the water system until the connection, or for a period not to exceed ten years, whichever is shorter, at a rate commensurate with the rate of interest applicable to the district at the time of construction or major rehabilitation of the water system, or at the time of installation of the water lines to which the property owner is seeking to connect.

(4) (a) A district may permit payment of the cost of connection and the reasonable connection charge to be paid with interest in installments over a period not exceeding fifteen years. The county treasurer may charge and collect a fee of three dollars for each year for the treasurer's services. Such fees shall be a charge to be included as part of each annual installment, and shall be credited to the county current expense fund by the county treasurer.

(b) Revenues from connection charges excluding permit fees are to be considered payments in aid of construction as defined by department of revenue rule.

Sec. 10. Section 6, chapter 18, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 2, chapter 213, Laws of 1982 and RCW 57.16.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The water district commissioners before ordering any improvements hereunder or submitting to vote any proposition for incurring any indebtedness shall adopt a general comprehensive plan of water supply for the district. They shall investigate the several portions and sections of the district for the purpose of determining the present and reasonably foreseeable future needs thereof; shall examine and investigate, determine and select a water supply or water supplies for such district suitable and adequate for present and reasonably foreseeable future needs thereof; and shall consider and determine a general system or plan for acquiring such water supply or water supplies; and the lands, waters and water rights and easements necessary therefor, and for retaining and storing any such waters, erecting dams, reservoirs, aqueducts and pipe lines to convey the same throughout such district. There may be included as part of the system the installation of fire hydrants at suitable places throughout the district, and the purchase and maintenance of necessary fire fighting equipment and apparatus, together with facilities for housing same. The water district commissioners shall determine a general comprehensive plan for distributing such water throughout such portion of the district as may then reasonably be served by means of subsidiary aqueducts and pipe lines, and the method of distributing the cost and expense thereof against such water district and against local improvement districts or utility local improvement districts within such water district for any lawful purpose, and including any such local improvement district or utility local improvement district lying wholly or partially within the limits of any city or town in such district, and shall determine whether the whole or part of the cost and expenses shall be paid from water revenue bonds. After the effective date of this act, when the district adopts a general comprehensive plan or plans for an area annexed as provided for in RCW 57.16.010, the district shall include a long-term plan for the planned projects. The commissioners may employ such engineering and legal service as in their discretion is necessary in carrying out their duties.

The general comprehensive plan shall be adopted by resolution and submitted to an engineer designated by the legislative authority of the county in which fifty-one percent or more of the area of the district is located, and to the director of health of the county in which the district or any portion thereof is located, and must be approved in writing by the engineer and director of health. The general comprehensive plan shall be approved, conditionally approved, or rejected by the director of health within sixty days of the plan's receipt and by the designated engineer within sixty days of the plan's receipt.

Before becoming effective, the general comprehensive plan shall also be submitted to, and approved by resolution of, the legislative authority of every county within whose boundaries all or a portion of the water district lies. The general comprehensive plan shall be approved, conditionally approved, or rejected by each of these county legislative authorities pursuant to the criteria in RCW 57.02.040 for approving the formation, reorganization, annexation, consolidation, or merger of water districts, and the resolution, ordinance, or motion of the legislative body which rejects the comprehensive plan or a part thereof shall specifically state in what particular the comprehensive plan or part thereof rejected fails to meet these criteria. The legislative body may not impose requirements restricting the maximum size of the water supply facilities provided for in the comprehensive plan: PROVIDED, That nothing in this chapter shall preclude a county from rejecting a proposed plan because it is in conflict with the criteria in RCW 57.02.040. Each general comprehensive plan shall be deemed approved if the county legislative authority fails to reject or conditionally approve the plan within ninety days of the plan's submission to the county legislative authority or within thirty days of a hearing on the plan when the hearing is held within ninety days of submission to the county legislative authority: PROVIDED, That the water commissioners and the county legislative authority may mutually agree to an extension of the deadlines in this section. If the district includes portions or all of one or more cities or towns, the general comprehensive plan shall be submitted also to, and approved by resolution of, the legislative authority of cities and towns before becoming effective. The general comprehensive plan shall be deemed approved by the city or town legislative authority if the city or town legislative authority fails to reject or conditionally approve the plan within ninety days of the plan's submission to the city or town or within thirty days of a hearing on the plan when the hearing is held within ninety days of submission to the county legislative authority.

Before becoming effective, any amendment to, alteration of, or addition to, a general comprehensive plan shall also be subject to such approval as if it were a new general comprehensive plan: PROVIDED, That only if the amendment, alteration, or addition affects a particular city or town, shall the amendment, alteration or addition be subject to approval by such particular city or town legislative authority.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. If the water district approves an extension to the water system, the district shall contract with owners of real estate located within the district boundaries, at an owner's request, for the purpose of permitting extensions to the district's water system to be constructed by such owner at such owner's sole cost where such extensions are required as a prerequisite to further property development. The contract shall contain such conditions as the district may require pursuant to the district's adopted policies and standards. The district shall request comprehensive plan approval for such extension, if required, and connection of the extension to the district system is conditioned upon:

- (1) Construction of such extension according to plans and specifications approved by the district;
- (2) Inspection and approval of such extension by the district;
- (3) Transfer to the district of such extension without cost to the district upon acceptance by the district of such extension;
- (4) Payment of all required connection charges to the district;
- (5) Full compliance with the owner's obligations under such contract and with the district's rules and regulations;
- (6) Provision of sufficient security to the district to ensure completion of the extension and other performance under the contract;
- (7) Payment by the owner to the district of all of the district's costs associated with such extension including, but not limited to, the district's engineering, legal, and administrative costs; and
- (8) Verification and approval of all contracts and costs related to such extension.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. The contract shall also provide, subject to the terms and conditions in this section, for the reimbursement to the owner or the owner's assigns for a period not to exceed fifteen years of a portion of the costs of the water facilities constructed pursuant to such contract from connection charges received by the district from other property owners who subsequently connect to or use the water facilities within the fifteen-year period and who did not contribute to the original cost of such water facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The reimbursement shall be a pro rata share of construction and reimbursement of contract administration costs of the water project. Reimbursement for water projects shall include, but not be limited to, design, engineering, installation, and restoration.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The procedures for reimbursement contracts shall be governed by the following:

(1) A reimbursement area shall be formulated by the board of commissioners within a reasonable time after the acceptance of the extension. The reimbursement shall be based upon a determination by the board of commissioners of which parcels would require similar water improvements upon development.

(2) The contract must be recorded in the appropriate county auditor's office after the final execution of the agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. As an alternative to financing projects under this chapter solely by owners of real estate, a water district may join in the financing of improvement projects and may be reimbursed in the same manner as the owners of real estate who participate in the projects, if the water district has specified the conditions of its participation in a resolution.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. (1) Sections 4 through 8 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 56 RCW.

(2) Sections 11 through 15 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 57 RCW."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "charges;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 56.08.010, 56.16.030, 57.08.010, and 57.16.010; adding a new section to chapter 35.58 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 56 RCW; and adding a new chapter to Title 57 RCW."

ESSB 6033 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Energy & Utilities: Terminating the powers and duties of the nuclear waste board and the nuclear waste advisory board. Reported by Committee on Energy & Utilities

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 161, Laws of 1984 as amended by section 1, chapter 293, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.200.015 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) ~~("Board" means the nuclear waste board established in RCW 43.200.040.~~

(2) ~~"Federal department of energy" means the federal department of energy or any successor agency assigned responsibility for the long-term disposal of high-level radioactive waste.~~

(3) ~~"Nuclear regulatory commission" means the United States nuclear regulatory commission or any successor agency responsible for approving construction of a repository for the long-term disposal of high-level radioactive waste and spent nuclear fuel.~~

(4) ~~"Hanford candidate site" means the site identified by the United States department of energy as a potentially acceptable site for the disposal of spent nuclear fuel and high-level radioactive waste pursuant to the nuclear waste policy act of 1982.~~

(5) ~~"High-level radioactive waste" means "high-level radioactive waste" as the term is defined in 42 U.S.C. Sec. 10101 (P.L. 97-425).~~

~~((6)) (2) "Low-level radioactive waste" means waste material that contains radioactive nuclides emitting primarily beta or gamma radiation, or both, in concentrations or quantities that exceed applicable federal or state standards for unrestricted release. Low-level waste does not include waste containing more than one hundred nanocuries of transuranic contaminants per gram of material, nor spent (reactor) nuclear fuel, nor material classified as either high-level radioactive waste or waste that is unsuited for disposal by near-surface burial under any applicable federal regulations.~~

~~((7)) (3) "Radioactive waste" means both high-level and low-level radioactive waste.~~

~~((8)) (4) "Spent nuclear fuel" means spent nuclear fuel as the term is defined in 42 U.S.C. Sec. 10101.~~

~~((9)) (5) "Department" means the department of ecology.~~

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 19, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 161, Laws of 1984 and RCW 43.200.020 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((The nuclear waste board shall carry out the authority and responsibility set forth in this chapter.)) The department of ecology is designated as the executive branch agency for participation in the federal nuclear waste policy act of 1982 and the federal low-level radioactive~~ waste policy act of 1980, however the legislature retains an autonomous role with respect to participation in all aspects of the federal nuclear waste policy act of 1982. The ~~((board and the))~~ department may receive federal financial assistance for carrying out radioactive waste management activities, including assistance for expenses, salaries, travel, and monitoring and evaluating the program of repository exploration and siting undertaken by the federal government.

~~((The board shall submit a written report at least semiannually to the governor and to each member of the legislature on the radioactive waste program, its progress in carrying out its responsibilities, and any recommendations for legislative or administrative action that will improve the state's management and control activity in maximizing public health and safety.))~~

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 19, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 161, Laws of 1984 and RCW 43.200.030 are each amended to read as follows:

All departments, agencies, and officers of this state and its subdivisions shall cooperate with the ~~((board))~~ department of ecology in the furtherance of any of its activities pursuant to this chapter.

Sec. 4. Section 5, chapter 19, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 6, chapter 161, Laws of 1984 and RCW 43.200.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An advisory council is hereby established of ~~((not less than fifteen))~~ nineteen members, eleven of whom shall be appointed by the governor ((to provide advice)) and eight of whom shall be legislators. The advisory council shall advise, counsel, and make recommendations to the ((board)) department on all aspects of the radioactive waste management program. The council shall particularly advise the ((board)) department on maximizing opportunities for public involvement in the program, soliciting public input, and assisting in the need for wide understanding of the issues involved in nuclear waste management. The governor shall appoint the chairman of the advisory council ((who shall also serve as chairman of the nuclear waste board)).

(2) The nonlegislative members of the council appointed by the governor shall be selected from all areas of the state and shall include a broad range of citizens ((representatives of local governments, and representatives of such other interests as the governor determines will best further the purposes of this chapter)). A representative of an affected Indian tribe ((may)) shall be ((an ex officio nonvoting)) appointed by the governor as a member of the council. Terms of the nonlegislative council members shall not exceed two years and they shall continue to serve until their successors are appointed. Vacancies in a nonlegislative position shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments. ((Members may be reappointed.)) The governor may reappoint a nonlegislative member and may appoint a replacement for ((any)) a nonlegislative council member who is temporarily unable to fulfill the responsibilities required of a council member. The replacement shall serve at the pleasure of the governor. Nonlegislative members shall receive reimbursement for travel expenses incurred in the performance of their duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(3) Four members from the house of representatives shall be appointed to the council by the speaker of the house of representatives and four members from the senate shall be appointed by the president of the senate. No more than two members of each house may be of the same political party. The legislative members shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing officer. The legislative members shall receive reimbursement for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 44.04.120.

(4) The council shall hold its meetings at various locations within the state.

Sec. 5. Section 7, chapter 19, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 5, chapter 2, Laws of 1986 and RCW 43.200.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((board and/or the))~~ department of ecology shall adopt such rules as are necessary to carry out responsibilities under this chapter. The department of ecology is authorized to adopt such rules as are necessary to carry out its responsibilities under chapter 43.145 RCW.

Sec. 6. Section 14, chapter 161, Laws of 1984 as amended by section 4, chapter 293, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.200.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall provide administrative and technical staff support as requested by the ~~((board))~~ advisory council established by RCW 43.200.050. ((As directed by the board, the department shall be responsible for obtaining and coordinating technical expertise necessary for board participation in nuclear waste programs and shall be responsible for ongoing technical coordination and administration of program activities.)) Other state agencies shall assist the ~~((board))~~ council in fulfilling its duties to the fullest extent possible. The ~~((board and/or the))~~ department may contract with other state agencies to obtain expertise or input uniquely available from that agency. ~~((The board may contract with private parties to obtain expertise or input necessary to perform any study required in this chapter, for which it shall seek funding from the federal government.))~~

SSB 6061 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Energy & Utilities: Requiring the state patrol to develop a permanent working group to periodically review guidelines and response capabilities to radioactive materials and waste. Reported by Committee on Appropriations

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments by Committee on Appropriations and without amendments by Committee on Energy & Utilities:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 46.48 RCW to read as follows:

The Washington state patrol is directed to develop a permanent working group or use an existing working group to periodically review guidelines and response capabilities pertaining to radioactive materials and radioactive waste. Members of the group shall include representatives of the office of radiation protection of the department of social and health services, the division of emergency management of the department of community development, county sheriffs, and any other entity chosen by the chief.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 46.48 RCW to read as follows:

The Washington state patrol, with the assistance of the division of emergency management and the office of radiation protection, shall prepare and submit to the governor and the committees on energy and utilities of the house of representatives and the senate by January 1 of each year a comprehensive report on the use and transportation of radioactive materials in this state and provide an evaluation of the adequacy of emergency response capability to any accidents involving radioactive materials. The report shall include but need not be limited to:

(1) The uses and scope of radioactive materials throughout the state;

(2) Statistical data on the number of radioactive materials shipments in the state including, to the extent feasible, the nature of the materials, their source, and their destination;

(3) A brief description and compilation of any accidents and casualties or incidents in the state involving the transportation of radioactive materials;

(4) Other statistical data regarding the shipment of radioactive materials;

(5) A summary of outstanding problems confronting the agency in the administration of this chapter; and

(6) Such recommendations for additional legislation as is considered necessary or appropriate."

ESSJR 8202 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Law & Justice: Amending the Constitution to change provisions relating to the commission on judicial conduct. Reported by Committee on Judiciary

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 8, after "31." strike all material through "commission," on line 19

On page 2, after line 27, insert the following:

(1) There shall be a commission on judicial conduct, existing as an independent agency of the judicial branch, and consisting of a judge selected by and from the court of appeals judges, a judge selected by and from the superior court judges, a judge selected by and from the district court judges, two persons admitted to the practice of law in this state selected by the state bar association, and six persons who are not attorneys appointed by the governor and confirmed by the senate.

(2) Whenever the commission receives a complaint against a judge or justice, or otherwise has reason to believe that a judge or justice should be admonished, reprimanded, censured, suspended, removed, or retired, the commission shall first investigate the complaint or belief and then conduct confidential initial proceedings for the purpose of determining whether probable cause exists for conducting a public hearing or hearings to deal with the complaint or belief. Upon beginning an investigation, the commission shall notify the judge or justice of the existence of and basis for the investigation.

(3) Whenever the commission concludes, based on an initial proceeding, that there is probable cause to believe that a judge or justice has violated a rule of judicial conduct or that the judge or justice suffers from a disability which is permanent or likely to become permanent and which seriously interferes with the performance of judicial duties, the commission shall conduct a public hearing or hearings and shall make public all those records of the initial proceeding that provide the basis for its conclusion. If the commission concludes that there is not probable cause, it shall notify the judge or justice of its conclusion.

(4) Upon the completion of the hearing or hearings, the commission in open session shall either dismiss the case, or shall admonish, reprimand, or censure the judge or justice, or shall censure the judge or justice and recommend to the supreme court the suspension or removal of the judge or justice, or shall recommend to the supreme court the retirement of the judge or justice. The commission may not recommend suspension or removal unless it censures the judge or justice for the violation serving as the basis for the recommendation. The commission may recommend retirement of a judge or justice for a disability which is permanent or likely to become permanent and which seriously interferes with the performance of judicial duties.

(5) Upon the recommendation of the commission, the supreme court may suspend, remove, or retire a judge or justice. The office of a judge or justice retired or removed by the supreme court becomes vacant, and that person is ineligible for judicial office until eligibility is reinstated by the supreme court. The salary of a removed judge or justice shall cease. The supreme court shall specify the effect upon salary when it suspends a judge or justice. The supreme court may not suspend, remove, or retire a judge or justice until the commission, after notice and hearing, recommends that action be taken, and the supreme court conducts a hearing, after notice, to review commission proceedings and findings against the judge or justice.

(6) Within thirty days after the commission admonishes, reprimands, or censures a judge or justice, the judge or justice may petition the supreme court to have the action of the commission reversed or modified. The supreme court may reverse or modify the commission's action if substantial rights of the judge or justice have been prejudiced because the commission's findings, inferences, conclusions, or decisions are:

(a) In violation of constitutional provisions; or

(b) In excess of the authority or jurisdiction of the agency; or

(c) Made upon unlawful procedure; or

(d) Affected by other error of law; or

(e) Clearly erroneous in view of the entire record and the public policy contained in the law authorizing the decision.

(7) Any matter before the commission or supreme court may be disposed of by a stipulation entered into in a public proceeding. The stipulation shall be signed by the judge or justice and the commission or court. The stipulation may impose any terms and conditions deemed appropriate by the commission or court. A stipulation shall set forth all material facts relating to the proceeding and the conduct of the judge or justice.

(8) Whenever the commission adopts a recommendation that a judge or justice be removed, the judge or justice shall be suspended immediately, with salary, from his or her judicial position until a final determination is made by the supreme court.

(9) The legislature shall provide for commissioners' terms of office and compensation. The commission shall employ one or more investigative officers with appropriate professional training and experience. The investigative officers of the commission shall report directly to the commission. The commission shall also employ such administrative or other staff as are necessary to manage the affairs of the commission.

(10) The commission shall, to the extent that compliance does not conflict with this section, comply with laws of general applicability to state agencies with respect to rule-making procedures, and with respect to public notice of and attendance at commission proceedings other than initial proceedings. The commission shall establish rules of procedure for commission proceedings including due process and confidentiality of proceedings.

2SSB 5375 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Ways & Means: Establishing a DNA identification system. Reported by Committee on Appropriations

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments by Committee on Appropriations and without amendments by Committee on Judiciary:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that recent developments in molecular biology and genetics have important applications for forensic science. It has been scientifically established that there is a unique pattern to the chemical structure of the deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) contained in each cell of the human body. The process for identifying this pattern is called 'DNA identification.'

The legislature further finds that the accuracy of identification provided by this method is superior to that of any presently existing technique and recognizes the importance of this scientific breakthrough in providing a reliable and accurate tool for the investigation and prosecution of sex offenses as defined in RCW 9.94A.030(26) and violent offenses as defined in RCW 9.94A.030(29).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) To support criminal justice services in the local communities throughout this state, the state patrol in consultation with the University of Washington school of medicine shall develop a plan and safeguards for a DNA identification system and, after July 1, 1990, and legislative approval of the plan and safeguards, shall establish a DNA identification system. In implementing the plan, the state patrol shall purchase the appropriate equipment and supplies. The state patrol shall procure the most efficient equipment available.

(2) The DNA identification system as established shall be compatible with that utilized by the federal bureau of investigation.

(3) The state patrol and the University of Washington school of medicine shall report on the proposed DNA identification system to the legislature no later than November 1, 1989. The report shall include a time line for implementing each stage, a local agency financial participation analysis, a system analysis, a full cost/purchase analysis, a vendor bid evaluation, and a space location analysis that includes a site determination. The state patrol shall coordinate the preparation of this report with the office of financial management.

The Washington state patrol in cooperation with the University of Washington school of medicine shall also develop a program for the proper administration and collection of blood samples. This program shall include requirements that the blood samples be taken under sanitary conditions in a medically approved manner by a physician, registered nurse, or licensed phlebotomist.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. After July 1, 1990, and legislative adoption of appropriate safeguards, every individual convicted in a Washington superior court of a felony defined as a sex offense under RCW 9.94A.030(26)(a) or a violent offense as defined in RCW 9.94A.030(29) shall have a blood sample drawn for purposes of DNA identification analysis before release from or transfer to a state correctional institution or county jail or detention facility. Any blood sample taken pursuant to section 2 of this act, this section, and sections 4 and 5 of this act shall be used solely for the purpose of providing DNA or other blood grouping tests for identification analysis and prosecution of a sex offense or a violent offense.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The state patrol in consultation with the University of Washington school of medicine may:

(1) Provide assistance to law enforcement officials and prosecutors in the preparation and utilization of DNA evidence for presentation in court; and

(2) Provide expert testimony in court on DNA evidentiary issues.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) No local law enforcement agency may establish or operate a DNA identification system before July 1, 1990.

(2) No local law enforcement agency may establish or operate a DNA identification system after June 30, 1990 unless:

(a) The equipment of the local system is compatible with that of the state system under section 2 of this act;

(b) The local system is equipped to receive and answer inquiries from the Washington state patrol DNA identification system and transmit data to the Washington state patrol DNA identification system; and

(c) The procedure and rules for the collection, analysis, storage, expungement, and use of DNA identification data do not conflict with procedures and rules applicable to the state patrol DNA identification system.

(3) The Washington state patrol shall adopt rules to implement this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 1 through 5 of this act are each added to chapter 43.43 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Any moneys received by the state from the federal bureau of justice assistance shall be used to conserve state funds if not inconsistent with the terms of the grant. To the extent that federal funds are available for the purposes of this act, state funds appropriated in this section shall lapse and revert to the general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The sum of six hundred ten thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, from the general fund to the state patrol for the purposes of this act. The state patrol may not use any state, federal, or private funds to implement or establish a DNA identification system data bank prior to July 1, 1990 and prior to the legislature's adoption of safeguards for the collection, analysis, storage, expungement, and use of DNA identification data.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "identification," strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding new sections to chapter 43.43 RCW; creating a new section; and making an appropriation."

SSB 5866 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Governmental Operations: Permitting the use of credit cards to pay certain taxes. Reported by Committee on Revenue

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 7, chapter 42, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 39.88.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any taxing district that objects to the apportionment district, the duration of the apportionment, the manner of apportionment, or the propriety of cost items established by the public improvement ordinance of the sponsor may, within thirty days after ((receipt)) mailing of the ordinance, petition for review thereof by the state board of tax appeals. The state board of tax appeals shall meet within a reasonable time, hear all the evidence presented by the parties on matters in dispute, and determine the issues upon the evidence as may be presented to it at the hearing. The board may approve or deny the public improvement ordinance as enacted or may grant approval conditioned upon modification of the ordinance by the sponsor. The decision by the state board of tax appeals shall be final and conclusive but shall not preclude modification or discontinuation of the public improvement.

(2) If the sponsor modifies the public improvement ordinance as directed by the board, the public improvement ordinance shall be effective without further hearings or findings and shall not be subject to any further appeal. If the sponsor modifies the public improvement ordinance in a manner other than as directed by the board, the public improvement ordinance shall be subject to the procedures established pursuant to RCW 39.88.040 and 39.88.050.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 129, Laws of 1893 as last amended by section 74, chapter 195, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 58.08.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person filing a plat, replat, altered plat, binding site plan, or condominium plan subsequent to May 31st in any year and prior to the date of the collection of taxes, shall deposit with the county treasurer a sum equal to the product of the county assessor's latest valuation on the unimproved property in such subdivision multiplied by the current year's dollar rate increased by twenty-five percent on the property platted. The treasurer's receipt for said amount shall be taken by the auditor as evidence of the payment of the tax. The treasurer shall appropriate so much of said deposit as will pay the taxes on the said property when the tax rolls are placed in his hands for collection, and in case the sum deposited is in excess of the amount necessary for the payment of the said taxes, the treasurer shall return, to the party depositing, the amount of said excess, taking his receipt therefor, which receipt shall be accepted for its face value on the treasurer's quarterly settlement with the county auditor.

Sec. 3. Section 106, chapter 21, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 79.94.210 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The legislature finds that maintaining public lands in public ownership is often in the public interest. However, when second class shorelands on navigable lakes have minimal public value, the sale of those shorelands to the abutting upland owner may not be contrary to the public interest: PROVIDED, That the purpose of this section is to remove the prohibition contained in RCW 79.94.150 regarding the sale of second class shorelands to abutting owners, whose uplands front on the shorelands. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to otherwise affect the rights of interested parties relating to public or private ownership of shorelands within the state.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 79.94.150, the department of natural resources may sell second class shorelands on navigable lakes to abutting owners whose uplands front upon the shorelands in cases where the board of natural resources has determined that these sales would not be contrary to the public interest. These shorelands shall be sold at fair market value, but not less than five percent of the fair market value of the abutting upland, less improvements, to a maximum depth of one hundred and fifty feet landward from the line of ordinary high water.

(3) Review of the decision of the department regarding the sale price established for a shoreland to be sold pursuant to this section may be obtained by the upland owner by filing a petition with the board of tax appeals created in accordance with chapter 82.03 RCW within thirty days ~~((of the date the department notified))~~ after the mailing of notification by the department to the owner regarding the price. The board of tax appeals shall review such cases in ~~((a contested case))~~ an adjudicative proceeding as described in chapter: ~~((34.04))~~ 34.05 RCW, the administrative procedure act, and the board's review shall be de novo. Decisions of the board of tax appeals regarding fair market values determined pursuant to this section shall be final unless appealed to the superior court pursuant to RCW ~~((34.04.130))~~ 34.05.510 through 34.05.598.

Sec. 4. Section 42, chapter 26, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 6, chapter 46, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 82.03.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall have jurisdiction to decide the following types of appeals:

(1) Appeals taken pursuant to RCW 82.03.190.

(2) Appeals from a county board of equalization pursuant to RCW 84.08.130.

(3) Appeals by an assessor or landowner from an order of the director of revenue made pursuant to RCW 84.08.010 and 84.08.060, if filed with the board of tax appeals within thirty days after the mailing of the order, the right to such an appeal being hereby established.

(4) Appeals by an assessor or owner of an intercounty public utility or private car company from determinations by the director of revenue of equalized assessed valuation of property and the apportionment thereof to a county made pursuant to chapter 84.12 RCW and 84.16 RCW, if filed with the board of tax appeals within thirty days after mailing of the determination, the right to such appeal being hereby established.

(5) Appeals by an assessor, landowner, or owner of an intercounty public utility or private car company from a determination of any county indicated ratio for such county compiled by the department of revenue pursuant to RCW 84.48.075: PROVIDED, That

(a) Said appeal be filed after review of the ratio under RCW 84.48.075(3) and not later than fifteen days after the ~~((date of))~~ mailing of the certification ~~((as required by RCW 84.48.075));~~ and

(b) The hearing before the board shall be expeditiously held in accordance with rules prescribed by the board and shall take precedence over all matters of the same character.

(6) Appeals from the decisions of sale price of second class shorelands on navigable lakes by the department of natural resources pursuant to RCW 79.94.210.

(7) Appeals from urban redevelopment property tax apportionment district proposals established by governmental ordinances pursuant to RCW 39.88.060.

(8) Appeals from interest rates as determined by the department of revenue for use in valuing farmland under current use assessment pursuant to RCW 84.34.065.

(9) Appeals from revisions to stumpage value tables used to determine value by the department of revenue pursuant to RCW 84.33.091.

(10) Appeals from denial of tax exemption application by the department of revenue pursuant to RCW 84.36.850.

Sec. 5. Section 48, chapter 26, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 211, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 and RCW 82.03.190 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person having received notice of a denial of a petition or a notice of determination made under RCW 82.32.160 ~~((or)), 82.32.170, 82.34.110, or 82.49.060~~ may appeal, within thirty days ~~((from the date))~~ after the mailing of the notice of such denial or determination, to the board of tax appeals. In the notice of appeal the taxpayer shall set forth the amount of the tax which ~~((he))~~ the taxpayer contends should be reduced or refunded and the reasons for such reduction or refund, in accordance with rules of practice and procedure prescribed by the board. ~~((The appeal shall be perfected by serving))~~ A copy of the notice of appeal ~~((upon))~~ shall be provided to the department ~~((of revenue))~~ within the time specified ~~((herein and by filing the original thereof with proof of service with the clerk of the board. PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That))~~ in the rules of practice and procedure prescribed by the board. However, if the notice of appeal relates to an application made to the department ~~((of revenue))~~ under chapter 82.34 RCW, the taxpayer shall set forth the amount to which the taxpayer claims the credit or exemption should apply, and the grounds for such contention, in accordance with rules of practice and procedure prescribed by the board. If the taxpayer intends that the hearing before the board be held pursuant to the administrative procedure act (chapter ~~((34.04))~~ 34.05 RCW), the notice of appeal shall also so state. In the event that the notice of appeal does not so state, the department may, within ~~((ten))~~ thirty days from the date of its receipt of the notice of appeal, file with ~~((the clerk of))~~ the board notice of its intention that the hearing be held pursuant to the administrative procedure act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 84.04 RCW to read as follows:

'Legal description' shall be given its commonly accepted meaning, but for property tax purposes, the parcel number is sufficient for the legal description.

Sec. 7. Section 84.08.130, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 8, chapter 222, Laws of 1988 and RCW 84.08.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Any taxpayer or taxing unit feeling aggrieved by the action of any county board of equalization may appeal to the board of tax appeals by filing with the county auditor a notice of appeal in duplicate within thirty days after the mailing of the decision of such board of equalization, which notice shall specify the actions complained of, and said auditor shall forthwith transmit one of said notices to the board of tax appeals; and in like manner any county assessor may appeal to the board of tax appeals from any action of any county board of equalization. There shall be no fee charged for the filing of an appeal. The petitioner shall provide a copy of the notice of appeal to all named parties within the time period provided in the rules of practice and procedure of the board of tax appeals. Appeals which are not filed as provided in this section shall be continued or dismissed. The board of tax appeals shall require the board appealed from to file a true and correct copy of its decision in such action and all evidence taken in connection therewith, and may receive further evidence, and shall make such order as in its judgment is just and proper.

Sec. 8. Section 84.09.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 82, Laws of 1987 and by section 1, chapter 358, Laws of 1987 and RCW 84.09.030 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of property taxation and the levy of property taxes the boundaries of counties, cities and all other taxing districts shall be the established official boundaries of such districts existing on the first day of March of the year in which the levy is made, and no such levy shall be made for any taxing district whose boundaries were not duly established on the first day of March of such year. Boundaries for port districts newly formed by election, with boundaries coterminous with other taxing district boundaries established prior to the first day of March, shall be the established official boundaries existing on the first day of October following formation. However, the boundaries of a taxing district shall be established on the first day of June of the year in which the property tax levy is made whenever the taxing district has incorporated that year and has boundaries coterminous with the boundaries of another taxing district, as they existed on the first day of March of that year, or the boundaries of a taxing district have been altered that year by removing or adding territory with boundaries coterminous with the boundaries of another taxing district to the taxing district as they existed on the first day of March of that year. In any case where any instrument setting forth the official boundaries of any newly established taxing district, or setting forth any change in such boundaries, is required by law to be filed in the office of the county auditor or other county official, said instrument shall be filed in triplicate. The officer with whom such instrument is filed shall transmit two copies to the county assessor.

Sec. 9. Section 5, chapter 138, Laws of 1987 and RCW 84.09.035 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 84.09.030, the boundaries of a library district, metropolitan park district, fire protection district, or public hospital district that withdraws an area from its boundaries pursuant to RCW 27.12.355, 35.61.360, 52.04.056, or 70.44.235, which area has boundaries that are coterminous with the boundaries of a (~~taxing district~~) tax code area, shall be established as of the first day of October in the year in which the area is withdrawn.

Sec. 10. Section 10, chapter 212, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.34.065 are each amended to read as follows:

The true and fair value of farm and agricultural land shall be determined by consideration of the earning or productive capacity of comparable lands from crops grown most typically in the area averaged over not less than five years, capitalized at indicative rates. The earning or productive capacity of farm and agricultural lands shall be the 'net cash rental', capitalized at a 'rate of interest' charged on long term loans secured by a mortgage on farm or agricultural land plus a component for property taxes.

For the purposes of the above computation:

(1) The term 'net cash rental' shall mean the average rental paid on an annual basis, in cash or its equivalent, for the land being appraised and other farm and agricultural land of similar quality and similarly situated that is available for lease for a period of at least three years to any reliable person without unreasonable restrictions on its use for production of agricultural crops. There shall be allowed as a deduction from the rental received or computed any costs of crop production charged against the landlord if the costs are such as are customarily paid by a landlord. If 'net cash rental' data is not available, the earning or productive capacity of farm and agricultural lands shall be determined by the cash value of typical or usual crops grown on land of similar quality and similarly situated averaged over not less than five years. Standard costs of production shall be allowed as a deduction from the cash value of the crops.

The current 'net cash rental' or 'earning capacity' shall be determined by the assessor with the advice of the advisory committee as provided in RCW 84.34.145, and through a continuing study within his office, assisted by studies of the department of revenue. This net cash rental figure as it applies to any farm and agricultural land may be challenged before the same boards or authorities as would be the case with regard to assessed values on general property.

(2) The term 'rate of interest' shall mean the rate of interest charged by the farm credit administration and other large financial institutions regularly making loans secured by farm and agricultural lands through mortgages or similar legal instruments, averaged over the immediate past five years.

The 'rate of interest' shall be determined annually by adoption of a rule by the revenue department of the state of Washington, and such (~~determination~~) rule shall be published in the state register not later than January 1 of each year for use in that assessment year. The determination of the revenue department may be appealed to the state board of tax appeals within thirty days after the date of publication by any owner of farm or agricultural land or the assessor of any county containing farm and agricultural land.

(3) The 'component for property taxes' shall be a percentage equal to the estimated millage rate times the legal assessment ratio.

Sec. 11. Section 8, chapter 169, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as amended by section 17, chapter 291, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.36.470 are each amended to read as follows:

The following property shall be exempt from taxation: Any agricultural or horticultural produce or crop, including any animal, bird, or insect, or the milk, eggs, wool, fur, meat, honey, or other substance obtained therefrom grown or produced for sale by any person upon his own lands or upon lands in which he has a present right of possession who is exempted from payment of business and occupation tax pursuant to RCW 82.04.330 (~~as now or hereafter amended shall be assessed for the purposes of ad valorem taxes according to the following schedule:~~

~~Commencing with assessment as of January 1, 1975, for taxes due in 1976 the assessment level shall be seventy-five percent of true and fair value.~~

~~Commencing with assessment as of January 1, 1976, for taxes due in 1977 the assessment level shall be seventy percent of true and fair value.~~

~~Commencing with assessment as of January 1, 1977, for taxes due in 1978 the assessment level shall be sixty percent of true and fair value.~~

~~Commencing with assessment as of January 1, 1978, for taxes due in 1979 the assessment level shall be fifty percent of true and fair value.~~

~~Commencing with assessment as of January 1, 1979, for taxes due in 1980 the assessment level shall be forty percent of true and fair value.~~

~~Commencing with assessment as of January 1, 1980, for taxes due in 1981 the assessment level shall be thirty percent of true and fair value.~~

~~Commencing with assessment as of January 1, 1981, for taxes due in 1982 the assessment level shall be twenty percent of true and fair value.~~

~~Commencing with assessment as of January 1, 1982, for taxes due in 1983 the assessment level shall be ten percent of true and fair value.~~

~~Commencing with assessment as of January 1, 1983, for taxes due in 1984 such inventories shall be fully exempt under chapter 84.36 RCW.~~

~~Commencing with January 1, 1983, assessments for taxes due in 1984. Taxpayers shall not be required to report, or assessors to list, the inventories covered by this (phase-out) exemption.~~

Nothing in this section shall be construed to remove or otherwise affect any exemption from assessment granted by RCW 84.44.060.

Sec. 12. Section 16, chapter 40, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 84.36.850 are each amended to read as follows:

Any applicant aggrieved by the department of revenue's denial of an exemption application may petition the state board of tax appeals to review an application for either real or personal property tax exemption and the board shall consider any appeals to determine (1) if the property is entitled to an exemption, and (2) the amount or portion thereof.

A county assessor of the county in which the exempted property is located shall be empowered to appeal to the state board of tax appeals to review any real or personal property tax exemption approved by the department of revenue which he feels is not warranted.

Appeals from a department of revenue decision must be made within thirty days (~~of the notification~~) after the mailing of the approval or denial.

Sec. 13. Section 25, chapter 222, Laws of 1988 and RCW 84.48.065 are each amended to read as follows:

The county assessor or treasurer may cancel or correct assessments on the assessment or tax rolls which are erroneous due to manifest errors in description, double assessments, clerical errors in extending the rolls, and such manifest errors in the listing of the property which do not involve a revaluation of property, such as the assessment of property exempted by law from taxation or the failure to deduct the exemption allowed by law to the head of a family. When the county assessor cancels or corrects an assessment, the assessor shall send a notice to the taxpayer advising the taxpayer that the action of the county assessor is not final and shall be considered by the county board of equalization, and that such notice shall constitute legal notice of such fact. When the county assessor or treasurer cancels or corrects an assessment, a record of such action shall be prepared and filed with the county board of equalization, setting forth therein the facts relating to the error. The record shall also set forth by legal description all property belonging exclusively to the state, any county, or any municipal corporation whose property is exempt from taxation, upon which there remains, according to the tax roll, any unpaid taxes.

The county board of equalization shall consider only such matters as appear in the record filed with it by the county assessor or treasurer and shall correct only such matters as are set forth in the record, but it shall have no power to change or alter the assessment of any person, or change the aggregate value of the taxable property of the county, except insofar as it is necessary to correct the errors mentioned in this section. If the county board of equalization finds that the action of the assessor was not correct, it shall issue a supplementary roll including such corrections as are necessary, and the assessment and levy shall have the same force and effect as if made in the first instance, and the county treasurer shall proceed to collect the taxes due on the supplementary roll. The board shall make findings of the facts upon which it bases its decision on all matters submitted to it, and when so made the assessment and levy shall have the same force as if made in the first instance, and the county treasurer shall proceed to collect the taxes due on the rolls as modified.

The county board of equalization shall convene on a day fixed by the board for the purpose of considering such matters as appear in the record filed by the county assessor or treasurer.

Sec. 14. Section 1, chapter 156, Laws of 1987 and RCW 84.52.018 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any property value or claim for exemption or cancellation of a property assessment is appealed to the state board of tax appeals or court of competent jurisdiction and the dollar difference between the total value asserted by the taxpayer and the total value asserted by the opposing party exceeds one-fourth of one percent of the total assessed value of property in the county, the assessor shall use only that portion of the total value which is not in controversy for purposes of computing the levy rates and extending the tax on the tax roll in accordance with this chapter, unless the state board of tax appeals has issued its determination at the time of extending the tax.

When the state board of tax appeals or court of competent jurisdiction makes its final determination, the proper amount of tax shall be extended and collected for each taxing district if this has not already been done. The amount of tax collected and extended shall include interest at the rate of nine percent per year on the amount of the board's final determination minus the amount not in controversy. The interest shall accrue from the date the amount not in controversy was first due and payable. Any amount extended in excess of that permitted by chapter 84.55 RCW shall be held in abeyance and used to reduce the levy rates of the next succeeding levy.

Sec. 15. Section 84.52.080, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 29, chapter 222, Laws of 1988 and RCW 84.52.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The county assessor shall extend the taxes upon the tax rolls in the form herein prescribed. The rate percent necessary to raise the amounts of taxes levied for state and county purposes, and for purposes of taxing districts coextensive with the county, shall be computed upon the assessed value of the property of the county; the rate percent necessary to raise the amount of taxes levied for any taxing district within the county shall be computed upon the assessed value of the property of the district; all taxes assessed against any property shall be added together and extended on the rolls in a column headed consolidated or total tax. In extending any tax, whenever it amounts to a fractional part of a cent greater than five mills it shall be made one cent, and whenever it amounts to five mills or less than five mills it shall be dropped. The amount of all taxes shall be entered in the proper columns, as shown by entering the rate percent necessary to raise the consolidated or total tax and the total tax assessed against the property.

(2) For the purpose of computing the rate necessary to raise the amount of any excess levy in a taxing district which has classified or designated forest land under chapter 84.33 RCW, other than the state, the county assessor shall add the district's timber assessed value, as defined in RCW 84.33.035, to the assessed value of the property: PROVIDED, That for school districts maintenance and operations levies only one-half of the district's timber assessed value or eighty percent of the timber roll of such district in calendar year 1983 as determined under chapter 84.33 RCW, whichever is greater, shall be added.

(3) Upon the completion of such tax extension, it shall be the duty of the county assessor to make in each assessment book, tax roll or list a certificate in the following form:

I,, assessor of county, state of Washington, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a correct list of taxes levied on the real and personal property in the county of for the year one thousand nine hundred and Witness my hand this day of, 19....

..... County Assessor

(4) The county assessor shall deliver said tax rolls to the county treasurer, on or before the fifteenth day of January, taking receipt therefor, and at the same time the county assessor shall provide the county auditor with an abstract of the tax rolls showing the total amount of taxes collectible in each of the taxing districts.

Sec. 16, Section 84.69.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 228, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.69.020 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((On order of the board of county commissioners or other county legislative authority of any county:))~~ Ad valorem taxes paid before or after delinquency shall be refunded if they were:

- (1) Paid more than once; or
- (2) Paid as a result of manifest error in description; or
- (3) Paid as a result of a clerical error in extending the tax rolls; or
- (4) Paid as a result of other clerical errors in listing property; or
- (5) Paid with respect to improvements which did not exist on assessment date; or
- (6) Paid under levies or statutes adjudicated to be illegal or unconstitutional; or
- (7) Paid as a result of mistake, inadvertence, or lack of knowledge by any person exempted from paying real property taxes or a portion thereof pursuant to RCW 84.36.381 through 84.36.389, as now or hereafter amended; or

(8) Paid or overpaid as a result of mistake, inadvertence, or lack of knowledge by either a public official or employee or by any person paying the same or paid as a result of mistake, inadvertence, or lack of knowledge by either a public official or employee or by any person paying the same with respect to real property in which the person paying the same has no legal interest; or

(9) Paid on the basis of an assessed valuation which was appealed to the county board of equalization and ordered reduced by the board; or

(10) Paid on the basis of an assessed valuation which was appealed to the state board of tax appeals and ordered reduced by the board: PROVIDED, That the amount refunded under subsections (9) and (10) shall only be for the difference between the tax paid on the basis of the appealed valuation and the tax payable on the valuation adjusted in accordance with the board's order; or

(11) Paid as a state property tax levied upon ~~((county assessed))~~ property, the assessed value of which has been established by the state board of tax appeals for the year of such levy: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the amount refunded shall only be for the difference between the state property tax paid and the amount of state property tax which would, when added to all other property taxes within the one percent limitation of Article VII, section 2 (Amendment 59) of the state Constitution equal one percent of the assessed value established by the board: ~~((or))~~

(12) Paid on the basis of an assessed valuation which was adjudicated to be unlawful or excessive: PROVIDED, That the amount refunded shall be for the difference between the amount of tax which was paid on the basis of the valuation adjudged unlawful or excessive and the amount of tax payable on the basis of the assessed valuation determined as a result of the proceeding; or

(13) Paid on property acquired under RCW 84.60.050, and canceled under RCW 84.60.050(2).

No refunds under the provisions of this section shall be made because of any error in determining the valuation of property, except as authorized in subsections (9), (10), (11), and (12).

The county treasurer of each county shall, by the first Monday in January of each year, report to the county legislative authority a list of all refunds made under this section during the previous year. The list is to include the name of the person receiving the refund, the amount of the refund, and the reason for the refund.

Sec. 17. Section 84.69.060, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 32, chapter 222, Laws of 1988 and RCW 84.69.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Refunds ordered under this chapter with respect to county, state, and taxing district taxes shall be paid by checks drawn upon the appropriate fund by the county treasurer: PROVIDED, That in making refunds on a levy code or tax code basis, the county treasurer may make an adjustment on the next property tax payment due for the amount of the refund unless the taxpayer requests immediate refund.

Sec. 18. Section 82.32.050, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 16, chapter 299, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.32.050 are each amended to read as follows:

If upon examination of any returns or from other information obtained by the department it appears that a tax or penalty has been paid less than that properly due, the department shall assess against the taxpayer such additional amount found to be due and ~~((as to assessments made on and after May 1, 1965, including assessments for additional tax or penalties due prior to that date))~~ shall add thereto interest at the rate of nine percent per annum from the last day of the year in which the deficiency is incurred until date of payment. The department shall notify the taxpayer by mail of the additional amount and the same shall become due and shall be paid within ~~((ten))~~ thirty days from the date of the notice, or within such further time as the department may provide. If payment is not received by the department by the due date specified in the notice, or any extension thereof, the department shall add a penalty of ten percent of the amount of the additional tax found due. If the department finds that all or any part of the deficiency resulted from an intent to evade the tax payable hereunder, a further penalty of fifty percent of the additional tax found to be due shall be added.

No assessment or correction of an assessment for additional taxes due may be made by the department more than four years after the close of the tax year, except (1) against a taxpayer who has not registered as required by this chapter, (2) upon a showing of fraud or of misrepresentation of a material fact by the taxpayer, or (3) where a taxpayer has executed a written waiver of such limitation.

Sec. 19. Section 82.32.060, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 4, chapter 95, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 82.32.060 are each amended to read as follows:

If, upon receipt of an application by a taxpayer for a refund or for an audit of ~~((his))~~ the taxpayer's records, or upon an examination of the returns or records of any taxpayer, it is determined by the department that within the statutory period for assessment of taxes prescribed by RCW 82.32.050 a tax has been paid in excess of that properly due, the excess amount paid within such period shall be credited to the taxpayer's account or shall be refunded to the taxpayer, at ~~((his))~~ the taxpayer's option. No refund or credit shall be made for taxes paid more than four years prior to the beginning of the calendar year in which the refund application is made or examination of records is completed.

Notwithstanding the foregoing limitations there shall be refunded or credited to taxpayers engaged in the performance of United States government contracts or subcontracts the amount of any tax paid, measured by that portion of the amounts received from the United States, which the taxpayer is required by contract or applicable federal statute to refund or credit to the United States, if claim for such refund is filed by the taxpayer with the department within one year of the date that the amount of the refund or credit due to the United States is finally determined and filed within four years of the date on which the tax was paid: PROVIDED, That no interest shall be allowed on such refund.

Any such refunds shall be made by means of vouchers approved by the department and by the issuance of state warrants drawn upon and payable from such funds as the legislature may provide.

Any judgment for which a recovery is granted by any court of competent jurisdiction, not appealed from, for tax, penalties, and interest which were paid by the taxpayer, and costs, in a suit by any taxpayer shall be paid in like manner, upon the filing with the department of a certified copy of the order or judgment of the court. Except as to the credits in computing tax authorized by RCW 82.04.435, interest at the rate of three percent per annum shall be allowed by the department and by any court on the amount of any refund or recovery allowed to a taxpayer for taxes, penalties, or interest paid by ~~((him after May 1, 1949, and interest at the same rate shall be allowed on any judgment recovered by a taxpayer for taxes, penalties, or interest paid after such date))~~ the taxpayer.

Sec. 20. Section 82.32.100, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 20, chapter 299, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.32.100 are each amended to read as follows:

If any person fails or refuses to make any return or to make available for examination the records required by this chapter, the department shall proceed, in such manner as it may deem best, to obtain facts and information on which to base its estimate of the tax; and to this end the department may examine the books, records, and papers of any such person and may take evidence, on oath, of any person, relating to the subject of inquiry.

As soon as the department procures such facts and information as it is able to obtain upon which to base the assessment of any tax payable by any person who has failed or refused to make a return, it shall proceed to determine and assess against such person the tax and penalties due, but such action shall not deprive such person from appealing to the superior court as hereinafter provided. To the assessment the department shall add(~~(?)~~) the penalties provided in RCW 82.32.090. The department shall notify the taxpayer by mail of the total amount of such tax, penalties, and interest, and the total amount shall become due and shall be paid within (~~(ten)~~) thirty days from the date of such notice.

No assessment or correction of an assessment may be made by the department more than four years after the close of the tax year, except (1) against a taxpayer who has not registered as required by this chapter, (2) upon a showing of fraud or of misrepresentation of a material fact by the taxpayer, or (3) where a taxpayer has executed a written waiver of such limitation.

Sec. 21. Section 82.32.160, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 4, chapter 158, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 82.32.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person having been issued a notice of additional taxes, delinquent taxes, interest, or penalties assessed by the department (~~(of revenue)~~), may within (~~(twenty)~~) thirty days after the issuance of the original notice of the amount thereof or within the period covered by any extension of the due date thereof granted by the department petition the department in writing for a correction of the amount of the assessment, and a conference for examination and review of the assessment. The petition shall set forth the reasons why the correction should be granted and the amount of the tax, interest, or penalties, which the petitioner believes to be due. The department shall promptly consider the petition and may grant or deny it. If denied, the petitioner shall be notified by mail thereof forthwith. If a conference is granted, the department shall fix the time and place therefor and notify the petitioner thereof by mail. After the conference the department may make such determination as may appear to it to be just and lawful and shall mail a copy of its determination to the petitioner. If no such petition is filed within the (~~(twenty-day)~~) thirty-day period the assessment covered by the notice shall become final.

The procedures provided for herein shall apply also to a notice denying, in whole or in part, an application for a pollution control tax exemption and credit certificate, with such modifications to such procedures established by departmental rules and regulations as may be necessary to accommodate a claim for exemption or credit.

Any person, except one who has failed to keep and preserve books, records, and invoices as required in this chapter and chapter 82.24 RCW, having paid any tax as required and feeling aggrieved by the amount of the tax may appeal to the superior court of Thurston county, within the time limitation for a refund provided in chapter 82.32 RCW or, if an application for refund has been made to the department within that time limitation, then within thirty days after rejection of the application, whichever time limitation is later. In the appeal the taxpayer shall set forth the amount of the tax imposed upon (~~(him)~~) the taxpayer which (~~(he)~~) the taxpayer concedes to be the correct tax and the reason why the tax should be reduced or abated. The appeal shall be perfected by serving a copy of the notice of appeal upon the department within the time herein specified and by filing the original thereof with proof of service with the clerk of the superior court of Thurston county. Within ten days after filing the notice of appeal, the taxpayer shall file with the clerk of the superior court a good and sufficient surety bond payable to the state in the sum of two hundred dollars, conditioned to diligently prosecute the appeal and pay the state all costs that may be awarded if the appeal of the taxpayer is not sustained.

The trial in the superior court on appeal shall be de novo and without the necessity of any pleadings other than the notice of appeal. The burden shall rest upon the taxpayer to prove that the tax as paid by (~~(him)~~) the taxpayer is incorrect, either in whole or in part, and to establish the correct amount of the tax. In such proceeding the taxpayer shall be deemed the plaintiff, and the state, the defendant; and both parties shall be entitled to subpoena the attendance of witnesses as in other civil actions and to produce evidence that is competent, relevant, and material to determine the correct amount of the tax that should be paid by the taxpayer. Either party may seek appellate review in the same manner as other civil actions are appealed to (~~(those)~~) the appellate courts.

It shall not be necessary for the taxpayer to protest against the payment of any tax or to make any demand to have the same refunded or to petition the director for a hearing in order to appeal to the superior court, but no court action or proceeding of any kind shall be maintained by the taxpayer to recover any tax paid, or any part thereof, except as herein provided.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to any tax payment which has been the subject of an appeal to the board of tax appeals with respect to which appeal a formal hearing has been elected.

Sec. 23. Section 82.36.040, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 4, chapter 174, Laws of 1987 and RCW 82.36.040 are each amended to read as follows:

If payment of any tax due is not received by the due date, there shall be assessed a penalty of two percent of the amount of the tax. If any distributor establishes by a fair preponderance of evidence that ~~((his or her))~~ the distributor's failure to pay the amount of tax due by the due date was attributable to reasonable cause and was not intentional or willful, the department may waive the penalty imposed by this section.

Any motor vehicle fuel tax, penalties, and interest payable under the provisions of this chapter shall bear interest at the rate of one percent per month, or fraction thereof, from the first day of the calendar month after the close of the monthly period for which the amount or any portion thereof should have been paid until the date of payment. The department may waive the interest when the department determines that the cost of processing the collection of the interest exceeds the amount of interest due.

In any suit brought to enforce the rights of the state under this chapter, the certificate of the director showing the amount of taxes, penalties, interest and cost unpaid by any distributor and that the same are due and unpaid to the state shall be prima facie evidence of the facts as shown.

