MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 18, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5096 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 15.04 RCW to read as follows:

The history, economy, culture, and the future of Washington state to a large degree all involve agriculture, which is vital to the economic well-being of the state. The legislature finds that farmers and ranchers are responsible stewards of the land, but are increasingly subjected to complaints and unwarranted restrictions that encourage, and even force, the premature removal of lands from agricultural uses.

The legislature further finds that it is now in the overriding public interest that support for agriculture be clearly expressed and that adequate protection be given to agricultural lands, uses, activities, and operations.

The legislature further finds that the department of agriculture has a duty to promote and protect agriculture and its dependent rural community in Washington state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 15.04 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall seek to enhance, protect, and perpetuate the ability of the private sector to produce food and fiber. Additionally, the department shall seek to maintain the economic well-being of the agricultural industry and its dependent rural community in Washington state.

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "agriculture;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and adding new sections to chapter 15.04 RCW.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Barr, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5096 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 18, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5188 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Upon abandonment of a mobile home by a tenant or eviction of a tenant from a mobile home park space where the mobile home occupying that space is not subject to RCW 59.20.074, the landlord may store the mobile home on the mobile home lot or in the mobile park until removal of the mobile home as provided by law. The landlord may charge rent and reasonable expenses in the amount set forth in the rental agreement for occupancy of the mobile home lot or any other area in the mobile home park by the mobile home. Any rent or other reasonable expenses owed to the landlord pursuant to this section shall be paid to the landlord prior to removal of the mobile home from the mobile home park.

(2) This section shall not affect the availability of a landlord's lien as provided in chapter 60.72 RCW.

(3) For purposes of this section, "reasonable expenses" means any routine maintenance and utility charges for which the tenant is liable under the rental agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) Rules and regulations are enforceable against a tenant only if:

(a) Their purpose is to promote the convenience, safety, or welfare of the residents, protect and preserve the premises from abusive use, or make a fair distribution of services and facilities made available for the tenants generally;

(b) They are reasonably related to the purpose for which they are adopted;

(c) They apply to all tenants in a fair manner;

(d) They are not for the purpose of evading an obligation of the landlord;

(e) They are not retaliatory or discriminatory in nature; and

(f) They are sufficiently explicit in prohibition, direction, or limitation of the tenants' conduct to fairly inform the tenants of what the tenants must do to comply.

(2) At least thirty days' written notice must be provided to all tenants in the mobile home park before any changes, additions, deletions, or amendments to the rules and regulations can become effective unless the tenants consent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If the tenant fails to comply with RCW 59.20.140, and the noncompliance can substantially affect the health and safety of the tenant or other tenants, or substantially increase the hazards of fire or accident that can be remedied by repair, replacement of a damaged item, or cleaning, the tenant shall comply within fifteen days after the sending of written notice by the landlord specifying the noncompliance, or, in the case of emergency as promptly as conditions require. If the tenant fails to remedy the condition in noncompliance within that period the landlord may enter the mobile home lot and cause the work to be done in a skillful manner, and submit an itemized bill of the actual and reasonable cost of repair. The bill may be made payable on the next date when periodic rent is due, or on terms that are mutually agreed to by the landlord and tenant, or immediately if the tenancy is terminated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A tenant may not sublet or assign his or her tenancy in the mobile home park without the express written consent of the landlord unless a greater right is conferred in the rental agreement. The landlord shall approve or disapprove of the subletting or the assignment on the same basis that the landlord approves or disapproves of any new tenant. Notice of approval or disapproval shall be given in writing within five working days of receiving a written request from the tenant. The landlord may not unreasonably withhold consent. Transfers of rental agreements when the tenant sells or transfers title of the mobile home are governed by RCW 59.20.073.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) If a court finds as a matter of law that:

(a) A rental agreement, or any clause of it, was unconscionable at the time it was made, it may refuse to enforce the rental agreement or it may enforce the remainder of the rental agreement without the unconscionable clause. The court may also limit the application of the unconscionable clause to avoid any unconscionable result.

(b) A settlement in which a party waives or agrees to forego a claim or right under this chapter or under the rental agreement was unconscionable at the time it was made, the court may refuse to enforce the settlement, or it may enforce the remainder of the settlement without the unconscionable provision. The court may also limit the application of any unconscionable provision to avoid an unconscionable result.

(2) When it is claimed or appears to the court that the rental agreement or settlement, or any clause of it, may be unconscionable, the parties shall be afforded an opportunity to present evidence as to the setting, purpose, and effect to aid the court in making its determination.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If a landlord intentionally causes the termination or interruption of any tenant's utility services, including water, heat, electricity, or gas, except when an interruption of a reasonable duration is required to make necessary repairs, then the tenant may require the restoration of the utility services or terminate the rental agreement, and in either case maintain an action for damages. Damages shall be the actual damages sustained, and up to one hundred dollars for each day or part thereof the tenant is deprived of any utility service.

A landlord shall give the tenants at least twenty-four hours' notice in writing whenever possible when planned repairs of a utility service which the mobile home park provides will cause an interruption of the utility service.

It shall be unlawful for a tenant to intentionally cause the termination or interruption of utility services provided by the landlord, including water, heat, electricity, or gas, excepting as resulting from the normal occupancy of the premises. If a tenant intentionally causes the termination or interruption of utility services in violation of this section, the tenant shall be liable for any actual damages sustained, and up to one hundred dollars for each day or part thereof that the utility services are unavailable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) If a landlord uses a rental agreement containing provisions known by the landlord to be prohibited under RCW 59.20.060(2), then the tenant may recover actual damages sustained or one hundred dollars, whichever is greater.

(2) If a landlord violates the right of entry provided in RCW 59.20.130(7), after receiving notice from the tenant in writing of a violation of this right, then the tenant may recover actual damages or one hundred dollars, whichever is greater, for each violation.

(3) If a landlord retaliates against a tenant in violation of RCW 59.20.070(4), a court in its discretion may award an amount not to exceed five hundred dollars for each violation in addition to actual damages sustained.

(4) If a landlord violates other provisions of RCW 59.20.070, then the tenant may recover actual damages or one hundred dollars, whichever is greater, for each violation.

(5) A tenant may recover his or her actual damages when the landlord violates other provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Any person who violates the terms of a restraining order or an injunction issued by a court to prevent violations of this chapter, or any of the terms of an assurance of voluntary compliance duly filed in court, shall pay to the court a civil penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars for each violation. For the purposes of this section, the court issuing the restraining order or injunction, or in which an assurance of voluntary compliance is filed, shall retain jurisdiction over the action.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The attorney general may bring an action in the name of the state against any person to restrain and prevent the doing of any act prohibited or declared to be unlawful in this chapter. The prevailing party may, in the discretion of the court, recover the costs of the action including a reasonable attorney's fee.

Sec. 10. RCW 59.20.080 and 1989 c 201 s 12 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (~~Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the~~) A landlord shall not terminate a tenancy, of whatever duration except for one or more of the following reasons:

(a) Substantial violation, or repeated or periodic violations of the rules of the mobile home park as established by the landlord at the inception of the tenancy or as assumed subsequently with the consent of the tenant or for violation of the tenant's duties as provided in RCW 59.20.140. The tenant shall be given written notice to cease the rule violation immediately. The notice shall state that failure to cease the violation of the rule or any subsequent violation of that or any other rule shall result in termination of the tenancy, and that the tenant shall vacate the premises within fifteen days: PROVIDED, That for a periodic violation the notice shall also specify that repetition of the same violation shall result in termination: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in the case of a violation of a "material change" in park rules with respect to pets, tenants with minor children living with them, or recreational facilities, the tenant shall be given written notice under this chapter of a six month period in which to comply or vacate;

(b) Nonpayment of rent or other charges specified in the rental agreement, upon five days written notice to pay rent and/or other charges or to vacate;

(c) Conviction of the tenant of a crime, commission of which threatens the health, safety, or welfare of the other mobile home park tenants. The tenant shall be given written notice of a fifteen day period in which to vacate;

(d) Failure of the tenant to comply with local ordinances and state laws and regulations relating to mobile homes or mobile home living within a reasonable time after the tenant's receipt of notice of such noncompliance from the appropriate governmental agency;

(e) Change of land use of the mobile home park including, but not limited to, conversion to a use other than for mobile homes or conversion of the mobile home park to a mobile home park cooperative or mobile home park subdivision: PROVIDED, That the landlord shall give the tenants twelve months' notice in advance of the effective date of such change, except that for the period of six months following April 28, 1989, the landlord shall give the tenants eighteen months' notice in advance of the proposed effective date of such change;

(f) Engaging in "drug-related activity." "Drug-related activity" means that activity which constitutes a violation of chapter 69.41, 69.50, or 69.52 RCW. A park owner seeking to evict a tenant pursuant to this subsection need not produce evidence of a criminal conviction, even if the alleged misconduct constitutes a criminal offense. Notice from a law enforcement agency of drug activity pursuant to RCW 59.20.155 shall constitute sufficient grounds, but not the only grounds, for an eviction under this subsection. If drug-related activity is alleged to be a basis of termination, the park owner may proceed directly to an unlawful detainer action; or

(g) The tenant's application for tenancy contained a material misstatement which induced the park owner to approve the tenant as a resident of the park, and the park owner discovers and acts upon the misstatement within one year of the time the resident began paying rent.

~~(2) ((A landlord may terminate any tenancy without cause. Such termination shall be effective twelve months from the date the landlord serves notice of termination upon the tenant or at the end of the current tenancy, whichever is later. PROVIDED, That a landlord shall not terminate a tenancy for any reason or basis which is prohibited under RCW 59.20.070 (3) or (4) or is intended to circumvent the provisions of (1)(e) of this section.~~

~~(3)) Within five days of a notice of eviction as required by subsection (1)(a) ((or (2))) of this section, the landlord and tenant shall submit any dispute((, including the decision to terminate the tenancy without cause,)) to mediation. The parties may agree in writing to mediation by an independent third party or through industry mediation procedures. If the parties cannot agree, then mediation shall be through industry mediation procedures. A duty is imposed upon both parties to participate in the mediation process in good faith for a period of ten days for an eviction under subsection (1)(a) of this section((, or for a period of thirty days for an eviction under subsection (2) of this section)). It is a defense to an eviction under subsection (1)(a) ((or (2))) of this section that a landlord did not participate in the mediation process in good faith.~~

Sec. 11. RCW 59.20.090 and 1980 c 152 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Unless otherwise agreed rental agreements shall be for a term of one year. Any rental agreement of whatever duration shall be automatically renewed for the term of the original rental agreement, unless((:

(a)) a different specified term is agreed upon((; or

~~(b) The landlord serves notice of termination without cause upon the tenant prior to the expiration of the rental agreement: PROVIDED, That under such circumstances, at the expiration of the prior rental agreement the tenant shall be considered a month-to-month tenant upon the same terms as in the prior rental agreement until the tenancy is terminated).~~

(2) A landlord seeking to increase the rent upon expiration of the term of a rental agreement of any duration shall notify the tenant in writing three months prior to the effective date of any increase in rent((: PROVIDED, That if a landlord serves a tenant with notice of a rental increase at the same time or subsequent to serving the tenant with notice of termination without cause, such rental increase shall not become effective until the date the tenant is required to vacate the leased premises pursuant to the notice of termination or three months from the date notice of rental increase is served, whichever is later)).

(3) A tenant shall notify the landlord in writing one month prior to the expiration of a rental agreement of an intention not to renew.

(4)(a) The tenant may terminate the rental agreement upon thirty days written notice whenever a change in the location of the tenant's employment requires a change in his residence, and shall not be liable for rental following such termination unless after due diligence and reasonable effort the landlord is not able to rent the mobile home lot at a fair rental. If the landlord is not able to rent the lot, the tenant shall remain liable for the rental specified in the rental agreement until the lot is rented or the original term ends;

(b) Any tenant who is a member of the armed forces may terminate a rental agreement with less than thirty days notice if he receives reassignment orders which do not allow greater notice.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 48.18 RCW to read as follows:

Any application taken for property insurance covering a mobile home situated in a mobile home park shall include the name and address of the mobile home park owner. Contemporaneous with the payment of any claim for physical damage to the insured mobile home, the insurer shall notify the owner of the mobile home park, in writing, of such payment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 1 through 9 of this act are each added to chapter 59.20 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "relations;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 59.20.080 and 59.20.090; adding a new section to chapter 48.18 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 59.20 RCW; and prescribing penalties.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5116 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 18, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5753 with the following amendments:

On page 4, line 13, strike "thirty days following the effective date of this act." and insert "July 1, 1991."

On page 5, after line 11, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect on July 1, 1991."

ReNUMBER sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

On page 1, line 2 of the title, strike "and" and on line 3, after "sections" insert "; and adding an emergency clause"

On page 5, after line 11, insert:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Unless both chapter ....., Laws of 1991 (SHB 1250) and chapter ....., Laws of 1991 (SHB 1850) are enacted before July 1, 1991, this act shall be null and void.

ReNUMBER sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

ReNUMBER sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly., and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Metcalf, the Senate concurred in the House amendments on page 4, line 13, page 5, lines 4 and 11, (This Act is Necessary) to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5753.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Metcalf: "Mr. President, I rise to a point of order. The second amendment on page 5, after line 11, is beyond the scope and object of the bill. What this amendment does is to tie the passage of this bill to the passage of two other bills. This says the bill is null and void unless two other bills before this Legislature are passed. Not only is that outside the scope and object of the bill, but it is certainly bad practice to try to tie passage of bills to passage of other bills with null and void clauses. It is bad practice, as well as completely outside the scope and object."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Metcalf, the President finds that Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5753 is a measure which, among other things, directs the Department of Wildlife to prepare a report to the Legislature on upland birds and makes changes to upland game bird permits.

"The House amendment on page 5, after line 11 (null and void clause), would render the bill null and void unless certain other bills pass the Legislature.

"The President, therefore, finds that any amendment which purports to make another bill null and void unless certain other non-appropriation bills pass the Legislature, expands the scope and object of the original bill and the point is well taken."

The House amendment on page 5, after line 11 (null and void clause), to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill 5753 was ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate concurred in the House amendments on page 4, line 13, and page 5, lines 4 and 11 (This Act is Necessary), and refuses to concur in the House amendment on page 5, after line 11 (null and void clause) to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5753.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "A parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. In light of your ruling with respect to the scope and object of an amendment that ties the passage of a bill to the passage of other bills, is the President, then, ruling with respect to an appropriations bill null and void clauses--that such an effort that would tie the passage of a substantive piece of legislation, a change in substantive law, necessarily to an appropriations bill? Is that also outside the scope and object if the substantive law provisions has nothing to do with the fiscal needs of an omnibus appropriations bill?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "In this ruling here, I say, 'Unless certain other non-appropriation bills pass the Legislature.'"

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, I will renew the point of order if the time comes up, but it occurs to me, in light of the President's ruling, what you are saying is that you can't tie the passage of one bill to the passage of others. I can understand the necessity of tying the passage of a bill to the passage of funding for it, but if the passage of the budget bill has nothing to do with the substantive change in law that is in a bill, I would submit that under your ruling that null and void clause would be invalid."

President Pritchard: "We'll take that up at the appropriate time, Senator. I appreciate your raising the point."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 9, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5318 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A joint select committee on money laundering shall study criminal money laundering activity and report its findings, and any recommended legislation, to the legislature on or before December 31, 1991. The joint select committee on money laundering shall consist of eight members, four senators, two from each of the major caucuses, who are appointed by the president of the senate, and four representatives, two from each of the major caucuses, who are appointed by the speaker of the house.

The study shall include input from interested parties, including the criminal defense bar, prosecutors, the attorney general's office, business and professional groups, and state and federal law enforcement agencies."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "laundering;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and creating a new section.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator von Reichbauer moved that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5318 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5318 was deferred.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Bauer: "Mr. President, for clarification, so we don't get into this problem all through this next week, when Senator Nelson and I and Senator Oke--we go over the ones that our caucuses have gone over and agreed that they are not going to concur or concur and this is the second one today already that has come up that's different from what Senator Nelson and I talked about, so it just makes it very confusing. When we run into one that is being proposed here that we haven't talked about, we are going to have to ask that it be held down."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "I would urge the leaders to work these things out. We are working off of public lists and I assumed that it had been worked out."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 16, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5477 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

As used in RCW 41.04.005, 41.04.010, 41.16.220, and 41.20.050 "veteran" includes every person, who at the time he or she seeks the benefits of RCW 28B.40.361, 41.04.005, 41.04.010, 41.16.220, 41.20.050, 41.40.170, 73.04.110, or 73.08.080 has received an honorable discharge or received a discharge for physical reasons with an honorable record and (~~(1) Has served in any branch of the armed forces of the United States between World War I and World War II or during any period of war; or (2) has served in any branch of the armed forces of the United States and has received the armed forces expeditionary medal, or Marine Corps and Navy expeditionary medal, for opposed action on foreign soil~~) who meets at least one of the following two criteria:

(1) The person has served between World War I and World War II or during any period of war as either (a) a member in any branch of the armed forces of the United States, (b) a member of the women's air forces service pilots, or (c) a merchant seaman or crew member employed during the period of armed conflict, December 7, 1941, to August 15, 1945, by the war shipping administration, the office of defense transportation, the United States army transport service, or the naval transportation service; or

(2) The person has received the armed forces expeditionary medal, or marine corps and navy expeditionary medal, for opposed action on foreign soil, for service (a) in any branch of the armed forces of the United States; or (b) as a member of the women's air forces service pilots.

A "period of war" includes World War I, World War II, the Korean conflict, the Vietnam era, and the period beginning on the date of any future declaration of war by the congress and ending on the date prescribed by presidential proclamation or concurrent resolution of the congress. The "Vietnam era" means the period beginning August 5, 1964, and ending on May 7, 1975.

Sec. 2. RCW 72.36.035 and 1977 ex.s. c 186 s 11 are each amended to read as follows:

For purposes of this chapter, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, "actual bona fide residents of this state" shall mean persons who have a domicile in the state of Washington immediately prior to application for membership in the soldiers' home or colony or veterans' home. The term "domicile" shall mean a person's true, fixed, and permanent home and place of habitation, and shall be the place where the person intends to remain, and to which the person expects to return when the person leaves without intending to establish a new domicile elsewhere. "Veteran" has the same meaning established in RCW 41.04.005.

Sec. 3. RCW 73.04.090 and 1974 ex.s. c 171 s 45 are each amended to read as follows:

All benefits, advantages or emoluments, not available upon equal terms to all citizens, including but not being limited to preferred rights to public employment, civil service preference, exemption from license fees or other impositions, preference in purchasing state property and special pension or retirement rights, which by any law of this state have been made specially available to war veterans or to persons who have served in the armed forces or defense forces of the United States, shall be available only to persons who have been subject to full and continuous military control and discipline as actual members of the federal armed forces. Service with such forces in a civilian capacity, or in any capacity wherein a person retained the right to terminate his or her service or to refuse full obedience to military superiors, shall not be the basis for eligibility for such benefits. Service in any of the following shall not for purposes of this section be considered as military service: The office of emergency services or any component thereof; the American Red Cross; the United States Coast Guard Auxiliary; United States Coast Guard Reserve Temporary; United States Coast and Geodetic Survey; American Field Service; Civil Air Patrol; Cadet Nurse Corps, and any other similar organization. Other similar organizations do not include any groups defined as "veterans" in RCW 41.04.005.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "veterans;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and amending RCW 41.04.005, 72.36.035, and 73.04.090.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Nelson, maybe you can give us a description of what agencies we are talking about here. I would presume the National Labor Relations Board, the PERC and some others may be affected by this amendment. It seems to me the amendment made some sense."

Senator Nelson: "That is exactly the problem that we do have--the National Relations Board and we do have the Public Employees Relations Commission who, in fact, had been the one originally to request the amendment in the House. It doesn't specify whether or not it is a state or federal agency that you would now direct the American Arbitration Association to apply the amendment."

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5167 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A juvenile issues task force is created to review the operation of the 1977 Juvenile Justice Act, the Family Reconciliation Act, the 1990 "at-risk" youth legislation, and to study related issues. The task force is charged with issuing a report and making recommendations to the legislature by December 15, 1991.

The task force shall consist of the following members:

(1) Three co-chairs, one from the state senate appointed by the president of the senate; one from the state house of representatives appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives; and one appointed by the governor from among the members of the task force named in subsection (3) of this section.

(2) Eight legislators in addition to the two legislative cochairmen selected under subsection (1) of this section, two each from the majority and minority caucuses of the senate and two each from the majority and minority caucuses of the house of representatives.

(3) The governor shall appoint the following members of the task force:

- (a) Three superior court judges;
- (b) Two prosecuting attorneys;
- (c) Two juvenile public defenders;
- (d) The secretary of social and health services or the secretary's designee;
- (e) Two juvenile court administrators;
- (f) One police chief or county sheriff;
- (g) One child psychologist;
- (h) One child psychiatrist;
- (i) Two directors of a youth organization;
- (j) One person from the Washington council on crime and delinquency;
- (k) One person from a parents' organization;
- (l) One person from a crisis residential center;
- (m) One juvenile court caseworker;
- (n) One representative of the executive branch;
- (o) One member of the mental health treatment community; and
- (p) One member from the substance abuse treatment community.

The department of social and health services shall fund the task force in an amount sufficient to meet its mission. The task force shall be staffed, to the extent possible, by staff available from the membership of the task force.

The governor shall ensure that the racial diversity of the task force membership appointed by the governor reflects the racial diversity of juveniles served under the Family Reconciliation Act, the 1977 Juvenile Justice Act, and the 1990 "at-risk" youth legislation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The department of social and health services, in cooperation with the commission on African American affairs, shall contract for an independent study of racial disproportionality in the juvenile justice system. The study shall identify key decision points in the juvenile justice system where race and/or ethnicity-based disproportionality exists in the treatment and incarceration of juvenile offenders. The study shall identify the causes of disproportionality, and propose new policies and procedures to address disproportionality.

The department shall submit the study's preliminary findings and recommendations to the juvenile justice task force established under section 1 of this act by September 13, 1991. The final report shall be submitted to the appropriate committees of the legislature by December 1, 1991.

The juvenile justice task force shall utilize the information on disproportionality in developing its report and recommendations to the legislature required under section 1 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "justice;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "creating new sections; and declaring an emergency.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

Senator Nelson moved that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5167 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Nelson that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5167 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

The motion by Senator Nelson carried and the Senate did not concur in the House amendments to Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5167 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 11, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5825 with the following amendments:

On page 15, after line 10, insert the following:

Sec. 3. RCW 9.41.070 and 1990 c 195 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The judge of a court of record, the chief of police of a municipality, or the sheriff of a county, shall within thirty days after the filing of an application of any person issue a license to such person to carry a pistol concealed on his or her person within this state for four years from date of issue, for the purposes of protection or while engaged in business, sport, or while traveling. However, if the applicant does not have a valid permanent Washington driver's license or Washington state identification card or has not been a resident of the state for the previous consecutive ninety days, the issuing authority shall have up to sixty days after the filing of the application to issue a license. Such applicant's constitutional right to bear arms shall not be denied (~~(to him)~~), unless he or she:

- (a) Is ineligible to own a pistol under the provisions of RCW 9.41.040; or
- (b) Is under twenty-one years of age; or
- (c) Is subject to a court order or injunction regarding firearms pursuant to RCW 10.99.040, 10.99.045, or 26.09.060; or
- (d) Is free on bond or personal recognizance pending trial, appeal, or sentencing for a crime of violence; or
- (e) Has an outstanding warrant for his or her arrest from any court of competent jurisdiction for a felony or misdemeanor; or
- (f) Has been ordered to forfeit a firearm under RCW 9.41.098(1)(d) within one year before filing an application to carry a pistol concealed on his or her person; or
- (g) Is ineligible under federal law to possess a weapon.

The license shall be revoked by the issuing authority immediately upon conviction of a crime which makes such a person ineligible to own a pistol or upon the third conviction for a violation of this chapter within five calendar years.

(2) Upon an order to forfeit a firearm under RCW 9.41.098(1)(d) the ~~((license))~~ issuing authority shall:

- (a) On the first forfeiture, ~~((be revoked by the department of licensing))~~ revoke the license for one year;
- (b) On the second forfeiture, ~~((be revoked by the department of licensing))~~ revoke the license for two years;
- (c) On the third or subsequent forfeiture, ~~((be revoked by the department of licensing))~~ revoke the license for five years.

Any person whose license is revoked as a result of a forfeiture of a firearm under RCW 9.41.098(1)(d) may not reapply for a new license until the end of the revocation period. The issuing authority shall notify, in writing, the department of licensing upon revocation of a license. The department of licensing shall record the revocation.

The license shall be in triplicate, in form to be prescribed by the department of licensing, and shall bear the name, address, and description, fingerprints, and signature of the licensee, and the licensee's driver's license number or state identification card number if used for identification in applying for the license. The license application shall contain a warning substantially as follows:

CAUTION: Although state and local laws do not differ, federal law and state law on the possession of firearms differ. If you are prohibited by federal law from possessing a firearm, you may be prosecuted in federal court. A state license is not a defense to a federal prosecution.

The license application shall contain a description of the major differences between state and federal law and an explanation of the fact that local laws and ordinances on firearms are preempted by state law and must be consistent with state law. The application shall contain questions about the applicant's place of birth, whether the applicant is a United States citizen, and if not a citizen whether the applicant has declared the intent to become a citizen and whether he or she has been required to register with the state or federal government and any identification or registration number, if applicable. The applicant shall not be required to produce a birth certificate or other evidence of citizenship. An applicant who is not a citizen shall provide documentation showing resident alien status and the applicant's intent to become a citizen. A person who makes a false statement regarding citizenship on the application is guilty of a misdemeanor. A person who is not a citizen of the United States, or has not declared his or her intention to become a citizen shall meet the additional requirements of RCW 9.41.170.

The original thereof shall be delivered to the licensee, the duplicate shall within seven days be sent by registered mail to the director of licensing and the triplicate shall be preserved for six years, by the authority issuing said license.

(3) The fee for the original issuance of a four-year license shall be twenty-three dollars: PROVIDED, That no other additional charges by any branch or unit of government shall be borne by the applicant for the issuance of the license: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the fee shall be distributed as follows:

(a) Four dollars shall be paid to the state general fund;

(b) Four dollars shall be paid to the agency taking the fingerprints of the person licensed;

(c) Twelve dollars shall be paid to the issuing authority for the purpose of enforcing this chapter; and

(d) Three dollars to the firearms range account in the general fund.

(4) The fee for the renewal of such license shall be fifteen dollars: PROVIDED, That no other additional charges by any branch or unit of government shall be borne by the applicant for the renewal of the license: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the fee shall be distributed as follows:

(a) Four dollars shall be paid to the state general fund;

(b) Eight dollars shall be paid to the issuing authority for the purpose of enforcing this chapter; and

(c) Three dollars to the firearms range account in the general fund.

(5) Payment shall be by cash, check, or money order at the option of the applicant. Additional methods of payment may be allowed at the option of the issuing authority.

(6) A licensee may renew a license if the licensee applies for renewal within ninety days before or after the expiration date of the license. A license so renewed shall take effect on the expiration date of the prior license. A licensee renewing after the expiration date of the license must pay a late renewal penalty of ten dollars in addition to the renewal fee specified in subsection (4) of this section. The fee shall be distributed as follows:

(a) Three dollars shall be deposited in the state wildlife fund and used exclusively for the printing and distribution of a pamphlet on the legal limits of the use of firearms, firearms safety, and the preemptive nature of state law. The pamphlet shall be given to each applicant for a license; and

(b) Seven dollars shall be paid to the issuing authority for the purpose of enforcing this chapter.

(7) Notwithstanding the requirements of subsections (1) through (6) of this section, the chief of police of the municipality or the sheriff of the county of the applicant's residence may issue a temporary emergency license for good cause pending review under subsection (1) of this section.

(8) A political subdivision of the state shall not modify the requirements of this section or chapter, nor may a political subdivision ask the applicant to voluntarily submit any information not required by this section. A civil suit may be brought to enjoin a wrongful refusal to issue a license or a wrongful modification of the requirements of this section or chapter. The civil suit may be brought in the county in which the application was made or in Thurston county at the discretion of the petitioner. Any person who prevails against a public agency in any action in the courts for a violation of this chapter shall be awarded costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred in connection with such legal action.

On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "9.94A.120" insert "and 9.41.070", and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Nelson: "A point of order, Mr. President. I would like the President to rule on the scope and object of the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5825."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Vognild: "Mr. President, a point of order. The amendment is not before the body, therefore, the point of order of scope and object is not properly before the body."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "Maybe you can explain your position, Senator."

Senator Vognild: "Well, Mr. President, there are procedures that should be used on this floor that are proper and make the flow of the floor work properly and I think we should start using them. You cannot, in my opinion at least, raise a scope and object on a question that is not before the body. The amendment has not been brought before the body. A simple, positive motion to concur would bring the measure before the body and at which time a scope and object is, in fact, proper.

"With the ruling of the Chair, either the amendment stays before the body, if your ruling is against the point, or the motion then properly is to not concur with it and, therefore, pull it back and accept the ruling of the Chair. What my concern is, is that if we are going to start raising points of order on subjects that are not before this floor, then we are going to have a field day out here and nobody is going to know what is going on."

President Pritchard: "Senator, when they read a Message from the House and they put it before the body, then the measure is before the body to be worked on."

Senator Vognild: "Mr. President, the measure was never put before the body. The message was read."

President Pritchard: "Well, I think when he makes the motion to take up the bill, I think that puts the measure before the body. I believe your point of order is not well taken."

Senator Vognild: "Mr. President, the simple motion to not concur could be made. In which case, there is no point of order. That is the problem I am trying to deal with--a motion to not concur and send it back. What we desire to do, and I concur with the desire, is to send the House a message that we will not accept this on a point of order that it is beyond the scope and object. I sincerely believe that in order to be able to do that, we have to put that amendment before this body in a positive sense. We are going to face this more as we get into multiple amendments which is why I raise it now."

President Pritchard: "I'm going to have the attorneys do a little talk here, Senator, if you don't mind--yours and ours."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talmadge: "An additional point, if I could. We on the floor do not have in our possession the actual copies of the amendments. We don't have the bills before us nor the amendments, so if we are having a ruling on an amendment to a Senate Bill that none of us have in our possession, we are arguing that essentially the summary that is in the green sheet that is before us and if there is a point of order--a scope and object point of order--it would be real helpful for us to at least be able to see the wording of the bill and the wording of the amendment to be able to relate to. We can go up here and look, but it would be useful to have in our possession."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

Senator Vognild moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5825.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Nelson: "Now, the bill and the amendment are both before us, I would rise to a point of order. I would ask the President to rule on the scope and object of the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5825. The original content of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5825, submitted as a request from the Department of Corrections, is to restrict offenders who are on community supervision from possessing fire arms of any kind. The House has added an amendment that is essentially a bill that was considered by this Legislature dealing with concealed weapons permits and subjecting the state of Washington to default to all federal statutes dealing with concealed weapons permits. It has nothing to do with the possession of fire arms by offenders on community supervision. It is a totally different statute and it is far beyond the scope and object of the original measure."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Nelson, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5825 is a measure which prohibits offenders under the supervision of the Department of Corrections from possessing firearms or ammunition, as a part of the sentence condition.

"The House amendments would change the requirements of a concealed weapons permit by adding a restriction against persons who are ineligible under federal law to possess a weapon.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments do change the scope and object of the bill and the point is well taken."

The House amendment on page 15, after line 10, and the title amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill 5825 were ruled out of order.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, and there being no objection, the motion to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5825 was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5825 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MOTION

At 11:24 a.m., on motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 11:46 a.m. by President Pritchard.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5982 by Senators McDonald, Roach, Johnson, McCaslin, Gaspard, Rinehart, Murray, Hayner, Wojahn and Snyder (by request of Governor Gardner and Superintendent of Public Instruction)

Replacing federal funding for free and reduced meals during the teachers' work stoppage.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McDonald, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 5982 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Saling: "Senator McDonald, if this bill passes, will the money to pay for this come out of the same funds that could be used for increasing teacher's salaries or decreasing class loads?"

Senator McDonald: "Yes, indeed, it all comes out of the general fund, so that two million, if it is spent, would come out of that fund and would decrease our ability to react to those issues."

Senator Saling: "All right, thank you very much. I was under the impression that it would decrease the chances of getting some of the other kinds of things done. I also have one other thought. I recognize that there are a number of children who do receive free or reduced cost lunches in our schools. My other question is, who feeds them during the summer time?"

Senator McDonald did not respond.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Gaspard: "Senator McDonald, the House has passed their version of the Supplemental Budget and in that budget they have provided for an amendment to the budget that you have passed out in the Senate here which would appropriate approximately the two million dollars that is necessary to implement this program. Is it your intent, when that budget is then before us here shortly, that you would concur in that amendment, so that this program could be funded also in the supplemental program?"

Senator McDonald: "I don't think there is any use to do it in two places. It is the same money. I think this supercedes that."

Senator Gaspard: "You would do which ever would be the most expedient?"

Senator McDonald: "That is correct."

Senator Newhouse demanded a roll call in order to comply with Article II, Section 36, of the State Constitution to consider Senate Bill No. 5982 which was introduced earlier today.

The demand for a roll call was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Newhouse to comply with Article II, Section 36, of the State Constitution.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the Senate complied to Article II, Section 36, with the following two-thirds vote of the members: Yeas, 42; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 7.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Cantu, Erwin, Gaspard, Hansen, Hayner, Jesernig, Johnson, M. Kreidler, Madsen, Matson, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Murray, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Oke, Patterson, Pelz, Rinehart, Roach, Saling, Skratek, A. Smith, L. Smith, Snyder, Sutherland, Talmadge, Thorsness, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West, Williams, Wojahn - 42.

Excused: Senators Conner, Craswell, McCaslin, Owen, Rasmussen, Sellar, Stratton - 7.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5982.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 7.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Cantu, Erwin, Gaspard, Hansen, Hayner, Jesernig, Johnson, M. Kreidler, Madsen, Matson, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Murray, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Oke, Patterson, Pelz, Rinehart, Roach, Saling, Skratek, A. Smith, L. Smith, Snyder, Sutherland, Talmadge, Thorsness, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West, Williams, Wojahn - 42.

Excused: Senators Conner, Craswell, McCaslin, Owen, Rasmussen, Sellar, Stratton - 7.

SENATE BILL NO. 5982, having received the constitutional majority was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

At 12:02 p.m., on motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 1:30 p.m. by President Pritchard.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 10, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5628 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

Sec. 1. RCW 60.11.010 and 1986 c 242 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Crop" means all products of the soil either growing or cropped, cut, or gathered which require annual planting, harvesting, or cultivating. A crop does not include vegetation produced by the powers of nature alone, nursery stock, or vegetation intended as a permanent enhancement of the land itself.

(2) "Handler" means a person: Who prepares an orchard crop for market for the account of, or as agent for, the producer of the crop, which preparation includes, but is not limited to, receiving, storing, packing, marketing, selling, or delivering the orchard crop; and who takes delivery of the crop from the producer of the crop or from another handler. "Handler" does not include a person who solely transports the crop from the producer to another person.

(3) "Landlord" means a person who leases or subleases to a tenant real property upon which crops are growing or will be grown.

((3)) (4) "Orchard crop" means cherries, peaches, nectarines, plums or prunes, pears, apricots, and apples.

(5) "Secured party" and "security interest" have the same meaning as used in the Uniform Commercial Code, Title 62A RCW.

((4)) (6) "Supplier" includes, but is not limited to, a person who furnishes seed, furnishes and/or applies commercial fertilizer, pesticide, fungicide, weed killer, or herbicide, including spraying and dusting, upon the land of the grower or landowner, or furnishes any work or labor upon the land of the grower or landowner including tilling, preparing for the growing of crops, sowing, planting, cultivating, cutting, digging, picking, pulling, or otherwise harvesting any crop grown thereon, or in gathering, securing, or housing any crop grown thereon, or in threshing any grain or hauling to any warehouse any crop or grain grown thereon.

~~((5))~~ (7) "Lien debtor" means the person who is obligated or owes payment or other performance. If the lien debtor and the owner of the collateral are not the same person, "lien debtor" means the owner of the collateral.

~~((6))~~ (8) "Lien holder" means a person who, by statute, has acquired a lien on the property of the lien debtor, or such person's successor in interest.

Sec. 2. RCW 60.11.020 and 1986 c 242 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A landlord whose lease or other agreement with the tenant provides for cash rental payment shall have a lien upon all crops grown upon the demised land in which the landlord has an interest for no more than one year's rent due or to become due within six months following harvest. A landlord with a crop share agreement has an interest in the growing crop which shall not be encumbered by crop liens except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section.

(2) A supplier shall have a lien upon all crops for which the supplies are used or applied to secure payment of the purchase price of the supplies and/or services performed: PROVIDED, That the landlord's interest in the crop shall only be subject to the lien for the amount obligated to be paid by the landlord if prior written consent of the landlord is obtained or if the landlord has agreed in writing with the tenant to pay or be responsible for a portion of the supplies and/or services provided by the lien holder.

(3) A handler shall have a lien on all orchard crops delivered by the lien debtor or another handler to the handler and on all proceeds of the orchard crops for: (a) All customary charges for the ordinary and necessary handling of the crop, including but not limited to charges for transporting, receiving, inspecting, materials and supplies furnished, washing, waxing, sorting, packing, storing, promoting, marketing, selling, advertising, insuring, or otherwise handling the lien debtor's crop; and (b) reasonable cooperative per unit retainages, and for all governmental or quasi-governmental assessments imposed by statute, ordinance, or government regulation. Charges shall not include direct or indirect advances or extensions of credit to lien debtor.

Sec. 3. RCW 60.11.030 and 1986 c 242 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon filing, the liens described in RCW 60.11.020 (1) and (2) shall attach to the crop for all sums then and thereafter due and owing the lien holder and shall continue in all identifiable cash proceeds of the crop.

(2) Upon the delivery of an orchard crop by the lien debtor, without the necessity of filing, the lien for charges as set forth in RCW 60.11.020(3) shall attach to the delivered crop and shall continue in both the crop and all proceeds of the crop.

Sec. 4. RCW 60.11.040 and 1989 c 229 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section with respect to the lien of a landlord, and except for the lien of a handler as provided in RCW 60.11.020(3), any lien holder must after the commencement of delivery of such supplies and/or of provision of such services, but before the completion of the harvest of the crops for which the lien is claimed, or in the case of a lien for furnishing work or labor within twenty days after the cessation of the work or labor for which the lien is claimed: (a) File a statement evidencing the lien with the department of licensing; and (b) if the lien holder is to be allowed costs, disbursements, and attorneys' fees, mail a copy of such statement to the last known address of the debtor by certified mail, return receipt requested, within ten days.

(2) The statement shall be in writing, signed by the claimant, and shall contain in substance the following information:

- (a) The name and address of the claimant;
- (b) The name and address of the debtor;
- (c) The date of commencement of performance for which the lien is claimed;
- (d) A description of the labor services, materials, or supplies furnished;
- (e) A description of the crop and its location to be charged with the lien sufficient for identification; and
- (f) The signature of the claimant.

(3) The department of licensing may by rule prescribe standard filing forms, fees, and uniform procedures for filing with, and obtaining information from, filing officers, including provisions for filing crop liens together with financing statements filed pursuant to RCW 62A.9-401 so that one request will reveal all filed crop liens and security interests.

(4) Any landlord claiming a lien under this chapter for rent shall file a statement evidencing the lien with the department of licensing. A lien for rent claimed by a landlord pursuant to this chapter shall be effective during the term of the lease for a period of up to five years. A landlord lien covering a lease term longer than five years may be refiled in accordance with RCW 60.11.050~~((4))~~ (5). A landlord who has a right to a share of the crop may place suppliers on notice by filing evidence of such interest in the same manner as provided for filing a landlord's lien.

Sec. 5. RCW 60.11.050 and 1986 c 242 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsections (2), (3), ~~((and))~~ (4), and (5) of this section, conflicting liens and security interests shall rank in accordance with the time of filing.

(2) The lien created in RCW 60.11.020(2) in favor of any person who furnishes any work or labor upon the land of the grower or landowner shall be preferred and prior to any other lien or security interest upon the crops to which they attach including the liens described in subsections (3) ~~((and))~~, (4), and (5) of this section.

(3) The lien created in RCW 60.11.020(3) in favor of handlers is preferred and prior to a lien or security interest described in subsection (4) or (5) of this section and to any other lien or security interest upon the crops to which they attach except the liens in favor of a person who furnishes work or labor upon the land of the grower or landlord. Whenever more than one handler holds a handler's lien created by RCW 60.11.020(3) in the same crop, unless the affected parties otherwise agree in writing, the later of the liens to attach has priority over all previously attached handlers' liens.

(4) A lien or security interest in crops otherwise entitled to priority pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be subordinate to a later filed lien or security interest incurred to produce the crop to the extent that obligations secured by such earlier filed security interest or lien were not incurred to produce such crops.

~~((4))~~ (5) A lien or security interest in crops otherwise entitled to priority pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be subordinate to a properly filed landlord's lien. A landlord's lien shall retain its priority if refiled within six months prior to its expiration.

Sec. 6. RCW 60.11.140 and 1986 c 242 s 14 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever the total amount of the lien has been fully paid, the lien holder filing a lien shall, within fifteen days following receipt of full payment, file its lien termination statement with the department of licensing. Failure to file a lien termination statement by the lien holder or the assignee of the lien holder shall cause the lien holder or its assignee to be liable to the debtor for the attorneys' fees and costs incurred by the debtor to have the lien terminated together with damages incurred by the debtor due to the failure of the lien holder to terminate the lien.

(2) There shall be no charge by the department of licensing for entering the lien termination statement and indexing the same and returning a copy of the lien termination statement stamped as "filed" with the filing date thereon.

(3) The department of licensing may enter the lien termination statement on microfilm or other photographic record and destroy all originals of the lien and lien satisfaction filed with him or her.

Sec. 7. RCW 62A.9-310 and 1986 c 242 s 16 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When a person in the ordinary course of his business furnishes services or materials with respect to goods subject to a security interest, a lien upon goods in the possession of such person given by statute or rule of law for such materials or services takes priority over a perfected security interest only if the lien is statutory and the statute expressly provides for such priority.

(2) A preparer lien or processor lien properly created pursuant to chapter 60.13 RCW or a depositor's lien created pursuant to chapter 22.09 RCW takes priority over any perfected or unperfected security interest.

(3) Conflicting priorities between (~~nonpossessory~~) crop liens created under chapter 60.11 RCW and security interests shall be governed by chapter 60.11 RCW.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "handlers;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and amending RCW 60.11.010, 60.11.020, 60.11.030, 60.11.040, 60.11.050, 60.11.140, and 62A.9-310.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 19, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5916 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. It is the intent of the legislature to provide timely, thorough, and fair procedures for resolution of grievances of clients, foster parents, and the community resulting from decisions made by the department of social and health services related to programs administered pursuant to this chapter. Grievances should be resolved at the lowest level possible. However, all levels of the department should be accountable and responsible to individuals who are experiencing difficulties with agency services or decisions. It is the intent of the legislature that grievance procedures be made available to individuals who do not have other remedies available through judicial review or adjudicative proceedings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 74.13 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall develop and implement an informal, nonadversarial complaint resolution process to be used by clients of the department, foster parents, and other affected individuals who have complaints regarding a department policy or procedure, or the application of such a policy or procedure, related to programs administered under this chapter. The process shall not apply in circumstances where the complainant has the right under Title 13, 26, or 74 RCW to seek resolution of the complaint through judicial review or through an adjudicative proceeding.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to create substantive or procedural rights in any person. Participation in the complaint resolution process shall not entitle any person to an adjudicative proceeding under chapter 34.05 RCW or to superior court review. Participation in the process shall not affect the right of any person to seek other statutorily or constitutionally permitted remedies.

The department shall develop procedures to assure that clients and foster parents are informed of the availability of the complaint resolution process and how to access it. The department shall incorporate information regarding the complaint resolution process into the training for foster parents and caseworkers.

The department shall compile complaint resolution data including the nature of the complaint and the outcome of the process. The department shall submit semi-annual reports, due January and July of each year, beginning July 1992, to the senate children and family services committee and the house of representatives human services committee.

The court shall hold a fact-finding hearing on the petition and, unless the court dismisses the petition, shall make written findings of fact, stating the reasons therefor, and after it has announced its findings of fact shall hold a hearing to consider disposition of the case immediately following the fact-finding hearing or at a continued hearing within fourteen days or longer for good cause shown. The parties need not appear at the fact-finding or dispositional hearing if all are in agreement; but the court shall receive and review a social study before entering an order based on agreement. No social file or social study may be considered by the court in connection with the fact-finding hearing or prior to factual determination, except as otherwise admissible under the rules of evidence. Notice of the time and place of the continued hearing may be given in open court. If notice in open court is not given to a party, that party shall be notified by mail of the time and place of any continued hearing.

All hearings may be conducted at any time or place within the limits of the county, and such cases may not be heard in conjunction with other business of any other division of the superior court. The general public shall be excluded, and only such persons may be admitted who are found by the judge to have a direct interest in the case or in the work of the court. If a child resides in foster care or in the home of a relative pursuant to a disposition order entered under RCW 13.34.130, the court may allow the child's foster parent or relative care provider to attend dependency review proceedings pertaining to the child for the sole purpose of providing information about the child to the court.

Stenographic notes or any device which accurately records the proceedings may be required as provided in other civil cases pursuant to RCW 2.32.200.

Sec. 4. RCW 74.13.280 and 1990 c 284 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in RCW 70.24.105, whenever a child is placed in out-of-home care by the department or a child-placing agency, the department or agency may share information about the child and the child's family with the care provider and may consult with the care provider regarding the child's case plan. If the child is dependent pursuant to a proceeding under chapter 13.34 RCW, the department or agency shall keep the care provider informed regarding the dates and location of dependency review hearings pertaining to the child.

(2) Any person who receives information about a child or a child's family pursuant to this section shall keep the information confidential and shall not further disclose or disseminate the information except as authorized by law.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the authority of the department or child-placing agencies to disclose client information or to maintain client confidentiality as provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "services;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 13.34.110 and 74.13.280; adding a new section to chapter 74.13 RCW; creating a new section; and declaring an emergency.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Roach moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5916.

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, further consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5916 was deferred.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Linda Smith, Senator Cantu was excused.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 17, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5231 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

Sec. 1. RCW 18.85.165 and 1988 c 205 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

All real estate brokers and salespersons shall furnish proof as the director may require that they have successfully completed a total of thirty clock hours of instruction every two years in real estate courses approved by the director in order to renew their licenses. Up to fifteen clock hours of instruction beyond the thirty hours in two years may be carried forward for credit in a subsequent two-year period. To count towards this requirement, a course shall be commenced within thirty-six months before the proof date for renewal. Examinations shall not be required to fulfill any part of the education requirement in this section. This section shall apply to renewal dates after January 1, 1991.

Sec. 2. RCW 18.85.140 and 1989 c 161 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

Before receiving his or her license every real estate broker, every associate real estate broker, and every real estate salesperson must pay a license fee as prescribed by the director by rule. Every license issued under the provisions of this chapter expires on the applicant's second birthday following issuance of the license. Licenses issued to partnerships expire on a date prescribed by the director by rule. Licenses issued to corporations expire on a date prescribed by the director by rule, except that if the corporation registration or certificate of authority filed with the secretary of state expires, the real estate broker's license issued to the corporation shall expire on that date. Licenses must be renewed every two years on or before the date established under this section and a biennial renewal license fee as prescribed by the director by rule must be paid.

If the application for a renewal license is not received by the director on or before the renewal date, a penalty fee as prescribed by the director by rule shall be paid. Acceptance by the director of an application for renewal after the renewal date shall not be a waiver of the delinquency.

The license of any person whose license renewal fee is not received within one year from the date of expiration shall be canceled. This person may obtain a new license by satisfying the procedures and ~~((qualifications for initial licensing, including the successful completion of any applicable examinations))~~ requirements as prescribed by the director by rule.

The director shall issue to each active licensee a license and a pocket identification card in such form and size as he or she shall prescribe.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "education;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and amending RCW 18.85.165 and 18.85.140."

On page 1, at the beginning of line 6, insert "(1)"

On page 1, after line 13, insert the following:

"(2) Any individual holding a lapsed real estate broker's or salesperson's license shall have his or her license reactivated upon providing proof to the director that the individual has completed sixty clock hours of state-approved continuing education coursework. The individual shall not be required to take an examination in order to have the license reactivated.

On page 2, line 1, after "section." insert the following:

"(4)"

On page 2, line 1, after "dates" insert "and reactivation of licenses", and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Matson, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 5231.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5231, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5231, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 4.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 10, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5497 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. DEFINITIONS. Unless the context requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Construction agent" means any registered or licensed contractor, registered or licensed subcontractor, architect, engineer, or other person having charge of any improvement to real property, who shall be deemed the agent of the owner for the limited purpose of establishing the lien created by this chapter.

(2) "Contract price" means the amount agreed upon by the contracting parties, or if no amount is agreed upon, then the customary and reasonable charge therefor.

(3) "Draws" means periodic disbursements of interim or construction financing by a lender.

(4) "Furnishing labor, professional services, materials, or equipment" means the performance of any labor or professional services, the contribution owed to any employee benefit plan on account of any labor, the provision of any supplies or materials, and the renting, leasing, or otherwise supplying of equipment for the improvement of real property.

(5) "Improvement" means: (a) Constructing, altering, repairing, remodeling, demolishing, clearing, grading, or filling in, of, to, or upon any real property or street or road in front of or adjoining the same; (b) planting of trees, vines, shrubs, plants, hedges, or lawns, or providing other landscaping materials on any real property; and (c) providing professional services upon real property or in preparation for or in conjunction with the intended activities in (a) or (b) of this subsection.

(6) "Interim or construction financing" means that portion of money secured by a mortgage, deed of trust, or other encumbrance to finance improvement of, or to real property, but does not include:

(a) Funds to acquire real property;

(b) Funds to pay interest, insurance premiums, lease deposits, taxes, assessments, or prior encumbrances;

(c) Funds to pay loan, commitment, title, legal, closing, recording, or appraisal fees;

(d) Funds to pay other customary fees, which pursuant to agreement with the owner or borrower are to be paid by the lender from time to time;

(e) Funds to acquire personal property for which the potential lien claimant may not claim a lien pursuant to this chapter.

(7) "Labor" means exertion of the powers of body or mind performed at the site for compensation. "Labor" includes amounts due and owed to any employee benefit plan on account of such labor performed.

(8) "Mortgagee" means a person who has a valid mortgage of record or deed of trust of record securing a loan.

(9) "Owner" means the record holder of any legal or beneficial title to the real property to be improved or developed.

(10) "Owner-occupied" means a single-family residence occupied by the owner as his or her principal residence.

(11) "Payment bond" means a surety bond issued by a surety licensed to issue surety bonds in the state of Washington that confers upon potential claimants the rights of third party beneficiaries.

(12) "Potential lien claimant" means any person or entity entitled to assert lien rights under this chapter who has otherwise complied with the provisions of this chapter and is registered or licensed if required to be licensed or registered by the provisions of the laws of the state of Washington.

(13) "Prime contractor" includes all contractors, general contractors, and specialty contractors, as defined by chapter 18.27 or 19.28 RCW, or who are otherwise required to be registered or licensed by law, who contract directly with a property owner or their common law agent to assume primary responsibility for the creation of an improvement to real property, and includes property owners or their common law agents who are contractors, general contractors, or specialty contractors as defined in chapter 18.27 or 19.28 RCW, or who are otherwise required to be registered or licensed by law, who offer to sell their property without occupying or using the structures, projects, developments, or improvements for more than one year.

(14) "Professional services" means surveying, establishing or marking the boundaries of, preparing maps, plans, or specifications for, or inspecting, testing, or otherwise performing any other architectural or engineering services for the improvement of real property.

(15) "Real property lender" means a bank, savings bank, savings and loan association, credit union, mortgage company, or other corporation, association, partnership, trust, or individual that makes loans secured by real property located in the state of Washington.

(16) "Site" means the real property which is or is to be improved.

(17) "Subcontractor" means a general contractor or specialty contractor as defined by chapter 18.27 or 19.28 RCW, or who is otherwise required to be registered or licensed by law, who contracts for the improvement of real property with someone other than the owner of the property or their common law agent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. LIEN AUTHORIZED. Except as provided in section 3 of this act, any person furnishing labor, professional services, materials, or equipment for the improvement of real property shall have a lien upon the improvement for the contract price of labor, professional services, materials, or equipment furnished at the instance of the owner, or the agent or construction agent of the owner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. NOTICES--EXCEPTIONS. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, every person furnishing professional services, materials, or equipment for the improvement of real property shall give the owner or reputed owner notice in writing of the right to claim a lien. If the prime contractor is in compliance with the requirements of RCW 19.27.095, 60.04.230, and section 24 of this act, this notice shall be given to the prime contractor unless the potential lien claimant has contracted directly with the prime contractor. The notice may be given at any time but only protects the right to claim a lien for professional services, materials, or equipment supplied after the date which is sixty days before:

(a) Mailing the notice by certified or registered mail to the owner or reputed owner; or

(b) Serving the notice personally upon the owner or reputed owner and obtaining evidence of service in the form of a receipt or other acknowledgement signed by the owner or reputed owner.

In the case of new construction of a single-family residence, the notice of a right to claim a lien may be given at any time but only protects the right to claim a lien for professional services, materials, or equipment supplied after a date which is ten days before the notice is mailed or served as described in this subsection.

(2) Notices of a right to claim a lien shall not be required of:

(a) Persons who contract directly with the owner or the owner's common law agent;

(b) Laborers whose claim of lien is based solely on performing labor; or

(c) Subcontractors who contract for the improvement of real property directly with the prime contractor.

(3) Persons who furnish professional services, materials, or equipment in connection with the repair, alteration, or remodel of an existing owner-occupied single-family residence or appurtenant garage:

(a) Who contract directly with the owner-occupier shall not be required to send a written notice of the right to claim a lien and shall have a lien for the full amount due under their contract, as provided in section 2 of this act; or

(b) Who do not contract directly with the owner-occupier shall give notice of the right to claim a lien to the owner-occupier. Lien claims by persons who do not contract directly with the owner-occupier may only be satisfied from amounts not yet paid to the prime contractor by the owner at the time the notice described in this section is received, regardless of whether amounts not yet paid to the prime contractor are due.

(4) The notice described in subsection (1) of this section, shall include but not be limited to the following information and shall substantially be in the following form, using lower-case and upper-case ten-point type where appropriate.

THIS IS NOT A LIEN: This notice is sent to you to tell you who is providing professional services, materials, or equipment for the improvement of your property and to advise you of the rights of these persons and your responsibilities. Also take note that laborers on your project may claim a lien without sending you a notice.

OWNER/OCCUPIER OF EXISTING RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY

Under Washington law, those who work on or provide materials for the repair, remodel, or alteration of your owner-occupied principal residence and who are not paid, have a right to enforce their claim for payment against your property. This claim is known as a construction lien.

The law limits the amount that a lien claimant can claim against your property. Claims may only be made against that portion of the contract you have not yet paid to your prime contractor as of the time you received this notice. Review the back of this notice for more information and ways to avoid lien claims.

COMMERCIAL AND/OR NEW RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY

We have or will be providing labor, materials, professional services, or equipment for the improvement of your commercial or new residential project. In the event you or your contractor fail to pay us, we may file a lien against your property. A lien may be claimed for all materials, equipment, and professional services furnished after a date that is sixty days before this notice was mailed to you, unless the improvement to your property is the construction of a new single-family residence, then ten days before this notice was mailed to you.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ON REVERSE SIDE

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR YOUR PROTECTION

This notice is sent to inform you that we have or will provide materials, professional services, or equipment for the repair, remodel, or alteration of your property. We expect to be paid by the person who ordered our services, but if we are not paid, we have the right to enforce our claim by filing a construction lien against your property.

LEARN more about the lien laws and the meaning of this notice by discussing with your contractor, suppliers, department of labor and industries, the firm sending you this notice, your lender, or your attorney.

COMMON METHODS TO AVOID CONSTRUCTION LIENS: There are several methods available to protect your property from construction liens. The following are two of the more commonly used methods.

DUAL PAYCHECKS (Joint Checks): When paying your contractor for services or materials, you may make checks payable jointly to the contractor and the firms furnishing you this notice.

LIEN RELEASES: You may require your contractor to provide lien releases signed by all the suppliers and subcontractors from whom you have received this notice. If they cannot obtain lien releases because you have not paid them, you may use the dual payee check method to protect yourself.

YOU SHOULD TAKE WHATEVER STEPS YOU BELIEVE NECESSARY TO PROTECT YOUR PROPERTY FROM LIENS.

YOUR PRIME CONTRACTOR AND YOUR CONSTRUCTION LENDER ARE REQUIRED BY LAW TO GIVE YOU WRITTEN INFORMATION ABOUT LIEN CLAIMS. IF YOU HAVE NOT RECEIVED IT, ASK THEM FOR IT.

(5) Every potential lien claimant providing professional services where no improvement as defined in section 1(5) (a) or (b) of this act has been commenced, and the professional services provided are not visible from an inspection of the real property shall record in the real property records of the county where the property is located a notice which shall contain the provider's name, address, telephone number, legal description of the property, the owner or reputed owner's name, and the general nature of the professional services provided. If such notice is not recorded, the lien claimed shall be subordinate to the interest of any subsequent mortgagee and invalid as to the interest of any subsequent purchaser who acts in good faith and for a valuable consideration acquires an interest in the property prior to the commencement of an improvement as defined in section 1(5) (a) or (b) of this act without notice of the professional services being provided.

(6) A lien authorized by this chapter shall not be enforced unless the lien claimant has complied with the provisions of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. CONTRACTOR REGISTRATION. A contractor or subcontractor required to be registered under chapter 18.27 RCW or licensed under chapter 19.28 RCW, or otherwise required to be registered or licensed by law, shall be deemed the construction agent of the owner for the purposes of establishing the lien created by this chapter only if so registered or licensed. Persons dealing with contractors or subcontractors may rely, for the purposes of this section, upon a certificate of registration issued pursuant to chapter 18.27 RCW or license issued pursuant to chapter 19.28 RCW, or other certificate or license issued pursuant to law, covering the period when the labor, professional services, material, or equipment shall be furnished, and the lien rights shall not be lost by suspension or revocation of registration or license without their knowledge. No lien rights described in this section shall be lost or denied by virtue of the absence, suspension, or revocation of such registration or license with respect to any contractor or subcontractor not in immediate contractual privity with the lien claimant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO LIEN. The lot, tract, or parcel of land which is improved is subject to a lien to the extent of the interest of the person for whom the labor, professional services, equipment, or materials were furnished, as the court deems appropriate for satisfaction of the lien. If, for any reason, the title or interest in the land upon which the improvement is situated cannot be subjected to the lien, the court in order to satisfy the lien may order the sale and removal of the improvement which is subject to the lien, from the land.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. PRIORITY OF LIEN. The claim of lien created by this chapter upon any lot or parcel of land shall be prior to any lien, mortgage, deed of trust, or other encumbrance which attached to the land after or was unrecorded at the time of commencement of labor or professional services or first delivery of materials or equipment by the lien claimant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. RELEASE OF LIEN RIGHTS. Upon payment and acceptance of the amount due to the lien claimant and upon demand of the owner or the person making payment, the lien claimant shall immediately prepare and execute a release of all lien rights for which payment has been made, and deliver the release to the person making payment. In any suit to compel deliverance of the release thereafter in which the court determines the delay was unjustified, the court shall, in addition to ordering the deliverance of the release, award the costs of the action including reasonable attorneys' fees and any damages.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. FRIVOLOUS CLAIM--PROCEDURE. (1) Any owner of real property subject to a recorded notice of claim of lien under this chapter, or the contractor or subcontractor who believes the claim of lien to be frivolous and made without reasonable cause, or clearly excessive may apply to the superior court for the county where the property, or some part thereof is located, for an order directing the lien claimant to appear before the court at a time no earlier than six nor later than fifteen days following the date of service of the application and order on the lien claimant, and show cause, if any he or she has, why the lien claim should not be dismissed, with prejudice.

(2) The order shall clearly state that if the lien claimant fails to appear at the time and place noted the lien claim shall be dismissed, with prejudice and that the lien claimant shall be ordered to pay the costs requested by the applicant including reasonable attorneys' fees.

(3) If no action to foreclose the lien claim has been filed, the clerk of the court shall assign a cause number to the application and obtain from the applicant a filing fee of thirty-five dollars. If an action has been filed to foreclose the lien claim, the application shall be made a part of that action.

(4) If, following a full hearing on the matter, the court determines that the lien claim is frivolous and made without reasonable cause, or clearly excessive, the court shall issue an order dismissing the lien claim if frivolous or reducing the claim if clearly excessive, and awarding costs and reasonable attorneys' fees to the applicant to be paid by the lien claimant. If the court determines that the claim of lien is not frivolous and made with reasonable cause, and is not clearly excessive, the court shall issue and order so stating and awarding costs and reasonable attorneys' fees to the lien claimant to be paid by the applicant.

(5) Proceedings under this section shall not affect other rights and remedies available to the parties under this chapter or otherwise.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. RECORDING--TIME--CONTENTS OF LIEN. Every person claiming a lien under section 2 of this act shall record, in the county where the subject property is located, a notice of claim of lien not later than ninety days after the person has ceased to furnish labor, professional services, materials, or equipment or the last date on which employee benefit contributions were due. The notice of claim of lien:

- (1) Shall state in substance and effect:
  - (a) The name, phone number, and address of the claimant;
  - (b) The first and last date on which the labor, professional services, materials, or equipment was furnished or employee benefit contributions were due;
  - (c) The name of the person indebted to the claimant;
  - (d) The street address, legal description, or other description reasonably calculated to identify, for a person familiar with the area, the location of the real property to be charged with the lien;
  - (e) The name of the owner or reputed owner of the property, if known, and, if not known, that fact shall be stated; and
  - (f) The principal amount for which the lien is claimed.

(2) Shall be signed by the claimant or some person authorized to act on his or her behalf who shall affirmatively state they have read the notice of claim of lien and believe the notice of claim of lien to be true and correct under penalty of perjury, and shall be acknowledged pursuant to chapter 64.08 RCW. If the claim has been assigned, the name of the assignee shall be stated. Where an action to foreclose the lien has been commenced such notice of claim of lien may be amended as pleadings may be by order of the court insofar as the interests of third parties are not adversely affected by such amendment. A claim of lien substantially in the following form shall be sufficient:

....., claimant, vs .., owner or reputed owner

Notice is hereby given that on the ..... day of ..... (date of commencement of furnishing labor, professional services, materials, or equipment and the last date contributions to any type of employee benefit plan became due), ..... at the request of ....., ..... commenced to (perform labor, furnish professional services, materials, or equipment) upon ..... (here describe property subject to the lien) of which property the owner, or reputed owner, is ..... (or if the owner or reputed owner is not known, insert the word "unknown"), the (furnishing of labor, professional services, materials, or equipment) ceased on the ..... day of .....; that said (labor, professional services, material, or equipment) was of the value of ..... dollars, for which the undersigned claims a lien upon the property herein described for the sum of ..... dollars. (In case the claim has been assigned, add the words "and ..... is assignee of said claim", or claims, if several are united.)

....., Claimant.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this ..... day of .....

.....

The period provided for recording the notice is a period of limitation and no action to foreclose a claim of lien shall be maintained unless the notice is recorded within the ninety-day period stated. The lien claimant shall give notice of the claim of lien to the owner or reputed owner by certified or registered mail or by personal service within fourteen days of the time the claim is recorded. Failure to do so results in a forfeiture of any right the claimant may have to attorneys' fees and costs against the owner under section 18 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. SEPARATE RESIDENTIAL UNITS--TIME FOR FILING. When furnishing labor, professional services, materials, or equipment for the construction of two or more separate residential units, the time for filing claims of lien against each separate residential unit shall commence to run upon the cessation of the furnishing of labor, professional services, materials, or equipment on each residential unit, as provided in this chapter. For the purposes of this section a separate residential unit is defined as consisting of one residential structure together with any garages or other outbuildings appurtenant thereto.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. RECORDING--FEES. The county auditor shall record the notice of claim of lien in the same manner as deeds and other instruments of title are recorded under chapter 65.08 RCW. Notices of claim of lien for registered land need not be recorded in the Torrens register. The county auditor shall charge no higher fee for recording notices of claim of lien than other documents.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. LIEN--ASSIGNMENT. Any lien or right of lien created by this chapter and the right of action to recover therefor, shall be assignable so as to vest in the assignee all rights and remedies of the assignor, subject to all defenses thereto that might be made.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. CLAIMS--DESIGNATION OF AMOUNT DUE. In every case in which the notice of claim of lien is recorded against two or more separate pieces of property owned by the same person or owned by two or more persons jointly or otherwise, who contracted for the labor, professional services, material, or equipment for which the notice of claim of lien is recorded, the person recording the notice of claim of lien shall designate in the notice of claim of lien the amount due on each piece of property, otherwise the lien is subordinated to other liens that may be established under this chapter. The lien of such claim does not extend beyond the amount designated as against other creditors having liens upon any of such pieces of property.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. LIEN--DURATION--PROCEDURAL LIMITATIONS. No lien created by this chapter binds the property subject to the lien for a longer period than eight calendar months after the notice of claim of lien has been recorded unless an action is filed by the lien claimant within that time in the superior court in the county where the subject property is located to enforce the lien, and service is made upon the owner of the subject property within ninety days of the date of filing the action; or, if credit is given and the terms thereof are stated in the notice of claim of lien, then eight calendar months after the expiration of such credit; and in case the action is not prosecuted to judgment within two years after the commencement thereof, the court, in its discretion, may dismiss the action for want of prosecution, and the dismissal of the action or a judgment rendered thereon that no lien exists shall constitute a cancellation of the lien. This is a period of limitation, which shall be tolled by the filing of any petition seeking protection under Title Eleven, United States Code by an owner of any property subject to the lien established by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. RIGHTS OF OWNER--RECOVERY OPTIONS. The lien claimant shall be entitled to recover upon the claim recorded the contract price after deducting all claims of other lien claimants to whom the claimant is liable, for furnishing labor, professional services, materials, or equipment; and in all cases where a notice of claim of lien shall be recorded under this chapter for labor, professional services, materials, or equipment supplied to any lien claimant, he or she shall defend any action brought thereupon at his or her own expense; and during the pendency of the action, the owner may withhold from the prime contractor the amount of money for which a claim is recorded by any subcontractor, supplier, or laborer; and in case of judgment against the owner or the owner's property, upon the lien, the owner shall be entitled to deduct the principal amount of the judgment from any amount due or to become due from him or her to the lien claimant plus such costs, including interest and attorneys' fees, as the court deems just and equitable, and he or she shall be entitled to recover back from the lien claimant the amount for which the lien is established in excess of any sum that may remain due from him or her to the lien claimant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. BOND IN LIEU OF CLAIM. Any owner of real property subject to a recorded notice of claim of lien under this chapter, or the contractor or subcontractor who disputes the correctness or validity of the notice of claim of lien may record, either before or after the commencement of an action to enforce the lien, in the office of the county recorder or auditor in the county where the notice of claim of lien was recorded, a bond issued by a surety company authorized to issue surety bonds in the state. The surety shall be listed in the latest federal department of the treasury list of surety companies acceptable on federal bonds, published in the Federal Register, as authorized to issue bonds on United States government projects with an underwriting limitation, including applicable reinsurance, equal to or greater than the amount of the bond to be recorded. The bond shall contain a description of the notice of claim of lien and real property involved, and be in an amount equal to the greater of five thousand dollars or two times the amount of the lien claimed if it is ten thousand dollars or less, and in an amount equal to or greater than one and one-half times the amount of the lien if it is in excess of ten thousand dollars. If the notice of claim of lien affects more than one parcel of real property and is segregated to each parcel, the bond may be segregated the same as in the notice of claim of lien. A separate bond shall be required for each notice of claim of lien made by separate claimants. However, a single bond may be used to guarantee payment of amounts claimed by more than one lien claim by a single claimant so long as the amount of the bond meets the requirements of this section as applied to the aggregate sum of all claims by such claimant. The condition of the bond shall be to guarantee payment of any judgment upon the lien in favor of the lien claimant entered in any action to recover the amount claimed in a notice of claim of lien, or on the claim asserted in the notice of claim of lien. The effect of recording a bond shall be to release the real property described in the notice of claim of lien from the lien and any action brought to recover the amount claimed. Unless otherwise prohibited by law, if no action is commenced to recover on a lien within the time specified in section 14 of this act, the surety shall be discharged from liability under the bond. If an action is timely commenced, then on payment of any judgment entered in the action or on payment of the full amount of the bond to the holder of the judgment, whichever is less, the surety shall be discharged from liability under the bond.

Nothing in this section shall in any way prohibit or limit the use of other methods, devised by the affected parties to secure the obligation underlying a claim of lien and to obtain a release of real property from a claim of lien.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. FORECLOSURE--PARTIES. The lien provided by this chapter, for which claims of lien have been recorded, may be foreclosed and enforced by a civil action in the court having jurisdiction in the manner prescribed for the judicial foreclosure of a mortgage. The court shall have the power to order the sale of the property. In any action brought to foreclose a lien, the owner shall be joined as a party. The lien claims of all persons who, prior to the commencement of the action, have legally recorded claims of lien against the same property, or any part thereof, shall not be foreclosed or affected unless they are joined as a party.

A person shall not begin an action to foreclose a lien upon any property while a prior action begun to foreclose another lien on the same property is pending, but if not made a party plaintiff or defendant to the prior action, he or she may apply to the court to be joined as a party thereto, and his or her lien may be foreclosed in the same action. The filing of such application shall toll the running of the period of limitation established by section 14 of this act until disposition of the application or other time set by the court. The court shall grant the application for joinder unless to do so would create an undue delay or cause hardship which cannot be cured by the imposition of costs or other conditions as the court deems just. If a lien foreclosure action is filed during the pendency of another such action, the court may, on its own motion or the motion of any party, consolidate actions upon such terms and conditions as the court deems just, unless to do so would create an undue delay or cause hardship which cannot be cured by the imposition of costs or other conditions. If consolidation of actions is not permissible under this section, the lien foreclosure action filed during the pendency of another such action shall not be dismissed if the filing was the result of mistake, inadvertence, surprise, excusable neglect, or irregularity. An action to foreclose a lien shall not be dismissed at the instance of a plaintiff therein to the prejudice of another party to the suit who claims a lien.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. RANK OF LIEN--APPLICATION OF PROCEEDS--ATTORNEYS' FEES. (1) In every case in which different construction liens are claimed against the same property, the court shall declare the rank of such lien or class of liens, which liens shall be in the following order:

- (a) Liens for the performance of labor;
- (b) Liens for contributions owed to employee benefit plans;
- (c) Liens for furnishing material, supplies, or equipment;
- (d) Liens for subcontractors, including but not limited to their labor and materials;

and

- (e) Liens for prime contractors, or for professional services.

(2) The proceeds of the sale of property must be applied to each lien or class of liens in order of its rank and, in an action brought to foreclose a lien, pro rata among each claimant in each separate priority class. A personal judgment may be rendered against any party personally liable for any debt for which the lien is claimed. If the lien is established, the judgment shall provide for the enforcement thereof upon the property liable as in the case of foreclosure of judgment liens. The amount realized by such enforcement of the lien shall be credited upon the proper personal judgment. The deficiency, if any, remaining unsatisfied, shall stand as a personal judgment, and may be collected by execution against any party liable therefor.

(3) The court may allow the prevailing party in the action, whether plaintiff or defendant, as part of the costs of the action, the moneys paid for recording the notice of claim of lien, costs of title report, bond costs, and attorneys' fees and necessary expenses incurred by the attorney in the superior court, court of appeals, supreme court, or arbitration, as the court or arbitrator deems reasonable. Such costs shall have the priority of the class of lien to which they are related, as established by subsection (1) of this section.

(4) Real property against which a lien under this chapter is enforced may be ordered sold by the court and the proceeds deposited into the registry of the clerk of the court, pending further determination respecting distribution of the proceeds of the sale.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. EFFECT OF NOTE--PERSONAL ACTION PRESERVED. The taking of a promissory note or other evidence of indebtedness for any labor, professional services, material, or equipment furnished for which a lien is created by this chapter does not discharge the lien therefor, unless expressly received as payment and so specified therein.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to impair or affect the right of any person to whom any debt may be due for the furnishing of labor, professional services, material, or equipment to maintain a personal action to recover the debt against any person liable therefor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. MATERIAL EXEMPT FROM PROCESS--EXCEPTION. Whenever material is furnished for use in the improvement of property subject to a lien created by this chapter, the material is not subject to attachment, execution, or other legal process to enforce any debt due by the purchaser of the material, except a debt due for the purchase money thereof, so long as in good faith, the material is about to be applied in the improvement of such property.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. LIEN--EFFECT ON COMMUNITY INTEREST. The claim of lien, when filed as required by this chapter, shall be notice to the husband or wife of the person who appears of record to be the owner of the property sought to be charged with the lien, and shall subject all the community interest of both husband and wife to the lien.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. NOTICE TO LENDER--WITHHOLDING OF FUNDS. Any lender providing interim or construction financing where there is not a payment bond of at least fifty percent of the amount of construction financing shall observe the following procedures and the rights and liabilities of the lender and potential lien claimant shall be affected as follows:

(1) Any potential lien claimant who has not received a payment within five days after the date required by their contract, invoice, employee benefit plan agreement, or purchase order may within thirty-five days of the date required for payment of the contract, invoice, employee benefit plan agreement, or purchase order, file a notice as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section of the sums due and to become due, for which a potential lien claimant may claim a lien under this chapter.

(2) The notice shall be signed by the potential lien claimant or some person authorized to act on his or her behalf who shall affirmatively state under penalty of perjury, they have read the notice and believe it to be true and correct.

(3) The notice shall be filed in writing with the lender at the office administering the interim or construction financing, with a copy furnished to the owner and appropriate prime contractor. The notice shall state in substance and effect as follows:

(a) The person, firm, trustee, or corporation filing the notice is entitled to receive contributions to any type of employee benefit plan or has furnished labor, professional services, materials, or equipment for which a right of lien is given by this chapter.

(b) The name of the prime contractor, common law agent, or construction agent ordering the same.

(c) A common or street address of the real property being improved or the legal description of the real property.

(d) The name, business address, and telephone number of the lien claimant.

The notice to the lender may contain additional information but shall be in substantially the following form:

(4) After the receipt of the notice, the lender shall withhold from the next and subsequent draws the amount claimed to be due as stated in the notice. Alternatively, the lender may obtain from the prime contractor or borrower a payment bond for the benefit of the potential lien claimant in an amount sufficient to cover the amount stated in the potential lien claimant's notice. The lender shall be obligated to withhold amounts only to the extent that sufficient interim or construction financing funds remain undisbursed as of the date the lender receives the notice.

(5) Sums so withheld shall not be disbursed by the lender, except by the written agreement of the potential lien claimant, owner, and prime contractor in such form as may be prescribed by the lender, or the order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(6) In the event a lender fails to abide by the provisions of subsections (4) and (5) of this section, then the mortgage, deed of trust, or other encumbrance securing the lender will be subordinated to the lien of the potential lien claimant to the extent of the interim or construction financing wrongfully disbursed, but in no event more than the amount stated in the notice plus costs as fixed by the court, including reasonable attorneys' fees.

(7) Any potential lien claimant shall be liable for any loss, cost, or expense, including reasonable attorneys' fees and statutory costs, to a party injured thereby arising out of any unjust, excessive, or premature notice filed under purported authority of this section. "Notice" as used in this subsection does not include notice given by a potential lien claimant of the right to claim liens under this chapter where no actual claim is made.

(8)(a) Any owner of real property subject to a notice to real property lender under this section, or the contractor or subcontractor who believes the claim that underlies the notice is frivolous and made without reasonable cause, or clearly excessive may apply to the superior court for the county where the property, or some part thereof is located, for an order commanding the potential lien claimant who issued the notice to the real property lender to appear before the court at a time no earlier than six nor later than fifteen days from the date of service of the application and order on the potential lien claimant, and show cause, if any he or she has, why the notice to real property lender should not be declared void.

(b) The order shall clearly state that if the potential lien claimant fails to appear at the time and place noted, the notice to lender shall be declared void and that the potential lien claimant issuing the notice shall be ordered to pay the costs requested by the applicant including reasonable attorneys' fees.

(c) The clerk of the court shall assign a cause number to the application and obtain from the applicant a filing fee of thirty-five dollars.

(d) If, following a full hearing on the matter, the court determines that the claim upon which the notice to real property lender is based is frivolous and made without reasonable cause, or clearly excessive, the court shall issue an order declaring the notice to real property lender void if frivolous, or reducing the amount stated in the notice if clearly excessive, and awarding costs and reasonable attorneys' fees to the applicant to be paid by the person who issued the notice. If the court determines that the claim underlying the notice to real property lender is not frivolous and made with reasonable cause, and is not clearly excessive, the court shall issue an order so stating and awarding costs and reasonable attorneys' fees to the issuer of the notice to be paid by the applicant.

(e) Proceedings under this subsection shall not affect other rights and remedies available to the parties under this chapter or otherwise.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. FINANCIAL ENCUMBRANCES--PRIORITIES. Except as otherwise provided in section 6 or 22 of this act, any mortgage or deed of trust shall be prior to all liens, mortgages, deeds of trust, and other encumbrances which have not been recorded prior to the recording of the mortgage or deed of trust to the extent of all sums secured by the mortgage or deed of trust regardless of when the same are disbursed or whether the disbursements are obligatory.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. AVAILABILITY OF INFORMATION. The prime contractor shall immediately supply the information listed in RCW 19.27.095(2) to any person who has contracted to supply materials, equipment, or professional services or who is a subcontractor on the improvement, as soon as the identity and mailing address of such subcontractor, supplier, or professional is made known to the prime contractor either directly or through another subcontractor, supplier, or professional.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. LIBERAL CONSTRUCTION. RCW 19.27.095, 60.04.230, and sections 1 through 24 of this act are to be liberally construed to provide security for all parties intended to be protected by their provisions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. CAPTIONS--NOT PART OF LAW. Section headings as used in sections 1 through 26 of this act do not constitute any part of the law.

Sec. 27. RCW 19.27.095 and 1987 c 104 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A valid and fully complete building permit application for a structure, that is permitted under the zoning or other land use control ordinances in effect on the date of the application shall be considered under the building permit ordinance in effect at the time of application, and the zoning or other land use control ordinances in effect on the date of application.

(2) The requirements for a fully completed application shall be defined by local ordinance but for any construction project costing more than five thousand dollars the application shall include, at a minimum:

(a) The legal description, or the tax parcel number assigned pursuant to RCW 84.40.160, and the street address if available, and may include any other identification of the construction site by the prime contractor;

(b) The property owner's name, address, and phone number;

(c) The prime contractor's business name, address, phone number, current state contractor registration number; and

(d) Either:

(i) The name, address, and phone number of the office of the lender administering the interim construction financing, if any; or

(ii) The name and address of the firm that has issued a payment bond, if any, on behalf of the prime contractor for the protection of the owner, if the bond is for an amount not less than fifty percent of the total amount of the construction project.

(3) The information required on the building permit application by subsection (2) (a) through (d) of this section shall be set forth on the building permit document which is issued to the owner, and on the inspection record card which shall be posted at the construction site.

(4) The information required by subsection (2) of this section and information supplied by the applicant after the permit is issued under subsection (5) of this section shall be kept on record in the office where building permits are issued and made available to any person on request. If a copy is requested, a reasonable charge may be made.

(5) If any of the information required by subsection (2)(d) of this section is not available at the time the application is submitted, the applicant shall so state and the application shall be processed forthwith and the permit issued as if the information had been supplied, and the lack of the information shall not cause the application to be deemed incomplete for the purposes of vesting under subsection (1) of this section. However, the applicant shall provide the remaining information as soon as the applicant can reasonably obtain such information.

(6) The limitations imposed by this section shall not restrict conditions imposed under chapter 43.21C RCW.

Sec. 28. RCW 60.04.230 and 1984 c 202 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For any construction project costing more than five thousand dollars (~~where the primary use of the improvements on the real property is for one or more residences~~) the prime contractor shall post in plain view for the duration of the construction project a legible notice at the construction job site containing the following:

(a) The legal description, or the tax parcel number assigned pursuant to RCW 84.40.160, and the street address if available, and may include any other identification of the construction site by the prime contractor;

(b) The property owner's name, address, and phone number;

(c) The prime contractor's business name, address, phone number, current state contractor registration number and identification; and

(d) Either:

(i) The name, address, and phone number of the office of the lender administering the interim construction financing, if any; or

(ii) The name and address of the firm that has issued a payment bond, if any, on behalf of the prime contractor for the protection of the owner if the bond is for an amount not less than fifty percent of the total amount of the construction project.

(2) For any construction project (~~not subject to subsection (1) of this section costing more than five thousand dollars, the prime contractor shall post in plain view~~ for the duration of the construction project a legible notice at the construction job site containing the following:

(a) ~~The legal description or the street address and any other identification of the construction site by the prime contractor;~~

(b) ~~The property owner's name, address, and phone number;~~

(c) ~~The prime contractor's business name, address, phone number, current state contractor registration number and identification.~~

(3)) which requires a building permit under local ordinance, compliance with the posting requirements of RCW 19.27.095 shall constitute compliance with this section. Otherwise, the information shall be posted as set forth in this section.

(3) Failure to comply with this section ((is a gross misdemeanor)) shall subject the prime contractor to a civil penalty of not more than five thousand dollars, payable to the county where the project is located.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. Sections 1 through 26 of this act are each added to chapter 60.04 RCW.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 17, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5261 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 19.27 RCW to read as follows:

The building code council shall adopt rules by December 1, 1991, requiring that all buildings classed as E-1 occupancies, as defined in the state building code, except portable school classrooms, constructed after the effective date of this act, be provided with an automatic fire-extinguishing system. Rules adopted by the council shall consider applicable nationally recognized fire and building code standards and local conditions.

By December 15, 1991, the council shall transmit to the superintendent of public instruction, the state board of education, and the fire protection policy board copies of the rules as adopted. The superintendent of public instruction, the state board of education, and the fire protection policy board shall respond to the council by February 15, 1992, with any recommended changes to the rule. If changes are recommended the council shall immediately consider those changes to the rules through its rule-making procedures. The rules shall be effective on July 1, 1992.

Nonconstruction standards (~~(for construction)~~) relative to fire prevention and safety for all schools under the jurisdiction of the superintendent of public instruction and state board of education shall be established by the state fire protection board. (~~The director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall adopt such nationally recognized fire and building codes and standards as may be applicable to local conditions. After the approval of such standards by the superintendent of public instruction and the state board of education, the director of community development, through~~) The director of fire protection(;) shall make or cause to be made plan reviews and construction inspections for all E-1 occupancies as may be necessary to insure compliance with (~~said codes~~) the state building code and standards for schools adopted under chapter 19.27 RCW. Nothing in this section prohibits the director of fire protection from delegating construction inspection authority to any local jurisdiction.

~~((Political subdivisions of the state having and enforcing such fire and building codes and standards at least equal to or higher than those adopted as provided for in this section shall be exempted from the plan review and construction inspection provisions of this section within their respective subdivision for as long as such codes and standards are enforced.))~~

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "safety;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 48.48.045; and adding a new section to chapter 19.27 RCW.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 17, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5083 with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 11, strike "hatcheries" and insert "hatchery"

On page 1, after line 11, strike the remainder of the act and insert:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The department of fisheries shall request full funding from the federal government for the reconstruction and operation of the Green River salmon hatchery, located on the Green River tributary to the Toutle River. The department shall work with the Washington congressional delegation to achieve full funding for the Green River hatchery. To the extent that federal funds are available, the department shall reconstruct and operate that hatchery. The hatchery system on the Toutle River shall be operated in such a manner as to ensure that adult salmon are allowed to migrate upstream of the hatchery for natural spawning purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If full funding of the Green River hatchery is not made available to the department by the federal government, the department shall submit a report to the senate committee on environment and natural resources and to the house of representatives committee on fisheries and wildlife. The report shall be submitted by December 1, 1991, and shall describe the priorities used by the department to allocate salmon hatchery funding.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "hatcheries;" strike all material through line 2 and insert "and creating new sections.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Metcalf, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5083.

Excused: Senators Moore, Rasmussen, Sellar - 3.

SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5083, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 18, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5143 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. FINDINGS AND INTENT. It is the purpose of this chapter to:

(1) Substantially increase the procurement of recycled content products by all local and state governmental agencies and public schools, and provide a model to encourage a comparable commitment by Washington state citizens and businesses in their purchasing practices;

(2) Target government procurement policies and goals toward those recycled products for which there are significant market development needs or that may substantially contribute to solutions to the state's waste management problem;

(3) Provide standards for recycled products for use in procurement programs by all governmental agencies;

(4) Provide the authority for all governmental agencies to adopt preferential purchasing policies for recycled products;

(5) Direct state agencies to develop strategies to increase recycled product purchases, and to provide specific goals for procurement of recycled paper products and organic recovered materials; and

(6) Provide guidance and direction for local governments and other public agencies to develop plans for increasing the procurement of recycled content products.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. DEFINITIONS. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Compost products" means mulch, soil amendments, ground cover, or other landscaping material derived from the biological or mechanical conversion of cellulose-containing waste materials.

(2) "Local government" means a city, town, county, special purpose district, school district, or other municipal corporation.

(3) "Lubricating oil" means petroleum-based oils for reducing friction in engine parts and other mechanical parts.

(4) "Mixed waste paper" means assorted low-value grades of paper that have not been separated into individual grades of paper at the point of collection.

(5) "Paper and paper products" means all items manufactured from paper or paperboard.

(6) "Postconsumer waste" means a material or product that has served its intended use and has been discarded for disposal or recovery by a final consumer.

(7) "Procurement officer" means the person that has the primary responsibility for procurement of materials or products.

(8) "State agency" means all units of state government, including divisions of the governor's office, the legislature, the judiciary, state agencies and departments, correctional institutions, vocational technical institutions, and universities and colleges.

(9) "Recycled content product" or "recycled product" means a product containing recycled materials.

(10) "Recycled materials" means waste materials and by-products that have been recovered or diverted from solid waste and that can be utilized in place of a raw or virgin material in manufacturing a product and consists of materials derived from postconsumer waste, manufacturing waste, industrial scrap, agricultural wastes, and other items, all of which can be used in the manufacture of new or recycled products.

(11) "Re-refined oils" means used lubricating oils from which the physical and chemical contaminants acquired through previous use have been removed through a refining process. Re-refining may include distillation, hydrotreating, or treatments employing acid, caustic, solvent, clay, or other chemicals, or other physical treatments other than those used in reclaiming.

(12) "USEPA product standards" means the product standards of the United States environmental protection agency for recycled content published in the code of federal regulations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. STANDARDS FOR RECYCLED CONTENT.

(1) The director shall adopt standards specifying the minimum content of recycled materials in products or product categories. The standards shall:

(a) Be consistent with the USEPA product standards, unless the director finds that a different standard would significantly increase recycled product availability or competition;

(b) Consider the standards of other states, to encourage consistency of manufacturing standards;

(c) Consider regional product manufacturing capability;

(d) Address specific products or classes of products; and

- (e) Consider postconsumer waste content and the recyclability of the product.
- (2) The director shall consult with the supply management board and department of ecology prior to adopting the recycled content standards.
- (3) The director shall adopt recycled content standards for at least the following products by the dates indicated:
- (a) By July 1, 1992:
- (i) Paper and paper products;
  - (ii) Organic recovered materials; and
  - (iii) Latex paint products;
- (b) By July 1, 1993:
- (i) Products for lower value uses containing recycled plastics;
  - (ii) Retread and remanufactured tires;
  - (iii) Lubricating oils;
  - (iv) Automotive batteries; and
  - (v) Building insulation.

(4) The standards required by this section shall be applied to recycled product purchasing by the department and other state agencies. The standards may be adopted or applied by any other local government in product procurement. The standards shall provide for exceptions under appropriate circumstances to allow purchases of recycled products that do not meet the minimum content requirements of the standards.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. LOCAL GOVERNMENT PROCUREMENT PROGRAMS.

(1) By January 1, 1993, each local government shall review its existing procurement policies and specifications to determine whether recycled products are intentionally or unintentionally excluded. The policies and specifications shall be revised to include such products unless a recycled content product does not meet an established performance standard of the agency.

(2) By fiscal year 1994, each local government shall adopt a minimum purchasing goal for recycled content as a percentage of the total dollar value of supplies purchased. To assist in achieving this goal each local government shall adopt a strategy by January 1, 1993, and shall submit a description of the strategy to the department. The department shall report to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature by October 1, 1993, on the progress of implementation by local governments, and shall thereafter periodically report on the progress of recycled product purchasing by state and other public agencies. All public agencies shall respond to requests for information from the department for the purpose of its reporting requirements under this section.

(3) Each local government shall designate a procurement officer who shall serve as the primary contact with the department for compliance with the requirements of this chapter.

(4) This section shall apply only to local governments with expenditures for supplies exceeding five hundred thousand dollars for fiscal year 1989. Expenditures for capital goods and for electricity, water, or gas for resale shall not be considered a supply expenditure.

Sec. 5. RCW 43.19.538 and 1988 c 175 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The director of general administration, through the state purchasing director, shall develop specifications and adopt rules for the purchase of products which will provide for preferential purchase of products containing (~~recovered~~) recycled material by:

(a) The use of a weighting factor determined by the amount of (~~recovered~~) recycled material in a product, where appropriate and known in advance to potential bidders, to determine the lowest responsible bidder. The actual dollars bid shall be the contracted amount. If the department determines, according to criteria established by rule that the use of this weighting factor does not encourage the use of more ~~((recovered))~~ recycled material, the department shall consider and award bids without regard to the weighting factor. In making this determination, the department shall consider but not be limited to such factors as adequate competition, economics or environmental constraints, quality, and availability.

(b) Requiring a written statement of the percentage range of ~~((recovered-material))~~ recycled content from the bidder providing products containing ~~((recovered-material))~~ recycled. The range may be stated in ~~((fifteen))~~ five percent increments.

(2) The director shall develop a directory of businesses that supply products containing significant quantities of ~~((recovered))~~ recycled materials. This directory may be combined with and made accessible through the data base of recycled content products to be developed under section 8 of this act.

(3) The director shall encourage all parties using the state purchasing office to purchase products containing ~~((recovered))~~ recycled materials.

(4) The rules, specifications, and bid evaluation shall be consistent with recycled content standards adopted under section 3 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Each local government shall consider the adoption of policies, rules, or ordinances to provide for the preferential purchase of recycled content products. Any local government may adopt the preferential purchasing policy of the department of general administration, or portions of such policy, or another policy that provides a preference for recycled content products.

(2) The department of general administration shall prepare one or more model recycled content preferential purchase policies suitable for adoption by local governments. The model policy shall be widely distributed and provided through the technical assistance and workshops under section 9 of this act.

(3) A local government that is not subject to the purchasing authority of the department of general administration, and that adopts the preferential purchase policy or rules of the department, shall not be limited by the percentage price preference included in such policy or rules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. STATE AGENCY PROCUREMENT. The department shall prepare a mandatory state plan to increase purchases of recycled-content products by the department and all state agencies, including higher education institutions. The plan shall include purchases from public works contracts. The plan shall address the purchase of plastic products, retread and remanufactured tires, motor vehicle lubricants, latex paint, and lead acid batteries having recycled content. In addition, the plan shall incorporate actions to achieve the following purchase level goals of recycled content paper and compost products:

(1) Paper products as a percentage of the total dollar amount purchased on an annual basis:

- (a) At least forty percent by 1993;
- (b) At least fifty percent by 1994;
- (c) At least sixty percent by 1995.

(2) Compost products as a percentage of the total dollar amount on an annual basis:

- (a) At least twenty-five percent by 1993;
- (b) At least forty percent by 1995;
- (c) At least sixty percent by 1997.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. DATA BASE. (1) The department shall develop a data base of available products with recycled-content products, and vendors supplying such products. The data base shall incorporate information regarding product consistency with the content standards adopted under section 3 of this act. The data base shall incorporate information developed through state and local government procurement of recycled-content products.

(2) By December 1, 1992, the department shall report to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature on the cost of making the data base accessible to all state and local governments and to the private sector.

(3) The department shall compile information on purchases made by the department or pursuant to the department's purchasing authority, and information provided by local governments, regarding:

(a) The percentage of recycled content and, if known, the amount of postconsumer waste in the products purchased;

(b) Price;

(c) Agency experience with the performance of recycled products and the supplier under the terms of the purchase; and

(d) Any other information deemed appropriate by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. PROCUREMENT EDUCATION PROGRAM.

(1) The department shall implement an education program to encourage maximum procurement of recycled products by state and local government entities. The program shall include at least the following:

(a) Technical assistance to all public agencies and their designated procurement officers on the requirements of this chapter, including preparation of model purchase contracts, the preparation of procurement plans, and the availability of recycled products;

(b) Two or more workshops annually in which all state and local government entities are invited;

(c) Information on intergovernmental agreements to facilitate procurement of recycled products.

(2) The director shall, in consultation with the department of ecology, make available to the public, local jurisdictions, and the private sector, a comprehensive list of substitutes for extremely hazardous, hazardous, toxic, and nonrecyclable products, and disposable products intended for a single use. The department and all state agencies exercising the purchasing authorities of the department shall include the substitute products on bid notifications, except where the department allows an exception based upon product availability, price, suitability for intended use, or similar reasons.

(3) The department shall prepare model procurement guidelines for use by local governments.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 43.78 RCW to read as follows:

PUBLIC PRINTER. The public printer shall take all actions consistent with the plan under section 7 of this act to ensure that seventy-five percent or more of the total dollar amount of printing paper stock used by the printer is recycled content paper by January 1, 1995.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. BID NOTIFICATION. A notification regarding a state or local government's intent to procure products with recycled content must be prominently displayed in the procurement solicitation or invitation to bid including:

(1) A description of the postconsumer waste content or recycled content requirements; and

(2) A description of the agency's recycled content preference program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. VENDOR CERTIFICATION. (1) After July 1, 1992, vendors shall certify the percentage of recycled content in products sold to state and local governments, including the percentage of postconsumer waste that is in the product. The certification shall be in the form of a label on the product or a statement by the vendor attached to the bid documents.

(2) The certification on multicomponent or multimaterial products shall verify the percentage and type of postconsumer waste and recycled content by volume contained in the major constituents of the product.

(3) The procuring agency may state in bid solicitations that permission to verify the certification by review of the bidder or manufacturer's records must be granted as a condition of the bid award, in the event of a bidder's protest or other challenge to the bid accepted.

(4) The department shall adopt rules by May 1, 1992, describing the contents of the certification required by this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. PROCUREMENT OF COMPOST PRODUCTS.

(1) The department shall increase the procurement of compost products for all state facilities and grounds that require landscaping or similar work. The department shall survey available vendors and state facilities for which such products are suitable, and attempt to match such supplies and need to lower transportation and other costs. The department shall consider and implement modification of performance standards where appropriate to achieve greater procurement of compost products.

(2) Beginning July 1, 1992, the total of department contracts awarded in whole or in part for the purchase of landscaping materials or soil amendments shall include compost products as follows:

(a) For the period July 1, 1992, through June 30, 1994, twenty-five percent of the total dollar amount of purchases; and

(b) On and after July 1, 1994, fifty percent of the total annual dollar amount of purchases.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. A new section is added to chapter 47.28 RCW to read as follows:

COMPOST PRODUCTS IN TRANSPORTATION PROJECTS. (1) A contract awarded in whole or in part for the purchase of compost products as a soil cover or soil amendment to state highway rights of way shall specify that compost products be purchased in accordance with the following schedule:

(a) For the period July 1, 1991, through June 30, 1993, twenty-five percent of the total dollar amount purchased;

(b) For the period July 1, 1993, through June 30, 1995, fifty percent of the total dollar amount purchased. The percentages in this subsection apply only to the materials' value, and do not include services or other materials.

(2) In order to carry out the provisions of this section, the department of transportation shall develop and adopt bid specifications for compost products used in state highway construction projects.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 19.27 RCW to read as follows:

STATE BUILDING CODE STUDY. The state building code council, in consultation with the department of ecology and local governments, shall conduct a study of the state building code, and adopt changes as necessary to encourage greater use of recycled building materials from construction and building demolition debris, mixed waste paper, waste paint, waste plastics, and other waste materials.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. USE OF RECYCLED MATERIALS IN ROAD CONSTRUCTION. The department of transportation, in consultation with the department of trade and economic development, shall prepare and forward to the legislature on or before January 1, 1992, a study of the use of recycled materials for public highways, roads, bicycle routes, trails, and paths. The study shall include, but not be limited to:

(1) An analysis of the types of recycled materials appropriate and feasible as alternative paving material such as glass, tires, or incinerator ash;

(2) An analysis of uses for waste tires, including, but not limited to, erosion control mats, highway stabilization mats, ferry bumpers, highway crash attenuation barriers, road subbase materials, or backfill;

(3) An analysis of using recycled mixed-plastic materials for guard rail posts, right of way fence posts, and sign supports;

(4) Strategies to test and monitor the use of recycled content materials in road construction;

(5) Product specifications for recycled materials;

(6) Programs to demonstrate the feasibility of using recycled materials; and

(7) Identification of recycled material sources and vendors to ensure competitive product pricing and material availability.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. USE OF COMPOST PRODUCTS IN LOCAL ROAD PROJECTS. (1) Each county and city required to prepare a strategy under section 4 of this act shall adopt specifications for compost products to be used in road projects. The specifications developed by the department of transportation under section 14 of this act may be adopted by the city or county in lieu of developing specifications.

(2) After July 1, 1992, any contract awarded in whole or in part for applying soils, soil covers, or soil amendments to road rights of way shall specify that compost materials be purchased in accordance with the following schedule:

(a) For the period July 1, 1992, through June 30, 1994, at least twenty-five percent of the total dollar amount of purchases by the city or county;

(b) On and after July 1, 1994, at least fifty percent of the annual total dollar amount of purchases by the city or county.

(3) The city or county may depart from the schedule in subsection (2) of this section where it determines that no suitable product is available at a reasonable price.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. A new section is added to Title 28A RCW to read as follows:

Every school board of directors shall consider the purchase of playground matting manufactured from shredded waste tires in undertaking construction or maintenance of playgrounds. The department of general administration shall upon request assist in the development of product specifications and vendor identification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. RCW 43.19.537 and 1988 c 175 s 1 & 1982 c 61 s 1 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. CODIFICATION. Sections 1 through 4, 6 through 9, 11 through 13, 16, and 17 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. CAPTIONS NOT LAW. Captions as used in this act constitute no part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. If specific funding for the purposes of this act, referencing this act by bill number, is not provided by June 30, 1991, in the omnibus appropriations act, this act shall be null and void.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "recycling;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 43.19.538; adding a new section to chapter 43.78 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 47.28 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 19.27 RCW; adding a new section to Title 28A RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 43 RCW; creating new sections; and repealing RCW 43.19.537."

On page 2, after line 6 of the amendment, insert "(2) "Department" means the department of general administration.

(3) "Director" means the director of the department of general administration."

Re-number remaining subsections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

On page 8, line 21 of the amendment, after "to all" strike "public agencies" and insert "state and local governments", and the same are herewith transmitted.

SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5143, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 18, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5264 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature hereby finds and declares that:

(1) Trees and other woody vegetation are a necessary and important part of community and urban environments. Community and urban forests have many values and uses including conserving energy, reducing air and water pollution and soil erosion, contributing to property values, attracting business, reducing glare and noise, providing aesthetic and historical values, providing wood products, and affording comfort and protection for humans and wildlife.

(2) As urban and community areas in Washington state grow, the need to plan for and protect community and urban forests increases. Cities and communities benefit from assistance in developing and maintaining community and urban forestry programs that also address future growth.

(3) Assistance and encouragement in establishment, retention, and enhancement of these forests and trees by local governments, citizens, organizations, and professionals are in the interest of the state based on the contributions these forests make in preserving and enhancing the quality of life of Washington's municipalities and counties while providing opportunities for economic development.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The purpose of this chapter is to:

(1) Encourage planting and maintenance and management of trees in the state's municipalities and counties and maximize the potential of tree and vegetative cover in improving the quality of the environment.

(2) Encourage the coordination of state and local agency activities and maximize citizen participation in the development and implementation of community and urban forestry-related programs.

(3) Foster healthy economic activity for the state's community and urban forestry-related businesses through cooperative and supportive contracts with the private business sector.

(4) Facilitate the creation of employment opportunities related to community and urban forestry activities including opportunities for inner city youth to learn teamwork, resource conservation, environmental appreciation, and job skills.

(5) Provide meaningful voluntary opportunities for the state's citizens and organizations interested in community and urban forestry activities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Department" means the department of natural resources.

(2) "Person" means an individual, partnership, private or public municipal corporation, Indian tribe, state entity, county or local governmental entity, or association of individuals of whatever nature.

(3) "Community and urban forest" is that land in and around human settlements ranging from small communities to metropolitan areas, occupied or potentially occupied by trees and associated vegetation. Community and urban forest land may be planted or unplanted, used or unused, and includes public and private lands, lands along transportation and utility corridors, and forested watershed lands within populated areas.

(4) "Community and urban forestry" means the planning, establishment, protection, care, and management of trees and associated plants individually, in small groups, or under forest conditions within municipalities and counties.

(5) "Municipality" means a city, town, port district, public school district, community college district, irrigation district, weed control district, park district, or other political subdivision of the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The department may establish and maintain a program in community and urban forestry to accomplish the purpose stated in section 2 of this act. The department may assist municipalities and counties in establishing and maintaining community and urban forestry programs and encourage persons to engage in appropriate and improved tree management and care.

(2) The department may advise, encourage, and assist municipalities, counties, and other public and private entities in the development and coordination of policies, programs, and activities for the promotion of community and urban forestry.

(3) The department may appoint a committee or council to advise the department in establishing and carrying out a program in community and urban forestry.

(4) The department may assist municipal and county tree maintenance programs by making surplus equipment available on loan where feasible for community and urban forestry programs and cooperative projects.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The department may:

(1) Receive and disburse any and all moneys contributed, allotted, or paid by the United States under authority of any act of congress for the purposes of this chapter.

(2) Receive such gifts, grants, bequests, and endowments and donations of labor, material, seedlings, and equipment from public or private sources as may be made for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter, and may spend the gifts, grants, bequests, endowments, and donations as well as other moneys from public or private sources.

(3) Charge fees for attendance at workshops and conferences, and for various publications and other materials that the department may prepare.

(4) Enter into agreements and contracts with persons having community and urban forestry-related responsibilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The department shall assume the primary responsibility of carrying out this chapter and shall cooperate with other private and public, state and federal persons, any agency of another state, the United States, any agency of the United States, or any agency or province of Canada.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 1 through 6 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 76 RCW.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "forestry;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and adding a new chapter to Title 76 RCW.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 11, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5501 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The fishing capacity of the non-treaty salmon industry in the state of Washington may exceed that required to harvest non-treaty salmon allocations. This overcapacity can negatively impact the economic stability of the salmon fishing industry and in some instances impedes orderly fisheries. The legislature finds that it is in the best interest of the long term economic stability of the salmon industry to determine the optimum number of commercial salmon licenses that should be available.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The director of the department of fisheries shall, in close cooperation with the salmon fishing industry, investigate the requirements for issuance, retention, and transfer of commercial salmon licenses, shall determine the optimum number of such licenses for each existing gear type and licensing area, and shall determine the best means for attaining that optimum number. The director shall, in making this determination, consider the impacts of all non-treaty fisheries on weak stocks of salmon including those originating in Hood Canal. The director shall also consider possible environmental factors contributing to the declining fishery in Hood Canal. The director shall specifically evaluate the following issues in Hood Canal:

(1) Whether commercial salmon fisheries in Hood Canal should be restricted to certain areas;

(2) Whether guidelines pertaining to depth of nets and distance from the shoreline for vessels or skiffs are necessary; and

(3) Whether more effective methods of minimizing incidental catch in Hood Canal of blackmouth during commercial net fisheries and of coho salmon during the chum salmon fishery are needed.

Based on this evaluation, the director shall determine whether fishing regulations for Hood Canal commercial salmon fisheries should be modified, and how to minimize environmental damage to the bottom and aquatic plant life of Hood Canal.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The director of the department of fisheries shall, in determining the number of licenses that should be issued, consider the impact of commercial incidental catch of fish on the recreational fishery. The director shall evaluate the need for a study for observing and documenting incidental catch of fish in non-treaty commercial fisheries. If a study is determined to be necessary, the director shall develop a study plan for observing and documenting incidental catch. The director shall initiate discussions with tribal representatives concerning evaluation of the incidental catch in tribal fisheries. The department shall present its findings and recommendations under sections 2 and 3 of this act to the legislature on or before December 1, 1991.

The director shall invite members of the house fisheries and wildlife committee and the senate committee on environment and natural resources to attend meetings in which these recommendations are being developed., and the bill and the amendment are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 19, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5882 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that drug asset forfeiture and criminal profiteering laws allow law enforcement officials and the courts to strip drug dealers and other successful criminals of the wealth they have acquired from their crimes and the assets they have used to facilitate those crimes. These laws are rarely used by prosecutors, however, because of the difficulty in identifying profiteering and the assets that criminals may have as a result of their crimes. It is the intent of the legislature to provide assistance to local law enforcement officials and state agencies to seize the assets of criminals and the proceeds of their profiteering.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 43.10 RCW to read as follows:

The attorney general shall: (1) Assist local law enforcement officials in the development of cases arising under the criminal profiteering laws with special emphasis on narcotics related cases; (2) assist local prosecutors in the litigation of criminal profiteering or drug asset forfeiture cases, or, at the request of a prosecutor's office, litigate such cases on its behalf; and (3) conduct seminars and training sessions on prosecution of criminal profiteering cases and drug asset forfeiture cases.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 43.10 RCW to read as follows:

All assets recovered pursuant to section 2 of this act shall be distributed in the following manner: (1) For drug asset forfeitures, pursuant to the provisions of RCW 69.50.505; and (2) for criminal profiteering cases, pursuant to the provisions of RCW 9A.82.100.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If specific funding for the purposes of this act, referencing this act by bill number, is not provided by June 30, 1991, in the omnibus appropriations act, this act shall be null and void.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "criminals;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding new sections to chapter 43.10 RCW; and creating new sections."

On page 2, line 7 strike all of section 4

On page 2, line 16 of the title amendment strike "new sections" and insert "a new section"

On page 1, line 19 of the amendment strike "shall" and insert "may", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 19, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5156 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 29.18 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A person filing a declaration and affidavit of candidacy for an office shall, at the time of filing, possess the qualifications specified by law for persons who may be elected to the office.

(2) The name of a candidate for an office shall not appear on a ballot for that office unless the candidate is, at the time the candidate's declaration and affidavit of candidacy is filed, properly registered to vote in the geographic area represented by the office. For the purposes of this section, each geographic area in which registered voters may cast ballots for an office is represented by that office. If a person elected to an office must be nominated from a district or similar division of the geographic area represented by the office, the name of a candidate for the office shall not appear on a primary ballot for that office unless the candidate is, at the time the candidate's declaration and affidavit of candidacy is filed, properly registered to vote in that district or division. The officer with whom declarations and affidavits of candidacy must be filed under this title shall review each such declaration filed regarding compliance with this subsection.

(3) This section does not apply to the office of a member of the United States congress.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 29.04 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The legislative authority of each county and each city, town, and special purpose district which lies entirely within the county shall provide the county auditor accurate information describing its geographical boundaries and the boundaries of its director, council, or commissioner districts and shall ensure that the information provided to the auditor is kept current.

(2) A city, town, or special purpose district that lies in more than one county shall provide the secretary of state accurate information describing its geographical boundaries and the boundaries of its director, council, or commissioner districts and shall ensure that the information provided to the secretary is kept current. The secretary of state shall promptly transmit to each county in which a city, town, or special purpose district is located information regarding the boundaries of that jurisdiction which is provided to the secretary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Sections 1 and 2 of this act are each recodified as sections in chapter 29.15 RCW on July 1, 1992.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "requirements;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new section to chapter 29.18 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 29.04 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 29.15 RCW; and recodifying RCW 29.18.--- and 29.04.---", and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator McCaslin, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5156.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5156, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5156, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 5.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Erwin, Gaspard, Hansen, Hayner, Jesernig, Johnson, M. Kreidler, Madsen, Matson, McCaslin, McMullen, Metcalf, Murray, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Oke, Owen, Patterson, Pelz, Rinehart, Roach, Saling, Skratek, A. Smith, L. ## MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 10, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5473 with the following amendment:

On page 1, after line 6, strike all material through "RCW 4.92.210." on page 2, line 2 and insert:

"The tort claims revolving fund is created in the custody of the treasurer to be used solely and exclusively for the payment of claims arising out of tortious conduct taking place prior to July 1, 1990 and against both the state and its officers, employees, and volunteers for whom the defense of the claims was authorized under RCW 4.92.070.

Monies paid from the revolving fund for any claim are limited to the amount by which the claim exceeds the amount available to the claimant from any valid and collectible liability insurance. Payment from the revolving fund shall not be made until the claim has been approved for payment in accordance with RCW 4.92.210.", and the bill and the amendment are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 18, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5512 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 56.08 RCW to read as follows:

It is unlawful and a misdemeanor to make, or cause to be made, or to maintain any sewer connection with any sewer of any sewer district, or with any sewer which is connected directly or indirectly with any sewer of any sewer district without having permission from the sewer district.

Sec. 2. RCW 56.12.015 and 1990 c 259 s 23 are each amended to read as follows:

If a three-member board of commissioners of any sewer district with any number of customers determines by resolution (~~((and approves by unanimous vote of the board))~~) that it would be in the best interest of the district to increase the number of commissioners from three to five, or if the board of a sewer district with any number of customers is presented with a petition signed by ten percent of the registered voters resident within the district who voted in the last general municipal election calling for an increase in the number of commissioners of the district, the board shall submit a resolution to the county auditor requesting that an election be held. Upon receipt of the resolution, the county auditor shall call a special election to be held within the sewer district in accordance with RCW 29.13.010 and 29.13.020, at which election a proposition in substantially the following language shall be submitted to the voters:

Shall the Board of Commissioners of .....(Name and/or No. of sewer district)..... be increased from three to five members?

Yes .....

No .....

If the proposition receives a majority approval at the election the board of commissioners of the sewer district shall be increased to five members. In any sewer district with more than ten thousand customers, if a three-member board of commissioners determines by resolution and approves by unanimous vote of the board that it would be in the best interest of the district to increase the number of commissioners from three to five, the number of commissioners shall be so increased, without an election, unless within ninety days of adoption of that resolution, a petition requesting an election and signed by at least ten percent of the registered voters who voted in the last general municipal election is filed with the board. If such a petition is received, the board shall submit the resolution and the petition to the county auditor, who shall call a special election in the manner described in this section and in accordance with the provisions of RCW 29.13.010 and 29.13.020.

The two positions created on boards of sewer commissioners by this section shall be filled initially as for a vacancy, except that the appointees shall draw lots, one appointee to serve until the next general sewer district election after the appointment, at which two commissioners shall be elected for six-year terms, and the other appointee to serve until the second general sewer district election after the appointment, at which two commissioners shall be elected for six-year terms.

Whether the improvement is initiated by petition or resolution, the board shall conduct a public hearing at the time and place designated in the notice to property owners. At this hearing the board shall hear objections from any person affected by the formation of the local district and may make such changes in the boundaries of the district or such modifications in plans for the proposed improvement as shall be deemed necessary. The board may not change the boundaries of the district to include property not previously included in it without first passing a new resolution of intention and giving a new notice to property owners in the manner and form and within the time provided in this chapter for the original notice.

After the hearing and the expiration of the ten-day period for filing written protests, the commissioners shall have jurisdiction to overrule protests and proceed with any such improvement initiated by petition or resolution. The jurisdiction of the commissioners to proceed with any improvement initiated by resolution shall be divested: (a) By protests filed with the secretary of the board ((before the public hearing)) no later than ten days after the hearing, signed by the owners, according to the records of the county auditor, of at least forty percent of the area of land within the proposed local district or (b) by the commissioners not adopting a resolution ordering the improvement at a public hearing held not more than ninety days from the day the resolution of intention was adopted, unless the commissioners file with the county auditor a copy of the notice required by RCW 56.20.020, and in no event at a hearing held more than two years from the day the resolution of intention was adopted.

If the commissioners find that the district should be formed, they shall by resolution form the district and order the improvement. After execution of the resolution forming the district, the secretary of the board of commissioners shall publish, in a legal publication that serves the area subject to the district, a notice setting forth that a resolution has been passed forming the district and that a lawsuit challenging the jurisdiction or authority of the sewer district to proceed with the improvement and creating the district must be filed, and notice to the sewer district served, within thirty days of the publication of the notice. The notice shall set forth the nature of the appeal. Property owners bringing the appeal shall follow the procedures as set forth under appeal under RCW 56.20.080. Whenever a resolution forming a district has been adopted, the formation is conclusive in all things upon all parties, and cannot be contested or questioned in any manner in any proceeding whatsoever by any person not commencing a lawsuit in the manner and within the time provided in this section, except for lawsuits made under RCW 56.20.080.

Following an appeal, if it is unsuccessful or if no appeal is made under RCW 56.20.080, the commissioners may proceed with the improvement and provide the general funds of the sewer district to be applied thereto, adopt detailed plans of the utility local improvement district and declare the estimated cost thereof, acquire all necessary land therefor, pay all damages caused thereby, and commence in the name of the sewer district such eminent domain proceedings and supplemental assessment or reassessment proceedings to pay all eminent domain awards as may be necessary to entitle the district to proceed with the work. The board of sewer commissioners shall proceed with the work and file with the county treasurer of each county in which the real property is to be assessed its roll levying special assessments in the amount to be paid by special assessment against the property situated within the local improvement district in proportion to the special benefits to be derived by the property therein from the improvement.

The decision of the sewer commission upon any objections made within the time and in the manner herein prescribed, may be reviewed by the superior court upon an appeal thereto taken in the following manner. Such appeal shall be made by filing written notice of appeal with the secretary of said sewer commission and with the clerk of the superior court in the county in which the real property is situated within ten days after publication of a notice that the resolution confirming such assessment roll has been adopted, and such notice of appeal shall describe the property and set forth the objections of such appellant to such assessment. Within ten days from the filing of such notice of appeal with the clerk of the superior court, the appellant shall file with the clerk of said court, a transcript consisting of the assessment roll and his or her objections thereto, together with the resolution confirming such assessment roll and the record of the sewer district commission with reference to said assessment, which transcript, upon payment of the necessary fees therefor, shall be furnished by such secretary of said sewer commission and by him or her certified to contain full, true and correct copies of all matters and proceedings required to be included in such transcript. Such fees shall be the same as the fees payable to the county clerk for the preparation and certification of transcripts on appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals in civil actions. At the time of the filing of the notice of appeal with the clerk of the superior court a sufficient bond in the penal sum of two hundred dollars, with sureties thereon as provided by law for appeals in civil cases, shall be filed conditioned to prosecute such appeal without delay, and if unsuccessful, to pay all costs to which the sewer district is put by reason of such appeal. The court may order the appellant upon application therefor, to execute and file such additional bond or bonds as the necessity of the case may require. Within three days after such transcript is filed in the superior court, as aforesaid, the appellant shall give written notice to the secretary of such sewer district, that such transcript is filed. Said notice shall state a time, not less than three days from the service thereof, when the appellant will call up the said cause for hearing. The superior court shall, at said time or at such further time as may be fixed by order of the court, hear and determine such appeal without a jury, and such cause shall have preference over all civil causes pending in said court, except proceedings under an act relating to eminent domain in such sewer district and actions of forcible entry and detainer. The judgment of the court shall confirm, unless the court shall find from the evidence that such assessment is either founded upon a fundamentally wrong basis or a decision of the council or other legislative body thereon was arbitrary or capricious, or both; in which event the judgment of the court shall correct, modify or annul the assessment insofar as the same affects the property of the appellant. A certified copy of the decision of the court shall be filed with the officer who shall have the custody of the assessment roll, and he or she shall modify and correct such assessment roll in accordance with such decision. An appeal shall lie to the supreme court or the court of appeals from the judgment of the superior court, as in other cases, however, such appeal must be taken within fifteen days after the date of the entry of the judgment of such superior court, and the record and opening brief of the appellant in said cause shall be filed in the supreme court or the court of appeals within sixty days after the appeal shall have been taken by notice as provided in this title. The time for filing such record and serving and filing of briefs in this section prescribed may be extended by order of the superior court, or by stipulation of the parties concerned. The supreme court or the court of appeals on such appeal may correct, change, modify, confirm or annul the assessment insofar as the same affects the property of the appellant. A certified copy of the order of the supreme court or the court of appeals upon such appeal shall be filed with the officer having custody of such assessment roll, who shall thereupon modify and correct such assessment roll in accordance with such decision.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 57.08 RCW to read as follows:

It is unlawful and a misdemeanor to make, or cause to be made, or to maintain any sewer connection with any sewer of any water district, or with any sewer which is connected directly or indirectly with any sewer of any water district without having permission from the water district.

Sec. 6. RCW 57.12.015 and 1990 c 259 s 29 are each amended to read as follows:

In the event a three-member board of commissioners of any water district with any number of customers determines by resolution (~~and approves by unanimous vote of the board~~) that it would be in the best interest of the district to increase the number of commissioners from three to five, or in the event the board of a district with any number of customers is presented with a petition signed by ten percent of the registered voters resident within the district who voted in the last general municipal election calling for an increase in the number of commissioners of the district, the board shall submit a resolution to the county auditor requesting that an election be held. Upon receipt of the resolution, the county auditor shall call a special election to be held within the water district in accordance with RCW 29.13.010 and 29.13.020, at which election a proposition in substantially the following language shall be submitted to the voters:

Shall the Board of Commissioners of (Name and/or No. of water district) be increased from three to five members?

Yes .....

No .....

If the proposition receives a majority approval at the election the board of commissioners of the water district shall be increased to five members. In any water district with more than ten thousand customers, if a three-member board of commissioners determines by resolution and approves by unanimous vote of the board that it would be in the best interest of the district to increase the number of commissioners from three to five, the number of commissioners shall be so increased, without an election, unless within ninety days of adoption of that resolution a petition requesting an election and signed by at least ten percent of the registered voters who voted in the last general municipal election is filed with the board. If such a petition is received, the board shall submit the resolution and the petition to the county auditor, who shall call a special election in the manner described in this section and in accordance with the provisions of RCW 29.13.010 and 29.13.020.

The two positions created on boards of water commissioners by this section shall be filled initially as for a vacancy, except that the appointees shall draw lots, one appointee to serve until the next general water district election after the appointment, at which two commissioners shall be elected for six-year terms, and the other appointee to serve until the second general water district election after the appointment, at which two commissioners shall be elected for six-year terms.

Local improvement districts or utility local improvement districts to carry out the whole or any portion of the general comprehensive plan of improvements or plan providing for additions and betterments to the original general comprehensive plan previously adopted may be initiated either by resolution of the board of water commissioners or by petition signed by the owners according to the records of the office of the applicable county auditor of at least fifty-one percent of the area of the land within the limits of the local improvement district to be created.

In case the board of water commissioners desires to initiate the formation of a local improvement district or a utility local improvement district by resolution, it shall first pass a resolution declaring its intention to order such improvement, setting forth the nature and territorial extent of such proposed improvement, designating the number of the proposed local improvement district or utility local improvement district, and describing the boundaries thereof, stating the estimated cost and expense of the improvement and the proportionate amount thereof which will be borne by the property within the proposed district, and fixing a date, time, and place for a public hearing on the formation of the proposed local district.

