SUBJECT: Senate Committee Services 2010 Interim Work Plan and Activities

We are pleased to provide this 2010 Interim Work Plan and Activities for your reference in the months preceding the 2011 Legislative Session.

The interim work plan is a public planning document containing the major issues that each committee currently plans to consider during the next legislative session. It is used to guide staff in conducting research over the interim and in planning related interim committee activities and hearings. In addition to the items included in this work plan, Senate Committee Staff also respond to the other projects, issues, and research requests of each member of the Senate. In that light, we trust you will find this work plan useful in monitoring the committee's work during the interim.

We have posted this document on our website and will keep it updated as meeting dates and locations become available during the interim. Committee Assembly days are currently scheduled for December 2-3, 2010, but is subject to change. Please consult the website for updated information. Senate Agriculture & Rural Economic Development Committee Workplan Summary - Interim 2010

Project: Air Quality Regulation of Anaerobic Digesters

Completion Date: December 2010 Staff: Sam Thompson

Description: The use of anaerobic digester technology as a means to generate electricity is relatively new in the state and there have been a number of issues as to how these operations should be classified and regulated. Methane and other gases produced by anaerobic digesters are captured and used as fuel for engines that drive generators that produce electricity. Animal manure and food by-products are the inputs for the anaerobic digestion process. The use of digesters is considered as a preferential way of disposing of biodegradable waste as compared to disposing these wastes in landfills. Electricity produced by anaerobic digesters is considered as a renewable source of energy.

A number of jurisdictions, including some regional clean air authorities in this state, have required permits to operate anaerobic digesters. How anaerobic digesters are being classified and regulated will be reviewed.

Project: Conservation District Law Review

Completion Date: December 2010 Staff: Bob Lee/Sam Thompson

Description: Conservation districts were authorized by many states to assist in implementing land and water conservation programs initiated by the federal government in response to the "Dust Bowl" era in the 1930's. The conservation district law was first enacted in this state in 1939. Subsequently, the role of conservation districts has been expanded to include a number of state-initiated conservation and habitat enhancement programs on privately owned lands.

There are 47 conservation districts in the state that operate in 39 counties. The State Conservation Commission serves as the coordinating entity for these conservation districts. The committee will hear from conservation districts and the State Conservation Commission on a variety of issues that pertain to the funding and operation of conservation districts.

Project: Protecting the Viability of Agricultural Land and Critical Areas

Completion Date: December 2010 Staff: Bob Lee

Reference: SSB 6520 (2010), SSB 5248 (2007)

Description: Legislation enacted in 2007 (SSB 5248) instructed the Ruckelshaus Center to hold meetings with stakeholder groups to develop recommendations on protecting the viability of agriculture while also protecting critical areas as required by the Growth Management Act. The 2007 legislation established a deadline of September 1, 2009, for reporting recommendations to the Legislature. Though significant progress was reported, the stakeholders were not yet ready to submit their final findings and recommendations to the Legislature and asked for additional time. An extension of one year was granted by the Legislature until September 1, 2010.

Staff will monitor the meetings of the stakeholders convened by the Ruckelshaus Center. The committee anticipates a briefing on the final report by the Ruckelshaus Center in December.

Senate Agriculture & Rural Economic Development Committee Workplan Summary - Interim 2010

Project: Status of Asparagus Industry

Completion Date: June 2010 Staff: Bob Lee

Description:

Washington had been a leading state in the nation in the production and processing of asparagus, a high value crop. In 1989, the production of asparagus peaked when 32,000 acres were harvested in Washington State. In that year, $24 million was sold to the fresh market and $31 million in sales were to processors. The asparagus industry employed significant numbers of workers during these peak years and supported other jobs in processing, shipping, marketing and other allied fields. Then this industry began to lose its competitiveness due to a number of factors including lower wage rates in competing growing regions and unfavorable international trade policies. The acreage harvested in Washington has since dropped to about 1/5 of its peak, to 6,000 acres, mostly for the fresh market.