Sec. 24. Section 82.48.090, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 9, chapter 220, Laws of 1987 and RCW 82.48.090 are each amended to read as follows:

In case a claim is made by any person that ~~((he))~~ the person has paid an erroneously excessive amount of excise tax under this chapter, ~~((he))~~ the person may apply to the department of transportation for a refund of the claimed excessive amount. The department of transportation shall review such application, and if it determines that an excess amount of tax has actually been paid by the taxpayer, such excess amount shall be refunded to the taxpayer by means of a voucher approved by the department of transportation and by the issuance of a state warrant drawn upon and payable from such funds as the legislature may provide for that purpose. No refund shall be allowed, however, unless application for the refund is filed with the department of transportation within ninety days after the claimed excessive excise tax was paid and the amount of the overpayment exceeds five dollars.

Sec. 25. Section 16, chapter 260, Laws of 1981 and RCW 82.50.170 are each amended to read as follows:

In case a claim is made by any person that ~~((he))~~ the person has erroneously paid the tax or a part thereof or any charge hereunder, ~~((he))~~ the person may apply in writing to the department of licensing for a refund of the amount of the claimed erroneous payment within thirteen months of the time of payment of the tax on such a form as is prescribed by the department of licensing. The department of licensing shall review such application for refund, and, if it determines that an erroneous payment has been made by the taxpayer, it shall certify the amount to be refunded to the state treasurer that such person is entitled to a refund in such amount, and the treasurer shall make such approved refund herein provided for from the general fund and shall mail or deliver the same to the person entitled thereto.

Any person making any false statement in the ~~((affidavit))~~ claim herein mentioned, under which ~~((he))~~ the person obtains any amount of refund to which ~~((he))~~ the person is not entitled under the provisions of this section, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

As soon as any such relieved tax shall have been reassessed and relieved as herein provided, the ~~((board of))~~ county ((commissioners)) legislative authority shall forthwith, by proper resolution, order and direct the repayment to the owner of the property affected, of such an amount as the payments theretofore made upon the original tax exceed the amount of such relieved tax (the amount of which shall be certified by the county treasurer to ~~((said commissioners))~~ the county legislative authority), together with interest on such excess at ~~((six percent per annum))~~ the rate specified in RCW 84.69.100 from the date or dates of such excess payment, and such repayment shall be made by warrants drawn upon a fund in said treasury hereby created to be known and designated as the county tax refund fund.

Annually, at the time required by law for the levying of taxes for county purposes the proper county officers required by law to make and enter such tax levies, shall make and enter a tax levy or levies for said county tax refund fund as follows:

(1) A levy upon all of the taxable property within the county for the amount of all taxes collected by the county for county and/or state purposes, and which the ~~((board of))~~ county ((commissioners)) legislative authority has ordered ~~((and directed))~~ to be repaid within the preceding twelve months, including ~~((legal))~~ interest at the rate specified in RCW 84.69.100, together with the additional amounts hereinafter provided for;

(2) A levy upon all of the taxable property of each taxing district within the county for the amount of all taxes collected by the county for the purposes of the various taxing districts in such county, which the ~~((board of))~~ county ((commissioners)) legislative authority has ordered

~~((and directed))~~ to be repaid within the preceding twelve months, including ~~((legal))~~ interest at the rate specified in RCW 84.69.100, together with the additional amounts hereinafter provided for.

The aforesaid levy or levies shall also include a proper share of the interest paid out of said fund during said twelve months upon warrants issued against said fund, plus an additional amount not to exceed ten percent of the total of the preceding items required to be included in such levy or levies as such levying officers shall deem necessary to meet the obligations of such fund, taking into consideration the probable portions of such taxes that will not be collected or collectible during the year in which they are due and payable, and also any unobligated cash on hand in said fund.

In case it be determined in such action that said tax, or any portion thereof, so paid under protest, was unlawfully collected, judgment for recovery thereof and ~~((lawful))~~ interest thereon at the rate specified in RCW 84.69.100 from date of payment, together with costs of suit, shall be entered in favor of plaintiff. In case the action is against a county and the judgment shall become final, the amount of such judgment, including ~~((legal))~~ interest at the rate specified in RCW 84.69.100 and costs where allowed, shall be paid out of the treasury of such county by the county treasurer upon warrants drawn by the county auditor against a fund in said treasury hereby created to be known and designated as the county tax refund fund. Such warrants shall be so issued upon the filing with the county auditor and the county treasurer of duly authenticated copies of such judgment, and shall be paid by the county treasurer out of any moneys on hand in said fund. If no funds are available in such county tax refund fund for the payment of such warrants, then such warrants shall bear interest in such cases and shall be callable under such conditions as are provided by law for county warrants, and such interest, if any, shall also be paid out of said fund.

Sec. 28. Section 84.68.050, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.68.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The action for the recovery of taxes so paid under protest shall be brought in the superior court of the county wherein the tax was collected or in any federal court of competent jurisdiction: PROVIDED, That where the property against which the tax is levied consists of the operating property of a railroad company, telegraph company or other public service company whose operating property is located in more than one county and is assessed as a unit by any state board or state officer or officers, the complaining taxpayer may institute such action in the superior court of any one of the counties in which such tax is payable, or in any federal court of competent jurisdiction, and may join as parties defendant in said action all of the counties to which the tax or taxes levied upon such operating property were paid or are payable, and may recover in one action from each of the county defendants the amount of the tax, or any portion thereof, so paid under protest, and adjudged to have been unlawfully collected, together with ~~((legal))~~ interest thereon at the rate specified in RCW 84.69.100 from date of payment, and costs of suit.

Sec. 29. Section 84.68.070, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.68.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as permitted by RCW 84.68.010 through 84.68.070 and chapter 84.69 RCW, no action shall ever be brought or defense interposed attacking the validity of any tax, or any portion of any tax: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That this section shall not be construed as depriving the defendants in any tax foreclosure proceeding of any valid defense allowed by law to the tax sought to be foreclosed therein except defenses based upon alleged excessive valuations, levies or taxes.

Sec. 30. Section 84.68.140, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 210, chapter 278, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.68.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Certified copies of the order of the department of revenue shall be forwarded to the county assessor, the county auditor and the taxpayer, and the taxpayer shall immediately be entitled to a refund of the difference, if any, between the tax already paid and the canceled or reduced or corrected tax based upon the order of the department ~~((of revenue))~~ with ~~((legal))~~ interest on such amount from the date of payment of the original tax. Upon receipt of the order of the department ~~((of revenue))~~ the county auditor shall draw a warrant against the county tax refund fund in the amount of any tax reduction so ordered, plus ~~((legal))~~ interest at the rate specified in RCW 84.69.100 to the date such warrant is issued, and such warrant shall be paid by the county treasurer out of any moneys on hand in said fund. If no funds are available in the county tax refund fund for the payment of such warrant the warrant shall bear interest and shall be callable under such conditions as are provided by law for county warrants and such interest, if any, shall also be paid out of said fund. The order of the department ~~((of revenue))~~ shall for all purposes be considered as a judgment against the county tax refund fund and the obligation thereof shall be discharged in the same manner as provided by law for the discharge of judgments against the county for excessive taxes under the provisions of RCW 84.68.010 through 84.68.070 or any act amendatory thereof.

Sec. 31. Section 84.69.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 and RCW 84.69.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Except in cases wherein the ~~((board of))~~ county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority acts upon its own motion, no orders for a refund under this chapter shall be made except on a claim:

(1) Verified by the person who paid the tax, ~~((his))~~ the person's guardian, executor or administrator; and

(2) Filed with the county legislative authority within three years after making of the payment sought to be refunded; and

(3) Stating the statutory ground upon which the refund is claimed.

Sec. 32. Section 84.69.120, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 2, chapter 228, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.69.120 are each amended to read as follows:

If the ~~((board of))~~ county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority rejects a claim or fails to act within six months from the date of filing of a claim for refund in whole or in part, the person who paid the taxes, ~~((his))~~ the person's guardian, executor, or administrator may within one year after the date of the filing of the claim commence an action in the superior court against the county to recover the taxes which the ~~((board of))~~ county ~~((commissioners have))~~ legislative authority has refused to refund.

Sec. 33. Section 84.69.140, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 33, chapter 222, Laws of 1988 and RCW 84.69.140 are each amended to read as follows:

In any action in which recovery of taxes is allowed by the court, the plaintiff is entitled to interest on the taxes for which recovery is allowed at ~~((at))~~ the rate ~~((as determined under))~~ specified in RCW 84.69.100 from the date of collection of the tax to the date of entry of judgment, and such accrued interest shall be included in the judgment.

Sec. 34. Section 12, chapter 212, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 319, Laws of 1985 and RCW 84.34.108 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When land has once been classified under this chapter, a notation of such designation shall be made each year upon the assessment and tax rolls and such land shall be valued pursuant to RCW 84.34.060 or 84.34.065 until removal of all or a portion of such designation by the assessor upon occurrence of any of the following:

(a) Receipt of notice from the owner to remove all or a portion of such designation;

(b) Sale or transfer to an ownership making all or a portion of such land exempt from ad valorem taxation;

(c) Sale or transfer of all or a portion of such land to a new owner, unless the new owner has signed a notice of classification continuance. The signed notice of continuance shall be attached to the real estate excise tax affidavit provided for in RCW 82.45.120, as now or hereafter amended. The notice of continuance shall be on a form prepared by the department of revenue. If the notice of continuance is not signed by the new owner and attached to the real estate excise tax affidavit, all additional taxes calculated pursuant to subsection (3) of this section shall become due and payable by the seller or transferor at time of sale. The county auditor shall not accept an instrument of conveyance of classified land for filing or recording unless the new owner has signed the notice of continuance or the additional tax has been paid. The seller, transferor, or new owner may appeal the new assessed valuation calculated under subsection (3) of this section to the county board of equalization. Jurisdiction is hereby conferred on the county board of equalization to hear these appeals:

(d) Determination by the assessor, after giving the owner written notice and an opportunity to be heard, that all or a portion of such land is no longer primarily devoted to and used for the purposes under which it was granted classification.

(2) Within thirty days after such removal of all or a portion of such land from current use classification, the assessor shall notify the owner in writing, setting forth the reasons for such removal. The seller, transferor, or owner may appeal such removal to the county board of equalization.

(3) Unless the removal is reversed on appeal, the assessor shall revalue the affected land with reference to full market value on the date of removal from classification. Both the assessed valuation before and after the removal of classification shall be listed and taxes shall be allocated according to that part of the year to which each assessed valuation applies. Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, an additional tax shall be imposed which shall be due and payable to the county treasurer thirty days after the owner is notified of the amount of the additional tax. As soon as possible, the assessor shall compute the amount of such an additional tax and the treasurer shall mail notice to the owner of the amount thereof and the date on which payment is due. The amount of such additional tax shall be equal to:

(a) The difference between the property tax paid as 'open space land', 'farm and agricultural land', or 'timber land' and the amount of property tax otherwise due and payable for the seven years last past had the land not been so classified; plus

(b) Interest upon the amounts of such additional tax paid at the same statutory rate charged on delinquent property taxes from the dates on which such additional tax could have been paid without penalty if the land had been assessed at a value without regard to this chapter.

(4) Additional tax, together with applicable interest thereon, shall become a lien on such land which shall attach at the time such land is removed from current use classification under this chapter and shall have priority to and shall be fully paid and satisfied before any recognition, mortgage, judgment, debt, obligation or responsibility to or with which such land may become charged or liable. Such lien may be foreclosed upon expiration of the same period after delinquency and in the same manner provided by law for foreclosure of liens for delinquent real property taxes as provided in RCW 84.64.050 now or as hereafter amended. Any additional tax unpaid on its due date shall thereupon become delinquent. From the date of delinquency until paid, interest shall be charged at the same rate applied by law to delinquent ad valorem property taxes.

(5) The additional tax specified in subsection (3) of this section shall not be imposed if the removal of designation pursuant to subsection (1) of this section resulted solely from:

(a) Transfer to a government entity in exchange for other land located within the state of Washington;

(b) A taking through the exercise of the power of eminent domain, or sale or transfer to an entity having the power of eminent domain in anticipation of the exercise of such power;

(c) Sale or transfer of land within two years after the death of the owner of at least a fifty percent interest in such land;

(d) A natural disaster such as a flood, windstorm, earthquake, or other such calamity rather than by virtue of the act of the landowner changing the use of such property;

(e) Official action by an agency of the state of Washington or by the county or city within which the land is located which disallows the present use of such land;

(f) Transfer to a church and such land would qualify for property tax exemption pursuant to RCW 84.36.020; or

(g) Acquisition of property interests by state agencies or agencies or organizations qualified under RCW 84.34.210 and 64.04.130 for the purposes enumerated in those sections: PROVIDED, That at such time as these property interests are not used for the purposes enumerated in RCW 84.34.210 and 64.04.130 the additional tax specified in subsection (3) of this section shall be imposed(;-or

~~(h) Transfer to a nonprofit, nonsectarian organization or association, organized and conducted for nonsectarian purposes, and such land would qualify for property tax exemption pursuant to RCW 84.36.030 and is used solely for the benefit of the poor and infirm. This subsection (h) applies only to taxes, penalties, and interest under this section that have been assessed for the removal of property from classification under this chapter after September 1, 1977, and before July 1, 1980. Any person or entity who has paid taxes to which this subsection (h) applies may apply within one hundred and eighty days after May 16, 1985, for a refund of the tax paid).~~

Sec. 35. Section 134, chapter 195, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 5, chapter 274, Laws of 1988 and RCW 84.52.043 are each amended to read as follows:

Within and subject to the limitations imposed by RCW 84.52.050 as amended, the regular ad valorem tax levies upon real and personal property by the taxing districts hereafter named shall be as follows:

(1) Levies of the senior taxing districts shall be as follows: (a) The levy by the state shall not exceed three dollars and sixty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value adjusted to the state equalized value in accordance with the indicated ratio fixed by the state department of revenue to be used exclusively for the support of the common schools; (b) the levy by any county shall not exceed one dollar and eighty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value; (c) the levy by any road district shall not exceed two dollars and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value; and (d) the levy by any city or town shall not exceed three dollars and thirty-seven and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value. However any county is hereby authorized to increase its levy from one dollar and eighty cents to a rate not to exceed two dollars and forty-seven and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value for general county purposes if the total levies for both the county and any road district within the county do not exceed four dollars and five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value, and no other taxing district has its levy reduced as a result of the increased county levy.

(2) Except as provided in RCW 84.52.100, the aggregate levies of junior taxing districts and senior taxing districts, other than the state, shall not exceed five dollars and fifty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation. The term 'junior taxing districts' includes all taxing districts other than the state, counties, road districts, cities, towns, port districts, and public utility districts. The limitations provided in this subsection shall not apply to: (a) Levies at the rates provided by existing law by or for any port or public utility district; (b) excess property tax levies authorized in Article VII, section 2 of the state Constitution; (c) levies for acquiring conservation futures as authorized under RCW 84.34.230; and (d) levies for emergency medical care or emergency medical services imposed under RCW 84.52.069.

~~((3) It is the intent of the legislature that the provisions of this section shall supersede all conflicting provisions of law including RCW 84.52.050.))~~

Sec. 36. Section 64, chapter 278, Laws of 1986 and RCW 84.64.050 are each amended to read as follows:

After the expiration of three years from the date of delinquency, when any property remains on the tax rolls for which no certificate of delinquency has been issued, the county treasurer shall proceed to issue certificates of delinquency on said property to the county for all years' taxes, interest, and costs: PROVIDED, That the county treasurer, with the consent of the county legislative authority, may elect to issue a certificate for fewer than all years' taxes, interest, and costs to a minimum of the taxes, interest, and costs for the earliest year.

The county treasurer may include in the certificate of delinquency any assessments which are due on the property and are the responsibility of the county treasurer to collect. For purposes of this chapter, 'taxes, interest, and costs' include any assessments which are so included by the county treasurer.

The change to a three-year grace period shall first be effective on May 1, 1983. Prior to that date, the county treasurer shall send a notice to all taxpayers with taxes delinquent for two years or more, notifying them of the change in the grace period. The treasurer shall file said certificates when completed with the clerk of the court, and the treasurer shall thereupon, with such legal assistance as the county legislative authority shall provide in counties having a population of thirty thousand or more, and with the assistance of the county prosecuting attorney in counties having a population of less than thirty thousand, proceed to foreclose in the name of the county, the tax liens embraced in such certificates, and the same proceedings shall be had as when held by an individual: PROVIDED, That notice and summons must be served or notice given in a manner reasonably calculated to inform the owner or owners, and any person having a recorded interest in or lien of record upon the property, of the foreclosure action. Either (1) personal service upon the owner or owners and any person having a recorded interest in or lien of record upon the property, or (2) publication once in a newspaper of general circulation, which is circulated in the area of the property and mailing of notice by certified mail to the owner or owners and any person having a recorded interest in or lien of record upon the property, or, if a mailing address is unavailable, personal service upon the occupant of the property, if any, is sufficient. In addition to (~~describing the property as the same is described~~) the legal description on the tax rolls, the notice must include the local street address, if any. It shall be the duty of the county treasurer to mail a copy of the published summons, within fifteen days after the first publication thereof, to the treasurer of each city or town within which any property involved in a tax foreclosure is situated, but the treasurer's failure to do so shall not affect the jurisdiction of the court nor the priority of any tax sought to be foreclosed. Said certificates of delinquency issued to the county may be issued in one general certificate in book form including all property, and the proceedings to foreclose the liens against said property may be brought in one action and all persons interested in any of the property involved in said proceedings may be made codefendants in said action, and if unknown may be therein named as unknown owners, and the publication of such notice shall be sufficient service thereof on all persons interested in the property described therein, except as provided above. The person or persons whose name or names appear on the treasurer's rolls as the owner or owners of said property shall be considered and treated as the owner or owners of said property for the purpose of this section, and if upon said treasurer's rolls it appears that the owner or owners of said property are unknown, then said property shall be proceeded against, as belonging to an unknown owner or owners, as the case may be, and all persons owning or claiming to own, or having or claiming to have an interest therein, are hereby required to take notice of said proceedings and of any and all steps thereunder: PROVIDED, That prior to the sale of the property, if such property is shown on the tax rolls under unknown owners or as having an assessed value of three thousand dollars or more, the treasurer shall order or conduct a title search of the property to be sold to determine the legal description of the property to be sold and the record title holder, and if the record title holder or holders differ from the person or persons whose name or names appear on the treasurer's rolls as the owner or owners, the record title holder or holders shall be considered and treated as the owner or owners of said property for the purpose of this section, and shall be entitled to the notice provided for in this section.

The county treasurer shall not issue certificates of delinquency upon property which is eligible for deferral of taxes under chapter 84.38 RCW but shall require the owner of the property to file a declaration to defer taxes under chapter 84.38 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. A new section is added to chapter 84.56 RCW to read as follows:

In the payment of taxes, interest, and penalties, the county treasurer may accept in lieu of cash a credit card issued by a bank or other financial institution if the bank or financial institution guarantees full payment of the amount due, without discount or other cost or charge, to the county.

Sec. 38. Section 36.32.120, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 8, chapter 168, Laws of 1988 and RCW 36.32.120 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislative authorities of the several counties shall:

(1) Provide for the erection and repairing of court houses, jails, and other necessary public buildings for the use of the county;

(2) Lay out, discontinue, or alter county roads and highways within their respective counties, and do all other necessary acts relating thereto according to law, except within cities and towns which have jurisdiction over the roads within their limits;

(3) License and fix the rates of ferrriage; grant grocery and other licenses authorized by law to be by them granted at fees set by the legislative authorities which shall not exceed the costs of administration and operation of such licensed activities;

(4) Fix the amount of county taxes to be assessed according to the provisions of law, and cause the same to be collected as prescribed by law: PROVIDED, That the legislative authority of a county may permit all moneys, assessments, and taxes belonging to or collected for the use of the state or any county, including any amounts representing estimates for future assessments and taxes, to be deposited by any taxpayer prior to the due date thereof with the treasurer or other legal depository for the benefit of the funds to which they belong to be credited against any future tax or assessment that may be levied or become due from the taxpayer: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the taxpayer, with the concurrence of the county legislative authority, may designate the particular fund against which such prepayment of future tax or assessment shall be credited;

(5) Allow all accounts legally chargeable against the county not otherwise provided for, and audit the accounts of all officers having the care, management, collection, or disbursement of any money belonging to the county or appropriated to its benefit;

(6) Have the care of the county property and the management of the county funds and business and in the name of the county prosecute and defend all actions for and against the county, and such other powers as are or may be conferred by law;

(7) Make and enforce, by appropriate resolutions or ordinances, all such police and sanitary regulations as are not in conflict with state law, and within the unincorporated area of the county may adopt by reference Washington state statutes and recognized codes and/or compilations printed in book form relating to the construction of buildings, the installation of plumbing, the installation of electric wiring, health, or other subjects, and may adopt such codes and/or compilations or portions thereof, together with amendments thereto, or additions thereto: PROVIDED, That except for Washington state statutes, there shall be filed in the county auditor's office one copy of such codes and compilations ten days prior to their adoption by reference, and additional copies may also be filed in library or city offices within the county as deemed necessary by the county legislative authority: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no such regulation, code, compilation, and/or statute shall be effective unless before its adoption, a public hearing has been held thereon by the county legislative authority of which at least ten days' notice has been given. Any violation of such regulations, ordinances, codes, compilations, and/or statutes or resolutions shall constitute a misdemeanor or a civil violation subject to a monetary penalty: PROVIDED FURTHER, That violation of a regulation, ordinance, code, compilation, and/or statute relating to traffic including parking, standing, stopping, and pedestrian offenses is a traffic infraction, except that violation of a regulation, ordinance, code, compilation, and/or statute equivalent to those provisions of Title 46 RCW set forth in RCW 46.63.020 remains a misdemeanor. The notice must set out a copy of the proposed regulations or summarize the content of each proposed regulation; or if a code is adopted by reference the notice shall set forth the full official title and a statement describing the general purpose of such code. For purposes of this subsection, a summary shall mean a brief description which succinctly describes the main points of the proposed regulation. When the county publishes a summary, the publication shall include a statement that the full text of the proposed regulation will be mailed upon request. An inadvertent mistake or omission in publishing the text or a summary of the content of a proposed regulation shall not render the regulation invalid if it is adopted. The notice shall also include the day, hour, and place of hearing and must be given by publication in the newspaper in which legal notices of the county are printed;

(8) Have power to compound and release in whole or in part any debt due to the county when in their opinion the interest of their county will not be prejudiced thereby, except in cases where they or any of them are personally interested;

(9) Have power to administer oaths or affirmations necessary in the discharge of their duties and commit for contempt any witness refusing to testify before them with the same power as district judges.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 39. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 4, chapter 62, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.09.080;

(2) Section 3, chapter 62, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.36.475; and

(3) Section 5, chapter 62, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.52.015.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 40. Section 12 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1990."

Mr. Fuhrman moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Fuhrman and Locke:

On page 9, after line 15, insert the following:

*Sec. 9. Section 1, chapter 32, Laws of 1985 and RCW 82.08.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, there is levied and there shall be collected a tax on each retail sale in this state equal to six and five-tenths percent of the selling price.

(2) There is levied and there shall be collected a tax on each retail sale of adult entertainment materials and services equal to eighteen percent of the selling price. All of the funds raised under this section shall be dedicated to the crime victims compensation fund established under chapter 7.68 RCW.

(3) The tax imposed under this chapter shall apply to successive retail sales of the same property.

((3)) (4) The rates provided in this section ((applies)) apply to taxes imposed under chapter 82.12 RCW as provided in RCW 82.12.020.

For the purposes of this chapter:

(1) 'Selling price' means the consideration, whether money, credits, rights, or other property except trade-in property of like kind, expressed in the terms of money paid or delivered by a buyer to a seller without any deduction on account of the cost of tangible property sold, the cost of materials used, labor costs, interest, discount, delivery costs, taxes other than taxes imposed under this chapter if the seller advertises the price as including the tax or that the seller is paying the tax, or any other expenses whatsoever paid or accrued and without any deduction on account of losses; but shall not include the amount of cash discount actually taken by a buyer; and shall be subject to modification to the extent modification is provided for in RCW 82.08.080.

When tangible personal property is rented or leased under circumstances that the consideration paid does not represent a reasonable rental for the use of the articles so rented or leased, the 'selling price' shall be determined as nearly as possible according to the value of such use at the places of use of similar products of like quality and character under such rules as the department of revenue may prescribe((:)).

(2) 'Seller' means every person, including the state and its departments and institutions, making sales at retail or retail sales to a buyer or consumer, whether as agent, broker, or principal, except 'seller' does not mean the state and its departments and institutions when making sales to the state and its departments and institutions((:)).

(3) 'Buyer' and 'consumer' include, without limiting the scope hereof, every individual, receiver, assignee, trustee in bankruptcy, trust, estate, firm, copartnership, joint venture, club, company, joint stock company, business trust, corporation, association, society, or any group of individuals acting as a unit, whether mutual, cooperative, fraternal, nonprofit, or otherwise, municipal corporation, quasi municipal corporation, and also the state, its departments and institutions and all political subdivisions thereof, irrespective of the nature of the activities engaged in or functions performed, and also the United States or any instrumentality thereof((:)).

(4) 'Adult entertainment materials and services' means any material or service, including, but not limited to, any writing, book, magazine, illustration, picture, photograph, film, movie, motion picture, videotape or videodisc, audiotape or audiodisc, cable or broadcast television program, telephone service, computer service or program, paraphernalia, performance, act, or other material or service that contains or describes any conduct which is sexually explicit. For purposes of this section, 'sexually explicit' means any conduct described under RCW 9.68A.011(3); PROVIDED, 'Sexually explicit' shall also include the exhibition of the genitals, or unclothed pubic or rectal areas of any person for the purpose of sexual stimulation of the viewer.

(5) The meaning attributed in chapter 82.04 RCW to the terms 'tax year,' 'taxable year,' 'person,' 'company,' 'sale,' 'sale at retail,' 'retail sale,' 'sale at wholesale,' 'wholesale,' 'business,' 'engaging in business,' 'cash discount,' 'successor,' 'consumer,' 'in this state' and 'within this state' shall apply equally to the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 11. Section 82.12.010, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 132, Laws of 1985 and by section 1, chapter 222, Laws of 1985 and RCW 82.12.010 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this chapter:

(1) 'Value of the article used' shall mean the consideration, whether money, credit, rights, or other property except trade-in property of like kind, expressed in terms of money, paid or given or contracted to be paid or given by the purchaser to the seller for the article of tangible personal property, the use of which is taxable under this chapter. The term includes, in addition to the consideration paid or given or contracted to be paid or given, the amount of any tariff or duty paid with respect to the importation of the article used. In case the article used is acquired by lease or by gift or is extracted, produced, or manufactured by the person using the same or is sold under conditions wherein the purchase price does not represent the true value thereof, the value of the article used shall be determined as nearly as possible according to the retail selling price at place of use of similar products of like quality and character under such rules and regulations as the department of revenue may prescribe.

In case the articles used are acquired by bailment, the value of the use of the articles so used shall be in an amount representing a reasonable rental for the use of the articles so bailed, determined as nearly as possible according to the value of such use at the places of use of similar products of like quality and character under such rules and regulations as the department of revenue may prescribe: PROVIDED, That in case any such articles of tangible personal property are used in respect to the construction, repairing, decorating, or improving of, and which become or are to become an ingredient or component of, new or existing buildings or other structures under, upon, or above real property of or for the United States, any instrumentality thereof, or a county or city housing authority created pursuant to chapter 35.82 RCW, including the installing or attaching of any such articles therein or thereto, whether or not such personal property becomes a part of the realty by virtue of installation, then the value of the use of such articles so used shall be determined according to the retail selling price of such articles, or in the absence of such a selling price, as nearly as possible according to the retail selling price at place of use of similar products of like quality and character or, in the absence of either of these selling price measures, such value may be determined upon a cost basis, in any event under such rules and regulations as the department of revenue may prescribe.

In the case of articles owned by a user engaged in business outside the state which are brought into the state for no more than ninety days in any period of three hundred sixty-five consecutive days and which are temporarily used for business purposes by the person in this state, the value of the article used shall be an amount representing a reasonable rental for the use of the articles, unless the person has paid tax under this chapter or chapter 82.08 RCW upon the full value of the article used, as defined in the first paragraph of this subsection.

In the case of articles manufactured or produced by the user and used in the manufacture or production of products sold or to be sold to the department of defense of the United States, the value of the articles used shall be determined according to the value of the ingredients of such articles.

In the case of an article manufactured or produced for purposes of serving as a prototype for the development of a new or improved product, the value of the article used shall be determined by: (a) The retail selling price of such new or improved product when first offered for sale; or (b) the value of materials incorporated into the prototype in cases in which the new or improved product is not offered for sale.

(2) 'Value of the service used' shall mean the consideration paid, whether money, credit, rights, or other property, expressed in terms of money, paid or given or contracted to be paid or given by the purchaser to the seller for the service, the use of which is taxable under this chapter. If the service is received by gift or under conditions wherein the purchase price does not represent the true value of the service, the value of the service used shall be determined as nearly as possible according to the retail selling price at the place of use of similar services of like quality and character under rules prescribed by the department of revenue.

(3) 'Use,' 'used,' 'using,' or 'put to use' shall have their ordinary meaning, and shall mean:

(a) With respect to personal property, the first act within this state by which the taxpayer takes or assumes dominion or control over the article of tangible personal property (as a consumer), and include installation, storage, withdrawal from storage, or any other act preparatory to subsequent actual use or consumption within this state; and

(b) With respect to an adult entertainment service which affords a benefit or is otherwise capable of use within this state, the use within this state of the service, regardless of the place of performance.

((3)) (4) 'Taxpayer' and 'purchaser' include all persons included within the meaning of the word 'buyer' and the word 'consumer' as defined in chapters 82.04 and 82.08 RCW((:));

((4)) (5) 'Retailer' means every seller as defined in RCW 82.08.010 and every person engaged in the business of selling tangible personal property or adult entertainment services at retail and every person required to collect from purchasers the tax imposed under this chapter((:)).

((5)) (6) The meaning ascribed to words and phrases in chapters 82.04 and 82.08 RCW, insofar as applicable, shall have full force and effect with respect to taxes imposed under the provisions of this chapter. 'Consumer,' in addition to the meaning ascribed to it in chapters 82.04 and 82.08 RCW insofar as applicable, shall also mean any person who distributes or displays, or causes to be distributed or displayed, any article of tangible personal property, except newspapers, the primary purpose of which is to promote the sale of products or services. In addition, 'consumer' includes any person who purchases, acquires, or uses any adult entertainment service other than for resale in the regular course of business. Resale of a service means a separately stated charge to another person for the service by a person who has paid or is obligated to pay an identical charge to one who has originally rendered the identical service.

Sec. 12. Section 82.12.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 7, chapter 7, Laws of 1983 and RCW 82.12.020 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby levied and there shall be collected from every person in this state a tax or excise for the privilege of using within this state as a consumer any article of tangible personal property or adult entertainment service purchased at retail, or acquired by lease, gift, repossession, or bailment, or extracted or produced or manufactured by the person so using the same, or otherwise furnished to a person engaged in any business taxable under RCW 82.04-.280, subsections (2) or (7). This tax will not apply with respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property purchased, extracted, produced or manufactured outside this state until the transportation of such article has finally ended or until such article has become commingled with the general mass of property in this state. This tax shall apply to the use of every article of tangible personal property, including property acquired at a casual or isolated sale, and including byproducts used by the manufacturer thereof, except as hereinafter provided, irrespective of whether the article or similar articles are manufactured or are available for purchase within this state. Except as provided in RCW 82.12.0252, payment by one purchaser or user of tangible personal property or adult entertainment services of the tax imposed by chapter 82.08 or 82.12 RCW shall not have the effect of exempting any other purchaser or user of the same property or services from the taxes imposed by such chapters. The tax shall be levied and collected in an amount equal to the value of the article used or the value of the service used by the taxpayer multiplied by the rate in effect for the retail sales tax under RCW 82.08.020, as now or hereafter amended, in the county in which the article or service is used.

Sec. 13. Section 52, chapter 37, Laws of 1980 and RCW 82.12.0252 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply in respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property or adult entertainment service purchased at retail or acquired by lease, gift or bailment if the sale thereof to, or the use thereof by, the present user or his bailor or donor has already been subjected to the tax under chapter 82.08 or 82.12 RCW and such tax has been paid by the present user or by his bailor or donor; or in respect to the use of property acquired by bailment and such tax has once been paid based on reasonable rental as determined by RCW 82.12.060 measured by the value of the article at time of first use multiplied by the tax rate imposed by chapter 82.08 or 82.12 RCW as of the time of first use; or in respect to the use of any article of tangible personal property acquired by bailment, if the property was acquired by a previous bailee from the same bailor for use in the same general activity and such original bailment was prior to June 9, 1961.

Sec. 14. Section 5, chapter 89, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 27, Laws of 1987 and RCW 82.12.035 are each amended to read as follows:

A credit shall be allowed against the taxes imposed by this chapter upon the use of tangible personal property or adult entertainment services in the state of Washington in the amount that the present user thereof or his or her bailor or donor has paid a retail sales or use tax with respect to such property or service to any other state of the United States, any political subdivision thereof, the District of Columbia, and any foreign country or political subdivision thereof, prior to the use of such property or services in Washington.

Sec. 15. Section 82.12.040, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 48, Laws of 1986 and RCW 82.12.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every person who maintains in this state a place of business or a stock of goods, or engages in business activities within this state, shall obtain from the department a certificate of registration, and shall, at the time of making sales, or making transfers of either possession or title or both, of tangible personal property or adult entertainment services for use in this state, collect from the purchasers or transferees the tax imposed under this chapter. For the purposes of this chapter, the phrase 'maintains in this state a place of business' shall include the solicitation of sales and/or taking of orders by sales agents or traveling representatives. For the purposes of this chapter, 'engages in business activity within this state' includes every activity which is sufficient under the Constitution of the United States for this state to require collection of tax under this chapter. The department shall in rules specify activities which constitute engaging in business activity within this state, and shall keep the rules current with future court interpretations of the Constitution of the United States.

(2) Every person who engages in this state in the business of acting as an independent selling agent for persons who do not hold a valid certificate of registration, and who receives compensation by reason of sales of tangible personal property or adult entertainment services of his or her principals ((made)) for use in this state, shall, at the time such sales are made, collect from the purchasers the tax imposed under this chapter, and for that purpose shall be deemed a retailer as defined in this chapter.

(3) The tax required to be collected by this chapter shall be deemed to be held in trust by the retailer until paid to the department and any retailer who appropriates or converts the tax collected to his or her own use or to any use other than the payment of the tax provided herein to the extent that the money required to be collected is not available for payment on the due date as prescribed shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. In case any seller fails to collect the tax herein imposed or having collected the tax, fails to pay the same to the department in the manner prescribed, whether such failure is the result of his or her own acts or the result of acts or conditions beyond his or her control, he or she shall nevertheless, be personally liable to the state for the amount of such tax.

(4) Any retailer who refunds, remits, or rebates to a purchaser, or transferee, either directly or indirectly, and by whatever means, all or any part of the tax levied by this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 16. Section 82.12.060, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 54, chapter 278, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 82.12.060 are each amended to read as follows:

In the case of installment sales and leases of personal property or adult entertainment services, the department, by regulation, may provide for the collection of taxes upon the installments of the purchase price, or amount of rental, as of the time the same fall due.

In the case of property acquired by bailment, the department, by regulation, may provide for payment of the tax due in installments based on the reasonable rental for the property as determined under RCW 82.12.010(1).

Sec. 34. Section 3, chapter 94, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 31, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 82.14.020 are each amended to read as follows:

For purposes of this chapter:

(1) A retail sale consisting solely of the sale of tangible personal property shall be deemed to have occurred at the retail outlet at or from which delivery is made to the consumer;

(2) Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, a retail sale consisting essentially of the performance of personal business or professional services or adult entertainment services shall be deemed to have occurred at the place at which such services were primarily performed;

(3) A retail sale consisting of the rental of tangible personal property shall be deemed to have occurred (a) in the case of a rental involving periodic rental payments, at the primary place of use by the lessee during the period covered by each payment, or (b) in all other cases, at the place of first use by the lessee;

(4) A retail sale within the scope of the second paragraph of RCW 82.04.050, and a retail sale of taxable personal property to be installed by the seller shall be deemed to have occurred at the place where the labor and services involved were primarily performed;

(5) A retail sale consisting of the providing to a consumer of telephone service, as defined in RCW 82.04.065, other than a sale of tangible personal property under subsection (1) of this section or a rental of tangible personal property under subsection (3) of this section, shall be deemed to have occurred at the situs of the telephone or other instrument through which the telephone service is rendered;

(6) 'City' means a city or town;

(7) The meaning ascribed to words and phrases in chapters 82.04, 82.08 and 82.12 RCW, as now or hereafter amended, insofar as applicable, shall have full force and effect with respect to taxes imposed under authority of this chapter;

(8) 'Taxable event' shall mean any retail sale, or any use of an article of tangible personal property, upon which a state tax is imposed pursuant to chapter 82.08 or 82.12 RCW, as they now exist or may hereafter be amended: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the term shall not include a retail sale taxable pursuant to RCW 82.08.150, as now or hereafter amended;

(9) 'Treasurer or other legal depository' shall mean the treasurer or legal depository of a county or city."

Renumber following sections consecutively, and correct internal references accordingly.

MOTION

Mr. Heavey moved that the House immediately consider Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6076 on the second reading calendar. The motion was carried.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 6076, by Senators Thorsness, Murray, Barr, Stratton, Metcalf, Saling, McCaslin, Madsen, Warnke, Anderson, Amondson and West

Creating motorcycle public awareness program.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Transportation recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For committee amendments, see Journal, 80th Day, March 29, 1989.)

Mr. Baugher moved adoption of the committee amendment

Mr. P. King moved adoption of the following amendments to the committee amendment:

On page 3, after line 29 of the striking amendment insert the following:

"Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 344, Laws of 1987 and RCW 19.118.021 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Board' means new motor vehicle arbitration board.

(2) 'Collateral charges' means any sales-related charges including but not limited to sales tax, arbitration service fees, license fees, registration fees, title fees, finance charges, insurance costs, transportation charges, dealer preparation charges, or any other charges for service contracts, undercoating, rustproofing, or factory installed options.

(3) 'Condition' means a general problem that results from a defect or malfunction of one or more parts, or their improper installation by the manufacturer, its agents, or the new motor vehicle dealer.

(4) 'Consumer' means any person who has entered into an agreement or contract for the transfer, lease, or purchase of a new motor vehicle, other than for purposes of resale or sublease, during the duration of the warranty period defined under this section.

(5) 'Court' means the superior court in the county where the consumer resides, except if the consumer does not reside in this state, then the superior court in the county where an arbitration hearing or determination was conducted or made pursuant to this chapter.

(6) 'Incidental costs' means any reasonable expenses incurred by the consumer in connection with the repair of the new motor vehicle, including any towing charges and the costs of obtaining alternative transportation.

(7) 'Manufacturer' means any person engaged in the business of constructing or assembling new motor vehicles or engaged in the business of importing new motor vehicles into the United States for the purpose of selling or distributing new motor vehicles to new motor vehicle dealers. 'Manufacturer' does not include any person engaged in the business of set-up of motorcycles as an agent of a new motor vehicle dealer who does not otherwise construct or assemble motorcycles.

(8) 'Motorcycle' means any motorcycle as defined in RCW 46.04.330 which has an engine displacement of at least seven hundred cubic centimeters.

((+8)) (9) 'New motor vehicle' means any new self-propelled vehicle, including a motorcycle, primarily designed for the transportation of persons or property over the public highways that was leased or purchased in this state and registered in this state, but does not include vehicles purchased or leased by a business as part of a fleet of ten or more vehicles. If the motor vehicle is a motor home, this chapter shall apply to the self-propelled vehicle and chassis, but does not include those portions of the vehicle designated, used, or maintained primarily as a mobile dwelling, office, or commercial space. The term 'new motor vehicle' does not include ~~((motorcycles or))~~ trucks with nineteen thousand pounds or more gross vehicle weight rating. The term 'new motor vehicle' includes a demonstrator or lease-purchase vehicle as long as a manufacturer's warranty was issued as a condition of sale.

((+9)) (10) 'New motor vehicle dealer' means a person who holds a dealer agreement with a manufacturer for the sale of new motor vehicles, who is engaged in the business of purchasing, selling, servicing, exchanging, or dealing in new motor vehicles, and who is licensed as a dealer by the state of Washington.

((+10)) (11) 'Nonconformity' means a defect, serious safety defect, or condition that substantially impairs the use, value, or safety of a new motor vehicle, but does not include a defect or condition that is the result of abuse, neglect, or unauthorized modification or alteration of the new motor vehicle.

((+11)) (12) 'Purchase price' means the cash price of the new motor vehicle appearing in the sales agreement or contract, including any allowance for a trade-in vehicle.

((+12)) (13) 'Reasonable offset for use' means an amount directly attributable to use by the consumer before repurchase or replacement by the manufacturer. The reasonable offset for use for a new motor vehicle other than a motorcycle shall be computed by the number of miles that the vehicle traveled before the manufacturer's acceptance of the vehicle upon repurchase or replacement multiplied by the purchase price, and divided by one hundred thousand. The reasonable offset for use for a motorcycle shall be computed by the number of miles that the vehicle traveled before the manufacturer's acceptance of the vehicle upon repurchase or replacement multiplied by the purchase price, and divided by fifty thousand.

((+13)) (14) 'Reasonable number of attempts' means the definition provided in RCW 19.118.041.

((+14)) (15) 'Replacement motor vehicle' means a new motor vehicle that is identical or reasonably equivalent to the motor vehicle to be replaced, as the motor vehicle to be replaced existed at the time of purchase.

((+15)) (16) 'Serious safety defect' means a life-threatening malfunction or nonconformity that impedes the consumer's ability to control or operate the new motor vehicle for ordinary use or reasonable intended purposes or creates a risk of fire or explosion.

((+16)) (17) 'Substantially impair' means to render the new motor vehicle unreliable, or unsafe for ordinary use, or to diminish the resale value of the new motor vehicle below the average resale value for comparable motor vehicles.

((+17)) (18) 'Warranty' means any implied warranty, any written warranty of the manufacturer, or any affirmation of fact or promise made by the manufacturer in connection with the sale of a new motor vehicle that becomes part of the basis of the bargain. The term 'warranty' pertains to the obligations of the manufacturer in relation to materials, workmanship, and fitness of a new motor vehicle for ordinary use or reasonably intended purposes throughout the duration of the warranty period as defined under this section.

((+18)) (19) 'Warranty period' means the period ending two years after the date of the original delivery to the consumer of a new motor vehicle, or the first twenty-four thousand miles of operation, whichever occurs first."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

On page 3, beginning on line 30 of the striking amendment after "Sec. 3." strike "This act is" and insert "Sections 1 and 2 of this act are"

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Schmidt: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I request a scope and object decision on this amendment.

MOTION

Mr. Heavey moved that the House defer further consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6076 and that the bill hold its place on the second reading calendar. The motion was carried.

There being no objection, the House advanced to the eighth order of business.

RESOLUTION

HOUSE FLOOR RESOLUTION NO. 89-4654, by Representatives Jacobsen, Appelwick, Van Luven, Miller and Brekke

WHEREAS, The Early Childhood Home Instruction Program for hearing-impaired infants and their families is recognized nationally as one of the very best early childhood intervention programs in the United States; and

WHEREAS, The Early Childhood Home Instruction Program (ECHI) has made a significant difference in the lives of many hearing-impaired children and their families throughout the State of Washington; and

WHEREAS, The program began in Seattle almost fifteen years ago and serves more than forty families each year in Washington; and

WHEREAS, The program is an educational program which has missions to help parents of deaf infants (to three years) learn to accept their infants' deafness, and to help parents develop their infants' skills, especially language and communication which are most affected by deafness; and

WHEREAS, The program is designed to reduce or prevent the serious delays in academic performance and school failure that are so often experienced by deaf children; and

WHEREAS, The program offers emotional support and stress-reduction skills to families of deaf infants, so as to prevent mistreatment of children; and

WHEREAS, The program provides weekly home visits to families by parent trainers who are specially trained to work with hearing-impaired infants and their families; and

WHEREAS, The program also provides a curriculum and educational environment for parents to help their child learn and provides a classroom every week at the University of Washington for children and their families enrolled in the program; and

WHEREAS, The program coordinates a statewide network of professionals concerned with providing services to young hearing-impaired children; and

WHEREAS, The successful program has expanded to include sites at Bellingham, Spokane, Tacoma, Yakima, Wenatchee, Lacey, Burlington, Bremerton and Snoqualmie; and

WHEREAS, The program serves as a training site for graduate students and teaching assistants from many fields within the University of Washington—Special Education, Educational Psychology, Social Work, Audiology and Speech and Hearing Sciences—who receive valuable experience by working directly with deaf infants and their families;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives recognize and pay tribute to Dr. Marie Thompson, who has donated her time in serving as Director of the program, and to a fine staff of professionals associated with the Early Childhood Home Instruction Program for hearing-impaired infants and their families for their significant contribution to the State of Washington and its people; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this Resolution be immediately transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to Dr. Thompson and to each member of the staff of the Early Childhood Home Instruction Program for hearing-impaired infants and their families, and to Dr. William P. Gerberding, President of the University of Washington.

Mr. Jacobsen moved adoption of the resolution. Representatives Jacobsen and Appelwick spoke in favor of the resolution.

House Floor Resolution No. 89-4654 was adopted.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) declared the House to be at ease.

The Speaker called the House to order.

There being no objection, the House reverted to the first order of business.

SPEAKER'S PRIVILEGE

The Speaker: This puts us in the right order of business to begin a recognition of some very special guests who are with us today for our House Member Homecoming. We are about to call the roll of former House members. I would request of our guests that, as your name is called, you please come to the center aisle in front of the rostrum and proceed to a seat of your own choosing on the floor. When all former members are seated, we will demonstrate our warmest welcome by applauding them all. The Clerk will call the roll of former members.

SPEAKER'S PRIVILEGE

The Speaker: I would like to thank all the members and their families for taking the time and joining with us to make this homecoming a very special event. It is a particular thrill for me to be able to put faces with some of the names that have been etched in the institutional memory of this place, to put faces with some of the ideas and with the legacies of the people who have served here with such distinction for so long.

We are often reminded that the Legislature is a changing place. It is much different than the Legislature that many of you left. If you look around, we have beautiful new refurbishings of the Chambers; we have more staff perhaps than you had to work with; we at least all have desks on the floor of the House and offices, which we realize you didn't have. But the job remains the same, and I suspect the people very much remain the same. The faces have changed, but the spirit of people who are willing to give of themselves, to come down here and to take the abuse and the thrills that come with serving in public office, I think, hasn't changed very much.

Welcome. Welcome back. And welcome to all the families that have allowed their spouses to return, at least one more time, to this wonderful institution.

A good part of the thinking that went into the development of this special homecoming day came as a result of the Centennial Year. I would assume that all the former members out there are involved in their local communities in celebrating the Centennial, as we face our second one hundred years. It was with that in mind that we decided to draw together this homecoming. The current members want a chance to meet you, to get acquainted, to hear those stories that you have to tell. So, if there is no objection, the House will advance now to the third order of business for Messages from the Senate, Governor and other State Officials. We will begin with messages from the former Speakers who are here with me on the rostrum.

MESSAGES FROM FORMER SPEAKERS

The Speaker introduced former Speaker Wayne Ehlers, who served as Speaker of the House of Representatives from 1983 to 1986.

Speaker Ehlers: Thank you for the opportunity to be here today. Last time I was here, at the beginning of session, the Speaker heaped some personal abuse on me. There is a great tradition in the Legislature of "not getting mad, just getting even"—of course I never subscribe to that myself. As the Speaker and the distinguished Speakers behind me know, there is nothing in our Constitution nor in our rules which says that a nonmember can't be Speaker.

I don't think there is anybody in this body now, any former member or citizen of the state, who can pull off the highway, as they head north or south, see this Capitol, come into this building or observe this Legislature, without having a thrill. To be a member is a special kind of thrill, which all of us have experienced together. We are here to be honored for deeds done, but truly we, as former members, should be here to honor the rest of you for deeds done and not yet done. There are a lot of them out there, a lot of tasks to address not only this year and next, but also in the future of this state.

We thank you for the opportunity to be here today. I would like to think, as all of us leave this place, that we take one measure of what we did here: Did we give more than we took? I think we all did. Thank you.

The Speaker introduced former Speaker Duane Berentson, who served as Co-Speaker of the House of Representatives with John Bagnariol in 1979 and 1980.

Speaker Berentson: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I was happy to hear Speaker Ehlers mention highways. I have to tell you a story about Speaker Eldridge behind me; he always referred to me as the "half-Speaker." We served in the same district, the 40th District up north, and I have had to accept that from him.

For those of you who were here when we had the 49-49 tie, you probably wish we were back there. Remember, we could hardly make a mistake. I am sorry to see that Speaker Bagnariol is not here today. I want to tell you a little story about Baggie. If you were here, then you remember that early on we agreed that, if we got snarled up, we would go at ease and figure out how to straighten things up. Most every morning we would either meet in his office or my office and set the agenda for the day. We came out here one morning—I was on the rostrum—and suddenly things weren't going well. We went at ease and back to Speaker Bagnariol's office, and I said, "Baggie, that is not what we agreed to." He said, "I know; I lied." And then we had a laugh, came back and things worked out. For those of you who were here, it wasn't the end of the world—it worked out very well.

I would like to compliment Speaker Ehlers and you, Speaker Joe, for what you have done in allowing all of these people to come back, take a look at each other and remember what happened in the past. I think we are all very pleased that we are able to do this, because the years slip by. I haven't gotten very far from this place, and I would just like to close by encouraging you to keep your big cars and drive a lot. We need the revenue.

The Speaker introduced former Speaker Tom Swayze, who served as Speaker of the House of Representatives during the 1970-72 biennium.

Speaker Swayze: Fame is fleeting. No fame is more fleeting than political fame. It is always a humbling experience in life, when you come back to a place like this a few years after you had been up here and presided over this assemblage, and the Chief Clerk can't even pronounce your name.

I remain in public life, political office so to speak, in a very interesting and challenging job as a trial judge. But I want you members, who are here and are now active members of the Legislature, to know that nothing you will do in life will compare with the uniqueness of this process of government, the blend of different people, philosophies, personalities, not only of the members but also of the staff, the lobbyists, the press, everyone who comes together to contribute to what you do as a final product. This is a circumstance which will be unmatched in anything else in your life. So before your own political fame fleets away, enjoy these moments while you are here. Thank you very much, Speaker King, for putting together this most memorable occasion.

The Speaker introduced former Speaker Tom Copeland, who served as Speaker of the House of Representatives from 1967 to 1972.

Speaker Copeland: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. When I talked to Alan Thompson this morning, he suggested that I make a few remarks about when I first came to the Legislature. At that time John O'Brien was Speaker. Many of you remember him as a very liberal Democrat. I want you to know he was the most conservative Speaker this House has ever seen. There were forty-two Republicans and we shared six stenos in a steno pool. He liberally gave us one hundred pieces of stationery, one hundred envelopes and one hundred first class stamps. And it was heresy to ask for more. There were five telephones—one in the ladies' restroom, one in the Chief Clerk's office, one in the Speaker's office and two in the men's room—and long distance calls were on your own.

I was part of the group that started to make some changes around here. We began to think about moving across the street. At one time I suggested that we take the Secretary of State, the Auditor and the Treasurer and throw them out of the building. Well, Adelle and a few of her friends got a little upset and came to me and said, "What is your authority to throw these state elected officials out of the building?" I thought about it for a little while, and without giving an answer, I took her and some other people in the press corps, walked out through the rotunda and out to the front of the building, pointed up and said, "There's the authority—it says Legislative Building." The Daily Olympian took my picture, pointing to the Legislative Building, and it looked like I was holding up my middle finger. I didn't get that job done, but one thing I did get done—we moved across the street and the building is now named after John. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The Speaker introduced former Speaker Don Eldridge, who served as Speaker of the House of Representatives from 1967 to 1970.

Speaker Eldridge: You think we like it up here? You know, it was indicated that I served seventeen years and then I retired due to illness and fatigue—the voters were sick and tired of me. I came from the 40th District before we chopped it up, and I was campaigning up in the eastern part, which is now in the 10th District. I walked up to a door and knocked. An old fellow came out, and I said, "I'm Don Eldridge. I've been in the Legislature for four sessions and I am asking for your vote." He said, "What did you say?" I said, "My name is Don Eldridge, and I'm running for reelection to the Legislature, and I'd like your vote." "Didn't get that." So I gave it to him once more, and he said, "I'm for you, son. That fellow we got down there now ain't worth a darn."