In case any such local improvement district or utility local improvement district is initiated by petition, such petition shall set forth the nature and territorial extent of the proposed improvement requested to be ordered and the fact that the signers thereof are the owners according to the records of the applicable county auditor of at least fifty-one percent of the area of land within the limits of the local improvement district or utility local improvement district to be created. Upon the filing of such petition the board shall determine whether the petition is sufficient, and the board's determination thereof shall be conclusive upon all persons. No person may withdraw his or her name from the petition after it has been filed with the board of water commissioners. If the board finds the petition to be sufficient, it shall proceed to adopt a resolution declaring its intention to order the improvement petitioned for, setting forth the nature and territorial extent of the improvement, designating the number of the proposed local district and describing the boundaries thereof, stating the estimated cost and expense of the improvement and the proportionate amount thereof which will be borne by the property within the proposed local district, and fixing a date, time, and place for a public hearing on the formation of the proposed local district.

Notice of the adoption of the resolution of intention, whether the resolution was adopted on the initiative of the board or pursuant to a petition of the property owners, shall be published in at least two consecutive issues of a newspaper of general circulation in the proposed local district, the date of the first publication to be at least fifteen days prior to the date fixed by such resolution for hearing before the board of water commissioners. Notice of the adoption of the resolution of intention shall also be given each owner or reputed owner of any lot, tract, parcel of land, or other property within the proposed improvement district by mailing the notice at least fifteen days before the date fixed for the public hearing to the owner or reputed owner of the property as shown on the tax rolls of the county treasurer of the county in which the real property is located at the address shown thereon. Whenever such notices are mailed, the water commissioners shall maintain a list of such reputed property owners, which list shall be kept on file at a location within the water district and shall be made available for public perusal. The notices shall refer to the resolution of intention and designate the proposed improvement district by number. The notices shall also set forth the nature of the proposed improvement, the total estimated cost, the proportion of total cost to be borne by assessments, the date, time, and place of the hearing before the board of water commissioners. In the case of improvements initiated by resolution, the notice shall also: (1) State that all persons desiring to object to the formation of the proposed district must file their written protests with the secretary of the board of water commissioners no later than ten days after the public hearing; (2) state that if owners of at least forty percent of the area of land within the proposed district file written protests with the secretary of the board, the power of the water commissioners to proceed with the creation of the proposed district shall be divested; (3) provide the name and address of the secretary of the board; and (4) state the hours and location within the water district where the names of the property owners within the proposed district are kept available for public perusal. In the case of the notice given each owner or reputed owner by mail, the notice shall set forth the estimated amount of the cost and expense of such improvement to be borne by the particular lot, tract, parcel of land, or other property.

Whether the improvement is initiated by petition or resolution, the board shall conduct a public hearing at the time and place designated in the notice to property owners. At this hearing the board shall hear objections from any person affected by the formation of the local district and may make such changes in the boundaries of the district or such modifications in the plans for the proposed improvement as shall be deemed necessary. The board may not change the boundaries of the district to include property not previously included in it without first passing a new resolution of intention and giving a new notice to property owners in the manner and form and within the time provided in this chapter for the original notice.

After the hearing and the expiration of the ten-day period for filing written protests, the commissioners shall have jurisdiction to overrule protests and proceed with any such improvement initiated by petition or resolution. The jurisdiction of the commissioners to proceed with any improvement initiated by resolution shall be divested by protests filed with the secretary of the board (~~before the public hearing~~) no later than ten days after the hearing, signed by the owners, according to the records of the applicable county auditor, of at least forty percent of the area of land within the proposed local district.

If the commissioners find that the district should be formed, they shall by resolution form the district and order the improvement. After execution of the resolution forming the district, the secretary of the board of commissioners shall publish, in a legal publication that serves the area subject to the district, a notice setting forth that a resolution has been passed forming the district and that a lawsuit challenging the jurisdiction or authority of the water district to proceed with the improvement and creating the district must be filed, and notice to the water district served, within thirty days of the publication of the notice. The notice shall set forth the nature of the appeal. Property owners bringing the appeal shall follow the procedures as set forth under appeal under RCW 57.16.090. Whenever a resolution forming a district has been adopted, the formation is conclusive in all things upon all parties, and cannot be contested or questioned in any manner in any proceeding whatsoever by any person not commencing a lawsuit in the manner and within the time provided in this section, except for lawsuits made under RCW 57.16.090.

Following an appeal, if it is unsuccessful or if no appeal is made under RCW 57.16.090, the commissioners may proceed with the improvement and provide the general funds of the water district to be applied thereto, adopt detailed plans of the local improvement district or utility local improvement district and declare the estimated cost thereof, acquire all necessary land therefor, pay all damages caused thereby, and commence in the name of the water district such eminent domain proceedings as may be necessary to entitle the district to proceed with the work. The board shall thereupon proceed with the work and file with the county treasurer of the county in which the real property is located its roll levying special assessments in the amount to be paid by special assessment against the property situated within the improvement district in proportion to the special benefits to be derived by the property therein from the improvement.

Sec. 8. RCW 57.16.090 and 1988 c 202 s 53 are each amended to read as follows:

The decision of the water district commission upon any objections made within the time and in the manner herein prescribed, may be reviewed by the superior court upon an appeal thereto taken in the following manner. Such appeal shall be made by filing written notice of appeal with the secretary of said water district commission and with the clerk of the superior court in the county in which the real property is situated within ten days after publication of a notice that the resolution confirming such assessment roll has been adopted, and such notice of appeal shall describe the property and set forth the objections of such appellant to such assessment; and within ten days from the filing of such notice of appeal with the clerk of the superior court, the appellant shall file with the clerk of the court, a transcript consisting of the assessment roll and the appellant's objections thereto, together with the resolution confirming such assessment roll and the record of the water district commission with reference to the assessment, which transcript, upon payment of the necessary fees therefor, shall be furnished by the secretary of the water district commission certified by the secretary to contain full, true and correct copies of all matters and proceedings required to be included in such transcript. Such fees shall be the same as the fees payable to the county clerk for the preparation and certification of transcripts on appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals in civil actions. At the time of the filing of the notice of appeal with the clerk of the superior court a sufficient bond in the penal sum of two hundred dollars, with at least two sureties, to be approved by the judge of said court, conditioned to prosecute such appeal without delay, and if unsuccessful to pay all costs to which the water district is put by reason of such appeal. The court may order the appellant upon application therefor, to execute and file such additional bond or bonds as the necessity of the case may require. Within three days after such transcript is filed in the superior court, the appellant shall give written notice to the secretary of such water district, that such transcript is filed. The notice shall state a time, not less than three days from the service thereof, when the appellant will call up the cause for hearing; and the superior court shall, at said time or at such further time as may be fixed by order of the court, hear and determine such appeal without a jury; and such cause shall have preference over all civil causes pending in the court, except proceedings under an act relating to eminent domain and actions of forcible entry and detainer. The judgment of the court shall confirm, unless the court shall find from the evidence that such assessment is either founded upon the fundamentally wrong basis or a decision of the council or other legislative body thereon was arbitrary or capricious, or both; in which event the judgment of the court shall correct, modify or annul the assessment insofar as the same affects the property of the appellant. A certified copy of the decision of the court shall be filed with the officer who shall have custody of the assessment roll, who shall modify and correct such assessment roll in accordance with such decision. Appellate review of the judgment of the superior court may be sought as in other civil cases. However, the review must be sought within fifteen days after the date of the entry of the judgment of such superior court. A certified copy of the order of the supreme court or the court of appeals upon such appeal shall be filed with the officer having custody of such assessment roll, who shall thereupon modify and correct such assessment roll in accordance with such decision.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "districts;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 56.12.015, 56.20.030, 56.20.080, 57.12.015, 57.16.060, and 57.16.090; adding a new section to chapter 56.08 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 57.08 RCW; and prescribing penalties.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 15, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5678 with the following amendments:

On page 2, beginning on line 5, strike all of section 2 and insert the following:

Sec. 2. RCW 1.16.050 and 1989 c 128 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The following are legal holidays: Sunday; the first day of January, commonly called New Year's Day; the third Monday of January, being celebrated as the anniversary of the birth of Martin Luther King, Jr.; the third Monday of February to be known as Presidents' Day and to be celebrated as the anniversary of the births of Abraham Lincoln and George Washington; the last Monday of May, commonly known as Memorial Day; the fourth day of July, being the anniversary of the Declaration of Independence; the first Monday in September, to be known as Labor Day; the eleventh day of November, to be known as Veterans' Day; the fourth Thursday in November, to be known as Thanksgiving Day; the day immediately following Thanksgiving Day; and the twenty-fifth day of December, commonly called Christmas Day.

Employees of the state and its political subdivisions, except employees of school districts and except those nonclassified employees of institutions of higher education who hold appointments or are employed under contracts to perform services for periods of less than twelve consecutive months, shall be entitled to one paid holiday per calendar year in addition to those specified in this section. Each employee of the state or its political subdivisions may select the day on which the employee desires to take the additional holiday provided for herein after consultation with the employer pursuant to guidelines to be promulgated by rule of the appropriate personnel authority, or in the case of local government by ordinance or resolution of the legislative authority.

If any of the above specified state legal holidays are also federal legal holidays but observed on different dates, only the state legal holidays shall be recognized as a paid legal holiday for employees of the state and its political subdivisions except that for port districts and the law enforcement and public transit employees of municipal corporations, either the federal or the state legal holiday, but in no case both, may be recognized as a paid legal holiday for employees.

Whenever any legal holiday, other than Sunday, falls upon a Sunday, the following Monday shall be the legal holiday.

Whenever any legal holiday falls upon a Saturday, the preceding Friday shall be the legal holiday.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to have the effect of adding or deleting the number of paid holidays provided for in an agreement between employees and employers of political subdivisions of the state or as established by ordinance or resolution of the local government legislative authority.

The legislature declares that the twelfth day of October shall be recognized as Columbus Day but shall not be considered a legal holiday for any purposes.

The legislature declares that the ninth day of April shall be recognized as former prisoner of war recognition day but shall not be considered a legal holiday for any purposes.

The legislature declares that the twenty-sixth day of January shall be recognized as Washington army and air national guard day but shall not be considered a legal holiday for any purposes.

On page 1, line 2 of the title, strike "adding a new section to chapter 1.20 RCW" and insert "amending RCW 1.16.050", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 12, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5568 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Hunger and malnutrition threaten the future of a whole generation of children in Washington. Children who are hungry or malnourished are unable to function optimally in the classroom and are thus at risk of lower achievement in school. The resultant diminished future capacity of and opportunities for these children will affect this state's economic and social future. Thus, the legislature finds that the state has an interest in helping families provide nutritious meals to children.

The legislature also finds that the state has an interest in helping hungry and malnourished adults obtain necessary nourishment. Adequate nourishment is necessary for physical health, and physical health is the foundation of self-sufficiency. Adequate nourishment is especially critical in the case of pregnant and lactating women, both to ensure that all mothers and babies are as healthy as possible and to minimize the costs associated with the care of low-birthweight babies.

"PART I WIC"

NEW SECTION. Sec. 101. The legislature finds that the special supplemental food program for women, infants, and children has proven effective in preventing infant mortality, reducing the number of undemourished children with retarded growth, reducing the incidence of delayed cognitive development and decreasing the number of low-birthweight babies. However, not all of the eligible mothers and children in this state are currently served by the program. Therefore, the legislature intends to increase the number of eligible women and children served by the program.

"PART II EMERGENCY FOOD ASSISTANCE PROGRAM"

NEW SECTION. Sec. 201. The legislature finds that the emergency food assistance program has been successful in defraying the costs of operating food banks and food distribution programs in the state. However, current resources are inadequate to meet the needs of the hungry and malnourished people in this state. Additional funding for the emergency food assistance program is needed to provide for the purchase, transportation, and storage of food and to support the operation of food banks, food distribution programs, and tribal voucher programs.

Additionally, many of the people who receive food from food banks have special nutritional needs that are not currently being met. These include infants and children with disabilities, pregnant and lactating women, adults with chronic diseases, people with acquired immune deficiency syndrome, people with lactose intolerance, people who have difficulty chewing, alcoholics, intravenous drug users, and people with cultural food preferences. The legislature finds that additional funds to provide special nutritional foods are necessary and that training regarding these special nutritional needs is needed for food bank staff and volunteers.

"PART III"

FOOD STAMPS"

NEW SECTION. Sec. 301. The legislature finds that delays in receiving food stamps often drive hungry families to food banks. Expediting the issuance of food stamps to eligible applicants will ease some of the pressure on the food bank system. The legislature also finds that some of those who currently apply for the expedited issuance of food stamps are not receiving them within the five-day waiting period. Therefore, the department is directed to issue food stamps to eligible applicants within twenty-four hours of application.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 302. The department shall issue expedited food stamps to eligible recipients within twenty-four hours of application. The department shall establish an eligibility process for the expedited issuance of food stamps that conforms to federal requirements and results in the least additional workload increase to department staff.

"PART IV NUTRITIONAL PROGRAMS"

NEW SECTION. Sec. 401. The legislature finds that the school breakfast and lunch programs, the summer feeding program, and the child and adult day care feeding programs authorized by the United States department of agriculture are effective in addressing unmet nutritional needs. However, some communities in the state do not participate in these programs. The result is hunger, malnutrition, and inadequate nutrition education for otherwise eligible persons living in nonparticipating communities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 402. The superintendent of public instruction shall aggressively solicit eligible schools, child and adult day care centers, and other organizations to participate in the nutrition programs authorized by the United States department of agriculture.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 403. The superintendent of public instruction shall:

(1) Provide start-up funds for school breakfast programs in those schools not qualifying as "severe need schools" as defined in chapter 239, Laws of 1989;

(2) Provide funds for school districts to start or restart school lunch programs;

(3) Provide an additional 10 cents per meal reimbursement for all meals served to children in schools. The per meal reimbursement shall be adjusted annually to reflect the cost of living using a process approved by the United States department of agriculture;

(4) Establish a marketing, promotion, education, and training program for use by all child nutrition programs;

(5) In coordination with the department of health and other organizations, develop and distribute material and provide training to help child nutrition programs comply with United States department of agriculture guidelines;

(6) In coordination with other agencies, allocate and administer national nutrition education training funds; and

(7) In coordination with other organizations, develop a media campaign to educate the public about child nutrition programs.

"PART V MISCELLANEOUS"

NEW SECTION. Sec. 501. Following the 1991 legislative session, the senate children and family services committee and the house of representatives human services committee shall conduct a joint interim study on:

(1) The need for nutrition programs for at-risk youth;

- (2) The nutritional needs of persons served in out-of-home care settings;
- (3) The nutritional needs of senior citizens; and
- (4) The nutritional needs of persons under the age of sixty who receive services through the long-term care system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 502. Parts and headings as used in this act constitute no part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 503. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 504. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1991.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 505. If specific funding for the purposes of section 101 of this act, referencing section 101 of this act by bill number and section, is not provided by June 30, 1991, in the omnibus appropriations act, section 101 of this act shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 506. If specific funding for the purposes of section 201 of this act, referencing section 201 of this act by bill number and section, is not provided by June 30, 1991, in the omnibus appropriations act, section 201 of this act shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 507. If specific funding for the purposes of sections 301 and 302 of this act, referencing sections 301 and 302 of this act by bill number and sections, is not provided by June 30, 1991, in the omnibus appropriations act, sections 301 and 302 of this act shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 508. If specific funding for the purposes of sections 402 and 403 of this act, referencing sections 402 and 403 of this act by bill number and sections, is not provided by June 30, 1991, in the omnibus appropriations act, sections 402 and 403 of this act shall be null and void.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "nutrition;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "creating new sections; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

Voting nay: Senators Conner, M. Kreidler, Wojahn - 3.

Excused: Senators Moore, Rasmussen, Sellar - 3.

SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5568, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 17, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5456 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Improving the quality of instruction at our state institutions of higher education is a priority of the legislature. Recently, many efforts have been made by the legislature, the colleges, and the higher education coordinating board to assess and improve the quality of instruction received by students at our state institutions. It is the intent of the legislature that, in conjunction with these various efforts, the process for the award of faculty tenure at community colleges should allow for a thorough review of the performance of faculty appointees prior to the granting of tenure.

Sec. 2. RCW 28B.50.851 and 1988 c 32 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in RCW 28B.50.850 through 28B.50.869:

(1) "Tenure" shall mean a faculty appointment for an indefinite period of time which may be revoked only for adequate cause and by due process;

(2) (a) "Faculty appointment", except as otherwise provided in subsection (2)(b) below, shall mean full time employment as a teacher, counselor, librarian or other position for which the training, experience and responsibilities are comparable as determined by the appointing authority, except administrative appointments; "faculty appointment" shall also mean department heads, division heads and administrators to the extent that such department heads, division heads or administrators have had or do have status as a teacher, counselor, or librarian; faculty appointment shall also mean employment on a reduced work load basis when a faculty member has retained tenure under RCW 28B.50.859;

(b) "Faculty appointment" shall not mean special faculty appointment as a teacher, counselor, librarian, or other position as enumerated in subsection (2)(a) of this section, when such employment results from special funds provided to a community college district from federal moneys or other special funds which other funds are designated as "special funds" by the state board for community college education: PROVIDED, That such "special funds" so designated by the state board for purposes of this section shall apply only to teachers, counselors and librarians hired from grants and service agreements and teachers, counselors and librarians hired in nonformula positions. A special faculty appointment resulting from such special financing may be terminated upon a reduction or elimination of funding or a reduction or elimination of program: PROVIDED FURTHER, That "faculty appointees" holding faculty appointments pursuant to subsections (1) or (2) (a) who have been subsequently transferred to positions financed from "special funds" pursuant to subsection (2) (b) and who thereafter lose their positions upon reduction or elimination of such "special funding" shall be entitled to be returned to previous status as faculty appointees pursuant to subsection (1) or (2) (a) depending upon their status prior to the "special funding" transfer. Notwithstanding the fact that tenure shall not be granted to anyone holding a special faculty appointment, the termination of any such faculty appointment prior to the expiration of the term of such faculty member's individual contract for any cause which is not related to elimination or reduction of financing or the elimination or reduction of program shall be considered a termination for cause subject to the provisions of this chapter;

(3) "Probationary faculty appointment" shall mean a faculty appointment for a designated period of time which may be terminated without cause upon expiration of the probationer's terms of employment;

(4) "Probationer" shall mean an individual holding a probationary faculty appointment;

(5) "Administrative appointment" shall mean employment in a specific administrative position as determined by the appointing authority;

(6) "Appointing authority" shall mean the board of trustees of a community college district;

(7) "Review committee" shall mean a committee composed of the probationer's faculty peers or tenured faculty member's peers, a student representative, and the administrative staff of the community college: PROVIDED, That the majority of the committee shall consist of the probationer's faculty peers or tenured faculty member's peers.

Sec. 3. RCW 28B.50.852 and 1969 ex.s. c 283 s 34 are each amended to read as follows:

The appointing authority shall promulgate rules and regulations implementing RCW 28B.50.850 through 28B.50.869 and shall provide for the award of faculty tenure following a probationary period not to exceed ~~((three consecutive regular college years))~~ nine consecutive college quarters, excluding summer quarter and approved leaves of absence: PROVIDED, That tenure may be awarded at any time as may be determined by the appointing authority after it has given reasonable consideration to the recommendations of the review committee. Upon formal recommendation of the review committee and with the written consent of the probationary faculty member, the appointing authority may extend its probationary period for one, two, or three quarters, excluding summer quarter, beyond the maximum probationary period established herein. No such extension shall be made, however, unless the review committee's recommendation is based on its belief that the probationary faculty member needs additional time to complete satisfactorily a professional improvement plan already in progress and in the committee's further belief that the probationary faculty member will complete the plan satisfactorily. At the conclusion of any such extension, the appointing authority may award tenure unless the probationary faculty member has, in the judgment of the committee, failed to complete the professional improvement plan satisfactorily.

Sec. 4. RCW 28B.50.857 and 1969 ex.s. c 283 s 37 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the decision not to renew a probationary faculty appointment, the appointing authority shall notify the probationer of such decision as soon as possible during the regular college year: PROVIDED, That such notice may not be given ~~((subsequent to the last day of the winter quarter))~~ later than one complete quarter, except summer quarter, before the expiration of the probationary faculty appointment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 28B.50 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The effectiveness and performance of each tenured faculty member of a community college shall be reviewed and formally evaluated by a review committee at least once every fifteen regular college quarters in which the tenured faculty member is employed by the community college. The size, composition, and duties of the review committee defined in RCW 28B.50.851(7) may be altered for the purposes of this section with the mutual consent of the exclusive bargaining agent and the appointing authority.

(2) If, after the review conducted pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the performance of the tenured faculty member is judged to be unsatisfactory by the review committee, the tenured faculty member may be required by the appointing authority to implement a performance improvement plan for a period of no more than three regular college quarters, not including summer quarter.

(3) If, after the three quarter period in subsection (2) of this section, the tenured faculty member's performance is deemed to be unsatisfactory by the review committee, the appointing authority may revoke tenure and return the faculty member to a probationary faculty appointment. The appointing authority shall ensure due process for tenured faculty members in the decision to return any member to a probationary faculty appointment.

(4) The provisions of subsections (2) and (3) of this section are in addition to any tenure revocation procedures established pursuant to chapter 28B.52 RCW.

(5) The procedures, criteria, and conditions implementing this section are subject to negotiations between the appointing authority and the faculty's exclusive bargaining representative.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to alter any existing collective bargaining unit or the provisions of any existing collective bargaining agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1991, and shall apply to all faculty appointments made by community colleges after June 30, 1991, but shall not apply to employees of community colleges who hold faculty appointments prior to July 1, 1991.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "modification;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 28B.50.851, 28B.50.852, and 28B.50.857; adding a new section to chapter 28B.50 RCW; creating new sections; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 11, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5363 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. "EARNINGS," "DISPOSABLE EARNINGS," AND "OBLIGEE" DEFINED. As used in this chapter, the term "earnings" means compensation paid or payable for personal services, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, hours, or otherwise, and notwithstanding any other provision of law making such payments exempt from garnishment, attachment, or other process to satisfy court-ordered legal financial obligations, specifically includes periodic payments pursuant to pension or retirement programs, or insurance policies of any type. Earnings shall specifically include all gain derived from capital, from labor, or from both, not including profit gained through sale or conversion of capital assets. The term "disposable earnings" means that part of the earnings of any individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of any amount required by law to be withheld. The term "obligee" means the department, party, or entity to whom the legal financial obligation is owed, or the department, party, or entity to whom the right to receive or collect support has been assigned.

Sec. 2. RCW 9.94A.145 and 1989 c 252 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever a person is convicted of a felony, the court may order the payment of a legal financial obligation as part of the sentence. The court must on either the judgment and sentence or on a subsequent order to pay, designate the total amount of a legal financial obligation and segregate this amount among the separate assessments made for restitution, costs~~((+))~~, fines, and other assessments required by law. On the same order, the court is also to set a sum that the offender is required to pay on a monthly basis towards satisfying the legal financial obligation. If the court fails to set the offender monthly payment amount, the department shall set the amount. Upon receipt of an offender's monthly payment, after restitution is satisfied, the county clerk shall distribute the payment proportionally among all other fines, costs, and assessments imposed, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(2) If the court determines that the offender, at the time of sentencing, has the means to pay for the cost of incarceration, the court may require the offender to pay for the cost of incarceration at a rate of fifty dollars per day of incarceration. Payment of other court-ordered financial obligations, including all legal financial obligations and costs of supervision shall take precedence over the payment of the cost of incarceration ordered by the court. All funds recovered from offenders for the cost of incarceration in the county jail shall be remitted to the county and the costs of incarceration in a prison shall be remitted to the department of corrections.

(3) The court may add to the judgment and sentence or subsequent order to pay a statement that a notice of payroll deduction is to be immediately issued. If the court chooses not to order the immediate issuance of a notice of payroll deduction at sentencing, the court shall add to the judgment and sentence or subsequent order to pay a statement that a notice of payroll deduction may be issued or other income-withholding action may be taken, without further notice to the offender if a monthly court-ordered legal financial obligation payment is not paid when due, and an amount equal to or greater than the amount payable for one month is owed.

If a judgment and sentence or subsequent order to pay does not include the statement that a notice of payroll deduction may be issued or other income-withholding action may be taken if a monthly legal financial obligation payment is past due, the department may serve a notice on the offender stating such requirements and authorizations. Service shall be by personal service or any form of mail requiring a return receipt.

(4) All legal financial obligations that are ordered as a result of a conviction for a felony, may also be enforced in the same manner as a judgment in a civil action by the party or entity to whom the legal financial obligation is owed. These obligations may be enforced at any time during the ten-year period following the offender's release from total confinement or within ten years of entry of the judgment and sentence, whichever period is longer. Independent of the department, the party or entity to whom the legal financial obligation is owed shall have the authority to utilize any other remedies available to the party or entity to collect the legal financial obligation.

~~((+))~~ (5) In order to assist the court in setting a monthly sum that the offender must pay during the period of supervision, the offender is required to report to the department for purposes of preparing a recommendation to the court. When reporting, the offender is required, under oath, to truthfully and honestly respond to all questions concerning present, past, and future earning capabilities and the location and nature of all property or financial assets. The offender is further required to bring any and all documents as requested by the department.

((4)) (6) After completing the investigation, the department shall make a report to the court on the amount of the monthly payment that the offender should be required to make towards a satisfied legal financial obligation.

((5)) (7) During the period of supervision, the department may make a recommendation to the court that the offender's monthly payment schedule be modified so as to reflect a change in financial circumstances. If the department sets the monthly payment amount, the department may modify the monthly payment amount without the matter being returned to the court. Also, during the period of supervision, the offender may be required at the request of the department to report to the department for the purposes of reviewing the appropriateness of the collection schedule for the legal financial obligation. During this reporting, the offender is required under oath to truthfully and honestly respond to all questions concerning earning capabilities and the location and nature of all property or financial assets. Also, the offender is required to bring any and all documents as requested by the department in order to prepare the collection schedule.

((6)) (8) After the judgment and sentence or payment order is entered, the department shall for any period of supervision be authorized to collect the legal financial obligation from the offender. Any amount collected by the department shall be remitted daily to the county clerk for the purposes of disbursements. The department is authorized to accept credit cards as payment for a legal financial obligation, and any costs incurred related to accepting credit card payments shall be the responsibility of the offender.

((7)) (9) The department or any obligee of the legal financial obligation may seek a mandatory wage assignment for the purposes of obtaining satisfaction for the legal financial obligation pursuant to RCW 9.94A.2001.

((8)) (10) The requirement that the offender pay a monthly sum towards a legal financial obligation constitutes a condition ~~((and term of community supervision))~~ or requirement of a sentence and the offender is subject to the penalties as provided in RCW 9.94A.200 for noncompliance.

((9)) (11) The county clerk shall provide the department with individualized monthly billings for each offender with an unsatisfied legal financial obligation and shall provide the department with ~~((written))~~ notice of payments by such offenders no less frequently than weekly.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. LEGAL FINANCIAL OBLIGATION--NOTICE OF PAYROLL DEDUCTION--ISSUANCE AND CONTENT. (1) The department may issue a notice of payroll deduction in a criminal action if:

(a) The court at sentencing orders its immediate issuance; or

(b) The offender is more than thirty days past due in monthly payments in an amount equal to or greater than the amount payable for one month, provided:

(i) The judgment and sentence or subsequent order to pay contains a statement that a notice of payroll deduction may be issued without further notice to the offender; or

(ii) The department has served a notice on the offender stating such requirements and authorization. Service of such notice shall be made by personal service or any form of mail requiring a return receipt.

(2) The notice of payroll deduction is to be in writing and include:

(a) The name, social security number, and identifying court case number of the offender/employee;

(b) The amount to be deducted from the offender/employee's disposable earnings each month, or alternative amounts and frequencies as may be necessary to facilitate processing of the payroll deduction by the employer;

(c) A statement that the total amount withheld on all payroll deduction notices for payment of court-ordered legal financial obligations combined shall not exceed twenty-five percent of the offender/employee's disposable earnings; and

(d) The address to which the payments are to be mailed or delivered.

(3) An informational copy of the notice of payroll deduction shall be mailed to the offender's last known address by regular mail or shall be personally served.

(4) Neither the department nor any agents of the department shall be held liable for actions taken under RCW 9.94A.145 and sections 1 and 3 through 11 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. LEGAL FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS--NOTICE OF PAYROLL DEDUCTION--AMOUNTS TO BE WITHHELD. (1) The total amount to be withheld from the offender/employee's earnings each month, or from each earnings disbursement, shall not exceed twenty-five percent of the disposable earnings of the offender.

(2) If the offender is subject to two or more notices of payroll deduction for payment of a court-ordered legal financial obligation from different obligees, the employer or entity shall, if the nonexempt portion of the offender's earnings is not sufficient to respond fully to all notices of payroll deduction, apportion the offender's nonexempt disposable earnings between or among the various obligees equally.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. LEGAL FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS--NOTICE OF PAYROLL DEDUCTION--EMPLOYER OR ENTITY RESPONSIBILITIES. (1) An employer or entity upon whom a notice of payroll deduction is served, shall make an answer to the department within twenty days after the date of service. The answer shall confirm compliance and institution of the payroll deduction or explain the circumstances if no payroll deduction is in effect. The answer shall also state whether the offender is employed by or receives earnings from the employer or entity, whether the employer or entity anticipates paying earnings, and the amount of earnings. If the offender is no longer employed, or receiving earnings from the employer or entity, the answer shall state the present employer or entity's name and address, if known.

(2) Service of a notice of payroll deduction upon an employer or entity requires an employer or entity to immediately make a mandatory payroll deduction from the offender/employee's unpaid disposable earnings. The employer or entity shall thereafter at each pay period deduct the amount stated in the notice divided by the number of pay periods per month. The employer or entity must remit the proper amounts to the appropriate clerk of the court on each date the offender/employee is due to be paid.

(3) The employer or entity may combine amounts withheld from the earnings of more than one employee in a single payment to the clerk of the court, listing separately the amount of the payment that is attributable to each individual employee.

(4) The employer or entity may deduct a processing fee from the remainder of the employee's earnings after withholding under the notice of payroll deduction, even if the remainder is exempt under section 11 of this act. The processing fee may not exceed:

(a) Ten dollars for the first disbursement made by the employer to the clerk of the court; and

(b) One dollar for each subsequent disbursement made under the notice of payroll deduction.

(5) The notice of payroll deduction shall remain in effect until released by the department or the court enters an order terminating the notice.

(6) An employer shall be liable to the obligee for the amount of court-ordered legal financial obligation moneys that should have been withheld from the offender/employee's earnings, if the employer:

(a) Fails or refuses, after being served with a notice of payroll deduction, to deduct and promptly remit from unpaid earnings the amounts of money required in the notice; or

(b) Fails or refuses to submit an answer to the notice of payroll deduction after being served. In such cases, liability may be established in superior court. Awards in superior court shall include costs, interest under RCW 19.52.020 and 4.56.110, reasonable attorney fees, and staff costs as part of the award.

(7) No employer who complies with a notice of payroll deduction under this chapter may be liable to the employee for wrongful withholding.

(8) No employer may discipline or discharge an employee or refuse to hire a person by reason of an action authorized in this chapter. If an employer disciplines or discharges an employee or refuses to hire a person in violation of this section, the employee or person shall have a cause of action against the employer. The employer shall be liable for double the amount of lost wages and any other damages suffered as a result of the violation and for costs and reasonable attorney fees, and shall be subject to a civil penalty of not more than two thousand five hundred dollars for each violation. The employer may also be ordered to hire, rehire, or reinstate the aggrieved individual.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. MOTION TO QUASH, MODIFY, OR TERMINATE PAYROLL DEDUCTION--GROUNDS FOR RELIEF. (1) The offender subject to a payroll deduction under this chapter, may file a motion in superior court to quash, modify, or terminate the payroll deduction. The court may grant relief if:

(a) It is demonstrated that the payroll deduction causes extreme hardship or substantial injustice; or

(b) In cases where the court did not immediately order the issuance of a notice of payroll deduction at sentencing, that a court-ordered legal financial obligation payment was not more than thirty days past due in an amount equal to or greater than the amount payable for one month.

(2) Satisfaction by the offender of all past-due payments subsequent to the issuance of the notice of payroll deduction is not grounds to quash, modify, or terminate the notice of payroll deduction. If a notice of payroll deduction has been in operation for twelve consecutive months and the offender's payment towards a court-ordered legal financial obligation is current, upon motion of the offender, the court may order the department to terminate the payroll deduction, unless the department can show good cause as to why the notice of payroll deduction should remain in effect.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. LEGAL FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS--ORDER TO WITHHOLD AND DELIVER--ISSUE AND CONTENTS. (1) The department may issue to any person or entity an order to withhold and deliver property of any kind, including but not restricted to, earnings that are due, owing, or belonging to the offender, if the department has reason to believe that there is in the possession of such person or entity, property that is due, owing, or belonging to the offender. Such order to withhold and deliver may be issued when a court-ordered legal financial obligation payment is past due:

(a) If an offender's judgment and sentence or a subsequent order to pay includes a statement that other income-withholding action under this chapter may be taken without further notice to the offender.

(b) If a judgment and sentence or a subsequent order to pay does not include the statement that other income-withholding action under this chapter may be taken without further notice to the offender but the department has served a notice on the offender stating such requirements and authorizations. The service shall have been made by personal service or any form of mail requiring a return receipt.

(2) The order to withhold and deliver shall:

(a) Include the amount of the court-ordered legal financial obligation;

(b) Contain a summary of moneys that may be exempt from the order to withhold and deliver and a summary of the civil liability upon failure to comply with the order; and

(c) Be served by personal service or by any form of mail requiring a return receipt.

(3) The department shall also, on or before the date of service of the order to withhold and deliver, mail or cause to be mailed by any form of mail requiring a return receipt, a copy of the order to withhold and deliver to the offender at the offender's last known post office address, or, in the alternative, a copy of the order shall be personally served on the offender on or before the date of service of the order or within two days thereafter. The copy of the order shall be mailed or served together with an explanation of the right to petition for judicial review. If the copy is not mailed or served as this section provides, or if any irregularity appears with respect to the mailing or service, the superior court, in its discretion on motion of the offender promptly made and supported by affidavit showing that the offender has suffered substantial injury due to the failure to mail the copy, may set aside the order to withhold and deliver.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. LEGAL FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS--ORDER TO WITHHOLD AND DELIVER--DUTIES OF PERSON OR ENTITY SERVED. (1) A person or entity upon whom service has been made is hereby required to:

(a) Answer the order to withhold and deliver within twenty days, exclusive of the day of service, under oath and in writing, and shall make true answers to the matters inquired of in the order; and

(b) Provide further and additional answers when requested by the department.

(2) Any person or entity in possession of any property that may be subject to the order to withhold and deliver shall:

(a)(i) Immediately withhold such property upon receipt of the order to withhold and deliver;

(ii) Deliver the property to the appropriate clerk of the court as soon as the twenty-day answer period expires;

(iii) Continue to withhold earnings payable to the offender at each succeeding disbursement interval and deliver amounts withheld from earnings to the appropriate clerk of the court within ten days of the date earnings are payable to the offender;

(iv) Inform the department of the date the amounts were withheld as requested under this section; or

(b) Furnish the appropriate clerk of the court a good and sufficient bond, satisfactory to the clerk, conditioned upon final determination of liability.

(3) Where money is due and owing under any contract of employment, expressed or implied, or is held by any person or entity subject to withdrawal by the offender, the money shall be delivered by remittance payable to the order of the appropriate clerk of the court.

(4) Delivery to the appropriate clerk of the court of the money or other property held or claimed shall satisfy the requirement and serve as full acquittance of the order to withhold and deliver.

(5) The person or entity required to withhold and deliver the earnings of a debtor under this action may deduct a processing fee from the remainder of the offender's earnings, even if the remainder would otherwise be exempt under section 11 of this act. The processing fee may not exceed:

(a) Ten dollars for the first disbursement to the appropriate clerk of the court; and

(b) One dollar for each subsequent disbursement.

(6) A person or entity shall be liable to the obligee in an amount equal to one hundred percent of the value of the court-ordered legal financial obligation that is the basis of the order to withhold and deliver, or the amount that should have been withheld, whichever amount is less, together with costs, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees if that person or entity fails or refuses to deliver property under the order.

The department is authorized to issue a notice of debt pursuant to and to take appropriate action to collect the debt under this chapter if a judgment has been entered as the result of an action by the court against a person or entity based on a violation of this section.

(7) Persons or entities delivering money or property to the appropriate clerk of the court under this chapter shall not be held liable for wrongful delivery.

(8) Persons or entities withholding money or property under this chapter shall not be held liable for wrongful withholding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. LEGAL FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS--BANKS, SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS, CREDIT UNIONS--SERVICE ON MAIN OFFICE OR BRANCH, EFFECT--COLLECTION ACTIONS AGAINST COMMUNITY BANK ACCOUNT, RIGHT TO COURT HEARING. An order to withhold and deliver or any other income-withholding action authorized by this chapter may be served on the main office of a bank, savings and loan association, or credit union or on a branch office of the financial institution. Service on the main office shall be effective to attach the deposits of an offender in the financial institution and compensation payable for personal services due the offender from the financial institution. Service on a branch office shall be effective to attach the deposits, accounts, credits, or other personal property of the offender, excluding compensation payable for personal services, in the possession or control of the particular branch served.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this act, if the department initiates collection action against a joint bank account, with or without the right of survivorship, or any other funds which are subject to the community property laws of this state, notice shall be given to all affected parties that the account or funds are subject to potential withholding. Such notice shall be by first class mail, return receipt required, or by personal service and be given at least twenty calendar days before withholding is made. Upon receipt of such notice, the nonobligated person shall have ten calendar days to file a petition with the department contesting the withholding of his or her interest in the account or funds. The department shall provide notice of the right of the filing of the petition with the notice provided in this paragraph. If the petition is not filed within the period provided for herein, the department is authorized to proceed with the collection action.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. LEGAL FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS--NOTICE OF DEBT--SERVICE OR MAILING--CONTENTS--ACTION ON, WHEN. (1) The department may issue a notice of debt in order to enforce and collect a court-ordered legal financial obligation debt through either a notice of payroll deduction or an order to withhold and deliver.

(2) The notice of debt may be personally served upon the offender or be mailed to the offender at his or her last known address by any form of mail requiring a return receipt, demanding payment within twenty days of the date of receipt.

(3) The notice of debt shall include:

(a) A statement of the total court-ordered legal financial obligation and the amount to be paid each month.

(b) A statement that earnings are subject to a notice of payroll deduction.

(c) A statement that earnings or property, or both, are subject to an order to withhold and deliver.

(d) A statement that the net proceeds will be applied to the satisfaction of the court-ordered legal financial obligation.

(4) Action to collect a court-ordered legal financial obligation by notice of payroll deduction or an order to withhold and deliver shall be lawful after twenty days from the date of service upon the offender or twenty days from the receipt or refusal by the offender of the notice of debt.

(5) The notice of debt will take effect only if the offender's monthly court-ordered legal financial obligation payment is not paid when due, and an amount equal to or greater than the amount payable for one month is owned.

(6) The department shall not be required to issue or serve the notice of debt in order to enforce and collect a court-ordered legal financial obligation debt through either a notice of payroll deduction or an order to withhold and deliver if either the offender's judgment and sentence or a subsequent order to pay includes a statement that income-withholding action under this chapter may be taken without further notice to the offender.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. LEGAL FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS--CERTAIN AMOUNT OF EARNINGS EXEMPT FROM NOTICE OF PAYROLL DEDUCTION OR ORDER TO WITHHOLD AND DELIVER. Whenever a notice of payroll deduction or order to withhold and deliver is served upon a person or entity asserting a court-ordered legal financial obligation debt against earnings and there is in the possession of the person or entity any of the earnings, RCW 6.27.150 shall not apply, but seventy-five percent of the disposable earnings shall be exempt and may be disbursed to the offender whether such earnings are paid, or to be paid weekly, monthly, or at other intervals and whether there is due the offender earnings for one week or for a longer period. The notice of payroll deduction or order to withhold and deliver shall continue to operate and require said person or entity to withhold the nonexempt portion of earnings, at each succeeding earnings disbursement interval until the entire amount of the court-ordered legal financial obligation debt has been withheld.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Captions as used in this act constitute no part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 1 and 3 through 11 of this act are each added to chapter 9.94A RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The code reviser shall codify sections 1 and 3 through 11 of this act between RCW 9.94A.200 and 9.94A.2001.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The provisions of this act are retroactive and apply to any actions commenced but not final before the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "obligations;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 9.94A.145; adding new sections to chapter 9.94A RCW; creating new sections; prescribing penalties; and declaring an emergency.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 10, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5466 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 18.64 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A pharmacist who dispenses a prescription product in the form manufactured by a commercial manufacturer pursuant to a prescription issued by a licensed practitioner is not liable to a person who was injured through the use of the product, based on a claim of the following:

(a) Strict liability in tort; or

(b) Implied warranty provisions under the uniform commercial code Title 62 RCW.

(2) The limitation on pharmacist's liability as provided in subsection (1) of this section shall only apply if the pharmacist complies with recordkeeping requirements pursuant to chapters 18.64, 69.41, and 69.50 RCW, and related administrative rules.

(3) A pharmacist who dispenses a prescription product in the form manufactured by a commercial manufacturer issued by a licensed practitioner is liable to the claimant only if the claimant's harm was proximately caused by (a) the negligence of the pharmacist; (b) breach of an express warranty made by the pharmacist; or (c) the intentional misrepresentation of facts about the product by the pharmacist or the intentional concealment of information about the product by the pharmacist. A pharmacist shall not be liable for the product manufacturer's liability except as provided in RCW 7.72.040.

Sec. 2. RCW 7.72.040 and 1981 c 27 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a product seller other than a manufacturer is liable to the claimant only if the claimant's harm was proximately caused by:

(a) The negligence of such product seller; or

(b) Breach of an express warranty made by such product seller; or

(c) The intentional misrepresentation of facts about the product by such product seller or the intentional concealment of information about the product by such product seller.

(2) A product seller, other than a manufacturer, shall have the liability of a manufacturer to the claimant if:

(a) No solvent manufacturer who would be liable to the claimant is subject to service of process under the laws of the claimant's domicile or the state of Washington; or

(b) The court determines that it is highly probable that the claimant would be unable to enforce a judgment against any manufacturer; or

(c) The product seller is a controlled subsidiary of a manufacturer, or the manufacturer is a controlled subsidiary of the product seller; or

(d) The product seller provided the plans or specifications for the manufacture or preparation of the product and such plans or specifications were a proximate cause of the defect in the product; or

(e) The product was marketed under a trade name or brand name of the product seller.

(3) Subsection (2) of this section does not apply to a pharmacist who dispenses a prescription product in the form manufactured by a commercial manufacturer pursuant to a prescription issued by a licensed practitioner if the pharmacist complies with recordkeeping requirements pursuant to chapters 18.64, 69.41, and 69.50 RCW, and related administrative rules.

Sec. 3. RCW 7.72.010 and 1981 c 27 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this chapter, unless the context clearly indicates to the contrary:

(1) Product seller. "Product seller" means any person or entity that is engaged in the business of selling products, whether the sale is for resale, or for use or consumption. The term includes a manufacturer, wholesaler, distributor, or retailer of the relevant product. The term also includes a party who is in the business of leasing or bailing such products. The term "product seller" does not include:

(a) A seller of real property, unless that person is engaged in the mass production and sale of standardized dwellings or is otherwise a product seller;

(b) A provider of professional services who utilizes or sells products within the legally authorized scope of the professional practice of the provider;

(c) A commercial seller of used products who resells a product after use by a consumer or other product user: PROVIDED, That when it is resold, the used product is in essentially the same condition as when it was acquired for resale; ~~((and))~~

(d) A finance lessor who is not otherwise a product seller. A "finance lessor" is one who acts in a financial capacity, who is not a manufacturer, wholesaler, distributor, or retailer, and who leases a product without having a reasonable opportunity to inspect and discover defects in the product, under a lease arrangement in which the selection, possession, maintenance, and operation of the product are controlled by a person other than the lessor; and

(e) A licensed pharmacist who dispenses a prescription product manufactured by a commercial manufacturer pursuant to a prescription issued by a licensed prescribing practitioner if the claim against the pharmacist is based upon strict liability in tort or the implied warranty provisions under the uniform commercial code, Title 62A RCW, and if the pharmacist complies with recordkeeping requirements pursuant to chapters 18.64, 69.41, and 69.50 RCW, and related administrative rules as provided in section 2 of this act. Nothing in this subsection (1)(e) affects a pharmacist's liability under RCW 7.72.040(1).

(2) Manufacturer. "Manufacturer" includes a product seller who designs, produces, makes, fabricates, constructs, or remanufactures the relevant product or component part of a product before its sale to a user or consumer. The term also includes a product seller or entity not otherwise a manufacturer that holds itself out as a manufacturer.

A product seller acting primarily as a wholesaler, distributor, or retailer of a product may be a "manufacturer" but only to the extent that it designs, produces, makes, fabricates, constructs, or remanufactures the product for its sale. A product seller who performs minor assembly of a product in accordance with the instructions of the manufacturer shall not be deemed a manufacturer. A product seller that did not participate in the design of a product and that constructed the product in accordance with the design specifications of the claimant or another product seller shall not be deemed a manufacturer for the purposes of RCW 7.72.030(1)(a).

(3) Product. "Product" means any object possessing intrinsic value, capable of delivery either as an assembled whole or as a component part or parts, and produced for introduction into trade or commerce. Human tissue and organs, including human blood and its components, are excluded from this term.

The "relevant product" under this chapter is that product or its component part or parts, which gave rise to the product liability claim.

(4) Product liability claim. "Product liability claim" includes any claim or action brought for harm caused by the manufacture, production, making, construction, fabrication, design, formula, preparation, assembly, installation, testing, warnings, instructions, marketing, packaging, storage or labeling of the relevant product. It includes, but is not limited to, any claim or action previously based on: Strict liability in tort; negligence; breach of express or implied warranty; breach of, or failure to, discharge a duty to warn or instruct, whether negligent or innocent; misrepresentation, concealment, or nondisclosure, whether negligent or innocent; or other claim or action previously based on any other substantive legal theory except fraud, intentionally caused harm or a claim or action under the consumer protection act, chapter 19.86 RCW.

(5) Claimant. "Claimant" means a person or entity asserting a product liability claim, including a wrongful death action, and, if the claim is asserted through or on behalf of an estate, the term includes claimant's decedent. "Claimant" includes any person or entity that suffers harm. A claim may be asserted under this chapter even though the claimant did not buy the product from, or enter into any contractual relationship with, the product seller.

(6) Harm. "Harm" includes any damages recognized by the courts of this state: PROVIDED, That the term "harm" does not include direct or consequential economic loss under Title 62A RCW.

On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "62A RCW;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 7.72.040 and 7.72.010; and adding a new section to chapter 18.64 RCW.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

President Pro Tempore Craswell assumed the Chair.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 19, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5629 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 9.08 RCW to read as follows:

There has been an increasing number of illegal acts committed against animal production and research facilities involving injury or loss of life to animals or humans, criminal trespass, and damage to property. These actions not only abridge the property rights of the owners, operators, and employees of the facility, they may also damage the public interest by jeopardizing crucial animal production or agricultural, scientific, or biomedical research. These actions may also threaten the public safety by exposing communities to public health concerns and creating traffic hazards. These actions substantially disrupt or damage research and result in the potential loss of physical and intellectual property. Therefore, it is in the interest of the people of the state of Washington to protect the welfare of humans and animals, as well as the productive use of private or public funds, to promote and protect scientific and medical research, foster education, and preserve and enhance agricultural production.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 9.08 RCW to read as follows:

A person is guilty of a class C felony: If he or she, without authorization, knowingly takes, releases, destroys, contaminates, or damages any animal or animals kept in a research or educational facility where the animal or animals are used or to be used for medical research purposes or other research purposes or for educational purposes; or if he or she, without authorization, knowingly destroys or damages any records, equipment, research product, or other thing pertaining to such animal or animals.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 4.24 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Joint and several liability for damages shall apply to persons and organizations that commit an intentional tort of (a) taking, releasing, destroying, contaminating, or damaging any animal or animals kept in a research or educational facility, where the animal or animals are used or to be used for medical research or other research purposes, or for educational purposes; or (b) destroying or damaging any records, equipment, research product, or other thing pertaining to such animal or animals.

(2) Any person or organization that plans or participates in, or assists in the development or execution of a plan to commit an intentional tort covered by subsection (1) of this section shall be liable for damages to the same extent as those who execute the plan, regardless of whether the intentional tort is carried out as planned.

(3) In any case where damages are awarded under this section, the court shall award to the plaintiff all costs of the litigation, including reasonable attorneys' fees, investigation costs, and court costs, and shall impose on any liable party a civil fine of not to exceed one hundred thousand dollars to be paid to the plaintiff.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 4.24 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Joint and several liability for damages shall apply to persons and organizations that commit an intentional tort of taking, releasing, destroying or damaging any animal or animals kept by a farmer for farm purposes or by a veterinarian for veterinary purposes; or of destroying or damaging any farm or veterinary equipment or supplies pertaining to such animal or animals.

(2) Any person or organization that plans or participates in, or assists in the development or execution of a plan to commit an intentional tort covered by subsection (1) of this section shall be liable for damages to the same extent as those who execute the plan, regardless of whether the intentional tort is carried out as planned.

(3) In any case where damages are awarded under this section, the court shall award to the plaintiff all costs of the litigation, including reasonable attorneys' fees, investigation costs, and court costs, and shall impose on any liable party a civil fine of not to exceed one hundred thousand dollars to be paid to the plaintiff.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 4.24 RCW to read as follows:

Any individual having reason to believe that he or she may be injured by the commission of an intentional tort under section 3 or 4 of this act may apply for injunctive relief to prevent the occurrence of the tort. Any individual who owns or is employed at a research or educational facility or an agricultural production facility where animals are used for research, educational, or agricultural purposes who is harassed, or believes that he or she is about to be harassed, by an organization, person, or persons whose intent is to stop or modify the facility's use or uses of an animal or animals, may apply for injunctive relief to prevent the harassment. Harassment, for purposes of this section, means any threat, without lawful authority, which the recipient has good reason to fear will be carried out and which would cause injury to the person or property of the recipient, result in the recipient's physical confinement or restraint, or maliciously do any other act intended to substantially cause harm to the recipient's mental health or safety.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "facilities;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding new sections to chapter 9.08 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 4.24 RCW; prescribing penalties; and declaring an emergency."

On page 2 of the committee amendment, strike lines 19 through 23 and insert:

"(2) Any person or organization that plans or assists in the development of a plan to commit an intentional tort covered by subsection (1) of this section is liable for damages to the same extent as a person who has committed the tort. However, a person or organization that assists in the development of a plan is not liable under this subsection, if, at the time of providing the assistance the person or organization does not know, or have reason to know, that the assistance is promoting the commission of the tort. Membership in a liable organization does not in itself establish the member's liability under this subsection. The common law defense of prior renunciation is allowed in actions brought under this subsection."

On page 3 of the committee amendment, strike lines 9 through 13 and insert:

"(2) Any person or organization that plans or assists in the development of a plan to commit an intentional tort covered by subsection (1) of this section is liable for damages to the same extent as a person who has committed the tort. However, a person or organization that assists in the development of a plan is not liable under this subsection, if, at the time of providing the assistance the person or organization does not know, or have reason to know, that the assistance is promoting the commission of the tort. Membership in a liable organization does not in itself establish the member's liability under this subsection. The common law defense of prior renunciation is allowed in actions brought under this subsection."

On page 4 of the committee amendment, line 3, after "out" strike all material through "safety." on line 7 and insert: ", which is knowingly made for the purpose of stopping or modifying the use of animals, and which either (1) would cause injury to the person or property of the recipient, or result in the recipient's physical confinement or restraint, or (2) is a malicious threat to do any other act intended to substantially cause harm to the recipient's mental health or safety. In deciding a request for injunctive relief under this section, the court shall give full consideration to the constitutional rights of persons to speak freely, to picket, and to conduct other lawful protest activities.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Barr, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5629 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 17, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5770 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the state is facing an energy shortage as growth occurs and that inadequate supplies of energy will cause harmful impacts on the entire range of state citizens. The legislature further finds that energy efficiency improvement is the single most effective near term measure to lessen the risk of energy shortage. In the area of electricity, the legislature additionally finds that the Northwest power planning council has made several recommendations, including an update of the commercial building energy code and granting flexible ratemaking alternatives for utility commissions to encourage prudent acquisition of new electric resources.

Sec. 2. RCW 80.04.250 and 1961 c 14 s 80.04.250 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission shall have power upon complaint or upon its own motion to ascertain and determine the fair value for rate making purposes of the property of any public service company used and useful for service in this state and shall exercise such power whenever it shall deem such valuation or determination necessary or proper under any of the provisions of this title. In determining what property is used and useful for service, the commission may include the reasonable costs of construction work in progress to the extent that the commission finds that inclusion is in the public interest.

The commission shall have the power to make revaluations of the property of any public service company from time to time.

The commission shall, before any hearing is had, notify the complainants and the public service company concerned of the time and place of such hearing by giving at least thirty days' written notice thereof, specifying that at the time and place designated a hearing will be held for the purpose of ascertaining the value of the company's property, used and useful as aforesaid, which notice shall be sufficient to authorize the commission to inquire into and pass upon the matters designated in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 19.27A RCW to read as follows:

(1) The minimum state energy code for new nonresidential buildings shall be the Washington state energy code, 1986 edition, as amended. The state building code council may, by rule adopted pursuant to chapter 34.05 RCW, amend that code's requirements for new nonresidential buildings provided that:

(a) Such amendments increase the energy efficiency of typical newly constructed nonresidential buildings; and

(b) Any new measures, standards, or requirements adopted must be technically feasible, commercially available, and cost-effective to building owners and tenants.

(2) In considering amendments to the state energy code for nonresidential buildings, the state building code council shall establish and consult with a technical advisory committee including representatives of appropriate state agencies, local governments, general contractors, building owners and managers, design professionals, utilities, and other interested and affected parties.

(3) Decisions to amend the Washington state energy code for new nonresidential buildings shall be made prior to December 15th of any year and shall not take effect before the end of the regular legislative session in the next year. Any disputed provisions within an amendment presented to the legislature shall be approved by the legislature before going into effect. A disputed provision is one which was adopted by the state building code council with less than a two-thirds majority vote. Substantial amendments to the code shall be adopted no more frequently than every three years.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "generation;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 80.04.250; adding a new section to chapter 19.27A RCW; and creating a new section."

On page 1, line 26, after "for" insert "providing electric, gas, or water", and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5770, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

At 3:01 p.m., on motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate recessed until 4:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order at 4:44 p.m. by President Pritchard.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of the Message from the House on Senate Bill No. 5477 and the pending motion by Senator Roach to not concur in the House amendments, deferred April 20, 1991.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Roach that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 5477.

The motion by Senator Roach carried and the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 5477 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 17, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5458 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature intends within available resources to assure quality human services to enhance the lives of deaf and hard of hearing people throughout the state by providing:

(1) Communication accessibility through interpreters and other information services;

(2) Quality human services for deaf and hard of hearing citizens;

(3) Coordination among private and public agencies, the office of deaf services, regions, and the deaf community; and

(4) Training and consultative services to public and private agencies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The following definitions apply throughout sections 1 through 6 of this act:

"Deaf person" means a person with severe or complete absence of auditory sensitivity whose primary effective receptive communication mode is visual or tactile or both.

"Hard of hearing person" means a person with some absence of auditory sensitivity who has residual hearing that may be sufficient to produce linguistic information through audition with or without amplification under favorable listening conditions, or a person with other auditory handicapping conditions.

"Department" means the department of social and health services.

"Office" means the office of deaf services within the department of social and health services.

"Secretary" means the secretary of the department of social and health services.

"Region" means one of five geographical areas comprised of adjoining counties within the state.

"Regional advisory committee" means a group of persons who are deaf, hard of hearing, or advocates and, by appointment or vote, are delegated to represent the interest of the deaf community within a region.

"State advisory committee" means the advising committee for state programs for the deaf.

"Regional service center" means a community-based center located within a region that provides service delivery to deaf and hard of hearing individuals.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The state advisory committee for the state programs for the deaf shall consist of one representative of the office of deaf services, one representative of each regional service center, two representatives of each regional advisory committee, and other members as designated by the secretary, who by appointment or vote are delegated to represent in the development of programs the interests of the regional advisory committee, the office of deaf services, and the regional service centers. Members of the state advisory committee shall receive no compensation but shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(2) The state advisory committee shall meet quarterly to discuss and monitor the programs and activities of the regional service centers. The committee shall quarterly report its findings along with recommendations to the department through the office of deaf services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) A regional service center shall be established within each of the following regions:

"Region I" includes the counties of Okanogan, Ferry, Stevens, Pend Oreille, Lincoln, Spokane, Adams, Whitman, Columbia, Garfield, and Asotin.

"Region II" includes the counties of Chelan, Douglas, Grant, Kittitas, Yakima, Benton, Franklin, Klickitat, and Walla.

"Region III and IV" includes the counties of King, Jefferson, Clallam, Snohomish, Skagit, Whatcom, Island, and San Juan.

"Region V" includes the counties of Pierce, Thurston, Mason, Grays Harbor, and Kitsap.

"Region VI" includes the counties of Lewis, Wahkiakum, Cowlitz, Clark, Skamania, and Pacific.

(2) Regional service centers shall meet criteria established by the office of deaf services and hold articles of incorporation for nonprofit organizations established by the secretary of state.

(3) Regional service centers shall establish advisory committees for each region to meet regularly. Members of the regional advisory committee must be voting members of the board of directors of the regional service centers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The office in consultation with the state advisory committee shall recommend programs to regional service centers, and ensure, through direct services or contractual means, that regional service centers provide baseline programs in the areas of individual and family counseling, interpreter services, and vocational rehabilitation. Additional programs can be maintained or established by regional service centers in consultation with their regional advisory committees. The office shall establish criteria for and award contracts to qualified regional service centers representing the deaf and hard of hearing population within each region.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A regional service center is prohibited from performing activities that are regulated under chapter 18.35 RCW. A regional service center shall provide, upon request, a deaf person or hard of hearing person with a list of persons in the geographic area of the center licensed under chapter 18.35 RCW to provide services regulated under chapter 18.35 RCW. The deaf person or hard of hearing person may voluntarily select any person from the list to perform the services. A regional service center may in no manner recommend or refer one person on the list over another person on the list.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The taxes imposed in sections 8 through 10 of this act are intended to provide a funding source for the purposes of deaf centers and other deaf programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 82.04 RCW to read as follows:

There is levied and shall be collected from every person for the act or privilege of engaging within this state in business as a manufacturer an additional tax equal to the value of audio tapes, audio records, and audio compact disks manufactured multiplied by the rate of four-tenths of one percent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 82.04 RCW to read as follows:

There is levied and shall be collected from every person for the act or privilege of engaging within this state in the business of making sales at wholesale an additional tax equal to the gross proceeds of sales of audio tapes, audio records, and audio compact disks multiplied by the rate of four-tenths of one percent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 82.04 RCW to read as follows:

There is levied and shall be collected from every person for the act or privilege of engaging within this state in the business of making sales at retail an additional tax equal to the gross proceeds of sales of audio tapes, audio records, and audio compact disks multiplied by the rate of four-tenths of one percent.

Sec. 11. RCW 43.20A.360 and 1989 1st ex.s. c 9 s 214 and 1989 c 11 s 14 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) The secretary is hereby authorized to appoint such advisory committees or councils as may be required by any federal legislation as a condition to the receipt of federal funds by the department. The secretary may appoint state-wide committees or councils in the following subject areas: (a) Health facilities; (b) children and youth services; (c) blind services; (d) medical and health care; (e) deaf services; (f) drug abuse and alcoholism; (~~((f))~~) (g) social services; (~~((g))~~) (h) economic services; (~~((h))~~) (i) vocational services; (~~((i))~~) (j) rehabilitative services; and on such other subject matters as are or come within the department's responsibilities. The secretary shall appoint committees or councils advisory to the department in each service delivery region to be designated by the secretary. The state-wide and the regional councils shall have representation from both major political parties and shall have substantial consumer representation and appropriate geographical representation. Such committees or councils shall be constituted as required by federal law or as the secretary in his or her discretion may determine. The members of the committees or councils shall hold office for three years except in the case of a vacancy, in which event appointment shall be only for the remainder of the unexpired term for which the vacancy occurs. No member shall serve more than two consecutive terms.

(2) Members of such state advisory committees or councils may be paid their travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended. Members of regional advisory committees may, in the discretion of the secretary, be paid the same travel expenses as set forth above.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The sum of one million seven hundred thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the general fund to the department of social and health services for the biennium ending June 30, 1993, to carry out the purposes of this act. The appropriation shall be distributed to the regions based upon their need and taking into consideration the availability of other state and local funding sources.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 1 through 6 of this act are each added to chapter 43.20A RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. This act is null and void unless by June 30, 1991, taxes providing revenue for the purposes of this act are contained in this act or in another act referencing this act specifically by bill number.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Section 12 of this act is null and void if by June 30, 1991, the omnibus operating budget appropriations act for the 1991-93 biennium provides specific funding for this act, referencing this act by bill number.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "deaf;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "reenacting and amending RCW 43.20A.360; adding new sections to chapter 43.20A RCW; adding new sections to chapter 82.04 RCW; creating new sections; and making an appropriation.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

Senator Newhouse moved that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5458 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Newhouse that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5458.

The motion by Senator Newhouse carried and the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5458 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 19, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5475 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

Sec. 1. RCW 28B.10.802 and 1989 c 254 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in RCW 28B.10.800 through 28B.10.824:

(1) "Institutions of higher education" shall mean (1) any public university, college, community college, or vocational-technical institute operated by the state of Washington or any political subdivision thereof or any tribally controlled college under P.L. 95-471 established by a Washington state Indian tribe and approved to administer federal title IV financial aid or (2) any other university, college, school, or institute in the state of Washington offering instruction beyond the high school level which is a member institution of an accrediting association recognized by rule of the board for the purposes of this section: PROVIDED, That any institution, branch, extension or facility operating within the state of Washington which is affiliated with an institution operating in another state must be a separately accredited member institution of any such accrediting association: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no institution of higher education shall be eligible to participate in a student financial aid program unless it agrees to and complies with program rules and regulations adopted pursuant to RCW 28B.10.822.

(2) The term "financial aid" shall mean loans and/or grants to needy students enrolled or accepted for enrollment as a student at institutions of higher education.

(3) The term "needy student" shall mean a post high school student of an institution of higher learning as defined in subsection (1) of this section who demonstrates to the board the financial inability, either through the student's parents, family and/or personally, to meet the total cost of board, room, books, and tuition and incidental fees for any semester or quarter.

(4) The term "disadvantaged student" shall mean a post high school student who by reason of adverse cultural, educational, environmental, experiential, familial or other circumstances is unable to qualify for enrollment as a full time student in an institution of higher learning, who would otherwise qualify as a needy student, and who is attending an institution of higher learning under an established program designed to qualify the student for enrollment as a full time student.

(5) "Commission" or "board" shall mean the higher education coordinating board.

Sec. 2. RCW 28B.12.030 and 1974 ex.s. c 177 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, the following words and terms shall have the following meanings, unless the context shall clearly indicate another or different meaning or intent:

(1) The term "needy student" shall mean a student enrolled or accepted for enrollment at a post-secondary institution who, according to a system of need analysis approved by the commission on higher education, demonstrates a financial inability, either parental, familial, or personal, to bear the total cost of education for any semester or quarter.

(2) The term "eligible institution" shall mean any post-secondary institution in this state accredited by the Northwest Association of Secondary and Higher Schools or any public vocational-technical school in the state or any tribally controlled college under P.L. 95-471 established by a Washington state Indian tribe and approved to administer federal title IV financial aid.

Sec. 3. RCW 28B.102.020 and 1987 c 437 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Conditional scholarship" means a loan that is forgiven in whole or in part if the recipient renders service as a teacher in the public schools of this state.

(2) "Institution of higher education" or "institution" means a college or university in the state of Washington which is accredited by an accrediting association recognized as such by rule of the higher education coordinating board or any tribally controlled college under P.L. 95-471 established by a Washington state Indian tribe and approved to administer federal title IV financial aid.

(3) "Board" means the higher education coordinating board.

(4) "Eligible student" means a student who is registered for at least ten credit hours or the equivalent, demonstrates achievement of at least a 3.30 grade point average for students entering an institution of higher education directly from high school or maintains at least a 3.00 grade point average or the equivalent for each academic year in an institution of higher education, is a resident student as defined by RCW 28B.15.012 through 28B.15.015, and has a declared intention to complete an approved preparation program leading to initial teacher certification or required for earning an additional endorsement, or a college or university graduate who meets the same credit hour requirements and is seeking an additional teaching endorsement or initial teacher certification.

(5) "Public school" means an elementary school, a middle school, junior high school, or high school within the public school system referred to in Article IX of the state Constitution.

(6) "Forgiven" or "to forgive" or "forgiveness" means to render service as a teacher at a public school in the state of Washington in lieu of monetary repayment.

(7) "Satisfied" means paid-in-full.

(8) "Participant" means an eligible student who has received a conditional scholarship under this chapter.

(9) "Targeted ethnic minority" means a group of Americans with a common ethnic or racial heritage selected by the board for program consideration due to societal concerns such as high dropout rates or low rates of college participation by members of the group.

Sec. 4. RCW 28B.104.020 and 1989 1st ex.s. c 9 s 206 and 1989 c 115 s 1 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Conditional scholarship" means a loan that is forgiven in whole or in part if the recipient renders nursing service as a nurse serving in a nurse shortage area, as defined by the state department of health.

(2) "Institution of higher education" or "institution" means a community college, vocational-technical school, college, or university in the state of Washington which is accredited by an accrediting association recognized as such by rule of the higher education coordinating board or any tribally controlled college under P.L. 95-471 established by a Washington state Indian tribe and approved to administer federal title IV financial aid.

(3) "Board" means the higher education coordinating board.

(4) "Eligible student" means a student who has been accepted into a program leading to eligibility for licensure as a licensed practical nurse, or to a program leading to an associate, baccalaureate, or higher degree in nursing or continues satisfactory progress within the program; and has a declared intention to serve in a nurse shortage area upon completion of the educational program.

(5) "Nurse shortage area" means those areas where nurses are in short supply as a result of geographic maldistribution; or specialty areas of nursing, such as geriatrics or critical care, where vacancies exist in serious numbers that jeopardize patient care and pose a threat to the public health and safety. The state department of health shall determine nurse shortage areas in the state guided by federal standards of "health manpower shortage areas."

(6) "Forgiven" or "to forgive" or "forgiveness" means to render nursing service in a nurse shortage area in the state of Washington in lieu of monetary repayment.

(7) "Satisfied" means paid-in-full.

(8) "Participant" means an eligible student who has received a conditional scholarship under this chapter.

Sec. 5. RCW 28B.108.010 and 1990 c 287 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Institution of higher education" or "institution" means a college or university in the state of Washington which is accredited by an accrediting association recognized as such by rule of the higher education coordinating board or any tribally controlled college under P.L. 95-471 established by a Washington state Indian tribe and approved to administer federal title IV financial aid.

(2) "Board" means the higher education coordinating board.

(3) "Eligible student" or "student" means an American Indian student as defined by the board in consultation with the advisory committee described in RCW 28B.108.030, who is a financially needy student, as defined in RCW 28B.10.802, who is a resident student, as defined by RCW 28B.15.012(2), who is a full-time student at an institution of higher education, and who promises to use his or her education to benefit other American Indians.

Sec. 6. RCW 28B.10.420 and 1979 c 14 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided otherwise in subsection (2) of this section, faculty members or other employees designated by the boards of regents of the state universities, the boards of trustees of the regional universities or of The Evergreen State College, or the state board for community college education pursuant to RCW 28B.10.400 through 28B.10.420 as now or hereafter amended shall be retired from their employment with their institutions of higher education not later than the end of the academic year next following their seventieth birthday if their seventieth birthday occurs on or before June 30, 1991. There shall be no mandatory retirement on condition of age for faculty or other designated employees after July 1, 1991.

(2) As provided in this subsection, the board of regents of a state university, the board of trustees of a regional university or The Evergreen State College, or the state board for community college education may reemploy any person who is "retired" pursuant to (~~subsection (1) of this section, who applies for reemployment and who has reached seventy years of age on or after July 1, 1970~~) this chapter. The following provisions shall govern such reemployment:

(a) (~~Prior to the reemployment, the board of regents, board of trustees, or state board shall have found that the person possesses outstanding qualifications which in the judgment of the board would permit the person to continue valuable service to the institution.~~

(~~b~~)) The period of reemployment shall not be counted as service under, or result in any eligibility for benefits or increased benefits under, any state authorized or supported annuity or retirement income plan. Reemployment shall not result in the reemployed person or employer making any contributions to any such plan.

(~~c~~)) ~~No person may be reemployed on a full time basis if such person is receiving benefits under any state authorized or supported annuity or retirement income plan. The reemployment of any person on a full time basis shall be immediately terminated upon the person's obtaining of any such benefits.~~

(~~d~~)) (b) A person may be reemployed on a part time basis and receive or continue to receive any benefits for which such person is eligible under any state authorized or supported annuity or retirement income plan. Such part time work, however, shall not exceed forty percent of full time employment during any year.

(~~e~~)) (c) A person reemployed pursuant to this section shall comply with all conditions of reemployment and all rules providing for the administration of this subsection which are prescribed or adopted by the board of regents, or board of trustees, or by the state board for community college education.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 28B.10 RCW to read as follows:

By October 31, 1991, each institution of higher education as defined in RCW 28B.10.016 shall use an existing committee or convene a physical access committee to identify barriers to physical access on each of the institution's campuses. The committee shall include, but is not limited to: One or more students with disabilities, one or more members of the faculty and staff with disabilities, the institution's coordinator of disabled student services, administrators, physical plant staff, and others as appropriate.

The committee shall present its findings and recommendations to the institution's administration. Beginning with the 1993-95 capital budget request, each institution shall incorporate into its capital budget process, efforts to substantially reduce and eventually eliminate physical barriers to access.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Section 6 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1991.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "education;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 28B.10.802, 28B.12.030, 28B.102.020, 28B.108.010, and 28B.10.420; reenacting and amending RCW 28B.104.020; adding a new section to chapter 28B.10 RCW; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Saling, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 5475 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 19, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5824 with the following amendments:

On page 2, beginning on line 8, strike all of subsection (2) and insert the following,

"(2)(a) The board of trustees of a community college district may permit the district's state-funded, full-time equivalent enrollment level, as provided in the operating budget appropriations act, to vary by plus or minus two percent each fiscal year unless otherwise authorized in the operating budget appropriations act. If the variance is above the state-funded level, the district may charge those students above the state-funded level a fee equivalent to the amount of tuition and fees that are charged students enrolled in state-funded courses. These fees shall be retained by the colleges.

(b) Any community college that in 1990-91 has an enrollment above the state-funded level but below the authorized variance may increase its excess enrollments to within the variance.

(c) Community colleges that currently have excess enrollments more than the authorized variance, by means of enrollments that would have otherwise been eligible for state funding, shall reduce those excess enrollments to within the authorized variance by September 1, 1995, in at least equal annual reductions, commencing with the 1991-92 fiscal year.

(d) Should the number of student-supported, full-time equivalent enrollments in any fiscal year fall outside the authorized variance, the college shall return by September 1st to the state general fund, an amount equal to the college's full average state appropriations per full-time equivalent student for such student-funded full-time equivalent outside the variance, unless otherwise provided in the operating budget appropriations act."

On page 1, beginning on line 18, strike all of subsection 2(c) and insert the following:

"(c) Any community college that in 1990-91 has excess enrollment above the authorized variance, by means of enrollments that otherwise would have been eligible for state funding, shall not increase its excess enrollment above the 1990-91 level. The community college need not reduce such excess enrollments until additional state-funded enrollments are allocated to the college, at which time, each additional state-funded enrollment shall replace one excess enrollment, until excess enrollments are within the authorized variance.

On page 2, line 2 after "(d)" strike "Should" and insert "Except as permitted by subsection (2)(c) of this section, should", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, further consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5202 was deferred.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 19, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5266 with the following amendments:

On page 15, after line 27, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 46.16 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A motor vehicle owned and operated by a person whose driver's license is in a suspended or revoked status or whose privilege to operate a motor vehicle is suspended or revoked in this or any other state is subject to seizure and forfeiture and no property right exists in the vehicle except as follows:

(a) No vehicle used by a person as a common carrier in the transaction of business as a common carrier is subject to seizure and forfeiture under this section unless it appears that the owner or other person in charge of the vehicle is a consenting party or privy to a violation of this section;

(b) No vehicle is subject to seizure and forfeiture under this section by reason of an act or omission established by the owner of the vehicle to have been committed or omitted without the owner's knowledge or consent;

(c) A forfeiture of a vehicle encumbered by a bona fide security interest is subject to the interest of the secured party if the secured party neither had knowledge of nor consented to the act or omission; and

(d) When the owner of a vehicle has been arrested under this chapter the vehicle in which the person is arrested is not subject to forfeiture unless it is seized or process is issued for its seizure within ten days of the owner's arrest.

(2) A vehicle subject to forfeiture under this section may be seized by a law enforcement officer of this state upon process issued by a superior court having jurisdiction over the vehicle. Seizure of a vehicle without process may be made if:

(a) The seizure is incident to an arrest or a search under a search warrant;

(b) The vehicle subject to seizure has been the subject of a prior judgment in favor of the state in a criminal injunction or forfeiture proceeding based upon this section;

(c) A law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that the vehicle is directly or indirectly dangerous to health or safety; or

(d) The law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that the vehicle was used or is intended to be used in violation of this section.

(3) In the event of seizure under subsection (2) of this section, proceedings for forfeiture are commenced by the seizure. The law enforcement agency under whose authority the seizure was made shall cause notice to be served within fifteen days following the seizure on the owner of the vehicle seized and the person in charge of it and any person having any known right or interest in it, including any community property interest, of the seizure and intended forfeiture of the seized vehicle. The notice of seizure may be served by any method authorized by law or court rule including but not limited to service by certified mail with return receipt requested. Service by mail is complete upon mailing within the fifteen-day period after the seizure.

(4) If no person notifies the seizing law enforcement agency in writing of the person's claim of ownership or right to possession of the vehicle within forty-five days of the seizure, the vehicle is deemed forfeited.

(5) If a person notifies the seizing law enforcement agency in writing of the person's claim of ownership or right to possession of the vehicle within forty-five days of the seizure, the person or persons shall be given a reasonable opportunity to be heard as to the claim or right. The hearing shall be before the chief law enforcement officer of the seizing agency or the chief law enforcement officer's designee. A person asserting a claim or right may remove the matter to a court of competent jurisdiction if the value of the vehicle involved is more than five hundred dollars. The court to which the matter is to be removed shall be the district court when the value is ten thousand dollars or less. A hearing before the seizing agency and any appeal from the decision shall be under Title 34 RCW. In a court hearing between two or more claimants to the vehicle, the prevailing party is entitled to a judgment for costs and reasonable attorneys' fees. The burden of producing evidence is upon the person claiming to be the lawful owner or the person claiming to have the lawful right to possession of the vehicle. The seizing law enforcement agency shall promptly return the vehicle to the claimant upon a determination by the hearing officer or court that the claimant is the present lawful owner or is lawfully entitled to possession of the vehicle.

(6) When a vehicle is forfeited under this section the seizing law enforcement agency may:

(a) Retain it for official use or, upon application by any law enforcement agency of this state, release the vehicle to the agency for the exclusive use of enforcing this title;

(b) (i) Sell the vehicle, in which case the proceeds shall be used for payment of all proper expenses of the investigation leading to the seizure and of the proceedings for forfeiture and sale, including expenses of seizure, storage, advertising, actual costs of the prosecuting or city attorney, and court costs. Money remaining after the payment of all expenses shall be distributed as follows:

(A) Seventy-five percent shall be deposited in the general fund of the state, county, or city of the seizing law enforcement agency;

(B) Twenty-five percent shall be remitted to the state treasurer for deposit in the highway safety fund established in RCW 46.68.060;

(ii) Money deposited according to this section must be deposited within ninety days of the date of final disposition of either the administrative seizure or the judicial seizure; or

(c) Request the appropriate sheriff or director of public safety to take custody of the vehicle and remove it for disposition in accordance with law.

On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "46.20.342;" insert "adding a new section to chapter 46.16 RCW;"; and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5266 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 19, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5418 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The task force on sentencing of adult criminal offenders is created.

(1) The task force shall have fourteen members.

(a) The governor shall appoint two members.

(b) The speaker of the house of representatives shall appoint six members, which shall include two members, one from each political party, from each of the following:

(i) The house judiciary committee;

(ii) The house human services committee; and

(iii) Either the house capital facilities and financing committee or the house appropriations committee, or one from each. If one member is appointed from each of the fiscal committees, one appointment must be from the majority party and the other from the minority party.

(c) The president of the senate shall appoint six members, which shall include two members, one from each political party, from each of the following standing committees:

(i) Senate law and justice;

(ii) Senate children and family services; and

(iii) Senate ways and means.

(2) The members of the task force shall select a chair or cochair from among the membership of the task force.

(3) Staff for the task force shall be provided by the senate, the house of representatives, and the office of financial management.

(4) The objectives of the task force are to:

(a) Determine whether the articulated purposes of the sentencing reform act of 1981 as defined in RCW 9.94A.010, remain valid or should be modified, and if so, what new sentencing purposes are appropriate;

(b) Study the incarceration patterns of adult offenders convicted of violent and nonviolent offenses to determine whether the purposes of the sentencing reform act of 1981 as defined in RCW 9.94A.010 are being achieved;

(c) Determine the extent to which alternatives to total confinement are being used for adult felons and to make recommendations to ensure that those alternatives are ordered when appropriate; and

(d) Determine whether an expansion of the court's sentencing options would help achieve the purposes of the sentencing reform act.

(5) The task force shall consult with the sentencing guidelines commission and other interested parties to achieve the objectives of the task force.

(6) The task force shall report to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature and to the governor not later than December 15, 1992.

(7) The task force shall cease to exist on January 1, 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The Washington Institute for Public Policy shall, within available funds, conduct a study or cause a study to be conducted of the problem of police harassment of, and brutality toward, residents of the state. The Institute shall gather data from local law enforcement departments from 1981 to the present to determine the number and types of complaints against law enforcement personnel, whether the department investigated the complaint, and the result of the investigation. The Institute shall also propose options for guidelines for the creation of citizen review panels in local jurisdictions to receive and investigate complaints of police harassment and brutality. The Institute shall also propose options for additional civil remedies for the victims of police harassment or brutality. The Institute shall report to the Legislature regarding its findings and options for legislative action by December 1, 1991.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The criminal justice training commission shall, within available funds, develop and offer a training program for law enforcement personnel to reduce the incidence of police harassment of, and brutality toward, residents of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Sections 1 through 3 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, beginning on line 1 of the title, after "justice;" strike the remainder of the title and insert: "creating new sections; and declaring an emergency."

On page 4 of the striking amendment, beginning on line 3 strike section 3 and insert the following section:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The criminal justice training commission's basic law enforcement training and education standards established by rule and regulation pursuant to RCW 43.101.080 shall include standards for training criminal justice personnel to reduce and eliminate police harassment of, and brutality toward, citizens., and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Patterson, the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Senate Bill No. 5104.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, further consideration of Senate Bill No. 5104 was deferred.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 11, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5025 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Evaluation of programs is essential in determining their effectiveness and cost benefit and in obtaining data for improving services. The department of social and health services shall conduct an evaluation of the family reconciliation services program. The study shall include the following information:

- (1) A description of services offered in phase I and phase II;
- (2) The number and characteristics of youth and families served in family reconciliation services phase I and phase II and the outcome of services provided to youth and families;
- (3) A description of outreach services including program information provided to referring agencies and the general public;
- (4) The number and type of referrals to family reconciliation services from law enforcement, juvenile courts, schools, and community agencies and their perception of its effectiveness;
- (5) Follow-up contact with a random sample of youth and families receiving family reconciliation services assistance and their perception of the effectiveness of these services;
- (6) The number of youth referred again after services were terminated and outcome of services provided;
- (7) The number of youth and families who requested specific services but who did not receive services because they were not available, including a list of the services requested but not available; and
- (8) Recommendations for improving services to at-risk youth and families.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The demand for family reconciliation services continues to increase. The number of families served by the family reconciliation services program has nearly doubled in the past ten years while the number of staff providing these services has decreased. The department of social and health services shall expand family reconciliation services to serve an additional one thousand families per year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The behavioral sciences institute homebuilders intensive in-home counseling program has been highly successful in serving at-risk youth and families. This program shall expand to serve an additional one hundred twenty-six youth and families while preserving program integrity and quality.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is a lack of knowledge of existing laws and services on the part of those agencies and organizations serving at-risk youth and on the part of the general public. The office of the administrator for the courts is requested to develop a curriculum on at-risk youth for superior court judges and court personnel to be presented at a regularly scheduled educational session. The department of social and health services is directed to produce a videotape on at-risk youth laws and services for use by law enforcement, family reconciliation services staff, prosecuting and defense attorneys, other agencies and organizations dealing with at-risk youth, and the general public. The department shall consult with other agencies and organizations providing services to at-risk youth in the production of the videotape.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 74.13 RCW to read as follows:

The department of social and health services shall implement a therapeutic family home program for up to fifteen youth in the custody of the department under chapter 13.34 RCW. The program shall develop and maintain a mutually reinforcing relationship between the youth and the therapeutic staff associated with the program.

Sec. 6. RCW 74.13.034 and 1981 c 298 s 17 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A child taken into custody and taken to a crisis residential center established pursuant to RCW 74.13.032(2) may, if the center is unable to provide appropriate treatment, supervision, and structure to the child, be taken at department expense to another crisis residential center or the nearest regional crisis residential center. Placement in both centers shall not exceed seventy-two hours from the point of intake as provided in RCW 13.32A.130.

(2) A child taken into custody and taken to a crisis residential center established by this chapter may be placed physically by the department or the department's designee and, at departmental expense and approval, in a secure juvenile detention facility operated by the county in which the center is located for a maximum of forty-eight hours, including Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, if ~~((the person in charge of the crisis residential center finds that the child is seriously assaultive or seriously destructive towards others and the center is unable to provide appropriate supervision and structure. Any child who takes unauthorized leave from the center, if))~~ the child has taken unauthorized leave from the center in violation of a court order and the person in charge of the center determines that the center cannot provide supervision and structure adequate to ensure that the child will not again take unauthorized leave~~((, may be taken to a secure juvenile detention facility subject to the provisions of this section: PROVIDED, That))~~. Juveniles placed in such a facility pursuant to this section may not, to the extent possible, come in contact with alleged or convicted juvenile or adult offenders.

(3) Any child placed in secure detention pursuant to this section shall, during the period of confinement, be provided with appropriate treatment by the department or the department's designee, which shall include the services defined in RCW 74.13.033(2). If the child placed in secure detention is not returned home or if an alternative living arrangement agreeable to the parent and the child is not made within twenty-four hours after the child's admission, the child shall be taken at the department's expense to a crisis residential center. Placement in the crisis residential center or centers plus placement in juvenile detention shall not exceed seventy-two hours from the point of intake as provided in RCW 13.32A.130.

(4) Juvenile detention facilities used pursuant to this section shall first be certified by the department to ensure that juveniles placed in the facility pursuant to this section are provided with living conditions suitable to the well-being of the child. Where space is available, juvenile courts, when certified by the department to do so, shall provide secure placement for juveniles pursuant to this section, at department expense.

(5) It is the intent of the legislature that by July 1, 1982, crisis residential centers, supplemented by community mental health programs and mental health professionals, will be able to respond appropriately to children admitted to centers under this chapter and will be able to respond to the needs of such children with appropriate treatment, supervision, and structure.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 43.20A RCW to read as follows:

The department shall ensure that the administration of chapter 13.32A RCW and applicable portions of chapter 74.13 RCW relating to runaway youth, at-risk youth, and families in conflict is consistent in all areas of the state and in accordance with statutory requirements.

Sec. 8. RCW 74.13.032 and 1979 c 155 s 78 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department shall establish, by contracts with private vendors, not less than eight regional crisis residential centers, which shall be structured group care facilities licensed under rules adopted by the department. ~~((Each regional center shall have an average of at least four adult staff members and in no event less than three adult staff members to every eight children.))~~ The staff shall be trained so that they may effectively counsel juveniles admitted to the centers, provide treatment, supervision, and structure to the juveniles, and carry out the responsibilities outlined in RCW 13.32A.090.

(2) The department shall, in addition to the regional facilities established under subsection (1) of this section, establish not less than thirty additional crisis residential centers pursuant to contract with licensed private group care or specialized foster home facilities. The staff at the facilities shall be trained so that they may effectively counsel juveniles admitted to the centers, provide treatment, supervision, and structure to the juveniles, and carry out the responsibilities stated in RCW 13.32A.090. The responsibilities stated in RCW 13.32A.090 may, in any of the centers, be carried out by the department.

Crisis residential facilities shall be operated as semi-secure facilities.

Sec. 9. RCW 74.13.035 and 1979 c 155 s 81 are each amended to read as follows:

Crisis residential centers shall compile yearly records which shall be transmitted to the department and which shall contain information regarding population profiles of the children admitted to the centers during each past calendar year. Such information shall include but shall not be limited to the following:

- (1) The number, age, and sex of children admitted to custody;
- (2) Who brought the children to the center;
- (3) Services provided to children admitted to the center;
- (4) The circumstances which necessitated the children being brought to the center;
- (5) The ultimate disposition of cases;
- (6) The number of children admitted to custody who ran away from the center and their ultimate disposition, if any;
- (7) Length of stay.

The department may require the provision of additional information and may require each center to provide all such necessary information in a uniform manner.

~~((A center may, in addition to being licensed as such, also be licensed as a family foster home or group care facility and may house on the premises juveniles assigned for foster or group care.))~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The legislature finds that the use of alcohol and illicit drugs continues to be a primary crippler of our youth. This translates into incredible costs to individuals, families, and society in terms of traffic fatalities, suicides, criminal activity including homicides, sexual promiscuity, familial incorrigibility, and conduct disorders, and educational fallout. Among children of all socioeconomic groups lower expectations for the future, low motivation and self-esteem, alienation, and depression are associated with alcohol and drug abuse.

Studies reveal that deaths from alcohol and other drug-related injuries rise sharply through adolescence, peaking in the early twenties. But second peak occurs in later life, where it accounts for three times as many deaths from chronic diseases. A young victim's life expectancy is likely to be reduced by an average of twenty-six years.

Yet the cost of treating alcohol and drug addicts can be recouped in the first three years of abstinence in health care savings alone. Public money spent on treatment saves not only the life of the chemical abuser, it makes us safer as individuals, and in the long-run costs less.

The legislature further finds that many children who abuse alcohol and other drugs may not require involuntary treatment, but still are not adequately served. These children remain at risk for future chemical dependency, and may become mentally ill or a juvenile offender or need out-of-home placement. Children placed at risk because of chemical abuse may be better served by the creation of a comprehensive integrated system for children in crisis.

The legislature declares that an emphasis on the treatment of youth will pay the largest dividend in terms of preventable costs to individuals themselves, their families, and to society. The provision of augmented involuntary alcohol treatment services to youths, as well as involuntary treatment for youths addicted by other drugs, is in the interest of the public health and safety.

Sec. 11. RCW 70.96A.020 and 1990 c 151 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this chapter the following words and phrases shall have the following meanings unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

- (1) "Alcoholic" means a person who suffers from the disease of alcoholism.
- (2) "Alcoholism" means a disease, characterized by a dependency on alcoholic beverages, loss of control over the amount and circumstances of use, symptoms of tolerance, physiological or psychological withdrawal, or both, if use is reduced or discontinued, and impairment of health or disruption of social or economic functioning.
- (3) "Approved treatment program" means a discrete program of chemical dependency treatment provided by a treatment program certified by the department of social and health services as meeting standards adopted under this chapter.
- (4) "Chemical dependency" means alcoholism or drug addiction, or dependence on alcohol and one or more other psychoactive chemicals, as the context requires.
- (5) "Chemical dependency program" means expenditures and activities of the department designed and conducted to prevent or treat alcoholism and other drug addiction, including reasonable administration and overhead.
- (6) "Department" means the department of social and health services.
- (7) "Designated chemical dependency specialist" means a person designated by the county alcoholism and other drug addiction program coordinator designated under RCW 70.96A.310 to perform the commitment duties described in RCW 70.96A.140 and qualified to do so by meeting standards adopted by the department.
- (8) "Director" means the person administering the chemical dependency program within the department.
- (9) "Drug addict" means a person who suffers from the disease of drug addiction.
- (10) "Drug addiction" means a disease characterized by a dependency on psychoactive chemicals, loss of control over the amount and circumstances of use, symptoms of tolerance, physiological or psychological withdrawal, or both, if use is reduced or discontinued, and impairment of health or disruption of social or economic functioning.
- (11) "Emergency service patrol" means a patrol established under RCW 70.96A.170.
- (12) "Gravely disabled by alcohol or other drugs" means that a person, as a result of the use of alcohol or other drugs: (a) Is in danger of serious physical harm resulting from a failure to provide for his or her essential human needs of health or safety; or (b) manifests severe deterioration in routine functioning evidenced by a repeated and escalating loss of cognition or volitional control over his or her actions and is not receiving care as essential for his or her health or safety.

(13) "Incapacitated by alcohol or other psychoactive chemicals" means that a person, as a result of the use of alcohol or other psychoactive chemicals, has his or her judgment so impaired that he or she is incapable of realizing and making a rational decision with respect to his or her need for treatment and constitutes a danger to himself or herself, to any other person, or to property.

(14) "Incompetent person" means a person who has been adjudged incompetent by the superior court.

(15) "Intoxicated person" means a person whose mental or physical functioning is substantially impaired as a result of the use of alcohol or other psychoactive chemicals.

(16) "Licensed physician" means a person licensed to practice medicine or osteopathy in the state of Washington.

(17) "Minor" means a person less than eighteen years of age.

(18) "Peace officer" means a law enforcement official of a public agency or governmental unit, and includes persons specifically given peace officer powers by any state law, local ordinance, or judicial order of appointment.

~~((18))~~ (19) "Person" means an individual, including a minor.

(20) "Secretary" means the secretary of the department of social and health services.

~~((19))~~ (21) "Treatment" means the broad range of emergency, detoxification, residential, and outpatient services and care, including diagnostic evaluation, chemical dependency education and counseling, medical, psychiatric, psychological, and social service care, vocational rehabilitation and career counseling, which may be extended to alcoholics and other drug addicts and their families, persons incapacitated by alcohol or other psychoactive chemicals, and intoxicated persons.

~~((20))~~ (22) "Treatment program" means an organization, institution, or corporation, public or private, engaged in the care, treatment, or rehabilitation of alcoholics or other drug addicts.

Sec. 12. RCW 70.96A.095 and 1989 c 270 s 24 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person fourteen years of age or older may give consent for himself or herself to the furnishing of counseling, care, treatment, or rehabilitation by a treatment program or by any person. Consent of the parent, parents, or legal guardian of a person less than eighteen years of age is not necessary to authorize the care, except that the person shall not become a resident of the treatment program without such permission except as provided in RCW 70.96A.120 or 70.96A.140. The parent, parents, or legal guardian of a person less than eighteen years of age are not liable for payment of care for such persons pursuant to this chapter, unless they have joined in the consent to the counseling, care, treatment, or rehabilitation.

Sec. 13. RCW 70.96A.140 and 1990 c 151 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When a designated chemical dependency specialist~~((,))~~ receives information alleging that a person is incapacitated as a result of alcoholism, or in the case of a minor incapacitated by alcoholism and/or other drug addiction, the designated chemical dependency specialist, after investigation and evaluation of the specific facts alleged and of the reliability and credibility of the information, may file a petition for commitment of such person with the superior court or district court. If the designated chemical dependency specialist~~((,))~~ finds that the initial needs of such person would be better served by placement within the mental health system, the person shall be referred to an evaluation and treatment facility as defined in RCW 71.05.020 or 71.34.020. If placement in an alcohol treatment program is available and deemed appropriate, the petition shall allege that: The person is an alcoholic who is incapacitated by alcohol, or in the case of a minor incapacitated by alcoholism and/or other drug addiction, or that the person has twice before in the preceding twelve months been admitted for detoxification or treatment for alcoholism pursuant to RCW 70.96A.110, or in the case of a minor, detoxification or treatment for alcohol or drug addiction, and is in need of a more sustained treatment program, or that the person is an alcoholic, or in the case of a minor, an alcoholic or other drug addict, who has threatened, attempted, or inflicted physical harm on another and is likely to inflict physical harm on another unless committed. A refusal to undergo treatment, by itself, does not constitute evidence of lack of judgment as to the need for treatment. The petition shall be accompanied by a certificate of a licensed physician who has examined the person within five days before submission of the petition, unless the person whose commitment is sought has refused to submit to a medical examination, in which case the fact of refusal shall be alleged in the petition. The certificate shall set forth the licensed physician's findings in support of the allegations of the petition. A physician employed by the petitioning program or the department is eligible to be the certifying physician.

(2) Upon filing the petition, the court shall fix a date for a hearing no less than two and no more than seven days after the date the petition was filed unless the person petitioned against is presently being detained in a program, pursuant to RCW 70.96A.120 ((~~or~~)), 71.05.210, or 71.34.050, as now or hereafter amended, in which case the hearing shall be held within seventy-two hours of the filing of the petition: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the above specified seventy-two hours shall be computed by excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays: PROVIDED FURTHER, That, the court may, upon motion of the person whose commitment is sought, or upon motion of petitioner with written permission of the person whose commitment is sought, or his or her counsel and, upon good cause shown, extend the date for the hearing. A copy of the petition and of the notice of the hearing, including the date fixed by the court, shall be served by the designated chemical dependency specialist on the person whose commitment is sought, his or her next of kin, a parent or his or her legal guardian if he or she is a minor, and any other person the court believes advisable. A copy of the petition and certificate shall be delivered to each person notified.

(3) At the hearing the court shall hear all relevant testimony, including, if possible, the testimony, which may be telephonic, of at least one licensed physician who has examined the person whose commitment is sought. Communications otherwise deemed privileged under the laws of this state are deemed to be waived in proceedings under this chapter when a court of competent jurisdiction in its discretion determines that the waiver is necessary to protect either the detained person or the public. The waiver of a privilege under this section is limited to records or testimony relevant to evaluation of the detained person for purposes of a proceeding under this chapter. Upon motion by the detained person, or on its own motion, the court shall examine a record or testimony sought by a petitioner to determine whether it is within the scope of the waiver.

The record maker shall not be required to testify in order to introduce medical, nursing, or psychological records of detained persons so long as the requirements of RCW 5.45.020 are met, except that portions of the record that contain opinions as to whether the detained person is an alcoholic, or in the case of a minor incapacitated by alcoholism and/or other drug addiction, must be deleted from the records unless the person offering the opinions is available for cross-examination. The person shall be present unless the court believes that his or her presence is likely to be injurious to him or her; in this event the court may deem it appropriate to appoint a guardian ad litem to represent him or her throughout the proceeding. If deemed advisable, the court may examine the person out of courtroom. If the person has refused to be examined by a licensed physician, he or she shall be given an opportunity to be examined by a court appointed licensed physician. If he or she refuses and there is sufficient evidence to believe that the allegations of the petition are true, or if the court believes that more medical evidence is necessary, the court may make a temporary order committing him or her to the department for a period of not more than five days for purposes of a diagnostic examination.

(4) If after hearing all relevant evidence, including the results of any diagnostic examination, the court finds that grounds for involuntary commitment have been established by clear, cogent, and convincing proof, it shall make an order of commitment to an approved treatment program. It shall not order commitment of a person unless it determines that an approved treatment program is available and able to provide adequate and appropriate treatment for him or her.

(5) A person committed under this section shall remain in the program for treatment for a period of sixty days unless sooner discharged. At the end of the sixty-day period, he or she shall be discharged automatically unless the program, before expiration of the period, files a petition for his or her recommitment upon the grounds set forth in subsection (1) of this section for a further period of ninety days unless sooner discharged. If a person has been committed because he or she is an alcoholic, or, in the case of a minor, an alcoholic or other drug addict, likely to inflict physical harm on another, the program shall apply for recommitment if after examination it is determined that the likelihood still exists.

(6) Upon the filing of a petition for recommitment under subsection (5) of this section, the court shall fix a date for hearing no less than two and no more than seven days after the date the petition was filed: PROVIDED, That, the court may, upon motion of the person whose commitment is sought and upon good cause shown, extend the date for the hearing. A copy of the petition and of the notice of hearing, including the date fixed by the court, shall be served by the treatment program on the person whose commitment is sought, his or her next of kin, the original petitioner under subsection (1) of this section if different from the petitioner for recommitment, one of his or her parents or his or her legal guardian if he or she is a minor, and his or her attorney and any other person the court believes advisable. At the hearing the court shall proceed as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(7) The approved treatment program shall provide for adequate and appropriate treatment of a person committed to its custody. A person committed under this section may be transferred from one approved public treatment program to another if transfer is medically advisable.

(8) A person committed to the custody of a program for treatment shall be discharged at any time before the end of the period for which he or she has been committed and he or she shall be discharged by order of the court if either of the following conditions are met:

(a) In case of an alcoholic committed on the grounds of likelihood of infliction of physical harm upon himself, herself, or another, or, in the case of a minor, an alcoholic or other drug addict, the likelihood no longer exists; or further treatment will not be likely to bring about significant improvement in the person's condition, or treatment is no longer adequate or appropriate.

(b) In case of an alcoholic committed on the grounds of the need of treatment and incapacity or, in the case of a minor, incapacitated by alcoholism and/or other drug addiction, that the incapacity no longer exists.

(9) The court shall inform the person whose commitment or recommitment is sought of his or her right to contest the application, be represented by counsel at every stage of any proceedings relating to his or her commitment and recommitment, and have counsel appointed by the court or provided by the court, if he or she wants the assistance of counsel and is unable to obtain counsel. If the court believes that the person needs the assistance of counsel, the court shall require, by appointment if necessary, counsel for him or her regardless of his or her wishes. The person shall, if he or she is financially able, bear the costs of such legal service; otherwise such legal service shall be at public expense. The person whose commitment or recommitment is sought shall be informed of his or her right to be examined by a licensed physician of his or her choice. If the person is unable to obtain a licensed physician and requests examination by a physician, the court shall employ a licensed physician.

(10) A person committed under this chapter may at any time seek to be discharged from commitment by writ of habeas corpus in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(11) The venue for proceedings under this section is the county in which person to be committed resides or is present.

(12) When in the opinion of the professional person in charge of the program providing involuntary treatment under this chapter, the committed patient can be appropriately served by less restrictive treatment before expiration of the period of commitment, then the less restrictive care may be required as a condition for early release for a period which, when added to the initial treatment period, does not exceed the period of commitment. If the program designated to provide the less restrictive treatment is other than the program providing the initial involuntary treatment, the program so designated must agree in writing to assume such responsibility. A copy of the conditions for early release shall be given to the patient, the designated chemical dependency specialist of original commitment, and the court of original commitment. The program designated to provide less restrictive care may modify the conditions for continued release when the modifications are in the best interests of the patient. If the program providing less restrictive care and the designated chemical dependency specialist determine that a conditionally released patient is failing to adhere to the terms and conditions of his or her release, or that substantial deterioration in the patient's functioning has occurred, then the designated chemical dependency specialist shall notify the court of original commitment and request a hearing to be held no less than two and no more than seven days after the date of the request to determine whether or not the person should be returned to more restrictive care. The designated chemical dependency specialist shall file a petition with the court stating the facts substantiating the need for the hearing along with the treatment recommendations. The patient shall have the same rights with respect to notice, hearing, and counsel as for the original involuntary treatment proceedings. The issues to be determined at the hearing are whether the conditionally released patient did or did not adhere to the terms and conditions of his or her release to less restrictive care or that substantial deterioration of the patient's functioning has occurred and whether the conditions of release should be modified or the person should be returned to a more restrictive program. The hearing may be waived by the patient and his or her counsel and his or her guardian or conservator, if any, but may not be waived unless all such persons agree to the waiver. Upon waiver, the person may be returned for involuntary treatment or continued on conditional release on the same or modified conditions.

Each person involuntarily admitted to an evaluation and treatment facility shall, within twenty-four hours of his or her admission, be examined and evaluated by a licensed physician who may be assisted by a physician((s)) assistant according to chapter 18.71A RCW or a nurse practitioner according to chapter 18.88 RCW and a mental health professional as defined in this chapter, and shall receive such treatment and care as his or her condition requires including treatment on an outpatient basis for the period that he or she is detained, except that, beginning twenty-four hours prior to a court proceeding, the individual may refuse all but emergency life-saving treatment, and the individual shall be informed at an appropriate time of his or her right to such refusal of treatment. Such person shall be detained up to seventy-two hours, if, in the opinion of the professional person in charge of the facility, or his or her professional designee, the person presents a likelihood of serious harm to himself or herself or others, or is gravely disabled. A person who has been detained for seventy-two hours shall no later than the end of such period be released, unless referred for further care on a voluntary basis, or detained pursuant to court order for further treatment as provided in this chapter.

If, after examination and evaluation, the licensed physician and mental health professional determine that the initial needs of the person would be better served by placement in ~~((an alcohol))~~ a chemical dependency treatment facility, then the person shall be referred to an approved treatment ~~((facility))~~ program defined under RCW 70.96A.020.

An evaluation and treatment center admitting any person pursuant to this chapter whose physical condition reveals the need for hospitalization shall assure that such person is transferred to an appropriate hospital for treatment. Notice of such fact shall be given to the court, the designated attorney, and the designated county mental health professional and the court shall order such continuance in proceedings under this chapter as may be necessary, but in no event may this continuance be more than fourteen days.

(1) Each minor approved by the facility for inpatient admission shall be examined and evaluated by a children's mental health specialist as to the child's mental condition and by a physician as to the child's physical condition within twenty-four hours of admission. Reasonable measures shall be taken to ensure medical treatment is provided for any condition requiring immediate medical attention.

(2) If, after examination and evaluation, the children's mental health specialist and the physician determine that the initial needs of the minor would be better served by placement in a chemical dependency treatment facility, then the minor shall be referred to an approved treatment program defined under RCW 70.96A.020.

(3) The admitting facility shall take reasonable steps to notify immediately the minor's parent of the admission.

~~((3))~~ (4) During the initial seventy-two hour treatment period, the minor has a right to associate or receive communications from parents or others unless the professional person in charge determines that such communication would be seriously detrimental to the minor's condition or treatment and so indicates in the minor's clinical record, and notifies the minor's parents of this determination. In no event may the minor be denied the opportunity to consult an attorney.

~~((4))~~ (5) If the evaluation and treatment facility admits the minor, it may detain the minor for evaluation and treatment for a period not to exceed seventy-two hours from the time of provisional acceptance. The computation of such seventy-two hour period shall exclude Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. This initial treatment period shall not exceed seventy-two hours except when an application for voluntary inpatient treatment is received or a petition for fourteen-day commitment is filed.

~~((5))~~ (6) Within twelve hours of the admission, the facility shall advise the minor of his or her rights as set forth in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The purpose of sections 10 through 15 of this act is solely to provide authority for the involuntary commitment of minors addicted by drugs within available funds and current programs and facilities. Nothing in sections 10 through 15 of this act shall be construed to require the addition of new facilities nor affect the department's authority for the uses of existing programs and facilities authorized by law. Nothing in sections 10 through 15 of this act shall prevent a parent or guardian from requesting the involuntary commitment of a minor through a county designated chemical dependency specialist on an ability to pay basis.

Sec. 17. RCW 13.32A.196 and 1990 c 276 s 14 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) At the dispositional hearing regarding an adjudicated at-risk youth, the court shall consider the recommendations of the parties and the recommendations of any dispositional plan submitted by the department. The court may enter a dispositional order that will assist the parent in maintaining the care, custody, and control of the child and assist the family to resolve family conflicts or problems.

(2) The court may set conditions of supervision for the child that include:

(a) Regular school attendance;

(b) Counseling;

(c) Participation in a substance abuse treatment program;

(d) Reporting on a regular basis to the department or any other designated person or agency; and

(e) Any other condition the court deems an appropriate condition of supervision.

(3) No dispositional order or condition of supervision ordered by a court pursuant to this section shall include involuntary commitment of a child for substance abuse or mental health treatment.

(4) The court may order the parent to participate in counseling services or any other services for the child requiring parental participation. The parent shall cooperate with the court-ordered case plan and shall take necessary steps to help implement the case plan. The parent shall be financially responsible for costs related to the court-ordered plan; however, this requirement shall not affect the eligibility of the parent or child for public assistance or other benefits to which the parent or child may otherwise be entitled. The parent may request dismissal of an at-risk youth proceeding at any time and upon such a request, the court shall dismiss the matter and cease court supervision of the child unless a contempt action is pending in the case. The court may retain jurisdiction over the matter for the purpose of concluding any pending contempt proceedings, including the full satisfaction of any penalties imposed as a result of a contempt finding.

((4)) (5) The court may order the department to monitor compliance with the dispositional order, assist in coordinating the provision of court-ordered services, and submit reports at subsequent review hearings regarding the status of the case.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. If any part of this act is found to be in conflict with federal requirements that are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state, the conflicting part of this act is inoperative solely to the extent of the conflict and with respect to the agencies directly affected, and this finding does not affect the operation of the remainder of this act in its application to the agencies concerned. The rules under this act shall meet federal requirements that are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. If specific funding for section 1 of this act, referencing section 1 of this act by bill and section number, is not provided by June 30, 1991, in the omnibus appropriations act, section 1 this act shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. If specific funding for section 2 of this act, referencing section 2 of this act by bill and section number, is not provided by June 30, 1991, in the omnibus appropriations act, section 2 this act shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. If specific funding for section 3 of this act, referencing section 3 of this act by bill and section number, is not provided by June 30, 1991, in the omnibus appropriations act, section 3 of this act shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. If specific funding for section 4 of this act, referencing section 4 of this act by bill and section number, is not provided by June 30, 1991, in the omnibus appropriations act, section 4 of this act shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. If specific funding for section 5 of this act, referencing section 5 of this act by bill and section number, is not provided by June 30, 1991, in the omnibus appropriations act, section 5 of this act shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. The expansion of services referenced in sections 2, 3, and 4 of this act shall apply exclusively to the fiscal period commencing on July 1, 1991, and ending on June 30, 1993.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "services;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 74.13.034, 74.13.032, 74.13.035, 70.96A.020, 70.96A.095, 70.96A.140, 71.05.210, 71.34.060, and 13.32A.196; adding a new section to chapter 74.13 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 43.20A RCW; and creating new sections.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Linda Smith, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5025 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of the Message from the House on Senate Bill No. 5147 and the pending motions, one by Senator Talmadge that the Senate do concur in the House amendments and the other by Senator Nelson that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments, deferred April 20, 1991.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the positive motion by Senator Talmadge that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 5147.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Talmadge failed and the Senate did not concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 5147.

The motion by Senator Nelson carried and the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 5147 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

Due to business in Seattle, I missed the votes on Senate Bill No. 5982, Senate Bill No. 5104, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5295, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5611, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5720, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5632, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5669 and Senate Bill No. 5684.

I would have voted 'aye' on each measure.

SENATOR PHIL TALMADGE, 34th District

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 22, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5982 with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 10, after "children" strike all material through "programs," on line 11

On page 2, beginning on line 1, strike all of sections 2 and 3 and insert:
NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The superintendent of public instruction may reimburse school districts with state funds for the amount of any unavailable federal share of funds for breakfasts or lunches actually provided to children during the teachers' work stoppage that began April 18, 1991.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The sum of two million dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, from the general fund to the superintendent of public instruction solely for the purpose of section 2 of this act., and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Newhouse moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 5982.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Newhouse that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 5982.

The motion by Senator Newhouse carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 5982.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5982, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5982, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; Nays, 0; Absent, 1; Excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Erwin, Gaspard, Hansen, Hayner, Jesernig, Johnson, M. Kreidler, Madsen, Matson, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Murray, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Oke, Owen, Patterson, Pelz, Rinehart, Roach, Saling, Skratek, A. Smith, L. Smith, Snyder, Stratton, Sutherland, Thorsness, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West, Williams, Wojahn - 45.

Absent: Senator Talmadge - 1.

Excused: Senators Moore, Rasmussen, Sellar - 3.

SENATE BILL NO. 5982, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Murray, Senator Talmadge was excused.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 20, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5411 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds that:

(a) Floods pose threats to public health and safety including loss or endangerment to human life; damage to homes; damage to public roads, highways, bridges, and utilities; interruption of travel, communication, and commerce; damage to private and public property; degradation of water quality; damage to fisheries, fish hatcheries, and fish habitat; harm to livestock; destruction or degradation of environmentally sensitive areas; erosion of soil, stream banks, and beds; and harmful accumulation of soil and debris in the beds of streams or other bodies of water and on public and private lands;

(b) Alleviation of flood damage to property and to public health and safety is a matter of public concern;

(c) Many land uses alter the pattern of runoff by decreasing the ability of upstream lands to store waters, thus increasing the rate of runoff and attendant downstream impacts; and

(d) Prevention of flood damage requires a comprehensive approach, incorporating storm water management and basin-wide flood damage protection planning.

(2) It is the intent of the legislature to develop a coordinated and comprehensive state policy to address the problems of flooding and the minimization of flood damage.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 90.03 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A person unlawfully diverting, impounding, or altering the natural flow of surface waters or water flowing in a natural watercourse shall be liable in an action for property damages to a person whose property is damaged by such unlawful diversion, impoundment, or alteration. Such person shall not be liable under this section where the action was taken in compliance with a permit issued by a state agency or local government.

(2) For purposes of this section, "natural watercourse" means a channel with a defined bed and banks or a depression or swale that in its natural condition acts to drain water flowing perennially or intermittently.

(3) This section shall not apply to the diversion and collection of water for irrigation of agricultural lands, including the discharge of used irrigation water.

(4) This section shall apply only to actions taken subsequent to the effective date of this act.

Sec. 3. RCW 36.70A.150 and 1990 1st ex.s. c 17 s 15 are each amended to read as follows:

Each county and city that is required or chooses to prepare a comprehensive land use plan under RCW 36.70A.040 shall identify lands useful for public purposes such as utility corridors, transportation corridors, landfills, sewage treatment facilities, storm water management facilities, recreation, schools, and other public uses. The county shall work with the state and the cities within its borders to identify areas of shared need for public facilities. The jurisdictions within the county shall prepare a prioritized list of lands necessary for the identified public uses including an estimated date by which the acquisition will be needed.

The respective capital acquisition budgets for each jurisdiction shall reflect the jointly agreed upon priorities and time schedule.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 36.70A RCW to read as follows:

Within one year of the adoption of comprehensive plans by jurisdictions required to plan or who choose to plan under RCW 36.70A.040, such jurisdictions shall adopt ordinances that require the provision of storm water management facilities concurrently with development approval and that meet the standards for level of service provided in the comprehensive plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The purpose of sections 5 through 16 of this act is to permit counties to adopt a comprehensive system of flood control management and protection within drainage basins and to coordinate the flood control activities of the state, counties, cities, towns, and special districts within such drainage basins.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 86.12 RCW to read as follows:

The county legislative authority of any county may adopt a comprehensive flood control management plan for any drainage basin that is located wholly or partially within the county.

A comprehensive flood control management plan shall include the following elements:

(1) Designation of areas that are susceptible to periodic flooding, from inundation by bodies of water or surface water runoff, or both, including the river's meander belt or floodway;

(2) Establishment of a comprehensive scheme of flood control protection and improvements for the areas that are subject to such periodic flooding, that includes: (a) Determining the need for, and desirable location of, flood control improvements to protect or preclude flood damage to structures, works, and improvements, based upon a cost/benefit ratio between the expense of providing and maintaining these improvements and the benefits arising from these improvements; (b) establishing the level of flood protection that each portion of the system of flood control improvements will be permitted; (c) identifying alternatives to in-stream flood control work; (d) identifying areas where flood waters could be directed during a flood to avoid damage to buildings and other structures; and (e) identifying sources of revenue that will be sufficient to finance the comprehensive scheme of flood control protection and improvements;

(3) Establishing land use regulations that preclude the location of structures, works, or improvements in critical portions of such areas subject to periodic flooding, including a river's meander belt or floodway, and permitting only flood-compatible land uses in such areas;

(4) Establishing restrictions on construction activities in areas subject to periodic floods that require the flood proofing of those structures that are permitted to be constructed or remodeled; and

(5) Establishing restrictions on land clearing activities and development practices that exacerbate flood problems by increasing the flow or accumulation of flood waters, or the intensity of drainage, on low-lying areas. Land clearing activities do not include forest practices as defined in chapter 76.09 RCW.

A comprehensive flood control management plan shall be subject to the minimum requirements for participation in the national flood insurance program, requirements exceeding the minimum national flood insurance program that have been adopted by the department of ecology for a specific flood plain pursuant to RCW 86.16.031, and rules adopted by the department of ecology pursuant to RCW 86.26.050 relating to flood plain management activities. When a county plans under chapter 36.70A RCW, it may incorporate the portion of its comprehensive flood control management plan relating to land use restrictions in its comprehensive plan and development regulations adopted pursuant to chapter 36.70A RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 86.12 RCW to read as follows:

A comprehensive flood control management plan that includes an area within which a city or town, or a special district subject to chapter 85.38 RCW, is located shall be developed by the county with the participation of officials from the city, town, or special district, including conservation districts, and appropriate state and federal agencies. Where a comprehensive flood control management plan is being prepared for a river that is part of the common boundary between two counties, the county legislative authority of the county preparing the plan may allow participation by officials of the adjacently located county.

A comprehensive flood control management plan shall be binding on each city, town, and special district that is located within an area included in the plan, except that the land use regulations and restrictions on construction activities contained in a comprehensive flood control management plan applicable to a city or town shall be minimum standards that the city or town may exceed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 86.12 RCW to read as follows:

A county may create one or more advisory committees to assist in the development of proposed comprehensive flood control management plans and to provide general advice on flood problems. The advisory committees may include city and town officials, officials of special districts subject to chapter 85.38 RCW, conservation districts, appropriate state and federal officials, and officials of other counties and other interested persons.

Sec. 9. RCW 86.26.050 and 1988 c 36 s 64 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) State participation shall be in such preparation of comprehensive flood control management plans under this chapter and chapter 86.12 RCW, cost sharing feasibility studies for new flood control projects, and flood control maintenance projects as are affected with a general public and state interest, as differentiated from a private interest, and as are likely to bring about public benefits commensurate with the amount of state funds allocated thereto.

(2) No participation for flood control maintenance projects may occur with a county or other municipal corporation unless the director of ecology has approved the flood plain management activities of the county, city, or town having planning jurisdiction over the area where the flood control maintenance project will be, on the one hundred year flood plain surrounding such area.

The department of ecology shall adopt rules concerning the flood plain management activities of a county, city, or town that are adequate to protect or preclude flood damage to structures, works, and improvements, including the restriction of land uses within a river's meander belt or floodway to only flood-compatible uses. Whenever the department has approved county, city, and town flood plain management activities, as a condition of receiving an allocation of funds under this chapter, each revision to the flood plain management activities must be approved by the department of ecology, in consultation with the department of fisheries and the department of wildlife.

No participation with a county or other municipal corporation for flood control maintenance projects may occur unless the county engineer of the county within which the flood control maintenance project is located certifies that a comprehensive flood control management plan has been completed and adopted by the appropriate local authority, or is being prepared for all portions of the river basin or other area, within which the project is located in that county, that are subject to flooding with a frequency of one hundred years or less.

(3) Participation for flood control maintenance projects and preparation of comprehensive flood control management plans shall be made from grants made by the department of ecology from the flood control assistance account. Comprehensive flood control management plans, and any revisions to the plans, must be approved by the department of ecology, in consultation with the department of fisheries and the department of wildlife. The department may only grant financial assistance to local governments that, in the opinion of the department, are making good faith efforts to take advantage of, or comply with, federal and state flood control programs.

Sec. 10. RCW 86.26.090 and 1984 c 212 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

The state shall participate with eligible local authorities in maintaining and restoring the normal and reasonably stable river and stream channel alignment and the normal and reasonably stable river and stream channel capacity for carrying off flood waters with a minimum of damage from bank erosion or overflow of adjacent lands and property; and in restoring, maintaining and repairing natural conditions, works and structures for the maintenance of such conditions. State participation in the repair of flood control facilities may include the enhancement of such facilities. The state shall likewise participate in the restoration and maintenance of natural conditions, works or structures for the protection of lands and other property from inundation or other damage by the sea or other bodies of water. Funds from the flood control assistance account shall not be available for maintenance of works or structures maintained solely for the detention or storage of flood waters.

Sec. 11. RCW 86.26.100 and 1986 c 46 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

State participation in the cost of any flood control maintenance project shall be provided for by a written memorandum agreement between the director of ecology and the legislative authority of the county submitting the request, which agreement, among other things, shall state the estimated cost and the percentage thereof to be borne by the state. In no instance, except on emergency projects, shall the state's share exceed one-half the cost of the project, to include project planning and design. Grants for cost sharing feasibility studies for new flood control projects shall not exceed fifty percent of the matching funds that are required by the federal government, and shall not exceed twenty-five percent of the total costs of the feasibility study. However, grants to prepare a comprehensive flood control management plan required under RCW 86.26.050 shall not exceed seventy-five percent of the full planning costs, but not to exceed amounts for either purpose specified in rule and regulation by the department of ecology.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 86.15 RCW to read as follows:

A board may not establish a zone including an area located in another zone unless this area is removed from the other zone, or the other zone is dissolved, as part of the action creating the new zone.

Sec. 13. RCW 86.15.178 and 1983 c 315 s 23 and 1983 c 167 s 212 are each reenacted to read as follows:

(1) The supervisors may authorize the issuance of revenue bonds to finance any flood control improvement or storm water control improvement. The bonds may be issued by the supervisors in the same manner as prescribed in RCW 36.67.510 through 36.67.570 pertaining to counties. The bonds shall be issued on behalf of the zone or participating zones when the improvement has by the resolution, provided in RCW 86.15.110, been found to be of benefit to a zone or participating zones. The bonds may be in any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds.

Each revenue bond shall state on its face that it is payable from a special fund, naming the fund and the resolution creating the fund.

Revenue bond principal, interest, and all other related necessary expenses shall be payable only out of the appropriate special fund.