As the industry has a proven ability and climate to produce high yields of asparagus, the Washington Asparagus Commission is attempting to regain its competitiveness through various strategies. One key strategy is to work with researchers at Washington State University to develop technology that would allow mechanized harvesting to replace reliance on uncompetitive hand harvesting methods. The committee would be provided with a demonstration on the mechanized harvester in operation during the spring harvest season and gain an understanding of the remaining impediments to the commercialization of this technology.

Senate Early Learning & K-12 Education Committee Workplan Summary - Interim 2010

Project: Achievement Gap Oversight and Accountability Committee

Completion Date: December 1, 2010 Staff: Juliana Roe

Reference: 2SSB 5973 (2009); SB 6778 (2010)

Description: The Legislature formed an Achievement Gap Oversight and Accountability Committee

(AGOAC), with legislative members, to synthesize the findings and recommendations from the 2008 achievement gap studies into an implementation plan, and to recommend policies and strategies to close the achievement gap. The AGOAC recommendations to the 2010 State Legislature included, "Disconnect[ing] state assessments from graduation requirements."

In the 2010 Legislative Session, Senate Bill 6778 was introduced, which would award a high school diploma to students who complete the minimum course requirements for admission to a public four-year institution of higher education as established by the Higher Education Coordinating Board, complete one occupational credit, attain at least a 3.0 cumulative grade point average in those courses, and complete a culminating project and a high school and beyond plan. These students would not have to pass the statewide assessments to graduate from high school. This bill did not pass.

Committee staff will provide research and support to the legislators serving on the Committee; assist with a review of SB 6778 by the AGOAC, if requested, and draft any changes suggested by the AGOAC if directed by a Senate member; and draft other legislation as directed.

Project: Basic Education Program for Highly Capable Students Working Group; and the Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics Working

Group

Completion Date: December 1, 2010 Staff: Susan Mielke

Reference: ESHB 2261 (2009) and ESSB 6444 (2010).

Description: The Governor vetoed section 708 of ESHB 2261 (2009). The veto message provided, among other things, that there is work to be done to establish standards, guidelines, and definitions for what constitutes a highly capable basic education program and the funding level for such a program. The 2010 supplemental operating budget creates a workgroup to address these and other issues and requires a report by December 1, 2010.

Additionally, the supplemental budget created a Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics working group (STEM) working group to create a comprehensive plan to ensure that a pathway is established for elementary schools, middle schools, high schools, postsecondary degree programs, and careers in the areas of STEM, including a timeline for specific actions to be taken. The plan must be submitted to the Legislature by December 1,

Committee staff will monitor and assist both the working groups as appropriate and draft legislation as requested by Senate members.

Senate Early Learning & K-12 Education Committee Workplan Summary - Interim 2010

Project: Early Learning Advisory Council and Early Learning Technical Working

Group

Completion Date: January 1, 2011 Staff: Kim Cushing

Reference: E2SSB 5828 (2007); 2ESB 5617 (2010); SSB 6759 (2010)

Description: In 2007, the Legislature created the Early Learning Advisory Council (ELAC) with legislative members and others to advise the Department of Early Learning (DEL) on statewide early learning community needs and progress. In 2010, the Legislature reduced the total membership from 25 to 23 and specified additional issues for ELAC to address when advising DEL. ELAC meets four times a year.

In 2010, the Legislature created a technical working group to develop a comprehensive plan for a voluntary program of early learning. The working group is convened by the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction and DEL, but must be monitored and overseen by the Quality Education Council (QEC). The working group has a progress report due to ELAC and the QEC July 1, 2011, and a final report and plan due November 1, 2011. The plan must examine the opportunities and barriers of at least two options: a program of early learning under the program of basic education and a program of early learning as an entitlement.

Committee staff will provide research and support to the legislators serving on ELAC, updates on the technical working group, and draft legislation as necessary.

Project: Quality Education Council

Completion Date: January 1, 2011 Staff: Kim Cushing/Susan Mielke/Juliana

Roe

Reference: ESHB 2261 (2009), SHB 2776 (2010), ESSB 6444 (2010), and 2SSB 6696 (2010)

Description: The Quality Education Council (QEC), created by the Legislature in 2009 with eight legislative members and others, was established to recommend and inform the ongoing implementation by the Legislature of an evolving program of basic education and financing, including development of a 10-year strategic plan. The 2010 Legislature added a member of the Achievement Gap Oversight and Accountability Committee to the QEC and additional tasks to be accomplished in the 2010 interim.