You know, Tom talked about the great job that he and John did in taking over all the buildings and getting us secretaries and staff and staff for staff and all of these good things. As Duane indicated about John Bagnariol, Tom lies a lot, too. But there have been a lot of changes.

A few weeks ago I came over to help dedicate the building across the street to John O'Brien. They said all kinds of things about him--affable, charismatic, a wonderful fellow, tolerant. I don't think most of those people really knew John. I hope that when I get to be eighty years old, maybe they'll put my name on the men's restroom door. John, it's a great tribute.

One of the great changes is in the media. Back thirty years ago we had some tremendous political writers--Ross Cunningham, Stud Nelson, Carl Downing. Who have you got now? Shelby Scates, Mike Layton, Dave Workman--you people are really in trouble.

It's great to be here. Despite what the media says, you're in a tough spot. And with that you've got to work with, you're doing a great job.

The Speaker introduced Speaker Pro Tempore John O'Brien, who served as Speaker of the House of Representatives from 1955 to 1963.

Speaker O'Brien: Mr. Speaker and former Speakers, former members and ladies and gentlemen of the House: It is a great experience to see all of you back here. I could tell you of many experiences I have had with these people sitting behind me. Often I felt that their rulings were totally unfair and they were blinded on one side, particularly when we were trying to rise to a Point of Order. Nevertheless, they served well.

I have had great experiences with most of the people now visiting us. This is a great institution, and, even though we have disagreed at times, we have not been disagreeable. I think that the people who invited you here today did a great thing, because it is good to see you back--many old friends that I have not seen for a long time, and they bring back many memories.

Being a legislator is most interesting, because you don't know what is going to happen. Today I had my picture taken with a wrestler, which was very unusual. Things like that make this place very interesting.

I would like to close with an Irish poem: May the road always rise to meet you; may the wind always be at your back; may the sun shine warmly upon your face, the rain fall softly upon your fields; and until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of His hand.

The Speaker introduced former Speaker Charlie Hodde, who served as Speaker of the House of Representatives from 1949 to 1952.

Speaker Hodde: There are a couple of stories I'd like to tell you, but what I'm going to tell you is that you shouldn't get too worried about how much time I'm going to take, because in the last two weeks I've developed double vision--there are twice as many of you out there as originally and I can't read my notes, so consequently there won't be very long stories.

I thought you might be interested in how I happened to get into the Legislature. I started walking these halls in 1933--now that's a bit of time ago. This building was practically new. The carpets were new; we didn't even have to argue about getting new carpets. The building was four years old, and we thought it was real nice. During that period when I was coming back and forth down here, I was really lobbying for the Grange. Our big project was the blanket ballot, which has been argued about since. We were able to get the signatures, an initiative to the Legislature--the first one--and the Legislature passed it. It built my political figure up a lot, because the Spokesman Review ran a little story on the front page that said, "Charlie Hodde, King of Lobbyists--he did it." It didn't have to go to the people for a vote. Most people think the people voted that in, but the Legislature passed it.

The funny part of the story is this. Two years later, in 1936, a Democratic member of the Legislature from my district failed to get his filing in on time. It left the Democrats with only one person on the ticket, and there were two Republicans. The County Chairman came to me and said, "Charlie, will you let us put your name on the ballot to fill it out?" I said, "I don't think I really want to, because the Grange is paying me five dollars a day and expenses and the legislators only get five dollars." Well, he talked me into it. So the biggest supporter of the blanket ballot got nominated by his party and got elected to the Legislature. How's that for getting things really mixed up?

I particularly want to compliment former Speaker Swayze. He is the only Speaker in history, that I know of, who has been able to get elected to another office after he served as Speaker. Now, that's not a warning to you, Joe. Actually, he had to wait until the people had forgotten he was in the Legislature. Most of the rest of us have tried it, but that's all right—it's fun to make a pitch at it.

A remark was made here by Speaker Ehlers about how you don't have to be a member of the Legislature to be Speaker. Nothing in the rules or the Constitution says that you have to be a member. Well, he has probably forgotten this, but when they were having this big squabble about how they were going to settle the 49/49 tie, Representative Berentson came to me—I was lobbying—and said, "Wouldn't you like to be Speaker again? You don't have to be a member." I said, "No thank you. I've had my turn." So they worked out something that I'm sure worked better, because I can't imagine a worse job than being Speaker when you have an even division on the floor. You'd have to decide every single question that came up.

It has been fun to be associated with the Legislature. I do recognize that the problems are greater maybe, in some ways, than when we were here. I am still astonished at the amount of help it really takes to run this place. When I first came here as a member, we had fifteen people in a typing pool, who were mostly wives or cousins of members—incidentally, my sister happened to be one of them, so I'm admitting it wasn't unusual. I dictated letters, sent them in and when they came back, I couldn't tell what it was all about. That's how good our help was, but we got by after a fashion, anyhow.

Good luck to you in all of your problems. I think you still do a pretty good job, even though you don't do everything just like I'd like to have it. Thank you.

The Speaker introduced former Speaker Jack Sylvester, who served as Speaker of the House of Representatives from 1939 to 1940.

Speaker Sylvester: Mr. Speaker, past Speakers and members of the House: Someone asked me the other day how I became Speaker. It was kind of funny. We had seventy-five Democrats and twenty-four Republicans in the Legislature. I ran for Speaker and abstained from voting. Had I voted for myself, I wouldn't have needed a Republican vote. But I abstained from voting, and that meant I only had forty-nine votes, because there were twenty-five against me.

I enjoyed being Speaker. One of the funny things that happened, after I was Speaker, involved John O'Brien. I think I had contributed twenty-five dollars to his campaign. He came into my office and said, "Jack, you have the record of being Speaker during your second session. I'd like to break that. I'd like to be Speaker during my first session." I said, "John, how many people do you know in the Legislature?" He said, "About fourteen or fifteen." I said, "No, don't even run."

We had passed a referendum during session to raise the legislators' salaries. We were getting five dollars a day when we were in session. I went around the state—I wasn't married then and had an old Ford roadster—asking people to bring this up to a vote, because we wanted one hundred dollars a month. I was over in Wapato at a big Grange meeting and the place was packed. I told them that I was the Speaker; I was in Olympia for sixty-three days; I lost nine pounds and had to get new glasses; and I was getting five dollars a day. One guy, a big farmer, said back to me, "Yes, and you're overpaid at that."

Another funny thing happened here in the Legislature: Joe Hurley from Spokane came to me and said, "Jack, I'm going to get heck when I get back to Spokane. I've got a bill here pertaining to court reporters, lawyers and so forth, and the time is past for introducing new bills." I told him to see Ed Reilly, Chairman of the Judiciary Committee, and Si Holcomb, the Chief Clerk, and get a bill that pertained in some way to lawyers. So he did; he got a bill put out. Then I told him to make a motion to amend that bill to put his bill in, but Joe lost his nerve. So up came what was called the "Vic Meyers bill," which would allow anyone who had served two terms in the Legislature to take the bar. I got one of the members from Spokane to get up and move that anyone, who had been in the Legislature for two terms, could take the medical exam. And that only lost by two votes. When I spoke, I almost blew out the speaker. I opposed the bill, and couldn't believe it, but we passed it. I called the Governor and told him I wanted to talk to him about the bill. We were having a night session and I was told that the Governor wanted to see me over in the mansion about what we called the Vic Meyers bill. So I went right over, and he had the whole cabinet—all his aides—there. I looked at him and said, "Governor, we recently added a year on to law school at the University of Washington. If this bill stands, legislators are going to take the bar and not be able to pass it, and they will do away with the bar association act. Governor, I want you to veto that bill." He said that he had never told anyone ahead of time whether he would pass or veto a bill. I said, "Governor, if you just wait five days, I will not get lawyers from the Bar Association to pressure you. I think in your good judgment, you will veto that bill." I went back that night and couldn't go to sleep. I thought about how I could defeat the Governor on this thing. So the next morning—the sixty-first day—we had to put the Call of the House on to keep the members in session. Ed Reilly came up and I asked him to take the Call of the House off. He said, "Jack, we're not ready to go home. We haven't passed the appropriations bill, supplemental appropriations, or the bill that funds the budget." I said, "Ed, take the Call of the House off." He said, "Jack, some of these guys are mad now and will go home." I said, "You and I are the only two guys on the floor that know that. Take the Call of the House off." Then I went over to the Governor, who had some teachers in with him, and said, "I want to see the Governor right now." He took these people into the next room, and I said, "Governor, I'm sorry; I'm breaking my word. I told you that I wouldn't bring any pressure. Governor, I want you to promise me that you will veto that bill." He looked at me. I said, "Governor, we haven't passed the three bills we came to the Legislature for," and I told him what they were. He was shaking as much as I was. I said, "Governor, I'm going home now and taking the guts of the Legislature with me. You'll have to call a special session, while the session is in session. And you'll never be elected to office in this state again. I'm going home." He said, "Jack, I think you better go back to work." And we did. That's what happened.

I could reminisce about a lot of stories that happened. There are only two people here I recognize—Ed Henry and Charlie Hodde. I'll be eighty next June. Thank you very much. I appreciate it.

The Speaker recognized former member Chester Biesen, who served from 1927 to 1930, the earliest serving member in attendance. Mr. Biesen served his first term in the Old Capitol Building and was a member of the official march to the new and present Capitol Building in 1929. He later served as a lobbyist for the Association of Washington Cities for thirty-six years and retired from a second career when he was eighty-three years old.

Mr. Biesen was welcomed back by the current and former members of the House of Representatives.

The Speaker declared the House to be at ease until 2:00 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Appelwick yielded to question by Ms. Haugen.

Ms. Haugen: Representative Appelwick, section 2 of the bill contains prohibitions that make certain activities regarding native Indian burial sites and artifacts illegal. There is, however, an exemption provided so that performance of official law enforcement duties are not covered by these prohibitions. Does this exemption for official law enforcement duties include the official duties of county coroners?

Mr. Appelwick: Yes, Representative Haugen, that exemption for official law enforcement duties includes the official duties of county coroners. County coroners will not be liable under section 2 of the bill for performing their official duties.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Appelwick yielded to question by Mr. Hargrove.

Mr. Hargrove: Representative Appelwick, does the reference to tribal court in section 3 of the bill expand or alter the jurisdiction of the tribal courts?

Mr. Appelwick: No, the bill does not change the present status of state versus Indian law. If a crime is committed on the reservation, the perpetrator would be brought into the tribal court on that offense and the legislation is not intended to expand the jurisdiction of the tribal courts in any way.

Representatives Appelwick and Padden spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

CENTENNIAL MESSAGE FROM THE WASHINGTON STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

April 5, 1989

On this day in 1889, Dyes Inlet, across the bay from Port Orchard, was selected as the site for a proposed navy yard. The Navy Department in Washington, D.C., still had to approve. Newspapers noted that real estate prices in the vicinity "went up like a rocket." And, the Walla Walla penitentiary's brickyard was producing thirty thousand bricks a day, and the capacity soon would be doubled.

On April 5, 1958 shipping from Washington to Alaska could move more safely up the Inside Passage after the world's largest non-nuclear explosion (1,375 tons) destroyed Ripple Rock, a dangerous mineral formation in the channel.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

April 4, 1989

To the Honorable,
The House of Representatives
State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I have the honor to advise you that on April 4, 1989, Governor Gardner approved the following House Bills entitled

HOUSE BILL NO. 1138: Relating to honey bees;

HOUSE BILL NO. 1912: Relating to fingerprinting.

Terry Sebring, Counsel.

There being no objection, the House advanced to the fourth order of business.

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Brough: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. As a member who sits across this aisle, I am quite honestly very tired of hearing what is alive and dead because we are considering a policy decision on the floor of this House. I take offense to such a comment.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): Reed's Rules 224, "References to Another Legislative Branch," states "it is not permissible to allude to the action of the other house of a legislature, or to refer to a debate there. Such conduct might lead to misunderstanding and ill-will between two bodies which cooperate in order to properly serve the people. So, also, the action of the other body should not be referred to to influence the body the member is addressing." I think we should be very careful about making references to the other body, and the other body should be careful about making references to us. So, hold your comments to the merits or demerits of the amendment.

Mr. Heavey concluded his remarks against adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Crane demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

CENTENNIAL MESSAGE FROM THE WASHINGTON STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

April 6, 1989

On this day in 1889, near the Columbia River, reports said that cattle raisers had poisoned several hundred sheep and swore that no sheep could summer on their range. Such reports were sometimes false rumors, but the battles between sheep owners and cattle owners for access to grass were very real. And a new Postmaster assumed office in Ellensburg, appointed by the new national administration of Benjamin Harrison. Postmasters were significant patronage posts.

On April 6, 1937 Grays Harbor's last two veterans of the Civil War, Amos Berry and Thomas Boyles, were honored.

On April 6, 1941 the last operating streetcar in Seattle made its final run

There being no objection, the House advanced to the fifth order of business.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

RESOLUTIONS

HOUSE FLOOR RESOLUTION NO. 89-4661, by Representatives Leonard, Holland, Prentice and Cole

WHEREAS, Beth Slingerland, an internationally-known educator in the field of Dyslexia or Specific Language Disability, died on March 22, 1989 in Seattle, Washington at the age of 89; and

WHEREAS, Beth Slingerland worked as a classroom teacher in Renton, Washington and coordinated the Specific Language Disability Program there from 1944 until 1965; and

WHEREAS, Beth Slingerland developed a classroom adaptation of the Orton-Gillingham approach for remediating dyslexic children and devoted herself to helping such children; and

WHEREAS, The Slingerland Approach has been used in hundreds of schools across the country and has benefited thousands of dyslexic children; and

WHEREAS, From 1977 until recently, Beth Slingerland served as trustee and advisor to the Slingerland Institute, which is headquartered in Bellevue, Washington; and

WHEREAS, The Slingerland Institute trains approximately six hundred teachers each year in fifteen states and Canada, and Slingerland training was offered in Australia for the first time in 1989; and

WHEREAS, Beth Slingerland authored many books, texts and articles in the field of Dyslexia and developed many beneficial screening tests for children; and

WHEREAS, Beth Slingerland stated in a brief autobiography, "Over the years, I have received much support for what I have worked to accomplish, but along the way I had good training in learning how to withstand opposition and even denial of the existence of a cause and a purpose of search because it was unknown. I came to believe that such criticism was not directed so much at me as at what was unknown. . .";

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State House of Representatives recognize and honor the memory of Beth Slingerland for her dedication and commitment to studying and treating Dyslexia; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this Resolution be immediately transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to John Slingerland, Beth Slingerland's husband, and to the Slingerland Institute.

On page 22, after line 22 of the amendment, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 19. The department of licensing and the Washington state patrol shall conduct a study of the fees charged for registration of tow truck operators and tow trucks and the costs of administering the tow truck operator program in the department and the Washington state patrol to determine what fees would be necessary to defray the program costs. The department and the state patrol shall report the study findings to the legislative transportation committee by December 1, 1989."

Renumber the sections following consecutively, and correct internal references accordingly.

Mr. Walk spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment to the committee amendment, and it was adopted.

The committee amendment as amended was adopted.

With consent of the House, the following amendments to the committee amendment to the title were adopted:

On page 23, line 4 of the title amendment, after 46.55 RCW;" insert "creating a new section;"

With consent of the House, the committee amendment as amended to the title was adopted.

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Mr. Walk spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Heavey yielded to question by Mr. Nelson.

Mr. Nelson: Representative Heavey, is the language in this bill, which prohibits the association of a tow truck operator and a person or company that authorizes impound, strong enough to rectify the problem of the people who spot cars for tow truck companies and sign for the impounds? This is a major problem around the University of Washington.

Mr. Heavey: Representative Nelson, I believe the language we have in this bill leaves it to the discretion of the court to judge whether the relationship between the tow truck company and another company is legal. I also believe the courts are in a better position to judge the fairness of the relationship with the broader language currently in the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5440 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 96; excused, 2.

MOTION

Mr. Heavey moved that the House defer consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5866 and that the bill hold its place on the second reading calendar. The motion was carried.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1802, by Representatives P. King and Scott

Creating a new court of appeals position for Snohomish county.

The bill was read the second time.

Mr. R. Meyers moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives R. Meyers, Appelwick, P. King, May and Ferguson:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes the dramatic increase in cases filed in superior court over the last six years in King, Pierce, and Snohomish counties. This increase has created a need for more superior court judges in those counties.

The increased caseload at the superior court level has also caused a similar increase in the case and petition filings in the court of appeals. Currently, the additional caseload is being handled by pro tempore judges and excessive caseloads for permanent judges. The addition of a permanent full-time judge will allow the court to more efficiently process the growing caseload.

By the creation of these additional positions, it is the intent of the legislature to promote the careful judicial review of cases by an elected judiciary.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 125, Laws of 1951 as last amended by section 1, chapter 323, Laws of 1987 and RCW 2.08.061 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be in the county of King no more than forty-six judges of the superior court; in the county of Spokane ten judges of the superior court; and in the county of Pierce (~~(fifteen))~~ nineteen judges of the superior court.

Sec. 3. Section 6, chapter 125, Laws of 1951 as last amended by section 3, chapter 357, Laws of 1985 and RCW 2.08.064 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be in the counties of Benton and Franklin jointly, five judges of the superior court; in the county of Clallam, two judges of the superior court; in the county of Jefferson, one judge of the superior court; in the county of Snohomish, (~~(nine))~~ eleven judges of the superior court; in the counties of Asotin, Columbia and Garfield jointly, one judge of the superior court; in the county of Cowlitz, three judges of the superior court; in the counties of Klickitat and Skamania jointly, one judge of the superior court.

Sec. 4. Section 1, chapter 126, Laws of 1913 as last amended by section 3, chapter 66, Laws of 1988 and RCW 2.32.180 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be and is the duty of each and every superior court judge in counties or judicial districts in the state of Washington having a population of over thirty-five thousand inhabitants to appoint, or said judge may, in any county or judicial district having a population of over twenty-five thousand and less than thirty-five thousand, appoint a stenographic reporter to be attached to the court holden by him who shall have had at least three years' experience as a skilled, practical reporter, or who upon examination shall be able to report and transcribe accurately one hundred and seventy-five words per minute of the judge's charge or two hundred words per minute of testimony each for five consecutive minutes; said test of proficiency, in event of inability to meet qualifications as to length of time of experience, to be given by an examining committee composed of one judge of the superior court and two official reporters of the superior court of the state of Washington, appointed by the president judge of the superior court judges association of the state of Washington: PROVIDED, That a stenographic reporter shall not be required to be appointed for the seven additional judges of the superior court authorized for appointment by section 1, chapter 323, Laws of 1987 (~~(or)~~), the additional superior court judge authorized by section 1, chapter 66, Laws of 1988, or the additional superior court judges authorized by sections 2 and 3 of this 1989 act. The initial judicial appointee shall serve for a period of six years; the two initial reporter appointees shall serve for a period of four years and two years, respectively, from September 1, 1957; thereafter on expiration of the first terms of service, each newly appointed member of said examining committee to serve for a period of six years. In the event of death or inability of a member to serve, the president judge shall appoint a reporter or judge, as the case may be, to serve for the balance of the unexpired term of the member whose inability to serve caused such vacancy. The examining committee shall grant certificates to qualified applicants. Administrative and procedural rules and regulations shall be promulgated by said examining committee, subject to approval by the said president judge.

The stenographic reporter upon appointment shall thereupon become an officer of the court and shall be designated and known as the official reporter for the court or judicial district for which he is appointed: PROVIDED, That in no event shall there be appointed more official reporters in any one county or judicial district than there are superior court judges in such county or judicial district; the appointments in each class AA county shall be made by the majority vote of the judges in said county acting en banc; the appointments in class A counties and counties of the first class may be made by each individual judge therein or by the judges in said county acting en banc. Each official reporter so appointed shall hold office during the term of office of the judge or judges appointing him, but may be removed for incompetency, misconduct or neglect of duty, and before entering upon the discharge of his duties shall take an oath to perform faithfully the duties of his office, and file a bond in the sum of two thousand dollars for the faithful discharge of his duties. Such reporter in each court is hereby declared to be a necessary part of the judicial system of the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The additional judicial positions created by sections 2 and 3 of this act in Pierce and Snohomish counties shall be effective only if the county through its duly constituted legislative authority documents its approval of any additional positions and its agreement that it will pay out of county funds, without reimbursement from the state, the expenses of such additional judicial positions as provided by statute. The additional expenses include, but are not limited to, expenses incurred for court facilities.

Sec. 6. Section 5, chapter 323, Laws of 1987 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

Sections 1 and 2 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1988. The additional judicial positions created by sections 1 and 2 of this act in King county and Chelan and Douglas counties shall be effective only if each county through its duly constituted legislative authority documents its approval of any additional positions and its agreement that it will pay out of county funds, without reimbursement from the state, the expenses of such additional judicial positions as provided by statute. The additional expenses include, but are not limited to, expenses incurred for court facilities. The legislative ~~((authority))~~ authorities of ((each county)) Chelan and Douglas counties may in ((its)) their discretion phase in any additional judicial positions over a period of time not to extend beyond January 1, 1990. The legislative authority of King county may in its discretion phase in any additional judicial positions over a period of time not to extend beyond January 1, 1991.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) Three additional judicial positions created by section 2 of this 1989 act shall be effective January 1, 1990.

(2) One additional judicial position created by section 3 of this act shall be effective July 1, 1990; the second position shall be effective not later than June 30, 1991.

Sec. 8. Section 36.32.400, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 7, chapter 106, Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 36.32.400 are each amended to read as follows:

Any county by a majority vote of its board of county commissioners may enter into contracts to provide health care services and/or group insurance for the benefit of its employees, and may pay all or any part of the cost thereof. Any two or more counties, by a majority vote of their respective boards of county commissioners may, if deemed expedient, join in the procuring of such health care services and/or group insurance, and the board of county commissioners of each participating county may, by appropriate resolution, authorize their respective counties to pay all or any portion of the cost thereof.

Nothing in this section shall impair the eligibility of any employee of a county, municipality, or other political subdivision under RCW 41.04.205.

For the purposes of this section, 'employee' and 'employees' shall not include superior court judges, whose benefits are provided by the state.

Sec. 9. Section 1, chapter 75, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 1, chapter 82, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 41.04.180 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any county, municipality, or other political subdivision of the state acting through its principal supervising official or governing body may, whenever funds shall be available for that purpose provide for all or a part of hospitalization and medical aid for its employees and their dependents through contracts with regularly constituted insurance carriers or with health care service contractors as defined in chapter 48.44 RCW ~~((or self-insurers as provided for in chapter 48.52 RCW))~~ for group hospitalization and medical aid policies or plans: PROVIDED, That any county, municipality, or other political subdivision of the state acting through its principal supervising official or governing body shall provide the employees thereof a choice of policies or plans through contracts with not less than two regularly constituted insurance carriers or health care service contractors or other health care plans ~~((including but not limited to, trusts of self-insurance as provided for in chapter 48.52 RCW))~~; AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That any county may provide such hospitalization and medical aid to county elected officials and their dependents on the same basis as such hospitalization and medical aid is provided to other county employees and their dependents: PROVIDED FURTHER, That provision for school district personnel shall not be made under this section but shall be as provided for in RCW 28A.58.420.

(2) For the purposes of this section, 'employees' and 'elected officials' shall not include superior court judges, whose benefits are provided by the state.

Sec. 10. Section 2, chapter 221, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 49, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 2.06.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The court shall have three divisions, one of which shall be headquartered in Seattle, one of which shall be headquartered in Spokane, and one of which shall be headquartered in Tacoma:

(1) The first division shall have ~~((eight))~~ nine judges from three districts, as follows:

(a) District 1 shall consist of King county and shall have six judges;

(b) District 2 shall consist of Snohomish county and shall have ~~((one))~~ two judges; and

(c) District 3 shall consist of Island, San Juan, Skagit and Whatcom counties and shall have one judge.

(2) The second division shall have four judges from the following districts:

(a) District 1 shall consist of Pierce county and shall have two judges:

(b) District 2 shall consist of Clallam, Grays Harbor, Jefferson, Kitsap, Mason, and Thurston counties and shall have one judge;

(c) District 3 shall consist of Clark, Cowlitz, Lewis, Pacific, Skamania, and Wahkiakum counties and shall have one judge.

(3) The third division shall have four judges from the following districts:

(a) District 1 shall consist of Ferry, Lincoln, Okanogan, Pend Oreille, Spokane and Stevens counties and shall have two judges;

(b) District 2 shall consist of Adams, Asotin, Benton, Columbia, Franklin, Garfield, Grant, Walla Walla, and Whitman counties and shall have one judge;

(c) District 3 shall consist of Chelan, Douglas, Kittitas, Klickitat and Yakima counties and shall have one judge.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 2.06 RCW to read as follows:

The new judicial position for the first division, district 2, Snohomish county created pursuant to the 1989 amendment to RCW 2.06.020 shall become effective January 1, 1990, and shall be filled by gubernatorial appointment.

The person appointed by the governor shall hold office until the general election to be held in November 1990. At the general election, the judge appointed shall be entitled to run for a term of six years or until the second Monday in January 1997, and until a successor is elected and qualified. Thereafter, the judge shall be elected for a term of six years and until a successor is elected and qualified, commencing with the second Monday in January succeeding the election."

Mr. R. Meyers spoke in favor of the amendment, and it was adopted. .

On motion of Mr. R. Meyers, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "appeals;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 2.08.061, 2.08.064, 2.32.180, 36.32.400, 41.04.180, and 2.06.020; amending section 5, chapter 323, Laws of 1987 (uncodified); adding a new section to chapter 2.06 RCW; and creating new sections."

The bill was ordered engrossed. With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Appelwick, Padden and Ferguson spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

2SSB 5400

Prime Sponsor, Committee on Ways & Means: Regarding mental health systems. Reported by Committee on Human Services

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 204, Laws of 1982 as amended by section 1, chapter 274, Laws of 1986 and RCW 71.24.015 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the intent of the legislature to establish a community mental health program which shall help people experiencing mental illness to retain a respected and productive position in the community. This will be accomplished through programs which provide(s) for:

(1) Access to mental health services for adults and children of the state who are acutely mentally ill, seriously disturbed, or chronically mentally ill, which services recognize the special needs of underserved populations, including minorities, children, the elderly, disabled, and low-income persons. It is also the purpose of this chapter to ensure that children in need of mental health care and treatment receive the care and treatment appropriate to their developmental level, and to enable treatment decisions to be made in response to clinical needs and in accordance with sound professional judgment while also recognizing parents' rights to participate in treatment decisions for their children;

(2) Accountability of services through state-wide standards for ((management;)) monitoring((;)) and reporting of information;

(3) Minimum service delivery standards;

(4) Priorities for the use of available resources for the care of the mentally ill;

(5) Coordination of services within the department, including those divisions within the department that provide services to children, between the department and the office of the superintendent of public instruction, and among state mental hospitals, county authorities, community mental health services, and other support services, which ((may)) shall to the maximum extent feasible also include the families of the mentally ill, and other service providers; and

(6) Coordination of services aimed at reducing duplication in service delivery and promoting complementary services among all entities that provide mental health services to adults and children.

It is the policy of the state to encourage the provision of a full range of treatment and rehabilitation services in the state for mental disorders. The legislature intends to encourage the development of county-based services with adequate local flexibility to assure eligible people in need of care access to the least-restrictive treatment alternative appropriate to their needs, and the availability of treatment components to assure continuity of care. To this end, counties are encouraged to enter into joint operating agreements with other counties to form regional systems of care which integrate planning, administration, and service delivery duties assigned to counties under chapters 71.05 and 71.24 RCW to consolidate administration, reduce administrative layering, and reduce administrative costs.

It is further the intent of the legislature to integrate the provision of services to provide continuity of care through all phases of treatment. To this end the legislature intends to promote active engagement with mentally ill persons and collaboration between families and service providers.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 204, Laws of 1982 as amended by section 2, chapter 274, Laws of 1986 and RCW 71.24.025 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Acutely mentally ill' means a condition which is limited to a short-term severe crisis episode of:

(a) A mental disorder as defined in RCW 71.05.020(2) or, in the case of a child, as defined in RCW 71.34.020(12);

(b) Being gravely disabled as defined in RCW 71.05.020(1) or, in the case of a child, as defined in RCW 71.34.020(8); or

(c) Presenting a likelihood of serious harm as defined in RCW 71.05.020(3) or, in the case of a child, as defined in RCW 71.34.020(11).

(2) 'Available resources' means those funds which shall be appropriated under this chapter by the legislature during any biennium for the purpose of providing community mental health programs under RCW 71.24.045. When regional support networks are established or after July 1, 1995, 'available resources' means federal funds, except those provided according to Title XIX of the social security act, and state funds appropriated under this chapter or chapter 71.05 RCW by the legislature during any biennium for the purpose of providing residential services, resource management services, community support services, and other mental health services. This does not include funds appropriated for the purpose of operating and administering the state psychiatric hospitals, except as negotiated according to section 5(1)(d) of this act.

(3) 'Licensed service provider' means an entity licensed ~~((by the department))~~ according to this chapter or chapter 71.05 RCW that meets state minimum standards or individuals licensed under chapter 18.57, 18.71, 18.83, or 18.88 RCW.

(4) 'Child' means a person under the age of eighteen years.

(5) 'Chronically mentally ill person' means a child or adult who has a mental disorder, in the case of a child as defined by chapter 71.34 RCW, and meets at least one of the following criteria:

(a) Has undergone two or more episodes of hospital care for a mental disorder within the preceding two years or, in the case of a child, has been placed by the department or its designee two or more times outside of the home, where the placements are related to a mental disorder, as defined in chapter 71.34 RCW, and where the placements progress toward a more restrictive setting. Placements by the department include but are not limited to placements by child protective services and child welfare services;

(b) Has experienced a continuous psychiatric hospitalization or residential treatment exceeding six months' duration within the preceding year;

(c) Has been unable to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any mental disorder which has lasted for a continuous period of not less than twelve months. 'Substantial gainful activity' shall be defined by the department by rule consistent with Public Law 92-603, as amended, and shall include school attendance in the case of a child; or

(d) In the case of a child, has been subjected to continual distress as indicated by repeated physical or sexual abuse or neglect.

(6) 'Community mental health program' means all mental health services established by a county authority. After July 1, 1995, or when the regional support networks are established, 'community mental health program' means all activities or programs using available resources.

(7) 'Community support services' means services for acutely and chronically mentally ill persons and includes: (a) Discharge planning for clients leaving state mental hospitals, other acute care inpatient facilities, inpatient psychiatric facilities for persons under twenty-one years of age, and other children's mental health residential treatment facilities; (b) sufficient contacts with clients, families, schools, or significant others to provide for an effective program of community maintenance; and (c) medication monitoring. After July 1, 1995, or when regional support networks are established, for adults and children 'community support services' means services authorized, planned, and coordinated through resource management services including, at least, assessment, diagnosis, emergency crisis intervention available twenty-four hours, seven days a week, prescreening determinations for mentally ill persons being considered for placement in nursing homes as required by federal law, screening for patients being considered for admission to residential services, investigation, legal, and other nonresidential services under chapter 71.05 RCW, case management services, psychiatric treatment including medication supervision, counseling, psychotherapy, assuring transfer of relevant patient information between service providers, other services determined by regional support networks, and maintenance of a patient tracking system for chronically mentally ill persons.

(8) 'County authority' means the board of county commissioners, county council, or county executive having authority to establish a community mental health program, or two or more of the county authorities specified in this subsection which have entered into an agreement to provide a community mental health program.

~~((#))~~ (9) 'Department' means the department of social and health services.

~~((#))~~ (10) 'Mental health services' means community services pursuant to RCW 71.24.035(5)(b) and other services provided by the state for the mentally ill. When regional support networks are established, or after July 1, 1995, 'mental health services' shall include all services provided by regional support networks.

~~((#))~~ (11) 'Mentally ill persons' and 'the mentally ill' mean persons and conditions defined in subsections (1), (5), and ~~((#))~~ (15) of this section.

~~((#))~~ (12) 'Regional support network' means a county authority or group of county authorities recognized by the secretary that enter into joint operating agreements to contract with the secretary pursuant to this chapter.

(13) 'Residential services' means a facility or distinct part thereof which provides food ~~((; clothing;))~~ and shelter, and may include ~~((day))~~ treatment services ~~((as defined in RCW 71.24.045, for acutely mentally ill, chronically mentally ill, or seriously disturbed persons as defined in this section. Such facilities include, but are not limited to, congregate care facilities providing mental health client services as stipulated by contract with the department beginning January 1, 1982)).~~

When regional support networks are established, or after July 1, 1995, for adults and children 'residential services' means a complete range of residences and supports authorized by resource management services and which may involve a facility, a distinct part thereof, or services which support community living, for acutely mentally ill persons, chronically mentally ill persons, or seriously disturbed persons determined by the regional support network to be at risk of becoming acutely or chronically mentally ill. The services shall include at least evaluation and treatment services as defined in chapter 71.05 RCW, acute crisis respite care, long-term adaptive and rehabilitative care, and supervised and supported living services, and shall also include any residential services developed to service mentally ill persons in nursing homes.

((14) 'Resource management services' mean the planning, coordination, and authorization of residential services and community support services administered pursuant to an individual service plan for acutely mentally ill adults and children, chronically mentally ill adults and children, or seriously disturbed adults and children determined by the regional support network at their sole discretion to be at risk of becoming acutely or chronically mentally ill. Resource management services include seven day a week, twenty-four hour a day availability of information regarding mentally ill adults' and children's enrollment in services and their individual service plan to county-designated mental health professionals, evaluation and treatment facilities, and others as determined by the regional support network.

((+2)) (15) 'Seriously disturbed person' means a person who:

(a) Is gravely disabled or presents a likelihood of serious harm to ~~((himself))~~ oneself or others as a result of a mental disorder as defined in chapter 71.05 RCW;

(b) Has been on conditional release status at some time during the preceding two years from an evaluation and treatment facility or a state mental health hospital;

(c) Has a mental disorder which causes major impairment in several areas of daily living;

(d) Exhibits suicidal preoccupation or attempts; or

(e) Is a child diagnosed by a mental health professional, as defined in RCW 71.05.020, as experiencing a mental disorder which is clearly interfering with the child's functioning in family or school or with peers or is clearly interfering with the child's personality development and learning.

((+3)) (16) 'Secretary' means the secretary of social and health services.

((+4)) (17) 'State minimum standards' means: (a) Minimum requirements for ~~((management and))~~ delivery of mental health services as established by departmental rules and necessary to implement this chapter, including but not limited to ~~((county administration,))~~ licensing service providers~~((information, accountability, contracts,))~~ and services; ~~((and))~~ (b) minimum service requirements for licensed service providers for the provision of mental health services as established by departmental rules pursuant to chapter ~~((34.04))~~ 34.05 RCW as necessary to implement this chapter, including, but not limited to: Qualifications for staff providing services directly to mentally ill persons; the intended result of each service ~~((for those priority groups identified in RCW 71.24.035(b)))~~; and the rights and responsibilities of persons receiving mental health services pursuant to this chapter; (c) minimum requirements for residential services as established by the department in rule based on clients' functional abilities and not solely on their diagnoses, limited to health and safety, staff qualifications, and program outcomes. Minimum requirements for residential services are those developed in collaboration with consumers, families, counties, regulators, and residential providers serving the mentally ill. Minimum requirements encourage the development of broad-range residential programs, including integrated housing and cross-systems programs where appropriate, and do not unnecessarily restrict programming flexibility; and (d) minimum standards for community support services and resource management services, including at least qualifications for resource management services, client tracking systems, and the transfer of patient information between service providers.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 204, Laws of 1982 as last amended by section 1, chapter 105, Laws of 1987 and RCW 71.24.035 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department is designated as the state mental health authority.

(2) The secretary may provide for public, client, and licensed service provider participation in developing the state mental health program.

(3) The secretary shall provide for participation in developing the state mental health program for children and other underserved populations, by including ~~((children's))~~ representatives on any committee established to provide oversight to the state mental health program.

(4) The secretary shall be designated as the county authority if a county fails to meet state minimum standards or refuses to exercise responsibilities under RCW 71.24.045.

(5) The secretary shall:

(a) Develop a biennial state mental health program that incorporates county biennial needs assessments and county mental health service plans and state services for mentally ill adults and children. The secretary may also develop a six-year state mental health plan;

(b) Assure that any county community mental health program provides access to treatment for the county's residents in the following order of priority: (i) The acutely mentally ill; (ii) the chronically mentally ill; and (iii) the seriously disturbed. Such programs shall provide:

(A) Outpatient services;

(B) Emergency care services for twenty-four hours per day;

(C) Day treatment for mentally ill persons which includes training in basic living and social skills, supported work, vocational rehabilitation, and day activities. Such services may include therapeutic treatment. In the case of a child, day treatment includes age-appropriate basic living and social skills, educational and prevocational services, day activities, and therapeutic treatment;

(D) Screening for patients being considered for admission to state mental health facilities to determine the appropriateness of admission;

(E) Consultation and education services; and

(F) Community support services ~~((for acutely and chronically mentally ill persons which include: (f) Discharge planning for clients leaving state mental hospitals, other acute care inpatient facilities, inpatient psychiatric facilities for persons under twenty-one years of age, and other children's mental health residential treatment facilities; (ff) sufficient contacts with clients, families, schools, or significant others to provide for an effective program of community maintenance; and (fff) medication monitoring;));~~

(c) Develop and promulgate rules establishing state minimum standards for the ~~((man-agement and))~~ delivery of mental health services including, but not limited to:

(i) Licensed service providers;

(ii) ~~((County administration))~~ Regional support networks; and

~~((iii))~~ ~~((Information required to assure accountability of services delivered to the mentally ill; and~~

~~((iv))~~ Residential and inpatient services, ((if a county chooses to provide such optional ser-vices)) evaluation and treatment services and facilities under chapter 71.05 RCW, resource management services, and community support services;

(d) ~~((Assure coordination of services consistent with state minimum standards for individu-als who are released from a state hospital into the community to assure a continuum of care;~~

~~((e))~~ Assure that the special needs of minorities, the elderly, disabled, children, and low-in-come persons are met within the priorities established in ((subsection (5)(b) of) this section;

~~((ff))~~ (e) Establish a standard contract or contracts, consistent with state minimum stan-dards, which shall be used by the counties;

~~((g))~~ (f) Establish, to the extent possible, a standardized auditing procedure which mini-mizes paperwork requirements of county authorities and licensed service providers;

~~((hh))~~ (g) Develop and maintain an information system to be used by the state ((and)), counties, and regional support networks when they are established which shall include a tracking method which allows the department and regional support networks to identify men-tal health clients' participation in any mental health service or public program on an immedi-ate basis. The information system shall not include individual patient's case history files. Confidentiality of client information and records shall be maintained as provided in this chap-ter and in RCW 71.05.390, 71.05.400, 71.05.410, 71.05.420, 71.05.430, and 71.05.440. The system shall be fully operational no later than January 1, 1993; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That when a regional support network is established, the department shall have an operational interim tracking system for that network that will be adequate for the regional support network to per-form its required duties under this chapter;

~~((ii))~~ (h) License service providers who meet state minimum standards;

~~((j))~~ Establish criteria to evaluate the performance of counties in administering men-tal health programs as established under this chapter. Evaluation of community mental health services shall include all categories of illnesses treated, all types of treatment given, the num-ber of people treated, and costs related thereto; and

~~((k))~~ (i) Certify regional support networks that meet state minimum standards;

(j) Periodically inspect certified regional support networks and licensed service providers at reasonable times and in a reasonable manner; and

(k) Fix fees to be paid by evaluation and treatment centers to the secretary for the required inspections;

(l) Monitor and audit counties, regional support networks, and licensed service providers as needed to assure compliance with contractual agreements authorized by this chapter;

(m) Prior to September 1, ((1992)) 1989, adopt such rules as are necessary to implement the department's responsibilities under this chapter pursuant to chapter ((34.64)) 34.05 RCW; PRO-VIDED, That such rules shall be submitted to the appropriate committees of the legislature for review and comment prior to adoption; and

(n) Beginning July 1, 1989, and continuing through July 1, 1993, track by region and county the use and cost of state hospital and local evaluation and treatment facilities for seventy-two hour detention, fourteen, ninety, and one hundred eighty day commitments pursuant to chap-ter 71.05 RCW, voluntary care in state hospitals, and voluntary community inpatient care cov-ered by the medical assistance program. Service use and cost reports shall be provided to regions in a timely fashion at six-month intervals.

(o) The secretary shall use available resources appropriated specifically for community mental health programs only for programs under RCW 71.24.045. After July 1, 1995, or when regional support networks are established, available resources may be used only for regional support networks.

(7) Each certified regional support network and licensed service provider shall file with the secretary, on request, such data, statistics, schedules, and information as the secretary reason-ably requires. A certified regional support network or licensed service provider which, without good cause, fails to furnish any data, statistics, schedules, or information as requested, or files fraudulent reports thereof, may have its certification or license revoked or suspended.

(8) The secretary may suspend, revoke, limit, or restrict a certification or license, or refuse to grant a certification or license for failure to conform to the law, applicable rules and regulations, or applicable standards, or failure to meet the minimum standards established pursuant to this section.

(9) The superior court may restrain any regional support network or service provider from operating without certification or a license or any other violation of this section. The court may also review, pursuant to procedures contained in chapter 34.05 RCW, any denial, suspension, limitation, restriction, or revocation of certification or license, and grant other relief required to enforce the provisions of this chapter.

(10) Upon petition by the secretary, and after hearing held upon reasonable notice to the facility, the superior court may issue a warrant to an officer or employee of the secretary authorizing him or her to enter at reasonable times, and examine the records, books, and accounts of any regional support network or service provider refusing to consent to inspection or examination by the authority.

(11) The secretary shall adopt such rules as may be necessary to effectuate the intent and purposes of this chapter, which shall include but not be limited to certification and licensing and other action relevant to certifying regional support networks and licensing service providers.

(12) Notwithstanding the existence or pursuit of any other remedy, the secretary may, in the manner provided by law, upon the advice of the attorney general who shall represent the secretary in the proceedings, maintain an action in the name of the state for an injunction or other process against any person or governmental unit to restrain or prevent the establishment, conduct, or operation of a regional support network or service provider without certification or a license under this chapter.

(13) The standards for certification of evaluation and treatment facilities shall include standards relating to maintenance of good physical and mental health and other services to be afforded persons pursuant to this chapter and chapter 71.05 RCW, and shall otherwise assure the effectuation of the purposes and intent of this chapter and chapter 71.05 RCW.

(14)(a) The department, in consultation with affected parties, shall establish a distribution formula that reflects county needs assessments based on the number of persons who are acutely mentally ill, chronically mentally ill, and seriously disturbed as defined in chapter 71.24 RCW. The formula shall take into consideration the impact on counties of demographic factors in counties which result in concentrations of priority populations as defined in ((chapter 71.24 RCW)) subsection (15) of this section. These factors shall include the population concentrations resulting from commitments under the involuntary treatment act, chapter 71.05 RCW, to state psychiatric hospitals, as well as concentration in urban areas, at border crossings at state boundaries, and other significant demographic and workload factors.

(b) The department shall submit a proposed distribution formula in accordance with this section to the ways and means and ((human services)) health care and corrections committees of the senate and to the ways and means and human services committees of the house of representatives by ((January 1, 1988)) October 1, 1989. The formula shall also include a projection of the funding allocations that will result for each county, which specifies allocations according to priority populations, including the allocation for services to children and other underserved populations.

(15) To supersede duties assigned under subsection (5) (a) and (b) of this section, and to assure a county-based, integrated system of care for acutely mentally ill adults and children, chronically mentally ill adults and children, and seriously disturbed adults and children who are determined by regional support networks at their sole discretion to be at risk of becoming acutely or chronically mentally ill, the secretary shall encourage the development of regional support networks as follows:

By December 1, 1989, the secretary shall recognize regional support networks requested by counties or groups of counties.

All counties wishing to be recognized as a regional support network on December 1, 1989, shall submit their intentions regarding participation in the regional support networks by October 30, 1989, along with preliminary plans. Counties wishing to be recognized as a regional support network by January 1, 1993, shall submit their intentions by November 30, 1992, along with preliminary plans. The secretary shall assume all duties assigned to the nonparticipating counties under chapters 71.05 and 71.24 RCW on July 1, 1995. Such responsibilities shall include those which would have been assigned to the nonparticipating counties under regional support networks.

The implementation of regional support networks, or the secretary's assumption of all responsibilities under chapters 71.05 and 71.24 RCW, shall be included in all state and federal plans affecting the state mental health program including at least those required by this chapter, the medicaid program, and P.L. 99-660. Nothing in these plans shall be inconsistent with the intent and requirements of this chapter.

(16) The secretary shall:

(a) Disburse the first funds for the regional support networks that are ready to begin implementation by January 1, 1990, or within sixty days of approval of the biennial contract. The department must either approve or reject the biennial contract within sixty days of receipt.

(b) Enter into biennial contracts with regional support networks to begin implementation between January 1, 1990, and March 1, 1990, and complete implementation by June 1995. The contracts shall be consistent with available resources and plans submitted by participating regional support networks, and approved by the department.

(c) By July 1, 1993, allocate one hundred percent of available resources to regional support networks created by January 1, 1990, in a single grant. Regional support networks created by January 1, 1993, shall receive a single block grant by July 1, 1995. The grants shall include funds currently provided for all residential services, all services pursuant to chapter 71.05 RCW, and all community support services and shall be distributed in accordance with a formula submitted to the legislature by January 1, 1993, in accordance with subsection (14) of this section.

(d) By January 1, 1990, allocate available resources to regional support networks for community support services, resource management services, and residential services excluding evaluation and treatment facilities provided pursuant to chapter 71.05 RCW in a single grant using the distribution formula established in subsection (14) of this section.

(e) By March 1, 1990, or within sixty days of approval of the contract continuing through July 1, 1993, provide grants as specifically appropriated by the legislature to regional support networks for evaluation and treatment facilities for persons detained or committed for periods up to seventeen days according to chapter 71.05 RCW. For regional support networks created by January 1, 1993, provide grants as specifically appropriated by the legislature to regional support networks for evaluation and treatment facilities for persons detained or committed for periods up to seventeen days according to chapter 71.05 RCW through July 1, 1995.

(f) Notify regional support networks of their allocation of available resources at least sixty days prior to the start of a new biennial contract period.

(g) Study and report to the legislature by December 1, 1989, on expanding the use of federal Title XIX funds and the definition of institutions for mental diseases to provide services to persons who are acutely mentally ill, chronically mentally ill, or at risk of becoming so. The study shall also include an assessment of the impact of Title XIX funds and the definition of institutions for mental diseases on the use of state funds to provide needed mental health services to the chronically mentally ill.

(h) Deny funding allocations to regional support networks based solely upon formal findings of noncompliance with the terms of the regional support network's contract with the department. Written notice and at least thirty days for corrective action must precede any such action. In such cases, regional support networks shall have full rights to appeal under chapter 34.05 RCW.

(i) Identify in its departmental biennial operating and capital budget requests the funds requested by regional support networks to implement their responsibilities under this chapter.

(j) Contract to provide or, if requested, make grants to counties to provide technical assistance to county authorities or groups of county authorities to develop regional support networks.

(17) The department of social and health services, in cooperation with the state congressional delegation, shall actively seek waivers of federal requirements and such modifications of federal regulations as are necessary to allow federal medicaid reimbursement for services provided by free-standing evaluation and treatment facilities certified under chapter 71.05 RCW. The department shall periodically report its efforts to the health care and corrections committee of the senate and the human services committee of the house of representatives.

(18) The secretary shall establish a task force to examine the recruitment, training, and compensation of qualified mental health professionals in the community, which shall include the advantages and disadvantages of establishing a training academy, loan forgiveness program, or educational stipends offered in exchange for commitments of employment in mental health. The task force shall report back to the appropriate committees of the legislature by January 1, 1990.

Sec. 4, Section 5, chapter 204, Laws of 1982 as amended by section 5, chapter 274, Laws of 1986 and RCW 71.24.045 are each amended to read as follows:

The county authority shall:

(1) Submit biennial needs assessments beginning January 1, 1983, and mental health service plans which incorporate all services provided for by the county authority consistent with state minimum standards and which provide access to treatment for the county's residents including children and other underserved populations who are acutely mentally ill, chronically mentally ill, or seriously disturbed. The county program shall provide:

(a) Outpatient services;

(b) Emergency care services for twenty-four hours per day;

(c) Day treatment for mentally ill persons which includes training in basic living and social skills, supported work, vocational rehabilitation, and day activities. Such services may include therapeutic treatment. In the case of a child, day treatment includes age-appropriate basic living and social skills, educational and prevocational services, day activities, and therapeutic treatment:

(d) Screening for patients being considered for admission to state mental health facilities to determine appropriateness of admission;

(e) Consultation and education services;

(f) Residential and inpatient services, if the county chooses to provide such optional services; and

(g) Community support services ~~((for acutely and chronically mentally ill persons which include: (i) Discharge planning for clients leaving state mental hospitals, other acute care inpatient facilities, inpatient psychiatric facilities for persons under twenty-one years of age, and other children's mental health residential treatment facilities; (ii) sufficient contacts with clients, schools, families, or significant others to provide for an effective program of community maintenance; and (iii) medication monitoring)).~~

The county shall develop the biennial needs assessment based on clients to be served, services to be provided, and the cost of those services, and may include input from the public, clients, and licensed service providers. Each county authority may appoint a county mental health advisory board which shall review and provide comments on plans and policies developed by the county authority under this chapter. The composition of the board shall be broadly representative of the demographic character of the county and the mentally ill persons served therein. Length of terms of board members shall be determined by the county authority;

(2) Contract as needed with licensed service providers. The county authority may, in the absence of a licensed service provider entity, become a licensed service provider entity pursuant to minimum standards required for licensing by the department for the purpose of providing services not available from licensed service providers;

(3) Operate as a licensed service provider if it deems that doing so is more efficient and cost effective than contracting for services. When doing so, the county authority shall comply with rules promulgated by the secretary that shall provide measurements to determine when a county provided service is more efficient and cost effective. ~~((Whenever a county authority chooses to operate as a licensed service provider, the secretary shall act as the county authority for that service.))~~

(4) Monitor and perform biennial fiscal audits of licensed service providers who have contracted with the county to provide services required by this chapter. The monitoring and audits shall be performed by means of a formal process which insures that the licensed service providers and professionals designated in this subsection meet the terms of their contracts, including the minimum standards of ~~((management and))~~ service delivery as established by the department;

(5) Assure that the special needs of minorities, the elderly, disabled, children, and low-income persons are met within the priorities established in ~~((RCW 71.24.035(5)(b)))~~ this chapter;

(6) Maintain patient tracking information in a central location ~~((for the chronically mentally ill))~~ as required for resource management services;

(7) Use not more than two percent of state-appropriated community mental health funds, which shall not include federal funds, to administer community mental health programs under RCW 71.24.155: PROVIDED, That county authorities serving a county or combination of counties whose population is equal to or greater than that of a county of the first class may be entitled to sufficient state-appropriated community mental health funds to employ up to one full-time employee or the equivalent thereof in addition to the two percent limit established in this subsection when such employee is providing staff services to a county mental health advisory board;

(8) Coordinate services for individuals who have received services through the community mental health system and who become patients at a state mental hospital.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 71.24 RCW to read as follows:

A county authority or a group of county authorities whose combined population is no less than forty thousand may enter into a joint operating agreement to form a regional support network. The roles and responsibilities of county authorities shall be determined by the terms of that agreement and the provisions of law. The state mental health authority may not determine the roles and responsibilities of county authorities as to each other under regional support networks by rule, except to assure that all duties required of regional support networks are assigned and that a single authority has final responsibility for all available resources and performance under the regional support network's contract with the secretary.

(1) Regional support networks shall within three months of recognition submit an overall six-year operating and capital plan, timeline, and budget and submit progress reports and an updated two-year plan biennially thereafter, to assume within available resources all of the following duties by July 1, 1995, instead of those presently assigned to counties under RCW 71.24.045(1):

(a) Administer and provide for the availability of all resource management services, residential services, and community support services.

(b) Administer and provide for the availability of all investigation, transportation, court-related, and other services provided by the state or counties pursuant to chapter 71.05 RCW.

(c) By July 1, 1993, provide within the boundaries of each regional support network evaluation and treatment services for at least eighty-five percent of persons detained or committed for periods up to seventeen days according to chapter 71.05 RCW. Regional support networks with populations of less than one hundred fifty thousand may contract to purchase evaluation and treatment services from other networks. For regional support networks that are created after June 30, 1991, the requirements of (c) of this subsection must be met by July 1, 1995.