A zone or participating zones shall have a lien for delinquent service charges, including interest thereon, against the premises benefited by a flood control improvement or storm water control improvement, which lien shall be superior to all other liens and encumbrances except general taxes and local and special assessments. The lien shall be effective and shall be enforced and foreclosed in the same manner as provided for sewerage liens of cities and towns by RCW 35.67.200 through 35.67.290.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

Sec. 14. RCW 86.16.110 and 1987 c 109 s 23 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

Any person, association, or corporation, public, municipal, or private, feeling aggrieved at any order, decision, or determination of the department or director pursuant to this chapter, affecting his or her interest, may have the same reviewed pursuant to RCW 43.21B.310.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The department of fisheries and the department of wildlife shall process hydraulic project applications submitted under RCW 75.20.100 or 75.20.103 within thirty days of receipt of the application. This requirement is only applicable for the repair and reconstruction of legally constructed dikes, seawalls, and other flood control structures damaged as a result of flooding or windstorms that occurred in November and December 1990.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) RCW 86.15.040 and 1961 c 153 s 4;
- (2) RCW 86.16.027 and 1987 c 109 s 51 & 1935 c 159 s 9;
- (3) RCW 86.16.030 and 1987 c 109 s 52 & 1935 c 159 s 5;
- (4) RCW 86.16.040 and 1987 c 109 s 54 & 1935 c 159 s 11;
- (5) RCW 86.16.060 and 1987 c 109 s 55 & 1935 c 159 s 13;
- (6) RCW 86.16.065 and 1987 c 109 s 56 & 1935 c 159 s 14;
- (7) RCW 86.16.067 and 1987 c 109 s 57, 1985 c 469 s 86, & 1935 c 159 s 15;
- (8) RCW 86.16.070 and 1987 c 109 s 58 & 1935 c 159 s 16;
- (9) RCW 86.16.080 and 1987 c 109 s 59 & 1935 c 159 s 10;
- (10) RCW 86.16.090 and 1987 c 109 s 60, 1939 c 85 s 2, & 1935 c 159 s 7;

- (11) RCW 86.16.170 and 1987 c 109 s 62 & 1973 c 75 s 3.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The department of community development shall convene a state flood damage reduction commission composed of twenty-two members as follows: (1) Four members of the senate, two from each of the major caucuses, who are appointed by the president of the senate; (2) four members of the house of representatives, two from each of the major caucuses, who are appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives; (3) the director of the department of community development, or the director's designee, who shall act as chair of the commission; (4) the director of the department of fisheries, or the director's designee; (5) the director of the department of wildlife, or the director's designee; (6) the director of the department of agriculture, or the director's designee; (7) the director of the department of ecology, or the director's designee; (8) the director of the department of transportation, or the director's designee, (9) the commissioner of public lands, or the commissioner's designee; (10) the director of the parks and recreation commission, or the director's designee; (11) four persons appointed by the governor representing counties within which significant flood control improvements have been constructed; (12) two persons appointed by the governor representing conservation districts and special districts that provide flood control improvements; and (13) two persons appointed by the governor representing tribal governments.

The commission may seek assistance from appropriate federal agencies, including the United States army corp of engineers. The department of community development shall provide staff for the commission and pay the expenses of commission members who are appointed by the governor. The expenses of the legislative members shall be paid by the legislature. The expenses of the state agency officials, or their designees, shall be paid by their state agencies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. The state flood damage reduction commission shall consider the development of comprehensive state flood policies and a comprehensive and coordinated flood damage reduction plan, including the following elements:

- (1) Structural and nonstructural flood damage reduction projects;
- (2) Forest practice effects on watershed hydraulics as determined by applicable research projects conducted under the timber-fish-wildlife cooperative monitoring, evaluation, and research program, including: (a) Percentage of watershed clearcut; (b) logging in very steep areas; and (c) logging in slide-prone areas;
- (3) Growth management and land uses, including: (a) Flood plain development patterns; (b) loss of potential natural flood water storage areas; (c) future development restrictions in flood-prone areas; and (d) coordination with the state's growth management act and county flood comprehensive planning;
- (4) Comprehensive watershed and flood damage management;
- (5) Storm water runoff pattern alterations and accompanying liabilities;
- (6) Analysis of the federal, state, and local permitting requirements necessary for projects designed to reduce future flood damage or to restore areas damaged by floods, including any conflicting requirements that may exist;
- (7) Emergency work and coordination, and emergency preparedness planning;
- (8) Determination of the need for requirements to disclose the flood hazard to purchasers or renters of flood-prone property;
- (9) The role of dredging in flood damage reduction, including environmental effects, funding sources, and upstream uses that alter its effectiveness;
- (10) The role of dikes and levees in flood damage reduction, including environmental effects, construction and maintenance standards, sources of funding for construction and maintenance, and resultant upstream and downstream hydrologic effects;
- (11) Review criteria for evaluating and approving local plans and projects funded by grants from the flood control account; and
- (12) Public acquisition of properties to reduce flood damage.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. The state flood reduction commission shall report its findings to the legislature on or before December 31, 1991. The report shall include the following: (1) Findings relating to a state flood damage reduction plan; (2) commitments to implement the plan; (3) recommended state agency regulation and policy changes; (4) proposed legislation and associated costs to implement the state flood damage reduction plan; and (5) recommended local flood reduction and mitigation measures.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. A new section is added to chapter 86.16 RCW to read as follows:

Local governments that have adopted flood plain management regulations pursuant to this chapter shall include provisions that allow for the establishment of livestock flood sanctuary areas at a convenient location within a farming unit that contains domestic livestock. Local governments may limit the size and configuration of the livestock flood sanctuary areas, but such limitation shall provide adequate space for the expected number of livestock on the farming unit and shall be at an adequate elevation to protect livestock. Modification to flood plain management regulations required pursuant to this section shall be within the minimum federal requirements necessary to maintain coverage under the national flood insurance program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. A new section is added to chapter 75.20 RCW to read as follows:

Whenever the placement of woody debris is required as a condition of a hydraulic permit approval issued pursuant to RCW 75.20.100 or 75.20.103, the department of fisheries and the department of wildlife, upon request, shall invite comment regarding that placement from the local governmental authority, affected tribes, affected federal and state agencies, and the project applicant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. The department of fisheries, the department of wildlife, and the department of ecology will work cooperatively with the United States army corps of engineers to develop a memorandum of agreement outlining dike vegetation management guidelines so that dike owners are eligible for coverage under P.L. 84-99, and state requirements established pursuant to RCW 75.20.100 and 75.20.103 are met.

Sec. 23. RCW 38.52.030 and 1986 c 266 s 25 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The director may employ such personnel and may make such expenditures within the appropriation therefor, or from other funds made available for purposes of emergency management, as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(2) The director, subject to the direction and control of the governor, shall be responsible to the governor for carrying out the program for emergency management of this state. The director shall coordinate the activities of all organizations for emergency management within the state, and shall maintain liaison with and cooperate with emergency management agencies and organizations of other states and of the federal government, and shall have such additional authority, duties, and responsibilities authorized by this chapter, as may be prescribed by the governor.

(3) The director shall develop and maintain a comprehensive, all-hazard emergency plan for the state which shall include an analysis of the natural and man-caused hazards which could affect the state of Washington, and shall include the procedures to be used during emergencies for coordinating local resources, as necessary, and the resources of all state agencies, departments, commissions, and boards. The comprehensive emergency management plan shall direct the department in times of state emergency to administer and manage the state's emergency operations center. This will include representation from all appropriate state agencies and be available as a single point of contact for the authorizing of state resources or actions, including emergency permits. The comprehensive, all-hazard emergency plan authorized under this subsection may not include preparation for emergency evacuation or relocation of residents in anticipation of nuclear attack. This plan shall be known as the comprehensive emergency management plan.

(4) In accordance with the comprehensive emergency management plans and the programs for the emergency management of this state, the director shall procure supplies and equipment, institute training programs and public information programs, and shall take all other preparatory steps, including the partial or full mobilization of emergency management organizations in advance of actual disaster, to insure the furnishing of adequately trained and equipped forces of emergency management personnel in time of need.

(5) The director shall make such studies and surveys of the industries, resources, and facilities in this state as may be necessary to ascertain the capabilities of the state for emergency management, and shall plan for the most efficient emergency use thereof.

(6) The director may appoint a communications coordinating committee consisting of six to eight persons with the director, or his or her designee, as chairman thereof. Three of the members shall be appointed from qualified, trained and experienced telephone communications administrators or engineers actively engaged in such work within the state of Washington at the time of appointment, and three of the members shall be appointed from qualified, trained and experienced radio communication administrators or engineers actively engaged in such work within the state of Washington at the time of appointment. This committee shall advise the director on all aspects of the communications and warning systems and facilities operated or controlled under the provisions of this chapter.

(7) The director shall appoint a state coordinator of search and rescue operations to coordinate those state resources, services and facilities (other than those for which the state director of aeronautics is directly responsible) requested by political subdivisions in support of search and rescue operations, and on request to maintain liaison with and coordinate the resources, services, and facilities of political subdivisions when more than one political subdivision is engaged in joint search and rescue operations.

(8) The director, subject to the direction and control of the governor, shall prepare and administer a state program for emergency assistance to individuals within the state who are victims of a natural or man-made disaster, as defined by RCW 38.52.010(6). Such program may be integrated into and coordinated with disaster assistance plans and programs of the federal government which provide to the state, or through the state to any political subdivision thereof, services, equipment, supplies, materials, or funds by way of gift, grant, or loan for purposes of assistance to individuals affected by a disaster. Further, such program may include, but shall not be limited to, grants, loans, or gifts of services, equipment, supplies, materials, or funds of the state, or any political subdivision thereof, to individuals who, as a result of a disaster, are in need of assistance and who meet standards of eligibility for disaster assistance established by the department of social and health services: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That nothing herein shall be construed in any manner inconsistent with the provisions of Article VIII, section 5 or section 7 of the Washington state Constitution.

(9) The director shall appoint a state coordinator for radioactive and hazardous waste emergency response programs. The coordinator shall consult with the state radiation control officer in matters relating to radioactive materials. The duties of the state coordinator for radioactive and hazardous waste emergency response programs shall include:

- (a) Assessing the current needs and capabilities of state and local radioactive and hazardous waste emergency response teams on an ongoing basis;
- (b) Coordinating training programs for state and local officials for the purpose of updating skills relating to emergency response;
- (c) Utilizing appropriate training programs such as those offered by the federal emergency management agency, the department of transportation and the environmental protection agency; and
- (d) Undertaking other duties in this area that are deemed appropriate by the director.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. A new section is added to chapter 75.20 RCW to read as follows:

The department of fisheries, the department of wildlife, the department of ecology, and the department of natural resources shall jointly develop an informational brochure that describes when permits and any other authorizations are required for flood damage prevention and reduction projects, and recommends ways to best proceed through the various regulatory permitting processes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. (1) This section shall apply only to projects:

- (a) Needed to repair damage done by the November or December 1990, flood events, or remove accumulated debris and gravel that significantly contributed to flooding during the November and December 1990, flood events; and
- (b) That are not a substantial development as defined in chapter 90.58 RCW; and
- (c) That require permits or other authorization for removal of valuable materials as defined in RCW 79.90.060 or permits or authorization under RCW 75.20.100 or 75.20.103.

(2) Any project undertaken under the provisions of this section shall be completed by September 15, 1991.

(3) The department of fisheries, the department of wildlife, the department of ecology, and the department of natural resources shall expedite and coordinate any required responses to the project application. A complete application for approval shall contain general plans for the overall project, and complete plans and specifications of the proposed construction or work. Upon receipt of a completed application, the agency that first receives that application shall, within fifteen days, schedule and hold a coordination meeting with all appropriate state, local, or county permitting or authorizing agencies. The project applicant shall be invited to this meeting. The appropriate city, county, or town may coordinate their permit approval processes with the state agencies. As soon as possible, but no later than thirty days after the receipt of a complete application, all appropriate state agencies will deny or approve the project. Any conditions placed upon project approvals shall be coordinated among the state agencies so that those conditions do not conflict.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. Section 25 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "damage;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 36.70A.150, 86.26.050, 86.26.090, 86.26.100, and 38.52.030; reenacting and amending RCW 86.16.110; reenacting RCW 86.15.178; adding a new section to chapter 90.03 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 36.70A RCW; adding new sections to chapter 86.12 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 86.15 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 86.16 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 75.20 RCW; repealing RCW 86.15.040, 86.16.027, 86.16.030, 86.16.040, 86.16.060, 86.16.065, 86.16.067, 86.16.070, 86.16.080, 86.16.090, and 86.16.170; creating new sections; and declaring an emergency.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Barr, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5411 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 19, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5670 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

Sec. 1. RCW 71.24.015 and 1989 c 205 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the intent of the legislature to establish a community mental health program which shall help people experiencing mental illness to retain a respected and productive position in the community. This will be accomplished through programs which provide for:

(1) Access to mental health services for adults (~~and children~~) of the state who are acutely mentally ill, chronically mentally ill, or seriously disturbed(~~, or chronically mentally ill~~) and children of the state who are acutely mentally ill, severely emotionally disturbed, or seriously disturbed, which services recognize the special needs of underserved populations, including minorities, children, the elderly, disabled, and low-income persons. It is also the purpose of this chapter to ~~((ensure that))~~ promote the early identification of mentally ill children ((in need of mental health care and treatment)) and to ensure that they receive the mental health care and treatment which is appropriate to their developmental level. This care should improve home, school, and community functioning, maintain children in a safe and nurturing home environment, and ((to)) should enable treatment decisions to be made in response to clinical needs ((and)) in accordance with sound professional judgment while also recognizing parents' rights to participate in treatment decisions for their children;

(2) Accountability of services through state-wide standards for monitoring and reporting of information;

(3) Minimum service delivery standards;

(4) Priorities for the use of available resources for the care of the mentally ill;

(5) Coordination of services within the department, including those divisions within the department that provide services to children, between the department and the office of the superintendent of public instruction, and among state mental hospitals, county authorities, community mental health services, and other support services, which shall to the maximum extent feasible also include the families of the mentally ill, and other service providers; and

(6) Coordination of services aimed at reducing duplication in service delivery and promoting complementary services among all entities that provide mental health services to adults and children.

It is the policy of the state to encourage the provision of a full range of treatment and rehabilitation services in the state for mental disorders. The legislature intends to encourage the development of county-based and county-managed mental health services with adequate local flexibility to assure eligible people in need of care access to the least-restrictive treatment alternative appropriate to their needs, and the availability of treatment components to assure continuity of care. To this end, counties are encouraged to enter into joint operating agreements with other counties to form regional systems of care which integrate planning, administration, and service delivery duties assigned to counties under chapters 71.05 and 71.24 RCW to consolidate administration, reduce administrative layering, and reduce administrative costs.

It is further the intent of the legislature to integrate the provision of services to provide continuity of care through all phases of treatment. To this end the legislature intends to promote active engagement with mentally ill persons and collaboration between families and service providers.

Sec. 2. RCW 71.24.025 and 1989 c 205 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Acutely mentally ill" means a condition which is limited to a short-term severe crisis episode of:

(a) A mental disorder as defined in RCW 71.05.020(2) or, in the case of a child, as defined in RCW 71.34.020(12);

(b) Being gravely disabled as defined in RCW 71.05.020(1) or, in the case of a child, as defined in RCW 71.34.020(8); or

(c) Presenting a likelihood of serious harm as defined in RCW 71.05.020(3) or, in the case of a child, as defined in RCW 71.34.020(11).

(2) "Available resources" means those funds which shall be appropriated under this chapter by the legislature during any biennium for the purpose of providing community mental health programs under RCW 71.24.045. When regional support networks are established or after July 1, 1995, "available resources" means federal funds, except those provided according to Title XIX of the social security act, and state funds appropriated under this chapter or chapter 71.05 RCW by the legislature during any biennium for the purpose of providing residential services, resource management services, community support services, and other mental health services. This does not include funds appropriated for the purpose of operating and administering the state psychiatric hospitals, except as negotiated according to RCW 71.24.300(1)(d).

(3) "Licensed service provider" means an entity licensed according to this chapter or chapter 71.05 RCW that meets state minimum standards or individuals licensed under chapter 18.57, 18.71, 18.83, or 18.88 RCW.

(4) "Child" means a person under the age of eighteen years.

(5) "Chronically mentally ill ~~((person))~~ adult" means ~~((a child or))~~ an adult who has a mental disorder ~~((, in the case of a child as defined by chapter 71.34 RCW,))~~ and meets at least one of the following criteria:

(a) Has undergone two or more episodes of hospital care for a mental disorder within the preceding two years ~~((or, in the case of a child, has been placed by the department or its designee two or more times outside of the home, where the placements are related to a mental disorder, as defined in chapter 71.34 RCW, and where the placements progress toward a more restrictive setting. Placements by the department include but are not limited to placements by child protective services and child welfare services)); or~~

(b) Has experienced a continuous psychiatric hospitalization or residential treatment exceeding six months' duration within the preceding year; or

(c) Has been unable to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any mental disorder which has lasted for a continuous period of not less than twelve months. "Substantial gainful activity" shall be defined by the department by rule consistent with Public Law 92-603, as amended ~~((, and shall include school attendance in the case of a child; or~~

~~((d) In the case of a child, has been subjected to continual distress as indicated by repeated physical or sexual abuse or neglect)).~~

(6) "Severely emotionally disturbed child" means an infant or child who has been determined by the regional support network to be experiencing a mental disorder as defined in chapter 71.34 RCW, including those mental disorders that result in a behavioral or conduct disorder, that is clearly interfering with the child's functioning in family or school or with peers and who meets at least one of the following criteria:

(a) Has undergone inpatient treatment or placement outside of the home related to a mental disorder within the last two years;

(b) Has undergone involuntary treatment under chapter 71.34 RCW within the last two years;

(c) Is currently served by at least one of the following child-serving systems: Juvenile justice, child-protection/welfare, special education, or developmental disabilities;

(d) Is at risk of escalating maladjustment due to:

(i) Chronic family dysfunction involving a mentally ill or inadequate caretaker;

(ii) Changes in custodial adult;

(iii) Going to, residing in, or returning from any placement outside of the home, for example, psychiatric hospital, short-term inpatient, residential treatment, group or foster home, or a correctional facility;

(iv) Subject to repeated physical abuse or neglect;

(v) Drug or alcohol abuse; or

(vi) Homelessness.

(7) "Community mental health program" means all mental health services established by a county authority. After July 1, 1995, or when the regional support networks are established, "community mental health program" means all activities or programs using available resources.

~~((7))~~ (8) "Community support services" means services for acutely ~~((and))~~ mentally ill persons, chronically mentally ill ((persons)) adults, and severely emotionally disturbed children and includes: (a) Discharge planning for clients leaving state mental hospitals, other acute care inpatient facilities, inpatient psychiatric facilities for persons under twenty-one years of age, and other children's mental health residential treatment facilities; (b) sufficient contacts with clients, families, schools, or significant others to provide for an effective program of community maintenance; and (c) medication monitoring. After July 1, 1995, or when regional support networks are established, for adults and children "community support services" means services authorized, planned, and coordinated through resource management services including, at least, assessment, diagnosis, emergency crisis intervention available twenty-four hours, seven days a week, prescreening determinations for mentally ill persons being considered for placement in nursing homes as required by federal law, screening for patients being considered for admission to residential services, diagnosis and treatment for acutely mentally ill and severely emotionally disturbed children discovered under screening through the federal Title XIX early and periodic screening, diagnosis, and treatment program, investigation, legal, and other nonresidential services under chapter 71.05 RCW, case management services, psychiatric treatment including medication supervision, counseling, psychotherapy, assuring transfer of relevant patient information between service providers, other services determined by regional support networks, and maintenance of a patient tracking system for chronically mentally ill ~~((persons))~~ adults and severely emotionally disturbed children.

~~((8))~~ (9) "County authority" means the board of county commissioners, county council, or county executive having authority to establish a community mental health program, or two or more of the county authorities specified in this subsection which have entered into an agreement to provide a community mental health program.

~~((9))~~ (10) "Department" means the department of social and health services.

~~((10))~~ (11) "Mental health services" means community services pursuant to RCW 71.24.035(5)(b) and other services provided by the state for the mentally ill. When regional support networks are established, or after July 1, 1995, "mental health services" shall include all services provided by regional support networks.

~~((11))~~ (12) "Mentally ill persons" and "the mentally ill" mean persons and conditions defined in subsections (1), (5), (6), and ~~((15))~~ (16) of this section.

~~((12))~~ (13) "Regional support network" means a county authority or group of county authorities recognized by the secretary that enter into joint operating agreements to contract with the secretary pursuant to this chapter.

~~((13))~~ (14) "Residential services" means a facility or distinct part thereof which provides food and shelter, and may include treatment services.

When regional support networks are established, or after July 1, 1995, for adults and children "residential services" means a complete range of residences and supports authorized by resource management services and which may involve a facility, a distinct part thereof, or services which support community living, for acutely mentally ill persons, chronically mentally ill ~~((persons))~~ adults, severely emotionally disturbed children, or seriously disturbed ~~((persons))~~ adults determined by the regional support network to be at risk of becoming acutely or chronically mentally ill. The services shall include at least evaluation and treatment services as defined in chapter 71.05 RCW, acute crisis respite care, long-term adaptive and rehabilitative care, and supervised and supported living services, and shall also include any residential services developed to service mentally ill persons in nursing homes. Residential services for children in out-of-home placements related to their mental disorder shall not include the costs of food and shelter, except for children's long-term residential facilities existing prior to January 1, 1991.

~~((14))~~ (15) "Resource management services" mean the planning, coordination, and authorization of residential services and community support services administered pursuant to an individual service plan for acutely mentally ill adults and children, chronically mentally ill adults ~~((and children))~~, severely emotionally disturbed children, or seriously disturbed adults ~~((and children))~~ determined by the regional support network at their sole discretion to be at risk of becoming acutely or chronically mentally ill. Such planning, coordination, and authorization shall include mental health screening for children eligible under the federal Title XIX early and periodic screening, diagnosis, and treatment program. Resource management services include seven day a week, twenty-four hour a day availability of information regarding mentally ill adults' and children's enrollment in services and their individual service plan to county-designated mental health professionals, evaluation and treatment facilities, and others as determined by the regional support network.

((45)) (16) "Seriously disturbed person" means a person who:

- (a) Is gravely disabled or presents a likelihood of serious harm to oneself or others as a result of a mental disorder as defined in chapter 71.05 RCW;
- (b) Has been on conditional release status at some time during the preceding two years from an evaluation and treatment facility or a state mental health hospital;
- (c) Has a mental disorder which causes major impairment in several areas of daily living;
- (d) Exhibits suicidal preoccupation or attempts; or
- (e) Is a child diagnosed by a mental health professional, as defined in RCW 71.05.020, as experiencing a mental disorder which is clearly interfering with the child's functioning in family or school or with peers or is clearly interfering with the child's personality development and learning.

((46)) (17) "Secretary" means the secretary of social and health services.

((47)) (18) "State minimum standards" means: (a) Minimum requirements for delivery of mental health services as established by departmental rules and necessary to implement this chapter, including but not limited to licensing service providers and services; (b) minimum service requirements for licensed service providers for the provision of mental health services as established by departmental rules pursuant to chapter 34.05 RCW as necessary to implement this chapter, including, but not limited to: Qualifications for staff providing services directly to mentally ill persons; the intended result of each service; and the rights and responsibilities of persons receiving mental health services pursuant to this chapter; (c) minimum requirements for residential services as established by the department in rule based on clients' functional abilities and not solely on their diagnoses, limited to health and safety, staff qualifications, and program outcomes. Minimum requirements for residential services are those developed in collaboration with consumers, families, counties, regulators, and residential providers serving the mentally ill. Minimum requirements encourage the development of broad-range residential programs, including integrated housing and cross-systems programs where appropriate, and do not unnecessarily restrict programming flexibility; and (d) minimum standards for community support services and resource management services, including at least qualifications for resource management services, client tracking systems, and the transfer of patient information between service providers.

Sec. 3. RCW 71.24.035 and 1990 1st ex.s. c 8 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department is designated as the state mental health authority.

(2) The secretary may provide for public, client, and licensed service provider participation in developing the state mental health program.

(3) The secretary shall provide for participation in developing the state mental health program for children and other underserved populations, by including representatives on any committee established to provide oversight to the state mental health program.

(4) The secretary shall be designated as the county authority if a county fails to meet state minimum standards or refuses to exercise responsibilities under RCW 71.24.045.

(5) The secretary shall:

(a) Develop a biennial state mental health program that incorporates county biennial needs assessments and county mental health service plans and state services for mentally ill adults and children. The secretary may also develop a six-year state mental health plan;

(b) Assure that any county community mental health program provides access to treatment for the county's residents in the following order of priority: (i) The acutely mentally ill; (ii) ~~((the))~~ chronically mentally ill adults and severely emotionally disturbed children; and (iii) the seriously disturbed. Such programs shall provide:

(A) Outpatient services;

(B) Emergency care services for twenty-four hours per day;

(C) Day treatment for mentally ill persons which includes training in basic living and social skills, supported work, vocational rehabilitation, and day activities. Such services may include therapeutic treatment. In the case of a child, day treatment includes age-appropriate basic living and social skills, educational and prevocational services, day activities, and therapeutic treatment;

(D) Screening for patients being considered for admission to state mental health facilities to determine the appropriateness of admission;

(E) Consultation and education services; and

(F) Community support services;

(c) Develop and promulgate rules establishing state minimum standards for the delivery of mental health services including, but not limited to:

(i) Licensed service providers;

(ii) Regional support networks; and

(iii) Residential and inpatient services, evaluation and treatment services and facilities under chapter 71.05 RCW, resource management services, and community support services;

(d) Assure that the special needs of minorities, the elderly, disabled, children, and low-income persons are met within the priorities established in this section;

(e) Establish a standard contract or contracts, consistent with state minimum standards, which shall be used by the counties;

(f) Establish, to the extent possible, a standardized auditing procedure which minimizes paperwork requirements of county authorities and licensed service providers;

(g) Develop and maintain an information system to be used by the state, counties, and regional support networks when they are established which shall include a tracking method which allows the department and regional support networks to identify mental health clients' participation in any mental health service or public program on an immediate basis. The information system shall not include individual patient's case history files. Confidentiality of client information and records shall be maintained as provided in this chapter and in RCW 71.05.390, 71.05.400, 71.05.410, 71.05.420, 71.05.430, and 71.05.440. The system shall be fully operational no later than January 1, 1993: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That when a regional support network is established, the department shall have an operational interim tracking system for that network that will be adequate for the regional support network to perform its required duties under this chapter;

(h) License service providers who meet state minimum standards;

(i) Certify regional support networks that meet state minimum standards;

(j) Periodically inspect certified regional support networks and licensed service providers at reasonable times and in a reasonable manner; and

(k) Fix fees to be paid by evaluation and treatment centers to the secretary for the required inspections;

(l) Monitor and audit counties, regional support networks, and licensed service providers as needed to assure compliance with contractual agreements authorized by this chapter;

(m) Prior to September 1, 1989, adopt such rules as are necessary to implement the department's responsibilities under this chapter pursuant to chapter 34.05 RCW: PROVIDED, That such rules shall be submitted to the appropriate committees of the legislature for review and comment prior to adoption; and

(n) Beginning July 1, 1989, and continuing through July 1, 1993, track by region and county the use and cost of state hospital and local evaluation and treatment facilities for seventy-two hour detention, fourteen, ninety, and one hundred eighty day commitments pursuant to chapter 71.05 RCW, voluntary care in state hospitals, and voluntary community inpatient care covered by the medical assistance program. Service use and cost reports shall be provided to regions in a timely fashion at six-month intervals.

(6) The secretary shall use available resources appropriated specifically for community mental health programs only for programs under RCW 71.24.045. After July 1, 1995, or when regional support networks are established, available resources may be used only for regional support networks.

(7) Each certified regional support network and licensed service provider shall file with the secretary, on request, such data, statistics, schedules, and information as the secretary reasonably requires. A certified regional support network or licensed service provider which, without good cause, fails to furnish any data, statistics, schedules, or information as requested, or files fraudulent reports thereof, may have its certification or license revoked or suspended.

(8) The secretary may suspend, revoke, limit, or restrict a certification or license, or refuse to grant a certification or license for failure to conform to the law, applicable rules and regulations, or applicable standards, or failure to meet the minimum standards established pursuant to this section.

(9) The superior court may restrain any regional support network or service provider from operating without certification or a license or any other violation of this section. The court may also review, pursuant to procedures contained in chapter 34.05 RCW, any denial, suspension, limitation, restriction, or revocation of certification or license, and grant other relief required to enforce the provisions of this chapter.

(10) Upon petition by the secretary, and after hearing held upon reasonable notice to the facility, the superior court may issue a warrant to an officer or employee of the secretary authorizing him or her to enter at reasonable times, and examine the records, books, and accounts of any regional support network or service provider refusing to consent to inspection or examination by the authority.

(11) The secretary shall adopt such rules as may be necessary to effectuate the intent and purposes of this chapter, which shall include but not be limited to certification and licensing and other action relevant to certifying regional support networks and licensing service providers.

(12) Notwithstanding the existence or pursuit of any other remedy, the secretary may, in the manner provided by law, upon the advice of the attorney general who shall represent the secretary in the proceedings, maintain an action in the name of the state for an injunction or other process against any person or governmental unit to restrain or prevent the establishment, conduct, or operation of a regional support network or service provider without certification or a license under this chapter.

(13) The standards for certification of evaluation and treatment facilities shall include standards relating to maintenance of good physical and mental health and other services to be afforded persons pursuant to this chapter and chapter 71.05 RCW, and shall otherwise assure the effectuation of the purposes and intent of this chapter and chapter 71.05 RCW.

(14)(a) The department, in consultation with affected parties, shall establish a distribution formula that reflects county needs assessments based on the number of persons who are acutely mentally ill, chronically mentally ill, severely emotionally disturbed, and seriously disturbed as defined in chapter 71.24 RCW. The formula shall take into consideration the impact on counties of demographic factors in counties which result in concentrations of priority populations as defined in subsection (15) of this section. These factors shall include the population concentrations resulting from commitments under the involuntary treatment act, chapter 71.05 RCW, to state psychiatric hospitals, as well as concentration in urban areas, at border crossings at state boundaries, and other significant demographic and workload factors.

(b) The department shall submit a proposed distribution formula in accordance with this section to the ways and means and health (~~care and corrections~~) and long-term care committees of the senate and to the ways and means and human services committees of the house of representatives by October 1, (~~(1989)~~) 1991. The formula shall also include a projection of the funding allocations that will result for each county, which specifies allocations according to priority populations, including the allocation for services to children and other underserved populations.

(15) To supersede duties assigned under subsection (5) (a) and (b) of this section, and to assure a county-based, integrated system of care for acutely mentally ill adults and children, chronically mentally ill adults (~~and children~~), severely emotionally disturbed children, and seriously disturbed adults and children who are determined by regional support networks at their sole discretion to be at risk of becoming acutely or chronically mentally ill, or severely emotionally disturbed, the secretary shall encourage the development of regional support networks as follows:

By December 1, 1989, the secretary shall recognize regional support networks requested by counties or groups of counties.

All counties wishing to be recognized as a regional support network on December 1, 1989, shall submit their intentions regarding participation in the regional support networks by October 30, 1989, along with preliminary plans. Counties wishing to be recognized as a regional support network by January 1 of any year thereafter shall submit their intentions by October 30 of the previous year along with preliminary plans. The secretary shall assume all duties assigned to the nonparticipating counties under chapters 71.05 and 71.24 RCW on July 1, 1995. Such responsibilities shall include those which would have been assigned to the nonparticipating counties under regional support networks.

The implementation of regional support networks, or the secretary's assumption of all responsibilities under chapters 71.05 and 71.24 RCW, shall be included in all state and federal plans affecting the state mental health program including at least those required by this chapter, the medicaid program, and P.L. 99-660. Nothing in these plans shall be inconsistent with the intent and requirements of this chapter.

(16) The secretary shall:

(a) Disburse the first funds for the regional support networks that are ready to begin implementation by January 1, 1990, or within sixty days of approval of the biennial contract. The department must either approve or reject the biennial contract within sixty days of receipt.

(b) Enter into biennial contracts with regional support networks to begin implementation between January 1, 1990, and March 1, 1990, and complete implementation by June 1995. The contracts shall be consistent with available resources. No contract shall be approved that does not include progress toward meeting the goals of this chapter by taking responsibility for: (i) Short-term commitments; (ii) residential care; and (iii) emergency response systems.

(c) By July 1, 1993, allocate one hundred percent of available resources to regional support networks created by January 1, 1990, in a single grant. Regional support networks created by January 1, 1991, shall receive a single block grant by July 1, 1993; regional support networks created by January 1, 1992, shall receive a single block grant by July 1, 1994; and regional support networks created by January 1, 1993, shall receive a single block grant by July 1, 1995. The grants shall include funds currently provided for all residential services, all services pursuant to chapter 71.05

RCW, and all community support services and shall be distributed in accordance with a formula submitted to the legislature by January 1, 1993, in accordance with subsection (14) of this section.

(d) By January 1, 1990, allocate available resources to regional support networks for community support services, resource management services, and residential services excluding evaluation and treatment facilities provided pursuant to chapter 71.05 RCW in a single grant using the distribution formula established in subsection (14) of this section.

(e) By March 1, 1990, or within sixty days of approval of the contract continuing through July 1, 1993, provide grants as specifically appropriated by the legislature to regional support networks for evaluation and treatment facilities for persons detained or committed for periods up to seventeen days according to chapter 71.05 RCW. For regional support networks created by January 1, 1993, provide grants as specifically appropriated by the legislature to regional support networks for evaluation and treatment facilities for persons detained or committed for periods up to seventeen days according to chapter 71.05 RCW through July 1, 1995.

(f) Notify regional support networks of their allocation of available resources at least sixty days prior to the start of a new biennial contract period.

~~(g) ((Study and report to the legislature by December 1, 1989, on expanding the use of federal Title XIX funds and the definition of institutions for mental diseases to provide services to persons who are acutely mentally ill, chronically mentally ill, or at risk of becoming so. The study shall also include an assessment of the impact of Title XIX funds and the definition of institutions for mental diseases on the use of state funds to provide needed mental health services to the chronically mentally ill.~~

~~(h))~~ Deny funding allocations to regional support networks based solely upon formal findings of noncompliance with the terms of the regional support network's contract with the department. Written notice and at least thirty days for corrective action must precede any such action. In such cases, regional support networks shall have full rights to appeal under chapter 34.05 RCW.

~~((h))~~ (h) Identify in its departmental biennial operating and capital budget requests the funds requested by regional support networks to implement their responsibilities under this chapter.

~~((i))~~ (i) Contract to provide or, if requested, make grants to counties to provide technical assistance to county authorities or groups of county authorities to develop regional support networks.

(17) The department of social and health services, in cooperation with the state congressional delegation, shall actively seek waivers of federal requirements and such modifications of federal regulations as are necessary to allow federal medicaid reimbursement for services provided by free-standing evaluation and treatment facilities certified under chapter 71.05 RCW. The department shall periodically report its efforts to the health care and corrections committee of the senate and the human services committee of the house of representatives.

(18) The secretary shall establish a task force to examine the recruitment, training, and compensation of qualified mental health professionals in the community, which shall include the advantages and disadvantages of establishing a training academy, loan forgiveness program, or educational stipends offered in exchange for commitments of employment in mental health. The task force shall report back to the appropriate committees of the legislature by January 1, 1990.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. By December 1, 1991, the department shall develop criteria under the federal Title XIX early and periodic screening, diagnosis, and treatment program to serve acutely mentally ill and severely emotionally disturbed children in a manner that maximizes federal reimbursement by:

(1) Developing qualifications for certified mental health screening providers and ensuring that mental health screening, as appropriate and medically necessary, is coordinated with or does not duplicate complete screening examinations;

(2) Developing, in consultation with regional support networks and private practitioners, criteria for use by providers under the early and periodic screening, diagnosis, and treatment program to identify children with mental disorders eligible for referral to further evaluation, diagnosis, and treatment planning;

(3) Requiring prior authorization and utilization review for residential and inpatient services, including inpatient acute hospitalizations and evaluation and treatment facilities as defined in RCW 71.34.020; and

(4) Providing reimbursement for specialized family, home, school, and community-based mental health services or programs designed to promote primary prevention or intervention and maximize the development and potential of acutely mentally ill and severely emotionally disturbed children and their families.

The plan shall be submitted to appropriate committees of the legislature on or before December 1, 1991.

Sec. 5. RCW 71.24.045 and 1989 c 205 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

The county authority shall:

(1) Submit biennial needs assessments beginning January 1, 1983, and mental health service plans which incorporate all services provided for by the county authority consistent with state minimum standards and which provide access to treatment for the county's residents including children and other underserved populations who are acutely mentally ill, chronically mentally ill, severely emotionally disturbed, or seriously disturbed. The county program shall provide:

(a) Outpatient services;

(b) Emergency care services for twenty-four hours per day;

(c) Day treatment for mentally ill persons which includes training in basic living and social skills, supported work, vocational rehabilitation, and day activities. Such services may include therapeutic treatment. In the case of a child, day treatment includes age-appropriate basic living and social skills, educational and prevocational services, day activities, and therapeutic treatment;

(d) Screening for patients being considered for admission to state mental health facilities to determine appropriateness of admission;

(e) Consultation and education services;

(f) Residential and inpatient services, if the county chooses to provide such optional services; and

(g) Community support services.

The county shall develop the biennial needs assessment based on clients to be served, services to be provided, and the cost of those services, and may include input from the public, clients, and licensed service providers. Each county authority may appoint a county mental health advisory board which shall review and provide comments on plans and policies developed by the county authority under this chapter. The composition of the board shall be broadly representative of the demographic character of the county and the mentally ill persons served therein. Length of terms of board members shall be determined by the county authority;

(2) Contract as needed with licensed service providers. The county authority may, in the absence of a licensed service provider entity, become a licensed service provider entity pursuant to minimum standards required for licensing by the department for the purpose of providing services not available from licensed service providers;

(3) Operate as a licensed service provider if it deems that doing so is more efficient and cost effective than contracting for services. When doing so, the county authority shall comply with rules promulgated by the secretary that shall provide measurements to determine when a county provided service is more efficient and cost effective.

(4) Monitor and perform biennial fiscal audits of licensed service providers who have contracted with the county to provide services required by this chapter. The monitoring and audits shall be performed by means of a formal process which insures that the licensed service providers and professionals designated in this subsection meet the terms of their contracts, including the minimum standards of service delivery as established by the department;

(5) Assure that the special needs of minorities, the elderly, disabled, children, and low-income persons are met within the priorities established in this chapter;

(6) Maintain patient tracking information in a central location as required for resource management services;

(7) Use not more than two percent of state-appropriated community mental health funds, which shall not include federal funds, to administer community mental health programs under RCW 71.24.155: PROVIDED, That county authorities serving a county or combination of counties whose population is equal to or greater than that of a county of the first class may be entitled to sufficient state-appropriated community mental health funds to employ up to one full-time employee or the equivalent thereof in addition to the two percent limit established in this subsection when such employee is providing staff services to a county mental health advisory board;

(8) Coordinate services for individuals who have received services through the community mental health system and who become patients at a state mental hospital.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. RCW 71.24.800 and 1987 c 439 s 4 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If any part of this act is found to be in conflict with federal requirements that are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state, the conflicting part of this act is inoperative solely to the extent of the conflict and with respect to the agencies directly affected, and this finding does not affect the operation of the remainder of this act in its application to the agencies concerned. The rules under this act shall meet federal requirements that are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

However, if any part of this act conflicts with such federal requirements, the state appropriation for mental health services provided to children whose mental disorders are discovered under screening through the federal Title XIX early and periodic screening, diagnosis, and treatment program shall be provided through the division of medical assistance and no state funds appropriated to the division of mental health shall be expended or transferred for this purpose.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The legislature finds that an increasing number of children are entering the state's public schools with learning impairments caused by the use of drugs, alcohol, and tobacco by their mothers during pregnancy. Many of these children suffer from mental retardation, poor social abilities, low cognitive skills, attention deficit disorders, hyperactivity, or speech problems.

The legislature further finds that educating these children will require additional resources, and perhaps new educational strategies and techniques. The extent of these additional resources and the most appropriate strategies and techniques are not known at this time. If additional resources are not provided, teachers will be required to devote significant time to these students to the detriment of other children in the classroom.

The legislature further finds that many of these learning impairments are preventable, and that increased parental education on the effects of substance abuse during pregnancy would aid in reducing the number of children with learning impairments.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The task force on the children of substance abusers is created. The task force shall:

(1) Consult with the interagency task force created under Senate Bill 5474 to identify current methods of data collection and reporting about children in Washington born affected by alcohol or drugs;

(2) Determine, to the extent feasible with available resources, the current and projected number of children in Washington born affected by alcohol or drugs, and estimate the number that can be expected to have learning impairments during school age;

(3) Investigate the nature of the special needs of children born affected by alcohol or drugs;

(4) Identify the categories of education and social services in the state likely to be significantly affected by changes in the number of children born affected by alcohol or drugs;

(5) Identify current public education and social service programs designed to address the special needs of children born affected by alcohol or drugs, including, to the extent feasible, total expenditures and number of children served;

(6) Identify current educational and treatment programs designed to reduce substance abuse during pregnancy, including, to the extent feasible, total expenditures and number of women served; and

(7) Based on its findings under subsections (1) through (6) of this section:

(a) Examine implications for the public school system and social services in Washington;

(b) Investigate promising models for addressing the needs of children born affected by alcohol or drugs within the public education and social service settings, including, to the extent feasible, estimates of cost per child;

(c) Investigate ways to reduce the problem of substance abuse during pregnancy, including, but not limited to, ways to reduce the social acceptance of alcohol and drug use during pregnancy and ways to reduce the availability of harmful substances to pregnant women;

(d) Investigate such related issues as the task force deems appropriate; and

(e) Develop recommendations for state action.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) Membership on the task force created in section 9 of this act shall include representatives from the:

(a) Senate, one each from the majority and minority parties, selected by the president of the senate;

(b) House of representatives, one each from the majority and minority parties, selected by the speaker of the house of representatives;

(c) Office of the superintendent of public instruction;

(d) Department of health;

(e) Department of community development;

(f) Department of social and health services;

(g) University of Washington's center for child development and mental retardation;

(h) Washington education association;

(i) Association of Washington school principals;

(j) Washington state school directors' association;

(k) Washington association of school administrators;

(l) Washington state parent-teachers association;

(m) Learning disability association of Washington;

(n) County health departments;

(o) Chemical dependency associations, not more than three representatives; and

(p) Private advocacy groups serving families and children, not more than three representatives.

(2) The representatives of the agencies listed under subsection (1) (c) through (g) of this section shall be the agency heads or their designees. The representatives of the organizations listed under subsection (1) (h) through (p) of this section shall be appointed by the superintendent of public instruction after consultation with organizations they represent. The task force shall select a chair from among its members at its first meeting.

(3) All task force members shall be appointed within twenty days and the first meeting of the task force shall be within thirty days of the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Staff support for the task force created in section 9 of this act shall be provided by the office of the superintendent of public instruction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The task force created in section 9 of this act shall report its final findings and recommendations to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature before December 1, 1991.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 8 through 12 of this act shall expire December 31, 1991.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Sections 8 through 12 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Smith, Snyder, Stratton, Sutherland, Thorsness, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West, Williams, Wojahn - 45.

Excused: Senators Moore, Rasmussen, Sellar, Talmadge - 4.

SENATE BILL NO. 5104, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 9, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5295 with the following amendments:

On page 2, after line 22, insert the following:

Sec. 2. RCW 81.80.300 and 1985 c 7 s 152 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission shall prescribe an identification cab card and identification decal or stamp or number which must be carried within the cab of each motive power vehicle of each motor carrier required to have a permit under this chapter.

The identification cab card and the decal or stamp or number provided for herein may be in such form and contain such information as required by the commission.

It shall be unlawful for any "common carrier" or "contract carrier" to operate any motor vehicle within this state unless there is carried within the cab of the motive power vehicle, either operating as a solo vehicle or in combination with trailers, the identification cab card and decal or stamp or number required by this section and the payment by such carrier of a total fee of (~~three~~) up to ten dollars for each such decal or stamp or number plus the applicable gross weight fee prescribed by RCW 81.80.320: PROVIDED, That as to equipment operated between points in this state and points outside the state exclusively in interstate commerce, and as to equipment operated between points in this state and points outside the state in interstate commerce as well as points within this state in intrastate commerce, the commission may adopt rules and regulations specifying an alternative schedule of fees to that specified in RCW 81.80.320 as it may find to be reasonable and specifying the method of evidencing payment of such fees.

The commission may adopt rules and regulations imposing a reduced schedule of fees for short term operations, requiring reports of carriers, and imposing such conditions as the public interest may require with respect to the operation of such vehicles.

The commission shall not be required to collect the excise tax prescribed by RCW 82.44.020 for any fees collected under this chapter.

The decal or stamp or number required herein shall be issued annually under the rules and regulations of the commission, and shall be affixed to the identification cab card required by this section not later than February 1st of each year: PROVIDED, That such decal or stamp or number may be issued for the ensuing calendar year on and after the first day of November preceding and may be used from the date of issue until February 1st of the succeeding calendar year for which the same was issued.

It shall be unlawful for the owner of said permit, his agent, servant or employee, or any other person to use or display any identification cab card and decal or stamp or number, the permit number or other insignia of authority from the commission after said permit has expired, been canceled or disposed of, or to operate any vehicle under permit without such identification cab card and decal or stamp or number.

The commission shall collect all fees provided in this section, and all such fees shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the public service revolving fund.

On line 1 of the title, after "trucks;" insert "amending RCW 81.80.300;," and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 10, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5720 with the following amendment:

On page 11, after line 2, insert:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 47.36.050 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall ensure that specific information panels are installed within nine months of receiving the request for installation.

Renumber the remaining section consecutively., and the bill and the amendment are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Patterson, the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5720.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5720, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5720, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Erwin, Gaspard, Hansen, Hayner, Jesernig, Johnson, M. Excused: Senators Moore, Rasmussen, Sellar, Talmadge - 4.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5720, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of the Message from the House on Substitute Senate Bill No. 5202 and the pending motion by Senator Nelson to not concur in the House amendment, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "In ruling on the point of order raised by Senator Nelson, the President finds that Substitute Senate Bill No. 5202 is a measure which makes various changes in the procedures for recording civil judgments.

"The House amendment would allow superior courts to issue partial summary judgment in certain cases upon a showing that no material issue of fact exists as to causation, liability and amount of damage.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed House amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and the point of order is well taken."

The House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5202 was ruled out of order.

The motion by Senator Nelson carried and the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5202 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 19, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5669 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

Sec. 1. RCW 43.185.060 and 1986 c 298 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

Organizations that may receive assistance from the department under this chapter are local governments, local housing authorities, regional support networks established under chapter 71.24 RCW, nonprofit community or neighborhood-based organizations, and regional or state-wide nonprofit housing assistance organizations.

Sec. 2. RCW 43.185.070 and 1988 c 286 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) During each calendar year in which funds are available for use by the department from the housing trust fund, as prescribed in RCW 43.185.030, the department shall announce to all known interested parties, and through major media throughout the state, a grant and loan application period of at least ninety days' duration. This announcement shall be made as often as the director deems appropriate for proper utilization of resources, but at least twice annually. The department shall then promptly grant as many applications as will utilize available funds less appropriate administrative costs of the department (~~(, not to)~~). Administrative costs paid out of the housing trust fund may not exceed ((thirty seven thousand five hundred dollars in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1988, and seventy five thousand dollars in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1989, and not to exceed)) five percent of annual revenues ((to the fund thereafter)) available for distribution to housing trust fund projects. In awarding funds under this chapter, the department shall provide for a geographic distribution on a state-wide basis.

(2) The department shall give first priority to applications for projects and activities which utilize existing privately owned housing stock including privately owned housing stock purchased by nonprofit public development authorities. Such projects and activities shall be evaluated under subsection (3) of this section. Second priority shall be given to activities and projects which utilize existing publicly owned housing stock. Such projects and activities shall be evaluated under subsection (3) of this section.

(3) The department shall give preference for applications based on ~~some or all~~ of the ~~((following))~~ criteria under this subsection, and similar projects and activities shall be evaluated under the same criteria:

(a) The degree of leveraging of other funds that will occur;

(b) The degree of commitment from programs to provide necessary habilitation and support services for projects focusing on special needs populations;

(c) Recipient contributions to total project costs, including allied contributions from other sources such as professional, craft and trade services, and lender interest rate subsidies;

~~((e))~~ (d) Local government project contributions in the form of infrastructure improvements, and others;

~~((d))~~ (e) Projects that encourage ownership, management, and other project-related responsibility opportunities;

~~((e))~~ (f) Projects that demonstrate a strong probability of serving the original target group or income level for a period of at least ~~((fifteen))~~ twenty-five years;

~~((f))~~ (g) The applicant has the demonstrated ability, stability and resources to implement the project;

~~((g))~~ (h) Projects which demonstrate serving the greatest need; ~~((and~~

~~((h))~~ (i) Projects that provide housing for persons and families with the lowest incomes;

(j) Projects serving special needs populations which are under statutory mandate to develop community housing;

(k) Project location and access to employment centers in the region or area; and

(l) Project location and access to available public transportation services.

(4) The department shall only approve applications for projects for mentally ill persons that are consistent with a regional support network six-year capital and operating plan.

Sec. 3. RCW 71.24.300 and 1989 c 205 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

A county authority or a group of county authorities whose combined population is no less than forty thousand may enter into a joint operating agreement to form a regional support network. The roles and responsibilities of county authorities shall be determined by the terms of that agreement and the provisions of law. The state mental health authority may not determine the roles and responsibilities of county authorities as to each other under regional support networks by rule, except to assure that all duties required of regional support networks are assigned and that a single authority has final responsibility for all available resources and performance under the regional support network's contract with the secretary.

(1) Regional support networks shall within three months of recognition submit an overall six-year operating and capital plan, timeline, and budget and submit progress reports and an updated two-year plan biennially thereafter, to assume within available resources all of the following duties by July 1, 1995, instead of those presently assigned to counties under RCW 71.24.045(1):

(a) Administer and provide for the availability of all resource management services, residential services, and community support services.

(b) Administer and provide for the availability of all investigation, transportation, court-related, and other services provided by the state or counties pursuant to chapter 71.05 RCW.

(c) By July 1, 1993, provide within the boundaries of each regional support network evaluation and treatment services for at least eighty-five percent of persons detained or committed for periods up to seventeen days according to chapter 71.05 RCW. Regional support networks with populations of less than one hundred fifty thousand may contract to purchase evaluation and treatment services from other networks. For regional support networks that are created after June 30, 1991, the requirements of (c) of this subsection must be met by July 1, 1995.

(d) By July 1, 1993, administer a portion of funds appropriated by the legislature to house mentally ill persons in state institutions from counties within the boundaries of any regional support network, with the exception of mentally ill offenders, and provide for the care of all persons needing evaluation and treatment services for periods up to seventeen days according to chapter 71.05 RCW in appropriate residential services, which may include state institutions. The regional support networks shall reimburse the state for use of state institutions at a rate equal to that assumed by the legislature when appropriating funds for such care at state institutions during the biennium when reimbursement occurs. The duty of a state hospital to accept persons for evaluation and treatment under chapter 71.05 RCW is limited by the responsibilities assigned to regional support networks under this section. For regional support networks that are created after June 30, 1991, the requirements of (d) of this subsection must be met by July 1, 1995.

(e) Administer and provide for the availability of all other mental health services, which shall include patient counseling, day treatment, consultation, education services, and mental health services to children as provided in this chapter.

(f) Establish standards and procedures for reviewing individual service plans and determining when that person may be discharged from resource management services.

(2) Regional support networks shall assume all duties assigned to county authorities by this chapter and chapter 71.05 RCW.

(3) A regional support network may request that any state-owned land, building, facility, or other capital asset which was ever purchased, deeded, given, or placed in trust for the care of the mentally ill and which is within the boundaries of a regional support network be made available to support the operations of the regional support network. State agencies managing such capital assets shall give first priority to requests for their use pursuant to this chapter.

(4) Each regional support network shall appoint a mental health advisory board which shall review and provide comments on plans and policies developed under this chapter. The composition of the board shall be broadly representative of the demographic character of the region and the mentally ill persons served therein. Length of terms of board members shall be determined by the regional support network.

(5) Regional support networks shall assume all duties specified in their plans and joint operating agreements through biennial contractual agreements with the secretary.

(6) Counties or groups of counties participating in a regional support network are not subject to RCW 71.24.045(7). The office of financial management shall consider information gathered in studies required in this chapter and information about the experience of other states to propose a mental health services administrative cost lid to the 1991 legislature which shall include administrative costs of licensed service providers, the state psychiatric hospitals and the department.

(7) The first regional support network contract may include a pilot project to: Establish standards and procedures for (a) making referrals for comprehensive medical examinations and treatment programs for those whose mental illness is caused or exacerbated by organic disease, and (b) training staff in recognizing the relationship between mental illness and organic disease.

(8) Regional support networks may receive technical assistance from the housing trust fund and may identify and submit projects for housing and housing support services to the housing trust fund established under chapter 43.185 RCW. Projects identified or submitted under this subsection must be fully integrated with the regional support network six-year operating and capital plan, timeline, and budget required by subsection (1) of this section.

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "networks;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 43.185.060, 43.185.070, and 71.24.300.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 8, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5049 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

Sec. 1. RCW 46.55.010 and 1989 c 111 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The definitions set forth in this section apply throughout this chapter:

(1) "Abandoned vehicle" means a vehicle that a registered tow truck operator has impounded and held in the operator's possession for ninety-six consecutive hours.

(2) "Abandoned vehicle report" means the document prescribed by the state that the towing operator forwards to the department after a vehicle has become abandoned.

(3) "Impound" means to take and hold a vehicle in legal custody. There are two types of impounds--public and private.

(a) "Public impound" means that the vehicle has been impounded at the direction of a law enforcement officer or by a public official having jurisdiction over the public property upon which the vehicle was located.

(b) "Private impound" means that the vehicle has been impounded at the direction of a person having control or possession of the private property upon which the vehicle was located.

(4) "Junk vehicle" means a vehicle certified under RCW 46.55.230 as meeting all the following requirements:

(a) Is three years old or older;

(b) Is extensively damaged, such damage including but not limited to any of the following: A broken window or windshield or missing wheels, tires, motor, or transmission;

(c) Is apparently inoperable;

(d) Is without a valid, current registration plate;

(e) Has ((a)) an approximate fair market value equal only to the approximate value of the scrap in it.

(5) "Master log" means the document or an electronic facsimile prescribed by the department and the Washington state patrol in which an operator records transactions involving impounded vehicles.

(6) "Registered tow truck operator" or "operator" means any person who engages in the impounding, transporting, or storage of unauthorized vehicles or the disposal of abandoned vehicles.

(7) "Residential property" means property that has no more than four living units located on it.

(8) "Tow truck" means a motor vehicle that is equipped for and used in the business of towing vehicles with equipment as approved by the state patrol.

(9) "Tow truck number" means the number issued by the department to tow trucks used by a registered tow truck operator in the state of Washington.

(10) "Tow truck permit" means the permit issued annually by the department that has the classification of service the tow truck may provide stamped upon it.

(11) "Tow truck service" means the transporting upon the public streets and highways of this state of vehicles, together with personal effects and cargo, by a tow truck of a registered operator.

(12) "Unauthorized vehicle" means a vehicle that is subject to impoundment after being left unattended in one of the following public or private locations for the indicated period of time:

Subject to removal after:

(a) Public locations:

(i) Constituting an accident or a traffic hazard as defined in RCW 46.55.113

Immediately

(ii) On a highway and tagged as described in RCW 46.55.085

24 hours

(iii) In a publicly owned or controlled parking facility, properly posted under RCW 46.55.070

Immediately

(b) Private locations:

(i) On residential property

Immediately

(ii) On private, nonresidential property, properly posted under RCW 46.55.07

Immediately

(iii) On private, nonresidential property, not posted

24 hours

Sec. 2. RCW 46.55.230 and 1987 c 311 s 19 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any law enforcement officer having jurisdiction or any person authorized by the director (~~((may))~~) shall inspect and (~~((certify that a vehicle meets the requirements of a))~~) may authorize the disposal of an abandoned junk vehicle. The person making the (~~((certification))~~) inspection shall record the make and vehicle identification number or license number of the vehicle if available, and shall also (~~((describe in detail the damage or missing equipment to))~~) verify that the approximate value of the junk vehicle is equivalent only to the approximate value of the scrap in it.

(2) The law enforcement officer or department representative shall provide information on the vehicle's registered and legal owner to the landowner.

(3) Upon receiving information on the vehicle's registered and legal owner, the landowner shall (~~((obtain a junk vehicle notification form from the department. The landowner shall send by certified mail, notification))~~) mail a notice to the registered and legal owners shown on the records of the department. The notification shall describe the redemption procedure and the right to (~~((contest the sale of a junk vehicle in a district court hearing))~~) arrange for the removal of the vehicle.

(4) If the vehicle remains unclaimed more than fifteen days after the landowner has mailed notification to the registered and legal owner, the landowner may dispose of the vehicle or sign an affidavit of sale to be used as a title document.

(5) If no information on the vehicle's registered and legal owner is found in the records of the department, the landowner (~~((shall place a legal notice of custody and sale in a newspaper of general circulation in the county. The newspaper notice shall include (a) the description of the vehicle; (b) the address of the location of the junk vehicle; (c) the date by which the registered or legal owner must redeem the vehicle; and (d) a telephone number where the landowner can be reached. If the vehicle remains unclaimed more than twenty days after publication of the notice, the landowner))~~) may immediately dispose of the vehicle or sign an affidavit of sale to be used as a title document.

(6) The landowner of the property upon which the junk vehicle is located is entitled to recover from the vehicle's registered owner any costs incurred in the removal of the junk vehicle.

(7) For the purposes of this section, the term "landowner" includes a legal owner of private property, a person with possession or control of private property, or a public official having jurisdiction over public property.

(8) A person complying in good faith with the requirements of this section is immune from any liability arising out of an action taken or omission made in the compliance.

Sec. 3. RCW 46.55.240 and 1989 c 111 s 17 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A city, town, or county that adopts an ordinance or resolution concerning unauthorized, abandoned, or impounded vehicles shall include the applicable provisions of this chapter.

(a) A city, town, or county may, by ordinance, authorize other impound situations that may arise locally upon the public right-of-way or other publicly owned or controlled property.

(b) A city, town, or county ordinance shall contain language that establishes a written form of authorization to impound, which may include a law enforcement notice of infraction or citation, clearly denoting the agency's authorization to impound.

(c) A city, town, or county may, by ordinance, provide for release of an impounded vehicle by means of a promissory note in lieu of immediate payment, if at the time of redemption the legal or registered owner requests a hearing on the validity of the impoundment. If the municipal ordinance directs the release of an impounded vehicle before the payment of the impoundment charges, the municipality is responsible for the payment of those charges to the registered tow truck operator within thirty days of the hearing date.

(d) The hearing specified in RCW 46.55.120(2) and in this section may be conducted by an administrative hearings officer instead of in the district court. A decision made by an administrative hearing officer may be appealed to the district court for final judgment.

(2) A city, town, or county may adopt an ordinance establishing procedures for the abatement and removal as public nuisances of (~~unauthorized~~) junk vehicles or parts thereof from private property. Costs of removal may be assessed against the registered owner of the vehicle if the identity of the owner can be determined, unless the owner in the transfer of ownership of the vehicle has complied with RCW 46.12.101, or the costs may be assessed against the owner of the property on which the vehicle is stored.

(3) Ordinances pertaining to public nuisances shall contain:

(a) A provision requiring notice to the last registered owner of record and the property owner of record that a hearing may be requested and that if no hearing is requested, the vehicle will be removed;

(b) A provision requiring that if a request for a hearing is received, a notice giving the time, location, and date of the hearing on the question of abatement and removal of the vehicle or part thereof as a public nuisance shall be mailed, by certified mail, with a five-day return receipt requested, to the owner of the land as shown on the last equalized assessment roll and to the last registered and legal owner of record unless the vehicle is in such condition that identification numbers are not available to determine ownership;

(c) A provision that the ordinance shall not apply to (i) a vehicle or part thereof that is completely enclosed within a building in a lawful manner where it is not visible from the street or other public or private property or (ii) a vehicle or part thereof that is stored or parked in a lawful manner on private property in connection with the business of a licensed dismantler or licensed vehicle dealer and is fenced according to RCW 46.80.130;

(d) A provision that the owner of the land on which the vehicle is located may appear in person at the hearing or present a written statement in time for consideration at the hearing, and deny responsibility for the presence of the vehicle on the land, with his reasons for the denial. If it is determined at the hearing that the vehicle was placed on the land without the consent of the landowner and that he has not subsequently acquiesced in its presence, then the local agency shall not assess costs of administration or removal of the vehicle against the property upon which the vehicle is located or otherwise attempt to collect the cost from the owner;

(e) A provision that after notice has been given of the intent of the city, town, or county to dispose of the vehicle and after a hearing, if requested, has been held, the vehicle or part thereof shall be removed at the request of a law enforcement officer with notice to the Washington state patrol and the department of licensing that the vehicle has been wrecked. The city, town, or county may operate such a disposal site when its governing body determines that commercial channels of disposition are not available or are inadequate, and it may make final disposition of such vehicles or parts, or may transfer such vehicle or parts to another governmental body provided such disposal shall be only as scrap.

(4) A registered disposer under contract to a city or county for the impounding of vehicles shall comply with any administrative regulations adopted by the city or county on the handling and disposing of vehicles.

On line 1 of the title, after "vehicles;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 46.55.010, 46.55.230, and 46.55.240.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 19, 1991

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5837 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 51.08 RCW to read as follows:

As a separate alternative to the definition of "employer" under section 2 of this act and the definition of "worker" under section 3 of this act, services performed by an individual for remuneration shall not constitute employment subject to this title if it is shown that:

(1) The individual has been and will continue to be free from control or direction over the performance of the service, both under the contract of service and in fact; and

(2) The service is either outside the usual course of business for which the service is performed, or the service is performed outside all of the places of business of the enterprise for which the service is performed, or the individual is responsible, both under the contract and in fact, for the costs of the principal place of business from which the service is performed; and

(3) The individual is customarily engaged in an independently established trade, occupation, profession, or business, of the same nature as that involved in the contract of service, or the individual has a principal place of business for the business the individual is conducting that is eligible for a business deduction for federal income tax purposes; and

(4) On the effective date of the contract of service, the individual is responsible for filing at the next applicable filing period, both under the contract of service and in fact, a schedule of expenses with the internal revenue service for the type of business the individual is conducting; and

(5) On the effective date of the contract of service, or within a reasonable period after the effective date of the contract, the individual has established an account with the department of revenue, and other state agencies as required by the particular case, for the business the individual is conducting for the payment of all state taxes normally paid by employers and businesses and has registered for and received a unified business identifier number from the state of Washington; and

(6) On the effective date of the contract of service, the individual is maintaining a separate set of books or records that reflect all items of income and expenses of the business which the individual is conducting.

Sec. 2. RCW 51.08.070 and 1981 c 128 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

"Employer" means any person, body of persons, corporate or otherwise, and the legal representatives of a deceased employer, all while engaged in this state in any work covered by the provisions of this title, by way of trade or business, or who contracts with one or more workers, the essence of which is the personal labor of such worker or workers. Or as a separate alternative, persons or entities are not employers when they contract or agree to remunerate the services performed by an individual who meets the tests set forth in subsections (1) through (6) of section 1 of this act.

For the purposes of this title, a contractor registered under chapter 18.27 RCW or licensed under chapter 19.28 RCW is not an employer when:

(1) Contracting with any other person, firm, or corporation currently engaging in a business which is registered under chapter 18.27 RCW or licensed under chapter 19.28 RCW;

(2) The person, firm, or corporation has a principal place of business which would be eligible for a business deduction for internal revenue service tax purposes other than that furnished by the contractor for which the business has contracted to furnish services;

(3) The person, firm, or corporation maintains a separate set of books or records that reflect all items of income and expenses of the business; and

(4) The work which the person, firm, or corporation has contracted to perform is:

(a) The work of a contractor as defined in RCW 18.27.010; or

(b) The work of installing wires or equipment to convey electric current or installing apparatus to be operated by such current as it pertains to the electrical industry as described in chapter 19.28 RCW.

Sec. 3. RCW 51.08.180 and 1987 c 175 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) "Worker" means every person in this state who is engaged in the employment of an employer under this title, whether by way of manual labor or otherwise in the course of his or her employment; also every person in this state who is engaged in the employment of or who is working under an independent contract, the essence of which is his or her personal labor for an employer under this title, whether by way of manual labor or otherwise, in the course of his or her employment, or as a separate alternative, a person is not a worker if he or she meets the tests set forth in subsections (1) through (6) of section 1 of this act. PROVIDED, That a person is not a worker for the purpose of this title, with respect to his or her activities attendant to operating a truck which he or she owns, and which is leased to a common or contract carrier.

(2) For the purposes of this title, any person, firm, or corporation currently engaging in a business which is registered under chapter 18.27 RCW or licensed under chapter 19.28 RCW is not a worker when:

(a) Contracting to perform work for any contractor registered under chapter 18.27 RCW or licensed under chapter 19.28 RCW;

(b) The person, firm, or corporation has a principal place of business which would be eligible for a business deduction for internal revenue service tax purposes other than that furnished by the contractor for which the business has contracted to furnish services;

(c) The person, firm, or corporation maintains a separate set of books or records that reflect all items of income and expenses of the business; and

(d) The work which the person, firm, or corporation has contracted to perform is:

(i) The work of a contractor as defined in RCW 18.27.010; or

(ii) The work of installing wires or equipment to convey electric current or installing apparatus to be operated by such current as it pertains to the electrical industry as described in chapter 19.28 RCW.

(3) Any person, firm, or corporation registered under chapter 18.27 RCW or licensed under chapter 19.28 RCW including those performing work for any contractor registered under chapter 18.27 RCW or licensed under chapter 19.28 RCW is a worker when the contractor supervises or controls the means by which the result is accomplished or the manner in which the work is performed.

(4) For the purposes of this title, any person participating as a driver or back-up driver in commuter ride sharing, as defined in RCW 46.74.010(1), is not a worker while driving a ride-sharing vehicle on behalf of the owner or lessee of the vehicle.

Sec. 4. RCW 51.12.020 and 1987 c 316 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

The following are the only employments which shall not be included within the mandatory coverage of this title:

(1) Any person employed as a domestic servant in a private home by an employer who has less than two employees regularly employed forty or more hours a week in such employment.

(2) Any person employed to do gardening, maintenance, repair, remodeling, or similar work in or about the private home of the employer.

(3) A person whose employment is not in the course of the trade, business, or profession of his or her employer and is not in or about the private home of the employer.

(4) Any person performing services in return for aid or sustenance only, received from any religious or charitable organization.

(5) ~~Sole proprietors or partners (PROVIDED, That after July 26, 1981, sole proprietors or partners who for the first time register under chapter 18.27 RCW or become licensed for the first time under chapter 19.28 RCW shall be included under the mandatory coverage provisions of this title subject to the provisions of RCW 51.32.030. These persons may elect to withdraw from coverage under RCW 51.12.115)).~~

(6) Any child under eighteen years of age employed by his or her parent or parents in agricultural activities on the family farm.

(7) Jockeys while participating in or preparing horses for race meets licensed by the Washington horse racing commission pursuant to chapter 67.16 RCW.

(8)(a) Except as otherwise provided in (b) of this subsection, any bona fide officer of a corporation voluntarily elected ((and empowered)) or voluntarily appointed in accordance with the articles of incorporation or bylaws of ((a) the corporation, who at all times during the period involved is also a bona fide director, and who is also a shareholder of the corporation. Only such officers who exercise substantial control in the daily management of the corporation and whose primary responsibilities do not include the performance of manual labor are included within this subsection.

(b) Alternatively, a corporation that is not a "public company" as defined in RCW 23B.01.400(19) may exempt eight or fewer bona fide officers, who are voluntarily elected or voluntarily appointed in accordance with the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation and who exercise substantial control in the daily management of the corporation, from coverage under this title without regard to the officers' performance of manual labor if the exempted officer is a shareholder of the corporation, or may exempt any number of officers if all the exempted officers are related by blood within the third degree or marriage. If a corporation that is not a "public company" elects to be covered under subsection (8)(a) of this section, the corporation's election must be made on a form prescribed by the department and under such reasonable rules as the department may adopt.

(c) Determinations respecting the status of persons performing services for a corporation shall be made, in part, by reference to Title 23B RCW and to compliance by the corporation with its own articles of incorporation and bylaws. For the purpose of determining coverage under this title, substance shall control over form, and mandatory coverage under this title shall extend to all workers of this state, regardless of honorary titles conferred upon those actually serving as workers.

~~((However, any))~~ (d) A corporation may elect to cover ((such)) officers who are ((in fact employees of the corporation)) exempted by this subsection in the manner provided by RCW 51.12.110.

(9) Services rendered by a musician or entertainer under a contract with a purchaser of the services, for a specific engagement or engagements when such musician or entertainer performs no other duties for the purchaser and is not regularly and continuously employed by the purchaser. A purchaser does not include the leader of a group or recognized entity who employs other than on a casual basis musicians or entertainers.

(10) Services performed by a newspaper carrier selling or distributing newspapers on the street or from house to house.

(11) Services performed by an insurance agent, insurance broker, or insurance solicitor, as defined in RCW 48.17.010, 48.17.020, and 48.17.030, respectively.

Sec. 5. RCW 51.12.110 and 1982 c 63 s 17 are each amended to read as follows:

Any employer who has in his or her employment any person or persons excluded from mandatory coverage pursuant to RCW 51.12.020 (~~((1), (2), (3), (4), (6), (7), (8), or (9))~~) may file notice in writing with the director, on such forms as the department may provide, of his or her election to make such persons otherwise excluded subject to this title. The employer shall forthwith display in a conspicuous manner about his or her works, and in a sufficient number of places to reasonably inform his or her workers of the fact, printed notices furnished by the department stating that he or she has so elected. Said election shall become effective upon the filing of said notice in writing. The employer and his or her workers shall be subject to all the provisions of this title and entitled to all of the benefits thereof: PROVIDED, That those who have heretofore complied with the foregoing conditions and are carried and considered by the department as within the purview of this title shall be deemed and considered as having fully complied with its terms and shall be continued by the department as entitled to all of the benefits and subject to all of the liabilities without other or further action. Any employer who has complied with this section may withdraw his or her acceptance of liability under this title by filing written notice with the director of the withdrawal of his or her acceptance. Such withdrawal shall become effective thirty days after the filing of such notice or on the date of the termination of the security for payment of compensation, whichever last occurs. The employer shall, at least thirty days before the effective date of the withdrawal, post reasonable notice of such withdrawal where the affected worker or workers work and shall otherwise notify personally the affected workers. Withdrawal of acceptance of this title shall not affect the liability of the department or self-insurer for compensation for any injury occurring during the period of acceptance.

The department shall have the power to cancel the elective adoption coverage if any required payments or reports have not been made. Cancellation by the department shall be no later than thirty days from the date of notice in writing by the department advising of cancellation being made.

Sec. 6. RCW 50.04.140 and 1945 c 35 s 15 are each amended to read as follows:

Services performed by an individual for remuneration shall be deemed to be employment subject to this title unless and until it is shown to the satisfaction of the commissioner that:

~~((2))~~ (b) Such service is either outside the usual course of business for which such service is performed, or that such service is performed outside of all the places of business of the enterprises for which such service is performed; and

~~((3))~~ (c) Such individual is customarily engaged in an independently established trade, occupation, profession, or business, of the same nature as that involved in the contract of service.

(2) Or as a separate alternative, it shall not constitute employment subject to this title if it is shown that:

(b) Such service is either outside the usual course of business for which such service is performed, or that such service is performed outside of all the places of business of the enterprises for which such service is performed, or the individual is responsible, both under the contract and in fact, for the costs of the principal place of business from which the service is performed; and

(c) Such individual is customarily engaged in an independently established trade, occupation, profession, or business, of the same nature as that involved in the contract of service, or such individual has a principal place of business for the work the individual is conducting that is eligible for a business deduction for federal income tax purposes; and

(d) On the effective date of the contract of service, such individual is responsible for filing at the next applicable filing period, both under the contract of service and in fact, a schedule of expenses with the internal revenue service for the type of business the individual is conducting; and

(e) On the effective date of the contract of service, or within a reasonable period after the effective date of the contract, such individual has established an account with the department of revenue, and other state agencies as required by the particular case, for the business the individual is conducting for the payment of all state taxes normally paid by employers and businesses and has registered for and received a unified business identifier number from the state of Washington; and

(f) On the effective date of the contract of service, such individual is maintaining a separate set of books or records that reflect all items of income and expenses of the business which the individual is conducting.

Sec. 7. RCW 50.04.230 and 1947 c 5 s 24 are each amended to read as follows:

The term "employment" shall not include service performed by an insurance agent, insurance broker, or insurance solicitor or a real estate broker or a real estate salesman to the extent he or she is compensated by commission and service performed by an investment company agent or solicitor to the extent he or she is compensated by commission(~~(, the [ . The ])~~). The term "investment company", as used in this (~~(subsection {section})~~) section is to be construed as meaning an investment company as defined in the act of congress entitled "Investment Company Act of 1940.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. RCW 51.12.115 and 1981 c 128 s 5 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If any part of this act is found to be in conflict with federal requirements which are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state or the eligibility of employers in this state for federal unemployment tax credits, the conflicting part of this act is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of the conflict, and such finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this act. The rules under this act shall meet federal requirements which are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state or the granting of federal unemployment tax credits to employers in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. This act shall take effect January 1, 1992.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "coverage;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 51.08.070, 51.08.180, 51.12.020, 51.12.110, 50.04.140, and 50.04.230; adding a new section to chapter 51.08 RCW; repealing RCW 51.12.115; creating a new section; and providing an effective date.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McCaslin, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5301 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 18, 1991

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5120 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

Sec. 1. RCW 26.09.010 and 1989 c 375 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, the practice in civil action shall govern all proceedings under this chapter, except that trial by jury is dispensed with.

(2) A proceeding for dissolution of marriage, legal separation or a declaration concerning the validity of a marriage shall be entitled "In re the marriage of ..... and ....." Such proceeding (~~may~~) shall be filed in the superior court of the county where the petitioner or respondent resides. Upon motion and hearing before the superior court of the county where the proceeding is filed, the court may waive venue in that county for good cause shown.

(3) In cases where there has been no prior proceeding in this state involving the marital status of the parties or support obligations for a minor child, a separate parenting and support proceeding between the parents shall be entitled "In re the parenting and support of ....." Such proceeding shall be filed in the superior court of the county where the petitioner or respondent resides. Upon motion and hearing before the superior court of the county where the proceeding is filed, the court may waive venue in that county for good cause shown.

(4) The initial pleading in all proceedings under this chapter shall be denominated a petition. A responsive pleading shall be denominated a response. Other pleadings, and all pleadings in other matters under this chapter shall be denominated as provided in the civil rules for superior court.

(5) In this chapter, "decree" includes "judgment".

(6) A decree of dissolution, of legal separation, or a declaration concerning the validity of a marriage shall not be awarded to one of the parties, but shall provide that it affects the status previously existing between the parties in the manner decreed.

Sec. 2. RCW 26.09.015 and 1989 c 375 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In any proceeding under this chapter, the matter may be set for mediation of the contested issues before or concurrent with the setting of the matter for hearing. The purpose of the mediation proceeding shall be to reduce acrimony which may exist between the parties and to develop an agreement assuring the child's close and continuing contact with both parents after the marriage is dissolved. The mediator shall use his or her best efforts to effect a settlement of the dispute.

(2) Each superior court may make available a mediator. The mediator may be a member of the professional staff of a family court or mental health services agency, or may be any other person or agency designated by the court. In order to provide mediation services, the court is not required to institute a family court.

(3) Mediation proceedings shall be held in private and shall be confidential. The mediator shall not testify as to any aspect of the mediation proceedings. This subsection shall not apply to postdecree mediation required pursuant to a parenting plan.

(4) The mediator shall assess the needs and interests of the child or children involved in the controversy and may interview the child or children if the mediator deems such interview appropriate or necessary.

(5) Any agreement reached by the parties as a result of mediation shall be reported to the court and to counsel for the parties by the mediator on the day set for mediation or any time thereafter designated by the court.

~~((6) This section shall not apply to postdecree mediation required pursuant to a parenting plan.))~~

Sec. 3. RCW 26.09.100 and 1990 1st ex.s. c 2 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, declaration of invalidity, maintenance, or child support, after considering all relevant factors but without regard to marital misconduct, the court shall order either or both parents owing a duty of support to any child of the marriage dependent upon either or both spouses to pay an amount determined under chapter 26.19 RCW.

(2) The court may require periodic ~~((adjustments))~~ modifications of child support. That portion of any decree that requires periodic modifications of child support shall use the provisions in chapter 26.19 RCW as the basis for the modification. That portion of any decree that requires periodic modification of child support that uses a basis for modification other than chapter 26.19 RCW shall be void. Provisions in the decree for periodic modification shall not conflict with RCW 26.09.170 except that the decree may require periodic modifications of support more frequently than the time periods established pursuant to RCW 26.09.170. The ~~((adjustment))~~ automatic modification provision may be modified by the court due to economic hardship consistent with the provisions of RCW 26.09.170(4)(a).

Sec. 4. RCW 26.09.160 and 1989 c 318 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The performance of parental functions and the duty to provide child support are distinct responsibilities in the care of a child. If a party fails to comply with a provision of a decree or temporary order of injunction, the obligation of the other party to make payments for support or maintenance or to permit contact with children is not suspended. An attempt by a parent, in either the negotiation or the performance of a parenting plan, to condition one aspect of the parenting plan upon another; to condition payment of child support upon an aspect of the parenting plan, to refuse to pay ordered child support, to refuse to perform the duties provided in the parenting plan, or to hinder the performance by the other parent of duties provided in the parenting plan, ~~((may))~~ shall be deemed bad faith and shall be punished by the court by holding the party in contempt of court and by awarding to the aggrieved party reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incidental in bringing a motion for contempt of court.

(2)(a) A motion may be filed to initiate a contempt action to coerce a parent to comply with an order establishing residential provisions for a child. If the court finds there is reasonable cause to believe the parent has not complied with the order, the court may issue an order to show cause why the relief requested should not be granted.

(b) If, based on all the facts and circumstances, the court finds after hearing that the parent, in bad faith, has not complied with the order establishing residential provisions for the child, the court ~~((may))~~ shall find the parent in contempt of court. Upon a finding of contempt, the court shall order:

(i) The noncomplying parent to provide the moving party additional time with the child. The additional time shall be equal to the time missed with the child, due to the parent's noncompliance;

(ii) The parent to pay, to the moving party, all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred as a result of the noncompliance, and any reasonable expenses incurred in locating or returning a child; and

(iii) The parent to pay, to the moving party, a civil penalty, not less than the sum of one hundred dollars.

The court may also order the parent to be imprisoned in the county jail, if the parent is presently able to comply with the provisions of the court-ordered parenting plan and is presently unwilling to comply. The parent may be imprisoned until he or she agrees to comply with the order, but in no event for more than one hundred eighty days.

(3) On a second failure within three years to comply with a residential provision of a court-ordered parenting plan, a motion may be filed to initiate contempt of court proceedings according to the procedure set forth in subsection (2) (a) and (b) of this section. On a finding of contempt under this subsection, the court shall order:

(a) The noncomplying parent to provide the other parent or party additional time with the child. The additional time shall be twice the amount of the time missed with the child, due to the parent's noncompliance;

(b) The noncomplying parent to pay, to the other parent or party, all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred as a result of the noncompliance, and any reasonable expenses incurred in locating or returning a child; and

(c) The noncomplying parent to pay, to the moving party, a civil penalty of not less than two hundred fifty dollars.

The court may also order the parent to be imprisoned in the county jail, if the parent is presently able to comply with the provisions of the court-ordered parenting plan and is presently unwilling to comply. The parent may be imprisoned until he or she agrees to comply with the order but in no event for more than one hundred eighty days.

(4) For purposes of subsections (1), (2), and (3) of this section, the parent shall be deemed to have the present ability to comply with the order establishing residential provisions unless he or she establishes otherwise by a preponderance of the evidence. The parent shall establish a reasonable excuse for failure to comply with the residential provision of a court-ordered parenting plan by a preponderance of the evidence.

(5) Any monetary award ordered under subsections (1), (2), and (3) of this section may be enforced, by the party to whom it is awarded, in the same manner as a civil judgment.

(6) Subsections (1), (2), and (3) of this section authorize the exercise of the court's power to impose remedial sanctions for contempt of court and is in addition to any other contempt power the court may possess.

(7) Upon motion for contempt of court under subsections (1) through (3) of this section, if the court finds the motion was brought without reasonable basis, the court shall order the moving party to pay to the nonmoving party, all costs, reasonable attorneys' fees, and a civil penalty of not less than one hundred dollars.

Sec. 5. RCW 26.09.170 and 1990 1st ex.s. c 2 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (7) of RCW 26.09.070 and subsection (10) of this section, the provisions of any decree respecting maintenance or support may be modified only as to installments accruing subsequent to the filing of the motion for modification and, except as otherwise provided in subsections (4), (5), ~~((and))~~ (8), (9), and (10) of this section, only upon a showing of a substantial change of circumstances. Any modification granted shall be effective as of the date of the filing of the motion. The provisions as to property disposition may not be revoked or modified, unless the court finds the existence of conditions that justify the reopening of a judgment under the laws of this state. An increase in the wage or salary of a parent who is receiving support transfer payments as defined in section 24 of this act is not a substantial change in circumstances.

(2) Unless otherwise agreed in writing or expressly provided in the decree the obligation to pay future maintenance is terminated upon the death of either party or the remarriage of the party receiving maintenance.

(3) Unless otherwise agreed in writing or expressly provided in the decree, provisions for the support of a child are terminated by emancipation of the child or by the death of the parent obligated to support the child.

(4) Unless a decree provides for more frequent modifications of child support as provided in RCW 26.09.100, an order of child support may be modified one year or more after it has been entered without showing a substantial change of circumstances:

(a) If the order in practice works a severe economic hardship on either party or the child;

(b) If a party requests ~~((an adjustment))~~ a modification in an order for child support which was based on guidelines which determined the amount of support according to the child's age, and the child is no longer in the age category on which the current support amount was based;

(c) If a child is still in high school, upon a finding that there is a need to extend support beyond the eighteenth birthday to complete high school; or

(d) To add ~~((an))~~ automatic ~~((adjustment))~~ modification of support provisions ~~((consistent with))~~ as provided in RCW 26.09.100.

(5) An order or decree entered prior to June 7, 1984, may be modified without showing a substantial change of circumstances if the requested modification is to:

(a) Require health insurance coverage for a child named therein; or

(b) Modify an existing order for health insurance coverage.

(6) An obligor's voluntary unemployment or voluntary underemployment, by itself, is not a substantial change of circumstances.

(7) The department of social and health services may file an action to modify an order of child support if public assistance money is being paid to or for the benefit of the child and the child support order is twenty-five percent or more below the ~~((appropriate))~~ presumptive child support amount set forth in the standard calculation as defined in section ~~((4(2)))~~ 24 of this act and reasons for the deviation are not set forth in the findings of fact or order. The determination of twenty-five percent or more shall be based on the current income of the parties and the department shall not be required to show a substantial change of circumstances if the reasons for the deviations were not set forth in the findings of fact or order.

(8)(a) ~~((Except as provided in (b) and (c) of this subsection,))~~ Unless a decree provides for more frequent modification of child support as provided in RCW 26.09.100, all decrees entered on, before, or after September 1, 1991, that contain orders regarding child support ((decrees)) may be ((adjusted)) modified once every twenty-four months based upon changes in the income of the parents without a showing of substantially changed circumstances. Either party may initiate the modification pursuant to procedures of RCW 26.09.175.

(b) All decrees entered on, before, or after September 1, 1991, may be modified based upon changes in the child support schedule established in chapter 26.19 RCW without a substantial change in circumstances. Parents whose decrees are entered on, before ((the effective date of this act)), or after the effective date of this section may petition the court for a modification based on the changes in the child support schedule after twelve months has expired from the entry of the decree or the most recent modification setting child support, whichever is later. However, if a party is granted relief under this provision, twenty-four months must pass before another petition for modification may be filed pursuant to (a) of this subsection.

(c) A party may petition for modification in cases of substantially changed circumstances, under subsection (1) of this section, at any time. However, if relief is granted under subsection (1) of this section, twenty-four months must pass before a petition for modification under (a) of this subsection may be filed.

(d) If, pursuant to (a) and (b) of this subsection, the court modifies a child support obligation by more than thirty percent and the change would cause significant hardship, the court may implement the change in two equal increments, one at the time of the entry of the order and the second six months from the entry of the order. Twenty-four months must pass following the second change before a petition for modification under (a) of this subsection may be filed.

~~((e) A parent who is receiving transfer payments who receives a wage or salary increase may not bring a modification action pursuant to (a) of this subsection alleging that increase constitutes a substantial change of circumstances under subsection (1) of this section.))~~

(9) Any decree, separation agreement, contract, or other agreement that conflicts with RCW 26.09.170(8) shall, upon motion of a party, be modified to conform to the requirements of RCW 26.09.170(8).

(10) A parent obligated to pay support, who was on active duty for the United States military for the "Desert Shield" or "Desert Storm" operations of the United States war with Iraq, may bring a motion for modification of child support without a substantial change of circumstances for purposes of a retroactive adjustment of child support commencing from the beginning of the active duty until the date the parent was no longer on active duty. The parent must bring the motion for modification within ninety days of the end of the parent's active duty. The motion for modification may only be granted if the parent's income or resources were reduced while on active duty. Any modification granted that reduces child support during the parent's term of active duty shall be a prospective credit against future child support payments in an amount and over a period of time as determined in the court's discretion.

Sec. 6. RCW 26.09.175 and 1990 1st ex.s. c 2 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A proceeding for the modification of an order of child support shall commence with the filing of a petition ~~((a supporting financial affidavit,))~~ and worksheets. The petition ~~((and affidavit))~~ shall be in substantially the form prescribed by the administrator for the courts. There shall be a fee of twenty dollars for the filing of a petition for modification of dissolution.

(2) The petitioner shall serve upon the other party the summons, a copy of the petition ~~((and affidavit, and a blank copy of a financial affidavit)),~~ and the worksheets in the form prescribed by the administrator for the courts. If the modification proceeding is the first action filed in this state, service shall be made by personal service. If the decree to be modified was entered in this state, service shall be by personal service or by any form of mail requiring a return receipt. If the support obligation has been assigned to the state pursuant to RCW 74.20.330 ~~((and notice has been filed with the court))~~ or the state has a subrogated interest under RCW 74.20A.030, the summons, petition, ~~((affidavit,))~~ and worksheets shall also be served on the attorney general. Proof of service shall be filed with the court.

(3) The responding party's answer ~~((and completed financial affidavit))~~ and worksheets shall be served and the answer filed within twenty days after service of the petition or sixty days if served out of state. The responding party's failure to file an answer within the time required shall result in entry of a default judgment for the petitioner.

(4) At any time after responsive pleadings are filed, either party may schedule the matter for hearing.

(5) Unless both parties stipulate to arbitration or the presiding judge authorizes oral testimony pursuant to subsection (6) of this section, a petition for modification of an order of child support shall be heard by the court on affidavits, the petition, answer, and worksheets only.

(6) A party seeking authority to present oral testimony on the petition to modify a support order shall file an appropriate motion not later than ten days after the time of notice of hearing. Affidavits and exhibits setting forth the reasons oral testimony is necessary to a just adjudication of the issues shall accompany the petition. The affidavits and exhibits must demonstrate the extraordinary features of the case. Factors which may be considered include, but are not limited to: (a) Substantial questions of credibility on a major issue; (b) insufficient or inconsistent discovery materials not correctable by further discovery; or (c) particularly complex circumstances requiring expert testimony.

(7) The administrator for the courts shall develop and prepare, in consultation with interested persons, model forms or notices for the use of the procedure provided by this section, including a notice advising of the right of a party to proceed with or without benefit of counsel.

Sec. 7. RCW 26.09.184 and 1989 c 375 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) OBJECTIVES. The objectives of the permanent parenting plan are to:

- (a) Provide for the child's physical care;
- (b) Maintain the child's emotional stability;
- (c) Provide for the child's changing needs as the child grows and matures, in a way that minimizes the need for future modifications to the permanent parenting plan;
- (d) Set forth the authority and responsibilities of each parent with respect to the child, consistent with the criteria in RCW 26.09.187 and 26.09.191;
- (e) Minimize the child's exposure to harmful parental conflict;
- (f) Encourage the parents, where appropriate under RCW 26.09.187 and 26.09.191, to meet their responsibilities to their minor children through agreements in the permanent parenting plan, rather than by relying on judicial intervention; and
- (g) To otherwise protect the best interests of the child consistent with RCW 26.09.002.

(2) CONTENTS OF THE PERMANENT PARENTING PLAN. The permanent parenting plan shall contain provisions for resolution of future disputes between the parents, allocation of decision-making authority, and residential provisions for the child.

(3) DISPUTE RESOLUTION. A process for resolving disputes, other than court action, shall be provided unless precluded or limited by RCW 26.09.187 or 26.09.191. A dispute resolution process may include counseling, mediation, or arbitration by a specified individual or agency, or court action. In the dispute resolution process:

- (a) Preference shall be given to carrying out the parenting plan;
- (b) The parents shall use the designated process to resolve disputes relating to implementation of the plan, except those related to financial support, unless an emergency exists;
- (c) A written record shall be prepared of any agreement reached in counseling or mediation and of each arbitration award and shall be provided to each party;
- (d) If the court finds that a parent has used or frustrated the dispute resolution process without good reason, the court shall award attorneys' fees and financial sanctions to the prevailing parent;
- (e) The parties have the right of review from the dispute resolution process to the superior court; and
- (f) The provisions of (a) through (e) of this subsection shall be set forth in the decree.

(4) ALLOCATION OF DECISION-MAKING AUTHORITY.

(a) The plan shall allocate decision-making authority to one or both parties regarding the children's education, health care, and religious upbringing. The parties may incorporate an agreement related to the care and growth of the child in these specified areas, or in other areas, into their plan, consistent with the criteria in RCW 26.09.187 and 26.09.191. Regardless of the allocation of decision-making in the parenting plan, either parent may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the child.

(b) Each parent may make decisions regarding the day-to-day care and control of the child while the child is residing with that parent.

(c) When mutual decision making is designated but cannot be achieved, the parties shall make a good-faith effort to resolve the issue through the dispute resolution process.

(5) RESIDENTIAL PROVISIONS FOR THE CHILD. The plan shall include a residential schedule which designates in which parent's home each minor child shall reside on given days of the year, including provision for holidays, birthdays of family members, vacations, and other special occasions, consistent with the criteria in RCW 26.09.187 and 26.09.191.

(6) PARENTS' OBLIGATION UNAFFECTED. If a parent fails to comply with a provision of a parenting plan or a child support order, the other parent's obligations under the parenting plan or the child support order are not affected. Failure to comply with a provision in a parenting plan or a child support order may result in a finding of contempt of court, under RCW 26.09.160.

(7) PROVISIONS TO BE SET FORTH IN PERMANENT PARENTING PLAN. The permanent parenting plan shall set forth the provisions of subsections (3) (a) through (c), (4) (b) and (c), and (6) of this section.

Sec. 8. RCW 26.09.225 and 1990 1st ex.s. c 2 s 18 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each parent shall have full and equal access to the education (~~and health care~~) records of the child absent a court order to the contrary. Educational records include records of public and private schools in all grades kindergarten through twelve and any form of alternative school or postsecondary educational institution for all periods for which child support is paid or the child is the dependent in fact of the parent requesting access to the records. Neither parent may veto the access requested by the other parent and neither parent nor child nor any educational institution may assert a privilege on behalf of the child.

(2) Each parent shall have full and equal access to the health care records of the child absent a court order to the contrary. Neither parent may veto the access requested by the other parent and neither parent nor child nor health care provider may assert a privilege on behalf of the child.

Sec. 9. RCW 26.09.260 and 1989 c 375 s 14 and 1989 c 318 s 3 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, the court shall not modify a prior custody decree or a parenting plan unless it finds, upon the basis of facts that have arisen since the prior decree or plan or that were unknown to the court at the time of the prior decree or plan, that a substantial change has occurred in the circumstances of the child or the nonmoving party and that the modification is in the best interest of the child and is necessary to serve the best interests of the child.

(2) In applying these standards, the court shall retain the residential schedule established by the decree or parenting plan unless:

(a) The parents agree to the modification;

(b) The child has been integrated into the family of the petitioner with the consent of the other parent in substantial deviation from the parenting plan;

(c) The child's present environment is detrimental to the child's physical, mental, or emotional health and the harm likely to be caused by a change of environment is outweighed by the advantage of a change to the child; or

(d) The court has found the nonmoving parent in contempt of court at least twice within three years because the parent failed to comply with the residential time provisions in the court-ordered parenting plan, or the parent has been convicted of custodial interference in the first or second degree under RCW 9A.40.060 or 9A.40.070.

~~((2))~~ (3) A conviction of custodial interference in the first or second degree under RCW 9A.40.060 or 9A.40.070 shall constitute a substantial change of circumstances for the purposes of this section.

~~((3))~~ (4) The court may order adjustments to a parenting plan upon a showing of a substantial change in circumstances of either parent or of the child, and without consideration of the factors set forth in subsection (2) of this section, if the proposed modification is only a:

(a) Modification in the dispute resolution process; or

(b) Minor modification in the residential schedule that:

(i) Does not change the residence the child is scheduled to reside in the majority of the time; and

(ii) Does not exceed twenty-four full days in a calendar year or five full days in a calendar month; or

(iii) Is based on a change of residence or an involuntary change in work schedule by a parent which makes the residential schedule in the parenting plan impractical to follow.

(5) If the court finds that a motion to modify a prior decree or parenting plan has been brought in bad faith, the court shall assess the attorney's fees and court costs of the nonmoving parent against the moving party.

Sec. 10. RCW 26.09.280 and 1987 c 460 s 20 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Hereafter))~~ Every action or proceeding to change, modify, or enforce any final order, judgment, or decree ~~((heretofore or hereafter))~~ entered in any dissolution or legal separation or declaration concerning the validity of a marriage, whether under this chapter or prior law, ~~((in relation to))~~ regarding the parenting plan or child support for the minor children of the marriage may be brought in the county where ~~((said))~~ the minor children are then residing, or in the county in which ~~((said))~~ the final order, judgment, or decree was entered, or in the county where the parent or other person who has the care, custody, or control of the ~~((said))~~ children is then residing.

Sec. 11. RCW 26.12.010 and 1983 c 219 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

Each superior court shall exercise the jurisdiction conferred by this chapter and while sitting in the exercise of such jurisdiction shall be known and referred to as the "family court." A family law proceeding under this chapter is any proceeding under this title or any proceeding in which the family court is requested to adjudicate or enforce the rights of the parties or their children regarding the determination or modification of parenting plans, child custody, visitation, or support, or the distribution of property or obligations.

Sec. 12. RCW 26.12.060 and 1988 c 232 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((family))~~ court commissioners shall: (1) ~~((Receive all applications and complaints filed in the family court for the purpose of disposing of them pursuant to this chapter))~~ Make appropriate referrals to county family court services program if the county has a family court services program; (2) ~~((investigate))~~ order investigation and reporting of the facts upon which to base warrants, subpoenas, orders or directions in actions or proceedings ((filed in or transferred to the family court pursuant to)) under this chapter; (3) ~~((for the purpose of this chapter,))~~ exercise all the powers and perform all the duties of ~~((regular))~~ court commissioners; (4) ~~((hold conciliation conferences with parties to and hearings in proceedings under this chapter and))~~ make written reports of all proceedings had which shall become a part of the record of the family court; (5) provide ~~((such))~~ supervision ~~((in connection with))~~ over the exercise of its jurisdiction as the judge of the family court may order; (6) cause the orders and findings of the family court to be entered in the same manner as orders and findings are entered in cases in the superior court; (7) cause ((sueb)) other reports to be made and records kept as will indicate the value and extent of ~~((such conciliation service))~~ reconciliation, mediation, investigation, and treatment services; and (8) conduct hearings under chapter 13.34 RCW as provided in RCW 13.04.021.

Sec. 13. RCW 26.12.170 and 1983 c 219 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((The hearing shall be conducted informally as a conference or series of conferences to effect the reconciliation of the parties or an amicable adjustment or settlement of the issues of the controversy.))~~ To facilitate and promote the purposes of this chapter, ~~((the))~~ family court judges and court commissioners may order or recommend family court services, drug and alcohol abuse evaluations and monitoring of the parties through public or private treatment services, other treatment services, the aid of physicians, psychiatrists, ~~((or))~~ other specialists, or other services or may recommend the aid of the pastor or director of any religious denomination to which the parties may belong. ~~((Such aid, however, shall be at the expense of the parties involved and shall not be at the expense of the court or of the county unless the board of county commissioners shall specifically authorize such aid.))~~

If the court has reasonable cause to believe that a child of the parties has suffered abuse or neglect it may file a report with the proper law enforcement agency or the department of social and health services as provided in RCW 26.44.040. Upon receipt of such a report the law enforcement agency or the department of social and health services will conduct an investigation into the cause and extent of the abuse or neglect. The findings of the investigation may be made available to the court if ordered by the court as provided in RCW 42.17.310(3). The findings shall be restricted to the issue of abuse and neglect and shall not be considered custody investigations.

Sec. 14. RCW 26.12.190 and 1983 c 219 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~((During the period of thirty days after filing a petition for conciliation no family law proceeding shall be filed by either party and further proceedings in a family law proceeding then pending in the superior court shall be stayed and the case transferred to the family court.))~~ The family court shall have jurisdiction and full power in all pending cases to make, alter, modify, and enforce all temporary and permanent orders~~((orders for))~~ regarding the following: Parenting plans, child support, custody of children, visitation, possession of property, maintenance, contempt, custodial interference, and orders for attorneys' fees, suit money or costs as may appear just and equitable. Court commissioners or judges shall not have authority to require the parties to mediate disputes concerning child support.

(2) ~~((If, after the expiration of such thirty day period or the formal conclusion of the proceedings for conciliation, the controversy between the parties has not been terminated, either party may apply for further relief by filing in the clerk's office additional pleadings or by asking that the pending case be set for trial. The family court has full jurisdiction to hear, try, and determine family law proceedings under the laws relating thereto, and to retain jurisdiction of the case for further hearings on decrees or orders to be made therein.))~~

(3) ~~The conciliation provisions of this chapter may be used concerning support, visitation, contempt, or for modification based on changed conditions or for other problems between the parties related to the family law proceeding.~~

(4) ~~Except as specifically so provided nothing in this chapter shall be construed to repeal, nullify or change the law and procedure relating to family law proceedings. The family court shall, when application for relief is made under this chapter, apply provisions governing family law proceedings in the same manner as if the action had been brought thereunder in the superior court, save that the conciliation procedures of the family court shall be applied so far as appropriate to arrive at an amicable~~ ~~settlement of all issues in controversy~~) Family court investigation, evaluation, mediation, treatment, and reconciliation services, and any other services may be used to assist the court to develop an order as the court deems necessary to preserve the marriage, implement an amicable settlement, and resolve the issues in controversy.

Sec. 15. RCW 26.12.220 and 1980 c 124 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The legislative authority of any county may authorize family court services as provided in RCW 26.12.230. The legislative authority may impose a fee in excess of that prescribed in RCW 36.18.010 for the issuance of a marriage license~~((: PROVIDED, That such))~~. The fee shall not exceed eight dollars.

(2) In addition to any other funds used therefor, the governing body of any county shall use the proceeds from the fee increase authorized by this section to pay the expenses of the family court and the family court services under chapter 26.12 RCW. If there is no family court in the county, the legislative authority may provide such services through other county agencies or may contract with a public or private agency or person to provide such services. Family court services also may be provided jointly with other counties as provided in RCW 26.12.230.

(3) The family court services program may hire professional employees to provide the investigation, evaluation and reporting, and mediation services, or the county may contract for these services, or both. To facilitate and promote the purposes of this chapter, the court may order or recommend the aid of physicians, psychiatrists, or other specialists.

(4) The family court services program may provide or contract for: (a) Mediation; (b) investigation, evaluation, and reporting to the court; and (c) reconciliation; and may provide a referral mechanism for drug and alcohol testing, monitoring, and treatment; and any other treatment, parenting, or anger management programs the family court professional considers necessary or appropriate.

(5) Services other than family court investigation, evaluation, reconciliation, and mediation services shall be at the expense of the parties involved absent a court order to the contrary. The parties shall bear all or a portion of the family court investigation, evaluation, reconciliation, and mediation services according to the parties' ability to pay.

(6) The county legislative authority may establish rules of eligibility for ~~((conciliation))~~ the family court services funded under this section ~~((so long as its))~~. The rules ~~((do))~~ shall not conflict with rules of the court adopted under chapter 26.12 RCW or any other statute.

~~((4))~~ (7) The legislative authority may establish fees for family court investigation, evaluation, reconciliation, and mediation services under this chapter according to the parties' ability to pay for the services. Fees collected under this section shall be collected and deposited in the same manner as other county funds are collected and deposited, and shall be maintained in a separate account to be used as provided in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The family court shall give proceedings involving children priority over cases without children.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The court may appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the interests of a minor or dependent child when the court believes the appointment of a guardian is in the best interests of the child in any proceeding under this chapter. The family court services professionals shall make a recommendation to the court regarding whether a guardian ad litem should be appointed for the child. The court shall enter an order for costs, fees, and disbursements to cover the costs of the guardian ad litem. The court may order either or both parents to pay for the costs of the guardian ad litem, according to their ability to pay. If both parents are indigent, the county shall bear the cost of the guardian, subject to appropriation for guardians' ad litem services by the county legislative authority.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. All acts and proceedings of the court commissioners shall be subject to revision by the superior court as provided in RCW 2.24.050.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. (1) Any state funds appropriated in the omnibus operating budget appropriations act for the 1991-93 biennium to the office of the administrator for the courts for the purposes of funding county family courts and county family court services shall be distributed to the eligible counties as provided in this section.

(2) Any appropriation in the omnibus operating budget appropriations act for the purposes of implementing this section is contingent on an equal amount of money being provided by the county from nonstate sources, whether public or private.

(3) Any county that has implemented or has committed to implement a family court and family court services on or before January 1, 1993, is eligible for available appropriated state funds if the county: (a) Obtains approval of an application under subsection (4) of this section; and (b) commits to spend money from public or private nonstate funding sources over a one-year period beginning on the date the county receives state funding, in an amount that is equal to or greater than the state funds distributed to the county under subsection (4) of this section. Any state funding is contingent on the county maintaining the family court and the family court services over the one-year period after disbursement of state funds to the county.

(4) The office of the administrator for the courts shall accept applications for state funds until March 1, 1992. After the application period expires, the office of the administrator for the courts shall determine each eligible county's percentage of the funds appropriated for family courts and family court services. An eligible county's percentage share of the appropriated funds shall be the same percentage as the number of cases filed in that county under Title 26 RCW, divided by the number of cases filed under Title 26 RCW in all the eligible counties. The initial determination of the number of case filings in each eligible county shall be based upon the office of the administrator for the courts' most recent annual report. The office of the administrator for the courts shall adjust the calculation of the number of filings in each county if any county has a disproportionate number of filings due to changes of venue or cases in which both parties live in another county. The office of the administrator for the courts may begin disbursing the state funds by July 1, 1992, to eligible counties. The office of the administrator for the courts shall disburse the state funds not later than January 1, 1993, to eligible counties. The counties must use the state funds over a one-year period from the date of disbursement. The counties that provide family courts and family court services pursuant to a joint family court services contract under RCW 26.12.230 may apply for state funds jointly and their eligibility for state funding shall be determined in the same manner as the eligibility of individual counties.

(5) The office of the administrator for the courts shall develop an application form for applying for state funds under this subsection. The office of the administrator for the courts shall develop rules to determine whether a county applying for state funds (a) has implemented or has committed to implement a family court and family court services under this chapter; (b) has committed nonstate funds for a one-year period following disbursement of the state funds to continue the family court and the family court services through that one-year period; and (c) has spent the matching funds required to obtain the state funds.

Sec. 20. RCW 26.18.100 and 1989 c 416 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:

The wage assignment order shall be substantially in the following form:

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF

WASHINGTON IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF

.....

.....,
 Obligee
 No..... vs.

.....,
 WAGE ASSIGNMENT
 Obligor
 ORDER

.....,
 Employer

THE STATE OF WASHINGTON TO: .....

Employer
 AND TO: .....
 Obligor

The above-named obligee claims that the above-named obligor is more than fifteen days past due in child support payments in an amount equal to or greater than the child support payable for one month. The amount of the accrued child support debt as of this date is ..... dollars, the amount of arrearage payments specified in the support order (if applicable) is ..... dollars per ....., and the amount of the current and continuing support obligation under the support order is ..... dollars per .....

You are hereby commanded to answer this order by filling in the attached form according to the instructions, and you must mail or deliver the original of the answer to the court, one copy to the Washington state support registry, one copy to the obligee or obligee's attorney, and one copy to the obligor within twenty days after service of this wage assignment order upon you.

If you possess any earnings due and owing to the obligor, then you shall do as follows:

(1) Withhold from the obligor's earnings each month, or from each regular earnings disbursement, the lesser of:

(a) The sum of the accrued support debt and the current support obligation;

(b) The sum of the specified arrearage payment amount and the current support obligation; or

(c) Fifty percent of the disposable earnings of the obligor.

(2) The total amount withheld above is subject to the wage assignment order, and all other sums may be disbursed to the obligor.

(3) Upon receipt of this wage assignment order you shall make immediate deductions from the obligor's earnings and remit to the Washington state support registry the proper amounts at each regular pay interval.

You shall continue to withhold the ordered amounts from nonexempt earnings of the obligor until notified by:

(a) The court that the wage assignment has been modified or terminated; ((or))

(b) The Washington state support registry, office of support enforcement that the accrued child support debt has been paid; or

(c) The court that has entered an order delaying, modifying, or terminating the wage assignment order and has approved an alternate payment plan as provided in RCW 26.23.050(2).

You shall promptly notify the court and the Washington state support registry if and when the employee is no longer employed by you. If you no longer employ the employee, the wage assignment order shall remain in effect for one year after the employee has left your employment or your are no longer in possession of any earnings owed to the employee. You shall continue to hold the wage assignment order during that one-year period. If the employee returns to your employment during the one-year period you shall immediately begin to withhold the employee's earnings according to the terms of the wage assignment order. If the employee has not returned to your employment within one year, the wage assignment will cease to have effect at the expiration of the one-year period.

You shall deliver the withheld earnings to the Washington state support registry at each regular pay interval(~~(, but the first delivery shall occur no sooner than twenty days after your receipt of this wage assignment order)~~).

You shall deliver a copy of this order to the obligor as soon as is reasonably possible. This wage assignment order has priority over any other wage assignment or garnishment, except for another wage assignment or garnishment for child support, or order to withhold or deliver under chapter 74.20A RCW.

WHETHER OR NOT YOU OWE ANYTHING TO THE OBLIGOR, YOUR FAILURE TO ANSWER AS REQUIRED MAY MAKE YOU LIABLE FOR OBLIGOR'S CLAIMED SUPPORT DEBT TO THE OBLIGEE OR SUBJECT TO CONTEMPT OF COURT.

NOTICE TO OBLIGOR: YOU HAVE A RIGHT TO REQUEST A HEARING IN THE SUPERIOR COURT THAT ISSUED THIS WAGE ASSIGNMENT ORDER, TO REQUEST THAT THE COURT QUASH, MODIFY, OR TERMINATE THE WAGE ASSIGNMENT ORDER.

DATED THIS ... day of ..., 19 ....

-----
Obligee,
Judge/Court, Commissioner or obligee's attorney

Sec. 21. RCW 26.18.110 and 1989 c 416 s 11 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An employer upon whom service of a wage assignment order has been made shall answer the order by sworn affidavit within twenty days after the date of service. The answer shall state whether the obligor is employed by or receives earnings from the employer, whether the employer will honor the wage assignment order, and whether there are multiple child support attachments against the obligor.

(2) If the employer possesses any earnings due and owing to the obligor, the earnings subject to the wage assignment order shall be withheld immediately upon receipt of the wage assignment order. The withheld earnings shall be delivered to the Washington state support registry at each regular pay interval(~~(, but the first delivery shall occur no sooner than twenty days after receipt of the wage assignment order)~~).

(3) The employer shall continue to withhold the ordered amounts from nonexempt earnings of the obligor until notified by:

(a) The court that the wage assignment has been modified or terminated; ((or))

(b) The Washington state support registry that the accrued child support debt has been paid, provided the wage assignment order contains the language set forth under RCW 26.18.100(2)(b). The employer shall promptly notify the Washington state support registry when the employee is no longer employed. If the employer no longer employs the employee, the wage assignment order shall remain in effect for one year after the employee has left the employment or the employer has been in possession of any earnings owed to the employee. The employer shall continue to hold the wage assignment order during that one-year period. If the employee returns to the employer's employment during the one-year period the employer shall immediately begin to withhold the employee's earnings according to the terms of the wage assignment order. If the employee has not returned within one year, the wage assignment shall cease to have effect at the expiration of the one-year period; or

(c) The court that has entered an order delaying, modifying, or terminating the wage assignment order and has approved an alternate payment plan as provided in RCW 26.23.050(2).

(4) The employer may deduct a processing fee from the remainder of the employee's earnings after withholding under the wage assignment order, even if the remainder is exempt under RCW 26.18.090. The processing fee may not exceed (a) ten dollars for the first disbursement made by the employer to the Washington state support registry; and (b) one dollar for each subsequent disbursement to the clerk.

(5) An order for wage assignment for support entered under this chapter shall have priority over any other wage assignment or garnishment, except for another wage assignment or garnishment for child support, or order to withhold and deliver under chapter 74.20A RCW.

(6) An employer who fails to withhold earnings as required by a wage assignment issued under this chapter may be held liable to the obligee for ~~((the amounts disbursed to the obligor in violation of the wage assignment order, and may be found by the court to be in contempt of court and may be punished as provided by law))~~ one hundred percent of the support debt, or the amount of support moneys that should have been withheld from the employee's earnings whichever is the lesser amount, if the employer:

(a) Fails or refuses, after being served with a wage assignment order, to deduct and promptly remit from the unpaid earnings the amounts of money required in the order;

(b) Fails or refuses to submit an answer to the notice of wage assignment after being served; or

(c) Is unwilling to comply with the other requirements of this section.

Liability may be established in superior court. Awards in superior court shall include costs, interest under RCW 19.52.020 and 4.56.110, and reasonable attorneys' fees.

(7) No employer who complies with a wage assignment issued under this chapter may be liable to the employee for wrongful withholding.

(8) No employer may discharge, discipline, or refuse to hire an employee because of the entry or service of a wage assignment issued and executed under this chapter. ~~((A person who violates this subsection may be found by the court to be in contempt of court and may be punished as provided by law))~~ If an employer discharges, disciplines, or refuses to hire an employee in violation of this section, the employee or person shall have a cause of action against the employer. The employer shall be liable for double the amount of damages suffered as a result of the violation and for costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, and shall be subject to a civil penalty of not more than two thousand five hundred dollars for each violation. The employer may also be ordered to hire, rehire, or reinstate the aggrieved individual.

(9) An employer may combine amounts withheld from various employees into a single payment to the Washington state support registry, if the payment includes a listing of the amounts attributable to each employee and other information as required by the registry.

(10) An employer shall deliver a copy of the wage assignment order to the obligor as soon as is reasonably possible.

Sec. 22. RCW 26.18.140 and 1984 c 260 s 14 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, in a hearing to quash, modify, or terminate the wage assignment order, the court may grant relief only upon a showing that the wage assignment order causes extreme hardship or substantial injustice. Satisfaction by the obligor of all past due payments subsequent to the issuance of the wage assignment order is not grounds to quash, modify, or terminate the wage assignment order. If a wage assignment order has been in operation for twelve consecutive months and the obligor's support obligation is current, the court may terminate the order upon motion of the obligor unless the obligee can show good cause as to why the wage assignment order should remain in effect.

(2) The court may enter an order delaying, modifying, or terminating the wage assignment order and order the obligor to make payments directly to the obligee if the court approves an alternate payment plan as provided in RCW 26.23.050(2).

Sec. 23. RCW 26.19.001 and 1988 c 275 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature intends, in establishing a child support schedule, to insure that child support orders are adequate to meet a child's basic needs and to provide additional child support commensurate with the parents' own income(,) and resources(~~(, and standard of living)~~) while recognizing that all parties to a divorce may by necessity suffer a reduced standard of living as a result of the divorce. The legislature also intends that the child support obligation should be equitably apportioned between the parents.

The legislature finds that these goals will be best achieved by the adoption and use of a state-wide child support schedule. Use of a state-wide schedule will benefit children and their parents by:

(1) Increasing the adequacy of child support orders through the use of economic data as the basis for establishing the child support schedule;

(2) Increasing the equity of child support orders by providing for comparable orders in cases with similar circumstances; and

(3) Reducing the adversarial nature of the proceedings by increasing voluntary settlements as a result of the greater predictability achieved by a uniform state-wide child support schedule.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. DEFINITIONS. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Basic child support obligation" means the monthly child support obligation determined from the economic table based on the parties' combined monthly net income and the number of children for whom support is owed.

(2) "Child support schedule" means the standards, economic table, worksheets, and instructions, as defined in this chapter.

(3) "Court" means a superior court judge, court commissioner, and presiding and reviewing officers who administratively determine or enforce child support orders.

(4) "Deviation" means a child support amount that differs from the standard calculation.

(5) "Economic table" means the child support table for the basic support obligation provided in RCW 26.19.020.

(6) "Instructions" means the instructions developed by the office of the administrator for the courts pursuant to RCW 26.19.050 for use in completing the worksheets.

(7) "Multiple families" means all the possible combinations of families in which a party has children from more than one relationship to whom the party owes a duty to support. Possible combinations include any natural, adopted, or stepchildren to whom the person owes a duty of support, whether or not the children are illegitimate or were born during a former or existing marriage, and whether or not the children reside with the person obligated to support them.

(8) "Standards" means the standards for determination of child support as provided in sections 27 through 33 of this act and RCW 26.19.090.

(9) "Standard calculation" means the presumptive amount of child support owed as determined from the child support schedule before the court considers any reasons for deviation.

(10) "Support transfer payment" means the amount of money the court orders one parent to pay to another parent or custodian for child support after determination of the standard calculation and deviations. If certain expenses or credits are expected to fluctuate and the order states a formula or percentage to determine the additional amount or credit on an ongoing basis, the term "support transfer payment" does not mean the additional amount or credit.

(11) "Worksheets" means the forms developed by the office of the administrator for the courts pursuant to RCW 26.19.050 for use in determining the amount of child support.

Sec. 25. RCW 26.19.020 and 1990 1st ex.s. c 2 s 19 are each amended to read as follows:

~~(If approved by a majority vote of the superior court judges of a county, the superior court may adopt by local court rule an economic table that shall be used by the superior court of that county, instead of the economic table adopted by the commission, to determine the appropriate amount of child support. The economic table adopted by the superior court shall not vary by more than twenty five percent from the economic table adopted by the commission and shall not vary the economic table for combined monthly net income of two thousand five hundred dollars or less.)~~

The economic table is presumptive for combined monthly net incomes up to and including five thousand dollars. When combined monthly net income exceeds five thousand dollars, support shall not be set at an amount lower than the presumptive amount of support set for combined monthly net incomes of five thousand dollars unless the court finds a reason to deviate below that amount. The economic table is advisory but not presumptive for combined monthly net incomes that exceed five thousand dollars. When combined monthly net income exceeds seven thousand dollars, the court may set support at an advisory amount of support set for combined monthly net incomes between five thousand and seven thousand dollars or the court may exceed the advisory amount of support set for combined monthly net incomes of seven thousand dollars upon written findings of fact.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. The legislature shall review the support schedule every four years to determine if the application of the support schedule results in appropriate support orders.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. STANDARDS FOR CHILD SUPPORT SCHEDULE APPLICATION. (1) Application of the child support schedule. The child support schedule shall be applied:

- (a) In each county of the state;
- (b) In judicial and administrative proceedings under this title or Title 13 or 74 RCW;
- (c) In all proceedings in which child support is determined or modified;

(d) In setting temporary and permanent support;

(e) In automatic modification provisions or decrees entered pursuant to RCW 26.09.100; and

(f) In addition to proceedings in which child support is determined for minors, to adult children who are dependent on their parents and for whom support is ordered pursuant to RCW 26.09.100.

The provisions of this chapter for determining child support and reasons for deviation from the standard calculation shall be applied in the same manner by the court, presiding officers, and reviewing officers.

(2) Written findings of fact supported by the evidence. An order for child support shall be supported by written findings of fact upon which the support determination is based and shall include reasons for any deviation from the standard calculation and reasons for denial of a party's request for deviation from the standard calculation.

(3) Completion of worksheets. Worksheets in the form developed by the office of the administrator for the courts shall be completed under penalty of perjury and filed in every proceeding in which child support is determined. The court shall not accept incomplete worksheets or worksheets that vary from the worksheets developed by the office of the administrator for the courts.

(4) Court review of the worksheets and order. The court shall review the worksheets and the order setting support for the adequacy of the reasons set forth for any deviation or denial of any request for deviation and for the adequacy of the amount of support ordered. Each order shall state the amount of child support calculated using the standard calculation and the amount of child support actually ordered. Worksheets shall be attached to the decree or order or if filed separately shall be initialed or signed by the judge and filed with the order.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. STANDARDS FOR ALLOCATION OF CHILD SUPPORT OBLIGATION BETWEEN PARENTS. (1) The parents' total obligation for support shall be based on their combined monthly net income, resources, and special child rearing costs.

(2) The basic child support obligation derived from the economic table shall be allocated between the parents based on each parent's share of the combined monthly net income.

(3) Ordinary health care expenses are included in the economic table. Monthly health care expenses that exceed five percent of the basic support obligation shall be considered extraordinary health care expenses. Extraordinary health care expenses, day care expenses, and special child rearing expenses such as tuition and long distance transportation costs to and from the parents for visitation purposes, are not included in the economic table. These expenses shall be shared by the parents in the same proportion as the basic support obligation. These expenses may be listed as a specific dollar amount or as a percentage amount. Day care expenses include, but are not limited to, day care expenses incurred while the parent in custody of the child is working, pursuing accredited educational training, or obtaining medical care.

(4) The court shall exercise discretion to determine the necessity for and the reasonableness of all amounts ordered in excess of the basic support obligation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. STANDARDS FOR DETERMINATION OF INCOME. (1) Consideration of all income. All income and resources of each parent's household shall be disclosed and considered by the court when the court determines the child support obligation of each parent as provided in sections 29 through 33 of this act. Only the income of the parents of the children whose support is at issue shall be calculated for purposes of calculating the basic support obligation. Income and resources of any other person shall not be included in calculating the basic support obligation.

(2) Verification of income. Tax returns for the preceding two years and current paystubs shall be provided to verify income and deductions. Other sufficient verification shall be required for income and deductions which do not appear on tax returns or paystubs.

(3) Income sources included in gross monthly income. Except as specifically excluded in subsection (4) of this section, monthly gross income shall include income from any source, including:

- (a) Salaries;
- (b) Wages;
- (c) Commissions;
- (d) Deferred compensation;
- (e) Recurring bonuses;
- (f) Dividends;
- (g) Interest;
- (h) Trust income;
- (i) Severance pay;
- (j) Annuities;
- (k) Capital gains;
- (l) Pension retirement benefits;
- (m) Workers' compensation;
- (n) Unemployment benefits; and
- (o) Spousal maintenance actually received.

(4) Income sources excluded from gross monthly income. The following income and resources shall be disclosed but shall not be included in gross income:

- (a) Income of a new spouse or income of other adults in the household;
- (b) Child support received from other relationships;
- (c) Nonrecurring income from bonuses, contract-related cash and noncash benefits, gifts, and prizes. The burden of proving that these sources of income are nonrecurring is on the parent seeking to exclude them from gross income;
- (d) Overtime, whether mandatory or voluntary;
- (e) If the parent has at least one full-time job that requires the parent to work a minimum of forty hours per week, income derived from a second job or additional jobs other than the full-time job;
- (f) Aid to families with dependent children;
- (g) Supplemental security income;
- (h) General assistance; and
- (i) Food stamps.

Receipt of income and resources from aid to families with dependent children, supplemental security income, general assistance, and food stamps shall not be a reason to deviate from the standard calculation.