Committee staff will provide research and support to the Senate members serving on the QEC and draft legislation as necessary.

Senate Early Learning & K-12 Education Committee Workplan Summary - Interim 2010

Project: Supplemental School Funding Working Group

Completion Date: June 30, 2011 Staff: Elise Greef/Susan Mielke/Dean

Carlson/Dianne Criswell

Reference: ESHB 2261 (2009) and SHB 2776 (2010), Quality Education Council website:

http://www.k12.wa.us/QEC/

Description: In 2009, the Legislature directed the Office of Financial Management (OFM), with the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction (OSPI), to convene a working group beginning in the 2010 interim to develop options for a new system of supplemental school funding through local school levies and local effort assistance. The work group will be made up of designated members and overseen by the Quality Education Council. In the 2010 session, the Legislature modified the start date to April 1, 2010, and the reporting deadline to June 30, 2011, and directed the group to answer additional specific questions.

Legislative staff will work with OFM and OSPI staff during the 2010 interim to provide background and technical assistance, monitor the progress of the group's work, and draft legislation as directed.

Project: The Federal Elementary and Secondary Education Act Reauthorization

Completion Date: December 1, 2010 Staff: Susan Mielke/Kim Cushing

Description: The Federal Constitution, which gives Congress its authority to act, is silent on the subject of education, and therefore public K-12 education is primarily a state and local responsibility. However, the role of the Congress in education has been increasing over time. Generally, state participation in the federal programs is voluntary but if the state accepts federal funds then the state must comply with all of the federal program requirements. Federal funds are responsible for approximately six percent of the total of education funding.

The federal Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) was originally enacted in 1965 and has been reauthorized every five years since its enactment. The most recent reauthorization of the ESEA is known as the No Child Left Behind Act (NCLB) of 2001.

Under NCLB, states are required to establish academic standards and assessments for reading, mathematics, and science. All schools and school districts must ensure that all students are making adequate yearly progress (AYP) on the assessments such that all students will meet the state standards by 2014. Schools and districts receiving federal Title I dollars (not all schools) but not achieving AYP will be identified for improvement, corrective action, restructuring, and rewards to the extent these actions do not conflict with state law. Additionally, NCLB requires that all teachers who teach in specified core academic subjects be highly qualified, meaning fully certificated (not on an emergency or limited certificate) and have passed a state test or have demonstrated competence based on an objective uniform standard of evaluation.

On March 15, 2010, the current administration released its blueprint to reauthorize the ESEA. The blueprint continues to address academic standards and assessments, accountability for states, schools and school districts, and effective teachers and leaders.

Committee staff will update the members on the progress of the reauthorization as it pertains to early learning and K-12 education and draft state legislation as directed.

Senate Economic Development, Trade & Innovation Committee Workplan Summary - Interim 2010

Project: Export Assistance

Completion Date: December 2010 Staff: Jack Brummel/Edward Redmond

Reference: 2SSB 6679 (2010), ESHB 2836 (2010)

Description: There are indications that the US government's goal of doubling exports over the next five years will result in a quiet backing away from its strong dollar policy and benefit firms prepared to sell in foreign markets. New federal export promotion initiatives are being developed. With domestic demand expected to be low for the next few years, exporters may be the driver of job growth. Washington firms wishing to export have found barriers that the state may be able to help them overcome. SB 6679, passed during the 2010 Legislative Session, provides for lending and technical assistance in exporting. The most recent capital budget contains a provision for increased technical assistance and infrastructure to support export growth. The committee will hold a work session with the Joint Legislative Oversight Committee on Trade Policy and the House Committee on Community & Economic Development & Trade to examine federal and state trade policy and programs.

Committee staff will examine options for improved export assistance efforts and consult with Department of Commerce and Export Finance Assistance Center staff. Legislation will be drafted as appropriate.