(d) By July 1, 1993, administer a portion of funds appropriated by the legislature to house mentally ill persons in state institutions from counties within the boundaries of any regional support network, with the exception of mentally ill offenders, and provide for the care of all persons needing evaluation and treatment services for periods up to seventeen days according to chapter 71.05 RCW in appropriate residential services, which may include state institutions. The regional support networks shall reimburse the state for use of state institutions at a rate equal to that assumed by the legislature when appropriating funds for such care at state institutions during the biennium when reimbursement occurs. The duty of a state hospital to accept persons for evaluation and treatment under chapter 71.05 RCW is limited by the responsibilities assigned to regional support networks under this section. For regional support networks that are created after June 30, 1991, the requirements of (d) of this subsection must be met by July 1, 1995.

(e) In the 1991-93 biennium, regional support networks which were recognized in 1989 shall include within their contracts measurable progress toward implementing evaluation and treatment goals, including agreements to reduce the overall number of detentions and agreements to divert a portion of short-term commitments from state hospitals established in the regional network plan: PROVIDED, That such agreements will not be required until the 1991 legislature has reviewed the feasibility and practicality of such agreements and has concurred with the appropriateness of such agreements.

(f) Administer and provide for the availability of all other mental health services, which shall include patient counseling, day treatment, consultation, education services, and mental health services to children as provided in this chapter.

(g) Establish standards and procedures for reviewing individual service plans and determining when that person may be discharged from resource management services.

(2) Regional support networks shall assume all duties assigned to county authorities by this chapter and chapter 71.05 RCW.

(3) A regional support network may request that any state-owned land, building, facility, or other capital asset which was ever purchased, deeded, given, or placed in trust for the care of the mentally ill and which is within the boundaries of a regional support network be made available to support the operations of the regional support network. State agencies managing such capital assets shall give first priority to requests for their use pursuant to this chapter.

(4) Each regional support network shall appoint a mental health advisory board which shall review and provide comments on plans and policies developed under this chapter. The composition of the board shall be broadly representative of the demographic character of the region and the mentally ill persons served therein. Length of terms of board members shall be determined by the regional support network.

(5) Regional support networks shall assume all duties specified in their plans and joint operating agreements through biennial contractual agreements with the secretary.

(6) Counties or groups of counties participating in a regional support network are not subject to RCW 71.24.045(7). The office of financial management shall consider information gathered in studies required in this chapter and information about the experience of other states to propose a mental health services administrative cost lid to the 1991 legislature which shall include administrative costs of licensed service providers, the state psychiatric hospitals and the department.

(7) The first regional support network contract may include a pilot project to: Establish standards and procedures for (a) making referrals for comprehensive medical examinations and treatment programs for those whose mental illness is caused or exacerbated by organic disease, and (b) training staff in recognizing the relationship between mental illness and organic disease.

Sec. 6. Section 16, chapter 111, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 10, chapter 204, Laws of 1982 and RCW 71.24.160 are each amended to read as follows:

The county authority shall make satisfactory showing to the secretary that state funds shall in no case be used to replace local funds from any source being used to finance mental health services prior to January 1, (~~1982~~) 1990.

Sec. 7. Section 7, chapter 142, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 5, chapter 215, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 71.05.020 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this chapter:

(1) 'Gravely disabled' means a condition in which a person, as a result of a mental disorder: (a) is in danger of serious physical harm resulting from a failure to provide for his essential human needs of health or safety, or (b) manifests severe deterioration in routine functioning evidenced by repeated and escalating loss of cognitive or volitional control over his or her actions and is not receiving such care as is essential for his or her health or safety;

(2) 'Mental disorder' means any organic, mental, or emotional impairment which has substantial adverse effects on an individual's cognitive or volitional functions;

(3) 'Likelihood of serious harm' means either: (a) A substantial risk that physical harm will be inflicted by an individual upon his own person, as evidenced by threats or attempts to commit suicide or inflict physical harm on one's self, (b) a substantial risk that physical harm will be inflicted by an individual upon another, as evidenced by behavior which has caused such harm or which places another person or persons in reasonable fear of sustaining such harm, or (c) a substantial risk that physical harm will be inflicted by an individual upon the property of others, as evidenced by behavior which has caused substantial loss or damage to the property of others;

(4) 'Peace officer' means a law enforcement official of a public agency or governmental unit, and includes persons specifically given peace officer powers by any state law, local ordinance, or judicial order of appointment;

(5) 'Judicial commitment' means a commitment by a court pursuant to the provisions of this chapter;

(6) 'Public agency' means any evaluation and treatment facility or institution, hospital, or sanitarium which is conducted for, or includes a department or ward conducted for, the care and treatment of persons who are mentally ill or deranged, if the agency is operated directly by, federal, state, county, or municipal government, or a combination of such governments;

(7) 'Private agency' means any person, partnership, corporation, or association not defined as a public agency, whether or not financed in whole or in part by public funds, which constitutes an evaluation and treatment facility or private institution, hospital, or sanitarium, which is conducted for, or includes a department or ward conducted for the care and treatment of persons who are mentally ill;

(8) 'Attending staff' means any person on the staff of a public or private agency having responsibility for the care and treatment of a patient;

(9) 'Department' means the department of social and health services of the state of Washington;

(10) 'Resource management services' has the meaning given in chapter 71.24 RCW;

(11) 'Secretary' means the secretary of the department of social and health services, or his designee;

((+1)) (12) 'Mental health professional' means a psychiatrist, psychologist, psychiatric nurse, or social worker, and such other mental health professionals as may be defined by rules and regulations adopted by the secretary pursuant to the provisions of this chapter;

((+2)) (13) 'Professional person' shall mean a mental health professional, as above defined, and shall also mean a physician, registered nurse, and such others as may be defined by rules and regulations adopted by the secretary pursuant to the provisions of this chapter;

((+3)) (14) 'Psychiatrist' means a person having a license as a physician and surgeon in this state who has in addition completed three years of graduate training in psychiatry in a program approved by the American medical association or the American osteopathic association;

((+4)) (15) 'Psychologist' means a person who has been licensed as a psychologist pursuant to chapter 18.83 RCW;

((+5)) (16) 'Social worker' means a person with a master's or further advanced degree from an accredited school of social work or a degree from a graduate school deemed equivalent under rules and regulations adopted by the secretary;

((+6)) (17) 'Evaluation and treatment facility' means any facility which can provide directly, or by direct arrangement with other public or private agencies, emergency evaluation and treatment, outpatient care, and short term inpatient care to persons suffering from a mental disorder, and which is certified as such by the department of social and health services: PROVIDED, That a physically separate and separately operated portion of a state hospital may be designated as an evaluation and treatment facility: PROVIDED FURTHER, That a facility which is part of, or operated by, the department of social and health services or any federal agency will not require certification: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That no correctional institution or facility, or jail, shall be an evaluation and treatment facility within the meaning of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 71.05 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature intends that the procedures and services authorized in this chapter be integrated with those in chapter 71.24 RCW to the maximum extent necessary to assure a continuum of care to persons who are mentally ill or who have mental disorders, as defined in either or both this chapter and chapter 71.24 RCW. To this end, regional support networks established in accordance with chapter 71.24 RCW shall institute procedures which require timely consultation with resource management services by county-designated mental health professionals and evaluation and treatment facilities to assure that determinations to detain, commit, treat, or release persons with mental disorders under this chapter are made only after appropriate information regarding such person's treatment history and current treatment plan has been sought from resource management services.

Sec. 9. Section 22, chapter 142, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 10, chapter 145, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 71.05.170 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the designated county mental health professional petitions for detention of a person whose actions constitute a likelihood of serious harm to himself or others, or who is gravely disabled, the facility providing seventy-two hour evaluation and treatment must immediately accept on a provisional basis the petition and the person. The facility shall then evaluate the person's condition and admit or release such person in accordance with RCW 71.05.210. The facility shall notify in writing the court and the designated county mental health professional of the date and time of the initial detention of each person involuntarily detained in order that a probable cause hearing shall be held no later than seventy-two hours after detention..

The duty of a state hospital to accept persons for evaluation and treatment under this section may be limited by chapter 71.24 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. As used in this chapter or chapter 71.24 or 10.77 RCW, the following words and phrases shall have the meanings indicated.

(1) 'Registration records' include all the records of the department, regional support networks, treatment facilities, and other persons providing services to the department, county departments, or facilities which identify individuals who are receiving or who at any time have received services for mental illness.

(2) 'Treatment records' include registration and all other records concerning individuals who are receiving or who at any time have received services for mental illness, which are maintained by the department, by regional support networks and their staffs, and by treatment facilities. Treatment records do not include notes or records maintained for personal use by an individual providing treatment services for the department, regional support networks, or a treatment facility if the notes or records are not available to others.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) Informed consent for disclosure of information from court or treatment records to an individual, agency, or organization must be in writing and must contain the following information:

(a) The name of the individual, agency, or organization to which the disclosure is to be made;

(b) The name of the individual whose treatment record is being disclosed;

(c) The purpose or need for the disclosure;

(d) The specific type of information to be disclosed;

(e) The time period during which the consent is effective;

(f) The date on which the consent is signed; and

(g) The signature of the individual or person legally authorized to give consent for the individual.

(2) The files and records of court proceedings under chapter 71.05 RCW shall be closed but shall be accessible to any individual who is the subject of a petition and to the individual's attorney, guardian ad litem, resource management services, or service providers authorized to receive such information by resource management services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) Except as otherwise provided by law, all treatment records shall remain confidential. Treatment records may be released only to the persons designated in this section, or to other persons designated in an informed written consent of the patient.

(2) Treatment records of an individual may be released without informed written consent in the following circumstances:

(a) To an individual, organization, or agency as necessary for management or financial audits, or program monitoring and evaluation. Information obtained under this subsection shall remain confidential and may not be used in a manner that discloses the name or other identifying information about the individual whose records are being released.

(b) To the department, the director of regional support networks, or a qualified staff member designated by the director only when necessary to be used for billing or collection purposes. The information shall remain confidential.

(c) For purposes of research as permitted in chapter 42.48 RCW.

(d) Pursuant to lawful order of a court.

(e) To qualified staff members of the department, to the director of regional support networks, to resource management services responsible for serving a patient, or to service providers designated by resource management services as necessary to determine the progress and adequacy of treatment and to determine whether the person should be transferred to a less restrictive or more appropriate treatment modality or facility. The information shall remain confidential.

(f) Within the treatment facility where the patient is receiving treatment, confidential information may be disclosed to individuals employed, serving in bona fide training programs, or participating in supervised volunteer programs, at the facility when it is necessary to perform their duties.

(g) Within the department as necessary to coordinate treatment for mental illness, developmental disabilities, alcoholism, or drug abuse of individuals who are under the supervision of the department.

(h) To a licensed physician who has determined that the life or health of the individual is in danger and that treatment without the information contained in the treatment records could be injurious to the patient's health. Disclosure shall be limited to the portions of the records necessary to meet the medical emergency.

(i) To a facility that is to receive an individual who is involuntarily committed under chapter 71.05 RCW, or upon transfer of the individual from one treatment facility to another. The release of records under this subsection shall be limited to the treatment records required by law, a record or summary of all somatic treatments, and a discharge summary. The discharge summary may include a statement of the patient's problem, the treatment goals, the type of treatment which has been provided, and recommendation for future treatment, but may not include the patient's complete treatment record.

(j) Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 71.05.390(7), to a correctional facility or a corrections officer who is responsible for the supervision of an individual who is receiving inpatient or outpatient evaluation or treatment. Every person who is under the supervision of the department of corrections who receives evaluation or treatment under chapter 9.94A RCW shall be notified of the provisions of this section by the individual's corrections officer. Release of records under this section is limited to:

(i) An evaluation report provided pursuant to a written supervision plan.

(ii) The discharge summary, including a record or summary of all somatic treatments, at the termination of any treatment provided as part of the supervision plan.

(iii) When an individual is returned from a treatment facility to a correctional facility, the information provided under (j)(iv) of this subsection.

(iv) Any information necessary to establish or implement changes in the individual's treatment plan or the level or kind of supervision as determined by resource management services. In cases involving a person transferred back to a correctional facility, disclosure shall be made to clinical staff only. In cases involving a person under supervision of the department of corrections, disclosure shall be made to the supervising corrections officer only.

(k) To the individual's counsel or guardian ad litem, without modification, at any time in order to prepare for involuntary commitment or recommitment proceedings, reexaminations, appeals, or other actions relating to detention, admission, commitment, or patient's rights under chapter 71.05 RCW.

(l) To a corrections officer of the department who has custody of or is responsible for the supervision of an individual who is transferred or discharged from a treatment facility.

(m) To staff members of the protection and advocacy agency or to staff members of a private, nonprofit corporation for the purpose of protecting and advocating the rights of persons with mental illness or developmental disabilities. Resource management services may limit the release of information to the name, birthdate, and county of residence of the patient, information regarding whether the patient was voluntarily admitted, or involuntarily committed, the date and place of admission, placement, or commitment, the name and address of a guardian of the patient, and the date and place of the guardian's appointment. Any staff member who wishes to obtain additional information shall notify the patient's resource management services in writing of the request and of the resource management services' right to object. The staff member shall send the notice by mail to the guardian's address. If the guardian does not object in writing within fifteen days after the notice is mailed, the staff member may obtain the additional information. If the guardian objects in writing within fifteen days after the notice is mailed, the staff member may not obtain the additional information.

(3) Whenever federal law or federal regulations restrict the release of information contained in the treatment records of any patient who receives treatment for alcoholism or drug dependency, the department may restrict the release of the information as necessary to comply with federal law and regulations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) Procedures shall be established by resource management services to provide reasonable and timely access to individual treatment records. However, access may not be denied at any time to records of all medications and somatic treatments received by the individual.

(2) Following discharge, the individual shall have a right to a complete record of all medications and somatic treatments prescribed during admission or commitment and to a copy of the discharge summary prepared at the time of his or her discharge. A reasonable and uniform charge for reproduction may be assessed.

(3) Treatment records may be modified prior to inspection to protect the confidentiality of other patients or the names of any other persons referred to in the record who gave information on the condition that his or her identity remain confidential. Entire documents may not be withheld to protect such confidentiality.

(4) At the time of discharge all individuals shall be informed by resource management services of their rights as provided in sections 10 through 18 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Each time written information is released from a treatment record, the record's custodian shall make a notation in the record including the following: The name of the person to whom the information was released; the identification of the information released; the purpose of the release; and the date of the release. The patient shall have access to this release data.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Nothing in this act shall be construed to interfere with communications between physicians or psychologists and patients and attorneys and clients.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Any person, including the state or any political subdivision of the state, violating sections 10 through 18 of this act shall be subject to the provisions of RCW 71.05.440.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Any person who requests or obtains confidential information pursuant to sections 10 through 18 of this act under false pretenses shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. The department shall adopt rules to implement sections 10 through 17 of this act.

Sec. 19. Section 2, chapter 107, Laws of 1987, section 1, chapter 337, Laws of 1987, section 16, chapter 370, Laws of 1987, section 1, chapter 404, Laws of 1987 and section 10, chapter 411, Laws of 1987 and RCW 42.17.310 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) The following are exempt from public inspection and copying:

(a) Personal information in any files maintained for students in public schools, patients or clients of public institutions or public health agencies, or welfare recipients (~~(-prisoners, probationers, or parolees)~~).

(b) Personal information in files maintained for employees, appointees, or elected officials of any public agency to the extent that disclosure would violate their right to privacy.

(c) Information required of any taxpayer in connection with the assessment or collection of any tax if the disclosure of the information to other persons would (i) be prohibited to such persons by RCW 82.32.330 or (ii) violate the taxpayer's right to privacy or result in unfair competitive disadvantage to the taxpayer.

(d) Specific intelligence information and specific investigative records compiled by investigative, law enforcement, and penology agencies, and state agencies vested with the responsibility to discipline members of any profession, the nondisclosure of which is essential to effective law enforcement or for the protection of any person's right to privacy.

(e) Information revealing the identity of persons who file complaints with investigative, law enforcement, or penology agencies, other than the public disclosure commission, if disclosure would endanger any person's life, physical safety, or property: PROVIDED, That if at the time the complaint is filed the complainant indicates a desire for disclosure or nondisclosure, such desire shall govern: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That all complaints filed with the public disclosure commission about any elected official or candidate for public office must be made in writing and signed by the complainant under oath.

(f) Test questions, scoring keys, and other examination data used to administer a license, employment, or academic examination.

(g) Except as provided by chapter 8.26 RCW, the contents of real estate appraisals, made for or by any agency relative to the acquisition or sale of property, until the project or prospective sale is abandoned or until such time as all of the property has been acquired or the property to which the sale appraisal relates is sold, but in no event shall disclosure be denied for more than three years after the appraisal.

(h) Valuable formulae, designs, drawings, and research data obtained by any agency within five years of the request for disclosure when disclosure would produce private gain and public loss.

(i) Preliminary drafts, notes, recommendations, and intra-agency memorandums in which opinions are expressed or policies formulated or recommended except that a specific record shall not be exempt when publicly cited by an agency in connection with any agency action.

(j) Records which are relevant to a controversy to which an agency is a party but which records would not be available to another party under the rules of pretrial discovery for causes pending in the superior courts.

(k) Records, maps, or other information identifying the location of archaeological sites in order to avoid the looting or depredation of such sites.

(l) Any library record, the primary purpose of which is to maintain control of library materials, and to gain access to information, which discloses or could be used to disclose the identity of a library user.

(m) Financial information supplied by or on behalf of a person, firm, or corporation for the purpose of qualifying to submit a bid or proposal for (a) a ferry system construction or repair contract as required by RCW 47.60.680 through 47.60.750 or (b) highway construction or improvement as required by RCW 47.28.070.

(n) Railroad company contracts filed with the utilities and transportation commission under RCW 81.34.070, except that the summaries of the contracts are open to public inspection and copying as otherwise provided by this chapter.

(o) Financial and commercial information and records supplied by private persons pertaining to export services provided pursuant to chapter 53.31 RCW.

(p) Financial disclosures filed by private vocational schools under chapter 28C.10 RCW.

(q) Records filed with the utilities and transportation commission or attorney general under RCW 80.04.095 that a court has determined are confidential under RCW 80.04.095.

(r) Financial and commercial information and records supplied by businesses during application for loans or program services provided by chapters 43.31, 43.63A, and 43.168 RCW.

(s) Membership lists or lists of members or owners of interests of units in timeshare projects, subdivisions, camping resorts, condominiums, land developments, or common-interest communities affiliated with such projects, regulated by the department of licensing, in the files or possession of the department.

(t) Except as provided under section 2 of this 1987 act (1987 c 404 § 2), all applications for public employment, including the names of applicants, resumes, and other related materials submitted with respect to an applicant.

(u) The residential addresses and residential telephone numbers of employees or volunteers of a public agency which are held by the agency in personnel records, employment or volunteer rosters, or mailing lists of employees or volunteers.

(v) The residential addresses and residential telephone numbers of the customers of a public utility contained in the records or lists held by the public utility of which they are customers.

(w) Information obtained by the board of pharmacy as provided in RCW 69.45.090.

(2) Except for information described in subsection (1)(c)(i) of this section and confidential income data exempted from public inspection pursuant to RCW 84.40.020, the exemptions of this section are inapplicable to the extent that information, the disclosure of which would violate personal privacy or vital governmental interests, can be deleted from the specific records sought. No exemption may be construed to permit the nondisclosure of statistical information not descriptive of any readily identifiable person or persons.

(3) Inspection or copying of any specific records exempt under the provisions of this section may be permitted if the superior court in the county in which the record is maintained finds, after a hearing with notice thereof to every person in interest and the agency, that the exemption of such records is clearly unnecessary to protect any individual's right of privacy or any vital governmental function.

(4) Agency responses refusing, in whole or in part, inspection of any public record shall include a statement of the specific exemption authorizing the withholding of the record (or part) and a brief explanation of how the exemption applies to the record withheld.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. A new section is added to chapter 72.23 RCW to read as follows:

(1) It is the intent of the legislature to improve the quality of service at state hospitals, eliminate overcrowding, and more specifically define the role of the state hospitals. The legislature intends that eastern and western state hospitals shall become clinical centers for handling the most complicated long-term care needs. Over the next six years, their involvement in providing short-term and acute care shall be diminished in accordance with the revised responsibilities for mental health care under chapter 71.24 RCW. The legislature finds that establishment of the eastern state hospital board, the western state hospital board, and institutes for the study and treatment of mental disorders at both eastern state hospital and western state hospital will be instrumental in implementing the legislative intent.

(2)(a) The eastern state hospital board and the western state hospital board are each established. Members of the boards shall be appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate. Each board shall include:

(i) The director of the institute for the study and treatment of mental disorders established at the hospital;

(ii) One family member of a current or recent hospital resident;

(iii) One consumer of services;

(iv) One community mental health service provider;

(v) Two citizens with no financial or professional interest in mental health services;

(vi) One representative of the regional support network in which the hospital is located;

(vii) One representative from the staff who is a physician;

(viii) One representative from the nursing staff;

(ix) One representative from the other professional staff;

(x) One representative from the nonprofessional staff; and

(xi) One representative of a minority community.

(b) At least one representative listed in (a) (vii), (ix), or (x) of this subsection shall be a union member.

(c) Members shall serve four-year terms. Members of the board shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 and shall receive compensation as provided in RCW 43.03.240.

(3) The boards established under this section shall:

(a) Monitor the operation and activities of the hospital;

(b) Review and advise on the hospital budget;

(c) Make recommendations to the governor and the legislature for improving the quality of service provided by the hospital;

(d) Monitor and review the activities of the hospital in implementing the intent of the legislature set forth in this section;

(e) Report periodically to the governor and the legislature on the implementation of the legislative intent set forth in this section; and

(f) Consult with the secretary regarding persons the secretary may select as the superintendent of the hospital whenever a vacancy occurs.

(4)(a) There is established at eastern state hospital and western state hospital, institutes for the study and treatment of mental disorders. The institutes shall be operated by joint operating agreements between state colleges and universities and the department of social and health services. The institutes are intended to:

(i) Promote recruitment and retention of highly qualified professionals at the state hospitals;

(ii) Improve clinical care by exploring new, innovative, and scientifically based treatment models for persons presenting particularly difficult and complicated clinical syndromes;

(iii) Provide expanded training opportunities for existing staff at the state hospitals;

(iv) Promote bilateral understanding of treatment orientation, possibilities, and challenges between state hospital professionals and community mental health professionals.

(b) To accomplish these purposes the institutes may, within funds appropriated for this purpose:

(i) Enter joint operating agreements with state universities or other institutions of higher education to accomplish the placement and training of students and faculty in psychiatry, psychology, social work, occupational therapy, nursing, and other relevant professions at the state hospitals;

(ii) Design and implement clinical research projects to improve the quality and effectiveness of state hospital services and operations;

(iii) Enter into agreements with community mental health service providers to accomplish the exchange of professional staff between the state hospitals and community mental health service providers;

(iv) Establish a student loan forgiveness program to retain qualified professionals at the state hospitals when the superintendent has determined a shortage of such professionals exists.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, the institutes may enter into agreements with the department or the state hospitals which may involve changes in staffing necessary to implement improved patient care programs contemplated by this section.

(d) The institutes are authorized to seek and accept public or private gifts, grants, contracts, or donations to accomplish their purposes under this section.

(5) The department shall review the diagnoses and treatment history of hospital patients and create a plan to locate inappropriately placed persons into medicaid reimbursable nursing homes or other nonhospital settings. The plan shall be submitted to the legislature by June 30, 1990.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. The legislative budget committee shall conduct or contract for an evaluation of the implementation of this act, including but not limited to, the impact on inpatient psychiatric bed utilization particularly at the state hospitals, and submit a report to the appropriate legislative committees by December 1, 1992.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. The department of health, if created, or the office of financial management shall conduct a study of equitable and timely compensation for involuntary psychiatric services through a review of medical assistance rates paid to hospitals. The department, or office of financial management, shall submit a report and recommendations to the department of social and health services and appropriate legislative committees by December 1, 1989.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. Sections 10 through 18 of this act shall take effect on July 1, 1995, or when regional support networks are established.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. Sections 10 through 18 of this act are each added to chapter 71.05 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 4, chapter 274, Laws of 1986 and RCW 71.24.039; and

(2) Section 59, chapter 142, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 71.05.540.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. If specific funding for the purposes of this act, referencing this act by bill number, is not provided by June 30, 1989, in the omnibus appropriations act, this act shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "systems;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 71.24.015, 71.24.025, 71.24.035, 71.24.045, 71.24.160, 71.05.020, and 71.05.170; reenacting and amending RCW 42.17.310; adding a new section to chapter 71.24 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 71.05 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 72.23 RCW; creating new sections; repealing RCW 71.24.039 and 71.05.540; prescribing penalties; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency."

Signed by Representatives Bristow, Chair; Scott, Vice Chair; Moyer, Ranking Republican Member; Tate, Assistant Ranking Republican Member; Anderson, Brekke, Hargrove, Leonard, Raiter and Winsley.

Absent: Representative Padden.

Referred to Committee on Appropriations.

RESOLUTION

HOUSE FLOOR RESOLUTION NO. 89-4660, by Representatives Jacobsen, O'Brien and Locke

WHEREAS, Twenty-three students at Cleveland High School, along with their instructors, persevered for over a year and a half on a project to establish an official State Fossil for Washington; and

WHEREAS, The students performed extensive research on over forty animal and plant fossils found within Washington State to determine a select list of five fossils worthy of being the state fossil; and

WHEREAS, In completing this challenging project, the students also participated in two archeological digs; worked with paleontologists from the Burke Memorial Washington State Museum; viewed numerous slides; and integrated their scientific findings with election-year politics by asking students across the state to vote for the fossil which would best represent the State of Washington; and

WHEREAS, The students conducted the statewide poll of over nine hundred public and private schools by designing the ballot, mailing it and then tallying the votes to find that the Giant Ground Sloth (MEGALONYX JEFFERSON)—a six to nine foot-long creature that weighed at least two tons, that roamed the State of Washington about twelve thousand years ago, that was discovered in Washington State and is known to be among the best and most complete fossil specimens found anywhere in the United States—was the students' choice for state fossil; and

WHEREAS, During the course of this project, the students learned the valuable role fossils play in determining our state's geologic history; the principles of conducting scientific research; the democratic voting process; and the legislative procedures which make ideas into laws; and

WHEREAS, This class project provided an opportunity, not only to the students of Cleveland High School but also to students statewide, to participate directly in an effort they hope will result in a lasting contribution to the state, that of an official Washington State Fossil;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State House of Representatives recognize and commend the students of Cleveland High School for their academic excellence, diligence and achievement in this endeavor; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the members of the House of Representatives recognize and pay tribute to Doris Leonard, Cleveland High School Science Department teacher who led the students in the fossil project; Gary Smith, Cleveland High School teacher who assisted; Terrence Frest, Burke Museum paleontologist who provided the students invaluable instruction about Washington State fossils; and Connie Sidles, Seattle School Board member who suggested the project; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this Resolution be immediately transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to the Cleveland High School students who participated in this project, to Ms. Doris Leonard, to the Principal of Cleveland High School and to the Seattle School District Board.

Mr. Jacobsen moved adoption of the resolution. Representatives Jacobsen and Pruitt spoke in favor of the resolution.

House Floor Resolution No. 89-4660 was adopted.

Representatives Rasmussen and Todd appeared at the bar of the House.

There being no objection, the House reverted to the sixth order of business.

POINTS OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Ms. Fraser: I would like to bring to the attention of the House and to the people of the state the incredible feat of the Lewis and Clark Run, which concluded yesterday. This is a major centennial event of international proportions. We had teams here from many countries around the world, including Olympia's own sister city in Japan. The race started in Clarkston a week ago and concluded yesterday at Ilwaco. I attended the concluding ceremonies and ran the last few miles myself, and it was a total high to see the feeling of the people, who had run all the way across our beautiful state, and the appreciation they had for our history and for our geography. The trail run went through twelve counties, fifty-one communities and seventeen historic sites, and the people of our state really came out to welcome the runners and made us proud to be Washingtonians. The event was organized by the State Parks Department, the Olympia Rainrunners, the Washington Lewis and Clark Trail Committee, and the State Parks and Recreation Commission. On behalf of all of us, I would like to express appreciation to everybody who helped make this incredible event happen. Thank you.

Mr. Brooks: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I also rise to a Point of Personal Privilege to continue the discourse on the wonderful race that terminated last evening in Cape Disappointment. It was a wonderful, wonderful thing and, fortunately, ended on a day like today with perfect sunshine, quite unlike the weather that drove the original Lewis and Clark expedition into this cove for shelter so many years ago. The course covered a total of five hundred miles and took a week to run. Participants ran fifty-five to seventy-five miles a day as teams. There were teams from everywhere in this country; there was a wonderful team from New Zealand, which I met and talked to at the end of the race. It was an international event--there was a team from Paris, another one from England--and those are only a few of the international teams that participated. I have a son who started in the race in the first leg, and he ended the first leg in Dayton, Washington. The whole town turned out; the streets were decked; the people were there with food and lodging for the entire group. They then went on through the other communities. There were about twelve to fifteen hundred runners involved, and a handful of people who ran the entire race themselves which was a tremendous feat. The people who supported and sponsored this event, the State Patrol, the DOT, and all the other people along the line gave this race great, great support. I think we owe them all a vote of real thanks. It was a wonderful event.

There being no objection, the House advanced to the eighth order of business.

RESOLUTION

HOUSE FLOOR RESOLUTION NO. 89-4667, by Representatives Dorn, Rasmussen, Tate and Walk

WHEREAS, Orting, Washington will celebrate its Centennial Birthday on April 22 and 23; and

WHEREAS, Orting was incorporated six months before Washington entered statehood; and

WHEREAS, Orting is home to approximately 1900 people; and

WHEREAS, The citizens of Orting formed a strong Centennial Committee fourteen months ago and polled the town for a centennial project which resulted in the construction of a forty thousand dollar bell tower to house the first town fire bell; and

WHEREAS, Orting will ring in its one-hundred-first year on the fire bell; and

WHEREAS, A centennial parade will be held on April 22, 1989 at 9:30 A.M., and a program honoring Orting's descendants and the ringing of the bell will be held at 11:00 A.M.; and

WHEREAS, The Orting Post Office will offer a special Orting Centennial Postal Cancellation only on April 22, 1989;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives recognize and honor Orting's proud heritage; its descendants; the former Mayors; the current Mayor, Wayne Harmon; the City Council members; the Centennial Committee members and Co-chairs, Sam Colorossi and Madeline Jones; and all the residents of the town; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this Resolution be immediately transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to the town of Orting, the Centennial Committee and Mayor Wayne Harmon.

Mr. Dorn moved adoption of the resolution. Representatives Dorn and Rasmussen spoke in favor of the resolution.

House Floor Resolution No. 89-4667 was adopted.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) declared the House to be at ease. The Speaker called the House to order.

Setting the date for a joint session.

The Speaker referred House Concurrent Resolution No. 4411 on today's introduction sheet under the fourth order of business to the committee so designated.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Heavey, the rules were suspended and House Concurrent Resolution No. 4412 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

Mr. Heavey spoke in favor of the resolution.

House Concurrent Resolution No. 4412 was adopted.

There being no objection, the House reverted to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

MOTION

Mr. Heavey moved that the House consider the following bills on the second reading calendar in the following order: Substitute Senate Bill No. 5561, Senate Bill No. 5022, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5035, and Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5048. The motion was carried.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5561, by Committee on Environment & Natural Resources (originally sponsored by Senators Barr, Sutherland, Benitz, Vognila, DeJarnatt, Sellar, Hansen, Bauer, Patterson and Nelson)

Assisting fin fish culture facilities.

The bill was read the second time.

Ms. Rust moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Rust and R. King:

On page 2, after line 6, strike all material through "chapter," on line 33 and insert the following:

"Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 71, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 3, chapter 155, Laws of 1973 and RCW 90.48.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who conducts a commercial or industrial operation of any type which results in the disposal of solid or liquid waste material into the waters of the state, including commercial or industrial operators discharging solid or liquid waste material into sewerage systems operated by municipalities or public entities which discharge into public waters of the state, shall procure a permit from either the department or the thermal power plant site evaluation council as provided in RCW 90.48.262(2) before disposing of such waste material: PROVIDED, That this section shall not apply to any person discharging domestic sewage only into a sewerage system.

The department may, through the adoption of rules, eliminate the permit requirements for disposing of wastes into publicly operated sewerage systems for:

(1) Categories of or individual municipalities or public corporations operating sewerage systems; or

(2) Any category of waste disposer;

if the department determines such permit requirements are no longer necessary for the effective implementation of this chapter. The department may by rule eliminate the permit requirements for disposing of wastes by upland fin-fish rearing facilities unless a permit is required under the federal clean water act's national pollutant discharge elimination system."

Representatives Rust and R. King spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Representatives Baugher and S. Wilson opposed it.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the adoption of the amendment by Representatives Rust and R. King to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5561.

The Speaker, being in doubt, called upon the House to divide. The result of the division was: Yeas - 49; Nays - 43. The amendment was adopted.

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Mr. R. King spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 6076, by Senators Thorsness, Murray, Barr, Stratton, Metcalf, Saling, McCaslin, Madsen, Warnke, Anderson, Amondson and West

Creating motorcycle public awareness program.

The House resumed consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6076 on second reading. (See Journal, 86th Day, April 4, 1989, Morning Session, for previous action.)

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the point of order by Representative Schmidt regarding the amendment by Representative P. King to the committee amendment by Committee on Transportation.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: Representative Schmidt, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6076 establishes a motorcycle public awareness program in the Department of Licensing. It also raises motorcycle exam and licensing fees by one dollar to fund this new program. The amendment by Representative P. King amends the motor vehicle warranty law as it applies to motorcycles. This amendment is clearly not designed to perfect the motorcycle public awareness program; rather it brings in a new subject in the treatment of motorcycles under the state lemon law. I believe it is beyond the scope and object of the bill.

The committee amendment by Committee on Transportation was adopted.

With consent of the House, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Mr. Baugher spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6076 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 96; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Anderson, Appelwick, Ballard, Basich, Baugher, Beck, Belcher, Betrozoff, Bowman, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Brumsickle, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Dorn, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisher G, Fisher R, Fraser, Fuhrman, Grant, Hankins, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Horn, Inslee, Jacobsen, Jesernig, Jones, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Locke, May, McLean, Miller, Morris, Moyer, Myers H, Nealey, Nelson, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Phillips, Prentice, Prince, Pruitt, Raiter, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rector, Rust, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith, Sommers D, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprenkle, Tate, Todd, Valle, Van Luven, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Wang, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Wolfe, Wood, Youngsman, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 96.

Excused: Representatives Gallagher, Meyers R - 2.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6076 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1737, by Committee on Appropriations (originally sponsored by Representatives H. Sommers, Locke and Appelwick; by request of Department of Labor and Industries)

Revising provisions for crime victims' compensation.

The House resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1737 on second reading. (See Journal, 85th Day, April 3, 1989, Morning Session, for previous action.)

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the point of order by Representative Wang regarding the amendment by Representatives Fuhrman and Locke.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: Representative Wang, Substitute House Bill No. 1737 deals with the Crime Victims' Compensation Program and makes various changes in that program. The amendment offered by Representatives Fuhrman and Locke imposes a tax on adult entertainment of eighteen percent on the retail sale of adult entertainment materials. While it could be argued that funding the program could be within the scope and object of the original bill, the Speaker finds that half the tax on the adult entertainment was dedicated to the general fund and thereby brought in a different subject. I suspect, had we found that the tax was limited to funding the Crime Victims' Compensation Program, we might have had a different ruling on this. The problem was the general fund portion of it. If it had been limited to Crime Victims' Compensation, I would probably have reached a different conclusion. I find then, Representative Wang, that your point is well taken, that the amendment is outside the scope and object of the original bill

MOTION

Ms. Brough moved that further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1737 be deferred and that the bill hold its place on the second reading calendar.

Mr. Ebersole spoke in favor of the motion, and it was carried.

MOTION

Mr. Heavey moved that the House consider the following bills on the second reading calendar in the following order: Substitute Senate Bill No. 5142, Senate Bill No. 5172, and Substitute Senate Bill No. 5173. The motion was carried.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5142, by Committee on Governmental Operations (originally sponsored by Senators McCaslin, Thorsness, DeJarnatt and Rasmussen; by request of State Auditor)

Changing the year end fiscal report requirement.

The bill was read the second time.

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Cooper and Ferguson spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5142, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 95; absent, 1; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Anderson, Appelwick, Ballard, Basich, Baugher, Beck, Belcher, Betrozoff, Bowman, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Brumsickle, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Dorn, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisher G, Fisher R, Fraser, Fuhrman, Grant, Hankins, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Horn, Insee, Jacobsen, Jesernig, Jones, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Locke, May, McLean, Miller, Morris, Moyer, Myers H, Nealey, Nelson, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Phillips, Prentice, Prince, Pruitt, Raiter, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rector, Rust, Sayan, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith, Sommers D, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprengle, Tate, Todd, Valle, Van Luven, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Wang, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Wolfe, Wood, Youngsman, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 95.

Absent: Representative Schmidt - 1.

Excused: Representatives Gallagher, Meyers R - 2.

Substitute Senate Bill No. 5142, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 5172, by Senators Benitz, Williams and Nelson; by request of Washington State Energy Office

Extending utility lending of credit to equipment.

The bill was read the second time.

Mr. Jacobsen moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Jacobsen, Hankins and Nelson:

On page 3, after line 21 insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 19.27A RCW to read as follows: In order to improve energy efficiency in residential structures, an entity in the state of Washington engaged in the generation, sale, or distribution of energy may provide financial or other assistance for the planting of trees that will cast shade on residential structures in the summer. The assistance may be given to the owner of the residential structure or to a community group engaged in the planting of trees."

Re-number the remaining section.

Mr. Jacobsen spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment, and it was adopted.

With consent of the House, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On page 1, line 2 of the title after "54.16.280;" insert "adding a new section to chapter 19.27A RCW;"

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Nelson and Hankins spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5172 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 91; nays, 1; absent, 4; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Anderson, Ballard, Basich, Braugher, Beck, Belcher, Betzoff, Bowman, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Brumsickle, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisher G, Fisher R, Fraser, Fuhrman, Grant, Hankins, Hargrove, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Horn, Insee, Jacobsen, Jesernig, Jones, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Locke, May, McLean, Miller, Morris, Moyer, Myers H, Nealey, Nelson, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Phillips, Prentice, Prince, Pruitt, Raiter, Rayburn, Rector, Rust, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Smith, Sommers D, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprengle, Tate, Todd, Valle, Van Luven, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Wang, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Wolfe, Wood, Youngsman, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 91.

Voting nay: Representative Silver - 1.

Absent: Representatives Appelwick, Dorn, Haugen, Rasmussen - 4.

Excused: Representatives Gallagher, Meyers R - 2.

Senate Bill No. 5172 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5173, by Committee on Governmental Operations (originally sponsored by Senators McCaslin, Thorsness, DeJarnatt, Hayner and Vognild; by request of State Auditor)

Relating to disclosure of improper governmental action.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on State Government recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For committee amendments, see Journal, 82nd Day, March 31, 1989.)

Mr. Anderson moved adoption of the committee amendment and spoke in favor of it. The committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Anderson, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Anderson and McLean spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5173 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 95; absent, 1; excused, 2.

Absent: Representative Appelwick - 1.

Excused: Representatives Gallagher, Meyers R - 2.

Substitute Senate Bill No. 5173 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5196, by Committee on Agriculture (originally sponsored by Senators Barr, Hansen, Talmadge, Williams, Conner, Madsen, Gaspard, McMullen and Benitz; by request of Governor)

Regarding emergency drought relief.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Agriculture & Rural Development recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For committee amendments, see Journal, 73rd Day, March 22, 1989.) Committee on Capital Facilities & Financing recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended by Committee on Capital Facilities & Financing without amendments by Committee on Agriculture & Rural Development. (For committee amendments, see Journal, 82nd Day, March 31, 1989.)

Ms. Rayburn moved that the House not adopt the committee amendment by Committee on Agriculture & Rural Development. Representatives Rayburn and Nealey spoke in favor of the motion, and it was carried.

Ms. H. Sommers moved adoption of the committee amendment by Committee on Capital Facilities & Financing.

Ms. Rayburn moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Rayburn and H. Sommers to the committee amendment:

On page 11, after line 3 of the amendment, insert the following:

*Sec. 8. Section 6, chapter 343, Laws of 1987 and RCW 75.20.150 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The director of ecology shall contract with an independent fact-finding service for the purpose of consulting with all user groups and parties interested in Washington's water resource policy, including but not limited to:

(a) The departments of ecology, agriculture, social and health services, fisheries, wildlife, and natural resources;

(b) Municipal users of water;

(c) Agricultural interests;

(d) The governor's office;

(e) Environmental interests;

(f) Interests of industrial users of water;

(g) Indian tribes;

(h) Interests of public water utilities;

(i) Interests of recreational uses other than fishing;

(j) Public and private hydropower generating utilities;

(k) Interests of sport and commercial fishing; and

(l) Interests of the forest products industry.

(2) The fact-finding service shall consult with, obtain, and document the opinions of the interested parties, and may facilitate discussions between them on the fundamentals of water resource policy and the need, if any, to change or clarify the current policy for the state. The fact-finding service shall also identify and evaluate the clarity and consistency of state water allocation laws with the current policy based on those laws.

(3) The fact-finding service shall report its findings in a written report to the joint select committee established pursuant to RCW 90.54.024. The report shall be submitted to the joint select committee by June 30, 1988, unless the committee provides for an extension of the due date.

(4) The fact-finding service and the joint select committee shall consider the reports and recommendations of state and federal studies pertaining to allocation, augmentation, conservation, and efficient use of the water resources of this state, including but not limited to the department of ecology's instream resources and water allocation program review. By considering these studies, the fact-finding service and the joint select committee shall not duplicate the work already completed in such studies.

(5) Until July 1, 1989, or until the legislature has passed legislation based on recommendations from the joint select committee, whichever comes first, the department of ecology:

(a) Shall not amend or alter the current guidelines, standards, or criteria governing the instream flow and water allocation elements of the state water resources program established pursuant to chapters 90.22 and 90.54 RCW and set forth in chapters 173-500 to 173-596 WAC;

(b) Shall not adopt any water reservation under RCW 90.54.050, set forth in chapters 173-500 to 173-596 WAC, or the preferred alternative in the instream resources and water allocation environmental impact statement; and

(c) For any new application for surface water received under chapter 90.03 RCW after March 15, 1988, shall not issue any permanent appropriation permits and may only issue new temporary appropriation permits on streams by utilizing (i) the existing minimum or base flows adopted pursuant to chapters 90.54 and 90.22 RCW or (ii) the case-by-case process to maintain food fish and game fish populations as provided in RCW 75.20.050. These water appropriations shall not reduce flows necessary to provide for preservation of wildlife, fish, scenic, aesthetic, recreational, water quality, other environmental values, and navigational values, as provided in RCW 90.54.020 and chapters 90.03 and 90.22 RCW. These temporary permits shall be conditioned so that the appropriation may be altered based upon the enactment of legislation or adoption of regulations resulting from recommendations made pursuant to RCW 90.54.024 (3) and (4).

This subsection does not apply to any emergency water permits or transfers authorized under (~~RCW 43-83B-300 through 43-83B-344~~) section 3 of this 1989 act, and shall not affect any existing water rights established pursuant to law.

(6) The department of ecology shall provide staff support in the fact-finding process.

(7) This section shall expire on June 30, 1989.

Sec. 11. Section 5, chapter 343, Laws of 1987 and RCW 90.58.370 are each amended to read as follows:

All state and local agencies with authority under this chapter to issue permits or other authorizations (~~(for)~~ in connection with emergency water withdrawals and facilities (~~pursuant to RCW 43-83B-300 through 43-83B-345~~) authorized under section 3 of this 1989 act shall expedite the processing of such permits or authorizations in keeping with the emergency nature of such requests and shall provide a decision to the applicant within fifteen calendar days of the date of application.*

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

CENTENNIAL MESSAGE FROM THE WASHINGTON STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

April 11, 1989

On this day in 1889, well drillers in Pasco drove their well to a depth of 406 feet, including over three hundred feet of solid rock. They found water, but its flow was blocked by rock at seventy-three feet below the surface. Dynamite was expected to clear the obstruction, said the Pasco Floodlight newspaper, or else open the way to China or Hell. And Clarence Moberly, a prominent Canadian railroad man, told interviewers that Canadians were politically contented and did not wish to join the United States.

On April 11, 1897 the U.S.S. Oregon was the first battleship to be docked at the Puget Sound Naval Shipyard in Bremerton. A year later it would make its dash around South America to reach the scene of battle in the Spanish-American War.

On April 11, 1977 land clearing began at the Satsop site for a nuclear power plant supported by the Washington State Public Power Supply System.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

April 10, 1989

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has adopted:

Sommers, Spanel, Sprenkle, Tate, Todd, Valle, Van Luven, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Wang, K. Wilson, S. Wilson, Wineberry, Winsley, Wolfe, Wood, Youngsman and Zellinsky

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper to take a moment to reflect on a career and to praise a loyal and respected colleague, who has been a dedicated legislator and who is presently in the Humana Hospital in Tacoma; and

WHEREAS, Representative P. J. "Jim" Gallagher has been serving in the Washington State House of Representatives since 1961; and

WHEREAS, P. J. Gallagher was born in 1915 in Taylor, Washington, is a graduate of Washington State University, and a lifelong participant in the transportation industry, having served as Public Relations Officer for Selland Auto Transport, and having owned and operated a service station in Tacoma; and

WHEREAS, P. J. Gallagher has served on various committees in the House of Representatives including the Transportation, Energy and Rules Committees; and

WHEREAS, P. J. has always expressed a deep concern for his colleagues, a kindness for employees, and a loyalty to this institution, and never forgets a friend and never courts an enemy; and

WHEREAS, P. J. Gallagher has enjoyed an unblemished reputation for being a man of his word, for which there is no higher accolade for a public official; and

WHEREAS, P. J. Gallagher has devoted nearly three decades to the often thankless calling of public service, available day and night to take up the burdens of his constituents and never faltering in challenging authority at any level on their behalf; and

WHEREAS, P. J. Gallagher, to encourage thrift in youngsters, has presented House of Representatives members who have become parents and grandparents with $10 for an account for each new baby, an amount that totals over $2,000 to date;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State House of Representatives recognize his nearly thirty years of dedicated public service and wish him a speedy recovery from his illness; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives transmit copies of this Resolution to Representative P. J. "Jim" Gallagher; to his wife, Mabel; to his children Patrick, Teresa, Michael, Robert Bruce, Gregory and Celine; and to the Precinct Officers of the 29th District of Pierce County.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) invited the Senators to seats within the House Chamber.

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) presented the gavel to President Pritchard.

REMARKS BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): It is my pleasure to give you, Lieutenant Governor Pritchard, the gavel to preside over this Joint Session. It is a great pleasure to have you here.

The Secretary of the Senate called the roll of the Senate and all members were present, except Senators DeJarnatt and Hansen, who were excused.

The Clerk of the House called the roll of the House and all members were present except Representative Gallagher, who was excused.

The President of the Senate appointed Senators Saling, Nelson and McMullen and Representatives Haugen, Zellinsky and Prince as a special committee to advise His Excellency, Governor Booth Gardner, that the Joint Session had assembled and to escort the Governor and His Excellency, Premier William Vander Zalm from the Governor's Chambers to seats on the rostrum of the House.

The President of the Senate introduced Governor Booth Gardner.

Governor Gardner: It is my honor and opportunity to introduce to all of you today the Premier of British Columbia, William Vander Zalm. About a year ago we met on an informal basis and agreed, despite the fact that there is a national border between us, that, in fact, the Province of British Columbia and the State of Washington have a great deal in common, and we should begin to take advantage of the commonality and work, both on a formal and informal basis, to strengthen the relationship between the two of us.

We began with a visit that I took to Victoria last April. We started an arrangement on economic cooperation, which dealt with the issues of tourism, trade and investment and began, at that time, to work closely together on those issues. We have since worked further and have signed, this morning, an arrangement on energy, with which we will track energy trends, talk about energy trade and figure out how we can work more closely on issues of that nature. We also have working, between the Province of British Columbia and the State of Washington, a group of people who are dealing with environmental issues, so that we can respond in coordination with one another to any circumstances or disasters which may occur that affect the people of our two communities. In June, on a visit that I will take to British Columbia, we will sign an arrangement on environmental cooperation.

The Premier is here to discuss this and other issues with us, and I would like to brief you on his background. Bill Vander Zalm is a native of Europe and immigrated to Canada at the age of twelve. His family was in the nursery business, and he and his sons developed a facility called Fantasy Garden World in Richmond, British Columbia, which is one of the premier tourist attractions in that province. It is a major tourist attraction which many of you have passed, because it is just off the main highway as we travel north. He got involved in local government with the Surrey Municipal Council and became an Alderman and, subsequently, Mayor. In 1975 he was elected to the Provincial Legislature, and in 1986 he became Premier of British Columbia. It is my pleasure and honor to introduce to you the Premier of British Columbia, William Vander Zalm.

Premier Vander Zalm: Governor Gardner, Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, members of the House and Senate of Washington: I am delighted to be here in this, the year that marks the one-hundredth anniversary of Washington statehood. I should begin by saying, as well, that I didn't ask the Governor to give the little commercial at the beginning with the introduction. I think I should state that for the British Columbia media. I was not aware that it was coming, but I thank you, Mr. Governor.

All British Columbians, I know, join me in saluting the achievements and progress that have made this proud State of Washington one of the greatest favored regions, both in terms of economic growth and livability, in the United States. I would be remiss if I neglected to note the other historic event of 1989—the beginning of a great, new era of trade between Canada and the United States—as a result of the passage of the Free Trade Act. The result for both our nations will be increased trade, increased development, and increased security for our people. This historic agreement offers challenges and opportunities in many areas where cooperation is possible. Working together, taking advantage of the new avenues offered to us by the agreement, we can raise the level of prosperity on both sides of our borders to new heights.

We have made a good beginning. On January 4, Washington and British Columbia signed an economic cooperation agreement, inaugurating the Pacific Northwest Economic Partnership. This agreement is designed to identify, communicate and implement trade opportunities between British Columbia and Washington State. In two meetings, to date, the joint committee, established under the agreement, has identified aerospace, aquaculture, apparel, biotechnology, general manufacturing, the computer industry, and ocean industry as priority areas for possible joint activity. In addition, a Pacific Northwest Economic Partnership newsletter has been created to communicate trade and business opportunities to companies and businesses in both Washington State and British Columbia. To access and to share data bases, companies on both sides of the border will be able to conduct accurate market research. It will spell out such valuable demographic information as populations, plants, distributors and agents, and prospects for new customers.

Such progress is extremely encouraging, and I am pleased to announce that earlier today, as he has already stated, the Governor and I signed yet another agreement, this one involving energy. It is aimed at improving our information exchange, cooperation and encouraging mutual, beneficial trade. Implicit in this agreement is that, while we welcome such trade, it must perfect and enhance the quality of the environment in the Pacific Northwest. As Premier of British Columbia, I am also enthusiastic about expanding our joint and cooperative efforts to improve and broaden environmental management. We have much to learn from each other in terms of waste removal and the movements of dangerous goods, to name only two areas of mutual concern. Two recent environmental events, the Grays Harbor and Exxon Valdez oil spills, have demonstrated clearly that, in such instances, national boundaries are meaningless. Ecological disasters, such as major oil spills, do not respect the lines on maps, but define our jurisdictions here in the Pacific Northwest. Without real cooperation and without meaningful, joint strategies to deal with disasters, we, like the helpless wildlife victimized by oil spills, will sink together, rather than swim. In recognition of this fact, I am pleased that Washington and British Columbia have taken the first steps to deal with this kind of threat to our shared environment. Following the Grays Harbor spill, we established an Oil Spill Task Force to seek ways to improve our cooperation and means of handling such spills. Our goal must be not only to ensure that the risk of repetition is reduced, but also, should a disaster strike again, that our joint capacity to act is swift and sure. We have encouraged our northern and southern neighbors, Alaska, Oregon and California, to join us in this project, for, as is clear today, we are all vulnerable.