(5) Determination of net income. The following expenses shall be disclosed and deducted from gross monthly income to calculate net monthly income:

- (a) Federal and state income taxes;
- (b) Federal insurance contributions act deductions;
- (c) Mandatory pension plan payments;
- (d) Mandatory union or professional dues;
- (e) State industrial insurance premiums;
- (f) Court-ordered spousal maintenance to the extent actually paid;
- (g) Up to two thousand dollars per year in voluntary pension payments actually made if the contributions were made for the two tax years preceding the earlier of the (i) tax year in which the parties separated with intent to live separate and apart or (ii) tax year in which the parties filed for dissolution; and

(h) Normal business expenses and self-employment taxes for self-employed persons. Justification shall be required for any business expense deduction about which there is disagreement.

Items deducted from gross income under this subsection shall not be a reason to deviate from the standard calculation.

(6) Imputation of income. The court shall impute income to a parent when the parent is voluntarily unemployed or voluntarily underemployed. The court shall determine whether the parent is voluntarily underemployed or voluntarily unemployed based upon that parent's work history, education, health, age, and other relevant factors. A parent will not be deemed underemployed if that parent is gainfully employed on a full-time basis. Income shall not be imputed for an unemployable parent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. Veterans' disability pensions or regular compensation for disability incurred in or aggravated by service in the United States armed forces paid by the veterans' administration shall be disclosed to the court. The court may consider either type of compensation as disposable income for purposes of calculating the child support obligation. Aid and attendant care payments to prevent hospitalization paid by the veterans' administration solely to provide physical home care for a disabled veteran, and special medical compensation paid under 38 U.S.C. Sec. 314 (k) through (r) to provide either special care or special aids, or both, to assist with routine daily functions shall also be disclosed. The court may not include either aid and attendant care or special medical compensation payments in gross income for purposes of calculating the child support obligation or for purposes of deviating from the standard calculation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. Payments from any source, other than veterans' aid and attendance allowances or special medical compensation paid under 38 U.S.C. Sec. 314 (k) through (r), for services provided by an attendant in case of a disability when the disability necessitates the hiring of the services of an attendant shall be disclosed but shall not be included in gross income and shall not be a reason to deviate from the standard calculation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. STANDARDS FOR DEVIATION FROM THE STANDARD CALCULATION. (1) Reasons for deviation from the standard calculation include but are not limited to the following:

(a) Sources of income and tax planning. The court may deviate from the standard calculation after consideration of the following resources and income:

(i) Income of a new spouse if the parent who is married to the new spouse is asking for a deviation based on any other reason. Income of a new spouse is not, by itself, a sufficient reason for deviation;

(ii) Income of other adults in the household if the parent who is living with the other adult is asking for a deviation based on any other reason. Income of the other adults in the household is not, by itself, a sufficient reason for deviation;

(iii) Child support actually received from other relationships;

(iv) Overtime, whether mandatory or voluntary;

(v) Nonrecurring bonuses;

(vi) Contract-related cash benefits and contract-related noncash benefits that reduce living expenses;

(vii) Gifts;

(viii) Prizes;

(ix) Income derived from a second job or additional jobs that was excluded from gross income under section 29 of this act;

(x) Possession of wealth, including but not limited to savings, investments, real estate holdings and business interests, vehicles, boats, pensions, bank accounts, insurance plans, or other assets;

(xi) Extraordinary income of a child; or

(xii) Tax planning considerations. A deviation for tax planning may be granted only if the child would not receive a lesser economic benefit due to the tax planning.

(b) Debt and high expenses. The court may deviate from the standard calculation after consideration of the following expenses:

(i) Extraordinary debt not voluntarily incurred;

(ii) A significant disparity in the living costs of the parents due to conditions beyond their control;

(iii) Special needs of disabled children; or

(iv) Special medical, educational, or psychological needs of the children.

(c) Residential schedule. The court may deviate from the standard calculation if the child spends a significant amount of time with the parent who is obligated to make a support transfer payment. The court may not deviate on that basis if the deviation will result in insufficient funds in the house receiving the support to meet the basic needs of the child or if the child is receiving aid to families with dependent children. When determining the amount of the deviation, the court shall consider evidence concerning the increased expenses to a parent making support transfer payments resulting from the significant amount of time spent with that parent and shall consider the decreased expenses, if any, to the party receiving the support resulting from the significant amount of time the child spends with the parent making the support transfer payment.

(d) Multiple families. The court may deviate from the standard calculation when either or both of the parents before the court have children in multiple families to whom the parent owes a duty of support.

(i) The child support schedule shall be applied to the mother, father, and children of the family before the court to determine the presumptive amount of support.

(ii) Children from families other than the children of the parties before the court shall not be counted in the number of children for purposes of determining the basic support obligation and the standard calculation.

(iii) When considering a deviation from the standard calculation for children in the family before the court, the court may consider only other children to whom the parent owes a duty of support. The court may consider court-ordered payments of child support for children from other families only to the extent that the support is actually paid.

(iv) When the court has determined that either or both parents have multiple families, deviations under this section shall be based on consideration of the total circumstances of both households. All child support obligations paid, received, and owed for all children in the multiple families shall be disclosed and considered.

(2) All income and resources of the parties before the court, new spouses, and other adults in the households shall be disclosed and considered as provided in this section. The presumptive amount of support shall be determined according to the child support schedule. Unless specific reasons for deviation are set forth in the written findings of fact and are supported by the evidence, the court shall order each parent to pay the amount of support determined by using the standard calculation.

(3) The court shall enter findings that specify reasons for any deviation or any denial of a party's request for any deviation from the standard calculation made by the court. The court shall not consider reasons for deviation until the court determines the standard calculation for each parent.

(4) When reasons exist for deviation, the court shall exercise discretion in considering the extent to which the factors would affect the support obligation.

(5) Agreement of the parties is not by itself adequate reason for any deviations from the standard calculation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. STANDARDS FOR ESTABLISHING LOWER AND UPPER LIMITS ON CHILD SUPPORT AMOUNTS. (1) Limit at forty-five percent of a parent's net income. Neither parent's total child support obligation may exceed forty-five percent of net income except for good cause shown. Good cause includes but is not limited to possession of substantial wealth, children with day care expenses, special medical need, educational need, psychological need, and larger families.

(2) Income below six hundred dollars. When combined monthly net income is less than six hundred dollars, a support order of not less than twenty-five dollars per child per month shall be entered for each parent. A parent's support obligation shall not reduce his or her net income below the need standard for one person established pursuant to RCW 74.04.770, except for the mandatory minimum payment of twenty-five dollars per child per month as required in this section or in cases where the court finds reasons for deviation under section 32 of this act. This section shall not be construed to require monthly substantiation of income.

(3) Income above five thousand and seven thousand dollars. The economic table is presumptive for combined monthly net incomes up to and including five thousand dollars. When combined monthly net income exceeds five thousand dollars, support shall not be set at an amount lower than the presumptive amount of support set for combined monthly net incomes of five thousand dollars unless the court finds a reason to deviate below that amount. The economic table is advisory but not presumptive for combined monthly net incomes that exceed five thousand dollars. When combined monthly net income exceeds seven thousand dollars, the court may set support at an advisory amount of support set for combined monthly net incomes between five thousand and seven thousand dollars or the court may exceed the advisory amount of support set for combined monthly net incomes of seven thousand dollars upon written findings of fact.

Sec. 34. RCW 26.19.090 and 1990 1st ex.s. c 2 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:

STANDARDS FOR POSTSECONDARY EDUCATIONAL SUPPORT AWARDS.

(1) The child support schedule shall be advisory and not mandatory for postsecondary educational support. The maximum amount of child support the court may award to pay for the cost of tuition is the amount of tuition set for students who are residents of the state of Washington who attend a state-funded four-year university.

(2) When considering whether to order support for postsecondary educational expenses, the court shall determine whether the child is in fact dependent and is relying upon the parents for the reasonable necessities of life. The court shall exercise its discretion when determining whether and for how long to award postsecondary educational support based upon consideration of factors that include but are not limited to the following: Age of the child; the child's needs; the expectations of the parties for their children when the parents were together; the child's prospects, desires, aptitudes, abilities or disabilities; the nature of the postsecondary education sought; and the parents' level of education, standard of living, and current and future resources. Also to be considered are the amount and type of support that the child would have been afforded if the parents had stayed together.

(3) The child must be enrolled in an accredited academic or vocational school, actively pursuing a course of study commensurate with the child's vocational goals, and must be in good academic standing as defined by the institution ((or)). The child shall also make available all academic records and grades to both parents as a condition of receiving postsecondary educational support. Each parent shall have full and equal access to the postsecondary education records as provided in RCW 26.09.225. The court-ordered postsecondary educational support ((may)) shall be automatically suspended during the period or periods the child fails to comply with these conditions. ~~((The court in its discretion may order that the payment be made directly to the parent who has been receiving the transfer payments, to the educational institution if feasible, or to the child.))~~ The court shall not order the payment of postsecondary educational expenses beyond the child's twenty-third birthday, except for exceptional circumstances, such as mental, physical, or emotional disabilities.

(4) The court shall direct that either or both parents' payments for postsecondary educational expenses be made directly to the educational institution if feasible. If direct payments are not feasible, then the court in its discretion may order that either or both parents' payments be made directly to the child if the child does not reside with either parent. If the child resides with one of the parents the court may direct that the parent making the support transfer payments make the payments to the child or to the parent who has been receiving the support transfer payments.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. REIMBURSEMENT AND VERIFICATION OF EXTRAORDINARY EXPENSES. (1)(a) If sum certain amounts are established for day care, transportation costs, extraordinary health care, or other extraordinary expenses, and are set forth in the decree, those sums shall be payable as part of the regularly paid support transfer payment ordered by the court. The parent making the support transfer payment is entitled to proof of the amount paid for those expenses.

(b) If an amount for those expenses is not specified in the decree or those amounts fluctuate and are not part of the support transfer payment, the parent paying these expenses shall be entitled to prompt reimbursement of the other parent's share of those expenses. Reimbursement must be made promptly but not later than thirty days after receipt of proof of payment of these expenditures. The parent paying those expenses is entitled to proof of the amount paid for those expenses.

(2)(a) If reimbursement is not made within the thirty-day period or is incomplete due to a nonsufficient fund check or other failure to pay, the parent seeking reimbursement may by motion obtain an order compelling payment with statutory interest. If a parent requests proof of payment and it is not provided within thirty days, the party may move to compel production of the documents. The court shall award actual court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees to the prevailing party in every motion filed under this section except upon a showing of good cause for nonpayment.

(b) Wage assignment orders may be obtained pursuant to chapter 26.18 RCW to collect court-ordered basic child support, day care, health care, long-distance transportation costs, or other extraordinary expenses, attorneys' fees, court costs, or any other item ordered by the court. A parent to whom basic child support, day care, health care, long-distance transportation costs, or other extraordinary expenses are to be paid based on a percentage share of the costs, may by motion obtain a court order reducing the amounts owed to a sum certain and then enforce collection of that amount by a wage assignment order. The office of support enforcement shall not request a wage assignment in any case of purported nonsupport without obtaining documentation from both parents, except that the office of support enforcement may request a wage assignment after receipt of documentation from the party seeking payment of the extraordinary expenses, if the parent obligated to make the payment fails to comply with the request for documentation within thirty days of the date requested.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. A new section is added to chapter 26.23 RCW to read as follows:

If a support order does not state the current and future support obligation for extraordinary expenses such as day care, extraordinary health care, long-distance transportation costs, other extraordinary expenses or other variable costs in a fixed dollar amount but states them as a percentage share of the costs or as variable expenses subject to collection as those expenses are incurred as provided in section 35 of this act, then the office of support enforcement must obtain documentation as required in this section prior to issuing a notice of support owed pursuant to RCW 26.23.110. The office of support enforcement must obtain documentation from the payee which verifies the actual expenditure of any variable expense or extraordinary expense that the office of support enforcement seeks to collect as part of the support debt. In addition, prior to issuing a notice of support owed under RCW 26.23.100, the office of support enforcement must request documentation from the payor to determine whether the payor has paid all or a portion of the variable or extraordinary expenses or has any documentation regarding the amount of any variable or extraordinary expense the office of support enforcement seeks to collect. If the payor fails to respond to the request for documentation within thirty days from the date of the request, and the office of support enforcement has obtained documentation from the payee, the office of support enforcement may issue the notice of support owed pursuant to RCW 26.23.110.

Sec. 37. RCW 26.21.230 and 1963 c 45 s 30 are each amended to read as follows:

The obligee, the prosecuting attorney, or the attorney general may register the foreign support order in a court of this state in the manner(, with the effect and for the purposes herein) provided for in this chapter for the purpose of modification and enforcement of the support provisions. The court shall only have jurisdiction to consider the child support provisions of the order. The modification shall be pursuant to RCW 26.09.170 and 26.09.175.

Sec. 38. RCW 26.23.035 and 1989 c 360 s 34 are each amended to read as follows:

~~(1) ((The child support registry shall distribute all moneys received in compliance with 42 U.S.C. Sec. 657. Support received by the office of support enforcement shall be distributed promptly but not later than eight days from the date of receipt unless circumstances exist which make such distribution impossible. Such circumstances include when: (a) The location of the custodial parent is unknown; (b) the child support debt is in litigation; or (c) the responsible parent or custodial parent cannot be identified. When, following termination of public assistance, the office of support enforcement collects support, all moneys collected up to the maximum of the support due for the period following termination from public assistance shall, to the extent permitted by federal law, be paid to the custodial parent before any distribution to the office of support enforcement under federal law. This section shall not apply to support collected through intercepting federal tax refunds under 42 U.S.C. Sec. 664. When a responsible parent has more than one support obligation, or a support debt is owed to more than one party, moneys received will be distributed between the parties proportionally, based upon the amount of the support obligation and/or support debt owed.))~~ The department of social and health services shall adopt rules for the distribution of support money collected by the office of support enforcement. These rules shall:

(a) Comply with 42 U.S.C. Sec. 657;

(b) Direct the office of support enforcement to distribute support money within eight days of receipt, unless one of the following circumstances, or similar circumstances specified in the rules, prevents prompt distribution:

(i) The location of the custodial parent is unknown;

(ii) The support debt is in litigation;

(iii) The office of support enforcement cannot identify the responsible parent or the custodian;

(c) Provide for proportionate distribution of support payments if the responsible parent owes a support obligation or a support debt for two or more Title IV-D cases; and

(d) Authorize the distribution of support money, except money collected under 42 U.S.C. Sec. 664, to satisfy a support debt owed to the IV-D custodian before the debt owed to the state when the custodian stops receiving a public assistance grant.

(2) The office of support enforcement may distribute support payments to the payee under the support order or to another person who has lawful physical custody of the child or custody with the payee's consent. The payee may file an application for an adjudicative proceeding to challenge distribution to such other person. Prior to distributing support payments to any person other than the payee, the registry shall:

(a) Obtain a written statement from the child's physical custodian, under penalty of perjury, that the custodian has lawful custody of the child or custody with the payee's consent;

(b) Mail to the responsible parent and to the payee at the payee's last known address a copy of the physical custodian's statement and a notice which states that support payments will be sent to the physical custodian; and

(c) File a copy of the notice with the clerk of the court that entered the original support order.

(3) If the Washington state support registry distributes a support payment to a person in error, the registry may obtain restitution by means of a set-off against future payments received on behalf of the person receiving the erroneous payment, or may act according to RCW 74.20A.270 as deemed appropriate. Any set-off against future support payments shall be limited to amounts collected on the support debt and ten percent of amounts collected as current support.

Sec. 39. RCW 26.23.050 and 1989 c 360 s 15 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the superior court shall include in all superior court orders which establish or modify a support obligation:

(a) A provision which orders and directs that the responsible parent make all support payments to the Washington state support registry;

(b) A statement that a notice of payroll deduction may be issued or other income withholding action under chapter 26.18 RCW or chapter 74.20A RCW may be taken, without further notice to the responsible parent((:

~~(i) If a support payment is not paid when due, and an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month is owed under an order entered prior to July 1, 1990; or~~

~~(ii)) at any time after entry of the court order ((for orders entered by the court on or after July 1, 1990)), unless:~~

(i) One of the parties demonstrates, and the court finds, that there is good cause not to require immediate income withholding; or

(ii) The parties reach a written agreement that is approved by the court that provides for an alternate arrangement; and

(c) A statement that the receiving parent may be required to submit an accounting of how the support is being spent to benefit the child.

(2) The court may order the responsible parent to make payments directly to the person entitled to receive the payments or, for orders entered on or after July 1, 1990, direct that the issuance of a notice of payroll deduction or other income withholding actions be delayed until a support payment is past due if the court approves an alternate payment plan. The parties to the order must agree to such a plan and the plan must contain reasonable assurances that payments will be made in a regular and timely manner. The court may approve such a plan and modify or terminate the payroll deduction or other income withholding action at the time of entry of the order or at a later date upon motion and agreement of the parties. If the order directs payment to the person entitled to receive the payments instead of to the Washington state support registry, the order shall include a statement that the order may be submitted to the registry if a support payment is past due. If the order directs delayed issuance of the notice of payroll deduction or other income withholding action, the order shall include a statement that such action may be taken, without further notice, at any time after a support payment is past due. The provisions of this subsection do not apply if the department is providing public assistance under Title 74 RCW.

(3) The office of administrative hearings and the department of social and health services shall require that all support obligations established as administrative orders include a provision which orders and directs that the responsible parent shall make all support payments to the Washington state support registry. All administrative orders shall also state that a notice of payroll deduction may be issued, or other income withholding action taken without further notice to the responsible parent(:

~~(a) If a support payment is not paid when due and an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month is owed under an order entered prior to July 1, 1990; or~~

~~(b))) at any time after entry of the order ((for administrative orders entered on or after July 1, 1990)), unless:~~

~~(a) One of the parties demonstrates, and the presiding officer finds, that there is good cause not to require immediate income withholding; or~~

~~(b) The parties reach a written agreement that is approved by the presiding officer that provides for an alternate agreement.~~

(4) If the support order does not include the provision ordering and directing that all payments be made to the Washington state support registry and a statement that a notice of payroll deduction may be issued if a support payment is past due or at any time after the entry of the order, the office of support enforcement may serve a notice on the responsible parent stating such requirements and authorizations. Service may be by personal service or any form of mail requiring a return receipt.

(5) Every support order shall state:

(a) That payment shall be made to the Washington state support registry or in accordance with the alternate payment plan approved by the court;

(b) That a notice of payroll deduction may be issued or other income withholding action under chapter 26.18 RCW or chapter 74.20A RCW may be taken, without further notice to the responsible parent(:

~~(i) If a support payment is not paid when due and an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month is owed under an order entered prior to July 1, 1990; or~~

~~(ii))) at any time after entry of an order by the court ((on or after July 1, 1990)), unless:~~

~~(i) The court approves an alternate payment plan under subsection (2) of this section;~~

~~(ii) One of the parties demonstrates, and the court finds, that there is good cause not to require immediate income withholding; or~~

~~(iii) The parties reach an alternate agreement that is approved by the court that provides for an alternate arrangement;~~

(c) The income of the parties, if known, or that their income is unknown and the income upon which the support award is based;

(d) The support award as a sum certain amount;

(e) The specific day or date on which the support payment is due;

(f) The social security number, residence address, and name of employer of the responsible parent;

(g) The social security number and residence address of the physical custodian except as provided in subsection (6) of this section;

(h) The names, dates of birth, and social security numbers, if any, of the dependent children;

(i) That the parties are to notify the Washington state support registry of any change in residence address;

(j) That any parent owing a duty of child support shall be obligated to provide health insurance coverage for his or her child if coverage that can be extended to cover the child is or becomes available to that parent through employment or is union-related as provided under RCW 26.09.105;

(k) That if proof of health insurance coverage is not provided within twenty days, the obligee or the department may seek direct enforcement of the coverage through the obligor's employer or union without further notice to the obligor as provided under chapter 26.18 RCW; and

(l) The reasons for not ordering health insurance coverage if the order fails to require such coverage.

(6) The physical custodian's address shall be omitted from an order entered under the administrative procedure act. A responsible parent whose support obligation has been determined by such administrative order may request the physical custodian's residence address by submission of a request for disclosure under RCW 26.23.120.

(7) The superior court clerk, the office of administrative hearings, and the department of social and health services shall, within five days of entry, forward to the Washington state support registry, a true and correct copy of all superior court orders or administrative orders establishing or modifying a support obligation which provide that support payments shall be made to the support registry. If a superior court order entered prior to January 1, 1988, directs the responsible parent to make support payments to the clerk, the clerk shall send a true and correct copy of the support order and the payment record to the registry for enforcement action when the clerk identifies that a payment is more than fifteen days past due. The office of support enforcement shall reimburse the clerk for the reasonable costs of copying and sending copies of court orders to the registry at the reimbursement rate provided in Title IV-D of the social security act.

(8) Receipt of a support order by the registry or other action under this section on behalf of a person or persons who are not recipients of public assistance is deemed to be a request for support enforcement services under RCW 74.20.040 to the fullest extent permitted under federal law.

(9) After the responsible parent has been ordered or notified to make payments to the Washington state support registry in accordance with subsection (1), ~~((2), or))~~ (3), or (4) of this section, the responsible parent shall be fully responsible for making all payments to the Washington state support registry and shall be subject to payroll deduction or other income withholding action. The responsible parent shall not be entitled to credit against a support obligation for any payments made to a person or agency other than to the Washington state support registry. A civil action may be brought by the payor to recover payments made to persons or agencies who have received and retained support moneys paid contrary to the provisions of this section.

Sec. 40. RCW 26.23.060 and 1989 c 360 s 32 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The office of support enforcement may issue a notice of payroll deduction:

(a) As authorized by a support order that contains the income withholding notice provisions in RCW 26.23.050 or a substantially similar notice; or

(b) After service of a notice containing an income withholding provision under this chapter or chapter 74.20A RCW.

(2) The ~~((department may))~~ office of support enforcement shall serve a notice of payroll deduction upon a responsible parent's employer ~~((for child support obligations if the responsible parent fails to pay child support as due in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month. Service shall be))~~ or upon the employment security department for the state in possession of or owing any benefits from the unemployment compensation fund to the responsible parent pursuant to Title 50 RCW by personal service or by any form of mail requiring a return receipt.

~~((2))~~ (3) Service of a notice of payroll deduction upon an employer or employment security department requires ~~((an))~~ the employer or employment security department to immediately make a mandatory payroll deduction from the responsible ~~((parent/employee's))~~ parent's unpaid disposable earnings or unemployment compensation benefits. The employer or employment security department shall thereafter deduct each pay period the amount stated in the notice divided by the number of pay periods per month. The payroll deduction each pay period shall not exceed fifty percent of the responsible ~~((parent/employee's))~~ parent's disposable earnings.

~~((3))~~ (4) A notice of payroll deduction for support shall have priority over any wage assignment ~~((or)),~~ garnishment, attachment, or other legal process.

~~((4))~~ (5) The notice of payroll deduction shall be in writing and include:

(a) The name and social security number of the ~~((employee))~~ responsible parent;

(b) The amount to be deducted from the responsible parent's disposable earnings each month, or alternate amounts and frequencies as may be necessary to facilitate processing of the payroll deduction ~~((by the employer));~~

(c) A statement that the total amount withheld shall not exceed fifty percent of the responsible parent's disposable earnings; and

(d) The address to which the payments are to be mailed or delivered.

~~((5))~~ (6) An informational copy of the notice of payroll deduction shall be mailed to the last known address of the responsible parent by regular mail.

~~((6))~~ (7) An employer ~~((who))~~ or employment security department that receives a notice of payroll deduction shall make immediate deductions from the ~~((employee's))~~ responsible parent's unpaid disposable earnings and remit proper amounts to the Washington state support registry on each date the ~~((employee))~~ responsible parent is due to be paid.

~~((7))~~ (8) An employer, or the employment security department, upon whom a notice of payroll deduction is served, shall make an answer to the ~~((Washington state))~~ office of support ~~((registry))~~ enforcement within twenty days after the date of service. The answer shall confirm compliance and institution of the payroll deduction or explain the circumstances if no payroll deduction is in effect. The answer shall also state whether the responsible parent is employed by or receives earnings from the employer or receives unemployment compensation benefits from the employment security department, whether the employer or employment security department anticipates paying earnings or employment compensation benefits and the amount of earnings. If the responsible parent is no longer employed, or receiving earnings from the employer, the answer shall state the present employer's name and address, if known. If the responsible parent is no longer receiving unemployment compensation benefits from the employment security department, the answer shall state the present employer's name and address, if known.

~~((8))~~ (9) The employer or employment security department may deduct a processing fee from the remainder of the ~~((employee's))~~ responsible parent's earnings after withholding under the notice of payroll deduction, even if the remainder is exempt under RCW 26.18.090. The processing fee may not exceed: (a) Ten dollars for the first disbursement made ~~((by the employer))~~ to the Washington state support registry; and (b) one dollar for each subsequent disbursement to the registry.

~~((9))~~ (10) The notice of payroll deduction shall remain in effect until released by the office of support enforcement ~~((or)),~~ the court enters an order terminating the notice and approving an alternate payment plan under RCW 26.23.050(2), or one year has expired since the employer has employed the responsible parent or has been in possession of or owing any earnings to the responsible parent or the employment security department has been in possession of or owing any unemployment compensation benefits to the responsible parent.

Sec. 41. RCW 26.23.070 and 1987 c 435 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The employer or the employment security department may combine amounts withheld from the earnings of more than one ~~((employee))~~ responsible parent in a single payment to the Washington state support registry, listing separately the amount of the payment which is attributable to each individual ~~((employee)).~~

(2) No employer (~~who~~) nor employment security department that complies with a notice of payroll deduction under this chapter shall be civilly liable to the (~~employee~~) responsible parent for complying with a notice of payroll deduction under this chapter.

Sec. 42. RCW 26.23.100 and 1989 c 360 s 31 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The responsible parent subject to a payroll deduction pursuant to this chapter, may file a motion in superior court to quash, modify, or terminate the payroll deduction.

(2) Except as provided in subsections (4) and (5) of this section, the court may grant relief only upon a showing: (a) That the payroll deduction causes extreme hardship or substantial injustice; or (b) that the support payment was not past due (~~in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month~~) under the terms of the order when the notice of payroll deduction was served on the employer.

(3) Satisfaction by the obligor of all past due payments subsequent to the issuance of the notice of payroll deduction is not grounds to quash, modify, or terminate the notice of payroll deduction.

(4) If a notice of payroll deduction has been in operation for twelve consecutive months and the (~~obligor's~~) obligor's support obligation is current, upon motion of the obligor, the court may order the (~~Washington state~~) office of support (~~registry~~) enforcement to terminate the payroll deduction, unless the obligee can show good cause as to why the payroll deduction should remain in effect.

(5) Subsection (2) of this section shall not prevent the court from ordering an alternative payment plan as provided under RCW 26.23.050(2).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 43. A new section is added to chapter 26.23 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall be given twenty calendar days prior notice of the entry of any final order and five days prior notice of the entry of any temporary order in any proceeding involving child support or maintenance if the department has a financial interest based on an assignment of support rights under RCW 74.20.330 or the state has a subrogated interest under RCW 74.20A.030. Service of this notice upon the department shall be by personal service on, or mailing by any form of mail requiring a return receipt to, the office of the attorney general. The department shall not be entitled to terms for a party's failure to serve the department within the time requirements for this section, unless the department proves that the party knew that the department had an assignment of support rights or a subrogated interest and that the failure to serve the department was intentional.

Sec. 44. RCW 74.20.220 and 1979 c 141 s 367 are each amended to read as follows:

In order to carry out its responsibilities imposed under this chapter and as required by federal law, the state department of social and health services, through the attorney general or prosecuting attorney, is hereby authorized to:

(1) (~~Represent~~) Initiate an action in superior court to obtain a support order or obtain other relief related to support for a dependent child (~~or dependent children~~) on whose behalf the department is providing public assistance (~~is being provided in obtaining any support order necessary to provide for his or their needs~~) or support enforcement services under RCW 74.20.040, or to enforce (~~any such order previously entered~~) a superior court order.

(2) (~~Appear as a friend of the court in divorce and separate maintenance suits, or proceedings supplemental thereto, when either or both of the parties thereto are receiving public assistance, for the purpose of advising the court as to the financial interest of the state of Washington therein.~~

(3) ~~Appear on behalf of the custodial parent of a dependent child or children on whose behalf public assistance is being provided, when so requested by such parent,~~

~~for the purpose of assisting such parent in securing a modification of a divorce or separate maintenance decree wherein no support, or inadequate support, was given for such child or children: PROVIDED, That the attorney general shall be authorized to so appear only where it appears to the satisfaction of the court that the parent is without funds to employ private counsel. If the parent does not request such assistance, or refuses it when offered, the attorney general may nevertheless appear as a friend of the court at any supplemental proceeding, and may advise the court of such facts as will show the financial interest of the state of Washington therein; but the attorney general shall not otherwise participate in the proceeding))~~ Appear as a party in dissolution, child support, parentage, maintenance suits, or other proceedings, for the purpose of representing the financial interest and actions of the state of Washington therein.

(3) Petition the court for modification of a superior court order when the office of support enforcement is providing support enforcement services under RCW 74.20.040.

(4) When the attorney general or prosecuting attorney appears in, defends, or initiates actions to establish, modify, or enforce child support obligations he or she represents the state, the best interests of the child relating to parentage, and the best interests of the children of the state, but does not represent the interests of any other individual.

(5) If public assistance has been applied for or granted on behalf of a child of parents who are divorced or legally separated, the attorney general or prosecuting attorney may apply to the superior court in such action for an order directing either parent or both to show cause:

(a) Why an order of support for the child should not be entered, or

(b) Why the amount of support previously ordered should not be increased, or

(c) Why the parent should not be held in contempt for his or her failure to comply with any order of support previously entered.

~~((5))~~ (6) Initiate any civil proceedings deemed necessary by the department to secure reimbursement from the parent or parents of minor dependent children for all moneys expended by the state in providing assistance or services to said children.

(7) Nothing in this section limits the authority of the attorney general or prosecuting attorney to use any and all civil and criminal remedies to enforce, establish, or modify child support obligations whether or not the custodial parent receives public assistance.

Sec. 45. RCW 74.20.310 and 1979 ex.s. c 171 s 15 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The provisions of RCW 26.26.090 requiring appointment of a general guardian or guardian ad litem to represent the child in an action brought to determine the parent and child relationship do not apply to actions brought under chapter 26.26 RCW if:

~~((1))~~ (a) The action is brought by the attorney general on behalf of the department of social and health services((;)) and the child((~~-or the natural mother~~)); or

~~((2))~~ (b) The action is brought by any prosecuting attorney on behalf of the state((;)) and the child((~~-or the natural mother~~)) when referral has been made to the prosecuting attorney by the department of social and health services requesting such action.

(2) On the issue of parentage, the attorney general or prosecuting attorney functions as the child's guardian ad litem provided the interests of the state and the child are not in conflict.

(3) The court, on its own motion or on motion of a party, may appoint a guardian ad litem when necessary.

(4) The summons shall contain a notice to the parents that the parents have a right to move the court for a guardian ad litem for the child other than the prosecuting attorney or the attorney general subject to subsection (2) of this section.

Sec. 46. RCW 74.20A.055 and 1990 1st ex.s. c 2 s 21 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The secretary may, in the absence of a superior court order, serve on the responsible parent or parents a notice and finding of financial responsibility requiring a responsible parent or parents to appear and show cause in an adjudicative proceeding why the finding of responsibility and/or the amount thereof is incorrect, should not be finally ordered, but should be rescinded or modified. This notice and finding shall relate to the support debt accrued and/or accruing under this chapter and/or RCW 26.16.205, including periodic payments to be made in the future (~~for such period of time as the child or children of said responsible parent or parents are in need~~). The hearing shall be held pursuant to (~~RCW 74.20A.055~~) this section, chapter 34.05 RCW, the Administrative Procedure Act, and the rules of the department.

(2) The notice and finding of financial responsibility shall be served in the same manner prescribed for the service of a summons in a civil action or may be served on the responsible parent by certified mail, return receipt requested. The receipt shall be prima facie evidence of service. The notice shall be served upon the debtor within sixty days from the date the state assumes responsibility for the support of the dependent child or children on whose behalf support is sought. If the notice is not served within sixty days from such date, the department shall lose the right to reimbursement of payments made after the sixty-day period and before the date of notification: PROVIDED, That if the department exercises reasonable efforts to locate the debtor and is unable to do so the entire sixty-day period is tolled until such time as the debtor can be located. (~~Any responsible parent who objects to all or any part of the notice and finding shall have the right for not more than twenty days from the date of service to file an application for an adjudicative proceeding. The application shall be served upon the department by registered or certified mail or personally. If no such application is made, the notice and finding of responsibility shall become final, and the debt created therein shall be subject to collection action as authorized under this chapter. If a timely application is made, the execution of notice and finding of responsibility shall be stayed pending the entry of the final administrative order. If no timely written application has previously been made, the responsible parent may petition the secretary or the secretary's designee at any time for an adjudicative proceeding as provided for in this section upon a showing of good cause for the failure to make a timely application. The filing of the petition for an adjudicative proceeding after the twenty day period shall not affect any collection action previously taken under this chapter. The granting of an application after the twenty day period operates as a stay on any future collection action, pending entry of the final administrative order. Moneys withheld as a result of collection action in effect at the time of the granting of the application after the twenty day period shall be delivered to the department and shall be held in trust by the department pending entry of the final administrative order. The department may petition the presiding or reviewing officer to set temporary current and future support to be paid beginning with the month in which the application after the twenty day period is granted. The presiding or reviewing officer shall order payment of temporary current and future support if appropriate in an amount determined pursuant to the child support schedule adopted under RCW 26.19.040. In the event the responsible parent does not make payment of the temporary current and future support as ordered by the presiding or reviewing officer, the department may take collection action pursuant to chapter 74.20A RCW during the pendency of the adjudicative proceeding or thereafter to collect any amounts owing under the order. Temporary current and future support paid, or collected, during the pendency of the adjudicative proceeding shall be disbursed to the custodial parent or as otherwise~~ appropriate when received by the department. ~~If the final administrative order is that the department has collected from the responsible parent other than temporary current or future support, an amount greater than such parent's past support debt, the department shall promptly refund any such excess amount to such parent.~~

~~(3) Hearings may be held in the county of residence or other place convenient to the responsible parent.)~~ (3) The notice and finding of financial responsibility shall set forth the amount the department has determined the responsible parent owes, the support debt accrued and/or accruing, and periodic payments to be made in the future ~~((for such period of time as the child or children of the responsible parent are in need, all computable on the basis of the need alleged)).~~ The notice and finding shall also include:

(a) A statement of the name of the recipient or custodian and the name of the child or children for whom ~~((need))~~ support is ~~((alleged))~~ sought; ~~((and/or))~~

(b) A statement of the amount of periodic future support payments as to which financial responsibility is alleged~~((:));~~

~~((4) The notice and finding shall include)~~ (c) A statement that the responsible parent may object to all or any part of the notice and finding, and file an application for an adjudicative proceeding to show cause why said responsible parent should not be determined to be liable for any or all of the debt, past and future~~((:));~~

~~((The notice and finding shall include))~~

(d) A statement that, if the responsible parent fails in timely fashion to file an application for an adjudicative proceeding, the support debt and payments stated in the notice and finding, including periodic support payments in the future, shall be assessed and determined and ordered by the department and that this debt and amounts due under the notice shall be subject to collection action;

(e) A statement that the property of the debtor, without further advance notice or hearing, will be subject to lien and foreclosure, distraint, seizure and sale, ~~((or))~~ order to withhold and deliver, notice of payroll deduction or other collection action to satisfy the debt and enforce the support obligation established under the notice.

(4) A responsible parent who objects to the notice and finding of financial responsibility may file an application for an adjudicative proceeding within twenty days of the date of service of the notice or thereafter as provided under this subsection. An adjudicative proceeding shall be held in the county of residence or other place convenient to the responsible parent.

(a) If the responsible parent files the application within twenty days, the department shall schedule an adjudicative proceeding to hear the parent's objection and determine the parents' support obligation for the entire period covered by the notice and finding of financial responsibility. The filing of the application stays collection action pending the entry of a final administrative order;

(b) If the responsible parent fails to file an application within twenty days, the notice and finding shall become a final administrative order. The amounts for current and future support and the support debt stated in the notice are final and subject to collection, except as provided under (c) and (d) of this subsection;

(c) If the responsible parent files the application more than twenty days after, but within one year of the date of service, the department shall schedule an adjudicative proceeding to hear the parents' objection and determine the parent's support obligation for the entire period covered by the notice and finding of financial responsibility. The filing of the application does not stay further collection action, pending the entry of a final administrative order, and does not affect any prior collection action;

(d) If the responsible parent files the application more than one year after the date of service, the department shall schedule an adjudicative proceeding at which the responsible parent must show good cause for failure to file a timely application. The filing of the application does not stay future collection action and does not affect prior collection action:

(i) If the presiding officer finds that good cause exists, the presiding officer shall proceed to hear the parent's objection to the notice and determine the parent's support obligation;

(ii) If the presiding officer finds that good cause does not exist, the presiding officer shall treat the application as a petition for prospective modification of the amount for current and future support established under the notice and finding. In the modification proceeding, the presiding officer shall set current and future support under chapter 26.19 RCW. The responsible parent need show neither good cause nor a substantial change of circumstances to justify modification of current and future support;

(e) The department shall retain and/or shall not refund support money collected more than twenty days after the date of service of the notice. Money withheld as the result of collection action shall be delivered to the department. The department shall distribute such money, as provided in published rules.

(5) If an application for an adjudicative proceeding is filed, the presiding or reviewing officer shall determine the past liability and responsibility, if any, of the alleged responsible parent and shall also determine the amount of periodic payments to be made in the future, which amount is not limited by the amount of any public assistance payment made to or for the benefit of the child. If deviating from the child support schedule (~~adopted under RCW 26.19.040~~) in making these determinations, the presiding or reviewing officer shall (~~comply with the provisions set forth in chapter 26.19 RCW~~) apply the standards contained in the child support schedule and enter written findings of fact supporting the deviation.

(6) If the responsible parent fails to attend or participate in the hearing or other stage of an adjudicative proceeding, upon a showing of valid service, the presiding officer shall enter an (~~initial decision and~~) administrative order declaring the support debt and payment provisions stated in the notice and finding of financial responsibility to be assessed and determined and subject to collection action.

~~((6)) (7) The final administrative order establishing liability and/or future periodic support payments shall be superseded upon entry of a superior court order for support to the extent the superior court order is inconsistent with the administrative order. (PROVIDED, That in the absence of a superior court order, either the responsible parent or the department may petition the secretary or his designee for issuance of an order to appear and show cause based on a showing of good cause and material change of circumstances, to require the other party to appear and show cause why the order previously entered should not be prospectively modified. Said order to appear and show cause together with a copy of the petition and affidavit upon which the order is based shall be served in the manner of a summons in a civil action or by certified mail, return receipt requested, on the other party by the petitioning party. Prospective modification may be ordered, but only upon a showing of good cause and material change of circumstances.~~

~~(7) The presiding or reviewing officer shall order support payments under the child support schedule adopted under RCW 26.19.040).~~

(8) Debts determined pursuant to this section, accrued and not paid, are subject to collection action under this chapter without further necessity of action by a presiding or reviewing officer.

~~((9) "Need" as used in this section shall mean the necessary costs of food, clothing, shelter, and medical attendance for the support of a dependent child or children. The amount determined by reference to the child support schedule adopted under RCW 26.19.040, shall be a rebuttable presumption of the alleged responsible parent's ability to pay and the need of the family: PROVIDED, That such responsible parent shall be presumed to have no ability to pay child support under this chapter~~ from any income received from aid to families with dependent children, supplemental security income, or continuing general assistance.))

NEW SECTION. Sec. 47. A new section is added to chapter 74.20A RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department, the physical custodian, or the responsible parent may petition for a prospective modification of a final administrative order if:

(a) The administrative order has not been superseded by a superior court order; and

(b) There has been a substantial change of circumstances, except as provided under RCW 74.20A.055(4)(d).

(2) An order of child support may be modified one year or more after it has been entered without showing a substantial change of circumstances:

(a) If the order in practice works a severe economic hardship on either party or the child; or

(b) If a party requests an adjustment in an order for child support that was based on guidelines which determined the amount of support according to the child's age, and the child is no longer in the age category on which the current support amount was based; or

(c) If a child is a full-time student and reasonably expected to complete secondary school or the equivalent level of vocational or technical training before the child becomes nineteen years of age upon a finding that there is a need to extend support beyond the eighteenth birthday.

(3) An order may be modified without showing a substantial change of circumstances if the requested modification is to:

(a) Require health insurance coverage for a child covered by the order; or

(b) Modify an existing order for health insurance coverage.

(4) Support orders may be adjusted once every twenty-four months based upon changes in the income of the parents without a showing of substantially changed circumstances.

(5)(a) All administrative orders entered on, before, or after September 1, 1991, may be modified based upon changes in the child support schedule established in chapter 26.19 RCW without a substantial change of circumstances. The petition may be filed based on changes in the child support schedule after twelve months has expired from the entry of the administrative order or the most recent modification order setting child support, whichever is later. However, if a party is granted relief under this provision, twenty-four months must pass before another petition for modification may be filed pursuant to subsection (4) of this section.

(b) If, pursuant to subsection (4) of this section or (a) of this subsection, the order modifies a child support obligation by more than thirty percent and the change would cause significant hardship, the change may be implemented in two equal increments, one at the time of the entry of the order and the second six months from the entry of the order. Twenty-four months must pass following the second change before a petition for modification under subsection (4) of this section may be filed.

(6) An increase in the wage or salary of the parent or custodian who is receiving the support transfer payments as defined in section 24 of this act is not a substantial change in circumstances for purposes of modification under subsection (1)(b) of this section. An obligor's voluntary unemployment or voluntary underemployment, by itself, is not a substantial change of circumstances.

(7) The department shall file the petition and a supporting affidavit with the secretary or the secretary's designee when the department petitions for modification.

(8) The responsible parent or the physical custodian shall follow the procedures in this chapter for filing an application for an adjudicative proceeding to petition for modification.

(9) Upon the filing of a proper petition or application, the secretary or the secretary's designee shall issue an order directing each party to appear and show cause why the order should not be modified.

(10) If the presiding or reviewing officer finds a modification is appropriate, the officer shall modify the order and set current and future support under chapter 26.19 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 48. A new section is added to chapter 74.20A RCW to read as follows:

When providing support enforcement services, the office of support enforcement may take action, under this chapter and chapter 26.23 RCW, against a responsible parent's earnings, located in, or subject to the jurisdiction of, the state of Washington regardless of the presence or residence of the responsible parent. If the responsible parent resides in another state or country, the office of support enforcement shall serve a notice under RCW 74.20A.040 more than sixty days before taking collection action.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 49. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) RCW 26.12.090 and 1983 c 219 s 2 & 1949 c 50 s 9;
- (2) RCW 26.12.100 and 1983 c 219 s 3 & 1949 c 50 s 10;
- (3) RCW 26.12.110 and 1949 c 50 s 11;
- (4) RCW 26.12.120 and 1983 c 219 s 4 & 1949 c 50 s 12;
- (5) RCW 26.12.130 and 1949 c 50 s 13;
- (6) RCW 26.12.140 and 1980 c 124 s 2, 1971 ex.s. c 151 s 1, & 1949 c 50 s 14;
- (7) RCW 26.12.150 and 1949 c 50 s 15;
- (8) RCW 26.12.180 and 1983 c 219 s 6 & 1949 c 50 s 18;
- (9) RCW 26.12.200 and 1983 c 219 s 8 & 1949 c 50 s 20; and
- (10) RCW 26.12.210 and 1983 c 219 s 9 & 1949 c 50 s 21.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 50. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) RCW 26.19.010 and 1988 c 275 s 2;
- (2) RCW 26.19.040 and 1990 1st ex.s. c 2 s 20, 1988 c 275 s 5, & 1987 c 440 s 2;
- (3) RCW 26.19.060 and 1988 c 275 s 7;
- (4) RCW 26.19.070 and 1990 1st ex.s. c 2 s 6;
- (5) RCW 26.19.080 and 1990 1st ex.s. c 2 s 7; and
- (6) RCW 26.19.110 and 1990 1st ex.s. c 2 s 12.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 51. Sections 16 through 18 of this act are each added to chapter 26.12 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 52. If by June 30, 1991, the omnibus operating budget appropriations act for the 1991-93 biennium does not provide specific funding for section 19 of this act, referencing this act by bill number, section 19 of this act is null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 53. If specific funding for the purposes of section 35 of this act, referencing section 35 of this act by bill and section number, is not provided by June 30, 1991, in the omnibus appropriations act, section 35 of this act shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 54. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 55. This act shall take effect September 1, 1991.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 56. Sections 24, 26 through 33, and 35 of this act are each added to chapter 26.19 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 57. Captions as used in this act do not constitute any part of the law.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "support;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 26.09.010, 26.09.015, 26.09.100, 26.09.160, 26.09.170, 26.09.175, 26.09.184, 26.09.225, 26.09.280, 26.12.010, 26.12.060, 26.12.170, 26.12.190, 26.12.220, 26.18.100, 26.18.110, 26.18.140, 26.19.001, 26.19.020, 26.19.090, 26.21.230, 26.23.035, 26.23.050, 26.23.060, 26.23.070, 26.23.100, 74.20.220, 74.20.310, and 74.20A.055; reenacting and amending RCW 26.09.260; adding new sections to chapter 26.12 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 26.19 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 26.23 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 74.20A RCW; creating new sections; repealing RCW 26.12.090, 26.12.100, 26.12.110, 26.12.120, 26.12.130, 26.12.140, 26.12.150, 26.12.180, 26.12.200, 26.12.210, 26.19.010, 26.19.040, 26.19.060, 26.19.070, 26.19.080, and 26.19.110; prescribing penalties; and providing an effective date.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

Senator Nelson moves that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5120.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Nelson that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5120.

The motion by Senator Nelson carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5120.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5120, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5120, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 36; Nays, 10; Absent, 0; Excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Erwin, Gaspard, Hansen, Hayner, Jesernig, Johnson, Madsen, Matson, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Nelson, Newhouse, Oke, Owen, Patterson, Rasmussen, Roach, Saling, Skratek, L. Smith, Snyder, Stratton, Sutherland, Thorsness, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West - 36.

Voting nay: Senators M. Kreidler, McMullen, Moore, Murray, Niemi, Pelz, Rinehart, A. Smith, Talmadge, Williams - 10.

Excused: Senators Conner, Sellar, Wojahn - 3.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5120, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Adam Smith, Senator Niemi was excused.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 19, 1991

Mr. President:

The House has passed SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5591 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"PART I PACKAGING"

Sec. 101. RCW 70.93.020 and 1979 c 94 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

The purpose of this chapter is to accomplish litter control and stimulate private recycling programs throughout this state by delegating to the department of ecology the authority to:

(1) Conduct a permanent and continuous program to control and remove litter from this state to the maximum practical extent possible;

(2) Recover and recycle waste materials related to litter and littering;

(3) Foster private recycling and markets for recyclable materials; and

(4) Increase public awareness of the need for recycling and litter control. It is further the intent and purpose of this chapter to create jobs for employment of youth in litter cleanup and related activities and to stimulate and encourage small, private recycling centers. This program shall include the compatible goal of recovery of recyclable materials to conserve energy and natural resources wherever practicable. Every other department of state government and all local governmental units and agencies of this state shall cooperate with the department of ecology in the administration and enforcement of this chapter. The intent of this chapter is to add to and to coordinate existing recycling and litter control and removal efforts and not terminate or supplant such efforts.

Sec. 102. RCW 70.93.030 and 1979 c 94 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter unless the context indicates otherwise:

(1) "Department" means the department of ecology;

(2) "Director" means the director of the department of ecology;

(3) "Disposable package or container" means all packages or containers defined as such by rules and regulations adopted by the department of ecology;

(4) "Litter" means all waste material including but not limited to disposable packages or containers thrown or deposited as herein prohibited but not including the wastes of the primary processes of mining, logging, sawmilling, farming, or manufacturing;

(5) "Litter bag" means a bag, sack, or other container made of any material which is large enough to serve as a receptacle for litter inside the vehicle or watercraft of any person. It is not necessarily limited to the state approved litter bag but must be similar in size and capacity;

(6) "Litter receptacle" means those containers adopted by the department of ecology and which may be standardized as to size, shape, capacity, and color and which shall bear the state anti-litter symbol, as well as any other receptacles suitable for the depositing of litter;

(7) "Person" means any political subdivision, government agency, municipality, industry, public or private corporation, copartnership, association, firm, individual, or other entity whatsoever;

(8) "Recycling" means ~~((the process of separating, cleansing, treating, and reconstituting used or discarded litter related materials for the purpose of recovering and reusing the resources contained therein))~~ transforming or remanufacturing waste materials into a finished product for use other than landfill disposal or incineration;

(9) "Recycling center" means a central collection point for recyclable materials;

(10) "Vehicle" includes every device capable of being moved upon a public highway and in, upon, or by which any persons or property is or may be transported or drawn upon a public highway, excepting devices moved by human or animal power or used exclusively upon stationary rails or tracks;

(11) "Watercraft" means any boat, ship, vessel, barge, or other floating craft;

(12) "Public place" means any area that is used or held out for use by the public whether owned or operated by public or private interests.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 103. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Container," unless otherwise specified, refers to "rigid plastic container" or "plastic bottle" as those terms are defined in this section.

(2) "Distributors" means those persons engaged in the distribution of packaged goods for sale in the state of Washington, including manufacturers, wholesalers, and retailers.

(3) "Label" means a molded, imprinted, or raised symbol on or near the bottom of a plastic container or bottle.

(4) "Person" means an individual, sole proprietor, partnership, association, or other legal entity.

(5) "Plastic" means a material made of polymeric organic compounds and additives that can be shaped by flow.

(6) "Plastic bottle" means a plastic container intended for single use that has a neck that is smaller than the body of the container, accepts a screw-type, snap cap, or other closure and has a capacity of sixteen fluid ounces or more, but less than five gallons.

(7) "Rigid plastic container" means a formed or molded container, other than a bottle, intended for single use, composed predominantly of plastic resin, and having a relatively inflexible finite shape or form with a capacity of eight ounces or more but less than five gallons.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 104. (1) The provisions of this section and any rules adopted under this section shall be interpreted to conform with nation-wide plastics industry standards.

(2) Except as provided in section 105(2) of this act, after January 1, 1992, no person may distribute, sell, or offer for sale in this state a plastic bottle or rigid plastic container unless the container is labeled with a code identifying the appropriate resin type used to produce the structure of the container. The code shall consist of a number placed within three triangulated arrows and letters placed below the triangle of arrows. The triangulated arrows shall be equilateral, formed by three arrows with the apex of each point of the triangle at the midpoint of each arrow, rounded with a short radius. The pointer (arrowhead) of each arrow shall be at the midpoint of each side of the triangle with a short gap separating the pointer from the base of the adjacent arrow. The triangle, formed by the three arrows curved at their midpoints shall depict a clockwise path around the code number. The numbers and letters used shall be as follows:

(a) 1. = PETE (polyethylene terephthalate)

(b) 2. = HDPE (high density polyethylene)

(c) 3. = V (vinyl)

- (d) 4. = LDPE (low density polyethylene)
- (e) 5. = PP (polypropylene)
- (f) 6. = PS (polystyrene)
- (g) 7. = OTHER

NEW SECTION. Sec. 105. (1) A person who, after written notice from the department, violates section 104 of this act is subject to a civil penalty of fifty dollars for each violation up to a maximum of five hundred dollars and may be enjoined from continuing violations. Each distribution constitutes a separate offense.

(2) Retailers and distributors shall have two years from the effective date of this section to clear current inventory, delivered or received and held in their possession as of the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 106. The legislature finds and declares that:

(1) The management of solid waste can pose a wide range of hazards to public health and safety and to the environment;

(2) Packaging comprises a significant percentage of the overall solid waste stream;

(3) The presence of heavy metals in packaging is a part of the total concern in light of their likely presence in emissions or ash when packaging is incinerated, or in leachate when packaging is landfilled;

(4) Lead, mercury, cadmium, and hexavalent chromium, on the basis of available scientific and medical evidence, are of particular concern;

(5) The intent of this chapter is to achieve a reduction in toxicity without impeding or discouraging the expanded use of postconsumer materials in the production of packaging and its components.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 107. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Package" means a container providing a means of marketing, protecting, or handling a product and shall include a unit package, an intermediate package, and a shipping container. "Package" also means and includes unsealed receptacles such as carrying cases, crates, cups, pails, rigid foil and other trays, wrappers and wrapping films, bags, and tubs.

(2) "Manufacturer" means a person, firm, or corporation that applies a package to a product for distribution or sale.

(3) "Packaging component" means an individual assembled part of a package such as, but not limited to, any interior or exterior blocking, bracing, cushioning, weatherproofing, exterior strapping, coatings, closures, inks, and labels.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 108. The sum of the concentration levels of lead, cadmium, mercury, and hexavalent chromium present in any product, package, or packaging component shall not exceed the following:

(1) Six hundred parts per million by weight effective July 1, 1993;

(2) Two hundred fifty parts per million by weight effective July 1, 1994; and

(3) One hundred parts per million by weight effective July 1, 1995 after the effective date of this section.

This section shall apply only to lead, cadmium, mercury, and hexavalent chromium that has been intentionally introduced as an element during manufacturing or distribution.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 109. All packages and packaging components shall be subject to this chapter except the following:

(1) Those packages or package components with a code indicating date of manufacture that were manufactured prior to the effective date of this section;

(2) Those packages or packaging components that have been purchased by, delivered to, or are possessed by a retailer on or before twenty-four months following the effective date of this section to permit opportunity to clear existing inventory of the proscribed packaging material;

(3) Those packages or packaging components to which lead, cadmium, mercury, or hexavalent chromium have been added in the manufacturing, forming, printing, or distribution process in order to comply with health or safety requirements of federal law or for which there is no feasible alternative; or

(4) Those packages and packaging components that would not exceed the maximum contaminant levels set forth in section 108(1) of this act but for the addition of postconsumer materials; and provided that the exemption for this subsection shall expire six years after the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 110. By July 1, 1993, a certificate of compliance stating that a package or packaging component is in compliance with the requirements of this chapter shall be developed by its manufacturer. If compliance is achieved under the exemption or exemptions provided in section 109 (3) or (4) of this act, the certificate shall state the specific basis upon which the exemption is claimed. The certificate of compliance shall be signed by an authorized official of the manufacturing company. The certificate of compliance shall be kept on file by the manufacturer for as long as the package or packaging component is in use, and for three years from the date of the last sale or distribution by the manufacturer. Certificates of compliance, or copies thereof, shall be furnished to the department of ecology upon request within sixty days. If manufacturers are required under any other state statute to provide a certificate of compliance, one certificate may be developed containing all required information.

If the manufacturer or supplier of the package or packaging component reformulates or creates a new package or packaging component, the manufacturer shall develop an amended or new certificate of compliance for the reformulated or new package or packaging component.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 111. Requests from a member of the public for any certificate of compliance shall be:

- (1) Made in writing to the department of ecology;
- (2) Made specific as to package or packaging component information requested;

and

- (3) Responded to by the department of ecology within ninety days.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 112. The department of ecology may prohibit the sale of any package for which a manufacturer has failed to respond to a request by the department for a certificate of compliance within the allotted period of time pursuant to section 110 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 113. By July 1, 1993, the solid waste advisory committee created under chapter 70.95 RCW shall report to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature on the need to further reduce toxic metals from packaging. The report shall contain recommendations to add other toxic substances contained in packaging to the list set forth in this chapter, including but not limited to mutagens, carcinogens, and teratogens, in order to further reduce the toxicity of packaging waste, and shall contain a recommendation regarding imposition of penalty for violation of section 108 of this act.

Sec. 114. RCW 70.95C.120 and 1989 c 431 s 54 are each amended to read as follows:

The office of waste reduction shall develop, in consultation with the superintendent of public instruction, an awards program to achieve waste reduction and recycling in the public schools, grades kindergarten through high school. The office shall develop guidelines for program development and implementation. Each public school shall implement a waste reduction and recycling program conforming to guidelines developed by the office.

For the purpose of granting awards, the office may group schools into not more than three classes, based upon student population, distance to markets for recyclable materials, and other criteria, as deemed appropriate by the office. Except as otherwise provided, five or more awards shall be granted to each of the three classes. Each award shall be a sum of not less than two thousand dollars nor more than five thousand dollars. Awards shall be granted each year to the schools that achieve the greatest levels of waste reduction and recycling. ((Each)) A single award ((shall be of a sum)) of not less than ((ten)) five thousand dollars shall be presented to the school having the best recycling program as measured by the total amount of materials recycled, including materials generated outside of the school. A single award of not less than five thousand dollars shall be presented to the school having the best waste reduction program as determined by the office. ((The office shall also develop recommendations for an awards program for waste reduction in the public schools. The office shall submit these recommendations to the appropriate standing committees in the house of representatives and senate on or before November 30, 1989.))

The superintendent of public instruction shall distribute guidelines and other materials developed by the office to implement programs to reduce and recycle waste generated in administrative offices, classrooms, laboratories, cafeterias, and maintenance operations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 115. There is established the task force on recycling funding. The task force shall consist of fourteen members as follows: (1) Two members of the house committee on environmental affairs appointed by the chair of that committee with one member from each of the two caucuses; (2) two members of the senate committee on environment and natural resources appointed by the chair of that committee with one member from each of the two caucuses; (3) seven members representing manufacturers, wholesalers, retailers, cities, counties, solid waste collection companies, and an environmental organization appointed jointly by the chairs of the house committee on environmental affairs and the senate committee on environment and natural resources; and (4) three members representing the departments of ecology, trade and economic development, and revenue appointed by their respective directors. The agency representatives shall be nonvoting except for the election of the chair, which shall be made by a simple majority vote of all members.

The task force shall study long-term funding mechanisms and develop specific funding recommendations for the clean Washington center. The task force shall report its findings and recommended legislation to fund the clean Washington center to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature no later than December 1, 1991. The task force shall also study and make recommendations on long-term funding for integrated systems to reduce, collect, recycle, and dispose of materials.

This section shall expire January 1, 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 116. Sections 103 through 105 of this act and sections 106 through 113 shall each constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW.

"PART II CLEAN WASHINGTON CENTER"

NEW SECTION. Sec. 201. (1) The legislature finds that:

(a) Recycling conserves energy and landfill space, provides jobs and valuable feedstock materials to industry, and promotes health and environmental protection;

(b) Seventy-eight percent of the citizens of the state actively participate in recycling programs and Washington currently has the highest recycling rate in the nation;

(c) The current supply of many recycled commodities far exceeds the demand for such commodities;

(d) Many local governments and private entities cumulatively affect, and are affected by, the market for recycled commodities but have limited jurisdiction and cannot adequately address the problems of market development that are complex, wide-ranging, and regional in nature; and

(e) The private sector has the greatest capacity for creating and expanding markets for recycled commodities, and the development of private markets for recycled commodities is in the public interest.

(2) It is therefore the policy of the state to create a single entity to be known as the clean Washington center to develop new, and expand existing, markets for recycled commodities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 202. There is created the clean Washington center within the department of trade and economic development. As used in this chapter, "center" means the clean Washington center.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 203. The purpose of the center is to provide or facilitate business assistance, basic and applied research and development, marketing, public education, and policy analysis in furthering the development of markets for recycled products. As used in this chapter, market development consists of public and private activities that are used to overcome impediments preventing full use of secondary materials diverted from the waste stream, and that encourage and expand use of those materials and subsequent products. In fulfilling this mission the center shall primarily direct its services to businesses that transform or remanufacture waste materials into usable or marketable materials or products for use other than landfill disposal or incineration.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 204. (1) The center's activities shall be conducted with the assistance of a policy board. Except as otherwise provided, policy board members shall be appointed by the directors of the department of trade and economic development and department of ecology as follows:

(a) Two representatives of the legislature, one appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives and one appointed by the president of the senate;

(b) One member to represent cities;

(c) One member to represent counties;

(d) Five private sector members to represent the end users and marketers of postconsumer recovered materials, including one member to represent recycling businesses;

(e) The directors of the departments of trade and economic development and ecology shall represent the executive branch as nonvoting members; and

(f) Nonvoting, temporary appointments to the board can be made by the chair where specific expertise is needed.

(2) The initial appointments of the five private sector members will be two members with three-year terms and three members with two-year terms. Thereafter, members shall serve two-year renewable terms. Vacancies shall be filled by the chair with majority consent from the members.

(3) Members of the board, exclusive of those representing the legislative or executive branches, shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(4) The board shall meet at least quarterly.

(5) The chair shall be elected from among the members by a simple majority vote.

(6) The board may adopt and exercise bylaws for the regulation of its business for the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 205. The center shall:

(1) Provide targeted business assistance to recycling businesses, including:

(a) Development of business plans;

(b) Market research and planning information;

(c) Access to financing programs;

(d) Referral and information on market conditions; and

(e) Information on new technology and product development;

(2) Negotiate voluntary agreements with manufacturers to increase the use of recycled materials in product development;

(3) Support and provide research and development to stimulate and commercialize new and existing technologies and products using recycled materials;

(4) Undertake an integrated, comprehensive education effort directed to recycling businesses to promote processing, manufacturing, and purchase of recycled products, including:

(a) Provide information to recycling businesses on the availability and benefits of using recycled materials;

(b) Provide information and referral services on recycled material markets;

(c) Provide information on new research and technologies that may be used by local businesses and governments; and

(d) Participate in projects to demonstrate new market uses or applications for recycled products;

(5) Assist the departments of ecology and general administration in the development of consistent definitions and standards on recycled content, product performance, and availability;

(6) Undertake studies on the unmet capital needs of reprocessing and manufacturing firms using recycled materials;

(7) Undertake and participating in marketing promotions for the purposes of achieving expanded market penetration for recycled content products;

(8) Coordinate with the department of ecology to ensure that the education programs of both are mutually reinforcing, with the center acting as the lead entity with respect to recycling businesses, and the department as the lead entity with respect to the general public and retailers;

(9) Develop an annual work plan. The plan shall describe actions and recommendations for developing markets for commodities comprising a significant percentage of the waste stream and having potential for use as an industrial or commercial feedstock. The initial plan shall address, but not be limited to, mixed waste paper, waste tires, yard and food waste, and plastics; and

(10) Represent the state in regional and national market development issues.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 206. In order to carry out its responsibilities under this chapter, the center may:

(1) Receive such gifts, grants, funds, fees, and endowments, in trust or otherwise, for the use and benefit of the purposes of the center. The center may expend the same or any income therefrom according to the terms of the gifts, grants, or endowments;

(2) Initiate, conduct, or contract for studies and searches relating to market development for recyclable materials, including but not limited to applied research, technology transfer, and pilot demonstration projects;

(3) Obtain and disseminate information relating to market development for recyclable materials from other state and local agencies;

(4) Enter into, amend, and terminate contracts with individuals, corporations, trade associations, and research institutions for the purposes of this chapter;

(5) Provide grants to local governments or other public institutions to further the development of recycling markets;

(6) Provide business and marketing assistance to public and private sector entities within the state; and

(7) Evaluate, analyze, and make recommendations on state policies that may affect markets for recyclable materials.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 207. The center shall solicit financial contributions and support from manufacturing industries and other private sector sources, foundations, and grants from governmental sources to assist in conducting its activities. It may also use separately appropriated funds of the department of trade and economic development for the center's activities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 208. The center may appoint advisory committees to assist in the development or implementation of the work plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 209. The center shall terminate on June 30, 1997.

Sec. 210. RCW 43.31.545 and 1989 c 431 s 64 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((1))~~ The department is the lead state agency to assist in establishing and improving markets for recyclable materials generated in the state. ~~((This priority on creating and expanding a recyclables market should be fully integrated into the current targeted sector marketing programs of the department. In carrying out these marketing responsibilities, the department shall work closely with the office of waste reduction in the department of ecology.~~

~~(2) The department of trade and economic development, with the assistance of the department of ecology and the committee for recycling markets created by RCW 43.31.552, shall develop programs to accomplish the following:~~

~~(a) Develop new markets inside and outside this state for recycled materials;~~
~~(b) Attract new businesses to this state whose purpose is to use recycled materials;~~

~~(c) Educate businesses and consumers about the high quality of Washington recycled materials;~~

~~(d) Promote business and consumer use of products made from recycled materials;~~

~~(e) Provide technical market assistance to businesses and local governments;~~

~~(f) Cooperate with and secure the cooperation of any department, agency, commission, or instrumentality in state or local government affected by or concerned with market development; and~~

~~(g) Create and maintain a list of recyclers, collectors, and other persons or entities interested in the development of markets for recycling and solicit the opinions of those persons with respect to market development.)~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 211. Section headings as used in this chapter do not constitute any part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 212. A new section is added to chapter 70.93 RCW to read as follows:

There is created an account within the state treasury to be known as the clean Washington account. Moneys deposited in the clean Washington account shall be subject to appropriation and shall be used for the administration and implementation of the clean Washington center established under section 204 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 213. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) RCW 43.31.552 and 1989 c 431 s 100;

(2) RCW 43.31.554 and 1989 c 431 s 101; and

(3) RCW 43.31.556 and 1990 c 127 s 1 & 1989 c 431 s 102.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 214. Sections 201 through 208 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW.

"PART III USED OIL RECYCLING"

NEW SECTION. Sec. 301. INTENT. (1) The legislature finds that:

(a) Millions of gallons of used oil are generated each year in this state, and used oil is a valuable petroleum resource that can be recycled;

(b) The improper collection, transportation, recycling, use, or disposal of used oil contributes to the pollution of air, water, and land, and endangers public health and welfare;

(c) The private sector is a vital resource in the collection and recycling of used oil and should be involved in its collection and recycling whenever practicable.

(2) In light of the harmful consequences of improper disposal and use of used oil, and its value as a resource, the legislature declares that the collection, recycling, and reuse of used oil is in the public interest.

(3) The department, when appropriate, should promote the rerefining of used oil in its grants, public education, regulatory, and other programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 302. DEFINITIONS. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Rerefining used oil" means the reclaiming of base lube stock from used oil for use again in the production of lube stock. Rerefining used oil does not mean combustion or landfilling.

(2) "Used oil" means (a) lubricating fluids that have been removed from an engine crankcase, transmission, gearbox, hydraulic device, or differential of an automobile, bus, truck, vessel, plane, heavy equipment, or machinery powered by an internal combustion engine; (b) any oil that has been refined from crude oil, used, and as a result of use, has been contaminated with physical or chemical impurities; and (c) any oil that has been refined from crude oil and, as a consequence of extended storage, spillage, or contamination, is no longer useful to the original purchaser. "Used oil" does not include used oil to which hazardous wastes have been added.

(3) "Public used oil collection site" means a site where a used oil collection tank has been placed for the purpose of collecting household generated used oil. "Public used oil collection site" also means a vehicle designed or operated to collect used oil from the public.

(4) "Lubricating oil" means any oil designed for use in, or maintenance of, a vehicle, including, but not limited to, motor oil, gear oil, and hydraulic oil. "Lubricating oil" does not mean petroleum hydrocarbons with a flash point below one hundred degrees Centigrade.

(5) "Vehicle" includes every device physically capable of being moved upon a public or private highway, road, street, watercourse, or trail, and in, upon, or by which any person or property is or may be transported or drawn upon a public or private highway, road, street, watercourse, or trail, except devices moved by human or animal power.

(6) "Department" means the department of ecology.

(7) "Local government" means a city or county developing a local hazardous waste plan under RCW 70.105.220.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 303. PUBLIC USED OIL COLLECTION. (1) Each local government and its local hazardous waste plan under RCW 70.105.220 is required to include a used oil recycling element. This element shall include:

(a) A plan to reach the local goals for household used oil recycling established by the local government and the department under section 304 of this act. The plan shall, to the maximum extent possible, incorporate voluntary agreements with the private sector and state agencies to provide sites for the collection of used oil. Where provided, the plan shall also incorporate residential collection of used oil;

(b) A plan for enforcing the sign and container ordinances required by section 305 of this act;

(c) A plan for public education on used oil recycling; and

(d) An estimate of funding needed to implement the requirements of this chapter. This estimate shall include a budget reserve for disposal of contaminated oil detected at any public used oil collection site administered by the local government.

(2) By July 1, 1993, each local government or combination of contiguous local governments shall submit its used oil recycling element to the department. The department shall approve or disapprove the used oil recycling element by January 1, 1994, or within ninety days of submission, whichever is later. The department shall approve or disapprove the used oil recycling element if it determines that the element is consistent with this chapter and the guidelines developed by the department under section 304 of this act.

(3) Each local government, or combination of contiguous local governments, shall submit an annual statement to the department describing the number of used oil collection sites and the quantity of household used oil recycled for the jurisdiction during the previous calendar year. The first statement shall be due April 1, 1994. Subsequent statements shall be due April 1st of each year.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to require a city or county to construct or operate a public used oil collection site.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 304. RECYCLING GOALS. (1) By July 1, 1992, the department shall, in consultation with local governments, prepare guidelines for the used oil recycling elements required by section 303 of this act. The guidelines shall:

(a) Require development of local collection and rerefining goals for household used oil for each entity preparing a used oil recycling element under section 303 of this act;

(b) Require local government to recommend the number of used oil collection sites needed to meet the local goals. The department shall establish criteria regarding minimum levels of used oil collection sites;

(c) Require local government to identify locations suitable as public used oil collection sites as described under section 303(1)(a) of this act.

(2) The department may waive all or part of the specific requirements of section 303 of this act if a local government demonstrates to the satisfaction of the department that the objectives of this chapter have been met.

(3) The department may prepare and implement a used oil recycling plan for any local government failing to complete the used oil recycling element of the plan.

(4) The department shall develop state-wide collection and rerefining goals for household used oil for each calendar year beginning with calendar year 1994. Goals shall be based on the estimated state-wide collection and rerefining rate for calendar year 1993, and shall increase each year until calendar year 1996, when the rate shall be eighty percent.

(5) By July 1, 1993, the department shall prepare guidelines establishing state-wide equipment and operating standards for public used oil collection sites. Standards shall:

(a) Allow the use of used oil collection igloos and other types of portable used oil collection tanks;

(b) Prohibit the disposal of nonhousehold-generated used oil;

(c) Limit the amount of used oil deposited to five gallons per household per day;

(d) Ensure adequate protection against leaks and spills; and

(e) Include other requirements deemed appropriate by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 305. SIGNS AND CONTAINERS. (1) A person annually selling one thousand or more gallons of lubricating oil to ultimate consumers for use or installation off the premises, or five hundred or more vehicle oil filters to ultimate consumers for use or installation off the premises within a city or county having an approved used oil recycling element, shall:

(a) Post and maintain at or near the point of sale, durable and legible signs informing the public of the importance of used oil recycling and how and where used oil may be properly recycled; and

(b) Provide for sale at or near the display location of the lubricating oil or vehicle oil filters, household used oil recycling containers. The department shall design and print the signs required by this section, and shall make them available to local governments and retail outlets.

(2) A person, who, after notice, violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction is subject to a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars.

(3) The department is responsible for notifying retailers subject to this section.

(4) A city or county may adopt household used oil recycling container standards in order to ensure compatibility with local recycling programs.

(5) Each local government preparing a used oil recycling element of a local hazardous waste plan pursuant to section 303 of this act shall adopt ordinances within its jurisdiction to enforce subsections (1) and (4) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 306. STATE-WIDE EDUCATION. The department shall conduct a public education program to inform the public of the needs for and benefits of collecting and recycling used oil in order to conserve resources and protect the environment. As part of this program, the department shall:

(1) Establish and maintain a state-wide list of public used oil collection sites, and a list of all persons coordinating local government used oil programs;

(2) Establish a state-wide media campaign describing used oil recycling;

(3) Assist local governments in providing public education and awareness programs concerning used oil by providing technical assistance and education materials; and

(4) Encourage the establishment of voluntary used oil collection and recycling programs, including public-private partnerships, and provide technical assistance to persons organizing such programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 307. DISPOSAL OF USED OIL. (1) Effective January 1, 1992, the use of used oil for dust suppression or weed abatement is prohibited.

(2) Effective July 1, 1992, no person may sell or distribute absorbent-based kits, intended for home use, as a means for collecting, recycling, or disposing of used oil.

(3) Effective January 1, 1994, no person may knowingly dispose of used oil except by delivery to a person collecting used oil for recycling, treatment, or disposal, subject to the provisions of this chapter and chapter 70.105 RCW.

(4) Effective January 1, 1994, no owner or operator of a solid waste landfill may knowingly accept used oil for disposal in the landfill.

(5) A person who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 308. USED OIL TRANSPORTER AND PROCESSOR REQUIREMENTS. (1) By January 1, 1993, the department shall adopt rules requiring any transporter of used oil to comply with minimum notification, invoicing, recordkeeping, and reporting requirements. For the purpose of this section, a transporter means a person engaged in the off-site transportation of used oil in quantities greater than twenty-five gallons per day.

(2) By January 1, 1993, the department shall adopt minimum standards for used oil that is blended into fuels. Standards shall, at a minimum, establish testing and recordkeeping requirements. Unless otherwise exempted, a processor is any person involved in the marketing, blending, mixing, or processing of used oil to produce fuel to be burned for energy recovery.

(3) Any person who knowingly transports used oil without meeting the requirements of this section shall be subject to civil penalties under chapter 70.105 RCW.

(4) Rules developed under this section shall not require a manifest from individual residences served by a waste oil curbside collection program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 309. CAPTIONS NOT LAW. Section headings as used in this chapter do not constitute any part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 310. SHORT TITLE. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the used oil recycling act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 311. A new section is added to chapter 70.94 RCW to read as follows:

MARKET DEVELOPMENT--BURNING USED OIL FUEL IN LAND-BASED FACILITIES. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a person may not burn used oil as fuel in a land-based facility or in state waters unless the used oil meets the following standards:

- (a) Cadmium: 2 ppm maximum
- (b) Chromium: 10 ppm maximum
- (c) Lead: 100 ppm maximum
- (d) Arsenic: 5 ppm maximum
- (e) Total halogens: 1000 ppm maximum
- (f) Polychlorinated biphenyls: 2 ppm maximum
- (g) Ash: .1 percent maximum
- (h) Sulfur: 1.0 percent maximum
- (i) Flash point: 100 degrees Fahrenheit minimum.

(2) This section shall not apply to: (a) Used oil burned in space heaters if the space heater has a maximum heat output of not greater than 0.5 million btu's per hour or used oil burned in facilities permitted by the department or a local air pollution control authority; or (b) ocean-going vessels.

(3) This section shall not apply to persons in the business of collecting used oil from residences when under authorization by a city, county, or the utilities and transportation commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 312. A new section is added to chapter 70.105 RCW to read as follows:

Local governments and combinations of local governments shall amend their local hazardous waste plans required under RCW 70.105.220 to comply with section 303 of this act.

Sec. 313. RCW 70.95C.020 and 1990 c 114 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Department" means the department of ecology.

(2) "Director" means the director of the department of ecology or the director's designee.

(3) "Dangerous waste" shall have the same definition as set forth in RCW 70.105.010(5) and shall specifically include those wastes designated as dangerous by rules adopted pursuant to chapter 70.105 RCW.

(4) "EPA/state identification number" means the number assigned by the EPA (environmental protection agency) or by the department of ecology to each generator and/or transporter and treatment, storage, and/or disposal facility.

(5) "Extremely hazardous waste" shall have the same definition as set forth in RCW 70.105.010(6) and shall specifically include those wastes designated as extremely hazardous by rules adopted pursuant to chapter 70.105 RCW.

(6) "Fee" means the annual hazardous waste fees imposed under RCW 70.95E.020 and 70.95E.030.

(7) "Generate" means any act or process which produces hazardous waste or first causes a hazardous waste to become subject to regulation.

(8) "Hazardous substance" means any hazardous substance listed as a hazardous substance as of March 21, 1990, pursuant to section 313 of Title III of the Superfund Amendments and Reauthorization Act, any other substance determined by the director by rule to present a threat to human health or the environment, and all ozone depleting compounds as defined by the Montreal Protocol of October 1987.

(9) (a) "Hazardous substance use reduction" means the reduction, avoidance, or elimination of the use or production of hazardous substances without creating substantial new risks to human health or the environment.

(b) "Hazardous substance use reduction" includes proportionate changes in the usage of hazardous substances as the usage of a hazardous substance or hazardous substances changes as a result of production changes or other business changes.

(10) "Hazardous substance user" means any facility required to report under section 313 of Title III of the Superfund Amendments and Reauthorization Act, except for those facilities which only distribute or use fertilizers or pesticides intended for commercial agricultural applications.

(11) "Hazardous waste" means and includes all dangerous and extremely hazardous wastes, but does not include radioactive wastes or a substance composed of both radioactive and hazardous components and does not include any hazardous waste generated as a result of a remedial action under state or federal law.

(12) "Hazardous waste generator" means any person generating hazardous waste regulated by the department.

(13) "Office" means the office of waste reduction.

(14) "Plan" means the plan provided for in RCW 70.95C.200.

(15) "Person" means an individual, trust, firm, joint stock company, partnership, association, state, public or private or municipal corporation, commission, political subdivision of a state, interstate body, the federal government, including any agency or officer thereof, and any Indian tribe or authorized tribal organization.

(16) "Process" means all industrial, commercial, production, and other processes that result in the generation of waste.

(17) "Recycled for beneficial use" means the use of hazardous waste, either before or after reclamation, as a substitute for a commercial product or raw material, but does not include: (a) Use constituting disposal; (b) incineration; or (c) use as a fuel.

(18) "Recycling" means reusing waste materials and extracting valuable materials from a waste stream. Recycling does not include burning for energy recovery.

(19) "Treatment" means the physical, chemical, or biological processing of waste to render it completely innocuous, produce a recyclable by-product, reduce toxicity, or substantially reduce the volume of material requiring disposal as described in the priorities established in RCW 70.105.150. Treatment does not include incineration.

(20) "Used oil" means (a) lubricating fluids that have been removed from an engine crankcase, transmission, gearbox, hydraulic device, or differential of an automobile, bus, truck, vessel, plane, heavy equipment, or machinery powered by an internal combustion engine; (b) any oil that has been refined from crude oil, used, and as a result of use, has been contaminated with physical or chemical impurities; and (c) any oil that has been refined from crude oil and, as a consequence of extended storage, spillage, or contamination, is no longer useful to the original purchaser. "Used oil" does not include used oil to which hazardous wastes have been added.

(21) "Waste" means any solid waste as defined under RCW 70.95.030, any hazardous waste, any air contaminant as defined under RCW 70.94.030, and any organic or inorganic matter that shall cause or tend to cause water pollution as defined under RCW 90.48.020.

~~((21))~~ (22) "Waste generator" means any individual, business, government agency, or any other organization that generates waste.

~~((22))~~ (23) "Waste reduction" means all in-plant practices that reduce, avoid, or eliminate the generation of wastes or the toxicity of wastes, prior to generation, without creating substantial new risks to human health or the environment. As used in RCW 70.95C.200 through 70.95C.240, "waste reduction" refers to hazardous waste only.

Sec. 314. RCW 70.95C.200 and 1990 c 114 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each hazardous waste generator who generates more than two thousand six hundred forty pounds of hazardous waste per year and each hazardous substance user, except for those facilities that are primarily permitted treatment, storage, and disposal facilities or recycling facilities, shall prepare a plan for the voluntary reduction of the use of hazardous substances and the generation of hazardous wastes. Hazardous waste generated and recycled for beneficial use, including initial amount of hazardous substances introduced into a process and subsequently recycled for beneficial use, shall not be used in the calculation of hazardous waste generated for purposes of this section. The department may develop reporting requirements, consistent with existing reporting, to establish recycling for beneficial use under this section. Used oil to be rerefined or burned for energy or heat recovery shall not be used in the calculation of hazardous wastes generated for purposes of this section, and is not required to be addressed by plans prepared under this section. A person with multiple interrelated facilities where the processes in the facilities are substantially similar, may prepare a single plan covering one or more of those facilities.

(2) Each user or generator required to write a plan is encouraged to advise its employees of the planning process and solicit comments or suggestions from its employees on hazardous substance use and waste reduction options.

(3) The department shall adopt by April 1, 1991, rules for preparation of plans. The rules shall require the plan to address the following options, according to the following order of priorities: Hazardous substance use reduction, waste reduction, recycling, and treatment. In the planning process, first consideration shall be given to hazardous substance use reduction and waste reduction options. Consideration shall be given next to recycling options. Recycling options may be considered only after hazardous substance use reduction options and waste reduction options have been thoroughly researched and shown to be inappropriate. Treatment options may be considered only after hazardous substance use reduction, waste reduction, and recycling options have been thoroughly researched and shown to be inappropriate. Documentation of the research shall be available to the department upon request. The rules shall also require the plans to discuss the hazardous substance use reduction, waste reduction, and closed loop recycling options separately from other recycling and treatment options. All plans shall be written in conformance with the format prescribed in the rules adopted under this section. The rules shall require the plans to include, but not be limited to:

(a) A written policy articulating management and corporate support for the plan and a commitment to implementing planned activities and achieving established goals;

(b) The plan scope and objectives;

(c) Analysis of current hazardous substance use and hazardous waste generation, and a description of current hazardous substance use reduction, waste reduction, recycling, and treatment activities;

(d) An identification of further hazardous substance use reduction, waste reduction, recycling, and treatment opportunities, and an analysis of the amount of hazardous substance use reduction and waste reduction that would be achieved, and the costs. The analysis of options shall demonstrate that the priorities provided for in this section have been followed;

(e) A selection of options to be implemented in accordance with the priorities established in this section;

(f) An analysis of impediments to implementing the options. Impediments that shall be considered acceptable include, but are not limited to: Adverse impacts on product quality, legal or contractual obligations, economic practicality, and technical feasibility;

(g) A written policy stating that in implementing the selected options, whenever technically and economically practicable, risks will not be shifted from one part of a process, environmental media, or product to another;

(h) Specific performance goals in each of the following categories, expressed in numeric terms:

- (i) Hazardous substances to be reduced or eliminated from use;
- (ii) Wastes to be reduced or eliminated through waste reduction techniques;
- (iii) Materials or wastes to be recycled; and
- (iv) Wastes to be treated;

If the establishment of numeric performance goals is not practicable, the performance goals shall include a clearly stated list of objectives designed to lead to the establishment of numeric goals as soon as is practicable. Goals shall be set for a five-year period from the first reporting date;

(i) A description of how the wastes that are not recycled or treated and the residues from recycling and treatment processes are managed may be included in the plan;

(j) Hazardous substance use and hazardous waste accounting systems that identify hazardous substance use and waste management costs and factor in liability, compliance, and oversight costs;

(k) A financial description of the plan;

(l) Personnel training and employee involvement programs;

(m) A five-year plan implementation schedule;

(n) Documentation of hazardous substance use reduction and waste reduction efforts completed before or in progress at the time of the first reporting date; and

(o) An executive summary of the plan, which shall include, but not be limited to:

(i) The information required by (c), (e), (h), and (n) of this subsection; and

(ii) A summary of the information required by (d) and (f) of this subsection.

(4) Upon completion of a plan, the owner, chief executive officer, or other person with the authority to commit management to the plan shall sign and submit an executive summary of the plan to the department.

(5) Plans shall be completed and executive summaries submitted in accordance with the following schedule:

(a) Hazardous waste generators who generated more than fifty thousand pounds of hazardous waste in calendar year 1991 and hazardous substance users who were required to report in 1991, by September 1, 1992;

(b) Hazardous waste generators who generated between seven thousand and fifty thousand pounds of hazardous waste in calendar year 1992 and hazardous substance users who were required to report for the first time in 1992, by September 1, 1993;

(c) Hazardous waste generators who generated between two thousand six hundred forty and seven thousand pounds of hazardous waste in 1993 and hazardous substance users who were required to report for the first time in 1993, by September 1, 1994;

(d) Hazardous waste generators who have not been required to complete a plan on or prior to September 1, 1994, must complete a plan by September 1 of the year following the first year that they generate more than two thousand six hundred forty pounds of hazardous waste; and

(e) Hazardous substance users who have not been required to complete a plan on or prior to September 1, 1994, must complete a plan by September 1 of the year following the first year that they are required to report under section 313 of Title III of the Superfund Amendments and Reauthorization Act.

(6) Annual progress reports, including a description of the progress made toward achieving the specific performance goals established in the plan, shall be prepared and submitted to the department in accordance with rules developed under this section. Upon the request of two or more users or generators belonging to similar industrial classifications, the department may aggregate data contained in their annual progress reports for the purpose of developing a public record.

(7) Every five years, each plan shall be updated, and a new executive summary shall be submitted to the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 315. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) RCW 19.114.010 and 1983 c 137 s 1;
- (2) RCW 19.114.020 and 1983 c 137 s 2;
- (3) RCW 19.114.030 and 1983 c 137 s 3; and
- (4) RCW 19.114.900 and 1983 c 137 s 5.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 316. RCW 19.114.040 is recodified as a section in chapter 70.-- RCW (sections 301 through 310 of this act).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 317. Sections 301 through 310 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW.

"PART IV MISCELLANEOUS"

Sec. 401. RCW 70.95.040 and 1987 c 115 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is created a solid waste advisory committee to provide consultation to the department of ecology concerning matters covered by this chapter. The committee shall advise on the development of programs and regulations for solid and dangerous waste handling, resource recovery, and recycling, and shall supply recommendations concerning methods by which existing solid and dangerous waste handling, resource recovery, and recycling practices and the laws authorizing them may be supplemented and improved.

(2) The committee shall consist of at least eleven members, including the assistant director for ~~((the division of solid))~~ waste management programs within the department. The director shall appoint ~~((ten))~~ members with due regard to the interests of the public, local government, tribes, agriculture, industry, public health, ~~((and the refuse removal))~~ recycling industries, solid waste collection industries, and resource recovery industries. ~~((The director shall include among his ten appointees representatives of activities from which dangerous wastes arise and the Washington state patrol's hazardous materials technical advisory committee.))~~ The term of appointment shall be determined by the director. The committee shall elect its own ~~((chairman))~~ chair and meet at least four times a year, in accordance with such rules of procedure as it shall establish. Members shall receive no compensation for their services but shall be reimbursed their travel expenses while engaged in business of the committee in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended.

(3) The committee shall each year recommend to the governor a recipient for a "governor's award of excellence" which the governor shall award for outstanding achievement by an industry, company, or individual in the area of hazardous waste or solid waste management.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 402. A new section is added to chapter 70.95 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Each local solid waste advisory committee shall conduct one or more meetings for the purpose of determining how local private recycling and solid waste collection businesses may participate in the development and implementation of programs to collect source separated materials from residences, and to process and market materials collected for recycling. The meetings shall include local private recycling businesses, private solid waste collection companies operating within the jurisdiction, and the local solid waste planning agencies. The meetings shall be held during the development of the waste reduction and recycling element or no later than one year prior to the date that a jurisdiction is required submit the element under RCW 70.95.110(2).

(2) The meeting requirement under subsection (1) of this section shall apply whenever a city or county develops or amends the waste reduction and recycling element required under this chapter. Jurisdictions having approved waste reduction and recycling elements or having initiated a process for the selection of a service provider as of the effective date of this act do not have to comply with the requirements of subsection (1) of this section until the next revisions to the waste reduction and recycling element are made or required.

(3) After the waste reduction and recycling element is approved by the local legislative authority but before it is submitted to the department for approval, the local solid waste advisory committee shall hold at least one additional meeting to review the element.

(4) For the purpose of this section, "private recycling business" means any private for-profit or private not-for-profit business that engages in the processing and marketing of recyclable materials.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 403. A new section is added to chapter 81.77 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A solid waste collection company collecting recyclable materials from residences shall utilize one or more private recycling businesses when arranging for the processing and marketing of such materials, if the following conditions are met:

(a) A recycling business is located within the county at the time the collection program commences or at any time that the solid waste collection company changes its existing processor;

(b) A local private recycling business is capable and competent to provide the processing and marketing service; and

(c) A local private recycling business offers to pay a price for the recyclable materials which is equal to or greater than the price offered by out-of-county private recyclers, or proposes a charge for the processing and marketing service which is equal to or less than the charge for the service available from an out-of-county private recycler.

(2) This section shall not apply to:

(a) Cities or towns who exercise their authority under RCW 81.77.130 to provide residential curbside collection of recyclable materials;

(b) A solid waste collection company that is directed by a city, town, or county to utilize a publicly owned recyclable processing facility located within such city, town, or county; or

(c) Counties which exercise their authority under RCW 36.58.040 to contract for the residential curbside collection of source separated recyclables.

This section shall not apply to programs for the collection of source separated recyclable materials where rates to implement the programs have been filed with the commission prior to the effective date of this act.

(3) For the purposes of this section, "private recycling business" means any private for-profit or private not-for-profit firm that engages in the processing and marketing of recyclable materials.

(4) This section is not enforceable by complaint filed with the commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 404. A new section is added to chapter 35.21 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Each city or town providing by ordinance or resolution a reduced solid waste collection rate to residents participating in a residential curbside recycling program implemented under RCW 70.95.090, may provide a similar reduced rate to residents participating in any other recycling program, if such program is approved by the jurisdiction. Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to reduce the authority of a city to adopt ordinances under RCW 35.21.130(1).

(2) For the purposes of this section, "reduced rate" means a residential solid waste collection rate incorporating a rebate, refund, or discount. Reduced rate shall not include residential solid waste collection rate based on the volume or weight of solid waste set out for collection.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 405. A new section is added to chapter 35A.21 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Each city or town providing by ordinance or resolution a reduced solid waste collection rate to residents participating in a residential curbside recycling program implemented under RCW 70.95.090, may provide a similar reduced rate to residents participating in any other recycling program, if such program is approved by the jurisdiction. Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to reduce the authority of a city to adopt ordinances under RCW 35.21.130(1).

(2) For the purposes of this section, "reduced rate" means a residential solid waste collection rate incorporating a rebate, refund, or discount. Reduced rate shall not include residential solid waste collection rate based on the volume or weight of solid waste set out for collection.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 406. A new section is added to chapter 81.77 RCW to read as follows:

(1) If the commission authorizes a surcharge or reduced rate incentive based on a customer's participation in a company's curbside residential recycling program, customers participating in any other noncurbside recycling program approved by the jurisdiction shall be eligible for such incentives.

(2) For the purpose of this section, "reduced rate" means a residential solid waste collection rate incorporating a rebate, refund, or discount. It does not include any residential solid waste collection rate based on the volume or weight of solid waste set out for collection.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 407. A new section is added to chapter 70.95 RCW to read as follows:

(1) No person may divert to personal use any recyclable material placed in a container as part of a recycling program, without the consent of the generator of such recyclable material or the solid waste collection company operating under the authority of a town, city, county, or the utilities and transportation commission, and no person may divert to commercial use any recyclable material placed in a container as part of a recycling program, without the consent of the person owning or operating such container.

(2) A violation of subsection (1) of this section is a class 1 civil infraction under chapter 7.80 RCW. Each violation of this section shall be a separate infraction.

Sec. 408. RCW 46.61.560 and 1984 c 7 s 72 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Outside of incorporated cities and towns no person may stop, park, or leave standing any vehicle, whether attended or unattended, upon the roadway.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section and RCW 46.61.570 and 46.61.575 do not apply to the driver of any vehicle that is disabled in such manner and to such extent that it is impossible to avoid stopping and temporarily leaving the vehicle in such position. The driver shall nonetheless arrange for the prompt removal of the vehicle as required by RCW 46.61.590.

(3) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply to the driver of a public transit vehicle who temporarily stops the vehicle upon the roadway for the purpose of and while actually engaged in receiving or discharging passengers at a marked transit vehicle stop zone approved by the state department of transportation or a county upon highways under their respective jurisdictions.

(4) Subsection (1) of this section and RCW 46.61.570 and 46.61.575 do not apply to the driver of a solid waste collection company or recycling company vehicle who temporarily stops the vehicle as close as practical to the right edge of the right-hand shoulder of the roadway or right edge of the roadway if no shoulder exists for the purpose of and while actually engaged in the collection of solid waste or recyclables, or both, under chapters 81.77, 35.21, and 35A.21 RCW or by contract under RCW 36.58.030.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 409. Part headings as used in this act do not constitute any part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 410. If specific funding for the purposes of this act, referencing this act by bill number, is not provided by June 30, 1991, in the omnibus appropriations act, 201 through 212 of this act shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 411. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 412. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "recycling;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 70.93.020, 70.93.030, 70.95C.120, 43.31.545, 70.95C.020, 70.95C.200, 70.95.040, and 46.61.560; adding a new section to chapter 70.93 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 70.94 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 70.105 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 70.95 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 81.77 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 35.21 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 35A.21 RCW; adding new chapters to Title 70 RCW; creating new sections; recodifying RCW 19.114.040; repealing RCW 43.31.552, 43.31.554, 43.31.556, 19.114.010, 19.114.020, 19.114.030, and 19.114.900; prescribing penalties; and declaring an emergency.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 19, 1991

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5555 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. FINDINGS AND INTENT. The legislature finds that:

(1) The economic health and well-being of timber-dependent communities is of substantial public concern. The significant reduction in annual timber harvest levels likely will result in reduced economic activity and persistent unemployment and underemployment over time, which would be a serious threat to the safety, health, and welfare of residents of the timber-dependent communities, decreasing the value of private investments and jeopardizing the sources of public revenue.

(2) The state is experiencing a dual economy, where growth is occurring rapidly in some areas and is occurring slowly or not at all in other areas. This uneven growth rate across the state is causing some areas to suffer negative impacts from too much growth while other areas experience difficulty in creating adequate economic development. Inadequate economic development is a serious threat to the public safety, health, and welfare of a community. The state has an interest in encouraging growth state-wide, which reduces the negative impacts of growth in rapidly growing areas and assists areas of the state in need of economic development.

(3) Timber-dependent communities are most often located in areas that are experiencing little or no economic growth, creating an even greater risk to the health, safety, and welfare of these communities. The ability to remedy problems caused by the substantial reduction in harvest activity is beyond the power and control of the regulatory process and influence of the state, and the ordinary operations of private enterprise without additional governmental assistance are insufficient to adequately remedy the resulting problems of poverty and unemployment.

(4) The revitalization and diversification of the economies of timber-dependent communities require the stimulation of private investment, the development of new business ventures, the provision of capital to ventures sponsored by local organizations and capable of growth in the business markets, and assistance to viable, but under-financed, small businesses in order to create and preserve jobs that are sustainable in the local economy. Therefore, the legislature declares there to be a substantial public purpose in providing capital to promote economic development and job creation in distressed areas in general and timber-dependent communities in particular. To accomplish this purpose, it is the intent of the legislature to:

(a) Increase the public financing of infrastructure necessary for economic development and make such financing more flexible;

(b) Increase and target the amount of public financing available to businesses to better create or preserve jobs through formation or expansion of viable enterprises;

(c) Provide technical and financial assistance to businesses to increase the export of products from timber-dependent communities;

(d) Increase the resources available to associated development organizations to provide economic and community development services in timber-dependent communities and to provide resource and referral services to the community regarding state and local economic and community development services;

(e) Increase training and retraining services accessible to timber-dependent communities; and

(f) Provide for coordination of noneconomic development services in timber-dependent communities as economic development efforts will not succeed unless social, housing, health, and other needs are addressed.

Sec. 2. RCW 43.160.010 and 1989 c 431 s 61 are each amended to read as follows:

INFRASTRUCTURE FINANCING--CERB--INTENT. (1) The legislature finds that it is the public policy of the state of Washington to direct financial resources toward the fostering of economic development through the stimulation of investment and job opportunities and the retention of sustainable existing employment for the general welfare of the inhabitants of the state. Reducing unemployment and reducing the time citizens remain jobless is important for the economic welfare of the state. A valuable means of fostering economic development is the construction of public facilities which contribute to the stability and growth of the state's economic base. Strengthening the economic base through issuance of industrial development bonds, whether single or umbrella, further serves to reduce unemployment. Consolidating issues of industrial development bonds when feasible to reduce costs additionally advances the state's purpose to improve economic vitality. Expenditures made for these purposes as authorized in this chapter are declared to be in the public interest, and constitute a proper use of public funds. A community economic revitalization board is needed which shall aid the development of economic opportunities. The general objectives of the board should include:

(a) Strengthening the economies of areas of the state which have experienced or are expected to experience chronically high unemployment rates or below average growth in their economies;

(b) Encouraging the diversification of the economies of the state and regions within the state in order to provide greater seasonal and cyclical stability of income and employment;

(c) Encouraging wider access to financial resources for both large and small industrial development projects;

(d) Encouraging new economic development or expansions to maximize employment;

(e) Encouraging the retention of viable existing firms and employment; and

(f) Providing incentives for expansion of employment opportunities for groups of state residents that have been less successful relative to other groups in efforts to gain permanent employment.

(2) The legislature also finds that the state's economic development efforts can be enhanced by, in certain instances, providing funds to improve state highways in the vicinity of new industries considering locating in this state or existing industries that are considering significant expansion.

(a) The legislature finds it desirable to provide a process whereby the need for diverse public works improvements necessitated by planned economic development can be addressed in a timely fashion and with coordination among all responsible governmental entities.

(b) It is the intent of the legislature to create an economic development account within the motor vehicle fund from which expenditures can be made by the department of transportation for state highway improvements necessitated by planned economic development. All such improvements must first be approved by the state transportation commission and the community economic revitalization board in accordance with the procedures established by RCW 43.160.074 and 47.01.280. It is further the intent of the legislature that such improvements not jeopardize any other planned highway construction projects. The improvements are intended to be of limited size and cost, and to include such items as additional turn lanes, signalization, illumination, and safety improvements.

(3) The legislature also finds that the state's economic development efforts can be enhanced by providing funds to improve markets for those recyclable materials representing a large fraction of the waste stream. The legislature finds that public facilities which result in private construction of processing or remanufacturing facilities for recyclable materials are eligible for consideration from the board.

(4) The legislature finds that sharing economic growth state-wide is important to the welfare of the state. Distressed areas and timber-dependent communities do not share in the economic vitality of the Puget Sound region. Infrastructure is one of several ingredients that are critical for economic development. Distressed areas and timber-dependent communities generally lack the infrastructure necessary to diversify and revitalize their economies. It is, therefore, the intent of the legislature to increase the availability of funds to help provide infrastructure to distressed areas and timber-dependent communities.

Sec. 3. RCW 43.160.020 and 1985 c 466 s 58 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Board" means the community economic revitalization board.

(2) "Bond" means any bond, note, debenture, interim certificate, or other evidence of financial indebtedness issued by the board pursuant to this chapter.

(3) "Department" means the department of trade and economic development or its successor with respect to the powers granted by this chapter.

(4) "Financial institution" means any bank, savings and loan association, credit union, development credit corporation, insurance company, investment company, trust company, savings institution, or other financial institution approved by the board and maintaining an office in the state.

(5) "Industrial development facilities" means "industrial development facilities" as defined in RCW 39.84.020.

(6) "Industrial development revenue bonds" means tax-exempt revenue bonds used to fund industrial development facilities.

(7) "Local government" means any port district, county, city, or town.

(8) "Sponsor" means any of the following entities which customarily provide service or otherwise aid in industrial or other financing and are approved as a sponsor by the board: A bank, trust company, savings bank, investment bank, national banking association, savings and loan association, building and loan association, credit union, insurance company, or any other financial institution, governmental agency, or holding company of any entity specified in this subsection.

(9) "Umbrella bonds" means industrial development revenue bonds from which the proceeds are loaned, transferred, or otherwise made available to two or more users under this chapter.

(10) "User" means one or more persons acting as lessee, purchaser, mortgagor, or borrower under a financing document and receiving or applying to receive revenues from bonds issued under this chapter.

(11) Until July 1, 1995, "timber-dependent community" means a county, city, or town located in a county meeting two of the following three criteria for the most recent year such data is available: (a) A lumber and wood products employment location quotient at or above the state average, (b) a direct lumber and wood products job loss of one hundred or more, or (c) an annual unemployment rate twenty percent or more above the state average.

(12) Until July 1, 1995, "small scale tourism project" means a project that where added to the current facilities in the area attracts additional visitors for overnight stays and will be used primarily by nonresidents of the immediate area. A small scale tourism project may be a new project or an expansion or refurbishment of an existing facility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 43.160 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The economic development account is created within the public facilities construction loan revolving fund under RCW 43.160.080. Moneys in the account may be spent only after appropriation. Expenditures from the account may be used only for the purposes of RCW 43.160.010(4) and this section. The account is subject to allotment procedures under chapter 43.88 RCW.

(2) Applications under this section for assistance from the economic development account are subject to all of the applicable criteria set forth under this chapter, as well as procedures and criteria established by the board, except as otherwise provided.

(3) Eligible applicants under this section are limited to political subdivisions of the state in timber-dependent communities that demonstrate, to the satisfaction of the board, the local economy's dependence on the forest products industry.

(4) Applicants must demonstrate that their request is part of an economic development plan consistent with applicable state planning requirements. Industrial projects must be approved by the local government and the associate development organization. Applicants must demonstrate that small scale tourism projects have been approved by the local government and are part of a regional tourism plan approved by the local and regional tourism organizations.

(5) Publicly owned projects may be financed under this section upon proof by the applicant that the public project is a necessary component of, or constitutes in whole, a small scale tourism project.

(6) Applications must demonstrate local match and participation. The amount of local match shall not be less than twenty percent of the total dollar amount sought in the application. Such match may include: Land donation, other public or private funds or both, or other means of local commitment to the project.

(7) Board financing for feasibility studies shall not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars per study. Board funds for feasibility studies may be provided as a grant and require a dollar for dollar match with up to one-half in-kind match allowed.

(8) Board financing for small scale tourism projects shall not exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars. Other public facility projects under this section shall not exceed five hundred thousand dollars. Loans with flexible terms and conditions to meet the needs of the applicants shall be provided. Grants may also be authorized, but only when, and to the extent that, a loan is not reasonably possible, given the limited resources of the political subdivision.

(9) The board shall develop guidelines for allowable local match and feasibility studies.

(10) Applications under this section need not demonstrate evidence that specific private development or expansion is ready to occur or will occur if funds are provided.

(11) The board shall establish guidelines for making grants and loans under this section. The guidelines shall include:

(a) A process to equitably compare and evaluate applications from competing communities;

(b) Criteria to ensure that approved projects will have a high probability of success and are likely to provide long-term economic benefits to the community. The criteria shall include: (i) A minimum amount of local participation, determined by the board per application, to verify community support for the project; (ii) an analysis that establishes the project is feasible using standard economic principles; and (iii) an explanation from the applicant regarding how the project is consistent with the communities' economic strategy and goals; and

(c) A method of evaluating the impact of the loans or grants on the economy of the community and whether the loans or grants achieved their purpose.

(12) This section shall expire July 1, 1995.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 43.160 RCW to read as follows:

(1) For the 1991-93 biennium, half of all funds appropriated to the department for purposes of this chapter shall be used for section 4 of this act.

(2) This section shall expire on July 1, 1993.

Sec. 6. RCW 43.160.080 and 1987 c 422 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

INFRASTRUCTURE--CERB--REVOLVING LOAN FUND REPAYMENTS. There shall be a fund known as the public facilities construction loan revolving fund, which shall consist of all moneys collected under this chapter, except moneys of the board collected in connection with the issuance of industrial development revenue bonds, and any moneys appropriated to it by law: PROVIDED, That seventy-five percent of all principal and interest payments on loans made with the proceeds deposited in the fund under section 901, chapter 57, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. shall be deposited in the general fund as reimbursement for debt service payments on the bonds authorized in RCW 43.83.184. The state treasurer shall be custodian of the revolving fund. Disbursements from the revolving fund shall be on authorization of the board. In order to maintain an effective expenditure and revenue control, the public facilities construction loan revolving fund shall be subject in all respects to chapter 43.88 RCW(~~(, but no appropriation is required to permit expenditures and payment of obligations from the fund)~~).

Moneys in this fund not needed to meet the current expenses and obligations of the board shall be invested in the manner authorized for moneys in revolving funds. Any interest earned shall be deposited in this fund and shall be used for the purposes specified in this chapter. The state treasurer shall render reports to the board advising of the status of any funds invested, the market value of the assets as of the date the statement is rendered, and the income received from the investments during the period covered by the report.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 43.31 RCW to read as follows:

INCREASING EXPORTS FROM TIMBER-DEPENDENT COMMUNITIES.

(1) Marketing is a vital element in expanding the economies of timber-dependent communities. The export of products produced in timber-dependent areas contributes substantial economic benefits to these communities, including an increase in jobs and an increase in tax revenues to the state and local governments.

(2)(a) Subject to funding for this subsection, the department shall contract with the small business export finance assistance center, created in chapter 43.210 RCW, to assist businesses in timber-dependent communities obtain financing for the export of their products. The department shall assist the small business export finance assistance center to ensure the services available under this subsection are understood and accessible in timber-dependent communities.

(b) Subject to funding for the necessary reserve funds, the Washington economic development finance authority, created in chapter 43.163 RCW, shall provide financing for export transactions where the product being exported is produced in timber-dependent communities.

(3) The department may make rules that are necessary to carry out this section and to coordinate the services described in this section and to prioritize the services based on greatest negative impact from the harvest reductions.

(4) For purposes of this section, the definition of "timber-dependent community" is the same as RCW 43.160.020.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 43.31 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The Washington wood products competitiveness commission is created. The commission shall have nine members as follows:

(a) One representative each from the departments of trade and economic development, community development, natural resources, and the employment security department appointed by the directors or the commissioners of the respective departments;

(b) One representative of the office of financial management, who shall chair the commission, appointed by the governor;

(c) One representative of the Washington hardwoods commission appointed by the hardwoods commission;

(d) One member representing primary wood products manufacturers appointed by the director of the department; and

(e) Two members representing secondary wood products manufacturers appointed by the director of the department.

(2) Since the best hope for quickly replacing some of the jobs being lost in primary manufacturing may be in value-added and secondary manufacturing, the legislature intends that the commission design a set of programs to stimulate the growth of value-added and secondary wood products manufacturing in Washington and increase the involvement of the wood products industry in value-added products and business networks.

(3) The legislature also intends that after two years, the commission become industry supported and industry operated.

(4) Members not representing state government shall serve a term of three years, with the initial members serving staggered terms of one year, two years, and three years as determined by the director of the department.

(5) Travel expenses may be reimbursed under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(6) Staff support for the commission shall be provided by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 43.31 RCW to read as follows:

The Washington wood products competitiveness commission shall:

(1) Gather, analyze, and disseminate information about the competitiveness of the wood products industry in this state and make that information available to the wood products industry, state government, and the general public.

(2) Encourage cooperation among wood products firms through the formation of business networks to develop solutions to technology and product development problems, acquire and disseminate marketing information, promote and market wood products of this state, and address other common industry problems.

(3) Assist the department in the department's efforts to increase the competitiveness of the industry and increase the production of value-added products by contracting for feasibility studies and product research and development. The contracts under this subsection shall:

(a) Be of general benefit to the industry, rather than intended to benefit a specific firm; and

(b) Be for such activities as identifying options, assessing markets, evaluating business and financial risks, addressing production issues, and assessing new technologies.

(4) Work with state agencies, wood products firms, wood products industry associations, and institutions of higher education in this state to assure close coordination of all efforts to improve the competitiveness of the wood products industry in this state.

(5) Report periodically to the governor, the legislature, the wood products industry, and the general public on the competitive position of the wood products industry in this state, and make such recommendations as the commission determines appropriate for public or private actions needed to improve the competitiveness of the wood products industry in this state. The commission shall recommend, by January 1, 1992, how to change this public commission into a commodity-style industry commission, and recommend a fair method of assessment for the industry to fund the commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 43.31 RCW to read as follows:

The Washington wood products competitiveness commission may:

(1) Engage, with private sector funds only, in informational and promotional activities to increase the awareness and recognition of the value of wood products in this state and of the contribution of wood products to the economy of this state.

(2) Contract for research activities to develop and apply new technologies for wood products manufacture related to the commission's and the department's efforts to make value-added wood products industries more competitive. Any public funds used for this subsection shall be matched at least dollar for dollar by private funds. In carrying out research for development and application of new manufacture technologies, the commission may promote activities including, but not limited to:

- (a) Improved utilization of wood wastes;
- (b) Improved utilization of lower grade and underutilized lumber;
- (c) Alternative uses for underutilized species of softwood and hardwood;
- (d) New and improved utilization of select and clear grade lumber to produce high quality and high value-added wood products in Washington;

(e) Identifying unique properties and characteristics of wood species of this state and determining products particularly suited to those properties and characteristics; or
 (f) Providing access to testing facilities and services for wood products firms in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 43.06 RCW to read as follows:

COORDINATION OF STATE AND LOCAL SERVICES. (1) The governor, or the governor's designee, shall coordinate state noneconomic development related assistance provided to timber-dependent communities to ensure state services are delivered effectively and efficiently and coordinated locally with minimal duplication and maximum local access.

(2) Associate development organizations located in timber-dependent communities shall assist the governor in coordinating the delivery of state economic development related services locally. The associate development organization, as the primary local coordinating organization for state and local economic development services, shall provide resource and referral services to ensure state and local economic development services are delivered effectively and efficiently with minimal duplication and maximum local access.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Subject to an appropriation in the 1991 omnibus appropriations act by June 30, 1991, for the purposes of this section, the department of trade and economic development shall contract with associate development organizations in timber-dependent communities to provide additional coordination and economic development services. For purposes of this subsection "timber-dependent community" means a distressed county, as defined in RCW 43.160.020, that meets at least one of the following two criteria for the most recent year such data is available: (1) A lumber and wood products employment location quotient at or above the state average or (2) a direct lumber and wood products job loss of one hundred or more. Associate development organizations shall provide representation on their board of directors of cities, counties, businesses, and community-based public service organizations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 28B.50 RCW to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 14 through 18 of this act.

(1) "Board" means the state board for community college education.

(2) "Dislocated timber worker" means any individual who: (a) Has been terminated or received a notice of termination from employment in a timber-related industry assigned the major group standard industrial classification code "24" by the employment security department; and (b) at the time of last separation from employment, resided in or was employed in a timber-dependent community. For the purposes of this subsection, "standard industrial classification code" means the code identified in RCW 50.29.025(6)(c).

(3) "Timber-dependent community" means a county or a city or town located in a county meeting two of the following three criteria for the most recent year such data is available: (a) A lumber and wood products employment location quotient at or above the state average; (b) a direct lumber and wood products job loss of one hundred or more; or (c) an annual unemployment rate twenty percent or more above the state average.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. A new section is added to chapter 28B.50 RCW to read as follows:

The state board for community college education shall administer a program designed to provide higher education opportunities to dislocated timber workers or their spouses. In administering the program, the board shall have the following powers and duties:

- (1) Appoint an advisory committee to assist the board in program design and funding distribution;
- (2) Allocate funding to community colleges attended by eligible dislocated timber workers;
- (3) Monitor the program and report on students' progress and outcome; and
- (4) Report to the legislature by December 1, 1993, on the status of the program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 28B.50 RCW to read as follows:

In addition to the community college enrollment level funded by the omnibus appropriations act for the biennium ending June 30, 1993, the community college system is authorized to serve two hundred fifty full-time equivalent students in fiscal year 1992 and five hundred full-time equivalent students in fiscal year 1993. Under this program, the community colleges shall waive the tuition, services, and activities fees for dislocated timber workers or their spouses, enrolled as one of the full-time equivalent students allocated under this section, who do not receive federal tuition assistance for retraining, provided the dislocated timber worker provides verification of the following conditions:

- (1) The dislocated timber worker, during the five years before enrolling as a student, was employed in the timber industry on a full-time basis for at least six months each year; and
- (2) The unemployment of the dislocated timber worker is due to reduction in work force and not misconduct of the timber worker.

The dislocated timber workers or their spouses are eligible to receive waivers for a total of six quarters within a two-year time period and must be enrolled for a minimum of ten credits per quarter.

Dislocated timber workers or their spouses shall receive priority for the full-time equivalent student allocations authorized under this section. Funding for any full-time equivalent student enrollment allocations that are unused by June 30, 1993, shall lapse.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 28B.80 RCW to read as follows:

The higher education coordinating board shall administer a program designed to provide upper division higher education opportunities to dislocated timber workers, their spouses, and others in timber-distressed counties. In administering the program, the board shall have the following powers and duties:

- (1) Distribute funding for an institution of higher education to service Clallam county;
- (2) Appoint an advisory committee to assist the board in program design and future project selection;
- (3) Monitor the program and report on student progress and outcome; and
- (4) Report to the legislature by December 1, 1993, on the status of the program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. A new section is added to chapter 28B.80 RCW to read as follows:

In consultation with Peninsula College, the higher education coordinating board shall contract with an institution of higher education to provide upper division classes to serve fifty full-time equivalent students per year in Clallam county. The institution shall utilize telecommunication technology, if available, to carry out the purposes of this section. The institution providing the service shall waive the tuition, service, and activities fees for dislocated timber workers or their spouses enrolled as one of the full-time equivalent students allocated to the college under this section, provided the dislocated timber worker provides verification of the following conditions:

(1) The dislocated timber worker, during the five years before enrolling as a student, was employed in the timber industry on a full-time basis for at least six months of each year; and

(2) The unemployment of the dislocated timber worker is due to reduction in work force and not misconduct of the timber worker.

The dislocated timber worker or his or her spouse is eligible to receive waivers for a total of four semesters or six quarters within a two-year time period and must be enrolled for a minimum of ten credits per semester or quarter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. A new section is added to chapter 28B.80 RCW to read as follows:

Dislocated timber workers and their spouses shall receive priority for attendance in upper division courses allocated under section 17 of this act, offered in Clallam county. Remaining allocations may be distributed to others in the timber-dependent community.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. (1) The legislature finds and declares that:

(a) Families with children have been rendered homeless or are in imminent danger of becoming homeless as a result of a sudden job loss or other economic adversity;

(b) It is more economical and more socially desirable to enable people to retain possession of their houses or apartments and thereby avoid homelessness, than to house them in emergency shelters or in other facilities intended for short-term occupancy; and

(c) Economically distressed communities are faced with unique problems that require a comprehensive approach of housing and related support services.

(2) The legislature declares that a program designed to provide short-term financial assistance to assist with mortgage or rent payments and coordination of available support services is needed to keep people from becoming homeless.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department shall develop and administer a homelessness prevention program for the purpose of providing grants and technical assistance to eligible organizations to operate local homelessness prevention and related support service programs. For purposes of this section, "eligible organizations" are those organizations eligible to receive assistance through the Washington housing trust fund, chapter 43.185 RCW.

(2) The department shall select at least five eligible organizations for purposes of implementing local homelessness prevention programs. The local homelessness prevention programs are designed to provide: (a) Interest-free loans of temporary mortgage or rental assistance on behalf of families with children in imminent danger of losing housing as a result of having insufficient income to pay mortgage or rental costs; (b) interest-free loans to make payments on machinery or equipment that is essential to the household's livelihood; or (c) technical assistance to eligible organizations to help recipient eligible organizations develop and implement local strategies to prevent homelessness. In selecting local programs under this section, the department shall give priority consideration to timber-dependent communities and shall consider:

(i) The eligible organization's ability, stability, and resources to implement the local homelessness prevention program;

(ii) The eligible organization's efforts to coordinate other support programs for the family, such as job search or job retraining programs;

(iii) The level of timber unemployment experienced by the jurisdiction; and

(iv) Other factors the department deems appropriate.

(3) The recipient eligible organization shall establish priorities of eligibility for temporary mortgage or rental assistance to assist families with children in retaining housing. The recipient eligible organization shall make a determination of eligibility regarding the family's eligibility to participate in the local homelessness prevention program. A determination shall include, but is not limited to:

(a) A determination that the family is subject to immediate eviction for foreclosure of nonpayment of mortgage installments or nonpayment of rent, when nonpayment is attributable to illness, unemployment, underemployment, or any other failure of resources beyond the person's control;

(b) A verification of the loss of income; and

(c) A determination that the family does not have the financial resources to make the required mortgage installment or rental payment, or installment payment on the equipment or machinery which is essential to the family's livelihood.

(4) No family shall continue to receive temporary mortgage or rental assistance under this section if alternative sources of mortgage or rental assistance under federal, state, or local sources becomes available.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

The department shall adopt rules to implement section 20 of this act, including but not limited to:

(1) The maximum length of assistance available through section 20 of this act;

(2) The eligibility of and application process for eligible organizations;

(3) The criteria by which grants and technical assistance shall be provided to eligible organizations; and

(4) The criteria eligible organizations shall use when entering into contracts with families to make mortgage or rental assistance payments, or equipment or machinery payments on their behalf.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. (1) For the period beginning July 1, 1991, and ending June 30, 1993, in those areas designated by the department of community development as timber impact areas, the public works board may award low-interest or interest-free loans to local governments for construction of new public works facilities that stimulate economic growth or diversification.

(2) For the purposes of this act, "public facilities" means bridge, road and street, domestic water, sanitary sewer, and storm sewer systems.

(3) The loans may have a deferred payment of up to five years but shall be repaid within twenty years. The board may require other terms and conditions and may charge such rates of interest on its loans as it deems appropriate to carry out the purposes of this section. Repayments shall be made to the public works assistance account.

(4) The board may make such loans irrespective of the annual loan cycle and reporting required in RCW 43.155.070.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. (1) As authorized by section 22 of this act, the board shall establish criteria for awarding loans to local governments including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) If a county or city, the local government must be imposing the tax authorized by chapter 82.46 RCW at a rate of at least one-quarter of one percent;

(b) The local government must have in place a capital improvement plan meeting standards established by the board and an economic development plan meeting standards established by the department;

(c) The local economy must have experienced or be about to experience employment losses due to the timber economy;

(d) The proposed project must provide an opportunity to create or retain jobs within the local economy. Priority may be given to those projects that provide an opportunity to retain or create jobs for the pool of local workers affected by the timber economy;

(e) The local government must provide reasonable assurances of its ability to repay the debt; and

(f) The local government must meet any additional guidelines and criteria established by the board for awarding loan funds.

(2) Existing debt or other financial obligations of the local government shall not be refinanced under this act.

(3) The board shall award loans only to those projects that meet the criteria and will fulfill the purpose of this act. Any funds not obligated at the close of the biennium shall be returned to the public works assistance account.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. The public works board shall provide to the office of financial management and the legislative fiscal committees quarterly reports on loan applications under consideration and loans awarded by the board and a report by January 15, 1994, on the loans awarded through the biennium ending June 30, 1993. The board shall provide to the legislative fiscal committees a report on January 15, 1995, and January 15, 1996, identifying by county the economic growth and/or economic diversification attributable to the loan awards authorized by this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. (1) The legislature finds that an increase in unemployment due to the declining timber economy in the state is imminent. The legislature further recognizes that employment opportunities in state and local government in other natural resource management professions exist and that dislocated workers in the timber-related professions represent a potential work force in the areas of fisheries, wildlife, and recreation.

(2) The legislature further recognizes that employment opportunities in other natural resource management professions exist and that natural resource enhancements in the areas of fisheries, wildlife, and recreation can bring needed income to distressed local economies in the state. It is the intent of the legislature that dislocated timber workers be given training in and opportunities to compete for employment in other resource management professions, and to establish a pilot program in Skagit county to accomplish this objective. The Skagit river represents a potential recreational fishery that, if enhanced, will bring much needed income to Skagit county. Enhancements to the fishery on the Skagit river are planned over the next several years, and workers will be needed to fill these positions. Displaced timber workers will be available to do this work.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Dislocated timber worker" means any individual who: (a) Has been terminated or received a notice of termination from employment in a timber-related industry assigned the major group standard industrial classification code "24" by the employment security department; and (b) at the time of last separation from employment, resided in or was employed in a timber-dependent community. For the purposes of this subsection, "standard industrial classification code" means the code identified in RCW 50.29.025(6)(c).