Project: Private Wastewater Development

Completion Date: December 2010 Staff: Jack Brummel

Reference: SSB 6808 (2010)

Description: A lack of water and wastewater infrastructure has limited infill development in locales defined as urban growth areas under the Growth Management Act. Public funding for the infrastructure can be difficult to obtain. SB 6808 was introduced during the 2010 Legislative Session to provide the Utilities and Transportation Commission (UTC) with regulatory authority over private wastewater services in urban growth areas. The Department of Health (DOH) and the Department of Ecology (DOE) have suggested that, even with UTC regulation, there remain complex issues regarding the assurance of financial viability and long term sustainability of wastewater systems.

Committee staff will work with the UTC, DOH, DOE, and advocates for private wastewater development to identify options for addressing these issues and others raised by SB 6808. Legislation will be developed as appropriate.

Senate Environment, Water & Energy Committee Workplan Summary - Interim 2010

Project: Chemical Policy

Completion Date: December 2010 Staff: Jan Odano

Description: For the past decade there have been various legislative measures to address toxic threats to human health and the environment. Most of these proposals have been a chemical-by-chemical approach. The federal Toxic Substances Control Act is considered outdated and ineffective in controlling and addressing toxic substances. The Department of Ecology, in collaboration with 12 other states, has developed recommendations on reforming the Toxic Substances Control Act and developing a systematic chemical policy approach to address toxic chemicals. States would like a nationwide, systemic chemical policy as well as state authority to implement and manage chemicals of concern.

Staff will review federal legislation, follow other states' actions and legislative proposals on overarching chemical policies and draft legislation as directed.

Project: Conservation Incentives and Renewable Energy

Completion Date: December 2010 Staff: William Bridges

Reference: SB 6656 (2010)

Description: During the 2010 regular session, the Senate Environment, Water & Energy Committee heard

Senate Bill 6656. Among other things, the bill required the Washinton Utillities & Transportation Commission (WUTC) to approve a rate adjustment for conservation savings by investor-owned utilities (IOUs). The bill failed but the discussions it raised prompted the WUTC to undertake two reviews of energy issues this interim: (1) incentives and disincentives for IOUs to engage in conservation, and (2) policy options to encourage IOUs to acquire renewable electricity.

The WUTC will hold several public work sessions this interim to discuss these issues. The process may result in the development of rules or policy statements. Senate committee staff will attend the work sessions and assist in the preparation of any draft legislation as directed.

Project: Federal Climate Change Legislation

Completion Date: December 2010 Staff: Jan Odano/William Bridges

Description: Staff will track and monitor federal legislation addressing clean energy and climate change.

Staff will prepare and draft legislation as directed.

Project: Nuclear Energy

Completion Date: December 2010 Staff: Jan Odano

Description: Developing renewable energy supplies has been central to addressing climate change, energy efficiency, and increasing green jobs. There has been increasing interest in considering nuclear energy as a renewal energy source. Several states are considering or have considered legislation related to permitting, building, or financing new nuclear energy generating facilities.

Staff will review other states' legislation and policies regarding developing new nuclear energy generating facilities and provide an overview. Staff will prepare draft legislation as directed.

Senate Environment, Water & Energy Committee Workplan Summary - Interim 2010

Project: Oil Spill Contingency Plans

Completion Date: December 2010 Staff: Sam Thompson

Reference: SB 6677 (2010)

Description: Large commercial vessels and marine oil terminals and refineries must prepare oil spill contingency plans describing steps that operators will take when spills occur. Operators commonly contract with one of three nonprofit organizations in the state to conduct containment and cleanup operations pursuant to contingency plans. Proposed 2010 legislation sought to require operators to implement contingency plans during unusual circumstances in which spills have not occurred but threaten to occur-e.g., during vessel groundings or after pipeline ruptures. Advocates suggested that early notice and response requirements could improve the effectiveness of containment and cleanup efforts in the event of actual spills.

Staff will monitor interim negotiations regarding this proposal and other proposed changes to contingency plan requirements, conduct research, and, if directed by members, draft legislation.

Project: Universal Service

Completion Date: December 2010 Staff: William Bridges

Description: In the world of telecommunications, "universal service" has meant the goal of providing all citizens with access to the public telephone network at affordable prices. In 1985, the Legislature enacted a policy to preserve universal service; however, it had been the de facto public policy of the state for more than 60 years.