Both Washington and B.C. are rich in natural resources; our forestry, fishing, agricultural and mining industries are the backbones of our economies. Both of us, though, are also very much at the forefront of the rapidly changing world economy. Riding the new waves of knowledge-based industries, your strengths in aerospace and computers are well known. British Columbia and Washington have a mutual interest in economic diversification and in training our workforce to meet the future needs of society and moving to more knowledge-based industries. In B.C. we are proud of our burgeoning subsea engineering and information technology industries. In basic science, too, we are enthusiastic about initiatives for advanced experimentation in subatomic physics. These projects are some of the world's most exciting and promising scientific initiatives. On any given day, four hundred scientists from as many as twenty-six nations, including imminent scientists from here in Washington, are working to unlock the secrets of particle physics and to throw open the door to a whole new frontier of scientific discovery. The potential benefits are immense, like painless picture-taking inside the living brain and new technologies in cancer treatment. The projects will put us at the forefront of research into brain disorders, like Parkinson's and Alzheimer's diseases. In the field of high temperature superconductors, the project offers the promise of developments like super-fast computers and three-hundred-mile per hour trains. We can visualize enormous savings in electricity bills, because electricity will move without line loss due to resistance. Other medical and economic benefits are likely in a range that scientists themselves have yet to assess fully.

Progress such as this offers opportunities for even closer cooperation between us. Ladies and gentlemen, British Columbians look on the people of Washington State as great neighbors in the best sense of the word. Our relationship has stood the test of time, because we have so much in common. Bound together by geography and a shared love and respect for the natural beauty and economic potential of the Pacific Northwest, we can accomplish much together. I know many of my compatriots will take the opportunity to visit Washington to share in your centennial year celebrations. In turn, I hope many Washingtonians will reciprocate by visiting British Columbia, and in particular, the Air Show Canada set for August 9-13. Let me assure you in advance of a very warm welcome. We always appreciate visiting Washington State, and I thank you for the opportunity today. Let us from here continue to go forward as good neighbors, willing to work together to reach our common goals. Thank you.

The President of the Senate instructed the special committee to escort Governor Gardner and Premier Vander Zalm from the House Chambers.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Ebersole, the Joint Session was dissolved.

The President of the Senate returned the gavel to the Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding).

Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5372 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

Mr. Heavey moved that the House immediately consider the following bills on the second reading calendar in the following order: Engrossed Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 8202 and Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5186. The motion was carried.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 8202, by Committee on Law & Justice (originally sponsored by Senators Pullen, Talmadge, McCaslin, Thorsness, Rasmussen and Benitz)

Amending the Constitution to change provisions relating to the commission on judicial conduct.

The resolution was read the second time. Committee on Judiciary recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For committee amendments, see Journal, 82nd Day, March 31, 1989.)

Mr. Appelwick moved adoption of the committee amendment.

The Clerk read the following amendment by Mr. R. Meyers to the committee amendment:

On page 1, line 23 of the Judiciary Committee amendment, strike "six" and insert "four"

With consent of the House, Mr. R. Meyers withdrew the amendment to the committee amendment.

Mr. R. Meyers moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 1, line 25 of the Judiciary Committee amendment, strike "and confirmed by the senate"

Representatives R. Meyers, Appelwick, Padden and Crane spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment to the committee amendment, and Ms. Brough opposed it. The amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

The Clerk read the following amendment by Representative R. Meyers to the committee amendment:

On page 4, line 5 of the Judiciary Committee amendment, after "may" strike everything through "decision" on line 26 and insert "appeal the action of the commission to the supreme court on such grounds as may be provided by law"

With consent of the House, Representative R. Meyers withdrew the amendment to the committee amendment.

Mr. Appelwick moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives Appelwick and Padden to the committee amendment:

On page 2, line 11 of the Judiciary Committee amendment, strike "investigation" and insert "initial proceedings"

On page 2, line 14 of the Judiciary Committee amendment, strike "investigation" and insert "initial proceedings"

Representatives Appelwick and Padden spoke in favor of adoption of the amendments to the committee amendment, and they were adopted.

Mr. Appelwick moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives Appelwick and Padden to the committee amendment:

On page 4, line 5 of the Judiciary Committee amendment, after "justice" strike everything through "decision" on line 26 and insert "shall have a right of appeal de novo to the supreme court"

Representatives Appelwick and Padden spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment to the committee amendment, and it was adopted.

Mr. Crane moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Crane and P. King to the committee amendment:

On page 5, after line 35 of the Judiciary Committee amendment insert:

"(1) The rules committee of either house of the legislature, or both committees jointly, may subpoena any member of the commission, any witness who appeared before the commission, any other witness the committee or committees deem pertinent to their inquiry, or the records of any proceeding of the commission, with respect to any action of the commission, including any action taken before the effective date of this provision. Any hearing resulting from the use of a subpoena shall be open to the public. No rule of the commission, supreme court or legislature shall supersede this provision."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Appelwick: I would ask the Speaker to rule on the scope and object of the amendment before us.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: Representative Appelwick, the Speaker has examined Engrossed Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 8202 and finds that it does just exactly what the title says it does. It amends the Constitution to change provisions relating to the Commission on Judicial Conduct. I find that the amendment deals with the subpoena powers of the House of Representatives. I find that the amendment clearly does not perfect the bill, but brings a new subject, the subpoena powers of the House of Representatives, into a bill that deals with the powers and duties of the Judicial Conduct Commission. That would be a subject for a separate bill. I find, Representative Appelwick, that your point is well taken, that the amendment is outside the scope and object of the original bill.

Mr. Appelwick moved adoption of the following amendments to the committee amendment:

On page 2, line 5 of the Judiciary Committee amendment, strike "confidential"

On page 2, line 10 of the Judiciary Committee amendment, after "belief," insert "The investigation and initial proceedings shall be confidential."

Mr. Appelwick spoke in favor of adoption of the amendments to the committee amendment, and they were adopted.

Mr. Appelwick moved adoption of the following amendments to the committee amendment:

On page 1, line 8, after "31." strike all material through "commission." on line 19

On page 2, after line 27, insert the following:

"(1) There shall be a commission on judicial conduct, existing as an independent agency of the judicial branch, and consisting of a judge selected by and from the court of appeals judges, a judge selected by and from the superior court judges, a judge selected by and from the district court judges, two persons admitted to the practice of law in this state selected by the state bar association, and six persons who are not attorneys appointed by the governor.

(2) Whenever the commission receives a complaint against a judge or justice, or otherwise has reason to believe that a judge or justice should be admonished, reprimanded, censured, suspended, removed, or retired, the commission shall first investigate the complaint or belief and then conduct initial proceedings for the purpose of determining whether probable cause exists for conducting a public hearing or hearings to deal with the complaint or belief. The investigation and initial proceedings shall be confidential. Upon beginning an initial proceeding, the commission shall notify the judge or justice of the existence of and basis for the initial proceeding.

(3) Whenever the commission concludes, based on an initial proceeding, that there is probable cause to believe that a judge or justice has violated a rule of judicial conduct or that the judge or justice suffers from a disability which is permanent or likely to become permanent and which seriously interferes with the performance of judicial duties, the commission shall conduct a public hearing or hearings and shall make public all those records of the initial proceeding that provide the basis for its conclusion. If the commission concludes that there is not probable cause, it shall notify the judge or justice of its conclusion.

(4) Upon the completion of the hearing or hearings, the commission in open session shall either dismiss the case, or shall admonish, reprimand, or censure the judge or justice, or shall censure the judge or justice and recommend to the supreme court the suspension or removal of the judge or justice, or shall recommend to the supreme court the retirement of the judge or justice. The commission may not recommend suspension or removal unless it censures the judge or justice for the violation serving as the basis for the recommendation. The commission may recommend retirement of a judge or justice for a disability which is permanent or likely to become permanent and which seriously interferes with the performance of judicial duties.

(5) Upon the recommendation of the commission, the supreme court may suspend, remove, or retire a judge or justice. The office of a judge or justice retired or removed by the supreme court becomes vacant, and that person is ineligible for judicial office until eligibility is reinstated by the supreme court. The salary of a removed judge or justice shall cease. The supreme court shall specify the effect upon salary when it suspends a judge or justice. The supreme court may not suspend, remove, or retire a judge or justice until the commission, after notice and hearing, recommends that action be taken, and the supreme court conducts a hearing, after notice, to review commission proceedings and findings against the judge or justice.

(6) Within thirty days after the commission admonishes, reprimands, or censures a judge or justice, the judge or justice shall have a right of appeal de novo to the supreme court.

(7) Any matter before the commission or supreme court may be disposed of by a stipulation entered into in a public proceeding. The stipulation shall be signed by the judge or justice and the commission or court. The stipulation may impose any terms and conditions deemed appropriate by the commission or court. A stipulation shall set forth all material facts relating to the proceeding and the conduct of the judge or justice.

(8) Whenever the commission adopts a recommendation that a judge or justice be removed, the judge or justice shall be suspended immediately, with salary, from his or her judicial position until a final determination is made by the supreme court.

(9) The legislature shall provide for commissioners' terms of office and compensation. The commission shall employ one or more investigative officers with appropriate professional training and experience. The investigative officers of the commission shall report directly to the commission. The commission shall also employ such administrative or other staff as are necessary to manage the affairs of the commission.

(10) The commission shall, to the extent that compliance does not conflict with this section, comply with laws of general applicability to state agencies with respect to rule-making procedures, and with respect to public notice of and attendance at commission proceedings other than initial proceedings. The commission shall establish rules of procedure for commission proceedings including due process and confidentiality of proceedings."

With consent of the House, Representative Appelwick withdrew the amendments to the committee amendment.

The committee amendment as amended was adopted.

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

Representatives Padden, R. Meyers, Brough and Appelwick spoke in favor of passage of the resolution.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 8202 as amended by the House, and the resolution passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 93; nays, 3; absent, 1; excused, 1.

Voting yeas: Representatives Appelwick, Ballard, Basich, Beck, Belcher, Betzoff, Bowman, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Brumsickle, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Dorn, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisher G, Fisher R, Fraser, Fuhrman, Grant, Hankins, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Horn, Inslie, Jacobsen, Jesernig, Jones, King P, King R, Leonard, Locke, May, McLean, Meyers R, Miller, Morris, Moyer, Myers H, Nealey, Nelson, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Phillips, Prentice, Prince, Pruitt, Raiter, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rector, Rust, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith, Sommers D, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprenkle, Tate, Todd, Valle, Van Luven, Walk, Walker, Wang, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Wolfe, Wood, Youngsman, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 93.

Voting nays: Representatives Anderson, Baugher, Vekich - 3.

Absent: Representative Kremen - 1.

Excused: Representative Gallagher - 1.

Engrossed Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 8202 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5186, by Committee on Law & Justice (originally sponsored by Senators Pullen, Talmadge, McCaslin, Nelson, Thorsness and Rasmussen)

Changing provisions relating to the commission on judicial conduct.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Judiciary recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For committee amendments, see Journal, 82nd Day, March 31, 1989.)

Mr. Appelwick moved adoption of the committee amendment.

On motion of Mr. R. Meyers, the following amendment to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 4, line 27 of the Judiciary Committee striking amendment, strike "and confirmed by the senate" and insert "(~~and confirmed by the senate~~)"

Mr. Appelwick moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 6, line 14 of the Judiciary Committee striking amendment beginning with "Upon" strike everything through "apply" on line 19 and insert "As of the date of a public hearing, all those records of the initial proceeding that were the basis of a finding of probable cause are subject to the public disclosure requirements of chapter 42.17 RCW"

Mr. Appelwick spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment to the committee amendment, and it was adopted.

The Clerk read the following amendment by Representative R. Meyers to the committee amendment:

On page 7, after line 22 of the Judiciary Committee striking amendment insert:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10 A new section is added to chapter 2.64 to read as follows:

(b) Within thirty days after the commission admonishes, reprimands or censures a judge or justice, the judge or justice may petition the supreme court to have the action of the commission reversed or modified. The supreme court may reverse or modify the commission's action if substantial rights of the judge or justice have been prejudiced because the commission's findings, inferences, conclusions, or decisions are:

(a) In violation of constitutional provisions; or

(b) In excess of the authority or jurisdiction of the commission; or

(c) Made upon unlawful procedure; or

(d) Affected by other error of law; or

(e) Clearly erroneous in view of the entire record and the public policy contained in the law authorizing the decision; or

(f) Affected by error of fact."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

With consent of the House, Representative R. Meyers withdrew the amendment to the committee amendment.

Mr. Crane moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Crane and P. King to the committee amendment:

On page 7, after line 22 of the Judiciary Committee striking amendment insert:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10 A new section is added to chapter 2.64 to read as follows:

The rules committee of either house of the legislature, or both committees jointly, may subpoena any member of the commission, any witness who appeared before the commission, any other witness the committee or committees deem pertinent to their inquiry, or the records of any proceeding of the commission, with respect to any action of the commission, including any action taken before the effective date of this provision. Any hearing resulting from the use of a subpoena shall be open to the public. No rule of the commission, supreme court or legislature shall supersede this provision.*

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Appelwick: I would ask the Speaker to rule on the scope and object, as with the constitutional amendment.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: Representative Appelwick, the case is very similar to the last point that you raised. Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5186 deals with the scope, duties and powers of the Judicial Conduct Commission and implements the constitutional amendment. The amendment deals with legislative subpoena powers. I find your point is well taken and the amendment is outside the scope and object of the original bill.

The Clerk read the following amendment by Representative Appelwick to the committee amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 268, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 1, chapter 186, Laws of 1987 and RCW 2.64.010 are each amended to read as follows:

((For purposes of this chapter.)) Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Admonishment' means a written disposition of an advisory nature that cautions a judge or justice not to engage in certain proscribed behavior. An admonishment may include a requirement that the judge or justice follow a specified corrective course of action.

(2) 'Censure' means a written action of the commission that requires a judge or justice to appear personally before the commission, and that finds that conduct of the judge or justice violates a rule of judicial conduct, detrimentally affects the integrity of the judiciary, undermines public confidence in the administration of justice, and may or may not require a recommendation to the supreme court that the judge or justice be suspended or removed. A censure shall include a requirement that the judge or justice follow a specified corrective course of action.

(3) 'Commission' means the commission on judicial conduct provided for in Article IV, section 31 of the state Constitution, which is authorized to recommend to the supreme court, after notice and hearing, the ((censure,)) suspension or removal of a judge or justice for violating a rule of judicial conduct, or the retirement of a judge or justice for disability ((which is permanent, or likely to become permanent, and which seriously interferes with the performance of judicial duties. For purposes of this chapter, the term));

(4) 'Judge or justice' includes justices of the supreme court, judges of the court of appeals, judges of the superior courts, judges of any court organized under Titles 3 or 35 RCW, judges pro tempore, court commissioners, and magistrates.

(5) 'Removal' means a written recommendation by the commission and a finding by the supreme court that the conduct of a judge or justice is a violation of a rule of judicial conduct and seriously impairs the integrity of the judiciary and substantially undermines the public confidence in the administration of justice to such a degree that the judge or justice should be relieved of all duties of his or her office.

(6) 'Reprimand' means a written action of the commission that requires a judge or justice to appear personally before the commission, and that finds that the conduct of the judge or justice is a minor violation of the code of judicial conduct and does not require censure or a formal recommendation to the supreme court that the judge or justice be suspended or removed. A reprimand shall include a requirement that the judge or justice follow a specified corrective course of action.

(7) 'Retirement' means a written recommendation by the commission and a finding by the supreme court that a judge or justice has a disability which is permanent, or likely to become permanent, and that seriously interferes with the performance of judicial duties.

(8) 'Suspension' means a written recommendation by the commission and a finding by the supreme court that the conduct of a judge or justice is a violation of a rule of judicial conduct and seriously impairs the integrity of the judiciary and substantially undermines the public confidence in the administration of justice to such a degree that the judge or justice should be relieved of the duties of his or her office by the court for a specified period of time, as determined by the court.

This chapter shall apply to any judge or justice, regardless of whether the judge or justice serves full time or part time, and regardless of whether the judge or justice is admitted to practice law in this state.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 268, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 2, chapter 186, Laws of 1987 and RCW 2.64.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission shall consist of ~~((nine))~~ eleven members. One member shall be a judge selected by and from the court of appeals judges; one member shall be a judge selected by and from the superior court judges; one member shall be a judge selected by and from the district court judges; two members shall be selected by the state bar association and be admitted to the practice of law in this state; and ~~((four))~~ six members shall be nonlawyers appointed by the governor ~~((and confirmed by the senate))~~. The term of each member of the commission shall be four years.

Sec. 3. Section 6, chapter 268, Laws of 1981 and RCW 2.64.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission may employ ~~((any))~~ personnel, including ((lawyers)) attorneys, and make any other expenditures necessary for the effective performance of its duties and the exercise of its powers. The commission may hire attorneys or others by personal service contract to conduct initial proceedings regarding a complaint against a judge or justice. Commission employees shall be exempt from the civil service law, chapter 41.06 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 2.64 RCW to read as follows:

The commission is authorized to impose the following disciplinary actions, in increasing order of severity: (a) Admonishment; (b) reprimand; or (c) censure. If the conduct of the judge or justice warrants more severe disciplinary action, the commission may recommend to the supreme court the suspension or removal of the judge or justice.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 2.64 RCW to read as follows:

The commission is authorized to investigate and consider for probative value any conduct that may have occurred prior to, on, or after December 4, 1980, by a person who was, or is now, a judge or justice when such conduct relates to a complaint filed with the commission against the same judge or justice.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 2.64 RCW to read as follows:

All pleadings, papers, evidence records, and files of the commission, including complaints and the identity of complainants, compiled or obtained during the course of an investigation or initial proceeding involving the discipline or retirement of a judge or justice, are exempt from the public disclosure requirements of chapter 42.17 RCW during such investigation or initial proceeding. As of the date of a public hearing, all those records of the initial proceeding that were the basis of a finding of probable cause are subject to the public disclosure requirements of chapter 42.17 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 2.64 RCW to read as follows:

The adjudicative proceedings, judicial review, and civil enforcement provisions of chapter 34.05 RCW, the administrative procedure act, do not apply to any investigations, initial proceedings, public hearings, or executive sessions involving the discipline or retirement of a judge or justice.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 2.64 RCW to read as follows:

The commission is subject to the open public meetings act, chapter 42.30 RCW. However, investigations, initial proceedings, public hearings, and executive sessions involving the discipline or retirement of a judge or justice are governed by this chapter and Article IV, section 31 of the state Constitution and are exempt from the provisions of chapter 42.30 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 2.64 RCW to read as follows:

The commission shall provide by rule for confidentiality of its investigations and initial proceedings in accordance with Article IV, section 31 of the state Constitution.

Any person violating a rule on confidentiality is subject to a proceeding for contempt in superior court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The following acts or parts of act are each repealed:

- (1) Section 4, chapter 186, Laws of 1987 and RCW 2.64.091; and
- (2) Section 12, chapter 268, Laws of 1981, section 5, chapter 186, Laws of 1987 and RCW 2.64.110.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. This act shall take effect upon the effective date of an amendment to Article IV, section 31 of the state Constitution making changes to the commission on judicial conduct. If such amendment is not validly submitted to and approved and ratified by the voters at a general election held in November 1989, this act shall be null and void in its entirety."

With consent of the House, Representative Appelwick withdrew the amendment to the committee amendment.

The committee amendment as amended was adopted.

With consent of the House, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Mr. Appelwick spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 8412, by Senators Hayner, Sellar, Vognilid and Warnke

Creating a committee on the Spanish Quincentennial.

The bill was read the second time.

Mr. Jacobsen moved adoption of the following amendment by Representative Vekich:

On page 1, at the beginning of line 1, beginning with "WHEREAS" strike all material through "Committees." on page 2, line 33, and insert the following:

"WHEREAS, The legislature finds and declares that the year of 1992, being the Quincentennial of the first voyage of Christopher Columbus to the Americas, is a time for all people of the State of Washington to reflect upon and celebrate the significance of the events which have occurred in the Americas since the Genovese navigator, and sponsor for the Spanish Crown, first discovered the lands and befriended the peoples of the Western Hemisphere; and

WHEREAS, The voyages of Christopher Columbus and his crew produced an historic encounter between the people and civilizations of two hemispheres, enabling new nations to flourish from the European countries blending with the native people of all the Americas, and later arrivals from Africa, Asia, and Oceania, all inlaid in the societal and cultural mosaic of the greater Western Hemisphere; and

WHEREAS, On the eve of United States independence, Juan Perez in command of the frigate Santiago from San Blas, Mexico, arrived in Washington waters in 1774 and gave Spain exclusive claim to the Pacific Northwest until 1819; and

WHEREAS, The Spanish navy, under the direction of skillful commanders such as Esteban Martinez, Salvador Fidalgo, Manuel Quimpar, Gonzalo Lopez de Haro, Bruno de Hezeta, and Juan Francisco de la Bodega y Quadra explored the Pacific Northwest region, established settlements, conducted scientific studies with the local flora and fauna, collected ethnographic data and transcribed the native languages, mapped and named most of the striking features of much of the Pacific Northwest coastline, and introduced unknown fruits, vegetables, livestock, iron, and other western technology; and

WHEREAS, The Spanish-Mexican outpost at Nunez Gaona, (Neah Bay, Washington), founded in 1792 to establish a southern limit to Russian and English encroachment on Spanish territory in the north Pacific, was the first European settlement in the state of Washington; and

WHEREAS, The legislature finds that adequate preparations must be effected to assure that the events leading up to the Quincentennial, as well as the events and celebrations of the year 1992, are as rich and significant as befit this historic moment, it is imperative that the Legislature assume a leading role in developing the means and resources necessary to plan and implement those events in partnership with the state historical society, local community organizations, Hispanic cultural and research organizations, and the business, cultural, and educational communities of the State of Washington;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the state of Washington, the House of Representatives concurring, that a select committee on the 1992 Washington Quincentennial of the first voyage of Christopher Columbus, also to be known as the 1992 Washington Spanish Quincentennial Committee, is hereby created and is authorized and directed to:

(1) Encourage the participation of the people of the state of Washington in activities fostering cultural enrichment, social purpose, and economic opportunity within the context of the Quincentennial celebration of the voyages of Christopher Columbus;

(2) Seek the assistance of the people of Washington in achieving these goals by appointing any advisory or other committees which may become necessary to carry out the work of the committee;

(3) Plan and implement events, exchanges, expositions, exhibitions, productions, or other public events or occurrences which further the purposes or goals of the committee and of this resolution; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the committee shall be comprised of four members of the Senate, two from either caucus, to be appointed by the President of the Senate, and four members of the House of Representatives, two from each caucus, to be appointed by the Speaker of the House, with the permanent chair of the 1992 Washington Spanish Quincentennial Committee to be selected by a vote of the membership of the committee; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the committee shall seek the leadership of the Honorable Booth Gardner, Governor of the State of Washington, to serve as its Honorary Chair, and the Honorable Joel Pritchard, Lieutenant Governor of the State of Washington, and the Honorable Ralph Munro, Secretary of State, to serve as its Honorary Vice-Chairs; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the 1992 Washington Spanish Quincentennial Committee shall continue in existence until December 31, 1992, at which time the committee shall cease to exist; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the staff for the 1992 Washington Spanish Quincentennial Committee shall be provided by the Senate Economic Development and Labor and House of Representatives Commerce and Labor Committees."

Representatives Jacobsen, Cole and Vekich spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment, and it was adopted.

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

"Sec. 6. Section 46.20.120, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 88, Laws of 1988 and RCW 46.20.120 are each amended to read as follows:

No new driver's license may be issued and no previously issued license may be renewed until the applicant therefor has successfully passed a driver licensing examination(~~(--PROVIDED-That))~~. However, the department may waive all or any part of the examination of any person applying for the renewal of a driver's license except when the department determines that an applicant for a driver's license is not qualified to hold a driver's license under this title. The department may also waive the actual demonstration of the ability to operate a motor vehicle by a person who surrenders a valid driver's license issued by the person's previous home state and who is otherwise qualified to be licensed. For a new license examination a fee of seven dollars shall be paid by each applicant, in addition to the fee charged for issuance of the license. A new license is one issued to a driver who has not been previously licensed in this state or to a driver whose last previous Washington license has been expired for more than four years.

Any person renewing his or her driver's license more than sixty days after the license has expired shall pay a penalty fee of ten dollars in addition to the renewal fee under RCW 46.20.181. The penalty fee shall be deposited in the highway safety fund.

Any person who is outside the state at the time his or her driver's license expires or who is unable to renew the license due to any incapacity may renew the license within sixty days after returning to this state or within sixty days after the termination of any such incapacity without the payment of the penalty fee.

The department shall provide for giving examinations at places and times reasonably available to the people of this state."

Remember the sections following consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

The amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted.

The committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Walk, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Walk and Schmidt spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5443 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 97; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Anderson, Appelwick, Ballard, Basich, Baugher, Beck, Belcher, Betzoff, Bowman, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Brumsickle, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Dorn, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisher G, Fisher R, Fraser, Fuhrman, Grant, Hankins, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Horn, Inslee, Jacobsen, Jesernig, Jones, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Locke, May, McLean, Meyers R, Miller, Morris, Moyer, Myers H, Nealey, Nelson, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Phillips, Prentice, Prince, Pruitt, Raiter, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rector, Rust, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith, Sommers D, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprenkle, Tate, Todd, Valle, Van Luven, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Wang, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Wolfe, Wood, Youngsman, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 97.

Excused: Representative Gallagher - 1.

Substitute Senate Bill No. 5443 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 5480, by Senators Pullen, Fleming, Talmadge, Smitherman, McCaslin, Nelson, Niemi, Madsen, Rinehart and Lee

Clarifying the crime of malicious harassment.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Judiciary recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For committee amendments, see Journal, 82nd Day, March 31, 1989.)

Mr. Crane moved adoption of the committee amendments.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Padden: Mr. Speaker, Senate Bill No. 5480 is a measure adding to the crime of malicious harassment, certain words and conduct which place people or property in reasonable fear of harm. The amendments adopted by the House Judiciary Committee add to the crime of malicious harassment, a new category of discrimination based upon a person's sexual orientation. The bill adds new prohibitive conduct to the existing statute, while the amendments add a new group of persons to the list to be protected from the conduct. Accordingly, I would ask for your ruling on the scope and object of the amendments.

MOTION

Mr. Heavey moved that the House defer further consideration of Senate Bill No. 5480 and that the bill hold its place on the second reading calendar. The motion was carried.

MOTION

Mr. Heavey moved that the House consider the following bills in the following order: Senate Bill No. 6057 on the third reading calendar; Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5644, Senate Bill No. 5492, Senate Bill No. 5636, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5681, and Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5850 on the second reading calendar. The motion was carried.

There being no objection, the House advanced to the seventh order of business.

THIRD READING

SENATE BILL NO. 6057, by Senators Murray, Bender, Warnke, Owen, McMullen, Williams, Smitherman, Kreidler, Sutherland, Talmadge, Niemi, Fleming, Moore, Lee, Vogt, Rasmussen, Conner, Stratton, Bailey, Gaspard, Hansen, Wojahn, Bauer, Madsen, Metcalf, Rinehart and Johnson

Providing for school services for homeless children.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Mr. Peery spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Mr. Betzoff spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Peery yielded to question by Mr. Hargrove.

Mr. Hargrove: Under existing procedures, can we expect school personnel to identify and refer children who may be in need of services provided by the Department of Social and Health Services, such as those services for child abuse and neglect or for families in conflict?

Mr. Peery: Yes. There is currently a letter of understanding between DSHS and the Superintendent of Public Instruction to develop contacts and procedures for referring children and their families to the proper authorities within the department to receive services. Additionally, under RCW 26.44.030, school personnel are required to report any suspected child abuse and neglect within forty-eight hours.

Representatives Schoon, Walker, Zellinsky and Miller spoke against the bill, and Representatives Cole and Pruitt spoke in favor of it.

Representative Crane demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5636, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 97; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Anderson, Appelwick, Ballard, Basich, Baugher, Beck, Belcher, Betzoff, Bowman, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Brumsickle, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Dorn, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisher G, Fisher R, Fraser, Fuhrman, Grant, Hankins, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Horn, Insee, Jacobsen, Jesernig, Jones, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Locke, May, McLean, Meyers R, Miller, Morris, Moyer, Myers H, Nealey, Nelson, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Phillips, Prentice, Prince, Pruitt, Raiter, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rector, Rust, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith, Sommers D, Sommers H, Spaniel, Sprengle, Tate, Todd, Valle, Van Luven, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Wang, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Wolfe, Wood, Youngsman, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 97.

Excused: Representative Gallagher - 1.

Senate Bill No. 5636, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

The Speaker resumed the Chair.

SENATE BILL NO. 5480, by Senators Pullen, Fleming, Talmadge, Smitherman, McCaslin, Nelson, Niemi, Madsen, Rinehart and Lee

Clarifying the crime of malicious harassment.

The House resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 5480 on second reading.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the Point of Order by Representative Padden regarding the scope and object of the committee amendments by Committee on Judiciary.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: This is a fairly fine point that I am being asked to rule on. The bill deals with the subject of malicious harassment and defining what actions constitute malicious harassment. The amendment, it appears to me, deals with which groups of people who are covered by the sexual harassment statute, not with the original subject of what constitutes malicious harassment. I find, Representative Padden, that your point is well taken. The Speaker finds that the committee amendments by Committee on Judiciary are outside the scope and object of the original bill. They do not perfect; they broaden.

The Clerk read the following amendments by Representatives Hargrove, Moyer and Rayburn:

On page 1, line 10, after "person's" strike "race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, or mental, physical, or sensory handicap" and insert "~~(race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, or mental, physical, or sensory handicap)~~ membership in a discrete or insular group that is commonly known to be the object of prejudice, bias, or discrimination"

On page 1, line 22, after "person's" strike "race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, or mental, physical, or sensory handicap" and insert "membership in a discrete or insular group that is commonly known to be the object of prejudice, bias, or discrimination"

With consent of the House, Representative Hargrove withdrew the amendment.

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Crane, Padden, Wineberry and Anderson spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5480, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 97; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Anderson, Appelwick, Ballard, Basich, Baugher, Beck, Belcher, Betrozoff, Bowman, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Brumsickle, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Dorn, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisher G, Fisher R, Fraser, Fuhrman, Grant, Hankins, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Horn, Inslee, Jacobsen, Jesernig, Jones, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Locke, May, McLean, Meyers R, Miller, Morris, Moyer, Myers H, Nealey, Nelson, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Phillips, Prentice, Prince, Pruitt, Raiter, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rector, Rust, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith, Sommers D, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprengle, Tate, Todd, Valle, Van Luven, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Wang, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Wolfe, Wood, Youngsman, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 97.

Excused: Representative Gallagher - 1.

Senate Bill No. 5480, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the House advanced to the eleventh order of business.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Ebersole, the House adjourned until 9:30 a.m., Wednesday, April 12, 1989.

JOSEPH E. KING, Speaker

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

NINETY-FOURTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

House Chamber, Olympia, Wednesday, April 12, 1989

The House was called to order at 9:30 a.m. by the Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding). The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representatives Gallagher, Hankins, D. Sommers and Wineberry. On motion of Ms. Miller, Representatives Hankins and D. Sommers were excused. On motion of Mr. Dorn, Representative Gallagher was excused.

The flag was escorted to the rostrum by a Sergeant at Arms Color Guard, Pages Jared Bayless and Jeff Brehmeyer. Prayer was offered by The Reverend Don Nicholson, Minister of the Victory Christian Center of Olympia.

Reading of the Journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was ordered to stand approved.

CENTENNIAL MESSAGE FROM THE WASHINGTON STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

April 12, 1989

On this day in 1889, the route from Ellensburg to the mines at Conconully opened. A steamer would run upriver from Rock Island near Wenatchee every Friday as part of the route. Even though Ellensburg was one hundred and twenty miles from the mines in a straight line and further by river and wagon, its business leaders had some success in becoming the main link between the mines and the outside world. And, on this day in 1889, a Tacoma newspaper complained, "Cities all over the country are making big preparations for celebrating the centennial of (George) Washington's inauguration (as President). Evidently, Washington Territory will be content to read about the festivities."

On April 12, 1895 the first music club in the Bellingham Bay area was established by a "few women who had a very high aim."

On April 12, 1905 Warren G. Magnuson, United States Senator from 1945-81, was born in Minnesota. He held public office in Washington from 1932 to 1981. No Washington State Senator has served longer than Magnuson's six terms. He was elected to the Washington State Historical Society's Centennial Hall of Honor in 1983.

And, this day in 1985 was declared "Louie Louie Day" by the State Senate in a resolution praising the song and noting that few citizens knew the words of the official state song. Three thousand people gathered at the Capitol steps to hear the song and promote it as the first rock and roll state song.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Education recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For committee amendments, see Journal, 73rd Day, March 22, 1989.) Committee on Appropriations recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended by Committee on Education.

Mr. Peery moved adoption of the committee amendment and spoke in favor of it. The committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Peery, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Peery, K. Wilson, Jones and Cole spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives Betrozoff, Horn and Walker opposed it.

Mr. Crane demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5759 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 74; nays, 21; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Representatives Anderson, Appelwick, Basich, Beck, Belcher, Bowman, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Brumsickle, Cantwell, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Dorn, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisher G, Fisher R, Fraser, Grant, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Insee, Jacobsen, Jesernig, Jones, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Locke, Meyers R, Miller, Morris, Myers H, Nelson, Nutley, O'Brien, Patrick, Peery, Phillips, Prentice, Prince, Pruitt, Raiter, Rasmussen, Rector, Rust, Sayan, Schoon, Scott, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprengle, Tate, Todd, Valle, Van Luven, Vekich, Wang, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Wood, and Mr. Speaker - 74.

Voting nay: Representatives Baillard, Baugher, Betrozoff, Chandler, Doty, Fuhrman, Horn, May, McLean, Moyer, Nealey, Padden, Rayburn, Schmidt, Silver, Smith, Walk, Walker, Wolfe, Youngsman, Zellinsky - 21.

Excused: Representatives Gallagher, Hankins, Sommers D - 3.

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5759 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

With consent of the House, Representative Fraser was excused.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5499, by Committee on Financial Institutions & Insurance (originally sponsored by Senators von Reichbauer, Rasmussen, Sellar, Moore, Newhouse, Lee and Johnson)

Requiring motor vehicle liability insurance.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Financial Institutions & Insurance recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For committee amendments, see Journal, 82nd Day, March 31, 1989.)

Mr. Dellwo moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Mr. Dellwo moved adoption of the following amendments by Representatives Dellwo and Chandler to the committee amendment:

On page 2, beginning on line 21 of the amendment, strike all of subsection (3) through line 35 and insert the following:

"(3) If a person cited for a violation of this section appears in person before the court and provides written evidence that at the time the person was cited, he or she was in compliance with this section, the citation shall be dismissed. In lieu of personal appearance, a person cited for a violation of this section may, before the date scheduled for the person's appearance before the court, submit by mail to the court written evidence that at the time the person was cited, he or she was in compliance with this section, in which case the citation shall be dismissed."

On page 4, beginning on line 36 of the amendment, strike all of section 5 and insert the following:

"Sec. 5. Section 2, chapter 11, Laws of 1979 as last amended by section 2, chapter 463, Laws of 1987 and RCW 46.52.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The driver of any vehicle involved in an accident resulting in injury to or death of any person or damage to the property of any one person to an apparent extent equal to or greater than the minimum amount established by rule adopted by the chief of the Washington state patrol in accordance with subsection (5) of this section, shall, within twenty-four hours after such accident, make a written report of such accident to the chief of police of the city or town if such accident occurred within an incorporated city or town or the county sheriff or state patrol if such accident occurred outside incorporated cities and towns. Nothing in this subsection prohibits accident reports from being filed by drivers where damage to property is less than the minimum amount.

(2) The original of such report shall be immediately forwarded by the authority receiving such report to the chief of the Washington state patrol at Olympia, Washington, and the second copy of such report to be forwarded to the department of licensing at Olympia, Washington.

(3) Any law enforcement officer who investigates an accident for which a driver's report is required under subsection (1) of this section shall submit an investigator's report as required by RCW 46.52.070.

(4) The chief of the Washington state patrol may require any driver of any vehicle involved in an accident, of which report must be made as provided in this section, to file supplemental reports whenever the original report in his opinion is insufficient, and may likewise require witnesses of any such accident to render reports. For this purpose, the chief of the Washington state patrol shall prepare and, upon request, supply to any police department, coroner, sheriff, and any other suitable agency or individual, sample forms of accident reports required hereunder, which reports shall be upon a form devised by the chief of the Washington state patrol and shall call for sufficiently detailed information to disclose all material facts with reference to the accident to be reported thereon, including the location, the cause, the conditions then existing, ~~((and))~~ the persons and vehicles involved, the insurance information required under section 3 of this act, personal injury or death, if any, the amounts of property damage claimed, the total number of vehicles involved, whether the vehicles were legally parked, legally standing, or moving, and whether such vehicles were occupied at the time of the accident. Every required accident report shall be made on a form prescribed by the chief of the Washington state patrol and each authority charged with the duty of receiving such reports shall provide sufficient report forms in compliance with the form devised. The report forms shall be designated so as to provide that a copy may be retained by the reporting person.

(5) The chief of the Washington state patrol shall adopt rules establishing the accident-reporting threshold for property damage accidents. Beginning October 1, 1987, the accident-reporting threshold for property damage accidents shall be five hundred dollars. The accident-reporting threshold for property damage accidents shall be revised when necessary, but not more frequently than every two years. The revisions shall only be for the purpose of recognizing economic changes as reflected by an inflationary index recommended by the office of financial management. The revisions shall be guided by the change in the index for the time period since the last revision."

Representatives Dellwo and Baugher spoke in favor of adoption of the amendments to the committee amendment, and they were adopted.

Representatives Dellwo, Chandler and Baugher spoke in favor of adoption of the committee amendment as amended, and it was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Dellwo, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Ms. Miller spoke against passage of the bill.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5499 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 91; nays, 3; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Representatives Anderson, Appelwick, Ballard, Basich, Baugher, Beck, Belcher, Betzoff, Bowman, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brooks, Brunsickle, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Dorn, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisher G, Fisher R, Fuhrman, Grant, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Horn, Inslee, Jacobsen, Jesernig, Jones, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Locke, May, McLean, Meyers R, Morris, Moyer, Myers H, Nealey, Nelson, Nulley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Phillips, Prentice, Pruitt, Raiter, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rector, Rust, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprengle, Tate, Todd, Valle, Van Luven, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Wang, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Wolfe, Wood, Youngsman, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 91.

Voting nay: Representatives Brough, Miller, Prince - 3.

Excused: Representatives Fraser, Gallagher, Hankins, Sommers D - 4.

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5499 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SENATE BILL NO. 6005, by Senators Pullen and Talmadge

Protecting the victims of domestic violence.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Judiciary recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For committee amendments, see Journal, 82nd Day, March 31, 1989.)

Mr. Crane moved adoption of the committee amendments and spoke in favor of them. The committee amendments were adopted.

Mr. Zellinsky moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Zellinsky and Schmidt:

On page 3, after line 2 insert:

"Sec. 3. Section 84, page 115, Laws of 1854 as amended by section 1040 Code of 1881, and RCW 10.22.010 are each amended to read as follows:

When a defendant is prosecuted in a criminal action for a misdemeanor, for which the person injured by the act constituting the offense has a remedy by a civil action, the offense may be compromised as provided in RCW 10.22.020, except when it was committed:

(1) By or upon an officer while in the execution of the duties of his office.

(2) Riotously; ~~((or:))~~

(3) With an intent to commit a felony; or,

(4) By one family or household member against another as defined in RCW 10.99.020(1) and was a crime of domestic violence as defined in RCW 10.99.010(2)."

Representatives Zellinsky, Schmidt, Appelwick and Sayan spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment, and Mr. Crane opposed it. The amendment was adopted.

With consent of the House, the following amendment by Representatives Zellinsky and Schmidt to the title was adopted:

On page 1, line 2 of the title after "RCW" insert "10.22.010."

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 6005 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 94; excused, 4.

Voting yeas: Representatives Anderson, Appelwick, Ballard, Basich, Baugher, Beck, Belcher, Berozoff, Bowman, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Brumsickle, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Dorn, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisher G, Fisher R, Fuhrman, Grant, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Horn, Inslee, Jacobsen, Jesernig, Jones, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Locke, May, McLean, Meyers R, Miller, Morris, Moyer, Myers H, Nealey, Nelson, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Phillips, Prentice, Prince, Pruitt, Raiter, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rector, Rust, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprengle, Tate, Todd, Vaile, Van Luven, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Wang, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Wolfe, Wood, Youngsman, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 94.

Excused: Representatives Fraser, Gallagher, Hankins, Sommers D - 4.

Senate Bill No. 6005 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Representative Hankins appeared at the bar of the House.

There being no objection, the House advanced to the eighth order of business.

RESOLUTION

HOUSE FLOOR RESOLUTION NO. 89-4666, by Representatives Youngsman, Rayburn, Brumsickle and Bowman

WHEREAS, In 1872, J. Sterling Morton proposed to the Nebraska Board of Agriculture that a special day be set aside for the planting of trees; and

WHEREAS, This extraordinary day, called Arbor Day, was first observed with the planting of more than a million trees in Nebraska; and

WHEREAS, Arbor Day is now observed throughout the nation and the world and is observed in Washington State today, April 12; and

WHEREAS, Trees reduce the erosion of our precious topsoil by wind and water, cut heating and cooling costs, moderate the temperature, clean the air, produce oxygen and provide habitat for wildlife; and

WHEREAS, Trees are a renewable resource and play a vital part in our state's economy in the production of paper, home and building construction, fuel for our fires, and countless other purposes; and

WHEREAS, Trees increase property values, enhance the economic vitality of business areas and beautify our communities; and

WHEREAS, Trees, wherever they are planted, are a source of joy and spiritual renewal; and

WHEREAS, Washington State's celebration of Arbor Day this year is particularly noteworthy because April 12 is the day on which the official State Centennial Flowers are to be dedicated in a special planting ceremony on the Capitol campus, officiated by the Governor; and

WHEREAS, One of these two lovely state flowers is a rhododendron especially hybridized by Fred and Lillian Peste and appropriately named the "Centennial Celebration," and the other is an azalea created by Frank D. Mossman named the "Washington State Centennial"; and

WHEREAS, These spectacularly beautiful flowers, through a relatively new technique known as micropropagation, will be planted in rest areas, parks and recreation sites across the state and are available to the public for purchase; and

WHEREAS, These commemorative flowers will begin as small plants, but in time will become a growing part of Washington's heritage and will represent a lasting tribute to our state's centennial celebration;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State House of Representatives acknowledge the fantastic aesthetic and economic benefits that trees make to the Evergreen State and commend all of those who share in the responsibility for creating and designating the official centennial flowers; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this Resolution be transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to the Washington State Arbor Day Council, Mr. Bruce Briggs, Mrs. Lillian Peste and Mr. Frank D. Mossman.

Mr. Youngsman moved adoption of the resolution. Representatives Youngsman, Hargrove and Rayburn spoke in favor of the resolution.

House Floor Resolution No. 89-4666 was adopted.

The Speaker assumed the Chair.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5288, by Committee on Environment & Natural Resources (originally sponsored by Senators Metcalf, Vognild, Craswell, Benitz, Barr and Amondson)

Providing for the production of salmon smolts by private aquaculturists.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Fisheries & Wildlife recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For committee amendments, see Journal, 80th Day, March 29, 1989.)

Mr. R. King moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Ms. Bowman moved adoption of the following amendments to the committee amendment:

On page 2, line 7 of the amendment after "waters" strike material through "capacity" on line 9

On page 2, after line 16 of the amendment insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 75.08 RCW to read as follows:

The director may make available to private contractors any state-funded salmon hatcheries or satellite facilities which are in a closed or less than fifty percent of full capacity operation. These underutilized facilities shall be leased to cooperatives and private aquaculturists on an annual basis for contracting to fulfill the purposes of section 1 of this act. Annual fees shall be one dollar per facility."

Renumber following sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

On page 2, line 22 of the amendment after "the" strike "purpose of" and insert "purposes of leasing underutilized facilities and"

Representatives Bowman and S. Wilson spoke in favor of adoption of the amendments to the committee amendment, and Representatives R. King and Sayan opposed them. The amendments to the committee amendment were not adopted.

Ms. Spanel moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Spanel, Haugen, Kremen, S. Wilson, Schmidt, Walker, Youngsman, Zellinsky and Jones to the committee amendment:

On page 3, after line 20 of the amendment, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The legislature finds that:

(1) Some forms of aquaculture have potential for long-term benefit if carefully regulated, appropriately sited, and properly managed based on guidelines and criteria that recognize potential impacts as well as advantages;

(2) Aquaculture practices and activities are diverse and generate substantially different impacts depending on the type of aquaculture employed. Some forms of aquaculture that require structural, chemical, nutrient, or other additions to the aquatic environment or that use large areas of public waters, shorelines, or tidelands, have a potential for impact or for interference with existing water and land uses;

(3) Site monitoring of aquaculture facilities, field studies, and further research are important and necessary to evaluate and minimize the environmental effects of aquaculture;

(4) Because of their potential for impacts upon shoreline and upland uses, local government review of proposed aquaculture uses is particularly important;

(5) State agencies, local governments, and others have expended a considerable amount of effort in the development of shoreline master program amendments, interim guidelines and a draft environmental impact statement for floating fin fish aquaculture; and

(6) State agencies, with the involvement of local governments and other interested parties, need to review the existing interim guidelines in light of any new information gathered through the environmental impact statement process, and to adopt permanent guidelines for the siting of floating aquaculture facilities. Local governments also need to review their shoreline master programs to ensure that the programs are consistent with this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 9 through 13 of this act.

(1) 'Floating aquaculture projects' means floating developments subject to the shoreline management act and used in the culture of aquatic products in the marine waters of the state. Examples include floating fin fish net pens and structures used for culturing seaweed. However, for the purposes of this act, floating aquaculture projects do not include projects in which rafts are used for culturing shellfish.

(2) 'Shore-based components of floating aquaculture projects' means facilities located onshore, such as docks, boat ramps, and storage sheds, that are used to provide support to offshore facilities. The term does not mean processing facilities that are located at upland locations, with the exception of processing facilities located on the shoreline in the vicinity of the offshore component of the project.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) The department shall in cooperation with other state agencies with regulatory or proprietary authority over floating aquaculture projects, develop and adopt guidelines under chapter 34.05 RCW for regulation of floating aquaculture. The guidelines shall address the potential impact, including cumulative impacts, of the water and shore-based components of floating aquaculture projects. The guidelines shall address the following areas:

(a) Aesthetic impacts including, but not limited to, visual impact, odor, noise, and similar factors;

(b) Navigation along, and to and from, the shoreline;

(c) Use of antibiotics, pesticides, or other additives that have a potential for environmental damage, including wildlife and human populations;

(d) Water quality as affected by factors such as fecal waste, waste from feeding, fertilization, and harvesting operations;

(e) Impact on benthic organisms;

(f) Impact on marine mammals or other wildlife;

(g) Impact on commercial and sport fishing and other recreational uses of shoreline and aquatic environment;

(h) Impact on public use of shorelines, particularly shorelines of state-wide significance, waters, or tidelands;

(i) Impact on existing aquaculture operations in the vicinity or other existing harvesting of marine life;

(j) Methods of harvesting and processing of aquaculture products; and

(k) Any other factors that may involve potential adverse environmental or other impacts.

(2) The guidelines shall identify specific areas where local governments may adopt more restrictive standards consistent with sections 7 through 15 of this act to address unique local conditions.

(3) In preparing the guidelines, the department shall consult with affected local governments, citizen groups, and aquaculturists. The department shall conduct public meetings on the proposed guidelines in areas of the state that have proposed floating aquaculture projects, or are likely to have proposals in the future.

(4) Guidelines that are within the scope of chapter 90.58 RCW shall be adopted by the department. Guidelines that are not within the scope of chapter 90.58 RCW shall be adopted by the agency with the appropriate regulatory or proprietary authority. All guidelines shall be adopted by March 1, 1990. Once adopted, the department shall compile the guidelines and other relevant state laws and rules pertaining to floating aquaculture projects into a single document.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. In addition to the guidelines in section 9 of this act, by March 1, 1990, the department, in cooperation with the departments of fisheries, agriculture, and natural resources, shall:

(1) Adopt rules governing the completion of a site characterization study that will provide governmental agencies information necessary for the review of the potential impacts listed in section 9 of this act. A site characterization study shall be completed before substantial development permit applications for floating aquaculture facilities are submitted to local governments. The study shall be prepared in consultation with appropriate local and state officials, and shall be paid for by the applicant;

(2) Adopt rules governing monitoring of sites used for floating aquaculture. The rules shall include requirements for monitoring environmental conditions prior to and during commercial production. Monitoring shall encompass the potential environmental impacts listed in section 9 of this act. Monitoring required under this section shall be paid for by the applicant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) By July 1, 1991, local governments shall submit to the department amendments to their shoreline master programs to incorporate the guidelines adopted under section 9 of this act. Such amendments shall be consistent with the guidelines adopted under section 9 of this act.

(2) After the adoption of the guidelines required in section 9 of this act, but prior to the adoption of the shoreline master program amendments required in subsection (1) of this section, local governments shall use the guidelines in section 9 of this act when evaluating applications for substantial development permits.

(3) Floating aquacultural projects that will have a significant adverse impact shall be approved only if subject to enforceable conditions that eliminate or mitigate potential adverse impacts. Enforceable conditions shall be amenable to monitoring and enforcement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If a hearing is to be held on a floating aquaculture permit application, written notification of such hearing shall be made by the local government to the departments of fisheries, wildlife, natural resources, agriculture, and ecology at least thirty days before the hearing date. Written notification of such hearing shall also be made at least thirty days before the hearing date to any person who has filed with the local government a written request to receive notice of hearings on floating aquaculture permit applications. The local government shall ensure that adequate records of the hearing are maintained.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. When local government decisions on shoreline substantial development permit applications for aquaculture projects are appealed, substantial weight shall be given by the reviewing body to the local government decision.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. A new section is added to chapter 90.48 RCW to read as follows:

By March 1, 1990, the department shall establish state standards applicable to discharges into marine waters from floating aquaculture projects as defined in section 8 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 79.90 RCW to read as follows:

The department of natural resources shall not issue leases of tidelands and bedlands for proposed floating aquaculture projects as defined in section 8 of this act until after shoreline substantial development permits under chapter 90.58 RCW have been issued.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Sections 7 through 13 of this act are each added to chapter 90.58 RCW."

Renumber the remaining section consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. R. King: Mr. Speaker, I believe that this amendment is well beyond the scope and object of the amendment and bill that are before us.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: Representative King, this was not a difficult call. The Speaker has examined Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5288 and the amendment offered by Representative Spanel. The original bill is clear; it is an act allowing the Department of Fisheries to contract with fishermen's cooperatives for the purchase of quality salmon smolts. It talks about the provisions under which they can do that. The amendment deals with establishment and regulation of aquaculture. The amendment does not perfect, but significantly broadens the original scope of the bill. I find, Representative King, that your point is well taken, that the amendment is outside the scope and object of the original bill.

Representative R. King spoke in favor of adoption of the committee amendment, and it was adopted.

On motion of Mr. R. King, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5288 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 95; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Representatives Anderson, Appelwick, Ballard, Basich, Baugher, Beck, Belcher, Betrozoff, Bowman, Braddock, Brække, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Brumsickle, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Dorn, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisher G, Fisher R, Fuhrman, Grant, Hankins, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Horn, Inslee, Jacobsen, Jesernig, Jones, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Locke, May, McLean, Meyers R, Miller, Morris, Moyer, Myers H, Nealey, Nelson, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Phillips, Prentice, Prince, Pruitt, Raiter, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rector, Rust, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprenkle, Tate, Todd, Valle, Van Luvan, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Wang, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Wolfe, Wood, Youngsman, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 95.

Excused: Representatives Fraser, Gallagher, Sommers D - 3.

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5288, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Representative Fraser appeared at the bar of the House.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5289, by Committee on Environment & Natural Resources (originally sponsored by Senators Metcalf, DeJarnatt, Barr, Benitz and Anderson)

Authorizing the formation of regional fisheries enhancement groups.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Fisheries & Wildlife recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For committee amendments, see Journal, 82nd Day, March 31, 1989.)

Mr. R. King moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Ms. Haugen moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Haugen and S. Wilson to the committee amendment:

On page 2, after line 16 of the amendment, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The legislature finds and declares the following:

(1) Declines in various Washington marine species of fish have adversely affected the sport and commercial fishing industries.

(2) Research, development, and technology transfer on the artificial propagation, rearing, and stocking of some marine species are needed.