(2) "Department" means the employment security department.

(3) "Project" means the natural resource worker project.

(4) "College" means Skagit Valley Community College.

(5) "Local development agency" means the economic development association of Skagit county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. The department, subject to the availability of funding under section 28 of this act or an appropriation from the general fund, shall establish the natural resource worker project. The project shall terminate on July 1, 1996, and shall provide employment and training opportunities for dislocated timber workers in the areas of fisheries, wildlife, recreation, and other natural resource professions. The department of personnel shall approve the project. The goal of the project is to allow project employees to be, upon termination of their participation in the project, eligible for permanent employment with the departments of wildlife, fisheries, ecology, and natural resources, and the parks and recreation commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. The department shall use federal funds that it receives for dislocated timber workers to contract with the departments of wildlife, fisheries, ecology, and natural resources, and the parks and recreation commission to hire project participants to conduct tasks in the areas of fisheries, wildlife, forestry, ecology, and recreation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. The project shall include the following elements:

- (1) Recruitment of dislocated timber workers;
- (2) Placement in the departments of wildlife, fisheries, ecology, and natural resources, and the parks and recreation commission;
- (3) On-the-job training in entry-level natural resource management skills;
- (4) Comparable salaries and benefits to entry-level positions already existing in the departments of wildlife, fisheries, ecology, and natural resources, and the parks and recreation commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. The department, along with the departments of personnel, wildlife, fisheries, ecology, and natural resources, and the parks and recreation commission shall report annually to the legislature on November 1 of each year beginning November 1, 1992, and until November 1, 1995.

The report shall include, at a minimum, the following elements:

- (1) The number of project employees;
- (2) The number and description of positions filled, by agency;
- (3) Training received;
- (4) Duration of employment; and
- (5) Placement in permanent positions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. A pilot project shall be established, coordinated jointly by the department and the college, in Skagit county. The pilot project created in this section is subject to the department and the college acquiring funds for the pilot project from federal, state, or private sources. The project shall be of five years duration.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. The college shall develop a training program designed for dislocated timber workers and their spouses, and in doing so, shall:

(1) Consult with, at a minimum, the departments of natural resources, ecology, wildlife, and fisheries, the parks and recreation commission, and other state, federal, local, and private employers in Skagit county to determine minimum employment qualifications in the areas of natural resource management and enhancement of the Skagit river; and

(2) Develop a program that will provide needed educational skills to dislocated timber workers and their spouses.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. The department shall contract with the local development agency to coordinate with the college and the departments of wildlife, ecology, natural resources, and fisheries, the parks and recreation commission, and other state, federal, local, and private employers in assisting dislocated timber workers and their spouses in securing education and employment in the natural resource professions. The local development agency shall also provide information on the training program established under section 32 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. The department and the college shall jointly report to the legislature on their progress by November 1 of each year, beginning in 1991 and ending November 1, 1996. This report shall include a college program description, numbers of students, numbers of referrals for existing positions by the local development agency, and numbers of positions filled by dislocated timber workers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. Sections 25 through 34 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 50 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. (1) Sections 13 through 18 of this act shall expire July 1, 1995.

(2) Sections 22 and 23 of this act shall expire on June 30, 1993.

(3) Sections 25 through 30 of this act shall expire August 1, 1996.

(4) Sections 31 through 34 of this act shall expire January 1, 1997.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. If by June 30, 1991, the omnibus operating budget appropriations act for the 1991-93 biennium does not provide specific funding for any of sections 13 through 19 of this act, referencing those sections by bill number and section number, any section not referenced is null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 38. The legislature finds that the family support centers currently operating in Washington state are effectively providing support to families. The legislature further finds that these centers are positively responding to needs identified by the families and communities served by the center and are therefore empowering those families and communities. It is the intent of the legislature to give timber-dependent communities the means to support and empower their families, particularly those families experiencing stress related to job loss, through the establishment of family support centers in those communities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 39. A new section is added to chapter 43.121 RCW to read as follows:

The council shall contract for the operation of community-based family support centers. The council shall identify areas of need for such centers in timber-dependent communities and give priority to establishing centers in these locations. The council shall also give priority to applications from communities with high timber unemployment rates.

(1) Applicants for grants to operate a family support center shall be part of a community interagency team made up of private nonprofit or public agencies currently providing one or more of the services described in subsection (4) of this section. A lead agency shall be designated by the team as the grantee. Agencies participating in the team shall execute written interagency agreements regarding referrals and coordination of services.

(2) Family support centers shall be operated at a location in the community that is accessible to families.

(3) In awarding grants for the operation of family support centers and timber-dependent communities, preference shall be given to applications that are submitted by a county timber task force or that provide for locating the family support center at or near a job retraining center.

(4) Family support centers shall provide, at a minimum, parent support services. In addition, centers shall provide other services identified by the community to support families. Such services may include, but are not limited to, parenting education, child development assessments, health and nutrition education, counseling, and information and referral services. Such services may be provided directly by the center or through referral to other agencies participating in the interagency team. Child care services shall be available at the center for children while their parents are using the center.

(5) Twenty-five percent of the funding for a family support center shall be community matching funds provided by public or private entities in the community that will be served by the center. Contributions of materials, supplies, or physical facilities may be considered as all or part of the funding provided by the community.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 40. A new section is added to chapter 50.22 RCW to read as follows:

(1) An additional benefit period is established for counties identified under subsection (2) of this section beginning on the first Sunday after the effective date of this section and for the lumber and wood products industry beginning with the third week after the first Sunday after the effective date of this section. Benefits shall be paid as provided in subsection (3) of this section to exhaustees eligible under subsection (4) of this section.

(2) The additional benefit period applies to counties beginning with the third week after a week in which the commissioner determines that a county has: (a) A county annual unemployment rate that is twenty percent or more above the state annual unemployment rate for the prior calendar year; and (b) a lumber and wood products employment location quotient that is at least twice the state average during the prior twelve-month period. The additional benefit period for a county may end no sooner than fifty-two weeks after the additional benefit period begins.

(3) Additional benefits shall be paid as follows:

(a) No new claims for additional benefits shall be accepted for weeks beginning after July 3, 1993, but for claims established on or before July 3, 1993, weeks of unemployment occurring after July 3, 1993, shall be compensated as provided in this section.

(b) The total additional benefit amount shall be fifty-two times the individual's weekly benefit amount, reduced by the total amount of regular benefits and extended benefits paid, or deemed paid, with respect to the benefit year. Additional benefits shall not be payable for weeks more than one year beyond the end of the benefit year of the regular claim, and shall be payable for up to five weeks following the completion of the training required by this section.

(c) The weekly benefit amount shall be calculated as specified in RCW 50.22.040.

(d) Benefits paid under this section shall be paid under the same terms and conditions as regular benefits and shall not be charged to the experience rating account of individual employers. The additional benefit period shall be suspended with the start of an extended benefit period, or any totally federally funded benefit program, with eligibility criteria and benefits comparable to the program established by this section, and shall resume the first week following the end of the federal program.

(4) An additional benefit eligibility period is established for any exhaustee who:

(a) At the time of last separation from employment, resided in or was employed in a county identified under subsection (2) of this section, or, during his or her base year, earned wages in six hundred eighty hours of lumber and wood products employment; and

(b) Has received notice of a permanent termination of employment from the individual's employer or has been laid off and is unlikely to return to his or her previous employment because work opportunities at the individual's most recent workplace or in the individual's most recent occupation have been substantially reduced; and

(c)(i) Is notified by the department of the requirements of this section and develops an individual training program that is submitted to the commissioner for approval not later than sixty days after the individual is notified of the requirements of this section, and enters the approved training program not later than ninety days after the date of the individual's termination or layoff, or ninety days after the effective date of this section, whichever is later, unless the department determines that the training is not available during the ninety-day period, in which case the individual shall enter training as soon as it is available; or

(ii) Is enrolled in training approved under this section on a full-time basis and maintains satisfactory progress in the training; and

(d) Does not receive a training allowance or stipend under the provisions of any federal or state law.

(e) For the purposes of this section:

(i) "Training program" means:

(A) A remedial education program determined to be necessary after counseling at the educational institution in which the individual enrolls pursuant to his or her approved training program; or

(B) A vocational training program at an educational institution that:

(I) Is training for a labor demand occupation;

(II) Is likely to facilitate a substantial enhancement of the individual's marketable skills and earning power; and

(III) Does not include on-the-job training or other training under which the individual is paid by an employer for work performed by the individual during the time that the individual receives additional benefits under section 1 of this act.

(ii) "Educational institution" means an institution of higher education as defined in RCW 28B.10.016 or an educational institution as defined in RCW 28C.04.410(3).

(iii) "Training allowance or stipend" means discretionary use, cash-in-hand payments available to the individual to be used as the individual sees fit, but does not mean direct or indirect compensation for training costs, such as tuition or books and supplies.

(5) The commissioner shall adopt rules as necessary to implement this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 41. TITLE. This act may be referred to as "the omnibus timber community assistance act."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 42. SECTION HEADINGS ARE NOT LAW. Section headings as used in this act do not constitute any part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 43. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 44. If any part of this act is found to be in conflict with federal requirements that are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state or the eligibility of employers in this state for federal unemployment tax credits, the conflicting part of this act is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of the conflict, and such finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this act. The rules under this act shall meet federal requirements that are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state or the granting of federal unemployment tax credits to employers in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 45. Sections 1 through 12, 22, 23, 25 through 34, and 40 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately, except for sections 22, 23, 25 through 34, and 40 of this act which shall take effect July 1, 1991.

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "state;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 43.160.010, 43.160.020, and 43.160.080; adding new sections to chapter 43.160 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 43.31 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 43.06 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 28B.50 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 28B.80 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 43.63A RCW; adding a new section to chapter 43.121 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 50.22 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 50 RCW; creating new sections; providing an effective date; providing expiration dates; and declaring an emergency.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

On motion of Senator Snyder, Senators Murray and Owen were excused.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 19, 1991

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5332 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 79.01 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Every five years the department of social and health services and other state agencies that operate institutions shall conduct an inventory of all real property subject to the charitable, educational, penal, and reformatory institution account and other real property acquired for institutional purposes or for the benefit of the blind, deaf, mentally ill, developmentally disabled, or otherwise disabled. The inventory shall identify which of those real properties are not needed for state-provided residential care, custody, or treatment. By December 1, 1992, and every five years thereafter the department shall report the results of the inventory to the house of representatives committee on capital facilities and financing, the senate committee on ways and means, and the legislative budget committee.

(2) Real property identified as not needed for state-provided residential care, custody, or treatment shall be transferred to the corpus of the charitable, educational, penal, and reformatory institution account. This subsection shall not apply to real property subject to binding conditions that conflict with the other provisions of this subsection.

(3) The department of natural resources shall manage all property subject to the charitable, educational, penal, and reformatory institution account and, in consultation with the department of social and health services and other affected agencies, shall adopt a plan for the management of real property subject to the account and other real property acquired for institutional purposes or for the benefit of the blind, deaf, mentally ill, developmentally disabled, or otherwise disabled.

(a) The plan shall be consistent with state trust land policies and shall be compatible with the needs of institutions adjacent to real property subject to the plan.

(b) The plan may be modified as necessary to ensure the quality of future management and to address the acquisition of additional real property.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 43.20A RCW to read as follows:

The department shall conduct an inventory of real properties as provided in section 1 of this act.

Sec. 3. RCW 43.79.201 and 1985 c 57 s 37 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All moneys in the state treasury to the credit of that fund now denoted as the C.E.P. & R.I. fund on and after March 20, 1961, and all moneys thereafter paid into the state treasury for or to the credit of such fund shall be and are hereby transferred to and placed in the charitable, educational, penal and reformatory institutions account, hereby created, in the state treasury, into which fund there shall also be deposited all moneys arising from the sale, lease or transfer of the land granted by the United States government to the state for charitable, educational, penal and reformatory institutions by section 17 of the enabling act, or otherwise set apart for such institutions, except all moneys arising from the sale, lease, or transfer of that certain one hundred thousand acres of such land assigned for the support of the University of Washington by chapter 91, Laws of 1903 and section 9, chapter 122, Laws of 1893. All earnings of investments of balances in the charitable, educational, penal and reformatory institutions account shall be credited to the ~~((general fund))~~ account.

(2) If feasible, not less than one-half of all income to the charitable, educational, penal, and reformatory institutions account shall be appropriated for the purpose of providing housing, including repair and renovation of state institutions, for persons who are mentally ill, developmentally disabled, or youth who are blind, deaf, or otherwise disabled.

Sec. 4. RCW 43.185.110 and 1987 c 513 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall prepare an annual report and shall send copies to the chair of the house of representatives committee on housing, the chair of the senate committee on commerce and labor, and one copy to the staff of each committee that summarizes the housing trust fund's income, grants and operating expenses, implementation of its program, and any problems arising in the administration thereof. The director shall promptly appoint a low-income housing assistance advisory committee composed of a representative from each of the following groups: Apartment owners, realtors, mortgage lending or servicing institutions, private nonprofit housing assistance programs, tenant associations, and public housing assistance programs. The advisory group shall advise the director on housing needs in this state, including housing needs for persons who are mentally ill or developmentally disabled or youth who are blind or deaf or otherwise disabled, operational aspects of the grant and loan program or revenue collection programs established by this chapter, and implementation of the policy and goals of this chapter. Such advice shall be consistent with policies and plans developed by regional support networks according to chapter 71.24 RCW for the mentally ill and the developmental disabilities planning council for the developmentally disabled.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 79.01 RCW to read as follows:

Where C.E.P. & R.I. land has the potential for lease for commercial, industrial, or residential uses or other uses with the potential for high economic return and is within urban or suburban areas, the department of natural resources shall make every effort consistent with trust land management principles and all other provisions of law to lease the lands for such purposes, unless the land is subject to a lease to a state agency operating an existing state institution. The department of natural resources is authorized, subject to approval by the board of natural resources and only if a higher return can be realized, to exchange such lands for lands of at least equal value and to sell such lands and use the proceeds to acquire replacement lands. The department shall report to the appropriate legislative committees all C.E.P. & R.I. land purchased, sold, or exchanged. Income from the leases shall be deposited in the charitable, educational, penal, and reformatory institutions account. The legislature shall give priority consideration to appropriating one-half of the money derived from lease income to providing community housing for persons who are mentally ill, developmentally disabled, or youth who are blind, deaf, or otherwise disabled.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 18, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5474 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A task force is created to improve the collection and reporting of data about conditions affecting the education and well-being of children. The primary objective of the task force is to provide data aggregated by school districts for use by school districts and state and local policymakers in the planning and evaluation of local and state education programs, practices, and activities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) One representative shall be appointed to the task force created in section 1 of this act from each of the following: Office of the superintendent of public instruction, department of social and health services, department of health, employment security department, department of community development, department of information services, office of financial management, the administrator for the courts, Washington association of school administrators, Washington state school directors' association, the Washington state association of counties, the association of Washington cities, house of representative staff, and senate staff.

(2) The task force shall select a chair from among its members.

(3) The task force shall consult with the Washington school information processing cooperative, educational service districts, groups representing racial and ethnic minorities, and other interested parties.

(4) The Washington state institute for public policy shall coordinate and staff the task force, and may contract for technical consulting services as needed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The task force shall, by December 1, 1991:

(1) Identify the likely uses for demographic data on the education and well-being of children, and determine what type of data is needed, or would be useful, in the planning and evaluation of local and state education programs, practices, and activities;

(2) Determine the feasibility, cost, and actions required to aggregate the data identified in subsection (1) of this section by school districts;

(3) Determine the feasibility, cost, and actions required to report the data identified in subsection (1) of this section to school districts and state and local policymakers, ensuring that quality control and appropriate confidentiality and privacy safeguards are provided;

(4) Identify measures necessary to ensure the adequate collection and reporting of the data, including the use of common data definitions and reporting timelines;

(5) Implement those actions that can be taken with little or no cost, and identify actions, with proposed timelines, in which additional resources are required;

(6) Examine related issues as the task force deems appropriate; and

(7) Report to the appropriate committees of the legislature its findings, specific actions taken to improve data collection and reporting, and what additional actions and resources are needed to further improve data collection and reporting on the well-being and education of children.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If specific funding for the purposes of this act, referencing this act by bill number, is not provided by June 30, 1991, in the omnibus appropriations act, this act shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. This act shall expire December 1, 1991.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "well-being;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "creating new sections; providing an expiration date; and declaring an emergency.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

Sec. 48. RCW 47.17.830 and 1971 ex.s. c 73 s 24 are each amended to read as follows:

A state highway to be known as state route number 901 is established as follows:

Beginning at a junction with state route number 90 in the vicinity west of Issaquah, thence northerly to the ~~((west))~~ east of Lake Sammamish to a junction with state route number ~~((908))~~ 202 in the vicinity of Redmond.

Sec. 49. RCW 47.17.835 and 1970 ex.s. c 51 s 168 are each amended to read as follows:

A state highway to be known as state route number 902 is established as follows:

Beginning ~~((in the vicinity of the state custodial school, thence northerly to))~~ at a junction with state route number 90, thence northwesterly, northerly, northeasterly, and easterly, via the town of Medical Lake, ((thence northeasterly and easterly)) to a junction with state route number 90 at a point approximately three miles northeast of Four Lakes.

Sec. 50. RCW 47.17.855 and 1971 ex.s. c 73 s 27 are each amended to read as follows:

A state highway to be known as state route number 908 is established as follows:

Beginning at a junction with state route number ~~((520, Evergreen Point bridge route, in the vicinity of Northrup Road, thence northerly and easterly in the vicinity~~

ef) 405 in Kirkland, thence easterly to a junction with state route number 202 in the vicinity of Redmond.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 51. A state highway to be known as state route number 971 is established as follows:

Beginning at a junction with state route number 97-alternate in the vicinity of Winesap, thence northerly to Lake Chelan state park, thence southeasterly to a junction with state route number 97-alternate west of Chelan.

Sec. 52. RCW 47.24.020 and 1987 c 68 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The jurisdiction, control, and duty of the state and city or town with respect to such streets shall be as follows:

(1) The department has no authority to change or establish any grade of any such street without approval of the governing body of such city or town, except with respect to limited access facilities established by the commission;

(2) The city or town shall exercise full responsibility for and control over any such street beyond the curbs and if no curb is installed, beyond that portion of the highway used for highway purposes. However, within incorporated cities and towns the title to a state limited access highway vests in the state, and, notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the department shall exercise full jurisdiction, responsibility, and control to and over such facility as provided in chapter 47.52 RCW;

(3) The department has authority to prohibit the suspension of signs, banners, or decorations above the portion of such street between the curbs or portion used for highway purposes up to a vertical height of twenty feet above the surface of the roadway;

(4) The city or town shall at its own expense maintain all underground facilities in such streets, and has the right to construct such additional underground facilities as may be necessary in such streets;

(5) The city or town has the right to grant the privilege to open the surface of any such street, but all damage occasioned thereby shall promptly be repaired either by the city or town itself or at its direction;

(6) The city or town at its own expense shall provide street illumination and shall clean all such streets, including storm sewer inlets and catch basins, and remove all snow, except that the state shall when necessary plow the snow on the roadway. In cities and towns having a population of fifteen thousand or less according to the latest determination of population by the office of financial management, the state, when necessary for public safety, shall assume, at its expense, responsibility for the stability of the slopes of cuts and fills and the embankments within the right of way to protect the roadway itself. When the population of a city or town reaches fifteen thousand after January 1, 1990, the state shall retain the responsibility for the stability of slopes of cuts and fills and the embankments within the right of way to protect the road itself until the legislature acts upon the findings of the task force created in section 53 of this act or until June 30, 1993, whichever occurs first. The state shall install, maintain, and operate all illuminating facilities on any limited access facility, together with its interchanges, located within the corporate limits of any city or town, and shall assume and pay the costs of all such installation, maintenance, and operation incurred after November 1, 1954;

(7) The department has the right to use all storm sewers on such highways without cost; and if new storm sewer facilities are necessary in construction of new streets by the department, the cost of the facilities shall be borne by the state and/or city as may be mutually agreed upon between the department and the governing body of the city or town;

(8) Cities and towns have exclusive right to grant franchises not in conflict with state laws, over, beneath, and upon such streets, but the department is authorized to enforce in an action brought in the name of the state any condition of any franchise which a city or town has granted on such street. No franchise for transportation of passengers in motor vehicles may be granted on such streets without the approval of the department, but the department shall not refuse to approve such franchise unless another street conveniently located and of strength of construction to sustain travel of such vehicles is accessible;

(9) Every franchise or permit granted any person by a city or town for use of any portion of such street by a public utility shall require the grantee or permittee to restore, repair, and replace to its original condition any portion of the street damaged or injured by it;

(10) The city or town has the right to issue overload or overwidth permits for vehicles to operate on such streets or roads subject to regulations printed and distributed to the cities and towns by the department;

(11) Cities and towns shall regulate and enforce all traffic and parking restrictions on such streets, but all regulations adopted by a city or town relating to speed, parking, and traffic control devices on such streets not identical to state law relating thereto are subject to the approval of the department before becoming effective. All regulations pertaining to speed, parking, and traffic control devices relating to such streets heretofore adopted by a city or town not identical with state laws shall become null and void unless approved by the department heretofore or within one year after March 21, 1963;

(12) The department shall erect, control, and maintain at state expense all route markers and directional signs, except street signs, on such streets;

(13) The department shall install, operate, maintain, and control at state expense all traffic control signals, signs, and traffic control devices for the purpose of regulating both pedestrian and motor vehicular traffic on, entering upon, or leaving state highways in cities and towns having a population of fifteen thousand or less according to the latest determination of population by the office of financial management. Such cities and towns may submit to the department a plan for traffic control signals, signs, and traffic control devices desired by them, indicating the location, nature of installation, or type thereof, or a proposed amendment to such an existing plan or installation, and the department shall consult with the cities or towns concerning the plan before installing such signals, signs, or devices. Cities and towns having a population in excess of fifteen thousand according to the latest determination of population by the office of financial management shall install, maintain, operate, and control such signals, signs, and devices at their own expense, subject to approval of the department for the installation and type only. When the population of a city or town reaches fifteen thousand after January 1, 1990, the state shall retain the responsibility for installing, operating, maintaining, and controlling such signals, signs, and devices until the legislature acts upon the findings of the task force created in section 53 of this act or until June 30, 1993, whichever occurs first. For the purpose of this subsection, striping, lane marking, and channelization are considered traffic control devices;

(14) All revenue from parking meters placed on such streets belongs to the city or town;

(15) Rights of way for such streets shall be acquired by either the city or town or by the state as shall be mutually agreed upon. Costs of acquiring rights of way may be at the sole expense of the state or at the expense of the city or town or at the expense of the state and the city or town as may be mutually agreed upon. Title to all such rights of way so acquired shall vest in the city or town: PROVIDED, That no vacation, sale, rental, or any other nontransportation use of any unused portion of any such street may be made by the city or town without the prior written approval of the department; and all revenue derived from sale, vacation, rental, or any nontransportation use of such rights of way shall be shared by the city or town and the state in the same proportion as the purchase costs were shared;

(16) If any city or town fails to perform any of its obligations as set forth in this section or in any cooperative agreement entered into with the department for the maintenance of a city or town street forming part of the route of a state highway, the department may notify the mayor of the city or town to perform the necessary maintenance within thirty days. If the city or town within the thirty days fails to perform the maintenance or fails to authorize the department to perform the maintenance as provided by RCW 47.24.050, the department may perform the maintenance, the cost of which is to be deducted from any sums in the motor vehicle fund credited or to be credited to the city or town.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 53. (1) A task force is created to examine the population threshold at which cities and towns must assume additional responsibility for their streets that are part of the state highway system.

(2) The task force shall consist of eight members: (a) Four representatives from the department of transportation, with the assistant secretary for local programs acting as chair; (b) one representative from the association of Washington cities; (c) three city representatives selected by the association of Washington cities.

(3) The task force's study shall included, but is not limited to:

(a) Identifying the population threshold at which cities and towns must assume responsibility for the stability of slopes of cuts and fills, the embankments within the right of way, and traffic signals and other control devices on their streets that are part of the state highway system. The task force shall also determine whether the transfer of responsibilities will be incremental or total.

(b) Assessing a city's ability, including its staffing and technical capabilities, to assume responsibility for maintaining traffic signals and other control devices on their streets that are part of the state highway system.

(4) The task force must submit its findings and recommendations to the legislative transportation committee by July 1, 1992.

Sec. 54. RCW 47.39.020 and 1990 c 240 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((j))~~ (k) For expenditure for highway purposes of the state as defined in RCW 46.68.130, an amount as provided in RCW 82.36.025(4) and 46.68.095(7).

(2) The amount accruing to the motor vehicle fund by virtue of the motor vehicle fuel tax and the special fuel tax and remaining after payments, distributions, and expenditures as provided in this section shall, for the purposes of this chapter, be referred to as the "net tax amount."

Sec. 57. RCW 82.36.025 and 1990 c 42 s 101 are each amended to read as follows:

The motor vehicle fuel tax rate shall be computed as the sum of the tax rate provided in subsection (1) of this section and the additional tax rates provided in subsections (2) through (5) of this section.

(1) A motor vehicle fuel tax rate of seventeen cents per gallon shall apply to the sale, distribution, or use of motor vehicle fuel.

(2) An additional motor vehicle fuel tax rate of one-third cent per gallon shall apply to the sale, distribution, or use of motor vehicle fuel, and the proceeds from this additional tax rate, reduced by an amount equal to the sum of the payments under RCW 46.68.090 (1) (a) (~~and~~), (b), and (c) multiplied by the additional tax rate prescribed by this subsection divided by the motor vehicle fuel tax rate provided in this section, shall be deposited in the rural arterial trust account in the motor vehicle fund for expenditures under RCW 36.79.020.

(3) An additional motor vehicle fuel tax rate of one-third cent per gallon shall apply to the sale, distribution, or use of motor vehicle fuel, and the proceeds from this additional tax rate, reduced by an amount equal to the sum of the payments under RCW 46.68.090 (1) (a) (~~and~~), (b), and (c) multiplied by the additional tax rate prescribed by this subsection divided by the motor vehicle fuel tax rate provided in this section, shall be deposited in the urban arterial trust account in the motor vehicle fund.

(4) An additional motor vehicle fuel tax rate of one-third cent per gallon shall be applied to the sale, distribution, or use of motor vehicle fuel, and the proceeds from this additional tax rate, reduced by an amount equal to the sum of the payments under RCW 46.68.090 (1) (a) (~~and~~), (b), and (c) multiplied by the additional tax rate prescribed by this subsection divided by the motor vehicle fuel tax rate provided in this section, shall be deposited in the motor vehicle fund to be expended for highway purposes of the state as defined in RCW 46.68.130.

(5) An additional motor vehicle fuel tax rate of four cents per gallon from April 1, 1990, through March 31, 1991, and five cents per gallon from April 1, 1991, applies to the sale, distribution, or use of motor vehicle fuel. The proceeds from the additional tax rate under this subsection, reduced by an amount equal to the sum of the payments under RCW 46.68.090 (1) (a) (~~and~~), (b), and (c) multiplied by the additional tax rate prescribed by this subsection divided by the motor fuel tax rate provided in this section, shall be deposited in the motor vehicle fund and shall be distributed by the state treasurer according to RCW 46.68.095.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 58. The sum of two million five hundred thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1993, from the transfer relief account to the department of transportation for the purposes of implementing the road jurisdiction study recommendations for funding assistance related to jurisdictional transfers.

Sec. 59. RCW 46.68.110 and 1989 1st ex.s. c 6 s 41 are each amended to read as follows:

Funds credited to the incorporated cities and towns of the state as set forth in subdivision (1) of RCW 46.68.100 shall be subject to deduction and distribution as follows:

(1) One and one-half percent of such sums shall be deducted monthly as such sums are credited and set aside for the use of the department of transportation for the supervision of work and expenditures of such incorporated cities and towns on the city and town streets thereof, including the supervision and administration of federal-aid programs for which the department of transportation has responsibility: PROVIDED, That any moneys so retained and not expended shall be credited in the succeeding biennium to the incorporated cities and towns in proportion to deductions herein made;

(2) (~~From July 1, 1987, through June 30, 1989,~~) Thirty-three one-hundredths of one percent of such funds shall be deducted monthly, as such funds accrue, and set aside for the use of the department of transportation for the purpose of funding the cities' share of the costs of highway jurisdiction studies and other studies. Any funds so retained and not expended shall be credited in the succeeding biennium to the cities in proportion to the deductions made;

(3) ~~((From July 1, 1989, through June 30, 1991, thirty three one hundredths of one percent of such funds shall be deducted monthly, as such funds accrue, and set aside for the use of the department of transportation for the purpose of funding the cities' share of the costs of highway jurisdiction studies and other studies. Any funds so retained and not expended shall be credited in the succeeding biennium to the cities in proportion to the deductions made))~~ From April 1, 1992, two percent of such funds shall be deducted monthly, as such funds accrue, to be deposited in the city hardship assistance account, hereby created in the motor vehicle fund, to implement the city hardship assistance program, as provided in section 60 of this act;

(4) The balance remaining to the credit of incorporated cities and towns after such deduction shall be apportioned monthly as such funds accrue among the several cities and towns within the state ratably on the basis of the population last determined by the office of financial management.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 60. A new section is added to chapter 47.26 RCW to read as follows:

The board shall adopt reasonable rules necessary to implement the city hardship assistance program as recommended by the road jurisdiction study.

The following criteria shall be used to implement the program:

(1) Only those cities with a net gain in cost responsibility due to jurisdictional transfers in chapter ..., Laws of 1991 (this act), as determined by the board, may participate;

(2) Cities with populations of fifteen thousand or less, as determined by the office of financial management, may participate;

(3) The board shall develop criteria and procedures under which eligible cities may request funding for rehabilitation projects on city streets acquired under chapter ..., Laws of 1991 (this act); and

(4) The board shall also be authorized to allocate funds from the hardship account to cities with a population under twenty thousand to offset extraordinary costs associated with the transfer of roadways other than pursuant to chapter ..., Laws of 1991 (this act), that occur after January 1, 1991.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 61. The sum of seven hundred fifty thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1993, from the city hardship assistance account to the transportation improvement board for the purpose of implementing the city hardship assistance program as provided in section 60 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 62. A new section is added to chapter 47.26 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature recognizes the need for a multijurisdictional body to review future requests for jurisdictional transfers. The board is hereby directed, beginning September 1, 1991, to receive petitions from cities, counties, or the state requesting any addition or deletion from the state highway system. The board is required to utilize the criteria established in RCW 47.17.001 in evaluating petitions and to adopt rules for implementation of this process. The board shall forward to the legislative transportation committee by November 15 each year any recommended jurisdictional transfers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 63. A new section is added to chapter 47.26 RCW to read as follows:

In addition to any other reports required by law, by August 1, 1991, the board shall submit to the legislative transportation committee a report setting forth its plans for implementing sections 60 and 62 of this act.

Sec. 64. RCW 46.68.120 and 1989 1st ex.s. c 6 s 42 are each amended to read as follows:

Funds to be paid to the counties of the state shall be subject to deduction and distribution as follows:

(1) One and one-half percent of such funds shall be deducted monthly as such funds accrue and set aside for the use of the department of transportation and the county road administration board for the supervision of work and expenditures of such counties on the county roads thereof, including the supervision and administration of federal-aid programs for which the department of transportation has responsibility: PROVIDED, That any funds so retained and not expended shall be credited in the succeeding biennium to the counties in proportion to deductions herein made;

(2) All sums required to be repaid to counties composed entirely of islands shall be deducted;

(3) ~~((From July 1, 1987, through June 30, 1989,))~~ Thirty-three one-hundredths of one percent of such funds shall be deducted monthly, as such funds accrue, and set aside for the use of the department of transportation for the purpose of funding the counties' share of the costs of highway jurisdiction studies and other studies. Any funds so retained and not expended shall be credited in the succeeding biennium to the counties in proportion to the deductions made;

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 16, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5873 with the following amendments:

On page 1, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 28A.400 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Retired and disabled school district employees shall be entitled to continue their participation in any insurance plans and contracts after their retirement or disablement for a period of at least thirty months. These retired or disabled employees shall bear the full cost of premiums required to provide the coverage.

(2) This section applies to:

(a) School district employees who retire or are disabled after the effective date of this act; and

(b) School district employees who retired within the eighteen-month period ending on the effective date of this act.

(3) School district employees who retired more than eighteen months before the effective date of this act and who were covered by a school district's insurance plan on January 1, 1991, may continue their coverage for a period of at least one year from the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) The Washington state health care authority shall study and develop recommendations regarding health care coverage for retired and disabled public school employees. The study shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(a) Collection of information regarding the cost to both the school district and the retired or disabled employee of coverage, the prevalence of use of available coverage by retirees, and the types of coverage made available through school districts;

(b) Evaluation of the feasibility and cost implications to retired or disabled employees, the state, school districts, and active employees of: (i) Requiring school districts to allow retired employees to continue their employer-sponsored health care coverage at a reasonable cost to the employee; or (ii) Allowing retired or disabled school district employees to participate in insurance plans offered by the state employees' benefits board even if the retired or disabled employees did not participate in such plans as active employees;

(c) Development of mechanisms to pre-fund health care coverage for retired and disabled employees, through means such as contributions by active employees to a fund established to finance future retired and disabled employees' health care benefits, and voluntary contributions by active employees to individual medical accounts from which funds can be drawn upon retirement or becoming disabled to pay premiums and costs for health care coverage;

(d) Establishment of variable health care coverage premium rates for retired or disabled employees based upon the individual retired or disabled individual's income; and

(e) Evaluation of any other areas deemed necessary by the health care authority.

(2) The health care authority may form technical advisory committees to assist with the study. The health care authority shall submit its findings and recommendations to the legislature by December 1, 1991.

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "employees;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new section to chapter 28A.400 RCW; and creating a new section.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 20, 1991

Mr. President:

The House refuses to concur in the Senate amendment(s) to ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1120 and asks the Senate to recede therefrom.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1120 was returned to second reading and read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Matson, the following amendment by Senators Matson, Madsen, Skratek and Amondson was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

Sec. 1. RCW 67.16.010 and 1985 c 146 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context otherwise requires, words and phrases as used herein shall mean:

"Commission" shall mean the Washington horse racing commission, hereinafter created.

"Parimutuel machine" shall mean and include both machines at the track and machines at the satellite locations, that record parimutuel bets and compute the payoff.

"Person" shall mean and include individuals, firms, corporations and associations.

"Race meet" shall mean and include any exhibition of thoroughbred, quarter horse, paint horse, appaloosa horse racing, arabian horse racing, or standard bred harness horse racing, where the parimutuel system is used.

Singular shall include the plural, and the plural shall include the singular; and words importing one gender shall be regarded as including all other genders.

Sec. 2. RCW 67.16.014 and 1987 c 453 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to the commission members appointed under RCW 67.16.012, there shall be four ex officio nonvoting members consisting of: (1) Two members of the senate, one from the majority political party and one from the minority political party, both to be appointed by the president of the senate; and (2) two members of the house of representatives, one from the majority political party and one from the minority political party, both to be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The appointments shall be for the term of two years or for the period in which the appointee serves as a legislator, whichever expires first. Members may be reappointed, and vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments are made. The ex officio members shall assist in the policy making, rather than administrative, functions of the commission, and shall collect data deemed essential to future legislative proposals and exchange information with the commission. The ex officio members shall be deemed engaged in legislative business while in attendance upon the business of the commission and shall be limited to such allowances therefor as otherwise provided in RCW 44.04.120, the same to be paid from the horse racing commission fund as being expenses relative to commission business.

~~((This section shall expire on October 31, 1991.))~~

Sec. 3. RCW 67.16.060 and 1985 c 146 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It shall be unlawful:

(a) To conduct pool selling, bookmaking, or to circulate hand books; or

(b) To bet or wager on any horse race other than by the parimutuel method; or

(c) For any licensee to take more than the percentage provided in RCW 67.16.170 and 67.16.175; or

(d) For any licensee to compute breaks in the parimutuel system otherwise than at ten cents.

(2) Any willful violation of the terms of this chapter, or of any rule, regulation, or order of the commission shall constitute a gross misdemeanor and when such violation is by a person holding a license under this chapter, the commission may cancel the license held by the offender, and such cancellation shall operate as a forfeiture of all rights and privileges granted by the commission and of all sums of money paid to the commission by the offender; and the action of the commission in that respect shall be final.

(3) The commission shall have power to exclude from any and all race courses of the state of Washington any person whom the commission deems detrimental to the best interests of racing or any person who willfully violates any of the provisions of this chapter or of any rule, regulation, or order issued by the commission.

(4) Every race meet held in this state contrary to the provisions of this chapter is hereby declared to be a public nuisance.

Sec. 4. RCW 67.16.100 and 1985 c 466 s 67 & 1985 c 146 s 6 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

~~((In addition to the license fees required by this chapter, the licensee shall pay to the commission the percentages of the gross receipts of all parimutuel machines at each race meet in accordance with RCW 67.16.105, which sums shall be paid daily to the commission.))~~

(1) All sums paid to the commission under this chapter, ((together with all)) including those sums collected for license fees ((under the provisions of this chapter)) and excluding those sums collected under RCW 67.16.102, 67.16.105(3), and 67.16.105(4), shall be disposed of by the commission as follows:

~~((Twenty-two))~~ (a) Fifty percent thereof shall be retained by the commission for the payment of the salaries of its members, secretary, clerical, office, and other help and all expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this chapter. No salary, wages, expenses, or compensation of any kind shall be paid by the state in connection with the work of the commission.

~~((Forty))~~ (b) One percent shall, on the next business day following the receipt thereof, be paid to the state treasurer to be deposited in the general fund~~((, and))~~.

(c) Three percent shall, on the next business day following the receipt thereof, be paid to the state treasurer, who is hereby made ex officio treasurer of a fund to be known as the "state trade fair fund" which shall be maintained as a separate and independent fund, and made available to the director of trade and economic development for the sole purpose of assisting state trade fairs.

~~((Thirty-five))~~ (d) Forty-six percent shall be paid to the state treasurer, who is hereby made ex officio treasurer of a fund to be known as the "fair fund," which shall be maintained as a separate and independent fund outside of the state treasury, and made available to the director of agriculture for the sole purpose of assisting fairs in the manner provided in Title 15 RCW.

(2) Any moneys collected or paid to the commission under the terms of this chapter and not expended at the close of the fiscal biennium shall be paid to the state treasurer and be placed in the general fund. The commission may, with the approval of the office of financial management, retain any sum required for working capital.

Sec. 5. RCW 67.16.102 and 1982 c 132 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of chapter 67.16 RCW to the contrary the licensee shall withhold and shall pay daily to the commission, in addition to the percentages authorized by ~~((RCW 67.16.100 and 67.16.130, as now or hereafter amended, and))~~ RCW 67.16.105, one percent of the gross receipts of all parimutuel machines at each race meet which sums shall, at the end of each meet, be paid by the commission to the licensed owners of those horses finishing first, second, third and fourth Washington bred only at each meet from which the additional one percent is derived in accordance with an equitable distribution formula to be promulgated by the commission prior to the commencement of each race meet: PROVIDED, That nothing in this section shall apply to race meets which are nonprofit in nature, ~~((or))~~ are of ten days or less ~~((or which))~~, and have an average daily handle of less than one hundred twenty thousand dollars: PROVIDED, That the additional one percent of the gross receipts of all parimutuel machines at each race meet and the amount retained by the commission as specified in RCW 67.16.100(1)(a) shall be deposited daily in a time deposit by the commission and the interest derived therefrom shall be distributed annually on an equal basis to those race courses at which independent race meets are held which are nonprofit in nature and are of ten days or less: PROVIDED, That prior to receiving a payment under this section any new race course shall meet the qualifications set forth in this section for a period of two years: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That said distributed funds shall be used for the purpose of maintaining and upgrading the respective racing courses and equine quartering areas of said nonprofit meets. The commission shall not permit the licensees to take into consideration the benefits derived from this section in establishing purses.

(2) The commission is authorized to pay at the end of the calendar year one-half of the one percent collected from a new licensee under subsection (1) of this section for reimbursement of capital construction of that new licensee's new race track for a period of five years. This reimbursement does not include interest earned on that one-half of one percent and such interest shall continue to be collected and disbursed as provided in RCW 67.16.101 and subsection (1) of this section.

Sec. 6. RCW 67.16.105 and 1987 c 347 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Except as provided for satellite wagers in RCW 67.16.210, the licensee shall pay to the commission daily for each authorized day of racing the following applicable percentage of all daily gross receipts from all parimutuel machines at each race meet:~~

~~(1) One half percent of the daily gross receipts, if the daily gross receipts are two hundred thousand dollars or less;~~

~~(2) One percent of the daily gross receipts, if the daily gross receipts are two hundred thousand one dollars to four hundred thousand dollars; and~~

~~(3) Four percent of the daily gross receipts if the daily gross receipts are four hundred thousand one dollars or more.)~~ (1) Licensees of race meets that are nonprofit in nature, are of ten days or less, and have an average daily handle of one hundred twenty thousand dollars or less shall withhold and pay to the commission daily for each authorized day of racing one-half percent of the daily gross receipts from all parimutuel machines at each race meet.

(2) Licensees of race meets that do not fall under subsection (1) of this section shall withhold and pay to the commission daily for each authorized day of racing the following applicable percentage of all daily gross receipts from all parimutuel machines at each race meet:

(a) If the daily gross receipts of all parimutuel machines are more than two hundred fifty thousand dollars, the licensee shall withhold and pay to the commission daily two and one-half percent of the daily gross receipts; and

(b) If the daily gross receipts of all parimutuel machines are two hundred fifty thousand dollars or less, the licensee shall withhold and pay to the commission daily one percent of the daily gross receipts.

(3) In addition to those amounts in subsections (1) and (2) of this section, all licensees shall forward one-tenth of one percent of the daily gross receipts of all parimutuel machines to the commission daily for payment to those nonprofit race meets as set forth in RCW 67.16.130 and subsection (1) of this section, but said percentage shall not be charged against the licensees. The total of such payments shall not exceed one hundred fifty thousand dollars in any one year and any amount in excess of one hundred fifty thousand dollars shall be remitted to the general fund. Payments to nonprofit race meets under this subsection shall be distributed on a pro rata per-race-day basis and used only for purses at race tracks that have been operating under RCW 67.16.130 and subsection (1) of this section for the five consecutive years immediately preceding the year of payment.

(4) In addition to those sums paid to the commission in subsection (2) of this section, licensees who are nonprofit corporations and have race meets of thirty days or more shall withhold and pay to the commission daily for each authorized day of racing an amount equal to two and one-half percent of the daily gross receipts of all parimutuel machines at each race meet. Said percentage shall come from that amount the licensee is authorized to retain under RCW 67.16.170(2). The commission shall deposit these moneys in the Washington thoroughbred racing fund created in section 12 of this act.

Sec. 7. RCW 67.16.130 and 1985 c 146 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law or of chapter 67.16 RCW, the commission may license race meets which are nonprofit in nature, of ten days or less, and which have an average daily handle of one hundred twenty thousand dollars or less, at a daily licensing fee of ten dollars, and the sponsoring nonprofit association shall be exempt from any other fees as provided for in chapter 67.16 RCW or by rule or regulation of the commission: PROVIDED, That the commission (~~on or after January 1, 1974~~) may deny the application for a license to conduct a racing meet by a nonprofit association, if same shall be determined not to be a nonprofit association by the Washington state racing commission.

~~(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law or of chapter 67.16 RCW the licensees of race meets which are nonprofit in nature, of ten days or less, and which have an average daily handle of one hundred twenty thousand dollars or less, shall withhold and shall pay daily to the commission the percentages authorized by RCW 67.16.105, 67.16.170, and 67.16.175.~~

~~(3))~~ Notwithstanding any other provision of law or of chapter 67.16 RCW or any rule promulgated by the commission, no license for a race meet which is nonprofit in nature, of ten days or less, and which has an average daily handle of one hundred twenty thousand dollars or less, shall be denied for the reason that the applicant has not installed an electric parimutuel tote board.

~~((4))~~ (3) As a condition to the reduction in fees as provided for in subsection (1) (~~hereof~~) of this section, all fees charged to horse owners, trainers, or jockeys, or any other fee charged for a permit incident to the running of such race meet shall be retained by the commission as reimbursement for its expenses incurred in connection with the particular race meet.

Sec. 8. RCW 67.16.170 and 1987 c 347 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Except as provided for satellite wagers in RCW 67.16.220, race meets which have gross receipts of all parimutuel machines for each authorized day of racing may retain the following from the daily gross receipts of all parimutuel machines:~~

~~(1) On a daily handle of two hundred thousand dollars or less, the licensee shall retain fourteen and one half percent of such gross receipts;~~

~~(2) On a daily handle of two hundred thousand one dollars to four hundred thousand dollars, the licensee shall retain fourteen percent of such gross receipts; and~~

~~(3) On a daily handle of four hundred thousand one dollars or more, the licensee shall retain eleven percent of such gross receipts.))~~ (1) Licensees of race meets that are nonprofit in nature, are of ten days or less, and have an average daily handle of one hundred twenty thousand dollars or less may retain daily for each authorized day of racing fourteen and one-half percent of daily gross receipts of all parimutuel machines at each race meet.

(2) Licensees of race meets that do not fall under subsection (1) of this section may retain daily for each authorized day of racing the following percentages from the daily gross receipts of all parimutuel machines at each race meet:

(a) If the daily gross receipts of all parimutuel machines are more than two hundred fifty thousand dollars, the licensee may retain daily twelve and one-half percent of the daily gross receipts; and

(b) If the daily gross receipts of all parimutuel machines are two hundred fifty thousand dollars or less, the licensee may retain daily fourteen percent of the daily gross receipts.

Sec. 9. RCW 67.16.175 and 1987 c 453 s 1 & 1987 c 347 s 3 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

~~(1) ((Except as provided for satellite wagers in RCW 67.16.210 and 67.16.220, daily gross receipts of all parimutuel machines from wagers on exotic races shall be distributed according to this section:~~

~~(a) In addition to the amounts set forth in RCW 67.16.105, an additional two and five tenths percent of gross receipts on races with two or more selections and three and five tenths percent of gross receipts on races with three or more selections shall be paid to the commission. The commission shall retain thirty one percent of the additional percentages from exotic races and shall forward the balance to the state treasurer daily for deposit in the general fund.~~

~~(b) In addition to the amounts authorized to be retained in RCW 67.16.170, race meets may retain an additional three percent of the daily gross receipts of all parimutuel machines from wagers on exotic races requiring two selections to be used as provided in subsection (2) of this section.~~

~~(c) In addition to the amounts authorized to be retained in RCW 67.16.170, race meets may retain an additional six percent of the daily gross receipts of all parimutuel machines from wagers on exotic races requiring three or more selections to be used as provided in subsection (2) of this section.))~~ In addition to the amounts authorized to be retained in RCW 67.16.170, race meets may retain daily for each authorized day of racing an additional six percent of the daily gross receipts of all parimutuel machines from exotic wagers at each race meet.

(2) Of the amounts retained in subsection (1) ((b) and (c)) of this section, ((one percent)) one-sixth shall be used for Washington-bred breeder awards((, not to exceed twenty percent of the winner's share of the purse)).

(3) ((Any portion of the remaining moneys retained in subsection (1) (b) and (c) of this section shall be shared equally by the race track and participating horsemen.

~~The amount shared by participating horsemen shall be in addition to and shall not supplant the customary purse structure between race tracks and participating horsemen.)~~ Of the amounts retained for breeder awards under subsection (2) of this section, twenty-five percent shall be retained by a new licensee for reimbursement of capital construction of the new licensee's new race track for a period of five years.

(4) As used in this section, "exotic ~~((raees))~~ wagers" means any multiple wager. Exotic ~~((raees))~~ wagers are subject to approval of the commission.

Sec. 10. RCW 67.16.200 and 1987 c 347 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A racing association licensed by the commission to conduct a race meet may seek approval from the commission to conduct parimutuel wagering on its program at a satellite location or locations within the state of Washington. The sale of parimutuel pools at satellite locations shall be conducted only during the licensee's race meet and simultaneous to all parimutuel wagering activity conducted at the licensee's racing facility in the state of Washington. The commission's authority to approve satellite wagering at a particular location is subject to the following limitations:

(a) The commission may approve only one satellite location in each county in the state; however, the commission may grant approval for more than one licensee to conduct wagering at each satellite location.

(b) The commission shall not allow a licensee to conduct satellite wagering at a satellite location within ~~((fifty air))~~ twenty ground miles of the licensee's racing facility. For purposes of this section, "ground miles" means miles measured from point to point in a straight line.

(c)(i) The commission may allow a licensee to conduct satellite wagering at a satellite location within fifty ~~((air))~~ ground miles of the racing facility of another licensee who conducts race meets of thirty days or more, but only if the satellite location is the racing facility of another licensee who conducts race meets of thirty days or more and only if the licensee seeking to conduct satellite wagering suspends its program during the conduct of the meets of all licensees within fifty ~~((air))~~ ground miles; except that the commission may allow a licensee that conducts satellite wagering at another track, pursuant to this subsection, to use other satellite locations, used by that track with the approval of the owner of that track, even though those satellite locations are within a fifty ground mile radius.

(ii) Subject to subsection (1)(c)(i) of this section, the commission may allow a licensee to conduct satellite wagering at a satellite location within fifty ~~((air))~~ ground miles of the racing facility of another licensee who conducts race meets of under thirty days, but only if the licensee seeking to conduct satellite wagering suspends its satellite program during the conduct of the meets of all licensees within fifty ~~((air))~~ ground miles.

(2) Subject to local zoning and other land use ordinances, the commission shall be the sole judge of whether approval to conduct wagering at a satellite location shall be granted.

(3) The licensee shall combine the parimutuel pools of the satellite location with those of the racing facility for the purpose of determining odds and computing payoffs. The amount wagered at the satellite location shall be combined with the amount wagered at the racing facility for the application of take out formulas and distribution as provided in RCW 67.16.102, 67.16.105, ~~((67.16.130,))~~ 67.16.170, and 67.16.175 ~~((67.16.210, and 67.16.220)).~~ A satellite extension of the licensee's racing facility shall be subject to the same application of the rules of racing as the licensee's racing facility.

Sec. 11. RCW 67.16.230 and 1987 c 347 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission is authorized to establish and collect an annual fee for each separate satellite location. The fee to be collected from the licensee shall be set to reflect the commission's expected costs of approving, regulating, and monitoring each satellite location, provided commission revenues generated under RCW ((67.16.210)) 67.16.105 from the licensee shall be credited annually towards the licensee's fee assessment under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 67.16 RCW to read as follows:

The Washington thoroughbred racing fund is created in the state treasury. All receipts derived under RCW 67.16.105(4) from licensees who are nonprofit corporations and whose race meets are thirty days or more shall be deposited into the account. Moneys in the account may be spent only after legislative appropriation. Expenditures from the account shall be expended to benefit and support interim continuation of thoroughbred racing, capital construction of a new race track facility, and programs enhancing the general welfare, safety, and advancement of the Washington thoroughbred racing industry.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) RCW 67.16.210 and 1987 c 347 s 5;
- (2) RCW 67.16.220 and 1987 c 347 s 6;
- (3) RCW 67.16.910 and 1990 c 297 s 24; and
- (4) RCW 67.16.911 and 1990 c 297 s 25.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

On motion of Senator Matson, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "racing;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 67.16.010, 67.16.014, 67.16.060, 67.16.102, 67.16.105, 67.16.130, 67.16.170, 67.16.200, and 67.16.230; reenacting and amending RCW 67.16.100 and 67.16.175; adding a new section to chapter 67.16 RCW; repealing RCW 67.16.210, 67.16.220, 67.16.910, and 67.16.911; and declaring an emergency."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 20, 1991

Mr. President:

The House concurs in the Senate amendment to SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1137 on page 6, line 28, refuses to concur in the amendment to page 5, line 21, and asks the Senate to recede therefrom., and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate refuses to recede and insists on its position on the Senate amendment on page 5, line 21, to Substitute House Bill No. 1137 and asks the House to concur therein.

There being no objection, the President advanced the Senate to the eighth order of business.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hansen, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1991-8672

by Senators Hansen and von Reichbauer

WHEREAS, Under the provisions of the Federal Statehood Enabling Act, a bill approved by the Washington State Legislature of 1890 designated the city of Ellensburg as the site of a proposed normal school; and

WHEREAS, In the following year, a biennial appropriation for the intended school funded only its operations, and the use of classrooms loaned by the Ellensburg School District made possible the formal opening on September 6, 1891, of the Washington State Normal School; and

WHEREAS, In 1893, a capital appropriation of sixty thousand dollars permitted construction of the institution's first building erected on land deeded to the school's Trustees by the city of Ellensburg, and Barge Hall, named in recognition of the institution's first principal, was constructed, which today continues to serve an integral function in the conduct of University affairs; and

WHEREAS, In 1933, an enactment of the Legislature conveyed to the institution the right to confer degrees, following which a continuing expansion and elaboration in academic and degree programs, including graduate, interdisciplinary, and international studies, transformed the institution's educational role from one limited to the training of teachers to its status today as a multipurpose, comprehensive, regional university; and

WHEREAS, Commensurate with its increasing academic diversity, the school's name was changed by legislative action from Washington State Normal School to Central Washington College of Education in 1937, to Central Washington State College in 1961, and to Central Washington University in 1977; and

WHEREAS, Distinguished faculty and administrators have successfully acted in concert to fulfill the call for traditional educational values, to transmit new academic knowledge, technologies, and methods, and to prepare for the imminent educational challenges inherent in a new century; and

WHEREAS, Ceremonies scheduled by Central Washington University for May 11, 1991, will formally open a year-long centennial observance, which will include the one hundredth commencement ceremony scheduled for June 8, 1991;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate of the state of Washington honor and proclaim the one hundredth anniversary of the founding of Central Washington University and the celebratory events of the year as the university enters its second century of service to the state of Washington reaffirming its dedication to educational excellence; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the President of the Senate to Dr. Donald L. Garrity, President; Dr. R. Y. Woodhouse, Chair of the Board of Trustees; and Mrs. Gail K. Jones, Chair of the Centennial Committee; all of Central Washington University.

Senators Hansen and Owen spoke to Senate Resolution 1991-8672.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1991-8673

By Senators Talmadge and Kreidler

WHEREAS, Morris K. "Mo" Udall has been a member of the United States House of Representatives for three decades; and

WHEREAS, "Mo" Udall served with distinction throughout those years bringing the state of Arizona honor, distinction, and attention; and

WHEREAS, "Mo" Udall represents the best of the values of the American west; and

WHEREAS, "Mo" Udall's career included successful efforts in the areas of campaign reform, preservation of our natural heritage, and championing the rights of working men and women; and

WHEREAS, "Mo" Udall overcame great physical difficulties in his life and never let any of the difficulties defeat his devotion to his work as a public servant; and

WHEREAS, "Mo" Udall maintains a perspective on life that reflects both a sense of humor and a focus on accomplishment of goals; and

WHEREAS, "Mo" Udall's career in the United States House of Representatives has come to a premature end due to circumstances beyond his control; and

WHEREAS, The end of "Mo" Udall's service in the House of Representatives is a loss to the entire nation as well as the state of Arizona;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate of the state of Washington congratulates Representative Udall on his service and accomplishments and wishes him happiness in his post-Congressional work and life; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate immediately transmit copies of this resolution to Representative Udall.

Senator Talmadge spoke to Senate Resolution 1991-8673.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 19, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5184 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the state's system of work force training and education is inadequate for meeting the needs of the state's workers, employers, and economy. A growing shortage of skilled workers is already hurting the state's economy. There is a shortage of available workers and too often prospective employees lack the skills and training needed by employers. Moreover, with demographic changes in the state's population employers will need to employ a more culturally diverse work force in the future.

The legislature further finds that the state's current work force training and education system is fragmented among numerous agencies, councils, boards, and committees, with inadequate overall coordination. No comprehensive strategic plan guides the different parts of the system. There is no single point of leadership and responsibility. There is insufficient guidance from employers and workers built into the system to ensure that the system is responsive to the needs of its customers. Adult work force education lacks a uniform system of governance, with an inefficient division in governance between community colleges and vocational technical institutes, and inadequate local authority. The parts of the system providing adult basic skills and literacy education are especially uncoordinated and lack sufficient visibility to adequately address the needs of the large number of adults in the state who are functionally illiterate. The work force training and education system's data and evaluation methods are inconsistent and unable to provide adequate information for determining how well the system is performing on a regular basis so that the system may be held accountable for the outcomes it produces. Much of the work force training and education system provides inadequate opportunities to meet the needs of people from culturally diverse backgrounds. Finally, our educational institutions are not producing the number of people educated in vocational/technical skills needed by employers.

The legislature recognizes that we must make certain that our institutions of education place appropriate emphasis on the needs of employers and on the needs of the approximately eighty percent of our young people who enter the world of work without completing a four-year program of higher education. We must make our work force education and training system better coordinated, more efficient, more responsive to the needs of business and workers and local communities, more accountable for its performance, and more open to the needs of a culturally diverse population.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this title.

- (1) "Board" means the work force training and education coordinating board.
- (2) "Director" means the director of the work force training and education coordinating board.
- (3) "Training system" means programs and courses of secondary vocational education, technical college programs and courses, community college vocational programs and courses, adult basic education programs and courses, programs and courses funded by the job training partnership act, programs and courses funded by the federal vocational act, programs and courses funded under the federal adult education act, publicly funded programs and courses for adult literacy education, and apprenticeships, and programs and courses offered by private and public nonprofit organizations that are representative of communities or significant segments of communities and provide job training or adult literacy services.

(4) "Work force skills" means skills developed through applied learning that strengthen and reinforce an individual's academic knowledge, critical thinking, problem solving, and work ethic and, thereby, develop the employability, occupational skills, and management of home and work responsibilities necessary for economic independence.

(5) "Vocational education" means organized educational programs offering a sequence of courses which are directly related to the preparation or retraining of individuals in paid or unpaid employment in current or emerging occupations requiring other than a baccalaureate or advanced degree. Such programs shall include competency-based applied learning which contributes to an individual's academic knowledge, higher-order reasoning, and problem-solving skills, work attitudes, general employability skills, and the occupational-specific skills necessary for economic independence as a productive and contributing member of society. Such term also includes applied technology education.

(6) "Adult basic education" means instruction designed to achieve mastery of skills in reading, writing, oral communication, and computation at a level sufficient to allow the individual to function effectively as a parent, worker, and citizen in the United States, commensurate with that individual's actual ability level, and includes English as a second language and preparation and testing service for the general education development exam.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is hereby created the work force training and education coordinating board as a state agency and as the successor agency to the state board for vocational education. Once the coordinating board has convened, all references to the state board for vocational education in the Revised Code of Washington shall be construed to mean the work force training and education coordinating board, except that reference to the state board for vocational education in RCW 49.04.030 shall mean the state board for community and technical colleges.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The purpose of the board is to provide planning, coordination, evaluation, monitoring, and policy analysis for the state training system as a whole, and advice to the governor and legislature concerning the state training system, in cooperation with the agencies which comprise the state training system, and the higher education coordinating board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The board shall consist of nine voting members appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate, as follows: Three representatives of business, three representatives of labor, and, serving as ex officio members, the superintendent of public instruction, the executive director of the state board for community and technical colleges, and the commissioner of the employment security department. The chair of the board shall be a nonvoting member selected by the governor with the consent of the senate, and shall serve at the pleasure of the governor. In selecting the chair, the governor shall seek a person who understands the future economic needs of the state and nation and the role that the state's training system has in meeting those needs. Each voting member of the board may appoint a designee to function in his or her place with the right to vote. In making appointments to the board, the governor shall seek to ensure geographic, ethnic, and gender diversity and balance. The governor shall also seek to ensure diversity and balance by the appointment of persons with disabilities.

(2) The business representatives shall be selected from among nominations provided by state-wide business organizations. The nominations and selections shall reflect the cultural diversity of the state, including women, people with disabilities, and racial and ethnic minorities, and diversity in sizes of businesses.

(3) The labor representatives shall be selected from among nominations provided by state-wide labor organizations. The nominations and selections shall reflect the cultural diversity of the state, including women, people with disabilities, and racial and ethnic minorities.

(4) Each business member may cast a proxy vote or votes for any business member who is not present and who authorizes in writing the present member to cast such vote.

(5) Each labor member may cast a proxy vote for any labor member who is not present and who authorizes in writing the present member to cast such vote.

(6) The chair shall appoint to the board one nonvoting member to represent racial and ethnic minorities, women, and people with disabilities. The nonvoting member appointed by the chair shall serve for a term of four years with the term expiring on June 30th of the fourth year of the term.

(7) The business members of the board shall serve for terms of four years, the terms expiring on June 30th of the fourth year of the term except that in the case of initial members, one shall be appointed to a two-year term and one appointed to a three-year term.

(8) The labor members of the board shall serve for terms of four years, the terms expiring on June 30th of the fourth year of the term except that in the case of initial members, one shall be appointed to a two-year term and one appointed to a three-year term.

(9) Any vacancies among board members representing business or labor shall be filled by the governor with nominations provided by state-wide organizations representing business or labor, respectively.

(10) The board shall adopt bylaws and shall meet at least bimonthly and at such other times as determined by the chair who shall give reasonable prior notice to the members or at the request of a majority of the voting members.

(11) Members of the board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.040 and shall receive travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(12) The board shall be formed and ready to assume its responsibilities under this chapter by October 1, 1991.

(13) The board shall appoint a director who shall hold office at the pleasure of the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The director shall serve as chief executive officer of the board who shall administer the provisions of this chapter, employ such personnel as may be necessary to implement the purposes of this chapter, and utilize staff of existing operating agencies to the fullest extent possible.

(2) The director shall not be the chair of the board.

(3) Subject to the approval of the board, the director shall appoint necessary deputy and assistant directors and other staff who shall be exempt from the provisions of chapter 41.06 RCW. The director's appointees shall serve at the director's pleasure on such terms and conditions as the director determines but subject to the code of ethics contained in chapter 42.18 RCW.

(4) The director shall appoint and employ such other employees as may be required for the proper discharge of the functions of the board.

(5) The director shall, as permissible under P.L. 101-392, as amended, integrate the staff of the council on vocational education, and contract with the state board for community and technical colleges for assistance for adult basic skills and literacy policy development and planning as required by P.L. 100-297, as amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) The board shall be designated as the state board of vocational education as provided for in P.L. 98-524, as amended, and shall perform such functions as is necessary to comply with federal directives pertaining to the provisions of such law.

(2) The board shall monitor for consistency with the state comprehensive plan for work force training and education the policies and plans established by the state job training coordinating council, the advisory council on adult education, and the Washington state plan for adult basic education, and provide guidance for making such policies and plans consistent with the state comprehensive plan for work force training and education.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The board, in cooperation with the operating agencies of the state training system shall:

(1) Concentrate its major efforts on planning, coordination evaluation, policy analysis, and recommending improvements to the state's training system.

(2) Advocate for the state training system and for meeting the needs of employers and the work force for work force education and training.

(3) Establish and maintain an inventory of the programs of the state training system, and related state programs, and perform a biennial assessment of the vocational education, training, and adult basic education and literacy needs of the state; identify ongoing and strategic education needs; and assess the extent to which employment, training, vocational and basic education, rehabilitation services, and public assistance services represent a consistent, integrated approach to meet such needs.

(4) Develop and maintain a state comprehensive plan for work force training and education, including but not limited to, goals, objectives, and priorities for the state training system, and review the state training system for consistency with the state comprehensive plan. In developing the state comprehensive plan for work force training and education, the board shall use, but shall not be limited to: Economic, labor market, and populations trends reports in office of financial management forecasts; joint office of financial management and employment security department labor force, industry employment, and occupational forecasts; the results of scientifically based outcome, net-impact and cost-benefit evaluations; the needs of employers as evidenced in formal employer surveys and other employer input; and the needs of program participants and workers as evidenced in formal surveys and other input from program participants and the labor community.

(5) In consultation with the higher education coordinating board, review and make recommendations to the office of financial management and the legislature on operating and capital facilities budget requests for operating agencies of the state training system for purposes of consistency with the state comprehensive plan for work force training and education.

(6) Provide for coordination among the different operating agencies of the state training system at the state level and at the regional level.

(7) Develop a consistent and reliable data base on vocational education enrollments, costs, program activities, and job placements from publicly funded vocational education programs in this state.

(8) Establish standards for data collection and maintenance for the operating agencies of the state training system in a format that is accessible to use by the board. The board shall require a minimum of common core data to be collected by each operating agency of the state training system.

The board shall develop requirements for minimum common core data in consultation with the office of financial management and the operating agencies of the training system.

(9) Establish minimum standards for program evaluation for the operating agencies of the state training system, including, but not limited to, the use of common survey instruments and procedures for measuring perceptions of program participants and employers of program participants, and monitor such program evaluation.

(10) Every two years administer scientifically based outcome evaluations of the state training system, including, but not limited to, surveys of program participants, surveys of employers of program participants, and matches with employment security department payroll and wage files. Every five years administer scientifically based net-impact and cost-benefit evaluations of the state training system.

(11) In cooperation with the employment security department, provide for the improvement and maintenance of quality and utility in occupational information and forecasts for use in training system planning and evaluation. Improvements shall include, but not be limited to, development of state-based occupational change factors involving input by employers and employees, and delineation of skill and training requirements by education level associated with current and forecasted occupations.

(12) Provide for the development of common course description formats, common reporting requirements, and common definitions for operating agencies of the training system.

(13) Provide for effectiveness and efficiency reviews of the state training system.

(14) In cooperation with the higher education coordinating board, facilitate transfer of credit policies and agreements between institutions of the state training system, and encourage articulation agreements for programs encompassing two years of secondary work force education and two years of postsecondary work force education.

(15) In cooperation with the higher education coordinating board, facilitate transfer of credit policies and agreements between private training institutions and institutions of the state training system.

(16) Participate in the development of coordination criteria for activities under the job training partnership act with related programs and services provided by state and local education and training agencies.

(17) Make recommendations to the commission of student assessment, the state board of education, and the superintendent of public instruction, concerning basic skill competencies and essential core competencies for K-12 education. Basic skills for this purpose shall be reading, writing, computation, speaking, and critical thinking, essential core competencies for this purpose shall be English, math, science/technology, history, geography, and critical thinking. The board shall monitor the development of and provide advice concerning secondary curriculum which integrates vocational and academic education.

(18) Establish and administer programs for marketing and outreach to businesses and potential program participants.

(19) Facilitate the location of support services, including but not limited to, child care, financial aid, career counseling, and job placement services, for students and trainees at institutions in the state training system, and advocate for support services for trainees and students in the state training system.

(20) Facilitate private sector assistance for the state training system, including but not limited to: Financial assistance, rotation of private and public personnel, and vocational counseling.

(21) Facilitate programs for school-to-work transition that combine classroom education and on-the-job training in industries and occupations without a significant number of apprenticeship programs.

(22) Encourage and assess progress for the equitable representation of racial and ethnic minorities, women, and people with disabilities among the students, teachers, and administrators of the state training system. Equitable, for this purpose, shall mean substantially proportional to their percentage of the state population in the geographic area served. This function of the board shall in no way lessen more stringent state or federal requirements for representation of racial and ethnic minorities, women, and people with disabilities.

(23) Participate in the planning and policy development of governor set-aside grants under P.L. 97-300, as amended.

(24) Administer veterans' programs, licensure of private vocational schools, the job skills program, and the Washington award for vocational excellence.

(25) Allocate funding from the state job training trust fund.

(26) Adopt rules as necessary to implement this chapter.

The board may delegate to the director any of the functions of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The state board for vocational education is hereby abolished and its powers, duties, and functions are hereby transferred to the work force training and education coordinating board. All references to the director or the state board for vocational education in the Revised Code of Washington shall be construed to mean the director or the work force training and education coordinating board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. All reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, papers, or written material in the possession of the state board for vocational education shall be delivered to the custody of the work force training and education coordinating board. All cabinets, furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property employed by the state board for vocational education shall be made available to the work force training and education coordinating board. All funds, credits, or other assets held by the state board for vocational education shall be assigned to the work force training and education coordinating board.

Any appropriations made to the state board for vocational education shall, on the effective date of this section, be transferred and credited to the work force training and education coordinating board.

Whenever any question arises as to the transfer of any personnel, funds, books, documents, records, papers, files, equipment, or other tangible property used or held in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties and functions transferred, the director of financial management shall make a determination as to the proper allocation and certify the same to the state agencies concerned.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. All employees of the state board for vocational education who are classified under chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service law, are assigned to the work force training and education coordinating board to perform their usual duties upon the same terms as formerly, without any loss of rights, subject to any action that may be appropriate thereafter in accordance with the laws and rules governing state civil service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. All rules and all pending business before the state board for vocational education shall be continued and acted upon by the work force training and education coordinating board. All existing contracts and obligations shall remain in full force and shall be performed by the work force training and education coordinating board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The transfer of the powers, duties, functions, and personnel of the state board for vocational education shall not affect the validity of any act performed prior to the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. If apportionments of budgeted funds are required because of the transfers directed by sections 10 through 13 of this act, the director of financial management shall certify the apportionments to the agencies affected, the state auditor, and the state treasurer. Each of these shall make the appropriate transfer and adjustments in funds and appropriation accounts and equipment records in accordance with the certification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Nothing contained in sections 9 through 14 of this act may be construed to alter any existing collective bargaining unit or the provisions of any existing collective bargaining agreement until the agreement has expired or until the bargaining unit has been modified by action of the personnel board as provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. (1) There is hereby created the Washington state job training coordinating council for so long as a state council is required by federal law or regulation as a condition for receipt of federal funds. The council shall perform all duties of state job training coordinating council as specified in the federal job training partnership act, P.L. 97-300, as amended, including the preparation of a coordination and special services plan for a two-year period, consistent with the state comprehensive plan for work force training and education prepared by the work force training and education coordinating board as provided for in section 8 of this act.

(2) The work force training and education coordinating board shall monitor the need for the council as described in subsection (1) of this section, and, if that need no longer exists, propose legislation to terminate the council.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. (1) Current members of the Washington state job training coordinating council appointed pursuant to P.L. 97-300, as amended, shall serve as the state council for purposes of this chapter until new appointments are made consistent with this section.

(2) New appointments to the state council shall be made by July 1, 1991. Members of the Washington state job training council shall be appointed by the governor as required by federal law and shall be representative of the population of the state with regard to sex, race, ethnic background, and geographical distribution. To the maximum extent feasible, the governor shall give consideration to providing overlapping membership with the membership of the work force training and education coordinating board. One voting member of the council shall be a representative of the administrators for the service delivery areas established under P.L. 97-300. One voting member of the council shall be a representative of the private industry councils established under P.L. 97-300.

(3) The Washington state job training coordinating council shall provide staff and allocate funds to the work force training and education coordinating board, as appropriate, to carry out the overlapping functions of the two bodies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. (1) There is hereby created the Washington state council on vocational education for so long as a state council is required by federal law or regulation as a condition for receipt of federal funds. The council on vocational education shall perform all duties of councils on vocational education as specified in P.L. 101-392, as amended.

(2) The work force training and education coordinating board shall monitor the need for the council as described in subsection (1) of this section, and, if that need no longer exists, propose legislation to terminate the council.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Current members of the Washington state council on vocational education appointed pursuant to P.L. 98-524, as amended, shall serve as the state council on vocational education for purposes of this chapter until new appointments are made consistent with this section. New appointments to the state council on vocational education shall be made by July 1, 1991. The council on vocational education shall consist of thirteen members appointed by the governor consistent with the provisions of P.L. 101-392, as amended. In making these appointments, to the maximum extent feasible, the governor shall give consideration to providing overlapping membership with the membership of the state job training coordinating council.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. The council on vocational education shall perform its functions consistent with the state comprehensive plan for work force training and education prepared by the work force training and education coordinating board as provided for in section 8 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. (1) There is hereby created the Washington advisory council on adult education. The advisory council shall advise the state board for community and technical colleges and the work force training and education coordinating board concerning adult basic education and literacy programs. The advisory council shall perform all duties of state advisory councils on adult education as specified in P.L. 100-297, as amended. The advisory council's actions shall be consistent with the state comprehensive plan for work force training and education prepared by the work force training and education coordinating board as provided for in section 8 of this act.

(2) The advisory council on adult education shall consist of nine members as required by federal law, appointed by the governor. In making these appointments, to the maximum extent feasible, the governor shall give consideration to providing overlapping membership with the membership of the state job training coordinating council, and the governor shall give consideration to individuals with expertise and experience in adult basic education.

(3) The work force training and education coordinating board shall monitor the need for the council as described in subsection (1) of this section, and, if that need no longer exists, propose legislation to terminate the council.

Sec. 22. RCW 28B.50.010 and 1969 ex.s. c 223 s 28B.50.010 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall be known as and may be cited as the community and technical college act of ((1967)) 1991.

Sec. 23. RCW 28B.50.020 and 1969 ex.s. c 261 s 17 are each amended to read as follows:

The purpose of this chapter is to provide for the dramatically increasing number of students requiring high standards of education either as a part of the continuing higher education program or for occupational education and training, or for adult basic skills and literacy education, by creating a new, independent system of community and technical colleges which will:

(1) Offer an open door to every citizen, regardless of his or her academic background or experience, at a cost normally within his or her economic means;

(2) Ensure that each ~~((community))~~ college district shall offer thoroughly comprehensive educational, training and service programs to meet the needs of both the communities and students served by combining ~~((with equal emphasis,))~~ high standards of excellence in academic transfer courses; realistic and practical courses in occupational education, both graded and ungraded; community services of an educational, cultural, and recreational nature; and adult education, including basic skills and general, family, and work force literacy programs and services. However, college districts containing only technical colleges shall maintain programs solely for occupational education, basic skills, and literacy purposes, and, for as long as a need exists, may continue those programs, activities, and services offered by the technical colleges during the twelve-month period preceding the effective date of this section;

(3) Provide for basic skills and literacy education, and occupational education and technical training at technical colleges in order to prepare students for careers in a competitive work force;

(4) Provide or coordinate related and supplemental instruction for apprentices at community and technical colleges;

(5) Provide administration by state and local boards which will avoid unnecessary duplication of facilities or programs; and which will encourage efficiency in operation and creativity and imagination in education, training and service to meet the needs of the community and students;

~~((4))~~ (6) Allow for the growth, improvement, flexibility and modification of the community colleges and their education, training and service programs as future needs occur; and

~~((5))~~ (7) Establish firmly that community colleges are, for purposes of academic training, two year institutions, and are an independent, unique, and vital section of our state's higher education system, separate from both the common school system and other institutions of higher learning, and never to be considered for conversion into four-year liberal arts colleges.

Sec. 24. RCW 28B.50.030 and 1985 c 461 s 14 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise, the term:

(1) "System" shall mean the state system of community and technical colleges, which shall be a system of higher education~~((;))~~.

(2) "Board" shall mean the work force training and education coordinating board.

(3) "College board" shall mean the state board for community and technical colleges ~~((education))~~ created by this chapter~~((;))~~.

~~((3))~~ (4) "Director" shall mean the administrative director for the state system of community and technical colleges~~((;))~~.

~~((4))~~ (5) "District" shall mean any one of the community and technical college districts created by this chapter~~((;))~~.

~~((5))~~ (6) "Board of trustees" shall mean the local community and technical college board of trustees established for each ~~((community))~~ college district within the state~~((;))~~.

~~((6))~~ "~~Council~~" shall mean the ~~coordinating council for occupational education~~~~((;))~~

(7) "Occupational education" shall mean that education or training that will prepare a student for employment that does not require a baccalaureate degree~~((;))~~.

(8) "K-12 system" shall mean the public school program including kindergarten through the twelfth grade~~((;))~~.

(9) "Common school board" shall mean a public school district board of directors~~((;))~~.

(10) "Community college" shall include ~~((where applicable, vocational technical and adult))~~ those higher education institutions that conduct education programs ~~((conducted by community colleges and vocational technical institutes whose major emphasis is in post high school education;))~~ under RCW 28B.50.020.

(11) "Technical college" shall include those higher education institutions with the sole mission of conducting occupational education, basic skills, literacy programs, and offering on short notice, when appropriate, programs that meet specific industry needs. The programs of technical colleges shall include, but not be limited to, continuous enrollment, competency-based instruction, industry-experienced faculty, curriculum integrating vocational and basic skills education, and curriculum approved by representatives of employers and labor. For purposes of this chapter, technical colleges shall include Lake Washington Vocational-Technical Institute, Renton Vocational-Technical Institute, Bates Vocational-Technical Institute, Clover Park Vocational Institute, and Bellingham Vocational-Technical Institute.

(12) "Adult education" shall mean all education or instruction, including academic, vocational education or training, basic skills and literacy training, and "occupational education" provided by public educational institutions, including common school districts for persons who are eighteen years of age and over or who hold a high school diploma or certificate~~((= PROVIDED, That))~~. However, "adult education" shall not include academic education or instruction for persons under twenty-one years of age who do not hold a high school degree or diploma and who are attending a public high school for the sole purpose of obtaining a high school diploma or certificate~~((= PROVIDED, FURTHER, That))~~, nor shall "adult education" ((shall not)) include education or instruction provided by any four year public institution of higher education~~((= AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That adult education shall not include education or instruction provided by a vocational technical institute))~~.

(29) The twenty-ninth district shall encompass all of Pierce county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. There is hereby created a board of trustees for district twenty-six and Lake Washington Vocational-Technical Institute, hereafter known as Lake Washington Technical College. The members of the board shall be appointed pursuant to the provisions of RCW 28B.50.100.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. There is hereby created a board of trustees for district twenty-seven and Renton Vocational-Technical Institute, hereafter known as Renton Technical College. The members of the board shall be appointed pursuant to the provisions of RCW 28B.50.100.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. There is hereby created a board of trustees for district twenty-five and Bellingham Vocational-Technical Institute, hereafter known as Bellingham Technical College. The members of the board shall be appointed pursuant to the provisions of RCW 28B.50.100.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. There is hereby created a new board of trustees for district twenty-eight and Bates Vocational-Technical Institute, hereafter known as Bates Technical College. The members of the board shall be appointed pursuant to the provisions of RCW 28B.50.100.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. There is hereby created a new board of trustees for district twenty-nine and Clover Park Vocational-Technical Institute, hereafter known as Clover Park Technical College. The members of the board shall be appointed pursuant to the provisions of RCW 28B.50.100.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. By December 1, 1996, the state board shall complete a report evaluating successes and difficulties associated with the merger of the technical and community colleges into one system. The evaluation shall include but need not be limited to consideration of all local governance models for technical colleges. The state board shall provide the report, and any recommendations, including recommendations for revisions to local governance models, to the governor, the house and senate committees on higher education, and the work force training and education coordinating board.

Sec. 32. RCW 28B.50.050 and 1988 c 76 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created the "state board for community ((college education)) and technical colleges", to consist of ((eight)) nine members((~~one from each congressional district, as now or hereafter existing~~)) who represent the geographic diversity of the state, and who shall be appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate. At least two members shall reside east of the Cascade mountains. In making these appointments, the governor shall attempt to provide geographic balance and give consideration to representing labor, business, women, and racial and ethnic minorities, among the membership of the board. At least one member of the board shall be from business and at least one member of the board shall be from labor. The current members of the state board for community college education on the effective date of this section shall serve on the state board for community and technical colleges until their terms expire. Successors to these members shall be appointed according to the terms of this section. A ninth member shall be appointed by the effective date of this section for a complete term.

The successors of the members initially appointed shall be appointed for terms of four years except that ~~((any))~~ a person~~((s))~~ appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of any term shall be appointed only for the remainder of such term. Each member shall serve until the appointment and qualification of his or her successor. All members shall be citizens and bona fide residents of the state.

~~((The board shall not be deemed unlawfully constituted and a member of the board shall not be deemed ineligible to serve the remainder of the member's unexpired term on the board solely by reason of the establishment of new or revised boundaries for congressional districts.))~~

Members of the college board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and shall receive reimbursement for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 for each day actually spent in attending to the duties as a member of the college board.

The members of the college board may be removed by the governor for inefficiency, neglect of duty, or malfeasance in office, in the manner provided by RCW 28B.10.500.

Sec. 33. RCW 28B.50.060 and 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 s 75 are each amended to read as follows:

A director of the state system of community and technical colleges shall be appointed by the college board and shall serve at the pleasure of the college board. ~~((He))~~ The director shall be appointed with due regard to ~~((his))~~ the applicant's fitness and background in education, ~~((by his))~~ and knowledge of and recent practical experience in the field of educational administration particularly in institutions beyond the high school level. The college board may also take into consideration an applicant's proven management background even though not particularly in the field of education.

The director shall devote his or her time to the duties of his or her office and shall not have any direct pecuniary interest in or any stock or bonds of any business connected with or selling supplies to the field of education within this state, in keeping with chapter 42.18 RCW, the executive conflict of interest act.

~~((He))~~ The director shall receive a salary to be fixed by the college board and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses incurred ~~((by him))~~ in the discharge of his or her official duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060, as now existing or hereafter amended.

~~((He))~~ The director shall be the executive officer of the college board and serve as its secretary and under its supervision shall administer the provisions of this chapter and the rules, regulations and orders established thereunder and all other laws of the state. ~~((He))~~ The director shall attend, but not vote at, all meetings of the college board. ~~((He))~~ The director shall be in charge of offices of the college board and responsible to the college board for the preparation of reports and the collection and dissemination of data and other public information relating to the state system of community and technical colleges. At the direction of the college board, ~~((he))~~ the director shall, together with the chairman of the college board, execute all contracts entered into by the college board.

The director shall, with the approval of the college board: (1) Employ necessary assistant directors of major staff divisions who shall serve at ~~((his))~~ the director's pleasure on such terms and conditions as ~~((he))~~ the director determines, and (2) subject to the provisions of chapter 28B.16 RCW, the higher education personnel law, the director shall, with the approval of the college board, appoint and employ such field and office assistants, clerks and other employees as may be required and authorized for the proper discharge of the functions of the college board and for whose services funds have been appropriated.

The board may, by written order filed in its office, delegate to the director any of the powers and duties vested in or imposed upon it by this chapter. Such delegated powers and duties may be exercised by the director in the name of the college board.

Sec. 34. RCW 28B.50.085 and 1981 c 246 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

The state board for community and technical colleges ~~((education))~~ shall appoint a treasurer who shall be the financial officer of the board, who shall make such vendor payments and salary payments for the entire community and technical college system as authorized by the state board, and who shall hold office during the pleasure of the board. All moneys received by the state board and not required to be deposited elsewhere, shall be deposited in a depository selected by the board, which moneys shall be subject to the budgetary and audit provisions of law applicable to state agencies. The depository selected by the state board shall conform to the collateral requirements required for the deposit of other state funds. Disbursement shall be made by check signed by the treasurer. The treasurer shall render a true and faithful account of all moneys received and paid out by him or her and shall give bond for the faithful performance of the duties of his or her office in such amount as the board requires: PROVIDED, That the board shall pay the fee for any such bonds.

Sec. 35. RCW 28B.50.090 and 1982 c 50 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The college board shall have general supervision and control over the state system of community and technical colleges. In addition to the other powers and duties imposed upon the college board by this chapter, the college board shall be charged with the following powers, duties and responsibilities:

(1) Review the budgets prepared by the ~~((community college))~~ boards of trustees, prepare a single budget for the support of the state system of community and technical colleges and adult education, and submit this budget to the governor as provided in RCW 43.88.090(~~the coordinating council shall assist with the preparation of the community college budget that has to do with vocational education programs~~);

(2) Establish guidelines for the disbursement of funds; and receive and disburse such funds for adult education and maintenance and operation and capital support of the ~~((community))~~ college districts in conformance with the state and district budgets, and in conformance with chapter 43.88 RCW;

(3) Ensure, through the full use of its authority:

(a) That each ~~((community))~~ college district shall offer thoroughly comprehensive educational, training and service programs to meet the needs of both the communities and students served by combining~~((, with equal emphasis,))~~ high standards of excellence in academic transfer courses; realistic and practical courses in occupational education, both graded and ungraded; and community services of an educational, cultural, and recreational nature; and adult education~~((: PROVIDED, That notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, a community college shall not be required to offer a program of vocational technical training, when such a program as approved by the coordinating council for occupational education is already operating in the district)), including basic skills and general, family, and work force literacy programs and services. However, technical colleges, and college districts containing only technical colleges, shall maintain programs solely for occupational education, basic skills, and literacy purposes.~~

For as long as a need exists, technical colleges may continue those programs, activities, and services they offered during the twelve-month period preceding the effective date of this section;

(b) That each ((community)) college district shall maintain an open-door policy, to the end that no student will be denied admission because of the location of ((his)) the student's residence or because of ((his)) the student's educational background or ability; that, insofar as is practical in the judgment of the college board, curriculum offerings will be provided to meet the educational and training needs of the community generally and the students thereof; and that all students, regardless of their differing courses of study, will be considered, known and recognized equally as members of the student body: PROVIDED, That the administrative officers of a community or technical college may deny admission to a prospective student or attendance to an enrolled student if, in their judgment, ((he)) the student would not be competent to profit from the curriculum offerings of the ((community)) college; or would, by his or her presence or conduct, create a disruptive atmosphere within the ((community)) college not consistent with the purposes of the institution. This subsection (b) shall not apply to competency, conduct, or presence associated with a disability in a person twenty-one years of age or younger attending a technical college;

(4) Prepare a comprehensive master plan for the development of community and technical college education and training in the state; and assist the office of financial management in the preparation of enrollment projections to support plans for providing adequate ((community)) college facilities in all areas of the state;

(5) Define and administer criteria and guidelines for the establishment of new community and technical colleges or campuses within the existing districts;

(6) Establish criteria and procedures for modifying district boundary lines consistent with the purposes set forth in RCW 28B.50.020 as now or hereafter amended and in accordance therewith make such changes as it deems advisable;

(7) Establish minimum standards to govern the operation of the community and technical colleges with respect to:

(a) Qualifications and credentials of instructional and key administrative personnel, except as otherwise provided in the state plan for vocational education,

(b) Internal budgeting, accounting, auditing, and financial procedures as necessary to supplement the general requirements prescribed pursuant to chapter 43.88 RCW,

(c) The content of the curriculums and other educational and training programs, and the requirement for degrees and certificates awarded by the colleges,

(d) Standard admission policies,

(e) Eligibility of courses to receive state fund support;

(8) Establish and administer criteria and procedures for all capital construction including the establishment, installation, and expansion of facilities within the various ((community)) college districts;

(9) Encourage innovation in the development of new educational and training programs and instructional methods; coordinate research efforts to this end; and disseminate the findings thereof;

(10) Exercise any other powers, duties and responsibilities necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter;

(11) Authorize the various community and technical colleges to offer programs and courses in other districts when it determines that such action is consistent with the purposes set forth in RCW 28B.50.020 as now or hereafter amended;

(12) Notwithstanding any other law or statute regarding the sale of state property, sell or exchange and convey any or all interest in any community and technical college real and personal property, except such property as is received by a ((community)) college district in accordance with RCW 28B.50.140(8), when it determines that such property is surplus or that such a sale or exchange is in the best interests of the community and technical college system;

(13) In order that the treasurer for the state board for community and technical colleges (~~(education)~~) appointed in accordance with RCW 28B.50.085 may make vendor payments, the state treasurer will honor warrants drawn by the state board providing for an initial advance on July 1, 1982, of the current biennium and on July 1 of each succeeding biennium from the state general fund in an amount equal to twenty-four percent of the average monthly allotment for such budgeted biennium expenditures for the state board for community and technical colleges (~~(education)~~) as certified by the office of financial management; and at the conclusion of such initial month and for each succeeding month of any biennium, the state treasurer will reimburse expenditures incurred and reported monthly by the state board treasurer in accordance with chapter 43.88 RCW: PROVIDED, That the reimbursement to the state board for actual expenditures incurred in the final month of each biennium shall be less the initial advance made in such biennium;

(14) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (12) of this section, may receive such gifts, grants, conveyances, devises, and bequests of real or personal property from private sources as may be made from time to time, in trust or otherwise, whenever the terms and conditions thereof will aid in carrying out the community and technical college programs and may sell, lease or exchange, invest or expend the same or the proceeds, rents, profits and income thereof according to the terms and conditions thereof; and adopt regulations to govern the receipt and expenditure of the proceeds, rents, profits and income thereof(;-);

(15) The college board shall have the power of eminent domain;

(16) Provide general supervision over the state's technical colleges. The president of each technical college shall report directly to the director of the state board for community and technical colleges, or the director's designee, until local control is assumed by a new or existing board of trustees as appropriate, except that a college president shall have authority over program decisions of his or her college until the establishment of a board of trustees for that college. The directors of the vocational-technical institutes on March 1, 1991, shall be designated as the presidents of the new technical colleges.

Sec. 36. RCW 28B.50.092 and 1977 ex.s. c 131 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The state board for community and technical colleges (~~(education)~~) may authorize any (~~(community-college)~~) board of trustees to do all things necessary to conduct an education, training, and service program authorized by chapter 28B.50 RCW, as now or hereafter amended, for United States military personnel and their dependents, and department of defense civilians and their dependents, at any geographical location: PROVIDED, That such programs shall be limited to those colleges which conducted programs for United States military personnel prior to January 1, 1977: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any high school completion program conducted pursuant to this section shall comply with standards set forth in rules and regulations promulgated by the superintendent of public instruction and the state board of education: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the superintendent of public instruction shall issue the certificate or diploma in recognition of high school completion education provided pursuant to this section.

Sec. 37. RCW 28B.50.093 and 1973 c 105 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

Prior to the state board granting authorization for any programs authorized under RCW 28B.50.092, the state board shall determine that such authorization will not deter from the primary functions of the community and technical college system within the state of Washington as prescribed by chapter 28B.50 RCW.

Sec. 38. RCW 28B.50.095 and 1983 c 3 s 40 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to other powers and duties, the college board may issue rules and regulations permitting a student to register at more than one community and technical college, provided that such student shall pay tuition and fees as if ~~((he))~~ the student were registered at a single college, but not to exceed tuition and fees charged a full-time student as established by RCW 28B.15.502.

Sec. 39. RCW 28B.50.100 and 1987 c 330 s 1001 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created a ~~((community college))~~ board of trustees for each ~~((community))~~ college district as set forth in this chapter. Each ~~((community college))~~ board of trustees shall be composed of five trustees, who shall be appointed by the governor for terms commencing October 1st of the year in which appointed. In making such appointments the governor shall give consideration to geographical ~~((exigencies, and the interests of labor, industry, agriculture, the professions and ethnic groups))~~ diversity, and representing labor, business, women, and racial and ethnic minorities, in the membership of the boards of trustees. The boards of trustees for districts containing technical colleges shall include at least one member from business and one member from labor.

The successors of the trustees initially appointed shall be appointed by the governor to serve for a term of five years except that any person appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of any term shall be appointed only for the remainder of the term. Each member shall serve until a successor is appointed and qualified.

Every trustee shall be a resident and qualified elector of the ~~((community))~~ college district. No trustee may be an employee of the community and technical college system, a member of the board of directors of any school district, or a member of the governing board of any public or private educational institution.

Each board of trustees shall organize itself by electing a chairman from its members. The board shall adopt a seal and may adopt such bylaws, rules and regulations as it deems necessary for its own government. Three members of the board shall constitute a quorum, but a lesser number may adjourn from time to time and may compel the attendance of absent members in such manner as prescribed in its bylaws, rules, or regulations. The district president, or if there be none, the president of the ~~((community))~~ college, shall serve as, or may designate another person to serve as, the secretary of the board, who shall not be deemed to be a member of the board.

Members of the boards of trustees may be removed for misconduct or malfeasance in office in the manner provided by RCW 28B.10.500.

Sec. 40. RCW 28B.50.130 and 1977 c 75 s 27 are each amended to read as follows:

Within thirty days of their appointment ~~((or July 1, 1967, whichever is sooner,))~~ the various district boards of trustees shall organize, adopt bylaws for its own government, and make such rules and regulations not inconsistent with this chapter as they deem necessary. At such organizational meeting it shall elect from among its members a ~~((chairman and a vice chairman))~~ chair and vice-chair, each to serve for one year, and annually thereafter shall elect such officers to serve until their successors are appointed or qualified. The chief executive officer of the ~~((community))~~ college district, or ~~((his))~~ designee, shall serve as secretary of the board. Three trustees shall constitute a quorum, and no action shall be taken by less than a majority of the trustees of the board. The district boards shall transmit such reports to the college board as may be requested by the college board. The fiscal year of the district boards shall conform to the fiscal year of the state.

Sec. 41. RCW 28B.50.140 and 1990 c 135 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

Each ~~((community college))~~ board of trustees:

(1) Shall operate all existing community and technical colleges (~~and vocational-technical institutes~~) in its district;

(2) Shall create comprehensive programs of community and technical college education and training and maintain an open-door policy in accordance with the provisions of RCW 28B.50.090(3). However, technical colleges, and college districts containing only technical colleges, shall maintain programs solely for occupational education, basic skills, and literacy purposes. For as long as a need exists, technical colleges may continue those programs, activities, and services they offered during the twelve-month period preceding the effective date of this section;

(3) Shall employ for a period to be fixed by the board a college president for each community and technical college (~~district~~) and (~~where applicable community college~~), may appoint a president(~~s within~~) for the district, and fix their duties and compensation, which may include elements other than salary. Compensation under this subsection shall not affect but may supplement retirement, health care, and other benefits that are otherwise applicable to the presidents as state employees. The board shall also employ for a period to be fixed by the board members of the faculty and such other administrative officers and other employees as may be necessary or appropriate and fix their salaries and duties. Compensation and salary increases under this subsection shall not exceed the amount or percentage established for those purposes in the state appropriations act by the legislature as allocated to the board of trustees by the state board for community and technical colleges (~~education~~). The state board for community and technical colleges (~~education~~) shall adopt rules defining the permissible elements of compensation under this subsection;

(4) May establish, under the approval and direction of the college board, new facilities as community needs and interests demand. However, the authority of (~~community college~~) boards of trustees to purchase or lease major off-campus facilities shall be subject to the approval of the higher education coordinating board pursuant to RCW 28B.80.340(5);

(5) May establish or lease, operate, equip and maintain dormitories, food service facilities, bookstores and other self-supporting facilities connected with the operation of the community and technical college;

(6) May, with the approval of the college board, borrow money and issue and sell revenue bonds or other evidences of indebtedness for the construction, reconstruction, erection, equipping with permanent fixtures, demolition and major alteration of buildings or other capital assets, and the acquisition of sites, rights-of-way, easements, improvements or appurtenances, for dormitories, food service facilities, and other self-supporting facilities connected with the operation of the community and technical college in accordance with the provisions of RCW 28B.10.300 through 28B.10.330 where applicable;

(7) May establish fees and charges for the facilities authorized hereunder, including reasonable rules and regulations for the government thereof, not inconsistent with the rules and regulations of the college board; each board of trustees operating a community and technical college may enter into agreements, subject to rules and regulations of the college board, with owners of facilities to be used for housing regarding the management, operation, and government of such facilities, and any board entering into such an agreement may:

(a) Make rules and regulations for the government, management and operation of such housing facilities deemed necessary or advisable; and

(b) Employ necessary employees to govern, manage and operate the same;

(8) May receive such gifts, grants, conveyances, devises and bequests of real or personal property from private sources, as may be made from time to time, in trust or otherwise, whenever the terms and conditions thereof will aid in carrying out the community and technical college programs as specified by law and the regulations of the state college board; sell, lease or exchange, invest or expend the same or the proceeds, rents, profits and income thereof according to the terms and conditions thereof; and adopt regulations to govern the receipt and expenditure of the proceeds, rents, profits and income thereof;

(9) May establish and maintain night schools whenever in the discretion of the board of trustees it is deemed advisable, and authorize classrooms and other facilities to be used for summer or night schools, or for public meetings and for any other uses consistent with the use of such classrooms, or facilities for community and technical college purposes;

(10) May make rules and regulations for pedestrian and vehicular traffic on property owned, operated, or maintained by the (~~community college~~) district;

(11) Shall prescribe, with the assistance of the faculty, the course of study in the various departments of the community and technical college or colleges under its control, and publish such catalogues and bulletins as may become necessary;

(12) May grant to every student, upon graduation or completion of a course of study, a suitable diploma, nonbaccalaureate degree or certificate. Technical colleges shall offer only nonbaccalaureate technical degrees, certificates, or diplomas for occupational courses of study under rules of the college board. Technical colleges in districts twenty-eight and twenty-nine may offer nonbaccalaureate associate of technical or applied arts degrees only in conjunction with a community college the district of which overlaps with the district of the technical college, and these degrees may only be offered after a contract or agreement is executed between the technical college and the community college. The authority and responsibility to offer transfer level academic support and general education for students of districts twenty-one and twenty-five shall reside exclusively with Whatcom Community College;

(13) Shall enforce the rules and regulations prescribed by the state board for community and technical colleges (~~education~~) for the government of community and technical colleges, students and teachers, and promulgate such rules and regulations and perform all other acts not inconsistent with law or rules and regulations of the state board for community and technical colleges (~~education~~) as the board of trustees may in its discretion deem necessary or appropriate to the administration of (~~community~~) college districts: PROVIDED, That such rules and regulations shall include, but not be limited to, rules and regulations relating to housing, scholarships, conduct at the various community and technical college facilities, and discipline: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the board of trustees may suspend or expel from community and technical colleges students who refuse to obey any of the duly promulgated rules and regulations;

(14) May, by written order filed in its office, delegate to the president or district president any of the powers and duties vested in or imposed upon it by this chapter. Such delegated powers and duties may be exercised in the name of the district board;

(15) May perform such other activities consistent with this chapter and not in conflict with the directives of the college board;

(16) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, may offer educational services on a contractual basis other than the tuition and fee basis set forth in chapter 28B.15 RCW for a special fee to private or governmental entities, consistent with rules and regulations adopted by the state board for community and technical colleges (~~education~~): PROVIDED, That the whole of such special fee shall go to the college district and be not less than the full instructional costs of such services including any salary increases authorized by the legislature for community and technical college employees during the term of the agreement: PROVIDED FURTHER, That enrollments generated hereunder shall not be counted toward the official enrollment level of the college district for state funding purposes;

(17) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, may offer educational services on a contractual basis, charging tuition and fees as set forth in chapter 28B.15 RCW, counting such enrollments for state funding purposes, and may additionally charge a special supplemental fee when necessary to cover the full instructional costs of such services: PROVIDED, That such contracts shall be subject to review by the state board for community and technical colleges (~~(education)~~) and to such rules as the state board may adopt for that purpose in order to assure that the sum of the supplemental fee and the normal state funding shall not exceed the projected total cost of offering the educational service: PROVIDED FURTHER, That enrollments generated by courses offered on the basis of contracts requiring payment of a share of the normal costs of the course will be discounted to the percentage provided by the college;

(18) Shall be authorized to pay dues to any association of trustees that may be formed by the various boards of trustees; such association may expend any or all of such funds to submit biennially, or more often if necessary, to the governor and to the legislature, the recommendations of the association regarding changes which would affect the efficiency of such association;

(19) Subject to the approval of the higher education coordinating board pursuant to RCW 28B.80.340(4), may participate in higher education centers and consortia that involve any four-year public or independent college or university; and

(20) Shall perform any other duties and responsibilities imposed by law or rule and regulation of the state board.

Sec. 42. RCW 28B.50.142 and 1977 ex.s. c 331 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

Each board of (~~community college~~) trustees shall appoint a treasurer who shall be the financial officer of the board and who shall hold office during the pleasure of the board. Each treasurer shall render a true and faithful account of all moneys received and paid out by him or her, comply with the provisions of RCW 28B.50.143, and shall give bond for the faithful performance of the duties of his or her office in such amount as the trustees require: PROVIDED, That the respective community and technical colleges shall pay the fees for any such bonds.

Sec. 43. RCW 28B.50.143 and 1985 c 180 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

In order that each (~~community~~) college treasurer appointed in accordance with RCW 28B.50.142 may make vendor payments, the state treasurer will honor warrants drawn by each community and technical college providing for one initial advance (~~on September 1, 1977, of the current biennium and~~) on July 1 of each succeeding biennium from the state general fund in an amount equal to seventeen percent of each institution's average monthly allotment for such budgeted biennium expenditures as certified by the office of financial management, and at the conclusion of each such initial month, and for each succeeding month of any biennium, the state treasurer will reimburse each institution for each expenditure incurred and reported monthly by each (~~community~~) college treasurer in accordance with chapter 43.83 RCW: PROVIDED, That the reimbursement to each institution for actual expenditures incurred in the final month of each biennium shall be less the initial advance.

Sec. 44. RCW 28B.50.145 and 1969 ex.s. c 283 s 51 are each amended to read as follows:

The boards of trustees of the various (~~community~~) college districts (~~are hereby directed to~~) may create (~~no later than January 1, 1970~~) at each community or technical college (~~or vocational technical institute~~) under their control a faculty senate or similar organization to be selected by periodic vote of the respective faculties thereof.

Sec. 45. RCW 28B.50.150 and 1969 ex.s. c 223 s 28B.50.150 are each amended to read as follows:

Any resident of the state may enroll in any program or course maintained or conducted by a (~~community~~) college district upon the same terms and conditions regardless of the district of his or her residence.

Sec. 46. RCW 28B.50.205 and 1988 c 206 s 502 are each amended to read as follows:

The state board for community and technical colleges ((~~education~~)) shall make information available to all newly matriculated students on methods of transmission of the human immunodeficiency virus and prevention of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome. The curricula and materials shall be reviewed for medical accuracy by the office on AIDS in coordination with the appropriate regional AIDS service network.

Sec. 47. RCW 28B.50.242 and 1990 c 208 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:

The state board for community and technical colleges ((~~education~~)) shall provide state-wide coordination of video telecommunications programming for the community and technical college system.

Sec. 48. RCW 28B.50.250 and 1969 ex.s. c 261 s 25 are each amended to read as follows:

The state board for community and technical colleges ((~~education~~)) and the state board of education are hereby authorized to permit, on an ad hoc basis, the common school districts to conduct pursuant to RCW 28B.50.530 a program in adult education in behalf of a ((~~community~~)) college district when such program will not conflict with existing programs of the same nature and in the same geographical area conducted by the ((~~community~~)) college districts: PROVIDED, That federal programs for adult education ((~~which are funded directly to the state board of education~~)) shall be administered by the ((~~superintendent of public instruction in cooperation with the director of the~~)) state board for community and technical colleges ((~~education~~)), which agency is hereby declared to be the state educational agency primarily responsible for supervision of adult education in the public schools as defined by RCW 28B.50.020.

Sec. 49. RCW 28B.50.320 and 1971 ex.s. c 279 s 17 are each amended to read as follows:

All operating fees, services and activities fees, and all other income which the trustees are authorized to impose shall be deposited as the trustees may direct unless otherwise provided by law. Such sums of money shall be subject to the budgetary and audit provisions of law applicable to state agencies. The depository selected by the trustees shall conform to the collateral requirements required for deposit of other state funds.

Disbursement shall be made by check signed by the president of the ((~~community~~)) college or ((~~his~~)) the president's designee appointed in writing, and such other person as may be designated by the board of trustees of the ((~~community~~)) college district. Each person authorized to sign as provided above, shall execute a surety bond as provided in RCW 43.17.100. Said bond or bonds shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state.

Sec. 50. RCW 28B.50.330 and 1979 ex.s. c 12 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

The boards of trustees of ((~~community~~)) college districts are empowered in accordance with the provisions of this chapter to provide for the construction, reconstruction, erection, equipping, demolition, and major alterations of buildings and other capital assets, and the acquisition of sites, rights-of-way, easements, improvements, or appurtenances for the use of the aforementioned colleges as authorized by the college board in accordance with RCW 28B.50.140; to be financed by bonds payable out of special funds from revenues hereafter derived from income received from such facilities, gifts, bequests, or grants, and such additional funds as the legislature may provide, and payable out of a bond retirement fund to be established by the respective district boards in accordance with rules and regulations of the state board. With respect to building, improvements, or repairs, or other work, where the estimated cost exceeds ((~~five~~)) fifteen thousand dollars, complete plans and specifications for such work shall be prepared and such work shall be prepared and such work shall be put out for public bids and the contract shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder if in accordance with the bid specifications: PROVIDED, That any project regardless of dollar amount may be put to public bid.

Where the estimated cost to any ((community)) college of any building, improvements, or repairs, or other work, is less than five thousand dollars, the publication requirements of RCW 39.04.020 and ((39.04.090)) 39.04.070 shall be inapplicable.

Sec. 51. RCW 28B.50.340 and 1985 c 390 s 54 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to the powers conferred under RCW 28B.50.090, the ((community)) college ((state)) board is authorized and shall have the power:

(1) To permit the district boards of trustees to contract for the construction, reconstruction, erection, equipping, maintenance, demolition and major alterations of buildings and other capital assets, and the acquisition of sites, rights-of-way, easements, improvements or appurtenances of the college as approved by the ((community college)) state board.

(2) To finance the same by the issuance of bonds secured by the pledge of up to one hundred percent of the building fees.

(3) Without limitation of the foregoing, to accept grants from the United States government, or any federal or state agency or instrumentality, or private corporation, association, or person to aid in defraying the costs of any such projects.

(4) To retain bond counsel and professional bond consultants to aid it in issuing bonds pursuant to RCW 28B.50.340 through 28B.50.400.

Sec. 52. RCW 28B.50.350 and 1985 c 390 s 55 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of financing the cost of any projects, the college board is hereby authorized to adopt the resolution or resolutions and prepare all other documents necessary for the issuance, sale and delivery of the bonds or any part thereof at such time or times as it shall deem necessary and advisable. Said bonds:

(1) Shall not constitute:

(a) An obligation, either general or special, of the state; or

(b) A general obligation of the college or of the college board;

(2) Shall be:

(a) Either registered or in coupon form; and

(b) Issued in denominations of not less than one hundred dollars; and

(c) Fully negotiable instruments under the laws of this state; and

(d) Signed on behalf of the college board with the manual or facsimile signature of the chairman of the board, attested by the secretary of the board, have the seal of the college board impressed thereon or a facsimile of such seal printed or lithographed in the bottom border thereof, and the coupons attached thereto shall be signed with the facsimile signatures of such chairman and the secretary;

(3) Shall state:

(a) The date of issue; and

(b) The series of the issue and be consecutively numbered within the series; and

(c) That the bond is payable both principal and interest solely out of the bond retirement fund created for retirement thereof;

(4) Each series of bonds shall bear interest, payable either annually or semiannually, as the board may determine;

(5) Shall be payable both principal and interest out of the bond retirement fund;

(6) Shall be payable at such times over a period of not to exceed forty years from date of issuance, at such place or places, and with such reserved rights of prior redemption, as the board may prescribe;

(7) Shall be sold in such manner and at such price as the board may prescribe;

(8) Shall be issued under and subject to such terms, conditions and covenants providing for the payment of the principal thereof and interest thereon and such other terms, conditions, covenants and protective provisions safeguarding such payment, not inconsistent with RCW 28B.50.330 through 28B.50.400, and as found to be necessary by the board for the most advantageous sale thereof, which may include but not be limited to:

(a) A covenant that a reserve account shall be created in the bond retirement fund to secure the payment of the principal of and interest on all bonds issued and a provision made that certain amounts be set aside and maintained therein;

(b) A covenant that sufficient moneys may be transferred from the capital projects account of the college board issuing the bonds to the bond retirement fund of the college board when ordered by the board in the event there is ever an insufficient amount of money in the bond retirement fund to pay any installment of interest or principal and interest coming due on the bonds or any of them;

(c) A covenant fixing conditions under which bonds on a parity with any bonds outstanding may be issued.

The proceeds of the sale of all bonds, exclusive of accrued interest which shall be deposited in the bond retirement fund, shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the capital projects account of the college board and shall be used solely for paying the costs of the projects, the costs of bond counsel and professional bond consultants incurred in issuing the bonds, and for the purposes set forth in subsection (8)(b) ((above)) of this section;

(9) Shall constitute a prior lien and charge against the building fees of the community and technical colleges.

Sec. 53. RCW 28B.50.360 and 1985 c 390 s 56 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created in the state treasury a community and technical college bond retirement fund. Within thirty-five days from the date of start of each quarter all building fees of each such community and technical college shall be paid into the state treasury, and shall be credited as follows:

(1) On or before June 30th of each year the college board if issuing bonds payable out of building fees shall certify to the state treasurer the amounts required in the ensuing twelve-month period to pay and secure the payment of the principal of and interest on such bonds. The state treasurer shall thereupon deposit the amounts so certified in the community and technical college bond retirement fund which fund as required, is hereby created in the state treasury. Such amounts of the funds deposited in the bond retirement fund as are necessary to pay and secure the payment of the principal of and interest on the building bonds issued by the college board as authorized by this chapter shall be exclusively devoted to that purpose. If in any twelve-month period it shall appear that the amount certified by the college board is insufficient to pay and secure the payment of the principal of and interest on the outstanding building bonds, the state treasurer shall notify the college board and such board shall adjust its certificate so that all requirements of moneys to pay and secure the payment of the principal and interest on all such bonds then outstanding shall be fully met at all times.

(2) That portion of the building fees not required for or in excess of the amounts necessary to pay and secure the payment of any of the bonds as provided in subsection (1) ((above)) of this section shall be deposited in the community and technical college capital projects account which account is hereby created in the state treasury. The sums deposited in the capital projects account shall be appropriated and expended exclusively for the construction, reconstruction, erection, equipping, maintenance, demolition and major alteration of buildings and other capital assets owned by the state board for community and technical colleges ((education)) in the name of the state of Washington, and the acquisition of sites, rights-of-way, easements, improvements or appurtenances in relation thereto, and for the payment of principal of and interest on any bonds issued for such purposes. All earnings of investments of balances in the ((community college)) capital projects account shall be credited to the general fund.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) ((above)) of this section, at such time as all outstanding building bonds of the college board payable from the community and technical college bond retirement fund have been paid, redeemed, and retired, or at such time as ample provision has been made by the state for full payment, from some source other than the ((community college)) bond retirement fund, of the principal of and the interest on and call premium, if applicable, of such bonds as they mature and/or upon their call prior to their maturity, through refunding or otherwise, that portion of all building fees of the community and technical colleges equal to the amount required to pay yearly debt service on any general obligation bonds issued by the state in accordance with Article VIII, section 1, Washington state Constitution, for community and technical college purposes, shall be paid into the general fund of the state treasury. The state finance committee shall determine whether ample provision has been made for payment of such bonds payable from the said bond retirement fund and shall determine the amount required to pay yearly debt service on such general obligation bonds of the state. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed as obligating the legislature or the state to provide for payment of such ((community)) college building bonds from some source other than the community and technical college bond retirement fund or as pledging the general credit of the state to the payment of such bonds.

Sec. 54. RCW 28B.50.370 and 1985 c 390 s 57 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of paying and securing the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds as the same shall become due, there shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the bond retirement fund of the ((state)) college board ((for community college education)), the following:

(1) Amounts derived from building fees as are necessary to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds and to secure the same;

(2) Any grants which may be made, or may become available for the purpose of furthering the construction of any authorized projects, or for the repayment of the costs thereof;

(3) Such additional funds as the legislature may provide.

Said bond retirement fund shall be kept segregated from all moneys in the state treasury and shall, while any of such bonds or any interest thereon remains unpaid, be available solely for the payment thereof. As a part of the contract of sale of such bonds, the college board shall charge and collect building fees as established by this chapter and deposit such fees in the bond retirement fund in amounts which will be sufficient to pay and secure the payment of the principal of, and interest on all such bonds outstanding.

Sec. 55. RCW 28B.50.402 and 1977 ex.s. c 223 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in RCW 28B.50.360(1) and (2) and in RCW 28B.50.370, all moneys on deposit on or before June 30, 1977, in the community and technical college bond retirement fund, shall be transferred by the state treasurer to the state general fund, except for those moneys appropriated by section 17, chapter 1, Laws of 1977.

Sec. 56. RCW 28B.50.404 and 1985 c 390 s 60 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to the specific provisions of RCW 28B.50.360 and 28B.50.403 through 28B.50.407, such general obligation refunding bonds shall be issued and the refunding of said community and technical college building bonds shall be carried out pursuant to chapters 39.42 and 39.53 RCW as now or hereafter amended. The bonds shall pledge the full faith and credit of the state of Washington and contain an unconditional promise of the state to pay the principal thereof and interest thereon when due.

Sec. 57. RCW 28B.50.405 and 1974 ex.s. c 112 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created in the state treasury the community and technical college refunding bond retirement fund of 1974, which fund shall be exclusively devoted to the payment of the principal of and interest on the refunding bonds authorized by RCW 28B.50.360 and 28B.50.403 through 28B.50.407.

The state finance committee shall, on or before June 30th of each year, certify to the state treasurer the amount needed in the ensuing twelve months to pay the principal of and interest on such bonds. On July 1st of each year the state treasurer shall deposit such amount in the (~~community college~~) refunding bond retirement fund of 1974 from any general state revenues received in the state treasury.

Sec. 58. RCW 28B.50.409 and 1974 ex.s. c 112 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

All bonds issued after February 16, 1974 by the college board or any (~~community college~~) board of trustees for any (~~community~~) college district under provisions of chapter 28B.50 RCW, as now or hereafter amended, shall be issued by such boards only upon the prior advice and consent of the state finance committee.

Sec. 59. RCW 28B.50.520 and 1969 ex.s. c 223 s 28B.50.520 are each amended to read as follows:

The (~~state~~) college board (~~for community college education~~) or any (~~community college~~) board of trustees is authorized to receive federal funds made available for the assistance of community and technical colleges, and providing physical facilities, maintenance or operation of schools, or for any educational purposes, according to the provisions of the acts of congress making such funds available.

Sec. 60. RCW 28B.50.535 and 1969 ex.s. c 261 s 30 are each amended to read as follows:

A community or technical college may issue a high school diploma or certificate, subject to rules and regulations promulgated by the superintendent of public instruction and the state board of education.

Sec. 61. RCW 28B.50.551 and 1980 c 182 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of trustees of each (~~community~~) college district shall adopt for each community and technical college under its jurisdiction written policies on granting leaves to employees of the district and those colleges, including but not limited to leaves for attendance at official or private institutions and conferences; professional leaves for personnel consistent with the provisions of RCW 28B.10.650; leaves for illness, injury, bereavement and emergencies, and except as otherwise in this section provided, all with such compensation as the board of trustees may prescribe, except that the board shall grant to all such persons leave with full compensation for illness, injury, bereavement and emergencies as follows:

(1) For persons under contract to be employed, or otherwise employed, for at least three quarters, not more than twelve days per year, commencing with the first day on which work is to be performed; provisions of any contract in force on June 12, 1980, which conflict with requirements of this subsection shall continue in effect until contract expiration; after expiration, any new contract executed between the parties shall be consistent with this subsection;

(2) Such leave entitlement may be accumulated after the first three-quarter period of employment for full time employees, and may be taken at any time;

(3) Leave for illness, injury, bereavement and emergencies heretofore accumulated pursuant to law, rule, regulation or policy by persons presently employed by (~~community~~) college districts and community and technical colleges shall be added to such leave accumulated under this section;

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this section or other law, accumulated leave under this section not taken at the time such person retires or ceases to be employed by (~~community~~) college districts or community and technical colleges shall not be compensable;

(5) Accumulated leave for illness, injury, bereavement and emergencies under this section shall be transferred from one (~~community~~) college district or community and technical college to another, to the (~~state~~) college board (~~for community college education~~), to the state superintendent of public instruction, to any educational service district, to any school district, or to any other institutions of higher learning of the state; (~~and~~)

(6) Leave accumulated by a person in a (~~community~~) college district or community and technical college prior to leaving that district or college may, under the policy of the board of trustees, be granted to such person when he or she returns to the employment of that district or college; and

(7) Employees of the Seattle Vocational Institute are exempt from this section until July 1, 1993.

Sec. 62. RCW 28B.50.600 and 1969 ex.s. c 223 s 28B.50.600 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever a common school board has contracted to redeem general obligation bonds used for the construction or acquisition of facilities which are now to be under the administration, control and occupancy of the (~~community~~) college district board, the common school board shall continue to redeem the bonds in accordance with the provisions of the bonds.

Sec. 63. RCW 28B.50.740 and 1969 ex.s. c 223 s 28B.50.740 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other statutory provision relating to indebtedness of school districts, bonds heretofore issued by any common school district for the purpose of providing funds for community and technical college facilities shall not be considered as indebtedness in determining the maximum allowable indebtedness under any statutory limitation of indebtedness when the sum of all indebtedness therein does not exceed the maximum constitutional allowable indebtedness applied to the value of the taxable property contained in such school district: PROVIDED, That nothing contained herein shall be construed to affect the distribution of state funds under any applicable distribution formula.

Sec. 64. RCW 28B.50.835 and 1990 c 29 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature recognizes that quality in the state's community and technical colleges would be strengthened by additional partnerships between citizens and the institutions. The legislature intends to foster these partnerships by creating a matching grant program to assist public community and technical colleges in creating endowments for funding exceptional faculty awards.

Sec. 65. RCW 28B.50.837 and 1990 c 29 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The Washington community and technical college exceptional faculty awards program is established. The program shall be administered by the (~~state~~) college board (~~for community college education~~). The (~~community~~) college faculty awards trust fund hereby created shall be administered by the state treasurer.

(2) Funds appropriated by the legislature for the community and technical college exceptional faculty awards program shall be deposited in the (~~community~~) college faculty awards trust fund. All moneys deposited in the fund shall be invested by the state treasurer. Notwithstanding RCW 43.84.090, all earnings of investments of balances in the fund shall be credited to the fund. At the request of the (~~state~~) college board (~~for community college education~~), the treasurer shall release the state matching funds to the designated institution's local endowment fund. No appropriation is necessary for the expenditure of moneys from the fund.

Sec. 66. RCW 28B.50.839 and 1990 c 29 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In consultation with eligible community and technical colleges, the ~~((state)) college board ((for community college education))~~ shall set priorities and guidelines for the program.

(2) Under this section, a ~~((community))~~ college shall not receive more than four faculty grants in twenty-five thousand dollar increments, with a maximum total of one hundred thousand dollars per campus in any biennium.

(3) All community and technical colleges shall be eligible for matching trust funds. Institutions may apply to the ~~((state)) college board ((for community college education))~~ for grants from the fund in twenty-five thousand dollar increments up to a maximum of one hundred thousand dollars when they can match the state funds with equal cash donations from private sources, except that in the initial year of the program, no college may receive more than one grant until every college has received one grant. These donations shall be made specifically to the exceptional faculty awards program and deposited by the institution in a local endowment fund. Otherwise unrestricted gifts may be deposited in the endowment fund by the institution.

(4) Once sufficient private donations are received by the institution, the institution shall inform the ~~((state)) college board ((for community college education))~~ and request state matching funds. The ~~((state)) college board ((for community college education))~~ shall evaluate the request for state matching funds based on program priorities and guidelines. The ~~((state)) college board ((for community college education))~~ may ask the state treasurer to release the state matching funds to a local endowment fund established by the institution for each faculty award created.

Sec. 67. RCW 28B.50.841 and 1990 c 29 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The faculty awards are the property of the institution and may be named in honor of a donor, benefactor, or honoree of the institution, at the option of the institution. The institution shall designate the use of the award. The designation shall be made or renewed annually.

(2) The institution is responsible for soliciting private donations, investing and maintaining its endowment funds, administering the faculty awards, and reporting on the program to the governor, the ~~((state)) college board ((for community college education))~~, and the legislature, upon request. The institution may augment its endowment fund with additional unrestricted private donations. The principal of the invested endowment fund shall not be invaded.