Universal service depends on subsidies to maintain affordability, such as allowing small telephone companies to collect "access charges," which are above-cost prices for routing telephone traffic over their lines. The current subsidy structure is not keeping pace with an increasingly competitive telecommunications market.

The Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission will hold a series of workshops during the legislative interim focused on the future of universal service. Senate committee staff will attend the workshops and assist in the preparation of any draft legislation as directed.

Project: Water Conservancy Boards

Completion Date: December 2010 Staff: Karen Epps

Reference: SB 6581 (2010), ESHB 1832 (2001), SHB 1217 (1997)

Description: In 1997, the Legislature adopted Substitute House Bill 1217 allowing counties to establish water conservancy boards (boards) to enable the processing of water right transfer applications at the local level. Boards process water right transfer applications and issue records of decision. All board decisions are ultimately reviewed and affirmed, reversed, or modified by the Department of Ecology. There are currently 20 boards operating in Washington: 16 on the east side and 4 on the west side. In 2001, various changes were made to the water conservancy board statutes. In 2010, legislation was introduced to allow boards to perform final proof examinations of permitted water uses leading to the issuance of a water right certificate.

Committee staff will review the water conservancy board statutes, review the biennial report due in December 2010, and, if directed by members, draft legislation.

Senate Financial Institutions, Housing & Insurance Committee Workplan Summary - Interim 2010

Project: Adequacy of Notices Sent by Insurers to Insurance Producers Regarding

Changes in Standard Policies

Completion Date: December 2010 Staff: Diane Smith

Reference: SB 6568 (2010)

Description: The 2010 legislation addresses the issue of new exclusions added to standard business insurance policies The issue arose after a loss was sustained by a client that would have been covered by previous policies, but not covered by the then current policy. Widespread disavowal of the prevalence of this circumstance and allegations of unintended consequences will be addressed in interim meetings with the chair, members, insurance producers and their representatives, insurance companies and their representatives, the Office of Insurance Commissioner, and committee staff.

Committee staff will draft any legislation that may be developed for the 2011 session, as directed by members.

Project: Property Tax Foreclosure Swindles

Completion Date: December 2010 Staff: Diane Smith

Reference: SB 6190 (2010), SB 6195 (2010)

Description: Together with the Lewis County Treasurer and Association of Counties' staff, this project will explore alleged statutory loopholes that appear to be exploited by those who seek illicit profits from property tax foreclosures. The statutory framework of property tax foreclosures is a body of law that has evolved since 1893 without a thorough revision. Extensive unintended consequences were alleged in the public hearings on the above referenced bills. These bills proposed to address potential exploitation of the tax foreclosure process.

Committee staff will attend meetings and draft any legislation that may be developed for the 2011 session, as directed by members.

Senate Government Operations & Elections Committee Workplan Summary - Interim 2010

Project: Case Review of Citizens United Supreme Court Decision

Completion Date: December 2010 Staff: Edward Redmond

Reference: http://www.law.cornell.edu/supct/html/08-205.ZS.html

Description: Staff will do a case review of the Citizens United Supreme Court decision, which held that corporations have a 1st Amendment right to freely spend their treasury funds for electioneering communications in a federal election. Committee staff will prepare a presentation for the Committee on the impact of the case on upcoming federal and state elections, looking specifically at how the case has been (or potentially will be) interpreted by lower courts. Possible work session.

Project: Code vs. Non-Code Cities

Completion Date: December 2010 Staff: Sharon Swanson

Description: Municipal governments in Washington are classified according to their population at the time of incorporation or reorganization. Committee staff will work with the Association of Washington Cities and additional stakeholders to reconcile as many differences as possible between code/non-code cities. Additionally, staff will work towards streamlining the process for non-code cities to become code cities.

Project: Disincorporation

Completion Date: December 2010 Staff: Sharon Swanson

Reference: RCW 35.07

Description: Cities and towns in the State of Washington have the authority to disincorporate. Upon disincorporation, the city or town's powers as a municipality are surrendered to the state and county. The city or town ceases to have further duties and all city or town offices cease to exist. The procedure for disincorporation is primarily the same for code cities as it is for non-code cities and towns. Committee staff will work with stakeholders to update the disincorporation statute, RCW 35.07.