(3) Funding for this research and development is most appropriately borne by a special fund derived from user fees on sport and commercial fishermen who stand to benefit directly from the resurgence of various marine species.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter:

(1) 'Fund' means the marine fish enhancement research fund.

(2) 'Marine fish' means all species for which a personal use license is required except salmon and sturgeon.

(3) 'Program' means the Washington marine fish enhancement research program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The Washington marine fish enhancement research program is established for the purpose of supporting basic and applied research and technology transfer on the artificial propagation, rearing, and stocking of marine fish species that are important to sport and commercial fishing in the marine and ocean waters of Washington. Research funds shall be allocated between studies of marine fish species important to sport fishers and studies of marine fish important to commercial fishers in proportion to each fishing group's relative financial contribution to the program. Research shall include, but is not limited to: (1) Artificial propagation, rearing, and stocking of marine fishes; (2) ecological requirements necessary to sustain marine fish stocks; (3) population dynamics in order to better understand potential survival patterns; (4) tagging and monitoring programs to evaluate success of stocking programs; and (5) stock identification and genetics research to enable identification of migration patterns and populations of fish stocks.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The program shall be administered by the director with the advice and assistance of the advisory panel created in section 11 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. To assist the director in establishing policy direction for research projects, there is hereby created a marine fish enhancement research advisory panel. The panel shall consist of the following members to be appointed by the director:

(1) One member representing the Washington trawl fisheries, appointed from a list of trawl fishermen who express interest in serving on the advisory panel;

(2) One member representing the Washington commercial halibut fishing industry, appointed from a list of halibut fishermen who express interest in serving on the advisory panel;

(3) One member representing the Washington charter boat fishing industry, appointed from a list of charter boat owners who express interest in serving on the advisory panel;

(4) One member representing Washington marine recreational fishermen, appointed from a list of recreational fishermen who express interest in serving on the advisory panel;

(5) One scientist at large; and

(6) One member representing the United States national marine fisheries service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) The marine fish enhancement research fund is hereby created in the custody of the state treasury. All fees received by the department under sections 13 and 14 of this act and RCW 75.28.095(4) shall be deposited in the fund. Any money received for the purposes of carrying out this chapter from other sources may be deposited in the fund. Expenditures from the fund may be used only for the purposes of the program. The fund is subject to allotment procedures under chapter 43.88 RCW, but no appropriation is required for expenditures.

(2) An amount, not to exceed twelve percent of the total annual revenues deposited in the fund, may be used by the department for administering the research program, for the production and distribution of the marine fish enhancement research stamp, and for collecting stamp revenues.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 75.25 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In addition to a valid personal use license, a person taking marine fish from state and offshore waters for sport purposes shall have permanently affixed to his or her personal use license an annual marine fish enhancement research stamp that shall be issued upon payment of one dollar.

(2) Sport anglers who are entitled to a free personal use license, or who are not required to obtain a personal use license, shall not be required to obtain a marine fish enhancement research stamp.

(3) A dealer's fee may not be charged for issuing a marine fish enhancement research stamp.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. A new section is added to chapter 75.28 RCW to read as follows:

In addition to a valid Washington commercial fishing license, a person taking food fish for commercial purposes shall have permanently affixed to his or her license an annual food fish enhancement research stamp that may be obtained from the department upon payment of thirty dollars.

Sec. 15. Section 1, chapter 90, Laws of 1969 as last amended by section 1, chapter 9, Laws of 1988 and RCW 75.28.095 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A charter boat license is required for a vessel to be operated as a charter boat from which food fish are taken for personal use. The annual license fees are:

	Species	Resident	Nonresident
		Fee	Fee
(a)	Food fish other than salmon	$100	$200
(b)	Salmon and other food fish	$200	$200

(2) 'Charter boat' means a vessel from which persons may, for a fee, fish for food fish, and which delivers food fish into state ports or delivers food fish taken from state waters into United States ports. 'Charter boat' does not mean:

(a) Vessels not generally engaged in charter boat fishing which are under private lease or charter and operated by the lessee for the lessee's personal recreational enjoyment; or

(b) Vessels used by guides for clients fishing for food fish for personal use in freshwater rivers, streams, and lakes, other than Lake Washington or that part of the Columbia River below the bridge at Longview.

(3) A vessel shall not engage in both charter or sports fishing and commercial fishing on the same day. A vessel may be licensed for both charter boat fishing and for commercial fishing at the same time. The license or delivery permit allowing the activity not being engaged in shall be deposited with the fisheries patrol officer for that area or an agent designated by the director.

(4) Effective until December 31, 1994, in addition to a valid charter boat license, the owner of a charter boat shall obtain and permanently affix to the charter boat license an annual marine fish enhancement research stamp that may be obtained from the department upon payment of thirty dollars.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Sections 7 through 12 and sections 18 and 19 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 75 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Sections 13 and 14 of this act and RCW 75.28.095(4) shall take effect on January 1, 1990.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Prior to January 1, 1994, the department of fisheries, in cooperation with the advisory panel, shall prepare a report on the status of the research program and make recommendations regarding whether the program should be extended past December 31, 1995. The report shall be submitted to the appropriate fish and wildlife standing committees of the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Sections 13 and 14 of this act and RCW 75.28.095(4) shall expire on December 31, 1994. Sections 7 through 12 of this act shall expire on December 31, 1995."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. R. King: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would request a ruling on the scope and object of this amendment. The original bill and the House committee amendment deal with methods of setting up enhancement groups for the production of salmon. This amendment deals with bottom fish and, in my opinion at least, goes well beyond the original scope and object of the bill and amendment.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: Representative King, the Speaker has examined both Substitute Senate Bill No. 5289 and the amendment to the committee amendment. It is not a difficult call. It is pretty clear that the original bill deals with the establishment of these regional fisheries enhancement groups, particularly to enhance salmon and steelhead. The bill deals with that; the amendment attempts to enhance the resource, but does not deal with the original subject of the bill, which is the formation of these regional fishing groups, and also attempts to bring in a new resource, bottom fish. I find that your point is well taken, Representative King. The amendment is outside the scope and object of the original bill.

Representatives R. King, Basich and S. Wilson spoke in favor of adoption of the committee amendment, and it was adopted.

With consent of the House, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5289 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 93; absent, 3; excused, 2.

Voting yeas: Representatives Anderson, Appelwick, Ballard, Basich, Baugher, Beck, Belcher, Betzoff, Bowman, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Brumsickle, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Dorn, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisher G, Fisher R, Fraser, Fuhrman, Grant, Hankins, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Horn, Insole, Jacobsen, Jesernig, Jones, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Locke, May, McLean, Meyers R, Miller, Morris, Moyer, Myers H, Nealey, Nelson, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Phillips, Prentice, Prince, Pruitt, Raiter, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rector, Rust, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith, Spanel, Sprengle, Tate, Todd, Van Luven, Vekich, Walker, Wang, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Wolfe, Wood, Youngsman, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 93.

Absent: Representatives Sommers H, Vaile, Walk - 3.

Excused: Representatives Gallagher, Sommers D - 2.

Substitute Senate Bill No. 5289 as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the House advanced to the eighth order of business.

RESOLUTION

HOUSE FLOOR RESOLUTION NO. 89-4671, by Representatives K. Wilson, Sprengle, Scott and R. King

WHEREAS, Fifty-six students in grades one through six from Hillcrest Elementary School in Lake Stevens, Washington have signed a petition demonstrating their stance against the use of drugs; and

"BE IT RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON, IN LEGISLATIVE SESSION ASSEMBLED:

THAT, At the next general election to be held in this state there shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the state for their approval and ratification, or rejection, an amendment to Article I, section -- of the Constitution of the state of Washington to read as follows:

Article I, section --. Effective law enforcement depends on cooperation from victims of crime. To ensure victims a meaningful role in the criminal justice system and to accord them due dignity and respect, victims of crime are hereby granted the following basic and fundamental rights.

Upon notifying the prosecuting attorney, a victim of a crime charged as a felony shall have the right to be informed of and attend trial and all other court proceedings the defendant has the right to attend, and to make a statement at sentencing and at any proceeding where the defendant's release is considered, subject to the same rules of procedure which govern the defendant's rights. In the event the victim is deceased, incompetent, a minor, or otherwise unavailable, the prosecuting attorney may identify a representative to appear to exercise the victim's rights. This provision shall not constitute a basis for error in favor of a defendant in a criminal proceeding nor a basis for providing a victim or the victim's representative with court appointed counsel.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the secretary of state shall cause notice of the foregoing constitutional amendment to be published at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state."

Ms. Belcher moved adoption of the following amendments to the committee amendment:

On page 3, line 20, after "enterprises" strike all material down to and including "list." on page 4, line 6, and insert "which meet all of the following criteria: (a) at least fifty percent by volume of the timber purchased by the enterprise in the previous three years was state- or federally-owned; (b) at least seventy-five percent by volume of the timber purchased by the enterprise in the previous year was processed in Washington state; and (c) the enterprise operates facilities in Washington which manufacture lumber, plywood, veneer, posts, poles, pilings, shakes, or shingles. For purposes of these criteria, 'processed' means manufactured into lumber, plywood, veneer, posts, poles, pilings, shakes, or shingles.

Once the board of natural resources has accepted the petition of a county to reserve a portion of timber pursuant to this section, the department shall compile a list of enterprises which meet the criteria listed in this section. An enterprise must petition the department for inclusion in the list of eligible enterprises, and must include with the petition certified records sufficient to establish that the enterprise meets the criteria listed in this section. If an enterprise purchases a processing facility, the enterprise may incorporate the records of that facility in its petition for inclusion in the list of eligible enterprises. The department shall establish by rule what types of records are acceptable for purposes of establishing eligibility. Timber reserved under this section shall be sold only to enterprises contained in the list of eligible firms prepared by the department.

For each sale of timber under this section, the department shall require the purchaser to: (a) submit annually, until all unprocessed timber is accounted for, a certified report on the disposition of any unprocessed timber harvested from the sale, including a description of unprocessed timber which is sold, exchanged, or otherwise disposed of to another enterprise and a description of the relationship with the other enterprise; (b) submit annually, until all unprocessed timber from the sale is accounted for, a certified report on the sale of any unprocessed timber from private lands which is exported or sold for export; and (c) maintain records of all such transactions involving unprocessed timber, and to make such records available for inspection and verification by the department for up to three years after the sale is terminated.

For purposes of this section, "enterprise" means any business concern and its affiliates, as that term is defined in 13 C.F.R. 121.3, in effect as of January 1, 1988."

On page 4, line 25, after "which" strike all material through and including "notice." on page 4, line 27, and insert "has been approved for auction by the board of natural resources before the board receives the notice."

Representatives Belcher, Hargrove and Fuhrman spoke in favor of adoption of the amendments to the committee amendment, and they were adopted.

Ms. Belcher moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 14, line 7, after "lands," strike all material through "1991" on page 15, line 18, and insert the following:

"(3) The department of natural resources shall increase its labor intensive forest land management activities in areas of the state adversely impacted by reductions in timber sales from federal lands through direct employment or contracts. Activities provided for under this section shall be in addition to and shall not supplant or displace activities normally administered by the department. Except for administrative employees, employment by the department provided for under this section shall be reserved for unemployed individuals who were formerly employed in the timber industry. Enterprises shall not be eligible for contracts under this section unless more than fifty percent of their employees have been previously employed in the timber industry. The department shall, to the extent feasible, offer the additional contracts in sizes which does not discourage participation by small enterprises. The department shall cooperate with the department of employment security in disseminating information on department forest land management activities to unemployed individuals who have been employed in the timber industry.

(4) The department of employment security shall provide services for job placement for the employment opportunities provided for by section 8, subsection (3) of this act. Job placement services shall include widely disseminating information on the availability of department of natural resources employment opportunities and contracts for forest land management activities and information on procedures for bidding on such contracts. These job placement services shall be provided to unemployed individuals who have been employed in the timber industry. The department shall keep track of the number of former timber workers who obtain employment under this section and shall determine whether enterprises are eligible to receive the contracts provided for under this section. The department of employment security shall report to the Governor and to the appropriate committees of the legislature its findings on January 1, 1990 and January 1, 1991."

Representatives Belcher, Beck and Hargrove spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment to the committee amendment, and it was adopted.

Mr. Fuhrman spoke against adoption of the committee amendment as amended, and Representatives Hargrove, Belcher, Basich and Jones spoke in favor of it. The committee amendment as amended was adopted.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Schoon: Mr. Speaker, I object to the process whereby we pass amendments that we don't have on our desks. I raised the question to the Chief Clerk, and it has since been distributed. I thought we would at least have the courtesy to see the amendments, and now that we have the amendments, I would like to make a motion.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Schoon, having voted on the prevailing side, moved that the House immediately reconsider the vote by which the amendments by Representative Belcher on page 3, line 20, and on page 4, line 25, to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5911 were adopted by the House.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: Representative Schoon, that motion would be out of order. We have had action since the adoption of the amendment to the amendment that you are now asking us to reconsider. If you would like a chance, with the forbearance and immense tolerance of the House, to reconsider the committee amendment as amended, feel free to make your motion. Representative Schoon, do you wish to make a motion?

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Ms. Brough, having voted on the prevailing side, moved that the House immediately reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Committee on Natural Resources & Parks as amended was adopted by the House.

The motion was not carried.

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives Belcher, Vekich, Hargrove, Sayan, Jones and Bowman spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives Schoon and Fuhrman opposed it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5911 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 77; nays, 19; excused, 2.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5583, by Senators Pullen, Newhouse, Nelson, Rasmussen and Talmadge

Replacing the Washington business corporation act.

The bill was read the second time.

With consent of the House, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

MOTION

Mr. Appelwick moved that the official comments of the Corporate Act Revision Committee of the Washington State Bar Association, which describe the intent of the act, be spread upon the Journal.

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding): Representative Appelwick, it appears that the request is somewhat unusual at this time. Could you afterwards, sometime when you have the written comments and on a Point of Personal Privilege, ask for those comments to be inserted into the Journal and not make this a part of the discussion right now, because the motion now would be out of order. You have the right under Personal Privilege to insert those comments into the Journal, but right now we want to act on the bill on final passage.

Mr. Appelwick spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

MOTION

Ms. Schmidt moved that the remarks of Representative Appelwick be spread upon the Journal.

REMARKS OF REPRESENTATIVE APPELWICK

Mr. Appelwick: This bill is a modernization and rewrite of the Washington Corporations Act. It was done by the Corporate Act Revision Committee of the Washington State Bar Association as an ongoing project. It is a major recodification. Because the act is being substantially reorganized, it will have the effect of causing a number of the citations not to correspond perspectively and it will raise questions about continuing intent. Because this is one of the more major acts, on which our commerce relies, many felt it was important, and I concur, that the commentary and the intent of the new language in the sections be made clear and be part of the act. So, following passage of the bill, I will rise to add that language to our Journal. I urge your support.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5583, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 96; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Anderson, Appelwick, Ballard, Basich, Baugher, Beck, Belcher, Betzoff, Bowman, Braddock, Brekke, Bristow, Brooks, Brough, Brumsickle, Cantwell, Chandler, Cole, Cooper, Crane, Day, Dellwo, Dorn, Doty, Ebersole, Ferguson, Fisher G, Fisher R, Fraser, Fuhrman, Grant, Hankins, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hine, Holland, Horn, Insee, Jacobsen, Jesernig, Jones, King P, King R, Kremen, Leonard, Locke, May, McLean, Meyers R, Miller, Morris, Moyer, Myers H, Nealey, Nelson, Nutley, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Peery, Phillips, Prentice, Prince, Pruitt, Raiter, Rasmussen, Rayburn, Rector, Rust, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith, Sommers H, Spanel, Sprenkle, Tate, Todd, Valle, Van Luven, Vekich, Walk, Walker, Wang, Wilson K, Wilson S, Wineberry, Winsley, Wolfe, Wood, Youngsman, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 96.

Excused: Representatives Gallagher, Sommers D - 2.

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5583, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Appelwick: I would like to request that the official commentary prepared by the Corporate Act Revision Committee of the Washington State Bar Association, describing Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5583, be inserted into the Journal of the House.

Mr. Appelwick withdrew his request.

EDITOR'S NOTE: See Senate Journal, Appendix A, for comments on the proposed Washington Business Corporation Act prepared by the Corporate Act Revision Committee of the Washington State Bar Association.

NOTE: Numbers in the first horizontal row of each seriousness category represent sentencing midpoints in years(y) and months(m). Numbers in the second and third rows represent presumptive sentencing ranges in months, or in days if so designated. 12+ equals one year and one day.

(2) For persons convicted of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy under chapter 9A.28 RCW, the presumptive sentence is determined by locating the sentencing grid sentence range defined by the appropriate offender score and the seriousness level of the completed crime, and multiplying the range by 75 percent.

(3) The following additional times shall be added to the presumptive sentence if the offender or an accomplice was armed with a deadly weapon as defined in this chapter and the offender is being sentenced for one of the crimes listed in this subsection. If the offender or an accomplice was armed with a deadly weapon and the offender is being sentenced for an anticipatory offense under chapter 9A.28 RCW to commit one of the crimes listed in this subsection, the following times shall be added to the presumptive range determined under subsection (2) of this section:

- (a) 24 months for Rape 1 (RCW 9A.44.040), Robbery 1 (RCW 9A.56.200), or Kidnapping 1 (RCW 9A.40.020)
- (b) 18 months for Burglary 1 (RCW 9A.52.020)
- (c) 12 months for Assault 2 (RCW ~~(9A.36.020)~~ 9A.36.021), Escape 1 (RCW 9A.76.110), Kidnapping 2 (RCW 9A.40.030), Burglary 2 of a building other than a dwelling (RCW 9A.52.030), Theft of Livestock 1 or 2 (RCW 9A.56.080), or any drug offense.

(4) An additional twenty-four months shall be added to the presumptive sentence for any ranked offense involving a violation of chapter 69.50 RCW if the offense was also a violation of section 112 of this 1989 act.

Sec. 102. Section 2, chapter 62, Laws of 1988, section 12, chapter 145, Laws of 1988, section 2, chapter 218, Laws of 1988 and RCW 9.94A.320 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

Sec. 103. Section 7, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 12, chapter 153, Laws of 1988 and by section 3, chapter 157, Laws of 1988 and RCW 9.94A.360 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

The offender score is measured on the horizontal axis of the sentencing grid. The offender score rules are as follows:

The offender score is the sum of points accrued under this section rounded down to the nearest whole number.

(1) A prior conviction is a conviction which exists before the date of sentencing for the offense for which the offender score is being computed. Convictions entered or sentenced on the same date as the conviction for which the offender score is being computed shall be deemed 'other current offenses' within the meaning of RCW 9.94A.400.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, class A prior felony convictions shall always be included in the offender score. Class B prior felony convictions shall not be included in the offender score, if since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent ten consecutive years in the community without being convicted of any felonies. Class C prior felony convictions shall not be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent five consecutive years in the community without being convicted of any felonies. Serious traffic convictions shall not be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender spent five years in the community without being convicted of any serious traffic or felony traffic offenses. This subsection applies to both adult and juvenile prior convictions.

(3) Out-of-state convictions for offenses shall be classified according to the comparable offense definitions and sentences provided by Washington law.

(4) Include class A juvenile felonies only if the offender was 15 or older at the time the juvenile offense was committed. Include class B and C juvenile felony convictions only if the offender was 15 or older at the time the juvenile offense was committed and the offender was less than 23 at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

(5) Score prior convictions for felony anticipatory offenses (attempts, criminal solicitations, and criminal conspiracies) the same as if they were convictions for completed offenses.

(6) In the case of multiple prior convictions, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all convictions separately, except:

(a) Prior adult offenses which were found, under RCW 9.94A.400(1)(a), to encompass the same criminal conduct, shall be counted as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score. The current sentencing court shall determine with respect to other prior adult offenses for which sentences were served concurrently whether those offenses shall be counted as one offense or as separate offenses, and if the court finds that they shall be counted as one offense, then the offense that yields the highest offender score shall be used;

(b) Juvenile prior convictions entered or sentenced on the same date shall count as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score; and

(c) In the case of multiple prior convictions for offenses committed before July 1, 1986, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all adult convictions served concurrently as one offense, and count all juvenile convictions entered on the same date as one offense. Use the conviction for the offense that yields the highest offender score.

(7) If the present conviction is one of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy, count each prior conviction as if the present conviction were for a completed offense.

(8) If the present conviction is for a nonviolent offense and not covered by subsection (12) or (13) of this section, count one point for each adult prior felony conviction and one point for each juvenile prior violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each juvenile prior nonviolent felony conviction.

(9) If the present conviction is for a violent offense and not covered in subsection (10), (11), (12), or (13) of this section, count two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent felony conviction, one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

(10) If the present conviction is for Murder 1 or 2, Assault 1, Kidnaping 1, Homicide by Abuse, or Rape 1, count three points for prior adult and juvenile convictions for crimes in these categories, two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent conviction (not already counted), one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

(11) If the present conviction is for Burglary 1, count prior convictions as in subsection (9) of this section; however count two points for each prior adult Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each prior juvenile Burglary 2 conviction.

(12) If the present conviction is for a felony traffic offense count two points for each adult or juvenile prior conviction for Vehicular Homicide or Vehicular Assault; for each felony offense or serious traffic offense, count one point for each adult and 1/2 point for each juvenile prior conviction.

(13) If the present conviction is for a drug offense count ~~((two))~~ three points for each adult prior felony drug offense conviction and ~~((one))~~ two points for each juvenile drug offense. All other adult and juvenile felonies are scored as in subsection (9) of this section if the current drug offense is violent, or as in subsection (8) of this section if the current drug offense is nonviolent.

(14) If the present conviction is for Willful Failure to Return from Furlough, RCW 72.66.060, or Willful Failure to Return from Work Release, RCW 72.65.070, count only prior escape convictions in the offender score. Count adult prior escape convictions as one point and juvenile prior escape convictions as 1/2 point.

(15) If the present conviction is for Escape 1, RCW 9A.76.110, or Escape 2, RCW 9A.76.120, count adult prior convictions as one point and juvenile prior convictions as 1/2 point.

(16) If the present conviction is for Burglary 2, count priors as in subsection (8) of this section; however, count two points for each adult and juvenile prior Burglary 1 conviction, two points for each adult prior Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each juvenile prior Burglary 2 conviction.

(17) If the present conviction is for an offense committed while the offender was under community placement, add one point.

Sec. 104. Section 69.50.401, chapter 308, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 4, chapter 458, Laws of 1987 and RCW 69.50.401 are each amended to read as follows:

(a) Except as authorized by this chapter, it is unlawful for any person to manufacture, deliver, or possess with intent to manufacture or deliver, a controlled substance.

(1) Any person who violates this subsection with respect to:

(i) a controlled substance classified in Schedule I or II which is a narcotic drug, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be imprisoned for not more than ten years, or (A) fined not more than twenty-five thousand dollars if the crime involved less than two kilograms of the drug, or both such imprisonment and fine; or (B) if the crime involved two or more kilograms of the drug, then fined not more than one hundred thousand dollars for the first two kilograms and not more than fifty dollars for each gram in excess of two kilograms, or both such imprisonment and fine;

(ii) any other controlled substance classified in Schedule I, II, or III, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be imprisoned for not more than five years, fined not more than ten thousand dollars, or both;

(iii) a substance classified in Schedule IV, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be imprisoned for not more than five years, fined not more than ten thousand dollars, or both;

(iv) a substance classified in Schedule V, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be imprisoned for not more than five years, fined not more than ten thousand dollars, or both.

(b) Except as authorized by this chapter, it is unlawful for any person to create, deliver, or possess a counterfeit substance.

(1) Any person who violates this subsection with respect to:

(i) a counterfeit substance classified in Schedule I or II which is a narcotic drug, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be imprisoned for not more than ten years, fined not more than twenty-five thousand dollars, or both;

(ii) any other counterfeit substance classified in Schedule I, II, or III, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be imprisoned for not more than five years, fined not more than ten thousand dollars, or both;

(iii) a counterfeit substance classified in Schedule IV, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be imprisoned for not more than five years, fined not more than ten thousand dollars, or both;

(iv) a counterfeit substance classified in Schedule V, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be imprisoned for not more than five years, fined not more than ten thousand dollars, or both.

(c) It is unlawful, except as authorized in this chapter and chapter 69.41 RCW, for any person to offer, arrange, or negotiate for the sale, gift, delivery, dispensing, distribution, or administration of a controlled substance to any person and then sell, give, deliver, dispense, distribute, or administer to that person any other liquid, substance, or material in lieu of such controlled substance. Any person who violates this subsection is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be imprisoned for not more than five years, fined not more than ten thousand dollars, or both.

(d) It is unlawful for any person to possess a controlled substance unless the substance was obtained directly from, or pursuant to, a valid prescription or order of a practitioner while acting in the course of his professional practice, or except as otherwise authorized by this chapter. Any person who violates this subsection is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be imprisoned for not more than five years, fined not more than ten thousand dollars, or both, except as provided for in subsection (e) of this section.

(e) Except as provided for in subsection (a)(1)(ii) of this section any person found guilty of possession of forty grams or less of marihuana shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

(f) It is unlawful to compensate, threaten, solicit, or in any other manner involve a person under the age of eighteen years in a transaction unlawfully to manufacture, sell, or deliver a controlled substance. A violation of this subsection shall be punished as a class C felony punishable in accordance with RCW 9A.20.021.

This section shall not apply to offenses defined and punishable under the provisions of RCW 69.50.410.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 105. A new section is added to chapter 69.50 RCW to read as follows:

A person who is convicted of a misdemeanor violation of any provision of this chapter shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than twenty-four consecutive hours, and by a fine of not less than two hundred fifty dollars. On a second or subsequent conviction, the fine shall not be less than five hundred dollars. These fines shall be in addition to any other fine or penalty imposed. Unless the court finds that the imposition of the minimum imprisonment will pose a substantial risk to the defendant's physical or mental well-being or that local jail facilities are in an overcrowded condition, the minimum term of imprisonment shall not be suspended or deferred. If the court finds such risk or overcrowding exists, it shall sentence the defendant to a minimum of forty hours of community service. If a minimum term of imprisonment is suspended or deferred, the court shall state in writing the reason for granting the suspension or deferral and the facts upon which the suspension or deferral is based. Unless the court finds the person to be indigent, the minimum fine shall not be suspended or deferred.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 106. A new section is added to chapter 69.50 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Every person convicted of a felony violation of RCW 69.50.401, 69.50.402, 69.50.403, 69.50.406, 69.50.407, 69.50.410, or 69.50.415 shall be fined one thousand dollars in addition to any other fine or penalty imposed. Unless the court finds the person to be indigent, this additional fine shall not be suspended or deferred by the court.

(2) On a second or subsequent conviction for violation of any of the laws listed in subsection (1) of this section, the person shall be fined two thousand dollars in addition to any other fine or penalty imposed. Unless the court finds the person to be indigent, this additional fine shall not be suspended or deferred by the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 107. A new section is added to chapter 69.50 RCW to read as follows:

It is unlawful for any person to deliver, or possess with intent to deliver, hypodermic syringes, needles, or other objects used, intended for use, or designed for use in parenterally injecting controlled substances into the human body, knowingly or under circumstances where the person reasonably should know that such syringes, needles, or other objects will be used or are intended to be used to unlawfully introduce a controlled substance into the human body. Any person who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 108. A new section is added to chapter 9A.36 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A person is guilty of reckless endangerment in the first degree when he or she recklessly discharges a firearm at a dwelling, building, or motor vehicle and the discharge is either from a motor vehicle or from the immediate area of a motor vehicle that was used to transport the shooter or the firearm to the scene of the discharge.

(2) Reckless endangerment in the first degree is a class C felony.

Sec. 109. Section 9A.36.050, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9A.36.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person is guilty of reckless endangerment in the second degree when he recklessly engages in conduct ~~((which creates a substantial risk of death or serious physical injury to another person))~~ not amounting to reckless endangerment in the first degree.

(2) Reckless endangerment in the second degree is a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 110. Section 10, chapter 270, Laws of 1984 as amended by section 11, chapter 455, Laws of 1985 and RCW 9A.82.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) A person who sustains injury to his or her person, business, or property by an act of criminal profiteering that is part of a pattern of criminal profiteering activity or by a violation of RCW 9A.82.060 or 9A.82.080 may file an action in superior court for the recovery of damages and the costs of the suit, including reasonable investigative and attorney's fees.

(b) The attorney general or county prosecuting attorney may file an action: (i) On behalf of those persons injured or, respectively, on behalf of the state or county if the entity has sustained damages, or (ii) to prevent, restrain, or remedy a pattern of criminal profiteering activity or a violation of RCW 9A.82.060 or 9A.82.080.

(c) An action for damages filed by or on behalf of an injured person, the state, or the county shall be for the recovery of damages and the costs of the suit, including reasonable investigative and attorney's fees.

(d) In an action filed to prevent, restrain, or remedy a pattern of criminal profiteering activity or a violation of RCW 9A.82.060 or 9A.82.080, the court, upon proof of the violation, may impose a civil penalty not exceeding two hundred fifty thousand dollars, in addition to awarding the cost of the suit, including reasonable investigative and attorney's fees.

(2) The superior court has jurisdiction to prevent, restrain, and remedy a pattern of criminal profiteering or a violation of RCW 9A.82.060 or 9A.82.080 after making provision for the rights of all innocent persons affected by the violation and after hearing or trial, as appropriate, by issuing appropriate orders.

(3) Prior to a determination of liability, orders issued under subsection (2) of this section may include, but are not limited to, entering restraining orders or prohibitions or taking such other actions, including the acceptance of satisfactory performance bonds, in connection with any property or other interest subject to damages, forfeiture, or other restraints pursuant to this section as the court deems proper. The orders may also include attachment, receivership, or injunctive relief in regard to personal or real property pursuant to Title 7 RCW. In shaping the reach or scope of receivership, attachment, or injunctive relief, the superior court shall provide for the protection of bona fide interests in property, including community property, of persons who were not involved in the violation of this chapter, except to the extent that such interests or property were acquired or used in such a way as to be subject to forfeiture under RCW 9A.82.100(4)(f).

(4) Following a determination of liability, orders may include, but are not limited to:

(a) Ordering any person to divest himself or herself of any interest, direct or indirect, in any enterprise.

(b) Imposing reasonable restrictions on the future activities or investments of any person, including prohibiting any person from engaging in the same type of endeavor as the enterprise engaged in, the activities of which affect the laws of this state, to the extent the Constitutions of the United States and this state permit.

(c) Ordering dissolution or reorganization of any enterprise.

(d) Ordering the payment of actual damages sustained to those persons injured by a violation of RCW 9A.82.060 or 9A.82.080 or an act of criminal profiteering that is part of a pattern of criminal profiteering, and in the court's discretion, increasing the payment to an amount not exceeding three times the actual damages sustained.

(e) Ordering the payment of all costs and expenses of the prosecution and investigation of a pattern of criminal profiteering activity or a violation of RCW 9A.82.060 or 9A.82.080, civil and criminal, incurred by the state or county, including any costs of defense provided at public expense, as appropriate to the state general fund or the antiprofitteering revolving fund of the county.

(f) Ordering forfeiture first as restitution to any person damaged by an act of criminal profiteering that is part of a pattern of criminal profiteering then to the state general fund or antiprofitteering revolving fund of the county, as appropriate, to the extent not already ordered to be paid in other damages, of the following:

(i) Any property or other interest acquired or maintained in violation of RCW 9A.82.060 or 9A.82.080 to the extent of the investment of funds, and any appreciation or income attributable to the investment, from a violation of RCW 9A.82.060 or 9A.82.080.

(ii) Any property, contractual right, or claim against property used to influence any enterprise that a person has established, operated, controlled, conducted, or participated in the conduct of, in violation of RCW 9A.82.060 or 9A.82.080.

(iii) All proceeds traceable to or derived from an offense included in the pattern of criminal profiteering activity and all moneys, negotiable instruments, securities, and other things of value significantly used or intended to be used significantly to facilitate commission of the offense.

(g) Ordering payment to the state general fund or antiprofitteering revolving fund of the county, as appropriate, of an amount equal to the gain a person has acquired or maintained through an offense included in the definition of criminal profiteering.

(5) In addition to or in lieu of an action under this section, the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney may file an action for forfeiture to the state general fund or antiprofitteering revolving fund of the county, as appropriate, to the extent not already ordered paid pursuant to this section, of the following:

(a) Any interest acquired or maintained by a person in violation of RCW 9A.82.060 or 9A.82.080 to the extent of the investment of funds obtained from a violation of RCW 9A.82.060 or 9A.82.080 and any appreciation or income attributable to the investment.

(b) Any property, contractual right, or claim against property used to influence any enterprise that a person has established, operated, controlled, conducted, or participated in the conduct of, in violation of RCW 9A.82.060 or 9A.82.080.

(c) All proceeds traceable to or derived from an offense included in the pattern of criminal profiteering activity and all moneys, negotiable instruments, securities, and other things of value significantly used or intended to be used significantly to facilitate the commission of the offense.

(6) A defendant convicted in any criminal proceeding is precluded in any civil proceeding from denying the essential allegations of the criminal offense proven in the criminal trial in which the defendant was convicted. For the purposes of this subsection, a conviction shall be deemed to have occurred upon a verdict, finding, or plea of guilty, notwithstanding the fact that appellate review of the conviction and sentence has been or may be sought. If a subsequent reversal of the conviction occurs, any judgment that was based upon that conviction may be reopened upon motion of the defendant.

(7) The initiation of civil proceedings under this section shall be commenced within three years after discovery of the pattern of criminal profiteering activity or after the pattern should reasonably have been discovered.

(8) The attorney general or county prosecuting attorney may, in a civil action brought pursuant to this section, file with the clerk of the superior court a certificate stating that the case is of special public importance. A copy of that certificate shall be furnished immediately by the clerk to the presiding chief judge of the superior court in which the action is pending and, upon receipt of the copy, the judge shall immediately designate a judge to hear and determine the action. The judge so designated shall promptly assign the action for hearing, participate in the hearings and determination, and cause the action to be expedited.

(9) The standard of proof in actions brought pursuant to this section is the preponderance of the evidence test.

(10) A person other than the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney who files an action under this section shall serve notice and one copy of the pleading on the attorney general within thirty days after the action is filed with the superior court. The notice shall identify the action, the person, and the person's attorney. Service of the notice does not limit or otherwise affect the right of the state to maintain an action under this section or intervene in a pending action nor does it authorize the person to name the state or the attorney general as a party to the action.

(11) Except in cases filed by a county prosecuting attorney, the attorney general may, upon timely application, intervene in any civil action or proceeding brought under this section if the attorney general certifies that in the attorney general's opinion the action is of special public importance. Upon intervention, the attorney general may assert any available claim and is entitled to the same relief as if the attorney general had instituted a separate action.

(12) In addition to the attorney general's right to intervene as a party in any action under this section, the attorney general may appear as amicus curiae in any proceeding in which a claim under this section has been asserted or in which a court is interpreting RCW 9A.82.010, 9A.82.080, 9A.82.090, 9A.82.110, or 9A.82.120, or this section.

(13) A private civil action under this section does not limit any other civil or criminal action under this chapter or any other provision. Private civil remedies provided under this section are supplemental and not mutually exclusive.

(14) Upon motion by the defendant, the court may authorize the sale or transfer of assets subject to an order or lien authorized by this chapter for the purpose of paying actual attorney's fees and costs of defense. The motion shall specify the assets for which sale or transfer is sought and shall be accompanied by the defendant's sworn statement that the defendant has no other assets available for such purposes. No order authorizing such sale or transfer may be entered unless the court finds that the assets involved are not subject to possible forfeiture under RCW 9A.82.100(4)(f). Prior to disposition of the motion, the court shall notify the state of the assets sought to be sold or transferred and shall hear argument on the issue of whether the assets are subject to forfeiture under RCW 9A.82.100(4)(f). Such a motion may be made from time to time and shall be heard by the court on an expedited basis.

(15) In an action brought under subsection (1) (a) and (b)(i) of this section, either party has the right to a jury trial.

Sec. 111, Section 2, chapter 138, Laws of 1981 and RCW 10.95.020 are each amended to read as follows:

A person is guilty of aggravated first degree murder if he or she commits first degree murder as defined by RCW 9A.32.030(1)(a), as now or hereafter amended, and one or more of the following aggravating circumstances exist:

(1) The victim was a law enforcement officer, corrections officer, or fire fighter who was performing his or her official duties at the time of the act resulting in death and the victim was known or reasonably should have been known by the person to be such at the time of the killing;

(2) At the time of the act resulting in the death, the person was serving a term of imprisonment, had escaped, or was on authorized or unauthorized leave in or from a state facility or program for the incarceration or treatment of persons adjudicated guilty of crimes;

(3) At the time of the act resulting in death, the person was in custody in a county or county-city jail as a consequence of having been adjudicated guilty of a felony;

(4) The person committed the murder pursuant to an agreement that he or she would receive money or any other thing of value for committing the murder;

(5) The person solicited another person to commit the murder and had paid or had agreed to pay money or any other thing of value for committing the murder;

(6) The victim was:

(a) A judge; juror or former juror; prospective, current, or former witness in an adjudicative proceeding; prosecuting attorney; deputy prosecuting attorney; defense attorney; a member of the indefinite sentence review board (~~(of prison terms and paroles)~~); or a probation or parole officer; and

(b) The murder was related to the exercise of official duties performed or to be performed by the victim;

(7) The person committed the murder to conceal the commission of a crime or to protect or conceal the identity of any person committing a crime;

(8) There was more than one victim and the murders were part of a common scheme or plan or the result of a single act of the person;

(9) The murder was committed in the course of, in furtherance of, or in immediate flight from one of the following crimes:

(a) Robbery in the first or second degree;

(b) Rape in the first or second degree;

(c) Burglary in the first or second degree;

(d) Kidnapping in the first degree; ~~((or))~~

(e) Arson in the first degree; or

(f) A violation of the uniform controlled substances act under RCW 69.50.401 (a)(1)(i) or (b)(1)(i).

(10) The victim was regularly employed or self-employed as a newsreporter and the murder was committed to obstruct or hinder the investigative, research, or reporting activities of the victim.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 112. A new section is added to chapter 69.50 RCW to read as follows:

(a) Any person who violates RCW 69.50.401(a) by manufacturing, selling, delivering, or possessing with the intent to manufacture, sell, or deliver a controlled substance listed under that subsection to a person in a school or on a school bus or within one thousand feet of a school bus route stop designated by the school district or within one thousand feet of the perimeter of the school grounds is punishable by a fine twice that authorized by RCW 69.50.401(a), a term of imprisonment twice that authorized by RCW 69.50.401(a), or both.

(b) It is not a defense to a prosecution for a violation of this section that the person was unaware that the prohibited conduct took place while in a school or school bus or within one thousand feet of the school or school bus route stop.

(c) It is not a defense to a prosecution for a violation of this section or any other prosecution under this chapter that persons under the age of eighteen were not present in the school, the school bus, or at the school bus route stop at the time of the offense or that school was not in session.

(d) It is an affirmative defense to a prosecution for a violation of this section that the prohibited conduct took place entirely within a private residence, that no person under eighteen years of age or younger was present in such private residence at any time during the commission of the offense, and that the prohibited conduct did not involve delivering, manufacturing, selling, or possessing with the intent to manufacture, sell, or deliver any controlled substance in RCW 69.50.401(a) for profit. The affirmative defense established in this section shall be proved by the defendant by a preponderance of the evidence. This section shall not be construed to establish an affirmative defense with respect to a prosecution for an offense defined in any other section of this chapter.

(e) In a prosecution under this section, a map produced or reproduced by any municipal, school district, or county engineer for the purpose of depicting the location and boundaries of the area on or within one thousand feet of any property used for a school or school bus route stop, or a true copy of such a map, shall under proper authentication, be admissible and shall constitute prima facie evidence of the location and boundaries of those areas if the governing body of the municipality, school district, or county has adopted a resolution or ordinance approving the map as the official location and record of the location and boundaries of the area on or within one thousand feet of the school or school bus route stop. Any map approved under this section or a true copy of the map shall be filed with the clerk of the municipality or county, and shall be maintained as an official record of the municipality or county. This section shall not be construed as precluding the prosecution from introducing or relying upon any other evidence or testimony to establish any element of the offense. This section shall not be construed as precluding the use or admissibility of any map or diagram other than the one which has been approved by the governing body of a municipality, school district, or county if the map or diagram is otherwise admissible under court rule.

(f) As used in this section the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) 'School' has the meaning under RCW 28A.01.055 or 28A.01.060. The term 'school' also includes a private school approved under RCW 28A.02.201;

(2) 'School bus' means a school bus as defined by the superintendent of public instruction by rule which is owned and operated by any school district and all school buses which are privately owned and operated under contract or otherwise with any school district in the state for the transportation of students. The term does not include buses operated by common carriers in the urban transportation of students such as transportation of students through a municipal transportation system; and

(3) 'School bus route stop' means a school bus stop as designated on maps submitted by school districts to the office of the superintendent of public instruction.

Sec. 113. Section 210, chapter 518, Laws of 1987 and RCW 28A.120.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction, through the state clearinghouse for education information, shall collect and disseminate to all school districts and other interested parties information about effective substance abuse programs and the penalties for manufacturing, selling, delivering, or possessing controlled substances on or within one thousand feet of a school or school bus route stop under section 112 of this 1989 act and distributing a controlled substance to a person under the age of eighteen under RCW 69.50.406.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 114. Sections 101 through 111 of this act apply to crimes committed on or after July 1, 1989.

SUBPART B

JUVENILE JUSTICE BOOT CAMP PILOT PROJECT

Sec. 115. Section 57, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 73, Laws of 1985 and RCW 13.40.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) The juvenile disposition standards commission shall propose to the legislature no later than November 1st of each even-numbered year disposition standards for all offenses. The standards shall establish, in accordance with the purposes of this chapter, ranges which may include terms of confinement, including the boot camp program established in section 116 of this 1989 act, and/or community supervision established on the basis of a youth's age, the instant offense, and the history and seriousness of previous offenses, but in no case may the period of confinement and supervision exceed that to which an adult may be subjected for the same offense(s). Standards proposed for offenders listed in RCW 13.40.020(1) shall include a range of confinement which may not be less than thirty days. No standard range may include a period of confinement which includes both more than thirty, and thirty or less, days. Disposition standards proposed by the commission shall provide that in all cases where a youth is sentenced to a term of confinement in excess of thirty days the department may impose an additional period of parole not to exceed eighteen months. Standards of confinement which may be proposed may relate only to the length of the proposed terms and not to the nature of the security to be imposed. In developing proposed disposition standards, the commission shall consider the capacity of the state juvenile facilities and the projected impact of the proposed standards on that capacity.

(b) The secretary shall submit guidelines pertaining to the nature of the security to be imposed on youth placed in his or her custody based on the age, offense(s), and criminal history of the juvenile offender. Such guidelines shall be submitted to the legislature for its review no later than November 1st of each even-numbered year. At the same time the secretary shall submit a report on security at juvenile facilities during the preceding two-year period. The report shall include the number of escapes from each juvenile facility, the most serious offense for which each escapee had been confined, the number and nature of offenses found to have been committed by juveniles while on escape status, the number of authorized leaves granted, the number of failures to comply with leave requirements, the number and nature of offenses committed while on leave, and the number and nature of offenses committed by juveniles while in the community on minimum security status; to the extent this information is available to the secretary. The department shall include security status definitions in the security guidelines it submits to the legislature pursuant to this section.

(2) If the commission fails to propose disposition standards as provided in this section, the existing standards shall remain in effect and may be adopted by the legislature or referred to the commission for modification as provided in subsection (3) of this section. If the standards are referred for modification, the provisions of subsection (4) shall be applicable.

(3) The legislature may adopt the proposed standards or refer the proposed standards to the commission for modification. If the legislature fails to adopt or refer the proposed standards to the commission by February 15th of the following year, the proposed standards shall take effect without legislative approval on July 1st of that year.

(4) If the legislature refers the proposed standards to the commission for modification on or before February 15th, the commission shall resubmit the proposed modifications to the legislature no later than March 1st. The legislature may adopt or modify the resubmitted proposed standards. If the legislature fails to adopt or modify the resubmitted proposed standards by April 1st, the resubmitted proposed standards shall take effect without legislative approval on July 1st of that year.

(5) In developing and promulgating the permissible ranges of confinement under this section the commission shall be subject to the following limitations:

(a) Where the maximum term in the range is ninety days or less, the minimum term in the range may be no less than fifty percent of the maximum term in the range;

(b) Where the maximum term in the range is greater than ninety days but not greater than one year, the minimum term in the range may be no less than seventy-five percent of the maximum term in the range; and

(c) Where the maximum term in the range is more than one year, the minimum term in the range may be no less than eighty percent of the maximum term in the range.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 116. A new section is added to chapter 13.40 RCW to read as follows:

(1) It is the intent of the legislature that the program established pursuant to this section shall benefit the state and counties by reducing the crowding in juvenile detention facilities and shall benefit both the community and the offenders by promoting the offenders' personal development and self-discipline, thereby making them more effective participants in society.

(2) The department of social and health services shall develop a juvenile boot camp program. At a minimum, such program shall include training in military discipline, physical training, counseling, community service, vocational training, and education classes that emphasize self-discipline, respect toward society, and obedience to the law. The program shall provide an intensive basic training and rehabilitative program for juveniles. The department shall adopt rules for the operation and successful completion of such program.

(3) The boot camp program shall last ninety days for any juvenile, except that the secretary may extend the time limit to one hundred twenty days if the juvenile has not adequately completed the program within ninety days as determined by the secretary according to rules adopted by the secretary.

(4)(a) A juvenile may be placed in the boot camp program if he or she is between fifteen and eighteen years of age at the time of adjudication and has been committed to the department for a term of confinement for which the maximum term is at least twelve weeks.

(b) The judge may order that a juvenile be placed in the boot camp program even when the sentencing standards do not provide for a term of which the maximum is at least twelve weeks if the judge makes a finding that ordering a lesser term would create a manifest injustice.

(c) Eligibility shall be denied if the respondent suffers from any mental or physical problem which could endanger his or her health or drastically affect his or her performance in the program.

(d) If the court has recommended a respondent for the boot camp program, the secretary shall assign that juvenile to the program if the secretary determines that he or she is eligible for and that there is room for the juvenile in the program.

(5)(a) The department shall provide an aftercare component for monitoring and assisting the release of boot camp participants into the community.

(b) The department shall keep records and monitor criminal activity and employment placement of the program participants after their release from the program. An outcome evaluation study shall be published no later than December 31, 1992, which shall include a comparison of criminal activity and employment placement records of juveniles completing the boot camp program with the criminal activity and employment records of youths completing other programs or commitment time.

(6) The department shall either establish criteria for training contract staff or provide a special training program for department staff selected for the boot camp program and shall include appropriate methods of dealing with minors.

(7) If a juvenile in the boot camp program becomes unmanageable or medically ineligible, the department shall remove the juvenile from the program and place the juvenile in secure detention until he or she is transferred to an equally restrictive commitment program.

(8) The department may contract with private companies for the operation of the boot camp program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 117. Section 116 of this act shall expire on July 1, 1993.

SUBPART C

JUVENILE DRIVER'S LICENSE REVOCATION

Sec. 118. Section 2, chapter 148, Laws of 1988 and RCW 13.40.265 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) If a juvenile (~~under eighteen years of age, but~~) thirteen years of age or (~~over~~;) older is found by juvenile court to have committed an offense that is a violation of chapter 66.44, 69.41, 69.50, or 69.52 RCW, the court shall notify the department of licensing within twenty-four hours after entry of the judgment.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in (c) of this subsection, (~~a court~~;) upon petition of a juvenile who has been found by the court to have committed an offense that is a violation of chapter 66.44, 69.41, 69.50, or 69.52 RCW, the court may at any time the court deems appropriate notify the department of licensing that the juvenile's driving privileges should be reinstated.

(c) (~~The court shall not notify the department that the juvenile's driving privileges should be reinstated for a period of ninety days after the entry of the judgment if it is the first order issued with respect to the juvenile under RCW 46.20.265, or for a period of one year after the issuance of the order if it is the second or subsequent such order issued with respect to the juvenile~~) If the offense is the juvenile's first violation of chapter 66.44, 69.41, 69.50, or 69.52 RCW, the juvenile may not petition the court for reinstatement of the juvenile's privilege to drive revoked pursuant to RCW 46.20.265 until ninety days after the date the juvenile turns sixteen or ninety days after the judgment was entered, whichever is later. If the offense is the juvenile's second or subsequent violation of chapter 66.44, 69.41, 69.50, or 69.52 RCW, the juvenile may not petition the court for reinstatement of the juvenile's privilege to drive revoked pursuant to RCW 46.20.265 until the date the juvenile turns seventeen or one year after the date judgment was entered, whichever is later.

(2) (a) If a juvenile enters into a diversion agreement with a diversion unit pursuant to RCW 13.40.080 concerning an offense that is a violation of chapter 66.44, 69.41, 69.50, or 69.52 RCW, the diversion unit shall notify the department of licensing within twenty-four hours after the diversion agreement is signed.

(b) If a diversion unit has notified the department pursuant to (a) of this subsection, the diversion unit shall notify the department of licensing when the juvenile has completed the agreement.

Sec. 119. Section 7, chapter 148, Laws of 1988 and RCW 46.20.265 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In addition to any other authority to revoke driving privileges under this chapter, the department shall revoke all driving privileges of a juvenile when the department receives notice from a court pursuant to RCW 13.40.265, 66.44.365, 69.41.065, 69.50.420, or 69.52.070 or from a diversion unit pursuant to RCW 13.40.265. The revocation shall be imposed without hearing.

(2) The driving privileges of the juvenile revoked under subsection (1) of this section shall be revoked in the following manner:

(a) Upon receipt of the first notice, the department shall impose a revocation for one year, or until the juvenile reaches seventeen years of age, whichever is longer.

(b) Upon receipt of a second or subsequent notice, the department shall impose a revocation for ~~(one)~~ two years or until the juvenile reaches eighteen years of age, whichever is longer.

(3) If the department receives notice from a court that the juvenile's privilege to drive should be reinstated, the department shall immediately reinstate any driving privileges that have been revoked under this section.

(4)(a) If the department receives notice pursuant to RCW 13.40.265(2)(b) from a diversion unit that a juvenile has completed a diversion agreement for which the juvenile's driving privileges were revoked, the department shall reinstate any driving privileges revoked under this section as provided in (b) of this subsection. ~~((The department shall not reinstate driving privileges earlier than ninety days after the date the juvenile entered into a diversion agreement for the first violation of chapter 66.44, 69.41, 69.50, or 69.52 RCW and not earlier than one year after the date the juvenile entered into a diversion agreement for a second or subsequent violation of chapter 66.44, 69.41, 69.50, or 69.52 RCW.))~~

(b) If the diversion agreement was for the juvenile's first violation of chapter 66.44, 69.41, 69.50, or 69.52 RCW, the department shall not reinstate the juvenile's privilege to drive until the later of ninety days after the date the juvenile turns sixteen or ninety days after the juvenile entered into a diversion agreement for the offense. If the diversion agreement was for the juvenile's second or subsequent violation of chapter 66.44, 69.41, 69.50, or 69.52 RCW, the department shall not reinstate the juvenile's privilege to drive until the later of the date the juvenile turns seventeen or one year after the juvenile entered into the second or subsequent diversion agreement.

Sec. 120. Section 3, chapter 148, Laws of 1988 and RCW 66.44.365 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If a juvenile ~~((under eighteen years of age, but thirteen or over;))~~ thirteen years of age or older and under the age of eighteen is found by a court to have committed any offense that is a violation of this chapter, the court shall notify the department of licensing within twenty-four hours after entry of the judgment.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, ~~((the court;))~~ upon petition of a juvenile ~~((who has been found by the court to have committed an offense that is a violation of this chapter;))~~ whose privilege to drive has been revoked pursuant to RCW 46.20.265, the court may notify the department of licensing that the juvenile's privilege to drive should be reinstated.

(3) ~~((The court shall not notify the department that the juvenile's driving privileges should be reinstated for a period of ninety days after the entry of the judgment if it is the first revocation with respect to the juvenile under this section or RCW 46.20.265, or for a period of one year after the issuance of the order if it is the second or subsequent such revocation issued with respect to the juvenile))~~ If the conviction is for the juvenile's first violation of this chapter or chapter 69.41, 69.50, or 69.52 RCW, a juvenile may not petition the court for reinstatement of the juvenile's privilege to drive revoked pursuant to RCW 46.20.265 until the later of ninety days after the date the juvenile turns sixteen or ninety days after the judgment was entered. If the conviction was for the juvenile's second or subsequent violation of this chapter or chapter 69.41, 69.50, or 69.52 RCW, the juvenile may not petition the court for reinstatement of the juvenile's privilege to drive revoked pursuant to RCW 46.20.265 until the later of the date the juvenile turns seventeen or one year after the date judgment was entered.