(3) The proceeds from the endowment fund shall be used to pay expenses for faculty awards, which may include in-service training, temporary substitute or replacement costs directly associated with faculty development programs, conferences, travel, publication and dissemination of exemplary projects; to supplement the salary of the holder or holders of a faculty award; or to pay expenses associated with the holder's program area. Funds from this program shall not be used to supplant existing faculty development funds.

Sec. 68. RCW 28B.50.843 and 1990 c 29 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

The process for determining local awards shall be subject to collective bargaining. Decisions regarding the amounts of individual awards and who receives them shall not be subject to collective bargaining and shall be subject to approval of the applicable ~~((community college))~~ board of trustees.

Sec. 69. RCW 28B.50.850 and 1969 ex.s. c 283 s 32 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be the purpose of RCW 28B.50.850 through 28B.50.869 to establish a system of faculty tenure which protects the concepts of faculty employment rights and faculty involvement in the protection of those rights in the state system of community and technical colleges. RCW 28B.50.850 through 28B.50.869 shall define a reasonable and orderly process for appointment of faculty members to tenure status and the dismissal of the tenured faculty member.

Employees of the Seattle Vocational Institute are exempt from this section until July 1, 1993.

Sec. 70. RCW 28B.50.851 and 1988 c 32 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in RCW 28B.50.850 through 28B.50.869:

(1) "Tenure" shall mean a faculty appointment for an indefinite period of time which may be revoked only for adequate cause and by due process;

(2)(a) "Faculty appointment", except as otherwise provided in ~~((subsection (2))~~(b) ~~(below))~~ of this subsection, shall mean full time employment as a teacher, counselor, librarian or other position for which the training, experience and responsibilities are comparable as determined by the appointing authority, except administrative appointments; "faculty appointment" shall also mean department heads, division heads and administrators to the extent that such department heads, division heads or administrators have had or do have status as a teacher, counselor, or librarian; faculty appointment shall also mean employment on a reduced work load basis when a faculty member has retained tenure under RCW 28B.50.859;

(b) "Faculty appointment" shall not mean special faculty appointment as a teacher, counselor, librarian, or other position as enumerated in ~~((subsection (2))~~(a) of this subsection, when such employment results from special funds provided to a community college district from federal moneys or other special funds which other funds are designated as "special funds" by the ~~((state))~~ college board ~~((for community college education))~~: PROVIDED, That such "special funds" so designated by the ~~((state))~~ college board for purposes of this section shall apply only to teachers, counselors and librarians hired from grants and service agreements and teachers, counselors and librarians hired in nonformula positions. A special faculty appointment resulting from such special financing may be terminated upon a reduction or elimination of funding or a reduction or elimination of program: PROVIDED FURTHER, That "faculty appointees" holding faculty appointments pursuant to subsections (1) or (2)(a) of this section who have been subsequently transferred to positions financed from "special funds" pursuant to ~~((subsection (2))~~(b) of this subsection and who thereafter lose their positions upon reduction or elimination of such "special funding" shall be entitled to be returned to previous status as faculty appointees pursuant to subsection (1) or (2)(a) of this section depending upon their status prior to the "special funding" transfer. Notwithstanding the fact that tenure shall not be granted to anyone holding a special faculty appointment, the termination of any such faculty appointment prior to the expiration of the term of such faculty member's individual contract for any cause which is not related to elimination or reduction of financing or the elimination or reduction of program shall be considered a termination for cause subject to the provisions of this chapter;

(3) "Probationary faculty appointment" shall mean a faculty appointment for a designated period of time which may be terminated without cause upon expiration of the probationer's terms of employment;

(4) "Probationer" shall mean an individual holding a probationary faculty appointment;

(5) "Administrative appointment" shall mean employment in a specific administrative position as determined by the appointing authority;

(6) "Appointing authority" shall mean the board of trustees of a ~~((community))~~ college district;

(7) "Review committee" shall mean a committee composed of the probationer's faculty peers, a student representative, and the administrative staff of the community or technical college: PROVIDED, That the majority of the committee shall consist of the probationer's faculty peers.

Sec. 71. RCW 28B.50.867 and 1969 ex.s. c 283 s 43 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon transfer of employment from one community or technical college to another community or technical college within a district, a tenured faculty member shall have the right to retain tenure and the rights accruing thereto which he or she had in his or her previous employment: PROVIDED, That upon permanent transfer of employment to another ((community)) college district a tenured faculty member shall not have the right to retain his tenure or any of the rights accruing thereto.

Sec. 72. RCW 28B.50.869 and 1974 ex.s. c 33 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

The review committees required by RCW 28B.50.850 through 28B.50.869 shall be composed of members of the administrative staff, a student representative, and the teaching faculty. The representatives of the teaching faculty shall represent a majority of the members on each review committee. The members representing the teaching faculty on each review committee shall be selected by a majority of the teaching faculty and faculty department heads acting in a body. The student representative, who shall be a full time student, shall be chosen by the student association of the particular community or technical college in such manner as the members thereof shall determine.

Sec. 73. RCW 28B.50.870 and 1977 ex.s. c 282 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The district board of trustees of any ((community)) college district currently operating an educational program with funds provided by another state agency, including federal funds, which program has been in existence for five or more years under the administration of one or more ((community)) college districts, shall provide for the award or denial of tenure to anyone who holds a special faculty appointment in such curricular program and for as long as the program continues to be funded in such manner, utilizing the prescribed probationary processes and procedures set forth in this chapter with the exception that no student representative shall be required to serve on the review committee defined in RCW 28B.50.851: PROVIDED, That such review processes and procedures shall not be applicable to faculty members whose contracts are renewed after the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act and who have completed at least three consecutive years of satisfactory full time service in such program, who shall be granted tenure by the ((community)) college district: PROVIDED FURTHER, That faculty members who have completed one year or more of satisfactory full time service in such program shall be credited with such service for the purposes of this section: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That provisions relating to tenure for faculty under the provisions of this section shall be distinct from provisions relating to tenure for other faculty of the ((community)) college district and faculty appointed to such special curricular program shall be treated as a separate unit as respects selection, retention, reduction in force or dismissal hereunder: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the provisions of this section shall only be applicable to faculty holding a special faculty appointment in an educational program operated in a state correctional institution pursuant to a written contract with a ((community)) college district.

Sec. 74. RCW 28B.50.873 and 1990 c 33 s 559 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((state)) college board ((for community college education)) may declare a financial emergency under the following conditions: (1) Reduction of allotments by the governor pursuant to RCW 43.88.110(2), or (2) reduction by the legislature from one biennium to the next or within a biennium of appropriated funds based on constant dollars using the implicit price deflator. When a district board of trustees determines that a reduction in force of tenured or probationary faculty members may be necessary due to financial emergency as declared by the state board, written notice of the reduction in force and separation from employment shall be given the faculty members so affected by the president or district president as the case may be. Said notice shall clearly indicate that separation is not due to the job performance of the employee and hence is without prejudice to such employee and need only state in addition the basis for the reduction in force as one or more of the reasons enumerated in subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

Said tenured or probationary faculty members will have a right to request a formal hearing when being dismissed pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) of this section. The only issue to be determined shall be whether under the applicable policies, rules or collective bargaining agreement the particular faculty member or members advised of severance are the proper ones to be terminated. Said hearing shall be initiated by filing a written request therefor with the president or district president, as the case may be, within ten days after issuance of such notice. At such formal hearing the tenure review committee provided for in RCW 28B.50.863 may observe the formal hearing procedure and after the conclusion of such hearing offer its recommended decision for consideration by the hearing officer. Failure to timely request such a hearing shall cause separation from service of such faculty members so notified on the effective date as stated in the notice, regardless of the duration of any individual employment contract.

The hearing required by this section shall be an adjudicative proceeding pursuant to chapter 34.05 RCW, the Administrative Procedure Act, conducted by a hearing officer appointed by the board of trustees and shall be concluded by the hearing officer within sixty days after written notice of the reduction in force has been issued. Ten days written notice of the formal hearing will be given to faculty members who have requested such a hearing by the president or district president as the case may be. The hearing officer within ten days after conclusion of such formal hearing shall prepare findings, conclusions of law and a recommended decision which shall be forwarded to the board of trustees for its final action thereon. Any such determination by the hearing officer under this section shall not be subject to further tenure review committee action as otherwise provided in this chapter.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, at the time of a faculty member or members request for formal hearing said faculty member or members may ask for participation in the choosing of the hearing officer in the manner provided in RCW 28A.405.310(4), said employee therein being a faculty member for the purposes hereof and said board of directors therein being the board of trustees for the purposes hereof: PROVIDED, That where there is more than one faculty member affected by the board of trustees' reduction in force such faculty members requesting hearing must act collectively in making such request: PROVIDED FURTHER, That costs incurred for the services and expenses of such hearing officer shall be shared equally by the community or technical college and the faculty member or faculty members requesting hearing.

When more than one faculty member is notified of termination because of a reduction in force as provided in this section, hearings for all such faculty members requesting formal hearing shall be consolidated and only one such hearing for the affected faculty members shall be held, and such consolidated hearing shall be concluded within the time frame set forth herein.

Separation from service without prejudice after formal hearing under the provisions of this section shall become effective upon final action by the board of trustees.

It is the intent of the legislature by enactment of this section and in accordance with RCW 28B.52.035, to modify any collective bargaining agreements in effect, or any conflicting board policies or rules, so that any reductions in force which take place after December 21, 1981, whether in progress or to be initiated, will comply solely with the provisions of this section: PROVIDED, That any applicable policies, rules, or provisions contained in a collective bargaining agreement related to lay-off units, seniority and re-employment rights shall not be affected by the provisions of this paragraph.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the right of the board of trustees or its designated appointing authority not to renew a probationary faculty appointment pursuant to RCW 28B.50.857.

Sec. 75. RCW 28B.50.875 and 1969 ex.s. c 261 s 35 are each amended to read as follows:

Local law enforcement agencies or such other public agencies that shall be in need of such service may contract with any community or technical college for laboratory services for the analyzing of samples that chemists associated with such ((community)) colleges may be able to perform under such terms and conditions as the individual ((community)) college may determine.

Employees of the Seattle Vocational Institute are exempt from this section until July 1, 1993.

Sec. 76. RCW 15.76.120 and 1961 c 61 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this chapter all agricultural fairs in the state which may become eligible for state allocations shall be divided into categories, to wit:

(1) "Area fairs"--those not under the jurisdiction of boards of county commissioners; organized to serve an area larger than one county, having both open and junior participation, and having an extensive diversification of classes, displays and exhibits;

(2) "County and district fairs"--organized to serve the interests of single counties other than those in which a recognized area fair or a district fair as defined in RCW 36.37.050, is held and which are under the direct control and supervision of the county commissioners of the respective counties, which have both open and junior participation, but whose classes, displays and exhibits may be more restricted or limited than in the case of area or district fairs. There may be but one county fair in a single county: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the county commissioners of two or more counties may, by resolution, jointly sponsor a county fair.

(3) "Community fairs"--organized primarily to serve a smaller area than an area or county fair, which may have open or junior classes, displays, or exhibits. There may be more than one community fair in a county.

(4) "Youth shows and fairs"--approved by duly constituted agents of Washington State University and/or the Washington ((state board for vocational education)) work force training and education coordinating board, serving three or more counties, and having for their purpose the education and training of rural youth in matters of rural living.

Sec. 77. RCW 28A.305.270 and 1989 c 146 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The Washington state minority teacher recruitment program is established. The program shall be administered by the state board of education. The state board of education shall consult with the higher education coordinating board, representatives of institutions of higher education, education organizations having an interest in teacher recruitment issues, the superintendent of public instruction, the state board for community and technical colleges ((education)), the department of employment security, and the ((state board of vocational education within the office of the governor)) work force training and education coordinating board. The program shall be designed to recruit future teachers from students in the targeted groups who are in the ninth through twelfth grades and from adults in the targeted groups who have entered other occupations.

(2) The program shall include the following:

(a) Encouraging students in targeted groups in grades nine through twelve to acquire the academic and related skills necessary to prepare for the study of teaching at an institution of higher education;

(b) Promoting teaching career opportunities to develop an awareness of opportunities in the education profession;

(c) Providing opportunities for students to experience the application of regular high school course work to activities related to a teaching career; and

(d) Providing for increased cooperation among institutions of higher education including community colleges, the superintendent of public instruction, the state board of education, and local school districts in working toward the goals of the program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 78. A new section is added to chapter 28A.150 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Each local education agency or college district offering vocational educational programs shall establish local advisory committees to provide that agency or district with advice on current job needs and on the courses necessary to meet these needs.

(2) The local program committees shall:

(a) Participate in the determination of program goals;

(b) Review and evaluate program curricula, equipment, and effectiveness;

(c) Include representatives of business and labor who reflect the local industry, and the community; and

(d) Actively consult with other representatives of business, industry, labor, and agriculture.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 79. (1) Each local education agency or college district offering vocational educational programs shall establish local advisory committees to provide that agency or district with advice on current job needs and on the courses necessary to meet these needs.

(2) The local program committees shall:

(a) Participate in the determination of program goals;

(b) Review and evaluate program curricula, equipment, and effectiveness;

(c) Include representatives of business and labor who reflect the local industry, and the community; and

(d) Actively consult with other representatives of business, industry, labor, and agriculture.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 80. A new section is added to chapter 28A.300 RCW to read as follows:

The superintendent shall cooperate with the work force training and education coordinating board in the conduct of the board's responsibilities under section 8 of this act and shall provide information and data in a format that is accessible to the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 81. The college board shall cooperate with the work force training and education coordinating board in the conduct of the board's responsibilities under section 8 of this act and shall provide information and data in a format that is accessible to the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82. A new section is added to chapter 50.12 RCW to read as follows:

The commissioner shall cooperate with the work force training and education coordinating board in the conduct of the board's responsibilities under section 8 of this act and shall provide information and data in a format that is accessible to the board.

Sec. 83. RCW 28C.10.020 and 1990 c 188 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Agency" means the (~~state board for vocational education~~) work force training and education coordinating board or its successor.

(2) "Agent" means a person owning an interest in, employed by, or representing for remuneration a private vocational school within or without this state, who enrolls or personally attempts to secure the enrollment in a private vocational school of a resident of this state, offers to award educational credentials for remuneration on behalf of a private vocational school, or holds himself or herself out to residents of this state as representing a private vocational school for any of these purposes.

(3) "Degree" means any designation, appellation, letters, or words including but not limited to "associate," "bachelor," "master," "doctor," or "fellow" which signify or purport to signify satisfactory completion of an academic program of study beyond the secondary school level.

(4) "Education" includes but is not limited to, any class, course, or program of training, instruction, or study.

(5) "Educational credentials" means degrees, diplomas, certificates, transcripts, reports, documents, or letters of designation, marks, appellations, series of letters, numbers, or words which signify or appear to signify enrollment, attendance, progress, or satisfactory completion of the requirements or prerequisites for any educational program.

(6) "Entity" includes, but is not limited to, a person, company, firm, society, association, partnership, corporation, or trust.

(7) "Private vocational school" means any location where [there is] an entity offering postsecondary education in any form or manner for the purpose of instructing, training, or preparing persons for any vocation or profession.

(8) "To grant" includes to award, issue, sell, confer, bestow, or give.

(9) "To offer" includes, in addition to its usual meanings, to advertise or publicize. "To offer" also means to solicit or encourage any person, directly or indirectly, to perform the act described.

(10) "To operate" means to establish, keep, or maintain any facility or location where, from, or through which education is offered or educational credentials are offered or granted to residents of this state, and includes contracting for the performance of any such act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 84. Community and technical colleges may contract with local common school districts to provide occupational and academic programs for high school students. Common school districts whose students currently attend vocational-technical institutes shall not suffer loss of opportunity to continue to enroll their students at technical colleges.

For the purposes of this section, "opportunity to enroll" includes, but is not limited to, the opportunity of common school districts to enroll the same number of high school students enrolled at each vocational-technical institute during the period July 1, 1989, through June 30, 1990, and the opportunity for common school districts to increase enrollments of high school students at each technical college in proportion to annual increases in enrollment within the school districts participating on the effective date of this section. Technical colleges shall offer programs which are accessible to high school students to at least the extent that existed during the period July 1, 1989, through June 30, 1990, and to the extent necessary to accommodate proportional annual growth in enrollments of high school students within school districts participating on the effective date of this section. Accommodating such annual increases in enrollment or program offerings shall be the first priority within technical colleges subject to any enrollment or budgetary restrictions. Technical colleges shall not charge tuition or student services and activities fees to high school students enrolled in the college.

Technical colleges may enter into interlocal agreements with local school districts to provide instruction in courses required for high school graduation, basic skills, and literacy training for students enrolled in technical college programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 85. When the state system of community and technical colleges assumes administrative control of the vocational-technical institutes, personnel employed by the vocational-technical institutes shall:

(1) Suffer no reduction in compensation, benefits, seniority, or employment status. After the effective date of this section, classified employees shall continue to be covered by chapter 41.56 RCW and faculty members and administrators shall be covered by chapter 28B.50 RCW;

(2) To the extent applicable to faculty members, any faculty currently employed on a "continuing contract" basis under RCW 28A.405.210 be awarded tenure pursuant to RCW 28B.50.851 through 28B.50.873, except for any faculty members who are provisional employees under RCW 28A.405.220;

(3) Be eligible to participate in the health care and other insurance plans provided by the health care authority and the state employee benefits board pursuant to chapter 41.05 RCW;

(4) Be eligible to participate in old age annuities or retirement income plans under the rules of the state board for community and technical colleges pursuant to RCW 28B.10.400 or the teachers' retirement system plan I for personnel employed before July 1, 1977, or plan II for personnel employed after July 1, 1977, under chapter 41.32 RCW; however, no affected vocational-technical institute employee shall be required to choose from among any available retirement plan options prior to six months after the effective date of this section;

(5) Have transferred to their new administrative college district all accrued sick and vacation leave and thereafter shall earn and use all such leave under the rule established pursuant to RCW 28B.50.551;

(6) Be eligible to participate in the deferred compensation plan pursuant to RCW 41.04.250 and the dependent care program pursuant to RCW 41.04.600 under the rules established by the state deferred compensation committee.

An exclusive bargaining representative certified to represent a bargaining unit covering employees of a vocational technical institute on the effective date of this section shall remain the exclusive representative of such employees thereafter until and unless such representative is replaced or decertified in accordance with state law.

Any collective bargaining agreement in effect on June 30, 1991, shall remain in effect as it applies to employees of vocational technical institutes until its expiration or renewal date or until renegotiated or renewed in accordance with chapter 28B.52 or 41.56 RCW. After the expiration date of a collective bargaining agreement, all of the terms and conditions specified in the collective bargaining agreement, as it applies to employees of vocational-technical institutes, shall remain in effect until the effective date of a subsequent agreement, not to exceed one year from the termination date stated in the agreement. The board of trustees and the employees may mutually agree to continue the terms and conditions of the agreement beyond the one year extension. However, nothing in this section shall be construed to deny any employee right granted under chapter 28B.52 or 41.56 RCW. Labor relations processes and agreements covering faculty members of vocational technical institutes after the effective date of this section shall be governed by chapter 28B.52 RCW. Labor relations processes and agreements covering classified employees of vocational technical institutes after the effective date of this section shall continue to be governed by chapter 41.56 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 86. Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 28B.15 RCW, technical colleges and the Seattle Vocational Institute may continue to collect student tuition and fees per their standard operating procedures in effect on the effective date of this section. The applicability of existing community college rules and statutes pursuant to chapter 28B.15 RCW regarding tuition and fees shall be determined by the state board for community and technical colleges within two years of the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 87. All powers, duties, and functions of the superintendent of public instruction and the state board of education pertaining to projects of adult education, including the state-funded Even Start and including the adult education programs operated pursuant to 20 U.S.C. Sec. 1201 as amended by P.L. 100-297, are transferred to the state board for community and technical colleges. All references to the director or superintendent of public instruction or the state board of education in the Revised Code of Washington shall be construed to mean the director or the state board for community and technical colleges when referring to the functions transferred in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 88. All reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, papers, or written material in the possession of the superintendent of public instruction pertaining to the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be delivered to the custody of the state board for community and technical colleges. All cabinets, furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property employed by the superintendent of public instruction in carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be made available to the state board for community and technical colleges. All funds, credits, or other assets held in connection with the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be assigned to the state board for community and technical colleges.

Any appropriations made to the superintendent of public instruction for carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall, on the effective date of this section, be transferred and credited to the state board for community and technical colleges.

Whenever any question arises as to the transfer of any personnel, funds, books, documents, records, papers, files, equipment, or other tangible property used or held in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties and functions transferred, the director of financial management shall make a determination as to the proper allocation and certify the same to the state agencies concerned.

The superintendent or designee, and the director of the state board shall work out a mutually agreeable schedule to accomplish this transfer by no later than July 1, 1991.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 89. All employees of the superintendent of public instruction engaged in performing the powers, functions, and duties transferred are transferred to the jurisdiction of the state board for community and technical colleges. All employees classified under chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service law, are assigned to the state board for community and technical colleges to perform their usual duties upon the same terms as formerly, without any loss of rights, subject to any action that may be appropriate thereafter in accordance with the laws and rules governing chapter 28B.16 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 90. All rules and all pending business before the superintendent of public instruction pertaining to the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be continued and acted upon by the state board for community and technical colleges. All existing contracts and obligations shall remain in full force and shall be performed by the state board for community and technical colleges.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 91. The transfer of the powers, duties, functions, and personnel of the superintendent of public instruction shall not affect the validity of any act performed prior to the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 92. If apportionments of budgeted funds are required because of the transfers directed by sections 88 through 91 of this act, the director of financial management shall certify the apportionments to the agencies affected, the state auditor, and the state treasurer. Each of these shall make the appropriate transfer and adjustments in funds and appropriation accounts and equipment records in accordance with the certification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 93. Nothing contained in sections 88 through 92 of this act may be construed to alter any existing collective bargaining unit or the provisions of any existing collective bargaining agreement until the agreement has expired or until the bargaining unit has been modified by action of the personnel board as provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 94. The college board personnel administering state and federally funded programs for adult basic skills and literacy education shall be known as the state office for adult literacy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 95. The legislature finds that a vocational institute in the central area of the city of Seattle provides civic, social, and economic benefits to the people of the state of Washington.

Economic development is enhanced by increasing the number of skilled individuals who enter the labor market and social welfare costs are reduced by the training of individuals lacking marketable skills. The students at the institute are historically economically disadvantaged, and include racial and ethnic minorities, recent immigrants, single-parent heads of households, and persons who are dislocated workers or without specific occupational skills. The institute presents a unique opportunity for business, labor, and community-based organizations, and educators to work together to provide effective vocational-technical training to the economically disadvantaged of urban Seattle, and to serve as a national model of such cooperation. Moreover, a trained work force is a major factor in attracting new employers, and with greater minority participation in the work force, the institute is uniquely located to deliver training and education to the individuals employers must increasingly turn to for their future workers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 96. The public nonprofit corporation for the Washington institute for applied technology is hereby abolished and its powers, duties, and functions are hereby transferred to the sixth college district. The Washington institute for applied technology shall be renamed the Seattle Vocational Institute. The Seattle Vocational Institute shall become a fourth unit of the sixth college district. All references to the director or public nonprofit corporation for the Washington institute for applied technology in the Revised Code of Washington shall be construed to mean the director of the Seattle Vocational Institute.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 97. All reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, papers, or written material in the possession of the public nonprofit corporation for the Washington institute for applied technology shall be delivered to the custody of the sixth college district. All cabinets, furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property employed by the public nonprofit corporation for the Washington institute for applied technology shall be made available to the sixth college district for the use of the Seattle Vocational Institute. All funds, credits, or other assets held by the public nonprofit corporation for the Washington institute for applied technology shall be assigned to the sixth college district for the use of the institute.

Any appropriations made to the public nonprofit corporation for the Washington institute for applied technology shall, on the effective date of this section, be transferred and credited to the sixth college district.

Whenever any question arises as to the transfer of any personnel, funds, books, documents, records, papers, files, equipment, or other tangible property used or held in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties and functions transferred, the director of financial management shall make a determination as to the proper allocation and certify the same to the state agencies concerned.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 98. All contractual obligations, rules, and all pending business before the public nonprofit corporation for the Washington institute for applied technology shall be continued and acted upon by the sixth college district. All existing contracts and obligations shall remain in full force and shall be performed by the sixth college district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 99. All employees of the Washington institute for applied technology engaged in performing the powers, functions, and duties transferred are transferred to the jurisdiction of the Seattle Vocational Institute. All employees classified under chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service law, are assigned to the Seattle Vocational Institute to perform their usual duties upon the same terms as formerly, without any loss of rights, subject to any action that may be appropriate thereafter in accordance with the laws and rules governing state civil service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 100. The transfer of the powers, duties, functions, and personnel of the public nonprofit corporation for the Washington institute for applied technology shall not affect the validity of any act performed prior to the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 101. If apportionments of budgeted funds are required because of the transfers directed by sections 97 through 100 of this act, the director of financial management shall certify the apportionments to the agencies affected, the state auditor, and the state treasurer. Each of these shall make the appropriate transfer and adjustments in funds and appropriation accounts and equipment records in accordance with the certification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 102. The mission of the institute shall be to provide occupational, basic skills, and literacy education opportunities to economically disadvantaged populations in urban areas of the college district it serves. The mission shall be achieved primarily through open-entry, open-exit, short-term, competency-based basic skill, and job training programs targeted primarily to adults. The board of trustees of the sixth college district shall appoint a nine-member advisory committee consisting of equal representation from business, labor, and community representatives to provide advice and counsel to the administration of the institute and the district administration.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 103. Funding for the institute shall be included in a separate allocation to the sixth college district, and funds allocated for the institute shall be used only for purposes of the institute.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 104. The sixth college district shall conduct a survey of the capital facilities and equipment necessary to operate the program at the institute. The district shall present the survey to the state board for community and technical colleges by December 1, 1991. The board shall include the survey in its budget request to the legislature which shall consider a supplementary appropriation for the 1992-93 fiscal year to the sixth college district based on the results of this survey.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 105. The district may provide for waivers of tuition and fees and provide scholarships for students at the institute. The district may negotiate with applicable public or private service providers to conduct the instructional activities of the institute. The district may employ instructional staff or faculty. The district may also contract with private individuals for instructional services. Until at least July 1, 1993, all faculty and staff serve at the pleasure of the district. In order to allow the district flexibility in its personnel policies with the institute, the district and the institute, with reference to employees of the institute employed during an initial two-year period until July 1, 1993, are exempt from chapters 28B.16, 28B.52 (relating to collective bargaining), 41.04, 41.05, 41.06, and 41.40 RCW; from RCW 43.01.040 through 43.01.044; and from RCW 28B.50.551 and 28B.50.850 through 28B.50.875 (relating to faculty tenure).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 106. A new section is added to chapter 41.06 RCW to read as follows:

Employees of the Seattle Vocational Institute are exempt from the provisions of this chapter until July 1, 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 107. A new section is added to chapter 41.05 RCW to read as follows:

Employees of the Seattle Vocational Institute are exempt from the provisions of this chapter until July 1, 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 108. A new section is added to chapter 41.04 RCW to read as follows:

Employees of the Seattle Vocational Institute are exempt from the provisions of this chapter until July 1, 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 109. A new section is added to chapter 28B.16 RCW to read as follows:

Employees of the Seattle Vocational Institute are exempt from the provisions of this chapter until July 1, 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 110. A new section is added to chapter 41.40 RCW to read as follows:

Employees of the Seattle Vocational Institute are exempt from the provisions of this chapter until July 1, 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 111. A new section is added to chapter 28B.52 RCW to read as follows:

Employees of the Seattle Vocational Institute are exempt from the provisions of this chapter until July 1, 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 112. A new section is added to chapter 43.01 RCW to read as follows:

Employees of the Seattle Vocational Institute are exempt from RCW 43.01.040 through 43.01.044 until July 1, 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 113. Related and supplemental instruction for apprentices, coordination of instruction with job experiences, and the selection and training of teachers and coordinators for such instruction shall be the responsibility of the state board for community and technical colleges and its local community and technical colleges.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 114. A new section is added to chapter 41.56 RCW to read as follows:

In addition to the entities listed in RCW 41.56.020, this chapter shall apply to classified employees of technical colleges as provided for in section 85 of this act.

Sec. 115. RCW 28B.10.016 and 1977 ex.s. c 169 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this title:

(1) "State universities" means the University of Washington and Washington State University.

(2) "Regional universities" means Western Washington University at Bellingham, Central Washington University at Ellensburg, and Eastern Washington University at Cheney.

(3) "State college" means The Evergreen State College in Thurston county.

(4) "Institutions of higher education" or "postsecondary institutions" means the state universities, the regional universities, The Evergreen State College, ~~((and))~~ the community colleges, and the technical colleges.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 116. There is hereby established the task force on technical colleges appointed by the governor. The task force shall be chaired by the director of the state board for community and technical colleges. The task force shall consist of representatives of the state board for community and technical colleges, community colleges, and the directors of the vocational-technical institutes. The purpose of the task force shall be to reach agreement on transitional issues posed by the bringing together of technical colleges and community colleges. The areas of agreement shall include the district boundaries and service areas not specified on the effective date of this section, for technical colleges that are not specified on the effective date of this section and such other matters as are assigned to the task force by chapter --, Laws of 1991 (this act). The director of the state board shall convene the task force within thirty days after the appointment of the members. The task force shall report on its final recommendations to the college board and the governor by December 1, 1991. Those issues remaining in dispute shall be settled by the governor or the governor's designee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 117. Title to or all interest in real estate, choses in action and all other assets, and liabilities including court claims, including but not limited to assignable contracts, cash, deposits in county funds (including any interest or premiums thereon), equipment, buildings, facilities, and appurtenances thereto held as of the effective date of this section by or for a school district and obtained identifiably with federal, state, or local funds appropriated for vocational-technical institutes purposes or postsecondary vocational educational purposes, or used or obtained with funds budgeted for postsecondary vocational educational purposes, or used or obtained primarily for vocational-technical institute educational purposes, shall, on the date on which the first board of trustees of each district takes office, vest in or be assigned to the district board. Cash, funds, accounts, or other deposits obtained or raised by a school district to pay for indebtedness, bonded or otherwise, contracted on or before the effective date of this section, for vocational-technical institute purposes shall remain with and continue to be, after February 2, 1992, an asset of the school district. Any option acquired by the school district to purchase real property which in the judgment of the school district will be used in the common school program may remain with the school district notwithstanding that such option was obtained in consideration of the purchase by such school district of other property for vocational-technical institute purposes. Unexpended funds of a common school district derived from the sale, before the effective date of this section, of bonds authorized for any purpose which includes vocational-technical institute purposes and not committed for any existing construction contract, shall remain with and continue to be an asset of such common school district, unless within thirty days after said date such common school district determines to transfer such funds to the board of trustees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 118. All powers, duties, and functions of the school district pertaining to a vocational-technical institute are transferred to the state board for community and technical colleges until the establishment of local boards of trustees with authority for the technical college. All references to the director or school district in the Revised Code of Washington shall be construed to mean the director or state board for community and technical colleges when referring to the functions transferred in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 119. All reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, papers, licenses, or written material in the possession of the school district pertaining to the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be delivered to the custody of the state board for community and technical colleges. All cabinets, furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property employed by the school district in carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be made available to the state board for community and technical colleges. All funds, credits, or other assets held in connection with the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be assigned to the state board for community and technical colleges.

Any appropriations made to the school district for carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall, on the effective date of this section, be transferred and credited to the state board for community and technical colleges.

Whenever any question arises as to the transfer of any personnel, funds, books, documents, records, papers, files, equipment, or other tangible property used or held in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties and functions transferred, the director of financial management shall make a determination as to the proper allocation and certify the same to the state agencies concerned.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 120. All employees of the school district engaged in performing the powers, functions, and duties transferred are temporarily transferred to the jurisdiction of the state board for community and technical colleges. The transfer of employees to the state board for community and technical colleges shall not constitute termination of employment or reductions in force by the school districts and shall be excluded from the requirements of RCW 28A.405.210 through 28A.405.240 and 28A.405.300 through 28A.405.380. Until the local board of trustees assumes control of the college, all classified employees are assigned to the jurisdiction of the state board for community and technical colleges to perform their usual duties upon the same terms as formerly, without any loss of rights, subject to any action that may be appropriate thereafter in accordance with chapter 41.56 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 121. All rules and all pending business before the school district pertaining to the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be continued and acted upon by the state board for community and technical colleges. All existing contracts and obligations shall remain in full force and shall be performed by the state board for community and technical colleges.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 122. The transfer of the powers, duties, functions, and personnel of the school district shall not affect the validity of any act performed prior to the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 123. If apportionments of budgeted funds are required because of the transfers directed by sections 119 through 122 of this act, the director of financial management shall certify the apportionments to the agencies affected, the state auditor, and the state treasurer. Each of these shall make the appropriate transfer and adjustments in funds and appropriation accounts and equipment records in accordance with the certification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 124. All powers, duties, and functions of the superintendent of public instruction pertaining to vocational-technical institutes are transferred to the state board for community and technical colleges. All references to the director or superintendent of public instruction in the Revised Code of Washington shall be construed to mean the director or state board for community and technical colleges when referring to the functions transferred in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 125. All reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, papers, licenses, or written material in the possession of the superintendent of public instruction pertaining to the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be delivered to the custody of the state board for community and technical colleges. All cabinets, furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property employed by the superintendent of public instruction in carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be made available to the state board for community and technical colleges. All funds, credits, or other assets held in connection with the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be assigned to the state board for community and technical colleges.

Any appropriations made to the superintendent of public instruction for carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall, on the effective date of this section, be transferred and credited to the state board for community and technical colleges.

Whenever any question arises as to the transfer of any personnel, funds, books, documents, records, papers, files, equipment, or other tangible property used or held in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties and functions transferred, the director of financial management shall make a determination as to the proper allocation and certify the same to the state agencies concerned.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 126. All employees of the superintendent of public instruction engaged in performing the powers, functions, and duties transferred are transferred to the jurisdiction of the state board for community and technical colleges. All employees classified under chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service law, are assigned to the state board for community and technical colleges to perform their usual duties upon the same terms as formerly, without any loss of rights, subject to any action that may be appropriate thereafter in accordance with the laws and rules governing chapter 28B.16 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 127. All rules and all pending business before the superintendent of public instruction pertaining to the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be continued and acted upon by the state board for community and technical colleges. All existing contracts and obligations shall remain in full force and shall be performed by the state board for community and technical colleges.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 128. The transfer of the powers, duties, functions, and personnel of the superintendent of public instruction shall not affect the validity of any act performed prior to the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 129. If apportionments of budgeted funds are required because of the transfers directed by sections 125 through 128 of this act, the director of financial management shall certify the apportionments to the agencies affected, the state auditor, and the state treasurer. Each of these shall make the appropriate transfer and adjustments in funds and appropriation accounts and equipment records in accordance with the certification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 130. All funds appropriated by the legislature in the capital budget for the 1991-93 biennium pertaining to vocational-technical institutes and to community colleges are hereby combined under the capital budget for the state board for community and technical colleges, provided that funds appropriated in the 1991-93 biennium pertaining to vocational-technical institutes or technical colleges shall be made available solely for the use of those entities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 131. Capital and (RMI) projections for vocational-technical institutes are hereby incorporated into the six-year capital plan for community colleges that begins in the 1993-95 biennium and placed under the capital plans and projections for the state board for community and technical colleges.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 132. All funds appropriated by the legislature in the operating budget for the 1991-93 biennium pertaining to vocational-technical institutes and to community colleges are combined under the operating budget for the state board for community and technical colleges, provided that funds appropriated in the 1991-93 biennium pertaining to vocational-technical institutes or technical colleges shall be made available solely for the use of those entities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 133. Title to or all interest in real estate, choses in action, and all other assets and liabilities, including court claims, including but not limited to assignable contracts, cash, deposits in county funds (including any interest or premiums thereon), equipment, buildings, facilities, and appurtenances thereto held as of the effective date of this section by or for a school district and obtained identifiably with federal, state, or local funds appropriated for vocational-technical institute purposes or postsecondary vocational educational purposes, or used or obtained with funds budgeted for vocational-technical institute purposes or postsecondary vocational education purposes, or used or obtained primarily for vocational education purposes, and all liabilities including, but not limited to court claims incurred on behalf of a vocational-technical institute by a school district, shall, on the date on which the first board of trustees of each college district takes office, vest in or be assigned to the state board for community and technical colleges. Grounds that have been used primarily as a playground for children shall continue to be made available for such use.

Cash, funds, accounts, or other deposits obtained or raised by a school district to pay for indebtedness, bonded or otherwise, contracted on or before the effective date of this section for vocational-technical institute purposes shall remain with and continue to be, after the effective date of this section, an asset of the school district.

Any option acquired by the school district to purchase real property which in the judgment of the school district will be used in the common school program may remain with the school district notwithstanding that such option was obtained in consideration of the purchase by such school district of other property for vocational-technical institute purposes.

Unexpended funds of a common school district derived from the sale of bonds issued for vocational-technical institute capital purposes and not committed for any existing construction contract, shall be transferred to the college district of which the institute is a part for application to such projects.

For the purposes of this section and to facilitate the process of allocating the assets, the board of directors of each school district in which a vocational-technical institute is located, and the director of each vocational-technical institute, shall each submit to the state board of education, and the state board for community and technical colleges within ninety days of the effective date of this section, an inventory listing all real estate, personal property, choses in action, and other assets, held by a school district which, under the criteria of this section, will become the assets of the state board for community and technical colleges.

However, assets used primarily for vocational-technical institute purposes shall include, but not be limited to, all assets currently held by school districts which have been used on an average of at least seventy-five percent of the time during the 1989-90 school year, or if acquired subsequent to July 1, 1990, since its time of acquisition, for vocational-technical institute purposes, except that facilities used during school construction and remodeling periods to house vocational-technical institute programs temporarily and facilities that were vacated by the vocational-technical institute and returned to the school district during 1990-91 are not subject to this requirement.

The ultimate decision and approval with respect to the allocation and dispositions of the assets and liabilities including court claims under this section shall be made by a task force appointed by the governor in consultation with the superintendent of public instruction and the state board for community and technical colleges. Any issues remaining in dispute shall be settled by the governor or the governor's designee. The decision of the governor, the governor's designee, or the task force may be appealed within sixty days after such decision is issued by appealing to the district court of Thurston county. The decision of the superior court may be appealed to the supreme court of the state in accordance with the provision of the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.05 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 134. If, before the effective date of this section, the use of a single building facility is being shared between an existing vocational-technical institute program and a K-12 program, the respective boards shall continue to share the use of the facility until such time as it is convenient to remove one of the two programs to another facility. The determination of convenience shall be based solely upon the best interests of the students involved.

If a vocational-technical institute district board and a common school district board are sharing the use of a single facility, the program occupying the majority of the space of such facility, exclusive of space utilized equally by both, shall determine which board will be charged with the administration and control of such facility. The determination of occupancy shall be based upon the space occupied as of January 1, 1990.

The board charged with the administration and control of such facility may share expenses with the other board for the use of the facility.

In the event that the two boards are unable to agree upon which board is to administer and control the facility or upon a fair share of expenses for the use of the facility, the governor shall appoint an arbitrator to settle the matter. The decisions of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon both boards. The expenses of the arbitration shall be divided equally by each board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 135. All funds remaining from any public or private grant, contract, or in various auxiliary enterprise accounts for vocational-technical institute purposes shall be transferred to the appropriate college district under the state board for community and technical colleges once a district board of trustees has been appointed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 136. In the event a new college district is created, the governor shall appoint new trustees to the district's board of trustees in accordance with RCW 28B.50.100.

Sec. 137. RCW 43.19.190 and 1987 c 414 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:

The director of general administration, through the state purchasing and material control director, shall:

(1) Establish and staff such administrative organizational units within the division of purchasing as may be necessary for effective administration of the provisions of RCW 43.19.190 through 43.19.1939;

(2) Purchase all material, supplies, services, and equipment needed for the support, maintenance, and use of all state institutions, colleges, community colleges, technical colleges, college districts, and universities, the offices of the elective state officers, the supreme court, the court of appeals, the administrative and other departments of state government, and the offices of all appointive officers of the state: PROVIDED, That the provisions of RCW 43.19.190 through 43.19.1937 do not apply in any manner to the operation of the state legislature except as requested by said legislature: PROVIDED, That primary authority for the purchase of specialized equipment, instructional, and research material for their own use shall rest with the colleges, community colleges, and universities: PROVIDED FURTHER, That universities operating hospitals and the state purchasing and material control director, as the agent for state hospitals as defined in RCW 72.23.010, and for health care programs provided in state correctional institutions as defined in RCW 72.65.010(3) and veterans' institutions as defined in RCW 72.36.010 and 72.36.070, may make purchases for hospital operation by participating in contracts for materials, supplies, and equipment entered into by cooperative hospital service organizations as defined in section 501(e) of the Internal Revenue Code, or its successor: PROVIDED FURTHER, That primary authority for the purchase of materials, supplies, and equipment for resale to other than public agencies shall rest with the state agency concerned: PROVIDED FURTHER, That authority to purchase services as included herein does not apply to personal services as defined in chapter 39.29 RCW, unless such organization specifically requests assistance from the division of purchasing in obtaining personal services and resources are available within the division to provide such assistance: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the authority for the purchase of insurance and bonds shall rest with the risk manager under RCW 43.19.1935 as now or hereafter amended;

(3) Provide the required staff assistance for the state supply management advisory board through the division of purchasing;

(4) Have authority to delegate to state agencies authorization to purchase or sell, which authorization shall specify restrictions as to dollar amount or to specific types of material, equipment, services, and supplies: PROVIDED, That acceptance of the purchasing authorization by a state agency does not relieve such agency from conformance with other sections of RCW 43.19.190 through 43.19.1939, as now or hereafter amended, or from policies established by the director after consultation with the state supply management advisory board: PROVIDED FURTHER, That delegation of such authorization to a state agency, including an educational institution, to purchase or sell material, equipment, services, and supplies shall not be granted, or otherwise continued under a previous authorization, if such agency is not in substantial compliance with overall state purchasing and material control policies as established herein;

(5) Contract for the testing of material, supplies, and equipment with public and private agencies as necessary and advisable to protect the interests of the state;

(6) Prescribe the manner of inspecting all deliveries of supplies, materials, and equipment purchased through the division;

(7) Prescribe the manner in which supplies, materials, and equipment purchased through the division shall be delivered, stored, and distributed;

(8) Provide for the maintenance of a catalogue library, manufacturers' and wholesalers' lists, and current market information;

(9) Provide for a commodity classification system and may, in addition, provide for the adoption of standard specifications after receiving the recommendation of the supply management advisory board;

(10) Provide for the maintenance of inventory records of supplies, materials, and other property;

(11) Prepare rules and regulations governing the relationship and procedures between the division of purchasing and state agencies and vendors;

(12) Publish procedures and guidelines for compliance by all state agencies, including educational institutions, which implement overall state purchasing and material control policies;

(13) Conduct periodic visits to state agencies, including educational institutions, to determine if statutory provisions and supporting purchasing and material control policies are being fully implemented, and based upon such visits, take corrective action to achieve compliance with established purchasing and material control policies under existing statutes when required.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 138. Sick leave accumulated by employees of vocational-technical institutes shall be transferred to the college districts without loss of time subject to the provisions of RCW 28B.50.551 and the further provisions of any negotiated agreements then in force.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 139. The state employees' benefit board shall adopt rules to preclude any preexisting conditions or limitations in existing health care service contracts for school district employees at vocational-technical institutes transferred to the state board for community and technical colleges. The board shall also provide for the disposition of any dividends or refundable reserves in the school district's health care service contracts applicable to vocational-technical institute employees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 140. If a school board has contracted to redeem general obligation bonds used for the construction or acquisition of facilities which are now to be under the administration, control, and occupancy of the college district board, the school board shall continue to redeem the bonds in accordance with the provisions of the bonds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 141. If a technical college is created after the effective date of this section, that college may contract with an adjacent college district for administrative services until such time that an existing or new college district may assume jurisdiction over the college.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 142. The legislature finds that the needs of the work force and the economy necessitate enhanced vocational education opportunities in secondary education including curriculum which integrates vocational and academic education. In order for the state's work force to be competitive in the world market, employees need competencies in both vocational/technical skills and in core essential competencies such as English, math, science/technology, geography, history, and critical thinking. Curriculum which integrates vocational and academic education reflects that many students learn best through applied learning, and that students should be offered flexible education opportunities which prepare them for both the world of work and for higher education.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 143. The superintendent of public instruction shall with the advice of the work force training and education coordinating board develop model curriculum integrating vocational and academic education at the secondary level. The curriculum shall integrate vocational education for gainful employment with education in the academic subjects of English, math, science/technology, geography, and history, and with education in critical thinking. Upon completion, the model curriculum shall be provided for consideration and use by school districts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 144. A new section is added to chapter 28A.320 RCW to read as follows:

As of the effective date of this section, school districts shall not remove facilities, equipment, or property from the jurisdiction or use of the technical colleges. This shall include direct and indirect funds other than those indirect charges provided for in the 1990-91 appropriations act. School districts shall not increase direct or indirect charges for central district administrative support for technical college programs above the percentage rate charged in the 1990-91 school year. This provision on administrative charges for technical college programs shall apply to any state and federal grants, tuition, and other revenues generated by technical college programs. School districts and the superintendent of public instruction shall cooperate fully with the technical colleges and the state board for community and technical colleges with regard to the implementation of chapter ..., Laws of 1991 (this act). No employee of a technical college may be discriminated against based on actions or opinions expressed on issues surrounding chapter ..., Laws of 1991 (this act). Any dispute related to issues contained in this section shall be resolved under section 133 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 145. During the period from the effective date of this section until September 1, 1991:

(1) The executive director of the state board for community and technical colleges, or the executive director's designee, may enter into contracts, or agreements for goods, services, and personnel, on behalf of the technical college, which are effective after September 1, 1991. The executive director, or the executive director's designee, may conduct business, including budget approval, relevant to the operation of the technical college in the period subsequent to September 1, 1991.

(2) Vocational-technical institute directors may conduct business relevant to the operation of the vocational-technical institutes. School boards and superintendents may not restrict or remove powers previously delegated to the vocational-technical institute directors during the 1990-91 school year.

(3) Technical colleges' boards of trustees appointed before September 1, 1991, shall serve in an advisory capacity to the vocational-technical institute director.

As of September 1, 1991, technical colleges may, by interlocal agreement, continue to purchase from the school districts, support services within mutually agreed upon categories at a cost not to exceed the indirect rate charged during the 1990-91 school year. No employee of a technical college may be discriminated against based on actions or opinions expressed on issues surrounding chapter ..., Laws of 1991 (this act). Any dispute related to issues contained in this section shall be resolved under section 133 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 146. The colleges in each overlapping service area shall jointly submit for approval to the state board for community and technical colleges not later than December 1, 1991, a regional planning agreement. The agreement shall provide for the ongoing interinstitutional coordination of community and technical college programs and services operated in the overlapping service area. The agreement shall include the means for the adjudication of issues arising from overlapping service areas. The agreement shall include a definitive statement of mission, scope, and purpose for each college including the nature of courses, programs, and services to be offered by each college. The statement shall include a provision that the technical colleges shall not offer courses designed for transfer to baccalaureate granting institutions. This shall not preclude such offerings provided through contracts or agreements with a community college in the service area.

Any part of the agreement that is not approved by all the colleges in the service area, shall be determined by the state board for community and technical colleges.

Approved regional planning agreements shall be enforced by the full authority of the state board for community and technical colleges. Changes to the agreement are subject to state board approval.

For the purpose of creating and adopting a regional planning agreement, the trustees of the colleges in Pierce county shall form a county coordinating committee. The county coordinating committee shall consist of eight members. Each college board of trustees in Pierce county shall select two of its members to serve on the county coordinating committee. The county coordinating committee shall not employ its own staff, but shall instead utilize staff of the colleges in the county. The regional planning agreement adopted by the county coordinating committee shall include, but shall not be limited to: The items listed in this section, the transfer of credits between technical and community colleges, program articulation, and the avoidance of unnecessary duplication in programs, activities, and services.

Sec. 147. RCW 28B.52.010 and 1987 c 314 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the purpose of this chapter to strengthen methods of administering employer-employee relations through the establishment of orderly methods of communication between academic employees and the ((community)) college districts by which they are employed.

It is the purpose of this chapter to promote cooperative efforts by prescribing certain rights and obligations of the employees and employers and by establishing orderly procedures governing the relationship between the employees and their employers which procedures are designed to meet the special requirements and needs of public employment in higher education. It is the intent of this chapter to promote activity that includes the elements of open communication and access to information in a timely manner, with reasonable discussion and interpretation of that information. It is the further intent that such activity shall be characterized by mutual respect, integrity, reasonableness, and a desire on the part of the parties to address and resolve the points of concern.

Sec. 148. RCW 28B.52.020 and 1987 c 314 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Employee organization" means any organization which includes as members the academic employees of a ((community)) college district and which has as one of its purposes the representation of the employees in their employment relations with the ((community)) college district.

(2) "Academic employee" means any teacher, counselor, librarian, or department head, who is employed by any ((community)) college district, whether full or part time, with the exception of the chief administrative officer of, and any administrator in, each ((community)) college district.

(3) "Administrator" means any person employed either full or part time by the ((community)) college district and who performs administrative functions as at least fifty percent or more of his or her assignments, and has responsibilities to hire, dismiss, or discipline other employees. Administrators shall not be members of the bargaining unit unless a majority of such administrators and a majority of the bargaining unit elect by secret ballot for such inclusion pursuant to rules ((and regulations)) as adopted in accordance with RCW 28B.52.080.

(4) "Commission" means the public employment relations commission.

(5) "Unfair labor practice" means any unfair labor practice listed in RCW 28B.52.073.

(6) "Union security provision" means a provision in a collective bargaining agreement under which some or all employees in the bargaining unit may be required, as a condition of continued employment on or after the thirtieth day following the beginning of such employment or the effective date of the provision, whichever is later, to become a member of the exclusive bargaining representative or pay an agency fee equal to the periodic dues and initiation fees uniformly required as a condition of acquiring or retaining membership in the exclusive bargaining representative.

(7) "Exclusive bargaining representative" means any employee organization which has:

(a) Been certified or recognized under this chapter as the representative of the employees in an appropriate collective bargaining unit; or

(b) Before July 26, 1987, been certified or recognized under a predecessor statute as the representative of the employees in a bargaining unit which continues to be appropriate under this chapter.

(8) "Collective bargaining" and "bargaining" mean the performance of the mutual obligation of the representatives of the employer and the exclusive bargaining representative to meet at reasonable times to bargain in good faith in an effort to reach agreement with respect to wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment, such as procedures related to nonretention, dismissal, denial of tenure, and reduction in force. Prior law, practice, or interpretation shall be neither restrictive, expansive, nor determinative with respect to the scope of bargaining. A written contract incorporating any agreements reached shall be executed if requested by either party. The obligation to bargain does not compel either party to agree to a proposal or to make a concession.

In the event of a dispute between an employer and an exclusive bargaining representative over the matters that are terms and conditions of employment, the commission shall decide which items are mandatory subjects for bargaining.

Sec. 149. RCW 28B.52.030 and 1987 c 314 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

Representatives of an employee organization, which organization shall by secret ballot have won a majority in an election to represent the academic employees within its ((community)) college district, shall have the right to bargain as defined in RCW 28B.52.020(8).

Sec. 150. RCW 28B.52.035 and 1987 c 314 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

At the conclusion of any negotiation processes as provided for in RCW 28B.52.030, any matter upon which the parties have reached agreement shall be reduced to writing and acted upon in a regular or special meeting of the boards of trustees, and become part of the official proceedings of said board meeting. Provisions of written contracts relating to salary increases shall not exceed the amount or percentage established by the legislature in the appropriations act and allocated to the board of trustees by the state board for community and technical colleges ((education)). The length of term of any such agreement shall be for not more than three fiscal years. Any provisions of these agreements pertaining to salary increases will not be binding upon future actions of the legislature. If any provision of a salary increase is changed by subsequent modification of the appropriations act by the legislature, both parties shall immediately enter into collective bargaining for the sole purpose of arriving at a mutually agreed upon replacement for the modified provision.

Sec. 151. RCW 28B.52.050 and 1971 ex.s. c 196 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit any academic employee from appearing in his or her own behalf on matters relating to his or her employment relations with the ((community)) college district.

Sec. 152. RCW 28B.52.060 and 1987 c 314 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission shall conduct mediation activities upon the request of either party as a means of assisting in the settlement of unresolved matters considered under this chapter.

In the event that any matter being jointly considered by the employee organization and the board of trustees of the ((community)) college district is not settled by the means provided in this chapter, either party, twenty-four hours after serving written notice of its intended action to the other party, may, request the assistance and advice of the commission. Nothing in this section prohibits an employer and an employee organization from agreeing to substitute, at their own expense, some other impasse procedure or other means of resolving matters considered under this chapter.

Sec. 153. RCW 28B.52.070 and 1971 ex.s. c 196 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

Boards of trustees of ((community)) college districts or any administrative officer thereof shall not discriminate against academic employees or applicants for such positions because of their membership or nonmembership in employee organizations or their exercise of other rights under this chapter.

Sec. 154. RCW 28B.52.078 and 1987 c 314 s 13 are each amended to read as follows:

The right of ((community)) college faculty to engage in any strike is prohibited. The right of a board of trustees to engage in any lockout is prohibited. Should either a strike or lockout occur, the representative of the faculty or board of trustees may invoke the jurisdiction of the superior court in the county in which the labor dispute exists and such court shall have jurisdiction to issue an appropriate order against either or both parties. In fashioning an order, the court shall take into consideration not only the elements necessary for injunctive relief but also the purpose and goals of this chapter and any mitigating factors such as the commission of an unfair labor practice by either party.

Sec. 155. RCW 28B.52.090 and 1971 ex.s. c 196 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to annul or modify, or to preclude the renewal or continuation of, any lawful agreement heretofore entered into between any ((community)) college district and any representative of its employees.

Sec. 156. RCW 28B.52.200 and 1987 c 314 s 12 are each amended to read as follows:

Nothing in chapter 28B.52 RCW as now or hereafter amended shall compel either party to agree to a proposal or to make a concession, nor shall any provision in chapter 28B.52 RCW as now or hereafter amended be construed as limiting or precluding the exercise by each ((community)) college board of trustees of any powers or duties authorized or provided to it by law unless such exercise is contrary to the terms and conditions of any lawful negotiated agreement, except that other than to extend the terms of a previous contract, a board of trustees shall not take unilateral action on any unresolved issue under negotiation, unless the parties have first participated in good faith mediation or some other procedure as authorized by RCW 28B.52.060 to seek resolution of the issue.

Sec. 157. RCW 28B.52.210 and 1990 c 29 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

With respect to the community and technical colleges faculty awards trust program, the permissible scope of collective bargaining under this chapter shall be governed by RCW 28B.50.843.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 158. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) RCW 28B.50.055 and 1982 1st ex.s. c 30 s 10;
- (2) RCW 28C.15.010 and 1987 c 492 s 1;

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "A point of inquiry, Mr. President. We are getting quite a few messages on scopes here, but we don't have the message. Now, it is my understanding and from what I have heard that a lot of these are purely political scopes. Let me refer, Mr. President, to one, if I may. The senior citizen bill--tax exemption bill--was scoped. The bill as I recall it--the House Bill had eighteen and twenty-six and I think the Senate changed it and moved it up to thirty--a directly related subject that no man in his right senses--or woman could say that it deserved scoping.

"Now, I think the Senate is entitled to messages on the scope, as to the reasons given and if it is determined that it is purely a political scope, because somebody on this side had the wrong name on the bill, we are entitled to that knowledge and the public is entitled to it. I would hate to think that the Honorable Speaker, Mr. King, would stoop to political scopes, but if he has stooped, we should catch him in the stoop and take the proper action, at that time--when you find him in the stoop.

"I don't like it. I don't mind the scope, as you make your decisions. I have several times been scoped and I accept it, because it probably was not directly related, but when we are getting a large number of scopes, there is really no rhyme or reason for it. I think the Senate is entitled to that.

"Now, I will leave it to the President as to how we will get that information. If we could delay long enough on some of these bills, we could request that opinion. I am sure if they requested your opinion, it would be gladly given to them. It does bother me when we are getting all of these scopes and very, very patently it is a political deal.

"I have nothing against the Republicans myself, you understand, except that the Democrats can do a better job. I'm not sure the Democrats can always do a better job either, but we are entitled to the reasons for it. Would you please advise what we can do now to get those scope messages."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "Senator, if it is, and I have no way of knowing, but if it is true what you say, then I am certainly in sympathy with your views. We do not have the reasons--the statements for the reasons for the scope and object ruling. We can ask for it. Sometimes there is a reason given and sometimes there isn't a reason given in the House. It is announced. I'll tell you what I will do, we will send over to the Speaker a request for his scope and object ruling. I have no idea whether he is going to comply with that request or not."

Senator Rasmussen: "Your rulings are usually issued in writing and they are there for the record."

President Pritchard: "I realize that."

Senator Rasmussen: "I think it is no more than reasonable that the House should be able to have a reason that they put in the record, in the Journal, that it would show and we are entitled to it. Would you do that for us, then?"

President Pritchard: "I will make that request for you, Senator."

The reappropriation in this subsection is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(a) The reappropriation is provided solely for a mental health evaluation and treatment facility in Snohomish county.

(b) No moneys from the reappropriation may be expended until the department enters into an agreement with Snohomish county or a group of counties for the facility. The payments under the agreement shall be either at least equal to the facility component of the state average rate-per-patient day paid by the department to community mental health providers for comparable services, or at least equal to the amount of this reappropriation amortized over fifteen years.

(c) No moneys from the reappropriation may be expended before adoption of a plan to provide mental health services through a regional support network as required by chapter 205, Laws of 1989.

(d) Other counties or regions that adopt plans for mental health services as required by chapter 205, Laws of 1989, shall be eligible for application to the state for future evaluation and treatment facility moneys under the same conditions as are provided in subsections (a) and (b) of this subsection, as long as no applicant receives appropriated moneys from state sources exceeding one million dollars.

(5) Water quality account (86-5-007)

The appropriations in this subsection are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(a) In awarding grants, extending grant payments, or making loans from these appropriations for facilities that discharge directly into marine waters, the department shall:

(i) Give first priority to secondary wastewater treatment facilities that are mandated by both federal and state law;

(ii) Give second priority to projects that reduce combined sewer overflows; and

(iii) Encourage economies that are derived from any simultaneous projects that achieve the purposes of both (a) and (b) of this subsection.

(b) The following limitations apply to the department's total distribution of funds appropriated under this subsection:

(i) Not more than fifty percent for water pollution control facilities that discharge directly into marine waters;

(ii) Not more than twenty percent for water pollution control activities that prevent or mitigate pollution of underground waters and facilities that protect federally designated sole source aquifers, with at least two-thirds for the Spokane-Rathdrum Prairie aquifer;

(iii) Not more than ten percent for water pollution control activities that protect freshwater lakes and rivers including but not limited to Lake Chelan and the Yakima and Columbia rivers;

(iv) Not more than ten percent for activities that control nonpoint source water pollution;

(v) Ten percent and such sums as may be remaining from the categories specified in (b)(i) through (iv) of this subsection for water pollution control activities or facilities as determined by the department.

(c) In determining compliance schedules for the greatest reasonable reduction of combined sewer overflows, the department shall consider the amount of grant or loan moneys available to assist local governments in the planning, design, acquisition, construction, and improvement of combined sewer overflow facilities.

(d) $330,000 of the water quality account appropriation is provided solely for the department to evaluate water quality, solid and hazardous waste, and toxics cleanup needs of the state. The amount provided in this subsection (5)(d) represents the water quality account share of funding the evaluation. The department shall include in the evaluation information regarding existing needs and recommendations on how to address those needs within existing state financial assistance programs. The department shall also evaluate long-range financial options which take into account local financial resources. The evaluation shall be done in coordination with the state agency coordinating council established in Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1025. If the bill is not enacted by June 30, 1991, the director of the department shall coordinate with the department of community development, the office of financial management, the department of health, and the Puget Sound water quality authority as well as other appropriate state and local agencies. By November 1, 1991, the department shall submit to the chairs of the house capital facilities and financing committee and the senate ways and means committee a detailed work plan, budget, and schedule for completion of the evaluation.

$270,000 of the new appropriation in this subsection is provided solely for the evaluation required in subsection (5)(d) of this section.

$300,000 of the new appropriation in this subsection is provided solely for a pilot grant program to address remedial actions involving the contamination of drinking water supplies from hazardous substances. The pilot grant program is limited to remedial action where a responsible party has not been identified or held responsible. The department may establish an appropriate local match requirement for the pilot grant program. The department shall report to the appropriate committees of the legislature regarding the state-wide need for programs to clean up drinking water supplies contaminated by hazardous substances. This report shall be consolidated into the evaluation required in subsection (5)(d) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. FOR THE PARKS AND RECREATION COMMISSION: TIMBERLAND PURCHASES AND COMMON SCHOOL PURCHASES

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) This appropriation is provided to the state parks and recreation commission ("commission") solely to acquire trust lands that have been identified by the commission and the department of natural resources ("department") as suitable and recommended for addition to the state parks system as described in the joint study under section 4, chapter 163, Laws of 1985. All or part of the following lands shall be acquired:

- (a) Diamond Point, in Clallam county, on the Strait of Juan de Fuca;
- (b) Lord Hill, in Snohomish county, west of Monroe;
- (c) Beacon Rock, in Skamania county, adjacent to Beacon Rock State Park;
- (d) Larrabee Addition, (1 and 2) in Whatcom county, northeast of Larrabee State Park and Chuckanut Mountain;
- (e) South Whidbey, in Island county, adjacent to South Whidbey State park;
- (f) Wallace Falls addition, in Snohomish county, adjacent to Wallace Falls State Park;
- (g) Soleduck corridor, in Clallam county, on the Soleduck river at Sappho;
- (h) Point Lawrence in San Juan county at the extreme east point of Orcas Island;
- (i) Hoypus Hill in Island county south of the Hoypus Point Natural Forest Area at Deception Pass State Park;
- (j) Steamboat Rock in Grant county on Osborne Bay on the Banks Lake reservoir; and
- (k) Lake Easton in Kittitas county west of Lake Easton State Park near the town of Easton.

(2) If the boundaries of the properties acquired under this section vary in any significant aspect from the property boundaries identified in the study, the commission shall report to the appropriate committees of the legislature, describing the boundary variations and the justification therefor. Neither the department nor the commission shall take any final action inconsistent with the acquisition of the full parcels for park purposes until the legislature has had an opportunity to enact legislation preventing the boundary variation.

(3) To achieve the purposes of this section, intergrant exchanges between common school trust lands and parcels of noncommon school trust lands shall occur on an equal-value basis.

(4) Proceeds from the transfer of the timber shall be deposited by the department in the same manner as timber revenues from other common school trust lands. No deduction may be made either for administrative costs or for the resource management cost account under RCW 79.64.040. The proceeds from the transfer of the land shall be used by the department to acquire timber land of equal value to be managed as common school trust land and to maintain a sustainable yield.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 39. FOR THE STATE LIBRARY

(1) Library for the blind and physically handicapped planning (90-5-001)

The reappropriation in this section is provided solely to develop a plan for an alternative facility for the library for the blind and physically handicapped. The plan may anticipate that the state will contribute funds for a building to be owned and managed by the city of Seattle, in exchange for permanent rent-free space for library services for the blind and physically handicapped. The department of general administration, in cooperation with the state library, shall provide support for an analysis of facilities options and development of construction plans by the city of Seattle and the Seattle public library. The plan developed under this section shall include the recommendations of the department of general administration and the state library with respect to state participation in the project. If appropriate, the analysis may include consideration of alternatives to construction of a city-owned building, such as the purchase or lease of an existing facility. The plan shall address the interests of both the city and the state, how the facility will be used and managed, costs, and timing of the project. The plan shall be submitted to the governor and the legislature by December 1, 1991.

(e) Lease-purchase office space for Edmonds Community College in Edmonds for $280,000 during the 1991-93 biennium;

(f) Lease-purchase space to house Spokane Falls Community College's adult education programs in Spokane for $300,000 during the 1991-93 biennium;

(g) Lease-purchase space to house plant services for Wenatchee Valley Community College in Wenatchee for $96,000 during the 1991-93 biennium;

(h) Lease-purchase land in Bellingham for Whatcom Community College for $70,000 during the 1991-93 biennium;

(i) Purchase a central storage facility for Spokane Community College for $75,000; and

(j) Purchase a hangar at Felts Field to house the aircraft mechanics' vocational training program for Spokane Community College for $161,000.

(4) The Department of Ecology, to acquire, design, and construct a Thurston county headquarters for $53,000,000.

(5) The Evergreen State College, to expand the college activities building for $800,000. The financing contract shall be repaid through student activities fees.

(6) The Department of General Administration, to purchase or lease purchase office space to house the state board for community college education staff for $1,400,000.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 47. FOR THE ARTS COMMISSION--ART WORK ALLOWANCE POOLING.

One-half of one percent of moneys appropriated in this act for original construction of school plant facilities is provided solely for the purposes of RCW 28A.335.210. One-half of one percent of moneys appropriated in this act for original construction of any building by any college or university or for any major renovation or remodel work exceeding $200,000 by any college or university is provided solely for the purposes of RCW 28B.10.027. One-half of one percent of moneys appropriated in this act for original construction of any other public building by a state agency as defined by RCW 43.17.200 is provided solely for the purposes of RCW 43.17.200.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 48. The amounts shown under the headings "Prior Biennia," "Future Biennia," and "Total" in this act are for informational purposes only and do not constitute legislative approval of these amounts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 49. "Reappropriations" in this act are appropriations and, unless the context clearly provides otherwise, are subject to the relevant conditions and limitations applicable to appropriations. Reappropriations shall be limited to the unexpended balances remaining June 30, 1991, in the 1989-91 biennial appropriations for each project.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 50. To carry out the provisions of this act, the governor may assign responsibility for planning, engineering, construction, and other related activities to any appropriate agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 51. As part of the annual update to the state facilities and capital plan, agencies shall provide information on lease development and lease purchase projects to the office of financial management.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 52. If any federal moneys appropriated by this act for capital projects are not received by the state, the department or agency to which the moneys were appropriated may replace the federal moneys available from private or local sources. No replacement may occur under this section without the prior approval of the director of financial management in consultation with the senate committee on ways and means and the house of representatives committee on capital facilities and financing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 53. Unless otherwise stated, for all appropriations under this act that require a match of nonstate money or in-kind contributions, the following requirement under RCW 43.88.150 shall apply: Expenditure of state money shall be timed so that the state share of project expenditures never exceeds the intended state share of total project costs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 54. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, for the 1991-93 biennium, transfers of reimbursement by the state treasurer to the general fund from the community college capital projects account for debt service payments made under Title 28B RCW shall occur only after such debt service payment has been made and only to the extent that funds are actually available in the account. Any unpaid reimbursements shall be a continuing obligation against the community college capital projects account until paid. The state board for community college education need not accumulate any specific balance in the community college capital projects account in anticipation of transfers to reimburse the general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 55. Any capital improvements or capital project involving construction or major expansion of a state office facility, including district headquarters, detachment offices, and off-campus faculty offices, shall be reviewed by the department of general administration for possible consolidation and compliance with state office standards before allotment of funds. The intent of the requirement imposed by this section is to eliminate duplication and reduce total office space requirements where feasible, while ensuring proper service to the public.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 56. The governor, through the director of financial management, may authorize a transfer of appropriation authority provided for a capital project that is in excess of the amount required for the completion of such project to another capital project for which the appropriation is insufficient. No such transfer shall be used to expand the capacity of any facility beyond that intended by the legislature in making the appropriation. Such transfers may be effected only between capital appropriations to a specific department, commission, agency, or institution of higher education and only between capital projects that are funded from the same fund or account.

For purposes of this section, the governor may find that an amount is in excess of the amount required for the completion of a project only if (1) the project as defined in the notes to the budget document is substantially complete and there are funds remaining or (2) bids have been let on a project and it appears to a substantial certainty that the project as defined in the notes to the budget document can be completed within the biennium for less than the amount appropriated herein.

For the purposes of this section, the legislature intends that each project be defined as proposed to the legislature in the governor's budget document, unless it clearly appears from the legislative history that the legislature intended to define the scope of a project in a different way.

A report of any transfer effected under this section shall be filed with the legislative fiscal committees of the senate and house of representatives by the director of financial management at least thirty days prior to the date the transfer is effected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 57. To ensure that major construction projects are carried out in accordance with legislative and executive intent, appropriations in this act referencing this section shall not be expended until the office of financial management has reviewed the agency's programmatic preplanning document and approved continuation of or made changes to the project. The program preplanning document shall include but not be limited to projected workload, site conditions, user requirements, current space available, and an overall budget and cost estimate breakdown in a form prescribed by the office of financial management. The office of financial management shall report to the house of representatives capital facilities committee, the senate ways and means committee, and the legislative transportation committee a listing of the program documents the office has reviewed and approved, changes made to the documents resulting from the review, and the estimated cost changes resulting from the review.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 58. The department of information services shall act as lead agency in coordinating video telecommunications services for state agencies. As lead agency, the department shall develop standards and common specifications for leased and purchased telecommunications equipment and assist state agencies in developing a video telecommunications expenditure plan. No agency may spend any portion of any appropriation in this act for new video telecommunication equipment, new video telecommunication transmission, or new video telecommunication programming, or for expanding current video telecommunication systems without first complying with chapter 43.105 RCW, including but not limited to RCW 43.105.041(2), and without first submitting a video telecommunications equipment expenditure plan, in accordance with the policies of the department of information services, for review and assessment by the department of information services under RCW 43.105.052. Before any such expenditure by a public school, a video telecommunications expenditure plan shall be approved by the superintendent of public instruction. The office of the superintendent of public instruction shall submit the plans to the department of information services in a form prescribed by the department. The office of the superintendent of public instruction shall coordinate the use of video telecommunications in public schools by providing educational information to local school districts and shall assist local school districts and educational service districts in telecommunications planning and curriculum development. Before any such expenditure by a public institution of postsecondary education, a telecommunications expenditure plan shall be approved by the higher education coordinating board. The higher education coordinating board shall coordinate the use of video telecommunications for instruction and instructional support in postsecondary education, including the review and approval of instructional telecommunications course offerings.

"PART 7
SEVERABILITY AND EFFECTIVE DATE"

NEW SECTION. Sec. 59. The appropriations contained in this act are maximum expenditure authorizations. Pursuant to RCW 43.88.037, moneys disbursed from the treasury on the basis of a formalized loan are to be recorded as loans receivable and not as expenditures for accounting purposes. To the extent that moneys are disbursed on a loan basis, the corresponding appropriation shall be reduced by the amount of loan moneys disbursed from the treasury during the 1991-93 biennium.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 60. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 61. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the following amendment to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

On page 7, beginning on line 20 of the committee amendment, strike all material down to and including line 26, and insert the following:

"(b) No moneys appropriated in this subsection(3) or in any subsection specifically referencing this subsection (3) may be expended unless the project is necessary to eliminate or reduce a hazard to human health and the project is completed in compliance with asbestos project standards adopted by the department of general administration.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Talmadge on page 7, beginning on line 20, to the Committee on Ways and Means striking amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1427.

The motion by Senator Talmadge failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

MOTION

Senator Wojahn moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 32, line 31, strike all of subsection (26)

Renumber the remaining subsections and correct internal references accordingly

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator von Reichbauer, I am trying to understand this Tacoma Educational Enrichment Center. What is this going to be? The amendment that Senator Wojahn is offering is strike Sub 26 which relates to the Tacoma Educational Enrichment Center. Does this have something to do with classroom space so that--we are very crowded and the students are crying for more space? What is this?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "Senator Wojahn would have to speak to her intentions on this."

Senator Rasmussen: "I am not talking about Senator Wojahn's intentions."

Senator von Reichbauer: "She has two amendments before us. Are you addressing 4915?"

Senator Rasmussen: "4915, yes. That is the one we are working on."

Senator von Reichbauer: "She has two amendments before us--4914 and 4915--and on 4915, she wants to strike all the Subsection 26, which would, of course, eliminate all of this project. The project is adjoining a school, the Middle School called Jerry Meeker Middle School, that will be beginning school this fall. I will point out and remind you--I am sure you are well aware of it--that the Metropolitan Park District had a bond issue of one point six million dollars and they received enough interest off of that money from the taxpayers of the city of Tacoma that they can match it through the Metropolitan Park District of two point two million dollars. There will be meeting rooms, facilities and other programs to reach out to the young people, middle aged people and senior citizens that live in that area of the city of Tacoma."

Senator Rasmussen: "Would this be in your district?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "That is a good question, because at lunch today I talked with Representative Art Wang, who, I believe, comes from Senator Wojahn's district, and he said that sounds like a good idea, because it probably is going to end up in my district after redistricting."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator von Reichbauer."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Wojahn on page 32, line 31, to the Committee on Ways and Means striking amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1427.

The motion by Senator Wojahn failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1430, by House Committee on Capital Facilities and Financing (originally sponsored by Representative H. Sommers) (by request of Governor Gardner)

Issuing general obligation and revenue bonds.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator McDonald moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The state finance committee is authorized to issue general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of nine hundred fifty-nine million five hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be required, to finance the projects described and authorized by the legislature in the capital and operating appropriations acts for the 1991-1993 fiscal biennium and subsequent fiscal biennia, and all costs incidental thereto.

Bonds authorized in this section shall be sold in such manner, at such time or times, in such amounts, and at such price as the state finance committee shall determine. No such bonds may be offered for sale without prior legislative appropriation of the net proceeds of the sale of the bonds. The state finance committee may obtain insurance, letters of credit, or other credit enhancements and may authorize the execution and delivery of agreements, promissory notes, and other obligations for the purpose of insuring the payment or enhancing the marketability of bonds authorized in this section. Promissory notes or other obligations issued pursuant to this section shall not constitute a debt or the contracting of indebtedness under any constitutional or statutory indebtedness limitation if their payment is conditioned upon the failure of the state to pay the principal of or interest on the bonds with respect to which the same relate.

The state finance committee shall consider the issuance of short-term obligations in lieu of long-term obligations for the purposes of more favorable interest rates, lower total interest costs, and increased marketability and for the purpose of retiring the bonds during the life of the project for which they were issued.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Bonds issued under section 1 of this act are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

General obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of nine hundred fifty-nine million five hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be required, shall be issued for the purposes described and authorized by the legislature in the capital and operating appropriations acts for the 1991-93 fiscal biennium and subsequent fiscal biennia, and to provide for the administrative cost of such projects, including costs of bond issuance and retirement, salaries and related costs of officials and employees of the state, costs of insurance or credit enhancement agreements, and other expenses incidental to the administration of capital projects. Subject to such changes as may be required in the appropriations acts, the proceeds from the sale of the bonds issued for the purposes of this subsection shall be deposited in the state building construction account created by RCW 43.83.020 and transferred as follows:

(1) Eight hundred thirty-five thousand dollars to the state higher education construction account created by RCW 28B.10.851;

(2) Seven hundred twenty-eight million four hundred ninety-three thousand dollars to the state building construction account created by RCW 43.83.020;

(3) Five million dollars to the energy efficiency construction account created by section 11, chapter ..., Laws of 1991 (Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5245);

(4) One million one hundred thousand dollars to the energy efficiency services account created by section 12, chapter ..., Laws of 1991 (Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5245);

(5) One hundred million dollars to the common school construction fund;

(6) Ninety-one million six hundred twenty-one thousand dollars to the higher education reimbursable construction account hereby created in the state treasury; and

(7) Four million six hundred eighty-four thousand one hundred sixty-six dollars to the state wildlife fund.

These proceeds shall be used exclusively for the purposes specified in this subsection, and for the payment of expenses incurred in the issuance and sale of the bonds issued for the purposes of this section, and shall be administered by the office of financial management, subject to legislative appropriation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Both principal of and interest on the bonds issued for the purposes specified in section 2 (1) through (7) of this act shall be payable from the state general obligation bond retirement fund. The state finance committee may provide that a special account be created in such fund to facilitate payment of such principal and interest.

The state finance committee shall, on or before June 30th of each year, certify to the state treasurer the amount required to provide for the payment of principal and interest on such bonds during the ensuing fiscal year in accordance with the provisions of the bond proceedings. The state treasurer shall withdraw from any general state revenues received in the state treasury and deposit in the state general obligation bond retirement fund, or a special account in such fund, such amounts and at such times as are required by the bond proceedings: PROVIDED, That:

(1) For principal and interest payments on bonds issued for the purposes of section 2(5) of this act, the state treasurer shall first deposit in the state general obligation bond retirement fund, or a special account in such fund, from property taxes levied by the state for the support of common schools under RCW 84.52.065, such amounts and at such times as are required by the bond proceedings; and

(2) For principal and interest payments on bonds issued for the purposes of section 2(6) of this act, the state treasurer shall first deposit in the state general obligation bond retirement fund, or a special account in such fund, from higher education operating fees, such amounts and at such times as are required by the bond proceedings.

At the time of sale of the bonds issued under this chapter, and on or before June 30th of each succeeding year while such bonds remain outstanding, the state finance committee shall determine, based on current balances and estimated receipts from property taxes levied for the support of the common schools and higher education operating fees, that portion of principal and interest on the bonds issued for the purposes of section 2 (5) and (6) of this act which will, by virtue of payments under subsections (1) and (2) of this section, be paid from sources other than "general state revenues" as that term is defined in Article VIII, section 1 of the state Constitution. The amount so determined by the state finance committee, as from time to time adjusted in accordance with this section, shall not constitute indebtedness for purposes of the limitations set forth in RCW 39.42.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) For bonds issued for the purposes of section 2 (3) and (4) of this act, on each date on which any interest or principal and interest payment is due, the state treasurer shall transfer the amount computed in section 3 of this act from the energy efficiency construction account created in section 11, chapter ..., Laws of 1991 (Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5245) to the general fund of the state treasury.

(2) For bonds issued for the purposes of section 2(7) of this act, on each date on which any interest or principal and interest payment is due, the state treasurer shall transfer the amount computed in section 3 of this act from the state wildlife fund to the general fund of the state treasury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. In addition to any other charges authorized by law and to assist in the reimbursement of principal and interest payments on bonds issued for the purposes of section 2 (3) and (4) of this act, the director of the energy office shall cause to be accumulated in the energy efficiency construction account, from project revenues, loan repayments, and other moneys legally available for such purposes, amounts adequate to make payments of principal of and interest coming due on general obligation bonds issued for the purposes of section 2 (3) and (4) of this act. As needed during each fiscal year, the director shall cause amounts so accumulated to be deposited into the general fund of the state treasury. If the director is unable to accumulate and transfer the full amount necessary for such payments of principal of and interest coming due on the bonds, any shortfall shall be credited to an account receivable from the energy office to the state treasury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Bonds issued under section 1 of this act shall state that they are a general obligation of the state of Washington, shall pledge the full faith and credit of the state to the payment of the principal thereof and the interest thereon, and shall contain an unconditional promise to pay the principal and interest as the same shall become due.

The owner and holder of each of the bonds or the trustee for the owner and holder of any of the bonds may by mandamus or other appropriate proceeding require the transfer and payment of funds as directed in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The legislature may provide additional means for raising moneys for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds authorized in section 1 of this act, and sections 3 and 4 of this act shall not be deemed to provide an exclusive method for the payment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The bonds authorized in section 1 of this act shall be a legal investment for all state funds or funds under state control and for all funds of any other public body.

Sec. 9. RCW 28B.14D.900 and 1985 c 390 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:

No provision of this chapter or chapter 43.99 RCW, or of RCW 28B.20.750 through 28B.20.758 shall be deemed to repeal, override, or limit any provision of RCW 28B.10.300 through 28B.10.335, 28B.15.210, 28B.15.310, ((28B.15.401,)) 28B.20.700 through 28B.20.745, 28B.30.700 through 28B.30.780, or 28B.35.700 through 28B.35.790, ((or 28B.40.700 through 28B.40.790,)) nor any provision or covenant of the proceedings of the board of regents or board of trustees of any state institution of higher education heretofore or hereafter taken in the issuance of its revenue bonds secured by a pledge of its building fees and/or other revenues mentioned within such statutes. The obligation of ((the)) such boards to make the transfers provided for in RCW 28B.14D.070 ((and in RCW)), 28B.14C.080(2), 28B.14C.090(2), 28B.14C.100(2), 28B.14C.110(2), 28B.14C.120(2), ((and)) 28B.14C.130(2), 28B.14G.060, 28B.20.757, 43.99G.070, and 43.99H.060 (1) and (4), and in any similar law heretofore or hereafter enacted shall be subject and subordinate to the lien and charge of any revenue bonds heretofore or hereafter issued((:)) by such boards on the building fees and/or other revenues pledged to secure such revenue bonds, and on the moneys in the building account or capital project account and the individual institutions of higher education bond retirement funds.

Sec. 10. RCW 43.01.090 and 1979 c 151 s 81 are each amended to read as follows:

The director of general administration may assess a charge or rent against each state board, commission, agency, office, department, activity, or other occupant or user for payment of a ((proportion)) proportionate share of costs for occupancy of buildings, structures, or facilities including but not limited to all costs of acquiring, constructing, operating, and maintaining such buildings, structures, or facilities and the repair, remodeling, or furnishing thereof and for the rendering of any service or the furnishing or providing of any supplies, equipment, or materials.

The director of general administration may recover the full costs including appropriate overhead charges of the foregoing by periodic billings ((either quarterly or semiannually)) as determined by the director including but not limited to transfers upon accounts and advancements into the general administration facilities and services revolving fund. Rates shall be established by the director of general administration after consultation with the director of financial management. The director of general administration may allot, provide, or furnish any of such facilities, structures, services, equipment, supplies, or materials to any other public service type occupant or user at such rates or charges as are equitable and reasonably reflect the actual costs of the services provided: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the legislature, its duly constituted committees, interim committees and other committees shall be exempted from the provisions of this section. (~~Billings shall be adjusted at intervals of not to exceed six months to reflect any change in actual costs relative to whatever estimates may have been made for budget purposes.~~)

Upon receipt of such bill, each entity, occupant, or user shall cause a warrant or check in the amount thereof to be drawn in favor of the department of general administration which shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the general administration facilities and services revolving fund established in RCW 43.19.500 unless the director of financial management has authorized another method for payment of costs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The director of general administration, in cooperation with the director of the office of financial management, shall develop a plan for assessing rental charges under RCW 43.01.090 to occupants of all state office and support facilities. The plan shall set forth a timetable for imposing the charges, giving priority to imposing charges relating to buildings on the capitol campus. The plan shall consider the relationship of the proposed charges to the costs of acquiring, constructing, operating, maintaining, repairing, furnishing, and supplying the buildings. The plan shall include any recommendations for budget and accounting changes necessary to implement the rental charges. The plan shall be submitted to the capital facilities and financing committee of the house of representatives and the senate ways and means committee by December 1, 1991.

Sec. 12. RCW 46.08.172 and 1988 ex.s. c 2 s 901 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby established an account in the state treasury to be known as the "state capitol vehicle parking account". The director of the department of general administration shall establish ~~((an))~~ equitable and consistent ~~((employee))~~ parking rental fees for state-owned or leased property, ~~((effective July 1, 1988))~~ to be charged to employees, visitors, clients, service providers, and others, that reflect the legislature's intent to reduce state subsidization of parking. All fees shall take into account the market rate of comparable privately owned rental parking, as determined by the director. All unpledged parking rental income collected by the department of general administration from rental of parking space on the capitol grounds and the east capitol site shall be deposited in the "state capitol vehicle parking account". All earnings of investments of balances in the state capitol vehicle parking account shall be credited to the general fund.

The director may delegate the responsibility for the collection of parking fees to other agencies of state government when cost-effective.

The "state capitol vehicle parking account" shall be used to pay costs incurred in the operation, maintenance, regulation and enforcement of vehicle parking and parking facilities ~~((at the state capitol)).~~

Sec. 13. RCW 84.52.065 and 1979 ex.s. c 218 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to the limitations in RCW 84.55.010, in each year the state shall levy for collection in the following year for the support of common schools of the state a tax of three dollars and sixty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value upon the assessed valuation of all taxable property within the state adjusted to the state equalized value in accordance with the indicated ratio fixed by the state department of revenue.

As used in this section, "the support of common schools" includes the payment of the principal and interest on bonds issued for capital construction projects for the common schools.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Sections 1 through 8 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

SECOND READING CONFIRMATION OF GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENTS

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, Gubernatorial Appointment No. 9042, Robert M. Tull, as a member of the Gambling Commission, was confirmed.

APPOINTMENT OF ROBERT M. TULL

The Secretary called the roll. The appointment was confirmed by the following vote: Yeas, 36; Nays, 0; Absent, 5; Excused, 8.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Erwin, Gaspard, Hayner, Jesernig, Johnson, M. Kreidler, Madsen, McCaslin, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Murray, Newhouse, Niemi, Oke, Pelz, Rinehart, Roach, Saling, Skratek, A. Smith, L. Smith, Stratton, Sutherland, Talmadge, Thorsness, von Reichbauer, West, Williams - 36.

Absent: Senators Hansen, McDonald, Owen, Rasmussen, Snyder - 5.

Excused: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Matson, Nelson, Patterson, Sellar, Vognild, Wojahn - 8.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, Gubernatorial Appointment No. 9050, Juli Vraves Anderson, as a member of the Gambling Commission, was confirmed.

Senator Moore spoke to the confirmation of Juli Vraves Anderson as a member of the Gambling Commission.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Murray, Senators Owen, Rasmussen, and Snyder were excused.

On motion of Senator McCaslin, Senator McDonald was excused.

APPOINTMENT OF JULI VRAVES ANDERSON

The Secretary called the roll. The appointment was confirmed by the following vote: Yeas, 37; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 12.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Erwin, Gaspard, Hansen, Hayner, Jesernig, Johnson, M. Kreidler, Madsen, McCaslin, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Murray, Newhouse, Niemi, Oke, Pelz, Rinehart, Roach, Saling, Skratek, A. Smith, L. Smith, Stratton, Sutherland, Talmadge, Thorsness, von Reichbauer, West, Williams - 37.

Excused: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Matson, McDonald, Nelson, Owen, Patterson, Rasmussen, Sellar, Snyder, Vognild, Wojahn - 12.

There being no objection, the President Pro Tempore returned the Senate to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 24, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House insists on its position regarding the House amendment(s) to SENATE BILL NO. 5475 and asks the Senate for a conference thereon. The Speaker has appointed the following members as conferees: Representatives Jacobsen, Ogden and Wood.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate granted the request of the House for a conference on Senate Bill No. 5475.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The President appointed as members of the Conference Committee on Senate Bill No. 5475 and the House amendments thereto: Senators Patterson, Bauer and Saling.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Conference Committee appointments were confirmed.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 24, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House refuses to recede from its amendment(s) to ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5824 and asks the Senate for a conference thereon. The Speaker has appointed the following members as conferees: Representatives Jacobsen, Spanel and Van Luven.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate granted the request of the House for a conference on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5824.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The President appointed as members of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5824 and the House amendments thereto: Senators Patterson, Jesernig and Saling.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Conference Committee appointments were confirmed.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 24, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The Speaker ruled the Senate amendment(s) to ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1608 beyond the scope and object of the bill and refuses to concur in Senate amendments(s) and asks for a conference thereon. The Speaker has appointed the following members as conferees: Representatives Leonard, Hargrove and Padden.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate granted the request of the House for a conference on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1608.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The President appointed as members of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1608 and the Senate amendments thereto: Senators Craswell, Talmadge and Roach.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Conference Committee appointments were confirmed.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 24, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House insists on its position regarding the House amendment(s) to ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5629 and asks the Senate for a conference thereon. The Speaker has appointed the following members as conferees: Representatives Rayburn, Kremen and Nealey.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate granted the request of the House for a conference on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5629.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The President appointed as members of the Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5629 and the House amendments thereto: Senators Barr, Hansen and Bailey.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Conference Committee appointments were confirmed.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 19, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5756 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1.State and national policy directs that the management of low-level radioactive waste be accomplished by a system of interstate compacts and the development of regional disposal sites. The Northwest regional compact, comprised of the states of Alaska, Hawaii, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, Utah, and Washington, has as its disposal facility the low-level radioactive waste disposal site located near Richland, Washington. This site is expected to be the sole site for disposal of low-level radioactive waste for compact members effective January 1, 1993. Future closure of this site will require significant financial resources.

Low-level radioactive waste is generated by essential activities and services that benefit the citizens of the state. Washington state's low-level radioactive waste disposal site has been used by the nation and the Northwest compact as a disposal site since 1965. The public has come to rely on access to this site for disposal of low-level radioactive waste, which requires separate handling from other solid and hazardous wastes. The price of disposing of low-level radioactive waste at the Washington state low-level radioactive waste disposal site is anticipated to increase when the federal low-level radioactive waste policy amendments act of 1985 is implemented and waste generated outside the Northwest compact states is excluded.

When these events occur, to protect Washington and other Northwest compact states' businesses and services, such as electrical production, medical and university research, and private industries, upon which the public relies, there will be a need to regulate the rates charged by the operator of Washington's low-level radioactive waste disposal site. This chapter is adopted pursuant to section 8, chapter 21, Laws of 1990.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Commission" means the Washington utilities and transportation commission.

(2) "Effective rate" means the highest permissible rate, calculated as the lowest contract rate plus an administrative fee, if applicable, determined pursuant to section 5 of this act.

(3) "Extraordinary volume" means volumes of low-level radioactive waste delivered to a site caused by nonrecurring events, outside normal operations of a generator, that are in excess of twenty thousand cubic feet or twenty percent of the preceding year's total volume at such site, whichever is less.

(4) "Extraordinary volume adjustment" means a mechanism that allocates the potential rate reduction benefits of an extraordinary volume between all generators and the generator responsible for such extraordinary volume as described in section 8 of this act.

(5) "Generator" means a person, partnership, association, corporation, or any other entity whatsoever that, as a part of its activities, produces low-level radioactive waste.

(6) "Inflation adjustment" means a mechanism that adjusts the maximum disposal rate by a percentage equal to the change in price levels in the preceding period, as measured by a common, verifiable price index as determined in section 5 of this act.

(7) "Initial rate proceeding" means the proceeding described in section 5 of this act.

(8) "Maximum disposal rate" means the rate described in section 6 of this act.

(9) "Site" means a location, structure, or property used or to be used for the storage, treatment, or disposal of low-level radioactive waste for compensation within the state of Washington.

(10) "Site operator" means a low-level radioactive waste site operating company as defined in RCW 81.04.010.

(11) "Volume adjustment" means a mechanism that adjusts the maximum disposal rate in response to material changes in volumes of waste deposited at the site during the preceding period so as to provide a level of total revenues sufficient to recover the costs to operate and maintain the site.

Sec. 3. RCW 81.04.010 and 1981 c 13 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this title, unless specially defined otherwise or unless the context indicates otherwise:

"Commission" means the utilities and transportation commission.

"Commissioner" means one of the members of such commission.

"Corporation" includes a corporation, company, association or joint stock association.

"Low-level radioactive waste site operating company" includes every corporation, company, association, joint stock association, partnership, and person, their lessees, trustees, or receivers appointed by any court whatsoever, owning, operating, controlling, or managing a low-level radioactive waste disposal site or sites located within the state of Washington.

"Low-level radioactive waste" means low-level waste as defined by RCW 43.145.010.

"Person" includes an individual, a firm or copartnership.

"Street railroad" includes every railroad by whatsoever power operated, or any extension or extensions, branch or branches thereof, for public use in the conveyance of persons or property for hire, being mainly upon, along, above or below any street, avenue, road, highway, bridge or public place within any one city or town, and includes all equipment, switches, spurs, tracks, bridges, right of trackage, subways, tunnels, stations, terminals and terminal facilities of every kind used, operated, controlled or owned by or in connection with any such street railroad, within this state.

"Street railroad company" includes every corporation, company, association, joint stock association, partnership and person, their lessees, trustees or receivers appointed by any court whatsoever, and every city or town, owning, controlling, operating or managing any street railroad or any cars or other equipment used thereon or in connection therewith within this state.

"Railroad" includes every railroad, other than street railroad, by whatsoever power operated for public use in the conveyance of persons or property for hire, with all bridges, ferries, tunnels, equipment, switches, spurs, tracks, stations and terminal facilities of every kind used, operated, controlled or owned by or in connection with any such railroad.

"Railroad company" includes every corporation, company, association, joint stock association, partnership or person, their lessees, trustees or receivers appointed by any court whatsoever, owning, operating, controlling or managing any railroad or any cars or other equipment used thereon or in connection therewith within this state.

"Express company" includes every corporation, company, association, joint stock association, partnership and person, their lessees, trustees or receivers appointed by any court whatsoever, who shall engage in or transact the business of carrying any freight, merchandise or property for hire on the line of any common carrier operated in this state.

"Common carrier" includes all railroads, railroad companies, street railroads, street railroad companies, steamboat companies, express companies, car companies, sleeping car companies, freight companies, freight line companies, and every corporation, company, association, joint stock association, partnership and person, their lessees, trustees or receivers appointed by any court whatsoever, and every city or town, owning, operating, managing or controlling any such agency for public use in the conveyance of persons or property for hire within this state.

"Vessel" includes every species of watercraft, by whatsoever power operated, for public use in the conveyance of persons or property for hire over and upon the waters within this state, excepting all towboats, tugs, scows, barges, and lighters, and excepting rowboats and sailing boats under twenty gross tons burden, open steam launches of five tons gross and under, and vessels under five tons gross propelled by gas, fluid, naphtha or electric motors.

"Steamboat company" includes every corporation, company, association, joint stock association, partnership and person, their lessees, trustees or receivers, appointed by any court whatsoever, owning, controlling, leasing, operating or managing any vessel over and upon the waters of this state.

"Transportation of property" includes any service in connection with the receiving, delivery, elevation, transfer in transit, ventilation, refrigeration, icing, storage and handling of the property transported, and the transmission of credit.

"Transportation of persons" includes any service in connection with the receiving, carriage and delivery of the person transported and his baggage and all facilities used, or necessary to be used in connection with the safety, comfort and convenience of the person transported.

"Public service company" includes every common carrier.

The term "service" is used in this title in its broadest and most inclusive sense.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4.(1) The commission shall have jurisdiction over the sites and site operators as set forth in this chapter.

(2)(a) The commission shall establish rates to be charged by site operators. In establishing the rates, the commission shall assure that they are fair, just, reasonable, and sufficient considering the value of the site operator's leasehold and license interests, the unique nature of its business operations, the site operator's liability associated with the site, its investment incurred over the term of its operations, and the rate of return equivalent to that earned by comparable enterprises. The rates shall only take effect following a finding that the site operator is a monopoly pursuant to section 11 of this act.

(b) In exercising the power in this subsection the commission may use any standard, formula, method, or theory of valuation reasonably calculated to arrive at the objective of prescribing and authorizing fair, just, reasonable, and sufficient rates. The relation of site operator expenses to site operator revenues may be deemed the proper test of a reasonable return.

(3) In all respects in which the commission has power and authority under this chapter, applications and complaints may be made and filed with it, process issued, hearings held, opinions, orders, and decisions made and filed, petitions for rehearing filed and acted upon, and petitions for review to the superior court filed therewith, appeals filed with the appellate courts of this state, considered and disposed of by said courts in the manner, under the conditions, and subject to the limitations, and with the effect specified in this title for public service companies generally.

(4) At any time after January 1, 1992, the commission may: (a) Prescribe a system of accounts for site operators using as a starting point the existing system used by site operators; (b) audit the books of site operators; (c) obtain books and records from site operators; (d) assess penalties; and (e) require semiannual reports regarding the results of operations for the site.

(5) The commission may adopt rules necessary to carry out its functions under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5.(1) On or before March 1, 1992, site operators shall file a request with the commission to establish an initial maximum disposal rate. The filing shall include, at a minimum, testimony, exhibits, workpapers, summaries, annual reports, cost studies, proposed tariffs, and other documents as required by the commission in rate cases generally under its jurisdiction.

(2) After receipt of a request, the commission shall set the request for a hearing and require the site operator to provide for notice to all known customers that ship or deliver waste to the site. The proceedings before the commission shall be conducted in accordance with chapter 34.05 RCW and rules of procedure established by the commission.

(3) No later than January 1, 1993, the commission shall establish the initial maximum disposal rates that may be charged by site operators.

(4) In the initial rate proceeding the commission also shall determine the factors necessary to calculate the inflation, volume, and extraordinary volume adjustments.

ONE HUNDRED-SECOND DAY, APRIL 25, 1991

(5) The commission also shall determine the administrative fee, which shall be a percentage or an amount that represents increased administrative costs associated with acceptance of small volumes of waste by a site operator. The administrative fee may be revised by the commission from time to time upon its own motion or upon the petition of an interested person.

(6) The rates specified in this section shall only take effect following a finding that the site operator is a monopoly pursuant to section 11 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6.(1) The maximum disposal rates that a site operator may charge generators shall be determined in accordance with this section. The rates shall include all charges for disposal services at the site.

(2) Initially, the maximum disposal rates shall be the initial rates established pursuant to section 5 of this act.

(3) Subsequently, the maximum disposal rates shall be adjusted semiannually in January and July of each year to incorporate inflation and volume adjustments. Such adjustments shall take effect thirty days after filing with the commission unless the commission authorizes that the adjustments take effect earlier, or the commission contests the calculation of the adjustments, in which case the commission may suspend the filing. A site operator shall provide notice to its customers concurrent with the filing.

(4)(a) Subsequently, a site operator may also file for revisions to the maximum disposal rates due to:

(i) Changes in any governmentally imposed fee, surcharge, or tax assessed on a volume or a gross revenue basis against or collected by the site operator, including site closure fees, perpetual care and maintenance fees, business and occupation taxes, site surveillance fees, leasehold excise taxes, commission regulatory fees, municipal taxes, and a tax or payment in lieu of taxes authorized by the state to compensate the county in which a site is located for that county's legitimate costs arising out of the presence of that site within that county; or

(ii) Factors outside the control of the site operator such as a material change in regulatory requirements regarding the physical operation of the site.

(b) Revisions to the maximum disposal rate shall take effect thirty days after filing with the commission unless the commission suspends the filing or authorizes the proposed adjustments to take effect earlier.

(5) Upon establishment of a contract rate pursuant to section 7 of this act for a disposal fee, the site operator may not collect a disposal fee that is greater than the effective rate. The effective rate shall be in effect so long as such contract rate remains in effect. Adjustments to the maximum disposal rates may be made during the time an effective rate is in place. Contracts for disposal of extraordinary volumes pursuant to section 8 of this act shall not be considered in determining the effective rate.

(6) The site operator may petition the commission for new maximum disposal rates at any time. Upon receipt of such a petition, the commission shall set the matter for hearing and shall issue an order within seven months of the filing of the petition. The petition shall be accompanied by the documents required to accompany the filing for initial rates. The hearing on the petition shall be conducted in accordance with the commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(7) This section shall only take effect following a finding that the site operator is a monopoly pursuant to section 11 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) At any time, a site operator may contract with any person to provide a contract disposal rate lower than the maximum disposal rate.

(2) A contract or contract amendment shall be submitted to the commission for approval at least thirty days before its effective date. The commission may approve the contract or suspend the contract and set it for hearing. If the commission takes no action within thirty days of filing, the contract or amendment shall go into effect according to its terms. Each contract filing shall be accompanied with documentation to show that the contract does not result in discrimination between generators receiving like and contemporaneous service under substantially similar circumstances and provides for the recovery of all costs associated with the provision of the service.

(3) This section shall only take effect following a finding that the site operator is a monopoly pursuant to section 11 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8.(1) In establishing the extraordinary volume adjustment, unless the site operator and generator of the extraordinary volume agree to a contract disposal rate, one-half of the extraordinary volume delivery shall be priced at the maximum disposal rate and one-half shall be priced at the site operator's incremental cost to receive the delivery. Such incremental cost shall be determined in the initial rate proceeding.

(2) For purposes of the subsequent calculation of the volume adjustment, one-half of the total extraordinary volume shall be included in the calculation.

(3) This section shall only take effect following a finding that the site operator is a monopoly pursuant to section 11 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9.(1) At any time, the commission or an interested person may file a complaint against a site operator alleging that the rates established pursuant to section 5 or 6 of this act are not in conformity with the standards set forth in section 4 of this act or that the site operator is otherwise not acting in conformity with the requirements of this chapter. Upon filing of the complaint, the commission shall cause a copy of the complaint to be served upon the site operator. The complaining party shall have the burden of proving that the maximum disposal rates determined pursuant to section 6 of this act are not just, fair, reasonable, or sufficient. The hearing shall conform to the rules of practice and procedure of the commission for other complaint cases.

(2) The commission shall encourage alternate forms of dispute resolution to resolve disputes between a site operator and any other person regarding matters covered by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10.(1) A site operator shall, on or before May 1, 1992, and each year thereafter, file with the commission a statement showing its gross operating revenue from intrastate operations for the preceding calendar year, or portion thereof, and pay to the commission a fee equal to one percent of the amount of the gross operating revenue, exclusive of site surveillance fees, perpetual care and maintenance fees, site closure fees, and state or federally imposed out-of-region surcharges.

(2) Fees collected under this chapter shall reasonably approximate the cost of supervising and regulating site operators. The commission may order a decrease in fees by March 1st of any year in which it determines that the moneys then in the radioactive waste disposal companies account of the public service revolving fund and the fees currently to be paid will exceed the reasonable cost of supervising and regulating site operators.

(3) Fees collected under this section or under any other provision of this chapter shall be paid to the commission and shall be transmitted to the state treasurer within thirty days to be deposited to the credit of the public service revolving fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11.(1) A low-level waste disposal site operator is exempt as specified in sections 4(2)(a), 5(6), 6(7), 7(3), and 8(3) of this act unless a monopoly situation exists with respect to the site operated by such site operator. A monopoly situation exists if either of the following is present:

(a) No disposal facility is available to Northwest compact generators of low-level radioactive waste other than the site or sites operated by such site operator or its affiliates; or

(b) Disposal rates at other sites are not reasonable alternatives for Northwest compact generators, considering: Disposal rates at other facilities; current disposal rates charged by the site operator; historic relationships between the site operator's rates and rates at other facilities; and changes in the operator's rates considering changes in waste volumes, taxes, and fees. A monopoly situation does not exist if either of the following facilities operates or is projected to operate after December 31, 1992:

(i) Any existing low-level radioactive waste disposal site outside the state of Washington, other than facilities operated by affiliates of a site operator, provided that such site or sites do not charge disposal rates that discriminate against Northwest compact generators, except to the extent, through December 31, 1994, such discrimination is authorized by amendment of current federal law.

(ii) An existing facility within the Northwest compact not receiving low-level radioactive waste offers to receive such waste under substantially similar terms and conditions.

(2) The exemption shall be in effect until such time as the commission finds, after notice and hearing, upon motion by the commission or upon petition by any interested party, that a monopoly situation exists or will exist as of January 1, 1993. The finding shall be based upon application of the criteria set forth in this section. The commission may assess a site operator for all of the commission's costs of supervision and regulation prior to and relative to determining whether the exemption applies to the site operator. If the commission determines that a site operator is not subject to the exemption, it shall collect its costs of supervision and regulation under section 10 of this act.

(3) When an exemption is in effect, any increase in the rates charged by the operator effective January 1, 1993, for services other than the base rate for disposal of solid material in packages of twelve cubic feet or less shall be no more than the percentage increase in the base rate in effect on January 1, 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12.(1) At any time after this chapter has been implemented with respect to a site operator, such site operator may petition the commission to be classified as competitive. The commission may initiate classification proceedings on its own motion. The commission shall enter its final order with respect to classification within seven months from the date of filing of a company's petition or the commission's motion.

(2) The commission shall classify a site operator as a competitive company if the commission finds, after notice and hearing, that the disposal services offered are subject to competition because the company's customers have reasonably available alternatives. In determining whether a company is competitive, the commission's consideration shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) Whether the system of interstate compacts and regional disposal sites established by federal law has been implemented so that the Northwest compact site located near Richland, Washington is the exclusive site option for disposal by customers within the Northwest compact states;

(b) Whether waste generated outside the Northwest compact states is excluded; and

(c) The ability of alternative disposal sites to make functionally equivalent services readily available at competitive rates, terms, and conditions.

(3) The commission may reclassify a competitive site operator if reclassification would protect the public interest as set forth in this section.

(4) Competitive low-level radioactive waste disposal companies shall be exempt from commission regulation and fees during the time they are so classified.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to affect the jurisdiction of another state agency.

Sec. 14. RCW 82.16.010 and 1989 c 302 s 203 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this chapter, unless otherwise required by the context:

(1) "Railroad business" means the business of operating any railroad, by whatever power operated, for public use in the conveyance of persons or property for hire. It shall not, however, include any business herein defined as an urban transportation business.

(2) "Express business" means the business of carrying property for public hire on the line of any common carrier operated in this state, when such common carrier is not owned or leased by the person engaging in such business.

(3) "Railroad car business" means the business of renting, leasing or operating stock cars, furniture cars, refrigerator cars, fruit cars, poultry cars, tank cars, sleeping cars, parlor cars, buffet cars, tourist cars, or any other kinds of cars used for transportation of property or persons upon the line of any railroad operated in this state when such railroad is not owned or leased by the person engaging in such business.

(4) "Water distribution business" means the business of operating a plant or system for the distribution of water for hire or sale.

(5) "Light and power business" means the business of operating a plant or system for the generation, production or distribution of electrical energy for hire or sale and/or for the wheeling of electricity for others.

(6) "Telegraph business" means the business of affording telegraphic communication for hire.

(7) "Gas distribution business" means the business of operating a plant or system for the production or distribution for hire or sale of gas, whether manufactured or natural.

(8) "Motor transportation business" means the business (except urban transportation business) of operating any motor propelled vehicle by which persons or property of others are conveyed for hire, and includes, but is not limited to, the operation of any motor propelled vehicle as an auto transportation company (except urban transportation business), common carrier or contract carrier as defined by RCW 81.68.010 and 81.80.010: PROVIDED, That "motor transportation business" shall not mean or include the transportation of logs or other forest products exclusively upon private roads or private highways.

(9) "Urban transportation business" means the business of operating any vehicle for public use in the conveyance of persons or property for hire, insofar as (a) operating entirely within the corporate limits of any city or town, or within five miles of the corporate limits thereof, or (b) operating entirely within and between cities and towns whose corporate limits are not more than five miles apart or within five miles of the corporate limits of either thereof. Included herein, but without limiting the scope hereof, is the business of operating passenger vehicles of every type and also the business of operating cartage, pickup, or delivery services, including in such services the collection and distribution of property arriving from or destined to a point within or without the state, whether or not such collection or distribution be made by the person performing a local or interstate line-haul of such property.

(10) "Public service business" means any of the businesses defined in subdivisions (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), and (9) or any business subject to control by the state, or having the powers of eminent domain and the duties incident thereto, or any business hereafter declared by the legislature to be of a public service nature, except telephone business as defined in RCW 82.04.065 and low-level radioactive waste site operating companies as redefined in RCW 81.04.010. It includes, among others, without limiting the scope hereof: Airplane transportation, boom, dock, ferry, log patrol, pipe line, toll bridge, toll logging road, water transportation and wharf businesses.

(11) "Tugboat business" means the business of operating tugboats, towboats, wharf boats or similar vessels in the towing or pushing of vessels, barges or rafts for hire.

(12) "Gross income" means the value proceeding or accruing from the performance of the particular public service or transportation business involved, including operations incidental thereto, but without any deduction on account of the cost of the commodity furnished or sold, the cost of materials used, labor costs, interest, discount, delivery costs, taxes, or any other expense whatsoever paid or accrued and without any deduction on account of losses.

(13) The meaning attributed, in chapter 82.04 RCW, to the term "tax year," "person," "value proceeding or accruing," "business," "engaging in business," "in this state," "within this state," "cash discount" and "successor" shall apply equally in the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 15. RCW 82.04.260 and 1990 c 21 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of buying wheat, oats, dry peas, dry beans, lentils, triticale, corn, rye and barley, but not including any manufactured or processed products thereof, and selling the same at wholesale; the tax imposed shall be equal to the gross proceeds derived from such sales multiplied by the rate of one one-hundredth of one percent.

(2) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of manufacturing wheat into flour, barley into pearl barley, soybeans into soybean oil, or sunflower seeds into sunflower oil; as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the flour, pearl barley, or oil manufactured, multiplied by the rate of one-eighth of one percent.

(3) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of splitting or processing dried peas; as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the peas split or processed, multiplied by the rate of one-quarter of one percent.

(4) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of manufacturing seafood products which remain in a raw, raw frozen, or raw salted state at the completion of the manufacturing by that person; as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the products manufactured, multiplied by the rate of one-eighth of one percent.

(5) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of manufacturing by canning, preserving, freezing or dehydrating fresh fruits and vegetables; as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the products canned, preserved, frozen or dehydrated multiplied by the rate of three-tenths of one percent.

(6) Upon every nonprofit corporation and nonprofit association engaging within this state in research and development, as to such corporations and associations, the amount of tax with respect to such activities shall be equal to the gross income derived from such activities multiplied by the rate of forty-four one-hundredths of one percent.

(7) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of slaughtering, breaking and/or processing perishable meat products and/or selling the same at wholesale only and not at retail; as to such persons the tax imposed shall be equal to the gross proceeds derived from such sales multiplied by the rate of twenty-five one-hundredths of one percent through June 30, 1986, and one-eighth of one percent thereafter.

(8) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of making sales, at retail or wholesale, of nuclear fuel assemblies manufactured by that person, as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the gross proceeds of sales of the assemblies multiplied by the rate of twenty-five one-hundredths of one percent.

(9) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of manufacturing nuclear fuel assemblies, as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the value of the products manufactured multiplied by the rate of twenty-five one-hundredths of one percent.

(10) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of acting as a travel agent; as to such persons the amount of the tax with respect to such activities shall be equal to the gross income derived from such activities multiplied by the rate of twenty-five one-hundredths of one percent.

(11) Upon every person engaging within this state in business as an international steamship agent, international customs house broker, international freight forwarder, vessel and/or cargo charter broker in foreign commerce, and/or international air cargo agent; as to such persons the amount of the tax with respect to only international activities shall be equal to the gross income derived from such activities multiplied by the rate of thirty-three one-hundredths of one percent.

(12) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of stevedoring and associated activities pertinent to the movement of goods and commodities in waterborne interstate or foreign commerce; as to such persons the amount of tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the gross proceeds derived from such activities multiplied by the rate of thirty-three one hundredths of one percent. Persons subject to taxation under this subsection shall be exempt from payment of taxes imposed by chapter 82.16 RCW for that portion of their business subject to taxation under this subsection. Stevedoring and associated activities pertinent to the conduct of goods and commodities in waterborne interstate or foreign commerce are defined as all activities of a labor, service or transportation nature whereby cargo may be loaded or unloaded to or from vessels or barges, passing over, onto or under a wharf, pier, or similar structure; cargo may be moved to a warehouse or similar holding or storage yard or area to await further movement in import or export or may move to a consolidation freight station and be stuffed, unstuffed, containerized, separated or otherwise segregated or aggregated for delivery or loaded on any mode of transportation for delivery to its consignee. Specific activities included in this definition are: Wharfage, handling, loading, unloading, moving of cargo to a convenient place of delivery to the consignee or a convenient place for further movement to export mode; documentation services in connection with the receipt, delivery, checking, care, custody and control of cargo required in the transfer of cargo; imported automobile handling prior to delivery to consignee; terminal stevedoring and incidental vessel services, including but not limited to plugging and unplugging refrigerator service to containers, trailers, and other refrigerated cargo receptacles, and securing ship hatch covers.

(13) Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of disposing of low-level waste, as defined in RCW 43.145.010; as to such persons the amount of the tax with respect to such business shall be equal to the gross income of the business, excluding any fees imposed under chapter 43.200 RCW, multiplied by the rate of fifteen percent.

(a) ~~The rate specified in this subsection shall be reduced to ten percent ((upon the effective date of legislation adopted pursuant to RCW 81.04.520 governing regulation of the business of low level radioactive waste disposal))~~ on the effective date of this section.

(b) The rate specified in this subsection shall be further reduced to five percent on January 1, 1992(~~(, if (a) of this subsection has taken effect)~~).

(c) The rate specified in this subsection shall be further reduced to three percent on July 1, 1993.

If the gross income of the taxpayer is attributable to activities both within and without this state, the gross income attributable to this state shall be determined in accordance with the methods of apportionment required under RCW 82.04.460.

(14) Upon every person engaging within this state as an insurance agent, insurance broker, or insurance solicitor licensed under chapter 48.17 RCW; as to such persons, the amount of the tax with respect to such licensed activities shall be equal to the gross income of such business multiplied by the rate of one percent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16.A new section is added to chapter 43.200 RCW to read as follows:

The director of the department of ecology shall require that generators of waste pay a fee for each cubic foot of waste disposed at any facility in the state equal to six dollars and fifty cents. The fee shall be imposed specifically on the generator of the waste and shall not be considered to apply in any way to the low-level site operator's disposal activities. The fee shall be allocated in accordance with sections 17 and 18 of this act. This subsection shall be invalidated and the authorization to collect a surcharge removed if the legislature or any administrative agency of the state of Washington prior to January 1, 1993, (1) imposes fees, assessments, or charges other than perpetual care and maintenance, site surveillance, and site closing fees currently applicable to the Hanford commercial low-level waste site operator's activities, (2) imposes any additional fees, assessments, or charges on generators using the Hanford commercial low-level waste site, or (3) increases any existing fees, assessments, or charges.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17.A new section is added to chapter 43.200 RCW to read as follows:

A portion of the surcharge received under section 16 of this act shall be remitted monthly to the county in which the low-level radioactive waste disposal facility is located in the following manner:

- (1) During 1993, six dollars and fifty cents per cubic foot of waste;
- (2) During 1994, three dollars and twenty-five cents per cubic foot of waste; and
- (3) During 1995 and thereafter, two dollars per cubic foot of waste.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18.A new section is added to chapter 43.200 RCW to read as follows:

Except for moneys that may be remitted to a county in which a low-level radioactive waste disposal facility is located, all surcharges authorized under section 16 of this act shall be deposited in the fund created in section 19 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19.A new section is added to chapter 43.31 RCW to read as follows:

The Hanford area economic investment fund is established in the custody of the state treasurer. Moneys in the fund shall only be used pursuant to the recommendations of the committee created in section 20 of this act and the approval of the director of the department of trade and economic development for Hanford area revolving loan funds, Hanford area infrastructure projects, or other Hanford area economic development and diversification projects, but may not be used for government or nonprofit organization operating expenses. Up to five percent of moneys in the fund may be used for program administration. For the purpose of this chapter "Hanford area" means Benton and Franklin counties. Disbursements from the fund shall be on the authorization of the director of trade and economic development or the director's designee after an affirmative vote of at least six members of the committee created in section 20 of this act on any recommendations by the committee created in section 20 of this act. The fund is subject to the allotment procedures under chapter 43.88 RCW, but no appropriation is required for disbursements. The legislature intends to establish similar economic investment funds for areas that develop low-level radioactive waste disposal facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20.A new section is added to chapter 43.31 RCW to read as follows:

The Hanford area economic investment fund committee staffed by the local associate development organization is hereby established.

(1) The committee shall have eleven members. The governor shall appoint the members, in consultation with the Hanford area associate development organization and Hanford area elected officials, subject to the following requirements:

(a) All members shall either reside or be employed within the Hanford area;

(b) The committee shall have a balanced membership representing one member each from the elected leadership of Benton county, Franklin county, the city of Richland, the city of Kennewick, the city of Pasco, a Hanford area port district, the labor community, and four members from the Hanford area business and financial community.

(c) Careful consideration shall be given to assure minority representation on the committee.

(2) Each member appointed by the governor shall serve a term of three years, except that of the members first appointed, four shall serve two-year terms and four shall serve one-year terms. A person appointed to fill a vacancy of a member shall be appointed in a like manner and shall serve for only the unexpired term. A member is eligible for reappointment. A member may be removed by the governor for cause.

(3) The governor shall designate a member of the committee as its chairperson. The committee may elect such other officers as it deems appropriate. Six members of the committee constitute a quorum and six affirmative votes are necessary for the transaction of business or the exercise of any power or function of the committee.

(4) The members shall serve without compensation, but are entitled to reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of official duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(5) Members shall not be liable to the state, to the fund, or to any other person as a result of their activities, whether ministerial or discretionary, as members except for willful dishonesty or intentional violations of law. The department may purchase liability insurance for members and may indemnify these persons against the claims of others.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. A new section is added to Chapter 43.31 RCW to read as follows:

The Hanford area economic investment fund committee created under section 20 of this act may:

(1) Adopt bylaws for the regulation of its affairs and the conduct of its business;

(2) Utilize the services of other governmental agencies;

(3) Accept from any federal or state agency loans or grants for the purposes of funding Hanford area revolving loan funds, Hanford area infrastructure projects, or Hanford area economic development projects;

(4) Recommend to the director rules for the administration of the program, including the terms and rates pertaining to its loans, and criteria for awarding grants, loans, and financial guarantees;

(5) Recommend to the director a spending strategy for the moneys in the fund created in section 19 of this act. The strategy shall include five and ten year goals for economic development and diversification for use of the moneys in the Hanford area; and

(6) Recommend to the director no more than two allocations eligible for funding per calendar year, with a first priority on Hanford area revolving loan allocations, and Hanford area infrastructure allocations followed by other Hanford area economic development and diversification projects if the committee finds that there are no suitable allocations in the priority allocations described in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. Sections 1, 2, and 4 through 13 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 81 RCW.

Sec. 23. RCW 82.29A.020 and 1986 c 285 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter the following terms shall be defined as follows, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Leasehold interest" shall mean an interest in publicly owned real or personal property which exists by virtue of any lease, permit, license, or any other agreement, written or verbal, between the public owner of the property and a person who would not be exempt from property taxes if that person owned the property in fee, granting possession and use, to a degree less than fee simple ownership: PROVIDED, That no interest in personal property (excluding land or buildings) which is owned by the United States, whether or not as trustee, or by any foreign government shall constitute a leasehold interest hereunder when the right to use such property is granted pursuant to a contract solely for the manufacture or production of articles for sale to the United States or any foreign government. The term "leasehold interest" shall include the rights of use or occupancy by others of property which is owned in fee or held in trust by a public corporation, commission, or authority created under RCW 35.21.730 or 35.21.660 if the property is listed on or is within a district listed on any federal or state register of historical sites. The term "leasehold interest" shall not include road or utility easements or rights of access, occupancy or use granted solely for the purpose of removing materials or products purchased from a public owner or the lessee of a public owner.

(2) "Taxable rent" shall mean contract rent as defined in subsection (a) of this subsection in all cases where the lease or agreement has been established or renegotiated through competitive bidding, or negotiated or renegotiated in accordance with statutory requirements regarding the rent payable, or negotiated or renegotiated under circumstances, established by public record, clearly showing that the contract rent was the maximum attainable by the lessor: PROVIDED, That after January 1, 1986, with respect to any lease which has been in effect for ten years or more without renegotiation, taxable rent may be established by procedures set forth in subsection (b) of this subsection. All other leasehold interests shall be subject to the determination of taxable rent under the terms of subsection (b) of this subsection.

For purposes of determining leasehold excise tax on any lands on the Hanford reservation subleased to a private or public entity by the department of ecology, taxable rent shall include only the annual cash rental payment made by such entity to the department of ecology as specifically referred to as rent in the sublease agreement between the parties and shall not include any other fees, assessments, or charges imposed on or collected by such entity irrespective of whether the private or public entity pays or collects such other fees, assessments, or charges as specified in the sublease agreement.