Project: King County Elections and Conservation District Elections

Completion Date: December 2010 Staff: Alison Mendiola/Sharon Swanson

Description: The conservation district election process operates differently than the general election process.

Conservation district elections must be held in the first quarter of the year, have a minimum of one polling place that must be held open for a minimum of two hours, must give timely and adequate notice to conservation district constituents, must follow standard polling procedures for qualifying voters, secure ballot boxes, and employ two poll watchers while polls are open.

Committee staff will work with stakeholders to address concerns about a special purpose district, such as conservation districts, administering its own elections, and may draft legislation as directed.

Senate Government Operations & Elections Committee Workplan Summary - Interim 2010

Project: Protecting the Viability of Agricultural Land and Critical Areas

Completion Date: December 1, 2010 Staff: Karen Epps

Reference: SSB 6520 (2010), SSB 5248 (2007)

Description: Legislation adopted in 2007 temporarily prohibited counties and cities from taking certain actions pertaining to critical area ordinances (CAOs). The 2007 legislation also required the Ruckelshaus Center to conduct a two-phased examination of the conflicts between agricultural activities and CAOs adopted under the Growth Management Act. In 2010, legislation was adopted extending the prohibition that counties and cities may not amend or adopt CAOs as they specifically apply to agricultural activities for one year and giving the Ruckelshaus Center one additional year to conclude certain examination tasks. The Center must seek to achieve agreement among participating stakeholders and to develop a coalition to support changes or new approaches to protecting critical areas during the 2011 legislative session.

Committee staff will monitor the stakeholder meetings, review the final report, and draft legislation as directed.

Project: Public Funding for Judicial Campaigns

Completion Date: December 2010 Staff: Edward Redmond

Reference: E2SSB 5912 (2009)

Description: Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill 5912 was introduced during the 2009 Legislative Session. The bill establishes the Judicial Elections Reform Act to introduce a voluntary pilot project to provide an alternative source of financing for candidates for the Washington State Supreme Court.

Committee staff will meet with stakeholders to determine financing options for the program. Additionally, committee staff will address stakeholder concerns about potential constitutional challenges to the program.

Project: Public Records Act

Completion Date: December 2010 Staff: Alison Mendiola

Reference: SB 6368 (2010)

Description: The Public Records Act (PRA) requires that all state and local government agencies make all public records available for public inspection and copying unless they fall within certain statutory exemptions. Any person who is denied the opportunity to inspect or copy a public record may file a motion to show cause in superior court why the agency has refused access to the record. Legislation was introduced in 2010 that would have established a procedure for the requester of a public record and an agency to confer on disputes prior to filing court action.

Committee staff will work with stakeholders on the issue of mediation prior to the filing of lawsuit related to PRA violations and will draft legislation as directed.

Senate Government Operations & Elections Committee Workplan Summary - Interim 2010

Project: Sunshine Committee

Completion Date: December 2010 Staff: Alison Mendiola

Reference: SSB 5435 (2007)

Description: In 2007, the Legislature created the Public Records Exemption Accountability Committee known as the Sunshine Committee (Committee) to review all public records exemptions and make annual recommendations to the Legislature whether to maintain an exemption, modify the exemption, schedule it for sunset review, or terminate the exemption.

Committee staff will continue to attend the quaterly meetings of the Committee and provide summaries to legislative members. Additionally, staff will assist in the drafting of any resulting legislation for the 2011 Legislative Session.

Other Projects:

Affairs.

Senate Health & Long-Term Care Committee Workplan Summary - Interim 2010

Project: National Health Reform Implementation

Completion Date: Ongoing Staff: Rhoda Donkin, Mich'l Needham,

Edith Rice

Reference: ESSB 6444 (2010)

Description: In March 2010, Congress enacted federal health reform legislation which will impact virtually every aspect of health care in this country. While this is federal law, every state is tasked with implementing many of the provisions. In anticipation of the passage of sweeping federal health reform, the Washington state legislature established the Joint Legislative Select Committee on Health Reform Implementation. The committee will discuss state level implementation issues included in health reform. Staff may prepare materials for discussions of major changes in current health programs, initial timelines for state responsibilities, state-level policy decisions related to federal health reform, and potential statutory changes to be considered in the 2011 legislative session. Staff will also coordinate and share information with the Governor's Health Care Cabinet on their implementation and planning efforts and any potential advisory groups involved in health reform implementation.