Sec. 121. Section 4, chapter 148, Laws of 1988 and RCW 69.41.065 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If a juvenile (~~(under eighteen years of age, but thirteen or over;)~~ thirteen years of age or older and under the age of twenty-one) is found by a court to have committed any offense that is a violation of this chapter, the court shall notify the department of licensing within twenty-four hours after entry of the judgment.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, (~~(the court;)~~) upon petition of a juvenile (~~(who has been found by the court to have committed an offense that is a violation of this chapter;)~~) whose privilege to drive has been revoked pursuant to RCW 46.20.265, the court may notify the department of licensing that the juvenile's privilege to drive should be reinstated.

(3) (~~(The court shall not notify the department that the juvenile's driving privileges should be reinstated for a period of ninety days after the entry of the judgment if it is the first revocation with respect to the juvenile under this section or RCW 46.20.265, or for a period of one year after the issuance of the order if it is the second or subsequent such revocation issued with respect to the juvenile))~~ If the conviction is for the juvenile's first violation of this chapter or chapter 66.44, 69.50, or 69.52 RCW, the juvenile may not petition the court for reinstatement of the juvenile's privilege to drive revoked pursuant to RCW 46.20.265 until the later of ninety days after the date the juvenile turns sixteen or ninety days after the judgment was entered. If the conviction was for the juvenile's second or subsequent violation of this chapter or chapter 66.44, 69.50, or 69.52 RCW, the juvenile may not petition the court for reinstatement of the juvenile's privilege to drive revoked pursuant to RCW 46.20.265 until the later of the date the juvenile turns seventeen or one year after the date judgment was entered.

Sec. 122. Section 5, chapter 148, Laws of 1988 and RCW 69.50.420 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If a juvenile (~~(under eighteen years of age, but thirteen or over;)~~ thirteen years of age or older and under the age of twenty-one) is found by a court to have committed any offense that is a violation of this chapter, the court shall notify the department of licensing within twenty-four hours after entry of the judgment.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, (~~(the court;)~~) upon petition of a juvenile (~~(who has been found by the court to have committed an offense that is a violation of this chapter;)~~) whose privilege to drive has been revoked pursuant to RCW 46.20.265, the court may at any time the court deems appropriate notify the department of licensing to reinstate the juvenile's privilege to drive.

(3) (~~(The court shall not notify the department that the juvenile's privilege to drive should be reinstated for a period of ninety days after the entry of the judgment if it is the first revocation issued with respect to the juvenile under this section or RCW 46.20.265, or for a period of one year after the entry of the judgment if it is the second or subsequent such revocation issued with respect to the juvenile))~~ If the conviction is for the juvenile's first violation of this chapter or chapter 66.44, 69.41, or 69.52 RCW, the juvenile may not petition the court for reinstatement of the juvenile's privilege to drive revoked pursuant to RCW 46.20.265 until the later of ninety days after the date the juvenile turns sixteen or ninety days after the judgment was entered. If the conviction was for the juvenile's second or subsequent violation of this chapter or chapter 66.44, 69.41, or 69.52 RCW, the juvenile may not petition the court for reinstatement of the juvenile's privilege to drive revoked pursuant to RCW 46.20.265 until the later of the date the juvenile turns seventeen or one year after the date judgment was entered.

Sec. 123. Section 6, chapter 148, Laws of 1988 and RCW 69.52.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If a juvenile (~~(under eighteen years of age, but thirteen or over;)~~ thirteen years of age or older and under the age of twenty-one) is found by a court to have committed any offense that is a violation of this chapter, the court shall notify the department of licensing within twenty-four hours after entry of the judgment.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, (~~(the court;)~~) upon petition of a juvenile (~~(who has been found by the court to have committed an offense that is a violation of this chapter;)~~) whose privilege to drive has been revoked pursuant to RCW 46.20.265, the court may at any time the court deems appropriate notify the department of licensing to reinstate the juvenile's privilege to drive.

(3) (~~(The court shall not notify the department that the juvenile's privilege to drive should be reinstated for a period of ninety days after the entry of the judgment if it is the first revocation issued with respect to the juvenile under this section or RCW 46.20.265, or for a period of one year after the entry of the judgment if it is the second or subsequent such revocation issued with respect to the juvenile))~~ If the conviction is for the juvenile's first violation of this chapter or chapter 66.44, 69.41, or 69.50 RCW, the juvenile may not petition the court for reinstatement of the juvenile's privilege to drive revoked pursuant to RCW 46.20.265 until the later of ninety days after the date the juvenile turns sixteen or ninety days after the judgment was entered. If the conviction was for the juvenile's second or subsequent violation of this chapter or chapter

66.44, 69.41, or 69.50 RCW, the juvenile may not petition the court for reinstatement of the juvenile's privilege to drive revoked pursuant to RCW 46.20.265 until the later of the date the juvenile turns seventeen or one year after the date judgment was entered.

PART II
PREVENTION, INVESTIGATION, AND PROCEDURE
SUBPART A ONE-PARTY CONSENT

Sec. 201. Section 1, chapter 93, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 260, Laws of 1985 and by section 1, chapter 38, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.73.030 are each repealed and amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, it shall be unlawful for any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or the state of Washington, its agencies, and political subdivisions to intercept, or record any:

(a) Private communication transmitted by telephone, telegraph, radio, or other device between two or more individuals between points within or without the state by any device electronic or otherwise designed to record and/or transmit said communication regardless how such device is powered or actuated, without first obtaining the consent of all the participants in the communication;

(b) Private conversation, by any device electronic or otherwise designed to record or transmit such conversation regardless how the device is powered or actuated without first obtaining the consent of all the persons engaged in the conversation.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, ~~((wire))~~ communications or conversations (a) of an emergency nature, such as the reporting of a fire, medical emergency, crime, or disaster, ~~((or))~~ (b) which convey threats of extortion, blackmail, bodily harm, or other unlawful requests or demands, ~~((or))~~ (c) which occur anonymously or repeatedly or at an extremely inconvenient hour, ~~((or))~~ (d) which relate to communications by a hostage holder or barricaded person as defined in RCW 70.85.100, whether or not conversation ensues, or (e) concerning the unlawful manufacture, delivery, sale, or possession with intent to manufacture, deliver, or sell, controlled substances as defined in chapter 69.50 RCW, or legend drugs as defined in chapter 69.41 RCW, or imitation controlled substances as defined in chapter 69.52 RCW, may be recorded with the consent of one party to the conversation.

(3) Where consent by all parties is needed pursuant to this chapter, consent shall be considered obtained whenever one party has announced to all other parties engaged in the communication or conversation, in any reasonably effective manner, that such communication or conversation is about to be recorded or transmitted: PROVIDED, That if the conversation is to be recorded that said announcement shall also be recorded.

(4) An employee of any regularly published newspaper, magazine, wire service, radio station, or television station acting in the course of bona fide news gathering duties on a full time or contractual or part time basis, shall be deemed to have consent to record and divulge communications or conversations otherwise prohibited by this chapter if the consent is expressly given or if the recording or transmitting device is readily apparent or obvious to the speakers. Withdrawal of the consent after the communication has been made shall not prohibit any such employee of a newspaper, magazine, wire service, or radio or television station from divulging the communication or conversation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 202. A new section is added to chapter 9.73 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Any information obtained in violation of RCW 9.73.030 or pursuant to an order issued under the provisions of RCW 9.73.040 shall be inadmissible in any civil or criminal case in all courts of general or limited jurisdiction in this state, except:

(a) For the limited purpose of allowing any person who did not consent to the recording to impeach a witness in any criminal case involving the unlawful manufacture, delivery, sale, or possession with intent to manufacture, deliver, or sell, controlled substances as defined in chapter 69.50 RCW, or legend drugs as defined in chapter 69.41 RCW, or imitation controlled substances as defined in chapter 69.52 RCW;

(b) With the permission of the person whose communication or conversation was recorded without his or her knowledge; or

(c) In a criminal action in which the defendant is charged with a crime, the commission of which would jeopardize national security.

(2) Nothing in this section, however, bars the admission of testimony of a participant in the communication or conversation unaided by information obtained in violation of RCW 9.73.030.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 203. A new section is added to chapter 9.73 RCW to read as follows:

The exception provided for in RCW 9.73.030(2)(e) is subject to the following restrictions:

(1) Before a conversation or communication is recorded, the police commander or an officer above the rank of first line supervisor shall complete a written authorization showing: (a) The date and time the authorization is given; (b) the persons, including the consenting party, expected to participate in the conversation or communication, if known; (c) the expected date, location, and approximate time of the conversation or communication; and (d) the reasons for believing the recording will be of value;

(2) Within ten judicial days of an authorized recording obtained under subsection (1) of this section, the written authorization and recording shall be reviewed ex parte by a district court judge or magistrate for compliance with subsection (1) of this section. If the court determines that the recording has not been obtained in compliance with subsection (1) of this section, the court shall (a) order the recording and any copies or transcriptions thereof to be sealed and not to be unsealed or disclosed except upon court order; and (b) shall notify the prosecutor or attorney general to determine if a violation of RCW 9.73.030 has occurred; and

(3) If the court determines that the recording has been obtained in compliance with subsection (1) of this section, the recording shall be delivered to the prosecutor or attorney general. If the recording is deemed to be without value by the prosecutor or attorney general in a prosecution for the unlawful manufacture, delivery, sale, or possession with intent to manufacture, deliver, or sell, controlled substances as defined in chapter 69.50 RCW, legend drugs as defined in chapter 69.41 RCW, or imitation controlled substances as defined in chapter 69.52 RCW, the recording and any copies or transcriptions thereof shall be sealed and may not be unsealed or disclosed except upon court order. If the recording has not been ordered by a court to be unsealed, it and any copies or transcriptions thereof shall, three years after its making, be erased or destroyed without being transcribed.

(4) Information regarding any conversation or communication that is recorded under RCW 9.73.030(2)(e) shall be forwarded to the chief of the state patrol on forms developed and supplied by the state patrol. The transmittal of information and the report shall protect the privacy of any person whose conversation or communication has been recorded under RCW 9.73.030(2)(e).

Sec. 204. Section 6, chapter 93, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 9.73.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who shall violate RCW 9.73.030 or section 203 of this 1989 act shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 205. Section 3, chapter 93, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 9.73.050 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 206. The chief of the Washington state patrol shall submit a report on January 1, 1990, and on January 1, 1991, to the senate committee on law and justice and the judiciary committee of the house of representatives on conversations and communications recorded under RCW 9.73.030(2)(e). The report shall include, but not be limited to:

- (1) The number of recordings made;
- (2) The circumstances justifying the recording;
- (3) The types and categories of alleged criminal activity;
- (4) The number of recordings used in criminal prosecutions;
- (5) The number of recordings not used in criminal prosecutions and the reasons for the nonuse;
- (6) The number of persons subjected to multiple recordings; and
- (7) the number of recordings determined by a magistrate or judge not to be in compliance with section 203(1) of this act.

SUBPART B

MONITORING OF INMATE TELEPHONE CALLS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 207. A new section is added to chapter 9.73 RCW to read as follows:

(1) RCW 9.73.030 through 9.73.080 shall not apply to employees of the department of corrections in the following instances: Intercepting, recording, or divulging any telephone calls from an inmate or resident of a state correctional facility. For the purposes of this section, 'state correctional facility' means a facility that is under the control and authority of the department of corrections, and used for the incarceration, treatment, or rehabilitation of convicted felons.

(2) All personal calls made by inmates shall be collect calls only. The calls will be 'operator announcement' type calls. The operator shall notify the receiver of the call that the call is coming from a prison inmate, and that it will be recorded and may be monitored.

(3) The department of corrections shall adhere to the following procedures and restrictions when intercepting, recording, or divulging any telephone calls from an inmate or resident of a state correctional facility as provided for by this section:

(a) Before the implementation of this section, all inmates or residents of a state correctional facility shall be notified in writing that, as of the effective date of this section, their telephone conversations may be intercepted, recorded, and/or divulged.

(b) Unless otherwise provided for in this section, after intercepting or recording a telephone conversation, only the superintendent and his or her designee shall have access to that recording.

(c) The contents of an intercepted and recorded telephone conversation shall be divulged only as is necessary to safeguard the orderly operation of the correctional facility, in response to a court order, or in the prosecution or investigation of any crime.

(d) All telephone conversations that are recorded under this section, unless being used in the ongoing investigation or prosecution of a crime, or as is necessary to assure the orderly operation of the correctional facility, shall be destroyed one year after the intercepting and recording.

(4) So as to safeguard the sanctity of the attorney-client privilege, the department of corrections shall not intercept, record, or divulge any conversation between an inmate or resident and an attorney. The department shall develop policies and procedures to implement this section.

SUBPART C
PROPERTY FORFEITURE

NEW SECTION. Sec. 208. The legislature finds that: Drug offenses and crimes resulting from illegal drug use are destructive to society; the nature of drug trafficking results in many property crimes and crimes of violence; state and local governmental agencies incur immense expenses in the investigation, prosecution, adjudication, incarceration, and treatment of drug-related offenders and the compensation of their victims; drug-related offenses are difficult to eradicate because of the profits derived from the criminal activities, which can be invested in legitimate assets and later used for further criminal activities; and the forfeiture of real assets where a substantial nexus exists between the commercial production or sale of the substances and the real property will provide a significant deterrent to crime by removing the profit incentive of drug trafficking, and will provide a revenue source that will partially defray the large costs incurred by government as a result of these crimes. The legislature recognizes that seizure of real property is a very powerful tool and should not be applied in cases in which a manifest injustice would occur as a result of forfeiture of an innocent spouse's community property interest.

Sec. 209. Section 15, chapter 2, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 2, chapter 282, Laws of 1988 and RCW 69.50.505 are each amended to read as follows:

- (a) The following are subject to seizure and forfeiture and no property right exists in them:
- (1) All controlled substances which have been manufactured, distributed, dispensed, ~~((or))~~ acquired, or possessed in violation of this chapter or chapter 69.41 or 69.52 RCW;
 - (2) All raw materials, products, and equipment of any kind which are used, or intended for use, in manufacturing, compounding, processing, delivering, importing, or exporting any controlled substance in violation of this chapter or chapter 69.41 or 69.52 RCW;
 - (3) All property which is used, or intended for use, as a container for property described in paragraphs (1) or (2);
 - (4) All conveyances, including aircraft, vehicles, or vessels, which are used, or intended for use, in any manner to facilitate the sale of property described in paragraphs (1) or (2), ~~((but))~~ except that:
 - (i) No conveyance used by any person as a common carrier in the transaction of business as a common carrier is subject to forfeiture under this section unless it appears that the owner or other person in charge of the conveyance is a consenting party or privy to a violation of this chapter or chapter 69.41 or 69.52 RCW;
 - (ii) No conveyance is subject to forfeiture under this section by reason of any act or omission established by the owner thereof to have been committed or omitted without ~~((his))~~ the owner's knowledge or consent;
 - (iii) A forfeiture of a conveyance encumbered by a bona fide security interest is subject to the interest of the secured party if the secured party neither had knowledge of nor consented to the act or omission; and
 - (iv) When the owner of a conveyance has been arrested under this chapter or chapter 69.41 or 69.52 RCW the conveyance in which the person is arrested may not be subject to forfeiture unless it is seized or process is issued for its seizure within ten days of the owner's arrest;
 - (5) All books, records, and research products and materials, including formulas, microfilm, tapes, and data which are used, or intended for use, in violation of this chapter or chapter 69.41 or 69.52 RCW;
 - (6) All drug paraphernalia; ~~((and))~~
 - (7) All moneys, negotiable instruments, securities, or other tangible or intangible property of value furnished or intended to be furnished by any person in exchange for a controlled substance in violation of this chapter or chapter 69.41 or 69.52 RCW, all tangible or intangible personal property, proceeds, or assets acquired in whole or in part with proceeds traceable to ~~((such))~~ an exchange or series of exchanges in violation of this chapter or chapter 69.41 or 69.52 RCW, and all moneys, negotiable instruments, and securities used or intended to be used to facilitate any violation of this chapter or chapter 69.41 or 69.52 RCW: PROVIDED, That a forfeiture of money, negotiable instruments, securities, or other tangible or intangible property encumbered by a bona fide security interest is subject to the interest of the secured party if, at the time the security interest was created, the secured party neither had knowledge of nor consented to the act or omission: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no personal property may be forfeited under this paragraph, to the extent of the interest of an owner, by reason of any act or omission which that owner establishes was committed or omitted without the owner's knowledge or consent; and
 - (8) All real property, including any right, title, and interest in the whole of any lot or tract of land, and any appurtenances or improvements which are being used with the knowledge of the owner for the manufacturing, compounding, processing, delivery, importing, or exporting of any controlled substance, or which have been acquired in whole or in part with proceeds traceable to an exchange or series of exchanges in violation of this chapter or chapter 69.41 or 69.52 RCW, if such activity is not less than a class C felony and a substantial nexus exists between the commercial production or sale of the controlled substance and the real property; PROVIDED, That:

(i) No property may be forfeited pursuant to this subsection, to the extent of the interest of an owner, by reason of any act or omission committed or omitted without the owner's knowledge or consent;

(ii) The bona fide gift of a controlled substance, legend drug, or imitation controlled substance shall not result in the forfeiture of real property;

(iii) The possession of marijuana shall not result in the forfeiture of real property unless the marijuana is possessed for commercial purposes, the amount possessed is five or more plants or one pound or more of marijuana, and a substantial nexus exists between the possession of marijuana and the real property. In such a case, the intent of the offender shall be determined by the preponderance of the evidence, including the offender's prior criminal history, the amount of marijuana possessed by the offender, the sophistication of the activity or equipment used by the offender, and other evidence which demonstrates the offender's intent to engage in commercial activity;

(iv) The unlawful sale of marijuana or a legend drug shall not result in the forfeiture of real property unless the sale was forty grams or more in the case of marijuana or one hundred dollars or more in the case of a legend drug, and a substantial nexus exists between the unlawful sale and the real property; and

(v) A forfeiture of real property encumbered by a bona fide security interest is subject to the interest of the secured party if the secured party, at the time the security interest was created, neither had knowledge of nor consented to the act or omission.

(b) Real or personal property subject to forfeiture under this chapter may be seized by any board inspector or law enforcement officer of this state upon process issued by any superior court having jurisdiction over the property. Seizure of real property shall include the filing of a lis pendens by the seizing agency. Real property seized under this section shall not be transferred or otherwise conveyed until ninety days after seizure or until a judgment of forfeiture is entered, whichever is later: PROVIDED, That real property seized under this section may be transferred or conveyed to any person or entity who acquires title by foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure of a security interest. Seizure of personal property without process may be made if:

(1) The seizure is incident to an arrest or a search under a search warrant or an inspection under an administrative inspection warrant;

(2) The property subject to seizure has been the subject of a prior judgment in favor of the state in a criminal injunction or forfeiture proceeding based upon this chapter;

(3) A board inspector or law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that the property is directly or indirectly dangerous to health or safety; or

(4) The board inspector or law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that the property was used or is intended to be used in violation of this chapter.

(c) In the event of seizure pursuant to subsection (b), proceedings for forfeiture shall be deemed commenced by the seizure. The law enforcement agency under whose authority the seizure was made shall cause notice to be served within fifteen days following the seizure on the owner of the property seized and the person in charge thereof and any person having any known right or interest therein, including any community property interest, of the seizure and intended forfeiture of the seized property. Service of notice of seizure of real property shall be made according to the rules of civil procedure. However, the state may not obtain a default judgment with respect to real property against a party who is served by substituted service absent an affidavit stating that a good faith effort has been made to ascertain if the defaulted party is incarcerated within the state, and that there is no present basis to believe that the party is incarcerated within the state. The notice of seizure in other cases may be served by any method authorized by law or court rule including but not limited to service by certified mail with return receipt requested. Service by mail shall be deemed complete upon mailing within the fifteen day period following the seizure.

(d) If no person notifies the seizing law enforcement agency in writing of the person's claim of ownership or right to possession of items specified in subsection (a)(4) ((or)), (a)(7), or (a)(8) of this section within forty-five days of the seizure in the case of personal property and ninety days in the case of real property, the item seized shall be deemed forfeited. No real property interest may be forfeited from a person who did not participate in the violation committed by a person who was a spouse at the time of the violation, that gave rise to the seizure to the extent of that person's homestead interest in the real property.

(e) If any person notifies the seizing law enforcement agency in writing of the person's claim of ownership or right to possession of items specified in subsection (a)(2), (a)(3), (a)(4) ((or)), (a)(5), (a)(6), (a)(7), or (a)(8) of this section within forty-five days of the seizure in the case of personal property and ninety days in the case of real property, the person or persons shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to be heard as to the claim or right. The hearing shall be before the chief law enforcement officer of the seizing agency or the chief law enforcement officer's designee, except where the seizing agency is a state agency as defined in RCW 34.12.020(4), the hearing shall be before the chief law enforcement officer of the seizing agency or an administrative law judge appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW, except that any person asserting a claim or right may remove the matter to a court of competent jurisdiction if the aggregate value of the article or articles involved is more than five hundred dollars. The court to which the matter is to be removed shall be the district court when such aggregate value is ten thousand dollars or less of personal property. A hearing before the seizing agency and any appeal therefrom shall be under Title 34 RCW. In a court hearing between two or more claimants to the article or articles involved, the prevailing party shall be entitled to a judgment for costs and reasonable attorney's fees. In cases involving personal property, the burden of producing evidence shall be upon the person claiming to be the lawful owner or the person claiming to have the lawful right to possession of ((Items specified in subsection (a)(4) or (a)(7) of this section)) the property. In cases involving real property, the burden of producing evidence shall be upon the law enforcement agency. The burden of proof that the seized property is subject to forfeiture shall be upon the law enforcement agency. The seizing law enforcement agency shall promptly return the article or articles to the claimant upon a determination by the administrative law judge or court that the claimant is the present lawful owner or is lawfully entitled to possession thereof of items specified in subsection (a)(2), (a)(3), (a)(4) ((or)), (a)(5), (a)(6), (a)(7), or (a)(8) of this section.

(f) When property is forfeited under this chapter the board or seizing law enforcement agency may:

(1) Retain it for official use or upon application by any law enforcement agency of this state release such property to such agency for the exclusive use of enforcing the provisions of this chapter;

(2) (i) Sell that which is not required to be destroyed by law and which is not harmful to the public. The proceeds and all moneys forfeited under this title shall be used for payment of all proper expenses of the investigation leading to the seizure, including any money delivered to the subject of the investigation by the law enforcement agency, and of the proceedings for forfeiture and sale, including expenses of seizure, maintenance of custody, advertising, actual costs of the prosecuting or city attorney, and court costs. Money remaining after the payment of all expenses shall be distributed as follows:

(A) ~~((Seventy-five))~~ Twenty-five percent of the money derived from the forfeiture of real property and seventy-five percent of the money derived from the forfeiture of personal property shall be deposited in the general fund of the state, county, and/or city of the seizing law enforcement agency and shall be used exclusively for the expansion or improvement of law enforcement services. These services may include the creation of reward funds for the purpose of rewarding informants who supply information leading to the arrest, prosecution and conviction of persons who violate laws relating to controlled substances. Such moneys shall not supplant preexisting funding sources; ((and))

(B) Twenty-five percent of money derived from the forfeiture of real property and twenty-five percent of money derived from the forfeiture of personal property shall be remitted to the state treasurer for deposit in the public safety and education account established in RCW 43.08.250;

(C) Fifty percent of money derived from the forfeiture of real property shall be remitted to the state treasurer for deposit in the drug enforcement and education account created pursuant to section 401 of this 1989 act; and

(D) If an investigation involves a seizure of moneys and proceeds having an aggregate value of less than five thousand dollars, the moneys and proceeds may be deposited in total in the general fund of the governmental unit of the seizing law enforcement agency and shall be appropriated exclusively for the expansion of narcotics enforcement services. Such moneys shall not supplant preexisting funding sources.

(i) Money deposited according to this section must be deposited within ninety days of the date of final disposition of either the administrative seizure or the judicial seizure;

(3) Request the appropriate sheriff or director of public safety to take custody of the property and remove it for disposition in accordance with law; or

(4) Forward it to the drug enforcement administration for disposition.

(g) Controlled substances listed in Schedule I, II, III, IV, and V that are possessed, transferred, sold, or offered for sale in violation of this chapter are contraband and shall be seized and summarily forfeited to the state. Controlled substances listed in Schedule I, II, III, IV, and V, which are seized or come into the possession of the board, the owners of which are unknown, are contraband and shall be summarily forfeited to the board.

(h) Species of plants from which controlled substances in Schedules I and II may be derived which have been planted or cultivated in violation of this chapter, or of which the owners or cultivators are unknown, or which are wild growths, may be seized and summarily forfeited to the board.

(i) The failure, upon demand by a board inspector or law enforcement officer, of the person in occupancy or in control of land or premises upon which the species of plants are growing or being stored to produce an appropriate registration or proof that he is the holder thereof constitutes authority for the seizure and forfeiture of the plants.

(j) Upon the entry of an order of forfeiture of real property, the court shall forward a copy of the order to the assessor of the county in which the property is located. Orders for the forfeiture of real property shall be entered by the superior court, subject to court rules. Such an order shall be filed by the seizing agency in the county auditor's records in the county in which the real property is located.

SUBPART D
OFF-LIMITS ORDERS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 210. The legislature finds that drug abuse is escalating at an alarming rate. New protections need to be established to address this drug crisis which is threatening every stratum of our society. Prohibiting known drug traffickers from frequenting areas for continuous drug activity is one means of addressing this pervasive problem.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 211. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter:

(1) 'Applicant' means any person who owns, occupies, or has a substantial interest in property, or who is a neighbor to property which is adversely affected by drug trafficking, including:

(a) A 'family or household member' as defined by RCW 10.99.020(1), who has a possessory interest in a residence as an owner or tenant, at least as great as a known drug trafficker's interest;

(b) An owner or lessor;

(c) An owner, tenant, or resident who lives or works in a designated PADT area; or

(d) A city or prosecuting attorney for any jurisdiction in this state where drug trafficking is occurring.

(2) 'Drug' or 'drugs' means a controlled substance as defined in chapter 69.50 RCW or an 'imitation controlled substance' as defined in RCW 69.52.020.

(3) 'Known drug trafficker' means any person who has been convicted of a felony adult or juvenile drug offense in this state or an adult felony drug offense in another state or federal court who subsequently has been arrested for an adult felony drug offense in this state.

(4) 'Off-limits orders' means an order issued by a superior or district court in the state of Washington that enjoins known drug traffickers from entering or remaining in a designated PADT area.

(5) 'Protected against drug trafficking area' or 'PADT area' means any specifically described area, public or private, contained in an off-limits order. The perimeters of a PADT area shall be defined using street names and numbers and shall include all real property contained therein, where drug sales, possession of drugs, pedestrian or vehicular traffic attendant to drug activity, or other activity associated with drug offenses confirms a pattern associated with drug trafficking. The area may include the full width of streets, alleys and sidewalks on the perimeter, common areas, planting strips, parks and parking areas within the area described using the streets as boundaries.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 212. A court may enter an off-limits order enjoining a known drug trafficker who has been associated with drug trafficking in an area that the court finds to be a PADT area, from entering or remaining in a designated PADT area for up to one year. This relief may be ordered pursuant to applications for injunctive relief or as part of a criminal proceeding as follows:

(1) In a civil action, including an action brought under this chapter;

(2) In a nuisance abatement action pursuant to chapter 7.43 RCW;

(3) In an eviction action to exclude known drug traffickers or tenants who were evicted for allowing drug trafficking to occur on the premises which were the subject of the eviction action;

(4) As a condition of pretrial release of a known drug trafficker awaiting trial on drug charges. The order shall be in effect until the time of sentencing or dismissal of the criminal charges; or

(5) As a condition of sentencing of any known drug trafficker convicted of a drug offense. The order may include all periods of community placement or community supervision.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 213. Upon the filing of an application for an off-limits order under section 212 (1), (2), or (3) of this act, the court shall set a hearing fourteen days from the filing of the application, or as soon thereafter as the hearing can be scheduled. If the respondent has not already been served with a summons, the application shall be served on the respondent not less than five court days before the hearing. If timely service cannot be made, the court may set a new hearing date.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 214. Upon filing an application for an off-limits order under this chapter, an applicant may obtain an ex parte temporary off-limits order, with or without notice, only upon a showing that serious or irreparable harm will result to the applicant if the temporary off-limits order is not granted. An ex parte temporary off-limits order shall be effective for a fixed period not to exceed fourteen days, but the court may reissue the order upon a showing of good cause. A hearing on a one-year off-limits order, as provided in this chapter, shall be set for fourteen days from the issuance of the temporary order. The respondent shall be personally served with a copy of the temporary off-limits order along with a copy of the application and notice of the date set for the full hearing. At the hearing, if the court finds that respondent is a known drug trafficker who has engaged in drug trafficking in a particular area, and that the area is associated with a pattern of drug activities, the court shall issue a one-year off-limits order prohibiting the respondent from having any contact with the PADT area. At any time within three months before the expiration of the order, the applicant may apply for a renewal of the order by filing a new petition under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 215. In granting a temporary off-limits order or a one-year off-limits order, the court shall have discretion to grant additional relief as the court considers proper to achieve the purposes of this chapter. The PADT area defined in any off-limits order must be reasonably related to the area or areas impacted by the unlawful drug activity as described by the applicant in any civil action under section 212(1), (2), or (3) of this act. The court in its discretion may allow a respondent, who is the subject of any order issued under section 211 of this act as part of a civil or criminal proceeding, to enter an off-limits area or areas for health or employment reasons, subject to conditions prescribed by the court. Upon request, a certified copy of the order shall be provided to the applicant by the clerk of the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 216. A temporary off-limits order or a one-year off-limits order may not issue under this chapter except upon the giving of a bond or security by the applicant. The court shall set the bond or security in the amount the court deems proper, but not less than one thousand dollars, for the payment of costs and damages that may be incurred by any party who is found to have been wrongfully restrained or enjoined. A bond or security shall not be required of the state of Washington, municipal corporations, or political subdivisions of the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 217. Nothing in this chapter shall preclude a party from appearing in person or by counsel.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 218. A copy of an off-limits order granted under this chapter shall be forwarded by the court to the local law enforcement agency with jurisdiction over the PADT area specified in the order on or before the next judicial day following issuance of the order. Upon receipt of the order, the law enforcement agency shall promptly enter it into an appropriate law enforcement information system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 219. Any person who willfully disobeys an off-limits order issued under this chapter shall be subject to criminal penalties as provided in this chapter and may also be found in contempt of court and subject to penalties under chapter 7.20 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 220. (1) Any person who willfully disobeys an off-limits order issued under this chapter shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(2) Any person who willfully disobeys an off-limits order in violation of the terms of the order and who also either:

(a) Enters or remains in a PADT area that is within one thousand feet of any school; or

(b) Is convicted of a second or subsequent violation of this chapter, is guilty of a class C felony.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 221. The superior courts shall have jurisdiction of all civil actions and all felony criminal proceedings brought under this chapter. Courts of limited jurisdiction shall have jurisdiction of all misdemeanor and gross misdemeanor criminal actions brought under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 222. For the purposes of this chapter, an action may be brought in any county in which any element of the alleged drug trafficking activities occurred.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 223. Upon application, notice to all parties, and a hearing, the court may modify the terms of an off-limits order. When an order is terminated, modified, or amended before its expiration date, the clerk of the court shall forward, on or before the next judicial day, a true copy of the amended order to the law enforcement agency specified in the order. Upon receipt of an order, the law enforcement agency shall promptly enter it into an appropriate law enforcement information system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 224. Sections 210 through 223 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 10 RCW.

SUBPART E DRUG SITE CLEANUP

NEW SECTION. Sec. 225. A new section is added to chapter 69.50 RCW to read as follows:

Law enforcement agencies who during the official investigation or enforcement of any illegal drug manufacturing facility come in contact with or are aware of any substances suspected of being hazardous as defined in section 2(5), chapter 2, Laws of 1989 (Initiative Measure No. 97), shall notify the department of ecology for the purpose of securing a contractor to identify, clean-up, store, and dispose of suspected hazardous substances, except for those random and representative samples obtained for evidentiary purposes. The department of ecology shall make every effort to recover costs from the parties responsible for the suspected hazardous substance. All recoveries shall be deposited in the account or fund from which contractor payments are made.

The department of ecology may adopt rules to carry out its responsibilities under this section. The department of ecology shall consult with law enforcement agencies prior to adopting any rule or policy relating to this section.

SUBPART F
KEG REGISTRATION

NEW SECTION. Sec. 226. Only licensees holding a class A or B license in combination with a class E license may sell malt liquor in kegs or other containers capable of holding four gallons or more of liquid. Any person who sells or offers for sale the contents of kegs or other containers containing four gallons or more of malt liquor, or leases kegs or other containers that will hold four gallons of malt liquor, to consumers who are not licensed under chapter 66.24 RCW shall do the following for any transaction involving the container:

- (1) Require the purchaser of the malt liquor to sign a declaration and receipt for the keg or other container or beverage in substantially the form provided in section 228 of this act;
- (2) Require the purchaser to provide one piece of identification pursuant to RCW 66.16.040;
- (3) Require the purchaser to sign a sworn statement, under penalty of perjury, that:
 - (a) The purchaser is of legal age to purchase, possess, or use malt liquor;
 - (b) The purchaser will not allow any person under the age of twenty-one years to consume the beverage except as provided by RCW 66.44.270;
 - (c) The purchaser will not remove, obliterate, or allow to be removed or obliterated, the identification required under section 228 of this act to be affixed to the container;
- (4) Require the purchaser to state the particular address where the malt liquor will be consumed, or the particular address where the keg or other container will be physically located; and
- (5) Require the purchaser to maintain a copy of the declaration and receipt next to or adjacent to the keg or other container, in no event a distance greater than five feet, and visible without a physical barrier from the keg, during the time that the keg or other container is in the purchaser's possession or control.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 227. Any person who purchases the contents of kegs or other containers containing four gallons or more of malt liquor, or purchases or leases the container shall:

- (1) Sign a declaration and receipt for the keg or other container or beverage in substantially the form provided in section 228 of this act;
- (2) Provide one piece of identification pursuant to RCW 66.16.040;
- (3) Be of legal age to purchase, possess, or use malt liquor;
- (4) Not allow any person under the age of twenty-one to consume the beverage except as provided by RCW 66.44.270;
- (5) Not remove, obliterate, or allow to be removed or obliterated, the identification required under rules adopted by the board;
- (6) Not move, keep, or store the keg or its contents, except for transporting to and from the distributor, at any place other than that particular address declared on the receipt and declaration; and
- (7) Maintain a copy of the declaration and receipt next to or adjacent to the keg or other container, in no event a distance greater than five feet, and visible without a physical barrier from the keg, during the time that the keg or other container is in the purchaser's possession or control.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 228. The board shall adopt rules requiring retail licensees to affix appropriate identification on all containers of four gallons or more of malt liquor for the purpose of tracing the purchasers of such containers. The rules may provide for identification to be done on a state-wide basis or on the basis of smaller geographical areas.

The board shall develop and make available forms for the declaration and receipt required by section 226 of this act.

It is unlawful for any person to sell or offer for sale kegs or other containers containing four gallons or more of malt liquor to consumers who are not licensed under chapter 66.24 RCW if the kegs or containers are not identified in compliance with rules adopted by the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 229. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the violation of any provisions of sections 226 through 228 of this act is punishable by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars.

(2) Except as provided in RCW 66.44.270, a person who intentionally furnishes a keg or other container containing four or more gallons of malt liquor to a minor is liable, on conviction, for a first offense for a penalty of not more than five hundred dollars, or for imprisonment for not more than two months, or both; for a second offense for a penalty of not more than five hundred dollars or imprisonment for not more than six months, or both; and for a third or subsequent offense for a penalty of not more than five hundred dollars or imprisonment for more than one year, or both.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 230. The state of Washington fully occupies and preempts the entire field of keg registration. Cities, towns, and counties or other municipalities may enact only those laws and ordinances relating to keg registration that are consistent with this chapter.

Such local ordinances shall have the same or lesser penalties as provided for by state law. Local laws and ordinances that are inconsistent with, more restrictive than, or exceed the requirements of state law shall not be enacted and are preempted and repealed, regardless of the nature of the code, charter, or home rule status of the city, town, county, or municipality.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 231. Sections 226 through 230 of this act are each added to chapter 66.28 RCW.

SUBPART G

SPECIAL NARCOTICS ENFORCEMENT UNIT

NEW SECTION. Sec. 232. A new section is added to chapter 9A.82 RCW to read as follows:

A special narcotics enforcement unit is established within the Washington state patrol drug control assistance unit. The unit shall be coordinated between the Washington state patrol, the attorney general, and the Washington association of sheriffs and police chiefs. The initial unit shall consist of three attorneys, two investigators, and the necessary accountants and support staff. It is the responsibility of the unit to: (1) Conduct criminal narcotic profiteering investigations and prosecutions, (2) train local undercover narcotic agents, and (3) coordinate federal, state, and local interjurisdictional narcotic investigations.

SUBPART H

STATE-WIDE DRUG PROSECUTION ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

NEW SECTION. Sec. 233. A new section is added to chapter 36.27 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature recognizes that, due to the magnitude or volume of offenses in a given area of the state, there is a recurring need for supplemental assistance in the prosecuting of drug and drug-related offenses that can be directed to the area of the state with the greatest need for short-term assistance. A state-wide drug prosecution assistance program is created within the department of community development to assist county prosecuting attorneys in the prosecution of drug and drug-related offenses.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 234. A new section is added to chapter 36.27 RCW to read as follows:

There is established a state-wide advisory committee comprised of the attorney general, the chief of the Washington state patrol, both United States attorneys whose offices are located in Washington state, and three county prosecuting attorneys appointed by the Washington association of prosecuting attorneys, who will also act as supervising attorneys. The state-wide advisory committee shall select one of the supervising attorneys to act as project director of the drug prosecution assistance program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 235. A new section is added to chapter 36.27 RCW to read as follows:

The project director of the drug prosecution assistance program shall employ up to five attorneys to act as special deputy prosecuting attorneys. A county or counties may request the assistance of one or more of the special deputy prosecuting attorneys. The project director after consultation with the advisory committee shall determine the assignment of the special deputy prosecutors. Within funds appropriated for this purpose, the project director may also employ necessary support staff and purchase necessary supplies and equipment.

The advisory committee shall regularly review the assignment of the special deputy prosecuting attorneys to ensure that the program's impact on the drug abuse problem is maximized.

During the time a special deputy prosecuting attorney is assigned to a county, the special deputy is under the direct supervision of the county prosecuting attorney for that county. The advisory committee may reassign a special deputy at any time: PROVIDED, That adequate notice must be given to the county prosecuting attorney if the special deputy is involved in a case scheduled for trial.

INVOLUNTARY TREATMENT

Sec. 301. Section 294, page 187, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 1501, chapter 212, Laws of 1987 and by section 11, chapter 439, Laws of 1987 and RCW 5.60.060 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) A husband shall not be examined for or against his wife, without the consent of the wife, nor a wife for or against her husband without the consent of the husband; nor can either during marriage or afterward, be without the consent of the other, examined as to any communication made by one to the other during marriage. But this exception shall not apply to a civil action or proceeding by one against the other, nor to a criminal action or proceeding for a crime committed by one against the other, nor to a criminal action or proceeding against a spouse if the marriage occurred subsequent to the filing of formal charges against the defendant, nor to a criminal action or proceeding for a crime committed by said husband or wife against any child of whom said husband or wife is the parent or guardian, nor to a proceeding under chapter 70.96A or 71.05 RCW: PROVIDED, That the spouse of a person sought to be detained under chapter 70.96A or 71.05 RCW may not be compelled to testify and shall be so informed by the court prior to being called as a witness.

(2) An attorney or counselor shall not, without the consent of his or her client, be examined as to any communication made by the client to him or her, or his or her advice given thereon in the course of professional employment.

(3) A member of the clergy or a priest shall not, without the consent of a person making the confession, be examined as to any confession made to him or her in his or her professional character, in the course of discipline enjoined by the church to which he or she belongs.

(4) Subject to the limitations under RCW 70.96A.140 or 71.05.250, a physician or surgeon or osteopathic physician or surgeon shall not, without the consent of his or her patient, be examined in a civil action as to any information acquired in attending such patient, which was necessary to enable him or her to prescribe or act for the patient, except as follows:

(a) In any judicial proceedings regarding a child's injury, neglect, or sexual abuse or the cause thereof; and

(b) Ninety days after filing an action for personal injuries or wrongful death, the claimant shall be deemed to waive the physician-patient privilege. Waiver of the physician-patient privilege for any one physician or condition constitutes a waiver of the privilege as to all physicians or conditions, subject to such limitations as a court may impose pursuant to court rules.

(5) A public officer shall not be examined as a witness as to communications made to him or her in official confidence, when the public interest would suffer by the disclosure.

Sec. 302. Section 2, chapter 447, Laws of 1985 as amended by section 1, chapter 212, Laws of 1986 and RCW 5.62.020 are each amended to read as follows:

No registered nurse providing primary care or practicing under protocols, whether or not the physical presence or direct supervision of a physician is required, may be examined in a civil or criminal action as to any information acquired in attending a patient in the registered nurse's professional capacity, if the information was necessary to enable the registered nurse to act in that capacity for the patient, unless:

(1) The patient consents to disclosure or, in the event of death or disability of the patient, his or her personal representative, heir, beneficiary, or devisee consents to disclosure; or

(2) The information relates to the contemplation or execution of a crime in the future, or relates to the neglect or the sexual or physical abuse of a child, or of a vulnerable adult as defined in RCW 74.34.020, or to a person subject to proceedings under chapter 70.96A, 71.05, or 71.34 RCW.

Sec. 303. Section 11, chapter 305, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 12, chapter 439, Laws of 1987 and RCW 18.83.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Confidential communications between a client and a psychologist shall be privileged against compulsory disclosure to the same extent and subject to the same conditions as confidential communications between attorney and client, but this exception is subject to the limitations under RCW 70.96A.140 and 71.05.250.

Sec. 304. Section 2, chapter 122, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 70.96A.020 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this chapter the following words and phrases shall have the following meanings unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) 'Alcoholic' means a person who ((habitually lacks self-control as to the use of alcoholic beverages, or uses alcoholic beverages to the extent that his health is substantially impaired or endangered or his social or economic function is substantially disrupted)) suffers from the disease of alcoholism, characterized by a physiological dependency on alcoholic beverages, loss of control over the amount and circumstances of use, symptoms of tolerance, physiological and/or psychological withdrawal if use is reduced or discontinued, and impairment of health or disruption of social or economic functioning;

Sec. 305, Section 12, chapter 122, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as last amended by section 13, chapter 439, Laws of 1987 and RCW 70.96A.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An intoxicated person may come voluntarily to an approved treatment facility for treatment. A person who appears to be intoxicated in a public place and to be in need of help, if he or she consents to the proffered help, may be assisted to his or her home, an approved treatment facility or other health facility.

(2) Except for a person who may be apprehended for possible violation of laws not relating to alcoholism, drug addiction, or intoxication and except for a person who may be apprehended for possible violation of laws relating to driving or being in physical control of a vehicle while intoxicated and except for a person who may wish to avail himself or herself of the provisions of RCW 46.20.308, a person who appears to be incapacitated or gravely disabled by alcohol or other drugs and who is in a public place or who has threatened, attempted, or inflicted physical harm on himself, herself, or another, shall be taken into protective custody by ~~((the police or the emergency service patrol))~~ a peace officer or staff designated by the county and as soon as practicable, but in no event beyond eight hours brought to an approved treatment facility for treatment. If no approved treatment facility is readily available he or she shall be taken to an emergency medical service customarily used for incapacitated persons. The ~~((police or the emergency service patrol))~~ peace officer or staff designated by the county, in detaining the person and in taking him or her to an approved treatment facility, is taking him or her into protective custody and shall make every reasonable effort to protect his or her health and safety. In taking the person into protective custody, the detaining peace officer or ((member of an emergency patrol) staff designated by the county may take reasonable steps including reasonable force if necessary to protect himself or herself or effect the custody. A taking into protective custody under this section is not an arrest. No entry or other record shall be made to indicate that the person has been arrested or charged with a crime.

(3) A person who comes voluntarily or is brought to an approved treatment facility shall be examined by a qualified person. He or she may then be admitted as a patient or referred to another health facility, which provides emergency medical treatment, where it appears that such treatment may be necessary. The referring approved treatment facility shall arrange for his or her transportation.

(4) A person who is found to be incapacitated or gravely disabled by alcohol or other drugs at the time of his or her admission or to have become incapacitated or gravely disabled at any time after his or her admission, may not be detained at the facility for more than seventy-two hours after admission as a patient, unless a petition is filed under RCW 70.96A.140, as now or hereafter amended: PROVIDED, That the treatment personnel at ~~((the))~~ an approved treatment facility are authorized to use such reasonable physical restraint as may be necessary to retain an incapacitated or gravely disabled person ((incapacitated by alcohol at such facility)) for up to seventy-two hours from the time of admission. The seventy-two hour periods specified in this section shall be computed by excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. A person may consent to remain in the facility as long as the physician in charge believes appropriate.

(5) A person who is not admitted to an approved treatment facility, is not referred to another health facility, and has no funds, may be taken to his or her home, if any. If he or she has no home, the approved treatment facility shall ~~((assist))~~ provide him or her ((in-obtaining shelter)) with information and assistance to access available community shelter resources.

(6) If a patient is admitted to an approved treatment facility, his or her family or next of kin shall be notified as promptly as possible by the treatment facility. If an adult patient who is not incapacitated requests that there be no notification, his or her request shall be respected.

(7) The ~~((police, members of the emergency service))~~ peace officer, staff designated by the county, or treatment facility personnel, who ~~((in good faith))~~ act in compliance with this chapter and are performing in the course of their official duty ~~((and))~~ are not criminally or civilly liable therefor.

(8) If the person in charge of the approved treatment facility determines it is for the patient's benefit, the patient shall be encouraged to agree to further diagnosis and appropriate voluntary treatment.

Sec. 306. Section 14, chapter 122, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as last amended by section 14, chapter 439, Laws of 1987 and RCW 70.96A.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the person in charge of a treatment facility, or his or her designee, receives information alleging that a person is incapacitated as a result of alcoholism, the person in charge, or his or her designee, after investigation and evaluation of the specific facts alleged and of the reliability and credibility of the information, may file a petition for commitment of such person with the superior court or district court. If the person in charge, or his or her designee, finds that the initial needs of such person would be better served by placement within the mental health system, the person shall be referred to an evaluation and treatment facility as defined in RCW 71.05.020. If placement in an alcohol treatment facility is deemed appropriate, the petition shall allege that: The person is an alcoholic who is incapacitated by alcohol, or that the person has twice before in the preceding twelve months been admitted for ~~((the voluntary))~~ detoxification or treatment for alcoholism pursuant to RCW 70.96A.110 and is in need of a more sustained treatment program, or that the person is an alcoholic who has threatened, attempted, or inflicted physical harm on another and is likely to inflict physical harm on another unless committed. A refusal to undergo treatment, by itself, does not constitute evidence of lack of judgment as to the need for treatment. The petition shall be accompanied by a certificate of a licensed physician who has examined the person within ~~((two))~~ five days before submission of the petition, unless the person whose commitment is sought has refused to submit to a medical examination, in which case the fact of refusal shall be alleged in the petition. The certificate shall set forth the licensed physician's findings in support of the allegations of the petition. A physician employed by the petitioning facility or the department is ~~((not))~~ eligible to be the certifying physician.

(2) Upon filing the petition, the court shall fix a date for a hearing no less than ~~((three))~~ two and no more than seven days after the date the petition was filed unless the person petitioned against is presently being detained ~~((by the))~~ in a facility, pursuant to RCW 70.96A.120 or 71.05.210, as now or hereafter amended, in which case the hearing shall be held within seventy-two hours of the filing of the petition: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the above specified seventy-two hours shall be computed by excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays: PROVIDED FURTHER, That, the court may, upon motion of the person whose commitment is sought, or upon motion of petitioner with written permission of the person whose commitment is sought, or his or her counsel and, upon good cause shown, extend the date for the hearing. A copy of the petition and of the notice of the hearing, including the date fixed by the court, shall be served by the treatment facility on the person whose commitment is sought, his or her next of kin, a parent or his or her legal guardian if he or she is a minor, and any other person the court believes advisable. A copy of the petition and certificate shall be delivered to each person notified.

(3) At the hearing the court shall hear all relevant testimony, including, if possible, the testimony, which may be telephonic, of at least one licensed physician who has examined the person whose commitment is sought. Communications otherwise deemed privileged under the laws of this state are deemed to be waived in proceedings under this chapter when a court of competent jurisdiction in its discretion determines that the waiver is necessary to protect either the detained person or the public. The waiver of a privilege under this section is limited to records or testimony relevant to evaluation of the detained person for purposes of a proceeding under this chapter. Upon motion by the detained person, or on its own motion, the court shall examine a record or testimony sought by a petitioner to determine whether it is within the scope of the waiver.

The record maker shall not be required to testify in order to introduce medical, nursing, or psychological records of detained persons so long as the requirements of RCW 5.45.020 are met, except that portions of the record that contain opinions as to whether the detained person is an alcoholic must be deleted from the records unless the person offering the opinions is available for cross-examination. The person shall be present unless the court believes that his or her presence is likely to be injurious to him or her; in this event the court may deem it appropriate to appoint a guardian ad litem to represent him or her throughout the proceeding. If deemed advisable, the court may examine the person out of courtroom. If the person has refused to be examined by a licensed physician, he or she shall be given an opportunity to be examined by a court appointed licensed physician. If he or she refuses and there is sufficient evidence to believe that the allegations of the petition are true, or if the court believes that more medical evidence is necessary, the court may make a temporary order committing him or her to the department for a period of not more than five days for purposes of a diagnostic examination.

(4) If after hearing all relevant evidence, including the results of any diagnostic examination, the court finds that grounds for involuntary commitment have been established by clear, cogent, and convincing proof, it shall make an order of commitment to an approved treatment facility. It shall not order commitment of a person unless it determines that an approved treatment facility is able to provide adequate and appropriate treatment for him or her ~~((and the treatment is likely to be beneficial))~~.

(5) A person committed under this section shall remain in the facility for treatment for a period of ~~((thirty))~~ sixty days unless sooner discharged. At the end of the ~~((thirty))~~ sixty-day period, he or she shall be discharged automatically unless the facility, before expiration of the period, files a petition for his or her recommitment upon the grounds set forth in subsection (1) of this section for a further period of ninety days unless sooner discharged. If a person has been committed because he or she is an alcoholic likely to inflict physical harm on another, the facility shall apply for recommitment if after examination it is determined that the likelihood still exists.

~~(6) ((A person recommitted under subsection (5) of this section who has not been discharged by the facility before the end of the ninety day period shall be discharged at the expiration of that period unless the facility, before expiration of the period, obtains a court order on the grounds set forth in subsection (1) of this section for recommitment for a further period not to exceed ninety days. If a person has been committed because he or she is an alcoholic likely to inflict physical harm on another, the facility shall apply for recommitment if after examination it is determined that the likelihood still exists. Only two recommitment orders under subsections (5) and (6) of this section are permitted.~~

~~((7))~~ Upon the filing of a petition for recommitment under subsection ~~((s))~~ (5) ~~((or (6)))~~ of this section, the court shall fix a date for hearing no less than ~~((three))~~ two and no more than seven days after the date the petition was filed: PROVIDED, That, the court may, upon motion of the person whose commitment is sought and upon good cause shown, extend the date for the hearing. A copy of the petition and of the notice of hearing, including the date fixed by the court, shall be served by the treatment facility on the person whose commitment is sought, his or her next of kin, the original petitioner under subsection (1) of this section if different from the petitioner for recommitment, one of his or her parents or his or her legal guardian if he or she is a minor, and his or her attorney and any other person the court believes advisable. At the hearing the court shall proceed as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

~~((8))~~ (7) The approved treatment facility shall provide for adequate and appropriate treatment of a person committed to its custody. A person committed under this section may be transferred from one approved public treatment facility to another if transfer is medically advisable.