(a) "Contract rent" shall mean the amount of consideration due as payment for a leasehold interest, including: The total of cash payments made to the lessor or to another party for the benefit of the lessor according to the requirements of the lease or agreement, including any rents paid by a sublessee; expenditures for the protection of the lessor's interest when required by the terms of the lease or agreement; and expenditures for improvements to the property to the extent that such improvements become the property of the lessor. Where the consideration conveyed for the leasehold interest is made in combination with payment for concession or other rights granted by the lessor, only that portion of such payment which represents consideration for the leasehold interest shall be part of contract rent.

"Contract rent" shall not include: (i) Expenditures made by the lessee, which under the terms of the lease or agreement, are to be reimbursed by the lessor to the lessee or expenditures for improvements and protection made pursuant to a lease or an agreement which requires that the use of the improved property be open to the general public and that no profit will inure to the lessee from the lease; (ii) expenditures made by the lessee for the replacement or repair of facilities due to fire or other casualty including payments for insurance to provide reimbursement for losses or payments to a public or private entity for protection of such property from damage or loss or for alterations or additions made necessary by an action of government taken after the date of the execution of the lease or agreement; (iii) improvements added to publicly owned property by a sublessee under an agreement executed prior to January 1, 1976, which have been taxed as personal property of the sublessee prior to January 1, 1976, or improvements made by a sublessee of the same lessee under a similar agreement executed prior to January 1, 1976, and such improvements shall be taxable to the sublessee as personal property; (iv) improvements added to publicly owned property if such improvements are being taxed as personal property to any person.

Any prepaid contract rent shall be considered to have been paid in the year due and not in the year actually paid with respect to prepayment for a period of more than one year. Expenditures for improvements with a useful life of more than one year which are included as part of contract rent shall be treated as prepaid contract rent and prorated over the useful life of the improvement or the remaining term of the lease or agreement if the useful life is in excess of the remaining term of the lease or agreement. Rent prepaid prior to January 1, 1976, shall be prorated from the date of prepayment.

With respect to a "product lease", the value of agricultural products received as rent shall be the value at the place of delivery as of the fifteenth day of the month of delivery; with respect to all other products received as contract rent, the value shall be that value determined at the time of sale under terms of the lease.

(b) If it shall be determined by the department of revenue, upon examination of a lessee's accounts or those of a lessor of publicly owned property, that a lessee is occupying or using publicly owned property in such a manner as to create a leasehold interest and that such leasehold interest has not been established through competitive bidding, or negotiated in accordance with statutory requirements regarding the rent payable, or negotiated under circumstances, established by public record, clearly showing that the contract rent was the maximum attainable by the lessor, the department may establish a taxable rent computation for use in determining the tax payable under authority granted in this chapter based upon the following criteria: (i) Consideration shall be given to rental being paid to other lessors by lessees of similar property for similar purposes over similar periods of time; (ii) consideration shall be given to what would be considered a fair rate of return on the market value of the property leased less reasonable deductions for any restrictions on use, special operating requirements or provisions for concurrent use by the lessor, another person or the general public.

(3) "Product lease" as used in this chapter shall mean a lease of property for use in the production of agricultural or marine products to the extent that such lease provides for the contract rent to be paid by the delivery of a stated percentage of the production of such agricultural or marine products to the credit of the lessor or the payment to the lessor of a stated percentage of the proceeds from the sale of such products.

(4) "Renegotiated" means a change in the lease agreement which changes the agreed time of possession, restrictions on use, the rate of the cash rental or of any other consideration payable by the lessee to or for the benefit of the lessor, other than any such change required by the terms of the lease or agreement. In addition "renegotiated" shall mean a continuation of possession by the lessee beyond the date when, under the terms of the lease agreement, the lessee had the right to vacate the premises without any further liability to the lessor.

(5) "City" means any city or town.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24.(1) Sections 1 through 15 and 22 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions. Sections 1 through 14 and 22 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1991, and section 15 of this act shall take effect immediately.

(2) Sections 16 through 21 and 23 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1993.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "sites;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 81.04.010, 82.16.010, 82.04.260, and 82.29A.020; adding a new chapter to Title 81 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 43.200 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 43.31 RCW; providing effective dates; and declaring an emergency.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 19, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5821 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

Sec. 1. RCW 70.94.053 and 1987 c 505 s 60 and 1987 c 109 s 34 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) In each county of the state there is hereby created an air pollution control authority, which shall bear the name of the county within which it is located. The boundaries of each authority shall be coextensive with the boundaries of the county within which it is located. An authority shall include all incorporated and unincorporated areas of the county within which it is located.

(2) Except as provided in section 2 of this act, all authorities which are presently or may hereafter be within counties of the first class, class A or class AA, are hereby designated as activated authorities and shall carry out the duties and exercise the powers provided in this chapter. Those authorities hereby activated which encompass contiguous counties located in one or the other of the two major areas determined in RCW 70.94.011 are declared to be and directed to function as a multicounty authority.

(3) Except as provided in RCW 70.94.232, all other air pollution control authorities are hereby designated as inactive authorities.

(4) The boards of those authorities designated as activated authorities by this chapter shall be comprised of such appointees and/or county commissioners or other officers as is provided in RCW 70.94.100. The first meeting of the boards of those authorities designated as activated authorities by this chapter shall be on or before sixty days after June 8, 1967.

(5) The department is directed to conduct the necessary evaluations and delineate appropriate air pollution regions throughout the state, taking into consideration:

(a) The natural climatic and topographic features affecting the potential for buildup of air contaminant concentrations.

(b) The degree of urbanization and industrialization and the existence of activities which are likely to cause air pollution.

(c) The county boundaries as related to the air pollution regions and the practicality of administering air pollution control programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2.A new section is added to chapter 70.94 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Any county that is part of a multicounty authority, pursuant to RCW 70.94.053, may withdraw from the multicounty authority after January 1, 1992, if the county wishes to provide for air quality protection and regulation by an alternate air quality authority. A withdrawing county shall:

(a) Create its own single county authority;

(b) Join another existing multicounty authority with which its boundaries are contiguous;

(c) Join with one or more contiguous inactive authorities to operate as a new multicounty authority; or

(d) Become an inactive authority and subject to regulation by the department of ecology.

(2) In order to withdraw from an existing multicounty authority, a county shall make arrangements, by interlocal agreement, for division of assets and liabilities and the appropriate release of any and all interest in assets of the multicounty authority.

(3) In order to effectuate any of the alternate arrangements in subsection (1) of this section, the procedures of this chapter to create an air pollution control authority shall be met and the actions must be taken at least six months prior to the effective date of withdrawal. The rules of the original multicounty authority shall continue in force for the withdrawing county until such time as all conditions to create an air pollution control authority have been met.

(4) At the effective date of a county's withdrawal, the remaining counties shall reorganize and reconstitute the legislative authority pursuant to this chapter. The air pollution control regulations of the existing multicounty authority shall remain in force and effect after the reorganization.

(5) If a county elects to withdraw from an existing multicounty authority, the air pollution control regulations shall remain in effect for the withdrawing county until suspended by the adoption of rules, regulations, or ordinances adopted under one of the alternatives of subsection (1) of this section. A county shall initiate proceedings to adopt such rules, regulations, or ordinances on or before the effective date of the county's withdrawal.

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "authorities;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "reenacting and amending RCW 70.94.053; and adding a new section to chapter 70.94 RCW.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 25, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

Under suspension of the rules, ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5025 was returned to second reading and the Committee on Human Services amendment was amended by the following floor amendments and the bill passed as amended:

On page 3, beginning on line 3 of the amendment, strike all of section 5
Renumber remaining sections and correct internal references.

On page 4, line 1 of the amendment, after "center" strike "in violation of a court order"

On page 6, beginning on line 5 of the amendment, strike all of section 9
Renumber remaining sections and correct internal references.

On page 23, beginning on line 3 of the amendment, strike all of section 23
Renumber remaining section and correct internal references.

On page 23, line 15 of the title amendment, strike "74.13.035,"

On page 23, line 16 of the title amendment, strike "adding a new section to chapter 74.13 RCW;"; and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Newhouse moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5025.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talmadge: "I raise the point of order that the House amendment, even as amended under the suspension of the rules, expands the scope and object of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5025. If you look at the bill carefully, the bill in several respects incorporates provisions contained in other bills that were before the Legislature, but not originally in Senate Bill No. 5025 as considered by the Committee on Children and Family Services or as amended by the House of Representatives. I would point the President, specifically, to the provision contained in Section 8 of the House amendment to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5025, wherein the staff ratio in crisis residential centers is removed. This was a provision that was contained in another bill in the Senate. It is a bill that expands the scope and object to include the consideration of staffing ratios in crisis residential centers when the scope and object of this bill is a bill dealing specifically with at-risk youth and the necessity of having appropriate facilities to house at-risk youth.

"Section 8 of the bill, in specific, is one in which the present staffing ratios for crisis residential centers will be removed and that will do very substantial damage to semi-secure facilities that would ordinarily house these youth that are on the run. For that reason, I believe, Mr. President, the scope and object of the bill has been expanded by the House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5025."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

At 4:43 p.m., on motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate adjourned until 9:00 a.m., Friday, April 26, 1991.

JOEL PRITCHARD, President of the Senate.
GORDON A. GOLOB, Secretary of the Senate.

ONE HUNDRED-THIRD DAY----- MORNING SESSION
-----

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Friday, April 26, 1991

The Senate was called to order at 9:00 a.m. by President Pro Tempore Craswell. Kreidler, Madsen, Matson, McCaslin, Metcalf, Moore, Murray, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Oke, Owen, Patterson, Pelz, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Roach, Saligg, Skratek, A. Smith, L. Smith, Snyder, Stratton, Sutherland, Talmadge, Thorsness, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West, Williams, Wojahn - 43.

Absent: Senators Cantu, McDonald, McMullen - 3.

Excused: Senators Conner, Jesernig, Sellar - 3.

There being no objection, the President advanced the Senate to the eighth order of business.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hayner, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1991-8677

By Senators Hayner, Gaspard, Amondson, Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Erwin, Hansen, Jesernig, Johnson, Kreidler, Madsen, Matson, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Murray, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Oke, Owen, Patterson, Pelz, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Roach, Saling, Sellar, Skratek, A. Smith, L. Smith, Snyder, Stratton, Sutherland, Talmadge, Thorsness, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West, Williams and Wojahn

WHEREAS, Orrene Slemmer has served thirty consecutive sessions in the Washington State Senate and during that time has earned bipartisan respect for her role as Production Services Manager, a job that can only be compared to juggling high-speed bowling balls, and this she has done with the utmost grace, patience and expertise; and

WHEREAS, After Orrene graduated from West Valley High School with Sen. Ken Madsen and a few years after Sen. Gary Nelson, and after completion of business courses at Nazarene College in Nampa, Idaho, she preceded these distinguished citizens to the Washington State Senate, taking her place at a manual typewriter in a well-top desk for Sen. Karl V. Herrmann in 1961; and

WHEREAS, Orrene's role in the Senate has been one of the greatest integrity, the extreme of which was exhibited when she participated in the preparation of amendments by the now obsolete method of paper-clipping them to bills, and kept the precious few mimeographed copies of bills under lock and key, NO MATTER WHO WANTED THEM!; and

WHEREAS, Armed only with a manual typewriter, a mimeograph and her own perseverance, Orrene produced thousands of letters during early morning, late night and weekend sessions, long after even the members had gone home, to ensure that constituents received top quality, personal communication from their legislators; and

WHEREAS, When the manual typewriter and mimeograph gave way to the computer, and members' mailings multiplied, Orrene still considered it her personal responsibility to maintain the highest degree of quality in each printed communication to constituents; and

WHEREAS, Orrene has numerous and demanding responsibilities, not the least of which is distributing employee paychecks, and Orrene, with her perpetual smile and cheery greeting, faithfully performed that function every 10th and 25th day of each month; and

WHEREAS, Orrene's tenure with the Senate would have been a test to any person's stamina, yet her special personal strength, compassion and understanding have reached beyond her own staff to touch the lives of people she doesn't even know;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the members here assembled honor and congratulate Orrene Slemmer for her many years of service to the Washington State Senate, and extend their very best wishes for an active, healthy, and happy retirement; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, Copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to Orrene Slemmer.

Senators Hayner, Gaspard, Snyder, Nelson and Kreidler spoke to Senate Resolution 1991-8677.

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President introduced Orrene Slemmer and her family, as well as members of her work staff, who were seated in the gallery.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Saling, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5184 and once again asks the House to recede therefrom.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Vognild: "Mr. President, I rise to a point of personal privilege. In the Tidbits on your desk is a quote from The Olympian quoting me on a floor speech. Their quote was that Senator Vognild said, 'What we are doing here is putting the horse before the cart.' They asked then, 'Excuse us, Senator, isn't that where the horse belongs?' I am surprised--and this kind of implies that I made a mistake--that a paper that knows the legislative process as well as The Olympian doesn't understand that I said exactly what I meant, because we all know the Legislature seldom ever puts the horse where it belongs."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 24, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House refuses to recede from its amendment(s) to SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5010 and again asks the Senate to concur therein, and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 23, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The Speaker ruled the Senate amendment(s) to SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1454 beyond the scope and object of the bill. The House refuses to concur in said amendment(s) and asks the Senate to recede therefrom, and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Metcalf, the Senate receded from its amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 1454.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Anderson, Senators Barr, Bailey, Matson, L. Smith and West were excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1454, without the Senate amendments.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1454, without the Senate amendments, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 10.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Bauer, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Erwin, Gaspard, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, M. Kreidler, Madsen, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Murray, Nelson, Newhouse, Oke, Owen, Patterson, Pelz, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Roach, Saling, A. Smith, Snyder, Stratton, Sutherland, Talmadge, Thorsness, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Williams, Wojahn - 39.

Excused: Senators Bailey, Barr, Conner, Jesernig, Matson, Niemi, Sellar, Skratek, L. Smith, West - 10.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1454, without the Senate amendments, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5025, and the pending motion by Senator Newhouse to concur in the House amendments, deferred April 25, 1991.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Talmadge, the President believes that Section 8 was previously before the Senate in the striking amendment and the Senate voted to not concur. The Section remains unchanged by the recent House amendments.

"The President believes that the time for raising the objection should have been when the amendment was before the Senate the first time. This ruling would be consistent with past rulings in that it would facilitate and expedite legislative business and tend to bring the Houses closer together.

"The President finds the point of order is not timely."

The House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5025 were ruled in order.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "A point of parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. On the timeliness issue, the issue of timeliness was raised by way of a point of order earlier on in the session. This ruling from the President on this bill seems to be at odds with that earlier ruling that the President made with respect to timeliness. I guess what I would request is that the President would examine both of the rulings to make sure that we have a consistent ruling with respect to the timeliness of raising points of order, so that members were aware of what we have to do in terms of raising these points of order. There just seems like there were two different standards for this timeliness issue in terms of raising the point of order."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "Well, that is an interesting question. The President will review it and get back to you."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Talmadge demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Cantu, Senator Bluechel was excused.

On motion of Senator Murray, Senator Rinehart was excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Newhouse that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5025.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the Senate concurred in the House amendments by the following vote: Yeas, 21; Nays, 19; Absent, 0; Excused, 9.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Cantu, Craswell, Erwin, Hayner, Johnson, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Nelson, Newhouse, Oke, Patterson, Roach, Saling, L. Smith, Thorsness, von Reichbauer - 21.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Gaspard, Hansen, M. Kreidler, Madsen, McMullen, Moore, Murray, Owen, Pelz, Rasmussen, A. Smith, Snyder, Stratton, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognild, Williams, Wojahn - 19.

Excused: Senators Bluechel, Conner, Jesernig, Matson, Niemi, Rinehart, Sellar, Skratek, West - 9.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5025, as amended by the House.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Roach: "Senator Craswell, does Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5025 authorize parents or guardians to request the involuntary commitment of a minor if they are addicted to alcohol or drugs?"

Senator Craswell: "Yes, Section 16 of the House striking amendment authorizes parents or guardians to request the involuntary detention of minors and provide treatment. Parents and guardians are authorized to request the involuntary commitment of minors based on their ability to pay the associated costs. The budget passed by the Senate provides $300,000 for juvenile court proceedings related to the involuntary commitment to treatment of addicted minors. While the House striking amendment does not require additional funds for this process to occur, the additional funds provided in the Senate budget would allow the evaluation and involuntary treatment process to be used by additional low-income families."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Anderson, Senator Bailey was excused.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5025, as amended by the House, and the bill failed by the following vote: Yeas, 20; Nays, 20; Absent, 0; Excused, 9.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Barr, Cantu, Craswell, Erwin, Hayner, Johnson, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Nelson, Newhouse, Oke, Patterson, Roach, Saling, L. Smith, Thorsness, von Reichbauer - 20.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Gaspard, Hansen, M. Kreidler, Madsen, McMullen, Moore, Murray, Niemi, Owen, Pelz, Rasmussen, A. Smith, Snyder, Stratton, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognild, Williams, Wojahn - 20.

Excused: Senators Bailey, Bluechel, Conner, Jesernig, Matson, Rinehart, Sellar, Skratek, West - 9.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5025, as amended by the House, having failed to receive the constitutional majority, was declared lost.

NOTICE FOR RECONSIDERATION

Senator Talmadge, having voted on the prevailing side, served notice of reconsideration of the vote by which Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5025, as amended by the House, failed to pass the Senate.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

EHB 1352

April 25, 1991

Includes "NEW ITEM": YES

Making confidential certain information acquired by the department of labor and industries

MR. PRESIDENT:

MR. SPEAKER:

We of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1352, L&I confidential information, have had the same under consideration and we recommend that:

The Senate floor amendment adopted 4/12/91 be adopted; and that the following additional amendments to the engrossed bill be adopted:

On page 1, beginning on line 13, after "shall not be" strike "released or"

On page 2, line 2, after "shall" strike "not be released" and insert "be deemed confidential and shall not be open to public inspection"

On page 5, line 2, after "information." insert the following:

"Sec. 4. RCW 51.36.030 and 1980 c 14 s 12 are each amended to read as follows:

Every employer, who employs workers, shall keep as required by the department's rules a first aid kit or kits equipped as required by such rules with materials for first aid to his or her injured workers. First aid kits shall not be required in motor vehicles. Every employer who employs fifty or more workers, shall keep one first aid station equipped as required by the department's rules with materials for first aid to his or her injured workers, and shall cooperate with the department in training one or more employees in first aid to the injured. The maintenance of such first aid kits and stations shall be deemed to be a part of any safety and health standards established under Title 49 RCW., and that the bill do pass as recommended by the Conference Committee.

Signed by Senators Matson and Anderson; Representatives Heavey, Jones and Vance.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: "A point of order, Mr. President. Engrossed House Bill No. 1352 has a section that doesn't fit, it is entirely new--Section 4--where it says, 'First aid kits shall not be required in motor vehicles.' I would ask the President to rule whether that fits within the scope and object of the bill which is making confidential certain information acquired by the Department of Labor and Industries."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "The President agrees with the point raised by Senator Rasmussen. It is clearly out of the scope and object of the bill."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "A point of parliamentary information. In this situation, then, may we move to adopt all of the Conference Report with the exception of Section 4?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "I'm advised by counsel that the only vote we can take is up or down on the whole thing."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse Engrossed House Bill No. 1352 was returned to the Conference Committee.

Vice President Pro Tempore Bluechel assumed the Chair.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 26, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House suspended the rules, returned ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5184 to second reading, and passed the bill with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the state's system of work force training and education is inadequate for meeting the needs of the state's workers, employers, and economy. A growing shortage of skilled workers is already hurting the state's economy. There is a shortage of available workers and too often prospective employees lack the skills and training needed by employers. Moreover, with demographic changes in the state's population employers will need to employ a more culturally diverse work force in the future.

The legislature further finds that the state's current work force training and education system is fragmented among numerous agencies, councils, boards, and committees, with inadequate overall coordination. No comprehensive strategic plan guides the different parts of the system. There is no single point of leadership and responsibility. There is insufficient guidance from employers and workers built into the system to ensure that the system is responsive to the needs of its customers. Adult work force education lacks a uniform system of governance, with an inefficient division in governance between community colleges and vocational technical institutes, and inadequate local authority. The parts of the system providing adult basic skills and literacy education are especially uncoordinated and lack sufficient visibility to adequately address the needs of the large number of adults in the state who are functionally illiterate. The work force training and education system's data and evaluation methods are inconsistent and unable to provide adequate information for determining how well the system is performing on a regular basis so that the system may be held accountable for the outcomes it produces. Much of the work force training and education system provides inadequate opportunities to meet the needs of people from culturally diverse backgrounds. Finally, our educational institutions are not producing the number of people educated in vocational/technical skills needed by employers.

The legislature recognizes that we must make certain that our institutions of education place appropriate emphasis on the needs of employers and on the needs of the approximately eighty percent of our young people who enter the world of work without completing a four-year program of higher education. We must make our work force education and training system better coordinated, more efficient, more responsive to the needs of business and workers and local communities, more accountable for its performance, and more open to the needs of a culturally diverse population.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this title.

(1) "Board" means the work force training and education coordinating board.

(2) "Director" means the director of the work force training and education coordinating board.

(3) "Training system" means programs and courses of secondary vocational education, technical college programs and courses, community college vocational programs and courses, adult basic education programs and courses, programs and courses funded by the job training partnership act, programs and courses funded by the federal vocational act, programs and courses funded under the federal adult education act, publicly funded programs and courses for adult literacy education, and apprenticeships, and programs and courses offered by private and public nonprofit organizations that are representative of communities or significant segments of communities and provide job training or adult literacy services.

(4) "Work force skills" means skills developed through applied learning that strengthen and reinforce an individual's academic knowledge, critical thinking, problem solving, and work ethic and, thereby, develop the employability, occupational skills, and management of home and work responsibilities necessary for economic independence.

(5) "Vocational education" means organized educational programs offering a sequence of courses which are directly related to the preparation or retraining of individuals in paid or unpaid employment in current or emerging occupations requiring other than a baccalaureate or advanced degree. Such programs shall include competency-based applied learning which contributes to an individual's academic knowledge, higher-order reasoning, and problem-solving skills, work attitudes, general employability skills, and the occupational-specific skills necessary for economic independence as a productive and contributing member of society. Such term also includes applied technology education.

(6) "Adult basic education" means instruction designed to achieve mastery of skills in reading, writing, oral communication, and computation at a level sufficient to allow the individual to function effectively as a parent, worker, and citizen in the United States, commensurate with that individual's actual ability level, and includes English as a second language and preparation and testing service for the general education development exam.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) There is hereby created the work force training and education coordinating board as a state agency and as the successor agency to the state board for vocational education. Once the coordinating board has convened, all references to the state board for vocational education in the Revised Code of Washington shall be construed to mean the work force training and education coordinating board, except that reference to the state board for vocational education in RCW 49.04.030 shall mean the state board for community and technical colleges.

(2)(a) The board shall consist of nine voting members appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate, as follows: Three representatives of business, three representatives of labor, and, serving as ex officio members, the superintendent of public instruction, the executive director of the state board for community and technical colleges, and the commissioner of the employment security department. The chair of the board shall be a nonvoting member selected by the governor with the consent of the senate, and shall serve at the pleasure of the governor. In selecting the chair, the governor shall seek a person who understands the future economic needs of the state and nation and the role that the state's training system has in meeting those needs. Each voting member of the board may appoint a designee to function in his or her place with the right to vote. In making appointments to the board, the governor shall seek to ensure geographic, ethnic, and gender diversity and balance. The governor shall also seek to ensure diversity and balance by the appointment of persons with disabilities.

(b) The business representatives shall be selected from among nominations provided by a state-wide business organization representing a cross-section of industries. However, the governor may request, and the organization shall provide, an additional list or lists from which the governor shall select the business representatives. The nominations and selections shall reflect the cultural diversity of the state, including women, people with disabilities, and racial and ethnic minorities, and diversity in sizes of businesses.

(c) The labor representatives shall be selected from among nominations provided by state-wide labor organizations. However, the governor may request, and the organizations shall provide, an additional list or lists from which the governor shall select the labor representatives. The nominations and selections shall reflect the cultural diversity of the state, including women, people with disabilities, and racial and ethnic minorities.

(d) Each business member may cast a proxy vote or votes for any business member who is not present and who authorizes in writing the present member to cast such vote.

(e) Each labor member may cast a proxy vote for any labor member who is not present and who authorizes in writing the present member to cast such vote.

(f) The chair shall appoint to the board one nonvoting member to represent racial and ethnic minorities, women, and people with disabilities. The nonvoting member appointed by the chair shall serve for a term of four years with the term expiring on June 30th of the fourth year of the term.

(g) The business members of the board shall serve for terms of four years, the terms expiring on June 30th of the fourth year of the term except that in the case of initial members, one shall be appointed to a two-year term and one appointed to a three-year term.

(h) The labor members of the board shall serve for terms of four years, the terms expiring on June 30th of the fourth year of the term except that in the case of initial members, one shall be appointed to a two-year term and one appointed to a three-year term.

(i) Any vacancies among board members representing business or labor shall be filled by the governor with nominations provided by state-wide organizations representing business or labor, respectively.

(j) The board shall adopt bylaws and shall meet at least bimonthly and at such other times as determined by the chair who shall give reasonable prior notice to the members or at the request of a majority of the voting members.

(k) Members of the board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.040 and shall receive travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(l) The board shall be formed and ready to assume its responsibilities under this chapter by October 1, 1991.

(m) The director of the board shall be appointed by the governor from a list of three names submitted by a committee made up of the business and labor members of the board. However, the governor may request, and the committee shall provide, an additional list or lists from which the governor shall select the director. The lists compiled by the committee shall not be subject to public disclosure. The governor may dismiss the director only with the approval of a majority vote of the board. The board, by a majority vote, may dismiss the director with the approval of the governor.

(3) The state board for vocational education is hereby abolished and its powers, duties, and functions are hereby transferred to the work force training and education coordinating board. All references to the director or the state board for vocational education in the Revised Code of Washington shall be construed to mean the director or the work force training and education coordinating board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The purpose of the board is to provide planning, coordination, evaluation, monitoring, and policy analysis for the state training system as a whole, and advice to the governor and legislature concerning the state training system, in cooperation with the agencies which comprise the state training system, and the higher education coordinating board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The director shall serve as chief executive officer of the board who shall administer the provisions of this chapter, employ such personnel as may be necessary to implement the purposes of this chapter, and utilize staff of existing operating agencies to the fullest extent possible.

(2) The director shall not be the chair of the board.

(3) Subject to the approval of the board, the director shall appoint necessary deputy and assistant directors and other staff who shall be exempt from the provisions of chapter 41.06 RCW. The director's appointees shall serve at the director's pleasure on such terms and conditions as the director determines but subject to the code of ethics contained in chapter 42.18 RCW.

(4) The director shall appoint and employ such other employees as may be required for the proper discharge of the functions of the board.

(5) The director shall, as permissible under P.L. 101-392, as amended, integrate the staff of the council on vocational education, and contract with the state board for community and technical colleges for assistance for adult basic skills and literacy policy development and planning as required by P.L. 100-297, as amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The board shall be designated as the state board of vocational education as provided for in P.L. 98-524, as amended, and shall perform such functions as is necessary to comply with federal directives pertaining to the provisions of such law.

(2) The board shall monitor for consistency with the state comprehensive plan for work force training and education the policies and plans established by the state job training coordinating council, the advisory council on adult education, and the Washington state plan for adult basic education, and provide guidance for making such policies and plans consistent with the state comprehensive plan for work force training and education.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The board, in cooperation with the operating agencies of the state training system shall:

(1) Concentrate its major efforts on planning, coordination evaluation, policy analysis, and recommending improvements to the state's training system.

(2) Advocate for the state training system and for meeting the needs of employers and the work force for work force education and training.

(3) Establish and maintain an inventory of the programs of the state training system, and related state programs, and perform a biennial assessment of the vocational education, training, and adult basic education and literacy needs of the state; identify ongoing and strategic education needs; and assess the extent to which employment, training, vocational and basic education, rehabilitation services, and public assistance services represent a consistent, integrated approach to meet such needs.

(4) Develop and maintain a state comprehensive plan for work force training and education, including but not limited to, goals, objectives, and priorities for the state training system, and review the state training system for consistency with the state comprehensive plan. In developing the state comprehensive plan for work force training and education, the board shall use, but shall not be limited to: Economic, labor market, and populations trends reports in office of financial management forecasts; joint office of financial management and employment security department labor force, industry employment, and occupational forecasts; the results of scientifically based outcome, net-impact and cost-benefit evaluations; the needs of employers as evidenced in formal employer surveys and other employer input; and the needs of program participants and workers as evidenced in formal surveys and other input from program participants and the labor community.

(5) In consultation with the higher education coordinating board, review and make recommendations to the office of financial management and the legislature on operating and capital facilities budget requests for operating agencies of the state training system for purposes of consistency with the state comprehensive plan for work force training and education.

(6) Provide for coordination among the different operating agencies of the state training system at the state level and at the regional level.

(7) Develop a consistent and reliable data base on vocational education enrollments, costs, program activities, and job placements from publicly funded vocational education programs in this state.

(8) Establish standards for data collection and maintenance for the operating agencies of the state training system in a format that is accessible to use by the board. The board shall require a minimum of common core data to be collected by each operating agency of the state training system.

The board shall develop requirements for minimum common core data in consultation with the office of financial management and the operating agencies of the training system.

(9) Establish minimum standards for program evaluation for the operating agencies of the state training system, including, but not limited to, the use of common survey instruments and procedures for measuring perceptions of program participants and employers of program participants, and monitor such program evaluation.

(10) Every two years administer scientifically based outcome evaluations of the state training system, including, but not limited to, surveys of program participants, surveys of employers of program participants, and matches with employment security department payroll and wage files. Every five years administer scientifically based net-impact and cost-benefit evaluations of the state training system.

(11) In cooperation with the employment security department, provide for the improvement and maintenance of quality and utility in occupational information and forecasts for use in training system planning and evaluation. Improvements shall include, but not be limited to, development of state-based occupational change factors involving input by employers and employees, and delineation of skill and training requirements by education level associated with current and forecasted occupations.

(12) Provide for the development of common course description formats, common reporting requirements, and common definitions for operating agencies of the training system.

(13) Provide for effectiveness and efficiency reviews of the state training system.

(14) In cooperation with the higher education coordinating board, facilitate transfer of credit policies and agreements between institutions of the state training system, and encourage articulation agreements for programs encompassing two years of secondary work force education and two years of postsecondary work force education.

(15) In cooperation with the higher education coordinating board, facilitate transfer of credit policies and agreements between private training institutions and institutions of the state training system.

(16) Participate in the development of coordination criteria for activities under the job training partnership act with related programs and services provided by state and local education and training agencies.

(17) Make recommendations to the commission of student assessment, the state board of education, and the superintendent of public instruction, concerning basic skill competencies and essential core competencies for K-12 education. Basic skills for this purpose shall be reading, writing, computation, speaking, and critical thinking, essential core competencies for this purpose shall be English, math, science/technology, history, geography, and critical thinking. The board shall monitor the development of and provide advice concerning secondary curriculum which integrates vocational and academic education.

(18) Establish and administer programs for marketing and outreach to businesses and potential program participants.

(19) Facilitate the location of support services, including but not limited to, child care, financial aid, career counseling, and job placement services, for students and trainees at institutions in the state training system, and advocate for support services for trainees and students in the state training system.

(20) Facilitate private sector assistance for the state training system, including but not limited to: Financial assistance, rotation of private and public personnel, and vocational counseling.

(21) Facilitate programs for school-to-work transition that combine classroom education and on-the-job training in industries and occupations without a significant number of apprenticeship programs.

(22) Encourage and assess progress for the equitable representation of racial and ethnic minorities, women, and people with disabilities among the students, teachers, and administrators of the state training system. Equitable, for this purpose, shall mean substantially proportional to their percentage of the state population in the geographic area served. This function of the board shall in no way lessen more stringent state or federal requirements for representation of racial and ethnic minorities, women, and people with disabilities.

(23) Participate in the planning and policy development of governor set-aside grants under P.L. 97-300, as amended.

(24) Administer veterans' programs, licensure of private vocational schools, the job skills program, and the Washington award for vocational excellence.

(25) Allocate funding from the state job training trust fund.

(26) Adopt rules as necessary to implement this chapter.

The board may delegate to the director any of the functions of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. All reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, papers, or written material in the possession of the state board for vocational education shall be delivered to the custody of the work force training and education coordinating board. All cabinets, furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property employed by the state board for vocational education shall be made available to the work force training and education coordinating board. All funds, credits, or other assets held by the state board for vocational education shall be assigned to the work force training and education coordinating board.

Any appropriations made to the state board for vocational education shall, on the effective date of this section, be transferred and credited to the work force training and education coordinating board.

Whenever any question arises as to the transfer of any personnel, funds, books, documents, records, papers, files, equipment, or other tangible property used or held in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties and functions transferred, the director of financial management shall make a determination as to the proper allocation and certify the same to the state agencies concerned.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. All employees of the state board for vocational education who are classified under chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service law, are assigned to the work force training and education coordinating board to perform their usual duties upon the same terms as formerly, without any loss of rights, subject to any action that may be appropriate thereafter in accordance with the laws and rules governing state civil service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. All rules and all pending business before the state board for vocational education shall be continued and acted upon by the work force training and education coordinating board. All existing contracts and obligations shall remain in full force and shall be performed by the work force training and education coordinating board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The transfer of the powers, duties, functions, and personnel of the state board for vocational education shall not affect the validity of any act performed prior to the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If apportionments of budgeted funds are required because of the transfers directed by sections 8 through 11 of this act, the director of financial management shall certify the apportionments to the agencies affected, the state auditor, and the state treasurer. Each of these shall make the appropriate transfer and adjustments in funds and appropriation accounts and equipment records in accordance with the certification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Nothing contained in sections 8 through 12 of this act may be construed to alter any existing collective bargaining unit or the provisions of any existing collective bargaining agreement until the agreement has expired or until the bargaining unit has been modified by action of the personnel board as provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) There is hereby created the Washington state job training coordinating council for so long as a state council is required by federal law or regulation as a condition for receipt of federal funds. The council shall perform all duties of state job training coordinating council as specified in the federal job training partnership act, P.L. 97-300, as amended, including the preparation of a coordination and special services plan for a two-year period, consistent with the state comprehensive plan for work force training and education prepared by the work force training and education coordinating board as provided for in section 7 of this act.

(2) The work force training and education coordinating board shall monitor the need for the council as described in subsection (1) of this section, and, if that need no longer exists, propose legislation to terminate the council.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) Current members of the Washington state job training coordinating council appointed pursuant to P.L. 97-300, as amended, shall serve as the state council for purposes of this chapter until new appointments are made consistent with this section.

(2) New appointments to the state council shall be made by July 1, 1991. Members of the Washington state job training council shall be appointed by the governor as required by federal law and shall be representative of the population of the state with regard to sex, race, ethnic background, and geographical distribution. To the maximum extent feasible, the governor shall give consideration to providing overlapping membership with the membership of the work force training and education coordinating board. One voting member of the council shall be a representative of the administrators for the service delivery areas established under P.L. 97-300. One voting member of the council shall be a representative of the private industry councils established under P.L. 97-300.

(3) The Washington state job training coordinating council shall provide staff and allocate funds to the work force training and education coordinating board, as appropriate, to carry out the overlapping functions of the two bodies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. (1) There is hereby created the Washington state council on vocational education for so long as a state council is required by federal law or regulation as a condition for receipt of federal funds. The council on vocational education shall perform all duties of councils on vocational education as specified in P.L. 101-392, as amended.

(2) The work force training and education coordinating board shall monitor the need for the council as described in subsection (1) of this section, and, if that need no longer exists, propose legislation to terminate the council.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Current members of the Washington state council on vocational education appointed pursuant to P.L. 98-524, as amended, shall serve as the state council on vocational education for purposes of this chapter until new appointments are made consistent with this section. New appointments to the state council on vocational education shall be made by July 1, 1991. The council on vocational education shall consist of thirteen members appointed by the governor consistent with the provisions of P.L. 101-392, as amended. In making these appointments, to the maximum extent feasible, the governor shall give consideration to providing overlapping membership with the membership of the state job training coordinating council.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. The council on vocational education shall perform its functions consistent with the state comprehensive plan for work force training and education prepared by the work force training and education coordinating board as provided for in section 7 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. (1) There is hereby created the Washington advisory council on adult education. The advisory council shall advise the state board for community and technical colleges and the work force training and education coordinating board concerning adult basic education and literacy programs. The advisory council shall perform all duties of state advisory councils on adult education as specified in P.L. 100-297, as amended. The advisory council's actions shall be consistent with the state comprehensive plan for work force training and education prepared by the work force training and education coordinating board as provided for in section 7 of this act.

(2) The advisory council on adult education shall consist of nine members as required by federal law, appointed by the governor. In making these appointments, to the maximum extent feasible, the governor shall give consideration to providing overlapping membership with the membership of the state job training coordinating council, and the governor shall give consideration to individuals with expertise and experience in adult basic education.

(3) The work force training and education coordinating board shall monitor the need for the council as described in subsection (1) of this section, and, if that need no longer exists, propose legislation to terminate the council.

Sec. 20. RCW 28B.50.010 and 1969 ex.s. c 223 s 28B.50.010 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall be known as and may be cited as the community and technical college act of (~~1967~~) 1991.

Sec. 21. RCW 28B.50.020 and 1969 ex.s. c 261 s 17 are each amended to read as follows:

The purpose of this chapter is to provide for the dramatically increasing number of students requiring high standards of education either as a part of the continuing higher education program or for occupational education and training, or for adult basic skills and literacy education, by creating a new, independent system of community and technical colleges which will:

(1) Offer an open door to every citizen, regardless of his or her academic background or experience, at a cost normally within his or her economic means;

(2) Ensure that each ~~((community))~~ college district shall offer thoroughly comprehensive educational, training and service programs to meet the needs of both the communities and students served by combining ~~((, with equal emphasis,))~~ high standards of excellence in academic transfer courses; realistic and practical courses in occupational education, both graded and ungraded; community services of an educational, cultural, and recreational nature; and adult education, including basic skills and general, family, and work force literacy programs and services. However, college districts containing only technical colleges shall maintain programs solely for occupational education, basic skills, and literacy purposes, and, for as long as a need exists, may continue those programs, activities, and services offered by the technical colleges during the twelve-month period preceding the effective date of this section;

(3) Provide for basic skills and literacy education, and occupational education and technical training at technical colleges in order to prepare students for careers in a competitive work force;

(4) Provide or coordinate related and supplemental instruction for apprentices at community and technical colleges;

(5) Provide administration by state and local boards which will avoid unnecessary duplication of facilities or programs; and which will encourage efficiency in operation and creativity and imagination in education, training and service to meet the needs of the community and students;

~~((4))~~ (6) Allow for the growth, improvement, flexibility and modification of the community colleges and their education, training and service programs as future needs occur; and

~~((5))~~ (7) Establish firmly that community colleges are, for purposes of academic training, two year institutions, and are an independent, unique, and vital section of our state's higher education system, separate from both the common school system and other institutions of higher learning, and never to be considered for conversion into four-year liberal arts colleges.

Sec. 22. RCW 28B.50.030 and 1985 c 461 s 14 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise, the term:

(1) "System" shall mean the state system of community and technical colleges, which shall be a system of higher education~~((;))~~;

(2) "Board" shall mean the work force training and education coordinating board.

(3) "College board" shall mean the state board for community and technical colleges ~~((education))~~ created by this chapter~~((;))~~;

~~((3))~~ (4) "Director" shall mean the administrative director for the state system of community and technical colleges~~((;))~~;

~~((4))~~ (5) "District" shall mean any one of the community and technical college districts created by this chapter~~((;))~~;

~~((5))~~ (6) "Board of trustees" shall mean the local community and technical college board of trustees established for each ~~((community))~~ college district within the state~~((;))~~;

~~((6)) "Council" shall mean the coordinating council for occupational education;))~~

(7) "Occupational education" shall mean that education or training that will prepare a student for employment that does not require a baccalaureate degree~~((;))~~;

(8) "K-12 system" shall mean the public school program including kindergarten through the twelfth grade~~((;))~~;

(9) "Common school board" shall mean a public school district board of directors~~((;))~~;

(10) "Community college" shall include ~~((where applicable, vocational technical and adult))~~ those higher education institutions that conduct education programs ~~((conducted by community colleges and vocational technical institutes whose major emphasis is in post high school education;))~~ under RCW 28B.50.020.

(11) "Technical college" shall include those higher education institutions with the sole mission of conducting occupational education, basic skills, literacy programs, and offering on short notice, when appropriate, programs that meet specific industry needs. The programs of technical colleges shall include, but not be limited to, continuous enrollment, competency-based instruction, industry-experienced faculty, curriculum integrating vocational and basic skills education, and curriculum approved by representatives of employers and labor. For purposes of this chapter, technical colleges shall include Lake Washington Vocational-Technical Institute, Renton Vocational-Technical Institute, Bates Vocational-Technical Institute, Clover Park Vocational Institute, and Bellingham Vocational-Technical Institute.

(12) "Adult education" shall mean all education or instruction, including academic, vocational education or training, basic skills and literacy training, and "occupational education" provided by public educational institutions, including common school districts for persons who are eighteen years of age and over or who hold a high school diploma or certificate(=PROVIDED, That)). However, "adult education" shall not include academic education or instruction for persons under twenty-one years of age who do not hold a high school degree or diploma and who are attending a public high school for the sole purpose of obtaining a high school diploma or certificate(=PROVIDED, FURTHER, That)), nor shall "adult education" ((shall not)) include education or instruction provided by any four year public institution of higher education(=AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That adult education shall not include education or instruction provided by a vocational technical institute)).

Sec. 23. RCW 28B.50.040 and 1988 c 77 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(28) The twenty-eighth district shall encompass all of Pierce county; and

(29) The twenty-ninth district shall encompass all of Pierce county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. There is hereby created a board of trustees for district twenty-six and Lake Washington Vocational-Technical Institute, hereafter known as Lake Washington Technical College. The members of the board shall be appointed pursuant to the provisions of RCW 28B.50.100.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. There is hereby created a board of trustees for district twenty-seven and Renton Vocational-Technical Institute, hereafter known as Renton Technical College. The members of the board shall be appointed pursuant to the provisions of RCW 28B.50.100.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. There is hereby created a board of trustees for district twenty-five and Bellingham Vocational-Technical Institute, hereafter known as Bellingham Technical College. The members of the board shall be appointed pursuant to the provisions of RCW 28B.50.100.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. There is hereby created a new board of trustees for district twenty-eight and Bates Vocational-Technical Institute, hereafter known as Bates Technical College. The members of the board shall be appointed pursuant to the provisions of RCW 28B.50.100.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. There is hereby created a new board of trustees for district twenty-nine and Clover Park Vocational-Technical Institute, hereafter known as Clover Park Technical College. The members of the board shall be appointed pursuant to the provisions of RCW 28B.50.100.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. By December 1, 1996, the state board shall complete a report evaluating successes and difficulties associated with the merger of the technical and community colleges into one system. The evaluation shall include but need not be limited to consideration of all local governance models for technical colleges. The state board shall provide the report, and any recommendations, including recommendations for revisions to local governance models, to the governor, the house and senate committees on higher education, and the work force training and education coordinating board.

Sec. 30. RCW 28B.50.050 and 1988 c 76 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created the "state board for community ((college education)) and technical colleges", to consist of ((eight)) nine members((~~one from each congressional district, as now or hereafter existing~~)) who represent the geographic diversity of the state, and who shall be appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate. At least two members shall reside east of the Cascade mountains. In making these appointments, the governor shall attempt to provide geographic balance and give consideration to representing labor, business, women, and racial and ethnic minorities, among the membership of the board. At least one member of the board shall be from business and at least one member of the board shall be from labor. The current members of the state board for community college education on the effective date of this section shall serve on the state board for community and technical colleges until their terms expire. Successors to these members shall be appointed according to the terms of this section. A ninth member shall be appointed by the effective date of this section for a complete term.

The successors of the members initially appointed shall be appointed for terms of four years except that ~~((any))~~ a person(s) appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of any term shall be appointed only for the remainder of such term. Each member shall serve until the appointment and qualification of his or her successor. All members shall be citizens and bona fide residents of the state.

~~((The board shall not be deemed unlawfully constituted and a member of the board shall not be deemed ineligible to serve the remainder of the member's unexpired term on the board solely by reason of the establishment of new or revised boundaries for congressional districts.))~~

Members of the college board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and shall receive reimbursement for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 for each day actually spent in attending to the duties as a member of the college board.

The members of the college board may be removed by the governor for inefficiency, neglect of duty, or malfeasance in office, in the manner provided by RCW 28B.10.500.

Sec. 31. RCW 28B.50.060 and 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 s 75 are each amended to read as follows:

A director of the state system of community and technical colleges shall be appointed by the college board and shall serve at the pleasure of the college board. ~~((He))~~ The director shall be appointed with due regard to ~~((his))~~ the applicant's fitness and background in education, ~~((by his))~~ and knowledge of and recent practical experience in the field of educational administration particularly in institutions beyond the high school level. The college board may also take into consideration an applicant's proven management background even though not particularly in the field of education.

The director shall devote his or her time to the duties of his or her office and shall not have any direct pecuniary interest in or any stock or bonds of any business connected with or selling supplies to the field of education within this state, in keeping with chapter 42.18 RCW, the executive conflict of interest act.

~~((He))~~ The director shall receive a salary to be fixed by the college board and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses incurred ~~((by him))~~ in the discharge of his or her official duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060, as now existing or hereafter amended.

~~((He))~~ The director shall be the executive officer of the college board and serve as its secretary and under its supervision shall administer the provisions of this chapter and the rules, regulations and orders established thereunder and all other laws of the state. ~~((He))~~ The director shall attend, but not vote at, all meetings of the college board. ~~((He))~~ The director shall be in charge of offices of the college board and responsible to the college board for the preparation of reports and the collection and dissemination of data and other public information relating to the state system of community and technical colleges. At the direction of the college board, ~~((he))~~ the director shall, together with the chairman of the college board, execute all contracts entered into by the college board.

The director shall, with the approval of the college board: (1) Employ necessary assistant directors of major staff divisions who shall serve at ~~((his))~~ the director's pleasure on such terms and conditions as ~~((he))~~ the director determines, and (2) subject to the provisions of chapter 28B.16 RCW, the higher education personnel law, the director shall, with the approval of the college board, appoint and employ such field and office assistants, clerks and other employees as may be required and authorized for the proper discharge of the functions of the college board and for whose services funds have been appropriated.

The board may, by written order filed in its office, delegate to the director any of the powers and duties vested in or imposed upon it by this chapter. Such delegated powers and duties may be exercised by the director in the name of the college board.

Sec. 32. RCW 28B.50.085 and 1981 c 246 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

The state board for community and technical colleges ~~((education))~~ shall appoint a treasurer who shall be the financial officer of the board, who shall make such vendor payments and salary payments for the entire community and technical college system as authorized by the state board, and who shall hold office during the pleasure of the board. All moneys received by the state board and not required to be deposited elsewhere, shall be deposited in a depository selected by the board, which moneys shall be subject to the budgetary and audit provisions of law applicable to state agencies. The depository selected by the state board shall conform to the collateral requirements required for the deposit of other state funds. Disbursement shall be made by check signed by the treasurer. The treasurer shall render a true and faithful account of all moneys received and paid out by him or her and shall give bond for the faithful performance of the duties of his or her office in such amount as the board requires: PROVIDED, That the board shall pay the fee for any such bonds.

Sec. 33. RCW 28B.50.090 and 1982 c 50 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The college board shall have general supervision and control over the state system of community and technical colleges. In addition to the other powers and duties imposed upon the college board by this chapter, the college board shall be charged with the following powers, duties and responsibilities:

(1) Review the budgets prepared by the (~~community college~~) boards of trustees, prepare a single budget for the support of the state system of community and technical colleges and adult education, and submit this budget to the governor as provided in RCW 43.88.090(~~the coordinating council shall assist with the preparation of the community college budget that has to do with vocational education programs~~);

(2) Establish guidelines for the disbursement of funds; and receive and disburse such funds for adult education and maintenance and operation and capital support of the (~~community~~) college districts in conformance with the state and district budgets, and in conformance with chapter 43.88 RCW;

(3) Ensure, through the full use of its authority:

(a) That each (~~community~~) college district shall offer thoroughly comprehensive educational, training and service programs to meet the needs of both the communities and students served by combining (~~with equal emphasis~~) high standards of excellence in academic transfer courses; realistic and practical courses in occupational education, both graded and ungraded; and community services of an educational, cultural, and recreational nature; and adult education (~~PROVIDED, That notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, a community college shall not be required to offer a program of vocational technical training, when such a program as approved by the coordinating council for occupational education is already operating in the district~~), including basic skills and general, family, and work force literacy programs and services. However, technical colleges, and college districts containing only technical colleges, shall maintain programs solely for occupational education, basic skills, and literacy purposes. For as long as a need exists, technical colleges may continue those programs, activities, and services they offered during the twelve-month period preceding the effective date of this section;

(b) That each (~~community~~) college district shall maintain an open-door policy, to the end that no student will be denied admission because of the location of (~~his~~) the student's residence or because of (~~his~~) the student's educational background or ability; that, insofar as is practical in the judgment of the college board, curriculum offerings will be provided to meet the educational and training needs of the community generally and the students thereof; and that all students, regardless of their differing courses of study, will be considered, known and recognized equally as members of the student body: PROVIDED, That the administrative officers of a community or technical college may deny admission to a prospective student or attendance to an enrolled student if, in their judgment, (~~he~~) the student would not be competent to profit from the curriculum offerings of the (~~community~~) college, or would, by his or her presence or conduct, create a disruptive atmosphere within the (~~community~~) college not consistent with the purposes of the institution. This subsection (b) shall not apply to competency, conduct, or presence associated with a disability in a person twenty-one years of age or younger attending a technical college;

(4) Prepare a comprehensive master plan for the development of community and technical college education and training in the state; and assist the office of financial management in the preparation of enrollment projections to support plans for providing adequate (~~community~~) college facilities in all areas of the state;

(5) Define and administer criteria and guidelines for the establishment of new community and technical colleges or campuses within the existing districts;

(6) Establish criteria and procedures for modifying district boundary lines consistent with the purposes set forth in RCW 28B.50.020 as now or hereafter amended and in accordance therewith make such changes as it deems advisable;

(7) Establish minimum standards to govern the operation of the community and technical colleges with respect to:

(a) Qualifications and credentials of instructional and key administrative personnel, except as otherwise provided in the state plan for vocational education,

(b) Internal budgeting, accounting, auditing, and financial procedures as necessary to supplement the general requirements prescribed pursuant to chapter 43.88 RCW,

(c) The content of the curriculums and other educational and training programs, and the requirement for degrees and certificates awarded by the colleges,

(d) Standard admission policies,

(e) Eligibility of courses to receive state fund support;

(8) Establish and administer criteria and procedures for all capital construction including the establishment, installation, and expansion of facilities within the various ((community)) college districts;

(9) Encourage innovation in the development of new educational and training programs and instructional methods; coordinate research efforts to this end; and disseminate the findings thereof;

(10) Exercise any other powers, duties and responsibilities necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter;

(11) Authorize the various community and technical colleges to offer programs and courses in other districts when it determines that such action is consistent with the purposes set forth in RCW 28B.50.020 as now or hereafter amended;

(12) Notwithstanding any other law or statute regarding the sale of state property, sell or exchange and convey any or all interest in any community and technical college real and personal property, except such property as is received by a ((community)) college district in accordance with RCW 28B.50.140(8), when it determines that such property is surplus or that such a sale or exchange is in the best interests of the community and technical college system;

(13) In order that the treasurer for the state board for community and technical colleges ((education)) appointed in accordance with RCW 28B.50.085 may make vendor payments, the state treasurer will honor warrants drawn by the state board providing for an initial advance on July 1, 1982, of the current biennium and on July 1 of each succeeding biennium from the state general fund in an amount equal to twenty-four percent of the average monthly allotment for such budgeted biennium expenditures for the state board for community and technical colleges ((education)) as certified by the office of financial management; and at the conclusion of such initial month and for each succeeding month of any biennium, the state treasurer will reimburse expenditures incurred and reported monthly by the state board treasurer in accordance with chapter 43.88 RCW: PROVIDED, That the reimbursement to the state board for actual expenditures incurred in the final month of each biennium shall be less the initial advance made in such biennium;

(14) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (12) of this section, may receive such gifts, grants, conveyances, devises, and bequests of real or personal property from private sources as may be made from time to time, in trust or otherwise, whenever the terms and conditions thereof will aid in carrying out the community and technical college programs and may sell, lease or exchange, invest or expend the same or the proceeds, rents, profits and income thereof according to the terms and conditions thereof; and adopt regulations to govern the receipt and expenditure of the proceeds, rents, profits and income thereof((-);

(15) The college board shall have the power of eminent domain;

(16) Provide general supervision over the state's technical colleges. The president of each technical college shall report directly to the director of the state board for community and technical colleges, or the director's designee, until local control is assumed by a new or existing board of trustees as appropriate, except that a college president shall have authority over program decisions of his or her college until the establishment of a board of trustees for that college. The directors of the vocational-technical institutes on March 1, 1991, shall be designated as the presidents of the new technical colleges.

Sec. 34. RCW 28B.50.092 and 1977 ex.s. c 131 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The state board for community and technical colleges (~~(education)~~) may authorize any (~~(community college)~~) board of trustees to do all things necessary to conduct an education, training, and service program authorized by chapter 28B.50 RCW, as now or hereafter amended, for United States military personnel and their dependents, and department of defense civilians and their dependents, at any geographical location: PROVIDED, That such programs shall be limited to those colleges which conducted programs for United States military personnel prior to January 1, 1977: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any high school completion program conducted pursuant to this section shall comply with standards set forth in rules and regulations promulgated by the superintendent of public instruction and the state board of education: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the superintendent of public instruction shall issue the certificate or diploma in recognition of high school completion education provided pursuant to this section.

Sec. 35. RCW 28B.50.093 and 1973 c 105 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

Prior to the state board granting authorization for any programs authorized under RCW 28B.50.092, the state board shall determine that such authorization will not deter from the primary functions of the community and technical college system within the state of Washington as prescribed by chapter 28B.50 RCW.

Sec. 36. RCW 28B.50.095 and 1983 c 3 s 40 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to other powers and duties, the college board may issue rules and regulations permitting a student to register at more than one community and technical college, provided that such student shall pay tuition and fees as if (~~(he)~~) the student were registered at a single college, but not to exceed tuition and fees charged a full-time student as established by RCW 28B.15.502.

Sec. 37. RCW 28B.50.100 and 1987 c 330 s 1001 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created a (~~(community college)~~) board of trustees for each (~~(community)~~) college district as set forth in this chapter. Each (~~(community college)~~) board of trustees shall be composed of five trustees, who shall be appointed by the governor for terms commencing October 1st of the year in which appointed. In making such appointments the governor shall give consideration to geographical (~~(exigencies, and the interests of labor, industry, agriculture, the professions and ethnic groups)~~) diversity, and representing labor, business, women, and racial and ethnic minorities, in the membership of the boards of trustees. The boards of trustees for districts containing technical colleges shall include at least one member from business and one member from labor.

The successors of the trustees initially appointed shall be appointed by the governor to serve for a term of five years except that any person appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of any term shall be appointed only for the remainder of the term. Each member shall serve until a successor is appointed and qualified.

Every trustee shall be a resident and qualified elector of the (~~(community)~~) college district. No trustee may be an employee of the community and technical college system, a member of the board of directors of any school district, or a member of the governing board of any public or private educational institution.

Each board of trustees shall organize itself by electing a chairman from its members. The board shall adopt a seal and may adopt such bylaws, rules and regulations as it deems necessary for its own government. Three members of the board shall constitute a quorum, but a lesser number may adjourn from time to time and may compel the attendance of absent members in such manner as prescribed in its bylaws, rules, or regulations. The district president, or if there be none, the president of the ((community)) college, shall serve as, or may designate another person to serve as, the secretary of the board, who shall not be deemed to be a member of the board.

Members of the boards of trustees may be removed for misconduct or malfeasance in office in the manner provided by RCW 28B.10.500.

Sec. 38. RCW 28B.50.130 and 1977 c 75 s 27 are each amended to read as follows:

Within thirty days of their appointment ((or July 1, 1967, whichever is sooner,)) the various district boards of trustees shall organize, adopt bylaws for its own government, and make such rules and regulations not inconsistent with this chapter as they deem necessary. At such organizational meeting it shall elect from among its members a ((chairman and a vice chairman)) chair and vice-chair, each to serve for one year, and annually thereafter shall elect such officers to serve until their successors are appointed or qualified. The chief executive officer of the ((community)) college district, or ((his)) designee, shall serve as secretary of the board. Three trustees shall constitute a quorum, and no action shall be taken by less than a majority of the trustees of the board. The district boards shall transmit such reports to the college board as may be requested by the college board. The fiscal year of the district boards shall conform to the fiscal year of the state.

Sec. 39. RCW 28B.50.140 and 1990 c 135 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

Each ((community college)) board of trustees:

(1) Shall operate all existing community and technical colleges ((and vocational-technical institutes)) in its district;

(2) Shall create comprehensive programs of community and technical college education and training and maintain an open-door policy in accordance with the provisions of RCW 28B.50.090(3). However, technical colleges, and college districts containing only technical colleges, shall maintain programs solely for occupational education, basic skills, and literacy purposes. For as long as a need exists, technical colleges may continue those programs, activities, and services they offered during the twelve-month period preceding the effective date of this section;

(3) Shall employ for a period to be fixed by the board a college president for each community and technical college ((district,)) and ((where applicable community college)), may appoint a president((s-within)) for the district, and fix their duties and compensation, which may include elements other than salary. Compensation under this subsection shall not affect but may supplement retirement, health care, and other benefits that are otherwise applicable to the presidents as state employees. The board shall also employ for a period to be fixed by the board members of the faculty and such other administrative officers and other employees as may be necessary or appropriate and fix their salaries and duties. Compensation and salary increases under this subsection shall not exceed the amount or percentage established for those purposes in the state appropriations act by the legislature as allocated to the board of trustees by the state board for community and technical colleges ((education)). The state board for community and technical colleges ((education)) shall adopt rules defining the permissible elements of compensation under this subsection;

(4) May establish, under the approval and direction of the college board, new facilities as community needs and interests demand. However, the authority of ((community college)) boards of trustees to purchase or lease major off-campus facilities shall be subject to the approval of the higher education coordinating board pursuant to RCW 28B.80.340(5);

(5) May establish or lease, operate, equip and maintain dormitories, food service facilities, bookstores and other self-supporting facilities connected with the operation of the community and technical college;

(6) May, with the approval of the college board, borrow money and issue and sell revenue bonds or other evidences of indebtedness for the construction, reconstruction, erection, equipping with permanent fixtures, demolition and major alteration of buildings or other capital assets, and the acquisition of sites, rights-of-way, easements, improvements or appurtenances, for dormitories, food service facilities, and other self-supporting facilities connected with the operation of the community and technical college in accordance with the provisions of RCW 28B.10.300 through 28B.10.330 where applicable;

(7) May establish fees and charges for the facilities authorized hereunder, including reasonable rules and regulations for the government thereof, not inconsistent with the rules and regulations of the college board; each board of trustees operating a community and technical college may enter into agreements, subject to rules and regulations of the college board, with owners of facilities to be used for housing regarding the management, operation, and government of such facilities, and any board entering into such an agreement may:

(a) Make rules and regulations for the government, management and operation of such housing facilities deemed necessary or advisable; and

(b) Employ necessary employees to govern, manage and operate the same;

(8) May receive such gifts, grants, conveyances, devises and bequests of real or personal property from private sources, as may be made from time to time, in trust or otherwise, whenever the terms and conditions thereof will aid in carrying out the community and technical college programs as specified by law and the regulations of the state college board; sell, lease or exchange, invest or expend the same or the proceeds, rents, profits and income thereof according to the terms and conditions thereof; and adopt regulations to govern the receipt and expenditure of the proceeds, rents, profits and income thereof;

(9) May establish and maintain night schools whenever in the discretion of the board of trustees it is deemed advisable, and authorize classrooms and other facilities to be used for summer or night schools, or for public meetings and for any other uses consistent with the use of such classrooms or facilities for community and technical college purposes;

(10) May make rules and regulations for pedestrian and vehicular traffic on property owned, operated, or maintained by the (~~community college~~) district;

(11) Shall prescribe, with the assistance of the faculty, the course of study in the various departments of the community and technical college or colleges under its control, and publish such catalogues and bulletins as may become necessary;

(12) May grant to every student, upon graduation or completion of a course of study, a suitable diploma, nonbaccalaureate degree or certificate. Technical colleges shall offer only nonbaccalaureate technical degrees, certificates, or diplomas for occupational courses of study under rules of the college board. Technical colleges in districts twenty-eight and twenty-nine may offer nonbaccalaureate associate of technical or applied arts degrees only in conjunction with a community college the district of which overlaps with the district of the technical college, and these degrees may only be offered after a contract or agreement is executed between the technical college and the community college. The authority and responsibility to offer transfer level academic support and general education for students of districts twenty-one and twenty-five shall reside exclusively with Whatcom Community College;

(13) Shall enforce the rules and regulations prescribed by the state board for community and technical colleges (~~education~~) for the government of community and technical colleges, students and teachers, and promulgate such rules and regulations and perform all other acts not inconsistent with law or rules and regulations of the state board for community and technical colleges (~~(education)~~) as the board of trustees may in its discretion deem necessary or appropriate to the administration of (~~(community)~~) college districts: PROVIDED, That such rules and regulations shall include, but not be limited to, rules and regulations relating to housing, scholarships, conduct at the various community and technical college facilities, and discipline: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the board of trustees may suspend or expel from community and technical colleges students who refuse to obey any of the duly promulgated rules and regulations;

(14) May, by written order filed in its office, delegate to the president or district president any of the powers and duties vested in or imposed upon it by this chapter. Such delegated powers and duties may be exercised in the name of the district board;

(15) May perform such other activities consistent with this chapter and not in conflict with the directives of the college board;

(16) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, may offer educational services on a contractual basis other than the tuition and fee basis set forth in chapter 28B.15 RCW for a special fee to private or governmental entities, consistent with rules and regulations adopted by the state board for community and technical colleges (~~(education)~~): PROVIDED, That the whole of such special fee shall go to the college district and be not less than the full instructional costs of such services including any salary increases authorized by the legislature for community and technical college employees during the term of the agreement: PROVIDED FURTHER, That enrollments generated hereunder shall not be counted toward the official enrollment level of the college district for state funding purposes;

(17) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, may offer educational services on a contractual basis, charging tuition and fees as set forth in chapter 28B.15 RCW, counting such enrollments for state funding purposes, and may additionally charge a special supplemental fee when necessary to cover the full instructional costs of such services: PROVIDED, That such contracts shall be subject to review by the state board for community and technical colleges (~~(education)~~) and to such rules as the state board may adopt for that purpose in order to assure that the sum of the supplemental fee and the normal state funding shall not exceed the projected total cost of offering the educational service: PROVIDED FURTHER, That enrollments generated by courses offered on the basis of contracts requiring payment of a share of the normal costs of the course will be discounted to the percentage provided by the college;

(18) Shall be authorized to pay dues to any association of trustees that may be formed by the various boards of trustees; such association may expend any or all of such funds to submit biennially, or more often if necessary, to the governor and to the legislature, the recommendations of the association regarding changes which would affect the efficiency of such association;

(19) Subject to the approval of the higher education coordinating board pursuant to RCW 28B.80.340(4), may participate in higher education centers and consortia that involve any four-year public or independent college or university; and

(20) Shall perform any other duties and responsibilities imposed by law or rule and regulation of the state board.

Sec. 40. RCW 28B.50.142 and 1977 ex.s. c 331 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

Each board of (~~(community college)~~) trustees shall appoint a treasurer who shall be the financial officer of the board and who shall hold office during the pleasure of the board. Each treasurer shall render a true and faithful account of all moneys received and paid out by him or her, comply with the provisions of RCW 28B.50.143, and shall give bond for the faithful performance of the duties of his or her office in such amount as the trustees require: PROVIDED, That the respective community and technical colleges shall pay the fees for any such bonds.

Sec. 41. RCW 28B.50.143 and 1985 c 180 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

In order that each (~~community~~) college treasurer appointed in accordance with RCW 28B.50.142 may make vendor payments, the state treasurer will honor warrants drawn by each community and technical college providing for one initial advance (~~on September 1, 1977, of the current biennium and~~) on July 1 of each succeeding biennium from the state general fund in an amount equal to seventeen percent of each institution's average monthly allotment for such budgeted biennium expenditures as certified by the office of financial management, and at the conclusion of each such initial month, and for each succeeding month of any biennium, the state treasurer will reimburse each institution for each expenditure incurred and reported monthly by each (~~community~~) college treasurer in accordance with chapter 43.83 RCW: PROVIDED, That the reimbursement to each institution for actual expenditures incurred in the final month of each biennium shall be less the initial advance.

Sec. 42. RCW 28B.50.145 and 1969 ex.s. c 283 s 51 are each amended to read as follows:

The boards of trustees of the various (~~community~~) college districts (~~are hereby directed to~~) may create (~~no later than January 1, 1970~~) at each community or technical college (~~or vocational technical institute~~) under their control a faculty senate or similar organization to be selected by periodic vote of the respective faculties thereof.

Sec. 43. RCW 28B.50.150 and 1969 ex.s. c 223 s 28B.50.150 are each amended to read as follows:

Any resident of the state may enroll in any program or course maintained or conducted by a (~~community~~) college district upon the same terms and conditions regardless of the district of his or her residence.

Sec. 44. RCW 28B.50.205 and 1988 c 206 s 502 are each amended to read as follows:

The state board for community and technical colleges (~~education~~) shall make information available to all newly matriculated students on methods of transmission of the human immunodeficiency virus and prevention of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome. The curricula and materials shall be reviewed for medical accuracy by the office on AIDS in coordination with the appropriate regional AIDS service network.

Sec. 45. RCW 28B.50.242 and 1990 c 208 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:

The state board for community and technical colleges (~~education~~) shall provide state-wide coordination of video telecommunications programming for the community and technical college system.

Sec. 46. RCW 28B.50.250 and 1969 ex.s. c 261 s 25 are each amended to read as follows:

The state board for community and technical colleges (~~education~~) and the state board of education are hereby authorized to permit, on an ad hoc basis, the common school districts to conduct pursuant to RCW 28B.50.530 a program in adult education in behalf of a (~~community~~) college district when such program will not conflict with existing programs of the same nature and in the same geographical area conducted by the (~~community~~) college districts: PROVIDED, That federal programs for adult education (~~which are funded directly to the state board of education~~) shall be administered by the (~~superintendent of public instruction in cooperation with the director of the~~) state board for community and technical colleges (~~education~~), which agency is hereby declared to be the state educational agency primarily responsible for supervision of adult education in the public schools as defined by RCW 28B.50.020.

Sec. 47. RCW 28B.50.320 and 1971 ex.s. c 279 s 17 are each amended to read as follows:

All operating fees, services and activities fees, and all other income which the trustees are authorized to impose shall be deposited as the trustees may direct unless otherwise provided by law. Such sums of money shall be subject to the budgetary and audit provisions of law applicable to state agencies. The depository selected by the trustees shall conform to the collateral requirements required for deposit of other state funds.

Disbursement shall be made by check signed by the president of the ((community)) college or ((his)) the president's designee appointed in writing, and such other person as may be designated by the board of trustees of the ((community)) college district. Each person authorized to sign as provided above, shall execute a surety bond as provided in RCW 43.17.100. Said bond or bonds shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state.

Sec. 48. RCW 28B.50.330 and 1979 ex.s. c 12 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

The boards of trustees of ((community)) college districts are empowered in accordance with the provisions of this chapter to provide for the construction, reconstruction, erection, equipping, demolition, and major alterations of buildings and other capital assets, and the acquisition of sites, rights-of-way, easements, improvements, or appurtenances for the use of the aforementioned colleges as authorized by the college board in accordance with RCW 28B.50.140; to be financed by bonds payable out of special funds from revenues hereafter derived from income received from such facilities, gifts, bequests, or grants, and such additional funds as the legislature may provide, and payable out of a bond retirement fund to be established by the respective district boards in accordance with rules and regulations of the state board. With respect to building, improvements, or repairs, or other work, where the estimated cost exceeds ((five)) fifteen thousand dollars, complete plans and specifications for such work shall be prepared and such work shall be prepared and such work shall be put out for public bids and the contract shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder if in accordance with the bid specifications: PROVIDED, That any project regardless of dollar amount may be put to public bid.

Where the estimated cost to any ((community)) college of any building, improvements, or repairs, or other work, is less than five thousand dollars, the publication requirements of RCW 39.04.020 and ((39.04.090)) 39.04.070 shall be inapplicable.

Sec. 49. RCW 28B.50.340 and 1985 c 390 s 54 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to the powers conferred under RCW 28B.50.090, the ((community)) college ((state)) board is authorized and shall have the power:

(1) To permit the district boards of trustees to contract for the construction, reconstruction, erection, equipping, maintenance, demolition and major alterations of buildings and other capital assets, and the acquisition of sites, rights-of-way, easements, improvements or appurtenances of the college as approved by the ((community college)) state board.

(2) To finance the same by the issuance of bonds secured by the pledge of up to one hundred percent of the building fees.

(3) Without limitation of the foregoing, to accept grants from the United States government, or any federal or state agency or instrumentality, or private corporation, association, or person to aid in defraying the costs of any such projects.

(4) To retain bond counsel and professional bond consultants to aid it in issuing bonds pursuant to RCW 28B.50.340 through 28B.50.400.

Sec. 50. RCW 28B.50.350 and 1985 c 390 s 55 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of financing the cost of any projects, the college board is hereby authorized to adopt the resolution or resolutions and prepare all other documents necessary for the issuance, sale and delivery of the bonds or any part thereof at such time or times as it shall deem necessary and advisable. Said bonds:

(1) Shall not constitute:

- (a) An obligation, either general or special, of the state; or
- (b) A general obligation of the college or of the college board;

(2) Shall be:

- (a) Either registered or in coupon form; and
- (b) Issued in denominations of not less than one hundred dollars; and
- (c) Fully negotiable instruments under the laws of this state; and

(d) Signed on behalf of the college board with the manual or facsimile signature of the chairman of the board, attested by the secretary of the board, have the seal of the college board impressed thereon or a facsimile of such seal printed or lithographed in the bottom border thereof, and the coupons attached thereto shall be signed with the facsimile signatures of such chairman and the secretary;

(3) Shall state:

(a) The date of issue; and

(b) The series of the issue and be consecutively numbered within the series; and

(c) That the bond is payable both principal and interest solely out of the bond retirement fund created for retirement thereof;

(4) Each series of bonds shall bear interest, payable either annually or semiannually, as the board may determine;

(5) Shall be payable both principal and interest out of the bond retirement fund;

(6) Shall be payable at such times over a period of not to exceed forty years from date of issuance, at such place or places, and with such reserved rights of prior redemption, as the board may prescribe;

(7) Shall be sold in such manner and at such price as the board may prescribe;

(8) Shall be issued under and subject to such terms, conditions and covenants providing for the payment of the principal thereof and interest thereon and such other terms, conditions, covenants and protective provisions safeguarding such payment, not inconsistent with RCW 28B.50.330 through 28B.50.400, and as found to be necessary by the board for the most advantageous sale thereof, which may include but not be limited to:

(a) A covenant that a reserve account shall be created in the bond retirement fund to secure the payment of the principal of and interest on all bonds issued and a provision made that certain amounts be set aside and maintained therein;

(b) A covenant that sufficient moneys may be transferred from the capital projects account of the college board issuing the bonds to the bond retirement fund of the college board when ordered by the board in the event there is ever an insufficient amount of money in the bond retirement fund to pay any installment of interest or principal and interest coming due on the bonds or any of them;

(c) A covenant fixing conditions under which bonds on a parity with any bonds outstanding may be issued.

The proceeds of the sale of all bonds, exclusive of accrued interest which shall be deposited in the bond retirement fund, shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the capital projects account of the college board and shall be used solely for paying the costs of the projects, the costs of bond counsel and professional bond consultants incurred in issuing the bonds, and for the purposes set forth in subsection (8)(b) ((above)) of this section;

(9) Shall constitute a prior lien and charge against the building fees of the community and technical colleges.

Sec. 51. RCW 28B.50.360 and 1985 c 390 s 56 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created in the state treasury a community and technical college bond retirement fund. Within thirty-five days from the date of start of each quarter all building fees of each such community and technical college shall be paid into the state treasury, and shall be credited as follows:

(1) On or before June 30th of each year the college board if issuing bonds payable out of building fees shall certify to the state treasurer the amounts required in the ensuing twelve-month period to pay and secure the payment of the principal of and interest on such bonds. The state treasurer shall thereupon deposit the amounts so certified in the community and technical college bond retirement fund which fund as required, is hereby created in the state treasury. Such amounts of the funds deposited in the bond retirement fund as are necessary to pay and secure the payment of the principal of and interest on the building bonds issued by the college board as authorized by this chapter shall be exclusively devoted to that purpose. If in any twelve-month period it shall appear that the amount certified by the college board is insufficient to pay and secure the payment of the principal of and interest on the outstanding building bonds, the state treasurer shall notify the college board and such board shall adjust its certificate so that all requirements of moneys to pay and secure the payment of the principal and interest on all such bonds then outstanding shall be fully met at all times.

(2) That portion of the building fees not required for or in excess of the amounts necessary to pay and secure the payment of any of the bonds as provided in subsection (1) ~~((above))~~ of this section shall be deposited in the community and technical college capital projects account which account is hereby created in the state treasury. The sums deposited in the capital projects account shall be appropriated and expended exclusively for the construction, reconstruction, erection, equipping, maintenance, demolition and major alteration of buildings and other capital assets owned by the state board for community and technical colleges ~~((education))~~ in the name of the state of Washington, and the acquisition of sites, rights-of-way, easements, improvements or appurtenances in relation thereto, and for the payment of principal of and interest on any bonds issued for such purposes. All earnings of investments of balances in the ~~((community college))~~ capital projects account shall be credited to the general fund.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) ~~((above))~~ of this section, at such time as all outstanding building bonds of the college board payable from the community and technical college bond retirement fund have been paid, redeemed, and retired, or at such time as ample provision has been made by the state for full payment, from some source other than the ~~((community college))~~ bond retirement fund, of the principal of and the interest on and call premium, if applicable, of such bonds as they mature and/or upon their call prior to their maturity, through refunding or otherwise, that portion of all building fees of the community and technical colleges equal to the amount required to pay yearly debt service on any general obligation bonds issued by the state in accordance with Article VIII, section 1, Washington state Constitution, for community and technical college purposes, shall be paid into the general fund of the state treasury. The state finance committee shall determine whether ample provision has been made for payment of such bonds payable from the said bond retirement fund and shall determine the amount required to pay yearly debt service on such general obligation bonds of the state. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed as obligating the legislature or the state to provide for payment of such ~~((community))~~ college building bonds from some source other than the community and technical college bond retirement fund or as pledging the general credit of the state to the payment of such bonds.

Sec. 52. RCW 28B.50.370 and 1985 c 390 s 57 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of paying and securing the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds as the same shall become due, there shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the bond retirement fund of the ~~((state))~~ college board ~~((for community college education))~~, the following:

(1) Amounts derived from building fees as are necessary to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds and to secure the same;

(2) Any grants which may be made, or may become available for the purpose of furthering the construction of any authorized projects, or for the repayment of the costs thereof;

(3) Such additional funds as the legislature may provide.

Said bond retirement fund shall be kept segregated from all moneys in the state treasury and shall, while any of such bonds or any interest thereon remains unpaid, be available solely for the payment thereof. As a part of the contract of sale of such bonds, the college board shall charge and collect building fees as established by this chapter and deposit such fees in the bond retirement fund in amounts which will be sufficient to pay and secure the payment of the principal of, and interest on all such bonds outstanding.

Sec. 53. RCW 28B.50.402 and 1977 ex.s. c 223 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in RCW 28B.50.360(1) and (2) and in RCW 28B.50.370, all moneys on deposit on or before June 30, 1977, in the community and technical college bond retirement fund, shall be transferred by the state treasurer to the state general fund, except for those moneys appropriated by section 17, chapter 1, Laws of 1977.

Sec. 54. RCW 28B.50.404 and 1985 c 390 s 60 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to the specific provisions of RCW 28B.50.360 and 28B.50.403 through 28B.50.407, such general obligation refunding bonds shall be issued and the refunding of said community and technical college building bonds shall be carried out pursuant to chapters 39.42 and 39.53 RCW as now or hereafter amended. The bonds shall pledge the full faith and credit of the state of Washington and contain an unconditional promise of the state to pay the principal thereof and interest thereon when due.

Sec. 55. RCW 28B.50.405 and 1974 ex.s. c 112 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created in the state treasury the community and technical college refunding bond retirement fund of 1974, which fund shall be exclusively devoted to the payment of the principal of and interest on the refunding bonds authorized by RCW 28B.50.360 and 28B.50.403 through 28B.50.407.

The state finance committee shall, on or before June 30th of each year, certify to the state treasurer the amount needed in the ensuing twelve months to pay the principal of and interest on such bonds. On July 1st of each year the state treasurer shall deposit such amount in the (~~community college~~) refunding bond retirement fund of 1974 from any general state revenues received in the state treasury.

Sec. 56. RCW 28B.50.409 and 1974 ex.s. c 112 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

All bonds issued after February 16, 1974 by the college board or any (~~community college~~) board of trustees for any (~~community~~) college district under provisions of chapter 28B.50 RCW, as now or hereafter amended, shall be issued by such boards only upon the prior advice and consent of the state finance committee.

Sec. 57. RCW 28B.50.520 and 1969 ex.s. c 223 s 28B.50.520 are each amended to read as follows:

The (~~state~~) college board (~~(for community college education)~~) or any (~~community college~~) board of trustees is authorized to receive federal funds made available for the assistance of community and technical colleges, and providing physical facilities, maintenance or operation of schools, or for any educational purposes, according to the provisions of the acts of congress making such funds available.

Sec. 58. RCW 28B.50.535 and 1969 ex.s. c 261 s 30 are each amended to read as follows:

A community or technical college may issue a high school diploma or certificate, subject to rules and regulations promulgated by the superintendent of public instruction and the state board of education.

Sec. 59. RCW 28B.50.551 and 1980 c 182 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of trustees of each ((community)) college district shall adopt for each community and technical college under its jurisdiction written policies on granting leaves to employees of the district and those colleges, including but not limited to leaves for attendance at official or private institutions and conferences; professional leaves for personnel consistent with the provisions of RCW 28B.10.650; leaves for illness, injury, bereavement and emergencies, and except as otherwise in this section provided, all with such compensation as the board of trustees may prescribe, except that the board shall grant to all such persons leave with full compensation for illness, injury, bereavement and emergencies as follows:

(1) For persons under contract to be employed, or otherwise employed, for at least three quarters, not more than twelve days per year, commencing with the first day on which work is to be performed; provisions of any contract in force on June 12, 1980, which conflict with requirements of this subsection shall continue in effect until contract expiration; after expiration, any new contract executed between the parties shall be consistent with this subsection;

(2) Such leave entitlement may be accumulated after the first three-quarter period of employment for full time employees, and may be taken at any time;

(3) Leave for illness, injury, bereavement and emergencies heretofore accumulated pursuant to law, rule, regulation or policy by persons presently employed by ((community)) college districts and community and technical colleges shall be added to such leave accumulated under this section;

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this section or other law, accumulated leave under this section not taken at the time such person retires or ceases to be employed by ((community)) college districts or community and technical colleges shall not be compensable;

(5) Accumulated leave for illness, injury, bereavement and emergencies under this section shall be transferred from one ((community)) college district or community and technical college to another, to the ((state)) college board ((for community college education)), to the state superintendent of public instruction, to any educational service district, to any school district, or to any other institutions of higher learning of the state; ((and))

(6) Leave accumulated by a person in a ((community)) college district or community and technical college prior to leaving that district or college may, under the policy of the board of trustees, be granted to such person when he or she returns to the employment of that district or college; and

(7) Employees of the Seattle Vocational Institute are exempt from this section until July 1, 1993.

Sec. 60. RCW 28B.50.600 and 1969 ex.s. c 223 s 28B.50.600 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever a common school board has contracted to redeem general obligation bonds used for the construction or acquisition of facilities which are now to be under the administration, control and occupancy of the ((community)) college district board, the common school board shall continue to redeem the bonds in accordance with the provisions of the bonds.

Sec. 61. RCW 28B.50.740 and 1969 ex.s. c 223 s 28B.50.740 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other statutory provision relating to indebtedness of school districts, bonds heretofore issued by any common school district for the purpose of providing funds for community and technical college facilities shall not be considered as indebtedness in determining the maximum allowable indebtedness under any statutory limitation of indebtedness when the sum of all indebtedness therein does not exceed the maximum constitutional allowable indebtedness applied to the value of the taxable property contained in such school district: PROVIDED, That nothing contained herein shall be construed to affect the distribution of state funds under any applicable distribution formula.

Sec. 62. RCW 28B.50.835 and 1990 c 29 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature recognizes that quality in the state's community and technical colleges would be strengthened by additional partnerships between citizens and the institutions. The legislature intends to foster these partnerships by creating a matching grant program to assist public community and technical colleges in creating endowments for funding exceptional faculty awards.

Sec. 63. RCW 28B.50.837 and 1990 c 29 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The Washington community and technical college exceptional faculty awards program is established. The program shall be administered by the ((state)) college board ((for community college education)). The ((community)) college faculty awards trust fund hereby created shall be administered by the state treasurer.

(2) Funds appropriated by the legislature for the community and technical college exceptional faculty awards program shall be deposited in the ((community)) college faculty awards trust fund. All moneys deposited in the fund shall be invested by the state treasurer. Notwithstanding RCW 43.84.090, all earnings of investments of balances in the fund shall be credited to the fund. At the request of the ((state)) college board ((for community college education)), the treasurer shall release the state matching funds to the designated institution's local endowment fund. No appropriation is necessary for the expenditure of moneys from the fund.

Sec. 64. RCW 28B.50.839 and 1990 c 29 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In consultation with eligible community and technical colleges, the ((state)) college board ((for community college education)) shall set priorities and guidelines for the program.

(2) Under this section, a ((community)) college shall not receive more than four faculty grants in twenty-five thousand dollar increments, with a maximum total of one hundred thousand dollars per campus in any biennium.

(3) All community and technical colleges shall be eligible for matching trust funds. Institutions may apply to the ((state)) college board ((for community college education)) for grants from the fund in twenty-five thousand dollar increments up to a maximum of one hundred thousand dollars when they can match the state funds with equal cash donations from private sources, except that in the initial year of the program, no college may receive more than one grant until every college has received one grant. These donations shall be made specifically to the exceptional faculty awards program and deposited by the institution in a local endowment fund. Otherwise unrestricted gifts may be deposited in the endowment fund by the institution.

(4) Once sufficient private donations are received by the institution, the institution shall inform the ((state)) college board ((for community college education)) and request state matching funds. The ((state)) college board ((for community college education)) shall evaluate the request for state matching funds based on program priorities and guidelines. The ((state)) college board ((for community college education)) may ask the state treasurer to release the state matching funds to a local endowment fund established by the institution for each faculty award created.

Sec. 65. RCW 28B.50.841 and 1990 c 29 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The faculty awards are the property of the institution and may be named in honor of a donor, benefactor, or honoree of the institution, at the option of the institution. The institution shall designate the use of the award. The designation shall be made or renewed annually.

(2) The institution is responsible for soliciting private donations, investing and maintaining its endowment funds, administering the faculty awards, and reporting on the program to the governor, the ~~((state))~~ college board ~~((for community college education))~~, and the legislature, upon request. The institution may augment its endowment fund with additional unrestricted private donations. The principal of the invested endowment fund shall not be invaded.

(3) The proceeds from the endowment fund shall be used to pay expenses for faculty awards, which may include in-service training, temporary substitute or replacement costs directly associated with faculty development programs, conferences, travel, publication and dissemination of exemplary projects; to supplement the salary of the holder or holders of a faculty award; or to pay expenses associated with the holder's program area. Funds from this program shall not be used to supplant existing faculty development funds.

Sec. 66. RCW 28B.50.843 and 1990 c 29 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

The process for determining local awards shall be subject to collective bargaining. Decisions regarding the amounts of individual awards and who receives them shall not be subject to collective bargaining and shall be subject to approval of the applicable ~~((community college))~~ board of trustees.

Sec. 67. RCW 28B.50.850 and 1969 ex.s. c 283 s 32 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be the purpose of RCW 28B.50.850 through 28B.50.869 to establish a system of faculty tenure which protects the concepts of faculty employment rights and faculty involvement in the protection of those rights in the state system of community and technical colleges. RCW 28B.50.850 through 28B.50.869 shall define a reasonable and orderly process for appointment of faculty members to tenure status and the dismissal of the tenured faculty member.

Employees of the Seattle Vocational Institute are exempt from this section until July 1, 1993.

Sec. 68. RCW 28B.50.851 and 1988 c 32 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in RCW 28B.50.850 through 28B.50.869:

(1) "Tenure" shall mean a faculty appointment for an indefinite period of time which may be revoked only for adequate cause and by due process;

(2)(a) "Faculty appointment", except as otherwise provided in ~~((subsection (2))~~(b) ~~((below))~~ of this subsection, shall mean full time employment as a teacher, counselor, librarian or other position for which the training, experience and responsibilities are comparable as determined by the appointing authority, except administrative appointments; "faculty appointment" shall also mean department heads, division heads and administrators to the extent that such department heads, division heads or administrators have had or do have status as a teacher, counselor, or librarian; faculty appointment shall also mean employment on a reduced work load basis when a faculty member has retained tenure under RCW 28B.50.859;

(b) "Faculty appointment" shall not mean special faculty appointment as a teacher, counselor, librarian, or other position as enumerated in ~~((subsection (2))~~(a) of this subsection, when such employment results from special funds provided to a community college district from federal moneys or other special funds which other funds are designated as "special funds" by the ~~((state))~~ college board ~~((for community college education))~~; PROVIDED, That such "special funds" so designated by the ~~((state))~~ college board for purposes of this section shall apply only to teachers, counselors and librarians hired from grants and service agreements and teachers, counselors and librarians hired in nonformula positions. A special faculty appointment resulting from such special financing may be terminated upon a reduction or elimination of funding or a reduction or elimination of program: PROVIDED FURTHER, That "faculty appointees" holding faculty appointments pursuant to subsections (1) or (2)(a) of this section who have been subsequently transferred to positions financed from "special funds" pursuant to (~~subsection (2)~~) (b) of this subsection and who thereafter lose their positions upon reduction or elimination of such "special funding" shall be entitled to be returned to previous status as faculty appointees pursuant to subsection (1) or (2)(a) of this section depending upon their status prior to the "special funding" transfer. Notwithstanding the fact that tenure shall not be granted to anyone holding a special faculty appointment, the termination of any such faculty appointment prior to the expiration of the term of such faculty member's individual contract for any cause which is not related to elimination or reduction of financing or the elimination or reduction of program shall be considered a termination for cause subject to the provisions of this chapter;

(3) "Probationary faculty appointment" shall mean a faculty appointment for a designated period of time which may be terminated without cause upon expiration of the probationer's terms of employment;

(4) "Probationer" shall mean an individual holding a probationary faculty appointment;

(5) "Administrative appointment" shall mean employment in a specific administrative position as determined by the appointing authority;

(6) "Appointing authority" shall mean the board of trustees of a (~~community~~) college district;

(7) "Review committee" shall mean a committee composed of the probationer's faculty peers, a student representative, and the administrative staff of the community or technical college: PROVIDED, That the majority of the committee shall consist of the probationer's faculty peers.

Sec. 69. RCW 28B.50.867 and 1969 ex.s. c 283 s 43 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon transfer of employment from one community or technical college to another community or technical college within a district, a tenured faculty member shall have the right to retain tenure and the rights accruing thereto which he or she had in his or her previous employment: PROVIDED, That upon permanent transfer of employment to another (~~community~~) college district a tenured faculty member shall not have the right to retain his tenure or any of the rights accruing thereto.

Sec. 70. RCW 28B.50.869 and 1974 ex.s. c 33 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

The review committees required by RCW 28B.50.850 through 28B.50.869 shall be composed of members of the administrative staff, a student representative, and the teaching faculty. The representatives of the teaching faculty shall represent a majority of the members on each review committee. The members representing the teaching faculty on each review committee shall be selected by a majority of the teaching faculty and faculty department heads acting in a body. The student representative, who shall be a full time student, shall be chosen by the student association of the particular community or technical college in such manner as the members thereof shall determine.

Sec. 71. RCW 28B.50.870 and 1977 ex.s. c 282 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The district board of trustees of any (~~community~~) college district currently operating an educational program with funds provided by another state agency, including federal funds, which program has been in existence for five or more years under the administration of one or more (~~community~~) college districts, shall provide for the award or denial of tenure to anyone who holds a special faculty appointment in such curricular program and for as long as the program continues to be funded in such manner, utilizing the prescribed probationary processes and procedures set forth in this chapter with the exception that no student representative shall be required to serve on the review committee defined in RCW 28B.50.851: PROVIDED, That such review processes and procedures shall not be applicable to faculty members whose contracts are renewed after the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act and who have completed at least three consecutive years of satisfactory full time service in such program, who shall be granted tenure by the ((community)) college district: PROVIDED FURTHER, That faculty members who have completed one year or more of satisfactory full time service in such program shall be credited with such service for the purposes of this section: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That provisions relating to tenure for faculty under the provisions of this section shall be distinct from provisions relating to tenure for other faculty of the ((community)) college district and faculty appointed to such special curricular program shall be treated as a separate unit as respects selection, retention, reduction in force or dismissal hereunder: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the provisions of this section shall only be applicable to faculty holding a special faculty appointment in an educational program operated in a state correctional institution pursuant to a written contract with a ((community)) college district.

Sec. 72. RCW 28B.50.873 and 1990 c 33 s 559 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((state)) college board ((for community college education)) may declare a financial emergency under the following conditions: (1) Reduction of allotments by the governor pursuant to RCW 43.88.110(2), or (2) reduction by the legislature from one biennium to the next or within a biennium of appropriated funds based on constant dollars using the implicit price deflator. When a district board of trustees determines that a reduction in force of tenured or probationary faculty members may be necessary due to financial emergency as declared by the state board, written notice of the reduction in force and separation from employment shall be given the faculty members so affected by the president or district president as the case may be. Said notice shall clearly indicate that separation is not due to the job performance of the employee and hence is without prejudice to such employee and need only state in addition the basis for the reduction in force as one or more of the reasons enumerated in subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

Said tenured or probationary faculty members will have a right to request a formal hearing when being dismissed pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) of this section. The only issue to be determined shall be whether under the applicable policies, rules or collective bargaining agreement the particular faculty member or members advised of severance are the proper ones to be terminated. Said hearing shall be initiated by filing a written request therefor with the president or district president, as the case may be, within ten days after issuance of such notice. At such formal hearing the tenure review committee provided for in RCW 28B.50.863 may observe the formal hearing procedure and after the conclusion of such hearing offer its recommended decision for consideration by the hearing officer. Failure to timely request such a hearing shall cause separation from service of such faculty members so notified on the effective date as stated in the notice, regardless of the duration of any individual employment contract.

The hearing required by this section shall be an adjudicative proceeding pursuant to chapter 34.05 RCW, the Administrative Procedure Act, conducted by a hearing officer appointed by the board of trustees and shall be concluded by the hearing officer within sixty days after written notice of the reduction in force has been issued. Ten days written notice of the formal hearing will be given to faculty members who have requested such a hearing by the president or district president as the case may be. The hearing officer within ten days after conclusion of such formal hearing shall prepare findings, conclusions of law and a recommended decision which shall be forwarded to the board of trustees for its final action thereon. Any such determination by the hearing officer under this section shall not be subject to further tenure review committee action as otherwise provided in this chapter.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, at the time of a faculty member or members request for formal hearing said faculty member or members may ask for participation in the choosing of the hearing officer in the manner provided in RCW 28A.405.310(4), said employee therein being a faculty member for the purposes hereof and said board of directors therein being the board of trustees for the purposes hereof: PROVIDED, That where there is more than one faculty member affected by the board of trustees' reduction in force such faculty members requesting hearing must act collectively in making such request: PROVIDED FURTHER, That costs incurred for the services and expenses of such hearing officer shall be shared equally by the community or technical college and the faculty member or faculty members requesting hearing.

When more than one faculty member is notified of termination because of a reduction in force as provided in this section, hearings for all such faculty members requesting formal hearing shall be consolidated and only one such hearing for the affected faculty members shall be held, and such consolidated hearing shall be concluded within the time frame set forth herein.

Separation from service without prejudice after formal hearing under the provisions of this section shall become effective upon final action by the board of trustees.

It is the intent of the legislature by enactment of this section and in accordance with RCW 28B.52.035, to modify any collective bargaining agreements in effect, or any conflicting board policies or rules, so that any reductions in force which take place after December 21, 1981, whether in progress or to be initiated, will comply solely with the provisions of this section: PROVIDED, That any applicable policies, rules, or provisions contained in a collective bargaining agreement related to lay-off units, seniority and re-employment rights shall not be affected by the provisions of this paragraph.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the right of the board of trustees or its designated appointing authority not to renew a probationary faculty appointment pursuant to RCW 28B.50.857.

Sec. 73. RCW 28B.50.875 and 1969 ex.s. c 261 s 35 are each amended to read as follows:

Local law enforcement agencies or such other public agencies that shall be in need of such service may contract with any community or technical college for laboratory services for the analyzing of samples that chemists associated with such ((community)) colleges may be able to perform under such terms and conditions as the individual ((community)) college may determine.

Employees of the Seattle Vocational Institute are exempt from this section until July 1, 1993.

Sec. 74. RCW 15.76.120 and 1961 c 61 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this chapter all agricultural fairs in the state which may become eligible for state allocations shall be divided into categories, to wit:

(1) "Area fairs"--those not under the jurisdiction of boards of county commissioners; organized to serve an area larger than one county, having both open and junior participation, and having an extensive diversification of classes, displays and exhibits;

(2) "County and district fairs"--organized to serve the interests of single counties other than those in which a recognized area fair or a district fair as defined in RCW 36.37.050, is held and which are under the direct control and supervision of the county commissioners of the respective counties, which have both open and junior participation, but whose classes, displays and exhibits may be more restricted or limited than in the case of area or district fairs. There may be but one county fair in a single county: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the county commissioners of two or more counties may, by resolution, jointly sponsor a county fair.

(3) "Community fairs"--organized primarily to serve a smaller area than an area or county fair, which may have open or junior classes, displays, or exhibits. There may be more than one community fair in a county.

(4) "Youth shows and fairs"--approved by duly constituted agents of Washington State University and/or the Washington ~~((state board for vocational education))~~ work force training and education coordinating board, serving three or more counties, and having for their purpose the education and training of rural youth in matters of rural living.

Sec. 75. RCW 28A.305.270 and 1989 c 146 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The Washington state minority teacher recruitment program is established. The program shall be administered by the state board of education. The state board of education shall consult with the higher education coordinating board, representatives of institutions of higher education, education organizations having an interest in teacher recruitment issues, the superintendent of public instruction, the state board for community and technical colleges ((education)), the department of employment security, and the ~~((state board of vocational education within the office of the governor))~~ work force training and education coordinating board. The program shall be designed to recruit future teachers from students in the targeted groups who are in the ninth through twelfth grades and from adults in the targeted groups who have entered other occupations.

(2) The program shall include the following:

(a) Encouraging students in targeted groups in grades nine through twelve to acquire the academic and related skills necessary to prepare for the study of teaching at an institution of higher education;

(b) Promoting teaching career opportunities to develop an awareness of opportunities in the education profession;

(c) Providing opportunities for students to experience the application of regular high school course work to activities related to a teaching career; and

(d) Providing for increased cooperation among institutions of higher education including community colleges, the superintendent of public instruction, the state board of education, and local school districts in working toward the goals of the program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 76. A new section is added to chapter 28A.150 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Each local education agency or college district offering vocational educational programs shall establish local advisory committees to provide that agency or district with advice on current job needs and on the courses necessary to meet these needs.

(2) The local program committees shall:

(a) Participate in the determination of program goals;

(b) Review and evaluate program curricula, equipment, and effectiveness;

(c) Include representatives of business and labor who reflect the local industry, and the community; and

(d) Actively consult with other representatives of business, industry, labor, and agriculture.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 77. (1) Each local education agency or college district offering vocational educational programs shall establish local advisory committees to provide that agency or district with advice on current job needs and on the courses necessary to meet these needs.

(2) The local program committees shall:

- (a) Participate in the determination of program goals;
- (b) Review and evaluate program curricula, equipment, and effectiveness;
- (c) Include representatives of business and labor who reflect the local industry, and the community; and
- (d) Actively consult with other representatives of business, industry, labor, and agriculture.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 78. A new section is added to chapter 28A.300 RCW to read as follows:

The superintendent shall cooperate with the work force training and education coordinating board in the conduct of the board's responsibilities under section 7 of this act and shall provide information and data in a format that is accessible to the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 79. The college board shall cooperate with the work force training and education coordinating board in the conduct of the board's responsibilities under section 7 of this act and shall provide information and data in a format that is accessible to the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 80. A new section is added to chapter 50.12 RCW to read as follows:

The commissioner shall cooperate with the work force training and education coordinating board in the conduct of the board's responsibilities under section 7 of this act and shall provide information and data in a format that is accessible to the board.

Sec. 81. RCW 28C.10.020 and 1990 c 188 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Agency" means the (~~state board for vocational education~~) work force training and education coordinating board or its successor.

(2) "Agent" means a person owning an interest in, employed by, or representing for remuneration a private vocational school within or without this state, who enrolls or personally attempts to secure the enrollment in a private vocational school of a resident of this state, offers to award educational credentials for remuneration on behalf of a private vocational school, or holds himself or herself out to residents of this state as representing a private vocational school for any of these purposes.

(3) "Degree" means any designation, appellation, letters, or words including but not limited to "associate," "bachelor," "master," "doctor," or "fellow" which signify or purport to signify satisfactory completion of an academic program of study beyond the secondary school level.

(4) "Education" includes but is not limited to, any class, course, or program of training, instruction, or study.

(5) "Educational credentials" means degrees, diplomas, certificates, transcripts, reports, documents, or letters of designation, marks, appellations, series of letters, numbers, or words which signify or appear to signify enrollment, attendance, progress, or satisfactory completion of the requirements or prerequisites for any educational program.

(6) "Entity" includes, but is not limited to, a person, company, firm, society, association, partnership, corporation, or trust.

(7) "Private vocational school" means any location where [there is] an entity offering postsecondary education in any form or manner for the purpose of instructing, training, or preparing persons for any vocation or profession.

(8) "To grant" includes to award, issue, sell, confer, bestow, or give.

(9) "To offer" includes, in addition to its usual meanings, to advertise or publicize. "To offer" also means to solicit or encourage any person, directly or indirectly, to perform the act described.

(10) "To operate" means to establish, keep, or maintain any facility or location where, from, or through which education is offered or educational credentials are offered or granted to residents of this state, and includes contracting for the performance of any such act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 82. Community and technical colleges may contract with local common school districts to provide occupational and academic programs for high school students. Common school districts whose students currently attend vocational-technical institutes shall not suffer loss of opportunity to continue to enroll their students at technical colleges.

For the purposes of this section, "opportunity to enroll" includes, but is not limited to, the opportunity of common school districts to enroll the same number of high school students enrolled at each vocational-technical institute during the period July 1, 1989, through June 30, 1990, and the opportunity for common school districts to increase enrollments of high school students at each technical college in proportion to annual increases in enrollment within the school districts participating on the effective date of this section. Technical colleges shall offer programs which are accessible to high school students to at least the extent that existed during the period July 1, 1989, through June 30, 1990, and to the extent necessary to accommodate proportional annual growth in enrollments of high school students within school districts participating on the effective date of this section. Accommodating such annual increases in enrollment or program offerings shall be the first priority within technical colleges subject to any enrollment or budgetary restrictions. Technical colleges shall not charge tuition or student services and activities fees to high school students enrolled in the college.

Technical colleges may enter into interlocal agreements with local school districts to provide instruction in courses required for high school graduation, basic skills, and literacy training for students enrolled in technical college programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 83. When the state system of community and technical colleges assumes administrative control of the vocational-technical institutes, personnel employed by the vocational-technical institutes shall:

(1) Suffer no reduction in compensation, benefits, seniority, or employment status. After the effective date of this section, classified employees shall continue to be covered by chapter 41.56 RCW and faculty members and administrators shall be covered by chapter 28B.50 RCW;

(2) To the extent applicable to faculty members, any faculty currently employed on a "continuing contract" basis under RCW 28A.405.210 be awarded tenure pursuant to RCW 28B.50.851 through 28B.50.873, except for any faculty members who are provisional employees under RCW 28A.405.220;

(3) Be eligible to participate in the health care and other insurance plans provided by the health care authority and the state employee benefits board pursuant to chapter 41.05 RCW;

(4) Be eligible to participate in old age annuities or retirement income plans under the rules of the state board for community and technical colleges pursuant to RCW 28B.10.400 or the teachers' retirement system plan I for personnel employed before July 1, 1977, or plan II for personnel employed after July 1, 1977, under chapter 41.32 RCW; however, no affected vocational-technical institute employee shall be required to choose from among any available retirement plan options prior to six months after the effective date of this section;

(5) Have transferred to their new administrative college district all accrued sick and vacation leave and thereafter shall earn and use all such leave under the rule established pursuant to RCW 28B.50.551;

(6) Be eligible to participate in the deferred compensation plan pursuant to RCW 41.04.250 and the dependent care program pursuant to RCW 41.04.600 under the rules established by the state deferred compensation committee.

An exclusive bargaining representative certified to represent a bargaining unit covering employees of a vocational technical institute on the effective date of this section shall remain the exclusive representative of such employees thereafter until and unless such representative is replaced or decertified in accordance with state law.

Any collective bargaining agreement in effect on June 30, 1991, shall remain in effect as it applies to employees of vocational technical institutes until its expiration or renewal date or until renegotiated or renewed in accordance with chapter 28B.52 or 41.56 RCW. After the expiration date of a collective bargaining agreement, all of the terms and conditions specified in the collective bargaining agreement, as it applies to employees of vocational-technical institutes, shall remain in effect until the effective date of a subsequent agreement, not to exceed one year from the termination date stated in the agreement. The board of trustees and the employees may mutually agree to continue the terms and conditions of the agreement beyond the one year extension. However, nothing in this section shall be construed to deny any employee right granted under chapter 28B.52 or 41.56 RCW. Labor relations processes and agreements covering faculty members of vocational technical institutes after the effective date of this section shall be governed by chapter 28B.52 RCW. Labor relations processes and agreements covering classified employees of vocational technical institutes after the effective date of this section shall continue to be governed by chapter 41.56 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 84. Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 28B.15 RCW, technical colleges and the Seattle Vocational Institute may continue to collect student tuition and fees per their standard operating procedures in effect on the effective date of this section. The applicability of existing community college rules and statutes pursuant to chapter 28B.15 RCW regarding tuition and fees shall be determined by the state board for community and technical colleges within two years of the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 85. All powers, duties, and functions of the superintendent of public instruction and the state board of education pertaining to projects of adult education, including the state-funded Even Start and including the adult education programs operated pursuant to 20 U.S.C. Sec. 1201 as amended by P.L. 100-297, are transferred to the state board for community and technical colleges. All references to the director or superintendent of public instruction or the state board of education in the Revised Code of Washington shall be construed to mean the director or the state board for community and technical colleges when referring to the functions transferred in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 86. All reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, papers, or written material in the possession of the superintendent of public instruction pertaining to the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be delivered to the custody of the state board for community and technical colleges. All cabinets, furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property employed by the superintendent of public instruction in carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be made available to the state board for community and technical colleges. All funds, credits, or other assets held in connection with the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be assigned to the state board for community and technical colleges.

Any appropriations made to the superintendent of public instruction for carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall, on the effective date of this section, be transferred and credited to the state board for community and technical colleges.

Whenever any question arises as to the transfer of any personnel, funds, books, documents, records, papers, files, equipment, or other tangible property used or held in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties and functions transferred, the director of financial management shall make a determination as to the proper allocation and certify the same to the state agencies concerned.

The superintendent or designee, and the director of the state board shall work out a mutually agreeable schedule to accomplish this transfer by no later than July 1, 1991.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 87. All employees of the superintendent of public instruction engaged in performing the powers, functions, and duties transferred are transferred to the jurisdiction of the state board for community and technical colleges. All employees classified under chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service law, are assigned to the state board for community and technical colleges to perform their usual duties upon the same terms as formerly, without any loss of rights, subject to any action that may be appropriate thereafter in accordance with the laws and rules governing chapter 28B.16 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 88. All rules and all pending business before the superintendent of public instruction pertaining to the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be continued and acted upon by the state board for community and technical colleges. All existing contracts and obligations shall remain in full force and shall be performed by the state board for community and technical colleges.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 89. The transfer of the powers, duties, functions, and personnel of the superintendent of public instruction shall not affect the validity of any act performed prior to the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 90. If apportionments of budgeted funds are required because of the transfers directed by sections 86 through 89 of this act, the director of financial management shall certify the apportionments to the agencies affected, the state auditor, and the state treasurer. Each of these shall make the appropriate transfer and adjustments in funds and appropriation accounts and equipment records in accordance with the certification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 91. Nothing contained in sections 86 through 90 of this act may be construed to alter any existing collective bargaining unit or the provisions of any existing collective bargaining agreement until the agreement has expired or until the bargaining unit has been modified by action of the personnel board as provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 92. The college board personnel administering state and federally funded programs for adult basic skills and literacy education shall be known as the state office for adult literacy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 93. The legislature finds that a vocational institute in the central area of the city of Seattle provides civic, social, and economic benefits to the people of the state of Washington.

Economic development is enhanced by increasing the number of skilled individuals who enter the labor market and social welfare costs are reduced by the training of individuals lacking marketable skills. The students at the institute are historically economically disadvantaged, and include racial and ethnic minorities, recent immigrants, single-parent heads of households, and persons who are dislocated workers or without specific occupational skills. The institute presents a unique opportunity for business, labor, and community-based organizations, and educators to work together to provide effective vocational-technical training to the economically disadvantaged of urban Seattle, and to serve as a national model of such cooperation. Moreover, a trained work force is a major factor in attracting new employers, and with greater minority participation in the work force, the institute is uniquely located to deliver training and education to the individuals employers must increasingly turn to for their future workers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 94. The public nonprofit corporation for the Washington institute for applied technology is hereby abolished and its powers, duties, and functions are hereby transferred to the sixth college district. The Washington institute for applied technology shall be renamed the Seattle Vocational Institute. The Seattle Vocational Institute shall become a fourth unit of the sixth college district. All references to the director or public nonprofit corporation for the Washington institute for applied technology in the Revised Code of Washington shall be construed to mean the director of the Seattle Vocational Institute.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 95. All reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, papers, or written material in the possession of the public nonprofit corporation for the Washington institute for applied technology shall be delivered to the custody of the sixth college district. All cabinets, furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property employed by the public nonprofit corporation for the Washington institute for applied technology shall be made available to the sixth college district for the use of the Seattle Vocational Institute. All funds, credits, or other assets held by the public nonprofit corporation for the Washington institute for applied technology shall be assigned to the sixth college district for the use of the institute.

Any appropriations made to the public nonprofit corporation for the Washington institute for applied technology shall, on the effective date of this section, be transferred and credited to the sixth college district.

Whenever any question arises as to the transfer of any personnel, funds, books, documents, records, papers, files, equipment, or other tangible property used or held in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties and functions transferred, the director of financial management shall make a determination as to the proper allocation and certify the same to the state agencies concerned.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 96. All contractual obligations, rules, and all pending business before the public nonprofit corporation for the Washington institute for applied technology shall be continued and acted upon by the sixth college district. All existing contracts and obligations shall remain in full force and shall be performed by the sixth college district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 97. All employees of the Washington institute for applied technology engaged in performing the powers, functions, and duties transferred are transferred to the jurisdiction of the Seattle Vocational Institute. All employees classified under chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service law, are assigned to the Seattle Vocational Institute to perform their usual duties upon the same terms as formerly, without any loss of rights, subject to any action that may be appropriate thereafter in accordance with the laws and rules governing state civil service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 98. The transfer of the powers, duties, functions, and personnel of the public nonprofit corporation for the Washington institute for applied technology shall not affect the validity of any act performed prior to the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 99. If apportionments of budgeted funds are required because of the transfers directed by sections 95 through 98 of this act, the director of financial management shall certify the apportionments to the agencies affected, the state auditor, and the state treasurer. Each of these shall make the appropriate transfer and adjustments in funds and appropriation accounts and equipment records in accordance with the certification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 100. The mission of the institute shall be to provide occupational, basic skills, and literacy education opportunities to economically disadvantaged populations in urban areas of the college district it serves. The mission shall be achieved primarily through open-entry, open-exit, short-term, competency-based basic skill, and job training programs targeted primarily to adults. The board of trustees of the sixth college district shall appoint a nine-member advisory committee consisting of equal representation from business, labor, and community representatives to provide advice and counsel to the administration of the institute and the district administration.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 101. Funding for the institute shall be included in a separate allocation to the sixth college district, and funds allocated for the institute shall be used only for purposes of the institute.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 102. The sixth college district shall conduct a survey of the capital facilities and equipment necessary to operate the program at the institute. The district shall present the survey to the state board for community and technical colleges by December 1, 1991. The board shall include the survey in its budget request to the legislature which shall consider a supplementary appropriation for the 1992-93 fiscal year to the sixth college district based on the results of this survey.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 103. The district may provide for waivers of tuition and fees and provide scholarships for students at the institute. The district may negotiate with applicable public or private service providers to conduct the instructional activities of the institute. The district may employ instructional staff or faculty. The district may also contract with private individuals for instructional services. Until at least July 1, 1993, all faculty and staff serve at the pleasure of the district. In order to allow the district flexibility in its personnel policies with the institute, the district and the institute, with reference to employees of the institute employed during an initial two-year period until July 1, 1993, are exempt from chapters 28B.16, 28B.52 (relating to collective bargaining), 41.04, 41.05, 41.06, and 41.40 RCW; from RCW 43.01.040 through 43.01.044; and from RCW 28B.50.551 and 28B.50.850 through 28B.50.875 (relating to faculty tenure).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 104. A new section is added to chapter 41.06 RCW to read as follows:

Employees of the Seattle Vocational Institute are exempt from the provisions of this chapter until July 1, 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 105. A new section is added to chapter 41.05 RCW to read as follows:

Employees of the Seattle Vocational Institute are exempt from the provisions of this chapter until July 1, 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 106. A new section is added to chapter 41.04 RCW to read as follows:

Employees of the Seattle Vocational Institute are exempt from the provisions of this chapter until July 1, 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 107. A new section is added to chapter 28B.16 RCW to read as follows:

Employees of the Seattle Vocational Institute are exempt from the provisions of this chapter until July 1, 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 108. A new section is added to chapter 41.40 RCW to read as follows:

Employees of the Seattle Vocational Institute are exempt from the provisions of this chapter until July 1, 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 109. A new section is added to chapter 28B.52 RCW to read as follows:

Employees of the Seattle Vocational Institute are exempt from the provisions of this chapter until July 1, 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 110. A new section is added to chapter 43.01 RCW to read as follows:

Employees of the Seattle Vocational Institute are exempt from RCW 43.01.040 through 43.01.044 until July 1, 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 111. Related and supplemental instruction for apprentices, coordination of instruction with job experiences, and the selection and training of teachers and coordinators for such instruction shall be the responsibility of the state board for community and technical colleges and its local community and technical colleges.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 112. A new section is added to chapter 41.56 RCW to read as follows:

In addition to the entities listed in RCW 41.56.020, this chapter shall apply to classified employees of technical colleges as provided for in section 83 of this act.

Sec. 113. RCW 28B.10.016 and 1977 ex.s. c 169 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this title:

(1) "State universities" means the University of Washington and Washington State University.

(2) "Regional universities" means Western Washington University at Bellingham, Central Washington University at Ellensburg, and Eastern Washington University at Cheney.

(3) "State college" means The Evergreen State College in Thurston county.

(4) "Institutions of higher education" or "postsecondary institutions" means the state universities, the regional universities, The Evergreen State College, ~~((and))~~ the community colleges, and the technical colleges.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 114. There is hereby established the task force on technical colleges appointed by the governor. The task force shall be chaired by the director of the state board for community and technical colleges. The task force shall consist of representatives of the state board for community and technical colleges, community colleges, and the directors of the vocational-technical institutes. The purpose of the task force shall be to reach agreement on transitional issues posed by the bringing together of technical colleges and community colleges. The areas of agreement shall include the district boundaries and service areas not specified on the effective date of this section, for technical colleges that are not specified on the effective date of this section and such other matters as are assigned to the task force by chapter ---, Laws of 1991 (this act). The director of the state board shall convene the task force within thirty days after the appointment of the members. The task force shall report on its final recommendations to the college board and the governor by December 1, 1991. Those issues remaining in dispute shall be settled by the governor or the governor's designee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 115. Title to or all interest in real estate, choses in action and all other assets, and liabilities including court claims, including but not limited to assignable contracts, cash, deposits in county funds (including any interest or premiums thereon), equipment, buildings, facilities, and appurtenances thereto held as of the effective date of this section by or for a school district and obtained identifiably with federal, state, or local funds appropriated for vocational-technical institutes purposes or postsecondary vocational educational purposes, or used or obtained with funds budgeted for postsecondary vocational educational purposes, or used or obtained primarily for vocational-technical institute educational purposes, shall, on the date on which the first board of trustees of each district takes office, vest in or be assigned to the district board. Cash, funds, accounts, or other deposits obtained or raised by a school district to pay for indebtedness, bonded or otherwise, contracted on or before the effective date of this section, for vocational-technical institute purposes shall remain with and continue to be, after February 2, 1992, an asset of the school district. Any option acquired by the school district to purchase real property which in the judgment of the school district will be used in the common school program may remain with the school district notwithstanding that such option was obtained in consideration of the purchase by such school district of other property for vocational-technical institute purposes. Unexpended funds of a common school district derived from the sale, before the effective date of this section, of bonds authorized for any purpose which includes vocational-technical institute purposes and not committed for any existing construction contract, shall remain with and continue to be an asset of such common school district, unless within thirty days after said date such common school district determines to transfer such funds to the board of trustees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 116. All powers, duties, and functions of the school district pertaining to a vocational-technical institute are transferred to the state board for community and technical colleges until the establishment of local boards of trustees with authority for the technical college. All references to the director or school district in the Revised Code of Washington shall be construed to mean the director or state board for community and technical colleges when referring to the functions transferred in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 117. All reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, papers, licenses, or written material in the possession of the school district pertaining to the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be delivered to the custody of the state board for community and technical colleges. All cabinets, furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property employed by the school district in carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be made available to the state board for community and technical colleges. All funds, credits, or other assets held in connection with the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be assigned to the state board for community and technical colleges.

Any appropriations made to the school district for carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall, on the effective date of this section, be transferred and credited to the state board for community and technical colleges.

Whenever any question arises as to the transfer of any personnel, funds, books, documents, records, papers, files, equipment, or other tangible property used or held in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties and functions transferred, the director of financial management shall make a determination as to the proper allocation and certify the same to the state agencies concerned.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 118. All employees of the school district engaged in performing the powers, functions, and duties transferred are temporarily transferred to the jurisdiction of the state board for community and technical colleges. The transfer of employees to the state board for community and technical colleges shall not constitute termination of employment or reductions in force by the school districts and shall be excluded from the requirements of RCW 28A.405.210 through 28A.405.240 and 28A.405.300 through 28A.405.380. Until the local board of trustees assumes control of the college, all classified employees are assigned to the jurisdiction of the state board for community and technical colleges to perform their usual duties upon the same terms as formerly, without any loss of rights, subject to any action that may be appropriate thereafter in accordance with chapter 41.56 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 119. All rules and all pending business before the school district pertaining to the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be continued and acted upon by the state board for community and technical colleges. All existing contracts and obligations shall remain in full force and shall be performed by the state board for community and technical colleges.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 120. The transfer of the powers, duties, functions, and personnel of the school district shall not affect the validity of any act performed prior to the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 121. If apportionments of budgeted funds are required because of the transfers directed by sections 117 through 120 of this act, the director of financial management shall certify the apportionments to the agencies affected, the state auditor, and the state treasurer. Each of these shall make the appropriate transfer and adjustments in funds and appropriation accounts and equipment records in accordance with the certification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 122. All powers, duties, and functions of the superintendent of public instruction pertaining to vocational-technical institutes are transferred to the state board for community and technical colleges. All references to the director or superintendent of public instruction in the Revised Code of Washington shall be construed to mean the director or state board for community and technical colleges when referring to the functions transferred in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 123. All reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, papers, licenses, or written material in the possession of the superintendent of public instruction pertaining to the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be delivered to the custody of the state board for community and technical colleges. All cabinets, furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property employed by the superintendent of public instruction in carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be made available to the state board for community and technical colleges. All funds, credits, or other assets held in connection with the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be assigned to the state board for community and technical colleges.

Any appropriations made to the superintendent of public instruction for carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall, on the effective date of this section, be transferred and credited to the state board for community and technical colleges.

Whenever any question arises as to the transfer of any personnel, funds, books, documents, records, papers, files, equipment, or other tangible property used or held in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties and functions transferred, the director of financial management shall make a determination as to the proper allocation and certify the same to the state agencies concerned.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 124. All employees of the superintendent of public instruction engaged in performing the powers, functions, and duties transferred are transferred to the jurisdiction of the state board for community and technical colleges. All employees classified under chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service law, are assigned to the state board for community and technical colleges to perform their usual duties upon the same terms as formerly, without any loss of rights, subject to any action that may be appropriate thereafter in accordance with the laws and rules governing chapter 28B.16 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 125. All rules and all pending business before the superintendent of public instruction pertaining to the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be continued and acted upon by the state board for community and technical colleges. All existing contracts and obligations shall remain in full force and shall be performed by the state board for community and technical colleges.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 126. The transfer of the powers, duties, functions, and personnel of the superintendent of public instruction shall not affect the validity of any act performed prior to the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 127. If apportionments of budgeted funds are required because of the transfers directed by sections 123 through 126 of this act, the director of financial management shall certify the apportionments to the agencies affected, the state auditor, and the state treasurer. Each of these shall make the appropriate transfer and adjustments in funds and appropriation accounts and equipment records in accordance with the certification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 128. All funds appropriated by the legislature in the capital budget for the 1991-93 biennium pertaining to vocational-technical institutes and to community colleges are hereby combined under the capital budget for the state board for community and technical colleges, provided that funds appropriated in the 1991-93 biennium pertaining to vocational-technical institutes or technical colleges shall be made available solely for the use of those entities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 129. Capital and (RMI) projections for vocational-technical institutes are hereby incorporated into the six-year capital plan for community colleges that begins in the 1993-95 biennium and placed under the capital plans and projections for the state board for community and technical colleges.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 130. All funds appropriated by the legislature in the operating budget for the 1991-93 biennium pertaining to vocational-technical institutes and to community colleges are combined under the operating budget for the state board for community and technical colleges, provided that funds appropriated in the 1991-93 biennium pertaining to vocational-technical institutes or technical colleges shall be made available solely for the use of those entities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 131. Title to or all interest in real estate, choses in action, and all other assets and liabilities, including court claims, including but not limited to assignable contracts, cash, deposits in county funds (including any interest or premiums thereon), equipment, buildings, facilities, and appurtenances thereto held as of the effective date of this section by or for a school district and obtained identifiably with federal, state, or local funds appropriated for vocational-technical institute purposes or postsecondary vocational educational purposes, or used or obtained with funds budgeted for vocational-technical institute purposes or postsecondary vocational education purposes, or used or obtained primarily for vocational education purposes, and all liabilities including, but not limited to court claims incurred on behalf of a vocational-technical institute by a school district, shall, on the date on which the first board of trustees of each college district takes office, vest in or be assigned to the state board for community and technical colleges. Grounds that have been used primarily as a playground for children shall continue to be made available for such use.