Project: Women's Health Issues

Completion Date: November 30, 2010 Staff: Rhoda Donkin, Mich'l Needham, attention to those with potential for legislation in the 2011 legislative session. Issues under consideration include maternal and reproductive health, disparities, chronic disease, aging, and access to health care. Staff will include any references in the federal health reform bill that relate to women's health issues.

Edith Rice

Project: Monitor Adult Family Home Abuse/Neglect Study Group

Completion Date: September 20, 2010 Staff: Rhoda Donkin

Description: In April 2010 a study group was convened to address issues related to quality and safety in the state's adult family home system. The group includes a broad representation of stakeholders and will meet four times over the spring and summer. The goal is to provide recommendations to improve quality and capacity in the state's home and community based long term care system. Staff will participate in these meetings and in drafting any legislation that is proposed for the 2011 legislature.

Project: Hospital Emergency Room Services "Balance Billing" Issues

Completion Date: November 30, 2010 Staff: Mich'l Needham

Reference: SB 6400 (2010), SB 6532 (2010)

Description: Legislation introduced during the 2010 session explored options to eliminate the balance billing that patients may experience when they receive care in a hospital emergency department from providers who do not participate with the patient's insurance plan. Legislators, insurance carriers, and physician groups agreed to continue discussions in the 2010 interim to seek a solution that protects patients from balance billing and provides the least disruption in the contracting and negotiating relationship between physicians, insurance carriers and hospitals. Staff will explore options and monitor related developments in the federal health reform bill.

Senate Health & Long-Term Care Committee Workplan Summary - Interim 2010

Project: Prescription Drug Advisory Group and Prescription Drug Issues

Completion Date: November 30, 2010 Staff: Edith Rice

Description: Committee staff will monitor meetings of the Prescription Drug Advisory Group. This group is sponsored by the Office of the Attorney General and initially met in January 2010. The group will continue to meet several times throughout the remainder of the year. Topics discussed by the advisory group have included prescription drug awareness, teen prescription drug abuse prevention, and prescription medication related bills passed during the 2010 legislative session.

Representatives from the Legislature, Office of the Attorney General, physicians, law enforcement, pharmacy board, pharmaceutical manufacturers, nurses, and pharmacists are participants. Staff will research prescription drug related issues and draft legislative proposals as requested.

Senate Higher Education & Workforce Development Committee Workplan Summary - Interim 2010

Project: Accreditation

Completion Date: December 2010 Staff: Aldo Melchiori

Description: As the Legislature contemplates adjustments to how Washington Institutions of Higher Education conduct their academic missions, issues often arise regarding possible adverse effects on accreditation. A more complete understanding of how the accreditation process works would be helpful when these issues arise. Staff will study the accreditation process with an emphasis on how possible future legislation can be drafted to avoid creating accreditation issues.

Senate Higher Education & Workforce Development Committee Workplan Summary - Interim 2010

Project: System Governance

Completion Date: December 2010 Staff: Aldo Melchiori

Description:

Early learning through secondary education administration is a combination of local and state control. Post-secondary education has two separate, but interrelated mechanisms - the Higher Education Coordinating Board and the State Board for Community and Technical Colleges. In addition, the Workforce Education and Coordinating Board influences how post-secondary education is focused. Finally, the Council of Presidents is a quasi-state agency that exercises significant policy-making influence. At various times, there have been efforts to further divide these entities and, conversely, efforts to combine them or encourage them to coordinate their efforts to a greater extent. Before it is determined whether the Legislature should consider changes to educational governance, however, it would be helpful to know what has been done in the past and, if possible, the reasoning behind the development of the present system. Included in this primarily historical task will be an analysis of the strengths and weaknesses of the present system.

The second part of the project is to look at the educational governance systems in the other states. Key governance levels, types, and issues will be identified. When governance systems differ from those in Washington, efforts will be made to summarize key differences and what effect those differences may have upon how that state's governance functions.