~~((9))~~ (8) A person committed to the custody of a facility for treatment shall be discharged at any time before the end of the period for which he or she has been committed and he or she shall be discharged by order of the court if either of the following conditions are met:

(a) In case of an alcoholic committed on the grounds of likelihood of infliction of physical harm upon himself, herself, or another, ~~((that he or she is no longer an alcoholic or))~~ the likelihood no longer exists; or further treatment will not be likely to bring about significant improvement in the person's condition, or treatment is no longer adequate or appropriate.

(b) In case of an alcoholic committed on the grounds of the need of treatment and incapacity, that the incapacity no longer exists.

~~((10))~~ (9) The court shall inform the person whose commitment or recommitment is sought of his or her right to contest the application, be represented by counsel at every stage of any proceedings relating to his or her commitment and recommitment, and have counsel appointed by the court or provided by the court, if he or she wants the assistance of counsel and is unable to obtain counsel. If the court believes that the person needs the assistance of counsel, the court shall require, by appointment if necessary, counsel for him or her regardless of his or her wishes. The person shall, if he or she is financially able, bear the costs of such legal service; otherwise such legal service shall be at public expense. The person whose commitment or recommitment is sought shall be informed of his or her right to be examined by a licensed physician of his or her choice. If the person is unable to obtain a licensed physician and requests examination by a physician, the court shall employ a licensed physician.

~~((11))~~ (10) A person committed under this chapter may at any time seek to be discharged from commitment by writ of habeas corpus in a court of competent jurisdiction.

~~((12))~~ (11) The venue for proceedings under this section is the county in which person to be committed resides or is present.

(12) When in the opinion of the professional person in charge of the facility providing involuntary treatment under this chapter, the committed patient can be appropriately served by less restrictive treatment before expiration of the period of commitment, then the less restrictive care may be required as a condition for early release for a period which, when added to the initial treatment period, does not exceed the period of commitment. If the facility designated to provide the less restrictive treatment is other than the facility providing the initial involuntary treatment, the facility so designated must agree in writing to assume such responsibility. A copy of the conditions for early release shall be given to the patient, the designated county alcoholism specialist, and the court of original commitment. The facility designated to provide less restrictive care may modify the conditions for continued release when the modifications are in the best interests of the patient. If the facility providing less restrictive care and the designated county alcoholism specialist determine that a conditionally released patient is failing to adhere to the terms and conditions of his or her release, or that substantial deterioration in the patient's functioning has occurred, then the designated county alcoholism specialist shall notify the court of original commitment and request a hearing to be held no less than two and no more than seven days after the date of the request to determine whether or not the person should be returned to more restrictive care. The designated alcoholism specialist shall file a petition with the court stating the facts substantiating the need for the hearing along with the treatment recommendations. The patient shall have the same rights with respect to notice, hearing, and counsel as for the original involuntary treatment proceedings. The issues to be determined at the hearing are whether the conditionally released patient did or did not adhere to the terms and conditions of his or her release to less restrictive care or that substantial deterioration of the patient's functioning has occurred and whether the conditions of release should be modified or the person should be returned to a more restrictive facility. The hearing may be waived by the patient and his or her counsel and his or her guardian or conservator, if any, but may not be waived unless all such persons agree to the waiver. Upon waiver, the person may be returned for involuntary treatment or continued on conditional release on the same or modified conditions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 307. A new section is added to chapter 70.96A RCW to read as follows:

In any judicial proceeding for involuntary commitment or detention under this chapter, or in any proceeding challenging such commitment or detention, the prosecuting attorney for the county in which the proceeding was initiated shall represent the individuals or agencies petitioning for commitment or detention and shall defend all challenges to such commitment or detention.

SUBPART B

PREVENTION AND EARLY INTERVENTION IN SCHOOLS

Sec. 308. Section 205, chapter 518, Laws of 1987 and RCW 28A.120.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The citizens of the state of Washington recognize the serious impact of alcohol and drug abuse on a student's self-concept and on the ability of students to learn. Therefore, the substance abuse awareness program is established: ((+)) (a) To aid students in the development of skills that will assist them in making informed decisions concerning the use of drugs and alcohol; ((#)) (b) to contribute to the development and support of a drug-free educational environment; and ((#)) (c) to help school districts in the development of comprehensive drug and alcohol policies leading to the implementation of drug and alcohol programs that contain prevention, intervention, and aftercare components.

(2) New and existing substance abuse awareness programs funded pursuant to RCW 28A.120.030 through 28A.120.050 do not fall within the definition of basic education for purposes of Article IX of the state Constitution and the state's funding duty thereunder.

Sec. 309. Section 206, chapter 518, Laws of 1987 and RCW 28A.120.032 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules to implement this section and RCW 28A.120.034 through 28A.120.050 and shall distribute moneys appropriated for the purposes of RCW 28A.120.034 through 28A.120.050 to school districts ((on a grant basis, from moneys appropriated for the purposes of this section and RCW 28A.120.034 through 28A.120.050, funds)) in accordance with the state funding formula set forth in the appropriations act for the development and implementation of educational and disciplinary policies leading to the implementation of prevention, intervention, and aftercare activities regarding the use and abuse of drugs and alcohol. The rules shall include selection criteria developed in consultation with the substance abuse advisory committee established under RCW 28A.120.038 and may include factors such as the number of students from low-income families, truancy rates, juvenile justice referrals, social services caseloads, and participation of community groups and law enforcement agencies in drug and alcohol abuse prevention and intervention activities.

(2) The following program areas may be funded through moneys made available for this section and RCW 28A.120.034 through 28A.120.050, including but not limited to:

((+)) (a) Comprehensive program development within the district's comprehensive health education program;

((#)) (b) Prevention programs;

((#)) (c) Elementary identification and intervention programs;

((#)) (d) Secondary identification and intervention programs;

((#)) (e) School drug and alcohol core team development and training;

((#)) (f) Development of counseling, referral, and preassessment procedures;

((#)) (g) Aftercare;

((#)) (h) Drug and alcohol specialist;

((#)) (i) Staff, parent, student, and community training; ((and (+)) (j) Development and supervision of student mentor programs; and

(k) Coordination with law enforcement, which may include programs substantially similar to the drug abuse resistance education program (D.A.R.E.), community service providers, other school districts, educational service districts, and drug and alcohol treatment facilities.

(3) For the purpose of subsection (2)(h) of this section 'drug and alcohol specialist' means an educational staff associate employed by a school district who holds certification as a school counselor, school psychologist, school nurse, or school social worker under state board of education rules adopted pursuant to RCW 28A.04.120.

'Drug and alcohol specialist' may mean a drug treatment counselor or social worker on the staff of a drug treatment center certified by the bureau of alcohol and substance abuse within the department of social and health services who may be employed under contract between a school district and the drug treatment center.

Sec. 310. Section 207, chapter 518, Laws of 1987 and RCW 28A.120.034 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) School districts interested in implementing a substance abuse awareness program shall have on file an application for state or federal funds, or both, with the superintendent of public instruction. The application shall include the following:

(a) A letter of commitment from the board of directors to adopt a comprehensive written policy on drugs and alcohol, and a proposed substance ~~((awareness))~~ abuse awareness program and implementation plan, within six months of receipt of state funding. The ~~((comprehensive policy and program))~~ implementation plan shall address the issues of prevention, intervention, aftercare, and disciplinary policies, and shall emphasize cooperation and coordination of services among public and private agencies, including law enforcement agencies. If the district's board of directors has already adopted a comprehensive policy and plan, the district shall submit a copy of the comprehensive policy and plan;

(b) A letter of commitment from the board of directors to appoint a school and community substance abuse advisory committee if such a committee has not been established. The advisory committee shall include but is not limited to representatives of ~~((at least the following))~~: The school district instructional and administrative staff, students, parents, ~~((state and))~~ local ~~((government))~~ law enforcement personnel, and the county coordinator of alcohol and drug treatment~~((:))~~ or his or her designee, or a representative of other treatment service providers. If the district has already established an advisory committee but its membership does not include members representing any of the groups identified in this subsection, the board of directors shall appoint an additional member or members, if necessary, accordingly.

The advisory committee shall work to help coordinate school district programs and services with programs and services available within the community and thereby contribute toward the development of a continuum of prevention, intervention, and ~~((after care))~~ after-care services within the total community and to avoid the duplication of services; and

(c) A copy of the district's assessment of the scope of the problem of drug and alcohol abuse within the district, as such use and abuse by individuals affects the learning environment in each school.

(2) The district shall demonstrate its plan to provide local matching funds of an amount equal to at least twenty percent of the state funds that the district is eligible to receive. Matching funds may be funds received from federal programs, other funds available to the district, or in-kind contributions: PROVIDED, That in-kind contributions shall be not more than one-half of the minimum matching funds required.

(3) The district shall provide an outline of procedures for evaluating the effectiveness of the district's substance abuse awareness program.

(4) Each school district receiving funding pursuant to RCW 28A.120.030 through 28A.120.050 shall submit biennially to the superintendent of public instruction a written report on the results of the district's substance abuse awareness program.

(5) Joint applications and programs may be undertaken by school districts. Districts which elect to participate in a joint program may file a joint application and establish a joint school and community substance abuse advisory committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 311. A new section is added to chapter 28A.120 RCW to read as follows:

(1) School districts are encouraged to promote parent and community involvement in substance abuse awareness programs, through parent visits under RCW 28A.58.053 and through any school involvement program established by the district under RCW 28A.58.640 through 28A.58.648.

(2) Districts are further encouraged to review substance abuse awareness programs as part of the self-study procedures required under RCW 28A.58.085 and as part of any annual goal-setting process the district may have established under RCW 28A.58.094.

SUBPART C

DRUG AND ALCOHOL TREATMENT SERVICES

Sec. 312. Section 1, chapter 6, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 31, chapter 75, Laws of 1987 and by section 9, chapter 406, Laws of 1987 and RCW 74.04.005 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this title, unless the context indicates otherwise, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) 'Public assistance' or 'assistance'—Public aid to persons in need thereof for any cause, including services, medical care, assistance grants, disbursing orders, work relief, general assistance and federal-aid assistance.

(2) 'Department'—The department of social and health services.

(3) 'County or local office'—The administrative office for one or more counties or designated service areas.

(4) 'Director' or 'secretary' means the secretary of social and health services.

(5) 'Federal-aid assistance'—The specific categories of assistance for which provision is made in any federal law existing or hereafter passed by which payments are made from the federal government to the state in aid or in respect to payment by the state for public assistance rendered to any category of needy persons for which provision for federal funds or aid may from time to time be made, or a federally administered needs-based program.

(6) (a) 'General assistance'—Aid to persons in need who:

(i) Are not eligible to receive federal-aid assistance, other than food stamps and medical assistance; however, an individual who refuses or fails to cooperate in obtaining federal-aid assistance, without good cause, is not eligible for general assistance;

(ii) Are either:

(A) Pregnant: PROVIDED, That need is based on the current income and resource requirements of the federal aid to families with dependent children program: PROVIDED FURTHER, That during any period in which an aid for dependent children employable program is not in operation, only those pregnant women who are categorically eligible for medicaid are eligible for general assistance; or

(B) Incapacitated from gainful employment by reason of bodily or mental infirmity that will likely continue for a minimum of sixty days as determined by the department. Persons who are unemployable due to alcohol or drug addiction are not eligible for general assistance (~~Persons receiving general assistance on July 26, 1987, or becoming eligible for such assistance thereafter, due to an alcohol or drug-related incapacity;~~) and shall be ((referred to) advised as to appropriate assessment, treatment, ((shelter, or supplemental security income referral)) or program services ((as authorized)) that may be available to them under chapters ((74-50)) 69.54, 70.96, and 70.96A RCW. Referrals shall be made at the time of application or at the time of eligibility review. Alcoholic and drug addicted clients who are receiving general assistance on July 26, 1987, may remain on general assistance if they otherwise retain their eligibility until they are assessed for ((services)) treatment under chapters ((74-50)) 69.54, 70.96, and 70.96A RCW. This subsection (6)(a)(ii)(B) shall not be construed to prohibit the department from granting general assistance benefits to alcoholics and drug addicts who are incapacitated due to other physical or mental conditions that meet the eligibility criteria for the general assistance program;

(iii) Are citizens or aliens lawfully admitted for permanent residence or otherwise residing in the United States under color of law; and

(iv) Have furnished the department their social security account number. If the social security account number cannot be furnished because it has not been issued or is not known, an application for a number shall be made prior to authorization of assistance, and the social security number shall be provided to the department upon receipt.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (6)(a)(i), (ii), and (c) of this section, general assistance shall be provided to the following recipients of federal-aid assistance:

(i) Recipients of supplemental security income whose need, as defined in this section, is not met by such supplemental security income grant because of separation from a spouse; or

(ii) To the extent authorized by the legislature in the biennial appropriations act, to recipients of aid to families with dependent children whose needs are not being met because of a temporary reduction in monthly income below the entitled benefit payment level caused by loss or reduction of wages or unemployment compensation benefits or some other unforeseen circumstances. The amount of general assistance authorized shall not exceed the difference between the entitled benefit payment level and the amount of income actually received.

(c) General assistance shall be provided only to persons who are not members of assistance units receiving federal aid assistance, except as provided in subsection (6)(a)(ii)(A) and (b) of this section, and will accept available services which can reasonably be expected to enable the person to work or reduce the need for assistance unless there is good cause to refuse. Failure to accept such services shall result in termination until the person agrees to cooperate in accepting such services and subject to the following maximum periods of ineligibility after reapplication:

(i) First failure: One week;

(ii) Second failure within six months: One month;

(iii) Third and subsequent failure within one year: Two months.

(d) The department shall adopt by rule medical criteria for general assistance eligibility to ensure that eligibility decisions are consistent with statutory requirements and are based on clear, objective medical information.

(e) The process implementing the medical criteria shall involve consideration of opinions of the treating or consulting physicians or health care professionals regarding incapacity, and any eligibility decision which rejects uncontroverted medical opinion must set forth clear and convincing reasons for doing so.

(f) Recipients of general assistance who remain otherwise eligible shall not have their benefits terminated absent a clear showing of material improvement in their medical or mental condition or specific error in the prior determination that found the recipient eligible by reason of incapacitation.

(7) 'Applicant'—Any person who has made a request, or on behalf of whom a request has been made, to any county or local office for assistance.

(8) 'Recipient'—Any person receiving assistance and in addition those dependents whose needs are included in the recipient's assistance.

(9) 'Standards of assistance'—The level of income required by an applicant or recipient to maintain a level of living specified by the department.

(10) 'Resource'—Any asset, tangible or intangible, owned by or available to the applicant at the time of application, which can be applied toward meeting the applicant's need, either directly or by conversion into money or its equivalent: PROVIDED, That an applicant may retain the following described resources and not be ineligible for public assistance because of such resources.

(a) A home, which is defined as real property owned and used by an applicant or recipient as a place of residence, together with a reasonable amount of property surrounding and contiguous thereto, which is used by and useful to the applicant. Whenever a recipient shall cease to use such property for residential purposes, either for himself or his dependents, the property shall be considered as a resource which can be made available to meet need, and if the recipient or his dependents absent themselves from the home for a period of ninety consecutive days such absence, unless due to hospitalization or health reasons or a natural disaster, shall raise a rebuttable presumption of abandonment: PROVIDED, That if in the opinion of three physicians the recipient will be unable to return to the home during his lifetime, and the home is not occupied by a spouse or dependent children or disabled sons or daughters, such property shall be considered as a resource which can be made available to meet need.

(b) Household furnishings and personal effects and other personal property having great sentimental value to the applicant or recipient, as limited by the department consistent with limitations on resources and exemptions for federal aid assistance.

(c) A motor vehicle, other than a motor home, used and useful having an equity value not to exceed one thousand five hundred dollars.

(d) All other resources, including any excess of values exempted, not to exceed one thousand dollars or other limit as set by the department, to be consistent with limitations on resources and exemptions necessary for federal aid assistance.

(e) Applicants for or recipients of general assistance may retain the following described resources in addition to exemption for a motor vehicle or home and not be ineligible for public assistance because of such resources:

(i) Household furnishings, personal effects, and other personal property having great sentimental value to the applicant or recipient;

(ii) Term and burial insurance for use of the applicant or recipient;

(iii) Life insurance having a cash surrender value not exceeding one thousand five hundred dollars; and

(iv) Cash, marketable securities, and any excess of values above one thousand five hundred dollars equity in a vehicle and above one thousand five hundred dollars in cash surrender value of life insurance, not exceeding one thousand five hundred dollars for a single person or two thousand two hundred fifty dollars for a family unit of two or more. The one thousand dollar limit in subsection (10)(d) of this section does not apply to recipients of or applicants for general assistance.

(f) If an applicant for or recipient of public assistance possesses property and belongings in excess of the ceiling value, such value shall be used in determining the need of the applicant or recipient, except that: (i) The department may exempt resources or income when the income and resources are determined necessary to the applicant's or recipient's restoration to independence, to decrease the need for public assistance, or to aid in rehabilitating the applicant or recipient or a dependent of the applicant or recipient; and (ii) the department may provide grant assistance to persons who are otherwise ineligible because of excess real property owned by such persons when they are making a good faith effort to dispose of that property, but the recipient must sign an agreement to dispose of the property and repay assistance payments made to the date of disposition of the property which would not have been made had the disposal occurred at the beginning of the period for which the payments of such assistance were made. In no event shall such amount due the state exceed the net proceeds otherwise available to the recipient from the disposition, unless after nine months from the date of the agreement the property has not been sold, or if the recipient's eligibility for financial assistance ceases for any other reason. In these two instances the entire amount of assistance paid during this period will be treated as an overpayment and a debt due the state, and may be recovered pursuant to RCW 43.20B.630.

(11) 'Income'—(a) All appreciable gains in real or personal property (cash or kind) or other assets, which are received by or become available for use and enjoyment by an applicant or recipient during the month of application or after applying for or receiving public assistance: PROVIDED, That the department may by rule and regulation exempt income received by an applicant for or recipient of public assistance which can be used by him to decrease his need for public assistance or to aid in rehabilitating him or his dependents, but such exemption shall not, unless otherwise provided in this title, exceed the exemptions of resources granted under this chapter to an applicant for public assistance: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in determining the amount of assistance to which an applicant or recipient of aid to families with dependent children is entitled, the department is hereby authorized to disregard as a resource or income the earned income exemptions consistent with federal requirements: PROVIDED FURTHER, The department may permit the above exemption of earnings of a child to be retained by such child to cover the cost of special future identifiable needs even though the total exceeds the exemptions or resources granted to applicants and recipients of public assistance, but consistent with federal requirements. In formulating rules and regulations pursuant to this chapter, the department shall define income and resources and the availability thereof, consistent with federal requirements. All resources and income not specifically exempted, and any income or other economic benefit derived from the use of, or appreciation in value of, exempt resources, shall be considered in determining the need of an applicant or recipient of public assistance.

(b) If, under applicable federal requirements, the state has the option of considering property in the form of lump sum compensatory awards or related settlements received by an applicant or recipient as income or as a resource, the department shall consider such property to be a resource.

(12) 'Need'—The difference between the applicant's or recipient's standards of assistance for himself and the dependent members of his family, as measured by the standards of the department, and value of all nonexempt resources and nonexempt income received by or available to the applicant or recipient and the dependent members of his family.

(13) In the construction of words and phrases used in this title, the singular number shall include the plural, the masculine gender shall include both the feminine and neuter genders and the present tense shall include the past and future tenses, unless the context thereof shall clearly indicate to the contrary.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 313. A new section is added to chapter 69.54 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department shall provide client assessment and treatment services within available funds. Where such treatment includes either residential care or a living stipend, the assessment service shall include a diagnostic evaluation for the purpose of determining who is eligible and what treatment is appropriate. The department shall establish rules of eligibility for the financially limited number of slots in both the residential care program and the outpatient treatment program accompanied by a living stipend. The rules shall set forth income and resource limits to assure that treatment priority is given to persons who are indigent or of low income. The department may require an applicant to complete a residential evaluation for the purpose of clarifying individualized treatment needs when the department is not capable of making an accurate assessment of that individual's needs within the ordinary assessment process.

(2) If the department determines that a woman who is pregnant or parenting an infant is eligible for treatment, that woman shall be given immediate priority for available treatment. In addition, the department shall coordinate to provide case management and support to these women to the extent that these services are available.

(3) The department shall assist clients in making application for supplemental security benefits and in obtaining the necessary documentation required by the federal social security administration for such benefits.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 314. A new section is added to chapter 69.54 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department shall provide drug treatment services within available funding for persons suffering problems related to narcotic and other dangerous drugs. The treatment services may include, but are not limited to:

(a) Intensive inpatient treatment services;

(b) Recovery house treatment;

(c) Outpatient treatment and counseling, including assistance in obtaining employment, and including a living allowance while undergoing outpatient treatment. The living allowance may not be used to provide shelter to clients in a dormitory setting that does not require sobriety as a condition of residence. The living allowance shall be administered on the clients' behalf by the outpatient treatment facility or other social service agency designated by the department. The department is authorized to pay the facility a fee for administering this allowance.

(2) With the exception of those treatment services funded through alcohol and drug grants to counties and congregate care facility residential moneys, no individual may receive a combination of inpatient or outpatient treatment services for a total of more than six months in any two-year period. The department may approve an additional treatment or living allowance in an exceptional case.

(3) The department may require an applicant or recipient selecting treatment to complete inpatient and recovery house treatment when, in the judgment of a designated assessment center, such treatment is necessary prior to providing the outpatient program.

Sec. 315. Section 8, chapter 122, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 70.96A.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department shall establish by all appropriate means, including contracting for services, a comprehensive and coordinated program for the treatment of alcoholics, persons incapacitated by alcohol, and intoxicated persons.

(2) The program shall include, but not necessarily be limited to:

(a) Emergency treatment provided by a facility affiliated with or part of the medical service of a general hospital or licensed medical institution:

(b) Intensive inpatient treatment services;

(c) ~~(Intermediate)~~ Recovery house treatment; and

(d) Outpatient ~~(and follow-up)~~ treatment and counseling, including assistance in obtaining employment, and including a living allowance while undergoing outpatient treatment. The living allowance may not be used to provide shelter to clients in a dormitory setting that does not require sobriety as a condition of residence. The living allowance shall be administered on the clients' behalf by the outpatient treatment facility or other social service agency designated by the department. The department is authorized to pay the facility a fee for administering this allowance.

(3) With the exception of those treatment services funded through alcohol and drug grants to counties and congregate care facility residential moneys, no individual may receive a combination of inpatient or outpatient treatment services for a total of more than six months in any two-year period. The department may approve additional treatment or living allowance in an exceptional case.

(4) The department may require an applicant or recipient selecting treatment to complete inpatient and recovery house treatment when, in the judgment of a designated assessment center, such treatment is necessary prior to providing the outpatient program.

~~((4))~~ (5) The department shall provide for adequate and appropriate treatment for alcoholics, persons incapacitated by alcohol, and intoxicated persons admitted under RCW 70.96A.110 through 70.96A.140. Treatment may not be provided at a jail or prison except for inmates.

~~((4))~~ (6) All appropriate public and private resources shall be coordinated with and utilized in the program if possible.

~~((5))~~ (7) The department shall prepare, publish, and distribute annually a list of all approved public and private treatment facilities.

~~((6))~~ (8) The department may contract for the use of any facility as an approved public treatment facility if the secretary, subject to the policies of the department, considers this to be an effective and economical course to follow.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 316. A new section is added to chapter 70.96A RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department shall provide client assessment and treatment within available funds. Where such treatment includes either residential care or a living stipend, the assessment service shall include a diagnostic evaluation for the purpose of determining who is eligible and what treatment is appropriate. The department shall establish rules of eligibility for the financially limited number of slots in both the residential care program and the outpatient treatment program accompanied by a living stipend. The rules shall set forth income and resource limits to assure that treatment priority is given to persons who are indigent or of low income. The department may require an applicant to complete a residential evaluation for the purposes of clarifying individualized treatment needs when the department is not capable of making an accurate assessment of that individual's needs within the ordinary assessment process.

(2) If the department determines that a woman who is pregnant or parenting an infant is eligible for treatment, that woman shall be given immediate priority for available treatment. In addition, the department shall coordinate to provide case management and support to these women to the extent that these services are available.

(3) The department shall assist clients in making application for supplemental security benefits and in obtaining the necessary documentation required by the federal social security administration for such benefits.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 317. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 2, chapter 406, Laws of 1987, section 1, chapter 163, Laws of 1988 and RCW 74.50.010;

SUBPART D

COMMUNITY MOBILIZATION

NEW SECTION. Sec. 318. The legislature recognizes that state-wide efforts aimed at reducing the incidence of substance abuse must be increased. The legislature further recognizes that the most effective strategy for reducing the impact of alcohol and other drug abuse is through the collaborative efforts of educators, law enforcement, local government officials, local treatment providers, and concerned community and citizens' groups.

The legislature intends to support the development and activities of community mobilization strategies against substance abuse through the following efforts:

(1) Provide funding support for prevention, treatment, and enforcement activities identified by communities that have brought together education, treatment, local government, law enforcement, and other key elements of the community;

(2) Provide technical assistance and support to help communities develop and carry out effective activities; and

(3) Provide communities with opportunities to share suggestions for state program operations and budget priorities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 319. There is established in the office of the governor a grant program to provide incentive for and support for communities to develop targeted and coordinated strategies to reduce the incidence and impact of substance abuse.

Activities which may be funded through this grant program include those which:

(1) Prevent substance abuse through educational and self-esteem efforts, development of positive alternatives, intervention with high-risk groups, and other prevention strategies;

(2) Support effective treatment by increasing access to and availability of treatment opportunities, particularly for underserved or highly impacted populations, developing after-care and support mechanisms, and other strategies to increase the availability and effectiveness of treatment;

(3) Provide meaningful consequences for participation in illegal activity and promote safe and healthy communities through support of law enforcement strategies;

(4) Create or build on efforts by existing community programs, coordinate their efforts, and develop cooperative efforts or other initiatives to make most effective use of resources to carry out the community's strategy against substance abuse; and

(5) Other activities which demonstrate both feasibility and a rationale for how the activity will achieve measurable results in the strategy against substance abuse.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 320. Applications for funding under this chapter must:

(1) Demonstrate that the community has developed and is committed to carrying out a coordinated strategy of prevention, treatment, and law enforcement activities; and

(2) Contain evidence of active participation of the community and specific commitments to implementing the community-wide agenda by leadership from at least education, law enforcement, local government, tribal government, and treatment entities in the community, and the opportunity for meaningful involvement from others such as neighborhood and citizen groups, businesses, human service, health and job training organizations, and other key elements of the community, particularly those whose responsibilities in law enforcement, treatment, prevention, or other community efforts provide direct, ongoing contact with substance abusers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 321. This grant program will be available to communities of any geographic size but will encourage and reward communities which develop coordinated or complementary strategies within geographic areas such as county areas or groups of county areas which correspond to units of government with significant responsibilities in the area of substance abuse, existing coalitions, or other entities important to the success of a community's strategy against substance abuse.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 322. At a minimum, grant applications must include the following:

(1) Definition of geographic area;

(2) A description of the extent and impact of substance abuse in the community, including an explanation of those who are most severely impacted and those most at risk of substance abuse;

(3) An explanation of the community-wide strategy for prevention, treatment, and law enforcement activities related to substance abuse with particular attention to those who are most severely impacted and those most at risk of substance abuse;

(4) Explanation of who was involved in development of the strategy and what specific commitments have been made to carrying it out;

(5) Identification of existing prevention, treatment, and law enforcement resources committed by the community, including financial and other support, and an explanation of how the community's strategy involves and builds on the efforts of existing organizations or coalitions that have been carrying out community efforts against substance abuse:

(6) Identification of activities that address specific objectives in the strategy for which additional resources are needed;

(7) Identification of additional local resources, including public or private funds, donated goods or services, and other measurable commitments, that have been committed to the activities identified in subsection (6) of this section;

(8) Identification of activities which address specific objectives in the strategy for which funding is requested. Activities should be presented in priority order;

(9) Each activity for which funding is requested must be explained in sufficient detail to demonstrate:

(a) Feasibility through deliberative design, specific objectives, and realistic plan for implementation;

(b) A rationale for how this activity will achieve measurable results and how it will be evaluated;

(c) That funds requested are necessary and appropriate to effectively carry out the activity; and

(10) Identification of a fiscal agent meeting state requirements for each activity proposed for funding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 323. The governor shall make awards, subject to funds appropriated by the legislature, under the following terms:

(1) In order to be eligible for consideration, applications must demonstrate, at a minimum:

(a) That proposals submitted for funding are based on and address specific objectives contained in a coordinated strategy of prevention, treatment, and law enforcement against substance abuse;

(b) Evidence of active participation in preparation of the proposal and specific commitments to implementing the community-wide agenda by leadership from at least education, law enforcement, local government, tribal government, and treatment entities in the community, and the opportunity for meaningful involvement from others such as neighborhood and citizen groups, businesses, human service, health and job training organizations, and other key elements of the community, particularly those whose responsibilities in law enforcement, treatment, prevention, or other community efforts provide direct, ongoing contact with substance abusers, or those at risk for substance abuse;

(c) That they have met the requirements listed in section 322 of this act; and

(d) Evidence of additional local resources committed to its strategy totaling at least twenty-five percent of funds awarded under this section. These resources may consist of public or private funds, donated goods or services, and other measurable commitments, including in-kind contributions such as volunteer services, materials, supplies, physical facilities or a combination thereof.

(2) In order to encourage and reward communities which develop coordinated or complementary strategies within geographic areas which correspond to units of government with significant responsibilities in the area of substance abuse, up to fifty percent of funds appropriated for the purposes of this chapter may be awarded on a per capita basis to eligible applications reflecting coordinated strategy from a county area or group of county areas. The governor may establish minimum allotments per eligible county areas up to fifteen thousand dollars; and

(3) No less than fifty percent of funds appropriated under this chapter shall be awarded on a competitive basis for activities by communities not participating in a county-wide strategy and activities identified by county-wide strategies but not funded through per capita grants. Eligible applications will be assessed and compared by a peer review committee whose members have experience in prevention, treatment, law enforcement, and other community efforts against substance abuse using the following criteria:

(a) The extent and impact of substance abuse;

(b) The extent to which key elements of the community are involved in and committed to the coordinated strategy;

(c) The extent of commitments of local resources to the coordinated strategy;

(d) The extent to which any activities in a community's strategy offer an innovative approach to a chronic, wide-spread problem.

The peer review committee will advise the governor on the extent to which each eligible applicant has met these criteria. The governor will distribute available funds based on this information.

(4) The governor shall distribute fifty percent of the initial appropriation for the purposes of this chapter no later than October 1, 1989, and the remainder no later than July 1, 1990.

(5) Activities funded under this section may be considered for funding in future years, but will be considered under the same terms and criteria of new activities. Funding under this section shall not constitute an obligation by the state of Washington to provide ongoing funding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 324. The governor shall ask communities for suggestions on state practices, policies, and priorities that would help communities implement their strategies against substance abuse. The governor or appropriate agency officials shall review and respond to those suggestions making necessary changes where feasible, making recommendations to the legislature where appropriate, and providing an explanation as to why suggested changes cannot be accomplished, if the suggestions cannot be acted upon.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 325. The governor may receive such gifts, grants, and endowments from public or private sources as may be made from time to time, in trust or otherwise, for the use and benefit of the purposes of this act and expend the same or any income therefrom according to the terms of the gifts, grants, or endowments.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 326. Sections 318 through 325 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 327. The governor shall report to the legislature by January 1, 1991, regarding the operations of the grant program authorized in section 319 of this act. At a minimum, the report shall include the following:

- (1) Number of grants awarded and the amount of each grant;
- (2) Recipients of grants, including the communities in which they are based;
- (3) Purposes for which the grants were awarded;
- (4) Success of the projects in achieving their stated goals and objectives;
- (5) An assessment of the effect that the activities of this act had on encouraging and supporting coordinated community action against substance abuse;
- (6) Recommendations for further funding by the state; and
- (7) Recommendations regarding future operations of the program, including criteria for awarding grants.

PART IV APPROPRIATIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 401. DRUG ENFORCEMENT AND EDUCATION ACCOUNT. The drug enforcement and education account is created in the state treasury. All designated receipts from RCW 69.50.505 and section 510 of this act shall be deposited into the account. Expenditures from the account may be used only for funding services and programs under this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 402. CRIMES AND PENALTIES. The sum of twenty-one million three hundred five thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, from the drug enforcement and education account to the department of corrections. Of this amount, eight million eight hundred thousand dollars is for operational costs associated with the additional prison population due to the new crimes and increased penalties established by sections 101 through 112 of this act. The remaining twelve million five hundred five thousand dollars is for the purpose of renovating or constructing additional facilities needed as a result of the new crimes and penalties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 403. JUVENILE JUSTICE BOOT CAMP PILOT PROJECT. The sum of one million eight hundred sixty thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the drug enforcement and education account to the department of social and health services for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, for the juvenile justice boot camp pilot project.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 404. MONITORING INMATE TELEPHONE CALLS. The sum of one hundred seventy-five thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, from the drug enforcement and education account to the department of corrections for the purpose of monitoring inmate telephone calls within state correctional facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 405. SPECIAL NARCOTICS ENFORCEMENT UNIT. The sum of nine hundred forty thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, from the drug enforcement and education account to the Washington state patrol to be used solely for purposes of establishing the special narcotics enforcement unit within the state patrol drug control assistance unit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 406. STATE-WIDE DRUG PROSECUTION ASSISTANCE UNIT. The sum of five hundred sixty thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, from the drug enforcement and education account to the department of community development for the state-wide drug prosecution assistance unit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 407. INVOLUNTARY TREATMENT. The sum of four million nine hundred thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, from the drug enforcement and education account to the department of social and health services for the purposes of sections 301 through 306 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 408. PREVENTION AND EARLY INTERVENTION IN SCHOOLS. The sum of ten million dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, from the drug enforcement and education account to the superintendent of public instruction to support school district substance abuse awareness programs provided under sections 308 through 310 of this act.

It is the intent of the legislature that one-time grants provided to school districts from appropriations under this section do not meet the criteria for levy reduction funds under RCW 84.52.0531 and shall not be deemed to be levy reduction funds.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 409. DRUG AND ALCOHOL TREATMENT SERVICES. The sum of three million dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, from the drug enforcement and education account to the department of social and health services to enhance the services provided under sections 313 through 316 of this act. The department shall seek federal matching funds for these services to the extent such funds are available.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 410. COMMUNITY MOBILIZATION. The sum of three million six hundred forty thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, from the drug enforcement and education account to the department of community development for the purposes of funding community mobilization strategies. Of this amount, forty thousand dollars is to provide technical assistance to communities in meeting the conditions of grant applications.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 411. SECURITY IN SCHOOLS. The sum of three million dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, from the drug enforcement and education account to the superintendent of public instruction for matching grants to enhance security in secondary schools. School districts which apply for such grants shall ensure that no more than seventy-five percent of the district's total expenditures for school security in any school year are supported by the grant amounts. The grants shall be expended solely for the costs of employing or contracting for building security monitors in secondary schools during school hours and school events. Of the amount appropriated in this section, a minimum of two million seven hundred fifty thousand dollars is provided for grants to districts that, during the 1988-89 school year, employed or contracted for security monitors in schools during school hours.

It is the intent of the legislature that one-time grants provided to school districts from appropriations under this section do not meet the criteria for levy reduction funds under RCW 84.52.0531 and shall not be deemed to be levy reduction funds.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 412. CRIME LAB ENHANCEMENT. The sum of eight hundred thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, from the drug enforcement and education account to the Washington state patrol to be used solely for purposes of enhancing and expediting identification and analysis in drug cases.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 413. PRENATAL CASE MANAGEMENT AND SUPPORT SERVICES. The sum of fifteen million three hundred forty thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, of which eight million one hundred sixty thousand dollars shall be from federal funds, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, from the drug enforcement and education account to the department of social and health services for the purposes of establishing a maternity care case management and support service system that shall assist only high-risk eligible persons with obtaining medical assistance benefits and receiving maternity care services, including transportation and child care services. State funds may be expended under this section only to the extent that the federal matching moneys are received.

'High-risk eligible person,' as used in this section, means an eligible person determined by the department to need special assistance in applying for and obtaining maternity care, including, in the following order of priority, pregnant women who are drug or alcohol addicted or affected, pregnant and parenting adolescents, pregnant minority women who live in poverty, pregnant homeless women, and other eligible persons who need special assistance in gaining access to the maternity care system.

'Support services,' as used in this section, should include a nursing assessment and follow-up, health and childbirth education, psychological assessment and counseling, outreach services, nutritional assessment and counseling, needed vitamin and nonprescriptive drugs, transportation, and child care. Support services shall include alcohol and substance abuse treatment for pregnant women who are addicted or at risk of being addicted to alcohol or drugs.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 414. JUVENILE REHABILITATION--SUBSTANCE ABUSE. The sum of six hundred twenty-five thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, from the drug enforcement and education account to the department of social and health services to be used solely for the purposes of enhancing detection and treatment of the use of illegal drugs in the juvenile rehabilitation institutions.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 415. YOUTH ASSESSMENT AND TREATMENT. The sum of six million dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, from the drug enforcement and education account to the department of social and health services to provide inpatient youth assessment and treatment programs to serve youth and their families. At least forty percent of new inpatient treatment slots provided under this section shall be located east of the Cascade mountains. Up to fifteen of the treatment slots created under this section shall be staff-secure. Inpatient treatment programs shall incorporate appropriate outpatient and aftercare programs. In addition, within appropriated funds, the department shall develop intensive outpatient treatment services for children and youth for whom inpatient treatment is inappropriate or unavailable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 416. ADULT CORRECTIONS--SUBSTANCE ABUSE. The sum of six hundred fifty thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, from the drug enforcement and education account to the department of corrections to develop and implement a model to deliver a continuum of care to substance-dependent offenders and to conduct increased urinalysis testing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 417. WORK RELEASE DRUG TREATMENT. The sum of one hundred ten thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, from the drug enforcement and education account to the department of corrections to develop substance abuse treatment programs at the Reynolds work release facility and the eastern Washington prerelease facility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 418. INTENSIVE DRUG SURVEILLANCE. The sum of one million one hundred twenty thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, from the drug enforcement and education account to the department of corrections for continued funding for the community corrections drug surveillance unit in King county and to initiate similar units in Pierce and Yakima counties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 419. CLANDESTINE DRUG LABS. The sum of seventy-five thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, from the drug enforcement and education account to the Washington state patrol to provide technical assistance to local governments in seizures of clandestine drug labs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 420. NARCOTICS ENFORCEMENT. The sum of five hundred twenty-five thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, from the drug enforcement and education account to the Washington state patrol to support multijurisdictional drug investigations and the eastern Washington drug task force.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 421. DRUG ABUSE RESISTANCE PROGRAM. The sum of two hundred thirty thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, from the drug enforcement and education account to the criminal justice training commission to support the drug abuse resistance education program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 422. DRUG INFORMATION CENTERS. (1) The sum of one hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, to fund the University of Washington drug information center.

(2) The sum of one hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, to fund the Washington State University drug information center.

PART V REVENUE PROVISIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 501. A new section is added to chapter 9.46 RCW to read as follows:

(1) There is levied a state excise tax on sales of all punch boards and pull-tabs by punch board and pull-tab operators licensed in this state. There is also levied a state tax on the operation of social card games by operators licensed in this state. The rate of the taxes shall equal three percent of the gross receipts from the activities, without any deduction for prizes paid or other expenses. The taxes shall be paid to the department of revenue and shall be deposited as provided in section 510 of this act.

(2) The taxes imposed in this section are in addition to any other tax imposed by law.

(3) Chapter 82.32 RCW, insofar as applicable, applies to the taxes imposed in this section. The tax due dates, reporting periods, and return requirements applicable to chapter 82.04 RCW apply equally to the taxes imposed in this section.

Sec. 502. Section 39, chapter 4, Laws of 1987 and RCW 9.46.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislative authority of any county, city-county, city, or town, by local law and ordinance, and in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and rules and regulations promulgated hereunder, may provide for the taxing of any gambling activity authorized by this chapter within its jurisdiction, the tax receipts to go to the county, city-county, city, or town so taxing the same: PROVIDED, That any such tax imposed by a county alone shall not apply to any gambling activity within a city or town located therein but the tax rate established by a county, if any, shall constitute the tax rate throughout the unincorporated areas of such county: PROVIDED FURTHER, That (1) punch boards and pull-tabs, chances on which shall only be sold to adults, which shall have a (~~fifty-cent~~) one dollar limit on a single chance thereon, shall be taxed on a basis which shall reflect only the gross receipts from such punch boards and pull-tabs; and (2) no punch board or pull-tab may award as a prize upon a winning number or symbol being drawn the opportunity of taking a chance upon any other punch board or pull-tab; and (3) all prizes for punch boards and pull-tabs must be on display within the immediate area of the premises wherein any such punch board or pull-tab is located and upon a winning number or symbol being drawn, such prize must be immediately removed therefrom, or such omission shall be deemed a fraud for the purposes of this chapter; and (4) when any person shall win over twenty dollars in money or merchandise from any punch board or pull-tab, every licensee hereunder shall keep a public record thereof for at least ninety days thereafter containing such information as the commission shall deem necessary: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That taxation of bingo and raffles shall never be in an amount greater than ten percent of the gross revenue received therefrom less the amount paid for or as prizes. Taxation of amusement games shall only be in an amount sufficient to pay the actual costs of enforcement of the provisions of this chapter by the county, city or town law enforcement agency and in no event shall such taxation exceed two percent of the gross revenue therefrom less the amount paid for as prizes: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no tax shall be imposed under the authority of this chapter on bingo, raffles or amusement games when such activities or any combination thereof are conducted by any bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization as defined in this chapter, which organization has no paid operating or management personnel and has gross income from bingo, raffles or amusement games, or any combination thereof, not exceeding five thousand dollars per year less the amount paid for as prizes. Taxation of punch boards and pull-tabs shall not exceed ~~((five))~~ three percent of gross receipts, nor shall taxation of social card games exceed ~~((twenty))~~ three percent of the gross revenue from such games.

Sec. 503. Section 11, chapter 166, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9.46.113 are each amended to read as follows:

Any county, city or town which collects a tax on gambling activities authorized pursuant to RCW 9.46.110 shall use the revenue from such tax ~~((primarily))~~ for the purpose of law enforcement ~~((of the provisions of this chapter by the county, city or town law enforcement agency))~~.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 504. A new section is added to chapter 67.70 RCW to read as follows:

(1) There is levied a state excise tax on the retail sale of lottery tickets and shares in this state by licensed lottery sales agents. The rate of the tax shall equal five percent of the selling price of the tickets or shares.

(2) All revenues collected under this section shall be deposited as provided in section 510 of this act.

(3) Chapter 82.32 RCW and RCW 82.08.050, insofar as applicable, apply to the tax imposed in this section. The tax due dates, reporting periods, and return requirements applicable to chapter 82.08 RCW apply equally to the tax imposed in this section.

(4) The department of revenue shall administer this section and may adopt rules to implement this section.

Sec. 505. Section 3, chapter 158, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 11, chapter 452, Laws of 1987 and RCW 66.24.210 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby imposed upon all wines sold to wine wholesalers and the Washington state liquor control board, within the state a tax at the rate of twenty and one-fourth cents per liter: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That wine sold or shipped in bulk from one winery to another winery shall not be subject to such tax. The tax provided for in this section may, if so prescribed by the board, be collected by means of stamps to be furnished by the board, or by direct payments based on wine purchased by wine wholesalers. Every person purchasing wine under the provisions of this section shall on or before the twentieth day of each month report to the board all purchases during the preceding calendar month in such manner and upon such forms as may be prescribed by the board, and with such report shall pay the tax due from the purchases covered by such report unless the same has previously been paid. Any such purchaser of wine whose applicable tax payment is not postmarked by the twentieth day following the month of purchase will be assessed a penalty at the rate of two percent a month or fraction thereof. If this tax be collected by means of stamps, every such person shall procure from the board revenue stamps representing the tax in such form as the board shall prescribe and shall affix the same to the package or container in such manner and in such denomination as required by the board and shall cancel the same prior to the delivery of the package or container containing the wine to the purchaser. If the tax is not collected by means of stamps, the board may require that every such person shall execute to and file with the board a bond to be approved by the board, in such amount as the board may fix, securing the payment of the tax. If any such person fails to pay the tax when due, the board may forthwith suspend or cancel the license until all taxes are paid.

(2) An additional tax is imposed equal to the rate specified in RCW 82.02.030 multiplied by the tax payable under subsection (1) of this section. All revenues collected during any month from this additional tax shall be transferred to the state general fund by the twenty-fifth day of the following month.

(3) An additional tax is imposed on wines subject to tax under subsection (1) of this section, at the rate of one-fourth of one cent per liter for wine sold after June 30, 1987. Such additional tax shall cease to be imposed on July 1, 1993. All revenues collected under this subsection (3) shall be disbursed quarterly to the Washington wine commission for use in carrying out the purposes of chapter 15.88 RCW.

(4) An additional tax is imposed on all wine subject to tax under subsection (1) of this section. The additional tax is equal to two and four-tenths cents per liter. All revenues collected during any month from this additional tax shall be deposited as provided in section 510 of this 1989 act by the twenty-fifth day of the following month.

Sec. 506. Section 24, chapter 62, Laws of 1933 ex. sess. as last amended by section 11, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 66.24.290 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any brewer or beer wholesaler licensed under this title may sell and deliver beer to holders of authorized licenses direct, but to no other person, other than the board; and every such brewer or beer wholesaler shall report all sales to the board monthly, pursuant to the regulations, and shall pay to the board as an added tax for the privilege of manufacturing and selling the beer within the state a tax of two dollars and sixty cents per barrel of thirty-one gallons on sales to licensees within the state and on sales to licensees within the state of bottled and canned beer shall pay a tax computed in gallons at the rate of two dollars and sixty cents per barrel of thirty-one gallons. Any brewer or beer wholesaler whose applicable tax payment is not postmarked by the twentieth day following the month of sale will be assessed a penalty at the rate of two percent per month or fraction thereof. Each such brewer or wholesaler shall procure from the board revenue stamps representing such tax in form prescribed by the board and shall affix the same to the barrel or package in such manner and in such denominations as required by the board, and shall cancel the same prior to commencing delivery from his place of business or warehouse of such barrels or packages. Beer shall be sold by brewers and wholesalers in sealed barrels or packages. The revenue stamps herein provided for need not be affixed and canceled in the making of resales of barrels or packages already taxed by the affixation and cancellation of stamps as provided in this section.

(2) An additional tax is imposed equal to the rate specified in RCW 82.02.030 multiplied by the tax payable under subsection (1) of this section. All revenues collected during any month from this additional tax shall be transferred to the state general fund by the twenty-fifth day of the following month.

(3) Until July 1, 1993, an additional tax is imposed on all beer subject to tax under subsection (1) of this section. The additional tax is equal to eighty-six cents per barrel of thirty-one gallons. All revenues collected during any month from this additional tax shall be deposited as provided in section 510 of this 1989 act by the twenty-fifth day of the following month.

(4) The tax imposed under this section shall not apply to 'strong beer' as defined in this title. Sec. 507. Section 82.08.150, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 12, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 82.08.150 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is levied and shall be collected a tax upon each retail sale of spirits, or strong beer in the original package at the rate of fifteen percent of the selling price. The tax imposed in this subsection shall apply to all such sales including sales by the Washington state liquor stores and agencies, but excluding sales to class H licensees.

(2) There is levied and shall be collected a tax upon each sale of spirits, or strong beer in the original package at the rate of ten percent of the selling price on sales by Washington state liquor stores and agencies to class H licensees.

(3) There is levied and shall be collected an additional tax upon each retail sale of spirits in the original package at the rate of one dollar and seventy-two cents per liter. The additional tax imposed in this subsection shall apply to all such sales including sales by Washington state liquor stores and agencies, and including sales to class H licensees.

(4) An additional tax is imposed equal to the rate specified in RCW 82.02.030 multiplied by the taxes payable under subsections (1), (2), and (3) of this section.

(5) Until July 1, 1993, an additional tax is imposed upon each retail sale of spirits in the original package at the rate of two and four-tenths cents per liter. The additional tax imposed in this subsection shall apply to all such sales including sales by Washington state liquor stores and agencies, and including sales to class H licensees. All revenues collected during any month from this additional tax shall be deposited as provided in section 510 of this 1989 act by the twenty-fifth day of the following month.

(6) The tax imposed in RCW 82.08.020, as now or hereafter amended, shall not apply to sales of spirits or strong beer in the original package.

~~((6))~~ (7) The taxes imposed in this section shall be paid by the buyer to the seller, and each seller shall collect from the buyer the full amount of the tax payable in respect to each taxable sale under this section. The taxes required by this section to be collected by the seller shall be stated separately from the selling price and for purposes of determining the tax due from the buyer to the seller, it shall be conclusively presumed that the selling price quoted in any price list does not include the taxes imposed by this section.

~~((7))~~ (8) As used in this section, the terms, 'spirits,' 'strong beer,' and 'package' shall have the meaning ascribed to them in chapter 66.04 RCW.

Sec. 508. Section 82.24.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 80, Laws of 1987 and RCW 82.24.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is levied and there shall be collected as hereinafter provided, a tax upon the sale, use, consumption, handling, possession or distribution of all cigarettes, in an amount equal to the rate of eleven and one-half mills per cigarette.

(2) Until July 1, 1993, an additional tax is imposed upon the sale, use, consumption, handling, possession, or distribution of all cigarettes, in an amount equal to the rate of one mill per cigarette. All revenues collected during any month from this additional tax shall be deposited as provided in section 510 of this 1989 act by the twenty-fifth day of the following month.

(3) Wholesalers and retailers subject to the payment of this tax may, if they wish, absorb one-half mill per cigarette of the tax and not pass it on to purchasers without being in violation of this section or any other act relating to the sale or taxation of cigarettes.

((3)) (4) For purposes of this chapter, 'possession' shall mean both (a) physical possession by the purchaser and (b) when cigarettes are being transported to or held for the purchaser or his designee by a person other than the purchaser, constructive possession by the purchaser or his designee, which constructive possession shall be deemed to occur at the location of the cigarettes being so transported or held.

Sec. 509. Section 82.26.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 16, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 82.26.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) From and after June 1, 1971, there is levied and there shall be collected a tax upon the sale, use, consumption, handling, or distribution of all tobacco products in this state at the rate of forty-five percent of the wholesale sales price of such tobacco products. Such tax shall be imposed at the time the distributor (a) brings, or causes to be brought, into this state from without the state tobacco products for sale, (b) makes, manufactures, or fabricates tobacco products in this state for sale in this state, or (c) ships or transports tobacco products to retailers in this state, to be sold by those retailers.

(2) An additional tax is imposed equal to the rate specified in RCW 82.02.030 multiplied by the tax payable under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) Until July 1, 1993, an additional tax is imposed upon the sale, use, consumption, handling, or distribution of all tobacco products subject to tax under subsection (1) of this section at the rate of three and five-tenths percent of the wholesale sales price of such tobacco products. All revenues collected during any month from this additional tax shall be deposited as provided in section 510 of this 1989 act by the twenty-fifth day of the following month.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 510. A new section is added to chapter 82.02 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The intent of this section is to terminate the dedication of tax revenues for the drug enforcement and education account, unless the legislature expressly extends the dedication by amendment of this section.

(2) All revenues collected under RCW 9.46.---(section 501 of this act), 66.24.210(4), 66.24.290(3), 67.70.---(section 504 of this act), 82.08.150(5), 82.24.020(2), and 82.26.020(3) shall be deposited in the drug enforcement and education account.

(3) The legislative budget committee shall cause to be conducted a program and fiscal review of all expenditures from the drug enforcement and education account. The review shall be completed no later than January 1, 1991. The review, and the legislature's consideration of the legislative budget committee's report after the review, shall be conducted in the manner provided in chapter 43.131 RCW.

PART VI MISCELLANEOUS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 601. A new section is added to chapter 69.50 RCW to read as follows:

The state of Washington fully occupies and preempts the entire field of setting penalties for violations of the controlled substances act. Cities, towns, and counties or other municipalities may enact only those laws and ordinances relating to controlled substances that are consistent with this chapter. Such local ordinances shall have the same penalties as provided for by state law. Local laws and ordinances that are inconsistent with the requirements of state law shall not be enacted and are preempted and repealed, regardless of the nature of the code, charter, or home rule status of the city, town, county, or municipality.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 602. The legislature ratifies the juvenile disposition standards commission guidelines submitted to the 1989 legislature and endorses the action to increase penalties for juvenile drug offenders.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 603. Part, subpart, and section headings and the index as used in this act do not constitute any part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 604. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 605. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately, except sections 506 through 510 of this act shall take effect June 1, 1989."