Cash, funds, accounts, or other deposits obtained or raised by a school district to pay for indebtedness, bonded or otherwise, contracted on or before the effective date of this section for vocational-technical institute purposes shall remain with and continue to be, after the effective date of this section, an asset of the school district.

Any option acquired by the school district to purchase real property which in the judgment of the school district will be used in the common school program may remain with the school district notwithstanding that such option was obtained in consideration of the purchase by such school district of other property for vocational-technical institute purposes.

Unexpended funds of a common school district derived from the sale of bonds issued for vocational-technical institute capital purposes and not committed for any existing construction contract, shall be transferred to the college district of which the institute is a part for application to such projects.

For the purposes of this section and to facilitate the process of allocating the assets, the board of directors of each school district in which a vocational-technical institute is located, and the director of each vocational-technical institute, shall each submit to the state board of education, and the state board for community and technical colleges within ninety days of the effective date of this section, an inventory listing all real estate, personal property, choses in action, and other assets, held by a school district which, under the criteria of this section, will become the assets of the state board for community and technical colleges.

However, assets used primarily for vocational-technical institute purposes shall include, but not be limited to, all assets currently held by school districts which have been used on an average of at least seventy-five percent of the time during the 1989-90 school year, or if acquired subsequent to July 1, 1990, since its time of acquisition, for vocational-technical institute purposes, except that facilities used during school construction and remodeling periods to house vocational-technical institute programs temporarily and facilities that were vacated by the vocational-technical institute and returned to the school district during 1990-91 are not subject to this requirement.

The ultimate decision and approval with respect to the allocation and dispositions of the assets and liabilities including court claims under this section shall be made by a task force appointed by the governor in consultation with the superintendent of public instruction and the state board for community and technical colleges. Any issues remaining in dispute shall be settled by the governor or the governor's designee. The decision of the governor, the governor's designee, or the task force may be appealed within sixty days after such decision is issued by appealing to the district court of Thurston county. The decision of the superior court may be appealed to the supreme court of the state in accordance with the provision of the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.05 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 132. If, before the effective date of this section, the use of a single building facility is being shared between an existing vocational-technical institute program and a K-12 program, the respective boards shall continue to share the use of the facility until such time as it is convenient to remove one of the two programs to another facility. The determination of convenience shall be based solely upon the best interests of the students involved.

If a vocational-technical institute district board and a common school district board are sharing the use of a single facility, the program occupying the majority of the space of such facility, exclusive of space utilized equally by both, shall determine which board will be charged with the administration and control of such facility. The determination of occupancy shall be based upon the space occupied as of January 1, 1990.

The board charged with the administration and control of such facility may share expenses with the other board for the use of the facility.

In the event that the two boards are unable to agree upon which board is to administer and control the facility or upon a fair share of expenses for the use of the facility, the governor shall appoint an arbitrator to settle the matter. The decisions of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon both boards. The expenses of the arbitration shall be divided equally by each board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 133. All funds remaining from any public or private grant, contract, or in various auxiliary enterprise accounts for vocational-technical institute purposes shall be transferred to the appropriate college district under the state board for community and technical colleges once a district board of trustees has been appointed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 134. In the event a new college district is created, the governor shall appoint new trustees to the district's board of trustees in accordance with RCW 28B.50.100.

Sec. 135. RCW 43.19.190 and 1987 c 414 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:

The director of general administration, through the state purchasing and material control director, shall:

(1) Establish and staff such administrative organizational units within the division of purchasing as may be necessary for effective administration of the provisions of RCW 43.19.190 through 43.19.1939;

(2) Purchase all material, supplies, services, and equipment needed for the support, maintenance, and use of all state institutions, colleges, community colleges, technical colleges, college districts, and universities, the offices of the elective state officers, the supreme court, the court of appeals, the administrative and other departments of state government, and the offices of all appointive officers of the state: PROVIDED, That the provisions of RCW 43.19.190 through 43.19.1937 do not apply in any manner to the operation of the state legislature except as requested by said legislature: PROVIDED, That primary authority for the purchase of specialized equipment, instructional, and research material for their own use shall rest with the colleges, community colleges, and universities: PROVIDED FURTHER, That universities operating hospitals and the state purchasing and material control director, as the agent for state hospitals as defined in RCW 72.23.010, and for health care programs provided in state correctional institutions as defined in RCW 72.65.010(3) and veterans' institutions as defined in RCW 72.36.010 and 72.36.070, may make purchases for hospital operation by participating in contracts for materials, supplies, and equipment entered into by cooperative hospital service organizations as defined in section 501(e) of the Internal Revenue Code, or its successor: PROVIDED FURTHER, That primary authority for the purchase of materials, supplies, and equipment for resale to other than public agencies shall rest with the state agency concerned: PROVIDED FURTHER, That authority to purchase services as included herein does not apply to personal services as defined in chapter 39.29 RCW, unless such organization specifically requests assistance from the division of purchasing in obtaining personal services and resources are available within the division to provide such assistance: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the authority for the purchase of insurance and bonds shall rest with the risk manager under RCW 43.19.1935 as now or hereafter amended;

(3) Provide the required staff assistance for the state supply management advisory board through the division of purchasing;

(4) Have authority to delegate to state agencies authorization to purchase or sell, which authorization shall specify restrictions as to dollar amount or to specific types of material, equipment, services, and supplies: PROVIDED, That acceptance of the purchasing authorization by a state agency does not relieve such agency from conformance with other sections of RCW 43.19.190 through 43.19.1939, as now or hereafter amended, or from policies established by the director after consultation with the state supply management advisory board: PROVIDED FURTHER, That delegation of such authorization to a state agency, including an educational institution, to purchase or sell material, equipment, services, and supplies shall not be granted, or otherwise continued under a previous authorization, if such agency is not in substantial compliance with overall state purchasing and material control policies as established herein;

(5) Contract for the testing of material, supplies, and equipment with public and private agencies as necessary and advisable to protect the interests of the state;

(6) Prescribe the manner of inspecting all deliveries of supplies, materials, and equipment purchased through the division;

(7) Prescribe the manner in which supplies, materials, and equipment purchased through the division shall be delivered, stored, and distributed;

(8) Provide for the maintenance of a catalogue library, manufacturers' and wholesalers' lists, and current market information;

(9) Provide for a commodity classification system and may, in addition, provide for the adoption of standard specifications after receiving the recommendation of the supply management advisory board;

(10) Provide for the maintenance of inventory records of supplies, materials, and other property;

(11) Prepare rules and regulations governing the relationship and procedures between the division of purchasing and state agencies and vendors;

(12) Publish procedures and guidelines for compliance by all state agencies, including educational institutions, which implement overall state purchasing and material control policies;

(13) Conduct periodic visits to state agencies, including educational institutions, to determine if statutory provisions and supporting purchasing and material control policies are being fully implemented, and based upon such visits, take corrective action to achieve compliance with established purchasing and material control policies under existing statutes when required.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 136. Sick leave accumulated by employees of vocational-technical institutes shall be transferred to the college districts without loss of time subject to the provisions of RCW 28B.50.551 and the further provisions of any negotiated agreements then in force.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 137. The state employees' benefit board shall adopt rules to preclude any preexisting conditions or limitations in existing health care service contracts for school district employees at vocational-technical institutes transferred to the state board for community and technical colleges. The board shall also provide for the disposition of any dividends or refundable reserves in the school district's health care service contracts applicable to vocational-technical institute employees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 138. If a school board has contracted to redeem general obligation bonds used for the construction or acquisition of facilities which are now to be under the administration, control, and occupancy of the college district board, the school board shall continue to redeem the bonds in accordance with the provisions of the bonds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 139. If a technical college is created after the effective date of this section, that college may contract with an adjacent college district for administrative services until such time that an existing or new college district may assume jurisdiction over the college.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 140. The legislature finds that the needs of the work force and the economy necessitate enhanced vocational education opportunities in secondary education including curriculum which integrates vocational and academic education. In order for the state's work force to be competitive in the world market, employees need competencies in both vocational/technical skills and in core essential competencies such as English, math, science/technology, geography, history, and critical thinking. Curriculum which integrates vocational and academic education reflects that many students learn best through applied learning, and that students should be offered flexible education opportunities which prepare them for both the world of work and for higher education.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 141. The superintendent of public instruction shall with the advice of the work force training and education coordinating board develop model curriculum integrating vocational and academic education at the secondary level. The curriculum shall integrate vocational education for gainful employment with education in the academic subjects of English, math, science/technology, geography, and history, and with education in critical thinking. Upon completion, the model curriculum shall be provided for consideration and use by school districts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 142. A new section is added to chapter 28A.320 RCW to read as follows:

As of the effective date of this section, school districts shall not remove facilities, equipment, or property from the jurisdiction or use of the technical colleges. This shall include direct and indirect funds other than those indirect charges provided for in the 1990-91 appropriations act. School districts shall not increase direct or indirect charges for central district administrative support for technical college programs above the percentage rate charged in the 1990-91 school year. This provision on administrative charges for technical college programs shall apply to any state and federal grants, tuition, and other revenues generated by technical college programs. School districts and the superintendent of public instruction shall cooperate fully with the technical colleges and the state board for community and technical colleges with regard to the implementation of chapter ..., Laws of 1991 (this act). No employee of a technical college may be discriminated against based on actions or opinions expressed on issues surrounding chapter ..., Laws of 1991 (this act). Any dispute related to issues contained in this section shall be resolved under section 131 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 143. During the period from the effective date of this section until September 1, 1991:

(1) The executive director of the state board for community and technical colleges, or the executive director's designee, may enter into contracts, or agreements for goods, services, and personnel, on behalf of the technical college, which are effective after September 1, 1991. The executive director, or the executive director's designee, may conduct business, including budget approval, relevant to the operation of the technical college in the period subsequent to September 1, 1991.

(2) Vocational-technical institute directors may conduct business relevant to the operation of the vocational-technical institutes. School boards and superintendents may not restrict or remove powers previously delegated to the vocational-technical institute directors during the 1990-91 school year.

(3) Technical colleges' boards of trustees appointed before September 1, 1991, shall serve in an advisory capacity to the vocational-technical institute director.

As of September 1, 1991, technical colleges may, by interlocal agreement, continue to purchase from the school districts, support services within mutually agreed upon categories at a cost not to exceed the indirect rate charged during the 1990-91 school year. No employee of a technical college may be discriminated against based on actions or opinions expressed on issues surrounding chapter ..., Laws of 1991 (this act). Any dispute related to issues contained in this section shall be resolved under section 131 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 144. The colleges in each overlapping service area shall jointly submit for approval to the state board for community and technical colleges not later than December 1, 1991, a regional planning agreement. The agreement shall provide for the ongoing interinstitutional coordination of community and technical college programs and services operated in the overlapping service area. The agreement shall include the means for the adjudication of issues arising from overlapping service areas. The agreement shall include a definitive statement of mission, scope, and purpose for each college including the nature of courses, programs, and services to be offered by each college. The statement shall include a provision that the technical colleges shall not offer courses designed for transfer to baccalaureate granting institutions. This shall not preclude such offerings provided through contracts or agreements with a community college in the service area.

Any part of the agreement that is not approved by all the colleges in the service area, shall be determined by the state board for community and technical colleges. Approved regional planning agreements shall be enforced by the full authority of the state board for community and technical colleges. Changes to the agreement are subject to state board approval.

For the purpose of creating and adopting a regional planning agreement, the trustees of the colleges in Pierce county shall form a county coordinating committee. The county coordinating committee shall consist of eight members. Each college board of trustees in Pierce county shall select two of its members to serve on the county coordinating committee. The county coordinating committee shall not employ its own staff, but shall instead utilize staff of the colleges in the county. The regional planning agreement adopted by the county coordinating committee shall include, but shall not be limited to: The items listed in this section, the transfer of credits between technical and community colleges, program articulation, and the avoidance of unnecessary duplication in programs, activities, and services.

Sec. 145. RCW 28B.52.010 and 1987 c 314 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the purpose of this chapter to strengthen methods of administering employer-employee relations through the establishment of orderly methods of communication between academic employees and the ((community)) college districts by which they are employed.

It is the purpose of this chapter to promote cooperative efforts by prescribing certain rights and obligations of the employees and employers and by establishing orderly procedures governing the relationship between the employees and their employers which procedures are designed to meet the special requirements and needs of public employment in higher education. It is the intent of this chapter to promote activity that includes the elements of open communication and access to information in a timely manner, with reasonable discussion and interpretation of that information. It is the further intent that such activity shall be characterized by mutual respect, integrity, reasonableness, and a desire on the part of the parties to address and resolve the points of concern.

Sec. 146. RCW 28B.52.020 and 1987 c 314 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Employee organization" means any organization which includes as members the academic employees of a ((community)) college district and which has as one of its purposes the representation of the employees in their employment relations with the ((community)) college district.

(2) "Academic employee" means any teacher, counselor, librarian, or department head, who is employed by any ((community)) college district, whether full or part time, with the exception of the chief administrative officer of, and any administrator in, each ((community)) college district.

(3) "Administrator" means any person employed either full or part time by the ((community)) college district and who performs administrative functions as at least fifty percent or more of his or her assignments, and has responsibilities to hire, dismiss, or discipline other employees. Administrators shall not be members of the bargaining unit unless a majority of such administrators and a majority of the bargaining unit elect by secret ballot for such inclusion pursuant to rules ((and regulations)) as adopted in accordance with RCW 28B.52.080.

(4) "Commission" means the public employment relations commission.

(5) "Unfair labor practice" means any unfair labor practice listed in RCW 28B.52.073.

(6) "Union security provision" means a provision in a collective bargaining agreement under which some or all employees in the bargaining unit may be required, as a condition of continued employment on or after the thirtieth day following the beginning of such employment or the effective date of the provision, whichever is later, to become a member of the exclusive bargaining representative or pay an agency fee equal to the periodic dues and initiation fees uniformly required as a condition of acquiring or retaining membership in the exclusive bargaining representative.

(7) "Exclusive bargaining representative" means any employee organization which has:

(a) Been certified or recognized under this chapter as the representative of the employees in an appropriate collective bargaining unit; or

(b) Before July 26, 1987, been certified or recognized under a predecessor statute as the representative of the employees in a bargaining unit which continues to be appropriate under this chapter.

(8) "Collective bargaining" and "bargaining" mean the performance of the mutual obligation of the representatives of the employer and the exclusive bargaining representative to meet at reasonable times to bargain in good faith in an effort to reach agreement with respect to wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment, such as procedures related to nonretention, dismissal, denial of tenure, and reduction in force. Prior law, practice, or interpretation shall be neither restrictive, expansive, nor determinative with respect to the scope of bargaining. A written contract incorporating any agreements reached shall be executed if requested by either party. The obligation to bargain does not compel either party to agree to a proposal or to make a concession.

In the event of a dispute between an employer and an exclusive bargaining representative over the matters that are terms and conditions of employment, the commission shall decide which items are mandatory subjects for bargaining.

Sec. 147. RCW 28B.52.030 and 1987 c 314 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

Representatives of an employee organization, which organization shall by secret ballot have won a majority in an election to represent the academic employees within its ((community)) college district, shall have the right to bargain as defined in RCW 28B.52.020(8).

Sec. 148. RCW 28B.52.035 and 1987 c 314 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

At the conclusion of any negotiation processes as provided for in RCW 28B.52.030, any matter upon which the parties have reached agreement shall be reduced to writing and acted upon in a regular or special meeting of the boards of trustees, and become part of the official proceedings of said board meeting. Provisions of written contracts relating to salary increases shall not exceed the amount or percentage established by the legislature in the appropriations act and allocated to the board of trustees by the state board for community and technical colleges ((education)). The length of term of any such agreement shall be for not more than three fiscal years. Any provisions of these agreements pertaining to salary increases will not be binding upon future actions of the legislature. If any provision of a salary increase is changed by subsequent modification of the appropriations act by the legislature, both parties shall immediately enter into collective bargaining for the sole purpose of arriving at a mutually agreed upon replacement for the modified provision.

Sec. 149. RCW 28B.52.050 and 1971 ex.s. c 196 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit any academic employee from appearing in his or her own behalf on matters relating to his or her employment relations with the ((community)) college district.

Sec. 150. RCW 28B.52.060 and 1987 c 314 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission shall conduct mediation activities upon the request of either party as a means of assisting in the settlement of unresolved matters considered under this chapter.

In the event that any matter being jointly considered by the employee organization and the board of trustees of the ((community)) college district is not settled by the means provided in this chapter, either party, twenty-four hours after serving written notice of its intended action to the other party, may, request the assistance and advice of the commission. Nothing in this section prohibits an employer and an employee organization from agreeing to substitute, at their own expense, some other impasse procedure or other means of resolving matters considered under this chapter.

Sec. 151. RCW 28B.52.070 and 1971 ex.s. c 196 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

Boards of trustees of ((community)) college districts or any administrative officer thereof shall not discriminate against academic employees or applicants for such positions because of their membership or nonmembership in employee organizations or their exercise of other rights under this chapter.

Sec. 152. RCW 28B.52.078 and 1987 c 314 s 13 are each amended to read as follows:

The right of ((community)) college faculty to engage in any strike is prohibited. The right of a board of trustees to engage in any lockout is prohibited. Should either a strike or lockout occur, the representative of the faculty or board of trustees may invoke the jurisdiction of the superior court in the county in which the labor dispute exists and such court shall have jurisdiction to issue an appropriate order against either or both parties. In fashioning an order, the court shall take into consideration not only the elements necessary for injunctive relief but also the purpose and goals of this chapter and any mitigating factors such as the commission of an unfair labor practice by either party.

Sec. 153. RCW 28B.52.090 and 1971 ex.s. c 196 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to annul or modify, or to preclude the renewal or continuation of, any lawful agreement heretofore entered into between any ((community)) college district and any representative of its employees.

Sec. 154. RCW 28B.52.200 and 1987 c 314 s 12 are each amended to read as follows:

Nothing in chapter 28B.52 RCW as now or hereafter amended shall compel either party to agree to a proposal or to make a concession, nor shall any provision in chapter 28B.52 RCW as now or hereafter amended be construed as limiting or precluding the exercise by each ((community)) college board of trustees of any powers or duties authorized or provided to it by law unless such exercise is contrary to the terms and conditions of any lawful negotiated agreement, except that other than to extend the terms of a previous contract, a board of trustees shall not take unilateral action on any unresolved issue under negotiation, unless the parties have first participated in good faith mediation or some other procedure as authorized by RCW 28B.52.060 to seek resolution of the issue.

Sec. 155. RCW 28B.52.210 and 1990 c 29 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

With respect to the community and technical colleges faculty awards trust program, the permissible scope of collective bargaining under this chapter shall be governed by RCW 28B.50.843.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 156. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) RCW 28B.50.055 and 1982 1st ex.s. c 30 s 10;
- (2) RCW 28C.15.010 and 1987 c 492 s 1;
- (3) RCW 28C.15.020 and 1987 c 492 s 2;
- (4) RCW 28C.15.030 and 1987 c 492 s 3; and

Sec. 1. RCW 29.18.022 and 1987 c 110 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The names of all candidates for partisan office, for the office of superintendent of public instruction, for public utility district office, and for all judicial offices shall be rotated in each precinct in the manner specified by RCW 29.30.040, 29.30.340, and 29.30.440. The order of names of candidates for such offices on sample ballots and on absentee ballots in primaries shall be determined in the following manner:

(1) After the close of business on the last day for candidates to file for office, the officer with whom declarations of candidacy are filed shall, from among those filings made in person and by mail in accordance with RCW 29.18.045(2), determine by lot the order in which the names of those candidates shall appear on the sample and absentee ballots under the appropriate office heading. The determination shall be done publicly, and may be witnessed by the media and by any candidate desiring to do so.

(2) For the purposes of this section and RCW 29.18.045, "filing officer" means the officer with whom declarations of candidacy for an office must be filed.

Sec. 2. RCW 29.30.025 and 1990 c 59 s 80 are each amended to read as follows:

After the close of business on the last day for candidates to file for office, the filing officer shall, from among those filings made in person and by mail, determine by lot the order in which the names of those candidates will appear on all sample and absentee ballots. In the case of candidates for city, town, and district office, except for public utility district office, this procedure shall also determine the order for candidate names on the official primary ballot used at the polling place. The determination shall be done publicly and may be witnessed by the media and by any candidate. If no primary is required for any nonpartisan office under RCW 29.15.150 or 29.21.015, the names shall appear on the general election ballot in the order determined by lot.

Sec. 3. RCW 29.21.010 and 1977 c 53 s 3 are each amended to read as follows: All cities and towns shall hold primary elections irrespective of type or form of government which shall be nonpartisan and held as provided in RCW 29.13.070, as now or hereafter amended. All districts, except those districts which require ownership of property within ((said)) the districts as a prerequisite to voting, shall hold primary elections which shall be nonpartisan and held as provided in RCW 29.13.070 as now or hereafter amended.

All names of candidates to be voted upon at city, town, and such district primary elections, except for public utility district primary elections, shall be printed upon the official primary ballot alphabetically in groups under the designation of the respective titles of the offices for which they are candidates. The name of the person who receives the greatest number of votes and of the person who receives the next greatest number of votes for each position, shall appear in that order on the city, town, or district general election ballot concerned under the designation for each respective office. In the event there are two or more offices to be filled for the same position, then names of candidates receiving the highest number of votes equal in number to twice the offices to be filled shall appear on the city, town, or district general election ballot so that the voter shall have a choice of two candidates for each position: PROVIDED, That no name of any candidate shall appear on the city, town, or district general election ballot unless said candidate shall receive at least five percent of the total votes cast for that office. The sequence of names of candidates printed on the city, town, or district general election ballot shall be in relation to the number of votes each candidate received at the primary. Names of candidates printed upon the city, town, or district primary and general election ballot need not be rotated.

The purpose of this section is to establish the holding of a primary election, subject to the exemptions as contained in RCW 29.21.015 as now or hereafter amended, as a uniform procedural requirement to the holding of city, town, and district elections and such provisions shall supersede any and all other statutes, whether general or special in nature, having different election requirements.

Sec. 4. RCW 29.30.040 and 1990 c 59 s 94 are each amended to read as follows:

At primaries, the names of candidates for federal, state, and county partisan offices, for the office of superintendent of public instruction, for public utility district office, and for judicial offices shall, for each office or position, be arranged initially in the order determined under RCW 29.30.025. Additional sets of ballots shall be prepared in which the positions of the names of all candidates for each office or position shall be changed as many times as there are candidates in the office or position in which there are the greatest number of names. As nearly as possible an equal number of ballots shall be prepared after each change. In making the changes of position between each set of ballots, the candidates for each such office in the first position under the office heading shall be moved to the last position under that office heading, and each other name shall be moved up to the position immediately above its previous position under that office heading. The effect of this rotation of the order of the names shall be that the name of each candidate for an office or position shall appear first, second, and so forth for that office or position on the ballots of a nearly equal number of registered voters in that jurisdiction. In a precinct using voting devices, the names of the candidates for each office shall appear in only one sequence in that precinct. The names of candidates for city, town, and district office on the ballot at the primary shall not be rotated.

Sec. 5. RCW 35.02.020 and 1986 c 234 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

A petition for incorporation must be signed by (~~qualified~~) registered voters resident within the limits of the proposed city or town equal in number to ten percent of the (~~votes cast~~) number of voters who voted at the last (~~state~~) general municipal election and presented to the auditor of the county in which all, or the largest portion of, the proposed city or town is located.

Sec. 6. RCW 35.02.090 and 1986 c 234 s 12 are each amended to read as follows:

The elections on the proposed incorporation and for the nomination and election of the initial elected officials shall be conducted in accordance with the general election laws of the state, except as provided in this chapter. No person is entitled to vote (~~thereat~~) unless he or she is a (~~qualified elector~~) registered voter of the county, or any of the counties in which the proposed city or town is located, and has resided within the limits of the proposed city or town for at least thirty days next preceding the date of election.

Sec. 7. RCW 35.06.020 and 1965 c 7 s 35.06.020 are each amended to read as follows:

When a petition is filed signed by ~~((electors))~~ registered voters of a city or town, in number equal to not less than one-fifth of the votes cast at the last general municipal election, seeking reorganization thereof as a city of a higher class than that indicated by the last preceding federal or state census, the city or town council to which the petition is presented shall forthwith cause a census to be taken by one or more suitable persons of all the inhabitants of such town or city in which census the full name of each person shall be plainly written, and the names alphabetically arranged and regularly numbered in complete series. The census shall be verified before an officer authorized to administer oaths and filed with the city or town clerk.

If the census shows such city or town qualified for the class named in the petition, the same proceedings shall be had as if the census were a federal or state census.

If the census shows such city or town not qualified for the class named in the petition, no further proceedings shall be had: PROVIDED, That the city or town may be reorganized as a city or town of the class indicated by the census, upon a proper petition filed within six months from the filing of such census with the clerk, without other or further census.

Sec. 8. RCW 35.06.030 and 1965 c 7 s 35.06.030 are each amended to read as follows:

If the census prescribed in RCW 35.06.020 shows that the city or town belongs to the class named in the petition, the city or town council shall cause notice to be given as in other cases, that at the ~~((the))~~ next general election of the city or town, or at a special election to be called for that purpose, the ~~((electors))~~ voters may vote for or against the advancement, their ballots to contain the words "for advancement" and the words "against advancement."

Sec. 9. RCW 35.06.050 and 1965 c 7 s 35.06.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The clerk shall lay the certificate of election and census before the council at its next regular meeting after the same has been filed in his or her office, and if ~~((it appear that all the votes cast for the advancement are not a majority of the votes cast at the election))~~ a majority of those voting on the advancement are not in favor of advancement, no further proceedings shall be had on that petition; but this shall not bar any new proceedings for such purpose.

Sec. 10. RCW 35.24.020 and 1987 c 3 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:

The government of a third class city shall be vested in a mayor, a city council of seven members, a city attorney, a clerk, a treasurer, all elective; and a chief of police, municipal judge, city engineer, street superintendent, health officer and such other appointive officers as may be provided for by statute or ordinance: PROVIDED, That the council may enact an ordinance providing for the appointment of the city clerk, city attorney, and treasurer by the mayor, which appointment shall be subject to confirmation by a majority vote of the city council. Such ordinance shall be enacted and become effective not later than thirty days prior to the first day allowed for filing declarations of candidacy for such offices when such offices are subject to an approaching city primary election. Elective incumbent city clerks, city attorneys, and city treasurers shall serve for the remainder of their unexpired term notwithstanding any appointment made pursuant to RCW 35.24.020 and 35.24.050. If a free public library and reading room is established, five library trustees shall be appointed. The city council by ordinance shall prescribe the duties and fix the compensation of all officers and employees: PROVIDED, That the provisions of any such ordinance shall not be inconsistent with any statute: PROVIDED FURTHER, That where the city council finds that the appointment of a full time city engineer is unnecessary, it may in lieu of such appointment, by resolution provide for the performance of necessary engineering services on either a part time, temporary or periodic basis by a qualified engineering firm, pursuant to any reasonable contract.

The mayor shall appoint and at his or her pleasure may remove all appointive officers except as otherwise provided herein: PROVIDED, That municipal judges shall be removed only upon conviction of misconduct or malfeasance in office, or because of physical or mental disability rendering ~~((him))~~ the judge incapable of performing the duties of his or her office. Every appointment or removal must be in writing signed by the mayor and filed with the city clerk.

Sec. 11. RCW 35.24.180 and 1965 c 7 s 35.24.180 are each amended to read as follows:

The city council and mayor shall meet on the first Tuesday in January next succeeding the date of each general municipal election, and shall take the oath of office, and shall hold regular meetings at least once during each month but not to exceed one regular meeting in each week, at such times as may be fixed by ordinance.

Special meetings may be called by the mayor by written notice ~~((delivered to each member of the council at least three hours before the time specified for the proposed meeting))~~ as provided in RCW 42.30.080. No ordinances shall be passed or contract let or entered into, or bill for the payment of money allowed at any special meeting.

All meetings of the city council shall be held within the corporate limits of the city at such place as may be designated by ordinance. All meetings of the city council must be public.

Sec. 12. RCW 35.24.190 and 1969 c 101 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

The members of the city council at their first meeting after each general municipal election and thereafter whenever a vacancy occurs, shall elect from among their number a mayor pro tempore, who shall hold office at the pleasure of the council and in case of the absence of the mayor, perform the duties of mayor except that he or she shall not have the power to appoint or remove any officer or to veto any ordinance. If a vacancy occurs in the office of mayor, the city council at their next regular meeting shall elect from among their number a mayor, who shall serve until a mayor is elected and certified at the next municipal election.

In the event of the extended excused absence or disability of a councilmember, the remaining members by majority vote may appoint a councilmember pro tempore to serve during the absence or disability.

The mayor and the mayor pro tempore shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations, take affidavits and certify them. The mayor or the mayor pro tempore when acting as mayor, shall sign all conveyances made by the city and all instruments which require the seal of the city.

Sec. 13. RCW 35.27.010 and 1965 c 7 s 35.27.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Every municipal corporation of the fourth class shall be entitled the "Town of ....." (naming it), and by such name shall have perpetual succession, may sue, and be sued in all courts and places, and in all proceedings whatever; shall have and use a common seal, alterable at the pleasure of the town authorities, and may purchase, lease, receive, hold, and enjoy real and personal property and control ~~((and)),~~ lease, sublease, convey, or otherwise dispose of the same for the common benefit.

Sec. 14. RCW 35.27.070 and 1987 c 3 s 12 are each amended to read as follows:

The government of a town shall be vested in a mayor and a council consisting of five members and a treasurer, all elective; the mayor shall appoint a clerk and a marshal; and may appoint a town attorney, pound master, street superintendent, a civil engineer, and such police and other subordinate officers and employees as may be provided for by ordinance. All appointive officers and employees shall hold office at the pleasure of the mayor and shall not be subject to confirmation by the town council.

Sec. 15. RCW 35.27.130 and 1990 c 212 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

The mayor and members of the town council may be reimbursed for actual expenses incurred in the discharge of their official duties upon presentation of a claim therefor and its allowance and approval by resolution of the town council. The mayor and members of the council may also receive such salary as the council may fix by ordinance.

The treasurer and treasurer-clerk shall severally receive at stated times a compensation to be fixed by ordinance.

The compensation of all other officers and employees shall be fixed from time to time by the council.

Any town that provides a pension for any of its employees under a plan not administered by the state must notify the state auditor of the existence of the plan at the time of an audit of the town by the auditor. No town may establish a pension plan for its employees that is not administered by the state, except that any defined contribution plan in existence as of January 1, 1990, is deemed to have been authorized. No town that provides a defined contribution plan for its employees as authorized by this section may make any material changes in the terms or conditions of the plan after June 7, 1990.

Sec. 16. RCW 35.27.270 and 1965 c 7 s 35.27.270 are each amended to read as follows:

The town council shall meet on the second Tuesday in January succeeding the date of the general municipal election, shall take the oath of office, and shall hold regular meetings at least once each month at such times as may be fixed by ordinance. Special meetings may be called at any time by the mayor or by three ~~((councilmen))~~ councilmembers, by written notice ~~((delivered to each member at least three hours before the time specified for the proposed meeting))~~ as provided in RCW 42.30.080. No resolution or order for the payment of money shall be passed at any other than a regular meeting. No such resolution or order shall be valid unless passed by the votes of at least three ~~((councilmen))~~ councilmembers.

All meetings of the council shall be held within the corporate limits of the town, at such places as may be designated by ordinance and shall be public.

Sec. 17. RCW 35.27.280 and 1965 c 107 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

A majority of the ~~((councilmen))~~ councilmembers shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a lesser number may adjourn from time to time and may compel the attendance of absent members in such manner and under such penalties as may be prescribed by ordinance.

In the event of the extended excused absence or disability of a councilmember, the remaining members by majority vote may appoint a councilmember pro tempore to serve during the absence or disability.

The mayor shall preside at all meetings of the council. The mayor shall have a vote only in case of a tie in the votes of the ~~((councilmen))~~ councilmembers. In the absence of the mayor the council may appoint a president pro tempore; in the absence of the clerk, the mayor, or president pro tempore, shall appoint one of the councilmembers as clerk pro tempore. The council may establish rules for the conduct of its proceedings and punish any members or other person for disorderly behavior at any meeting. At the desire of any member, the ayes and noes shall be taken on any question and entered in the journal.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. A new section is added to chapter 35.21 RCW to read as follows:

(1) It is the purpose of this section to provide a means whereby all cities and towns may obtain, through a single source, information regarding ordinances of other cities and towns that may be of assistance to them in enacting appropriate local legislation.

(2) For the purposes of this section, (a) "clerk" means the city or town clerk or other person who is lawfully designated to perform the recordkeeping function of that office, and (b) "municipal research council" means the municipal research council created by chapter 43.110 RCW.

(3) The clerk of every city and town is directed to provide to the municipal research council or its designee, promptly after adoption, a copy of each of its regulatory ordinances and such other ordinances or kinds of ordinances as may be described in a list or lists promulgated by the municipal research council or its designee from time to time, and may provide such copies without charge. The municipal research council may provide that information to the entity with which it contracts for the provision of municipal research and services, in order to provide a pool of information for all cities and towns in the state of Washington.

(4) This section is intended to be directory and not mandatory.

Sec. 19. RCW 35A.12.010 and 1985 c 106 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The government of any noncharter code city or charter code city electing to adopt the mayor-council plan of government authorized by this chapter shall be vested in an elected mayor and an elected council. The council of a noncharter code city having less than twenty-five hundred inhabitants shall consist of five members; when there are twenty-five hundred or more inhabitants, the council shall consist of seven members: PROVIDED, That if the population of a city after having become a code city decreases from twenty-five hundred or more to less than twenty-five hundred, it shall continue to have a seven member council. If, after a city has become a mayor-council code city, its population increases to twenty-five hundred or more inhabitants, the number of councilmanic offices in such city may increase from five to seven members upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the existing council to increase the number of councilmanic offices in the city. When the population of a mayor-council code city having five councilmanic offices increases to five thousand or more inhabitants, the number of councilmanic offices in the city shall increase from five to seven members. In the event of an increase in the number of councilmanic offices, the city council shall, by majority vote, pursuant to RCW 35A.12.050, appoint two persons to serve in these offices until the next municipal general election, at which election one person shall be elected for a two-year term and one person shall be elected for a four-year term: PROVIDED, That both persons shall be elected to a two-year term when (a) the city council has divided the city into wards pursuant to RCW 35A.12.180, and (b) the terms of office of a majority of the other councilmanic offices expire at such election. The number of inhabitants shall be determined by the most recent official state or federal census or determination by the state office of financial management. A charter adopted under the provisions of this title, incorporating the mayor-council plan of government set forth in this chapter, may provide for an uneven number of councilmen not exceeding eleven.

A noncharter code city of less than five thousand inhabitants which has elected the mayor-council plan of government and which has seven councilmanic offices may establish a five-member council in accordance with the following procedure. At least six months prior to a municipal general election, the city council shall adopt an ordinance providing for reduction in the number of councilmanic offices to five. The ordinance shall specify which two councilmanic offices, the terms of which expire at the next general election, are to be terminated. The ordinance shall provide for the renumbering of council positions and shall also provide for a two-year extension of the term of office of a retained councilmanic office, if necessary, in order to comply with RCW 35A.12.040.

Sec. 20. RCW 35A.39.010 and 1967 ex.s. c 119 s 35A.39.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Every code city shall keep a journal of minutes of its legislative meetings with orders, resolutions and ordinances passed, and records of the proceedings of any city department, division or commission performing quasi judicial functions as required by ordinances of the city and general laws of the state and shall keep such records open to the public as required by RCW 42.32.030 and shall keep and preserve all public records and publications or reproduce and destroy the same as provided by Title 40 RCW. Each code city (~~shall provide three copies of each of its ordinances of general application to the association of Washington cities without charge and~~) may duplicate and sell copies of its ordinances at fees reasonably calculated to defray the cost of such duplication and handling.

Sec. 21. RCW 41.08.040 and 1973 1st ex.s. c 154 s 60 are each amended to read as follows:

Immediately after appointment the commission shall organize by electing one of its members (~~(chairman)~~) chair and hold regular meetings at least once a month, and such additional meetings as may be required for the proper discharge of their duties.

They shall appoint a secretary and chief examiner, who shall keep the records of the commission, preserve all reports made to it, superintend and keep a record of all examinations held under its direction, and perform such other duties as the commission may prescribe.

The secretary and chief examiner shall be appointed as a result of competitive examination which examination may be either original and open to all properly qualified citizens of the city, town or municipality, or promotional and limited to persons already in the service of the fire department or of the fire department and other departments of said city, town or municipality, as the commission may decide. The secretary and chief examiner may be subject to suspension, reduction or discharge in the same manner and subject to the same limitations as are provided in the case of members of the fire department. It shall be the duty of the civil service commission:

(1) To make suitable rules and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter. Such rules and regulations shall provide in detail the manner in which examinations may be held, and appointments, promotions, transfers, reinstatements, demotions, suspensions and discharges shall be made, and may also provide for any other matters connected with the general subject of personnel administration, and which may be considered desirable to further carry out the general purposes of this chapter, or which may be found to be in the interest of good personnel administration. Such rules and regulations may be changed from time to time. The rules and regulations and any amendments thereof shall be printed, mimeographed or multigraphed for free public distribution. Such rules and regulations may be changed from time to time.

(2) All tests shall be practical, and shall consist only of subjects which will fairly determine the capacity of persons examined to perform duties of the position to which appointment is to be made, and may include tests of physical fitness and/or of manual skill.

(3) The rules and regulations adopted by the commission shall provide for a credit (~~of ten percent~~) in accordance with RCW 41.04.010 in favor of all applicants for appointment under civil service, who, in time of war, or in any expedition of the armed forces of the United States, have served in and been honorably discharged from the armed forces of the United States, including the army, navy, and marine corps and the American Red Cross. These credits apply to entrance examinations only.

(4) The commission shall make investigations concerning and report upon all matters touching the enforcement and effect of the provisions of this chapter, and the rules and regulations prescribed hereunder; inspect all institutions, departments, offices, places, positions and employments affected by this chapter, and ascertain whether this chapter and all such rules and regulations are being obeyed. Such investigations may be made by the commission or by any commissioner designated by the commission for that purpose. Not only must these investigations be made by the commission as aforesaid, but the commission must make like investigation on petition of a citizen, duly verified, stating that irregularities or abuses exist, or setting forth in concise language, in writing, the necessity for such investigation. In the course of such investigation the commission or designated commissioner, or chief examiner, shall have the power to administer oaths, subpoena and require the attendance of witnesses and the production by them of books, papers, documents and accounts appertaining to the investigation and also to cause the deposition of witnesses residing within or without the state to be taken in the manner prescribed by law for like depositions in civil actions in the superior court; and the oaths administered hereunder and the subpoenas issued hereunder shall have the same force and effect as the oaths administered by a superior court judge in his or her judicial capacity; and the failure upon the part of any person so subpoenaed to comply with the provisions of this section shall be deemed a violation of this chapter, and punishable as such.

(5) All hearings and investigations before the commission, or designated commissioner, or chief examiner, shall be governed by this chapter and by rules of practice and procedure to be adopted by the commission, and in the conduct thereof neither the commission, nor designated commissioner shall be bound by the technical rules of evidence. No informality in any proceedings or hearing, or in the manner of taking testimony before the commission or designated commissioner, shall invalidate any order, decision, rule or regulation made, approved or confirmed by the commission: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That no order, decision, rule or regulation made by any designated commissioner conducting any hearing or investigation alone shall be of any force or effect whatsoever unless and until concurred in by at least one of the other two members.

(6) To hear and determine appeals or complaints respecting the administrative work of the personnel department; appeals upon the allocation of positions; the rejection of an examination, and such other matters as may be referred to the commission.

(7) Establish and maintain in card or other suitable form a roster of officers and employees.

(8) Provide for, formulate and hold competitive tests to determine the relative qualifications of persons who seek employment in any class or position and as a result thereof establish eligible lists for the various classes of positions, and to provide that persons laid off because of curtailment of expenditures, reduction in force, and for like causes, head the list in the order of their seniority, to the end that they shall be the first to be reemployed.

(9) When a vacant position is to be filled, to certify to the appointing authority, on written request, the name of the person highest on the eligible list for the class. If there are no such lists, to authorize provisional or temporary appointment list of such class. Such temporary or provisional appointment shall not continue for a period longer than four months; nor shall any person receive more than one provisional appointment or serve more than four months as a provisional appointee in any one fiscal year.

(10) Keep such records as may be necessary for the proper administration of this chapter.

Sec. 22. RCW 41.12.040 and 1937 c 13 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

Immediately after appointment the commission shall organize by electing one of its members (~~chairman~~) chair and hold regular meetings at least once a month, and such additional meetings as may be required for the proper discharge of their duties.

They shall appoint a secretary and chief examiner, who shall keep the records for the commission, preserve all reports made to it, superintend and keep a record of all examinations held under its direction, and perform such other duties as the commission may prescribe.

The secretary and chief examiner shall be appointed as a result of competitive examination which examination may be either original and open to all properly qualified citizens of the city, town, or municipality, or promotional and limited to persons already in the service of the police department or of the police department and other departments of said city, town, or municipality, as the commission may decide. The secretary and chief examiner may be subject to suspension, reduction, or discharge in the same manner and subject to the same limitations as are provided in the case of members of the police department. It shall be the duty of the civil service commission:

(1) To make suitable rules and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter. Such rules and regulations shall provide in detail the manner in which examinations may be held, and appointments, promotions, transfers, reinstatements, demotions, suspensions, and discharges shall be made, and may also provide for any other matters connected with the general subject of personnel administration, and which may be considered desirable to further carry out the general purposes of this chapter, or which may be found to be in the interest of good personnel administration. Such rules and regulations may be changed from time to time. The rules and regulations and any amendments thereof shall be printed, mimeographed, or multigraphed for free public distribution. Such rules and regulations may be changed from time to time;

(2) All tests shall be practical, and shall consist only of subjects which will fairly determine the capacity of persons examined to perform duties of the position to which appointment is to be made, and may include tests of physical fitness and/or of manual skill;

(3) The rules and regulations adopted by the commission shall provide for a credit (~~of ten percent~~) in accordance with RCW 41.04.010 in favor of all applicants for appointment under civil service, who, in time of war, or in any expedition of the armed forces of the United States, have served in and been honorably discharged from the armed forces of the United States, including the army, navy, and marine corps and the American Red Cross. These credits apply to entrance examinations only;

(4) The commission shall make investigations concerning and report upon all matters touching the enforcement and effect of the provisions of this chapter, and the rules and regulations prescribed hereunder; inspect all institutions, departments, offices, places, positions, and employments affected by this chapter, and ascertain whether this chapter and all such rules and regulations are being obeyed. Such investigations may be made by the commission or by any commissioner designated by the commission for that purpose. Not only must these investigations be made by the commission as aforesaid, but the commission must make like investigation on petition of a citizen, duly verified, stating that irregularities or abuses exist, or setting forth in concise language, in writing, the necessity for such investigation. In the course of such investigation the commission or designated commissioner, or chief examiner, shall have the power to administer oaths, subpoena and require the attendance of witnesses and the production by them of books, papers, documents, and accounts appertaining to the investigation, and also to cause the deposition of witnesses residing within or without the state to be taken in the manner prescribed by law for like depositions in civil actions in the superior court; and the oaths administered hereunder and the subpoenas issued hereunder shall have the same force and effect as the oaths administered by a superior court judge in his or her judicial capacity; and the failure upon the part of any person so subpoenaed to comply with the provisions of this section shall be deemed a violation of this chapter, and punishable as such;

(5) Hearings and Investigations: How conducted. All hearings and investigations before the commission, or designated commissioner, or chief examiner, shall be governed by this chapter and by rules of practice and procedure to be adopted by the commission, and in the conduct thereof neither the commission, nor designated commissioner shall be bound by the technical rules of evidence. No informality in any proceedings or hearing, or in the manner of taking testimony before the commission or designated commissioner, shall invalidate any order, decision, rule or regulation made, approved or confirmed by the commission: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That no order, decision, rule or regulation made by any designated commissioner conducting any hearing or investigation alone shall be of any force or effect whatsoever unless and until concurred in by at least one of the other two members;

(6) To hear and determine appeals or complaints respecting the administrative work of the personnel department; appeals upon the allocation of positions; the rejection of an examination, and such other matters as may be referred to the commission;

(7) Establish and maintain in card or other suitable form a roster of officers and employees;

(8) Provide for, formulate and hold competitive tests to determine the relative qualifications of persons who seek employment in any class or position and as a result thereof establish eligible lists for the various classes of positions, and to provide that ~~((men))~~ persons laid off because of curtailment of expenditures, reduction in force, and for like causes, head the list in the order of their seniority, to the end that they shall be the first to be reemployed;

(9) When a vacant position is to be filled, to certify to the appointing authority, on written request, the name of the person highest on the eligible list for the class. If there are no such lists, to authorize provisional or temporary appointment list of such class. Such temporary or provisional appointment shall not continue for a period longer than four months; nor shall any person receive more than one provisional appointment or serve more than four months as provisional appointee in any one fiscal year;

(10) Keep such records as may be necessary for the proper administration of this chapter.

Sec. 23. RCW 42.17.310 and 1991 c 1 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The following are exempt from public inspection and copying:

(a) Personal information in any files maintained for students in public schools, patients or clients of public institutions or public health agencies, or welfare recipients.

(b) Personal information in files maintained for employees, appointees, or elected officials of any public agency to the extent that disclosure would violate their right to privacy.

(c) Information required of any taxpayer in connection with the assessment or collection of any tax if the disclosure of the information to other persons would (i) be prohibited to such persons by RCW 82.32.330 or (ii) violate the taxpayer's right to privacy or result in unfair competitive disadvantage to the taxpayer.

(d) Specific intelligence information and specific investigative records compiled by investigative, law enforcement, and penology agencies, and state agencies vested with the responsibility to discipline members of any profession, the nondisclosure of which is essential to effective law enforcement or for the protection of any person's right to privacy.

(e) Information revealing the identity of persons who file complaints with investigative, law enforcement, or penology agencies, other than the public disclosure commission, if disclosure would endanger any person's life, physical safety, or property. If at the time the complaint is filed the complainant indicates a desire for disclosure or nondisclosure, such desire shall govern. However, all complaints filed with the public disclosure commission about any elected official or candidate for public office must be made in writing and signed by the complainant under oath.

(f) Test questions, scoring keys, and other examination data used to administer a license, employment, or academic examination.

(g) Except as provided by chapter 8.26 RCW, the contents of real estate appraisals, made for or by any agency relative to the acquisition or sale of property, until the project or prospective sale is abandoned or until such time as all of the property has been acquired or the property to which the sale appraisal relates is sold, but in no event shall disclosure be denied for more than three years after the appraisal.

(h) Valuable formulae, designs, drawings, and research data obtained by any agency within five years of the request for disclosure when disclosure would produce private gain and public loss.

(i) Preliminary drafts, notes, recommendations, and intra-agency memorandums in which opinions are expressed or policies formulated or recommended except that a specific record shall not be exempt when publicly cited by an agency in connection with any agency action.

(j) Records which are relevant to a controversy to which an agency is a party but which records would not be available to another party under the rules of pretrial discovery for causes pending in the superior courts.

(k) Records, maps, or other information identifying the location of archaeological sites in order to avoid the looting or deprecation of such sites.

(l) Any library record, the primary purpose of which is to maintain control of library materials, or to gain access to information, which discloses or could be used to disclose the identity of a library user.

(m) Financial information supplied by or on behalf of a person, firm, or corporation for the purpose of qualifying to submit a bid or proposal for (a) a ferry system construction or repair contract as required by RCW 47.60.680 through 47.60.750 or (b) highway construction or improvement as required by RCW 47.28.070.

(n) Railroad company contracts filed with the utilities and transportation commission under RCW 81.34.070, except that the summaries of the contracts are open to public inspection and copying as otherwise provided by this chapter.

(o) Financial and commercial information and records supplied by private persons pertaining to export services provided pursuant to chapters 43.163 ((RCW)) and ((chapter)) 53.31 RCW.

(p) Financial disclosures filed by private vocational schools under chapter 28C.10 RCW.

(q) Records filed with the utilities and transportation commission or attorney general under RCW 80.04.095 that a court has determined are confidential under RCW 80.04.095.

(r) Financial and commercial information and records supplied by businesses during application for loans or program services provided by chapters 43.163 ((RCW and chapters)), 43.31, 43.63A, and 43.168 RCW.

(s) Membership lists or lists of members or owners of interests of units in timeshare projects, subdivisions, camping resorts, condominiums, land developments, or common-interest communities affiliated with such projects, regulated by the department of licensing, in the files or possession of the department.

(t) All applications for public employment, including the names of applicants, resumes, and other related materials submitted with respect to an applicant.

(u) The residential addresses and residential telephone numbers of employees or volunteers of a public agency which are held by the agency in personnel records, employment or volunteer rosters, or mailing lists of employees or volunteers.

(v) The residential addresses and residential telephone numbers of the customers of a public utility contained in the records or lists held by the public utility of which they are customers.

(w) Information obtained by the board of pharmacy as provided in RCW 69.45.090.

(x) Information obtained by the board of pharmacy and its representatives as provided in RCW 69.41.044 and 69.41.280.

(y) Financial information, business plans, examination reports, and any information produced or obtained in evaluating or examining a business and industrial development corporation organized or seeking certification under chapter 31.24 RCW.

(z) Financial and commercial information supplied to the state investment board by any person when the information relates to the investment of public trust or retirement funds and when disclosure would result in loss to such funds or in private loss to the providers of this information.

(aa) Financial and valuable trade information under RCW 51.36.120.

(bb) Effective April 19, 1991, the work and home addresses, other than the city of residence, of a person shall remain undisclosed or be omitted from all documents made available for public review if that person requests in writing, under oath, that these addresses be kept private because disclosure would endanger his or her life, physical safety, or property. This provision does not in any way restrict the sharing or collection of information by state and local governmental agencies required for the daily administration of their duties. The secretary of state shall administer this provision and establish the procedures and rules that are necessary for its operation. An agency that has not been furnished with a request for confidentiality of address information is not liable for damages resulting from its disclosure of the information. For purpose of service of process, the secretary of state shall serve as agent for each person who submits a request under this subsection. A request shall be of no force or effect if the requester does not include a statement, along with or part of the request, designating the secretary of state as agent of the requester for purposes of service of process.

(cc) Personal information in files maintained for patients or clients who have been provided emergency medical services by a publicly operated emergency medical service provider.

(2) Except for information described in subsection (1)(c)(i) of this section and confidential income data exempted from public inspection pursuant to RCW 84.40.020, the exemptions of this section are inapplicable to the extent that information, the disclosure of which would violate personal privacy or vital governmental interests, can be deleted from the specific records sought. No exemption may be construed to permit the nondisclosure of statistical information not descriptive of any readily identifiable person or persons.

(3) Inspection or copying of any specific records exempt under the provisions of this section may be permitted if the superior court in the county in which the record is maintained finds, after a hearing with notice thereof to every person in interest and the agency, that the exemption of such records is clearly unnecessary to protect any individual's right of privacy or any vital governmental function.

(4) Agency responses refusing, in whole or in part, inspection of any public record shall include a statement of the specific exemption authorizing the withholding of the record (or part) and a brief explanation of how the exemption applies to the record withheld.

Sec. 24. RCW 54.08.010 and 1985 c 469 s 55 are each amended to read as follows:

At any general election held in an even-numbered year, the county legislative authority of any county in this state may, or, on petition of ten percent of the ((qualified electors)) registered voters of the county based on the total vote cast in the last general county election held in an even-numbered year, shall, by resolution, submit to the voters of the county the proposition of creating a public utility district which shall be coextensive with the limits of the county as now or hereafter established. A form of petition for the creation of a public utility district shall be submitted to the county auditor within ten months prior to the election at which the proposition is to be submitted to the voters. Petitions shall be filed with the county auditor not less than four months before the election and the county auditor shall within thirty days examine the signatures thereof and certify to the sufficiency or insufficiency thereof. If the petition be found to be insufficient, it shall be returned to the persons filing the same, who may amend or add names thereto for ten days, when the same shall be returned to the county auditor, who shall have an additional fifteen days to examine the same and attach his or her certificate thereto. No person having signed the petition shall be allowed to withdraw his or her name therefrom after the filing of the same with the county auditor: PROVIDED, That each signature shall be dated and that no signature dated prior to the date on which the form of petition was submitted to the county auditor shall be valid. Whenever the petition shall be certified to as sufficient, the county auditor shall forthwith transmit the same, together with his or her certificate of sufficiency attached thereto, to the county legislative authority which shall submit the proposition to the voters of the county at the next general election in an even-numbered year occurring forty-five days after submission of the proposition to the legislative authority. The notice of the election shall state the boundaries of the proposed public utility district and the object of such election, and shall in other respects conform to the requirements of the general laws of the state of Washington, governing the time and manner of holding elections. In submitting the question to the voters for their approval or rejection, the proposition shall be expressed on the ballot substantially in the following terms:

- Public Utility District No. .... YES ( )
- Public Utility District No. .... NO ( )

Any petition for the formation of a public utility district may describe a less area than the entire county in which the petition is filed, the boundaries of which shall follow the then existing precinct boundaries and not divide any voting precinct; and in the event that such a petition is filed the county legislative authority shall fix a date for a hearing on such petition, and shall publish the petition, without the signatures thereto appended, for two weeks prior to the date of the hearing, together with a notice stating the time of the meeting when the petition will be heard. The publication, and all other publications required by this act, shall be in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the district is situated. The hearing on the petition may be adjourned from time to time, not exceeding four weeks in all. If upon the final hearing the county legislative authority shall find that any lands have been unjustly or improperly included within the proposed public utility district and will not be benefited by inclusion therein, it shall change and fix the boundary lines in such manner as it shall deem reasonable and just and conducive to the public welfare and convenience, and make and enter an order establishing and defining the boundary lines of the proposed public utility district: PROVIDED, That no lands shall be included within the boundaries so fixed lying outside the boundaries described in the petition, except upon the written request of the owners of those lands. Thereafter the same procedure shall be followed as prescribed in this chapter for the formation of a public utility district including an entire county, except that the petition and election shall be confined solely to the lesser public utility district.

No public utility district created after September 1, 1979, shall include any other public utility district within its boundaries: PROVIDED, That this paragraph shall not alter, amend, or modify provisions of chapter 54.32 RCW.

Sec. 25. RCW 54.08.070 and 1979 ex.s. c 240 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

Any district which does not own or operate electric facilities for the generation, transmission or distribution of electric power on March 25, 1969, or any district which hereafter does not construct or acquire such electric facilities within ten years of its creation, shall not construct or acquire any such electric facilities without the approval of such proposal by the voters of such district: PROVIDED, That a district shall have the power to construct or acquire electric facilities within ten years following its creation by action of its commission without voter approval of such action.

At any general election held in an even-numbered year, the proposal to construct or acquire electric facilities may be submitted to the voters of the district by resolution of the public utility district commission or shall be submitted to the voters of the district by the county legislative authority on petition of ten percent of the (~~qualified electors~~) registered voters of (~~such~~) the district, based on the total vote cast in the last general county election held in an even-numbered year. A form of petition for the construction or acquisition of electric facilities by the public utility district shall be submitted to the county auditor within ten months prior to the election at which such proposition is to be submitted to the voters. Petitions shall be filed with the county auditor not less than four months before such election and the county auditor shall within thirty days examine the signatures thereof and certify to the sufficiency or insufficiency thereof. If such petition is found to be insufficient, it shall be returned to the persons filing the same, who may amend and add names thereto for ten days, when the same shall be returned to the county auditor, who shall have an additional fifteen days to examine the same and attach his or her certificate thereto. No person having signed such petition shall be allowed to withdraw his or her name therefrom after the filing of the same with the county auditor: PROVIDED, That each signature shall be dated and that no signature dated prior to the date on which the form of petition was submitted to the county auditor shall be valid. Whenever such petition shall be certified to as sufficient, the county auditor shall forthwith transmit the same, together with his or her certificate of sufficiency attached thereto, to the county legislative authority which shall submit such proposition to the voters of (~~said~~) the district at the next general election in an even-numbered year occurring forty-five days after submission of the proposition to (~~said~~) the legislative authority. The notice of the election shall state the object of such election, and shall in other respects conform to the requirements of the general laws of Washington, governing the time and manner of holding elections.

The proposal submitted to the voters for their approval or rejection, shall be expressed on the ballot substantially in the following terms:

Shall Public Utility District No. .... of ..... County construct or acquire electric facilities for the generation, transmission or distribution of electric power?

Yes ( )

No ( )

Within ten days after such election, the election board of the county shall canvass the returns, and if at such election a majority of the voters voting on such proposition shall vote in favor of such construction or acquisition of electric facilities, the district shall be authorized to construct or acquire electric facilities.

Sec. 26. RCW 54.08.080 and 1969 c 106 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

Any district now or hereafter created under the laws of this state may be dissolved, as hereinafter provided, by a majority vote of the (~~qualified electors~~) registered voters of (~~such~~) the district at any general election upon a resolution of the district commission, or upon petition being filed and such proposition for dissolution submitted to (~~said electors~~) the voters in the same manner provided by chapter 54.08 RCW for the creation of public utility districts. The returns of the election on such proposition for dissolution shall be canvassed and the results declared in the same manner as is provided by RCW 54.08.010: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That any such proposition to dissolve a district shall not be submitted to the ~~((electors))~~ voters if within five years prior to the filing of such petition or resolution such district has undertaken any material studies or material action relating to the construction or acquisition of any utility properties or if such district at the time of the submission of such proposition is actually engaged in the operation of any utility properties.

If a majority of the ~~((votes east))~~ registered voters voting on the dissolution at the election favor dissolution, the commission of the district shall petition, without any filing fee, the superior court of the county in which such district is located for an order authorizing the payment of all indebtedness of the district and directing the transfer of any surplus funds or property to the general fund of the county in which such district is organized.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. Sections 1 and 3 of this act shall expire July 1, 1992.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. Sections 2 and 4 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1992.

Sec. 29. RCW 35.02.078 and 1986 c 234 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:

An election shall be held in the area proposed to be incorporated to determine whether the proposed city or town shall be incorporated if the boundary review board approves or modifies and approves the proposal, or if the county legislative authority does not disapprove the proposal as provided in RCW 35.02.070. Voters at this election shall determine if the area is to be incorporated.

The initial election on the question of incorporation shall be held at the next special election date specified in RCW 29.13.020 that occurs sixty or more days after the final public hearing by the county legislative authority or authorities, or the approval or modification and approval by the boundary review board or boards. The county legislative authority or authorities shall call for this election and, if the incorporation is approved, shall call for other elections to elect the elected officials as provided in this section. If the vote in favor of the incorporation receives ~~((forty))~~ thirty percent or less of the total vote on the question of incorporation, no new election on the question of incorporation for the area or any portion of the area proposed to be incorporated may be held for a period of three years from the date of the election in which the incorporation failed. This three-year prohibition shall not apply to any proposed city or town in which such election was held after September 1, 1990, but before the effective date of this section and the vote in favor of the incorporation received thirty percent or more of the total on the question of incorporation.

If the incorporation is authorized as provided by RCW 35.02.120, separate elections shall be held to nominate and elect persons to fill the various elective offices prescribed by law for the population and type of city or town, and to which it will belong. The primary election to nominate candidates for these elective positions shall be held at the next special election date, as specified in RCW 29.13.020, that occurs sixty or more days after the election on the question of incorporation or, if the incorporation election was held in April or May, at a special election by mail ballots to be held on the third Tuesday in July. The election to fill these elective positions shall be held at the next special election date, as specified in RCW 29.13.020, that occurs thirty or more days after certification of the results of the primary election or, if the primary election was held in April or May, at a special election by mail ballots to be held on the third Tuesday in July.

Sec. 30. RCW 35.14.010 and 1985 c 281 s 24 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever unincorporated territory is annexed by a city or town pursuant to the provisions of chapter 35.13 RCW, or whenever unincorporated territory is annexed to a code city pursuant to the provisions of chapter 35A.14 RCW, community municipal corporations may be organized ((in the manner provided for in this 1967 amendatory act)) for the territory comprised of all or a part of an unincorporated area annexed to a city or town pursuant to chapter 35.13 or 35A.14 RCW, if: (1) The service area is such as would be eligible for incorporation as a city or town; or (2) the service area has a minimum population of not less than three hundred inhabitants and ten percent of the population of the annexing city or town; or (3) the service area has a minimum population of not less than one thousand inhabitants.

Whenever two or more cities are consolidated pursuant to the provisions of chapter 35.10 RCW, a community municipal corporation may be organized within one or more of the consolidating cities.

No territory shall be included in the service area of more than one community municipal corporation. Whenever a new community municipal corporation is formed embracing all of the territory of an existing community municipal corporation, the prior existing community municipal corporation shall be deemed to be dissolved on the effective date of the new corporation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. A new section is added to chapter 35.10 RCW to read as follows:

Voters of one or more of the cities that are proposed to be consolidated may have a ballot proposition submitted to them authorizing the simultaneous creation of a community municipal corporation and election of community council members as provided for under chapter 35.14 RCW. The joint resolution that initiates a consolidation under RCW 35.10.410 may provide for the question of whether a community municipal corporation shall be created to be submitted to the voters of one or more of the cities that are proposed to be consolidated as a separate ballot measure from the ballot measure authorizing the consolidation or as part of the same ballot measure authorizing the consolidation. The petitions that are signed by the voters of each of the cities that are proposed to be consolidated under RCW 35.10.420 may provide for the question of whether to create a community municipal corporation to be submitted to the voters of that city as a separate ballot measure from the ballot measure authorizing the consolidation or as part of the same ballot measure authorizing the consolidation.

The ballots shall contain the words "For consolidation and creation of community municipal corporation" and "Against consolidation and creation of community municipal corporation," or "For creation of community municipal corporation" and "Against creation of community municipal corporation," as the case may be. Approval of either optional ballot proposition shall be by simple majority vote of the voters voting on the proposition, but the consolidation must be authorized by the voters of each city proposed to be consolidated before a community municipal corporation is created.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. A new section is added to chapter 35A.14 RCW to read as follows:

The resolution initiating the annexation of territory under RCW 35A.14.015, and the petition initiating the annexation of territory under RCW 35A.14.020, may provide for the simultaneous creation of a community municipal corporation and election of community council members as provided for in chapter 35.14 RCW, as separate ballot measures or as part of the same ballot measure authorizing the annexation, or for the simultaneous inclusion of the annexed area into a named existing community municipal corporation operating under chapter 35.14 RCW, as separate ballot measures or as part of the same ballot measure authorizing the annexation. If the petition so provides for the creation of a community municipal corporation and election of community council members, the petition shall describe the boundaries of the proposed service area, state the number of voters residing therein as nearly as may be, and pray for the election of community council members by the voters residing in the service area.

The ballots shall contain the words "For annexation and creation of community municipal corporation" and "Against annexation and creation of community municipal corporation," or "For creation of community municipal corporation" and "Against creation of community municipal corporation," as the case may be. Approval of either optional ballot proposition shall be by simple majority vote of the voters voting on the proposition, but the annexation must be authorized before a community municipal corporation is created.

Sec. 33. RCW 70.44.040 and 1990 c 259 s 39 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of Title 29 RCW relating to elections shall govern public hospital districts, except that: (1) The total vote cast upon the proposition to form a hospital district shall exceed forty percent of the total number of votes cast in the precincts comprising the proposed district at the preceding general and county election; and (2) in public hospital districts encompassing portions of more than one county, the total vote cast upon the proposition to form the district shall exceed forty percent of the total number of votes cast in each portion of each county lying within the proposed district at the next preceding general and county election. If the public hospital district is coextensive with the limits of a county and if the county is not operating under a home rule charter, then, at the first election of commissioners and until any change is made in the boundaries of the public hospital district commissioner districts in accordance with RCW 29.70.100, one public hospital district commissioner shall be chosen from each of the three county commissioner districts of the county in which the public hospital district is located. If the public hospital district comprises only a portion of a county or encompasses portions of more than one county, or if the public hospital district is located in a county operating under a home rule charter, then the petition for the formation of the public hospital district shall describe three public hospital district commissioner districts, numbered consecutively, having approximately equal population and boundaries, following ward and precinct lines, as far as practicable, and, at the first election of commissioners and until any change is made in the boundaries of the public hospital district commissioner districts in accordance with RCW 29.70.100, one commissioner shall be elected from each of the public hospital district commissioner districts described in the petition. If the boundaries described in the petition for the formation of a public hospital district are changed prior to the election on the proposition for the formation of the public hospital district, then the auditor of the county in which the public hospital district is located or, if the public hospital district encompasses portions of more than one county, the auditor of the county in which the largest portion of the public hospital district is located shall redetermine the boundaries of the commissioner districts in accordance with the above provisions. Any candidate for a particular public hospital district commissioner district position must be a registered voter of that commissioner district. Public hospital district commissioners shall hold office for the term of six years and until their successors are elected and qualified, each term to commence on the first day in January following the election. At the election at which the proposition is submitted to the voters as to whether a district shall be formed, three commissioners shall be elected to hold office, respectively, for the terms of two, four, and six years. All candidates shall be voted upon by the entire district, and the candidate residing in commissioner district No. 1 receiving the highest number of votes in the hospital district shall hold office for the term of six years; the candidate residing in commissioner district No. 2 receiving the highest number of votes in the hospital district shall hold office for the term of four years; and the candidate residing in commissioner district No. 3 receiving the highest number of votes in the hospital district shall hold office for the term of two years. The first commissioners to be elected shall take office immediately when qualified in accordance with RCW 29.01.135. Each term of the initial commissioners shall date from the time above specified following the organizational election, but shall also include the period intervening between the organizational election and the first day of January following the next district general election: PROVIDED, That in public hospital districts ((encompassing portions of more than one county, the total vote cast upon the proposition to form the district shall exceed forty percent of the total number of votes cast in each portion of each county lying within the proposed district at the next preceding general county election. The portion of the proposed district located within each county shall constitute a separate commissioner district. There shall be three district commissioners whose terms shall be six years. Each district shall be designated by the name of the county in which it is located. All candidates for commissioners shall be voted upon by the entire district. Not more than one commissioner shall reside in any one district: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in the event there are only two districts then two commissioners may reside in one district. The term of each commissioner shall commence on the first day in January in each year following his election. At the election at which the proposition is submitted to the voters as to whether a district shall be formed, three commissioners shall be elected to hold office, respectively, for the terms of two, four, and six years. The candidate receiving the highest number of votes within the district, as constituted by the election, shall serve a term of six years; the candidate receiving the next highest number of votes shall hold office for a term of four years; and the candidate receiving the next highest number of votes shall hold office for a term of two years: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the holding of each such term of office shall be subject to the residential requirements for district commissioners hereinbefore set forth in this section)) created with five or seven commissioners pursuant to RCW 70.44.051 the commissioners shall be elected and the initial terms of office shall be determined as provided in RCW 70.44.055 and 70.44.057.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. This act shall not be construed as affecting any public hospital district created prior to the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. Tax levies authorized by voter approval of a ballot proposition submitted by a city under RCW 84.55.050 at an election held prior to 1988 for the purpose of funding the cost of library improvements, plus the costs of borrowing such amount for up to twenty years, may be levied in the amounts and in the years authorized by the voters in addition to the levies otherwise allowed by this chapter until the expiration of the limited period or satisfaction of the limited purpose so authorized, whichever comes first, notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 84.55.050(2). This act is curative and shall apply retroactively to all limited ballot propositions described herein. The elections at which any such ballot propositions were submitted, and the tax levies authorized thereby, shall be valid and effective in all respects. This act shall not be construed to adversely affect the validity or reduce the amount of any tax levies authorized by any other ballot proposition heretofore or hereafter submitted under RCW 84.55.050.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. It is the purpose of this chapter to regulate certain adult entertainment businesses to promote the health, safety, and welfare of the citizens of the state of Washington. The legislature finds that these businesses, when unregulated, promote illegal activities including obscenity, pornography, assaults, drug offenses, sexual offenses, and prostitution.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Adult entertainment business" means a nightclub, bar, restaurant, theater, concert hall, auditorium, or similar commercial establishment that regularly features live performances by nude or seminude persons.

(2) "Applicant" means a person or persons applying for a license under this chapter.

(3) "Business license" means a license issued by the department under this chapter to an adult entertainment business.

(4) "Department" means the department of licensing.

(5) "Director" means the director of licensing.

(6) "Licensee" means a person or persons in whose name a license has been issued under this chapter.

(7) "Nude" means a state of dress that exposes a person's bare buttock, anus, genital, or breast, or a state of dress which fails to cover opaquely a person's buttock, anus, genital, or areola of the breast.

(8) "Own or operate" means a person has a substantial interest in an adult entertainment business.

(9) "Performer's license" means a license issued by the department under this chapter to a performer in an adult entertainment business.

(10) "Seminude" means a state of dress other than nude that, with respect to a person's torso, opaquely covers only the buttocks, anus, genitals, and areolae of the breasts, as well as portions of the body covered by supporting straps or devices.

(11) "Substantial interest" means the interest possessed by a person when:

(a) With respect to a sole proprietorship, the person, or his or her marital community, owns, operates, manages, or conducts, directly or indirectly, the business, or any part of it; or

(b) With respect to a partnership, the person or his or her marital community, shares in any of the profits, or potential profits, of the business; or

(c) With respect to a corporation, the person or his or her spouse, is an officer, or director, or the person or his or her marital community is a holder, directly or beneficially, of ten percent or more of any class of stock of the business; or

(d) With respect to an organization not covered in (a), (b), or (c) of this subsection, the person or his or her spouse, is an officer or manages the business affairs, or the person or his or her marital community is owner of or otherwise controls ten percent or more of the assets of the business; or

(e) The person, or his or her marital community, furnishes ten percent or more of the capital, whether in cash, goods, or services, for the operation of the business during any calendar year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 38. (1) It is a gross misdemeanor for a person to own, operate, or manage, or act as the agent for one who owns, operates, or manages, an adult entertainment business in the state of Washington unless the person has obtained a business license pursuant to this chapter.

(2) It is a gross misdemeanor for a performer to appear nude or seminude in an adult entertainment business unless the performer has obtained a performer's license pursuant to this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 39. (1) Each owner, operator, manager, or agent of a business must obtain and maintain a separate business license.

(2) An application for a business license must be made on a form provided by the department. The applicant shall provide: (a) The name, address, phone number, and date of birth of the applicant; (b) two passport-size color photographs of the applicant; (c) the applicant's principal occupation; (d) a description of the proposed establishment; (e) the nature of the proposed business; (f) the trade name of the proposed business; (g) location of the proposed business; (h) a list of all prior business license numbers; (i) a record of all prior criminal convictions for any offense listed under section 56(1) of this act; and (j) such other information as the department may require by rule.

(3) The department shall require the applicant to submit to fingerprinting to assist the Washington state patrol in conducting a background check under section 64 of this act.

(4) At the time of applying, the applicant shall post notice of the application at the proposed business location in a form and manner as required by the department by rule.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 40. (1) The department shall grant or refuse a business license in accordance with this chapter.

(2) Every business license shall be issued in the name of the applicant or applicants, and the holder of a license shall not allow any other person to use it.

(3) No business license may be issued to:

(a) An individual, partnership, or corporation, unless qualified to obtain a business license, as provided in this chapter;

(b) An applicant whose business is conducted by a manager or agent, unless the manager or agent possesses the same qualifications as are required of the business licensee;

(c) A corporation, unless it was created under the laws of the state of Washington or holds a certificate of authority to transact business in the state of Washington;

(d) An applicant who is under eighteen years of age;

(e) An applicant who has failed to provide information reasonably necessary for issuance of the business license or who has falsely answered a question or request for information on the application form; or

(f) An applicant who has proposed the location of the business within a zone where such use is prohibited by state or local authority.

(4) Upon receipt of an application for a business license, the department shall give notice of the application to the chief executive officer of the incorporated city or town, if the application is for a business license within an incorporated city or town, or to the county legislative authority, if the application is for a business license outside the boundaries of incorporated cities or towns, or to all the appropriate executive officers in the case of a regional adult entertainment business plan. Upon the granting of a business license under this chapter the department shall send a duplicate of the license or written notification to the chief executive officer of the incorporated city or town in which the license is granted, or to the county legislative authority if the license is granted outside the boundaries of incorporated cities or towns, or to all chief executive officers of impacted cities, towns, or counties participating in a regional adult entertainment business plan.

(5)(a) Except as set forth in (b) of this subsection, the department shall not issue an initial business license covering any premises, if at the time the initial license is to be issued the premises are within a buffer zone of one thousand feet surrounding any residential zone, single or multifamily dwelling, church, park, playground, day care center, or elementary or secondary school. The one thousand feet shall be measured on a straight line between the closest points of the property on which the premises are located and the property of the residential zone, dwelling, church, park, playground, day care center, or school. For the purpose of this section, church means a building erected for and used exclusively for religious worship and schooling or other activity in connection with the worship and schooling. The department may rely on the measurements of the relevant local jurisdictions in determining the boundaries of a buffer zone.

(b) The legislative authority of a city, town, or county:

(i) Shall establish a buffer zone less than that established in (a) of this subsection if an applicant submits adequate documentation supporting a variance from the buffer zone and the legislative authority finds (A) that the adverse secondary effects of adult entertainment businesses on public health, safety, or welfare would not be greater as a result of the smaller buffer zone or (B) that failure to establish a smaller buffer zone will effectively prohibit any adult entertainment business in the city, town, or county and there is no regional agreement with neighboring cities, towns, or counties that provides adequate opportunities for such businesses; or

(ii) May establish a buffer zone greater than that established in (a) of this subsection if the legislative authority finds (A) that the adverse secondary effects of adult entertainment businesses on public health, safety, or welfare would not be reasonably and effectively mitigated without the larger buffer zone and (B) that establishing a larger buffer zone will not effectively prohibit any adult entertainment business in the city, town, or county, or that there is a regional agreement with neighboring cities, towns, or counties that provides adequate opportunities for such businesses.

(c) If the location requirements established pursuant to this chapter effectively preclude location of adult entertainment businesses within a city, town, or county, such city, town, or county shall join with neighboring cities, towns, or counties in a regional adult entertainment business location plan in order to provide reasonable opportunity for location of adult entertainment businesses in the regional area.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 41. (1) The department may, subject to the provisions of this chapter and as provided by rule, suspend or cancel a business license; and all rights of the licensee under this chapter shall be suspended or terminated, as the case may be.

(2) Upon receipt of notice of the suspension or cancellation of a business license, the licensee shall forthwith deliver the license to the department. Where the business license has been suspended only, the department shall return the license to the licensee at the expiration or termination of the period of suspension.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 42. (1) Every business license issued under this chapter is subject to all conditions and restrictions imposed by this chapter. All conditions and restrictions imposed by the department in the issuance of an individual business license shall be listed on the face of the individual license along with the trade name, address, and expiration date.

(2) Every business licensee shall post and keep posted its license in a conspicuous place on the premises.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 43. The department shall not issue a business license to a transferee until the transferee has applied for and received a business license under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 44. (1)(a) At the time of the original issuance of a business license, the department shall prorate the license fee charged to the new licensee according to the number of calendar quarters, or portion thereof, remaining until the first renewal of that license is required.

(b) Unless canceled sooner, every business license issued by the department shall expire at midnight of the thirtieth day of June of the fiscal year for which it was issued. However, if the department deems it feasible and desirable to do so, it may establish, by rule pursuant to chapter 34.05 RCW, a system for staggering the annual renewal dates for business licenses. If such a system of staggered annual renewal dates is established by the department, the business license fees provided by this chapter shall be appropriately prorated during the first year that the system is in effect.

(2) The adult entertainment business license fee shall be established under RCW 43.24.086, but shall be at least seven hundred fifty dollars per annum, and shall be paid at the time of application. One-half of the fee shall be refunded if the application is withdrawn prior to a denial of the license by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 45. (1) The holder of a business license may not assign or transfer the license, except that a transfer may be made to the surviving spouse of a deceased licensee if the transferor and transferee were maintaining a marital community and the license was issued in the name of one or both of them.

(2) A change in an owner or operator of a licensed business or a change in the manager or agent of a business must be reported to the department within thirty days, and any new owner, operator, manager, or agent must meet the requirements of section 40 of this act. The department shall charge a fee established under RCW 43.24.086 that is at least seventy-five dollars for the processing of a change in an owner, operator, manager, or agent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 46. The department in suspending a business license may further provide in the order of suspension that such suspension shall be vacated upon payment to the department by the licensee of a monetary penalty in an amount fixed by the department but not to exceed ten thousand dollars.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 47. (1)(a) An application for a performer's license must be made on a form provided by the department. The performer shall provide the following: (i) The performer's name, including all aliases, address, phone number, and date of birth; (ii) two passport-size color photographs of the performer; (iii) principal occupation; (iv) the name and address of any business, if known, at which the performer will perform; (v) a list of all prior performer's license numbers; (vi) a record of all prior criminal convictions for any offense listed under section 56(1) of this act; and (v) such other information as the department may require by rule.

(b) The department shall require the applicant to submit to fingerprinting to assist the Washington state patrol in conducting a background check under section 64 of this act.

(c) Identifying information provided by an applicant under this subsection is exempt from public disclosure, and the department shall not disclose such information except to the extent necessary to carry out its responsibilities under this chapter, or to comply with a request from another governmental entity, or to comply with a court order.

(2) No performer's license may be issued to:

(a) A performer who is under eighteen years of age;

(b) A performer who has failed to provide information reasonably necessary for issuance of the license or has falsely answered a question or request for information on the application form.

(3) The performer's license fee shall be established under RCW 43.24.086, but shall be at least seventy-five dollars per annum and shall be paid at the time of application. One-half of the fee shall be refunded if the application is withdrawn prior to denial of the license by the department.

(4) Every performer shall keep his or her performer's license on the premises while performing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 48. Every business licensed under section 40 of this act shall file monthly reports with the department pursuant to rule. The reports shall include the following: (1) The name, address, date of birth, and the performer's license number for all performers appearing nude or seminude during the month; and (2) such further information as the department may require.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 49. An action, order, or decision of the department as to a denial of an application for the issuance or renewal of a business or performer's license or as to a revocation, suspension, or modification of a license is subject to the applicable provisions of chapter 34.05 RCW.

(1) An opportunity for a hearing must be provided a licensee prior to a revocation or modification of a business or performer's license and, except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, prior to the suspension of a license.

(2) No hearing shall be required until demanded by the applicant or licensee.

(3) The department may summarily suspend a business or performer's license for a period of up to thirty days without a prior hearing if it finds that public health, safety, or welfare imperatively requires emergency action, and incorporates a finding to that effect in its order; and proceedings for revocation or other action must be promptly instituted and determined.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 50. No provision in this chapter limits the authority of cities, towns, and counties from further regulating adult entertainment businesses as to hours of operation, location of premises, or manner of operation.

The provisions of this chapter relating to the licensing of any adult entertainment business shall not be exclusive and any city, town, or county within whose jurisdiction the adult entertainment business is located may require any registrations or licenses, or charge any fee for the same or similar purpose; and nothing in this chapter shall limit or abridge the authority of any city, town, or county to levy and collect a general and nondiscriminatory license fee levied upon all businesses, or to levy a tax based upon gross business conducted by any firm within the city, town, or county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 51. The director has the following authority:

(1) To adopt, amend, or repeal such rules as are deemed necessary to carry out this chapter;

(2) To investigate all complaints or reports of conduct in violation of this chapter and to hold hearings as provided in this chapter;

(3) To issue subpoenas and administer oaths in connection with any investigation, hearing, or proceeding held under this chapter;

(4) To take or cause depositions to be taken and use other discovery procedures as needed in any investigation, hearing, or proceeding held under this chapter;

(5) To compel attendance of witnesses at hearings;

(6) To take emergency action ordering summary suspension of a business or performer's license, or restriction or limitation of the licensee's practice pending further disciplinary action under section 56 of this act;

(7) To use the office of administrative hearings as authorized in chapter 34.12 RCW to conduct hearings. However, the director or the director's designee shall make the final decision in the hearing;

(8) To enter into contracts for professional services determined to be necessary for adequate enforcement of this chapter;

(9) To grant or deny business or performer's license applications, and to impose any sanction against a license applicant or license holder provided by this chapter;

(10) To establish or increase in accordance with RCW 43.24.086 business and performer's license fees above the minimum set by this chapter;

(11) To enter into an assurance of discontinuance in lieu of issuing a statement of charges or conducting a hearing. The assurance shall consist of a statement of the law in question and an agreement not to violate the stated provision. The applicant or license holder shall not be required to admit to any violation of the law, nor shall the assurance be construed as such an admission. Violation of an assurance under this subsection is grounds for disciplinary action;

(12) To designate individuals authorized to sign subpoenas and statements of charges; and

(13) To employ such investigative, administrative, and clerical staff as necessary for the enforcement of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 52. A person, including but not limited to a customer, licensee, corporation, organization, or state or local governmental agency, may submit a written complaint to the department charging a business or performer's license holder or applicant with a violation of this chapter. If the department determines that the complaint merits investigation, or if the department has reason to believe, without a formal complaint, that a license holder or applicant may have violated this chapter, the department may investigate to determine whether there has been a violation. A person who files a complaint under this section in good faith is immune from suit in any civil action related to the filing or contents of the complaint.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 53. (1) If the department determines, upon investigation pursuant to section 52 of this act, that there is reason to believe a violation of this chapter has occurred, a statement of charge or charges may be prepared and served upon the business or performer's license holder or applicant. The statement of charge or charges shall be accompanied by a notice that the license holder or applicant may request a hearing to contest the charge or charges. The license holder or applicant must file a request for hearing with the department within twenty days after being served the statement of charges. The failure to request a hearing constitutes a default, upon which the director or the director's designee may enter an order pursuant to RCW 34.05.440(1).

(2) If a hearing is requested, the time of the hearing shall be scheduled but the hearing shall not be held earlier than thirty days after service of the charges upon the license holder or applicant. A notice of hearing shall be issued at least twenty days prior to the hearing, specifying the time, date, and place of the hearing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 54. The procedures governing adjudicative proceedings before agencies under chapter 34.05 RCW, the administrative procedure act, govern all hearings requested under section 53 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 55. (1) Upon a finding that a business or performer's license holder or applicant has engaged in conduct or violated conditions that are grounds for denial of a license or for disciplinary action under section 56 of this act, the director may issue an order providing for one or any combination of the following:

- (a) Revocation of the license;
- (b) Suspension of the license for a fixed or indefinite term;
- (c) Censure or reprimand;
- (d) Compliance with conditions of probation for a designated period of time;
- (e) Payment of a fine for each violation of this chapter, not to exceed one thousand dollars per violation, which shall be paid to the department;
- (f) Denial of the license request.

(2) Any of the actions under this section may be totally or partly stayed by the director. All costs associated with compliance with orders issued under this section are the obligation of the license holder or applicant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 56. The following conduct, acts, or conditions, constitute grounds for denial of a license or for disciplinary action against any business or performer's license holder or applicant under the jurisdiction of this chapter:

(1) With respect to a license holder, commission of an act that constitutes an obscenity or pornography offense under chapter 9.68 RCW, a sexual exploitation of children offense under chapter 9.68A RCW, an assault under chapter 9A.36 RCW, a sexual offense under chapter 9A.44 RCW, a prostitution or indecent exposure offense under chapter 9A.88 RCW, a drug offense under chapter 69.41, 69.50, 69.52, or 69.53 RCW, or a substantially similar ordinance adopted by the legislative authority of a city, town, or county or other state statute. Conviction in a criminal proceeding is not a condition precedent to disciplinary action under this section. Upon a conviction, however, the judgment and sentence is conclusive evidence at an ensuing disciplinary hearing of the guilt of the license holder or applicant of the crime described in the indictment or information, and of the person's violation of the statute on which it is based. For the purposes of this section, conviction includes a plea of guilty or nolo contendere and also includes all sentence deferrals or suspensions;

(2) Misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact in obtaining a license or in license reinstatement;

(3) All advertising that is false, fraudulent, or misleading;

(4) Failure to cooperate with the department in the conduct of an investigation by:

- (a) Not furnishing any requested papers or documents;
- (b) Not furnishing in writing a full and complete explanation regarding the matter under investigation; or
- (c) Not responding to subpoenas issued by the director, whether or not the recipient of the subpoena is the subject of the investigation;

(5) Failure to comply with an order issued by the director or an assurance of discontinuance entered into with the director;

(6) Aiding and abetting an unlicensed person to own or operate a business or to perform when a license is required;

(7) Interference with an investigation or disciplinary proceeding by willful misrepresentation of facts before the director or the director's authorized representative, or by the use of threats or harassment against any witness to prevent him or her from providing evidence in a disciplinary proceeding or any other legal action;

(8) Violating this chapter or any rule adopted pursuant to this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 57. (1) The director shall investigate complaints under this chapter concerning ownership or operation of a business without a license or performing without a license. In the investigation of the complaints, the director shall have the same authority as provided the director under section 51 of this act. The director shall issue a cease and desist order to a person after notice and hearing and upon a determination that the person has owned or operated a business without a license, or has performed without a license, in violation of this chapter. If the director makes a written finding of fact that the public interest will be irreparably harmed by delay in issuing an order, the director may issue a temporary cease and desist order before the notice and hearing. A cease and desist order does not relieve the person so owning or operating a business or performing without a license from criminal prosecution. The remedy of a cease and desist order is in addition to any criminal liability. A cease and desist order is conclusive proof of unlicensed practice and may be enforced through remedial sanctions under chapter 7.21 RCW. Enforcement of the cease and desist order under chapter 7.21 RCW may be used in addition to, or as an alternative to, any provisions for enforcement of agency orders set out in chapter 34.05 RCW.

(2) The attorney general, a county prosecuting attorney, the department, or any person may, in accordance with the law of this state governing injunctions, maintain an action to enjoin any person owning or operating a business, or performing, without a license required by this chapter from continuing such ownership, operation, or performing until the required license is secured. However, an injunction does not relieve a person from criminal prosecution and the remedy by injunction is in addition to any criminal liability.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 58. A person or business that violates an injunction issued under this chapter shall pay a civil penalty, as determined by the court, of not more than twenty-five thousand dollars, which shall be paid to the department. For the purpose of this section, the superior court issuing any injunction shall retain jurisdiction and the cause shall be continued, and in such cases the attorney general acting in the name of the state may petition for the recovery of civil penalties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 59. (1) The director or individuals acting on the director's behalf are immune from suit in any civil or criminal action based on any disciplinary proceedings or other official acts performed in the course of their duties in the administration and enforcement of this chapter.

(2) Legislative authorities or officials of cities, towns, and counties are immune from suit in any civil or criminal action based on any official acts performed in the course of their duties in the administration or enforcement of this chapter.

In any challenge to location, distance, or conduct requirements imposed by the legislative authority of a city, town, or county pursuant to this chapter, the legislative authority may request that the state assume some or all of the obligation to defend the constitutionality of this chapter. The attorney general may grant or deny the request. Nothing in this chapter creates any state liability for actions of a city, town, or county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 60. Existing adult entertainment businesses are exempt from any location restrictions imposed by this chapter until January 1, 1995.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 61. It is a gross misdemeanor for any person to permit any person under the age of eighteen on the premises of any adult entertainment business under his or her control.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 62. It is a class C felony for any person to employ or permit any person under the age of eighteen to appear nude or seminude on the premises of any adult entertainment business under his or her control.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 63. Sections 36 through 62 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 18 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 64. A new section is added to chapter 43.43 RCW to read as follows:

The department of licensing may request information from the Washington state patrol criminal identification system regarding the conviction of offenses listed under section 56(1) of this act for any applicant or for a license holder who is the subject of an investigation under section 52 of this act.

Sec. 65. RCW 7.48A.040 and 1985 c 235 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No person shall with knowledge maintain a moral nuisance.

(2) Upon a determination that a defendant has with knowledge maintained a moral nuisance, the court shall impose a civil fine and judgment of an amount as the court shall determine to be appropriate. In imposing the civil fine, the court shall consider the wilfulness of the defendant's conduct and the profits made by the defendant attributable to the lewd matter, lewdness, or prostitution, whichever is applicable. In no event shall the civil fine exceed the greater of ~~((twenty-five))~~ fifty thousand dollars or these profits.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 66. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 67. Sections 36 through 69 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1992. The department of licensing may take such steps before then, including the adoption of rules, as are necessary to ensure that sections 36 through 69 of this act are implemented on January 1, 1992.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 68. The municipal research council, created under chapter 43.110 RCW, in conjunction with the association of Washington cities, shall report to the legislature by January 1, 1993, regarding the implementation of the regulation of certain adult entertainment businesses as provided in sections 36 through 67 of this act. The report shall also examine the effectiveness of these provisions in reducing illegal activity on or near the adult entertainment businesses, and contain further suggested legislative enactments designed to reduce illegal activities associated with these businesses, including, but not limited to, obscenity, pornography, assaults, drug offenses, sexual offenses, and prostitution.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 69. The provisions of the open public meetings act, contained in chapter 42.30 RCW, shall apply to all meetings conducted by the governing body of a public agency regarding the regulation of adult entertainment businesses pursuant to sections 36 through 68 of this act.

Sec. 70. RCW 46.61.525 and 1979 ex.s. c 136 s 86 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It ~~((shall be))~~ is unlawful for any person to operate a motor vehicle in a negligent manner. For the purpose of this section to "operate in a negligent manner" ~~((shall be construed to mean))~~ means the operation of a vehicle in such a manner as to endanger or be likely to endanger any persons or property ~~((:—PROVIDED HOWEVER, That any))~~. A person operating a motor vehicle on private property with the consent of the owner in a manner consistent with the owner's consent ~~((shall not be))~~ is not guilty of negligent driving.

~~((The offense of operating a vehicle in a negligent manner shall be considered to be))~~ (2)(a) A person who operates a motor vehicle in a negligent manner and while having intoxicating liquor or any drug in his or her system, but not in an amount sufficient to constitute a violation of RCW 46.61.502, is guilty of negligent driving in the first degree.

(b) Negligent driving in the first degree is a misdemeanor. Upon conviction of negligent driving in the first degree, a person may be punished by suspension of driving privileges for thirty days and a fine of up to five hundred dollars, but no imprisonment may be imposed. Whenever a person is convicted of negligent driving in the first degree, the clerk of the court in which the conviction occurred shall immediately notify the department of licensing of the conviction.

(c) The court shall order a diagnostic evaluation for any person convicted of negligent driving in the first degree. The evaluation and treatment recommendations shall be prepared by a treatment facility approved by the department of social and health services or a probation department qualified under RCW 46.61.516. A copy of the report shall be forwarded to the department of licensing. Based on the diagnostic evaluation the convicted person shall be required to complete a course in an information school approved by the department of social and health services or a more intensive treatment program as approved under chapter 70.96A RCW.

(d) The court shall suspend the thirty-day suspension of driving privileges if the convicted person is ordered to complete an information school or a more intensive treatment program. If the convicted person fails to successfully complete the school or program the court shall immediately notify the department of the failure. Upon receipt of such notice, the department shall suspend the person's privilege to drive for thirty days.

(3) A person who operates a motor vehicle in a negligent manner not amounting to negligent driving in the first degree is guilty of negligent driving in the second degree. Negligent driving in the second degree is a lesser offense than, but included in, the offense of operating a vehicle in a reckless manner, and any person charged with operating a vehicle in a reckless manner may be convicted of the lesser offense of ~~((operating a vehicle in a))~~ negligent ~~((manner))~~ driving in the second degree. Any person violating ~~((the provisions of))~~ this ~~((section will be))~~ subsection is guilty of a misdemeanor: PROVIDED, That the director may not revoke any license under this ~~((section))~~ subsection, and such offense is not punishable by imprisonment or by a fine exceeding two hundred fifty dollars.

Sec. 71. RCW 46.61.515 and 1985 c 352 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every person who is convicted of a violation of RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504 shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than twenty-four consecutive hours nor more than one year, and by a fine of not less than two hundred fifty dollars and not more than one thousand dollars. Unless the judge finds the person to be indigent, two hundred fifty dollars of the fine shall not be suspended or deferred. Twenty-four consecutive hours of the jail sentence shall not be suspended or deferred unless the judge finds that the imposition of the jail sentence will pose a risk to the defendant's physical or mental well-being. Whenever the mandatory jail sentence is suspended or deferred, the judge must state, in writing, the reason for granting the suspension or deferral and the facts upon which the suspension or deferral is based. ~~((The court may impose conditions of probation that may include nonrepetition, alcohol or drug treatment, supervised probation, or other conditions that may be appropriate. The convicted person shall, in addition, be required to complete a course in an alcohol information school approved by the department of social and health services or more intensive treatment in a program approved by the department of social and health services, as determined by the court.))~~ The court shall order a diagnostic evaluation ~~((and treatment recommendation shall be prepared under the direction of the court by an alcoholism agency))~~ for any person convicted under RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504. The evaluation and treatment recommendations shall be prepared by a treatment facility approved by the department of social and health services or a ~~((qualified))~~ probation department (~~(approved by the department of social and health services)~~) qualified under RCW 46.61.516. A copy of the report shall be forwarded to the department of licensing. Based on the diagnostic evaluation (~~(, the court shall determine whether)~~) the convicted person shall be required to complete a course in an (~~alcohol~~) information school approved by the department of social and health services or a more intensive treatment (~~(in a)~~) program as approved ((by the department of social and health services)) under chapter 70.96A RCW. Standards for approval for alcohol treatment programs under this chapter shall be prescribed by rule under the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.05 RCW. The courts shall periodically review the costs of alcohol information schools and treatment programs within their jurisdictions.

(2) On a second or subsequent conviction for driving or being in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs within a five-year period a person shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than seven days nor more than one year and by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars and not more than two thousand dollars. District courts and courts organized under chapter 35.20 RCW are authorized to impose such fine. Unless the judge finds the person to be indigent, five hundred dollars of the fine shall not be suspended or deferred. The jail sentence shall not be suspended or deferred unless the judge finds that the imposition of the jail sentence will pose a risk to the defendant's physical or mental well-being. Whenever the mandatory jail sentence is suspended or deferred, the judge must state, in writing, the reason for granting the suspension or deferral and the facts upon which the suspension or deferral is based. If, at the time of a second or subsequent conviction, the driver is without a license or permit because of a previous suspension or revocation, the minimum mandatory sentence shall be ninety days in jail and a two hundred dollar fine. The penalty so imposed shall not be suspended or deferred. The person shall, in addition, be required to complete a diagnostic evaluation by ~~((an alcoholism agency))~~ a treatment facility approved by the department of social and health services or a ~~((qualified))~~ probation department ~~((approved by the department of social and health services))~~ qualified under RCW 46.61.516. The report shall be forwarded to the department of licensing. If the person is found to have an alcohol or drug problem requiring treatment, the person shall complete treatment at an approved ~~((alcoholism))~~ treatment facility ~~((or approved drug treatment center))~~.

In addition to any nonsuspendable and nondeferrable jail sentence required by this subsection, the court shall sentence a person to a term of imprisonment not exceeding one hundred eighty days and shall suspend but shall not defer the sentence for a period not exceeding two years. ~~((The suspension of the sentence may be conditioned upon nonrepetition, alcohol or drug treatment, supervised probation, or other conditions that may be appropriate. The sentence may be imposed in whole or in part upon violation of a condition of suspension during the suspension period.))~~

(3) The license or permit to drive or any nonresident privilege of any person convicted of driving or being in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs shall:

(a) On the first conviction under either offense, be suspended by the department until the person reaches age nineteen or for ninety days, whichever is longer. The department of licensing shall determine the person's eligibility for licensing based upon the reports provided by the designated ~~((alcoholism agency))~~ treatment facility or probation department and shall deny reinstatement until enrollment and participation in an approved program has been established and the person is otherwise qualified;

(b) On a second conviction under either offense within a five-year period, be revoked by the department for one year. The department of licensing shall determine the person's eligibility for licensing based upon the reports provided by the designated ~~((alcoholism agency))~~ treatment facility or probation department and shall deny reinstatement until satisfactory progress in an approved program has been established and the person is otherwise qualified;

(c) On a third or subsequent conviction of driving or being in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs, vehicular homicide, or vehicular assault, or any combination thereof within a five-year period, be revoked by the department for two years.

(4) In any case provided for in this section, where a driver's license is to be revoked or suspended, the revocation or suspension shall be stayed and shall not take effect until after the determination of any appeal from the conviction which may lawfully be taken, but in case the conviction is sustained on appeal the revocation or suspension takes effect as of the date that the conviction becomes effective for other purposes.

(5) For purposes of determining punishment under subsection (2) or (3) of this section, a prior conviction for negligent driving in the first degree shall be treated the same as a prior conviction for driving or being in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 72. A new section is added to chapter 35.21 RCW to read as follows:

Each city and town, including a code city, that plans and zones must authorize the siting of schools in all areas within its planning jurisdiction by either outright permitted use or conditional use permits.

Sec. 73. RCW 35.20.270 and 1977 ex.s. c 108 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The position of warrant ~~((server))~~ officer is hereby created and maintained by the city either within the courts created by chapter 35.20 RCW or within the city police department. The number and qualifications of said warrant ~~((servers))~~ officers shall be fixed by ordinance, and their compensation shall be paid by the city.

(2) Said warrant ~~((servers))~~ officers shall be vested only with the special authority to make arrests authorized by ~~((the))~~ warrants ((which they have been directed to serve by courts created by chapter 35.20 RCW)) and for crimes committed coincidental to warrant service.

(3) All criminal and civil process issuing out of courts created under this title shall be directed to the chief of police of the city served by the court and/or to the sheriff of the county in which the court is held and/or the warrant ~~((servers of the court))~~ officers and be by them executed according to law in any county of this state.

(4) No process of courts created under this title shall be executed outside the corporate limits of the city served by the court unless the person authorized by said process shall first contact the applicable law enforcement agency in whose jurisdiction the process is to be served.

(5) Upon a defendant being arrested in another city or county the cost of arresting or serving process thereon shall be borne by the court issuing said process including the cost of returning the defendant from any county of the state to the city.

(6) Said warrant ~~((servers))~~ officers shall not be entitled to death, disability or retirement benefits pursuant to chapter 41.26 RCW on the basis of service as a warrant ~~((server))~~ officer as described in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 74. Section 73 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect June 1, 1991.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 75. Section headings as used in this act do not constitute any part of the law.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 26, 1991

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House refuses to concur in the Senate amendment(s) to ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1780 and asks the Senate to recede therefrom, and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1780 was returned to second reading and read the second time.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Nelson moved that the Senate reconsider the vote by which the Committee on Law and Justice striking amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1780 was adopted April 19, 1991.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Nelson to reconsider the vote by which the Committee on Law and Justice striking amendment was adopted.

The motion by Senator Nelson carried and the Senate will reconsider the vote by which the Committee on Law and Justice striking amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, the Committee on Law and Justice striking amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1780 was not adopted on reconsideration.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, the following amendment by Senators Nelson and Niemi was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

Sec. 1. RCW 9.94A.030 and 1991 c 32 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Collect," or any derivative thereof, "collect and remit," or "collect and deliver," when used with reference to the department of corrections, means that the department is responsible for monitoring and enforcing the offender's sentence with regard to the legal financial obligation, receiving payment thereof from the offender, and, consistent with current law, delivering daily the entire payment to the superior court clerk without depositing it in a departmental account.

(2) "Commission" means the sentencing guidelines commission.

(3) "Community corrections officer" means an employee of the department who is responsible for carrying out specific duties in supervision of sentenced offenders and monitoring of sentence conditions.

(4) "Community custody" means that portion of an inmate's sentence of confinement in lieu of earned early release time served in the community subject to controls placed on the inmate's movement and activities by the department of corrections.

(5) "Community placement" means that period during which the offender is subject to the conditions of community custody and/or postrelease supervision, which begins either upon completion of the term of confinement (postrelease supervision) or at such time as the offender is transferred to community custody in lieu of earned early release. Community placement may consist of entirely community custody, entirely postrelease supervision, or a combination of the two.

(6) "Community service" means compulsory service, without compensation, performed for the benefit of the community by the offender.

(7) "Community supervision" means a period of time during which a convicted offender is subject to crime-related prohibitions and other sentence conditions imposed pursuant to this chapter by a court. For first-time offenders, the supervision may include crime-related prohibitions and other conditions imposed pursuant to RCW 9.94A.120(5). For purposes of the interstate compact for out-of-state supervision of parolees and probationers, RCW 9.95.270, community supervision is the functional equivalent of probation and should be considered the same as probation by other states.

(8) "Confinement" means total or partial confinement as defined in this section.

(9) "Conviction" means an adjudication of guilt pursuant to Titles 10 or 13 RCW and includes a verdict of guilty, a finding of guilty, and acceptance of a plea of guilty.

(10) "Court-ordered legal financial obligation" means a sum of money that is ordered by a superior court of the state of Washington for legal financial obligations which may include restitution to the victim; statutorily imposed crime victims' compensation fees as assessed pursuant to RCW 7.68.035, court costs, county or interlocal drug funds, court-appointed attorneys' fees, and costs of defense, fines, and any other financial obligation that is assessed to the offender as a result of a felony conviction.

(11) "Crime-related prohibition" means an order of a court prohibiting conduct that directly relates to the circumstances of the crime for which the offender has been convicted, and shall not be construed to mean orders directing an offender affirmatively to participate in rehabilitative programs or to otherwise perform affirmative conduct.

(12)(a) "Criminal history" means the list of a defendant's prior convictions, whether in this state, in federal court, or elsewhere. The history shall include, where known, for each conviction (i) whether the defendant has been placed on probation and the length and terms thereof; and (ii) whether the defendant has been incarcerated and the length of incarceration.

(b) "Criminal history" shall always include juvenile convictions for sex offenses and shall also include a defendant's other prior convictions in juvenile court if: (i) The conviction was for an offense which is a felony or a serious traffic offense and is criminal history as defined in RCW 13.40.020(6)(a); (ii) the defendant was fifteen years of age or older at the time the offense was committed; and (iii) with respect to prior juvenile class B and C felonies or serious traffic offenses, the defendant was less than twenty-three years of age at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

(13) "Department" means the department of corrections.

(14) "Determinate sentence" means a sentence that states with exactitude the number of actual years, months, or days of total confinement, of partial confinement, of community supervision, the number of actual hours or days of community service work, or dollars or terms of a legal financial obligation. The fact that an offender through "earned early release" can reduce the actual period of confinement shall not affect the classification of the sentence as a determinate sentence.

(15) "Disposable earnings" means that part of the earnings of an individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of any amount required by law to be withheld. For the purposes of this definition, "earnings" means compensation paid or payable for personal services, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonuses, or otherwise, and, notwithstanding any other provision of law making the payments exempt from garnishment, attachment, or other process to satisfy a court-ordered legal financial obligation, specifically includes periodic payments pursuant to pension or retirement programs, or insurance policies of any type, but does not include payments made under Title 50 RCW, except as provided in RCW 50.40.020 and 50.40.050, or Title 74 RCW.

(16) "Drug offense" means:

(a) Any felony violation of chapter 69.50 RCW except possession of a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.401(d)) or forged prescription for a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.403);

(b) Any offense defined as a felony under federal law that relates to the possession, manufacture, distribution, or transportation of a controlled substance; or

(c) Any out-of-state conviction for an offense that under the laws of this state would be a felony classified as a drug offense under (a) of this subsection.

(17) "Escape" means:

(a) Escape in the first degree (RCW 9A.76.110), escape in the second degree (RCW 9A.76.120), willful failure to return from furlough (RCW 72.66.060), willful failure to return from work release (RCW 72.65.070), or willful failure to comply with any limitations on the inmate's movements while in community custody (RCW 72.09.310); or

(b) Any federal or out-of-state conviction for an offense that under the laws of this state would be a felony classified as an escape under (a) of this subsection.

(18) "Felony traffic offense" means:

(a) Vehicular homicide (RCW 46.61.520), vehicular assault (RCW 46.61.522), eluding a police officer (RCW 46.61.024), or felony hit-and-run injury-accident (RCW 46.52.020(4)); or

(b) Any federal or out-of-state conviction for an offense that under the laws of this state would be a felony classified as a felony traffic offense under (a) of this subsection.

(19) "Fines" means the requirement that the offender pay a specific sum of money over a specific period of time to the court.

(20)(a) "First-time offender" means any person who is convicted of a felony (i) not classified as a violent offense or a sex offense under this chapter, or (ii) that is not the manufacture, delivery, or possession with intent to manufacture or deliver a controlled substance classified in schedule I or II that is a narcotic drug or the selling for profit any controlled substance or counterfeit substance classified in schedule I, RCW 69.50.204, except leaves and flowering tops of marijuana, and except as provided in (b) of this subsection, who previously has never been convicted of a felony in this state, federal court, or another state, and who has never participated in a program of deferred prosecution for a felony offense.

(b) For purposes of (a) of this subsection, a juvenile adjudication for an offense committed before the age of fifteen years is not a previous felony conviction except for adjudications of sex offenses.

(21) "Nonviolent offense" means an offense which is not a violent offense.

(22) "Offender" means a person who has committed a felony established by state law and is eighteen years of age or older or is less than eighteen years of age but whose case has been transferred by the appropriate juvenile court to a criminal court pursuant to RCW 13.40.110. Throughout this chapter, the terms "offender" and "defendant" are used interchangeably.

(23) "Partial confinement" means confinement for no more than one year in a facility or institution operated or utilized under contract by the state or any other unit of government, or, if home detention or work crew has been ordered by the court, in ~~((the residence of either the defendant or a member of the defendant's immediate family))~~ an approved residence, for a substantial portion of each day with the balance of the day spent in the community. Partial confinement includes work release ~~((and))~~, home detention, work crew, and a combination of work crew and home detention as defined in this section.

(24) "Postrelease supervision" is that portion of an offender's community placement that is not community custody.

(25) "Restitution" means the requirement that the offender pay a specific sum of money over a specific period of time to the court as payment of damages. The sum may include both public and private costs. The imposition of a restitution order does not preclude civil redress.

(26) "Serious traffic offense" means:

(a) Driving while intoxicated (RCW 46.61.502), actual physical control while intoxicated (RCW 46.61.504), reckless driving (RCW 46.61.500), or hit-and-run an attended vehicle (RCW 46.52.020(5)); or

(b) Any federal, out-of-state, county, or municipal conviction for an offense that under the laws of this state would be classified as a serious traffic offense under (a) of this subsection.

(27) "Serious violent offense" is a subcategory of violent offense and means:

(a) Murder in the first degree, homicide by abuse, murder in the second degree, assault in the first degree, kidnapping in the first degree, or rape in the first degree, or an attempt, criminal solicitation, or criminal conspiracy to commit one of these felonies; or

(b) Any federal or out-of-state conviction for an offense that under the laws of this state would be a felony classified as a serious violent offense under (a) of this subsection.

(28) "Sentence range" means the sentencing court's discretionary range in imposing a nonappealable sentence.

(29) "Sex offense" means:

(a) A felony that is a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020 or 9.68A.090 or that is, under chapter 9A.28 RCW, a criminal attempt, criminal solicitation, or criminal conspiracy to commit such crimes;

(b) A felony with a finding of sexual motivation under RCW 9.94A.127; or

(c) Any federal or out-of-state conviction for an offense that under the laws of this state would be a felony classified as a sex offense under (a) of this subsection.

(30) "Sexual motivation" means that one of the purposes for which the defendant committed the crime was for the purpose of his or her sexual gratification.

(31) "Total confinement" means confinement inside the physical boundaries of a facility or institution operated or utilized under contract by the state or any other unit of government for twenty-four hours a day, or pursuant to RCW 72.64.050 and 72.64.060.

(32) "Victim" means any person who has sustained emotional, psychological, physical, or financial injury to person or property as a direct result of the crime charged.

(33) "Violent offense" means:

(a) Any of the following felonies, as now existing or hereafter amended: Any felony defined under any law as a class A felony or an attempt to commit a class A felony, criminal solicitation of or criminal conspiracy to commit a class A felony, manslaughter in the first degree, manslaughter in the second degree, indecent liberties

if committed by forcible compulsion, kidnapping in the second degree, arson in the second degree, assault in the second degree, extortion in the first degree, robbery in the second degree, vehicular assault, and vehicular homicide, when proximately caused by the driving of any vehicle by any person while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug as defined by RCW 46.61.502, or by the operation of any vehicle in a reckless manner;

(b) Any conviction for a felony offense in effect at any time prior to July 1, 1976, that is comparable to a felony classified as a violent offense in (a) of this subsection; and

(c) Any federal or out-of-state conviction for an offense that under the laws of this state would be a felony classified as a violent offense under (a) or (b) of this subsection.

(34) "Work crew" means a program of partial confinement consisting of civic improvement tasks for the benefit of the community of not less than thirty-five hours per week that complies with section 2 of this act. The civic improvement tasks shall be performed on public property or on private property owned or operated by nonprofit entities, except that, for emergency purposes only, work crews may perform snow removal on any private property. The civic improvement tasks shall have minimal negative impact on existing private industries or the labor force in the county where the service or labor is performed. The civic improvement tasks shall not affect employment opportunities for people with developmental disabilities contracted through sheltered workshops as defined in RCW 82.04.385. Only those offenders sentenced to a facility operated or utilized under contract by a county are eligible to participate on a work crew. Offenders sentenced for a sex offense as defined in subsection (29) of this section are not eligible for the work crew program.

(35) "Work release" means a program of partial confinement available to offenders who are employed or engaged as a student in a regular course of study at school. Participation in work release shall be conditioned upon the offender attending work or school at regularly defined hours and abiding by the rules of the work release facility.

~~((35))~~ (36) "Home detention" means a program of partial confinement available to offenders wherein the offender is confined in a private residence subject to electronic surveillance. Home detention may not be imposed for offenders convicted of a violent offense, any sex offense, any drug offense, reckless burning in the first or second degree as defined in RCW 9A.48.040 or 9A.48.050, assault in the third degree as defined in RCW 9A.36.031, unlawful imprisonment as defined in RCW 9A.40.040, or harassment as defined in RCW 9A.46.020. Home detention may be imposed for offenders convicted of possession of a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.401(d)) or forged prescription for a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.403) if the offender fulfills the participation conditions set forth in this subsection and is monitored for drug use by treatment alternatives to street crime (TASC) or a comparable court or agency-referred program. Home detention may be imposed for offenders convicted of burglary in the second degree as defined in RCW 9A.52.030 or residential burglary conditioned upon the offender: (a) Successfully completing twenty-one days in a work release program, (b) having no convictions for burglary in the second degree or residential burglary during the preceding two years and not more than two prior convictions for burglary or residential burglary, (c) having no convictions for a violent felony offense during the preceding two years and not more than two prior convictions for a violent felony offense, (d) having no prior charges of escape, and (e) fulfilling the other conditions of the home detention program.

Participation in a home detention program shall be conditioned upon: (i) The offender obtaining or maintaining current employment or attending a regular course of school study at regularly defined hours, or the offender performing parental duties to offspring or minors normally in the custody of the offender, (ii) abiding by the rules of the home detention program, and (iii) compliance with court-ordered legal financial obligations. The home detention program may also be made available to offenders whose charges and convictions do not otherwise disqualify them if medical or health-related conditions, concerns or treatment would be better addressed under the home detention program, or where the health and welfare of the offender, other inmates, or staff would be jeopardized by the offender's incarceration. Participation in the home detention program for medical or health-related reasons is conditioned on the offender abiding by the rules of the home detention program and complying with court-ordered restitution.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 9.94A RCW to read as follows:

Participation in a work crew is conditioned upon the offender's acceptance into the program, abstinence from alcohol and controlled substances as demonstrated by urinalysis and breathalyzer monitoring, with the cost of monitoring to be paid by the offender, unless indigent; and upon compliance with the rules of the program, which rules shall include the requirements that the offender work to the best of his or her abilities and that he or she provide the program with accurate, verified residence information. Work crew may be imposed simultaneously with electronic home detention.

Where work crew is imposed as part of a sentence of nine months or more, the offender must serve a minimum of thirty days of total confinement before being eligible for work crew.

An offender who has successfully completed four weeks of work crew at thirty-five hours per week shall thereafter receive credit toward the work crew sentence for hours worked at approved, verified employment. Such employment credit may be earned for up to twenty-four hours actual employment per week provided, however, that every such offender shall continue active participation in work crews projects according to a schedule approved by a work crew supervisor until the work crew sentence has been served.

The hours served as part of a work crew sentence may include substance abuse counseling and/or job skills training.

The civic improvement tasks performed by offenders on work crew shall be unskilled labor for the benefit of the community as determined by the head of the county executive branch or his or her designee. Civic improvement tasks shall not be done on private property unless it is owned or operated by a nonprofit entity, except that, for emergency purposes only, work crews may perform snow removal on any private property. The civic improvement tasks shall have minimal negative impact on existing private industries or the labor force in the county where the service or labor is performed. The civic improvement tasks shall not affect employment opportunities for people with developmental disabilities contracted through sheltered workshops as defined in RCW 82.04.385. In case any dispute arises as to a civic improvement task having more than minimum negative impact on existing private industries or labor force in the county where their service or labor is performed, the matter shall be referred by an interested party, as defined in RCW 39.12.010(4), for arbitration to the director of the department of labor and industries of the state.

Whenever an offender receives credit against a work crew sentence for hours of approved, verified employment, the offender shall pay to the department administering the program the monthly assessment of an amount not less than ten dollars per month nor more than fifty dollars per month. This assessment shall be considered payment of the costs of providing the work crew program to an offender. The court may exempt a person from the payment of all or any part of the assessment based upon any of the following factors:

(1) The offender has diligently attempted but has been unable to obtain employment that provided the offender sufficient income to make such payment.

(2) The offender is a student in a school, college, university, or a course of vocational or technical training designed to fit the student for gainful employment.

(3) The offender has an employment handicap, as determined by an examination acceptable to or ordered by the court.

(4) The offender is responsible for the support of dependents and the payment of the assessment constitutes an undue hardship.

(5) Other extenuating circumstances as determined by the court.

Sec. 3. RCW 9.94A.120 and 1990 c 3 s 705 are each amended to read as follows:

When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this section.

(1) Except as authorized in subsections (2), (5), and (7) of this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range for the offense.

(2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(3) Whenever a sentence outside the standard range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard range shall be a determinate sentence.

(4) An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years. An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years, and shall not be eligible for furlough, work release or other authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility during such minimum five-year term except for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility. The foregoing minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) In sentencing a first-time offender the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(a) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(b) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense;

(c) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;

(d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer prior to any change in the offender's address or employment;

(e) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer; or

(f) Pay all court-ordered legal financial obligations as provided in RCW 9.94A.030 and/or perform community service work.

(6) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or other legal financial obligations. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(7)(a)(i) When an offender is convicted of a sex offense other than a violation of RCW 9A.44.050 or a sex offense that is also a serious violent offense and has no prior convictions for a sex offense or any other felony sex offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

The report of the examination shall include at a minimum the following: The defendant's version of the facts and the official version of the facts, the defendant's offense history, an assessment of problems in addition to alleged deviant behaviors, the offender's social and employment situation, and other evaluation measures used. The report shall set forth the sources of the evaluator's information.

The examiner shall assess and report regarding the defendant's amenability to treatment and relative risk to the community. A proposed treatment plan shall be provided and shall include, at a minimum:

- (A) Frequency and type of contact between offender and therapist;
- (B) Specific issues to be addressed in the treatment and description of planned treatment modalities;
- (C) Monitoring plans, including any requirements regarding living conditions, lifestyle requirements, and monitoring by family members and others;
- (D) Anticipated length of treatment; and
- (E) Recommended crime-related prohibitions.

The court on its own motion may order, or on a motion by the state shall order, a second examination regarding the offender's amenability to treatment. The evaluator shall be selected by the party making the motion. The defendant shall pay the cost of any second examination ordered unless the court finds the defendant to be indigent in which case the state shall pay the cost.

(ii) After receipt of the reports, the court shall consider whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative and consider the victim's opinion whether the offender should receive a treatment disposition under this subsection. If the court determines that this special sex offender sentencing alternative is appropriate, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range. If this sentence is less than eight years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and impose the following conditions of suspension:

(A) The court shall place the defendant on community supervision for the length of the suspended sentence or three years, whichever is greater; and

(B) The court shall order treatment for any period up to three years in duration. The court in its discretion shall order outpatient sex offender treatment or inpatient sex offender treatment, if available. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment. The offender shall not change sex offender treatment providers or treatment conditions without first notifying the prosecutor, the community corrections officer, and the court, and shall not change providers without court approval after a hearing if the prosecutor or community corrections officer object to the change. In addition, as conditions of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense, crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (I) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (II) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer prior to any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (III) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;

(IV) Pay all court-ordered legal financial obligations as provided in RCW 9.94A.030, perform community service work, or any combination thereof; or

(V) Make recoupment to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime.

(iii) The sex offender therapist shall submit quarterly reports on the defendant's progress in treatment to the court and the parties. The report shall reference the treatment plan and include at a minimum the following: Dates of attendance, defendant's compliance with requirements, treatment activities, the defendant's relative progress in treatment, and any other material as specified by the court at sentencing.

(iv) At the time of sentencing, the court shall set a treatment termination hearing for three months prior to the anticipated date for completion of treatment. Prior to the treatment termination hearing, the treatment professional and community corrections officer shall submit written reports to the court and parties regarding the defendant's compliance with treatment and monitoring requirements, and recommendations regarding termination from treatment, including proposed community supervision conditions. Either party may request and the court may order another evaluation regarding the advisability of termination from treatment. The defendant shall pay the cost of any additional evaluation ordered unless the court finds the defendant to be indigent in which case the state shall pay the cost. At the treatment termination hearing the court may: (A) Modify conditions of community supervision, and either (B) terminate treatment, or (C) extend treatment for up to the remaining period of community supervision.

(v) The court may revoke the suspended sentence at any time during the period of community supervision and order execution of the sentence if: (A) The defendant violates the conditions of the suspended sentence, or (B) the court finds that the defendant is failing to make satisfactory progress in treatment. All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(vi) After July 1, 1991, examinations and treatment ordered pursuant to this subsection shall only be conducted by sex offender treatment providers certified by the department of health pursuant to chapter 18.155 RCW.

For purposes of this subsection, "victim" means any person who has sustained emotional, psychological, physical, or financial injury to person or property as a result of the crime charged. "Victim" also means a parent or guardian of a victim who is a minor child unless the parent or guardian is the perpetrator of the offense.

(b) When an offender is convicted of any felony sex offense committed before July 1, 1987, and is sentenced to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, order the offender committed for up to thirty days to the custody of the secretary of social and health services for evaluation and report to the court on the offender's amenability to treatment at these facilities. If the secretary of social and health services cannot begin the evaluation within thirty days of the court's order of commitment, the offender shall be transferred to the state for confinement pending an opportunity to be evaluated at the appropriate facility. The court shall review the reports and may order that the term of confinement imposed be served in the sexual offender treatment program at the location determined by the secretary of social and health services or the secretary's designee, only if the report indicates that the offender is amenable to the treatment program provided at these facilities. The offender shall be transferred to the state pending placement in the treatment program. Any offender who has escaped from the treatment program shall be referred back to the sentencing court.

If the offender does not comply with the conditions of the treatment program, the secretary of social and health services may refer the matter to the sentencing court. The sentencing court shall commit the offender to the department of corrections to serve the balance of the term of confinement.
